Home Happenings.

—Federal Court will begin in this city to-morrow at 11 a. m.

—The Fruit crop in this section has not been seriously injured by the late cold weather.

—Grand Opening sale of leaf tobacco at the Enterprise Warehouse in this city on Tuesday April 12th.

—Go and hear Dr. Craven to-night. He addresses the Y. M. C. A. in the M. E. Church at 8 o'clock. Subject, "Machinery of Metals."

—A Texas preacher and his congregation had a falling out, and while at daggers points the minister received the appointment of chaplain to the penitentiary. In his farewell sermon he took for his text: "I go to prepare a place for you, so that where I am ye may be also."

—Son (to his father, who had asked him where he is in his class now): "Oh, pa, I've got a much better place than I had last quarter." "Indeed! Well, where are you?" "I'm fourteenth." "Fourteenth, you little lazy bones! You were eighth last term. Do you call that a better place?" "Yes, sir, it's nearer the stove."

—In our notice of the fire which occurred near Greensboro, on Tuesday morning of last week, by which the residence of Mr. A. R. Heath was destroyed, we stated that the loss of Mr. Heath was estimated at $50,000, and we were so informed, but it appears that our informant was in error. Mr. Heath desires us to state that his entire loss did not amount to more than $50.

—The Anniversary of the Woman's Missionary Society at the Methodist Church in this city last night, was a very fine success; the congregation was very large, and the singing by the choir first-class. The exercises consisted in reading the reports by the Secretaries and Treasurers of the three societies, and an essay by Miss Makepeace, of the College, and a regular address by Rev. Dr. Bobbitt; after which Rev. Dr. Bruton, the pastor, delivered the closing address and raised a good collection—the amount we did not learn. The whole occasion was a grand success.

The New Revenue Law.

We have received a copy of the new Revenue Law as passed by the Legislature at its late session. It contains very few changes of importance. One of its provisions require those who retail spirituous and malt liquors to pay $60 per annum in advance, and provides that no license shall be issued for a less period than twelve months. Mortgages, deeds of trust and marriage contracts are not taxed as formerly.

The Lyceum.

We understand that the meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association last Friday night was very interesting. The literary feature has been successfully introduced, and under the auspices of such an organization, bids fair to become the instrument of much good to our community. The following is the programme arranged for Friday night, April 8th: Original Essay, C. D. Benbow; Selected Reading, J. W. Rample. Debate:—Resolved, "That the late Legislature erred in not passing an absolute prohibitory liquor law." On the affirmative Messrs. S. B. Adams and A. P. McCormick. On the negative Messrs. W. S. Owen and N. C. English.

Names of New Magistrates.

List of Magistrates elected by the late Legislature of 1881, for Guilford county, for a term of six years in the following Townships:

John Cobb, Washington; D. P. Foust, Rock Creek; W. M. Thompson, Greene; Mcbane Apple, Madison; W. P. Wharton, Jefferson; Jos. W. Gilmer, Clay; J. W. Winchester, Center Grove; Henry Rankin, Monroe; L. F. Davis, Deep River; W. D. Wharton, Gilmer; J. A. Gray and J. W. Freeman, Jamestown; John Tucker, Fentress; W. N. Armfield, Friendship; George Donnell, Morehead; J. S. Ogburn, Bruce; F. S. Davis, Sumner; David Jordan, High Point; Jesse Benbow, Oak Ridge.

The Baltimore and Ohio Slips up Again—The Richmond and Danville Again Triumphant.

The Richmond and Danville people, suspecting that the Baltimore and Ohio would endeavour to obstruct them by a flank movement, went to New York on Monday and made all preparations to anticipate the time for completing their contract with the Atlanta and Charlotte Air-Line. Under the terms of the contract possession was to have been delivered to day (April 2d.) On Friday the deposit of $500,000 was made in cash the papers all signed and possession of the road delivered. About two hours afterwards an order of junction, obtained by J. W. Garrett and others, was served on the Air-Line—again too late. The Richmond and Danville people are still ahead.—Richmond Dispatch, April 2d.

Bishop Warren's Visit.

Bishop Warren, a distinguished member of the college of Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, a native of Pennsylvania, though now a resident of Atlanta, Ga., preached in the Methodist Church, this city, at 11 o'clock a. m. Sunday, to quite a large congregation. His text was: "I would that men would pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands without wrath and doubting"—from Paul's Epistle to Timothy. His sermon was one of extraordinary power, the language exceedingly beautiful and his oratorical powers are spoken of in the very highest terms. The congregation were delighted with the visit of the Bishop. At 7.30 p. m., he preached to an immense congregation at the Methodist Church in Warnersville. Bishop Warren made a very favorable impression here, and we hope he will soon favor Greensboro with another visit.

