THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS GETS A SPEEDING UP

NEW JERSEY REPUBLICAN URGES NECESSITY FOR HASTE IN HANDLING TREATY.

Washington, Sept. 30.—The German peace treaty got a three-hour speeding up in the senate to-day, all but 30 minutes of which was an address by Senator Fall, Republican of New Mexico, attacking the league of nations covenant and pleading for adoption of his 36 amendments which would keep the United States free from representation on foreign commissions, created by the pact.

The rest of the treaty program was addressed by Senator Edge, Republican of New Jersey, in which he urged Republicans and Democrats alike to its consideration so that congress might devote its time and attention to pressing problems at home.

Earlier in the session the treaty and covenant came in for considerable discussion, however, while the senate was debating, at times with feeling, a resolution requesting President Wilson to transmit a report of the landing of American sailors at Trau, after Italian forces had taken possession of the fort. While not opposing the resolution, Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, leading the administration's fight for ratification of the treaty, charged that it was merely part of an attempt by Republicans to filibuster, which Republican Leader Lodge sharply denied.

But throughout the whole Dalmatian debate the treaty bobbed up continually, being later from Senator Fall the prediction that Italy would not dare approve "the Wilson settlement of Fiume" in the face of certain revolution.

While leaders generally refrained from predicting just when the country might expect a vote on the Fall amendments, the continuing order before the senate, there was a flutter of excitement to-day when the suggestion from high Republican sources that the vote might be taken during the afternoon. But there was little hope of so early a decision, judging by the small attendance on the floor, so small indeed, when Senator Fall began speaking that proceedings were halted by demand for a quorum call.

The reports as to vote, however, indicated the rather uncertain situation affecting the treaty from day to day. Although a number of senators will make set speeches this week none on the list has announced that he will discuss the Fall amendments, and after the exhaustive address of the senator from New Mexico, it would not be surprising to see a demand for a vote on them at any time. It is the plan to vote on all of them at one time and Democratic leaders declared to-night there was absolutely no chance of their adoption.

In denying charges that filibustering tactics had been attempted to delay final disposition of the treaty, Senator Lodge said it was the greatest question that ever came before the senate and it would be kept steadily before it. There could be no filibuster so far as he is concerned, and Senator Lodge, who gave warning that attempts to cut off discussion would of itself lead to filibuster, discussing his amendments, Senator Fall declared that the negotiations' commission had more power than ever was vested in the future, and that even Carranza by decree could not attempt to exert as much. Should the United States accept full representation on this commission, he added, it would have to back up its representative with an army. Under his amendment the American representative could vote only on questions relating to shipping unless he was specifically authorized by Congress.

Senator Fall announced that later he would ask for a vote in the senate on an amendment proposed by him in the foreign relations committee and never acted on, which would strike out the treaty provision for an international labor organization. He would also move, he added, to amend that part of the treaty relating to mandates, even "when the President already has agreed to a division of the mandate country."

President Wilson's mind was so opped up "in his great vision" of league, Senator Fall said, that he had failed to give thought to how it might affect the people of the United States.

FIRE IN POSTOFFICE CREATES BIG SCARE.

Dense volumes of smoke pouring from a number of the windows and doors of the postoffice building Tuesday afternoon at 4.45 o'clock indicated that the structure, which all of Greensboro wishes to see replaced by a new one, was doomed—that the municipality was in a fair way to secure a new postoffice. There was more smoke than fire, however, and the little blaze burning in a closet on the second floor where a quantity of paper was stored, was quickly extinguished by the members of the one company of the fire department summoned.

Just how the fire originated is not known by either Postmaster A. Wayland Cooke or the janitor. The suggestion was made, however, that a rat and a match were responsible. The interior of the closet, located just across the hall from the entrance to the federal court room, was charred, indicating that the fire had gained a slight start when discovered. One line of hose was used by the firemen, but their main reliance was on the hose and plugs with which the federal building is equipped.

Practically all the damage resulting from the small fire, except to the closet, was occasioned from smoke and water.

STRIKE SITUATION IS JUST ABOUT THE SAME.

Pittsburgh, Oct. 1.—Nothing developed in the steel strike in the Pittsburgh district to-day to materially change the situation. Strike leaders and their organizers showed the usual activity in their campaign to further cripple the big plants in operation in this territory. Steel company officials had little information to impart except the daily claim that more men are constantly applying for work each day.

The Carnegie Steel Company maintains that its big works at Homestead, Duquesne, Braddock and Clairton, against which the unions have concentrated their attacks, continue to increase their production. Reports that men are returning to work in increasingly larger numbers also came from points outside of Pittsburgh and vicinity. "Satisfactory progress" was the word given out at national strike headquarters regarding the situation from the standpoint of the organized steel workers.

SENATOR REED EGGED FROM ARDMORE STAGE.

Ardmore, Okla., Oct. 1.—United States Senator James A. Reed was egged from the stage at Convention hall tonight as he was being introduced by the mayor in preparation for his speech against the treaty and league of nations.

As Senator Reed came on the stage all light wires to the building were cut. Pandemonium broke loose and cries of derision howled him down, while the audience surged up on the stage. Reed attempted to hold the flood for a few minutes but was forced to make his exit without beginning his speech.

After several minutes of the demonstration a number of women climbed upon the stage and quieted the crowd.

Reed could not be seen at his hotel here tonight, but it was announced that he would make no attempt to deliver his address.

President Recovering Slow.

Washington, Oct. 1.—No important change in the condition of President Wilson was noted in to-day's White House bulletin, though it was said his progress toward recovery was not so apparent as it had been yesterday.

Throughout the day the President felt the effects of another restless night. During the morning, however, he was able to get some sleep and the remainder of the day he devoted to almost complete rest. Despite the damp atmosphere Dr. Grayson again prescribed an afternoon automobile ride, and it was said the patient seemed benefited by it.

SENATOR BORAH GETS A RAP FROM WILLIAMS

THE FORMER ATTEMPTS TO CONNECT RACE RIOTS WITH PEACE TREATY.

Washington, Sept. 29.—Race clashes, Senator Williams, Democrat, Mississippi, declared in the senate to-day, were all due to attempted outrages on white women by negroes. It was too far fetched, he said in answering Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, to attempt to connect the league of nations with race riots.

