DEATH LIST FROM STORM STILL GROWING

IT IS NOW BELIEVED THAT NEAR A THOUSAND PEOPLE LOST THEIR LIVES.

Corpus Christi, Texas, Sept. 18.—Rapid growth of the death list resulting from the hurricane and tidal wave that swept Corpus Christi and nearby points Sunday caused belief among relief workers and local officials tonight the total dead would approximate 500 persons.

Much of the shore line of Corpus Christi and Nueces bays has not been penetrated by searchers, while only a small proportion of the wreckage in this city has been moved. This, and the continued absence of many persons not heard from since the storm, was responsible for the rising estimate of fatalities.

A thorough survey of the demolished section of the city to-day by an Associated Press correspondent showed block after block of the beach residential section without a vestige of the former beautiful homes that lined Corpus Christi bay from Mar street to the causeway at the tip of north beach.

In the downtown district, utter demolition of some of the city's most important industrial and public plants marked an area extending for six blocks along the water front, and more than a block in width, while beyond, extending back toward the bluff section, every commercial establishment's first floor was wrecked and in some cases the entire building rendered useless, over a corresponding area two blocks wide.

The tremendous property damage is becoming daily more apparent and prominent business men and other observers declared tonight $20,000,000 would be a conservative estimate of the monetary loss in Corpus Christi, in which, it was reliably stated, not more than $350,000 insurance would be paid. Reconstruction of the city is temporarily in the background, civic leaders agree, but the three or four thousand persons homeless must be cared for, and in most cases must be provided immediately with wearing apparel, as a majority lost all personal effects.

To every governor in the United States and to the mayors of many large cities, telegrams appealing for aid have been sent by the relief committee, and to-day responses poured in from every quarter, promising every assistance, and in many cases forwarding money.

Rehabilitation of Corpus Christi, it is becoming increasingly evident, rests largely upon outside sources, for so financially destructive was the storm to local interests it is admitted by the city's foremost citizens that on its own remaining resources the city could not reconstruct, at least for a number of years, any considerable part of the buildings destroyed.

While the work of relief, clearing away of debris and the search for and burial of dead is being pressed in every way possible, it may be weeks, perhaps months, before an accurate recapitulation of the storm's toll can be compiled.

Bodies now being found are in such condition as to make impossible identification from facial features, and the necessity for prompt interment results in dependency on such uncertainties as fragments of clothes or trinkets for completing identification after burial. This accounts for the fact that of the 284 bodies already reported buried, only 82 were identified and in some of those cases full names were not obtainable.

It was declared unofficially tonight that a number of bodies not included in available figures had been buried late to-day across Corpus Christi bay near Portland, but confirmation of this will not be obtainable until tomorrow.

Bodies, almost entirely those of Corpus Christi victims, have been found in the following places and Corpus Christi, 54; White Point, 123; Rosita and Portland, 80; Odem and Sinton, 11; Port Aransas, five; Aransas Pass, two, and Rockport, eight. The last three figures are of dead in those towns alone.

WISCONSIN TO OPEN AT ALBEMARLE THIS WEEK.

Albemarle, Sept. 19.—The Wiscasset and Efrid mills, who have been closed for several weeks, due to labor troubles, will reopen Monday morning but, according to Mayor Groves, many of them are anxious to return to work.

For the past two days it has been thought by many here that a settlement between the strikers of the Wiscasset and Efrid mills and the owners of the mills was nearing a satisfactory agreement but, up till this afternoon, nothing authentic had been given out by the union or the mill officials.

Mayor J. A. Groves, who is also spokesman for the management of the Wiscasset Mills Company, and believed to also be spokesman for the Efrid mills in this particular case, gave out the following statement this afternoon:

"I have had many requests from the mill employees asking me to use my influence to start the mills. The mill management has agreed to start the mills Monday morning, September 22, and work all former employees without discrimination. The whistles will blow Monday morning at the usual time and I trust that there will be no more unfortunate misunderstandings."

(Signed) "J. A. GROVES." Mr. Groves did not state on what terms the agreement was made nor that any agreement had been reached at all other than the above.

PARTLY OSSIFIED MAN AGED 84 AND HEALTHY.

Wilmington, Sept. 19.—Having the unique distinction of being among the few partly ossified human beings in the country and whose case has attracted the attention of millions, Joseph E. Physioc, aged 84, of Baltimore, is a visitor in Wilmington.

Mr. Physioc is probably one of the most unusual beings to visit this city. His collar bone is as hard as stone and the bones of his left arm and his legs are almost osseous. However, despite this unusual solidity of his frame-work, Mr. Physioc moves about with comparative ease, and even with more ability than many men of younger years. In fact this octogenarian is in a state of health that would arouse the envy of other men of his age.

About a year before he neared the 80th milestone, says Mr. Physioc, his bones began to turn to stone. He went to Johns Hopkins, where an X-ray examination disclosed the bones were becoming ossified. The solons of the medical world gathered at the famous Baltimore hospital marveled. And they also told the ossified man the process of ossification would hasten his death. Since then five years have passed and he is well and happy.

Mr. Physioc eats three hearty meals a day and is in general good physical conditions for a man of such advanced years. He can now read a newspaper printed in ordinary news type without the aid of spectacles. Were it not for his frankness as to his age, one would not think he could boast of four score and four years existence.

After his examination at Johns Hopkins the news that a genuine ossified man had been discovered created considerable attention in the country.

Sends Carranza Message.

Washington, Sept. 19.—Text of a message sent by President Wilson under date of September 16 to President Carranza expressing congratulations to the Mexican people on their independence anniversary was made public to-day by the state department:

"I take pleasure," the President said, "in extending to your excellency on this anniversary of the independence of Mexico my cordial felicitations and best wishes for the peace, prosperity and progress of the Mexican people."

Food Prices Increased in August.

Washington, Sept. 19.—Retail prices of food increased one per cent in August, as compared with July, and reached the highest point in the nation's history, despite the government's campaign to reduce the cost of living.

GREAT HARDSHIPS FOR SHIPWRECK SURVIVORS

MEN DRIFTED SIX DAYS WITH ONLY FIVE GALLONS OF WATER AND 100 BISCUITS.

Tampa, Sept. 21.—After drifting six days in an open boat, Chief Officer A. H. Moodie and 10 other survivors on the 11,000-ton steamship Bayrongo, sunk September 11 off the Tortugas, were brought into Tampa by the local fishing smack Ida, which picked them up 80 miles southwest of Egmont Key. Another lifeboat with 24 men from the Bayrongo has not been heard from. Fifteen men, including Capt. T. Eversett and most of the officers, were lost on the ship because the other lifeboats were smashed, but it is reported that they were taken off by the schooner Fannie and Fay, Tampa to Havana. The 11 men brought to Tampa are Chief Officer Moodie, V. Cole, wireless operator; W. Saunders, carpenter; E. Abbott, lamp trimmer; Boatswain Bridle and Firemen T. Brett, A. Sheerin, Edmunds, Dunovan, Griffith and W. Denley.

The Bayrongo foundered in heavy seas without running aground. When the ship listed 60 degrees, the remaining two boats were launched. Moodie and his 10 men had five gallons of water and 100 biscuits. Two days later, running short of water, they spread their coats and caught half a bucket of rain water. Then they caught a few fish and ate them raw. At 3 A. M. September 12 they sighted a big two-masted schooner and sent up distress rockets, but Moodie says the ship paid no attention except to turn and run off in the opposite direction.

