A Challenge to the White Men and Women of North Carolina.

(The following is an exact copy of a letter mailed from Greensboro, N. C. to a woman in Lexington, N. C. Reliable information indicates that there is an organization known as the Colored Women's Rights Association for Colored Women, that headquarters are located in this city and that Charlotte Hawkins Brown, head of the school for colored people, at Sedalia, is president of this organization.)

Dear Voter:

The 19th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States gives all women the right to the ballot regardless of color, and we beg all the colored women of North Carolina to register and vote on November 2nd, 1920.

The time for negroes has come. Now is our chance to redeem our liberty.

We have been driven long enough.

Apply to the register in your precinct to register.

The books for registration open on September 30th, and if you are refused go at once to the Republican lawyer and start proceedings in the United States court—don't waste time with State Courts—the State Courts are controlled by Democrats.

Don't be afraid, there are plenty white Republicans that will help us.

The Democrats are divided over the tax revaluation and the Governor's fight in the primary. Thousands of Democrats will stay at home next November and thousands of Gardner and Page Democrats will vote the Republican ticket.

We are sure of capturing the State this time if only the colored women will do their duty. Register and vote. The white women of North Carolina will not vote and while they sleep let the negroes be up and doing.

When we get in power we can demand what we wish and get it. We hold the balance of power in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, New York and New Jersey. We are sure of electing a Republican President—one who will give us what we want—that is justice, but if we don't elect a Republican Congress his hands will be tied, and we have the chance here in North Carolina to elect a Republican Senator and over half of the congressmen.

With colored women voting we can control the Eastern counties and the industrial counties of the west such as Forsyth, Guilford, Rowan, Davidson, Cabarrus, Stanly, Gaston and Mecklenburg.

All the white cotton mill operatives of the state are going to vote the Republican ticket this time. While the Democrats are divided, is our time.

Organize—get the white Republicans, men and women to help you.

They will, if you only keep quiet about it.

Have your meetings at night. When we get thousands of voters on the registration books, the white Republicans of North Carolina and the South will be glad to do as their white brother and sister of the North and West—recognize us as their political equals.

We are being backed by them now, but you know it is best for them to keep under cover for awhile yet.

Republicans have plenty of money and you can get it to organize and prosecute Democrat Registrars and Judges of elections if they refuse to register the colored women and violate the 19th Amendment to the Constitution of our glorious United States.

Keep this a secret—don't let it get in hands of Democrats.

Yours for negro liberty.

MOREHEAD SENTENCED TO DIE DECEMBER 3RD

TRIAL OF ALFORD BROTHERS ON MURDER CHARGE UNFINISHED AT END OF TERM.

Claude Morehead, negro, who was convicted in Superior court last week of the murder of his wife, Alma Morehead, was sentenced Saturday afternoon by Judge J. Bis Ray, presiding over Guilford Superior court, to be electrocuted on Friday, December 3. At the conclusion of Judge Ray's pronouncement of judgment, following the words "and a current of electricity to be passed through your body until you are dead, and may God have mercy on your soul," the defendant calmly took his seat and on his face there was evidenced a slight smile. His manner throughout the trial was one of indifference, nor did he take the stand in his own behalf. His conviction was largely attributable to the testimony of his neighbors, who stated that they saw him choking his wife and later saw him hit her on the head with a chair.

Counsel for the negro entered exceptions to the verdict and gave notice of appeal to the Supreme court. The trial of Roy and Eugene Alford, High Point negroes, who are charged with the murder of J. E. Fletcher, a merchant of that city, had not been concluded Saturday evening. The law provides, however, that when the trial of a capital case is not completed at the end of a term it may be carried over to the following week. The jury was empaneled in this case Thursday morning and testimony was still being offered when court adjourned Saturday evening. It is expected that the case will not be concluded before Tuesday of this week. Members of the jury were kept together yesterday at a local hotel and inasmuch as their associations since last Thursday have been limited to the 12 members and the officer in charge it is expected that they will have a splendid opportunity of becoming acquainted with one another.

Saturday afternoon the trial of the Alford case was held up for a short time in order that sentences could be passed upon cases where convictions had been made earlier in the week. L. T. Porter, a white man, charged with beating his wife, was sent to the county roads for 90 days.

Gurney Quate, white, was given a sentence of two years for each of the two charges against him for larceny.

Vance McGee, young white man, was sentenced to a year on the roads for injury to property. He was convicted of having maliciously damaged a large quantity of cotton warps belonging to a local cotton mill.

W. A. Teeter, white, was fined $100 and costs for occupying a hotel room for immoral purposes.

Rosa Bunting, white woman, was sentenced to 60 days in jail following conviction on a charge of prostitution.

Odell Shupe, a young white boy, charged with stealing a bicycle was informed that if found in Greensboro on Monday that he would begin a sentence of one year on the roads. He lost no time in absconding himself from the court room.

John Lee, colored, charged with holding up a cafe in the colored section of the city several weeks ago, was given five years in the state prison.

John Comer, negro, was given three months for carrying concealed weapon. On account of an assault with a deadly weapon he received 12 months additional.

The case against Mrs. Hattie B. East, alias Hattie B. Murdock, Judge Ray showed considerable anxiety as to the proper means of disposition. Mrs. East had confessed to a charge of bigamy. The young woman's first husband appeared in court and signified his willingness to take his wife back and Judge Ray held the case for consideration.

Jerry Oliver, colored, was sentenced to six months on the roads for breaking and entering.

Ben Cummings, colored, drew a total of 24 months, he receiving a sentence of six months in four separate cases, the various offenses being carrying a concealed weapon, disturbing public worship, assault with deadly weapon and assault on

THREE COMMUNITY FAIRS PLANNED FOR OCTOBER

WHITSETT, PLEASANT GARDEN AND BESSEMER WILL EACH HAVE SEPARATE FAIRS.

