NUMBER OF CASES ARE TRIED IN CIVIL COURT

RETURNS VERDICT AGAINST P. A. WILDER—RECESS FOR EASTER ORDERED.

Following the Easter recess, Guilford Superior court will convene tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock for the disposition of civil actions, with Judge T. B. Finley, of North Wilkesboro, presiding. Recess was ordered by the jurist, beginning at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon.

On Thursday afternoon the jury returned a verdict against P. A. Wilder in his suit against Dr. W. C. Ashworth. The plaintiff was trying to recover damages in the sum of $10,000, alleging that at the instigation of the defendant he was falsely arrested and that his credit, reputation and good name were injured to the extent of $5,000. It was alleged that while out with a patient from Glenwood sanitarium Wilder got between $1,700 and $2,000 from the patient and refused to surrender this, his arrest resulting. Before the case came up in the magistrate's court the patient and Wilder reached an agreement, whereupon the warrant was withdrawn.

From the Superior court decision Wilder gave notice of appeal to the Supreme court.

E. L. Lane, who sued the Southern Railway Company for $3,000 damages, was awarded $2,000. While in the employ of the railroad company as a brakeman in Danville, Va., Lane suffered a badly mangled foot. He contended that the engineer on the switch engine upon which he was working started the locomotive without a signal, that in the sudden movement he was injured when his foot slipped.

The Fred Gretsch Manufacturing Company was unsuccessful in its suit against the Frazier Piano Company. The plaintiff company asked for $54.29, alleging that the defendant company had failed to pay for goods ordered. However, the jury decided that the goods had not been ordered by the Frazier company.

The Southern Railway Company was awarded $49.77 in its suit against E. E. Bain, that amount representing the difference in freight rates which were sent through South Carolina and another route, higher rates thus being allowed.

Judgment for $12.36 against R. V. Harris was obtained by the Southern Railway Company that amount being demurrage on a carload of brick shipped from Statesville to Summerfield and which the defendant had refused to pay.

Mr. Beavers and his assistants will bring to the attention of the farmers the many benefits to be obtained through development of the bureau.

SIXTY-DAY SENTENCE HANDLED TO ED NOLAN.

According to testimony presented Friday in Municipal court, Ed Nolan on Thursday night while intoxicated attempted to enter the home of Mrs. Colin Curtis. Three efforts to effect an entrance to the residence on Prescott street were made by Nolan. Mrs. Curtis stated, adding that he demanded that she open the door. Mr. Curtis, who is engaged in night work, was not at home. Mrs. Curtis, who had a revolver, finally opened a window and fired three times, whereupon neighbors who heard the shots hurried out and took Nolan to police headquarters, where he was placed under arrest.

Nolan, who is about 50 years of age, admitted that he was drunk. He said he did not know what he was doing and that he did not recall going to the Curtis home. He was convicted of being drunk and disorderly and a sentence of 60 days in the county jail was imposed.

CIVIC WEEK PLANS ARE NOW BEING DEVELOPED.

Plans for "Civic Week," which will be observed in Greensboro beginning Sunday, April 3, were discussed Thursday night at a meeting of the committees in charge of the program. It was agreed that satisfactory progress was being made with the preliminary plans and confidence was expressed that the undertaking would prove eminently successful.

Monday will be "Fire Prevention Day." On Tuesday clean-up activities will be engaged in. On Wednesday a conference regarding further activities of the week will be held and it is expected that at that time definite announcement as to the proposed paving of Elm street in the business district will be made. Thursday has been set apart as "Health Day." The Woman's Club will be in charge of Friday's events and on Saturday the Boy Scouts will carry out a special program. MRS. MARGARET ALBRIGHT DIES AT RIPE OLD AGE.

Mrs. Margaret Albright died Friday afternoon at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Matthews, on Asheboro street. The natural infirmities of advanced age—Mrs. Albright was 82 years old—were the cause of her death. Three daughters survive, these being Mrs. J. W. Crawford, of this city; Mrs. T. B. Eldridge, of Raleigh, and Mrs. Matthews. Surviving also are a brother, James Patterson, and a sister, Mrs. Eliza Crawford, both of Greensboro.

The funeral services were conducted at the Matthews home Saturday by Rev. B. K. Mason, pastor of Asheboro Street Baptist church, of which Mrs. Albright was a member, and Rev. J. Clyde Turner, pastor of the First Baptist church. The remains were interred in Hawthfields cemetery, Alamance county.

MAY DRAFT MEN FOR [SERVICE ON COUNCIL]

CITIZENS DISCUSS PLANS FOR GETTING OUT STRONG CITY TICKET HERE.

The probability of "drafting" men as candidates for places on the new city council was discussed at a meeting of interested citizens Friday night at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. The plan, which was looked upon with high favor, will be given further consideration at a meeting of the citizens' committee tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

At Friday night's meeting, with E. D. Broadhurst presiding, the names of 26 men were suggested in connection with the proposed drafting process. Others will be suggested and at the meeting tomorrow night an effort will be made to agree upon a citizens' ticket. It is indicated that the citizens' ticket will include either seven or fourteen persons. Under the council-manager plan adopted by the voters here recently there are to be seven councilmen, who, in turn, will elect one of their number as mayor and who also will elect a city manager.

Men suggested Friday night at the citizens' meeting for places on the council were Frank A. Brooks, Claude Kiser, Julian Price, R. D. Douglas, George L. Stansbury, A. B. High, David White, E. B. Jeffress, Charles H. Ireland, J. D. Wilkins, C. L. Weill, W. D. Meyer, E. Sternberger, H. H. Felder, George A. Grimsley, B. MacKanzie, E. P. Wharton, R. G. Vaughn, J. B. Parks, J. M. Millikan, A. M. Stanton, C. C. Hudson, George Kennett S. M. Bumpass, R. G. Hiatt and Charles A. Hines.