The men were almost naked. They poured salt water over their bodies to cool them, and the sun blistered the skin. Many of them have boils and abscesses formed by the exposure. Peter Taylor, English vice consul, is looking after their welfare.

The 11,000-ton steamship Bayrongo, with 7,000 tons of wheat, was bound from Galveston to Marseilles via Norfolk. It is owned by the Bay Steamship Company, London. It was torpedoed in July, 1918, and had been laid up for repairs until it sailed from Southampton last month on this trip. Chief Officer Moodie states that he was on the steamship Bayrongo in July, 1917, which sank a U-boat then, and he was afterwards decorated by King George with the D. S. C., the captain getting the D. S. O. Moodie also has the victory medal, the merchant service medal, the 1914 medal and on his sleeve three gold torpedoes and five yearly service chevrons.

One survivor of the wrecked steamship Lake Winona, a Porto Rican negro, was brought in with the Bayrongo sailors. It is reported that 15 of the Winona crew were afloat in an open boat when a wave washed away all but the negro and an Italian. The latter died later and the negro threw the body overboard.

PRESIDENT OF COTTON MILL IS CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Martinsville, Va., Sept. 18.—R. L. Walker, president of the Martinsville cotton mills and prominent citizen, was fatally injured in an accident to-day. He was superintending the transfer of an iron safe from a heavy wagon to his office when one of the wooden skids supporting the safe broke and caused it to fall. Mr. Walker was caught and crushed beneath the heavy weight. He survived the accident about one hour. Mr. Walker came from Greenville, S. C., to Martinsville 10 years ago to become president of the newly organized Martinsville mill. He made a successful executive and became a popular and useful citizen. His death is universally lamented. He was an alumnus of Wofford College.

Big Strike Ends.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—Chicago's building strike and lockout, which for more than two months had made idle more than 100,000 workers and halted construction contracts aggregating $50,000,000, was announced as ended tonight when the construction employers yielded to the demands of the union carpenters for $1 an hour.

THE PRESIDENT QUOTES ROOSEVELT AND LODGE

SPEAKS TO NEARLY FIFTY THOUSAND PEOPLE AT SAN DIEGO, CAL.

San Diego, Cal., Sept. 19.—An extract from a magazine article written in 1914 by Theodore Roosevelt was read by President Wilson in an address here to-day as an argument in favor of the league of nations.

Speaking to a cheering crowd which filled the great San Diego stadium, the President also quoted from Senator Lodge, one of the most bitter opponents of the treaty in its present form, and declared that in framing the league covenant, the Versailles conference had followed the advice of these and other Republican statesmen.

"I am glad to align myself with such utterances," said Mr. Wilson, while the crowd cheered. "Here in concrete form is the fulfillment of the plan they advocated."

The address was interrupted many times by applause from the crowd, which local officials estimated at more than 50,000. The great amphitheater with its seating capacity of 40,000, was packed, thousands standing in the aisles and on the terraces above.

Speaking from a glass enclosed platform, the President's words were carried out to the distant rims of the stadium by means of an electrical device. Only part of those present could hear him, however, and before he finished there were many empty seats.

San Diego gave the President a noisy welcome, factory whistles shrieking while the party passed up the streets through cheering throngs.

He went first to a hotel where he was welcomed formally by the city officials. Later he was driven through the San Diego exposition grounds. When he entered the stadium, the great crowd stood up and cheered, each person waving a small American flag. In the center of the big horseshoe of color several hundred girls dressed in white were so seated as to spell "Welcome."

The President discussed at length the objection that the British empire might have a preponderance of voting power in the league assembly. It was a "delusion" to be frightened at any such prospect, he said, because there could be no important action by the assembly without the concurrence of American representatives.

The assembly, asserted Mr. Wilson, was largely a debating body, and as such it was only fair to give membership to the British colonies. It would be unjust, he said, to give votes to the small independent nations and exclude such great dominions as Canada.

Declaring the people had not been told the truth about what the treaty contained, Mr. Wilson added, while the crowd cheered again, that if the American public did know the truth, no man would have the audacity to take the risk of trying to impair such an effort toward liberty and justice.

President Praises Treaty.

Praising the labor and self-determination features of the treaty, the President declared that, without the league of nations, the other peace terms would not be worth the paper they were written on. It is a "final decision" which the United States now must make, he added.

Some of the changes proposed in the treaty, the President said, seemed to have it as their object to upset the theory of equality among the nations and put the United States in a special position of privilege. He declared that to go into the league without assuming an equal responsibility would be a "mockery."

"I will not join," he said, "in claiming in the name of justice an unjust position for the country I love and cherish. Neither am I afraid of responsibility. Neither will I scuttle, I will not be a party to belittling America."

Emphasizing the arbitration feature of the covenant, the President said an example of the efficiency of discussion was shown in labor controversies. He asserted that whenever either side to such a controversy refused to discuss its case the

SMALL WOULD PROTECT OUR WATER TRAFFIC.

Washington, Sept. 19.—A new rate making policy for the protection of water transportation was urged before the house interstate and foreign commerce committee to-day by ex-Chairman John H. Small, of North Carolina. Mr. Small asked that the Esch bill be amended so that railroad lines competing with water lines may not destroy water traffic. This should be supplemented, he said, by legislation permitting cities and towns along streams to erect terminals.

These changes, declared Mr. Small, would be of special benefit to interior points of the country. He predicted that the Mississippi, under them would have greater business than it ever enjoyed in the old days.

"You should not permit the interstate commerce commission to fix water rates exclusively on water traffic, but it should fix rates in through traffic that goes by water and rail."

"It is impossible to fix rates exclusively for water carriers that would be fair. There are so many kinds of lines and so many individual boats to be found upon the streams. They vary in a way from the railroads. There are a great many individual boats that have no set time for departure from or arrival at terminals—they are subject to no regular schedules. It is impossible for the interstate commerce commission to fix rates on one class and not on all."

Mr. Small said preventing of rail competition that would destroy water business would be of great aid in building the country and giving a fair deal to people in all sections.

FRENCHMAN MAKES HIS ESCAPE FROM FIRING SQUAD

Paris, Sept. 19.—The dramatic escape early this morning of Pierre Lenoir from death at the hands of a firing squad in the Vincennes woods was the subject of lively conversation in political circles to-day. Lenoir had been tried with Senator Humbert and other defendants on a charge of having communicated military intelligence to the enemy and was sentenced to death.

The firing squad had already taken its place and preparations were being made to escort Lenoir out to meet death when the condemned man begged to be confronted with former Premier Caillaux, who is under charges similar to those on which Lenoir was convicted. The execution was suspended and Lenoir remained in his cell.

Nothing has been officially given out concerning the personalities who may be affected by Lenoir's death-door accusations, but members of the chamber of deputies, in discussing the matter to-day, declared that the Caillaux case was mentioned and also that the name of Ernest Judet, former owner of the Paris newspaper, L'Esclair, who is under indictment here on a charge of having dealing with the enemy in the purchase or founding of French newspapers with German capital came up. Judet, for a long time has been in Switzerland. The arrest of another member of the chamber of deputies and also of a prominent newspaper owner is said to be expected shortly in connection with Lenoir's statement, and it was even asserted that his revelations might cause a reopening of the Humbert case.

