JUDGE RAY DIRECTS VERDICT OF NOT GUILTY.

At the conclusion of the defendant's testimony Monday morning in the case of state vs. Roy and Eugene Alford, negroes of High Point, who were facing a charge of the murder of J. E. Fletcher, Judge Ray, presiding over the term of Superior court, directed that a verdict of not guilty be entered as to both of the defendants. The action of the judge followed a statement in open court by John N. Wilson, prosecuting on behalf of the commissioners of Guilford county. Mr. Wilson informed the court that he did not feel inclined to ask for a conviction after all of the evidence had been presented. The evidence for the state was entirely of a circumstantial nature, mostly inconclusive, and Judge Ray had formerly expressed his private opinion that in the event of a conviction by the jury he would feel compelled to set aside the verdict.

After the defendant and state had both rested and counsel were preparing to begin argument of the case, a message was received from High Point advising the solicitor that a man had reported to the High Point officers that he had sold a pistol to one of the Alford negroes on the afternoon of the alleged crime. Court was held in adjournment until the witness could be brought to Greensboro. After an examination of the witness by counsel for the state, Mr. Wilson announced to the court that the witness was not of such mental or physical condition as would permit him to be placed on the stand.

The case against the two Alford brothers began last Thursday and continued until Monday morning. A host of witnesses were introduced by both sides and the case dragged along slowly for four days.

When Judge Ray informed the defendants that they were at liberty to go their way neither of them lost time in getting out of the court room. The mother of the boys, a respectable looking colored woman, showed more signs of emotion than did either of the men who had a few minutes before been facing a charge that might have resulted in the death penalty. The mother had restrained herself so long as the strain had continued, but when the strain was lifted from her it appeared that her nerves would collapse. Upon reaching the corridor of the court house she began shouting, ringing her hands, leaping into the air from sheer joy, and some of her friends carried her from the building.

Following the liberation of the Alford boys Judge Ray adjourned the term of court. About 69 cases were continued and the next term of criminal court will not convene until December 13.

WAREHOUSE AND STORAGE CO. TO ERECT NEW BUILDINGS.

Announcement has been made by J. E. Latham, vice president and general manager of the Greensboro Warehouse and Storage Company, that the already large storage facilities of this concern will be greatly increased in the near future by the addition of three units to its present warehouse system. The additions will represent an investment of approximately $50,000, and when complete will give the concern a total storage space of about 125,000 square feet.

The new compartments will be of fireproof construction and, like the original units of the system, will be provided with complete sprinkler outfits for fire prevention.

The business of this large warehouse concern is devoted almost entirely to the storage of cotton and the increasing demand upon the facilities of the company have necessitated the expansion of its floor space.

Clarence S. Land Dies.

Clarence S. Land, aged 13, died at the home of his mother, Mrs. E. A. Land, 13 Maple street, Proximity, at noon Tuesday, his illness extending over a period of years. He was survived by his mother, one sister and five brothers.

The body was taken to Elm Grove, near Stokesdale, where the funeral services were conducted Wednesday by Rev. Mr. Burgess, of Proximity. Interment followed in the Elm Grove burying ground.

ASPHALT HIGHWAY TOWARD FRIENDSHIP IS COMPLETE.

Construction of the asphalt paving on the main highway leading from Edwards cross roads to a point 6 of a mile beyond Guilford station has been completed, the contractors turning the job over this week. The addition of this stretch marks the completion of 7.6 miles hard surfaced road in the direction of Winston-Salem, to which point, it is generally believed, the road will be eventually projected.

Announcement is also made by the contractors, R. G. Lassiter & Co., that the five miles of road construction on the Gibsonville highway will be completed in the near future. Good progress is being made on laying the top surface on the last mile of this job and it weather conditions continue favorable it is expected that the task will be finished within a few more days.

W. R. PICKARD DEAD; FUNERAL WEDNESDAY.

W. R. Pickard, aged 60 years, died Monday morning at 9 o'clock, following an illness of several weeks. Mr. Pickard underwent an operation in a local hospital Friday, and he never rallied from the effects. He was afflicted with a complication of ailments.

Funeral services were conducted at the home, 415 McCulloch street, Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock by Rev. B. K. Mason, pastor of the Ashboro Street Baptist church. The body was taken to Phillips chapel, 10 miles southeast of Burlington for burial.

He is survived by four sons and three daughters, E. R., Percy, Ernest and Paul Pickard, of Greensboro; Mrs. Mabel Kern, of Burlington, and Mary and Frances Pickard, of this city. For a number of years Mr. Pickard was a merchant and had a host of friends in the city and throughout the county.

SECRETARY DANIELS TO DELIVER ADDRESS HERE.

Honorable Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy, will deliver an address in this city tomorrow night at the court house, according to announcement by O. C. Cox, chairman of the Guilford county Democratic executive committee. Mr. Daniels will speak at 8 o'clock.

Even before he was elevated to the high position of secretary of the navy, Mr. Daniels was always capable of drawing a large crowd when delivering an address anywhere in North Carolina. Ranking as he now does as one of the foremost men of the nation, it is expected that the court room of the county mansion will be unable to accommodate the crowd that will be present to hear the distinguished Tar Heel.

MEETING OF GUILFORD FARMERS SATURDAY.

A meeting of the farmers of this county has been called for Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock and it is hoped that a large attendance may be secured. The meeting will be held in the farmer's assembly room in the basement of the court house.

The gathering has been called by John A. Young, president of the Guilford County Farm Bureau, and Mr. Young extends an invitation to all of the farmers to be present, whether they are members of the farm bureau or not. The tobacco situation and other problems of interest to the farmers will be considered.

Rev. Shenk to Preach at Peace Church Sunday.

Rev. E. A. Shenk, pastor of the First Lutheran church, Greensboro, will preach at Peace Lutheran church, four miles east of McLeansville, Sunday afternoon at 3:30. Mr. Shenk is one of the most gifted preachers of the Lutheran denomination and a treat is in store for those who go to hear him.

Circus Animals Poisoned.

San Antonio, Texas, Sept. 27.—On arrival of a circus train here Sunday it was found that 16 trained seals and sea lions valued at about $18,000 had died in their tanks during a ride of 100 miles. Poison in the water tanks was believed by circus men to have been the cause.

