PUBLISHED EVERY MONDAY AND THURSDAY.

GREENSBORO, N. C., MONDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1920

VOL. 99. NO. 80

WOMEN REGISTER IN LARGE NUMBERS IN GREENSBORO

OUT OF TOTAL REGISTRATION 392 ARE MALE AND 191 ARE WOMEN.

Registration during the first Saturday that the books have been open showed that a total of 543 names had been placed on the books in five of the largest voting precincts in Guilford county, these being located in the city of Greensboro. Of this number 352 were men and 191 women. The opening day upset the theory that the women will not register, according to local opinion, it being pointed out that many of the women will naturally wait to see how the style is going before they fall in line and place their names in the registration books. It is believed, therefore, with so large a number of women being registered on the first day, that the others will follow suit and that the total number of women registered by the closing day will be equal to the male voters. The registration books will be open until October 23.

In Morehead and Gilmer townships every person, regardless of whether they have been registered heretofore, will be required to register again if they expect to participate in the November election. This is brought about by the fact that the precincts have been changed in these two townships, more voting places having been established in order to provide for the anticipated increase in number of voters. The registrars are required to be at the voting places every Saturday, while on other week days, they will register persons applying at the homes of the registrars.

The registration at five of the Greensboro precincts up to Saturday night was as follows:

Morehead No. 1, old court house: Men, 46; women, 20.

Morehead No. 2, Banner garage: Men, 53; women, 35.

Morehead No. 3, new court house: Men, 74; women, 42.

Northeast Greensboro, Chamber of Commerce: Men, 91; women, 61.

East Greensboro, Eagle Hose Company: Men, 88; women, 33.

At northeast Greensboro voting place Registrar E. E. Phillips found that 43 women registering were Democrats, five were Republicans, and 13 independents. At Morehead No. 1, Registrar L. A. Smith found the women registered with him divided in politics as follows: Democrats, 15; Republicans, one; independents, four. The other registrars had no figures as to the politics of the females they enrolled.

ENGAGEMENT OF MISS LALLAH SAPP ANNOUNCED AT PARTY.

Misses Edna Millikan and Margaret Saffner were joint hostesses at a beautiful party Saturday afternoon given at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Millikan, on Summit avenue.

Brides was played at several tables and at the conclusion of play a delightful ice course was served to each guest. Ice cream shaped in wedding bells, brides cake, mints, cheese straws and coffee were served, while a dainty card on each plate bore the inscription "Sapp-Nichols, October 27, 1920."

The cards bore tidings of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Lallah Sapp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Sapp, of this city, to William Nichols, of Reidsville, the wedding to occur in this city on October 27.

T. W. KIDD DIED FRIDAY FOLLOWING STROKE OF APOPLEXY

W. Thomas Kidd, a prominent jeweler of this city, died Friday morning at 1:35 o'clock, following a stroke of apoplexy which he first suffered Thursday night.

Mr. Kidd was 48 years old. He is survived by his wife, who before marriage was Miss Fannie Clapp, and two children, Lynwood Page Kidd and Thomas LeGrande Kidd.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday morning from the late home of the deceased, 310 Belmont avenue. Services were held by Rev. E. L. Bain, assisted by Rev. Richard C. Stubbins. Interment followed in Greens Hill cemetery. Serving as pallbearers were M. W. Galt, J. S. Stubbins, L. E. Wilson, Eugene Sykes, W. S. Jones and Miller Davidson.

MAJ. C. M. STEDMAN SPOKE TO LARGE GIBSONVILLE AUDIENCE

Congressman Charles M. Stedman delivered a rousing address Friday night at a big gathering held in Gibsonville and reports of the meeting indicate that enthusiasm was high. The Gibsonville hall was crowded to its utmost capacity, while many were unable to gain entrance to the hall where Major Stedman spoke.

T. Barber, a member of the county board of commissioners, presided over the meeting. In a few appropriate and timely remarks Mr. Barber introduced Congressman Stedman, referring to him as a "splendid and worthy representative of the Grand Old Fifth District."

Major Stedman spoke principally on the national issues. He pointed out to his audience the complete failure of the Republican party to fulfill the pledges it made two years ago when a Republican Congress was placed in power and he called attention to the absolute failure of the past Congress to enact any legislation providing for a resumption of normal conditions. The speaker explained the objects and purposes of the league of nations, the manner in which it would operate to prevent future world wars and explained that Governor Cox was heartily in favor of the league while Mr. Harding, to date, had been unable to do more than "straddle the fence."

Major Stedman, speaking of the meeting Saturday, declared that he thoroughly enjoyed the occasion and that he appreciated the cordial consideration and attention accorded him by the audience at Gibsonville.

THREE WHITE MEN BOUND OVER ON CHARGE LARCENY.

Following a hearing Saturday afternoon before D. H. Collins, justice of the peace, three white men, R. H. Howard and J. F. Buckner, of this city, and Wade Jones, of Revolution, were bound over to the December term of Superior court on charges of larceny. The men were accused of stealing the tires, rims, seats and practically all of the removable parts from the automobile of J. B. Craver, which was left on the Greensboro-High Point road a few nights ago after Mr. Craver had experienced a break down.

The defendants claimed that they purchased the various articles from unknown persons on the High Point road but after hearing the testimony Justice Collins decided, that there was sufficient evidence to find probable cause.

At the conclusion of the hearing Wade Jones escaped from the officers and although a lively chase was given him by Deputy Sheriff J. F. Brown he was not captured. The chase began in front of the old court house and led around the business section of the city, several persons joining in, but Jones proved fleet of foot and made good his escape.

Howard was placed under bond of $750, in default of which he was remanded to jail. Buckner was released under a bond of $500. Jones' bond was also placed at $500 but he took leave without the formality of giving bail.

JEFFERSON STANDARD EXCEEDS $5,000,000 SEPTEMBER.

