GREENSBORO, N. C. THURSDAY, JANUARY 27, 1921

VOL. 100. NO. 8

GUY B. PHILLIPS PRINCIPAL OF THE CITY HIGH SCHOOL

WILL SUCCEED DANIEL R. PRICE WHO HAS ACCEPTED POSITION AT JUNALUSKA.

At a meeting Tuesday night of the Greensboro board of education the resignation of Prof. Daniel R. Price, superintendent of the Greensboro High School was accepted, and upon recommendation of City Superintendent Fred C. Archer the board elected Guy B. Phillips to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Price. Mr. Phillips was principal of the Raleigh high school and later superintendent of the Oxford schools, which latter position he resigned last year to become associated with an Oxford bank. Mr. Price has accepted a position with the Methodist work at Lake Junaluska and the board agreed to release him January 28 at the conclusion of the mid year term.

The meeting of the board was attended by all the members except one, who was absent from the city at the time. Mrs. J. P. Turner was elected to the position of vice chairman of the board which was formerly held by Mrs. J. W. Cone, who recently tendered her resignation. The board as now constituted is composed of J. Norman Willis, chairman; S. M. Bumpass, Mrs. J. P. Turner, E. D. Broadhurst, T. A. Glascock, J. M. Millikan and Mrs. E. Sternberger.

Plans were discussed regarding the building program for the local schools that will be inaugurated, for which purpose the city recently voted favorably upon a bond issue for $1,000,000. The opinion was expressed that building costs will have reached the bottom during the next five or six months and some of the members considered it wise for a program to be developed that the board might take advantage of the lowest prices before the cost went upward.

The board directed Superintendent Archer to arrange for a meeting between the committee from the Merchants' Association and the school board to consider the addition of a course in salesmanship in the city schools. The students in the high school, as well as clerks in local business houses would be allowed to take the course free. It was stated that the government would pay three-fourths of the expense and the opinion was advanced that local merchants would bear the remaining cost of such a course. Mr. Archer announced that the high school is ready to open its course in printing as early as an instructor can be secured.

MOOREFIELD AND FAGGETT FAIL TO APPEAR FOR TRIAL

J. R. Moorefield, white, and Sherman Faggett, negro, both charged with violations of the whiskey laws and who were arrested early last Saturday morning after a thrilling chase of 15 miles, failed to appear Tuesday morning in municipal court. Each of the defendants forfeited bonds in the sum of $500 and an instant capias was ordered to be issued for both of them.

Moorefield and Faggett are also under bonds of $500 each for their appearance to the term of Superior court beginning Monday, they having been bound over by Justice of the Peace D. H. Collins following a preliminary hearing Saturday morning.

VICE PRESIDENT COOLIDGE IN GREENSBORO YESTERDAY

Vice President-elect Calvin Coolidge passed through Greensboro early yesterday morning. He was en route to the city about 10 minutes. Mr. Coolidge was on route to Atlanta, Ga. Mr. Coolidge is expected to be in Asheville Sunday morning.

Snow-Hairton Wedding.

A wedding of interest to the many friends in this county of the contracting parties was celebrated at Reidsville last night when Miss Henrietta Hairton, of Reidsville, became the bride of Charles Snow, formerly of this city.

A large number of relatives and friends from this city were present to witness the ceremony.

MISS ELIZABETH SCALES BRIDE OF VICTOR BRYANT.

A beautiful yet extremely simple ceremony marked the wedding which was solemnized last evening when Miss Elizabeth Scales, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Scales, and Victor Bryant, of Durham, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, in Irving Park, and was officiated by Rev. Charles F. Myers, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Owing to the recent death of Mr. Bryant's father, the late Hon. Victor Bryant, of Durham, the wedding was a quiet affair and was witnessed only by immediate relatives.

Miss Scales is a graduate of Converse College and is a young woman of talent and rare accomplishment. Her genial disposition, ready wit and attractive personality have made of her a general favorite among the younger set of this city. Mr. Bryant is a prominent young attorney of the Durham bar.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryant will make their home in Durham.

N. A. WILKINSON DIED TUESDAY AFTER LONG ILLNESS.

Nathaniel A. Wilkinson died at his home on South Eugene street Tuesday morning at 6.30 o'clock, his death following after a period of ill health that extended over a year. Mr. Wilkinson was 61 years of age. Over a year ago Mr. Wilkinson suffered a decline of health and during the past several months his condition had been critical.

Funeral services were conducted yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the late residence, the service being conducted by Rev. J. Clyde Turner, pastor of the First Baptist church. Interment followed in Greene Hill cemetery.

Mr. Wilkinson had made his home in Greensboro for ten years, he having moved here from Reidsville. For many years he had been employed by the Southern Railway Company. His many friends in the service, as well as the large circle of acquaintances that he had cultivated in this city, mourn his decease.

He is survived by his widow, who was Miss Malissa Copperidge, of Virginia, before her marriage, and nine daughters, Mrs. G. A. Martin, of LaGrange; Mrs. S. F. Wood, of Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. H. M. Kelly, Mrs. B. S. Griffith, and Misses Lena, Jewell, Elsie, Pauline and Myra Wilkinson, the last seven all residents of Greensboro. In addition his mother, Mrs. Mary J. Wilkinson, of Danville, Va., and two brothers, D. E. Wilkinson, of Winston-Salem, and L. S. Wilkinson, of Danville, survive him.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION HELD HERE FEBRUARY 19.

A civil service examination for the position of postoffice clerk-carrier will be held in this city on February 19, according to announcement made yesterday by M. W. Montgomery, secretary of the local examining board.

The examination will be subject to the civil service rules and will be of a competitive nature. Applications to stand the examination should be filed with the secretary of the board and blank forms, together with instructions will be furnished by Mr. Montgomery.

C. G. Kivett Died Monday Night.

C. G. Kivett died suddenly Monday night at his home on Gregory street, death being attributed to an attack of heart trouble. Mr. Kivett was 60 years of age and had been in the employ of the Southern Railway for many years. The deceased retired about 8 o'clock Monday night in his usual state of health and his death occurred following a stroke of heart failure at 9 o'clock.

Surviving are the widow, two daughters, Mrs. A. D. McMasters, of this city, and Mrs. C. A. Bivens, of near Pomona; four sons, L. B. and T. E. Kivett, of Silver City; P. L. Kivett, of West Frankfort, Ill., and O. D. Kivett, of this city.