Plans are rapidly maturing for the holding of three community fairs in this county next month. The first will be conducted at Whitsett on October 6 and 7, the others to follow at Pleasant Garden on October 7 and 8 and at Bessemer on October 8 and 9. Miss Ola Stephenson, county home demonstration agent, and Farm Demonstrator J. C. Beavers, are co-operating with each of the communities and from present plans the fairs should be a complete success.

Aside from viewing the displays, those promoting the enterprises point out that the people of the several communities will have the opportunity of gathering together, becoming better acquainted, hear addresses of a worth while nature and to witness the demonstrations that are planned to be given.

The fair at each community will open at 8 o'clock in the morning and the first feature of the program will be an educational address, followed by community singing. Music will be furnished in the morning by the Euterpe Club, of Greensboro, and a second address will be heard later in the morning. In the afternoon athletic contests will be held. Demonstrations of plowing with tractors and the advantages of farm electric power plants will be demonstrated.

Prizes will be offered for the best exhibits of farm and field crops, horticultural products, poultry, livestock, canned fruits, jams, etc., needlework of various kinds.

MESSRS. GANT AND CAFFEY BUY OLD HOME OF J. F. JORDAN

The old home place of the late Sheriff J. F. Jordan was purchased Saturday by J. R. Caffey and M. W. Gant, the consideration being slightly in excess of $30,000. The property is located on North Edgeworth and North Springs streets, fronting about 219 feet on each street and possessing a depth of about 310 feet. The dwelling located on the Edgeworth frontage is a handsome house, being colonial style, and the magnificent oaks surrounding the home make it one of the most beautiful residences in the city.

It is reported that the present owners will offer it to the city at a discount for the purpose of erecting a school building on it, or else cut it up into smaller building lots.

female. Fred Bree, colored, and George Jeffries, colored, were each fined $250 and costs on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Johnny Moore, negro, was sentenced to six months on the roads for larceny.

Mary Bass, colored, was fined $50 and costs for assault with a deadly weapon. She was also required to appear at each term of court for two years and show good behavior.

Alice Johnson, negro, convicted of an assault on her husband, was given a sentence of eight months in jail with permission to the commissioners to hire her out.

During the week just finished only jail cases were tried, and over 70 bond cases were continued until the next criminal term.

AUTOMOTIVE ASSOCIATION HELD SUCCESSFUL MEET

W. H. McGLAMERY ELECTED SECOND VICE PRESIDENT OF THE ORGANIZATION.

The convention of the Carolina Automotive Trade Association, which convened in this city Friday morning, was brought to a close Saturday evening, the final feature of the program being a splendid banquet tendered the visiting delegates at the O. Henry hotel. Saturday was a big day for the automobile men that gathered here from all parts of North and South Carolina and the program for both morning and afternoon sessions was filled with interesting features of a profitable nature to the large number in attendance.

At the session of Saturday afternoon officers were elected for the ensuing year.

Lee A. Folger, of Charlotte, was unanimously re-elected to serve the association as president another year, following the report of Chairman H. T. Hoppe, of the committee on nominations. S. L. Whitmore, of Greensboro, had been called to the chair when the chairman of the nominating committee made the following nominations, all of the nominees being elected without opposition:

President: Lee A. Folger, of Charlotte; president; John S. Sadler, of Anderson, S. C., first vice president; W. H. McGlamery, of Greensboro, second vice president; H. T. Hoppe, of Charlotte treasurer.

Following were nominated and elected members of the board of directors: Joseph G. Fitzsimmons, of Charlotte, representing accessory dealers; W. J. Sloan, of Anderson, S. C., tire dealers; Lindray Fishel, of Winston-Salem, battery dealers; H. S. Dowling, of Charlotte, truck dealers; and N. A. Riddick, of Scotland Neck, E. C. Sawyer, of Asheville, and H. M. Weathers, of Greensboro, passenger car dealers.

Paul H. Brophy, of Charlotte, who has served with great satisfaction to the association as its executive secretary, was recommended to the directors for re-appointment.

A feature of the program on Saturday morning was an address delivered by John W. Simpson, vice president of the Atlantic Bank and Trust Company, of this city. Mr. Simpson spoke on the subject, "The Banker's Viewpoint," and he undertook to point out to the automobile men why bankers had followed a policy of limiting loans for automobile purchases during recent months. Mr. Simpson declared that the banks are by no means antagonistic to the automobile business, but that it is not the duty of the banks to furnish capital enough to enable every man, woman and child to own a joy car. He further pointed out that a large number of men had entered the automobile business with practically no capital and that such men depended entirely on the banks to finance them, and that such competition in the long run was detrimental and harmful to the men that had invested capital in their automobile business.

Resolutions of thanks were voted for the hospitality accorded the association by the various organizations and individuals of Greensboro.

The banquet at the O. Henry began at 7.30 o'clock and the evening was turned over to fun and frolic. Music was furnished by a vaudeville troupe, which also provided a few dancing specialties.

Invitations were extended by Raleigh, Wilmington, Charlotte, Winston-Salem, Asheville and other cities for the convention of next year but the location will be decided by the directors.

Elks Minstrel This Year to Excel Former Performances.

Plans for the Elks Jubilee minstrel are rapidly maturing and those back of the enterprise predict that it will be the biggest hit of any home talent show ever presented in Greensboro. The opening performance will be staged on the night of September 30 while a second appearance will be made on the night of October 1. The title of the show this year will be the "Jollies of 1920."

There are over 50 persons in the cast, including the most talented men and the most beautiful women of the city.

TOBACCO PRICES SLIGHTLY IMPROVED ON FRIDAY

NO SALES ON SATURDAY AS THE YEAR IS NEARLY OVER BY LOCAL WAREHOUSEMEN.

