BANK CASHIER UNDER ARREST

Basil H. Hedgecock Is Held For Alleged Shortage.

DENIES HE IS GUILTY

Warrant Charges Misappropriation Of Funds To Extent Of $67,344.69—Banking Company Is Entirely Solvent.

Following his arrest in High Point Tuesday night, Basil H. Hedgecock, cashier of the Home Banking company, of that city, today is reported still in the custody of Chief of Police Blackwelder, of High Point, but it is considered probable that before the end of the day sufficient bond for the cashier's appearance in court will have been arranged.

Mr. Hedgecock was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Clarence Latham, state bank examiner, charging misappropriation of funds to the extent of $67,344.69. The warrant was procured after an examination of the bank by state examiners, the examination having been in progress since Saturday. Judge W. P. Bynum and S. S. Alderman, of this city, have been retained as attorneys for the defendant.

At first bond was fixed at $45,000, but subsequently the amount was reduced to $25,000. In a statement in Greensboro last night Mr. Hedgecock said he and his family had furnished $45,000 bond. It was also stated that M. J. Wrenn, T. F. Wrenn and George Penny, directors of the bank, had furnished $100,000 bond. Officials of the bank declare that the institution is absolutely solvent and no run on the bank is anticipated.

Since Tuesday Mr. Hedgecock has been in custody of an officer. Tuesday night he spent at the Sheraton hotel in High Point and Wednesday night he was quartered at Hotel Arthur in that city. He denies that he has misappropriated any funds. The following statement was attributed to the cashier in High Point yesterday: "If I go to jail for this situation, two other men are going also." However, in Greensboro last night he denied that the reference was to other officials of the bank. Mr. Hedgecock asserted that incompetent help in the bank was partly responsible for existing affairs. "Too much of the work was shoved on me," he said. He added that the accounts can be made good by those who secured the money. Bank officials have stated that he disregarded other officers of the bank in making loans.

Mr. Hedgecock is a native of Guilford county.

PLAN TO CONSTRUCT HARD SURFACE ROAD

Survey Started On Greensboro-Reidsville Road—Work Will Be Done In Three Batches.

A survey of the road from Greensboro to Reidsville has been started by state highway engineers. It is intended to start construction as soon as the survey can be completed and contracts let. The road will be 35 miles long and will cost, hard surfaced, $750,000. The road is divided for the purposes of construction into three projects. The first of these, from Greensboro to Reedy Fork, is being surveyed. It is expected the contract will be let and work started by June 1.

Then the second link, between Reedy Fork and the Rockingham county line, will be taken up, with the stretch from the Rockingham line to Reidsville last.

From Reidsville to the Virginia line the road has been surveyed and the contract will probably be let soon. That part of the highway will cost about $540,000.

REQUESTS FOR BETTER ROADS

Commissioners Asked To Sand Clay Seven Roads.

JURORS ARE DRAWN

Chosen For Two Terms Of Court In June—New County Home Is Nearly Completed—Other Business Of Board.

Delegations calling for roads be assigned the Guilford board of county commissioners Tuesday. They wanted sand clay work done in many parts of the county and were insistent and persuasive. Ten delegations lined up at the meeting of the board. They wanted sand clay roads and spoke feelingly of the need of improvement. Each delegation came prepared to put up strong pleas for relief in the matter of roads and earnestly urged the board to take action.

They were all told that the commissioners would investigate and see what can be done.

One delegation asked that a road from Summerfield, running east by Wilson for four miles, be sand-clayed.

Sand clay was requested for a stretch of three miles on the Friendship road, by Ed Chinnand's place to Sandy Ridge schoolhouse.

People living on a road leading from High Point, through Cloverfield and Gray's farm to the Randolph county line, two miles, asked that it be sand-clayed.

The road from Watlington's mill to the Rockingham-Caswell line, two and one-half miles, should be sand-clayed, one delegation told the board.

Another group of citizens asked for sand clay on four miles on the Hopewell church road from Hopewell to Hamburg mills.

Sand clay was wanted on the road from Mrs. G. T. Waynick's place, by G. T. Roberts to D. R. Huffine's mill, one and one-half miles.

On a road from C. F. Smith's farm to E. F. Smith's, in South Madison, three miles of sand clay was urged.

Considerable other business was handled by the commissioners Tuesday. Jurors were drawn for the June civil and criminal terms of court. A civil term will begin on June 12 and a term for the civil and criminal cases on June 19.

