FOUR DISTILLERIES ARE DISCOVERED BY DEPUTIES

THEY ALSO FIND THREE GAL-LONS OF LIQUOR HID
UNDER CHURCH.

Two distilleries and a concealed store of liquor were found Monday
by Guilford deputy sheriffs.

Deputies Clark, Hobbs, Duke and Young went into Sumner township and discovered an 85-gallon whisky plant, in Scott Anthony's pasture.
They broke it up and poured out about 400 gallons of beer. The whisky makers were not captured.

Mike Caffey and Floyd Brown made a little trip into Center Grove township, at first finding no still, but loosing a pistol. They went back to hunt the pistol and found a still, a 90-gallon plant, and 200 gallons of beer, wetting the earth with the beer and breaking up the still. They found the pistol, too.

Later in the day Caffey and Brown went into the Groometown neighborhood. They had been tipped off that whisky could be found under a negro church. When they got there they found some negro children, who led them to the hiding place, and the officers crawled under the church and got three gallons of liquor. They brought it to the sheriff to be locked up.

Tuesday Deputies Clark and Young captured a 70-gallon still near Greensboro, in a patch of woods in Oliver township. There were evidences that it had been in operation lately. The still was brought to Greensboro to be destroyed.

Wednesday night Deputy Clark headed a party which captured a 40-gallon still in Sumner township.

KILLS WIFE THINKING HER TO BE BURGLAR

Charlotte, April 12.—Word reached the city Monday morning that Sam Crump, a farmer, 50 years old, shot and killed his wife, at his home
just over the Mecklenburg-Union county line, Sunday night at 10 o'clock. The husband is said to have mistaken his wife for a burglar and fired, killing her almost instantly.

Mr. Crump, according to the version of the story brought to Charlotte by Wilbur Hooks and several others who live near the scene of the shooting beyond Hood's Cross Roads, had heard a noise at a window and,
thinking it might be a burglar, got his shotgun and went out to see what it was. Mrs. Crump also got up and went out, unknown to her husband.
In a few seconds the wife came in view around the corner of the house, and in the semi-darkness the husband fired. The affair was reported to the proper authorities at Monroe.

CIVIL COURT TERM TO START MONDAY

A two-weeks term of Guilford Superior court for the trial of civil cases will begin Monday morning, with Judge B. F. Long, of Statesville, presiding. The docket is a heavy one, there being about 70 cases scheduled to be tried. None of them is especially important.

RICHMOND COUNTY WILL BUILD NEW COURTHOUSE

Rockingham, April 12.—The county commissioners of Richmond county last week ordered the county ceedings for the vacant property to the west of the Farmers bank, on Main street, whereon it is proposed to build the new courthouse for which $200,000 in bonds were recently issued. The several owners of the property are said to be asking from $200 to $500 per front foot, hence the condemnation proceedings.

Public Service company, was hurt

have captured ten illicit distilleries within a four-mile square area in the past ten days. Thursday T. J. Williams, police officer of Greenville, and Chief Swain, of Grimesland, seized four stills, two near Simpson,
one at Cox's Mill and one at Gallo-way's Cross Roads.

No operators happened to be around when the officers called, though one still showed signs of being recently in operation. Three of the outfits were of copper, the other a steel drum.

GREENSBORO VOTES FOR BONDS FOR NEW STATION

NOT CONTEST ENDS WITH VIC-TORY FOR SUPPORTERS OF THE PLAN.

The proposition that the city of Greensboro issue bonds and build a station for the Southern railway was carried at an election Tuesday. For the bonds were cast 2,145 votes. A majority of the registered voters was necessary to win. The registration was 3,428, so 1,715 votes were needed. The plurality for the proposition is 430 votes. Counted against the plan were 1,283 votes, only 271 actually going to the polls to vote against it, but the remainder, not going, counting against just as much as if they had gone.

The plan calls for a bond issue of $1,300,000, the money to be used in the construction of the station and underpasses, the station to be leased to the Southern for a period of 30 years. The Southern will pay yearly interest on the bonds and sufficient into a sinking fund to retire them at the end of 30 years. The station will then be the Southern's.

Six votes too many were found in the box at the city hall, where Morehead township people voted. As the voters arrived they gave their names, were checked off on the registration book and their names written in a poll book. The poll book had six less names than ballots in the box.

The election came as the climax to one of the bitterest, warmest campaigns in the history of Greensboro, surpassing in heat most political contests. Leading citizens divided on the proposition. It was fought by some as unwise to create such a precedent in building stations, upper to lead the city's credit. Those for the bonds contended that there was no risk and that the station and underpasses will not cost the city a cent.

A test case will be carried through the Supreme court in order to determine the validity of the issue. In case the court rules adversely there will be no bonds issued.

DR. BROOKS EXPLAINS LETTING OF CONTRACTS FOR SCHOOL TEXTBOOKS

Raleigh, April 12.—The fact that an erroneous impression, according to Dr. E. C. Brooks, state superintendent of public instruction, still prevails in the minds of many people regarding the recent letting of contracts for text books for the schools of the state led Dr. Brooks to make this brief statement:

"The previous contracts having expired it was absolutely necessary for the textbook commission to make selections and award new contracts.
The best selections possible were made from among the books examined, many old books being retained and many new ones being selected to take the place of books that are now either out of date, or discontinued by the publishers or that were inferior to other books that were offered by the same or other publishers.

"The contracts just expiring had been made in 1917 when prices were low and if it had been possible to renew all contracts in every detail except to pay prices that are being quoted today on the same books the total cost to the pupils of the state would have been approximately what it will be under the new contracts.
For instance, one speller that cost 15 cents under the old contract would have cost 30 cents under a new contract. Therefore, the only advantage that would have been derived from retaining all of the old text books would have been through the use of books now in the hands of pupils and this matter is taken care of by a provision that the new books shall not be required for two years where the old ones are already available.

"Such criticism as there has been of the textbook commission has resulted, I think, from a lack of information regarding the situation that confronted the commission and of the full intent of its action."

REPUBLICANS WRANGLE IN ANNUAL CONVENTION

FIGHT REYNOLDS AS SUCCESSOR TO MOREHEAD, BUT HE WINS.

Winston-Salem, April 12.—Republicans of the state, wrangling among themselves over the selection of a national committeeman to succeed
John M. Morehead, met in convention here today.

Charles A. Reynolds, of Winston-Salem, was elected national committeeman and W. G. Bramham, of Durham, chairman of the state executive committee to succeed Mr. Reynolds, who has been state chairman for about six months.

When the name of Mr. Reynolds was proposed as successor to Mr.
Morehead, Turner Grant, of Davie county, of the younger element, threw the house into an uproar by nominating John J. Parker, of Union county, former candidate for governor. It was necessary for Mr.
Parker to tell his friends that he had promised his support to Mr. Reynolds and even then he had a hard time keeping the dissatisfied element in line.

It was an upset to the plans of the Morehead-Reynolds people and the dissatisfaction of one part of the gathering showed itself in the opposition to the plans stated for naming Reynolds national committeeman.

Judge W. E. Timberlake, of Wake county, was named to make the race for the Supreme court bench and C.
M. Hoover, of Davidson county, for the corporation commission. A successor to Gillman Grison, secretary, was not selected and may be chosen later by the executive committee.

A platform was drawn up charging the state government with "execution" and praising the national administration for its "exceptional" record.

The road system of the state was denounced.

The meeting lacked much of being harmonious, as the younger element kept the older, state-making leaders in hot water.

BINGHAM IS WILLING TO HELP IN CO-OPERATIVE PLANS WITH $300,000.00

Raleigh, April 12.—Judge Robert W. Bingham, publisher of the Louisville Courier-Journal and chairman of the Burley Growers' Co-operative association, of Kentucky, last night pledged the organized tobacco growers of North Carolina, his native state, all or any part of the $300,000 needed by July 1 to finance the movement for the co-operative marketing of tobacco.

