

PRESIDENT UR- MINERS TO RETURN TO WORK

AS LONG AS MEN REMAIN ON STRIKE HE WILL MAKE NO RECOMMENDATIONS.

Washington, July 30.—President Wilson through the United Mine Workers of America tonight appealed to striking mine laborers in Illinois and Indiana to return to work. Inequalities in the existing wage scale, held by the strike leaders to be the cause of the walkout which has closed most of the bituminous mines in the two states, may exist, the President said. He added that he could not recommend correction of any inequalities until the strikers returned to their jobs, but that when they did so he would invite the joint scale committee of operators and miners to meet for the purpose of adjusting any such inequalities.

The President issued his appeal in the form of a telegram addressed to the United Mine Workers of America, after he had studied a report on the coal situation submitted by Secretary of Labor Wilson.

Reports of the strike of mine laborers particularly in Illinois, the President said, had been received by him "with a feeling of regret and sorrow." He declared that he was distressed not only because failure at this time to mine coal in accordance with the terms of the existing contract would result in suffering during the coming winter, but also because "the violation of the terms of your solemn obligations impairs your good name, destroys the confidence which is the basis of all mutual agreements, and threatens the very foundation of fair industrial relations."

Pointing out that the United Mine Workers constituted the largest single labor organization in the world, the President said "no organization could long endure that sets up its own strength as being superior to its pledged faith or its duty to society at large."

Complies With the Wilson Message.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 30.—In compliance with the wishes of President Wilson, John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, will issue a mandatory order instructing all miners now on strike in Indiana and Illinois to immediately return to work, so as to permit the normal operation of the mines. It was announced at miners' national headquarters here tonight.

THE AUTOMOBILE CLAIMS MANY VICTIMS DAILY.

Charlotte, July 29.—Horace Reid, white man, and Joseph Hilderman, 12 years of age, were seriously injured at noon yesterday when an automobile truck in which they were riding was struck by a Piedmont and Northern passenger train at a grade crossing just outside the town limits of Lowell.

Minister's Wife Killed.

Greer, S. C., July 29.—In an automobile collision near here to-day Mrs. Emory Rouak, wife of a Methodist minister of Union, S. C., was thrown through the windshield of the machine in which she was riding and fatally hurt.

Aged Woman Run Down.

Asheville, July 29.—Mrs. Dora Gromwell, aged 72, is lying at the point of death in the Meriwether hospital as the result of an accident near Candler Wednesday morning, when a car driven by Ora M. Smathers, of Canton, struck her, knocking her to the ground and passing over her body.

Young Woman Killed.

Roanoke, Va., July 29.—Miss Catherine Van Pelis, 22 years old, of Brunswick, Maryland, early tonight was instantly killed when an automobile in which she was riding with two friends, turned turtle on a road two miles from Roanoke. Cause of the accident was not determined.

Too Much Wine in Spain.

Madrid, July 29.—Thousands of persons in Spain are incensed over the action of the wine growers in the Valdepenas and other vineyard districts, who, after a meeting, threw large quantities of this year's yield, which is extremely bountiful, into the rivers, in order, it is said, to maintain the high prices of wines.

"HELLO, JIMMY!" "HOW'RE YOU, CHARLIE?"

COX FEELS SURE HE WILL BE ELECTED PRESIDENT IN NOVEMBER.

Dayton, Ohio, July 30.—Belief that he would be elected president was expressed by Governor Cox today in an address at the "home-coming" celebration here over his nomination by the Democratic party.

After he had stood two hours under a burning sun, reviewing a parade of civic, fraternal, industrial and other organizations, variously estimated to contain between 8,000 and 12,000 marchers, crowds stormed the reviewing stand and insisted upon a brief address from the guest of honor.

Thanking his audience for the testimonial from the men, women and children with whom he had lived for 20 years, Governor Cox said:

"I just said to a gentleman from Washington that it would appear to be a reflection on one's judgment to desire to leave Dayton and live in any other place. Yet somehow, I have a feeling that I am going to reside in the house which you, yourselves, own. As the future tenant of those premises, I promise to take good care of it."

"See Me in Washington."

To another crowd of admirers who almost crushed the governor and Mrs. Cox as they left the reviewing stand and forced them to take shelter in the county jail building, Governor Cox said jocularly:

"I invite you all to come to see me in Washington."

The governor's brief addresses were not scheduled among the day's events. The governor left his "Trail's End" library to view the parade. In the midst of completion of his address for August 7, accepting the Democratic nomination, the address, he said, would go surely to the printer tomorrow for advance circulation to the newspapers tomorrow night.

The parade to-day was the crowning event of the non-political demonstration by the governor's home folks.

It was "Jimmy" Cox day in Dayton for the thousands who packed the parade route, released by the half-holiday declared to honor their first citizen.

"Hello, Jimmy" was the salutation shouted at the governor by hundreds of the paraders. "Three cheers for Jimmy," and "Hi, Jimmy, I'll see you in the White House," were other greetings.

The governor declared, waving a soggy handkerchief and applauding each crowd and group, responded in kind.

"Buck," "Pete" and "Bo" There.

"Hello, Buck," and "Hello there, Pete," and "Hello, like," and "How are you, Charlie," were among the greetings the governor shouted back to the marchers as he pointed out many old-time friends.

"I have seen men who have followed my standard for 12 years who gave me confidence in 1908," said the governor in his brief address. "I am prouder to have held it than to have inspired it at the outset. It shall be my aim at all times to justify the confidence you have evidenced this afternoon."

"Jimmy" Cox also was the keynote of many banners on parade floats and marchers' banners.

Tired of Wearing Skirts Dons Boy's Attire.

Hendersonville, July 29.—"I'm tired of wearing girl's clothes and want to earn a boy's wages," said Miss Bonnie King, of 22 Ashland avenue, Asheville, who is in jail here for masquerading effectively as a boy.