Tobacco prices offered at local warehouses on Friday showed a decided upward tendency. As whole the grades were of an improved quality and the better grades indicated that the crop was coming to command a price considerably better than was expected at the opening of the season. It is true that a large quantity of inferior tobacco was on the floors Friday morning, which resulted in a low general average, but the farmers showed that they were materially encouraged. Several piles of the weed exceeded 50 cents per pound while the highwater mark was reached.

It was announced that no sales would be held on Saturdays this year. A number of farmers brought their offerings for sale Saturday morning.

Of the closed houses on Saturday day for coming to the market and these loads were added to the sales this morning.

Persons who have been watching the markets in Piedmont North Carolina state the local prices have not been exceeded at any other place.

It is also said that the better grades of tobacco have a higher price here than on other markets, but that the large quantity of scrap tobacco has kept down the average of prices paid. This tendency among farmers of this section has been to hold their crop, waiting for a turn in the market, and the quantity offered for sale to date has been considerably less than in previous years.

This situation, however, is the same throughout the state, most all of the farmers holding their better grades of tobacco for future developments.

WALLACE BURMAN AND OTHER EMPLOYEES HURT

Office J. E. Latham Co.

Wallace Burman, night yard master for the Southern Railway Company, and Robert L. Hutchinson, a clerk in the railway company offices here, are both in a local hospital suffering from injuries sustained as the result of the overturning of a Ford automobile on the High Point road yesterday morning about 2 o'clock. Other young men in the machine were also injured. Burman, driver of the car, and W. L. Rimmer, both employed at the local railway yards, and John L. Latham, who was badly injured. They were cut and bruised and suffered from their injuries were not regarded to be as serious as those suffered by Burman and Hutchinson.

The accident happened on the High Point road at a point about three miles from Greensboro. Thomas, near whose home it occurred, was aroused by the groans of the injured men. He brought three of them to the city and placed them in a hospital. Burman is the fourth man, came to town with another party, and his injuries did not prevent him from going to his own home.

ADVISING POSTOFFICE WOULD BE BYNAMED) WAM, HOAX.

A letter received Saturday by the local postmaster advised that the local postoffice building would be blown up last night but in view of the fact that the building showed no signs of injury this morning it is presumed that this, like so many other similar letters, being received throughout the country, was merely a joke. Members of the postoffice kept a close watch on the building last night and some of the postal employees acknowledged a nervousness during the wee small hours, but there was no evidence of any one attempting to set a trap about the building.

WILLIAM H. CLARK, AGED 49, DIED AT HOME

The per centage of gains show
Forsyth, 63.3; Guilford, 31; Buncombe, 28.3; Mecklenburg, 20.3;
and Wake, 18.8.
With Guilford, Mecklenburg and Forsyth counties running so close together and Wake county not far behind, an interesting race is forecast for the next 10 years. Forsyth of course, has lead the state in the rate of increase, but Guilford's growth of 18,775 is probably the second largest numerical growth in the state. Ten years ago Wake county occupied second place, while Guilford has passed Wake and so has Forsyth.

Guilford's Remarkable Growth.
Analysis of the figures shows that Guilford's growth is more remarkable from the fact that with the exception of one township, Clay, the growth has been county wide. Clay shows a decrease of 61 in 10 years, and while some of the others did not increase greatly, they more than held their own in this age when the natural drift has been away from the farms.

Morehead township, in which is the western part of Greensboro, including the Pomona mills section, has a total of 17,621 compared with 12,349 in 1910, or a gain of 5,272.
Gilmer township, containing that part of Greensboro east of Elm street, also the White Oak, Proximity and Revolution mills has 20,979 compared with 15,728, a gain of 5,251.
It is noticeable that Morehead and Gilmer townships each gained almost the same number.

The total for the two townships which really represents the population of the Greensboro area is 38,600, and the combined townships shows a gain of 10,523.

Revised Figures.
The revised figures for Greensboro
by addition of the Benbow arcade and maybe some scattering names, added 115, making Greensboro's total 19,861, or a gain of 3,966 in ten years. Outside of the city limits Morehead and Gilmer townships gained 6,557 people in ten years.

High Point township had a total of 18,481, against 12,395, a gain of 6,086 in ten years, while High Point had 14,302, against 9,525, a gain of 4,777 in ten years. High Point and Greensboro each have the same area, four square miles, and High Point added 811 more people in ten years inside her limits than did Greensboro. It so happened that High Point had more room inside her limits to build houses, while the present limits of Greensboro are very rapidly filling up and people must go outside to find building sites.

Of the 18,775 gain in Guilford county, 16,316 was in Morehead, Gilmer and High Point townships, and the balance of the county gained 2,459.

TO RAISE $500,000 TO "MATCH THE PRESIDENT."

New York, Sept. 23.—George White, chairman of the Democratic national committee, announced here to-day that the committee would raise a $500,000 national "Match the President" campaign fund.

Mr. White said that a thousand friends of the league of nations would be asked to follow the example of President Wilson and subscribe $500 each to assure the success of the Cox-Roosevelt ticket and the league itself.

Newspapers to Aid.
Mr. White said also that newspapers favoring the league of nations would be asked to aid in formation of the "League Thousand Club" to be composed of contributors to the fund.

"Less than $130,000 collected by us provided a contrast before the senate committee investigating campaign fund contributions yesterday with millions in the hands of the Republicans" said Mr. White. "Since the fate of the league and the peace of the world depends on the success of Cox and Roosevelt, I intend to call for a thousand friends of the league all over the country to match the President's subscription of $500 recently made in the same cause."

Fund of $500,000.
"This will provide a special fund of $500,000 to put the truth about the league before every voter. State and county chairmen will be asked to assist, and we feel hopeful there are at least a thousand men in the United States who will give us $500 each for the league."

"This plan will provide the means for a heavy assault against misrepresentation in the interest of mere partisanship."

Stovall First to Give.
The first response to the "Match the President" campaign fund was received at Democratic headquarters late to-day from Pleasant A. Stovall, editor of the Savannah Press and former United States minister to Switzerland. He sent a telegram to Chairman White pledging a contribution of $500.