"I will go in the pathways of peace as far as any man—I would be willing to arbitrate almost anything except outrages on a white woman by black or white. I would surrender him as a criminal beyond the pale to the first crowd that came to get him," he said.

"The conduct of the criminal at Omaha deprives me of all inclination and power to say one word against the crowd that captured the criminal and punished the crime. Race is greater than law, now and then, and protection of women transcends all law, human and divine."

"This miserable beast in Omaha paid a just debt for his crime. When it comes to violating innocent women, it is no time to go to court. But here we have men pleading for law and order while helpless women are being treated by beasts as they please, and yet these same men don't want any international law. "The senator speaks of established law in the land and yet he's unwilling to stand for established law in the world."

"Washington and Jefferson sought a just and enduring peace. That is what I seek in advocating the league of nations. The President sought it in Paris, Rome and the United States. He has spent energy, intellect and almost life. He has received curses and calumny."

"The senator from Idaho has been preaching peace, peace when it comes to 'niggers,' when capital and labor is involved, and then when he comes to international affairs he is standing in the pathway of the very thing to which he has paid so high an oratorical tribute. He wants America to stand isolated. She couldn't do it 48 hours if she wanted to."

Senator Borah made sharp reply to Senator Williams, discussing particularly what the latter said concerning lynchings.

"If lynchings were confined," the Idaho senator continued, "to those incidents mentioned by the senator from Mississippi, the human race might be disposed to pass them by on that reason."

"But the disease spreads and men are lynched for the most trivial causes," he added. "The record shows 218 negroes lost their lives the first year of the war, at a time when negro boys were giving their lives to the republic and displaying great heroism overseas. There was no intimation that they had been guilty of the particular crime on which men seek to justify lynching."

"I want to say considering the ultimate welfare of the human family, there can be no justification for the lynching of any persons, and the man who preaches it is sowing the wind that reaps the whirlwind, no matter how black the skin of the victim may be. If the republic does not protect the lives of its people the seeds are planted that ultimately will lead to its disintegration."

Turn Back Clocks.

Washington, Oct. 1.—General uncertainty as to when the clocks of the nation may be turned back and daylight saving abolished seems to have resulted from the recent action by Congress in repealing the daylight saving act. In answer to numerous inquiries officials have pointed out that clocks may not be turned back until the last Sunday of October, or October 26, at 1 A. M.

Sugar Inquiry Ordered.

Washington, Oct. 1.—Investigation of wholesale and retail prices of sugar by the federal trade commission was ordered by the house late to-day through adoption of a resolution by Representative Tinkham, Republican, of Massachusetts,

COUNTY AWARD CONTRACT FOR HARD SURFACE ROAD

FOUR AND A HALF MILES BETWEEN GREENSBORO AND GIBSONVILLE.

Following a lengthy exchange of views between numerous citizens, the Guilford county commissioners Tuesday afternoon agreed to contract with the state highway commission for the construction of four and one-half miles of hard surface road between Greensboro and Gibsonville. Work will be started at once, it was indicated.

Under the terms of the agreement the contract price will be approximately $150,000, or about $33,000 a mile, this being equivalent to the lowest bid received for the project, that bid having been submitted by T. H. Gill & Co., of Birmingham. The Gill bid, however, involved the laying of plain cement concrete pavement and was not accepted. The Gill figures were used because they represented the lowest bid and the maximum amount upon which the state highway commission was willing to secure part of the costs.

The state highway commission proposes to secure one-half of the cost. That money will be obtained from the federal government and the state itself will provide no funds, while the county and property owners in the new assessment district will bear one-half of the cost. If the cost exceeds the Gill figures, the excess amount will be paid by the county.

Having agreed to contract with the highway commission for the work, the county officials Tuesday afternoon sublet the contract for warrentite paving, a type of asphalt, to Robert G. Lassiter, of Oxford, at $1.68 per square yard. Contracts for the grading and for the laying of concrete base will be awarded by the county in the early future. Lassiter had offered to put down warrentite surfacing on a concrete base at $3.48 per square yard, or about $38,000 a mile.

Rumors that the county would be unable to obtain federal aid on the Gibsonville road were emphatically denied by Chairman W. C. Boren, of the board of county commissioners, who stated that he had received a letter from Chairman Frank Page, of the state highway commission, announcing that the commission would secure 50 per cent of the cost, basing the cost upon the figures employed in the Gill bill.

Mr. White, of the Portland Cement Company, asserted that if the contract for the Gibsonville road were awarded to Lassiter, Guilford county would be unable to obtain any federal aid for that project or for any other road projects.

Without exception, according to available information, the present state highway commission has been making contracts for the construction of topsoil roads upon the basis of 50 per cent of the cost being borne by the federal government, 25 per cent by the state and 25 by the counties, while in the hard surface projects the county is required to furnish 50 per cent, the federal government furnishing a similar amount and the state nothing. The plan tends to penalize the building of hard surface roads, it is contended.

Addressing Tuesday afternoon's meeting were Chairman Boren, County Attorney John N. Wilson, Clarence Cone, E. D. Broadhurst, C. C. Taylor, Judge S. B. Adams and Secretary Garland Daniel, of the Chamber of Commerce. Opinion was virtually unanimous that asphaltic construction should be ordered. Mr. Wilson declared that it is planned to construct a hard surface road from Greensboro to Alamance county line as early as possible.

The county commissioners agreed to advertise for bids for a hard surface road to be built from the point where the asphaltic highway ends beyond Pomona to a point beyond Guilford College, a distance of about two miles. Bids will be opened October 16.

Mr. A. E. Thornton, of High Point, and Mr. T. D. Clayton, of Summerfield, are welcomed into our family of new readers.

OMAHA RALLYING FROM NIGHTMARE OF HORROR.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 29.—With 800 troops from Forts Omaha and Crook, Nebraska, and Camp Dodge, Ia., on riot duty and with 500 more soldiers due to arrive later tonight, Omaha officials were confident there would be no further outbreak of the race rioting which yesterday and last night resulted in the death of two persons, injuries to several score others, an attempt to lynch Mayor E. P. Smith, and partial destruction by fire of the county court house.

The troops have machine guns ready to put into use if necessary. Headquarters were established at central police station by Col. J. E. Morris, twentieth infantry, commander of the military forces in the city. Members of the police department were put under Colonel Morris' orders. General Leonard A. Wood, commander of the central department of the army, is expected to arrive in the city tonight or tomorrow to take charge of the situation.