The girl is 14 and very pretty, wears overalls and bears a good reputation, according to Asheville people's testimony in the mayor's court here to-day.

She wears her hair cut the latest boy fashion and told the mayor she had hidden her long locks expecting some day to make a switch of them.

Failing to get a job wheeling brick for which she applied, she was found washing dishes in a cafe near the depot. She left Asheville Tuesday and will be held here pending the arrival of her father, an employee of the Asheville Light and Power Company.

Two Million Dollar Fire in Brooklyn

A fire that started in the W. A. Starr lumber yards at Twenty-seventh street and Third avenue, Brooklyn, swept the entire block, burning up eleven dwellings, several warehouses, a factory, and the lumber yard. Five alarms were turned in, and the firemen from all parts of Brooklyn responded. It was only after a hard battle that the flames were kept from spreading to nearby shipyards. Volunteers joined the firemen in fighting the blaze. The loss is estimated at more than two million dollars.

BALTIMORE PAPER PAYS TRIBUTE TO CAROLINA

EDITORIAL PRAISES THE "COME BACK" OF THE OLD NORTH STATE.

Washington, July 30.—The remarkable tax paying record of North Carolina for the fiscal year ending June 30—a record which involved the paying of $169,000,000 in federal taxes—caused publication in the Baltimore Evening Sun to-day of an editorial praising the "come back" of the Old North State since the Civil war.

Tar Heels in Washington read this tribute with keen appreciation to-day, because it brings more forcibly to attention of outside regions the realization that North Carolina leads all Southern states in federal taxes paid and such a thing is indicative of prosperity and upbuilding.

The Baltimore newspaper admits that North Carolina far exceeded Maryland in the taxation table and that it outranked all its neighbors, including Texas, five times as large, and Georgia, called the "empire state of the South."

Here is the editorial which should bring a glow of satisfaction to the thriving cities and towns of the state. It is headed "Tar Heel Affluence," and reads:

"Only a little more than 50 years ago North Carolina was desolated by war, woefully poverty stricken, prostrate under the heel of thieving carpet baggers and negroes, supported by federal troops. The state had lost more men in the war than any other, its slave property was gone, Confederate money, virtually its only circulating medium, had become worthless; there was little federal currency and little to sell to secure it, for the able-bodied men had been fighting and the negroes were celebrating their freedom by looting and talking politics. The outlook was dreary in the extreme."

Large Per Capita Wealth.

"In the fiscal year ended June 30, North Carolina paid federal taxes of $169,206,000, which was doubtless more than the entire wealth of the state, outside of land, in 1870."

"The Maryland district which includes Delaware and the District of Columbia, paid only $120,752,457. Texas, five times as large as North Carolina, and with double its population, paid $103,000,000. Georgia called the 'empire state of the South,' paid $42,665,000 and Tennessee $35,138,000."

"The North Carolina figures are all the more remarkable because the state has no large cities; none in the class of Baltimore, Washington, New Orleans, Atlanta, Dallas, Richmond, nor even Norfolk or Savannah. It has no big seaport. Its largest town is Winston-Salem, of 48,000 population, with Charlotte somewhat smaller, and Wilmington, Raleigh and Asheville considerably so. It has, moreover, very few millionaires. But its per capita wealth is larger than that of any other Southern state, and it is buying automobiles, it is said, at the rate of $50,000,000 a year. The basis of its prosperity is, of course, tobacco and cotton, both the growing and manufacture; lumber and truck farming."

"North Carolina has the oldest state University in America, its charter dating from 1789. The state's appropriation for maintenance and building is about $200,000. The Alumni Review, in pointing out its inadequacy, says, under the head of 'Gasoline and Culture':

Little Money For Education.

"At present North Carolina has 54 cents per inhabitant invested in university properties, and $50 per inhabitant invested in automobiles. In 125 years we have built up a university plant worth $1,350,000. In 10 years we have bought up $100,000,000 worth of motor cars! We are buying motor cars faster than any other state in the union, says the national automobile chamber of commerce—$50,000,000 worth a year! A hundred and forty thousand dollars worth a day, including Sunday."

"We are skyrocketing toward the top of the automobile column; but in common school and university investments we sour aloft life leaguers of old, like Dorius Green and his flying machine!"

"Our 1,500 students already demand almost exactly twice the space available to-day—to say nothing of the future. We could just as easily have 5,000 as 1,500 students here, if only the state would provide the facilities."

"The Agricultural and Mechanical College, with a large attendance, and also a state institution, is not connected with the university."

"It is interesting to note that, while Maryland has no state university, it is giving to its state college and to higher educational institutions twice as much as North Carolina appropriates for its university."

Moose May Build Home.

This week a committee appointed by the Supreme Lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose to select a place in the south to serve as a home for aged and infirm members of this fraternal organization will visit Greensboro, according to announcement made by Burt S. Eldridge, of Greensboro, who is head of the Mooseheart legion of North Carolina. The Greensboro Chamber of Commerce is co-operating with the Moosemen in an effort to secure a suitable place near the city. The members of the committee, it is stated, desire a tract containing about 150 acres, preferably with a large building on the land. Excellent climatic conditions must prevail. The Loyal Order of Moose will support the institution. Other places in this state will be visited by the committee, it is expected.

Gibsonville Road Opened.

After being closed to traffic for several months while being improved the Gibsonville road, which is an extension of East Market street, has been reopened for traffic. The highway has been converted from macadam into a Warrenite surface highway. The road is now of asphalt from the city to the county home, a distance of two and one-half miles. The link from the county home to Buffalo creek, about six miles from Greensboro, will next be completed, and it is planned to continue the road building work until the Alamance county line is reached. The new-surfaced highway is of construction similar to that of the Greensboro-High Point road, a splendid thoroughfare.

ADVANCE IN RAILROAD RATES WILL BE ASKED.