Officers Greet Pershing.

Washington, Sept. 19.—More than 2,000 commissioned officers, ranging all the way from veterans whose service records date back to Indian uprisings to the newest lieutenant shook hands to-day with General Pershing at a reception in Secretary Baker's office. As each man passed he was introduced, saluted and received a hearty handshake.

The ceremony was in progress more than two hours. Among those passing before him, General Pershing recognized scores who had served under him in France.

Presumption was that it was on the wrong side.

It would be the "death warrant" of the children of the country, declared the President should the league fail.

ALL HOUSES ON ISLAND DESTROYED BY STORM

SURVIVORS WITHOUT WATER 11 DAYS AND LACKED FOOD NEARLY AS LONG.

Miami, Sept. 21.—A tale of suffering, hardship and privation unsurpassed by any growing out of the tropical hurricane which passed over the southern end of Florida and Cuba recently and did so much damage at Corpus Christi and other Texas towns, has been brought here from North Elbow Bay by submarine chaser 335. Waves swept entirely over the island, which is 40 feet high, destroyed all houses except the lighthouse, and filled the inhabitants' cisterns with sea water. The islanders were without water 11 days and food almost as long.

Wind and wave struck the islet with such force that large pieces of rock were torn away and swept into the sea. Not a vestige of human habitation was left, save only the lighthouse in which the 12 survivors huddled and awaited the arrival of the help they prayed for.

North Elbow Bay is in the straits of Florida about half way between the Florida peninsula and Cuba. It is visited once in three months by a Cuban government vessel with supplies and mail.

Two goats of the comparatively large flock on the island were left by the storm, and these were eaten. All other food supplies were washed away.

Sepulchers in which bodies of former residents were buried were torn open by the giant waves and the coffins carried away by the waves.

A Cuban gunboat searching for the missing Spanish steamship Valbanera was signalled on the 16th, but was unable to furnish the water requested. A wireless message from the gunboat to Nassau, Bahamas, and relayed to Key West and Miami, caused the submarine chaser 335, stationed here, to be sent to the rescue with water and food.

MORE THAN THREE HUNDRED HAVE BEEN DROWNED.

Key West, Sept. 19.—A sunken steamer on which divers reported they could plainly make out the name "Valbanera" was found to-day near Rebecca shoals light house, 40 miles from here. The Spanish steamer Valbanera with about 300 passengers on board has been missing since the hurricane 10 days ago.

In addition to the passengers the Valbanera carried a crew of 150, it was said here. No trace of either passengers or crew has been found. The Valbanera arrived off Morro Castle, Havana, September 9, but due to the tropical hurricane which swept these waters at that time was unable to enter port. She put to sea and although wireless calls supposed to have come from the Valbanera have been reported, she had not been located. Cuban gunboats have been sent to search for her and it was suggested seaplanes might go out from Key West on the same mission.

The steamer, was found to-day, sunk in 40 feet of water in the quicksands, by a United States coast guard vessel.

Death Toll Increasing.

Corpus Christi, Sept. 21.—Fuller reports received to-day from devastated storm area, of which Corpus Christi is the center, swell the death toll of last Sunday's hurricane and confirm estimates that the property damage will exceed $20,000,000.

News filtering in from the surrounding country, with the partial resumption of wire communication continues to emphasize the magnitude of the catastrophe.

Wilson Signs Act on Train.

On Board President Wilson's Special Train, Hornbrook, Cal., Sept. 18.—President Wilson to-day signed an act of Congress incorporating the American legion, an organization of veterans of the world war. President Wilson met his first California crowd at Hornbrook when the train was met by a crowd including many school children. He stood on the rear platform for several minutes shaking hands. The crowd cheered.

CRIMINAL COURT TERM CONCLUDED SATURDAY.

Superior court, in session for a week for the trial of criminal cases, expired by limitation Saturday afternoon, shortly before 5 o'clock, Judge Bryson announcing the adjournment would not be taken so that any matters needing the attention of the court could be handled up to midnight. The final day of the session was featured by the case charging J. W. Kizee and Lucille Young, white, with immoral conduct, a charge to which the couple had pleaded guilty in Municipal court, and to which the young woman made no change in the higher court. Kizee, who had given bond as a result of the young woman placing her automobile on sale, failed to put in an appearance and the bond, $500, was declared forfeited.

The attorney for the young woman asked that she be allowed to return to her home in Virginia, where she might try to forget Kizee. "If the man were here," said the judge in reply, "I might permit her to return to her home, for I would make it certain that if she saw him again for many months to come it would be from a distance."

The rather long docket was wiped clean by continuance of a number of cases and the calling out of several defendants to renew their bonds so that their cases might go over until the December term of court. The following entries were ordered by Judge Bryson before court expired:

Ralph Watlington, negro, of Oak Ridge, charged with highway robbery, not guilty.

L. H. Edgerton, assault with a deadly weapon, continued.

A. Bodenhamer, carrying a concealed weapon, not guilty.

John Henderson, negro, having whiskey for sale, 12 months on the county roads. Henderson was a member of the party from Philadelphia which sought to import 62 quarts into Greensboro. Other members of the party gave bonds, which they forfeited. The automobile used was confiscated.

Scott Kiser, of High Point, former official of one of the labor unions, was fined $75 and taxed with the costs in one charging him with retailing; in another retailing case prayer for judgment was continued, as was done in a third case charging gambling.

Lonnie Thomas, negro, carrying concealed weapons, six months on the county roads. In the case charging the defendant with having whiskey in his possession for the purpose of sale a sentence of 12 months, a total of 20, was imposed. Oscar McCannless, having whiskey in his possession for the purpose of sale, 12 months on the county roads.

Lee McLean and Thomas Wells, negroes, charged with obtaining money from a young boy by false pretenses, were adjudged guilty and each were sentenced to serve a term of two years in the state penitentiary.

Irving Padgett, breaking and entering, 12 months on the county roads. There were two other cases based on identical charges against Padgett, in each of which prayer for judgment was continued.

Will Fox, negro, charged with operating an illicit distillery in the vicinity of the fair grounds, was sentenced to serve a term of 12 months on the roads of the county. He will not wear stripes.

Seven defendants were called out to renew their bonds so that their cases might be continued just before the session closed.

SURPRISE MARRIAGE OF A PROMINENT YOUNG COUPLE.

A marriage that was a surprise to many of their friends here was that of Mr. R. A. Fleming, Jr., of this city, to Miss Mary Cottrell, of Oak Ridge, which was solemnized in Winston-Salem Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock by Rev. J. D. Williams. Miss Cottrell is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cottrell, of Oak Ridge, and is very popular with her acquaintances. Mr. Fleming is a promising young business man of this city, being proprietor of the Fleming Seed Company. He was accompanied to Winston-Salem by Mr. T. K. Causey. ### SUPERIOR COURT CASES ARE CONTINUED.

Wednesday was to have been what is generally known as "High Point day" in Superior court, it having been previously set aside for cases originating in the neighboring city. But the highway case went so far into the day that but one or two High Point cases were heard, despite the fact that the court room was filled with representatives from that place who were present to hear, be tried or to testify. Flavel Jones, Marvin Johnson and Carl Murray, white youths, all of High Point, were charged with operating automobiles without having proper license. Guilt was pleaded and found and judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs.