YOUNG LADY ASKS $5,000 DAMAGES FROM CITY.

Miss Elsie Pennington, a young woman of this city, notified the commissioners of the city of Greensboro at their meeting yesterday afternoon that she claimed $5,000 damages on account of a broken ankle which she suffered in August, allegedly through the negligence of the city. The claims of Miss Pennington were presented by her attorneys, King, Sapp & King. It is understood that Miss Pennington's injuries occurred in August when she stepped off a street car at the corner of Elm and Washington streets, there being a hole in the street at that time and the young lady stepping into it. City Attorney Charles A. Hines advised the commissioners that the plaintiff was also considering bringing a suit against the Public Service Company for its liability, and he informed the board that a compromise could most likely be secured.

The commissioners took the matter under consideration, no definite action being taken by the members.

REGISTRATION BOOKS OPENED THIS MORNING.

Registration books were opened this morning in the various voting precincts throughout Guilford county and the registrars are prepared for the largest business during many years past. The books will remain open until October 23.

On Saturdays the registrars will be at the voting place of their respective precincts, each of them being on duty every Saturday. On other days of the week they will be at their homes and those desiring to register will be required to seek the registrars.

In view of the fact that the women are entitled to vote this year, and inasmuch as all of the women will be required to register before they are entitled to cast a ballot, it is expected that the registration will be very large. Many of the women have been heard to express the positive intention of registering and it is believed by those familiar with conditions in this county that the woman vote this fall will upset all calculations heretofore made.

FEDERAL CLOTHING COMPANY TO OPEN STORE SATURDAY.

The Federal Clothing Company is completing final arrangements for its grand opening, scheduled to be made Saturday morning. This most recent addition to the mercantile institutions of this city will be established at 233 South Elm street, in the store room formerly occupied by the Singer Sewing Machine Company. J. E. Napier, formerly in charge of the Durham store of this firm, will be manager of the Greensboro branch.

The Federal Clothing Company, with headquarters in New York city, operates a chain of 39 stores. It has announced that all of the clothing sold through the many stores is manufactured by the company. The company will carry a complete stock of ready to wear goods for men, women and children, and it is announced that it will offer liberal credit lines to worthy customers.

SOME GOOD NEWS FOR HARD WORKING FATHERS.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—A general reduction in food prices was predicted today by Sol Westerfield, president of the Retail Grocers' Association, who expected only eggs and butter from what he said would be a steady decline. He said high interests on bank loans made price cutting necessary for producers to move their crops.

Mr. Westerfield said canned goods now being packed must be lowered in price to move it; that coffee had recently dropped 19 cents a pound, and that he looked for cheaper bread because of lower flour prices. Fruit was at a minimum, in some cases lower than 1914 prices, he said.

"Although it may mean loss to some producers and distributors," he said, "the nation as a whole will benefit and a return to normal conditions will be effected."

M., by her pastor, Rev. R. W. Miles, assisted by Rev. A. G. Loftin, pastor of the Pleasant Garden M. E. church. Mrs. Dickens was widely known and had a host of friends throughout the county. The many beautiful floral designs showed the esteem in which the deceased was held.

The pall-bearers were E. R. Tucker, H. C. Rudd, J. C. Neelley, T. C. Hicks, L. E. Reddick, A. C. Rankin. The following acted as flower girls: Misses Ruby Reddick, Annie Rudd, Julia Rudd, Francis Osborn, Minnie Hicks, Elizabeth Rankin, Doris Neelley, Katheline Riley, Rachel Tucker, Frances Tucker, Nellie Smith, Louise Moore, Beatris Neelley, Hazel Vickrey, Nellie Kennett, Minnie Ross, Margie Reddick.

JOHN HOLT BOUND OVER ON CHARGE OF ASSAULT.

John Holt, negro, was bound over to Superior court Tuesday morning by Justice D. H. Collins, Holt being charged with having committed assault that was perpetrated on Henry Wilson, a merchant. The preliminary hearing was held in the court house Monday afternoon, Judge Collins reserving his decision until Tuesday morning.

The evidence introduced tended to show that Mr. Wilson was held up about 9:30 o'clock on Monday night of September 20, that he was struck a severe blow on the head with a rock tied in a handkerchief, and that after relieving him of what little cash was on his person, his assailant fled. The Holt negro was trailed to his home by blood hounds, which arrived on the scene several hours after the crime was committed.

The evidence introduced against the defendant was largely circumstantial but sufficient, in Judge Collins' opinion, to bind him over to Superior court. Bond was fixed in the sum of $500.

TOBACCO SALES CONTINUE TO INCREASE IN VOLUME.

Sales of tobacco on the floors of the Greensboro warehouses have continued to increase during the past several days and the prices paid have shown a slight improvement. On yesterday the sales totaled 18,380 pounds with an average price of 14.5. Of this total 14,702 pounds were sold at Graham's warehouse for an average of 13.7, while 3,678 pounds were sold at the Farmers' warehouse bringing an average of 15.8 cents per pound.

On Tuesday the combined sales amounted to 21,763 pounds. Graham's house handled 14,065 pounds, which brought an average of 17.65, while 7,698 pounds were sold from the floor of the Farmers' warehouse at an average of 15.7 cents.

Each day a quantity of good leaf tobacco was brought in for sale and the price for these grades ranged as high as 55 cents. It is evident that the growers are keeping posted on the prices offered at all of the surrounding markets for those attending the sales daily report that hardly any of the farmers are turning their tags and carrying their tobacco away to be sold on other markets. Such action has been reported from other towns. All in all it appears that the prices being paid here are as good as those of any market in the state.

Quarney Quate and John Lee Conveyed to State Prison.

Officers J. S. Current and E. E. Glenn left yesterday morning for Raleigh where they went to convey Quarney Quate, white, and John Lee, colored, to the state prison. Both of the men were convicted at the past term of the Superior court, Lee being sentenced to five years after a conviction on the charge of robbery and Quate being sentenced to four years on charges of larceny.

Three Deaths by Autos.

Atlanta, Sept. 27.—The death of W. W. Moon in an automobile accident today, making three fatalities in as many accidents in the past 36 hours, spurred city and county officials to action to end reckless driving of automobiles in this city.