During the month of September the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company, of this city, launched a special campaign for its agents throughout the state and the goal placed by the optimistic leaders of the company was to write $5,000,000 in life insurance during the period of 30 days. The previous record for one month with the Jefferson was $4,000,000. At the conclusion of business Thursday, the last day of September, it was announced from the company offices in this city that the month's new business totalled $5,265,750 and that the goal had been exceeded by $265,750.

The Jefferson agency at Tarboro, N. C., under the supervision of John W. Umstead, Jr., formerly of this city, led all other agents in the September campaign.

Tulloch-McFarland Marriage.

Miss Grace Tulloch and Clarence McFarland, both of this city, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon, the ceremony being performed by D. H. Collins. Mr. and Mrs. McFarland will make their home in this city.

CENTRAL CAROLINA FAIR ONLY A WEEK DISTANT

PLANS INDICATE THAT THE BIG CELEBRATION THIS YEAR WILL BE THE BEST EVER.

With the date set for the opening of the Central Carolina Fair but a week distant, plans are being rapidly pushed forward toward making the event for this year one of the biggest in the history of the Greensboro fair. Next Tuesday, October 12, the gates will be flung wide open, and the fair will continue until Friday, the 15th. Officials of the fair association predict the best exhibits, the most interesting entertainment, the cleanest midway attractions and the largest crowds that have ever been seen in Piedmont North Carolina.

Applications for entrance of exhibits have already been received in sufficient numbers to indicate that the visitors will have an opportunity of viewing the best in every line that this section is capable of producing. A big airplane will be on the grounds for the purpose of carrying passengers on a sky-ward journey, and those desiring the thrill of a flight will have the opportunity. Horse racing, fireworks, demonstrations by a detachment of United States cavalry, music by the band of the 28th infantry regiment, United States army, and a variety of other features are listed among the free entertainments. Clean shows have been booked for the entertainment of visitors along the midway and the public is assured by the fair management that there will be nothing of an offensive nature.

During the four days of next week, each of which it is announced will be a "big day," it is expected that the citizens of Guilford and surrounding counties will meet together to fun and frolic, renew old acquaintances and mingle with the crowds, as well as profit by the various poultry, live stock, agricultural, domestic and textile exhibits that will be on hand.

HOME OF SAM WALKER BADLY DAMAGED BY FIRE.

The home of Sam Walker, a white man, located on Gregory street, was badly damaged Thursday night by a fire. The blaze originated in the attic and the cause is said to have been of an unknown nature. The fire department was called out at 8 o'clock, practically the entire fire fighting system responding, and the flames were extinguished before reaching the lower floor of the dwelling. Mr. Walker was able to save most of his furniture.

There were no fires in any of the chimneys of the home at the time the blaze was discovered and the origin of the fire is considered to be a mystery.

Cp Town Ticket Office Opened.

An uptown ticket office for the Southern Railway Company was opened here Saturday morning, the office being located on the first floor of the Southern Life and Trust Company building. In the future both railway and Pullman tickets can be purchased at this office and the convenience will be greatly appreciated by the traveling public.

The decision was made in August by the railway officials to allow Greensboro an additional ticket agent, but the proper site for the office could not be found. The traffic at the ticket window at the railway station is ordinarily so heavy that the public has been occasioned considerable inconvenience and it is expected that the new office will materially improve the situation.

W. T. Herrin to be Manager of Gilmer Store Here.

Announcement was made last week that W. T. Herrin, assistant manager of Gilmer Bros. store in this city during the past four months, has been promoted to the position of manager. His new duties begin today. Mr. Herrin succeeds D. D. Pou, who has been transferred to the Norfolk store of Gilmer.

Mr. Herrin has demonstrated his ability while in this city and his many friends in the community will be gratified to learn of this advancement for him.

SECRETARY DANIELS MAKES STIRRING APPEAL FOR LEAGUE

BEFORE LARGE AUDIENCE MR. DANIELS DISCUSSED LEADING ISSUES OF THE DAY.

Speaking to an audience that crowded the court room of Guilford's magnificent court house, Honorable Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy, held the undivided attention of his hearers for more than an hour and half Friday night while he paid tribute to the women, defended the Democratic administration under the able leadership of Woodrow Wilson, denounced the Republican "majority" in the senate and made a stirring appeal in behalf of the league of nations. Mr. Daniels was frequently interrupted by spontaneous applause and the interest displayed by his hearers indicated most clearly that the large audience followed closely and was in keen sympathy with the views of the distinguished visitor.

O. C. Cox, chairman of the Democratic executive committee of Guilford county, presented Miss Julia Alexander, Greensboro lawyer, who introduced Mr. Daniels in a most impressive manner. Miss Alexander addressed the audience as "fellow citizens," declaring that she was proud, after so long a time, to be regarded as a citizen. She stated that the women have no thought of personal political gain and that they never have had and never will have. She gave as her opinion three essentials for good citizenship: Interest in government; knowledge of good government, and a willingness to devote that interest and knowledge to the benefit of the community and nation. Miss Alexander paid a striking tribute to Secretary Daniels, and Mrs. Daniels, for their interest and efforts in behalf of the women, and she declared that the women of the land are proud of the secretary of the navy, a native son of North Carolina.

Taking his cue from Miss Alexander, Mr. Daniels smilingly addressed the audience as "fellow citizens," and the crowd was with him from the start. The speaker expressed as his firm opinion that the influence of women in politics will have good effect because he believed that women would take more interest in matters pertaining to public health, education and those governmental affairs that relate directly to the home.

Mr. Daniels, directing the attention of his hearers to the Republican party record, pointed out that two years ago that party asked the people to elect a Republican Congress for two reasons: To prevent President Wilson from making an easy peace with Germany, and to enact reconstruction legislation. The Republicans were given a majority in the house of representatives, said Mr. Daniels, while they bought a majority of one member in the senate, he claimed. The Republican majority, he declared, "is now out on bail." He related the charges of corruption and fraud alleged to have been practiced by Senator Truman H. Newberry, of Michigan, and the conviction of Newberry by a Republican jury and judge on charges of fraud and corruption. Mr. Daniels also declared that after Mr. Wilson returned from Europe the Republican majority in house and senate claimed that the peace with Germany was too harsh, that it has been appealing to the German vote in America in order to retain power on promise of making the peace terms less severe, while he left it to his audience to pass upon the "reconstruction legislation" of the Republican party.