Prompt Payment.

Mr. Michael O'Donnell, who was killed in an accident on the North Carolina Railroad early in January last, was a member of the Knights of Honor of this city. His life was insured in this organization for $2,000. On Saturday last his widow received a check for the amount which was cashed to-day.

Opera Troupe.

The "Juveniles" passed through Greensboro yesterday, and took breakfast at the McAdoo House. They are a bright little set, and seem specially suited for comic opera. They are full of fun and frolic. After breakfast they captured Mr. McAdoo's piano and had a royal old time singing, and rendered some of Moody and Sankey's hymns in a manner that would have done credit to older heads and "bigger" singers. Little Jennie Dunn, the 12 year old prima donna, is a little beauty and bright as a dollar.

Personal Paragraphs.

Ex-Judge David Schenck was in the city for a short time yesterday.

Col. A. B. Andrews, of Raleigh, passed through Greensboro last evening enroute for Richmond.

Mr. W. B. Glenn the able and popular Senator from Stokes favored us with a visit to-day. He is in attendance upon Federal Court.

Ex-Gov. Vance passed through the city last evening enroute for Washington, so as to be present at the opening of the morning session of the Senate to-day.

Hon. Robt. B. Vance, one of the most popular members of Congress from this State, spent Sunday in our city. Genl. Vance was on his way home from a visit to New York, and left last evening for Asheville.

The powerful bass voice heard in the Methodist Church choir last night was that of Mr. Walter D. Simmons of Richmond, Va. It was a valuable aid to the excellent voices of the choir, and we hope to hear him again on his next visit to our town.

Senator Trumbull, of Illinois, who served from 1865 to 1873, and was regarded as one of the ablest members of the Senate, once said to a young lawyer who came to him with an application for a government appointment: "I presume you can have the place; but before I take a step in that direction, I feel like giving you one word of counsel. If you take office in Washington, you will ruin your whole life. You will never know how to live without office afterward, and no office can surround a man with the fortune of a gentleman."

In his speech at the Union League-Club dinner in New York on Tuesday night, of last week, Ex Judge Abner W. Tourgee said: "The time will come when the best blood of the country will come from the South. It may not be in my day, but I believe the time will come. When the North is over-populated and old, then the strong men will come from the South. I know not of what race or color, nor do I care. The negroes down there are rapidly growing strong, as are also the poor whites who needed the ballot to teach them that they were men. Even the old aristocratic element, the most involved of all, is improving its condition greatly."

Valuable City Property for Sale.—Several desirable lots for residences or places can be bought at low figures by addressing Lock Box 311, Greensboro, N. C., or applying to the editor of the Patriot, at this office. Greensboro is improving; now is the time to invest in real estate. Sub. 11-17.

Look at the Figures.—The purchase list as given to the County Register, (see PATRIOT, March 30th,) shows that J. W. Scott & Co., bought several thousand dollars worth more goods the last six months of 1880, than any other house in the City except one (Messrs. Odell & Co.)—Notwithstanding we were, during that time reducing our stock—and buying as few goods as possible, to prepare for a change in our business, as our copartnership expired by limitation, Jan. 1st, 1881. Good goods, at low prices will sell, and the tax list will tell who sells them. The more goods we sell the shorter profit we can afford to sell at. Very respectfully,
J. W. SCOTT & Co.,

GREENSBORO, N. C.

Monday Evening, April 4, 1881.

Senator Mahone has two organs, both daily—one in Washington and the other in Richmond. What the Washington organ doesn't copy from the Richmond organ the Richmond organ is certain to copy from the Washington organ. Senator Mahone ought to economize by dispensing with one set of editors.

We are informed that Senators Mahone, of Virginia, and Voorhees, of Indiana, will apologize to the Senate to-day for the unparliamentary language used in debate on Friday last. So it appears there will be "no hereafter," notwithstanding the assertion of Senator Mahone to that effect.

A Generous Millionaire.