AN ISSUE OF TRANSCENDANT IMPORTANCE

Editor The Patriot:

The representatives of the Democratic and Republican parties met in national convention, adopted their platforms and nominated candidates for President, who are to be the standard bearers of their respective parties in this quadrennial election year. Both nominees have now made their speeches of acceptance, and declared their policies, on which they will base their claims for the people's endorsement at the polls in the coming November election. Therefore every voter should, before casting his or her ballot, consider well the exalted policy of each candidate and the political character and record of their parties.

There is one vital question now before the people in the present political campaign which they must settle for themselves—a question which is of transcendent importance, touching as it does the deep interest of every man, woman and child of this country, and ultimately reaching out and including the whole world. Do they desire the United States to join the other nations of the world in a league by which it sought through friendly co-operation to prevent the future world wars, such as we so recently experienced, or do they desire that the policy of this government to retain its ancient policy of isolation and remain out of the league of nations make a separate peace with Germany and the other enemy nations, and combat single handed against all opposing interests which may be brought against us by the other nations of the world? We have helped the world to fight its battles, shall we not, or shall we help to enforce its peace?

For nearly two years this nation labored and suffered in turmoil and agony through the closing part of the most sanguinary war that ever called a people to arms. Two millions of American youths, the flower and pride of the nation, were sent across the great waters of the Atlantic to fight and bleed and suffer upon the field of battle in a foreign country that German militarism might be overcome and the world saved to democracy. Weeping mothers saw their sons march away to the call of their country; then with noble courage they bravely turned to their pressing home duties with a fervent prayer in their hearts for the success of the cause and their safe return home.

But how many of them were ever again to look upon a mother's face or make glad the heart so bitterly crushed by the sad separation. A sister's merry laugh never again to ring out upon ears so soon to be deafened by the cannon's roar, a life blotted out by the enemy's deadly bullet. And they were assured that this was to be the last great war for its successful close, a great league of nations would be formed and all such wars in the future made impossible. And for this end all believed and hoped.

The war was successfully won by America and associated powers, and a league of nations was promptly created by the accredited agents of the various friendly nations, subject to the approval of their respective home governments.

In the meantime the party which had been in power throughout the war here at home and promoter of the league idea, was displaced by a party hostile to the established form of the league, and because of this change in the treaty-making powers of our own government, America has been denied her rightful place in the council of the existing league. The Republican party gaining the ascendancy of power in the national senate, defeated this great purpose and prevented America from entering the league. When we had hoped to rest peacefully from our struggle with a strong and determined foe, we have only turmoil, confusion and unrest.

The mothers and sisters of those noble, brave boys, who so grandly bore their part in the great conflict, have now been given the franchise and will at the next election have equal rights with the male citizenship, to say who shall be our next President and the treaty and peace makers of the new Congress, and by their vote say whether America shall become a member of the league of nations or not.

If they, the women of America, desire that this government shall join with the other great nations and do her part in maintaining the peace of the world, then they may easily secure this greatly needed consummation by voting for and electing James M. Cox president, and giving him a Democratic senate. By no other means can this great object be attained. Senator Harding, the Republican candidate for president, with his party leaders and managers, has declared himself against the league of nations, reservations and all, and pledged himself that if elected president, the United States shall not be made a member of this great league to enforce peace, shall not assume, under it, any obligation or responsibility in co-operation with other countries, or governments, to compel all nations of the world to keep the peace—that the world may not again be engulfed in bloody and destructive war.

Oh, mothers, sisters of America! The blood of those lost sons and brothers, call pleading to you from across the sea. They were made sacrifice that democracy might live and nations be free. They did their part well, and their glorious achievements will ever glow bright in the living memory of oppressed humanity, and their valiant deeds be handed down from generation to generation till history shall have passed into tradition and monuments of granite crumbled into dust.

Your boys and your brothers, how bravely they faced the enemy, how firmly they withstood his determined assaults, how nobly they upheld the honor of their country; and we all are proud of them. They broke the power of despotism and waved high the banner of victory over the blood-drenched fields of France and Belgium.

Oh, never shall the land forget
How gushed the life-blood of her brave
Gushed warm with hope and courage yet,
Upon the soil they fought to save.

In the midst of the flame and heat of battle you stood unwaveringly at the post of duty, for liberty and freedom, for justice and right. No burden was too heavy, no danger too great for you, no sacrifice you did not patiently endure. You encouraged the faltering, tenderly administered to the dying, and you will not now fail before this last great menace to the world's hope of peace and final victory.

The greed and selfishness of man drenched the world with the blood of innocence and now may it not look to you, oh mothers and sisters, to give it justice and peace and bring it back to life and happiness again? to pour upon its bleeding wounds the healing ointment of love, sympathy and mercy? You will not turn a deaf ear or callous your hearts to the earnest pleadings of the world's helpless millions, but will rise above narrow indifference, and sorrid partizanship, wherever party selfishness might be a tempting influence against the best interest of oppressed and suffering humanity to help change discord to harmony, and bring joy and peace to the world again.

And when the ballots shall have been cast in the coming election may the assuring voice of divine approval be heard above the turbulence of party strife, "Peace, he still."

W. A. GATTIS FOSTER.

PRESIDENT TO AID IN BIG BATTLE OF BALLOTS.

Washington, Sept. 23.—Democrats are delighted that the President has entered the campaign. Indeed, it is now known that the President has been working behind the scenes in the campaign for several weeks, and that before another ten days have passed he will have taken his place in the center of the stage with the Democratic candidate, Governor Cox. Word comes from the White House that he is not only planning to throw a number of bombs directly into the Republican camp himself, but that he is preparing bombs for other men to throw. His activities will be confined to statements to the public, to letters to candidates, and to interviews with the leading Democrats on how to carry on the fight.

Advising Governor Cox.