Mr. Daniels discussed the league of nations in a thorough and most complete manner. He pointed out that 34 civilized nations have already joined the league, while Mexico, Turkey, Germany and the United States remain without. He declared that unless the United States does join the league that 81,000 lives of American boys that were killed in the war will have been a vain sacrifice; and that if he failed to speak out in favor of the league that he could not stand over the graves of those heroes without the feeling that he was being a traitor. He further declared that most of the opposition to the league could be traced to the jealousy of certain Republican senators who entertained a bitter hatred for Woodrow Wilson, while those who entertained honest opposition were ignorant and unfamiliar with the terms and provisions of the league covenant. "The league may be delayed," continued Secretary Daniels, "but it can no more die than the sermon on the Mount or the Declaration of Independence."

"Mr. Cox has frankly stated that he favors our entrance into the league," said the speaker, "but does any one here know where Mr. Harding stands on the subject?" he inquired. He referred to Senator Harding's recent statement in Baltimore wherein the Republican candidate acknowledged that he was without any definite policy on the league question. In conclusion, he declared that the voters cannot follow their better and wiser judgment unless they vote for Governor Cox in an effort to bring about lasting and permanent universal peace.

MISS BETTIE CALDWELL RESIGNS AS LIBRARIAN.

Miss Bettie Caldwell, librarian of the Greensboro public library, has resigned her position and Miss Nellie Rowe, formerly assistant in the local institution, has been elected by the trustees to fill Miss Caldwell's vacancy. For 18 years Miss Caldwell has served faithfully, efficiently and nobly and she has developed the present splendid library from a mere handful of contributed volumes. Beginning with 1,400 volumes in 1902 and occupying three rooms on the top floor of the municipal building the institution now ranks as one of the largest city libraries in the state, its total number of books being 17,000. Miss Caldwell has been librarian since the very beginning of the idea in Greensboro. While her resignation was sorely regretted by the trustees, her poor health was sufficient excuse in the minds of the trustees to justify her release.

Miss Caldwell is the person that first conceived the idea of permitting the people of the county to have the privilege of using the city library. While the county commissioners contribute a small fund toward the maintenance of the city library the people of the county have the opportunity of using the library in every respect and the records indicate that they have been taking advantage of the privilege.

Miss Nellie Rowe, who was elected librarian following Miss Caldwell's resignation, has long since demonstrated her ability. She has been an assistant in the city library since 1906 and is thoroughly familiar with its work and it is believed that she is capable of carrying Miss Caldwell's program of expansion to a happy and successful culmination.

ELKS' MINSTREL NETS NEAT SUM BENEVOLENT PURPOSES.

The "Jollies of 1920," staged by the local lodge of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, the caste of which was composed entirely of local talent, was the most successful of the many entertainments given by the Elks in years gone by. The net profits from the two performances of Thursday and Friday nights amounted to $1,400, and this sum will go to the charitable fund of the lodge.

Each night the municipal theater was filled for the big minstrel and the show was a decided hit. There have been many theatrical performances staged by professionals in this city that did not measure up to the high standards of the program most cleverly executed by the amateurs of the city taking part in the Elks' minstrel.

STEVENSON CAUGHT AFTER LONG FLIGHT FROM JUSTICE.

D. M. Stevenson, white, was captured late Friday afternoon by members of Sheriff Stafford's light foot squad. Stevenson was convicted at the June term of conducting a bawdy house, the verdict of the jury having been returned after the adjournment of court for the afternoon session. The defendant, being informed of his conviction did not show up for the following morning and he has successfully eluded the officers until Friday afternoon. He was under a bond of $1,000, which was paid by his bondsmen during the term of court of last month. The bond was doubled for his appearance at the December term, he being required to give surety in the sum of $2,000.

CENSOR BOARD ORDINANCE PASSED BY COMMISSIONERS

AMUSEMENTS OF CITY TO BE REGULATED IN FUTURE BY SEVEN CENSORS.

At the meeting of the board of commissioners of the city of Greensboro on Thursday afternoon, the long discussed ordinance was passed providing for the appointment of a board of censorship for public amusements in this city. The motion favoring the adoption of the ordinance was carried by a 2-1 vote.

The board is to be composed of five regular members and two ex-officio members. Nominations for membership are to be made by the city board of education, the Ministerial Association, chairman of the executive council of the Parent-Teachers' Association, the motion picture operators and the theatrical association—each organization to nominate one member. The city commissioner of public welfare and the county superintendent of public welfare are to serve as ex-officio members of the board.

In addition to providing for the creation of the censorship board the ordinance itself undertakes to prescribe the forms of entertainment or amusement that cannot be displayed in this city.

Section 6 provides:

"It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to display or cause or permit to be displayed, at any theater, show house or motion picture exhibition, or at any other entertainment, any vulgar, obscene or indecent feature, or any lewd or licentious act, or of any other act or thing of an obscene or indecent nature, or offensive to the moral sense, or (in such detail as to offend public morality and decency) any picture, illustration or delineation of any nude figure, any murder, suicide, robbery, hold-up, stabbing, assaulting, clubbing or beating of any human being."

Sections 4 and 5, which follow, show how the board will go about performing its duty:

"Section 4. Every member of the board shall have the right and privilege to attend any theater, vaudeville or motion picture show, tent show or other public amusement of any character held or given in the city; provided that not more than three passes shall thus be furnished by the owner of any show to any one exhibition or performance."

"Section 5. It shall be the duty of at least three of said board, to be designated by the chairman, to attend any theater, vaudeville or moving picture show, or other amusement, if complaint shall be made to the chairman that such attraction or amusement contains any feature in violation of this ordinance or any ordinances of the city or laws of the state."

Persons convicted of violating any provision of the ordinance are to be subject to a fine of $50 for each offense.

SHAW ASKS PRESIDENT TO APPOINT McADOO.