MISS FRANCES LONG BECOMES BRIDE OF A. KLIPSTEIN, JR.

Miss Frances Long, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Long, of this city, and Augustus Klipstein, Jr., of New York City, were united in marriage Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, the ceremony being solemnized at the home of the bride's parents on Church street.

The bride was attended at the ceremony by her sister, Mrs. C. D. Benbow, Jr., who served as dame of honor, and by her two little nieces, Douglas Long and Mary Long Benbow. She entered on the arm of her father, Dr. J. W. Long. The groom's best man was his brother, Herbert Klipstein, also of New York. A large number of out of town relatives and intimate friends were here for the wedding.

Miss Long is one of Greensboro's most attractive and popular young women, and her friends are numbered by the score. Mr. Klipstein is vice president of the Klipstein Chemical Company, of New York, and is a young business man of force and ability.

After their wedding tour Mr. and Mrs. Klipstein will make their future home in New York city.

CHICAGO MAIL ORDER HOUSE FOLLOWS FORD'S EXAMPLE.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Two of the largest mail order houses in the world, Sears-Roebuck Company and Montgomery Ward Company, today announced price cuts of from 10 to 20 per cent in many lines of merchandise.

Food prices, as a whole, were not affected, although sugar was quoted at $17.95 a hundred pounds, and the representative of one company predicted it would drop to from $12.50 to $10 after the canning season.

Cotton staples, such as muslins, cambrics, sheetings and poplins led the list with 20 per cent reductions. Men's and women's ready-to-wear clothing, shoes and corsets were other items affected. Silks have already been reduced from 33 to 50 per cent and furniture prices are 25 per cent below the scale of a few months ago.

One of the companies reported a very heavy sale of sewing machines, which, it was said, indicated more women were making the family clothing at home.

HENRY FORD'S ACTION A BLOW TO SPECULATORS.

Kinston, Sept. 27.—Henry Ford is a blithering nuisance, is the opinion entertained by some persons here, and a public benefactor from another viewpoint. His decision to cut prices of cars from 14 to 31 per cent found a considerable number of local speculators loaded up on new cars and old cars. True, some of the new cars were old cars fitted with new bodies and otherwise carefully touched up, but the average cost of the machines was greater than the cost of a new car under the revised Ford price list. Not less than 100 touring cars, runabouts and sedans of the well-known "tin types" were awaiting buyers here when the staggering dope came over the wires that Ford had wiped the war off his program. The number may have been nearer 200. The average price to the public was probably around $800, according to dealers.

At least a thousand farmers need new cars and would pay well for them. Then the tobacco companies appeared on the scene with a hard luck story and 90 per cent of the farmers deserted the automobile market. Ford's action was a hard blow to speculative hopes.

James M. King and Miss Annie Mary Smith Married.

A marriage of interest to a large number of their friends was that of last week when James M. King and Miss Annie Mary Smith, both of this city, were united in holy wedlock, the ceremony being performed in Chatham county.

The bride is the accomplished and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Smith, of Scott apartments, while the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. King, of Percy street.

Mr. King is manager of the T. and H. Motor Company and is a prominent and popular young business man of the city.

THE LABOR VOTE WILL SETTLE FATE CANDIDATES.

Washington, Sept. 27.—The labor vote will decide the presidency for the first time in history. That is reported to be the conviction at the headquarters of both the great parties. The situation is without precedent in a presidential campaign, for never before has labor entertained such a definite political class consciousness.

It was never so strongly aligned. There were never offered such convincing reasons why it should vote as it is believed it will vote on November 2nd.

To be sure, labor is divided between Cox and Harding, but the division is believed to be very unequal and the Democrats are counting on their belief in this unusual division in their favor to pull them through. They say that neither straw votes nor betting odds, neither Republican confidence, nor the hue and cry that the country wants to change to a Republican administration are taking into account the way the labor vote will be cast.

To Cast 9,000,000 Votes.

Labor, it is estimated, will this year cast 9,000,000 votes, 3,000,000 of them being women and the force of this vote lies in the fact that the great majority will not vote for the one or the other of the great parties, but for or against the attitude of those parties on questions of labor.

Two years ago Will Hays had sensed this situation. He perceived that the Republican party had more and more alienated the labor elements of the country, or rather that the Wilson administration had captured these elements by its friendliness to labor in both legislation and the administration of labor laws. Hays organized the Republican labor bureau at Chicago and put in charge of the bureau Harry L. Fidler, a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. No man has ever tackled a harder task than this man Fidler, for McAdoo had won over for the Wilson administration the host of railroad workers. Democrats say Fidler has done all that any man could do under the circumstances in winning labor over to the Republican party, but that he has not done it, they are sure, when the work of the national non-partisan campaign committee of the A. F. L., under the leadership of Samuel Gompers here in Washington, is examined.

Gompers Working For Cox.

The Gompers national non-partisan committee is openly working for Cox and as a campaign organization it is far better equipped and has ten times more money back of it than has the Democratic campaign committee in New York. It is waging its campaign almost entirely on the Esch-Cummings railroad law. Harding voted in the senate for the passage of this legislation and the battle that the Gompers committee is waging is for the right to strike.

With this committee the election is regarded as a life and death battle for the existence of organized labor. Samuel Gompers views the election of Harding and a Republican Congress with perhaps even greater concern in determining the destiny of organized labor than President Wilson does in deciding the fate of the league of nations. Gompers has said that he looks upon Republican victory as an untold calamity to labor.

KILLED DRIVER AND STOLE LOAD TOBACCO.

Ayden, Sept. 27.—A negro tenant, who lived on the farm of W. L. McLawhorn, near Ayden, was found yesterday morning near Greenville suffering from a gunshot wound in the back of his head. He died shortly afterwards from the effect of the injury. His name was not learned.

The negro was last seen with a load of tobacco on his way to Greenville. The team and wagon were later found on the streets of Greenville. No trace of the load of tobacco has been found, however. It is surmised that the negro was waylaid and possession taken of the team and wagon by the assailant. It is thought the tobacco was sold. The negro's condition was such at the time he was found he could give no clue to the identity of his assailant.