Ex-President Thomas A. Scott, of the Pennsylvania Road, is showing himself a philanthropist as well as a railroad man, and is proving that he knows how to distribute fortunes as well as to make them. Within the last few days he has endowed the Chair of Mathematics in the University of Pennsylvania with $50,000, has given the same amount to the Jefferson College, has presented $30,000 to the Orthopedic Hospital, $20,000 to the children's department of the Episcopal Hospital of Philadelphia, and given $50,000 to the Washington and Lee University at Lexington, Va., making in all $200,000 bestowed in wise and discriminating charities. Such large-handed liberality shows that the ex-President of the Pennsylvania Road has a kindly heart as well as a vigorous brain, and that he has well deserved the fortune which he has won.

This latter donation is especially noteworthy as proceeding from a man who has always been pronounced in his Republican sentiments. His liberal gifts to local and home institutions, while thoroughly admirable, are not surprising; but this magnificent gift to a Southern college indicates that he is above sectional prejudices, and is too large minded to be influenced in his charities by political considerations.

The Chimes of Normandy.

To-morrow evening Miles' Juvenile Opera Company, composed of forty remarkably clever children, possessed of fine voices, will render the beautiful opera above named. The performance will be pleasing in every particular. We hope every seat in Benbow Hall will be taken. As an evidence of the great merit of Miles' Juveniles we give the following from the Charlotte Observer of Thursday last: "If the enjoyment of an audience constitutes in any degree the measure or test of the merit of a performance, the 'Chimes of Normandy,' as presented by Miles' Juveniles last night, must be considered excellent in every respect. In point of fact, the presentation will compare favorably, in the character of the voices and the grace and ease of the actors, with almost any operatic performance witnessed here this season, while an additional charm was lent to it by the youth and artlessness of the performers. Miss Jennie Dunn, in particular, as 'Serpolette,' was accorded the admiration and frequent applause of the audience, for the remarkable training and compass of voice exhibited, and the self-possession and commanding bearing which she assumed, and which set so well upon her. Miss Sallie Cohen as 'Germaine' made a charming heroine, while Miss Fannie Crambert as 'Jeanne,' the graceful wooer, was a fascinating character. Other characters lent variety to the entertainment by the excellence of their make up and mimicry." Secure your seats now: at Yates' Bookstore, Price 75c for adults; only 25c for children.

The Prohibition Question.

The New York Times thus summarizes the efforts now making towards prohibition in the different States: "The absurd Anti-treating law of Wisconsin is but a single incident in the abundant crop of liquor laws produced by this winter's Legislatures. In Delaware a game of see-saw is in progress. The House now has before it a very stringent prohibitory bill passed by the Senate, while the Senate has already killed a local option bill passed by the House. The Senate bill is expected to become a law. In Illinois the House defeated a proposed constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of liquor. In Indiana a local option bill was defeated in the Senate. In Kansas the new liquor law is giving much trouble. Citizens find themselves unable to buy cognac, bay rum, spirits of camphor, &c., without a physician's prescription, and one minister has publicly declared that although his church is liable to be closed as a nuisance, and himself to be sent to State's prison, he will nevertheless continue to administer the Sacrament. Meanwhile there is a growing opinion that the law is unconstitutional. In Michigan a proposed prohibitory constitutional amendment failed in both houses. In New Jersey a local option bill was humorously debated, amendments being offered forbidding the use of tobacco, the wearing of wigs, corsets and high-heeled shoes, without popular consent, &c. The bill did not become a law. In New York there is the usual variety of excise bills, and a commission has been appointed to revise and consolidate existing laws. In North Carolina a bill regulating the sale of liquor passed the House, but was defeated in the Senate. Thereupon an iron-clad law was passed, subject to the opinion of the people of the State, which is to be taken at an election on the first Thursday of next August. The bill prohibits not only the sale, but the manufacture, and even the importation of spirituous drinks. The bill is favored by the whites and the best of the blacks, and is said to be a political rather than a temperance measure, the object of its promoters being rather to free the State from inspectors of revenue than from drunkards. In Ohio the subject is being actively discussed, but final action is not yet reported. If the Republicans do pass a liquor law, they will lose the beer-drinking German vote, and if they do not the Prohibitionists will desert in a body. Either alternate seems so dreadful to the Republican politician of Ohio that his present lot is not a happy one. In South Carolina a new law prohibits the sale of liquor except in municipal corporations, where saloon keepers must pay $100 for a license, the amount going into the county Treasury. Charleston city is an exception; there a license costs $200, and the money goes to the city. In Texas a bill submitting a constitutional amendment to the people passed the Senate, but was lost in the House. In West Virginia a similar measure was lost in the Senate.