The funeral was conducted from the late home yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. J. H. Bowman, of Liberty, officiating. Interment followed in Greene Hill cemetery.

GREENSBORO TO VOTE ON CITY MANAGER PLAN

CITIZENS TO EXPRESS THEIR PREFERENCE FOR PRESENT SYSTEM OR A CHANGE.

At the regular meeting of the city commissioners held yesterday afternoon, following a report from City Clerk B. B. Bouldin to the effect that the number of signatures to the petition recently filed with the commissioners requesting that the citizens of Greensboro be allowed to vote on the question of changing the charter to a city manager plan contained slightly more than 25 per cent of the registered voters in the city election of 1919, the board decided that they adopt an ordinance allowing the election to be held on March 1. In the absence of City Attorney Charles A. Hines the introduction of the ordinance was deferred until the meeting to be held this afternoon. The advice of Mr. Hines was desired by members of the board regarding technical features of the ordinance.

The petition filed with the commissioners contained over 1,000 names but the audit of the city clerk indicated that only 550 of this number were eligible to vote, allowing a margin of only 34 signatures over the required number.

The commission form of government, which is in effect here provides for a mayor or commission of finance, commissioner of public works and commissioner of public safety, has been established in this city about 10 years. Two years ago the city voted on the change to the manager plan, which would do away with the commissioners and elect a board of aldermen consisting of perhaps six or seven members. The aldermen would then elect a city manager, upon whom the responsibility of directing the city government would largely rest. The proposition was voted down when submitted to the people in 1919.

PRESBYTERIAN MANSE WRECKED BY FIRE MONDAY NIGHT.

The manse of the First Presbyterian church, occupied by the pastor, Dr. Charles F. Myers, was almost completely wrecked by a disastrous fire on Monday night. The fire was discovered on the second floor of the dwelling shortly before 9 o'clock by the young children of Dr. Myers, who were at home at the time. Dr. and Mrs. Myers were attending a gathering at the church during the evening and when they reached home they found the entire second floor of the dwelling in a mass of flames.

The total loss was estimated at approximately $20,000. Of this amount the building was insured for $7,500 while the minister carried $1,000 on his household furnishings. Practically all of the furniture, as well as the family silver and library was destroyed.

Good work of the firemen prevented the flames from spreading to the neighboring house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Elzemeyer, and extinguished the blaze before the entire building was consumed.

O. S. Smith Fined For Assault.

O. S. Smith and Jim Smith appeared Tuesday morning before Justice D. H. Collins, both being charged with an assault on A. E. Fordham. Smith was convicted and fined $25, together with the cost of the action, while Summers was discharged. Both of the defendants are tenants on the farm of J. R. Hughes and the trouble is alleged to have arisen on account of hunting rights on the farm.

J. C. Kivett, Voluntary Bankrupt.

J. C. Kivett, a High Point merchant, filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy, the petition being presented on Tuesday to the clerk of the United States Federal court. Estimated assets were placed at $3,646.87 with liabilities around $3,061.40. The case was referred to Clifford Frazier.

Miss Lena Sharpe Bride of J. E. Blair.

J. E. Blair and Miss Lena Sharpe were quietly married in this city Tuesday, the ceremony being performed by Justice W. C. England. Mr. and Mrs. Sharpe are both from the northern section of the county.

STUDENTS OF N. C. C. W. PETITION LEGISLATURE

ASK FOR MORE LIBERAL SUPPORT OF LOCAL COLLEGE AND OTHER INSTITUTIONS.

The students of the North Carolina College for Women, 800 of them, have signed a petition to be presented to the appropriation committee of the general assembly now in session requesting that the committee take a more liberal attitude toward providing for the estimated needs of the college for women. The petition asks that the matter be given further consideration and that the entire sum sought for maintenance, together with the amounts requested by the various state institutions for permanent improvements, be granted.

The petition has been mailed to Hon. R. S. McCain, chairman of the joint appropriation committee of the legislature.

The petition is as follows: "We, the students of the North Carolina College for Women, respectfully petition the general assembly now in session to make the appropriation for support and maintenance of the North Carolina College for Women the amount requested by our president.

"We know that the board of directors and other officers of the college have struggled during the past two years to maintain a high standard of efficiency on an appropriation entirely inadequate. We beg you to come to our relief.

"We also respectfully petition the general assembly to grant the appropriation requested by the various state institutions for permanent improvements so that they may be able to meet the demands made upon them by the people of the state."

This petition is signed by each student of the college, with the county from which she comes. The petition was read and approved in a mass meeting Tuesday.

The amount the college is asking for maintenance and support for 1921-22 is $288,000 and for 1922-23 it is $331,000. The budget committee has recommended only $210,000 for each year or about two-thirds the amount needed, as shown in the college budget. The college is running this year with a $48,000 deficit, or total expenses of $213,000—$3,000 above the amount recommended. Thus no growth is provided for.

Death of Mrs. Abbie Matthews.

Mrs. Abbie Matthews, wife of Henry Matthews, died Monday afternoon at 6 o'clock at her home near Hickory Grove, about eight miles south of the city. Mrs. Matthews was 36 years old and had been ill for 10 days prior to her death.

The deceased is survived by her husband, her mother and one son.

Funeral services were conducted yesterday afternoon at Pisgah church and the body was interred in the church cemetery.

SLIGHT PROGRESS MADE IN SUPERIOR COURT THIS WEEK.

Only three cases have been tried in the present term of Guilford Superior court during the first three days. In fact, one of the three had not been completed when court adjourned yesterday afternoon.

On Monday afternoon Furches Watkins was granted a divorce from his wife, Bertha Watkins. On Tuesday the case of W. E. Stanley vs. W. E. Higball consumed the entire day and about 6 o'clock the jury awarded a verdict for $86.70 in favor of the plaintiff. Yesterday morning the case of Wesley Highball vs. W. E. Stanley was begun and at the conclusion of the day the trial of the case had not been completed. Highball charges the defendant with malicious prosecution and asks damages in the sum of $10,000.

Gives One Million to Hungry Children.

New York, Jan. 24.—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., son of the Standard Oil magnate, has contributed $1,000,000 to the relief of starving European children.

This announcement was made tonight by Herbert Hoover at the conclusion of a dinner given to Mr. Rockefeller at his club.

TERM OF CRIMINAL COURT WILL CONVEY MONDAY.