Washington, Aug. 1.—Advances of intrastate rates—freight, passenger and Pullman—to correspond with the interstate increases authorized yesterday by the interstate commerce commission will be asked of the various state railway commissions by the carriers, it was stated here tonight by Alfred P. Thom, general counsel for the Association of Railway Executives.

Such intrastate rate increases, Mr. Thom said, will not add to the total income provided for by the federal commission's decision because in submitting their estimate the carriers calculated on a basis of increases of both interstate and intrastate rates.

Applications to the state commissions are now being prepared by the railroads and it is expected by the railway executives that the increases will be granted. Should any state commission refuse to authorize them however, the carriers, Mr. Thom said, will proceed under the transportation act and ask a hearing before the interstate commerce commission to determine whether the existing intrastate state rates are discriminatory or prejudicial to interstate commerce.

Miss Ruby Louise Bryan Dead.

Miss Ruby Louise Bryan, a well known and highly esteemed young lady of this city, died at midnight Saturday at the McGill sanitarium, following a brief illness. Miss Bryan was 32 years old, a native of Onondaga Hill, N. Y. After receiving an education in the public schools, college and university in her home state, she became a member of the faculty of the North Carolina College for Women, this city, where she taught for two years. She also taught in San Antonio, Texas, and at the time of her death was associated with Mrs. L. B. McGill at the McGill sanitarium. She is survived by her mother and a brother, Charles S. Bryan, of Charleston, S. C.

The funeral services will be conducted at the Presbyterian Church of the Covenant, this city, at 5 o'clock this afternoon by the pastor, Rev. R. Murphy Williams. Interment will be in Greene Hill cemetery.

JUDGE WEBB SUBJECT TO INCOME TAX LEVY.

Washington, July 30.—The department of justice ordered an opinion to-day that any federal judge who has taken oath of office since the passage of the war revenue bill, with the income tax section, is subject to the income tax while those who were already in office cannot have their emoluments reduced by such legislation.

Applied locally, this means that Judge E. Yates Webb is subject to an income tax levy, because he has recently taken office, while Judges Connor, Pritchard and Boyd are not subject to the tax.

The constitution, upon which the opinion is based, provides that such officers of the federal government must not have their compensation reduced during tenure of office.

NORTH CAROLINA FRIENDS HOLD YEARLY MEETING

ABOUT 200 DELEGATES ASSEMBLING AT GUILFORD COLLEGE—FINE PROGRAM PLANNED.

Ministers and delegates numbering approximately 200 are assembling at Guilford College for the Yearly Meeting of Friends. The first public meeting will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, but a session of the ministers is being held to-day. This is a statewide assemblage, with representation from Friends churches throughout North Carolina and the deliberations of the body naturally are of far-reaching character as well as of keen popular interest.

Five services will be held daily, beginning tomorrow and continuing until next Sunday. Services will be in progress practically all day next Sunday, when an unusually important and interesting program will be carried out, with distinguished Friends from other states as well as from North Carolina participating.

One of the features will be a lecture tomorrow afternoon by Dr. Edgar Hole, of Earlham College, Indiana. Each day meetings in which the general public will be interested will be held at 10 A. M., 2 P. M. and 8 P. M. Special services for children will be held at 4 P. M., and the visitors' meetings are scheduled for 7 P. M. each day.

The delegates will be entertained in Founders hall at Guilford College.

American Grocers Society to Open Big Branch Here.

The American Grocers Society, Inc., of Newark, N. J., will open a branch distributing agency in this city, according to announcement made by a representative of the concern in this city last week. A lease has been secured on the plant of the Melton-Rhodes Company for the period of five years and as soon as the buildings have been remodelled the new company will begin active operations.

The Society is composed of grocers throughout the country and the local branch will serve as a distributing agency for the members in this and adjoining states.

Christian Endeavor Society of Alamance Church Enjoying Outing.

The Christian Endeavors of Alamance church enjoyed a most delightful outing last Thursday when the forty or more members went on a picnic to Haw River.

The party left early Thursday morning and it was high into evening before the festivities of the day were concluded. The boys experienced good luck in seining the river, their efforts being rewarded with enough fish to feed the hungry multitude. A picnic dinner was also served, however, as the ladies were afraid to take chances on the success of their escorts to catch enough fish.

During the afternoon various games and sports were engaged in and this proved to be one brimming full of fun for every member of the society.

Greensboro Ready For Biggest Tobacco Season in the History.

Greensboro is ready for the biggest and best tobacco crop in its history. Since last season much progress has been made in providing great facilities for the handling of this year's crop, and the facilities are now entirely adequate.

The Imperial Tobacco Company is already finishing up one of the largest drying plants in the state in this vicinity. The tobacco crop in this vicinity is the largest in the history of tobacco production. All the big buyers have already been assigned to the Greensboro market, and with the adequate facilities offered by this city this year indications are that the sales will reach the highest mark this market has ever experienced.

Cotton Mills Close For Annual Vacation.

Beginning at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon, the Proximity, Revolution and White Oak mills closed for a period of ten days. It is an annual custom for these mills to close for ten days to give their employees a vacation and to make the necessary repairs on the machinery. The mills will begin work again August 9.

NO IRON-BOUND AGREEMENT BETWEEN COX AND WILSON.

Washington, July 29.—George White, of Ohio, newly-elected chairman of the Democratic national committee, came to Washington today and produced the first real live political story the capital has had in several weeks. Within three hours after his arrival he saw newspaper men at Democratic headquarters and told them three outstanding things, to-wit:

That there is no "iron-bound agreement" between President Wilson and Governor Cox on the league of nations.

That Governor Cox is not bound to make the league the dominant issue in the present campaign and that he will not make it the leading issue.

That Governor Cox and not President Wilson, is now the titular head of the Democratic party.