Developments in the situation during the day included: Announcement by County Attorney A. V. Shotwell that he would do everything in his power to fix the responsibility for the rioting and to start prosecutions.

Issuance of a proclamation by Lieutenant-Colonel Jacob W. S. Wuest, commanding officer at Fort Omaha, promising protection to all and asking that fire arms be given over to the police or military authorities.

The stationing of federal troops near the hospital where Mayor Smith lies suffering from injuries received when a mob attempted to lynch him.

Announcement by Mayor Smith's physician that his condition was "very satisfactory."

Inauguration by local authorities of precautions to guard against a fresh outbreak of the trouble, including the transportation of negro prisoners in the jail here to the state penitentiary at Lincoln.

GARDENERS ARE WARNED AGAINST JACK FROST.

Washington, Sept. 29.—Jack Frost soon will kill most of the tender garden crops, even in the South, and home gardeners are advised not to delay in caring for vegetable now in the garden.

A storage cellar or outdoor pit is, of course, the most desirable place to store vegetables, but not every home gardener has a storage cellar or pit at his disposal and some simple and inexpensive method must be provided. A very effective storage, recommended by the United States department of agriculture, may be made by partially burying a wooden box or a large barrel on its side in a well-drained spot in the garden. Irish potatoes, carrots, parsnips, salsify, turnips, beets and winter radishes can be stored in this manner. Cabbage, as a rule, can be stored to best advantage by burying it in the ground, while celery can be placed in a trench and covered with boards and straw or leaves, with an outer layer of soil to keep out frost. Sweet potatoes should always be stored in a warm, dry place, such as a room over the kitchen where there will be plenty of both heat and ventilation.

If no cellar or storage pit is available, a temporary storage should be provided at once, and the various vegetables that are adapted to storage should be cared for before it gets cold enough to injure them.

Airmen Will be Fried On.

El Paso, Texas, Sept. 29.—American aviators flying into Mexico will be fired upon by Mexican troops, according to a message received to-day from Mexico City by El Nacional, a Mexican newspaper here, which stated that Ignacio Bonillas, Mexican ambassador at Washington, has been instructed to convey this information to the state department.

The First Killing Frost.

Boone, Sept. 30.—To-day was the first killing frost of the season. The thermometer stood at the freezing point at 7.30 o'clock this morning. Most of the corn is in the shock and hence is not injured. Chestnuts seem to be plentiful in this section and will be in their prime in a few days.

WHITES AND NEGROES IN SERIOUS TROUBLE

TWO WHITES AND SEVEN NEGROES KNOWN TO BE DEAD—OTHERS WOUNDED.

Helena, Ark., Oct. 1.—Two white men, Clinton Lee and J. A. Tappan, of Helena, and seven negroes are known to be dead at Elaine, near here, as a result of clashes to-day between negroes and a posse searching for the persons who last night from ambush fired upon and killed W. D. Adkins, railroad special agent, according to reports reaching here tonight.

A third white man, Ira Proctor, and a number of negroes are known to have been wounded. Troops from Camp Pike, at Little Rock, armed with machine guns, are said to be en route to Elaine.

The situation at Elaine is critical and growing more so, according to a message received here tonight from Joseph Meyers, who is heading the posse. Meyers is quoted as saying he expected another clash at any moment and requested that additional reinforcements be sent. Five hundred United States soldiers from Camp Pike, Ark., are due to reach Elaine at midnight.

Women and children of Elaine and vicinity are being brought to Helena on a special train for safety, it is reported here.

The local situation is tense, but no trouble has broken out here. Armed men are patrolling the streets.

The trouble began with the discovery last night of an alleged negro plot to rise against the white residents of the southern part of Phillips county when Deputy Sheriff Pratt, with Adkins and a negro trusty, were ambushed opposite a negro church at Hoop Spur, two miles north of Elaine, while on their way to arrest members of the Clem family, who were said to be involved in a row among themselves. Sheriff Kitchens, who has been ill, could not accompany them.

Snipes Again in Trouble.

Winston-Salem, Sept. 30.—Frank Snipes, Sr., who served a two-year term in the federal prison at Atlanta for assaulting a revenue officer near Kernersville a few years ago, was sentenced to 15 months on the county roads by Judge Hartman in the Municipal court Monday on the charge of obstructing an officer. An appeal was taken and bond required in the sum of $1,000. The evidence introduced revealed that after an officer had followed Snipes' car and called upon him to stop, it being suspected that he was hauling whiskey it was alleged that Snipes made a motion as if to draw a weapon and demanded that the officer discontinue following the car.

Marshal Foch's Prediction.

Washington, Sept. 30.—At the time of Bulgaria's collapse last year, Marshal Foch told Secretary Baker the war could be won by April 1, 1919, with the aid of 45 American divisions, of which 42 were then in France. Mr. Baker to-day told the house military committee. Before that, allied military leaders expected the war to continue possibly into 1920 and thought possibly 100 American divisions would be needed, he said. Great Britain had agreed to furnish shipping for such a force.

B. H. Woodell Dead.

Goldsboro, Sept. 29.—Burrell Henry Woodell, who died here late Sunday at the Odd Fellows home, was for 32 years grand secretary of the order in North Carolina, and was perhaps the most widely known Odd Fellow in the entire state.

The death of the veteran, who was 80 when he died, had been fair until a few days ago, when he received an injury in a fall. He was born in Chatham county, but went to Raleigh when he was 18 years old and resided there for more than 60 years.

Utah Ratifies Suffrage.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Sept. 30.—The house of representatives of the Utah legislature in special session to-day ratified the amendment to the national constitution providing for woman suffrage. The senate ratified the amendment yesterday.

THE STEEL DEADLOCK IS STILL UNBROKEN.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Both sides of the strike of the steel workers, now in its ninth day, are awaiting developments at the industrial conference which will open at Washington next Monday, and it was said last night that there seems little chance of a "break" either way until then.

Throughout the affected territory there was little material change yesterday. Strike leaders and representatives of the companies continued to give out conflicting statements—the former maintaining that they were not only holding the men already out, but making substantial gains, and the latter that the plants were being operated with more men than at any time since the strike began.

At national headquarters of the strikers it was said that 375,000 men were out—an increase of 33,000 over the number reported out by the strike leaders last week.