Guilford Superior court will be in session beginning Monday morning at 10 o'clock for a term of one week, the term to be devoted to the trial of criminal cases only. A heavy docket stands waiting for trial and it appears that the large number of cases continued from the December term will hardly be disposed of. The jail is full of defendants awaiting trial and inasmuch as the prisoners in jail are given first trial, bond cases are carried over if not reached during a term.

It will also be necessary to empanel a new grand jury at the approaching term. During January and September of each year a new grand jury is selected. The grand jury sworn in at the approaching term will continue to serve for the first six months of this year.

Judge T. B. Finley, of Wilkesboro, who is holding court in this judicial district during the first half of 1921, will preside, and Solicitor John C. Bower, of Lexington, will prosecute on behalf of the state.

The jurors drawn for the criminal term are as follows:

Stiner Brown, J. T. Loman, S. W. Rees, James H. Hawk, H. L. Piersen, J. H. Neese, J. W. Faucett, E. T. Brown, Cornelius Clapp, M. M. Clark, Davis Coble, J. C. Reynolds, L. F. Albright, N. J. Walker, S. S. Tye, L. E. Kirkman, J. W. Landreth, E. C. Love, C. P. Elliott, J. Frank Ross, Ed Miles, W. L. Page, M. P. Bancroft, J. A. Armfield, J. P. Buchanan, Dr. C. W. Banner, R. G. Marsh, Lee B. Coltrane, Joe Trogdon, W. B. Stafford, J. A. Munday, Z. A. Wall, A. W. Ridge, Robert H. Robinson, J. I. Elliott, W. H. Jones, T. J. Parrish, A. W. Brown, R. B. Terry, C. F. Williams, Clay H. Clinard and S. A. Brown.

HOUSE MAY "LEAN BACKWARDS" IN CONTESTS.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Belief that Republican members of the next house would "lean backward" in considering the claims of Republican contestants for the seats of Democratic representatives was expressed today by Representative Fess, of Ohio, chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee. Representative Fess was commenting on the contest filed by J. I. Campbell, Republican, for the seat now held by Representative Doughton, Democrat, of the eighth North Carolina district, who on the face of returns was re-elected.

Representative Fess said his committee had authorized him to extend support to Campbell if he made out a "prima facie case" and this support he had furnished in the nature of a loan to Campbell to aid him in his contest. He added that his committee felt Republican contestants should have a good basis for their claims before any support was given them inasmuch as the Republicans would have a large majority in the next house and did not want to be accused of using their power arbitrarily.

Contests are pending from a number of districts in the South in which the Democratic candidates were given only a small plurality on the face of the returns.

Representative Doughton issued a statement today declaring that he was "unable to understand" why the Republican congressional campaign committee had given "financial assistance" to Campbell inasmuch as Campbell, he said, had declared in campaign speeches "in favor of the open violation of the law" by arguing that all negro voters "should be denied even the privilege of registration."

Night Riders Give Farmers Warning

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 24.—Night riders Saturday night visited farmers in Bath and Fleming counties and warned them not to haul any more tobacco to market until prices were higher, according to reports received here tonight. The reports, received from Mount Sterling, Carlisle and Flemingsburg, said that the growers were warned that their farms would be burned and that they would be dealt with severely unless they complied.

TEN NEGROES KILLED IN TANK CAR EXPLOSION

A SCORE INJURED AND PROPERTY DAMAGE AMOUNTING TO $200,000.

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 24.—Ten negroes dead, approximately a score injured, some probably fatally, and property damage estimated at $200,000 made up the known toll tonight of an explosion of "casing held" gasoline awaiting unloading from a tank car to the plant of the Colyar Reese Company, in North Memphis, which let go this morning with a blast that wrecked a part of the oil plant, leveled a block of frame dwellings and shook the entire north end of the city.

Of the injured, two are white persons—L. C. Scott, superintendent of the Reese plant, and L. C. Wilder, truck superintendent. Both were badly burned, but physicians stated tonight they will recover.

Colyar Reese, president of the oil company, attributed the explosion to spontaneous combustion due to the contact of vapor escaping from the tank car when the metallic cap was removed preparatory to unloading the car, came in contact with the atmosphere. The tank car, which contained 8,000 gallons of casing head gasoline, produced by the absorption process, was shipped here from Kelleyville, Oklahoma. Mr. Reese stated, and was loaded in a low temperature. When the cap was removed, according to his theory, the vapor came in contact with much higher atmospheric conditions here and the explosion followed.

It was stated that representatives of the United States bureau of explosives and experts from the refinery from which the car was shipped will arrive tomorrow to definitely determine the cause of the blast.

When the explosion let go a row of frame tenement houses along an entire block were splintered and the occupants blown to the street or caught under the falling timbers. Most of those killed outright were badly mangled while several of the injured were so badly burned they died soon after reaching a hospital. When police and firemen reached the scene the streets and alleys in the vicinity were littered with splintered timbers and torn and twisted household goods, with the dead and injured caught in the tangled mass of wreckage.

Andrew McKinley, the negro who was removing the dome from the tank car when the explosion occurred, was hurled several hundred feet through the air. He was badly burned and died tonight. McKinley was quoted as saying that, when he removed the cap, gas rose to the height of 20 feet and formed a pall of black smoke which ignited and exploded.

Almost simultaneously pools of oil on the ground caught fire and a second explosion occurred. One report was that McKinley used a chisel in attempts to remove the cap from the car. This, however, has not been verified. Mr. Reese stated that his investigation disproved any theory other than that the explosion was caused by spontaneous combustion.

Besides the damage in the immediate vicinity window glasses within a radius of several blocks were shattered by the concussion which was felt a distance of half a mile from the scene. Two sheds at the plant of the Colyar Reese plant were lifted bodily from their foundations.

Fire which followed in the wake of the explosion completed the work of destruction. The flames were checked, however, before they spread beyond the splintered wreckage.

GOVERNMENT SEIZES FARM ON WHICH STILL ARE FOUND

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 24.—The government introduced an unusual wrinkle in prohibition law enforcement to-day when it seized two farms on which illicit whiskey stills were found. One in Nelson county consists of 500 acres and the other, in Bullitt county, contains 66 acres. The owners may redeem their property upon payment of penalties which prohibition enforcement officers said amounted to $1,000.