There was no defiance of the White House in the statement of Manager White, but he did make it plain that although the President may desire the league to be the chief issue in the campaign, Governor Cox is under no obligation to make it so and the nominee will blaze his own trail.

He further said that in the Wilson-Cox conference at the White House the spirit of the league was discussed, not its details. Governor Cox is with the President so far as the spirit of the league is concerned, but it was plainly shown that he has not swallowed that instrument as it is written.

Eggcellent!

Winsted, Conn., July 29.—In return for choice morsels of food a hen at Highland Lake Park lays an egg every morning on the bed of the chef, according to Christopher Poilus, manager of the park and owner of the hen. After laying the egg the hen cackles over it, waking the chef, who, on rising, finds a fresh egg for his breakfast.

MICHIGAN OFFICER KILLED IN FIGHT WITH BANDITS.

Jackson, Mich., July 29.—Deputy Sheriff Harry Worden was instantly killed, Deputy Sheriff Kutt was wounded and two alleged bandits were shot in a gun fight late today between a sheriff's posse and a band of robbers who had held up and looted the Farmers' State Bank at Grass Lake, 15 miles east of here, this afternoon. Six men, five of whom are said to have been members of the bandit gang, were captured following a fight in a marsh near Wolf Lake, a few miles from the scene of the robbery.

The robbers were captured when surrounded in a summer cottage.

The loot, consisting of approximately $10,000 in cash and bonds, was recovered.

Officers believe two of the bandits are still at large and that one of them was wounded. Search for them was being continued tonight.

LARGE INCREASE IN NATION'S WHEAT CROP.

Washington, July 29.—Wheat from last year's crop carried over into 1920 totalled 109,318,000 bushels on July 1, compared with 48,561,000 bushels of the 1918 crop on hand the corresponding day last year, said an announcement to-day by the department of agriculture.

Stocks on farms, in country mills and elevators, and in points of large accumulation, all showed an increase over 1919 totals. This year farmers held 47,756,000 bushels against 19,261,000 bushels in 1919 the figure perhaps reflecting disturbed transportation conditions during the past year. At the larger central storage points this year the department found 24,574,000 bushels, against 9,532,000 in same places on July 1, 1919. In the country mills and elevators this year, there are 36,988,000 bushels, while in 1919 there were 19,768,000.

GIRL ELECTROCUTED BY BOLT AS SHE GRASPED WIRE.

Mt. Airy, July 29.—Miss Mary King, the 12-year-old daughter of Mrs. Jerry King, met an untimely death by lightning near her home in Westfield township, while on her way to church. Mother and daughter had started to prayer meeting when the weather suddenly grew threatening, and they took a short cut across the field in order to reach the church before the expected downpour.

A barbed wire fence barred their progress, and the young lady had just grasped the wire to make an opening between the strands large enough to permit her mother to pass through, when lightning struck the fence some distance away. So heavily were the wires immediately charged with electricity that the child was electrocuted, death being instantaneous. Her mother was not hurt. The entire body of the dead girl had turned intensely blue before it could be released from the fence.

PESSIMISM IS NOT WARRANTED NOW.

Washington, July 30.—Asserting that while the application by the federal reserve banks of brakes on credit has had a "jarring effect on some nervous systems," John Skelton Williams, comptroller of the currency, in a statement tonight said general business conditions throughout the country afforded abundant reasons for "confidence and encouragement in the future."

Action of the federal reserve banks in largely depriving non-essentials and luxuries from the use of credit was said by Mr. Williams to have had a very beneficial effect. Reports to the comptroller show a marked tendency towards liquidation, he said, adding he believed the credit restrictions were responsible for such declines in prices as have come.

Mr. Williams said there was a prevalent pessimism which was unwarranted in that the banks at present were in a particularly well fortified position. He cited figures from reports on the last national bank call, June 30, to show that there were increases in loans by banks in only two sections, the western and Cleveland districts.

The currency comptroller censured New York banks for exacting interest charges ranging as high as 15 per cent. New York bankers, he said, were the only ones in the country charging such interest rates which he believed to be burdensome on business as well as without justification for their excessiveness. These banks, Mr. Williams said, have been obtaining credit from the federal reserve banks at "less than six per cent."

"Those inclined to pessimistic views as to our financial situation," Mr. Williams continued, "probably do not know, or do not appreciate the immensely significant fact that our federal reserve banks have an unused lending power of $75,000,000 at this time. 'If the occasion required, the board could, by raising reserve requirements on deposits and notes only 10 per cent, increase the unused lending power to $250,000,000, which is 25 as much as all of the national banks ever borrowed at one time on bills payable and rediscounts prior to 1913. In the face of such figures and facts as these the fear expressed in some sections that there may not be money enough available to move the crop seems manifestly absurd."

A Reminder of Old Times.

Wilson, July 29.—Early Wednesday morning Mr. E. S. Dickerson, near Back Creek, had the misfortune to have a tobacco barn filled with the golden weed go up in smoke. Before the ashes grew cold, neighbors gathered around, threw off their coats and went to the work of reconstruction like killing snakes, and before nightfall the barn was ready for another "cure." Such a spirit brings back recollections of the days of "aid lang syne." When a brother met misfortune, everyone was willing to "lend a helping hand."

Room of "Dying Woman" Contained Liquors.

Newark, N. J., July 30.—Through a room which the proprietor of a saloon told them a dying woman occupied, federal prohibition agents tonight forced their way and smashed bottles and bolts on the door of an adjoining room where whiskey, gin and wines valued at $10,000 were found. They were confiscated. It was announced that the 52 search warrants issued had resulted in 19 raids.

WIFE TELLS STORY OF THE DANVILLE TRAGEDY.

Danville, Va., July 30.—Mrs. Martha Owen Anderson was the only witness examined to-day at the preliminary hearing which was given James Anderson, her former husband, who is charged with murdering his brother, William Henry Anderson, who recently married Mrs. Anderson.