Charles H. Ireland pointed out that the success of the managerial plan of government depends largely upon the personnel of the city council. As a rule, it was declared, that capable men will not agree to serve unless they are virtually drafted. If the women wish to have a woman on the board, there will be no objection, it is indicated. More definite developments are expected at tomorrow night's meeting. At that time a report will be submitted by a special committee composed of E. D. Broadhurst, chairman; Miss Louise B. Alexander, Charles A. Hines, E. B. Jeffress and J. Ed Albright.

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION PLANNED.

On April 12, 13 and 14 a State Sunday School Convention will be held in Raleigh, according to announcement made here. All white Sunday schools in the state are asked to send three delegates, in addition to pastor and superintendent, to the convention, which, it is expected, will be attended by more than 500 persons. Reduced rates have been granted by the railroads, the one and one-half fare certificate plan having been authorized. Many interesting questions affecting the Sunday schools will be considered at the sessions in Raleigh.

Officers say they found about 25 gallons of whiskey on Norman's premises in Glenwood Friday night, the booze having been concealed under a pile of wood.

O. O. Pettiford, charged with transporting whiskey was found not guilty. A nol pro was ordered in the case against Edward Allen, who faced a similar charge.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED BY MILLERS OF STATE

MANY IMPORTANT QUESTIONS DISCUSSED AT ANNUAL CONVENTION HERE.

Election of officers, submission of reports and general discussion of many of their problems were the basic items of business at the annual convention of the Millers' Association of North Carolina Thursday afternoon at the O. Henry hotel.

Officers were chosen as follows: W. B. Brown, of Statesville, president; A. O. Bray, of Elkin, vice president; Carl Sherrill, of Statesville; J. C. Guyer, of Lenoir; C. V. Singleton, of Henderson; G. M. Henderson, Jr., of Charlotte; A. L. Butner, of Winston-Salem; W. P. Atwater, of Greensboro, and J. T. Ledfelt, of Sanford, directors. A. B. Horney, of High Point, was the choice of the directorate for secretary, Mr. Horney being re-elected to this post. The members of the resolutions committee are President Brown, W. M. Speed, of Durham, and Carl Sherrill, of Durham.

The resolutions committee was empowered to wage vigorous opposition to the proposed change in the rate-making system in the southeast. The millers declared that the suggested change in freight rates would cause them irreparable loss and would also prove very detrimental to consumers. Mr. Speed was chosen as the association's representative at a meeting to be held in Chattanooga on March 29, at which time he will enter sharp protest against the change.

An act adopted by the legislature of 1921, requiring standard weight packages of grits, meal and flour and to prevent the sale of same in short weight packages, was approved by the association. It was stated that this legislative action was taken in accordance with the request of the millers. The convention also expressed its advocacy of the basis of prices and measures favored by the Millers' National federation. It was agreed that tags, instead of stickers, should be issued to the millers. Maj. W. A. Graham, state commissioner of agriculture, will be asked to make this change.

PASSENGER SERVICE IS CURTAILED BY SOUTHERN.

Southern Railway train No. 136, which has been operated between Atlanta and Danville, has been discontinued. Hereafter the Southern will operate No. 43 only between Danville and Charlotte. According to the railway company, decreased travel is responsible for this curtailment. At the same time the Raleigh-Atlanta sleeping car was curtailed to become the Charlotte-Atlanta line, being handled on 35 and 36 between those two cities. These changes became effective Sunday, March 27. They will result in serious inconvenience to the traveling public in this section, traveling men declare.

EIGHT CONVICTS ESCAPE AND ONE IS RECAPTURED

About 1 o'clock Friday morning eight convicts effected their escape from their cage in the convict camp near the county home. A Well Known Writer Says:

"The will which simply leaves money or other property in bulk to a woman who has never even had her own checking account, or to children utterly unskilled in business affairs, or even to the guardianship of a good friend who is busy with his own interests, is in most instances a doubtful blessing."

The answer to the problem is simple and easy. Money and property may be left in trust. Let one of our officers tell you of the business advantages of a trust in your will and how you may plan it.

A NORTH CAROLINIAN HONORED BY HARDING.

Washington, March 24.—North Carolina comes again to the fore today in Washington by the announcement of the detail of Lieutenant Colonel Clarence O. Sherrill, corps of engineers, a native of Newton, N. C., son of the late Col. Mhes O. Sherrill, for many years state librarian of North Carolina, as military aide to President Harding and in charge of public buildings and grounds of the District of Columbia, a position of great importance. He succeeds Major Clarence S. Ridley, also of the corps of engineers, and as part of his duties will act as superintendent of the state, war and navy buildings.

Colonel Sherrill was an active participant in the world war and made an enviable record.

Lieutenant Colonel Sherrill is about 45 years of age. He was a student at Trinity College for two years and then went to West Point, being an honor graduate of the United States Military Academy, class of 1901, an honor graduate of the army school of the line, class of 1906, and a graduate of the army war college, class of 1907. His wife was formerly Miss Geraldine Taylor, of Leavenworth, Kansas, and they have two children, a son, Clarence Caldwell, aged nine, and a daughter, Minnie, aged five.

ONLY LIVING GRADUATE G. F. C. IN 1848 DEAD.

Danville, Va., March 24.—Mrs. Laura Crump Patrick, one of the oldest citizens of Danville and the only surviving member of the first graduating class of Greensboro Female College, in 1848, died this morning at the general hospital following an illness dating from 1917, when she fell and broke her hip. She had been declining for the past three weeks and her death was not unexpected. The funeral will be conducted from Mount Vernon Methodist church at 4 o'clock on Tuesday. She was a charter member of the church.