Labor leaders announced that daily bulletins would be sent out to inform the men of the course of the strike. Circulars yesterday urged the men to stick together and declared that the steel workers "have almost every plant in the country shut down."

In the Pittsburgh district, indications were that the day had brought little material change, while in Chicago it was said that the "tension had increased" between the warring forces but no serious violence was reported. The plants were operating with from 25 to 30 per cent of their normal forces, it was said. Reports to labor headquarters said it was "absolutely peaceful" in the Chicago territory and that there was picketing at all points.

The strike leaders were said to be somewhat disconcerted by the decision of the Allegheny county court in upholding the action of the mayor of Duquesne in preventing mass meetings in that city.

Authorities at Waukegan, Ill., conferred with union leaders in regard to calling on Governor Lowden for state troops, but the labor men gave assurances that they would redouble their efforts to control the strikers, and the request for troops was held in abeyance.

Governor Goodrich, of Indiana, sent Col. J. R. Harrison to Gary to inspect the situation and report to him. The authorities denied that they had any intention of asking for state troops unless the situation grows materially worse.

The Bethlehem Steel Company said that no reports of disorder had been received and that the strike situation showed improvement over Monday.

NEW SCHOOL HEAD IN BUNCOMBE A WOMAN.

Asheville, Sept. 29.—For the first time, it is believed, in the history of North Carolina a woman has been elected superintendent of the rural schools of a county. The county board of education this afternoon selected Miss Ethel Terrell to take this position succeeding W. H. Hipps, who recently resigned to accept a similar position in Johnston county.

Miss Terrell has been rural supervisor of schools of the county for some time and acting as assistant superintendent. She was formerly connected with the Asheville city schools as teacher. Her work has been highly pleasing to the county board of education and she was recommended for the appointment by scores of teachers.

TRAINMEN WILL WAIT FOR HINES' ACTION ON WAGES.

Cleveland, Ohio., Sept. 30.—The special committee of Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, who filed requests for increased wages and changed working rules with the director general of railroads, and who presented the demands to Director General Hines at a conference in July, will not reconvene for at least two weeks, instead of on October 1, the date tentatively set at the adjournment of the July meeting.

President W. G. Lee, of the trainmen, stated to-day that he is in receipt of advices from the director general to the effect that the board of railroad wages and working conditions, with which the request for increased rates of pay were filed, have handed their recommendations to the director general and that the special committee handling this subject for the brotherhood will be called to Washington for a conference with the director general, presumably within two weeks, or just as early as the director general can secure desired information upon the subject.

The special committee referred to consist of 16 general chairmen, representing the entire United States, together with the President and eight vice president of the brotherhood, who were given full authority by the recent Columbus convention of the trainmen to handle this subject, even to the extent of authorizing a strike vote to be taken in the absence of a satisfactory adjustment.

SEVEN GUILFORD CASES GO TO SUPREME COURT.

Seven Guilford county cases have been certified down to the Supreme court of North Carolina for final consideration, according to the records in the office of Clerk of Superior Court M. W. Gant. Some of the cases are of considerable interest to residents of Greensboro and the county as a whole. Notably so is that entitled Kendall vs. Stafford and others, which is a friendly test of the validity of the recent action of the city commissioners in raising their own salaries. Just when the Supreme court will consider and pass on this and the six other cases from Guilford is not known.

There is another altogether friendly action among the cases. It is the action of Sockwell and others against Humphries and others and is to establish a clear title to the several parts of the Fishes estate which were recently sold at public auction. The lots, together with the buildings on them, brought splendid prices, but owing to a clause in the will of the original owner of the property, a water-tight title could not be given until the Supreme court passed on the legality of the clause.

The other five cases are: M. W. Sterne against the Bay State Milling Company.

C. E. Little vs. the Southern Railway Company.

State against John W. Moon, the High Point traveling man convicted of bigamy at the spring term of court and sentenced to serve 10 years in the state penitentiary.

Ida Gordon vs. the Stehli Silk Corporation. This case originated at High Point.

William Long vs. the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company.

A CHANCE TO RIDE IN CURTIS JN-4 AIRPLANES.

Greensboro is being visited by three Curtiss JN-4 airplanes, brought by Chief Instructors H. W. Powers, Robert Shank and O. M. Jenkins, of Atlantic City.

They will be here several days, and will make flights as often as the people of this and nearby cities have the kale to pay for aerial trips. A landing field has been located at Guilford College, while the Daniel, Benbow and Cobb fields may also be used, according to Chief Instructor Powers. The aviators are to make a report to the postoffice department as to the advantages of the towns they visit in establishing aerial mail routes. The Chamber of Commerce and other organizations here are anxious to have Greensboro made a station on the route from Washington to Atlanta.

Killed While Walking in Sleep.

Salisbury, Sept. 29.—William S. Benton died to-day at noon as a result of injuries received Friday night when he fell from a porch roof while walking in his sleep at his home on Horah street.

The injuries were regarded as serious from the first, he having suffered several broken bones and internal injuries. Mr. Benton was 52 and leaves a widow and two children. He was bookkeeper for the Salisbury Cotton Mills.

The funeral will be conducted Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock from the Episcopal church, of which he was an official member, by one of the most active members of the vestry. The body will be taken to Sumter, S. C., for burial.

QUARANTINE OF MUMPS IS ORDERED BY BOARD.

With a view to prevention of undue spread of mumps, Commissioner J. W. Donovan Tuesday afternoon introduced an ordinance prohibiting persons exposed to the disease from attending school. He recommended passage of the instrument, instigated by City Physician B. B. Williams, and it was quickly adopted.

The ordinance provides, "That where there is any case of mumps in a home, no member of such family or occupant of such dwelling shall attend school for a period of 12 days following exposure to the disease. Any unexposed member of the family or occupant of the house may transfer his or her residence and attend school, provided this section shall not apply to members of the family or occupants of the house who can satisfy the city physician that they have had mumps on both sides." A penalty of $10 is provided for each violation of the ordinance, which became effective upon its passage.

TWO SERBIAN GIRLS AT THE STATE COLLEGE.

Two students from Serbia have arrived in Greensboro to attend college at the North Carolina College for Women. These two girls will be cared for by the student body of the institution, and the students will also pay all their college and traveling expenses.

Last year Dr. Rosalie Morton, of New York, who has done much work in the Serbian hospital, was a visitor at the college and suggested the plan of adopting two Serbian girls. Since then she has gone to Serbia in person, and selected the girls that might best profit by the training here.

