REPUBLICANS OF COUNTY WILL CONFER SATURDAY

ONE OF CANDIDATES FOR POST-MASTERSHIP TO BE IN-DORSED THEN

The Republican county executive committee will meet at 3 o'clock next Saturday afternoon in the courthouse, according to a call issued by Chairman J. Byron White, the chief purpose of the gathering being consideration of the Greensboro postmastership.

One of the three candidates eligible for appointment as Greensboro postmaster will receive the committee's endorsement Saturday afternoon. It is expected. The eligibles, named in the order in which they were rated by the examining board some months ago, are J. H. Armfield, S. A. Hodgins and R. C. Chandler.

Republicans who appear to speak from knowledge declare that Mr. Chandler is now the choice of a majority of the 40 committeemen, but such statements naturally cannot be confirmed in advance of the patronage council scheduled for Saturday. On the other hand, some of the prominent members of the committee are understood to be opposed to endorsement of Mr. Chandler. The result is problematical.

One thing, however, appears certain: there will be a spirited contest when the committeemen assemble at the county courthouse. Of the trio, Mr. Chandler has been most conspicuous as a campaigner and his party service may prove a determining factor in the contest.

Five other postoffices in Guilford county are to be filled, those being High Point, Stokesdale, Summerfield, Guilford College and Gibsonville. It is rumored that there may be some fancy political trading before definite conclusions are reached.

A. Wayland Cooke, who has been Greensboro's postmaster for some years, resigned many months ago in order to devote his time to the practice of law. He has not yet been relieved.

CHARGE THAT GREW OUT OF SLAYING OF ROBYNS DISMISSED

Danville, Nov. 18.—The case against Harold Stultz, Henry Meade and Roy Hensley, Virginia officers, in connection with the killing on Monday night of Roosevelt Robyns, of Guilford county, was dismissed at a preliminary hearing held in Martinsville today before Magistrate Shelton and Dreyer.

At the beginning of the hearing Commonwealth's Attorney Taylor asked for the dismissal of the warrants against the three officers in order that the state might have witnesses. It appeared that an effort would be made to fasten the blame for the killing on Ernest Craig, a Martinsville citizen who had been asked by Stultz to assist in the capture of the automobile in which Robyns was a passenger and which was suspected of containing liquor.

However, no evidence was presented to show that Craig had a pistol or that he had fired the fatal shot, so the dismissal of the Craig warrant followed. The theory of the prosecution was that the bullet extracted from the dead body of Robyns was fired from a .38 caliber revolver and that the officers were firing .32 caliber pistols. However, the ball was so mutilated that its definite classification could not be established.

THIEVES SMASH SAFE AND TAKE $100 CASH

On Saturday night thieves forced an entrance to the plant of the J. B. Leathers company, on East Market street, knocked the handle off the safe, destroyed the combination and secured a quantity of money and other valuables. The cash taken totaled about $100 and the other belongings were of the value of several hundred dollars. It is understood that the robbers entered the building through a second story window. A hammer was evidently used to smash the handle on the safe.

STATE NEWS BRIEFS

Strike Is Ended
Rocky Mount, Nov. 17.—After having walked out yesterday at noon as the result of the company's refusal to remove or dismiss a worker who, it was alleged, had gotten far in arrears with his union dues and had refused to make a settlement, four hundred workers in the car department of the Atlantic Coast Line shops at South Rocky Mount returned to work this morning, the strike thus lasting for but half a day.

Destroy Nine Stills
Fayetteville, Nov. 17.—The biggest night's work ever done by the Grady's Creek law and order league, famous for its operations against blockaders, and probably the largest series of raids ever made in one night in North Carolina, was accomplished Tuesday night when the Grady's Creek men confiscated and destroyed nine liquor stills. Thirty barrels of beer and whisky were destroyed.

Car Runs Over Sheriff
Kinston, Nov. 17.—Orden W. Taylor, sheriff of Lenoir county, is suffering from severe bruises received when he was run over by automobile in front of the courthouse here last night. An unidentified driver was unable to clear the official. The car, which was making good speed, knocked Taylor down and passed over him. The driver did not stop.

Durham Water Shortage
Durham, Nov. 19.—Although the gates of the dams on Flat river have been raised permitting the water that would be stopped and impounded in the ponds on the river to force it to the pumps of the Flat river station, conditions have not improved, according to the water department.

No Arrests Made
New Bern, Nov. 19.—No arrests have been made as a result of the verdict of a coroner's jury at Morehead City last night that Mrs. Pauline Glover Link, who died in a local hospital last Sunday, came to her death by peritonitis, caused probably by an illegal operation and recommending that Dr. Leedon Sharp of that city be held for the Superior court of Craven county for his alleged connection with it.

THREE MEN ARRESTED Officers Find Still In Clay Township and Arrests Follow

Probable cause was the finding of Judge D. H. Collins Friday in the cases against Walter Moon, W. A. Craven and P. W. Coble, who reside in Clay township. The men were charged with manufacturing whisky. Appearance bond was fixed at $300 in each case. The cases will be tried in Guilford Superior court. The men were arrested in Clay township Friday morning by Deputy Sheriffs John Hobbs and Floyd Brown, who stated that the trio were at a still at the time they were taken in custody. The distillery was not in operation, but a small quantity of whisky was found. The illicit booze mill, with a capacity of about 40 gallons, was brought to this city.