PRESIDENT ENTERS CAMPAIGN IN INTEREST OF COX.

Washington, Sept. 28.—President Wilson took his first active part today in the presidential campaign. He had Secretary Tumulty write the first of a series of documents regarding the league of nations and other public questions which it is proposed to issue from the White House to further the candidacy of Governor Cox.

The document was in the form of a reply to the letter of E. M. Swartz, of Los Angeles, Cal., discussing the league of nations covenant in relation to the Irish question. Mr. Swartz had written the President that some Republicans contended that if the league covenant was ratified with article X in this country "would be bound to support England in holding Ireland under subjections."

In his letter of reply Mr. Tumulty called attention to certain questions and answers with reference to article X and the question of self-determination which were made public by the President while he was on his western tour in the interest of the league a year ago.

The letter to Mr. Swartz follows: "In reply to your letter of the 20th of September, I beg to say that the identical questions contained in your letter, with reference to article 10 and the right of self-determination, found in the covenant of the league of nations were placed before the President while he was on his western trip last year and fully answered by him. The President directs me to call your attention to the following questions and answers given by him to the press at that time which I think satisfactorily answers your inquiries.

"The questions and answers are as follows:

"Q. Under the covenant does the nation obligate itself to assist any member of the league in putting down a rebellion of its subjects or conquered peoples?
"A. It does not.

"Q. Under the covenant can this nation independently recognize a government whose peoples seek to achieve or have achieved their independence from a member of the league?
"A. The independent action of the government of the United States is a matter of this kind in no way limited or affected by the covenant of the league of nations.

"Q. Under the covenant are those subject nations or peoples only that are mentioned in the peace treaty, entitled to the right of self-determination, or does the league possess the right to accord a similar privilege to other subject nation or people?
"A. It was not possible for the peace conference to act with regard to the self-determination of any territories except those who had belonged to the defeated empires, but in the covenant of the league of nations it has set up for the first time in article 11, a forum to which all claims of self-determination which are likely to disturb the peace of the world or the good understanding between nations upon which the peace of the world depends, can be brought.

"Q. Why was the case of Ireland not heard at the peace conference?
"A. The case of Ireland was not heard at the peace conference because the peace conference had no jurisdiction over any question of that sort which did not effect territories which belonged to the defeated empires. My position on the subject of self-determination for Ireland is expressed in article 11 of the covenant in which I may say I was particularly interested, because it seemed to me necessary for the peace and freedom of the world that a forum should be created to which all peoples could bring any matter which was likely to affect the peace and freedom of the world."

The case of Ireland was not heard at the peace conference because the peace conference had no jurisdiction over any question of that sort which did not effect territories which belonged to the defeated empires. My position on the subject of self-determination for Ireland is expressed in article 11 of the covenant in which I may say I was particularly interested, because it seemed to me necessary for the peace and freedom of the world that a forum should be created to which all peoples could bring any matter which was likely to affect the peace and freedom of the world."

PLAYS HIS OWN PARTY FOR OPPOSING LEAGUE

AVIATOR WHO FOUGHT IN WAR, A REPUBLICAN, WILL CAST HIS VOTE FOR COX.

Baltimore, Sept. 25.—Edward B. Witte, former naval aviator and member of the commission sent last spring by the American Unitarian Association to investigate conditions in what was once Hungary, is visiting John O. Benson, son of Representative Carville D. Benson, with whom he served during the war.

Mr. Witte and "Jack" Benson were together as naval aviators at Miami and Key West, where young Benson was transferred to the marine corps. Witte stayed in the navy proper, and although they were in different branches of the service they were together in bombing work in France.

Mr. Witte's home is in Cambridge, Mass., and, although he is a Republican and a constituent of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, he says he cannot stand Lodge nor the Republican party's attitude on the league of nations, and intends to go back to Massachusetts and vote for Cox. He regards the league of nations, with America as an important member, as the only guarantee of the safety of the world, and the preventive of a series of wars that may culminate in another world-wide conflict.

Trip Abroad Convinced Him.

"My experience in Europe," he said yesterday, "has convinced me of the absolute necessity of the league of nations if the peace and the safety of the world are to be assured. Nobody who has not been in Europe, and particularly in the eastern part of Europe, can fully appreciate the situation over there—racial antagonisms, jealousies, hatreds, ambitions of the small nations and the possibilities of another world war. It is really appalling.

"I believe that the only thing that can straighten out the tangle that is rapidly growing worse is a really effective league of nations, a league that is functioning properly, and I believe that the participation of the United States in such a league is essential to its success.

"I did not always think so. Frankly, I thought the peace treaty was rotten, and was opposed to the league covenant as a part of it. I was in Europe when I felt that way, too. Then I came back to this country and almost immediately was sent out as a member of the Unitarian commission, with Sydney B. Snow and Joel H. Metcalf, both of Boston, to investigate conditions in Transylvania, the birthplace of the Unitarian church.

Church Originated There.

"Because the church had its origin in Transylvania about 350 years ago, and because the population was once practically all Unitarian, the church in America has always had a deep interest in that little Eastern country. It has a population of several millions, but not more than 75,000 are Unitarians.

"Transylvania was formerly a part of Hungary, but under the peace treaty it was awarded to Rumania, as Rumanians form the majority of the population. There are approximately 2,500,000 Rumanians in Transylvania, 1,200,000 Hungarians and about 800,000 Saxons. The Unitarians are all Hungarians, while the Rumanians are followers of the Greek Catholic church. They persecute the Hungarians and all sorts of atrocities are committed. Racial and religious feeling runs high.

Many Schools Seized.

"I visited 103 towns and villages and saw enough to convince me that the treaty which guarantees the rights of minorities cannot be upheld unless the league is in operation and is functioning properly and effectively. Why, in many of the towns the schools and colleges that the Hungarians had established have been seized by the Rumanians and the Hungarian pupils driven out. The schools were either continued in operation with only a handful of students or students were imported from Budapest to fill them.

"We had our part in creating these small nations in settling the war and in transferring whole sections and great masses of people from the governments under which they formerly lived to other governments, and to that extent I feel that we are responsible for them. We share in the responsibility for the maintenance of these governments and for the protection of the minorities in the populations, and we can only properly bear our part of the responsibility by becoming an active and effective member of the league.