President Foust, spoke to the student body Monday morning concerning the coming of the strangers, and suggested ways in which their stay here might be made worth while. A special committee was appointed to act as advisers to them.

BOOTH WILL NOT ISSUE WARRANT FOR FARMER.

The ultimatum of Willis Booth, county supervisor of revaluation issued to a Jefferson township farmer regarding compliance with the law, has been productive of helpful results. October 1 came and went, but Mr. Booth found it unnecessary to issue a warrant for the erstwhile recalcitrant taxpayer, who had failed to answer questions as to his property.

After perusing the Booth letter containing the ultimatum, the Jefferson township man wrote a letter to the county supervisor, advising that he was prepared to co-operate with that official under the provisions of the state revaluation act. Mr. Booth then visited the former objector and as a result of a conference revaluation of the property upon an equitable basis, according to the supervisor, was agreed upon.

On the whole, tax officials are much pleased by the general spirit of co-operation manifested by taxpayers in connection with the revaluation program. As the taxpayers realize that increases in values will be accompanied by downward revision of rates, they evidence satisfaction in most instances. In this connection it is pointed out that the aggregate taxable revenue must not be more than 10 per cent greater than that of the preceding year. As Governor Bickett states, the chief purpose of the revaluation act is to "make the taxbooks tell the truth."

WAR HERO HUSTLED OUT OF HOUSE TOO QUICKLY.

Washington, Sept. 29.—Speaker Gillett, of the house of representatives, is charged by some of his associates with hustling General Pershing out of the house the day he was received there.

It was planned to let the members shake hands with the distinguished visitor and war hero. But upon the conclusion of the last speech in honor of General Pershing Mr. Gillett announced: "Gentlemen, this closes the exercises of the day, but the house is still in session, and members are requested to retain their seats while our guests retire."

The Record says: "General Pershing and his staff retired from the hall amid loud applause."

A great scramble to seize Mr. Pershing's hand, and say a pleasant word followed. Republicans and Democrats were in the rush. But the die was cast, and the returned conqueror had to hurry out. Being a good soldier he obeyed the speaker.

Many Republican members were angry at the haste of the speaker. Some of them had taken their children to see the warrior, and were bent on having them grasp his hand, but no opportunity was given them.

Observers on that occasion were struck with the lack of enthusiasm on the Republican side of the house when General Pershing praised President Wilson. The sourness of the Republican leaders was noticeable to the people in the galleries. Many women remarked on it.

"Throughout the war the President reposed on me his full confidence and his unfailing support simplified my task," the general said. "The Democrats applauded this statement, and others landing Secretary Baker and Daniels but the Republicans remained quiet."

The Republicans of Congress can't help being angry with the Democrats for being in the saddle during the war, and winning a victory.

BASIS OF CO-OPERATION REACHED BY TWO RACES.

Raleigh, Sept. 30.—A special committee from a conference in which Governor Bickett, State Superintendent of Public Instruction Brooks, and representatives of the leading educational thought of the negro race in this state, participated, agreed this afternoon on a basis of co-operation desired to be country-wide and designed to keep down the baneful race feelings and misunderstandings that give rise to race riots. This committee will tomorrow issue an appeal to the people, white and colored, stressing the policies of race relations that the committee is agreed will make for better understandings and eradicate those evil conditions that give rise to race clashes in the country in recent months.

The conference was in executive session in the state house last week when a series of declarations as to racial policies and relations including the joint use of public utilities, were submitted and those unanimously agreed upon are now to be promulgated as most calculated to assure amicable race relations.

Young Girl Suicides.

Winston-Salem, Sept. 29.—News was received here to-day of the suicide by hanging of Miss Ruth Blackwelder, a young woman of one of Davie county's best families, which occurred at the home of her father, John Blackwelder, Saturday night.

She was missed from the room by her little brother and a search was instituted, the lifeless body being found hanging by a rope in the barn. No cause is assigned for the rash act. The funeral and burial took place today at James Cross Roads, Davie county.

SENATOR WILLIAMS ENDORSES LYNCHING.

The riot at Omaha where the mayor was hooked up to a telegraph pole and would have been dead if left there a few moments longer—all because he would not give up a prisoner under his authority—has called forth a lot of foolish statements from men from different parts of the country.

Senator Borah asserted in the senate of the United States there was some connection between the race riots and the movement for the League of Nations—this was about as foolish a statement as has been made on the subject.

Senator Williams did well to call him down for making such a public statement, but the senator from the South gives the South haters something more to talk about, when he publicly endorses lynching.

The thoughtful people of the South do not endorse lynching, and Senator Williams does harm to our people when he makes such an assertion. We stand for law and order as a people and it is not fair to the great majority of our people to have it said in the senate that our people or a majority of them stand for mobs taking the law in their hands under any circumstances.

It is alright to call down these South haters in the senate or elsewhere, but our men from the South who call them down should not give them something to maul us over the head with when they do so. Senator Williams' words on advocating lynching will be quoted for years to come by those Northern people who always take delight in trying to show that they are so much better than we are—the truth of the matter is that no section has anything to brag about when it comes to looking over the record for the good things that we have done.

WHAT A WONDER HOOVER IS.

We have referred to the fact that Hoover was one remarkable man and in the years to come when the true history of the world war is written, then Hoover will be given the recognition that he so richly deserves.

But who ever heard of Congress, or of a legislature voting money for any purpose—and the money and some more to be added to it—not to be spent.

It seems that this modern miracle is about to take place as it is reported that Hoover will return between $5 and $9 million dollars of the 100 million voted by Congress for relief purposes.

The congressmen as well as the general public thought the money was gone forever and never expected to see one cent of it returned into the United States treasury.

GREENSBORO AN EDUCATIONAL CENTER.

Certainly it can not be longer questioned as to the right of Greensboro to be considered an educational center for the education of young women.

If there are still any doubting Thomases in North Carolina on this question, let them come to Greensboro and go out to the Greensboro College for women, the college of the great Methodist church and look that institution over.

Then let them go out to the North Carolina College for Women and look at that great host of girls from the mountains to the sea—and they will not only conclude that Greensboro is an educational center—but will be like the little boy in the grammar class, when he was asked what part of speech is girl. He replied: "She haint no part of speech; she is the whole thing."