Mayor Harry Wooding sent the case to the grand jury after determining sufficient grounds for holding him. The court set the amount of bail at $5,000 but when Commonwealth's Attorney John W. Carter interposed objection, the court denied bail and the young man was remanded to prison to await the September grand jury.

The feature of the hearing was the admission by the woman that about 10 minutes before the fatal shot was fired she told the accused man for the first time that she had been legally divorced from him and that she had married his younger brother. Previous to the fatal domestic wrangle there had been scenes at the home both brothers believing that the woman was their wife and goaded to jealousy one against the other with suspicions of ill conduct. Mrs. Anderson was afraid to tell of the legal developments in her case and only did so after she had begged him on the tragic afternoon to lay down his pistol indoors. He promised not to harm her and she told him the truth. Hearing the news, James Anderson dragged her into the house and into her bed room, she said, and told her that he would get even with William Anderson. There was a struggle by the bed which was in progress when the lawful husband arrived. Mrs. Anderson proceeded cautiously at this point and told what happened with deliberation. As she opened the door, the intruder had the entrance covered with a drawn revolver. She said she threw her arms around her lawful husband who entered with a pistol and begged him not to shoot. She quoted him as saying, "Jim I've caught you at your work," whereupon the first husband commanded his brother not to move. The latter flung the woman aside and then there were what seemed to her to be two shots fired.

Three weeks before the tragedy Mrs. Anderson said that her husband had ordered James to leave the house and that as he went he drew a pistol pointed it at them, swore that he would "fix" them both and put them in the cemetery.

SAYS LEAGUE NOTHING BUT BANKERS' SOVIET.

New York, July 30.—The league of nations is "nothing more than an attempt to establish an international bankers' soviet," according to Percy P. Christensen, presidential nominee of the Third, or Farmer-Labor party, who discussed his views on national and international affairs here to-day.

"The league of nations is a dead issue," said Mr. Christensen. "If it were, not, I should want to kill it." Endorsement of Irish freedom was another point upon which the Third party candidate expressed himself in a formal statement.

"I am one of those who is sufficiently in love with the principles of human freedom to come out squarely for recognition of the Irish republic," he said.

Referring to the attempts of Governor Cox and Senator Harding to persuade Tennessee to pass the equal suffrage law, he said:

"If Cox and Harding can't get ratification, I'll go down and try the rebels myself."

FAIN BOYS, OF CHEROKEE, PARDONED BY GOVERNOR.

Raleigh, July 30.—Granting a pardon to Frank (Toby) and John M. (Boss) Fain, of Cherokee county, sentenced to serve seven and ten years, respectively, for holding up a messenger in the town of Murphy and robbing him of $2,000, Governor Bickett declared the surrounding circumstances led him to believe that these boys were led astray by an adventurous spirit, probably developed by seeing William S. Hart in "The Tollgate" or in some of his wild western plays, and did not appreciate the moral turpitude of their conduct.

Each must, according to the conditions laid down by Governor Bickett, become law abiding citizens and stay that way. Frank Fain's pardon is effective immediately, and John's January 1 next year. They were sentenced in September last year.

"The father and mother of these boys," said Governor Bickett, "are as good citizens as are to be found in Cherokee county. All the town authorities and practically every citizen in the town have written me letters and signed a petition in behalf of these boys."

"John M. Fain has not a very good record. On account of his previous record, he will be held in the state's prison until January 1, 1921, when he will be discharged, if his conduct from now until then is exemplary."

CARRANZA MEN WILLING TO FIGHT INVADERS.

Mexicalia, Lower Cali., July 29.—Eight men formerly holding high rank in the army of the late President Venustiano Carranza tonight held a secret conference here with Governor Esteban Cantu, following the offer of their services to lead the Cantu forces against invading armies. It was announced by Governor Cantu.

Nogales, Ariz., July 29.—The federal government of Mexico will send all the troops necessary into Lower California to subdue Governor Cantu, who is reported in revolt against the De La Huerta regime. General P. Elias Calles, Mexican secretary of war and marine, said here to-day.

Bailey Wants Damages.

Gainesville, Texas, July 30.—A suit entered by Joseph W. Bailey against the Record Company, of Fort Worth, Texas, for $100,000 was filed in district court here to-day.

It was alleged that false, slanderous and malicious publication of matter in regard to Mr. Bailey's alleged connection with the element opposed to prohibition had been made in the issues of the Fort Worth Record on April 22 and 29, last.

Mr. Bailey was the leading candidate of a field of four in the contest for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination at last Saturday's primary, and will contest for the nomination with Pat M. Neff, of Waco, at a run-off primary August 28.

Wrong Body Sent to Mother.

Knoxville, Tenn., July 29.—When an overseas coffin was opened to-day at the home of Mrs. E. S. Underwood, of Kodak, Tenn., it was discovered that it did not contain the body of her son, Corporal Vaughn Underwood, but that of a soldier unknown in this section. The mother is prostrated.

The identification tag on the inside bore the name of Private Thomas S. Rodgers, and army serial number 3,522,752.

HARVESTER COMPANY TO DIVIDE PROFITS.

Chicago, July 29.—The employees' stock ownership plan of the International Harvester Company which was approved to-day at a stockholders meeting in Hoboken, N. J., provides for distribution of the fund "in the proportion which the actual earnings of each employee for the year bears to the aggregate earnings of all employees sharing in the distribution," according to a statement issued by the stockholders.

The plan will be effective as of January 1, 1920. It provides for distribution of 60 per cent of the company's net profits in excess of 7 per cent upon capital invested, in preferred and common stock.

The executive and managerial force, including "the important men in the general office at Chicago" the statement said, will receive one-third of the fund in common stock at par. All other eligible employees will receive two-thirds of the fund, "part in the company's 7 per cent cumulative preferred stock at par and part in cash."