DR. J. M. MANNING IS ARRESTED IN DURHAM

Durham, Nov. 19.—Dr. John M. Manning, mayor of this city, and brother to Attorney General J. S. Manning of Raleigh, was arrested here today by Department of Justice agents on a charge of violating the Harrison narcotic law. The mayor waived a preliminary hearing and was released on a $10,000 bond, furnished by his friends, for his appearance at Federal court in Raleigh, which convenes Tuesday.

The charges against the mayor, who is a physician, grew out of prescriptions for two patients in this city. Department of Justice agents have been working on the case for the past eight months and his arrest on so serious a charge came as a shock to his friends.

DIAGNOSTIC CLINIC WILL BE ESTABLISHED SHORTLY

PLANS FOR PUBLIC HEALTH ENTERPRISE ARE DISCUSSED

Plans which are expected to crystallize in the establishment of a free clinic for diagnostic purposes in Guilford county were discussed by a special committee composed of members of the Guilford County Medical society. Decrease of the mortality rate among adults is the paramount purpose of the enterprise, which has the unqualified endorsement of many thoughtful doctors and laymen.

Dr. E. S. Waring, of the state health department, conferred with the special committee at the meeting here Friday. Dr. Waring talked interestingly of clinical work of similar nature performed in Lee county, where 733 presumably well persons were examined during a period of seven and one-half weeks.

Dr. W. M. Jones, county health officer, is chairman of the special committee, the other members being Dr. J. T. J. Battle, of Greensboro, and Dr. W. J. McAnally, of High Point. It is expected that another meeting of the committee will be held in the early future, at which time more definite plans will be formulated.

It is proposed to establish a traveling diagnostic clinic. Pilgrimages throughout the county will, it is believed, conclusively show the vital need of such a clinic as a permanent institution in Greensboro and High Point. Authorities declare that it would prove of inestimable value as an integral part of the public health machinery.

The clinic will be open to every citizen of Guilford county. Dr. Jones announces. Prompt detection of disease—in the stage of incipency—is expected to result in its cure in numerous cases, while delay might prove fatal. Diseases for which the examiners will look with particular alertness are the so-called deadly ones, such as tuberculosis, kidney trouble and heart affection.

REGISTER NOW Books Are Open and Elec- tion Will Be Held On December 20

Guilford county citizens are being urged to register now in order to vote in the special election to be held in Guilford county on Tuesday, December 20, on the proposed issuance of bonds for the establishment of a tuberculosis sanatorium and a maintenance levy.

The registration books are now open, registrars and judges having been appointed. The books will be kept open for 20 days preceding the election, the registration hours being from 9 a. m. until sunset each day. It is pointed out that the registration books will be closed on the second Saturday before the election. On each Saturday during the registration period the registrars are required to be at the polling places, while on other days voters may register at the homes of the registrars.

Bonds not to exceed $100,000 are to be issued under the proposed plan and the maintenance tax is not to exceed five cents on the hundred dollar property valuation.

Already the movement has been endorsed by many organizations and individuals. It is generally agreed that the proposition is essentially sound and that it affords the ideal method, in fact, the one recognized method, of treating tuberculosis. Establishment and operation of the sanatorium will be the essence of economic wisdom, as well as a great humanitarian undertaking, according to leaders of the movement.

OAK RIDGE TRIUMPHS OVER GUILFORD SCORERS

Oak Ridge defeated the Guilford college scrubs in an exciting game of football at Oak Ridge Friday afternoon, 7 to 0. In the second quarter the only touchdown was scored. Clayton carried the ball over on the second successful forward pass. In succession, Turner kicked goal.

APPOINTMENTS READ AT METHODIST CONFERENCE

AND MANY CHANGES MADE
NEXT IN RALEIGH
NEXT YEAR

New Bern, Nov. 20.—Following the reading of the appointments for tonight the annual North Carolina conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, came to a close. Many of the appointments read by Bishop U. V. W. Darlington, of Washington, W. Va., occasioned surprise. Two presiding elders were given pastorates and two new presiding elders were appointed. There were many other important changes.

Rev. H. M. North, who during the past year has served as educational secretary of the conference, goes to First church, Rocky Mount. Rev. N. H. D. Wilson, presiding elder on the Washington district during the past three years, becomes pastor of First church, Elizabeth City. Rev. E. M. Snipes, who has just completed his fourth year as presiding elder on the Weldon district, goes to Oxford. Rev. S. A. Cotton and Rev. S. E. Mercer are the new presiding elders on the Washington and Weldon districts, respectively. Rev. W. A. McRae goes from Fayetteville to Centenary, New Bern, and Rev. H. A. Humble, who has just completed his quadrennium at Centenary, becomes pastor of Hay Street, Fayetteville. Rev. W. R. Royal is transferred from Sanford to Laurinburg, while Rev. W. A. Cade goes to Morehead City. Rev. O. W. Dowd is the new pastor of Grace, Wilmington, and Rev. L. P. Jones is the new Sanford pastor.