Judge Bingham spoke before a smoker of the chamber of commerce in the Wake county court room, crowded to the doors, and his hearers to a man stood to their feet and cheered the offer.

Judge Bingham was speaking of the half dozen warehouses of the 130 in Kentucky who held out against the Burley Growers' association. The Kentucky organization, he said, didn't need these houses,
but in a spirit of fairness offered to buy them. The same, he inferred, is the condition in North Carolina.

"If the warehousemen know their business they will accept the proposition," he declared. "There are six warehouses out in Kentucky that are not worth 60 cents and there are 12 that will bring an honest price.

"We can do without the warehouses and the warehousemen who stand out and you can do without the warehouses and warehousemen
in North Carolina that stand out.

"I understand that the association will need $300,000 by the first of July. If the banks of Kentucky would lend $4,500,000 to the burley growers it seems to me that it will be no difficult matter to secure the loan required from the banks of North Carolina and Virginia. I do not apprehend you will have any difficulty, but if you do, I want to say that I shall be happy to lend the association any part or all of it when it wants the money."

EXPERT PRAISES GUILFORD FOR ITS FINANCE EXHIBIT

SIMPLEST AND MOST COMPLETE
STATEMENT EVER MADE
TAXPAYERS.

Commending Guilford county for its finance exhibit, Dr. E. C. Branson, head of the department of rural economics of the University of North Carolina, wrote Capt. J. Giles Fous-hee, of the board of county commissioners, that in his opinion it is the simplest and most nearly complete business statement ever made to taxpayers in North Carolina.

That is high praise, coming from Dr. Branson, recognized as an expert on county finance and county government, and, moreover, entirely disinterested.
Dr. Branson's letter is of especial significance, coming as it does after the protests of some taxpayers of Guilford, culminating as they did in two mass meetings and the appointment of an "Investigation" committee to inquire into the financial affairs of Guilford county.

The letter, made public today, follows:

"Chapel Hill, April 8, 1922.
"Hon. J. Giles Foushee,
"Greensboro, N. C.
"Dear Mr. Foushee:
"Thank you heartily for your kindness, also for your annual county exhibit of finances. All in all, in my opinion, it is the simplest and most nearly complete business statement ever made to the taxpayers of North Carolina.
"County auditing in Guilford,
Durham, Wake, Forsyth and New Hanover is approaching very high levels and the other counties of the state will be learning slowly but certainly, I think.

"With best wishes, I am,
"Yours cordially,
"E. C. BRANSON."
That statement shows that business-like methods are used in conducting the affairs of the county and it should be a source of gratification to the taxpayers to know that their affairs are so conducted (that county auditing in Guilford is approaching very high levels.

The statement, or exhibit, as Dr.
Branson refers to it, was published in The Patriot and those who preserved the issues containing it, will find it valuable to refer to from time to time.

leigh on April 20. Other business

Cox, chairman of the county executive committee, that all Democrats attend who can possibly do so.

NO PREACHING SERVICES AT HINES CHAPEL SUNDAY

Owing to the absence of the pastor, Rev. L. W. Gerringer, there will cello church. Sunday school will be held at the usual hour, 10 a. m.

The Hines chapel Sunday school is invited to participate with the Sunday schools of Monticello and Apple's Chapel in a picnic to be held at the day—next Monday—and all urged to tleground at 10 a. m.

SMALL GRAIN CROPS OF NORTH CAROLINA ARE IN SHAPE FOR GOOD YIELD

Raleigh, April 12.—If conditions continue to favor the small grain crops, North Carolina will make good yields per acre, resulting in much better values per acre than last year, according to the co-operative crop reporting service of the United States and North Carolina bureaus of markets and crop estimates. The statement follows:

The wheat crop shows up very well, the average condition for North Carolina being 96 per cent of a normal or "full crop" prospect. This is not conclusive of a good yield, for the later conditions of weather, insects, and disease may completely alter these prospects. The federal winter wheat crop shows a 78 per cent condition, or 13 per cent less than a year ago, while the North Carolina condition is a little better than last year. The state price is $1.52 as against $1.88 a year ago and $1.17 per bushel for the United States April 1, 1922.

A great many people misunderstand the meaning of "forecasts" and "estimates." The cotton crop was estimated at a very low condition last August, yet made a very good yield per acre. The summer prospects were very poor but the later condition favored high yields, which were late in evidence.

The rye crop at 95 per cent condition, is also two points better than a year ago while the national crop at 89 per cent is about the same for both years. Rye prices average 93 cents for both this state and the nation.

The number of breeding sows are practically the same as last year when the trend showed 5 per cent decline from April, 1920. The United States estimates show 11 per cent more in number of breeders than for 1921.

Farm work is greatly belated in most parts of the state. The planting of crops is late on account of the wet soil. The demand for fertilizers seems to be decreased.

IDENTIFY DEAD MAN Man Shot at Reidsville Al- leged to Have Been Desperado.

Reidsville, April 12.—The body of an alleged yegman, whose name was given as S. F. Poe, and who was shot to death Saturday night by police officers in a local store, was identified Tuesday as Ben Johnson, of Scottsville, Buckingham county, Va. The identification was made by two men from the vicinity of Scottsville whose names the police decline to reveal for reasons unknown. The men arrived here today and after viewing the remains closely are said to have identified the body positively as that of Johnson. Whether the men are related to Johnson is not known.

Johnson's age was given as 40 years. He is said to be survived by two sisters, both now living in Richmond. They are Miss Josephine Johnson and Miss Alice Johnson, the latter being known as Laura Johnson. She resides on Clay street between Seventh and Eighth streets at a boarding house. An uncle, John Wesley Johnson, also lives in Arvonia, Va., according to the men who made the identification.

Johnson is described as a notorious criminal character. He is said to have served two years in the state penitentiary of Virginia for his alleged connection in robberies of post-offices at Melton, Melford, Rappahannock and Saluda, all being Virginia towns. Johnson's term expired six years ago. He is also said to have participated in other robberies and is believed to have been responsible for numerous other postoffice robberies in Virginia and Maryland.

BRYAN WILL NOT MAKE RACE FOR U. S. SENATE

Miami, Fla., April 12.—William J. Bryan in a statement yesterday announced his final decision not to be a candidate for the United States senate from this state, saying that at his age he could not turn from "enjoyable" work of fighting for Democratic principles and policies as a commoner to "personal politics."

Petitions "numerously signed have been received from every part of the state," requesting him to make the race, said his statement, "but no assurance of success, unless it were overwhelming, would justify me in entering into a contest for office."

LABOR IS SCARCE

That and More Fertilizer
Activity Probably Means
Bigger Acreage.

There is a big shortage of farm labor in all sections of the state, according to reports being made to the local employment offices, and by them to the state employment service in Raleigh. This together with the fact that fertilizer mills are calling on the employment bureaus for laborers to run their plants 24 hours a day convinces Commissioner of Labor M. L. Shipman that the farmers are planting bigger crops than usual this year. At least they are planning to use more fertilizer than they did a year ago, when the purchases of fertilizer fell so far behind the normal demands that few of the fertilizer concerns made any money at all during the year, while quite a number of them added additional units to their deficits.

The increased demands for fertilizer would not be proof that the farmers are planting larger acreages this year, for it is probable that they are merely planning to use more fertilizer on the same amount of ground. This, of course, will produce larger yields. The fact that the farmers are able to buy fertilizer in larger quantities, however, is proof of the fact that on the whole the farming industry is in better shape than it was a year ago.

When the increased demand for fertilizer is considered in connection with the big demand for farm labor of all kinds, the belief that more acres are being planted this spring is somewhat justified.

ARBUCKLE CLEARED OF MANSLAUGHTER

San Francisco, April 12.—A verdict of acquittal was returned by a jury tonight in the third trial of Roscoe C. Arbuckle on a manslaughter charge growing out of the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress. The jury was out six minutes.