It is said that he has been advising Governor Cox by post and by wire for some time. It is understood that when the governor came here to call on the President in July, he requested him to advise him especially on the league of nations. The statement of Governor Cox to a California audience to the effect that he would permit any reservations except nullifying reservations in order to get the league ratified, is said to have been authorized by the President.

The President is reported as saying that Senator Harding's speeches are without weight or force. He is said to regard them as of good Democratic doctrine, that is that they will make Democrats of Republicans.

McAdoo at White House.

Former Secretary McAdoo spent yesterday at the White House. When he left it was announced that he would stump the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific. That means that the President has urged McAdoo to get out and that as a result every McAdoo Democrat in this country will take off his coat for Cox, who is making a fine campaign. Next to Governor Cox himself and the President there is no man in this country who can do more for the election of the governor than William G. McAdoo. He carried to success three great liberty bond campaigns. He is one of the most convincing speakers who have ever addressed an American audience.

A Political Gesture.

Harding's scheduled visit to Chattanooga is what the French call a political gesture. Tennessee can no more be carried for Harding than can North Carolina. Will Hays is claiming both states. If his claim for Ohio and Indiana are no better founded than they are for North Carolina, the Democrats should not worry. But Democrats in Washington say that Tennessee is not in a healthy condition for the Democrats so far as the state ticket is concerned. Seth Walker, speaker of the house, and his anti friends who ran over into Alabama to beat suffrage, have got their knives out for Governor Roberts and may possibly defeat him. This has caused the Tennessee state Republican committee to urge Harding to visit the state. But despite the course of Senator Shields there is no real opposition among Tennessee Democrats to the league of nations and Governor Cox.

To Break the South.

Republicans here are saying that if the solid South cannot be broken by Senator Harding's visit to Chattanooga, the Republicans will break it by cutting down Southern representation in Congress and the electoral college should they win the election. Of the two, Democrats declare they would rather lose half their representation than to see the South become Republican. For in the latter event it would lose its political honor—a quality that has made the South great.

FRANCE TO PAY HER SHARE OF BIG LOAN.

Paris, Sept. 23.—France will pay every dollar of the $250,000,000 loan due in New York October 15, M. Francois-Marsal, minister of finance, officially announced to the cabinet council to-day.

This sum is France's share of the $500,000,000 Anglo-French loan floated in the United States during the war.

M. Francois-Marsal informed the ministers the French treasury already had shipped to the United States $150,000,000 in gold and securities. He added the success of the $180,000,000 loan contracted through J. P. Morgan & Co., would permit the picking up of all notes due October 15.

This was expected to be the last cabinet meeting of the Millerand ministry. It was attended by all the ministers.

Fare "By Agreement."

"So you only take fares at agreed prices. What is your fare?"
"Where do you want to go to?"
"To my villa, No. 79 Rosenneck street."
"Good! It will cost you the villa."

WITH THE WHITE MEN AND WOMEN OF NORTH CAROLINA CONTINUE TO SLEEP?

"Foul deeds will rise tho' all the world overwhelm them to men's eyes."

The disclosures made in the letter published on the first page of this issue indicate a startling situation on the political horizon of North Carolina.

This letter was mailed from Greensboro to a colored woman in Lexington. It happened that there was a white woman in that city of the same name and the postoffice delivered it to the white woman. It appears that the same letter is being mailed to colored women throughout the state.

Mr. William Grissom, secretary of the Republican organization, has been extremely busy in denying that the letter was sent out by the Colored Women's Rights Association, and that distinguished gentlemen, even before the letter was published in local newspapers, declares that it is a Democratic ruse. We would merely inquire if Mr. Grissom's affiliation with the organization of colored women is so intimate that he can vouch for their actions, or make denial for them of their propaganda.

On previous occasions we have pointed out the necessity for all the women to register and vote. We had entertained suspicions of such a plot and this valuable epistle sustains those fears. We no longer implore the women to attend to the important duty of registering and casting a vote for white supremacy. We no longer urge them. We merely request that they read the letter on the front page, let them answer the simply query.

WHITE WOMEN, WILL YOU CONTINUE TO SLEEP?

The registration books open September 30.

DRASTIC ACTION IS IMPERATIVE

Accidents on the Greensboro-High Point asphalt highway continue to occur and to occur in ever increasing numbers. It seems that regard for danger is thrown to the winds when a thimble headed chap strikes that road and, casting danger to the winds, he lets'er go the limit.

The reckless driving of another reckless driver, they are made to suffer by the carelessness of such a blatherskite.

The completion of the new road toward Guilford College has diverted some of the auto calamities to that route. Wherever the asphalt roads are built, the speed maniacs will be there, endangering the lives of useful citizens.

The county should devise some method of patrolling these roads. We believe that such a patrol would be self sustaining, certainly until the public learned that there is a speed limit and that it must be respected. Fines of five dollars and costs are going to have very little effect. Some of these motorists that boast of driving from Greensboro to High Point in 20 or less minutes ought to make fast workers in improving other roads of the county.

A COMMENDABLE UNDERTAKING

The enterprising citizens of the section living between the Normal College and Pomona school on Spring Garden street extension, are making a vigorous effort toward having a side walk laid on the north side of the street.

This street has grown to be as populous as a city thoroughfare. The lack of a place of safety for pedestrians, excepting the "big road," is a source of constant danger to the citizens of that community and an absolute menace to the lives of the hundreds of children attending the Pomona school.

Spring Garden road is perhaps the most heavily traveled of any leading into this city. A constant stream of automobiles are traversing it in both directions. At night the traffic continues and the dangers of a pedestrian are multiplied by several times. In fact, unless the citizens of that community have automobiles, they are rather foolish to venture out after dark unless provided with a head light.

We feel that the effort to have a side walk laid is a most commendable undertaking and we wish those behind the proposition the best of luck.