Mrs. Patrick was born in 1831, in Montgomery county, North Carolina, and was, therefore, 90 years of age. She was married on December 16, 1850, to Dr. Thomas Jefferson Patrick, then a Greensboro druggist. In 1853 they came to Danville, where Dr. Patrick relinquished pharmaceuticals and went into the tobacco business. He died January 11, 1897.

Mrs. Patrick was best known perhaps here for her lifelong interest in the Danville General hospital. In 1883 she was secretary of the Ladies' Benevolent Society, which founded on Ridge street a small hospital. In a few years or in 1892 Mrs. Patrick became president of the organization and remained as such until the time of her death. The hospital moved in the early 90's to its present site, occupying quarters in a former school founded by Rev. G. W. Dame, whose son-in-law, Robert Brydon, was buried here Saturday. Mrs. Patrick remained active in the work of the hospital continually until taken ill and even as a patient she remained an active adviser until she began sinking. Not long ago she was photographed propped up in her bed in the institution and the picture has been largely commented upon as being typical of the fast vanishing mothers of the confederacy.

WILL DEBS BE PARDONED BY PRESIDENT HARDING?

Washington, March 25.—A strong feeling that Attorney General Daugherty will recommend the pardon of Eugene V. Debs and that President Harding will free him within a short while prevails in official circles here. Mr. Harding indicated today that he heartily approved the course of Mr. Daugherty in inviting Debs here for a conference, and thinks that anything he does about the matter will be proper and wise.

When pressed to pardon Debs President Wilson declined on the ground that the offender manifested no change of heart since he was convicted for violating the espionage act. He also asserted that he could not let any feeling of passion interfere with the punishment of a man who was shooting American soldiers in the back while they were fighting for their country, and thought for the sake of the future punishment for persons who betrayed men going to war should be made certain.

"HOG COMBINE" NAME GIVEN G. O. P. BOSSES.

Washington, March 25.—The Morehead-Linney steamroller ran over Marion Butler, Isaac Meekins, and prominent men of the old Pritchard wing of the Republican party and bruised them from head to foot but there is another day coming, and the machine may refuse to do its bit. Mr. Butler, who likes the inharmonious walls of a cat fight better than he does the monotonous promises of a love-feast, went to Greensboro to bring the G. O. P. patriots together, but was ready for a free-for-all if it was started by the other side. However, the wheels had been so well greased that he was run down and over before he realized just what was happening.

Two qualifications were required for indorsement for federal pie by the state committee, according to the reports that came to Washington to-day, and they were: First, membership on the committee, and second, residence in a county that increased its Democratic vote in November.

Here are some of the descriptive names applied to the steamroller pushers: "The hog combine," "the inner cabal of the state committee," "the autocrats of the Republican organization in North Carolina."

By a promise to stand by the "hog combine" various factions overrode all opposition. The old "star chamber session" was restored to, and everything cut and dried. President Harding is to be told of the Greensboro meeting of the North Carolina committee. He will have an ear full of all the efforts at harmony that were knocked sky high by the Morehead-Linney steamroller.

One or more members of the committee who asserted after the meeting was over that they were "ashamed" of the proceedings, are due here within a few days. It was said to-day that the White House will be told that the action of the "hog combine" was deliberate, offensive, and most harmful to the party.

Much is being made over the approval of R. W. Ward, of Raleigh, for marshal of the eastern district. He was the lone delegate to the Chicago convention who refused to vote for Judge Jeter C. Pritchard on the first ballot for the presidential nomination. He broke the solidarity of the state Republicans and spoiled the compliment to the old and honored leader of the party. It is asserted that Irvin Tucker, named for district attorney in the east, was the second to quit Pritchard. With the Butlers, the Duncans and the followers of Judge Pritchard on the war-path the Morehead-Linney coterie will have some rough sledding in Washington. At present "the regulars" have the best of the game, but they are in for a fight, where they might have had "harmony" if Marion Butler, Isaac Meekins, and a lot of others "had been consulted." This is the proposition that will be put up to Mr. Harding before another week rolls by.

It was suggested by a member of the committee that President Harding might get a line on the situation by sending "an inspector down" before the delegation comes up to present its slate.

TOM HEFLIN GOES AFTER GAMBLING ON EXCHANGES.

Washington, March 25.—Senator Thomas J. Heflin, of Alabama, is getting after what he declares to be a thieving band of gambling marauders who are robbing the American farmers on the wholesale order. He did this in discussing to-day the proposition of Senator Norris, new chairman of the committee on agriculture, and Senator Capper, of Kansas, to regulate or prevent speculation in farm products; he said:

"The exigencies of the hour demand legislation of a very stringent nature. The cotton and grain exchanges as operated to-day are gambling dens pure and simple. They are to prostrate agriculture what the vulture does to the wounded deer. In normal times agriculture can withstand in a measure the onslaughts of those who seek through exchange manipulation to depress the price of farm products, but in abnormal times like these, agriculture like the wounded deer, prone upon the ground, is unable to repel the attacks of those who would profit by its misfortunes while they feed and fatten upon its very life substance. If we cannot regulate the cotton and grain exchanges so as to prevent a thieving band of gambling marauders from manipulating them so as to deprive the American farmer of fair prices and living profits, I am in favor as soon as Congress convenes in April, of passing a joint resolution putting them out of existence."

NEW ATTACK MADE ON PROHIBITION AMENDMENT.

Washington, March 25.—An entirely new attack on the validity of the prohibition amendment, based upon the requirement that it be ratified within seven years, was made in the Supreme court.

The attack was made in a brief filed by Counsel for J. J. Dillon, of San Francisco, charged with violation of the prohibition enforcement act. Dillon is seeking a writ of habeas corpus.

The provision attacked was offered first by the then Senator Harding when the amendment was being proposed in the senate.