Arthur Deberry, of High Point, negro, was charged with committing an assault in which a smaller white man was rather roughly handled. A verdict of guilty was brought in by the jury, but sentence was withheld until later in the term.

The state took a nol prosequere charge James T. Lovelace, white, with abandonment.

The case charging W. J. Harbourn, a young white man, with an assault with a deadly weapon—a pistol—on Patrolman Edward Glenn, of the Greensboro police force, was given to the jury just before court recessed for the day.

The shunting off or continuance of a number of cases on the docket for the present session of Guilford Superior court Friday resulted in remarkable headway being made toward clearing a greatly congested schedule of cases. Many cases which the court authorities had found it impossible to try at the present term were, upon request of Solicitor J. C. Bower, ordered continued to the term of court commencing December 8 by Judge T. D. Bryson. Some few cases were completed.

The progress made toward clearing away the congestion during the day was as follows:

Albert Culler, larceny of an automobile from W. M. Thacker, of High Point, continued until the December term, the defendant being given 10 days in which to renew his bond.

R. W. Miller, white, charged with the larceny of an automobile belonging to Frank Brooks, not guilty.

John Henderson and Luther Jones, having whiskey in their possession for the purpose of sale, not guilty; Henderson, guilty, but not sentenced.

W. S. Cournow, gambling, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $15 and the costs.

W. S. Cournow, attempt at arson, not pros.

W. F. Dehman, assault with in-

BONDSMEN GIVEN CHANCE

TO DELIVER UP THE MEN.

Judge T. D. Bryson sat in Superior court room for about 30 minutes Friday night hearing the pleas of bondsmen, through attorneys, for the continuance of certain cases until the December term for the trial of criminal cases. The principal reason for the extra sitting was the desire on the part of certain bondsmen to be given two more months in which to procure defendants for trial before the bonds would be declared forfeited. As a result, L. M. Lowdermilk, security to the extent of $1,000 for C. R. Brady, convicted about a year ago of bringing about an abortion, will have until the December term to produce his man or else suffer the loss of the bond money. Brady, it will be remembered, after being convicted was granted a reprieve by Governor Bickett until October 1, on condition that he have no further relations with Polly Sinclair, the woman in the case. Brady failed to live up to his part of the agreement and the governor cancelled the reprieve, whereupon Brady, getting news of what had happened, left for parts unknown.

The $1,000 bond put up by J. F. Knight, Ralph Sykes and Miss Sykes to insure the appearance for trial of J. L. Walters, charged with the theft of Frank Brooks' automobile, was declared forfeited. Of the total amount the woman, Miss Sykes, put up $700 in cash.

Henry Cross, white, of High Point, forfeited the bond of $200 required to insure his appearance to stand trial under a charge of having whiskey in his possession for the purpose of sale. J. L. Low was the bondsman.

J. B. Holder and T. J. Moser, High Pointers, must produce Marvin Cheek, white, charged with vagrancy, in December or pay his bond, $200. And the aged grandfather of Cheek, J. C. Hubbard, must produce him to stand trial under charge of stealing his step-father's automobile or lose $650. Cheek spent Wednesday at court; Thursday he was gone.

Greek Emerson, negro, who came from Philadelphia with an auto load of whiskey, forfeited his cash bond of $200.

S. S. Osborne, white, failed to show up for trial for having too much whiskey in his possession and his bondsman, Dr. C. E. Moore, was given until December to produce him.

THROWER OF EGGS IS GIVEN A ROAD SENTENCE.

Reuben Vail, white, of High Point, charged with engaging in the throwing of overripe eggs and other missiles at J. H. Petty, general manager, and other officials of the Alma Furniture Company, the plant of which was picketed by 300 to 400 union men on the morning of September 5, was Friday afternoon sentenced to serve a term of 30 days on the roads of Guilford county by Judge T. D. Bryson, presiding over the present session of Superior court for the trial of criminal cases. During the afternoon a mistrial was ordered in the case charging Ed Stevenson, indicted at the same time as Vail, with an assault on Mr. Petty.

The verdict of the jury was that Vail was guilty of a simple assault and Judge Bryson, in pronouncing sentence, stated that Vail was not identified with either side of the recently ended High Point controversy, capital or labor. Therefore, he would give him the limit under the charge. Vail was permitted to give bond in the sum of $300 to insure his being present to start work on the roads on October 1. This time was given him in order to get his business affairs in shape.

Another case of general interest was heard during the day. It charged Scott Kiser, erstwhile treasurer of the Woodworkers' Union at High Point, arrested in a raid on union headquarters late one Saturday night, with retailing. The jury returned with a verdict of guilty in this case late in the afternoon, but sentence was not pronounced. Kiser, in a case charging gambling, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $25 and taxed with the costs.

TOBACCO IS BRINGING GOOD PRICES GREENSBORO MARKET

To-day will witness the beginning of another week of activity on the Greensboro tobacco market with indications pointing to continued successful operations both from the standpoint of quantity of sales and level of prices.

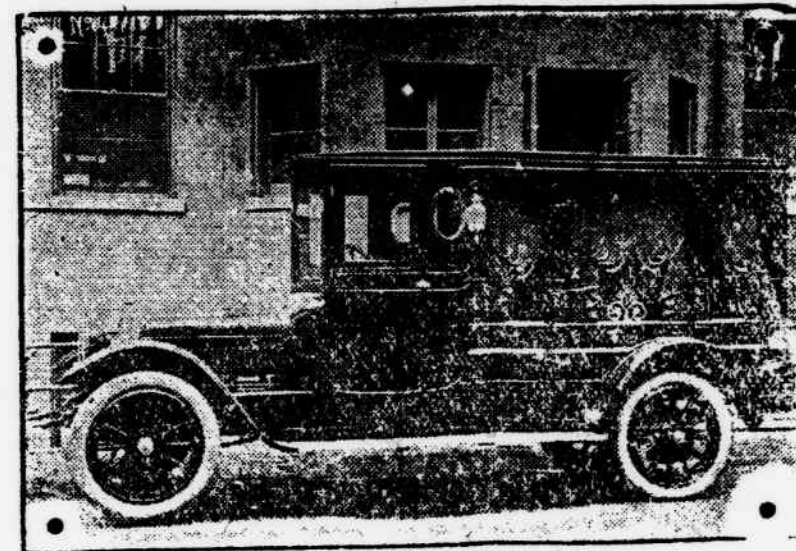

The past week was marked by the season's first appearance of a full corps of buyers, all of the companies having been represented here since last Tuesday morning. Arrival of all the buyers greatly stimulated sales and also had a helpful effect upon prices, which have shown a pronounced upward tendency.

Lugs, for example, once looked upon with infinite scorn by experienced tobacco men, last week commanded very fancy prices on the local market, selling, in some instances, for $80 per 100 pounds. One grower disposed of a large quantity of lugs here last week, securing an average price of $74 per 100 pounds. Many other cases largely similar were reported, the demand for lugs exceeding all previous records in this part of the country.

Nor were fancy prices confined to lugs. Despite the fact that much tobacco of inferior grades was disposed of last week, the average price paid for tobacco of all grades on the local market was in excess of 40 cents on every one of the five days in which sales were conducted.