This afternoon memoirs of Rev. T. P. Bonner, Rev. C. W. Robinson and Rev. R. C. Craven, who died during the past conference year, were read. The conference took advantage of the new law of the denomination which allows women equal rights with men in the church by electing its first woman delegate to the general conference. Mrs. J. Legrand Everett, of Rockingham, has that distinction. Rev. Thomas N. Ivey, D. D., editor of the Christian Advocate, Nashville, Tenn., was elected to head the delegation to the general conference, which will be held at Hot Springs, Ark., next spring. Other delegates to the general conference were elected as follows: Rev. M. T. Plyler, presiding elder of the Durham district; Rev. J. A. Humble, pastor of Centenary church New Bern; Rev. M. Bradshaw, pastor of Memorial church, Durham; Rev. H. M. North, who during the past year has served as educational secretary for the conference; Rev. J. C. Wooten, presiding elder of the Raleigh district; J. T. Flythe, Prof. R. L. Flowers, W. C. Chadwick, C. S. Wallace and Joseph G. Brown, of Raleigh. Rev. R. H. Wills, Rev. J. H. Shore and Rev. W. W. Peele were elected alternates for the clerical delegates, while the alternates for the lay delegates are Dr. W. P. Few and Col. J. F. Bruton.

Rev. W. W. Peele's invitation to the conference to meet in Edenton street church, Raleigh, next year was accepted. Elizabeth City and Wilmington also extended invitations, but when the vote was taken Edenton street triumphed. Centenary church was taken to its utmost capacity Thursday afternoon when prayers were offered for the success of the disarmament conference at Washington. The special service was conducted by Rev. D. H. Tuttle and Rev. R. F. Bumpass. Bishop Darlington delivered a forceful address in closing the service. The service adjourned with prayers by Rev. J. D. Bandy and Rev. F. M. Shambarger.

Luther L. Gobel, of Greensboro, was elected Sunday school field secretary of the North Carolina conference upon recommendation of the Sunday school board. Mr. Gobel, who is a graduate of Trinity college, is a member of the advertising department of the Greensboro Daily News.

An unusually interesting event Thursday night was the annual banquet of the Trinity College Alumni association. Dr. Albert Anderson served as toastmaster. The speakers included Rev. A. W. Plyler, editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate; Dr. W. P. Few, presi-

REALTORS WILL SUPPORT REDRYING PLANT PROJECT

MEMBERS OF LOCAL BOARD ALSO PLEDGE SUPPORT TO HOSPITAL MOVE

The real estate men of Greensboro will co-operate with the Chamber of Commerce in the enterprise which has as its object the construction of a steam redrying plant for tobacco here. This fact was demonstrated Friday night at a meeting of the Greensboro Real Estate board.

W. W. Singletary, proprietor of the Guilford warehouse, advocated the establishment of a redrying plant in this city. Mr. Singletary said that gratifying results are being obtained on the Greensboro tobacco market this season in spite of the short crop. He felt confident that the farmers who market their tobacco here are getting as much money for their product in Greensboro as they would on any other market. At the same time Mr. Singletary emphasized the idea that the redrying plant would substantially increase the facilities for handling tobacco and would prove of great aid in the development of the Greensboro market.

E. B. Jeffress expressed the conviction that, irrespective of the system of marketing which may prevail in the future, the redrying plant should be very useful. Greensboro business men very profitably could invest in such an enterprise, he thought. Largely similar views were voiced by H. L. Coble and other speakers.

The real estate men also gave their whole-hearted endorsement to the proposed bond issue and maintenance levy for a tuberculosis sanatorium in Guilford county. They pledged their untiring efforts in behalf of the proposition.

W. E. Blair, president of the board, presided, and the program was in charge of E. S. Wills.

WOOTEN PAROLED Guilford Man Was Serving Sentence of Four Years In Prison

Raleigh, Nov. 18.—Four paroles, one commutation, and two refusals to intervene came from the governor's consideration of pardon applications yesterday.

The paroled men were: W. E. Wooten, Guilford county, sentenced in May, 1921, to four years on the roads for larceny of an automobile, paroled upon recommendation of Judge T. B. Finley and Solicitor J. C. Bowers.

E. D. Corriher, Rowan county, sentenced to two years on the county roads in May, 1920, for simple assault, paroled on the recommendation of Judge T. D. Bryson and Solicitor Hayden Clement.

Frank Gregory, Harnett county, sentenced to eight years in the state's prison in February, 1919, for manslaughter, paroled upon recommendation of Judge John H. Kerr and Solicitor Walter Brock.

W. T. Brewer, Davidson county, sentenced to state prison ten years for mayhem, fall term, 1920, paroled for thirty days under $5,000 bond to allow him to attend civil action involving large sum of money.

The commutation was for Augustus Alexander, Beaufort county, convicted in May, 1914, of manslaughter and sentenced to 15 years in the state prison. Upon recommendation of the solicitor and many prominent men informed about the case, Governor Morrison commuted the sentence to 10 years.