WITH OUR BUSY ADVERTISERS

—The change of ad. of the American Exchange National Bank on the third page to-day is certainly worth reading and should be given serious thought. Farmers should use the banks more than they do—it would save them many risks.

—This is sure overcoat and blanket weather, and Brown-Belk have a good line of both—at clearance prices. Don't freeze when you can get good warm overcoats and bed-coverings at such low prices. See Mr. Brown's cold weather ad. on the fourth page and learn more of these bargains.

—Mr. John Howerton, the druggist, has moved his drug store to his handsome new quarters at 113 East Market street, opposite the American Exchange National Bank where he would be pleased to have his old friends and customers call when they need anything in his line. His removal announcement will be found in another part of to-day's Patriot. Be sure and read it.

—Weather or no weather, Mr. W. F. Ross is going to sell the John King farm at auction next Saturday, and if you want to get a choice slice of Guilford's best farming lands you should arrange to attend this sale by all means. The terms are so easy that it will take a mighty little ready cash to own one of the small farms that will be sold from the 167 acres that will be sold. Read Mr. Ross' announcement elsewhere and be one of the last bidders at this sale.

—The Townsend Buggy Company has reduced the prices on nearly all of its big stock of farm tools, harness and machinery. Messrs. Bumpass and Pleasants carry a big line of farm necessities and it will be no trouble to find just what you want there. Read their quarter page ad. in another part of to-day's Patriot and notices in the bargain column.

—The big auction sale of the $25,000 stock of goods of the Ferree-Draughan Company began to-day, and will continue daily until every article in this big store is sold. See announcement elsewhere for details.

—Several lines of action that helped Thacker & Brockmann in building up their big, successful shoe and dry goods on Elm street will be continued in the same old way at the new store on Davis street. For instance, anything you buy and don't like, you can take it back and have your money refunded without a bit of disputing or argumentation. If you buy anything that proves unsatisfactory when used, put in your complaint and they will make it right with you—they will satisfy you if you can be satisfied. Of course everybody knows Thacker & Brockmann handle reliable goods and sell at low prices. Be sure to read their new ad. on page eight.

—Announcement that will be read with much interest throughout Guilford and adjacent counties is that of our genial and hustling friend, Mr. E. F. Craven, the road machinery man, in another part of The Patriot to-day. The expansion of Mr. Craven's business was such that he found it necessary to have more commodious quarters. To provide for this increase he has just completed and moved into his own building, which was built especially for his line of road machinery. This building is located at 513 South Eugene street, on the Southern Railway, near the passenger station. Mr. Craven would be pleased to have all his old friends and customers call—they will find the latch-string outside, just pull and walk in. Frank will greet you on the inside.

—The equipment on your farm is incomplete without a Fordson. It means better work, quicker work and easier work at a much less cost than can be done with horses. Whether in the field or at belt work the Fordson is at home, and it is a universal utility on any farm. It is not an experiment, Henry Ford spent thirty years in perfecting it, and although it has been on the market only a few years there are more than 100,000 Fordsons now being used on American farms. Mr. W. H. McGlamery, proprietor of the McGlamery Auto Co., has sold quite a number in this territory, all of which are giving good satisfaction. If interested in buying a tractor this spring see Mr. McGlamery before placing your order. His big Fordson announcement will be found on another page.

THE NUMBER OF JOBLESS NOW RUN OVER 3,000,000.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The number of persons employed in industry in this country the first of this month numbered 3,473,466 less than the number employed a year ago, the department of labor's employment service announced tonight on the basis of a first nationwide survey just completed by a special staff of investigators.

Director John B. Densmore said this figure did not necessarily represent the number of persons actually unemployed as it was "quite possible" that some of the workers had found employment in agricultural or other pursuits not covered by the survey.

On the other hand, some officials believed the army of unemployed possibly was larger than the figures given, as no effort was made to ascertain the reduction in the number of persons employed in pursuits other than those classed under the head of "mechanical industry."

The employment service's figures represented a reduction of 36.6 per cent in the number of workers employed in industry as compared with January a year ago and it was announced that they were based "on the consensus of figures from neutral bodies—state labor departments, state commissioners of manufacturers, state and municipal employment services, workmen's compensation bureaus, employers' and employees' organizations and all other sources competent to furnish authoritative information."

Michigan led the states in proportional reduction with 82 per cent and Ohio and Indiana followed with a reduction in employment of 50 per cent each. Next came Illinois with 44 per cent, Connecticut with 43 per cent, Massachusetts with 38 per cent, Wisconsin with 32 per cent, New York with 28 per cent and New Jersey 22 per cent. Percentages for the other states were not given.

The largest percentage of reduction in specific industries, 69 per cent, occurred in the automobile and accessory industry and this was taken to account largely for the great reduction in employment in Michigan. This industry, the employment service announced, employed about 8 per cent of the total workers in all industry in the country a year ago.

Second in rank in the reduction of employees was the building trades with approximately 52 per cent. Last January about 11 per cent of the total industrial workers was employed in this country.

A reduction of 35.5 per cent was noted in the textile and related industries, 35 per cent in leather and its products and 32 per cent in lumber and house furniture. The reduction in metals and products, machinery, electric goods and foundry products was 30.5 per cent; in packing and food products, 19 per cent, and in clay, glass, cement, and stone products, 18 per cent.

Survey made in 132 cities, the employment service said, showed that numerically the greatest reduction was in New York city, where 234,243 were reported discharged. Chicago has a reduction of 88,000, Philadelphia, 70,000; Detroit, 160,000; Cleveland, 81,000; Boston, 25,000; Newark, 41,000; Cincinnati, 24,000; Milwaukee, 24,330; St. Louis, 49,350; Baltimore, 39,656; Kansas City, 20,640; Pittsburgh, 12,500; San Francisco, 13,000, and Portland, Oregon, 10,000.

The total reduction in the Southern states, including Kentucky, was only about 100,000. Chattanooga was the first among all the Southern states with 7,500. Atlanta had 7,400; Birmingham, 6,000; Jacksonville, 6,528; Memphis, 5,100; Dallas, 4,500; New Orleans, 4,000; Louisville, 4,500; Knoxville, 5,000 and Mobile, 4,100. Fort Worth had 5,000 idle, Houston, 4,000, and Oklahoma City, 2,500; Richmond, 4,590; Columbia, S. C., 3,475; Atlanta, 7,400; Nashville, 3,150; Jackson, Tenn., 485; Montgomery, 1,500; Bessemer, Ala., 500; Meridian, 500; Jackson, Miss., 1,550; Laurel, 500; Greenville, Miss., 250; Little Rock, 700; Fort Smith, 800; Pine Bluff, 500; Lake Charles, La., 700; Monroe, 500; Tulsa, 2,500; Muskogee, 400; Enid, 2,000; San Antonio, 1,800, and Galveston, 1,500.