Notwithstanding the fact that excellent prices are being paid for tobacco on the Greensboro market, some farmers who live almost in the shadow of this city are taking their crop to other towns, a fact which is inexplicable, according to the view of those familiar with conditions on all markets of this section. While advantages equally as attractive, and, in some instances, more attractive, may be obtained by marketing the product here, it is pointed out, some growers take their product to more distant markets, Winston-Salem, Burlington and Reidsville being mentioned as conspicuous examples.

However, growers who sell their tobacco in Greensboro aver that this is an ideal market and they, too, insist that even larger amounts should be sold here.

BANDMASTER IS CONVICTED OF CONTEMPT OF COURT.

Bandmaster Walters, of the Field minstrels, was Thursday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock held in contempt of court by Judge Bryson, presiding over the present session of Superior court for the trial of criminal cases. The bandmaster was hailed into court after the judge had found it necessary for the second time to call a halt to the proceedings because of the noise made by the band while on parade and in street concert. A fine of $25 and the costs was paid by the musical director of the Field aggregation for putting two separate stops to the mill of justice.

Shortly after 11 o'clock the band began to give a concert immediately in front of the postoffice building, which is close to the court house. The lively airs put an effective stop to court business and the sheriff was dispatched to the scene of the concert to inform the bandmaster that court was being disturbed and that such annoyance should forthwith cease. The band moved to in front of the Dixie building and finished the court.

The line of march led down South Elm to the passenger station where about face was called. Just as the band reached Sycamore street on its return to the Municipal theater, another number was started. As the marchers reached Market street Sheriff Stafford was again called upon to stop the music and the stopping resulted in the leader of the musicians being hailed into court to show why he was not in contempt.

A representative of the minstrel company stated that the offense charged against Mr. Walters was unintentionally committed; that the bandmaster as well as the other members of the troupe refrained from playing just as soon as they reached a point on their return up South Elm street that they judged was too near the court house.

IT IS AN ECONOMY TO DO ALL YOUR BUYING IN A STORE WHERE ONE PRICE IS THE RULE

It's a fact that stores where two prices for the same goods is the rule have a greater expense than the one price store—for when a sale is made in a store of this kind the customer must be sold twice—once on quality and once on price—all of which takes extra time—extra time means extra clerks—extra clerks means greater prices to the customer. So while a two price store will break the first price asked you may be sure that you pay more than you should in the end.

How different in a store like this where the one price system is the rule—here we mark our goods at a fair profit—and we can do it because here a customer is sold only once—either on price or quality, which eliminates the extra expense that means extra cost to you, this method allows a quicker outlet for goods which means an additional reduction in costs, and last but not least you never leave this store with the suspicion that perhaps after all you have been imposed upon in your purchase. Think it over, we are sure that you will realize the wisdom of shopping here where the one price system is the rule and our Money Back Guarantee goes with each sale.

THE COMMUNITY FAIRS.

We wish to encourage in every way possible the movement and efforts to establish community fairs.

There are opportunities in these community fairs for improvement and development that do not exist at the larger fairs. The people come closer together, know each other, find out how each other does things and produces what he has on exhibition, in a way that can not be done at the larger fair.

At the community fair if a farmer has had good success with some particular produce on his farm, has made some special yield of wheat or corn, he can sit down with his neighbors and tell just how it was done and give the benefit of his experience to his neighbors in a way that can not be done at the larger fairs.

This same process can be carried on in every department of the community fair. The housewives can give their experience in their methods of making preserves, pickles, canning fruit and so on.

By all means let our people do all they can to encourage these community fairs—they are indeed worth while and we congratulate those communities that have planned to have these fairs this year and hope many more will do likewise next year.

HELP MAKE CENTRAL CAROLINA FAIR GREAT.

Mr. John L. King, secretary of the Central Carolina fair, and his associates are planning to make the greatest fair ever held, and we wish to urge the farmers to help them make it so.

We want to see some of the best that Guilford county and surrounding counties produce on exhibition at the fair this year. There was no fair last year on account of the epidemic at that time, and we want to see two fairs in one this year—and that is what the managers in a large measure propose to do.

For our canning clubs, our rural schools, our poultry clubs, pig clubs and all the activities that have been carried on in the county make a showing of what they have done and are doing.

PERSHING IS RIGHT.

In his remarks to Congress assembled in joint session to do him honor on last Thursday General Pershing was given a tremendous applause when he said: "The great achievements, the high ideals, the sacrifices of our army and our people belong to no party and no creed."

All thoughtful people will most heartily concur in this opinion of our distinguished general. We are especially glad he said this in the halls of Congress where it needed to be said—of all places in this country Congress was the place to speak such words of wisdom.

It has been heart sickening to read what some of our senators have said in Congress. They have not been able to think or speak except in terms of party or creed in connection with the treaty—and we hope that the words of Pershing will give them a breadth of vision which they have so much needed for some time.

THE ROOSEVELT MEMORIAL.

It is fitting that Democrats as well as Republicans should join in and take part in raising the funds for the Roosevelt memorial.

While Roosevelt had his faults, as all men do in this world, still he was a very great man in some respects. He stood for national righteousness with a boldness that is to be highly commended.

He stood for publicity in public affairs as a means to put to rout grafters—and the whole world recognizes the value of publicity on the public and official acts of men as it has never done before.

His sympathy for and his interest in people of all classes and conditions won for him followers and admirers in every walk and condition of life. He had a passion for justice and freedom for all that is a characteristic of all truly great men.

EDITOR JOHNSON ON DIAMOND RINGS.

Editor Johnson, of Charity and Children, says: "It seems essential now for a young man to furnish his bride-to-be with a diamond ring before the wedding. It is a foolish custom and should be discouraged. Many a chap buys a diamond for his girl who would much better put his money in a good cow."

The idea of Editor Johnson writing of brides, diamond rings, and a cow all in the same breath. This simply shows that Brother Johnson has ideas that are practical, that he lives the real simple life, and has no time for some of the modern ideas of the lads and lassies of this day and generation.

SUCH POLICEMEN ARE TRAITORS.

A policeman is an officer who takes a solemn oath to protect life and property and uphold and enforce the laws of the community he serves—whether the city or town is large or small—and the policeman who leaves his post of duty to join a crowd of strikers as did the policemen of Boston are traitors—and most people know the kind of medicine that is given to traitors of any country.

GOOD FOR MAYOR MCNINCH.

Mayor McNinch has proven himself to be on the job in the matter of handling food stuff for the people of the city of Charlotte. He not only gave his people the opportunity to purchase the government goods and reduce the cost of living—but he also made a neat little sum of money, which will be used in providing a merry Christmas for worthy poor families in Charlotte. Would that we had more mayors like McNinch in North Carolina.

Of course the pro Germans and saloon folks whooped it up for Hi Johnson, in St. Louis. These are the folks who elected Senator Reed to the United States senate instead of a genuine American citizen.

BOTH SIDES PREPARING FOR TEST OF STRENGTH.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 19.—Preparations for the test of strength between organized labor and capital in the steel industry throughout the United States to begin Monday went forward to-day with both sides apparently confident of the outcome. There were no official statements forthcoming from either side, but informal talks indicated they were ready for the contest.