The section, making the entire article inoperative unless ratified within seven years, the brief asserts, specifically violates article five of the constitution, which gives Congress no power to impose a limit to control what the legislatures of the states shall do in their deliberations.

The brief quoted Senator Harding in offering the provision as having "clearly stated that his vote for the resolution was conditioned on the provision being approved," and quoted Senator Borah as having called attention then to the unconstitutionality of the section.

Three Killed in Wind Storm.
Huntsville, Ala., March 25.—Three persons were killed and much property was destroyed by a severe wind storm near New Hope this afternoon, according to reports reaching Huntsville tonight. Telephone wires are down and the transmission lines of the Alabama Power Company, which supplies electricity to Huntsville, Albany and Decatur, were broken and these and other towns were without electric lights and power for several hours tonight.

VIOLENT FIGHTING IN GERMANY IS REPORTED.

Berlin, March 25.—Advices received tonight from the disturbed industrial areas in middle Germany state that the police recaptured Eisleben and Hettstedt from the communists after violent fighting.

The communists have taken possession of large nitrogen works in Leuna, near Halle, where they are reported to have formed a red army of 6,000.

Officers of the communists at Eisleben the advices added were overthrown and fighting in the Mansfeld district has ceased.

Resumption of work in Eisleben has been made conditional by the police commissioner upon the restoration of order, the return of property and the handing over to the authorities of all ammunition. He promised that those who voluntarily surrendered would not be punished.

The communists leaders have undertaken to the utmost to fulfill these demands.

ACTIVE ERUPTION OF VOLCANO IN HAWAII.

Hilo, T. H., March 25.—The volcano of Kilauea is overflowing from the pit of Halemaumau. All of the trails in the old crater bottom have been destroyed.

Five flows are running north, south and west and a foundation of lava, the largest in the volcano's history, is spouting high, surrounded by hundreds of other fountains. The lava lake rose eight feet in eight hours.

The main flow is running at the rate of 40 miles an hour.

The outburst is believed by scientists to be due to an equinoctial change.

Police guards are holding hundreds of tourists and automobiles at a considerable distance from the scene because of the danger of a greater outburst.

ROAD CONVENTION WEEK.

With elaborate plans going forward to maturity on every hand, it is apparent that the week of April 18-23 is indeed to be a gala week in Greensboro and in Guilford county. The big annual conventions of the United States Good Roads Association and the Bankhead National Highway Association will attract a great number of people from every section of the country and many other attractions are planned for the week, so that visitors will really "get their money's worth."

One of the spectacular projects to be consummated during road convention week is a great fashion show. It is announced that at this exposition, which will be staged at the Grand theater on Wednesday morning, April 20, there will be a marvelous display of the products handled by local business houses. Young ladies of the community will serve as models, displaying in convincing manner the fashion requisites. The people will be shown that it is unnecessary to go to New York or Baltimore in quest of such things; they can be obtained right here at home. In other words, it will be a fine demonstration of the resources and the resourcefulness of the community.

Of course there will be many other features, including a spectacular parade and barbecue. Leading advocates of improved highways from many different commonwealths will gather here to formulate plans for such improvement. The best highway thought of the country will be in evidence. It is a great constructive enterprise which is being carried out by the two associations and it is apparent that added stimulus to the performance of this program will be given.

It is peculiarly fitting that the deliberations of these road-builders—and community builders—should take place in Guilford, the natural home of improved highways. The inspirational value of such a setting would be difficult to overestimate.

Perhaps some of us do not realize fully the importance of such conventions. As a matter of fact, Greensboro has become such a leading convention city that we are often prone to treat conventions largely as a matter of course. When the unusual or especially impressive convention is held, we sometimes fail to grasp the full significance of it. In other words, we are becoming so accustomed to these things that we do not take proper cognizance of them.

Surely there will, however, be no lack of appreciation of the tremendous importance of these gatherings. Manifestly, the people of Guilford should do everything within their power to make the event—or series of events—an unqualified success. And advance information indicates that this happy goal will be attained. There is to be wholehearted co-operation between the people of the county, a circumstance which practically assures the success of the proposition.

"SHALL WE GATHER AT THE PAYROLL?"

The conference held here last week by members of the Republican party of high and low degree afforded illuminating evidence of the fact that there is no paucity of men of that political faith who are willing to make the tremendous sacrifice of leaving their regular tasks and "saving" the state and nation. Such self-abnegation is truly touching. Those patriots who have stood on the sidelines, to these many years, are simply hungering and thirsting for an opportunity to demonstrate their alleged fitness for important government posts.

But the most touching part of the spectacle is the anguish and pain and misery and woe resultant from realization of the fact that not all of the Republican job hunters will be able to attain their hearts' desires. As Rudyard Kipling once pungently pointed out, "East is East and West is West"—and it is mighty hard to reconcile the differences of the twain. Why on earth, some of these would-be state-savers and would-be nation-savers would like to know, don't the authorities create enough plums to feed the entire Republican multitude?

Then there is yet another fly in the ointment. Factionalism, which has for many years helped to confound the dearest hopes of many G. O. P. chieftains and near-chieftains, again rises to plague. From the east, or, more specifically from the big, ever-hungry, much-bearded old fellow from Sampson, comes a somewhat plaintive, somewhat fierce articulation of that section's wants. Marion Butler, who is hardly as fond of Morehead rule as Romeo was fond of Juliet, has some pretty little speeches about the "ring" which the Charlotte gum-shoe politician is pleased to direct. The warring clans have ambitions which cannot be reconciled, it appears. It is indicated that Butler will make other pilgrimages to the chief pie counter, the fountain from which may spring patronage to revive the drooping spirits of disappointed office-seekers. In short, the black-bearded warrior evidently plans to go to the Big Boss himself, even to Warran Gamaliel. And then what a weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth there will be!