Opposed to His Party.

"Therefore, although I am a Republican, I am opposed to my party's position on the league, and will vote the Democratic ticket. I feel that the treaty, with the league covenant, ought to have been ratified long ago and that if it had been a great deal of the trouble that has developed since the war closed never would have occurred.

"The league cannot, to my mind, be effective without the United States. America had the opportunity to take the moral and spiritual leadership of the world. It may have lost that opportunity, but it still has a duty to the world that it can perform only by ratification of the treaty, with the league covenant. It ought to perform that duty as promptly as possible."

Grover J. Shields, a native of this city, but who has until recently been manager of the Trivers Clothing Store at Asheville, has been appointed manager of the Greensboro store of Trivers Company. Of course the immense increase in the population will result in an increase in the number of congressmen to be elected, but we can't have everything the way we want it.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The wealth of a man is the number of things he loves and blesses, which he is loved and blessed by.—Carlyle.

MR. HARDING DESERVES SYMPATHY.

While Senator Harding was addressing an audience at Baltimore Monday night a heckler in the crowd inquired "whether he stands with Senator Johnson to 'scrap the league.'" We can well sympathize with Mr. Harding in the unenviable position which he is manfully but vainly endeavoring to maintain. He is, indeed, between the devil and the deep blue sea.

Mr. Harding is reported to have answered the query by first replying in the vague manner that "if I believed in one man government I could answer the gentleman's question," and that he later informed the audience that he was at present without a specific program of foreign affairs.

The senator has lost sight of the fact that the league of nations is the one big issue that confronts not alone the United States of America but the entire civilized world. The people cannot see how the question of "one man government" can affect his personal views on this issue, and if he asks for the suffrage of the American voter he owes it to them to express his personal sentiments on the dominant issue of the day.

The reason for Senator Harding's evasiveness is quite clearly apparent. Elihu Root is back home now, after spending several months in Europe working in behalf of the league, and Mr. Root is recognized throughout the land as the ablest and most eminent member of the Republican party. Then there are William H. Taft, Mr. Wickersham and others, all of whom are favorable to a league. On the other hand is Hiram Johnson and his coterie of league hating Republicans. Little wonder that Mr. Harding is driven to the necessity of fence straddling under such provoking circumstances.

A SEVERE SHOCK TO BASEBALL FANS.

Lovers of the national sport will be disappointed to learn of the indictment of eight members of the Chicago White Sox baseball team on charges of "throwing away" the world's championship games of the 1919 series, yet these same lovers of the game will be heartily in favor of debarring the guilty players from future participation in organized baseball. The eight members are charged with having accepted bribes ranging from a thousand to ten thousand dollars, the slush funds having been provided by Chicago gamblers.

The genuine and wholesome interest of the thousands of baseball fans throughout the country could not survive many such shocks as has been occasioned by the recent developments at Chicago. It is to the interest of the game that the full penalty be administered to each and every guilty player.

A CORDIAL WELCOME TO THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY.

The city of Greensboro and the county of Guilford will extend a right cordial welcome to Honorable Josephus Daniels on the occasion of his visit here tomorrow night. Mr. Daniels ranks foremost among the many notable Tar Heels that gave valuable service to the government during the recent war and his administration as secretary of the navy of the United States during the most crucial period in the history of the world will entitle him to lasting fame in the annals of our nation.

Mr. Daniels is a natural born fighter, a fighter for righteousness. It is for this reason that from every struggle that he has been forced to enter he has emerged a bigger man and standing higher in the esteem of his fellow citizens. During the first few years of his administration he weathered a storm of abuse that few men could have endured, yet to-day he ranks, among citizens of every political faith, as one of the eminent men of America.

We assure our distinguished secretary that he stands close in the hearts of the citizens of Guilford, and that he is regarded in the highest esteem and affection by all of them. We extend to him, on their behalf, a most cordial welcome.

A popular movie star declares that he is in sympathy with the cause of Socialism. We haven't heard of his dividing his large salary in accordance with his socialist views.

The season has now approached when a fellow can find some use for an electric fan.

TEN MILLION BALLOTS BEING PREPARED FOR ELECTION.

Raleigh, Sept. 27.—It will take nearly ten million ballots to decide the issues in the election on November 2. The order has already been placed with printers for the preparation of 9,325,000, which is seven times the number that was required in the election four years ago. The unusual number increase in tickets needed is accounted for by the submission of five constitutional amendments, the increase in the number of male voters and the addition of all women in the state to the list of those eligible to participation in the election.

The constitutional amendments alone will require four million ballots. There will be two tickets for each set of the amendments, which will be carried on two tickets, with a "for" and "against" ballot for each of the two sets. The first, second and third amendments, embracing the income tax, the limitation of poll tax and the reduction of the constitutional limit of taxation from 66 2-3 to 15 cents on the hundred dollar valuation, will be put on one ballot. The other two amendments, substituting the rule of one year instead of two years residence in the state as prerequisite to voting, and the abolishing of the payment of poll tax as a qualification for voting, will be on the other ballot.

The voter will have the opportunity to vote for or against either set of these amendments, but cannot cast a vote for or against either one of the amendments without voting for or against the others. For instance the voter could not cast a ballot for the reduction of tax limit and against the income tax amendment. If he votes for one he votes for the other. Included in the nine million ballots will be 700,000 each for Republican state and national tickets; one million each for the state and national Democratic tickets.

The state board of elections is preparing a total of 1,120,000 congressional ballots for the Democrats of the ten congressional districts, and 805,000 for the Republicans of these districts.

First proofs of these jobs have already been turned back to the printers and during the next few days the presses will begin the work of turning out the ballots. Just as soon as they are delivered to the state board of elections the work of sending them to the county board of elections will begin, in order to get ballots to all parts of the state several days before the elections.

EXTRAVAGANT LANGUAGE.

Editor of 'The Patriot':
You are requested to publish the following, which is self-explanatory:
Col. Wade H. Harris, Editor the Charlotte Observer, Charlotte, N.C.