The defendant was deeply affected. He received the verdict with a great sigh of relief. There was no demonstration, the court having warned against it. Mrs. Minta Durfee Arbuckle, the defendant's wife, cried quietly. Both she and Arbuckle shook hands with the jurors. The quick return of the jury was a surprise.

CHARGE FOUR WITH THEFT FROM TRAIN

Four men, Guy Johnson, D. L. Fogelman, Dan Williams and Dewey Bass, all of Alamance county, were arrested by Guilford officers Wednesday on a charge of stealing $250 worth of automobile tires from a Southern railway train near Gibsonville Tuesday. They were released under bond, Bass putting up $1,000 and the others $500 each. A hearing will be given them before Magistrate D. H. Collins on April 17. Effort will be made to show at the hearing that the men entered a freight train while it was in Alamance county, rummaged through the cars, found the tires, threw them off and signaled the train to stop.

ECONOMIC CONFERENCE IS STARTED AT GENOA

Genoa, April 12.—The Genoa economic conference was formally opened this afternoon in the historic palace of St. George by Premier Facta of Italy.

Prime Minister Lloyd George of Great Britain proposed that Premier Facta be appointed permanent president of the conference. Louis Barthou, head of the French delegation, immediately seconded this proposal, which was approved by acclamation. Premier Lloyd George evoked applause and continued laughter when he said:

"Genoa did America a great service by sending Columbus to discover the new world and she can do America another great service by helping America to rediscover Europe."

REBELS AND BANDITS IN MEXICO ARE VERY ACTIVE

Washington, April 12.—Official advices received here today indicate increased revolutionary and bandit activity in the states of Vera Cruz, Jalisco and Nayarit in Mexico. The rebels in Nayarit were reported to number from 200 to 300 men under the leadership of Pablo Gonzales. In Jalisco six separate bands were reported in the field in open rebellion against the central government, although their strength thus far is regarded as insignificant.

The Lack of Money Sometimes Is the Root of Much Evil as Many Men Know by Experience

You have read of many suicides who left notes something like this: "I failed to make ends meet. In my pocket you will find two dollars and twenty cents; in my body you will see the evidence of a thousand broken hopes. Many times if I had had the cash I could have attained great success. I have seen many bright opportunities dashed against my improvident purse." Now, you should be prepared to make the most of your opportunities. HOME DEMONSTRATION

Wednesday afternoon the Gibsonville Woman's club met. Fancy work was engaged in. Mrs. Ola S. Wells, home demonstration agent, was present at the meeting. The meeting proved to be a very interesting one and the attendance was good. The club is making excellent progress in the work it has undertaken.

Thursday morning the boys' and girls' club of Brightwood held a meeting at the schoolhouse. They are greatly interested in poultry. Right now is the real time for poultry activity. In the poultry work the energies of each member of the club are centered on one breed of chickens. Scrubs have no place in poultry work and even with one or two settings of eggs a good flock can be built up, one of which the young owners can be proud.

Thursday afternoon millinery work was done at a meeting of the Woman's club at Rankin schoolhouse. Easter is right on everybody and Easter is of course the time for the new hat. Easter would hardly be Easter without that. A good attendance marked the meeting.

Friday morning the home demonstrator will meet the boys and girls at the schoolhouse at Brown Summit. These young folks are taking a great deal of interest in club work.

Friday afternoon the home demonstrator will meet the women of Monticello at the school building. Interior decoration will be discussed.

Excellent progress is being made in all lines of club work in the county.

Gardening.

The gardening season is upon us, full blast now. This is a planting month and every hour spent in the garden this month should pay big dividends later. A good start in all things is essential, but in nothing more than the home garden. The doctrine of live-at-home starts in the garden. Of course the men must do the heavy work in the garden, but upon the woman really depends success. They are expected to see that everything is always in good shape and the woman who leaves the care of the garden to her husband will probably not have a very good one. The men have their field crops to attend to and unless they are kept right at it they will be likely to neglect the garden. The women folks should see that they do not neglect it. A big part of the family's living comes from the garden.

APPEAL TAX CASE

Southern and A. and Y. Will Go to the Supreme Court.

Formal order granting the Southern railroad an appeal to the Supreme court of the United States in their tax cases was signed by Judge James E. Boyd in Federal court here Monday.

The railroads are appealing from the decision of a Federal court denying an injunction that would have restrained the state, county, municipal and school district tax collectors from collecting taxes on valuations set in 1921 and alleged by the Southern, Atlantic and Yadkin, Atlantic Coast Line, Seaboard and Norfolk Southern to be discriminatory and excessive. The denial of the injunction was made in Raleigh on March 18 by Judges H. G. Connor, James E. Boyd and Edmund Waddill, Jr.

A request was made that the tax collectors be kept from collecting the tax in dispute, over a million dollars in all, counting the state corporation income tax and the franchise tax, until the Supreme court shall have passed upon the appeal. A stay in the matter of collection was granted at Raleigh on March 18, to be effective for 30 days. Hearing on the request for further stay will be had next Saturday.

GRACE M. P. CONGREGATION LIKELY TO HAVE NEW CHURCH

The congregation of Grace Methodist Protestant church here is expected to decide Sunday whether it will build a new church on the corner of Gaston and Edgeworth streets. A special committee representing the congregation has made arrangements for the purchase of the property owned by Mrs. M. L. Purden there. If the deal goes through, that is, if the congregation approves the purchase, a handsome, modern church will be erected.

BAD DREAM TRUE

Saw Boy Drowned and Warned Him But
In Vain

Goldsboro, April 12.—George L. Jones, who recently came here from Jamesville, says dreams do come true—at least that his dreams do. He dreamed two weeks ago that a colored boy would drown and believing so thoroughly in dreams, he went to the youth but to no avail.

"I have had lots of dreams in my life which have come true," says Jones, "but this one is the most impressive one I have ever had and I want the public to know about it."

"On Sunday night, March 19, I dreamed that my father-in-law died and was laid out on the banks of Roanoke river, Jamesville, N. C. It seemed that I was sitting up with him. I heard someone coming and when I looked around I saw a colored boy coming toward me and recognized him to be Rose Daniel. Then when I turned back to the corpse he rolled off the cot into the river. When I pulled him out instead of it being my father-in-law, who was really buried last Old Christmas day, it was this colored boy, Rose Daniel.

"This dream was so plain, I went to this boy the next day (Monday) and told him about it. He was fishing at this time and I warned him of the river, for I felt that he would be drowned.

"I left Jamestown on Friday of the same week to take a position in Goldsboro, and on Tuesday previous a colored man, William Henry Davis, who was present at the time I warned this boy, also left for Goldsboro to work. And on last Tuesday this man, Davis, received a letter from home stating this boy, Daniel, was drowned the day before, which was Monday, seven days from the time I warned him.

"This is sufficient proof that dreams, or at least my dreams, do come true."

There is one good thing about war. The killers have the decency not to insult public intelligence by making a plea of insanity.—Harrisburg Patriot-News.

if nature could speak she would say:—

I have provided the only real tonic for Spring to cleanse your system of the stagnant waste of winter, purify your blood and bring to you that glorious feeling of perfect health:

—and it is S. S. S.

SPRINGTIME is the season when Nature intends all living creatures to be charged with new life and energy. But you cannot enjoy the glorious feeling of renewed strength and vigor if your system remains clogged up with the impurities which have accumulated during the winter.

At this time your blood is overloaded with stagnant waste; you are drowsy; you hate work and you are denied that irresistible energy and enthusiasm that made every moment of your childhood days bubble over with happiness and the joy of living.