The fund will be distributed about May 1 of the year following the period in which it was earned, it was announced.

MONDAY, AUGUST 2, 1920.

No man who is correctly informed as to the past, will be disposed to take a morose or desponding view of the present.—Macaulay.

Campaign money may talk but it seldom divulges the source from which it came.

We wonder if the alleged paper shortage is responsible for the reported scarcity of federal reserve notes.

Force having proved futile, Germany might well adopt a spirit of meekness in its hopes of inheriting the earth.

It is reported that four of the ex-kaiser's nephews have gone to work. If such be true the war was not fought in vain.

A new fad has been introduced in the nature of wooden hats. On lots of heads it would be difficult to tell where the hat begins.

In Switzerland the "tango" has been banned on the ground of being immoral. Wonder what will happen when the "shimmy" arrives.

A farmer and a dentist are pretty much in the same class. The earnings of both depend upon the number of achers they work on.

Crowded summer resorts and abandoned cornfields indicate that there will be no material decrease in the price of butter or eggs this winter.

With such weather as we have enjoyed the past week it little behooves the native to hie himself to the mountain resorts in order to enjoy his vacation.

This agitation about women getting men's wages strikes us as being bosh. One would judge that they hadn't been getting all the poor guys made for these many years past.

Reports from the various bathing resorts indicate that the boards of censorship passing upon the propriety or impropriety of bathing suits have given up in despair this summer.

Vassar College recently conferred degrees on 256 young sweet girl graduates and a bold, bad paragrapher opines that "many of them, no doubt, will also achieve the degree of MA."

If Mr. Cox confers with Mr. Wilson he is "under the Wilsonian domination;" if he takes the bit in his own mouth and does a little directing himself, he is "overbearing and autocratic." Such is the life of a candidate, with an ever alert opposition seeking political thunder.

INCREASED RAILROAD RATES.

Perhaps the fact that the Interstate Commerce Commission is acutely conscious of the transportation difficulties which the country is now experiencing was largely responsible for the speed with which it acted upon the requests of the railroads for increased revenues. Almost before the ink is dry on the order of the railroad labor board granting a $600,000,000 increase to the railroad workers the I. C. C. grants an increase of railroad rates of approximately $1,500,000,000. "Jones pays the freight"—and in this instance the passenger and Pullman charges—and he has had no delusion as to where the money for increased operating costs would come from, but he may not have been prepared for such speedy bill collections as those provided by the latest order of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

However, the public now may as well prepare to pay the greatly increased cost of transportation and pay it speedily. Under the provisions of the order handed down last Saturday by the commission the new rates will become effective upon five days' notice by the carriers and they must be in operation by January 1. In view of the fact that the government guarantee of railroad revenues will expire September 1, it may be predicted with virtual certainty that the carriers will not delay in taking the steps necessary to make the rates effective in the very early future.

An idea of the enormity of the increased charges which the people must pay is obtainable when it is found that the revision of freight rates alone will amount to $13 per capita per annum for every man, woman and child in the country. The 20 per cent increase in passenger fares, excess baggage charges and the 50 per cent surcharge on Pullman fares will be in effect throughout the country. People in the south may find some comfort in the knowledge that the freight rate increases in this section are not as great as those authorized in other parts of the nation. The freight rate increases are 40 per cent for the eastern roads, 35 per cent for the western roads that are operated between the Mississippi river and the Rocky Mountains, 25 per cent for the southern roads and 25 per cent for the roads west of the Rockies. The commission declares that the financial condition of the carriers in the south is better than that of the roads in other sections of the country, a circumstance which seems to indicate that the south is sharing a larger degree of prosperity than other parts of the United States.

The increases authorized by the commission are designed to offset the $600,000,000 wage advance recently awarded to railroad workers and to provide the six per cent net income on the aggregate value of the railroad properties as permitted by the federal transportation act—the Esch-Cummins bill enacted by Congress this year. The order of the commission provides:

All passenger fares and charges may be increased 20 per cent. (Of course where the word "may" is used as to the authorized increases it is to be construed as "will.")

Excess baggage rates may be increased 20 per cent.

A surcharge upon passengers in sleeping and parlor cars may be made amounting to 50 per cent of the charge for space in such cars.

Rates on milk and cream may be increased 20 per cent.

Railway workers in some instances were reported to be doubtful as to whether or not the $600,000,000 wage increase recently awarded would be sufficient. However, the public, which now is called upon to meet the increased cost, doubtless considers the increase ample, while in some quarters there may be a disposition to regard the enlarged operating cost as excessive.

One thing which the people of the country have a right to expect and will expect is improved transportation service as a result of the sweeping upward revision of rates. The railroads must provide additional facilities for handling the vastly increased volume of freight and passenger business. During the past few years very little money has been spent by the railroads for improvements and the service has deteriorated in alarming fashion. Now that increased revenues are being provided the public will insist that the service be materially improved. In the meantime any evidence of conspiracy to defeat private operation of the railroads will be scrutinized with a marked degree of care, and every effort should be made to destroy such a conspiracy in its inception.

GOVERNOR COX WILL REALLY SAY SOMETHING.

Efforts of Senator Harding, the Republican nominee for the presidency, to induce Governor Cox, the Democratic choice for that office, to enter into a "wire debate" as to the campaign issues are proving futile. Governor Cox has announced that in his address accepting the nomination he would reply to such of the Harding questions as he considered worthy of answers, and he will not be moved from that position. In other words, the Democratic candidate for the presidency does not expect to further his opponent's front porch campaign. Governor Cox will make a tour of the country, addressing the voters in regard to the league of nations and other vital questions; he is not afraid to go before the people. If Senator Harding prefers to stay at home, then the Republican candidate will have to content himself with engaging in monologues, a form of political activity for which the people generally have shown little favor.