GRAND JURY RECOMMENDS SALE OF COUNTY HOME

FAVORS PURCHASE OF NEW SITE AND ERECTION OF BETTER BUILDINGS.

Before being dismissed for the term last Friday afternoon the grand jury filed its report with Judge Ray, the report in full being as follows: To His Honor, J. Bis Ray, Judge Presiding:

We, the grand jury for the September, 1920, term of criminal court for Guilford county, beg leave to submit the following as a report of our proceedings:

We acted on 58 bills, finding 55 true bills and three not true bills.

We visited the convict camp and county home on the 22nd day of September. We inspected all buildings and surrounding grounds. We found the convict camp in very good condition from a sanitary standpoint, but there is a great need at the camp for better facilities in the kitchen. There is an imperative need for a large range in the kitchen, the cooks informing us that they are required to begin many hours ahead in order to get bread cooked on the present worn out stove that they are using. In fact, it is necessary for them to cook bread the day before for the lunch of the following day.

At the county home we found the roof in need of repairs and the interior walls should be plastered or calcimined. New tables and table cloths are also needed. The place where the feeble minded are confined is in a deplorable condition in every respect, both inside and out. It is very dangerous, inasmuch as a fire in this building would destroy all the buildings on the grounds and possibly burn to death many of the inmates.

Last year 200 bushels of wheat were raised at the home; they also have a fine lot of poultry. Mr. and Mrs. Scott, the keepers, appear to be doing all in their power for the benefit of the inmates.

We are of the opinion, however, that it would be the part of wisdom for the county to sell the present county home farm and the convict camp farm and that a new place be bought and more suitable buildings be erected for these purposes. The present buildings are totally inadequate, antiquated and unsuited. We believe that the county could derive a sum from the farm it now owns that would enable it to buy a more suitable place and almost have enough to erect necessary buildings.

We visited the jail and found 19 white men, 22 negro men, four white women and six negro women. The jail was in A No. 1 condition. We visited the various offices in the court house and found them, so far as we were able to judge, in satisfactory shape.

Respectfully submitted,
J. R. C. BEVILL,
Foreman Grand Jury.

Colds & Headache

"For years we have used Black-Draught in our family, and I have never found any medicine that could take its place," writes Mr. H. A. Stacy, of Bradyville, Tenn. Mr. Stacy, who is a Rutherford County farmer, recommends Black-Draught as a medicine that should be kept in every household for use in the prompt treatment of many little ills to prevent them from developing into serious troubles.

THE FORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

"It touches the liver and does the work," Mr. Stacy declared. "It is one of the best medicines I ever saw for a cold and headache. I don't know what we would do in our family if it wasn't for Black-Draught. It has saved us many dollars . . . I don't see how any family can hardly go without it. I know it is a reliable and splendid medicine to keep in the house. I recommend Black-Draught highly and am never without it." At all druggists.

REMOVES HAYS' "SNEAKING GERRILLA" POLICY.

Greensboro, Sept. 24.—Attacks upon Chairman Hays, of the Republican national committee, and Republican newspapers charged with a conspiracy of silence against the Democratic cause, featured to-day's Colorado campaign of Governor James M. Cox, of Ohio, Democratic presidential nominee.

The line of assault of the candidate who charged that Mr. Hays, acting for the Republican national committee, and Republican newspapers editors, were conspiring to suppress news and divert issues of the campaign was made by the governor in those Colorado speeches to-day at Trinidad, Pueblo and at Arapahoe.

Large meetings were tonight at the auditorium. "Prohibition" was the term applied to Governor Cox in his charges regarding the Republican newspapers and he likened Chairman Hays to "the sneaking guerilla who in days of old poisoned wells for the destruction of enemies."

garding the Republican newspapers and he likened Chairman Hays to "the sneaking guerilla who in days of old poisoned wells for the destruction of enemies."

Hays' Advance Agents.
Mr. Hays, the candidate declared, sent an advance agent to confer with Colorado editors, as well as to New Mexico to plan the alleged undermining of the Democratic campaign.

Last Monday at Denver Governor Cox asserted in his Pueblo speech, editors of Colorado Republican newspapers assembled for a conference with a Mr. Stephens, said to have been an agent of Chairman Hays.

"The editors were asked to divert the public mind from the league and other paramount issues," said Governor Cox, "to minor affairs. They were told to ask questions thought to be embarrassing and to give unfavorable reports on my receptions."

"The Republican national committee is maintaining a large organization for this purpose. It has been traveling all over the country and the funds of the Republican organization are being used to make this kind of a campaign at a time when humanity is to pass on the great question involving more interests and more people than at any time in the history of the world."

"Rich Men's Contributions."

"The rich men of America who are living in comfort," the governor continued, "reiterating charges of 'big business' contributions to the Republicans, 'certainly ought to be proud of the fact that they have made it possible for Hays to conduct this kind of a campaign. The reason is that its apparent to any unprejudiced person that the west is overwhelmingly for the league of nations and that the majority of the west will so record themselves.'"

Seven Negroes Rushed to Raleigh.

Raleigh, Sept. 25.—Driving 30 miles in 40 minutes, Sheriff Massey, of Johnston county, reached here at 12:15 o'clock this morning from Smithfield with seven negroes, charged with inciting a race riot, whom he placed in the state prison for safekeeping. Members of a mob which had formed in Smithfield, to lynch the negroes, followed the sheriff's party to within a short distance of the city. There was pistol firing from the following automobiles, but without effect.

—Henry Ford is everlastingly right. The war is over and it is high time for war prices to cease. As Henry says, there is no sense or wisdom in trying to maintain artificial prices forever. He not only preaches this doctrine but he practices it as well, for Mr. W. H. McGlamery, proprietor of the McGlamery Auto Co., the home of Ford cars and service, announces in a big advertisement elsewhere to-day that Mr. Ford has made a decided reduction in the prices of all Ford products, such as cars, trucks and tractors, which means a great saving to all purchasers of these products. Refer to this announcement and see what a big reduction Mr. Ford has made, and that in the face of the fact that they have on the waiting list now orders for 146,650 cars and tractors. The McGlamery Auto Co. is now ready to book your order for a Ford car, tractor or truck at the new prices.