Following is the list of jurors: Washington township: J. C. Huffines and William S. Horth; Rock Creek, C. T. Green and L. S. Ingle; Greene, H. E. Fridman and H. Floyd Amick; Madison, T. F. Faucett and Henry S. Lowe; Jefferson, W. L. May and W. P. Baldwin; Clay, C. C. Hardin and R. C. Rankin; Monroe, J. A. May and H. P. Jackson; Gilmer, J. E. Stadler, D. C. Hucklebee, J. A. Wray, W. W. Walker, James B. York and W. B. Isham; Fentress, C. M. Kirkman and C. H. Kirkman; Center Grove, W. T. Davenport and N. A. Lashley; Morehead, W. A. Mann, R. B. Boren; H. P. Wray, W. C. Lambert, S. R. Morrison and C. R. McIver; Sumner, J. M. Short and S. R. Short; Bruce, N. J. Peden and J. B. Smith; Friendship, Lee Paschal and P. L. Pegram; Jamestown, J. E. Cruthis and V. W. Horney; Oak Ridge, J. F. Powell and P. L. Pegram; Deep River, W. E. Bowman and R. E. Smith; High Point, W. C. Idol, R. E. Atkins, A. Lyon, J. L. Lowe, E. R. Hedrick and E. M. McLeod.

The new county home was inspected in the afternoon. The work is nearly complete and it is thought that the opening can be held some time this month. F. A. Brooks and E. J. Mendenhall, of the Greensboro city council, asked the board for 10 feet from the sidewalks in the front and rear of the courthouse, the grass plots on the outer edge of the sidewalks. The space is wanted by the city for parking space. The board was divided on the proposition and action was deferred.

PROVISION FOR CATTLE TESTS

County Commissioners Appropriate $3,000.

WORK TO START SOON

Will Rid County Of Tubercular Cattle, In Co-operation With State and Federal Authorities, Beginning Soon.

Three thousand yearly was appropriated by the Guilford county commissioners at their meeting late Monday afternoon, just before the board adjourned, for assisting the state and federal authorities in the eradication of tuberculous among cattle in this county.

The money will be used for testing cattle for tuberculosis and slaughtering those found to have the disease. It is intended to get rid of every cow in the county with tuberculosis, thus removing a menace to the health of the people.

Filed with the board Monday was a petition from several taxpayers of the county stating that a large number of the property owners of the county were in favor of an election on the question of an appropriation and the petition closed with the request that the board call the election.

An election would have cost the county $1,000, and the board went ahead and appropriated the money. It was stated that the commissioners have all along been in favor of appropriating the money but on account of the protests over taxation hesitated.

Action toward stamping out the disease among cattle follows vigorous work on the part of the Guilford County Farm bureau and other organizations. The bureau some time ago asked that the county co-operate with agencies of the national and state governments. The bureau was unwilling to give up the struggle and had prepared petitions calling for an election in case the commissioners refused an appropriation.

It is thought that the work among tubercular cattle will begin in the very near future. As long as Guilford cattle were untested there was always the danger that it would have not only its own diseased cattle as a danger to health but others dumped here. Inspection will stop that.

In taking the action that it did, the county lines up with other progressive counties of the state which have taken means to rid themselves of tubercular cattle. It is recognized that people drinking milk from untested cattle run a terrible risk of the "great white plague," children especially, and it was considered that it was not only a wise, but a humanitarian measure to remove that danger.

ARRESTED HERE ON CHARGE OF BIGAMY

The Last Wife Of H. G. Kolb Stands By Him, However, In Time Of Trouble.

H. G. Kolb, a young white man of this city, coming here from the north about the first of last January, was arrested Monday afternoon on a charge of bigamy and carried to jail, where a little later he made arrangements for $500 bond.

Local policemen, who worked up the case and arrested Kolb, obtained possession of what purported to be a marriage license and certificate to show that Kolb, while divorced, married a woman in Maryland in November, 1920. He married Miss Ethel Goodnight, of this city, on last April 6. It is said that he has a divorce suit pending against the woman it is alleged he married in Maryland.

His last wife did not desert him when he was arrested but helped him to arrange bond. She knew nothing of the charges against him until she was shown the alleged certificate of his marriage to another woman.

Commissioners Certify Vote On School Tax

The vote in the county-wide, uniform school tax election, held last week, was officially canvassed and certified by the board of county commissioners Monday. It was shown that the excess in favor of the required number to carry was 441. The Patriot printed the vote by townships, in the issue of April 26, at which time the unofficial majority was given as 444. The official count shows that of the 5,093 voters registered, 2,988 voted for it and that voting against it and counted against it by reason of not voting were 2,105, of whom 1,102 went to the polls to vote against the plan, although their votes would have counted against it they had stayed at home. Over half the registration was necessary to carry, or 2,547.

AUTO THIEVES GET FIVE YEARS

Superior Court Moves Along With Criminal Cases.

ROBBINS IS CLEARED

But Federal Officers Arrest Him Again—Tobacco Spitter Made To Clean Up and Fined Five Dollars.

Superior court for the trial of criminal cases has moved with considerable speed this week, good progress being made on the docket. Automobile theft cases are the most serious ones tried so far.