The Weather for April.

Here are the predictions of Vennor of the weather for April. They are calculated for the latitude of Canada: "There will be sharp frost in the beginning of April, with a snowfall on the 4th or 5th, but the spring will open favorably, and everything will be pretty well advanced by April 15. Floods may be expected in Chicago about the first week in April, with high winds also prevailing in the early part of the month. Snowfalls are probable about April 5. Navigation is likely to open on Lake Ontario about April 7. The St. Lawrence will be open about the 9th and 11th, and the first steamship will probably arrive about the 17th. 18th. The weather will be very stormy in the lower provinces about the 20th, with very high water prevailing, but in the West April will be a dry month. There will be warm weather just following the 20th, ending in thunder storms on the 24th and 25th. Snow storms are probable in the far West on the 25th and 26th, and snowfalls are not unlikely to occur in England at the close of the month. The month will end wet and cold, but, on the whole will be like a May month.

Be Kind to the Children.

Oh, yes: they worry you with their noise and prattle, but if the little feet should slip away and the chattering tongue be stilled forever, think you would ever hear music so sweet again? Ah, how they cling to you for protection, even as the little vine clingeth to the sturdy oak, and it lies in your power to raise or crush these tender vines. They are a source of great care and anxiety to you; they tire you with their importunities, but if they were removed, oh, how heavily the hours would hang! You would then pine for the cares of which you now complain; would be always wishing for a broken doll to mend or a muddy boot to clean. Be gentle with the children; chide them in a way that will lead them to see their error. Let not the flowers that are springing up in their young hearts be stunted by harsh, unfeeling words.

Be patient, too, with them. They tax you heavily at times. They are often careless, frequently willful, sometimes disobedient and rude; but if they love you—yes, they love you—and with their love and sympathy you are amply rewarded for your patience. There may be a time when you will look back to these as your happiest days—a time when the bright faces that surround you now may be waiting somewhere on the other shore; when every unkind word and act will loom up before you and cause you unceasing regret. Be kind to the little ones.—Church Journal.

A Helping Hand.

Florida letter to the Philadelphia Times: "Over thirty-five years ago," said General Loring, "when I was a young man, without friends or influence, General Cameron took me to the secretary of war, and with my two Senators, Yulee and Westcott, secured my appointment as an officer in a new regiment which was at that time being organized. I served with it through the Mexican war, and lost my left arm at Chapultepec. The civil war, for I was in the Confederate service," said General Loring, "interrupted the social relations between us, but it never destroyed my respect for the man who was a friend to me when friends were gold." General Loring, who was going to his home in Gainesville, Florida, near the place he has an orange grove, turned back to Fernandina and spent the next two days there in pleasant chat with General Cameron, renewing the friendship which began when one was powerful and the other weak and friendless.

Letters from the People.

ED PATRIOT:—It is said that Greensboro is a good place to find a man with two faces: One for you when he can make something out of you, and against you the next moment!—provided he has got all that he can make out of you. Now I fear the above is true, and I simply ask you to print this in order that such beings may know that they are marked—Hypocrisy is a dangerous thing. OLIVER.

Public Exhibition.

The citizens in the vicinity of Murphy's school house, near McLeansville, had quite an interesting day on Thursday 31st, ult., when the three-and-a-half month's school taught by Mr. Henry Cobb closed. A general examination of the scholars took place in the morning, and was very interesting; but, the spelling evinced much proficiency on the part of the scholars. After an hour's recess a procession was formed and the teacher and scholars, headed by a string band, marched back to the school house. Mr. Cobb then delivered an excellent address on the "Decision of character." Several declamations were then made by the pupils. All the exercises were greatly appreciated by the large audience in attendance, and certainly reflected great credit upon the skill and untiring energy of the teacher, and the diligence and close application of the pupils. The music was good and all who were present will long remember the closing exercises of Mr. Cobb's school. This training of the children in public exhibitions is the best way to make them familiar with the lessons taught, and give them that self-reliance and confidence, so essential to an easy entrance into society. We think all our schools should have a public exhibition on closing. April 4th 1881. A FRIEND.

DIED.

In this city on the night of April 2d, Mrs. Mary E., wife of Alex. F. Eckel, Esq., in the 56th year of her age. The funeral of the deceased will take place from her late residence to-morrow at 11 o'clock, a. m. The friends of the family are invited to attend.