I divided one large field, using Basic Lime Phosphate on one side and 16 per cent Acid on the other. The yield where I used Basic Lime Phosphate was two to one greater than where I used 16 per cent Acid Phosphate. I do not consider that there is any comparison between the two, and besides, the Basic Lime Phosphate did not destroy the bags, which cost 30c apiece.

Every one that I know who used Basic Lime Phosphate is highly pleased with the results they obtained. For my part, I expect to continue to use it as long as I can get it.

THE RELATION OF THE NORTH CAROLINA TAX POLICY TO THE FARMERS OF THE STATE

To the Farmers of North Carolina:

The members of the North Carolina state board of agriculture consider themselves commissioned to look out for the interests of the North Carolina farmer. We know the farmers of North Carolina well enough, however, to know that all they want is truth and justice and honesty. The North Carolina farmer wants no special favors, no special privileges. He asks only that he be fed out of the same spoon as other citizens. As he opposes giving special privileges to other citizens, so he asks none for himself.

These reflections are impressed upon us as we consider the questions that come to us from many North Carolina farmers asking for the exact facts as to North Carolina's taxation policy with regard to its fairness and with regard to its effect upon the state's agricultural interests. As members of the legislative committee of the North Carolina board of agriculture, the undersigned persons meeting in Raleigh, and after earnest investigation of the facts, desire to submit their findings to their fellow-farmers of the state. We present these facts, we wish to say in the outset, with no desire to favor any man or set of men, and with no desire to criticize any man or set of men. We are moved to speak only out of a desire to serve the cause of truth and to clarify a situation now much muddled through misconception and misunderstandings.

North Carolina's New Taxation Policy.

After prolonged study and investigation, the general assembly of North Carolina, in 1919, decided on a new taxation policy for the state. This policy, we are glad to say, was approved by the representatives of both political parties, and appeals to us still as distinctly a moral issue, which should be above political consideration. This new taxation policy as worked out by both political parties in 1919 aimed at three things:

1. Honesty in assessments.
2. A reduction in tax rate to correspond to the increase in assessed value.
3. Provision for lightening the burdens of poverty and industry, and putting a larger share of the burdens of taxation on men with large incomes.

With regard to the latter point, we may note in the outset that the last legislature was the first one to take advantage of the authority given it by the constitution to provide a $300 exemption for taxpayers.

Now about the plans for securing just assessments. In the past everybody understood that he was permitted to list property for something less than its real value; and the result was that the more pliable a man's conscience, the lower the rate he named; and this thing had grown worse and worse year after year until it has amounted to a state disgrace. For a man to list his property at its real value meant that he would have to pay practically twice as much tax as he ought to pay. Such a system encouraged lying, and corrupted public morals at the fountain-head. If the sworn officials of the state set the example of assessing real estate at 33 1-3 per cent of its value, how could the state expect the individual tax payer to list his personal property at 100 per cent?

All this has changed. Hereafter every property owner in this state is expected to list every cent's worth of property he owns—and list it at 100 per cent of its value; list it for what it would bring if offered for sale under favorable conditions.

Of course, if this plan for revaluing property for taxation were offered without assurance that the tax rate would be correspondingly cut, it would fail. The law specifically provides, however, that as assessed values increase the tax rate must decrease, and the present general assembly proposes to reduce the maximum constitutional rate on each $100 worth of property from 66 2-3 to 15 cents.

The Proposed Income Tax Amendment.

Now with regard to provision for throwing a larger part of the burden of taxation on those most able to bear it. The chief purpose of the revaluation policy is not to increase the amount of taxes, but to secure justice and equality in assessment. Then, in order to provide larger revenues for the state and give us the necessary money for the many important tasks which advanced civilization places on the commonwealth—better schools, better roads, better health, better care of the unfortunate, etc.—the legislature submits to the people another important plan. At the election in November the people will vote on a constitutional amendment authorizing the state to tax the income of the wealthy, without regard as to whether any particular income is derived from invested wealth or otherwise.

We hope every farmer will now make up his mind to vote for this amendment and urge others to do so. Heretofore we have had a shameful system in North Carolina. Incomes derived from labor have been taxable, while incomes derived from invested capital have been exempt from taxation, under constitutional provisions. Thus it is said that a famous tobacco manufacturer of this state had an income of about a half-million dollars a year from his property, and was not required to pay one cent of income tax on it, while his stenographer or clerk getting $1,250 a year or more was required to pay an income tax. In England for years it has been the plan to put a heavier tax on "unearned incomes"—that is to say, on those derived from invested capital—than on "earned incomes"—that is to say, on those derived from one's labor or profession. Our North Carolina plan has been on the other extreme, and the voters of the state ought to pile up 100,000 majority for changing it, just as they did for changing the constitution so as to provide a six months school term.

A great part of the state's wealth is concentrated in the hands of comparatively few wealthy persons, and it is only fair that they bear a larger share of the burdens of taxation. This is all the proposed income tax amendment means.

The Results of the New Law Policy.

Such, in brief, was the state's taxation policy as approved by representatives of both political parties in the general assembly of 1919. What have been the results? We are profoundly convinced, after a careful study of the question, that this new policy has worked out in a way to deserve the sympathy and support of the farmers of North Carolina. Of course, the plan has had its faults, its weaknesses, its imperfections. Of course, some mistakes have been made. Of course, we should try to remedy any weak places in the act. But, on the whole, we are convinced that the majority of the farmers of North Carolina feel as did one farmer, speaking bluntly in the presence of some of the signers below since our committee met in Raleigh, when he said:

"The new tax act would be worth all the effort that has been put into it if it did nothing else except keep a hundred thousand North Carolinians from swearing to lies every tax listing day. I thank God for an act which enables me to sign my tax sheet with a clear conscience, knowing that I am compelled to tell the truth, and that my neighbors are also."