Meanwhile hope springs eternal, etc., etc. Perhaps the Republicans of North Carolina will yet assemble around the near-peace conference table of their party and chant, "Shall We Gather At The Payroll?"

Such devotion to such weighty affairs of state is a thing of beauty and a joy forever—to those who love the Ancient Order of Political Plumtrees.

The reichstag has passed a disarmament bill. And they are trying to disarm the suspicion of the world—that is, they say they are trying.

With the municipal primary coming on apace, the women candidates will soon be throwing their hats—or Easter bonnets—in the ring, eh what?

Soon the spring onion will come into its own.

NEGRO FINDS BONDS AND STAMPS STOLEN FROM BANK.

Danville, Va., March 24—Another find of stolen liberty bonds taken by the professional bank robbers who were active in the south during the fall of 1920, came to light to-day when it was learned that $15,000 worth of registered bonds, together with about $300,000 worth of war savings stamps stolen from the Bank of Macon, N. C., had been restored.

The bonds were found in an old linen duster about 10 miles from the Bank of Halifax, which was robbed at about the same time, the bundle being found in some pines on the Houston to Danville road near Mountain hill. Several months ago a negro, whose name has not been ascertained, was hunting at the spot and noticed a piece of paper handsomely engraved. As it appealed to him he stuffed it in his pocket. It was a liberty bond, but the negro did not know it. By chance, a few days ago he showed the bond to a white man, W. L. Henderson, who at once recognized it and told the negro to report the matter to Commonwealth's Attorney J. S. Easley, at Houston. The negro did as he was told, and the state official asked to be guided to the spot. He was taken there, and near where the negro said he had found the paper they found an old linen duster used by motorists in hot weather, and inside of it was found a sheaf of bonds, the stamps and some other papers which showed them to be part of the loot from the Macon bank. A representative of the bank has taken the papers.

This is the third cache revealed since the Halifax bank was robbed. Guy Lampkin found commercial paper near Midway November 27, and yesterday W. W. Edmunds, near Renan, found some more bonds under a straw stack. The papers were removed to Houston last night and were being gone over to-day. It is said the Houston bank is now able to account for virtually all of the registered liberty bonds stolen. The other papers of high to the bank, especially the wills, which eliminate the possibility of litigation.

Pains Were Terrific

Read how Mrs. Albert Gregory, of R. F. D. No. 1, Blufford, Ill., got rid of her ills. "During . . . I was awfully weak . . . My pains were terrific. I thought I would die. The bearing-down pains were actually so severe I could not stand the pressure of my hands on the lower part of my stomach . . . I simply felt as if life was for but a short time. My husband was worried . . . One evening, while reading the Birthday Almanac, he came across a case similar to mine, and went straight for some Cardui for me to try.

"I took it faithfully and the results were immediate," adds Mrs. Gregory. "I continued to get better, all my ills left me, and I went through . . . with no further trouble. My baby was fat and strong, and myself—thank God—am once more hale and hearty, can walk miles, do my work, though 44 years old, feel like a new person. All I owe to Cardui." For many years Cardui has been found helpful in building up the system when run down by disorders peculiar to women.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

SUMMERFIELD.

Mr. H. C. Brittain, who has been critically ill for some weeks, is slowly improving. Mrs. Kate Brittain, the mother of Mr. H. C. Brittain, who will be 90 years old in a few days, walked from her home one day last week to see her son, the distance being nearly a mile. Mrs. Brittain is in fairly good health for one of her age.

The Ladies' Missionary Society met last Tuesday afternoon at the M. E. church, with Mrs. S. S. Blackburn as president. After the business of the meeting was over Mrs. B. Z. Byrd conducted the social meeting. Interesting pieces were read by Mrs. Crews, our vice president, and others. Our meetings are very interesting and helpful.

Mrs. C. H. Wilson, who had pneumonia a few weeks ago and who was very ill, is slowly improving, we are glad to say.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Boren, of Pocomoke and Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Johnson and son Holly, of Stokesdale, visited at Mr. Byrd's last Sunday.

Miss Falsome Smith, of Greensboro, is spending some time here the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Kate Brittain.

Messrs. Will and John Rhodes, of Greensboro, visited their mother this week, who has been very feeble.

Our school will close for the Easter holidays. The teachers will go to their homes and the students to theirs. We have a splendid school taught by splendid teachers. There are nearly three hundred students on roll.

Mrs. J. E. Trogdon, who spent some time at St. Leo's hospital, in Greensboro, for treatment, is home and improving nicely, we are glad to hear.

An Unnecessary Expense.

Editor Patriot: Why order new registration in the whole county for school election when there was a full registration last year, and make an extra cost to the county, and trouble to the voters to lose a day or two? I believe all the women should vote in school elections.

Leaving the children or taking them several miles is troublesome to them.

Let all the people register and vote as they please. My complaint is against a new registration, it shows to me the desire of a few to rule the county in every thing.

Three elections in less than one year. They keep things quiet, don't register but one side, thereby disfranchising a lot of people in the rural sections.

It's hard to fool all the people all the time, said our lamented Vance. Register and inform yourselves and vote accordingly.

Respectfully,
S. W. H. SMITH,
Guilford College, March 19.

EACH CROP IS NOT DAMAGED BY COLD.

Carthage, March 25.—It is now believed that the peach and berry crops came through the cold snap safely, although much anxiety was felt Wednesday night. Prospects are for the best peach crop in the history of Moore county, and the strawberry crop, while not as large as last year, is expected to be satisfactory.

IMPORTANT MEETING OF GUILFORD FARMERS.

The last legislature put the valuation of land back in the hands of the county commissioners and says that if we want any changes in values that we must meet on the first Monday in April and take it up with the commissioners.