IREDELL MAN ALLEGED TO HAVE ASSAULTED GIRL.

Statesville, Jan. 25.—Stokes Bell, a young white man 28 years of age, an employee of the Armfield Veneer Company, is in Iredell county jail, charged with criminal assault on Margaret Stamper, 17-year-old orphan girl, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Alexander, on Front street. Bell will have a preliminary hearing this morning before Mayor L. B. Bristol. Young Bell fainted when arraigned before the mayor yesterday morning and for this reason further investigation was postponed until today. It is alleged that the girl was drugged and assaulted by Bell while out riding with him in an automobile late Saturday night.

In jail yesterday Bell stated to a reporter that he was not guilty of criminal assault on the girl; that the girl was unconscious while she was riding with him in the automobile, but he did not know the cause of her sudden lapse into that condition. He said that when he found that she had some sort of a "spell" he started to take the girl to the Long sanatorium, but that she began to improve and he drove out the Wilkesboro road a piece, but did not believe that he got out of the corporate limits of the town. He then brought her back to the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Lockman, on Boulevard, and left her there. The defendant is a son of S. L. Bell, of Turnersburg, and is said to have borne a good reputation up to this time. He admits giving the girl coca-cola.

Miss Stamper states that she had started to the picture show and had stopped on the way to talk with Oscar Reeves, whom she had known in school, when Stokes Bell drove up in a car and invited her to ride with him. She told him that she did not want to go riding, but that she would go back to Mrs. Lockman's home, if he would take her. On the way they stopped at a drug store on the corner of Boulevard and Western avenue and both took a drink of coca-cola, having it served in the car. Just before handing her the glass, Bell poured something into it and immediately after drinking the coca-cola the girl stated that she became unconscious, and did not know what happened. Mrs. Lockman states that when the girl was taken into her home, about 2 o'clock Sunday morning, she was unable to care for herself and the silk dress she was wearing was torn, and her clothing otherwise rumpled, showing that she had been handled roughly and improperly treated. "She told me that Stokes Bell dragged her over the back of the seat from the front to the rear, and we concluded that this was when her clothing was torn," said Mrs. Lockman. Dr. M. R. Adams, who was called in, stated that the girl had become stupid either from drinking liquor or as a result of some form of opiate. The girl bears a good reputation.

FURNACE MAY SUPPLANT RABBIT GUMS IN UNION.

Monroe, Jan. 25.—N. W. Thorpe, who lives near here, has discovered a new way of trapping rabbits. He installed recently a new furnace which is so inviting that it works much better than the usual rabbit gum, it is declared.

Mr. Thorpe in putting in the furnace had no other idea in mind than making his home more comfortable. It had been working fine until one cold morning this week.

One of the youngsters in the family was dispatched to investigate. Imagine the boy's surprise when he found a full grown rabbit in one of the furnace pipes.

Stranger still it was still alive when extracted from the ashes although its fur was badly scorched, when it jumped against the grate bars.

Ford Still Making Gains.

Washington, Jan. 25.—A net gain of 2,495 votes had been made by Henry Ford over Senator Newberry when the senate privileges and elections committee closed its day's work in the recount of the Michigan senatorial contest, with 1,718 of the 2,232 precincts canvassed.

THE FORDSON Fordson TRADE MARK FARM TRACTOR

A Fordson Tractor on your farm means quicker work, better work, easier work. You can do more work in a day with the Fordson, and it is easier for you. Get more money from the farm as well.

The Fordson is the product of the genius of Henry Ford. He was born on a farm, and he now lives on a farm, cultivating more than 7,000 acres every year. He knows the farm problems and he built the Fordson to help solve these problems in the easiest way; in a money-making way. Henry Ford & Son build one type of tractor. They have built this one tractor and have built it well.

The Fordson has more power per pound weight than any other tractor manufactured. It is a universal utility for the farm. Like the Ford car, its uses are many, and it is your servant during the entire year.

Only a limited number of Fordson tractors are allotted this territory, and the demand is greater than the supply. Orders are being filled in rotation. Orders pour now.

GETTING BACK TO NORMALCY.

With the aftermath of business depression, as is invariably the case, the number of unemployed throughout the country is daily increasing. Reports from the larger centers of population in the north have indicated increasing idleness for many months past; reports from Virginia and South Carolina announce that a city in each of these states has found it necessary to establish soup and bread lines to provide for the unemployed.

While everybody was at work, full day shifts and full night shifts, with fat pay envelopes and oodles of money to lavish upon every trifle or whim, with business booming and the public eager and able to buy anything at any old price, even then most every one was dissatisfied and looked with longing eyes to a return to normalcy. As if by magic it came, overnight and in less than the twinkling of an eye, and now most people are wondering if this normalcy is as attractive as they had fondly pictured it among their pleasant recollections.

While the law of supply and demand may justify a considerable shifting of labor, there should be little justification for unemployment for a greater period of time than is required for readjustment. Too many men attracted to the industrial centers and too few remaining at the post of essential productions. The country to-day is at least two years behind in its building needs, yet the cost of building remains comparatively prohibitive. There continues a scarcity of farm labor, to which useful avocation considerable numbers of the unemployed might be directed. It will require time to straighten things out, to re-adjust the old machinery after so wild a rampage, but time and necessity can do wonders when face to face with an emergency.

NO NECESSITY FOR FURTHER RACE PROBLEMS.

It is a long distance from the Atlantic to the Pacific. So long in fact, that it is rather difficult for us on this side to realize or to appreciate the yellow peril which residents of the far western states declare is threatening to engulf them. In the state of California the Japanese represent but a small percentage of the total population, a trifling per centage as compared to the relative standing of the white and colored races in the South.

Japan is reported to have been urging retaliatory measures on account of discriminating legislation passed by the state of California. University students in one of the leading educational institutions of that country recently debated before a large audience on the query as to whether or not Japan should declare war on the United States.