Nature's Warning

This tired feeling is often accompanied by disagreeable symptoms such as boils, pimples, rashes, eczema or rheumatism. You call it Spring Fever; but that is only Nature's way of saying—Cleanse Your System. And, just as Nature has provided everything else for our comfort and well-being, so She has given us the only really effective remedy for this draggy, let-down feeling.

Ninety-six years ago these wonderful vegetable herbs, roots and barks, of which S. S. S. is composed, were found to possess remarkable power to purify the blood, eliminate skin eruptions, strengthen and aid in supplying every cell and tissue with the rich, red nourishment that is so necessary to vigorous life, health and happiness. Then it was that Nature's own great remedy for Spring fever was given to us in the form of S. S. S.

And ever since, S. S. S. has gone on converting hundreds of thousands of tired, worn-out, run-down people into strong, healthy, red-blooded men and women with the power and capacity to accomplish things and to enjoy the beauties of Nature and the happiness of life to the very fullest.

Do not be fooled into taking compounds, such as metallic iron, etc. These minerals crash into the system, attack the delicate tissues and oftentimes leave you in worse shape than before.

Nature Intended A Vegetable Remedy

Always insist upon S. S. S. for this wonderful vegetable tonic is the remedy Nature has intended for you. The soothing, healing powers of the vegetable ingredients first cleanse and then tone up the entire system without one particle of distressing after effect.

S. S. S. overcomes your tired, drowsy feeling in a natural, easy way and without the slightest harm to the most delicate membrane of your body.

S. S. S. brings you back to where you feel like a new person: walk with a spring in your step, a sparkle in your eye and with perfect health radiating from every pore of your skin.

Don't be cheated out of your natural Springtime heritage. That wonderful feeling of new-born energy, life and strength is yours! Simply go to your druggist and get a bottle of S. S. S. now, today.

FARM DEMONSTRATION

A fertile soil means a prosperous people, is a dictum that is self-evident. A people can no more be poverty stricken when their soil is fertile than a people whose soil is barren or impoverished can be prosperous.

How to keep the soil fertile:

1. Raise live stock.
 2. Rotate crops.
 3. Grow clover, vetch, peas, beans and alfalfa.
 4. Save the barnyard manure.
 5. Terrace and pasture rolling lands.
 6. Add humus—don't burn the stalks.
 7. Supply the needed elements.
- Live stock means:
1. Better soil.
 2. Increased profits.
 3. Living on the farm.
- Why rotate your crops:
1. Helps maintain soil fertility.
 2. Improves physical condition of soil.
 3. Combats weeds, insects and plant diseases.
 4. Prevents washing of soil.
 5. Furnishes a variety of feed.
 6. Distributes farm work through the year.
 7. Insures against crop failure.
 8. Means living on the farm.
- Legumes and fertility:
1. When turned under two-thirds of plant's nitrogen is added to the soil, phosphorus and potash remain the same.
 2. When removed for hay no nitrogen is added and 71 per cent of phosphate and 82 per cent of potash is removed.

Hogs in North Carolina.

Students now in school will live to see solid train loads of hogs in North Carolina going to market, according to W. W. Shay, swine division, state farm extension service.

This business will belong to North Carolina, not necessarily because of the boll weevil invasion, but by right of conquest.

As compared with the corn-belt farmer, the North Carolina farmer can produce pork cheaper. He has a better market. He can hit the high market before the corn-belt farmer glut it.

Immediately someone will question the first advantage stated above; he will say, what about that cheap corn? I can only answer: he raises it in North Carolina. If a low price for farm products is an advantage, the cotton belt should be rolling in wealth.

We are all aware that a high order of intelligence is not necessary to grow cotton; it is of a sort with that which attempts to starve cheap gains on a hog, and sells oily hogs out of the peanut fields on the lowest market ket of the year. Profits from such hogs are, as Ring W. Lardner would put it, about as conspicuous as a dirty finger nail in the third grade.

Profitable pork production is a man's game, and it is worth his best effort. There is nothing in it for the man who is too indifferent to study the rules, or too indolent to mix and feed proper rations.

When the possibilities of pork production are properly understood throughout the cotton belt, the unpainted shack will give place to the modern comfortable home, and happy smiles will replace care-worn expressions.

TOBACCO ACTIVITY

Burley Association Is Making Great Progress. In Kentucky.

Lexington, Ky., April 12.—Within the past month 842 new contracts, representing 1,804 acres or about 2,000,000 pounds of tobacco, have been received at the offices of the field service division of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative association, Assistant Chief William Collins states.

These contracts come from practically every county in the burley district in Kentucky and from counties in Ohio and West Virginia and Indiana, as well.

Tobacco belonging to the members of the Burley Tobacco Growers Co-operative association will be delivered to the warehouses by April 14, Director Barker said Friday. The Lexington warehouse manager, Robert E. Beatty, announces that the Fayette No. 1 warehouse will be open Thursday and Friday, April 13 and 14, for the delivery of tobacco which growers may desire to bring to Lexington, and the officials of the association hope that every member grower will have delivered his crop by April 14, next Friday.

Secretary H. L. Earley and his office staff are at work on the second distribution of funds to the growers, but because of the volume of book-keeping involved in the distribution, Secretary Earley said he could not definitely fix the time of the distribution. He said growers could depend on it that the second distribution would be made at the earliest possible moment.

Speedy Ocean Trip.

Cherbourg, April 12.—The Cunard steamship Mauretania arrived Monday from New York, making the trip from the Ambrose Channel lightship, 3,161 miles, in five days, ten hours and nine minutes, which is declared to be the fastest time recorded by any trans-Atlantic vessel since August, 1914.

TRAMP HAD $15,000 IN HIS CLOTHING

Albany, N. Y., April 12.—A shabbily dressed man, considerably under the influence of liquor, entered a police station here and asked for a "flop," as vagrants term a place to sleep. When the officers searched his clothing they found liberty and industrial bonds and war savings certificates amounting to $15,000.

The man said at first that he was James Tolson of Wilkesbarre, Pa., but later said his name was Josh Jones. He said he had bought the bonds in New York. The envelope containing the securities was addressed Joshua C. Jones, 203 South Main street, Wilkesbarre.

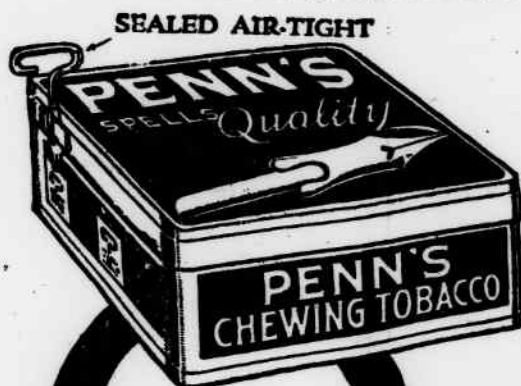

Police officials communicated with the authorities at Wilkesbarre to verify the man's statements.

Chief of Police Lasch later learned from Wilkesbarre that the man was Joshua C. Jones, of Wilkesbarre, and that the securities were his own. The Wilkesbarre authorities asked that Jones, who, they allege, is somewhat eccentric, be held until the arrival of an officer to take him home.

THIRTY FOREIGN NATIONS IN WILSON FOUNDATION

New York, April 12.—More than 30 foreign countries, possessions and United States territories are represented among the founders of the Woodrow Wilson awards, Franklin D. Roosevelt announced tonight. As national chairman of the Woodrow Wilson foundation, Mr. Roosevelt said that, in spite of the fact that no effort has been made in other lands to secure contributions for the endowment of public service awards being created in honor of the national and international services of the former President, nearly every mail brings one or two gifts from Mr. Wilson's admirers on other continents.

Among the districts outside the boundaries of the United States that have furnished founders Mr. Roosevelt named England, France, Germany, Spain, Italy, Turkey, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Armenia, Monte Carlo, Sweden, Netherlands, China, Persia, South Africa, Australia, Canada, Brazil, Chile, Panama, Mexico, Alaska, Bermuda, Bahama Islands, Hawaii, Porto Rico and the Philippines.