Fayetteville, Sept. 30.—John G. Shaw, former congressman from the sixth North Carolina district, and recent candidate for the Democratic nomination for that office, has forwarded a telegram to President Woodrow Wilson, asking him to place William G. McAdoo at the head of the federal reserve board in order to save the country.

Mr. Shaw is a prominent lawyer, farmer and lumber manufacturer. His telegram to the President was as follows:

"President Wilson: 'Can you not place William G. McAdoo at the head of the federal reserve board and save the country? Otherwise the South is ruined.' (Signed) 'JOHN G. SHAW.'"

Had More Land Than Thought.

Reidsville, Oct. 1.—The revaluation act has put 9,665 more acres of land on the tax books than ever before graced them. In other words, the big land owners of the county failed to list just that number of acres until this revaluation act brought it out.

In 1919 the number of acres of land in Rockingham county listed for taxation was 346,073; in 1920 the number of acres is just 354,738.

MUST SOON BENEFIT FROM LOWER RETAIL PRICES.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Price cutting has taken hold of the wholesale trade to an extent that soon must be felt substantially in lower prices to the consumer, according to the federal reserve board's monthly business review made public tonight.

Revival of the wave of price reduction and its spread to many retail lines was attributed to "a more exacting demand by the buying public as to price and quality." Retail purchasers are showing continued determination to await a move by dealers to meet those demands while foregoing luxuries and semi-luxuries, reports to the board declared.

Although the board believed the buying public was largely dominating the market now, it said that labor and production were having a marked effect on prices. There was much evidence, it said, of increased efficiency on the part of labor and as a result production was on the increase and factory operation beginning to approach normal.

Summed up, the board's findings were that:

"Business conditions now are definitely on the road toward stability of as great and confirmed a nature as the disturbed position of the world at large permits."

"Continuation of the progress of readjustment in business and industry has been an outstanding feature of the last month," the review said. "This has been accomplished by price reductions and by the resumption of work in various branches of industry."

Substantial Cuts Made.

"After an apparent slowing down in the price reduction movement during the midsummer, it has again reappeared and the month of September saw substantial cuts in well known makes of automobiles, various classes of textiles, shoes and leather and other wholesale prices. Reductions have occurred in a variety of staples, including wheat. Changes in price have tended to make business men and bankers cautious about future commitments."

Drops in prices have featured almost all of textile lines, agents of the various reserve banks reported, and they added that, due to reductions already announced by wholesalers and jobbers, the retailers are buying carefully and not in large quantities. The retailer's attitude was depicted as necessarily conservative for the reason a market with a downward trend leaves him the alternative of taking a loss or keeping his shelves stocked with high priced goods.

POPULATIONS IN CITIES INCREASES OVER COUNTRY.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Cities are increasing in population seven and a half times as fast as the rural districts, the census bureau disclosed tonight in a compilation of figures covering approximately 85 per cent of the new census. The figures indicated that the completed census would show the majority of the population to be city dwellers.

For the last 10 years, rural growth was but one-third as great as it was in the previous decade, but the cities almost maintained their rate of growth, getting five new inhabitants from 1910 to 1920 for each six added during the preceding 10 years. All population centers, even the small country hamlets and towns, showed a greater proportionate increase than the purely rural districts. The greatest increases, however, were by the cities of 10,000 or more inhabitants.

While the bureau attempts no explanation of the reasons for the increasing migration to the cities each year during the last decade, presumably higher wages, shorter working day, home conveniences attracted the rural population, especially during the war when wages in big industrial centers went up rapidly.

Big Flour Mill Burned.

Winston-Salem, Sept. 30.—The modern 200-barrel flouring mill of Boone & Ogburn, at Walkertown, was destroyed by fire at a late hour last night, entailing a loss of $60,000, partially covered by insurance. The mill was put in operation only last spring and the owners had built up a large patronage. The fire originated on an upper floor of the building, which was a frame structure, 50 by 85 feet.

A $15,000 Hog.

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 30.—A Florida Poland China boar sold here today for $15,000. This is believed to be the highest price ever paid for a southern bred boar. It was sold to J. S. Jones, of Adel, Ga., by Z. C. Herlong, of Micanopy, Fla.

THE WORLD WANTS PEACE THROUGH LEAGUE NATIONS

STRONG PLEA OF SAMUEL GOMPERS FOR ELECTION OF DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in an address delivered recently at Driving park, Columbus, Ohio, denounced as traitors to the republic the men who are endeavoring to bar the entry of the United States into the league of nations.

"I hold," said Mr. Gompers, "that the men and the group of men who stand in the way of the advancement of the peace program as at present outlined are traitors to the republic of the United States. We want peace. We want industrial peace, international peace, not by being armed to the teeth all over the world but by the international agreement under the league of nations, the best covenant ever done in the history of the civilized world."

"This covenant, this league, this treaty," he continued, "is the first serious effort made by the peoples and the governments of the world to arrive at peace without arming to the teeth. It proposes to reduce the standing army, the naval construction and the manufacture of arms and munitions. It proposes to do the things that work for the arts of peace and progress rather than war."

"Politically women are equal to men in our republic, and upon them devolves not only the right and the privilege but the duty to exercise that power upholding for freedom, for justice, for right and for humanity."

Does Not Dictate to Labor.

"I have no desire, much less the power to direct, to order or to dictate the votes of the people of the United States—the workers or anybody else—but I hold it to be the duty of American labor to search the records of public men and decide for itself what should be done in November, using its own good judgment and independent right and activities."

"On their records will the candidates be judged. As a comparison of the two most prominent in the public eye—every piece of legislation advocated by Governor Cox was in the interest of the great masses of the people. As governor of the state of Ohio there has not been a single great constructive piece of legislation that Governor Cox did not help to support by his influence or vote, and by his signature to the laws when passed by the legislature. Not once did he oppose or disapprove. For his activities in behalf of the workingmen's compensation the insurance companies are out to defeat him."