Representatives of steel companies in the Pittsburgh district let it be known they intend to operate their plants Monday and also let the impression go out they do not look for as large a walkout as union leaders assert will take place. Organized labor expects a big turnout of men and predicts the employers would receive a surprise.

All the national leaders of unions involved in the strike had left the city tonight for their respective headquarters to make final plans for the strike, and much of the activity about the offices of the steel workers national committee had to do with the preparations in the Pittsburgh district. While national headquarters are in this city, in charge of William Z. Foster, secretary of the national committee, it was learned much of the work will be conducted by districts.

Mr. J. G. Beard, of High Point, Route 2, has our thanks for renewal sent in. Let others do likewise.

KITCHIN OBJECTS TO CONGRESSIONAL PRESENT.

Washington, Sept. 19.—A proposition to have Congress give General Pershing a $10,000 sword, in addition to the thanks of Congress for his part in prosecuting the war against Germany, made considerable headway here last week but stout opposition from Representative Claude Kitchin killed it. Mr. Kitchin took the ground that Congress has done enough for General Pershing, and should now turn its attention to the soldiers under him.

A strong undercurrent of opposition in the house to presenting General Pershing the sword resulted in eliminating that item from the resolution extending thanks of Congress to the military leader.

By eliminating the provision for a sword, Chairman Kahn, of the house military affairs committee, headed off a debate that might have developed intense feeling and delayed adoption of resolution of thanks. Representative Kitchin threatened to take the floor in opposition. He and others declared that it was improper to give the sword in view of the work of the boys who fought on the battlefield.

Mr. Kahn declared the men opposing the gift, "are largely the same men who opposed the declaration of war, the selective service act, and other measures intended to vigorously prosecute the war."

"They are playing petty politics in an effort to square their war record," said he.

"I intend to call up the sword resolution later, and I am sure that it will be passed by a large majority. It could have been passed today, but the opposition had several speeches ready, and I thought debate of it might mar the congressional reception to General Pershing on Thursday."

"The pacifists' objection is manifest in the opposition, for some members have mentioned to me that giving General Pershing the honor he deserves for doing a big job well would be fostering militarism. Of course that's ridiculous," finished Mr. Kahn.

Fire at Augusta.

Augusta, Ga., Sept. 21.—Fire in the David Naakman warehouse tonight caused insured damage of $35,000 on the building and $40,000 on the cotton stored there.

Health About Gone

Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. — had us get Cardui. . . I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

The Woman's Tonic

She writes further: "I am in splendid health . . . can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition." If you are nervous, run-down and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health, like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.

Looses Eye Result of Accident.

High Point, Sept. 19.—R. E. Sayles, a white man of this city, lost the sight of one of his eyes yesterday as the result of an accident at the new city water plant.

Mr. Sayles, who is employed as a carpenter at the plant, was endeavoring to drive a 20-penny nail into a huge piece of scaffolding, it is said, when the nail suddenly glanced, striking him in his right eye.

The unfortunate man was taken to a local sanatorium for medical attention and is said to be resting easy to-day.

Several of the Greensboro Presbyterian people attended the Orange Presbytery at North Wilkesboro last week.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

GIBSONVILLE.

Our school has opened for work with Supt. J. H. Joyner at the head. There is a very large enrollment, with more teachers than before. But books—why is it that there is always such a long time to wait for books for the children? It was six weeks—so it was said—before some ordered books came last year. If the teachers don't have the help of text books, it must be more difficult for the average teacher to do her work. With the teacher that is a walking university, it makes no difference, much about books; but how many teachers are that sort?

Mrs. R. A. Thomas is now at a High Point hospital, where she underwent an operation, and is doing well. They look for her home soon.

The Gibsonville Hardware Company have moved their front-store goods to their new brick building, where their friends may find hardware now.

H. F. Huffines is remodeling the large building, vacated by the hardware folk, to suit the business of a department store. To see the sidewalk barricaded with scaffolding, and the workmen, including Mr. Huffines, as busy as they can be tearing out and putting in such as fits the plan, make one think the war is over and peace and prosperity come to remain.

M. L. Fogleman and five other members of his family have been in bed, at the same time, afflicted with tonsillitis. Some were apprehensive of its being influenza; but, if so, it was not like the influenza of last fall and winter. This was sore-throat and sore mouth, with fever for a day or two, followed by general debility for a few more days. These people have been troubled the same way, in Gibsonville and surrounding country, from middle of last fall to now; but the writer knows of no cases at present. The sufferers are all up and at their work again.

Dry is the weather, and about everything else in Gibsonville. Not any dampness; and the weather is so dry that there is scarcely any dew any more. Bushes in the woods places. Young corn, away from low places. Young corn, away from low ground, has about dried up. Young and tender roasting-ears, in some places, hang down like dry corn. The dust on the highways makes traveling dangerous, as well as unpleasant. There has been no rain here, but a little, since the extreme heat of a number of weeks ago. No plowing is being done, and turnips, peas, potatoes, celery, clovers, are hard hit.

"The League of Nations" and "High Cost of Living" are topics of discussion hereabouts. Most seem to think President Wilson will carry his points, but that it is hard to tell him. When it comes to clothes, it is very much like the old adage: "Good common sense makes all the difference in the world." If five or six dollar shoes are as well, and are as good as one dollar shoes, why buy the higher priced shoes? A lady asked a Greensboro firm for cotton stockings. She was shown some at a dollar a pair. She did not buy them. At another place in the same town she bought cotton stockings the same day at fifty cents the pair. Why the difference?

Mr. Oscar L. Hayms, of Bena College, Kentucky, has The Patriot sent to him.

JAMES N. RICHARDSON

PASSES AT RIPE AGE.

As he was nearing his 93rd birthday James N. Richardson, well known Greensboro citizen, died last night at 8.15 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. L. Trogon, 803 Pearson street. Death was attributed to the natural infirmities which accompany advanced age and was not unexpected.

Mr. Richardson, who was born in Prince Edward county, Va., later moved to San Marco county, Texas, and he spent a number of years in the Lone Star state. Thirty years ago he moved from San Marco county to Greensboro, and he has resided here constantly since that time. He was perhaps best known as a teacher, having devoted many years to that profession.

Surviving are two sons, Dr. W. J. Richardson, of this city, and Dr. E. E. Richardson, of Leakeville, and a daughter, Mrs. S. L. Trogon, of Greensboro. For a long time Mr. Richardson lived with his son, Dr. W. J. Richardson, in fact, they lived together 56 years. Miss Mabel Wyche, a granddaughter of Mr. Richardson, lives in this city.

The funeral services will be conducted at the home of Dr. Richardson, 615 West Gaston street, this afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. E. L. Bain, D. D., pastor of West Market Street Methodist church, of which Mr. Richardson was a member, assisted by Rev. S. B. Turrentine, D. D., president of Greensboro College for Women. Burial will be in Greene Hill cemetery.

SENSATION SPRUNG BY

BUNCOMBE GRAND JURY.

Asheville, Sept. 19.—An investigation of the roads now under construction in Buncombe county, the first of its kind ever attempted by a grand jury, to-day revealed startling discrepancies, macadam roads which should have been seven inches thick were found to be only four. Chairman B. A. Patton, of the county commissioners, in a statement issued at noon to-day stated that the county board would force the contractors to make good the roads and every effort would be taken to see that the remainder of the contracts would be carried out. The roads found to be short are being constructed in the Inanda section, along Bent creek, the work being done by Horace A. Wells and the Southern Dray Company.