The governor refused to interfere in the case of Arthur Holmes, of Davidson, sentenced in May, 1921, to six months on the roads for manufacturing liquor; and Beale Logan, Guilford county, sentenced to four years in the state's prison for the larceny of an automobile.

CONTRACTS AWARDED FOR ROADS IN THIS COUNTY AND OTHERS

Raleigh, North Carolina, Nov. 20.—Construction costs on gravel highways dropped to the unusually low level of $1.966 per mile in contracts awarded by the state highway commission for the building of the Haw River-Yanceyville road in the fifth district, while to lowest figures submitted in the bidding Friday on hard-surfaced roads advanced slightly to $28,253 per mile. The contracts on the hard-surfaced projects have not been awarded.

Everett Sholes company, of Durham, submitted the low figures on all three hard-surfaced projects included in the bidding Friday, bidding $2.50 per square yard on asphalt paving as against $2.83 from the next highest. The total of the bids on 27.16 miles of road was $767,388.40, exclusive of bridges. Low bids on the bridges on the three projects give a general total of $822,770.40.

With the exception of three projects amounting to slightly more than nine hundred thousand dollars bid in by the Union Paving company several weeks ago, the Everett Sholes company is the largest single bid for work ever submitted to the state. The three projects were bid as separate undertakings, with slightly varying figures on each bid. The contract has not yet been awarded, being dependent upon conditions not yet arranged by the bidder.

Low bids on the five projects, in which contracts were awarded in the two gravel items, are as follows:

Davidson county—Hard-surfaced road from Lexington to the Rowan county line, 10.24 miles—$292,958.60 by Everett Sholes company. Bridges awarded to Austin Bros. for $37,117.00.

Culford county—Hard-surfaced road from the end of concrete road east of Greensboro to Alamance county line, Whitsett-Sedalia route, 11.7 miles—low bid by Everett Sholes company at $334,294.80. Bridges, $17,917.00.

Alamance county—Hard-surfaced east of Graham to Orange county line at Haw River, 5.22 miles—low bid by Everett Sholes company at $140,115.00. No bridges.

Caswell county—Yanceyville south to Alamance county line, 14.85 miles gravel road—awarded to White & Simpson, Chatham, Va., $36,915.80. Bridges to C. B. Hester, Greensboro $30,785.60.

Alamance county—Hard-surfaced with Caswell road to be let and extending south to point on Central Highway west of Graham, 10.89 miles gravel—awarded to W. M. Shook, Liberty, for $23,705.20. Bridges to Leonard Bros., Burlington, at $29,661.00.

BUICK STILL HOLDS AN ENVI- ABLE POSITION IN AUTO- MOBILE WORLD

In the automobile world, Buick several years ago attained the enviable position of leadership, evidenced by the fact it was awarded first choice of space at the national automobile shows, an honor conferred upon Buick by all other automobile manufacturers who are members of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, in recognition of the fact that Buick has done the greatest volume of business during the previous year.

As each year has since rolled around, Buick has been in the lead. Not only for a short period does it lead all others, but year after year its business constantly increases with the result that the Buick exhibit will be found this year occupying the same space at the show; it has occupied for the past few years.

It is significant to note that the figures on which the award for the 1922 shows were made comprised only the sales of six cylinder cars proving Buick to be the largest builder of six cylinder cars in the world.

W. A. CLARK KILLED

Comes In Contact With Electric Current With Fatal Results

Walter A. Clark was suddenly killed Thursday when he came in contact with an electric current at the plant of the American Agricultural Chemical company, near Asheboro street extension, a short distance south of the city.

At the time of the fatal accident, Mr. Clark, who was foreman at the plant, was moving material with an electric conveyor when the electric current entered his body. It is not certain whether it was a short circuit or some other untoward thing which caused the current to enter Mr. Clark's body. Several other men who were assisting him were shocked by the electricity, but uninjured.

Walter A. Clark was 32 years of age. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Ruth Johnson, of Jamestown; three children; Ralph Clark, Walter A. Clark, Jr., and Louise Clark; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Clark, of this city; six brothers, Frank R. Clark, of Greensboro; S. S. Clark, of Guilford College; Robert, Lloyd, Wilbur and Hoover Clark, and three sisters, Misses Mattie, Besie and Margaret Clark, all of this county. Mr. Clark resided near the plant where he was employed.

The funeral service was conducted Friday afternoon at Rehobeth Methodist church by Rev. R. L. Laughlin, assisted by Rev. Mr. Sherrill. Interment followed in the church cemetery.

TRIED FOR FAILURE TO SEND BOY TO SCHOOL

John Allred, of Pleasant Garden was given a hearing Saturday before Judge D. H. Collins on the charge of failing to keep his son in school. Judge Collins gave Mr. Allred choice of sending the youth to school or of spending a day in jail for each day the boy failed to attend school. The defendant paid the costs of the action and promised that the youth would be kept in school hereafter. The excuse given by Mr. Allred for his son's non-attendance was that he was tired of buying so many books; that the young fellow already had one book and the father felt it was unnecessary to purchase more.

The arrest and trial followed an investigation by Mrs. Blanche Carr Sterne, county welfare officer, who stated that all violators of the compulsory attendance law would be prosecuted.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1921.