"On the other hand what do we see of his opponent? With what constructive piece of legislation can the name of Senator Harding be connected as author? Is there one piece of legislation of any general interest to the welfare of the people of the United States for which the senator can claim the authorship? As a matter of fact his negativity in anything constructive and his activity in anything reactionary is his record."

"Now that the war is practically over even if it is not legally over, the reactionary elements have come into power. Never in the history of the United States has there been a Congress of such negative action as that which is in power to-day. There is but one piece of legislation that it can claim as having passed, and that piece of legislation is not to its credit nor to the interests of the people of our country. I refer to the Esch-Cummins railroad law."

Reactionary Menace to Nation.

"There are in our country to-day elements at work which are divergent, some undertaking to move forward gradually and progressively and, on the other hand, the reactionary which always look backward, which always wants to take us back to the darkest days of our political history. The coming election is to say whether the forces of progress, reform or evolution shall characterize the American republic, or whether reaction shall set in by which we shall go back to the time of slavery and despotism."

"Labor must take its stand. We are now at the parting of the ways; we are balancing progress and reform against reaction and the lack of understanding of humanitarian conditions."

"The American people did not enter into the great world war for the mere glory of battle. They entered into the war because freedom was threatened, because democracy was endangered by the great military machine of Germany and Austria. Only when the lives of our own people were destroyed and the real danger came upon us did we see our duty. We then immediately proceeded in the best way we could to perform it.

"The heroes of the past were men with their strength and their weaknesses, using plain instrumentalities and opportunities to serve their fellows in their time. It behooves the men and women of our times to do likewise. I have this great faith, that the people of the United States will do their duty as did those of history—that they will stand by our country and by the great principles of Washington, Jefferson and Wilson."

"We owe it to our children and to our children's children that they shall have the freedom for which our forefathers fought and sacrificed in order that the republic be handed down untarnished, full of the virile power and strength and freedom that is our heritage."

PREDICTS BIG DRIFT TO THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Sept. 30.—A big drift of Republican and independent voters to the Democratic ticket in West Virginia on the league of nations issue was predicted by Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic vice presidential candidate, in an address before a large noon-day crowd here to-day.

"On this trip through West Virginia," he said, "I have talked with hundreds of Republicans and Independents, who, until the last few days, had been inclined to cast their ballots for the Republican candidate for the presidency, but they have been coming to me of their own accord, all of them expressing the same general thought. Up to recently they had assumed that Mr. Harding was only waiting for the proper moment to make really clear his own position in regard to a foreign policy for the United States."

"It was, therefore with a distinct shock that these Republicans and independents read of Mr. Harding's statement in Baltimore that he is without any specific constructive program, and that he has no clear plan to offer as a substitute for the entrance of the United States into the league of nations."

Her First Vote at 92 Years.

Greenville, S. C., Sept. 30.—Miss Mary Judson, aged 92, the oldest teacher in South Carolina, and a sister of the late Dr. Charles H. Judson, president of Furman University, was granted a registration certificate here to-day.

SECRETARY DANIELS WAS CONVINCING IN HIS ARGUMENTS.

Open minded men and women who were so fortunate as to hear Secretary Daniels Friday night should have little, if any difficulty in formulating a definite opinion concerning the right policy for the United States to assume in regard to the league of nations. It is extremely unfortunate that Senator Harding, the Republican presidential nominee, could not have been present, for we believe that even Mr. Harding, the gentleman that has publicly announced that he has no opinion on the subject, would have been materially assisted.

There was a splendid gathering of women present to hear Mr. Daniels and from the interest displayed by them it appeared that there were good new "citizens" in the audience. The women were liberal in their applause and indicated quite clearly that they were in sympathy with the league of nations.

As Mr. Daniels so forcefully pointed out, the league may be temporarily defeated as far as the United States is concerned, but that it cannot be killed and it will live as long as "the sermon on the Mount or the Declaration of Independence." It is our opinion that the league will be actually functioning for the maintenance of peace long after the memory of such men as Senators Johnson, Lodge and their associates has faded into oblivion.

The wise farmer will begin now to plan his program for the approaching year. If he be a wise farmer he will arrange his schedule in such manner that a drop in the price of a single commodity will not make the whole world appear to him as an inky cloud.

The prices paid for tobacco last year might, as some have intimated, been a premeditated scheme wherein the tobacco trust planned to induce the farmers to apply all their efforts in growing the weed, thereby flooding the market and raking it in for a mere song. Nevertheless, that is what is about to happen, and although the crop this year will greatly exceed in volume the production for 1919, it appears that it will not bring anywhere near half the price that last year's crop brought. Even if the crop is materially reduced next year the manufacturers will have laid by a supply sufficient for several years to come on account of the overproduction of the present season, and the prices are likely to remain low for some time to come.

Therefore, it behooves every wise farmer to direct his attention to other channels. He should increase his wheat acreage this fall, he should plan for the production of more of the necessities of life instead of the luxuries. He should bear in mind that so long as the world is peopled with the present race of men that food is going to be in constant and general demand. It may be a slower route to the goal of affluence than via the way of $1 per pound tobacco, but it is less hazardous and not so much of a gamble.

These be cruel days, indeed, for the scribe that is driven to discuss the old, favorite topic—the weather. Last Wednesday, while perspiring over our daily chores, we hesitated long enough to make the paragraphic remark that "the season is now here, when one can make use of his electric fan," or words to that effect. By Thursday evening, when The Patriot emerged from the press and we made a hurried glance of the sheet these words glared at us in most sarcastic fashion. And while the mercury continued its zero-ward journey we shivered homeward in search—not for an electric fan, but our "long-uns."

BRIGHT OUTLOOK FOR DEMOCRATS.

Now is the time for the Democrats to strike. The iron is hot. The Republican party has been terribly divided all along on the league of nations. Some of its leaders are emphatically for a league. Others of its leaders are as bitterly opposed to a league. The open break between the factions is about to come.

The storm has been brewing ever since the full facts came out about the court of international justice in framing the rules of which Elihu Root had a hand. That court is a clear recognition of the existence and functioning of the league. Root is easily the greatest of the Republicans. His influence is enormous. When he returned to this country he refused to say a word. He couldn't. Harding had gotten things into such an awful mess that nothing Root could say could have mended matters.