Fordson TRACTOR

Henry Ford Was Right When He Said:

'The Tractor will enable the farmer to work fewer hours in the day, giving him more time to enjoy life. I believe the tractor will make farming what it ought to be—the most pleasant, the most healthful, the most profitable business on earth.'

This tractor has done much—very much—in bringing true Mr. Ford's prophecy; for in it is a machine which has harnessed one of the most dependable, efficient, adaptable, economical sources of power in the world—a machine that saves from thirty to fifty per cent of the farmer's time—a machine which many farmers claim plows, harrows or drills as much ground in the same time as four, six or even eight horses. And more—a machine that takes care of every power job on the farm.

A definite plan always facilitates the successful execution of any undertaking. Farmers not only find it necessary to plan far ahead, but to rely greatly on industry.

If you adopt a plan for saving money, you will get ahead much faster than if you undertake to save after haphazard methods. PUBLIC HEALTH

CHICKEN POX.

As we are having a few cases of chicken pox reported in different parts of the county, and at the same time some few cases of smallpox, I think that it will be a good thing if we consider these two diseases.

Chicken pox is a very easily communicated disease, which is preceded by more or less fever and accompanied by an eruption, the eruption appearing very much like small blisters. Some are seen that are drying up, others in the full blister stage and yet others which are just beginning. The disease is confined almost exclusively to children between one and seven years.

But what is of particular interest is the frequent similarity between chicken pox and smallpox. I am going to mention the points of difference between the two, but there will be many cases in which you will not be able to decide whether it is a case of smallpox or chicken pox. Some few years ago, a case was admitted to one of the best known and best conducted hospitals in the United States, and under the care of one of the best doctors in the country, a man so famous that every one knows his name. This case came in as chicken pox and was treated as such, but from it followed many more cases of smallpox.

1. Chicken pox more frequent in the child from one to seven years of age.

2. Eruption may be the first thing noticed.

3. Eruption usually appearing on back, neck and face.

4. Spreads over the body.

5. All stages of the eruption at one time.

6. Child not much sick at any time, either before the eruption or after it appears.

If you have been successfully vaccinated against smallpox, then you may be reasonably sure that the case is one of chicken pox.

OFFERING ENTIRE STOCK IN BANKRUPT SHOE SALE

Much popular interest is being manifested in the bankrupt shoe sale of the Irvin Shoe company now in progress. The entire stock is being sold by J. G. Thacker. In order to dispose of the stock within a comparatively short time, prices have been sharply marked down. In fact, it is stated that in a large number of instances at this store, located at 114 West Market street, footwear is being sold at less than wholesale cost. Customers report a wide range from which to make selections and they also express gratification with values being obtained. Announcement by Mr. Thacker concerning this big sale will be found elsewhere in this issue of The Patriot.

It is said that plants are fruited heavier this spring than for many years.

TALK NO. 10.

It's in the Spring our thoughts and fancies turn to travel. The Call of the Open Road becomes insistent and the far horizons contract until it seems we cannot stand the littleness of our circle.

The budding of the flowers, the leafing of the trees, the faint stirring of the earth from her winter slumber all help to make us restless.

There is no remedy like the AUTOMOBILE for the restlessness of Spring.

After all we don't want to go far or for long, it's just the idea of getting away from the old things for an hour and seeing something new.

BUICK is a name that stands for dependability of service and for pleasure in driving. Just the car to serve the needs of Spring and Summer, and for that matter of Fall and Winter as well. It is a saying, and it is true, you will never be quite satisfied until you own a Buick.

AN IMPORTANT NEW DEPARTMENT OF THE PATRIOT.

The Patriot feels that it is particularly fortunate in having been able to secure the services of Rev. E. P. Billups, assistant pastor of West Market Street Methodist church, as Sunday school editor of this paper. Effective with this issue of the paper, he will conduct this important department, the articles appearing every Thursday. The department may now be regarded an integral part of the paper.

In the articles will be found an exposition of the International Sunday School Lessons for the following Sundays. In other words, students who are subscribers of The Patriot will be in position to utilize these special articles while studying the lesson for the following Sunday, the paper reaching them about two days before the time of classroom work. It is a service which should prove of special value to many subscribers. The Patriot is convinced that no other human agency can have so salutary an effect upon the world today as the implanting of Christian precepts in the hearts and minds of men, women and children. Therefore, members of the staff believe that this new department represents a step that is distinctly uplifting. Rev. Mr. Billups is splendidly qualified for the enterprise; in the capable hands of this consecrated and gifted minister the work may confidently be expected to expand to increasingly fruitful proportions.

Readers, and especially Sunday school teachers, who may encounter knotty problems in the Sunday school, should feel perfectly free to call upon Rev. Mr. Billups to help them find the answers to such questions. As assistant pastor of West Market Street church he is a very busy man, but he will endeavor to find time to answer practical questions concerning Sunday school activities. However, in order to insure a reply from the Sunday school department editor in such cases, inquirers must enclose stamped envelopes. All such inquiries should be addressed to Rev. E. P. Billups, West Market Street M. E. Church South, Greensboro, N. C.

VOTE FOR THE CHILDREN.

"A good school for every child." What is wrong with that aim? Nothing. That is all right, an aim that should be endorsed and, The Patriot believes, is endorsed by practically every parent in the county and, for that matter, by practically every man and woman in the county even if they be childless, or their children grown. Most people recognize that it is for the general good, therefore for the private good, for the school system to be as good as possible.

The only argument, then, is how to attain that aim. It can be attained by adoption of the county unit school tax system, the repeal of all special school taxes in the county, High Point township and Greensboro excepted, and the substitution of a uniform tax, not to exceed 25 cents, 10 cents for building and 15 cents for maintenance, the revenue to be collected and administered as a whole for all the schools.

Better schoolhouses, better equipment, better teachers, a high school in the reach of every child and a good elementary school in the reach of every child—is not that something to be desired? Indeed it is, and something that can be achieved by the adoption of this system.

Vote for the plan, then your vote will be in favor of the children, our most precious possessions. It is a vote in favor of the whole county, for progress, but remember that it is first of all a vote for the children, for children upon whom your own happiness depends. Give them a chance, a full chance, so that they may grow into men and women of whom you may well be proud.

Fishing time is near, but as usual the number which will be caught by word of mouth will be greatly in excess of the number to be captured with hook and line.

MOSTLY NONSENSE

By Gee Gee Dee.

ARTIST BEING sued by his wife for divorce says she and her pet dog wrecked his nerves. Perhaps the artist's violin wrecked the pet dog's nerves. At any rate, the artist claims that his wife wrecked the violin.

Recently North Carolina Republicans have been much agitated over the question of the national committee. The chief qualification of the Republican national committee should be the ability to analyze the political service of the multitude of pie-seekers. Shake well before using is a formula which might be relied upon successfully. In other words, has the would-be appointee always functioned in politics as a supporter of bossism? These are fundamentals beside which the questions of the petitioner's business capacity and appetite for pie are things of trivial consequence.

Should it be necessary for appointees to name assistants, will they follow the same high-principled reasoning? To the victors belong the spoils office-seekers, and the ability to discriminate is a thing of tremendous importance. Furthermore, applicants should be able to out-detective the brag Sherlocks in the discovery of positions occupied by men of opposing political faith. For instance, did the janitor in the postoffice at Winston-Salem vote for James G. Blaine back in the eighties? Does he understand that log-rollers are perfectly useless instruments when they are not in action? Finally, has the applicant that uncanny ability to predict Republican victory when several hundred thousands of other people know that Republican defeat is certain? Those who can meet such tests may joyously sing, "Yes, we'll gather at the pie-counter."

There's a vast difference between wall-chimbers and wall-flowers.