Few things are nearer than the far east issues.

It was a first rate scrap over the income surtax rate.

High spots in national legislation sometimes are dark spots.

The Greensboro postmastership question is not being settled post-haste.

The munitions makers know Secretary Hughes is no friend of their'n.

Manufacturing cost is not an academic question with the moonshiners.

It is better for the nations to scrap their navies than to scrap each other.

It's a dull day which fails to bring a new charge against the bandit Roy Gardner.

The miners evidently do not regard the proposed reduction of their wages as a minor affair.

Japanese newspaper correspondents would probably like to change the name of Baron Kato to Baron Veto.

Cotton consumption larger than last year, statisticians say. Especially by the boll weevil, it might be added.

Mindful of approaching Thanksgiving feasts, Hon. Turkey Gobbler would now be trembling in his boots—if he had any.

It is to be hoped that while the diplomats are jockeying over the details of disarmament they will exercise horse sense.

Hawaii is increasing its production of chaulmoogra oil, but the supremacy of pineapples and ukuleles is not seriously threatened.

Grand opera as conducted by the Moscow soviet has proved unsuccessful. Evidently they cannot sing anything except the swan song.

If the multiplicity of resolutions adopted by the Farmers' union in annual convention does not cause a white paper shortage, all will be well.

The Chinese proposals are essentially "ten points." Now has Japan a pair of aces up her sleeve with which she will undertake to rake in China's tens?

President Harding was in favor of compromise between house and senate on the income surtax rate. The house compromised by agreeing to the senate view.

Western North Carolina's apple crop is short, but western North Carolina Republicans continue their quest of political plums as if the supply might be limitless.

Astronomists say Alpha Centauri is the nearest star, but many ecstatic young things who attend the movies know that honor properly belongs to some such personage as Harold Lloyd or Mae Marsh.

Charles S. Barrett was unanimously re-elected president of the National Farmers' union the other day, but it is understood that Dr. Alexander has not yet wired his congratulations to Praxy Barrett.

NOT REALLY PLAUSIBLE

Statistics don't lie, some sage once observed, but he might have added that they sometimes lend themselves to erroneous construction. The amendment to the old adage is inspired by consideration of J. W. Bailey's recent address at the annual convention of the North Carolina Farmers' Union in Raleigh. Mr. Bailey presented an imposing array of statistical information designed to show that the farmer is so utterly downtrodden that miracles or near-miracles will have to be performed in order that he may emerge from such abysmal depths.

To many of his auditors, perhaps, Mr. Bailey's preachments may have appeared plausible. Take enough figures and one can prove almost anything—at least to the satisfaction of the person who presents the figures. On the other hand, it is absurd to think that the former collector could convince a majority of the people that agriculture has become the champion toboggan business. Great beads of perspiration must surely have stood out on his countenance as he unfolded the seemingly agonizing chronicle of the terribly afflicted tillers of the soil, "working for 70 cents a day," or even less. Whether a very considerable number of his hearers were so greatly moved is not clearly revealed in the newspaper stories regarding the speaker's tale of a thousand woes.

As a matter of fact, no such distressing conditions exist. It is true that the farmers, like people of every other vocation, have suffered to some extent from the general depression of the past year, but as a viewer with alarm Mr. Bailey has smashed all former records; he stands in a class by himself in that respect. And many of the farmers are too busy getting ahead in the world to lose any sleep over the superlatively dark word picture which the Raleigh man painted.

There are many vexing problems affecting those engaged in agricultural pursuits; the same is true of persons engaged in a large number of other pursuits. Certainly all of our economic ills have not been cured. Nor will they be cured by unduly magnifying the troublesome phases of rural or urban life.

Mr. Bailey should throw away his smoked glasses. If a man concentrate his gaze entirely upon the clouds, it is a foregone conclusion that he will discover comparatively few silver linings. Surely no man desires the wailing championship in North Carolina. A dash of pessimism here and there, like a certain amount of fleas on a dog, may be quite wholesome, but as a steady diet it is an absolutely destructive influence. Nor is it nearly so contagious as champions of calamity howling might suppose.

Few seas are so tempestuous that saving charts and compasses cannot be found. And those devices usually are found by men who are eligible for membership in the optimism club.

J. W. Bailey is a remarkably able man; but many of his friends believe his greatest opportunities for furtherance of the best interests of the commonwealth do not lie along the primroseless paths of ultra-pessimism or the tortuous avenues of class appeal.

SLICING THE POLITICAL PIE

Recipe for the slicing of political pie: First, be sure that the pie is large enough. In 99 cases out of 100 it will not be of sufficient dimensions to satisfy the appetites of the 'steved hundred, more or less, pie-hunters. However, in the absence of a pie of adequate proportions, by a process of elimination the number of hungry folks may be substantially reduced; that is, many of them may be firmly pushed away from the table. Then, of the number remaining, indorsements appertaining to their party service should be demanded. The person with the greatest number of indorsements should secure the largest piece of pie, the one with the next greatest number the next largest portion, and so on.

through the list so long as the plebeians. This rule should hold good except in cases where John M. Morehead, Highcockalorum of the Republican party in North Carolina, wills otherwise. Then nothing could be simpler than first to ascertain the will of the said Highcockalorum, after which the pie-slicing operations may proceed with expedition calculated to bring delight to those who have received the Morehead o.k. and to the utter discomfort of those who, alas, have no such sanction.