Certainly Governor Cox in accepting the nomination on August 7 will make entirely clear his position concerning campaign issues. And when he completes the delivery of that address Senator Harding may wish that he had not propounded so many queries to the Democratic nominee, who has the good fortune to stand upon a platform which really means something and which is not an evasive instrument such as that adopted by the Republicans at Chicago.

Senator Harding had better exercise his patience and wait for the Cox pronouncements; after the latter makes known his views the Republican standard bearer will need even greater patience and fortitude to bear the burdens imposed upon him by the political bosses who controlled the Chicago convention. Even if he stays on his front porch throughout the campaign, Mr. Harding will have a busy season trying to explain a platform that is filled with ambiguities and inconsistencies, and trying to arrest popular sentiment which is speedily crystallizing in support of Governor Cox.

On the Irish question, however, the G. O. P. refused to stand Pat.—Columbia Record.

I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

BUSINESS OF COUNTRY SHOWS SOME IMPROVEMENT.

Washington, July 29.—Curtailed industrial activity due to lower demand, cancellation of orders and general re-adjustment were the outstanding developments in the business of the country during July, the federal reserve board declared tonight in its monthly review.

"In some districts, however, production continues upon old orders which are still on the books, despite the fact that new business has fallen off," the review declared. "In the agricultural regions, improved crop conditions and the development of a more confident tone in business are reported to have brought about a turn distinctly for the better.

"Speculation in commodities is in many parts of the country reported to have been greatly reduced and in some practically eliminated. There is a general feeling that extravagant living is at least less extreme and dangerous than it was some time ago."

The transportation problem continued unsolved during the month, the review reported, and while some local improvements were noted, there remained great freight congestion, provoking "an undue and unnecessarily severe strain upon credit. The iron and steel industry "is now placed in a serious condition," according to the review, which adds that 2,000,000 tons of products are tied up in the hands of the producers throughout the country by lack of transportation. Likewise, the grain movement has been retarded by car shortage.

BEIGIAN SOLDIERS ARE DISSATISFIED WITH PAYMENT.

Brussels, July 29.—Thousands of soldiers assembled outside the chamber of deputies to-day to demonstrate dissatisfaction with the government's treatment of former soldiers, who demand that a lump sum be paid every man who served in the war. A body of soldiers broke the police cordon and invaded the chamber, disregarding Burgomaster Max's appeals. Eventually they were persuaded to leave peaceably.

While in the chamber, the soldiers broke doors and windows and hurled the ushers aside. The men then marched through the chamber with banners while the astonished deputies sat powerless to quell the tumult.

TEXAS GIVES GOMPERS PROGRAM BIG BUMP.

Washington, July 29.—Texas gave the American Federation of Labor a bumping in the fourth and seventeenth congressional districts, where Representatives Sam Rayburn and Thomas Lindsay Blanton were renominated after pitched political battle, in which the Gompers forces took prominent parts. This is the first show-down on the program of organized labor to single out their opponents in any party and defeat them if possible. Mr. Rayburn is a conservative opponent of labor unions. Mr. Blanton heads the black list of the American Federation of Labor. He defied all of the Gompers forces repeatedly, and made union labor an issue. He has never hesitated to speak violently on this subject.

The nominations of Messrs. Rayburn and Blanton mean elections for the Republicans are not strong in their districts. The Gompers campaign may leave his organization weaker there if it fails. The Anti-Saloon league is the one organization in the United States that carried out an elaborate non-partisan program. Its leaders were aided by the public generally. Mr. Gompers is powerful, but there is a strong element against him.

Dorsey Enters Senatorial Race.

The governor had until August 15 to say whether or not he will make the race. Senator Hoke Smith already has announced his candidacy to succeed himself, and Thomas E. Watson, of Thomson, Ga., also is in the race.

"Maxwell" Owners ENTHUSIASTIC!

The owners of the 1920 Maxwell are loud in their praise of its splendid performance and in no instance have we found any dissatisfaction with a single owner.

The two unit starting and ignition system has been largely responsible for a good portion of this remarkable performance.

Larger gears in the differential have added to its strength and durability on the road for hard rough driving, while the long semi-elliptic springs make rough roads comfortable to drive on.

OPEN SHOP ENDORSED BY COMMERCE CHAMBERS.

Washington, July 30.—By an overwhelming referendum vote, the membership of the chamber of commerce of the United States has adopted a platform on industrial relations which among other things declares for the right of "open shop" operation in industry and for making labor organizations the same as organizations of employers, legally responsible "to others for their conduct and that of their agents."

Answering two allied propositions submitted at the same time, the members took a position that strikes in public utility operation should be forbidden by law, and that tribunals should be set up with power to fix wages and working conditions for employees of utilities. The results of both votes were made public to-day by the chamber.

The industrial relations platform, which was submitted to the referendum of the constituent bodies of the chamber in 12 sections, upon each of which separate votes taken, was drawn up after the close of President Wilson's first industrial conference last fall, by a committee of which William Butterworth, president of Deere & Co., Moline, Ill., was chairman.

Leading provisions of this platform include declarations that limitation of commodity output by either employee or employer, when done to create an artificial scarcity, constitutes an injury to society; that "adequate means" should be provided for adjustment of industrial relations and disputes; that employer and employee have a mutual interest in the "successful conduct and full development of their particular industrial establishment;" recognition of which and co-operation upon which "constitutes the true basis of sound industrial relations;" that municipal, state or national government employees have the right to be heard as to their occupation and its requirements, but no right to enter "combination to prevent or impair the operation of government;" and that "all men possess the equal right to associate voluntarily for the accomplishment of lawful purposes by lawful means."

Most of the separate platform propositions were accepted by votes of nearly 1,700 in favor to two or three against. The highest negative vote was cast against a section which said that after collective bargaining had been established, and employers and employees dealt through representatives in any plant, it would be considered proper by either party to ask that "these representatives shall not be chosen by or controlled by any outside group or interest."