It is now up to some ingenious mechanic to perfect a new arm of the radiophone. This should be so arranged that when the man of the house remains out late at night his wife can, by use of the radiophone, determine just where he is located. Properly, similar instruments should be placed in the homes of other wives whose husbands because of extended absences from home do not get value received when they pay house rent. A word to the wise over the radiophone should bring hubby scurrying home. However, the Ancient and Amalgamated Order of Roving Husbands might also employ a radio expert who would be able to develop effective instruments of self-defense. In other words, when you discover a new weapon you cannot restrict the use of it to any one class in this or any other country.

Better results might be obtained if the members of Harding's foreign debt commission would work on a commission on what they collect.

Mrs. Henry Ford says she does not want Henry to be President. Well, she need not lie awake at nights figuring out how many Alice Blue gowns she will need for the inaugural ball and for the mothball's education. Henry Ford is one of the greatest business men the world has produced, but he would have to take several correspondence courses in statesmanship before he could reasonably aspire to important public office. In seeking public office Mr. Ford simply cannot run on his gear, and even his wife does not regard him a self-starter, in a political manner of speaking.

If any doubt remained as to the return of normalcy, it must have been dispelled upon receipt of new dispatches concerning the mid-April behavior of the Mexicans along the border.

VETERANS HAVE CHANCE TO TAKE UP INSURANCE THAT HAS BEEN DROPPED

A special effort is being made by the district manager of the fifth district of the veterans' bureau, of which the state of North Carolina is a part, during the week of April 10-17 to bring to the notice of all the veterans in the district the fact that they now have an opportunity to take up the insurance, which many of them wanted to keep, but were unable owing to straitened financial circumstances at the time that they were discharged from the service.

The subdistrict manager of the Charlotte subdistrict, J. P. Watters, has issued instructions to all the field men and educational directors that they shall use every effort themselves, and get the co-operation of all of the various welfare organizations to the end that every ex-service man shall at least know his rights in the matter, and shall have the benefits of the cheap government insurance brought to his notice, whether he takes advantage of it or not.

Numbers of veterans have deeply regretted the fact that they had to drop this insurance, and are not aware that they can now renew it as cheaply as ever. All that the government requires is a certificate from any reputable physician on a form that they provide showing that the man is in good health; the payment of one month in advance, and the payment for the month that they were protected after they dropped the insurance. So that the insurance is easily taken up again, and can be at once converted into one of the six forms of permanent insurance which the government offers. The beneficiary gains this insurance free from liability for debt, and free from taxation, so that it is a sure and certain estate for the surviving family of the veteran. It is calculated at net cost rates according to the American experience of mortality plus 3 1/2 per cent. There is no charge for any operating expenses, which are borne by the government.

Already $1,030,000 has been paid out in dividends with the insurance less than two years old; and all excess earnings over 3 1/2 per cent and the savings on mortality go to make up a fund from which further dividends are constantly accruing. To this insurance neither travel, military service or hazardous employment make any difference in charge and the permanent disability clause operates at all ages; thus making the government insurance an unique policy and superior to all others. The hazardous employment not being taken into consideration gives a class of men a chance to take this insurance that can virtually get no other save at prohibitive rates.

FIND A BIG DISTILLERY NEAR BEAUFORT CHURCH

New Bern, April 12.—"I have been told that within the hearing of my voice there are three moonshine stills in active operation," was a remark at the Sunday morning services of a preacher at Old Fort, Beaufort county. In less than an hour Thomas and two other deputies captured one large still and discovered traces where two others had been in operation.

E. Sternberger, J. W. Cone, and Jake Oettinger visited the school last week, and each in turn spoke to the students and people of the community, who had assembled at the community church to hear them. The condition of Thomas Brown remains critical. His son, June Brown, and wife, of Richmond, came to see him last Friday.
Mrs. D. Lanier Donnell entertained the Community club and the Woman's club jointly, last Thursday. It was lavishly done. Many questions of interest were taken up and thoroughly discussed. There were lectures on how to "keep fit"; if you are fat, how to get rid of it, and if you are lean, how to put on more flesh. The health problem is a most vital one, and all social gatherings would do well to emphasize it. Her bungalow was all aglow with flowers as well as the beautiful dresses of the guests. Refreshments were served.
Oak Ridge institute won honors in athletic events last week. The baseball team took two games from State college, Raleigh. The score of the first game was 11-0; the second, 13-2. Fountain, and Whitaker for Oak Ridge won the tennis doubles, and Whitaker for Oak Ridge won tennis singles at the state meet at the University of North Carolina, thereby capturing two silver cups. For some years Oak Ridge has been so fortunate as to win tennis doubles, but this is the first year it has won both doubles and singles.
There are some seasons of the year that are peculiarly delightful. That is true here now. The apple trees are gorgeous and flood the air with the sweetness of their blossom. The forests have changed from the bare cold brown of winter to the tints of coming spring. The dogwood and the haw are in bloom, and the fields of wheat and clover billow with every breeze. The fullness of the season fills the heart of the boy. His shoes are off and he darts barefooted here and there and sings in happiness of living. The angle worms are crawling about and enticing even the old and staid from quiet pursuits to the banks of stream and lake where perch and hornhead, bass and catfish play all day. Some day leave your office, Mr. Editor, get in your car and come to this part of northwest Guilford. Soon after crossing the bridge at Summerfield you get a glimpse of the Blue Ridge and Saurytown mountain far to the northwest rimming the sky, steadily you climb until you reach Oak Ridge, more than 1,000 feet above sea level. Every foot of the way will give you pleasure if you love the beauty of field and wood and rolling landscape.

BIG BOND REQUIRED

Charlie Robbins Bound Over
On Auto Larceny
Charge.

Charlie Robbins, son of Julius Robbins, who lives on the Guilford Battleground road near here, given a hearing before Judge D. H. Collins in Municipal court here Wednesday on a charge of larceny of an automobile, was bound over for trial at Superior court and bond fixed at $5,000.

The heavy bond required is unusual and in line with Judge Collins' other efforts along the same line, in an attempt to discourage automobile theft.

Charlie Robbins, it is charged, stole a Ford coupe, the property of J. A. Matheson, on November 5.

The young man was arrested on March 28, when deputy sheriffs went to get him and his brother Randolph at the home of their father, Randolph Collins was an escaped convict. The elder Robbins, Julius, put up a terrific fight with Sheriff Stafford, after defying six deputies, all three of the Robbins being finally landed in jail.

DURHAM WAREHOUSEMEN TO TURN OVER THEIR HOUSES

Durham, April 11.—A majority of the local tobacco warehousemen have agreed to turn over their warehouses to the Co-operative Marketing association, provided adequate arrangements can be made in regard to leases, it has been announced.

One warehouse, the Star Brick, will not be turned over to the association, according to announcement by the proprietor. The management of the warehouse sets forth, however, that there is to be no effort to fight the co-operative association.

Archibald Johnson III.

Thomasville, April 12.—Friends of Archibald Johnson are exceedingly solicitous about his physical condition. His physicians ordered him to bed more than ten days ago, the hope being that rest and quiet would restore him. It is learned that he is becoming much weaker with the passing days.

BUILDING FALLS

City's Garage Gives Way.
Seven Have Narrow Escape.

The walls of the city's garage, a stone structure next to the city lockup, gave way on one side Tuesday and the building collapsed. Seven persons had a narrow escape from injury and possibly death. The cause of the walls giving way was the excavation work done on the site for the Huntley-Stockton-Hill building. Three workmen were digging in a trench next to the garage and hardly had time to jump out and escape the falling stones when a foreman shouted to them.

Policemen Kirkman and Burnside were standing just outside the door of the building and jumped when they heard the crackling preceding the collapse. Two negro women who had been visiting at the city lockup came near being hurt as they passed the falling building, the policemen warning them.

It was considered best to remove the prisoners in the lockup to the county jail, as it is feared that the city jail, too, may collapse.