WANTS SUPPORT FOR OFFICE AS WELL AS DOLLARS.

It seems that one Marvin Ritch, of Charlotte, is not satisfied with Congress from the ninth congressional district.

Now the average person will not need much time to decide how it came about that Mr. Ritch was so much concerned for the down trodden laboring people of North Carolina. It has been said that he receives so much per member out of the fees collected as the laborers join the union—but this is not sufficient return for his unselfish toil in lifting dollars out of the pockets of the down trodden people, but wants to lift himself into Congress.

He is quoted as saying to these people, he has been serving that "If you folks support me as I have supported you, I will be elected to their behalf—he now thinks they ought to send him to Congress.

BORDERING ON THE RIDICULOUS.

Mr. Max Gardner is a clever gentleman and has been making a very good impression most of the time since he became a candidate for governor, but he needs to be delivered from some of his friends.

For any man who aspires to be governor of a great state to feel called upon to state that he is favor of North Carolina receiving freight rates that are fair and just, seems to be bordering on the realm of the ridiculous.

We are sure that all of the candidates for governor of North Carolina will put their influence and energy against any movement that has even the appearance of a discrimination against this commonwealth—everybody has a right to expect this much of any candidate whose name is ever mentioned in connection with the office of governor.

Mr. Gardner had better call off some of his advisers as to expressing his views on matters upon which there is absolutely no room for any divided opinion, if any man in public or private life thinks that the state of Virginia should enjoy better freight rates than North Carolina, it is time for the clerk of the court of his county to hold an inquisition as to whether said person is not entitled to be located in a state hospital for mental disability.

TAR HEEL SOCIETY HONOR DEAD AT GETTYSBURG.

Washington, Sept. 29.—Senator Simmons has taken up with the chairman of the Gettysburg Battlefield commission, Gettysburg, Pa., the matter of securing permission for the erection at that place by the North Carolina society of the daughters of the revolution of a monument or marker at the particular place where our North Carolinians made possible our slogan, "Further at Gettysburg."

Mrs. Marshall Williams, of Faison, N. C., regent of the North Carolina society, D. A. R., states in a letter to Senator Simmons that as director of the Gettysburg Monument fund, she now has in hand approximately $500 for this purpose. Mrs. Williams also states that some Virginians question our history facts but that, "We know North Carolina dead were found furthest in the enemy's line and we want to designate the spots."

GET SMALL RAISE AND EIGHT HOUR DAY.

Washington, Sept. 29.—Changes in the wage scale of railroad shopmen under which they will be paid on the basis of an eight hour day similar to members of the four brotherhoods, are embodied in the first national working conditions, which it was learned to-day has been designed by Director General Hines and representatives of the sixth international shop crafts. The change means an increase of four cents an hour and were ordered by President Wilson to put the shopmen on an equal footing with other employees in the matter of an eight hour day, at the same time he refused any general wage increase as requested.

The agreement, effective October 20 until the government relinquishes control of the roads, is the first uniform contract covering all railroad shop employees. Heretofore each road has had its individual agreements with the unions, varying in important particulars. Union officials regard the uniform contract as one of the most important gains made by labor in recent years.

55 Years Sturdy Work have proven
Imperial Plows

A straight furrow fifty-five years long. For more than half a century, from daylight to darkness of every plowing season, they have saved the farmer and his team by conserving their strength. Success like this does not merely happen. Imperial "X" Series Chilled Plows represent the highest development of plow making.

The moldboard is high and long and of large capacity for the size of the plow. It has a gradual turn, adapting it to general purpose work.

The long, high and perpendicular Landslide most effectively resists the pressure of the furrow slice against the moldboard, gives the plow the lightest draft and leaves a clean-cut furrow.

The "X" Series Plow Posts are strong and rigid and so molded and recessed that the wearing parts, moldboard, share and landslide, fit closely and securely.

"X" Series Shin Cutter Shares extend to the top of the moldboard and form the cutting edge, or breast of the plow. Whenever a new share is put on, the cutting edge is renewed. Shape of share cuts furrow slice with least draft. A variety of shares are furnished for different soils and different soil conditions.

Come in and see this plow. Also ask about Imperial Cultivators, Disk Harrows, etc.

BUT TWO WEEKS TO THE BIG GREENSBORO FAIR

THE BEST AND GREATEST NUMBER OF FREE ATTRACTIONS HAVE BEEN SECURED.

Some exceptionally good free attractions have been secured by Secretary King and Director Tomlinson for the big Central Carolina Fair, which begins in this city October 14, continuing four days and nights.

One of the featured acts, and, incidentally, the highest priced one ever offered by the local association, is the Flying Le Vans, six persons, a star attraction with the Ringling circus for a number of seasons. The performance of this great act will be given daily on the elevated platform directly across the race track in front of the grandstand. Then there is the Paul Branchard family of five people in a hand balancing contortion act; Queen Victoria, America's most remarkable performing elephant; a performing man ape and several other attractions to be announced later.

Those who regularly attend the fair will find a great array of attractions on the midway. Already every foot of space allotted to showmen has been taken and numerous requests for ground have been turned down. "The midway contains no more footage than in previous years, so we've had to call a halt," said Messrs. King and Tomlinson yesterday.

Among other things, the fair this year is to be an automobile show. Greensboro is admittedly one of the greatest automobile centers in the section and apparently every dealer intends showing his wares during the four days and nights of the annual fair. Almost all the ground floor space in the exhibits building has been leased to automobile and truck dealers, it is stated, and more was requested, but this had to be refused because of the great array of other exhibits, such as has been seen for years, that are assured.

Lovers of automobiles can gain great pleasure, it is stated, from looking over the display that dealers of Greensboro and vicinity are to make. This feature alone, not to mention countless others, will be well worth the admission prices, which have not been disturbed by war and resultant higher prices for almost every commodity.

BALL RIDER MAY CHOKER GOUGER BILL TO DEATH.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Fifty-nine days ago President Wilson urged Representatives Frederick H. Gillett, speaker of the house of representatives, and Frank W. Mendell, majority leader, to cut out their proposed recess of five weeks and enact important legislation for the control of the high cost of living.

Seven days later, August 8, he addressed Congress and asked for legislation to force the sales of hoarded food stuffs, and to prosecute the profiteer. Since that time Attorney General Palmer appeared before house and senate committees begging them to act quickly so that he could run down and punish the guilty.