In the South the question of race mixing has been a serious problem for these many years. Other sections of the country have shown but slight sympathy, at times all but sympathy for the white people of the Southern states. Be it said to the credit of the South, that even in its determined decision to maintain white supremacy, that no legislation has ever been passed preventing members of the negro race from owning land, as has been recently done in California in regard to the Japanese. On the contrary, the people of the South have endeavored to cultivate harmonious relations with educating, by encouraging the inferior race and by seeking to uplift it to a higher plane.

Perhaps the attitude of the western citizens is an acknowledgment of sympathy for the South in that they have decreed that there shall be no race question with them. It may cause hard feelings in Japan for her citizens to be given a cold shoulder when they arrive in the thousands to settle in California, but it is better to settle the trouble in its incipency rather than wait until it has reached great proportions. Japan, occupying an extremely small part of the globe, has outgrown herself and it is necessary for her population to spread out. If the United States is to continue a white man's country, if future race problems are to be averted, it is perhaps wise to let Japan know in the very beginning that there is no room in this country for her surplus millions.

JUSTICE COMES HIGH AT THE PRESENT.

The continual congestion of both the civil and criminal dockets of the Superior court of Guilford county bear strong testimony to the need of relief for litigants, defendants, witnesses and all those who have occasion to resort to the courts.

During the present week a case was tried in Guilford Superior court that consumed an entire day, from the opening hour until about 6 o'clock in the afternoon. The action had been calendared several times before, witnesses had been in attendance, but it was only reached this week. Twelve jurors, the judge, and the court officers represented an expense to the county of more than fifty dollars. The amount involved was exactly $86.50 and the cost of witnesses, together with court costs that the defendant will be required to pay, will exceed the total amount in controversy. This illustration of the need for relief is not an exception; it is typical of frequent occurrences.

As a means of relief the creation of a county court has been strongly advocated. It is proposed that this court would have jurisdiction of civil matters not exceeding $1,000 and also hear criminal cases of a minor nature. This tribunal would consolidate the city courts of Greensboro and High Point and also extend to the county the benefit of speedy trials without the long delay incident to awaiting terms of Superior court.

A county court has been doing business in Forsyth for several years, though its jurisdiction is limited to civil matters. Reports from that county indicate that the court has accomplished much good. If the members of the committee entrusted with the responsibility of investigating the proposition are able to formulate a plan whereby a county court with civil and criminal jurisdiction will prove practical for Guilford county, the proposition should be given very serious consideration. The hardships endured at present by a citizen seeking redress for a civil claim or who would prosecute a criminal wrong are so great as to make the securing of legal justice extremely dear.

TUBERCULOSIS IN CATTLE.

Editor Patriot:

The average person, perhaps, does not understand the danger of tuberculosis in cattle—the great danger not only to cattle but also to the health of the consumer of milk.

When we or a member of our family get sick, we send for a medical doctor; when a valuable animal gets sick we send for a veterinarian. Both of these professions stand high in the estimation of the people; both the physician and the veterinarian tell us that tuberculosis is common in cattle, and that it is transmitted to the human through the use of milk and butter from tubercular cows; and of course the disease is transmitted from one cow to another. We have no right to doubt the statement of these men because by their training and experience they should know whereof they speak.

Then with this knowledge, why do we subject ourselves and our families, and also healthy cattle to this danger when, by a known test, the tubercular cow can be detected and eliminated.

At the present time the state and federal government, co-operating furnish men inspecting herds for tuberculosis where they receive a request from owners to do so. Each of these men have districts comprising several counties, and therefore they are unable to inspect all the dairy herds, not to speak of the cows producing the rural supply of milk. Even if requested to do so, these few men could never clean up the tubercular cows in the county, and with the present program the disease will continue to spread in uninspected herds and from farm to farm. In many cases, the milk supply from these infected cattle is responsible for much loss of time and illness, big doctor bills, and an annual human toll. The individual farmer should be more aroused over this matter than the consumer from the dairies, because most cities require those selling milk within their limits to have certificates showing that their cows have been tested and that they are tuberculosis free. While the city dweller has a measure of protection, the farmer is not provided with any protection for himself and family.

This state of affairs should not be allowed to continue in our progressive section of the country. We understand that should we have a quarantine act passed for Guilford county and employ a full time inspector for the county that the federal government will furnish another man. These two working all the time in the county should be able to make it free from tubercular cattle.

We also understand that at the present, the federal government and state are paying for reacting cattle on a plan that nets the owner a sum almost equal to the value of the animal if healthy, and much more than the value of any diseased animal. While they are doing this, let us get in line and have all the diseased cattle in the county cleaned out. Then our herds will prosper as never before, and the consumption of milk will increase when the consumer can drink it with a feeling of safety.

Years ago, when I had a dairy herd, the city did not require a test, and the state and federal government were not doing the work free, I had my herd tested, paying for the test and stood all the loss from reacting cattle as a matter of protecting my own interests. Now that I am raising high priced Hereford beef cattle I would not think of not having an annual test applied to my entire herd.

I hope to see the country people move in this matter as we are the ones most interested and to eventually derive the most benefit therefrom.

MEANS CHARGES AGAINST DOOLING IS DISMISSED.

ATHENS HAS A TWO MILLION DOLLAR BLAZE.

Athens, Ga., Jan. 25.—Plans for rebuilding the stores and offices swept away to-day in Athens' $2,000,000 fire were being made by business men late to-day while smoke and steam still partly obscured the gaunt skeletons of brick and iron that were left of some of the city's largest establishments.

The fire began at midnight, raged for hours before it was brought under control, and destroyed a block and a half, with heavy damage in adjoining blocks. Its origin remained as great a mystery tonight as when it broke out.

The first blaze was seen issuing from the Max Joseph building, according to Police Chief Henry W. Beuse, who agreed with most officials in the belief that the fire originated in the rear of the building. Explosions, believed to be from gasoline drums in the headquarters of the Denny Motor Company in the building, bulged the walls and hurled flames in all directions. The fire came within a block of the historic buildings of the University of Georgia, but none of them were damaged.

The block destroyed was bounded by Jackson, Clayton, Wall and Broad streets, with heavy damage on two sides of this square and loss to practically every store on the other two sides. Falling walls added to the danger of the fighters, but the only injury recorded was that to Fire Chief George W. McDorman, 54, who fell from a ladder. He was taken to a hospital with severe cuts and bruises on his face and head, but was said to be resting easier tonight.