Dear Sir:

In your paper of September 25 you have an editorial headed "A Mischievous Letter" in which you have printed a letter signed as coming from "Colored Women's Rights Association for Colored Women." In your editorial you say "the Republican organization in this state seems to be launching on a species of campaign that in itself would force the Democrats to a defensive policy." "They are secretly circularizing the negroes in manner calculated to revive the very conditions they would have the country forget." You make the direct statement in this editorial that this organization has sent the letters referred to. As a matter of fact it is apparent that this is a trick of some over enthusiastic opponent of our party. The letters referred to were not sent out by the Republican organization here as you state, and further say, that "this letter was postmarked Greensboro, and bore date of September 20. It might be regarded as coincident that Republican headquarters is located at Greensboro." I say to you positively that this organization did not send out these letters or have any knowledge of them until one was sent here from Stanly county. Accordingly I ask that you make this correction in the same manner that you published this editorial. If you fail in this I shall denounce the editorial as a slander and the editor as a man unworthy of credence among honest people—to make it more plain a "common liar."

GILLIAM GRISSON.
Greensboro, September 25.

A YADKIN MAN SURRENDERS HIS PANTS.

A Yadkin county man, at the Winston-Salem tobacco market a few days ago, opined that the world is coming to an end soon. Hear him: "Well, I'm turning the farm over to the old woman next year. She has been wanting to wear the breeches for a long time, so I'm going to let her have 'em. I wasn't expecting this suffrage just yet, but since it has come I might as well give up. I shore believe that the world is coming to an end soon."

Sad times in Yadkin. And will this farmer, turning over his farm and his pants to "the old woman," don her calico? Will he rustle three meals a day for the family, rustling three meals a day often involving a session with the family ax and the family woodpile? Will he take care of the babies? Will he attend to the family wash? Will he scrub and clean, starch and iron and make the home homelike? Will he attend to the family's religion? Will he let the old woman work from sun to sun while his work will be never done?

After about a week of that sort of things the Yaddiner will be hoping that the world will come to an end soon.—Greensboro Daily Record.

The onion may have dropped in price but it's strong enough to come back.

AVERAGES

38 1-2 BUSHELS

R. F. D. No. 2, Cana, N. C.,
July 14, 1920.

The American Agricultural Chemical Co.,
Greensboro, N. C.

Gentlemen: In reply to your letter of July 13th, will say that I have just finished threshing my wheat. I had 45 acres sown to wheat and used Basic Lime Phosphate on all of it. My average for the 45 acres was as follows:

One field averaged 35 bushels and one field 38 1-2 bushels. None of my wheat suffered from rust and I expect to sell it all for seed wheat, as it is the very finest quality that I have ever grown.

I am greatly pleased with the results obtained with Basic Lime Phosphate, both for wheat and clover. I not only consider it superior to 16 per cent Acid Phosphate for wheat and clover, but it does not get hard or destroy the bags, but keeps in splendid shape.

Yours very truly,

—When Henry Ford set about to build a farm tractor he had a thorough understanding of just what it should be and what it should do. The result of his study and mechanical genius was the Fordson tractor. Before offering it to the farmers he gave it a thorough test, experimenting over more than 7,000 acres of land, in different kinds of soil, with the different crops. He wanted to thoroughly satisfy himself that it was just the tractor to fit the farmer's every day needs. That he has succeeded is evidenced in the fact that more than 100,000 successful farmers are using the Fordson today, for both field and belt work. If you are interested in the purchase of a tractor be sure and call on the McGlamery Auto Co., and let Mr. McGlamery show you the modern Fordson and tell you all about its accomplishments on the farm. AFTER A MOB THREAT DUNN IS QUIET AGAIN.

Dunn, Sept. 28.—After a hectic night of threatened violence to Chief of Police U. S. Page at the hands of a mob infuriated over the alleged mal-treatment of Enoch Wilson, son of a wealthy Sampson county farmer, Dunn is quiet to-day, although it is apparent that the trouble is not yet over. It is suspected that a mob is again forming to enter the town tonight and repeat the demand that Page be discharged.

Trouble began yesterday when Page arrested Young Wilson on a charge of carrying a weapon without provocation. Page denies this, alleging that he struck Wilson only after the boy made an attempt to take a gun from a holster. The boy says he was attempting to get a bondsman when Page struck him and carried him to police headquarters before he would allow him to see a bondsman.

For several hours after the affray it was alleged that Wilson was in a serious condition from the blow. A mob formed and visited the city hall, apparently bent on killing or beating Page. Mayor J. Floyd Wade argued with the crowd and finally succeeded in dispersing it when he assured the men that the city commissioners would take action this morning that would be satisfactory to them.

This morning many of Wilson's friends returned to town to see what action was taken. They were not satisfied when the board went into executive session and would not allow its action to be made public. Mayor Wade made an announcement to-day and Page is still in the regalia of an officer and is wearing the chief's badge. It is thought that a request has been made to the governor to send troops to Dunn to protect the city hall in the event the mob returns.

Page is the man who killed the Smith brothers at Mount Olive about two years ago. He has been at the head of the local police department for more than a year. In that time he has been extremely diligent in the enforcement of laws. Some think he is overzealous and that he often exceeds his authority. In consequence he has become unpopular with a large faction among whom are many country people. His arrest of several Sampson county men in former months has not helped him any in the present trouble.

Contrary to reports sent from here, yesterday Page has not left Dunn at any time since the mob formed; he was in city hall last night when it was reported that he had fled the city.

A warrant charging Page with assault on Wilson was served this morning by Sheriff W. H. Turlington. He was admitted to bail and will be heard here Thursday. Warrants were also issued for several men who are charged with attempting to incite last night's mob to violence.

Sheriff Turlington has his entire force of deputies here. Each is armed with a repeating shot gun and a big revolver. All are housed in the offices of the police department. Although there are many here who have little sympathy for Page the town is well organized to defeat any attempt that might be made to storm the city hall.

GOV. COX IS ALWAYS FRANK IN ANSWERING QUESTIONS.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Sept. 28.—A statement regarding the Volstead prohibition enforcement law—that he would oppose "any measure that is in conflict with the constitution and the 18th amendment as interpreted by the Supreme court—and bombardment of questions regarding the league of nations from persons of German blood marked a lively tour of South Dakota to-day by Governor Cox.