However, some of the pie-hunters feel that the amount of political provender should be enlarged to meet the requirements of the multitude of "deserving" aspirants. They have declared, in accents so disconsolate as to make the angels weep, that Gilliam Grissom, collector of internal revenue in North Carolina, is not removing Democrats from office as rapidly as he should. Have not the hungry ones been without sustenance long enough? Gad-zooks! Why not show some speed in providing political pickings for the almost famished Republican office-seekers?

To which Mr. Grissom, who must have almost, but not quite, lost his usual urbanity under the pressure of such startling suggestions, replies with a list of Republican appointees about as long as the combined Populist whiskers of a dozen counties. Selah! The state is saved, albeit the hunger of many of the clamorous ones is not appeased.

Perhaps Mr. Morehead may yet be able to work out a formula which will really meet such a situation, although it is admittedly difficult even for such an experienced political practitioner as he to find a specific which will prove effective in cases where hope long deferred hath made the heart sick. Verily, the way of the Republican in quest of plenteous portions of political pie sometimes is beset with nerve-racking difficulties.

RUMORS UNCONFIRMED

Again London is discussing the possible resignation of Premier Lloyd George. However, this matter has been discussed so many times without having passed the stage of mere discussion that it fails to arouse a great deal of interest.

The simple truth is that Mr. Lloyd George is the ablest man in public life in Great Britain and his opponents have been unable to find a man about whom public opinion could well be expected to rally with strength comparable to that which the premier has marshalled in his numerous difficulties. Time after time his policies have been sustained by vote of parliament and the people generally continue to consider him the logical leader of the government.

Of course, some day Mr. Lloyd George will resign, but it is probable that he will not do so under pressure. Just now the conservatives are attempting to defeat him on the strength—or, rather, the alleged weakness—of his attitude in regard to Ireland. It is unlikely that they will succeed in such an enterprise. While settlement of the Irish question may be long deferred, it is generally agreed that the prospect for solution of this problem, one which has been a source of much vexation for centuries, are now brighter than at any previous time for many, many months.

The political dexterity of the British premier has amazed many observers. It is probable that he will achieve many other victories over his enemies before he decides to retire.

Winston-Salem's schools will erect an academic arts building. Let us hasten to nominate Professor Cap'n J. Hamp Rich, cosmopolite and exponent of many a fine art, as one of the instructors.

The French people report frequent changes in wine fashions. Once dubious Americans also are prepared to admit solemnly that there has been a decided change in wine fashions in this country.

DR. SPILLMAN TO PRESIDE OVER BAPTIST CONVENTION

AND SESSIONS WILL BE HELD IN TWIN CITY—WOMEN ARE ADMITTED

Rocky Mount, Nov. 17.—At the closing session of the Baptist state convention here today Rev. B. W. Spillman, D. D., was elected as moderator of the convention to be held next year in Winston-Salem. The 1922 convention will begin on the first Tuesday after the second Sunday in December, it was agreed.

By vote of the convention the women are declared eligible for membership in the convention on terms of equality with the men. The vote for admission of the women was almost unanimous. Women also were placed on the board of missions.

The Baptist hospital commission reported that plans for the first Baptist hospital at Winston-Salem were being prepared. The first unit will be a modern five-story structure containing 88 rooms and will cost $186,000. The work will be completed as expeditiously as possible.

The convention instructed the board of missions to wage a statewide titling campaign during the first three months of 1922, with March as the "Victory Month." Rev. A. C. Hamby as enlistment secretary will direct the enterprise.

Testamentary gifts totaling $102,400 were revealed in the annual report of the Baptist foundation, which also showed cash gifts to the amount of $2,000. The testamentary donations as designated follow: Baptist hospital, $125,350; Thomasville orphanage, $18,000; Baptist schools, $15,000; Halifax Baptist church, $2,500; Meredith College, for two scholarships, $25,000; foreign missions, $6,800, while the undesignated amounts total $10,000. Excellent progress was made during the past year in mission work, Sunday school work and other spheres of activity, reports showed. During the year there was an increase of 23,000 in Sunday school enrollment. Secretary Middleton reported.

North Carolina Baptists will hold two assemblies next summer, it was agreed, one at Mars Hill, near Asheville, and one at Wilmington.

Under an order adopted by the convention the board of ministerial relief was instructed to turn over to the Baptist foundation its endowment funds, after which the board will be discontinued.

The board of missions named for next year is composed of the following: W. O. Riddick, W. R. Bradshaw, W. A. Smith, I. M. Mercer, J. C. Turner, R. L. McMillan, W. A. Cooper, L. E. M. Freeman, Charles Anderson, J. A. Campbell, T. J. Taylor, J. S. Snyder, W. G. Hall, J. H. Matthews, R. S. Herring, Fred M. Day, J. E. Welch, J. T. Joyner, Mrs. I. T. Vaughn, Mrs. J. Tate Killian, Miss Annie Logan.