So we hereby call the Guilford County Farmers' Union to meet in the farmers' room, in the basement of the new court house, on Monday, April 4, at 10 A. M. We want every union man there and we also want every farmer in Guilford to meet with us then. We will take the matter of revaluation up and decide how much to ask to be taken off of all the land in Guilford.

Be there that day or stop saying your land is valued too high.

Remember the date and get every body to come.

WINSTON PREACHER SUES MAN FOR $50,000 DAMAGES.

Winston-Salem, March 24.—Rev. H. H. Mitchell, a member of the Western North Carolina M. E. Conference, but who did not take an appointment at the last session of the annual conference, has instituted suit in Forsyth Superior court against G. C. Gentry for $50,000 for alienating the affections of the plaintiff's wife, Dell Wood Mitchell. In the complaint filed plaintiff alleges that "the defendant caused the wife of plaintiff to go to the city of Reno, Nevada, and there institute a fraudulent suit for divorce against her husband, and that the defendant has aided and abetted her in this purpose."

In his answer to the complaint, the defendant, G. C. Gentry, alleges that the plaintiff and Dell Wood Mitchell are not now man and wife, but that Dell Wood Mitchell had obtained an absolute divorce from this plaintiff before this action was commenced; therefore, defendant demands that action of plaintiff be dismissed.

Mr. Gentry, the defendant, and Mrs. Mitchell have been associated in an automobile business for two or three years, conducting garages on Southside.

TIPS OVER COFFEE POT, SCALDED TO DEATH.

Goldsboro, March 24.—Margaret, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Braswell, of Fork township, Wayne county, died at the Goldsboro hospital this morning from the effects of burns. It seems that yesterday morning little Margaret went to the stove in the kitchen of her parents' home, a few miles from this city, and accidentally turned over the coffee pot, in which the coffee was boiling, and the entire contents were dashed into her face. The suffering child was hurriedly brought to the hospital here, and died this morning. The funeral will take place from the home tomorrow afternoon.

How Land Sold in 1889.

Carthage, March 25.—A deed made by Sam Toney in 1889, conveying an acre of land in Bensalem township to Millie Gilbert for the sum of $5, has just been recorded. The deed has been in the clerk of the court's office for a number of years, but it was only this week that its authenticity was established.

WHITE FARMER CHARGED WITH KILLING 11 NEGROES.

Atlanta, Ga., May 24.—John Williams, a white farmer of Jasper county, was indicted by the Newton county grand jury at Covington, Ga., to-day, charged with murder in connection with the deaths of three negroes, recently found in a river there, and according to Deputy Sheriff Johnson, a negro employe of Williams confessed that 11 negroes in all had been killed.

The dead negroes who had been held in peonage on the Williams plantation, had threatened to inform the authorities of their conditions, according to Deputy Johnson's version of the confession which he attributed to Clyde Manning, one of the two negroes whom he brought here for safekeeping. Many other negroes were forced to work on the plantation, the alleged confession said.

The bodies of three negroes were found recently weighted down with rocks in Yellow river, Newton county, near where Jasper county adjoins Newton, and Manning's alleged confession stated that six negroes in all had been weighed down and thrown into the river and five others killed in other ways and their bodies buried. Newton county authorities took the stand that the negroes found in the river had been killed by drowning, their deaths having been caused in Newton county.

The grand jury investigating at Covington was expected to be continued tomorrow and meanwhile Williams and the two negroes were ordered held without bail. Williams was in jail at Covington tonight. The negroes were held as material witnesses.

United States District Attorney Alexander said here tonight he had learned of alleged peonage conditions in Jasper county, but that it is in the southern district of the federal district court of Georgia. He recently indicted the sheriff of Jasper county and the latter's nephew on charges of peonage, the indictments being returned on the ground that they had come into the northern district and taken back to Jasper county negroes who it was alleged had escaped from peonage there. Their trials are set for April 4.

RESTRICTIONS PUT ON WHITE HOUSE VISITING.

Washington, March 25.—Office-seekers, inventors of reform panaceas, and even members of Congress and others who want to ask favors or dispense advice at the White House must make their calls on Monday, Wednesday or Friday hereafter, if they hope to see President Harding.

Announcement that engagements would be granted for only three days a week was made by White House officials tonight in accord with a decision by the President that he was giving too much time to the horde of visitors who have thronged the executive offices ever since inauguration. The demand on his time has been so great that he has spent most of his evenings at work on correspondence and other pressing business.

CAN NOW MAKE STRAWBERRY WINE.

Washington, March 25.—Permission has been granted the Louisiana strawberry growers to manufacture wine from strawberries for non-beverage purposes, with no sugar to be added to increase the alcoholic contents, the wine to be used for sacramental and medicinal purposes. Officials are silent as to whether or not the principle would apply in other cases should there be a surplus of berries, it being said that the permission as to strawberries being granted because of the surplus crop in Louisiana, there being interest as to what might be done in the case of blackberries, blueberries, and raspberries, with perhaps surplus crops of beets and possibly dandelions and elderberries.

GREEKS OPEN UP TURKISH OFFENSIVE.

Constantinople, March 24.—An advance of about 20 miles was made by the Greeks on both the Smyrna and Brusa fronts during the first day of their offensive against the Turks. The Turks, who are fighting hard, declare they will not retreat until every means of defense have been exhausted.

The offensive which began after weeks of preparation is proceeding under good weather conditions. The Greek line now runs some twelve miles east of Yenisehr on the Brusa front, and also about twelve miles east of Ushak on the Smyrna front.

RETURNS TO LIFE AFTER BEING PRONOUNCED DEAD.

Geneva, March 25.—A case of a man's heart ceasing to beat for 14 hours and then resuming work is reported from Berne, where a pastor of that city, the Rev. Mr. Baudenbacher, after being officially declared dead, suddenly awoke.