Governor Cox's statement upon the Volstead act, the first he has made directly, was in response to a question—the first from any of his audiences—from a man at Mitchell late to-day.

"If elected President of the United States what will be your attitude in regard to the Volstead law?" was the pointed query made.

"My attitude with reference to that whole question, is," Governor Cox replied, "I shall oppose any measure that is in conflict with the constitution of the United States and the 18th amendment as interpreted by the Supreme court."

The governor, when questioned later by newspaper representatives, declined to amplify his statement, declaring that it stood as given.

An expert reports that the outja board is increasing the number of patients in the New Jersey state asylums. But this is merely another instance of confusing the effect with the cause.—Chicago Tribune.

GOV. COX GIVES A MANLY ANSWER TO QUESTION

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 27.—Governor Cox, Democratic presidential candidate, tonight gave out a statement that he would have supported William J. Bryan for the presidency had the former secretary of state been nominated, and added that he was fostering progressive ideas gained under Mr. Bryan's leadership.

Disapproval of "matters" of the administration of Attorney General Palmer and Postmaster Burleson was expressed by Governor Cox in addressing a large audience at the auditorium, where a strenuous campaign was closed.

As to Palmer and Burleson. The Democratic candidate said that although he believed the two cabinet officers had performed their duties "wholeheartedly" and were conscientious men, he did not endorse matters in both their administrations. No specific affairs were stated by the governor.

Governor Cox replied to several questions published in a local newspaper, a repetition of recent experiences of the candidate with Western opposition press. In response to a question here as to whether he endorsed the Palmer and Burleson administration, the governor replied:

Governor Cox's Reply.

"I served in Congress with both of these gentlemen. I know them to be high-minded, conscientious men and believe that their administrations were wholeheartedly performed. Yet there are matters in both of their administrations which I do not endorse. Neither do I endorse the policy of Frank Hitchcock as postmaster general. Mr. Hitchcock, you will remember, is the gentleman who ran the road roller over Roosevelt in the convention of 1912 and organized the Southern delegates in 1920 for General Wood.

"Neither do I endorse the administration of Philander C. Knox as attorney general. Mr. Knox, while an able jurist, is one of the foremost reactionaries in the United States and his decisions were colored by his partisanship. This is merely a matter of difference in personal opinions and pertains to things that belong to past administrations."

The governor's speech here was the eleventh in Nebraska to-day, one of the busiest of his Western trip. In all he stressed the league of nations. Late to-day he spoke to a large crowd at Lincoln in the auditorium and an overflow gathering outside.

THREE BOSTON BANKS SUSPEND PAYMENTS.

Boston, Sept. 27.—Three Boston banks were forced to-day to invoke the law requiring 90 days' notice of withdrawals from the savings department, as a measure of protection for depositors who had become alarmed over local banking conditions as a result of the closing of five banks in the last two months and the Ponzi financial fiasco. Officers of all three, the Tremont Trust Company, the Fidelity Trust Company and the Dorchester Trust Company, asserted that their institutions were solvent, but lacked ready cash to meet the heavy demands made upon them by thousands of depositors who desired to withdraw their accounts at once.

The bank officers were joined by Governor Coolidge, Bank Commissioner Jos. C. Allen and city officials in statements assuring the public Boston banks were in sound condition and that funds entrusted to them were safe. At all three of the banks which suspended payments in their savings departments it was announced that business in the commercial departments would continue as usual with no ban on withdrawals there.

Action suspending payments in the savings departments was taken this forenoon after hundreds had crowded the banking offices to withdraw their accounts, and the bank officials had surveyed the situation and seen frightened depositors gathering outside their offices until police details were required to keep them in control.

Lower Prices For Lumber.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Reduction in lumber prices of 16 to 35 per cent over February quotations is announced by retail dealers in Chicago with an average wholesale reduction of 27 per cent throughout the country, according to statistics made public by L. R. Putman, directing manager of the Wholesale Lumber Association. The greatest reduction is in hardwood. Mr. Putman said, quotations being reduced 35 per cent under February prices.

FREIGHT AND PASSENGER TRAINS IN COLLISION.

Salisbury, Sept. 28.—Engineer C. A. Simon, of Spencer, and Engineer H. A. Oakley, of East Spencer, were fatally injured, three members of the crew seriously hurt and 14 passengers were slightly injured when passenger train No. 3 and freight train No. 68, both of the Yadkin Railway Company, collided in a head-on collision just south of the bridge over Town creek, near the two-mile post on the Yadkin road, south of here, this afternoon at 4.55 o'clock. A switch engine of the Southern Railway was dispatched to the scene of the accident and brought the injured to the Salisbury station. Those needing medical attention were sent to a local hospital.

Engineer Simon, 49 years of age, is survived by a wife and one son. He was caught under the freight engine as the two engines buckled and went down an embankment. Engineer Oakley, 46 years old, was running temporarily as fireman with Engineer Simon on the passenger train. He leaves a widow and four children.

The accident occurred on a steep grade and a sharp curve and so near the creek that the rear cars of the passenger train stopped on the trestle.

A list of the injured follows:
Conductor C. O'Farrell, of train No. 3, leg badly broken; Express Messenger Blotok, badly injured; Scott Spaul, white fireman, train No. 68, badly injured; A. F. Barley, Baltimore, on the head; W. D. Hertz, Badin, teeth knocked loose; Mrs. Dora Jenkins, Albemarle, slight injury to chest; J. B. Stanly, Kernersville, left wrist hurt; Mrs. M. Stapp, Badin, leg bruised; Mrs. M. C. McBridge, Kannapolis, back slightly injured; L. C. Linthicum, Albemarle, right leg injured; W. C. Russell, Badin, right shoulder hurt; C. G. Buffington, Badin, left arm sprained; K. R. Biddle, Norwood, left shoulder injured; Mrs. Gillie Warren, Salisbury, arm and chest hurt; H. E. Willeford, Badin, right ankle sprained; Miss Enza Crawley, back and head hurt, and Mrs. B. D. Ridenhour, Richfield, left shoulder injured.