Fire apparatus and eighteen firemen, headed by Chief W. B. Cody, were rushed from Atlanta on a special train and the Atlantians spent the day in pouring water on the ruins and pushing down dangerous walls. Mayor Andrew C. Erwin and Hugh J. Rowe, newspaper publisher and former mayor, in agreeing on an estimate of $2,000,000 damage, both told of plans of Athens business men effected to rebuild. M. G. Michael, of Michael Brothers, whose large wholesale and retail dry goods establishment was destroyed, announced that his firm opened negotiations with architects to-day for rebuilding the five-story structure that housed their wholesale department and the three-story building adjoining where they did a retail business.

CRUDE OIL DROPS FIFTY CENTS IN PRICE.

Dallas, Tex., Jan. 25.—The Magnolia Petroleum Company to-day announced new prices, effective to-day, on crude oil, representing a reduction of approximately 50 cents per barrel. New prices range from $1.50 to $5 a barrel, according to grade.

Shreveport, La., Jan. 25.—A reduction of 50 cents a barrel on additional grades of Louisiana crude oil has been announced here by the Standard Oil Company. This follows yesterday's announcement of a similar reduction in the price of Caddo heavy oil.

New and radical measures are being advanced every day. Some revolutionary national economist now suggests solving the government's financial troubles by reducing expenses instead of increasing taxes. —Nashville Southern Lumberman.

STORAWAYS SMUGGLED BY USING FALSE PASSES.

New York, Jan. 25.—Smugglings of stowaways and members of ships crews into this country is becoming so prevalent that an organization has been formed which draws lucrative fees from European criminals wishing to escape. It was reported to-day by Commissioner of Immigration Wallis at Ellis Island.

Ramifications of the organization, which charges $50, to place each stowaway on ships leaving Europe, extend not only throughout shipping centers but also to steamship officials, longshoremen and others in this country, according to Commissioner Wallis.

The principal methods employed, it was said, include obtaining jobs for a certain number on steamships and these in turn hide others in holes of ships. On arrival in this country, the "crew" members lend their passes to the stowaways, who thus escape examination by immigration authorities. Through collusion with longshoremen, the passes are returned to their original holders.

Within the last two months, said Mr. Wallis, 2,000 undesirables have entered the country in this way.

OFFICERS MISS STILL BUT FIND 2,000 GALLONS BEER.

Deputy Sheriffs Phipps, Hobbs and Clark, together with Federal Agent J. H. Johnson made a visit to Cenetr Grove township Tuesday but they arrived a short time too late to find a copper still, the object of their trip. On the former site of the still, however, about 2,000 gallons of beer had been left and this was poured out by the officers. The operators of the plant are believed to have had advance information of the visit by the officers and they hurried their precious possession to distant and more secure parts. The outfit was reported to have been located on the land of Sample Brown.

GASOLINE DROPS TWO CENTS IN INDIANA.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—A reduction of two cents a gallon in the price of gasoline was announced here to-day by the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, as a result of decreases in the price of crude oil. At service stations, the price dropped from 29 to 27 cents and from tank wagons from 27 cents to 25 cents. Kerosene was cut from 18 1-2 to 15 1-2 cents a gallon.

"If crude oil continues to go down gasoline and kerosene will naturally go down with it," said W. M. Burton, president of the company.

PAYN BILL FORTY-EIGHT YEARS OLD LAST SPRING.

Winnet, Conn., Jan. 24.—Homer C. Allyn, of East Canaan, Conn., recently received the following note: "Some time ago, forty-eight years ago last spring to be exact, I bought a watch and pistol of you. The watch was $20 and the pistol $5, and as I believe in being prompt about business matters and that no bill ought to run more than fifty years, I am inclosing check for $25."

"Very respectfully," "H. D. MANSFIELD." In 1873 Mr. Allyn, now seventy-nine years old, was in the jewelry business in New Canaan. He remembered having sold a watch and revolver to Mansfield, then a lad of sixteen or eighteen. He had charged off the debt.

EXPORT IDEA GAINING FAVOR

COTTON ASSOCIATION URGING ACREAGE REDUCTION AND SUP-PORT OF AMERICAN PRODUCTS
EXPORT AND IMPORT CORPORA-TION.

Raleigh.—Reduction of acreage and support of the export corporation are the two principal measures urged by the North Carolina branch of the American Cotton Association to better existing conditions. To enable the export corporation to function properly, the people of North Carolina have been asked to subscribe to a quota of $1,000,000 of stock for each bale produced and from the way in which the corporation's office in the State Agricultural Building at Raleigh is receiving subscriptions there is every reason to believe that the quota will be subscribed.

Indication of State-wide confidence in the export corporation was recently given in the senate, where Senator Joe Brown, of Pender, made a ringing speech. He introduced a bill to have the State of North Carolina subscribe to $1,000,000 of the export corporation's stock. To meet the payment Senator Brown urges the State to issue four per cent bonds.

Richard I. Manning, former governor of South Carolina, who heads the American Products Export and Import Corporation, has been in this State for the past two weeks speaking in the interests of the organization. Everywhere he has been he has met with a cordial reception. The meeting in Charlotte recently, under the auspices of the county cotton association, was productive of about $20,000 in subscriptions.

Governor Manning spoke before the mid-winter meeting of the North Carolina Cotton Manufacturers' Association in Raleigh Tuesday and explained the purpose of the export company at length. Following his address the cotton mill men went on record as unanimously endorsing the movement and commending the purchase of stock in the export corporation to the various mills of North Carolina.

W. Banks Dove, Secretary of State of South Carolina; L. S. Tomlinson of Wilson, president of the American Cotton Association; Senator Joe Brown and A. W. McSwain, secretary of the Cotton Association are some of the prominent men who have spoken throughout the State during the past week in behalf of the export movement. They have all stressed the fact that the export movement is a self-preservation movement as well as an opportunity for a good investment.

"There is not a doubt in my mind," said Mr. Dove the other day, speaking of the American Products Export and Import Corporation, "but that this organization will do much to stabilize the cotton market. One important thing in any concern of this kind, is the management. The export corporation is particularly well off in this regard with Governor Manning as its president and Joseph Walker, one of the best known cotton men of the South, as its general manager. The corporation is already doing business, and with increased facilities, made possible by additional stock subscriptions, will do much to remedy present conditions and make for permanent prosperity in the South."