AN EASTER SERMON

"THE OPEN SEPULCHRE," OR "JESUS VICTORIOUS."

TEXT: He is not here: for He is risen, as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.—Matthew 28:6.

Last Sunday evening we had the account of Christ's death on the cross. It was three o'clock in the afternoon when He bowed His head and died. Just before sundown, Joseph of Arimathea, who had up to this time been a disciple secretly for fear of the Jews, now came out boldly and asked for the body of Jesus that he might bury it. Nicodemus, who had come to Jesus by night inquiring the way of life, came and helped him. Together they lifted the bleeding body down from the cross and bathed the blood away. Then they wrapped it in grave clothes and carried it down the hillside to a garden which Joseph owned and there they buried it in a new-made tomb. They rolled a great stone to the mouth of the tomb and made it fast. A company of women had followed and noted where the body was laid that they might bring spices and anoint it. The Jews were afraid the disciples of Jesus would come by night and steal his body and claim that he had been raised from the dead, so they went to Pilate and secured a guard of Roman soldiers and placed them by the grave to keep watch.

It was a time of rejoicing on the part of the enemies of Christ. They would be bothered by this troublesome fellow no more. They thought they had put Him out of the way forever, so they went to their homes that Friday night with a feeling of satisfaction. And there was rejoicing at another place that night, and that was in the halls of hell. Satan felt that he had won a glorious triumph and the demons of darkness met together to celebrate the victory. But in the hearts of the disciples of Christ there was hopelessness and despair. They had hoped that He whom they had followed for three years was to have been the one who would redeem Israel from the hand of their oppressors, but now He was Mary Magdalene, and then He appeared to others. During the space of forty days He remained on the earth and showed Himself to His disciples in various places. At the end of the forty days, one morning He led His disciples out to Mt. Olivet. He stood with them on the summit of the mountain and talked with them about the things they were to do. Then, suddenly, while His hands were outspread and He was pronouncing a blessing on His disciples, He began to rise from their midst. Up, up His glorified body went until at last it disappeared in the distant clouds of the heavens. They stood gazing after it with wondering eyes until they were startled by the appearance of two men in white apparel standing by them, who spoke comforting words to them. Then they turned and went back to Jerusalem to wait for the fulfillment of His promise of the coming of the Spirit.

And what had taken place behind the clouds up yonder? There had been the triumphant return of the Son of God to His place at the Father's right hand in glory. And what a triumph was that. In the olden days, when the enemies of the Roman empire were threatening, the emperor would meet the opposing army and hurl them back in defeat. He would capture many prisoners to carry home as slaves. And when tidings would reach the city of Rome that her emperor had defeated the enemy and was coming back victorious, what a triumph would be planned for him. Arches were built, festivities were planned, and the whole city arose to meet her returning emperor and when the first glimpse of his chariot was seen they would lift up their voices like the voice of thunders and sing the praises of their victorious king.

Down on this earth the enemies of God had made their stand and were threatening to destroy a part of God's creation. The Son of God had left His home on high and had come to earth to meet the enemy and to hurl him back. He had met him in the wilderness, He had met him in the garden, He had met him on the cross. His body was wounded and bore the scars of the battle. But He had come forth victorious, having inflicted everlasting defeat on the enemies of God, and now He was returning to His Father's side. What a triumph was that, when the eternal city opened her gates for the return of her Lord, when the angel hosts with their harps of gold came forth to meet Him and lifted their voices in songs of praise, and the Son of God, bearing the scars of the battle, entered again into glory and sat down at His place at the right hand of the Father. And around the throne the multitude of angels gathered and sang, 'Unto Him that sitteth on the throne, and unto the Lamb, be blessing and honor and glory and dominion for ever and ever.'

And what does the open sepulchre of Joseph's garden mean to you and to me and to this old world lost in sin? 1. It means that Jesus has met death for us and plucked out his sting. He didn't take death away, but He plucked out its deadly sting so that it is powerless to hurt the child of God. It is like the serpent coiled by the highway striking those who pass by and sending its deadly poison into their bodies, bringing pain and suffering and death. But one day one goes out and lays hold of the serpent and overcomes it and plucks out its poison sting, and leaves it helpless. It still strikes at the passer by, but its power to hurt is gone. So death, like a serpent coiled in the pathway of man striking him with its poison sting. But Christ came and went forth to meet death, and overcame it, and plucked out its sting. It still is coiled in the pathway of man, but its power to hurt the child of God is forever gone. Christ has plucked out its sting.

2. What means the open sepulchre? It means that Christ has blazed a way for His people through the valley of the shadows. Man goes along the pathway of life until after a while he comes to a dark valley, called the valley of the shadow of death. Into this valley the human race has been plunging since human history began. It was a plunge into the unknown. Those who were left behind saw their loved ones enter the valley and then saw them no more and knew not whether they had gone, or what experiences they had met down there in the shadows. They saw themselves hastening on to that valley and were powerless to turn away from it, and yet they knew not what lay beyond, or how they would get across. Jesus came and

C. A. HINES RESIGNS AT CITY ATTORNEY

Charles A. Hines, city attorney of Greensboro, tendered his resignation to the city council at a meeting Thursday afternoon, to take effect as soon as a successor can be chosen. Mr. Hines, who has been city attorney for five years, resigned for two reasons. One is the matter of salary. He has been receiving $100 per month. In December he told the city council that the work has increased to such an extent as to justify a larger salary and several conferences were held with committees of the council but without satisfactory results. Again, Mr. Hines is a member of the legal firm of Brooks, Hines and Smith, now attorneys for the North Carolina Public Service company. It was thought by some of the members of the council that it would be embarrassing to have a member of the firm representing the city in case of litigation between the two.

Members of the council in referring to the matter spoke in the highest terms of Mr. Hines. He himself urged them to act upon his resignation and by unanimous vote it was accepted, under the circumstances. A successor has not been chosen, but it is understood that A. Wayland Cooke is a probable choice.

Him to statement: The hatchet will not remain buried, however, under a double cross.—Hartford Times.

THE MESSAGE OF EASTER

The International Sunday School Lesson,
By REV. E. P. BILLUPS,
Assistant Pastor West Market Street Methodist Church.

John 20:19-31.

The Appearance.—It was Easter, the day of all days, the beginning of all things to the Christian. The time of the day was evening, after the day's work when quiet brooded over the earth—a time when families assembled in closer fellowship. The disciples were assembled, and with no little apprehension and anxiety were doubtlessly discussing the events of the day—i. e., the appearance of Jesus to Mary, to the other woman returning from the tomb, to Simon Peter, and to the two unnamed disciples on the road to Emmaus and at Emmaus. Jesus appears in the midst of this little circle and greets them with the words, "Peace be unto you." This greeting had a special significance to this little band bereft of their Leader. Jesus had compassion on them and sympathized with them in their sorrow. The coming of Jesus always brings peace. "Not as the world giveth"—the world gives houses and lands, stocks and bonds, and material wealth; Jesus gives "peace that passeth understanding."

The Spiritual Meaning of His Visit.—After greeting His disciples the Savior passes quickly to the spiritual meaning of his visit. "As My Father hath sent Me, even so send I you." Jesus came not to be ministered unto, but to minister; not to receive, or to enjoy, or to have; but to give, and to endure, and to surrender. He was sent to suffer, to live in want, and to die in humiliation; and to this end our lives must be self-surrendered. And Jesus equipped His disciples for their mighty tasks, breathing upon them and saying, "Receive ye the Holy Ghost." And this power of the Holy Spirit working in the hearts of the disciples, bringing about such miraculous changes in their lives and causing them fearlessly to preach the Word unto the uttermost parts of the earth in the face of death and persecution is an irrefragable testimony of the power of the resurrection.