We believe that the great majority of the farmers of North Carolina feel as this man did. They want to know,

TIME WAITS FOR NO MAN—NEITHER WILL IT RUSH FOR HIM.

"Is all property getting on books at its fair value? Are the books telling the truth? Is each class of property honestly listed?"

Each class of property is honest listed, then it doesn't matter whether real estate or personal property or corporations show the greatest gain in value. As a matter of fact, however, we find that there is no reason whatever for charging that the new taxation policy will throw a largely increased burden on the farmer. Here are the facts.

The Valuation of Real Estate.

First, as to valuation of real estate. Any thoughtful man who wishes to deal honestly is bound to know that in making any comparison of values in real estate with other property values, it is absurd to use the years 1919 and 1920. Prior to 1919 real estate was last assessed in 1915. Any so-called "1919 revaluation" for real estate is therefore a fiction and an absurdity. There is absolutely "no such thing" as a 1919 revaluation. There is only a 1915 revaluation which was carried over in 1918, 1919, 1920, 1921, 1922, 1923, 1924, 1925, 1926, 1927, 1928, 1929, 1930, 1931, 1932, 1933, 1934, 1935, 1936, 1937, 1938, 1939, 1940, MOST OF COUNTY SCHOOLS
OPEN—ENROLLMENTS LARGE.

A large number of the public schools in the county have already begun their sessions for the fall term and in almost every instance there is a greater enrollment this year than heretofore. Both the elementary grades and the high schools show an increase in the number of students.

Considerable difficulty has been experienced in securing teachers for all of the schools, some of the one and two teacher schools not having been opened yet for that reason. These schools are expected to open about the middle of October and it is hoped that all of the vacancies will be filled by that time.

The different schools in the county which have already started following are: Gibsonville, Whitsett, Bessemer, South Buffalo, Monticello, Pleasant Garden, Pomona, Pomona mills, Jamestown, Springfield, McIver, Summerfield, Guilford College graded schools. In all of these schools the attendance is above normal, although the figures for the totals have not as yet been made accessible.

Several one and two teacher schools in the county have not secured teachers; the remainder have. These schools are scheduled to open about the middle of October and it is hoped that the vacancies will be filled by that time.

A number of negro schools in the county have also opened and their attendance also is considered above normal.

"One of the most gratifying things that I have noticed this year," Superintendent Foust stated, "is the fact that an unusually large majority of those who finished the seventh grade last year have returned for high school work. It indicates a step in education, I believe," he concluded.

HENRY WILSON RECOVERING NICELY FROM BLOW.

Henry Wilson, the Liberty Hill merchant who was assaulted last Monday night after closing his store and while en route home, is reported to be recovering nicely. Mr. Wilson received a heavy blow on his head and suffered a severe gash. An examination on Friday led the physicians to believe that his skull was fractured. His recovery is progressing rapidly, however, and it is expected that he will be able to return to his duties within a few days.

A preliminary hearing will be given John Holt this afternoon on a charge of committing the assault on Mr. Wilson. Holt, a young negro residing in the neighborhood of W. C. Rankin in the Liberty Hill section, was trailed by blood hounds after the crime is alleged to have happened, and he was arrested early Tuesday morning on a warrant charging him with the crime.

Joe S. Phipps, deputy sheriff, has been appointed game warden for Guilford county by the board of commissioners and Mr. Phipps took the oath of office last week. He stated that he will devote special attention to hunting that is being done out of season and he offers a reward of $25 to persons giving information sufficient to convict violations of the game laws.

The open season for quail, turkeys and similar game in this county begins November 15 and closes the last day of February. Possum hunting is permissible October 1. Squirrels are the only variety of game that can be killed at present without danger of the game warden taking action.

Greensboro to Have New Playhouse.

T. G. Leitch announced Friday that all arrangements had been made for work to begin right away on a modern theater he and his associates are planning to erect on South Elm. The theater will be built on the site of the old McAdoo hotel, which was destroyed by fire several years ago. The new building will cost in the neighborhood of $150,000, and the lot, which is one of the most valuable in the city, will make the total investment represent approximately $300,000.

BIG BREAK IN WHEAT PRICES ON CHICAGO MARKET.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—Big breaks in the price of wheat took place to-day largely as a result of agitation for a general cut in food cost. The smash of values in wheat amounted to as much as 12 3-4 cents a bushel and the market closed in a semi-demoralized condition. December delivery at 2.25 to 2.25 1-2 and March 2.15 to 2.16.

Heretofore, wheat has been advancing despite setbacks in the price of other grain. The chief reason ascribed for such strength was huge sales of wheat for export to Europe. To-day, however, the stimulus of export business appeared to have lost its influence and especially near the end of the day the wheat market tumbled wildly downward.

In sympathy with the weakness of wheat other grain markets also gave way, and both corn and oats fell to the lowest price levels yet for the 1920 crop.

DON'T WANT SOLDIERS AS STRIKE BREAKERS.

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 24.—A general strike, involving 126,000 organized workers of West Virginia will be called "if federal troops are to be used as a strikebreaking agency instead of for the protection of the constitutional rights of citizens of state and nation," said C. F. Keeney, president of district 17, United Mine Workers of America, in a statement issued here tonight.

Mr. Keeney added that "before this drastic action is taken, however, the associations of coal miners in northern and southern West Virginia will be requested to use their influence to have federal soldiers removed from the state in order that tranquility may prevail."

Milton Hard Hit by Storm.

Danville, Va., Sept. 24.—The report reaching here late tonight is that a storm struck the town of Milton, N. C., 12 miles from here, at dark, doing considerable damage. A farmer from that region brought the news. It is not known if there was any loss of life.