Borah has quit. The really great Republicans like Taft, Root and Hoover are too fond of the league to suit him. Doubtless too he has found that Harding has been operating "between the lines." So he tells the Republican committee that no more speaking dates need be made for him. A similar announcement may be expected from Hiram Johnson at any time.

Democrats have realized in this campaign that they had heavy odds to meet. Many have feared that the odds were too great to be overcome. But it may be that they have underestimated the advantage of having the right side. The best thought of the nation and the world says that being for the league of nations is being on the right side. From now until the election the importance of this issue is going to grow on the people and as they think about it they are going to see more and more that the Democratic position on it is the only one this country can afford to approve.—Raleigh News and Observer.

HARDING HAD NO PLAN.

Senator Harding, in the course of his speech at Baltimore, when asked if he stood with Hiram Johnson in "scrapping the league," hemmed and hawed a trifle and then replied: "I am perfectly frank to say to you that I am without a single program, constructive in character, about an association of nations."

We feel impelled to praise the senator for the frankness in this answer. It is unusual from him. He did not attempt to befog the true state of things so far as he is concerned. He has no plan on the greatest issue of the day, and admits it.

What Mr. Harding wants, of course, is a blank check from the people of the United States, which he will fill out in any sum he pleases, whether there are funds enough in his mental bank to cover the demand or not. It is a strange, an almost unheard-of position for a presidential candidate to take. The idea that a public man cannot give some idea as to what he proposes to do, if elected, is one that we do not believe is wholly endorsed by the citizens of the United States. Roosevelt was not that kind of candidate; Wilson was not. Even Hughes in 1916 had some glimmering of a definite program in the event of his election.

So in the very face of an existing and "going" league of nations, already taking up for settlement some of the vexing problems of Europe, such as the Bulgarian-Greek immigration question, the Poland-Lithuania boundary dispute and the serious quarrel between Sweden and Finland over the Aland Islands, the Republican candidate says that somehow or other he is going to try to get the 39 nations that are in the league out of it, but that he hasn't the slightest notion what his method is to be.

We regard this as the most damaging statement Mr. Harding has yet made. It, in itself, is a strong argument for his earlier determination to stick to the front porch where disagreeable questions, with their embarrassing results, are never asked.—Boston Post.

SURE OF A COX VICTORY.

Vance McCormick, who managed the campaign of Woodrow Wilson in 1916, is staying at the Biltmore, where he expressed confidence in the victory of the Democratic presidential ticket in November.

"At this same period of the 1916 campaign the Republicans were just as confident as they are to-day," said Mr. McCormick. "The Maine elections had gone heavily in their favor. They had elected a governor by a considerable plurality and beaten the one nominee for Congress in Maine who seemed to have a good chance to win on the Democratic ticket."

"But the Democratic ticket won in November in spite of the Republican confidence in September. The same thing is most likely to occur again this year. The vast mass of workers of the country are for Governor Cox personally and are enthusiastic in his support. The following of Republican leadership does not so identify its nominee. Everybody knows that is so. Senator Harding has not attracted any considerable support for himself personally. Republicans who intend to vote their ticket and who always have voted it admit that they are not voting for the candidate this year—they are voting for the ticket and the party."

"In that very same fashion many Republicans, easily found in 1916, talked them. They did not care for Mr. Hughes, but they were going to vote for the party for reasons not associated with the identity of its candidate. That sort of enthusiasm has lost a whole lot of elections."—New York Evening Post.

"Felt Like Eating"

Man and Wife, All Run-Down from Farm Work, Were Greatly Helped by Ziron.

"MY WIFE and I, after a hard spring on the farm, were tired and run-down," says Mr. E. B. Mulkey, of Route 1, Acworth, Ga. "We neither felt well. I knew my blood was bad, as I had little boils on the back of my neck."

"We felt we needed a builder. We had heard of Ziron and thought it must be what we needed. It certainly was. We took it faithfully, and after a week or such a matter we began to feel better. My wife felt like eating."

"Ziron sure did us good. It made us both feel stronger and better for the fall work, which everyone knows is 'some work' on a farm. My boils began to dry up, though just at first they seemed worse."

"We are much better and can highly recommend Ziron, and gladly do so for it sure did us good."

Ziron is a safe, reliable, tonic medicine, good for men, women and children, when an iron tonic is indicated. It is easy to take and contains no habit-forming drugs.

Real Chivalry.

At a place "somewhere east of Suez" an intoxicated gentleman, after being ejected from a moving picture theater, was discovered seated on the door step of the back entrance, with a large bouquet in his arms. A policeman arrested him.

"Did he give any reason for his extraordinary behavior?" asked the magistrate.

"His speech was a bit indistinct, your honor," answered the policeman, "but from what I could gather he was waiting to see Mary Pickford home."—Boston Transcript.

WITH OUR BUSY ADVERTISERS

Note change in the professional card of Dr. Simmons on the eighth page to-day.

Don't fail to read the change of ad. of the Atlantic Bank and Trust Company on the second page to-day.

The Brown Real Estate Co. has two good farms for sale, near the city, and on very easy terms. See Mr. Brown's new ad. on the second page to-day.

They have a limited stock of women's, boys' and children's Elgin shoes at Thacker & Brockmann's to sell at year before last prices. See notice in special bargain column.

Mr. Ralph J. Sykes, proprietor of Sykes' drug store, near the Southern passenger station, has some good every day remedies to offer you in his card in another column to-day. Be sure and read it.

Cold weather is just around the corner, coming fast, and Thacker & Brockmann want to fix you and all the family so you can enjoy it by fitting you all out with warm underwear, stout shoes, rubbers, arctics, etc. Read their new ad. on page eight.

If you are contemplating the purchase of a piano, new or used, phonograph or organ, don't move a peg until you have visited Brockmann's Music Store and gotten Prof. Brockmann's prices. He can save you money. See his notice in the bargain column.