There are two phases of the stock offering that are finding especial favor. One is the fact that subscriptions are being accepted in cotton or Liberty Bonds at the market price, as well as in cash. The other is a profit-sharing plan that has been instituted by the corporation. All stockholders are to be entitled to eight per cent cumulative dividends when earned and after deducting this from the total amount of net profit realized during any one year, one-half of the remaining profits are to be set aside as "patronage" dividends. These patronage dividends are to be paid out to the individuals or firms furnishing business for the corporation, pro rata to the amount of business furnished. The remaining half of the net profits in excess of eight per cent will be credited to the stockholders.

It has been announced that North Carolina will be given full representation on the Board of Directors of the export corporation. The corporation is in no sense confined to any one State but is a South-wide movement, destined to benefit the entire South. Public-spirited citizens are at work in every Southern State to raise their quota. One shipment of cotton to Europe has been made and many more will follow in quick order.

The export corporation idea, fostered by the American Cotton Association, was originally suggested by Governor W. P. G. Harding of the Federal Reserve Board, who is an enthusiastic supporter of the movement. W. G. McAdoo, former Secretary of the Treasury, has volunteered his services free of charge to the corporation. From all sides come strong endorsement of the work.

The North Carolina campaign for stock subscriptions is now well under way. Through the courtesy of the North Carolina Press Association, which has endorsed the organization and its purposes, the details of the corporation's program are being given out in the various papers of the State and public meetings are being held in every cotton-growing county.

BILL REGULATING LIVE STOCK PASSES SENATE.

Washington, Jan. 24.—By a margin of thirteen votes, the senate late to-day passed the long fought bill for federal regulation of the meat packers and other agencies of the livestock industry.

The vote was 46 to 33 and the legislation, the center of bitter controversy for a decade, now goes to the house with its supporters hopeful of final action during the present session of Congress. A special rule to expedite house action is to be sought.

Partisan division in the senate was lacking, but most Democrats supported the bill, while a majority of the Republicans opposed it. The party line-up was 18 Republicans and 28 Democrats for passage, with 23 Republicans and 10 Democrats against.

Fundamental Features Retained.
All fundamental features of the legislation as presented by the agriculture committee as a substitute for the original Kenyon-Kendrick bill were retained by the senate. The bill would create a federal livestock commission of three members appointed by the President to have jurisdiction over the livestock industry. This commission would have power to issue orders, collect and disseminate information, have access to packers' books and have general supervision over packers, stock yards, commission men and similar agencies. Review of the livestock commission's orders would be provided by the bill—which also prescribes rules for conduct of the packing business and stipulations against monopoly, unfair trade practices, engaging in unrelated industries, and other similar acts.

Voluntary licensing of packers also is provided, an attempt by Senator Pomerene, Democrat, of Ohio, to eliminate this feature having been defeated to-day, 43 to 34.

Only two important amendments were adopted by the senate before passing the bill. One by Senator Wadsworth, Republican, New York, would include horses, mules and goats within the operations of the bill although horse and mule markets would be excluded from proposed federal supervision.

Exempts Livestock Growers.

Another amendment, by Senator Pitman, Democrat, Nevada, would exempt all persons whose chief business is livestock growing or production of agricultural products from the bills provisions. The author declared that the legislation should not extend to small stock growers who operate their own feeding yards.

Other amendments adopted included one by Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, providing for all proceedings of the livestock commission should be open to the public, and an amendment by Senator Pomerene, Democrat, Ohio, declaring that upon enactment of the bill all supervision of the federal trade commission over the livestock industry should be terminated and transferred to the livestock commission.

Friends of the bill succeeded in withstanding virtually all other revisions proposed, and also defeated a motion to re-commit the bill to the agriculture committee. An amendment by Senator Hitchcock, Democrat, Nebraska, proposing that packers give a week's notice of bids and prices for livestock was lost, 70 to 8. The author said it was designed to stabilize the market.

WANTS FREE EDUCATION AT STATE INSTITUTIONS.

Raleigh, Jan. 24.—Free tuition at the State University and other state institutions for higher and technical education, for every son and daughter of North Carolina, will be proposed in a bill which Senator Elmer Long, of Burlington, will introduce in the senate.

The senator made this announcement here with the statement that he is now drafting the bill after a conference with educational leaders in both branches of the general assembly.

At the same time he proposes to support fully every appropriation measure for permanent improvements or for maintenance of the State University or any of the other educational institutions.

Considerable interest has been manifested in the Long proposal in view of the war that is going on between the forces that are clamoring for higher education and those that are insisting the state is neglecting the public schools. Opposition to the big program for the University has come chiefly from those who assert that the public school system has broken down.

In making public his proposed bill to-day, the Alamance senator pointed to the fact that entrance into the University of Virginia and other equally well known state institutions in the country is not prohibited by the tuition charge. He believes that the same latitude given to the boys and girls of other states should be accorded the North Carolinians and that the state, wealthy as it is, should guarantee to every child a college education.

HUNDRED DIFFERENT PRODUCTS FROM PEANUTS.

Washington, Jan. 24.—Over 100 varieties of peanut products, ranging from sweet milk to black ink have been discovered by George W. Carver, negro professor of Tuskegee Institute. He showed them to the ways and means committee to-day and was greeted with loud applause from the members, including those from the south.

Chairman Fordney told him he had made a valuable contribution to the world and Representative Garner, (Democrat), Texas, declared he had made the most wonderful exhibition he had ever heard in the committee.

Professor Carver is 52 years old, the son of ex-slaves, and was born in Diamond, Mo. His education began at 15 years. He is a graduate of Iowa Agricultural College, with the degrees of A. B. and A. M., and was a student of former Secretary of Agriculture Wilson.

He is head of the research and experiment station of Tuskegee.

Among the products shown were 10 kinds of milk, five kinds of punches, sated peanuts, two grades of flour, two grades of meal, five breakfast foods, new flavoring for ice cream, cakes, ginger bread, cookies and various confections, chocolate-coated peanuts, peanut candy bars, crystallized peanuts, three relishes, nine wood stains, ranging from malachite green to golden oak, black ink, face powder and face cream, worcester sauce, four different and various kinds of oils. Professor Carver showed the committee a landscape drawn with peanut ink. He stated further that thus far he has discovered 107 products that can be made from sweet potatoes.

Professor Carver was present under the auspices of the United Peanut Association of America. It is asking for a protective duty.