The social service committee for next year is composed of W. L. Poole, Ray Johnson, I. B. McBrayer, J. Max Gardner, L. McB. White.

The board of education is composed of A. Wayland Cooke, Charles Daniel, C. M. Beach, S. J. Everett, E. I. Olive and R. J. Bateman.

The ministers' relief board is made up of A. L. Witherspoon, A. B. Cawthorn, R. H. Riggsbee, W. J. Brogden, T. M. Green, F. H. Brinson, R. E. Hurst, J. N. Cheek and J. E. Salmon.

The convention named R. I. Moore, E. O. Pope and W. A. Ayers as trustees of the Baptist Bible institute.

The president appointed the following committees for the 1922 session:

Press: T. W. Chambliss, D. J. Wichard, Sanford Martin, W. F. Marshall, J. J. Hurt.

IS YOUR HEALTH GRADUALLY SLIPPING?

Interesting Experience of a Texas Lady Who Declares That if More Women Knew About Cardui They Would Be Spared Much Sickness and Worry.

Navasota, Texas.—Mrs. W. M. Peden, of this place, relates the following interesting account of how she recovered her strength, having realized that she was actually losing her health:

"Health is the greatest thing in the world, and when you feel that gradually slipping away from you, you certainly sit up and take notice. That is what I did some time ago when I found myself in a very nervous, run-down condition of health. I was so tired and felt so lifeless I could hardly go at all.

"I was just no account for work. I would get a bucket of water and would feel so weak I would have to set it down before I felt like I could lift it to the shelf. In this condition, of course, to do even my household work was a task almost impossible to accomplish.

"I was . . . nervous and easily upset.

I couldn't rest well at night and was . . . just lifeless.

"I heard of Cardui and after reading I decided I had some female trouble that was pulling me down. I sent for Cardui and began it . . .

"In a very short while after I began the Cardui Home Treatment I saw an improvement and it wasn't long until I was all right—good appetite, splendid rest, and much stronger so that I easily did my house work.

"Later I took a bottle of Cardui as a tonic. I can recommend Cardui and gladly do so, for if more women knew, it would save a great deal of worry and sickness."

The enthusiastic praise of thousands of other women who have found Cardui helpful should convince you that it is worth trying. All druggists sell it.

STATE FARMERS' UNION HEARS GOVERNOR AND MR. BAILEY AND ELECTS MR. STONE PRESIDENT

—STATE FARMERS' UNION—

Raleigh, Nov. 18.—At the session of the annual convention of the North Carolina Farmers' union here yesterday afternoon R. W. H. Stone, of Greensboro, was re-elected president of the organization.

Dr. J. M. Templeton, of Cary, again was chosen vice-president, and
W. L. Bigwell, of Raleigh, secretary-treasurer. The members of the executive committee were elected as follows: Dr. H. Q. Alexander, Matthews; E. C. Faires, Greensboro; W. B. Gibson, Statesville; J.
L. Cherry, Hobgood; Ollie Crouse,
Salisbury; J. M. L. Lyster, Crescent,
and J. S. Davis, Greensboro.

In resolutions adopted yesterday
the state union advocated taxation of all government bonds issued;
government ownership of railroads;
trade relations with Russia; disarmament by the United States irrespective of action by other nations; compelling European nations to pay the money which they owe this country; a taxation system based upon ability to pay; election of federal judges, and repeal of cotton tax. The planting of cotton on state farms was opposed.

The platform adopted here embodies a demand for more warehouses, champions good roads and declares that all property taxes should be handled by the counties themselves in building lateral roads.
There also is a demand for six-months schools, to be administered by the county authorities.

In the platform is reference to the "failure of the state insurance department to enforce the blue sky
law. Referring to taxation, one plank in the platform conveys word that the union "rejoices in the restoration of local self-government in the appraisal of land for taxes."

The state union endorsed the movement for co-operative marketing of cotton and tobacco through growers' associations. It was resolved "that we extend our moral support and commend the campaign to organize commodity marketing associations in North Carolina under the pooling contract plan."

The convention adjourned last night after sessions which extended over a period of two days. Governor Morrison welcomed the unionists. He deprecated the work of agitators who would unduly emphasize class distinctions. Class legislation and group favoritism have no rightful place in the conduct of public affairs, he averred, and it is imperative that the people of all vocations work together in productive, helpful harmony.

"We are the sixth state," said the governor, "in the value of our annual crops; but per capita we are second, and per acre planted, first.
As governor of your state I congratulate the farmers of North Carolina upon this great record. It is truly a glorious achievement, and yet I confidently expect you to carry the state to a higher comparative position. I am not going to tell you how to do it, but I am going to throw all the influence of my great office behind your union, and the agricultural department of the state, and try to help the farmers, along lines blazed by them, go on until we have the most intelligently diversified, compactly organized and prosperous agricultural life in the world."

Governor Morrison exhorted his hearers and all others to "work together in mutual regard, and with unyielding determination to make all who work anywhere in this state in the legitimate creation of wealth feel that their efforts are appreciated, and that injustice to them from any source will not be tolerated by the farmers of North Carolina."