There's no blotting out the fact that Johnson, Hinkle & Co. are in a position to sell you good, warm clothing, underwear, shoes and hats at a price that will cause you to repeat your order when you need anything in their line. Read their fresh notices in the bargain column to-day.

The Greensboro National Bank insist that the only safe way to build up a savings account is to consider that you owe this account the same as any other bills and should be sure to pay the bill you owe every week or month. It insists that the idea is good and worth a trial. See change of ad. in this paper to-day.

On the 27th of August last the North Carolina agents of the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company, of this city, pledged $5,000, 000 of new business and from September 1 to the 30th, inclusive, they secured $5,265,750—more than they had pledged. This is a fine record, one that has never been met in this country. See half page announcement elsewhere.

Our old friend, Tom Graham, proprietor of Graham's tobacco warehouse, has something in our advertising columns to-day that will interest tobacco growers. "Old Tom" has had thirty-eight years experience in the tobacco business and knows what your weed ought to bring, and does his best to get its full worth for you. In an attractive announcement elsewhere he gives a few prices that were made at Graham's warehouse last week. Read them over—they speak for themselves.

The Central Motor Car Company announces the receipt of a telegram from the B. and B. Motor Company, of Charlotte, reading as follows: "Factory announces the following reductions from present list prices, effective immediately: Maxwell touring cars and roadsters, $160.80; trucks, $140; closed models, $200." The Central Motor Car Company handles the Maxwell line in this territory, and the B. and B. Motor Company is the state distributor. See ad. in another column to-day.

Mr. W. H. McGlamery, proprietor of the McGlamery Auto Co., has added to his line of Fordson tractors the Otwell mower attachment. It was made especially for the Fordson tractor and can be attached to the tractor in five minutes time. It is practical and is bound to be popular with the farmers after they use them awhile. Mr. McGlamery would be pleased to have all Fordson owners, and prospective tractor purchasers, to visit his place and learn more of the Otwell mower attachment. It would cost you nothing and you will gain some valuable information. See his illustrated announcement on the seventh page.

The breaks at the "old reliable" Farmers' warehouse Friday were very good, and the Messrs. Kendall, proprietors, are gratified at the good prices our tobacco farmers received. Good tobacco sold from 20 to 65 cents a pound, with a good demand for more. Mr. Kendall thinks it would be advisable for farmers to bring their tobacco on to market now while prices are good, and not hold it for later sales when their might be a rush. His idea is to market it steadily and gradually, thus maintaining the present good prices. See his new ad. in another part of to-day's Patriot.

GEN. PERSHING HONORED BY THE FRENCH PEOPLE.

Washington, Sept. 30.—General Pershing will be decorated tomorrow with the medaille militaire, the highest military distinction which it is within the power of the French government to bestow. General Fayolle, of the French army, who attended the annual encampment of the American legion this week, will bestow the decoration and the ceremonies at Fort Myer, Va., will be attended by full military honors with troops at the post paraded.

The medaille militaire created in 1852, can be awarded only to enlisted men who have earned high honor, or to army commanders who are to consider, the French regulations say, that it is given in recognition of the recipient's eminent service, and also in "acknowledgement through his person of the valor of the troops which he has commanded in combat."

Secretary Baker, General March, chief of staff, and allied military attaches in Washington will attend the ceremony.

General Fayolle on Saturday in company with Secretary Baker will visit Washington's tomb at Mount Vernon.

Among the general officers to whom the medaille militaire has been awarded are Marshals Joffre, Foch, and Petain, General Fayolle and 13 French generals, Marshal Sir Douglas Haig, and Prince Alexander, of Serbia.

Waiting For It to Move.

An old Cornish woman who had never before traveled by rail went to a country station to catch a train. She sat herself down on a seat in the station, and after sitting there for about two hours, the station-master came up to her and asked where she was going. On her telling him, he said:

"Why, my good woman, the train has just gone, and there isn't another for a long time!"

"Why, lor!" says the old lady, "I thought the whole consarn moved!"

BORAH WITHDRAWS HIS SUPPORT FROM HARDING.

Washington, Oct. 1.—A few days ago it was stated that Senators Hiram Johnson and Borah were preparing a joint letter to Senator Harding demanding he state unequivocally his position on the League of Nations. According to reports in Washington to-day, Senator Borah, who is now here, has actually written and posted such a letter to Senator Harding.

The irreconcilable Idaho senator, who has been drawing from his speaking engagements for Harding and the national Republican ticket, and has refused to give his reasons for such action because he is waiting to hear from Harding. That is the construction put upon his silence by persons here who intimately know him. In a private conversation with a newspaper friend the other day Senator Borah was unmeasured in his criticism of the Republican candidate. He said Harding by his foolish speech on Ireland had thrown away the whole Irish vote in this country and that before November 2 he will have wrecked the chances of the Republican party for success. Borah is reported to have declared that if this country must become a member of the League of Nations, let the Democrats accomplish the work. He said one would not be made a party to deception and fraud.

Hiram Will Join Him.
If Borah abandons the fight for the Harding ticket, Hiram Johnson is certain to join him. It is not believed that other irreconcilable Republican senators will go so far, but the action of the two leaders of this faction, if they do bolt, it is predicted will seriously split the party. Borah is believed to be absolutely sincere and sincere in his opposition to the League and he has the courage of his convictions. Democrats are reported to be turning their backs on the campaign.

The day after on October 1, 1920, Borah and a whole host of men than the Republicans assert Cox is to-day and that before the 10th of the month the tide had completely turned. They are looking for history to repeat itself within a fortnight or sooner and the Borah action is one of the straws that shows the veering of the wind.

Already "Scrapped" League.

San Francisco, Oct. 1.—Commenting on the Washington dispatch that Senator Borah, of Idaho, had cancelled future speaking dates in the presidential campaign, which were to be directed from New York and Chicago, and that he was reported to have joined with Senator Johnson, of California, in an effort to determine if Senator Harding would "scrap" the League of Nations, Senator Johnson said to-day:

"In my opinion and this I say from his public utterances, Senator Harding has 'scrapped' the League of Nations. I know absolutely nothing of the other matters mentioned in the dispatch."