Train No. 3 had just left Salisbury en route to Norwood and, it is said, had orders to meet freight train No. 68 at the junction, where the Yadkin road branches off from the Southern's double track, which is a mile or so from the Salisbury station. While nothing authentic was given out it is understood that a mix-up in orders was the cause of the wreck. Conductor B. A. Eakin and Engineer Brune Phillips were in charge of the freight train.

Both engines were badly damaged, being derailed and turned down a 10-foot hill. The combination baggage, mail and express car was completely demolished. The front end of the first coach was derailed and the front and end platforms broken off. Four of the freight cars were derailed.

The Yadkin Railway Company is not owned by the Southern railroad, being turned back to private ownership when the government released the roads some time ago. Henry Miller is president of the road, and J. W. Fletcher superintendent.

The road operates its trains over the Southern's track for a mile or so, from the junction, where the accident occurred, to the Salisbury station.

NEGROES TO SUCCEED ASIATICS IN CALIFORNIA.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 28.—The possibility of negroes taking the place of Asiatics as farm workers in California was discussed to-day at the national convention of the industrial and commercial council of the people of African descent.

W. H. Sanders, a Los Angeles delegate, said he was in direct touch with at least 5,000 negroes who will come to California to take up truck gardening in case persons of oriental races are barred from further colonization in this state. He said the workmen would be headed by graduates of the agricultural department at Tuskegee institute. Capital was subscribed for a co-operative company to market products of negro farmers through grocery stores to be established in negro communities.

Bursting Fly Wheel Kills Girl.

Richmond, Ky., Sept. 28.—A portion of a bursting flywheel sailed through the roof of the electric light plant here early to-day to the home of Wallace Hunter, 600 yards away, where it killed his young daughter, Fanny, and clipped the braids from the head of her sleeping woman companion. The missile crashed through the floor and side of the dwelling and was found in the yard two feet underground.

THE FORDSON

Fordson

TRADE MARK

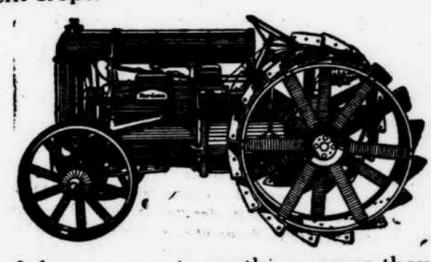

FARM TRACTOR

When Henry Ford set about building the Fordson Tractor he had a thorough understanding of just what it should be and what it should do. His early life on the farm gave him a deep insight into the daily life of the farmer; his mechanical genius saw the type of tractor needed. He began work on a farm tractor thirty-five years ago, and for more than twelve years he experimented over more than 7,000 acres of land in different kinds of soil, with different crops.

So he built the Fordson. It is so simple that a school boy can operate it. It is low in first cost. It is lowest in operating cost and Fordson parts and Fordson service are always to be had with promptness from the dealer.

The Fordson is a profitable investment. It can be used every working day in the year. It is an inexpensive power plant that will lighten your farm work. It has proven its worth on more than one hundred thousand farms not only in operating implements in the fields but in belt and pulley work. And it doesn't eat when idle.

Don't delay ordering your Fordson Tractor. The demand is greater than the supply.

TWO BILLION DOLLARS SAVED BY THE DRY LAWS.

Washington, Sept. 27.—Prohibition was credited with producing a saving of two billion dollars for the nation in the last year by Governor Milliken, of Maine, in addressing the closing session tonight of the 15th International Congress Against Alcoholism.

"Prohibition," he declared, "has made most kinds of business better and has injured no legitimate business except that of the undertaker."

"The three outstanding results of prohibition," he continued, "are the saving of about two billion dollars' waste in expenditure, a tremendous increase in the efficiency of labor and a startling decrease in crime with its attendant poverty and wretchedness."

"From the standpoint of practical government, however, the most important contribution that prohibition has made to the welfare of the nation is to be found in the simple fact that a new generation will be growing up untainted by the liquor habit and unhampered by the conditions of squalor and wretchedness which the liquor habit has imposed upon so many thousands innocent children in the past.

"The supreme importance of prohibition lies in the fact that it gives the average boy and girl in America a better chance to grow up into a wholesome, strong and clean American citizen, and because the very existence of our form of government depends upon the development of that sort of citizenship in the coming generation, prohibition is entitled to rank as one of the great safeguards of national life."

"Referring to the economic benefits of prohibition, Governor Milliken declared that the nation's drink bill formerly amounted to two billion dollars annually, and this money he declared, "now finds its way into the normal channels of legitimate trade."

"The grocers, the clothiers, amusement proprietors and the banks," he added, "are getting the money that formerly went for drink. Hotels that fancied themselves dependent on the liquor business are doing the best business in their history without it."

"Prohibition has not only eliminated an enormous waste in expenditure, but it has greatly increased the efficiency of labor. The average life of a laboring man is longer under prohibition; he does better work while he is at it and he works more steadily. A report from one large labor agency in an industrial section is typical. It is stated that out of 35,000 men employed by that agency when the country was wet, the average length of time that the man remained on the job was less than 30 days. The average more than doubled with the first year of prohibition."

SHOULD GET BACK TO WORK.

It would be the proper thing for the coal miners—every man of them—to shuck their coats and buckle down to the honest work of getting out the needed supplies, pending consideration of their request for a re-opening of the case that more wages might be added to the liberal allowance granted them. Greater activity on part of the miners would prove an incentive to doing better for them, while an idle and obstinate crowd would only invite hostile attitude. Neither a private nor public corporation, much less the government, would be inclined to make terms with a crowd of defiant loafers.—Charlotte Observer.

Child Killed in Davidson.

Thomasville, Aug. 24.—Lester Helms, the four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Helms, was run over by a big touring car Saturday afternoon and instantly killed. R. A. Clodfelter, who was driving the car, was required to give bond for appearance at trial.

Sacred and Baseball History.
Ira Andrews, the newly elected city clerk of Terre Haute, is active in Sunday school work. Last Sunday he advised the children of his class that the morning study would be about Ruth, referring, of course, to the gleaner.

"Now," said Andrews, after introducing the subject, "who can tell me anything about Ruth?"
Up went a little hand in the rear of the class.

"Well, Willie," asked the teacher, "What do you know about Ruth?"
"He made twenty-nine home-runs last season," was the answer.—Indianapolis News.