The Rev. Mr. Baudenbacher, aged 50 and suffering from heart trouble of long standing, fell senseless Friday. His physician issued a death certificate, arrangements were made for the funeral and Saturday's newspapers published eulogies of him. The pastor awoke after 14 hours, surprised to find his bedroom filled with flowers, wreaths, disconsolate relations and friends. He said weakly: "My call has not yet come."

The funeral has been postponed indefinitely, as the doctor said the Rev. Mr. Baudenbacher might live many years.

A RECORD PARACHUTE LEAP IN ILLINOIS.

Champaign, Ill., March 25.—Lieut. Arthur G. Hamilton established a world's record for parachute leaping at Chanute Field this afternoon when he dropped 24,600 feet.

The flyer landed safely eight miles from the field. Lieut. Harry Weddington was the pilot of the airplane from which the leap was made.

The latter suffered from cold and was apparently in a stupor when Hamilton jumped. He was roused by Hamilton, the machine shifted into position for the leap and Hamilton jumped from the rear cockpit. Lieut. J. L. Strömme and Lieut. H. A. Shovlin had sealed the parachute and took charge of it when the machine landed. They verified the record.

THE FARMERS MAY AGAIN BORROW MONEY.

Raleigh, March 21.—Thirteen may be a lucky number even for a farmer in need of money to pay off indebtedness. At least Lawyer A. J. Fletcher, secretary of the Raleigh National Farm Loan Association, has no scruples against it. Dropping in on Fletcher the other day a newspaper man found him busy poring over a mass of papers.

inquiry revealed that they were applications for loans from Wake county farmers—and there were fifteen of them. The lawyer wasn't surprised by that at all. Instead he seemed to be quite enthusiastic about the prospects of securing a few thousand dollars to be placed to good use right here in Wake county.

The Wake county association is a new concern, and has been functioning for quite a few years. The applications for the loans will go to the Federal Farm Loan Bank in Columbia, S. C., and after the proper arrangements have been made, funds will be secured for paying off indebtedness or for buying equipment.

How to Get Charter.
Eleven months have gone by since certain banking interests held up loans, and during that time the Federal Farm Loan Banks have been in a state of quiescence. But since the Supreme court held the act creating the land banks to be constitutional, they are going to have a lot to do from now on.

Getting a charter is a simple matter, once ten farmers in a community decide they want to borrow as much as $20,000 in the aggregate. According to the Federal Farm Loan Board, Washington, D. C., they can secure a blank charter. They then call a meeting and fill out the charter and make out their applications for loans. The charter goes back to Washington, the application for loans goes to the land bank at Columbia, S. C.

A federal joint stock land bank has been organized at Norfolk, Va., which makes individual loans in cases warranting it. However, it only encourages the loaning of funds in large sums under exceptional circumstances and in most cases it is preferable to organize an association. Those desiring information should write A. J. Fletcher, Gilmer building, Raleigh, N. C.

What Money May be Used For.
Money may be borrowed from a federal farm loan bank for the following purposes:

1. To purchase land for farming.
2. To provide buildings and improvements.
3. To buy farm equipment and livestock.
4. To pay off existing indebtedness.

No loan will be made for more than 50 per cent of the value of the land purchased or under mortgage and 25 per cent of the value of the improvements.

On account of the present money stringency, the federal farm loan board announces that the interest rate will be 6 per cent instead of 5 1-2 per cent as was the case eleven months ago. The money must be borrowed for a term of 35 years with the privilege of paying it back, if desired, in five years. If it is desired to pay it back in less than five years, this may be done by paying the expense of retiring the bonds held against the first mortgage on the property. This usually amounts to one-half of one per cent for each year less than five that the loan has to run.

The farmer has to subscribe when he signs the charter for stock amounting to five per cent of the sum borrowed. When the loan is retired he gets this back as nobody except borrowers can be stockholders. This stock has been paying a semi-annual dividend of three per cent, so that is a good investment.

As the farm loan bonds are secured by the best collateral in the world no great difficulty should be experienced in finding a market for them, and it is expected that North Carolina farmers will soon be able to secure money with which to buy lands or to pay off indebtedness. Those desiring information on the subject should write the Federal Farm Loan Board, Washington, D. C.

DEBS VISITS WASHINGTON WITHOUT AN ATTENDANT.

Washington, March 24.—Unattended and without the knowledge of the public, Eugene V. Debs, imprisoned socialist leader, came to Washington to-day from Atlanta penitentiary, and for three hours discussed his case with Attorney General Daugherty. The unprecedented trip of Mr. Debs was made with the approval of President Harding who recently requested Mr. Daugherty to review the case of the socialist leader and make a recommendation on it.

The attorney general, in announcing late to-day that Debs had visited Washington and was on his way back to the Atlanta penitentiary, said that while there was no precedent for calling a prisoner to Washington without a guard, it had been decided in conference with President Harding that inasmuch as Debs had defended himself at his trial he should come here to answer in person such inquiries as the government desired to ask. Mr. Daugherty added that he believed he had the authority to place the prisoner on his honor and that he had assumed full responsibility.

Debs arrived in Washington early in the day, went to the department of justice about 9.45 o'clock, conferred with Mr. Daugherty and Guy D. Goff, assistant to the attorney general, from about 10.30 to 1.30 o'clock, and left Washington at 3.30 o'clock on the return trip to prison. His movements from the time he left Atlanta yesterday were kept strictly secret except to a few officials of the department of justice. For that reason newspaper men who gathered late in the day for the attorney general's weekly conference, gasped and refused for a minute or two to believe their own ears when they heard Mr. Daugherty say, "I don't believe I have much news for you, gentlemen, but regarding Debs' visit I have had a statement prepared," then with a brief explanation Mr. Daugherty gave out the following statement:

"In connection with the investigation of the Debs case, and after conference with the President and with his approval, I had Debs come here for the purpose of making certain inquiries of him. He has returned to Atlanta. I have asked him to refrain from saying anything for publication or otherwise regarding the subject of the inquiries made. I am sure no well meaning person will urge him to discuss this matter or anything that took place on his journey or during his stay here. Debs presented his own case to the trial court and jury. He was permitted to do so here. The Debs case, as I have said before, stands alone. I could not, of course, go to him. What took place and the information I have acquired will be reported in due time only to the President, and that in connection with any recommendation that may be made when the investigation is concluded. Debs came here without guard and so returned to Atlanta Colonel Guy D. Goff, assistant to the attorney general, was present during the inquiries."