Warnings of a Reign of Terror.

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 30.—A plan of the Industrial Workers of the World to inaugurate a period of terrorism in the northwest within twenty days, is charged by Congressman Albert Johnston, of the third Washington district, in a statement to-day commenting on anonymous letters received by the Seattle police and federal authorities bearing the warning that radicals are planning to blow up financial institutions and buildings in Tacoma, Portland and Seattle.

Federal secret service operatives were attempting to trace the source of the letters which were signed "a friend of workers."

Gen. Carr Matches the President.

New York, Sept. 30.—General J. S. Carr, of Durham, N. C., was one of a number who "matched the President" with a $500 contribution to the Democratic campaign to-day.

House Matches President.

New York, Oct. 1.—Col. E. M. House, who was President Wilson's confidential advisor on European affairs in connection with the League of Nations, has "matched the President" with a $500 contribution to the Democratic "League thousand club." Democratic national headquarters announced here to-day.

Smoked in Bed; Now Dead.

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 1.—Joseph H. McGraw, of Pittsburgh, died in a hospital this morning from burns suffered when his clothing took fire in his hotel room. A cigarette which McGraw was smoking in bed caused the blaze, according to his chauffeur, who occupied the same room.

FARM TRACTOR

TRACTOR OWNERS and PROSPECTS will no doubt be interested in knowing something of the new addition to our FORDSON IMPLEMENT LINE—THE OTWELL MOWER ATTACHMENT.

This Mower Attachment for the Fordson Tractor is the result of experimental work and tests carried on by Mr. Ralph B. Otwell, fulfilling the desire to help make the Fordson more useful on the farm. The Mower Attachment, together with the Fordson Tractor, is strictly a one man outfit and can be attached to any Fordson now in use in our territory.

The Cutter Bar can be detached from the Tractor in five or ten minutes. The bar can be raised over stumps by use of the lever operated from the seat, and the Guards can be raised and lowered for cutting high or low stubble, and you will note the bar is in plain view of the operator at all times.

We expect to have one of these Mower Attachments on a Tractor in our display room within the next few days, and hope every Fordson owner, as well as those who expect to buy Tractors, will drop in and ask to be shown this Wonderful Outfit. Any information will be cheerfully given.

M. P. CHILDREN'S HOME BUYS BUILDING SITE.

The Methodist Protestant Children's Home last week purchased from George F. Wilson a tract of land containing 10 acres and located on the Greensboro-High Point road, the property to be used as a site for the construction of a modern new dormitory for the boys. The orphanage of the M. P. church is located on the outskirts of High Point and the recently acquired purchase will give the home a splendid and valuable piece of property.

J. M. Millikan, a member of the board of trustees of the home, stated Saturday that work will begin in the early future on the construction of the new dormitory, the estimated cost of which will be about $50,000. With the completion of the new building the home will be in a position to render even greater service through its ability to care for a large number of children.

Small Flood Near Rucker's Warehouse on Saturday.

A water tank located near the warehouse of Rucker & Co., on East Washington street, burst Saturday afternoon and the entire 30,000 gallons of water contained in the tank made a small flood in the immediate neighborhood as it swept on its course. The tank was elevated about 20 feet, giving quite a force to the falling stream.

The bottom to the tank was almost entirely torn away but little other damage was caused. The cause of the tank's bursting is unknown.

Merchants Ordered to Close Their Stores.

Cullman, Ala., Oct. 1.—Notice was given to the merchants of Garden City and Panville to-day that they must close their stores until cotton goes to 40 cents. The notice, posted on each door with a match sticking in the sign, is believed to be the result of united efforts on the part of the farmers of the vicinity to prevent the cotton of the section from being thrown on the market at bearish prices. Some of the merchants closed promptly, others keeping their stores open during the afternoon.

TOBACCO GROWERS TO REDUCE 1921 CROP, SELL SLOW.

At the meeting of the executive committee of the State Tobacco Growers' Association, which was held in Raleigh last Friday and Saturday, it was decided that the members of the association would be asked to pledge themselves to a one-third reduction of their tobacco crop in 1921 and also to sell their present crop in such a manner as to prevent a flooding of the market, according to information brought by J. A. Groome, a member of the committee, who returned to his home here Saturday night after attending the two day session.

The pledge, which the growers will be requested to sign, commits the subscribers to a policy of marketing their tobacco this year over such a period of time as the executive committee may decide, or to carry such part of the crop as the committee may determine into 1921. The subscribers will also agree to reduce their tobacco acreage for next year to at least one-third or as much more as the committee may decide will be necessary in order not to let the supply exceed the demand. The members of the association will agree to pay 25 cents per acre of tobacco cultivated in order to provide funds for operating expenses of the association.

Dr. J. Y. Joyner, former state superintendent of public instruction, but at present a successful planter of Lenoir county, is chairman of the executive committee. Mr. Morse, of the Edgecombe experiment farm, was chosen permanent secretary of the association and he will open headquarters at Raleigh in the near future.

Mr. Groome announced that the tobacco farmers of Guilford county will be called together not later than October 9 for a meeting to be held in this city.

Big Auto Plant Closed.

Toledo, Ohio, Sept. 30.—Toledo plants of the Willys-Overland Company were closed down yesterday, and to-day following the lay off of 4,500 men and women workers.

Those released yesterday were instructed to report Monday when officials will say whether the plants will operate on a three-day a week basis or remain closed for a time.

Falling off in the demand for automobiles which has affected motor car companies in general throughout the United States is assigned as the cause of the drastic curtailment of production.

Must Vote Where Husband Lives.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 30.—Attorney General Saunders has ruled that a married woman's domicile is that of her husband and that unless the husband of a woman had resided in Virginia two years such women could not vote in this state. The attorney general's ruling was the result of an attempt of several women of Winchester, near the West Virginia line, to register. The women have resided in Virginia all their lives but their husbands hold legal residences in West Virginia.