Thomas Doubts.—Thomas, like many another disciple since, is dependent on outward manifestations of faith. But when he sees Jesus he is ashamed of his scepticism. He arises to a high confession of faith in his exclamation, "My Lord and my God." The troubles of Thomas were not as great as he thought. Likewise today, our troubles are not intellectual, as we often think; they are troubles of the heart—the troubles of sin and sorrow and heart-ache which need for their cure simple faith in the risen Lord. Always, "tis the heart and not the brain that to the highest doth attain." A warm heart is a safer guide than a cold brain. "Believing where we cannot prove," we accept Jesus by faith. "Blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed."

The Power of the Resurrection.—The greatest event in the history of the universe is just closed, but Jesus does not pause to discuss it with His disciples. The facts are before us; the resurrection is the best proved event of history. It is a firm belief in the resurrection that has encouraged man in his fight against the forces of evil. It is by faith in the power of the risen Lord that there is triumph in life over death, of the higher over the lower, of truth over error, of light over darkness; it is this faith that enables the Christian to live well and to act nobly; and it is this which will finally triumph over sin and misrule and usher in the glad reign of peace.

"When the war-drum throbs no longer and the battle-flags are furled,

In the Parliament of men, the Federation of the world."

"But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through His name."

NORTH CAROLINA SENDS HUGE AMOUNT TO OTHER STATES FOR FOODSTUFFS

Raleigh, April 12.—North Carolina imported in 1920 food and feed products of a value of more than $235,000,000, according to figures which have just been compiled from census reports under the direction of E. C. Branson, head of the department of rural economics of the University of North Carolina. The average prices of food production in 1920 were higher than at the present time, but even at that the recent conservative estimate by John Paul Lucas that North Carolina was sending out of the state not less than $100,000,000 a year for these products is shown to be ultra-conservative.

The University News Letter of April 3 features the "Live-at-Home" campaign and Dr. Branson is quoted in his presentation of the present situation in North Carolina with regard to the production of food and feed stuffs from studies and investigations by Prof. F. S. Hobbs and Miss H. R. Smedes.

In referring to the position of North Carolina as fourth in the value of our field crops, the statement is made that we have confused crop wealth with agricultural wealth because crop farming is so nearly universal with us. We are not the fourth largest producer of agricultural wealth, because as a livestock state we are one of the poorest developed in the entire Union. Only about one-fourth of our new farm wealth created each year comes from the sale of livestock and livestock products. The status of the eastern half of North Carolina, the great tenant, cash-crop, area, as a livestock region is pitiful.

It is shown that while there has been something accomplished in the way of breed improvement in North Carolina, the state is really no better off in the matter of livestock production than it was in 1910, which time it was 75 per cent below the level of even a lightly stocked farm area.

One-third of the farmers of the state eat no butter and drink no milk; and of course are providing no milk for their growing children, because they have no milk cows. Iowa with fewer farmers has four times as many milk cows and these are of better quality.

Less than half the farmers of the state grow sweet potatoes for family use and a much smaller number grow Irish potatoes. North Carolina imports more wheat than it produces and one-half the farmers in the state in 1920 produced no hay or forage for their work-stock.

"The simple truth is," says Professor Hobbs, "that thousands of our farmers do not begin to feed their family and livestock. People on these farms live on short rations, especially in lean years. Their diet is ill-balanced and insufficient. They are undernourished, their children badly fed and their physical development stunted."

FARMING BETTER

Governors of States Think the Worst Is Behind. Around the Corner.

New York, April 12.—Conviction that the farmers of the United States have "turned the corner" and are now started on the road to normal prosperous conditions was the consensus of statements by governors of leading agricultural states made public here Monday.

The assurances were given in response to an inquiry by E. A. Strout to ascertain the facts concerning the agricultural situation. They came from agricultural states representatives of all sections of the country, from New England to the plains states of the middle west and from the Great Lakes to Virginia and Mississippi.

In making these reports public, Mr. Strout expressed the belief that they reflected accurately a widespread condition extending throughout the farming states from the Atlantic seaboard to the Rocky Mountains.

Some of the governors not only asserted that the farming situation was improved but forecast imminent improvement in the industry generally.

ROBESON COUNTY TO HAVE TUBERCULIN CATTLE TEST

Lumberton, April 12.—The board of commissioners of Robeson county have made the necessary appropriation for making a county-wide tuberculin test of cattle. There are around 6,000 head of cattle in the county and it is expected that it will require about one year for two men to complete the tests. One-half the cost of the campaign will be borne by the federal government. The work will begin May 10, next.

For Raw Sore Throat

At the first sign of a raw, sore throat rub on a little Musterole with your fingers.

It goes right to the spot with a gentle tingle, loosens congestion, draws out soreness and pain.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It has all the strength of the old-fashioned mustard plaster without the blister.

Nothing like Musterole for croupy children. Keep it handy for instant use. 35 and 65 cents in jars and tubes; hospital size, $3.

Vital Questions for YOU

For the consideration of every man and woman in rural Guilford interested in seeing the best educational advantages given their children:

Who should register and vote for the county equalization tax?

Those who favor equal elementary school advantages for every child and also favor guaranteeing to all the children of the county the opportunity of getting a high school education.

Who should oppose it?

Those who favor the continuation of the present inequality of school opportunities for the children of the county.

What is the maximum tax rate fixed by the law under which this election is held?

Not exceeding 10c on the $100 valuation of property for building purposes and not exceeding 15c on the $100 valuation of property for school maintenance.

If this election carries, will all local school taxes be abolished?

YES. Section 4 of the act provides that if a majority of the qualified voters favor the county wide tax, it shall operate to repeal all local school taxes. The law was amended by the special session of the Legislature so that the ballot will now read "For Abolishing all Local School Taxes and Adopting a County-wide Equalizing Tax," and "Against Abolishing all Local School Taxes and Adopting a County-wide Equalization Tax." The amendment was secured in order to avoid the confusion which arose last year over the question as to whether local school taxes would be abolished.

Does this law take away from the local school authorities any of the powers which they now have?

NO. Section 10 provides that this act shall not interfere in any way with the organization of schools as provided in the general law. It also provides for a meeting of the people of each school district for the purpose of recommending members of the school committee.

If this act is approved by a vote of the people, does it mean that all small schools will be abolished?

NO. The question of consolidation will be worked out by co-operation between the county board of education and the people of the various sections of the county. If the people want the school retained, the county board of education will co-operate in retaining and building up that school; if the people want the school abolished and transportation provided to a larger school, the county board of education will co-operate with the people to that end.

Will the ratification of this act lower the standard of the best schools?

NO. But the foundation will be laid for giving to every section of the county school advantages equal to those which are now enjoyed by those who live in the sections which have the best schools.

IT IS THE DUTY OF GUILFORD COUNTY TO GUARANTEE TO EVERY CHILD GOOD SCHOOL ADVANTAGES. HERE IS THE OPPORTUNITY.

CAROLINA WEDDINGS

A BALLAD OF TREES AND THE MASTER.

Into the woods my Master went,
Clean forspent, forspent.
Into the woods my Master came,
Forspent with love and shame.
But the olives they were not blind
to Him;
The little gray leaves were kind to Him;
The thorn-tree had a mind to Him
When into the woods He came.

Out of the woods my Master went,
And He was well content.
Out of the woods my Master came,
Content with death and shame.
When Death and Shame would woo
Him last,
From under the trees they drew Him
last:
Twas on a tree they slew Him—
last,
When out of the woods He came.

Dear Sir: In order that I may feel absolutely sure that there will be no doubt about getting enough Zell's this spring, I will appreciate it if you will please book me now for six hundred and fifty--650--tons of Zell's Bright Tobacco Grower, to be shipped between April 1st and 15th. I will give you definite shipping instructions just as soon as I can see all of my tenants.

You may be gratified to know that tobacco grown with Zell's Bright Tobacco Grower brought the highest price of any tobacco sold by me this season.