Against this 52 votes were cast.

Two Killed in Boiler Explosion.

The Indian Knew

The Indian drank water that bubbled from the rock. His food was game he had killed; his bed, the hard ground.

He attuned his habits to the rigorous, open-air life he led. As a result he was abundantly healthy—tireless on the march or in the hunt.

You lead a different kind of life, but you can enjoy the same glorious, vivid health. Adapt your habits to a less vigorous existence. Eat the right sort of food, exercise a certain amount daily, but above all—keep the poisonous food waste moving regularly out of your body. Nujol will help you do this.

Nujol works on an entirely new principle.

Instead of forcing or irritating the system, it simply softens the food waste. This enables the many tiny muscles in the walls of the intestines, contracting and expanding in their normal way, to squeeze the food waste along so that it passes naturally out of the system.

Nujol thus prevents constipation because it helps Nature maintain easy, thorough bowel movements at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world.

Nujol is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take. Try it.

Nujol is sold by all druggists in sealed bottles only, bearing Nujol trade mark. Write Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), 50 Broadway, New York, for booklet, "Thirty Feet of Danger".

The KITCHEN CABINET

From two to four the child consumes more than a quarter of the supply of food required by the workingman. From four to ten there is a steady increase while from twelve to fifteen a child requires as much food in actual weight as does a person in the prime of life, a little less than the hardest-working laborer. Any deficiency in quality is much more serious at this age than at any other.

SOME GOOD CAKES.

A simple and easy way to make good food which takes a moderate number of eggs is the following: Take one cupful each of sugar, egg whites and flour, one-half teaspoonful of cream of tartar and a little salt with one teaspoonful of vanilla. Sift one-half of the cream of tartar with the flour and put the other half into the egg whites when half beaten. Beat the egg whites stiff; add the sugar, folding it in, then fold in the flour very lightly. Bake in a moderate oven 50 minutes.

Gold Cake.—Take four eggs well separated and separate. Add one cupful of water to the eggs. Cream half cupful of butter, add one and one-half cupfuls of sugar and two and one-half cupfuls of flour with three teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Bake in loaf or cake.

Date Torte. Take one cupful each of chopped nuts, sugar and dates, one cupful of flour, one teaspoonful of baking powder, two well beaten eggs. Bake in a sheet and serve with whipped cream.

Election Cake.—Take one-half cupful of shortening, one cupful of bread flour, one egg, one cupful of brown sugar, one cupful of sour milk, two cupfuls of a cupful of raisins, eight teaspoonfuls of sugar, one egg, the cream and rind of an orange, one teaspoonful of cold water, two cupfuls of flour. Bake in a sheet and cover white hot with white and powdered sugar.

A TRAITOR TO VOTE FOR SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT.

Raleigh, July 29.—"The member of a legislature who votes for the amendment to the federal constitution that will remove from the state its right to say who shall vote in its elections is a traitor, if not in a legal sense, certainly in a moral sense," declared William L. Marbury, of Baltimore, speaking here tonight under the auspices of the rejection league.

The meeting was the opening gun of the battle that will be waged against the ratification of the federal suffrage amendment by the special session of the legislature which convenes next Tuesday week.

The speaker urged North Carolina to measure out to the amendment the same fate that was measured out to it in Annapolis a year ago when an effort was made to "rush it through." There is nothing inevitable about the coming of suffrage, he declared, and even if it does come, it will have to pass the gauntlet of the United States Supreme court.

MAN BLINDED BY DRINKING WOOD ALCOHOL.

New York, July 9.—In a hospital room flooded with sunlight to-day, Gardner W. Gould, a 59-year-old lighter captain, blinded by drinking wood alcohol contained in a drink offered to him as whiskey, pleaded to be told "how long they were going to keep me in this dark room." Physicians at the hospital have not yet had the courage to tell him that his sight is gone forever.

"They say that I'll be here a month," declared the captain. "Tell them I cannot spare that much time. I'm used to being outdoors and I'll get better a lot quicker if they let me out."

Gould traded a few pieces of silver and his vision for the poisonous concoction. A foreign sailor, who boarded his lighter in the harbor, offered him a drink of the beverage yesterday and then brought him five additional pints to-day. The captain took a few drinks this morning and then toppled over on the deck. He was rushed to a hospital where physicians said that the poison had caused atrophy of the optic nerves and that he would never see again.

Sheep and Cattlemen Have Battle.

Trade Balance Against Us.

Washington, July 30.—America's trade balance with Europe for the fiscal year just ended fell off more than $500,000,000 compared with 1919, according to a report issued to-day by the department of commerce, while trade with South America for the same period produced an unfavorable balance of nearly $400,000,000.

Japs Don't Like Our Shipping Laws.

Osaka, Japan, July 30.—The chamber of commerce adopted a resolution to-day declaring the American shipping law to be economic imperialism under which foreign steamers, and especially Japanese, are treated unfairly. The resolution says the law is tantamount to a proclamation of economic war on Japan.

Man Can't Steal From Wife.

New Orleans, July 29.—On the technical point that a man cannot steal from his wife, John Pedro Sanchez, self-styled bull ring hero, was formally released here to-day from custody.

OPERATORS REFUSE TO CONFER WITH MINERS.

Chicago, Ill., July 29. —Coal operators to-day declined to participate in a joint conference with the miners as suggested by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of Illinois, with a view to changing or amending the interstate agreement and the commerce commission's award.

The executive committee of the Indiana bituminous coal operator's association in announcing its action, said it was influenced "by the fact that all contracts, state and interstate were but a reaffirmation and acceptance by the operators and miners of an award mandatory in its provision."

Replies to Mr. Lewis' request for the joint conference have not been sufficient to indicate whether the majority of the mine owners favor such a meeting. Thomas T. Brewster, chairman of the operator's scale committee said to-day.

The dry decision was handed down by a full court. —Houston Post.