Up to this time Congress has not passed a bill carrying out the President's recommendations. An amendment to the food control act was put through the house several weeks ago and sent to the senate where it was handicapped with a rider, added by Senator Ball, of Delaware, dealing with rents in the District of Columbia. It is believed by friends of the President that the Republicans would kill the profiteering measure if they were not afraid of public sentiment. The Ball rider is one way of choking it to death.

The postponement of final action on this amendment is costing the people of the country millions of dollars in profits exacted by gougers. The department of justice is helpless. It cannot reach the worst classes of profiteers. In an appeal to Chairman Haugen, of the house committee on agriculture, which first considered the profiteering bill, Judge C. B. Ames, assistant to the attorney general, on the 20th of September begged for speed, but his plea has not been heeded.

Monticello at President's Disposal. Washington, Sept. 29.—Former Representative Jefferson Levy, of New York, called at the White House today and placed at the disposal of President Wilson, "Monticello," the home of Thomas Jefferson, near Charlottesville, Va., which he owns. Mr. Levy did not see the President, but urged that Mr. Wilson go to "Monticello" to regain his health.

STATES CAN'T SECURE WAR SOUVENIRS YET.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Scores of North Carolina and South Carolina towns want cannon and other relics captured by the Americans from the Germans. Demands come almost daily. In a letter to Senator Simmons the war department has made it plain that nothing can be done in that line yet.

Explaining the situation to W. C. Denmark, secretary of the Goldsboro Chamber of Commerce, Senator Simmons said:

"At the present time the war department is without authority to dispose of any war material and equipment captured by our forces from the Germans army."

"I am advised that the total number of captured cannon will not be more than 1,500 pieces and the number of gun carriages, and other equipment including machine gun mortars bomb throwers, gas projectors and airplanes will approximate 5,000 pieces all of which have not yet reached the United States."

"A bill has recently been passed by the senate and now before the house committee on military affairs which is designed to take care of such a request as you have made. It would authorize the secretary of war to apportion and distribute pro rata among the several states and territories of the United States in corresponding ratio as the total number of men serving in the armed forces of the United States from each state or territory bears to the total number of men so serving from all states and territories. All war devices and trophies captured by the armed forces of the United States from the armed forces of Germany and allied nations, with the exception of such cannon, gun carriages, machine guns, mine workers, mortars, bomb throwers, gas projectors, etc., as may be required for experimental purposes, or for actual use by the armed forces of the United States, and the further exception of such of the devices above mentioned as may be required for display in museums of a national character or for monumental purposes, national cemeteries and national monuments. The distribution therein provided for charges from point of shipment to point of final delivery to be borne by the government.

"When this act shall have become a law, I have no doubt that upon the showing made by Goldsboro and Wayne county in the great world war, you will be entitled to share in the distribution of this equipment."

LARGE IMPROVEMENTS FOR BUFFALO CHURCH.

Definite decision of the members of Buffalo Presbyterian church, of which Rev. E. Frank Lee is pastor, to improve the present church building and construct another building to be used as a Sunday school room, has been reached, and the actual construction will begin at once, according to authentic information obtained yesterday.

When completed the new church and Sunday school will be one of the most handsome pieces of church property in Greensboro. The improvements will entail a total expenditure of approximately $25,000, according to present estimates. The plans, which were prepared by Architect Harry Barton, having been formally approved, the work will be pressed to a successful conclusion as rapidly as possible. These improvements are necessitated by the swift growth of the Buffalo church. Further details concerning the plans will be published later.

WHAT CONGRESS HAS NOT DONE FOR OUR SOLDIERS.Washington, Sept. 30.—"What has the sixty-sixth Congress—the Republican Congress—done for the returned soldier?" is asked daily.The brave fellows who fought through the war without receiving serious wounds care but little about bonuses and the like, but they are seeing through the Republican camouflage-promises. The Mendell soldiers and sailors land bill is being killed. All of the talk about what the Republicans were going to do for the soldier boys has come to naught.One of the first acts of the new Congress was to give the soldier a hard lick by refusing to appropriate sufficient money to teach and train the disabled men. President Wilson took a hand in this fight and exacted justice. He vetoed the Sunday civil bill because it did not provide enough money for vocational education for injured soldiers.In a fit of saving—pretended economy—the Republicans trimmed that and other estimates. The air craft service was crippled. Many other branches of the government were hit.But the Republicans cannot make political capital out of their fake-economy scheme. It was charged by the Democrats that all they cut from the regular appropriation bill would be put into deficiency bills.
The first deficiency bill passed the house Saturday, September 20. It provides for $14,000,000. The estimates were for $47,000,000, much of which was desired for the high cost of living campaign. Other deficiency bills will come.The "great saving" announced by the Republican leaders soon after the passage of the bill was disproved soon after Congress met.
"Uncle Sam needs so much money, and it makes but little difference to him whether he gets it in a lump sum or in installments."JUDGE PRITCHARD IS NOT IN POLITICS ANY MORE.Asheville, Sept. 30.—Asheville people, especially many of the best friends of Judge J. C. Pritchard, have treated as a joke the proposition of Marion Butler, of Washington, to run the local jurist as the North Carolina favorite son of the Republicans for President. The factthat the Asheville Times, local Republican, swallowed the bait, hook and line, and going the former senator from Sampson county one better, played it up on the front page of that paper, caused another smile.
But the leading politicians here of both parties realize that the men in charge of the local paper do not understand local conditions and especially are they ignorant of past politics in this state.All the people of Asheville, here where the distinguished federal judge has lived for many years, realize his worth as a citizen and know that he is one of the most capable men the party can produce in all the South. But they also know that the judge is satisfied with his present position, as he indicated in a signed statement a few weeks ago, and will not under any circumstances re-enter politics.

PERFECT STAND OF ALFALFAMarion Bryant, a prominent Wilson county farmer, writes how he secured his best stand of alfalfa.
His experiences with alfalfa and clover, as shown in his letter, are interesting:

Wilson Co., N. C., July 26, 1916.

Gentlemen:

I purchased Nitra-germ for one acre alfalfa and four acres crimson clover last season. I wish to say my alfalfa is as near perfect as I could wish. I have already cut it three times and am sure of two more cuttings. I secured a good stand of clover and have corn planted on the land where the clover was sowed, and am certain I will make forty per cent more corn on this land than I will on the land adjoining it, planted the same day where there was no clover. I am highly pleased with Nitra-germ for growing alfalfa and clover and expect to use more this season. I am sure that clover is the best and cheapest method of fertilizing land and I am equally sure that Nitra-germ will grow it. With best wishes, I am,

Yours very truly,

(Signed) MARION BRYANT.