While the governor's address was delivered in optimistic vein, the speech of J. W. Bailey, former collector of internal revenue, was a pessimistic document. He sought to emphasize the unproductiveness of farming. Mr. Bailey declared that he was prepared to demonstrate that:

"The average net income per year of a North Carolina farmer is less than $400 cash and $50 in home-consumed products and livestock increase—including milk, eggs, chickens, pork, butter, meal, wheat, vegetables, etc. That is $640 to the family on the basis of 20 cent cotton and 25 cent tobacco in one of the biggest crop years of our history.

"If we calculate the values of cotton, tobacco and corn on the basis of the 10-year average price, the cash part of the above figures will disappear. 12 cent cotton and 18 cent tobacco leave to our average farmer only the food he makes and consumes on his farm. But in order that I may not by any means underestimate the annual net average income of our farmers, I shall accept for the present the figures given in paragraph one.

"Since all the members of a farmer's family, 10 years of age or more, work, it is safe to say that this is the annual compensation of three workers per farm—that is $217 each per year, 60 per cent of which is in the form of food produced on the farm. That is, 70 cents per day per worker.

"Compare this wage with that of others. The farmer who employs a mechanic to repair his engines pays the mechanic at least 'eight days'
wages for one day of the mechanic's time. If he employs a lawyer, he gives the lawyer not less than 20 days' time for one day of the lawyer's time. His physician gets $2
an hour against the farmer's 7 cents —reckoning a visit at $2. I do not say that the others charge too much.
I do say the farmer gets too little.
It is a crushing inequality.

"The average American family numbers five. These figures, therefore, imply that for each member of the average farmer's family there is $50 of home-produced food and $80 in cash (for clothes, for coffee, sugar, oil, books, schooling, newspapers, doctors, lawyers, churches and charities). Think of that—you men in the cities crushed by the financial depression! Our late prosperity was derived from the high prices of farm products. If you want it to return, help the farmers get those prices again."

The speaker deplored the "steady increase" in farm tenancy. He favors abolition of the share-cropper system; advocates a fixed rental upon a contract minimum production and a maximum of food crops, also a plan of long credits by which "the more intelligent" tenants might purchase small farms. Mr. Bailey thinks that farmers should not have to pay their own warehouse fees to house their cotton and tobacco, but that those charges should be borne by all the people because the warehouses "are essential to the general welfare."

A man whose address is unknown here, but who had papers in his pocket identifying him as Fred Fulton, was found in an unconscious state about 11:30 Saturday night alongside the railroad track, 150 yards from Spring street. # A Tuberculosis Sanatorium For Guilford County

MEANS:

Prompt and efficient treatment of cases when they first develop. Experts in the treatment of Tuberculosis say that incipient cases respond to proper treatment in three to six months. Our large death rates have been due to inability of a great many of those afflicted to obtain Sanatorium treatment. It means that we will take care of our sick—give them a chance to get well, as well as that we will throw additional protection around those who are well. It means that we recognize this great Moral Duty is one that we must solve ourselves—handle in a logical way. It is cheaper to stop the ravages of Tuberculosis than to continue to have the disease—the annual toll to the individual and economic life of Guilford county is 129 deaths and $600,000. This is based on costs of treatment, loss of time of the estimated 900 who are affected, and a valuation of $2,000 per life to the community. It does not take into account the suffering of the afflicted, the suffering and want of dependents.

As a community we have an opportunity to take a forward step—to enlist in the world wide fight that is being made to stamp out Tuberculosis. We must remember it is not a problem of only those who may have contracted the disease, but it is our problem—one we must face because those we love need our assistance, as well as the more selfish one of protection for those who are well.

December 20 the voters of Guilford will decide whether or not our people as a whole shall engage in this work. You will have an opportunity to vote for bonds not to exceed $100,000 to be utilized in erecting and equipping a Tuberculosis Sanatorium for the sick of Guilford county. For maintenance a tax rate that cannot exceed 5 per cent. on the $100 valuation will be levied. It is estimated that a rate of 2 per cent. will take care of maintenance.

Experts are agreed that the proper treatment can be given only in well equipped Sanatoriums—that incipient cases rarely develop into chronic ones where prompt and proper treatment is available—that the percentage of recoveries is small except where Sanatorium treatment is offered. Eventually we can stamp out the disease—but this will be done only by proper treatment of the sick and intelligent prevention methods.

IF YOU ARE IN FAVOR OF TAKING THIS FORWARD STEP—IF YOU BELIEVE IT YOUR DUTY TO MAKE THIS EFFORT FOR OUR SICK, THEN REGIS-TER AND GO TO THE POLLS ON DECEMBER 20 AND VOTE FOR THE ISSUANCE OF THESE BONDS

THE "OLD, OLD SONG"

When all the world is young, lad,
And all the trees are green;
And every goose a swan, lad,
And every lamb a queen;
Then hey for boot and horse, lad,
And round the world away;
Young blood must have its course, lad,
And every dog his day.

When all the world is old, lad,
And all the trees are brown;
And all the sport is stale, lad,
And all the wheels run down;
Creep home, and take your place there,
The spent and maimed among;
God grant you find one face there

You loved when all was young.
—CHARLES KINGSLEY.