Foreman Allen Coggins, of Swannanoa, of the grand jury, stated to-day after the first investigation had been made the contractors asked him what his findings were and telling them, they held a meeting, stating that the specifications of the engineer, under whom the bids were asked and the contracts let, called for nine inches macadam rolled to seven and that nine inches would not roll to seven, but to five and less. This position is also taken by Otto Israel, county commissioner of public highways also, who says he told the engineer at the time that nine inches would roll to less than seven inches.

The report created a great deal of interest among the county officials and contractors and is the first report of its nature ever made by a grand jury in this county. Saturday, when it was learned that the grand jury would probably make its report that day, although it was postponed at the last minute to Monday, a meeting of the members of the firms having the contracts was held and a decision was reached that if the county commissioners would tell them what to do and how to do it they would follow instructions.

Foreman Coggins, of the grand jury, said that he inspected personally two stretches of macadam road, after completion, in the Inanda section and was able with his shoes to kick a ditch six inches deep across the road and to kick up at will rocks as large as a man's fist anywhere in the road. The contractors claim that this is possible after a roller has been over the road, but after it has been thrown open for travel for a few weeks, it packs hard; that a roller will not pack the road.

Wheat Flour $9.76 to $10.25.

New York, Sept. 18.—The United States grain corporation announced tonight its purchases of wheat flour for the week ending September 16 amounted to 666,290 barrels at prices ranging from $9.76 to $10.25.

SHOES

Don't get excited about shoe costs. The press notices to the effect that "$25.00 and up" shoes are in sight is largely a myth. There always have been $25.00 shoes and about one person in ten thousand would pay this price. There always have been $10.00 to $15.00 shoes, and numbers of people would buy these shoes—possibly because they "matched a dress" or for some other equally important reason.

There always have been shoes for dress-up and street wear retailing from $5.00 to $15.00 for the past ten years. Our shoes retailing at $5.00 to $10.00 before the war now sell at $7.00 to $15.00, showing an advance in price of $2.00 to $5.00 per pair.

We, as leaders in our line, have always carried some of the newest and best shoes for those who want the latest thing in style, and of course merchandise of this kind costs more than plain staple goods. These shoes interest men and women who like to wear "exclusive" styles and can afford it.

There always have been work shoes $3.00 to $5.00 for hard wear. There always have been boys' and girls' shoes at similar prices. The shoes of this kind which we sold before the war at $3.00 to $5.00 were sold during the war at from $4.00 to $7.00 and are being sold now at $4.50 to $8.00.

The advance in the price of our shoes in four years averages about $2.00 to $3.00 per pair.

Now, these are the facts about our shoes, and it looks different from the fiction which is being so largely handed around the country about "$25.00 shoes."

The above quoted prices show the advances which have been necessary in our shoes, due to increasing cost (with which everybody is familiar) of hides, leather, materials and labor, plus the intelligent and efficient services we render our customers.

Don't be talked into paying any fancy or ridiculous prices for your footwear. Advances there are and advances there will be—legitimate and necessary—but nothing like the extravagant statements frequently made about "$25.00 shoes" need give you a moment's concern.

And now a word of advice. Don't speculate in shoes. Don't buy any more than you need. Meaning, don't hoard shoes, as some people are doing. If you buy a pair of shoes suited to your needs and take good care of them and have them repaired when they need repairing—keep them well half-soled and well heeled—you can save a lot of money on your footwear.

This is intended to give you a plain statement about shoes, in contradiction of the wild and extravagant rumors so persistently published throughout the country.

The following is a partial List of Dress and Street Shoes you can find here at very Reasonable Prices:

"GREENSBORO OUR HOME." : : : : "THE WORLD OUR TERRITORY."

along Horse Pen creek, adjoining the lands of S. W. H. Smith, O. C. Wheeler and others, and the second of 62 acres, in the same locality, $10 and other valuable considerations.

Barbee executors to N. B. Petty, a lot 171.1 by 200 feet in the Barbee property, in the city of High Point, adjoining the holdings of O. Arthur Kirkman, $10 and other valuable considerations.

Fannie P. Booth to Frances Wilford White, a lot 150 by 250 feet on Dairy street, in the city of Greensboro, Morehead township, $10 and other valuable considerations.

A piece of business property located in the city of High Point, at the northeastern intersection of East Washington street and Centennial avenue, brought the largest financial consideration shown by any of the 10 deeds filed for registration Friday at the office of the registrar of deeds. The lot in question, 154 by 176 feet, was purchased by Chris Bumballs and associates from Wilson Silver and others for $9,000. There is a brick store building on the lot at the present time, a single-story structure, and it is understood that the new owners contemplate the immediate erection of a modern garage building.

While the number of deeds filed Friday was the smallest of any day recently there were several important transactions to change hands. Among these was a farm of 119.30 acres in Clay township, on the banks of Alameda creek, being lots one, two, and three of the Thomas A. Hunter land, for which J. P. Neese paid $10,000 and Hunter the sum of $10,000.

These four farming tracts involved in the transactions recorded Friday, while the Hunter property was the largest, by a scant margin, another good-sized one was sold to E. E. Lamb and wife, Mary R. Lamb and husband, Adna L. Lamb and Artie B. Lamb to L. H. Edgeron. It is located in Friendship township and consists of 110 acres, adjoining the holdings of A. T. Seiler, Jesse Gardner and the "Fruit Lamb" place. The purchaser paid $10 and other valuable considerations.

George A. Ward to W. A. Slade and wife, a tract consisting of 39 acres in Jamestown township, adjoining the lands of J. F. Rush, the Mendenhall tract and O. C. Benbow, $10 and other valuable considerations.

B. E. Burns and wife to the Guilford Insurance and Realty Company, two tracts in Friendship township, 108 and 62 acres, along Horse Pen creek, adjoining Wheeler, Smith and others, $10 and other valuable considerations.

C. H. Russell to C. E. Dickens, a tract consisting of one and a half acres in Fentress township, adjoining the property of T. C. Hicks, C. F. Neeley and others, $10 and other valuable considerations.

Julius A. Hope and Lillie Hope to Esther Robert Speace, a lot 40 by 140 feet on Beach street, in the city of Greensboro, Gilmer township, $10 and other valuable considerations.

J. Goldstein and wife to R. L. Houston, a lot 120 by 216 feet on Wilkerson street, in the city of Greensboro, Gilmer township, $10 and other valuable considerations.

William McBrayer and wife to E. M. Reddick and wife, a lot 50 by 155 feet on High street, in the city of Greensboro, Gilmer township, being lot four in block four of the Dean property, $10 and other valuable considerations.

H. W. Wharton to Morris Stadium, a lot 48.2 by 122.6 feet on Bessemer avenue at its intersection with North Elm street, in the city of Greensboro, Gilmer township, $10 and other valuable considerations.

The most important deeds filed Saturday at the office of the registrar of deeds transferred a farm located in Friendship township from the Irving Park Company to John T. Rees. While $10 and other valuable considerations were named as the considerations involved, revenue stamps showed the value of the acreage acquired by the local manufacturer to be approximately $11,000. The farm consists of 89.01 acres, and is what is known as lots three, four and five of the subdivisions of the C. S. Watson farm.