Nitra-germ has produced similar records for thousands of farmers, not only in making successful stands of alfalfa and clover, but also vetch. Nitra-germ clover planted in your cotton alleys after the last working of cotton will be ready when the cotton is picked. It is excellent for grazing and hay and builds the soil. Nitra-germ vetch when planted with oats and rye makes the very best feed. It will double your field and build your soil. Vetch stubble when turned under is equal to 700 lbs. of good grade fertilizer per acre. Nitragerm alfalfa is sure of a good stand and 4 or 5 crops per year without cultivation. It is a wonderful land builder. In planting this fall inoculate your seed with Nitra-germ and be sure of a good stand. It improves your crop and land. It costs
$2.00 per acre delivered. For free

Y., former home of Dr. Lull for interment.

Terra Cotta Exhibit at State Fair.

Miss Hattie M. Berry, of Chapel Hill, secretary and statistician of the North Carolina geological and economic survey, arrived Monday for a conference with W. C. Boren, chairman of the board of county commissioners, relative to plans for a geological exhibit at the North Carolina State fair in Raleigh. A number of the products of the Pomona Terra Cotta Company, of which Mr. Boren is head, will be exhibited at the state fair.

LARGE ADDITIONS AT THE POMONA MILLS.

Building of a large addition to the No. 2 mill of the Pomona Mills, Incorporated, together with the construction of a large number of homes for additional employees, will be started within the very early future, according to announcement made by officers of the enterprise. The improvements will involve a cost of approximately $400,000, according to estimates.

The addition, like the present No. 2 mill, will be of brick construction, conformably designed, and modern, of course, in every detail. It is planned to install 174 new looms, as well as a dye plant. The contract has been awarded to E. H. Clement & Co., of Charlotte, builders of the mammoth Fieldale mill, near Spray. Actual construction work will begin within a week, it is stated.

In order to house the additional employees the Pomona Company is planning to construct 50 new homes, having contracted for this work with the Aladdin Company, of Michigan. This firm furnishes houses in large numbers. These homes will contain from three to six rooms and will cost varying amounts, ranging as high as $3,500. The total cost of the homes will be about $100,000. They are to be built in the grove just west of the factory. Modern conveniences are to be provided for the homes, including sewerage facilities and modern heating systems.

Difficulty experienced in filing the multiplicity of orders assigned as a principal reason for the enlargement of the Pomona plant, while officials of the concern also realize that installment of dye works will permit more economical operations. Heretofore the goods manufactured by the local plant have necessarily been sent to northern points for finishing. The dye plant doubtless will represent the largest single improvement ever provided for by the company.

Besides coutills and corduroy, the two grades of cloth now manufactured by the Pomona mills, "romper" cloth will be manufactured following completion of the enlargement plans.

The work starting next week will be rapidly pushed to completion. According to present plans, it should be completed in six months. No time will then be lost in beginning textile operations in the addition. Like the present No. 2 mill, the addition will be three stories in height.

The already large investment which the Pomona mills represent will, of course, be materially increased as a result of the proposed improvements. As a matter of fact, operations have been remarkably successful and the ambitious project announced is merely in keeping with the determination of the management to overlook no opportunity for enlarging and improving the business. J. E. Latham is president; Pierce C. Rucker is vice president, and C. W. Causey is treasurer.

EL-REES-CO. WILL ESTABLISH BRANCH PLANT.

To make a definite decision as to the location of a branch manufacturing plant in some eastern Carolina city, John T. Rees, president, and V. B. Morgan, secretary, of the El-Rees-Co Cigar Company, will leave the latter part of the week on a trip of inspection. The location of a branch plant is necessary on account of labor conditions, the local plants now being short fully 200 workers, and with the acute housing situation it is next to impossible to bring workers from other cities. The eastern Carolina city which offers the best prospects of labor, to a large extent female labor, is going to get the branch factory, and it will mean no small addition to the industrial life of any community.

The El-Rees-Co plants here are operating to capacity and every effort to increase the output has been defeated by failure to get additional cigar makers, this despite the fact that the girls here are earning from $20 to $35 per week, practically all work being on the piece basis. The company started the year with an estimated output of 32,000,000. This will be fulfilled, but orders now in hand would run the 1919 production well past 40,000,000 if the labor could be obtained. El-Rees-Co demand has increased within the year, and there has been a phenomenal increase in the sale of the small El-Rees-Co and the John T. Rees brands. Mr. Rees is anxious to reach the 50,000,000 mark for 1920, and to do so he realizes that the immediate location of a branch factory is necessary.

The El-Rees-Co Company has built a number of houses and have others in the planning, but Mr. Rees feels unable to attempt to build sufficient houses to take care of his own labor requirements. He has been active in the campaign for a building corporation and the El-Rees-Co Company was one of the first and largest subscribers to the stock of the new corporation.

JOHN J. PHOENIX NOW AT COBLENZ WITH YANKEES.

John J. Phoenix, a well known business man of the city who has been doing "Y" work with the American expeditionary force for the past year or more, is now business secretary of the "Y" force stationed at Coblenz, Germany, according to information brought by Mr. Ashcraft, of Florence, Ala., formerly general secretary at Coblenz, who passed through the city with his family en route home Tuesday afternoon. A son of Mr. Phoenix is also stationed at Coblenz, according to Mr. Ashcraft, and both are in excellent health.

Mr. Ashcraft and son and Mr. Phoenix and son were all together at Coblenz, the Ashcrafts being mustered out of the "Y" service just a few days ago, when they were joined at New York by Mrs. Ashcraft, senior, and children. News of Mr. Phoenix and son was given to Mrs. G. W. Whitsett, serving as travelers' aid worker at the passenger station, Tuesday afternoon when No. 35 passed through. A man walked hurriedly up to the desk, stated that his name was Ashcraft and that he had just a few minutes before realized that Greensboro was the home of John J. Phoenix and that he wished to convey news of Mr. Phoenix and his whereabouts to his friends.

The former "Y" man did not know when Mr. Phoenix and son expected to return to the United States.