Mr. Daugherty refused to comment on the presentment made by Debs of his case and declined to answer any questions as to what recommendation he would make to the President relative to the socialist leader, convicted and imprisoned for violation of the espionage act.

Debs, Mr. Daugherty said, looked and acted during his visit much as any other man. He was said to be in fairly good physical condition, although apparently somewhat nervous. This prisoner's physical condition, Mr. Daugherty added, necessarily would be taken into consideration by the government in its decisions in his case. In the penitentiary at Atlanta Debs is employed part of the time in the hospital and part in the library.

Strict orders were given by the attorney general, department officials said, that Debs' visit should be kept secret until Mr. Daugherty was ready to announce it and the orders were successfully carried out.

Debs reached the department of justice this morning about a quarter of an hour before the attorney general arrived, it was said. Acting under instructions, attendants ushered him into the office of Frank Gibbs, the attorney general's secretary, who seated him in a small private room adjoining Mr. Daugherty's office.

Debs Returns to Prison Smiling.
Atlanta, Ga., March 25.—Eugene V. Debs returned to the Atlanta federal penitentiary to-day to resume the routine of prison life again after his trip to Washington where he discussed his case with Attorney General Daugherty.

The socialist leader, who is serving a 10-year term on conviction of violating the war-time espionage act, was smiling and cheerful as he alighted from the train and in the brief time before he met the warden and was whisked away to the prison. He answered every question asked him except those about his conference or his chances for release.

"I appreciated the confidence shown in me by letting me go alone and on my honor to Washington," said Mr. Debs, "and I enjoyed the trip."

"Yes, I'm going back to be a good convict again," he said smilingly a moment later in answer to a query as to whether he was going directly to the prison.

The socialist leader feels that the department of justice has been "fair and square with him so far, no matter what the final decision is," according to Samuel Castleton, attorney for Debs. Mr. Castleton joined him at Buford, Ga., this morning and rode back, discussing the status of his case.

CARDINAL GIBBONS PASSES PEACEFULLY AWAY.

Baltimore, Md., March 24.—James Cardinal Gibbons, archbishop of Baltimore and senior prelate of the Catholic church in the United States, died at 10.30 this morning passing away so quietly that his nurse, a Bon Secours nun, could not be sure that it was the end. She had seen the change take place, but it was slight, almost imperceptible, and five minutes passed while she leaned above the slight, still form, watching.

Then from the house where he had lived and worked, in the shadow of the cathedral of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, went forth the news that he had died.

His grave will be a niche in the crypt under the high altar of the cathedral. A slab of marble carved with an inscription in Latin in the north wall of the crypt will mark his resting place.

Above this vault, behind whose south wall lie the six archbishops of Maryland, who preceded him, is the sanctuary of the cathedral to which Cardinal Gibbons' parents brought him as a baby to be baptized, where he was consecrated a bishop, where he was later consecrated an archbishop, and where, on June 30, 1886, he was invested with the robes of the cardinalate.

There, too, stands the throne of the cardinal, and above the throne will hang the cardinal's hat, symbol of precedence in the Catholic hierarchy. There it will hang as long as the cathedral stands.

Was First Bishop of North Carolina.

Asheville, March 24.—The death of Cardinal Gibbons at Baltimore to-day brought sadness to many Ashevilleans and North Carolinians. Catholics and non-Catholics. He was the first bishop of North Carolina, built the first Catholic church west of the Blue Ridge, at Asheville and at one time was said to have known every Catholic family in this state.

Cardinal Gibbons officiated over the consecration of the St. Lawrence church in Asheville October 13 last year. His coming marked a return to the field of his early efforts, and during the ceremonies he spoke feelingly of his missionary days in and about this section. The aged prelate recalled while here that he had visited Asheville 51 years before. He traveled from Old Fort on horseback. At that time there were but 400 or 500 people in the village. In 1869 he was accompanied here by Rev. Lawrence O'Connell, an uncle of the present Bishop O'Connell. They bought seven acres of land in the eastern section of the city, now known as "Catholic Hill." There the first Catholic church was erected. At the suggestion of the cardinal it was named "St. Lawrence" church in honor of the saint after whom Father Lawrence O'Connell was named.

NAVAL BALLOON MISSING WITH FIVE MEN ABOARD.

Pensacola, Fla., March 24.—All efforts to locate the United States navy fleet balloon and five men missing since it left on a practice flight Tuesday night have been unavailing although searching parties to-day scoured the Florida coast between Pensacola and Port St. Joe. The balloon was in command of Chief Quartermaster E. W. Wilkinson as pilot and carried a machine gun and three marines as students. Naval officials here express great fear for their safety.

The last information received from the fliers was early this morning when two carrier pigeons returned bearing messages. One said that the balloon was off St. Andrews Bay, Florida, drifting toward the open sea. The other, received a little later, said that all ballast had been thrown overboard and that the balloon was then at an altitude of 100 feet, slowly sinking.

A naval dirigible and a number of seaplanes and flying boats were immediately dispatched in search of the missing balloonists, but up to a late hour tonight have been unable to locate the balloon or any of its crew. The search is being continued tonight and an eagle boat has been ordered to sea to aid in the search.