The deed ranking second in importance was that formally transferring title in two lots, 100 by 164 feet and 172 by 200 feet, on Chestnut street, in the city of Greensboro, Gilmer township, from the Southern Real Estate Company to William B. Mendenhall for $10 and other valuable considerations. Revenue stamps showed the real lot 55.6 by 140 feet on Park avenue, in the city of Greensboro, Gilmer township, $10 and other valuable considerations.

W. J. Church and wife to Oro A. Baker, a tract in High Point township, consisting of 8.28 acres, adjoining the lands of the Ragan heirs and others, $10 and other valuation to be approximately $7,500.

Rufus King and wife to W. J. Church, a tract consisting of 8.28 acres in High Point township, adjoining the lands of the Ragan heirs, Giles and others, $2,500.

Southern Real Estate Company to N. O. Coffey and wife, a lot 100 by 190 feet on Lexington avenue, in the city of Greensboro, Morehead township, $2,500.

LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF FORM

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO THE READERS OF THE PATRIOT FAR AND NEAR.

Meeting of County Teachers.

Next Saturday morning the first meeting of the new year will be held by the Guilford county teachers in the annex of West Market Street Methodist church. The session will begin at 10 o'clock, with Thomas R. Foust, county superintendent of public instruction, presiding.

Summers-Hendrix.

Characterized by beautiful simplicity was the quiet marriage of Miss Lillian Hendrix, of this city, and Fred A. Summers, of Statesville, Thursday night at 9.30 o'clock, at the home of G. G. Hendrix, on Walker avenue. Only relatives and a few friends witnessed the ceremony which was performed by Rev. R. M. Andrews, of the Methodist Protestant church.

Dies at Randolph Home.

Mrs. David Humble died at her home near Liberty, Randolph county, about midnight Friday, following a long illness. She was 75 years of age and is survived by two sons and five daughters. Each of the three agencies is to contribute $75, making a total of $225.

Enjoy Campfire Supper.

Members of the junior class of South Buffalo high school were entertained by members of the senior class Thursday night at a campfire supper at Troxler's pond, 12 miles south of the city. The two classes motored to the pond, where they spent a delightful evening. Bacon, marshmallows and many other delicacies were served, after which an interesting round of events were staged. Singing by a quartet was a pleasing feature. The girls and boys of the two classes were chaperoned by Mrs. B. N. Mann, principal of the school.

Let Contract for Apartment House.

The new apartment house, which will be located on Fisher avenue, near the intersection of that thoroughfare and Church street, on the old Smith property, adjoining the property of W. F. Ross, will be three stories in height, of brick, and modern in every detail. Work will begin at once, and it is to be completed not later than April 1, 1920.

A Pretty Home Wedding.

A beautiful home wedding was solemnized Thursday evening at 9.45 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Holden, at Pomona, when their attractive daughter became the bride of Hugh Shelton, of Winston-Salem. The ceremony was performed in the beautifully decorated hall of the home by Rev. E. J. Rodgers, pastor of Muir's chapel. There were but three attendants, Miss Willie Holden, sister of the bride, acting as maid of honor; little Miss Kathleen Holden, another sister, as ring bearer, and George Shelton, of Winston-Salem, brother of the bridegroom, as best man. The impressive ring ceremony was used. Guests were welcomed at the front door by Mrs. T. E. Holden, and Miss Hattie Ziegler. Shortly after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Shelton came to the city, where they boarded a train for a honeymoon trip to Washington, New York, Baltimore, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and other points. After two weeks they will be at home at 819 West Sixth street, Winston-Salem. The bride is a charming young woman with a large circle of friends, while Mr. Shelton is a popular engineer in the employ of the Southern railroad. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Shelton, well known residents of Winston-Salem.

TEN YEARS SENTENCE GIVE EACH HIGHWAYMAN.

The five negroes charged with holding up and robbing a party of four white men who were returning to their homes at Gibsonville through the eastern part of the city about two months ago, John Sellers, Oscar Caldwell, Ned Lewis, Charles Walker and Matthew Crisp, found guilty by a Superior court jury late Wednesday, were Thursday sentenced by Judge Bryson, following the hearing of pleas for moderation. There were two cases charging highway robbery against each defendant and each of the five was sentenced to serve a term of 10 years in the state penitentiary. It was by long odds the most severe sentence pronounced during the session by Judge Bryson. There were originally six of the defendants, but Claude Gilmer, one of the number, died suddenly of heart trouble while the evidence against him and other defendants was being heard about 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The trouble with the negro's heart had developed since last March when he was discharged from the army.

D. J. Jameson entered plea of guilty to the charge of stealing a cow. Non compos mentis was admitted in this case and the defendant was ordered sent to the state hospital for the criminal insane.

Arthur Deberry, negro, of High Point, was fined $75 and taxed with the costs in the case charging him with an assault on a much smaller white man. The case came up on appeal by the defendant from the Municipal court of High Point.

Irvin Spencer, negro, of High Point, was charged with committing an assault. He was ordered to pay a fine of $50 and the costs for his violation of the law.

The first genuine big laugh since the present session of court opened was given judge, jury, court officials and spectators when Louis Thomas, negro, was being tried under two charges, carrying a concealed weapon and having whiskey in his possession for the purpose of sale. A negro witness who had "seed that air weepun" before the officers found it hidden on or in close proximity of Lonnie's anatomy, painted a terrible word picture of the kind of gun it was that Lonnie packed. It was a square one, said this witness, who persisted in swearing that it was the "biggest" one I ever seed. It was an automatic.

Marvin Cheek, white, of High Point, failed to put in an appearance to answer to the charge of vagrancy and the larceny of an automobile. Bond aggregated $700 and capias were ordered issued for the young man.

CIVIL TERM SUPERIOR COURT CONVENED THIS MORNING.

Divorce cases will feature the session of Superior court for the trial of civil cases which convenes this morning with Judge T. D. Bryson presiding. Two weeks ago today, at the opening of the first one-week term of civil court, there were 29 divorces granted on the opening day, whereas to-day there are but 21 cases set for trial. If the 21 mismatched couples are separated as rapidly as were the 29 of the previous session, Guilford's divorce colony will be materially increased to-day. Not one of the 21 cases is to be contested, the plaintiffs having the field and the attorneys in every instance.

There are 52 cases docketed for the first four days of the week, nothing being set for either Friday or Saturday. On Tuesday there is a special set case, it being entitled Claude L. Boles vs. the Southern Railway Company. On this same day there is a suit in which the city of Greensboro and the Proximity Manufacturing Company are joint defendants, the plaintiffs in this action being Annie Sullivan, Glenn Brame, Florence Brame, David Brame and Wesley Brame. It is a suit for damages and quite an array of legal talent has been provided by the parties to the suit.

There will be another civil term of Superior court starting in two weeks, on October 6, after which there will be a vacation until Monday, December 8, when the court will again convene for the trial of criminal cases. The great number of cases continued from the session ending Saturday indicate that a long and varied docket will greet judge and jury when the December session convenes.

We are pleased to enroll Mrs. A. V. Dick as one of our new readers.