Ask the recovered dyspeptic bilious sufferer, victims of liver and ague, the mercurial diseased patient how they recovered health, beefy spirits and good appetite; they will tell you by taking SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR.

LIVER REGULATOR.

THE CHEAPEST, PUREST, AND BEST FAMILY MEDICINE IN THE WORLD!

For Dyspepsia, Constipation, Jaundice, Bilious attacks, Sick Headache, Colic, Depression of Spirits, Sour Stomach, Heart Burn, &c. &c.

This unrivalled Southern Remedy is warranted not to contain a single particle of Mercury, or any injurious mineral substance, but is PURELY VEGETABLE.

Containing those Southern Roots and Herbs, which an all wise Providence has placed in countries where Liver Diseases most prevail. It will cure all Diseases caused by Derangement of the Liver and Bowels.

The Symptoms of the Liver Complaints are a bitter or bad taste in the mouth; Pain in the Back, Sides or Joints, often mistaken for Rheumatism; Sour Stomach; Loss of Appetite; Bowels alternately costive and lax; Headache; Loss of Memory, with a painful sensation of having failed to do something which ought to have been done; Debility, Low Spirits, a thick yellow appearance of the Skin and eyes, a dry Cough often mistaken for Consumption.

Sometimes many of the symptoms attend the disease, at others very few; but the Liver, the largest organ in the body, is generally the seat of the disease, and if not regulated in time, great suffering, wretchedness and Death will ensue.

CAUTION.

As there are a number of imitations offered to the public, we would caution the community to buy no Powders or Prepared Simmons Liver Regulator in white wrappers, and has the red letter Z and Mortar in the front, and is made by J. H. ZEILIN & CO.

"We have tested its virtues, personally, and know that for Dyspepsia, Biliousness, and Throbbing Headache, it is the best medicine the world ever saw. We have tried forty other remedies before Simmons Liver Regulator but none of them gave us more than temporary relief; but the Regulator not only relieved, but cured us."—Ed. TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Latest Dispatches to the Daily Patriot.

Mahone and Voorhees.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 4.—Senators Voorhees and Mahone declined being interviewed Saturday on the subject of their sparring exhibition in the Senate Friday. The friends of both gentlemen endeavored to arrange a mutual explanation for to-day with every chance of success. Mr. Voorhees has stated to a friend that he was content to let the controversy between himself and Senator Mahone rest just where it is; he is satisfied certainly, if the Senator from Virginia is. One thing is very clear—there will be no pistol and coffee foolishness. Nobody doubts the courage of either of the men, and they need not go upon the field of honor to establish it.

Telegraphic News Notes.

The Texas Legislature adjourned sine die on Friday last. —Lewis Soranton, one of the most prominent business men of Mobile, Ala., is dead. —H. Connerley & Co., general store keepers of Vienna, Ala., have failed, with liabilities of $30,000, and assets of $10,000. —Two large varnish factories and Robinson's wagon works, at Cincinnati, were burned Saturday. Loss estimated at $100,000. —A dispatch from Crockett, Texas, to the Galveston News, says Frank Edwards, col, was convicted Friday of the murder of his wife, near Weldon, last March, and was sentenced to death. —At a meeting of the directors of the Western Union Telegraph Company Saturday, Cornelius Vanderbilt resigned as director, and Gen. Eckert was made a member of the executive board, in place of S. F. Barger.

To

IT WILL PAY YOU
IF YOU WANT TO RAISE A LARGE CROP OF Fine Yellow Tobacco, TO USE OUR
"Star Brand" Complete Manure.

It SECURES quick growth, large crops, early maturity, and a large, fine, silky leaf, with a plenty of body, which is easily cured, and makes the finest Yellow Wrappers, or fine Manufacturing Tobacco, according to soil and management.

CROPS GROWN with it have sold for a higher average price than those grown with any other fertilizer whatever.

ITS STANDARD AND QUALITY WILL POSITIVELY NOT BE LOWERED.

This Fertilizer has been before this community for many years, and has become the most popular fertilizer on the market. It is extensively used throughout Virginia and North Carolina, and is well known and recommended by Planters and Farmers as a thoroughly trustworthy high grade article.

The demand for it has steadily increased each year since its introduction, which is the best evidence of its value. Whatever may be the merits of other fertilizers, no one can go wrong in using one which is so well made, is so fully guaranteed, and has been so long and so thoroughly tested.