Charles Robbins, young white man, was found not guilty Wednesday on a charge of stealing an automobile. Just after his brother, Rose Robbins, was shot and killed while fleeing in an automobile from prohibition officers near Martinsville, Va., last fall, Charles Robbins went to get the car. He claimed that it was his, that he bought it from his brother. When he was released by the court Wednesday he was re-arrested and put under $250 bond for trial in Federal court on the same charge, in connection with the same case.

The case of the state against Dewey Bass, Walter Tickle, Dan Williams, Julius Needham and Arnold Talley, charged with car breaking, was being tried today. Needham entered a plea of guilty of aiding and abetting in entering the car.

Oscar Lee, a negro, submitted a plea of guilty in a statutory charge, in connection with the abuse of a negro girl. Sentence has not yet been pronounced.

Rush Donnell was given six months on the roads for a statutory offense.

The grand jury reported 37 true bills.

It is expected that the trial of Claude and Clarence Schoolfield, charged with passing a bogus check for $10,000 at the American Exchange National bank here, will be tried at the term to begin June 19. Continuance of the case until the next criminal term of court was ordered today by Judge Long.

Tuesday Sam P. Wayker, of this city, was careless with his tobacco juice, spitting on the floor of the courtroom. Judge Long saw him and gave him a warm lecture, made him take a mop and clean up the floor where he had spit, and fined him $5. Walker apologized and said he would never let it happen again. Judge Long had warned in a talk Monday that desecration and defilement of the courthouse must stop.

Two five-year sentences for automobile theft were given Tuesday.

TWO KILLED WHEN TRAIN HITS AUTO

Two Women At High Point Terribly Mangled—Driver Of Car Has Narrow Escape.

High Point, May 3.—Mrs. N. W. Draughn, aged 40, and Miss Janie Anderson, aged 32, were killed instantly, and J. J. Bell injured when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by Southern passenger train No. 46 six blocks south of the passenger station here Monday evening.

Bell clung to the wreckage of the automobile, on the pilot of the engine. The two women were thrown under the locomotive, caught by the car trucks and carried along with the train, one of them being thrown from beneath the baggage car after a block had been traversed, while the other was found under the baggage car when it stopped. As the train was stopped Bell rolled on the rails in front of the engine. His injuries are not serious.

He was driving the car, a sedan. He said that he did not hear the train and could not see it because of box cars on a sidetrack at the crossing. Others stated that the whistle was blown at every crossing. Bell was bookkeeper for the Barnes Furniture company here and the women were employed as stenographers by it.

FARM DEMONSTRATION

Successful Storage.

The need for a system of sweet potato storage warehouses in Guilford county is urgent. No matter how large a potato crop is made a part of it is bound to spoil unless proper methods of storage are used. How to keep sweet potatoes has always been an unsolved problem. Storage houses are essential. The following, from the Extension Farm News, a pamphlet issued by the extension service of the North Carolina State College of Agriculture and the state department of agriculture, should be of interest as showing what is being done by growers elsewhere.

Sweet potato growers in the vicinity of Smithfield, Johnston county, are organizing themselves into a growers' co-operative association for the purpose of storing and marketing their potatoes. They are planning to build a 5,000 or 6,000-bushel house, arranged so as to make it easily possible to add to the capacity in the future should conditions be necessary.

Several of the leading farmers in the community are putting in from one to three acres each to go through the association and many of the men have already placed their orders with the county agent for bedding stock free from disease and true to variety type.

An illustration of the value of quality is found on one of the local markets in this county, according to S. J. Kirby, county agent. Hill potatoes on this market were offered by the grocersmen at 30 to 35 cents a peck and storage house potatoes at 60 cents a peck. "The trade demands storage house potatoes not only because they are guaranteed to be sound," says Mr. Kirby, "but because they are actually better."

Another example of storage house potatoes is that of H. C. Wood, who has a storage house near his dwelling in Smithfield. He built it for his private use, and it has in it between 300 and 400 bushels of fine potatoes of the Nancy Hall and Porto Rica varieties. He recently put some of them on the market and got two dollars per bushel for them. They are not only very fine, but are keeping in perfect order. His house is built by the latest plans.

OFFICIAL COUNT OF VOTE IN GIBSONVILLE ELECTION

When the official vote in the Gibsonville school building bond election, held Tuesday of last week, a $100,000 affair, was canvassed by the board of county commissioners Monday afternoon it was found that out of the registration of 395 votes 274 were for the bonds, leaving counted against 112. Necessary to win was more than half, or 198.

PUBLIC HEALTH

By Wm. M. Jones, M. D.

Examination of the following monthly report will show that there has been a gratifying decrease in the number of communicable diseases in the county, this being especially noticeable as to measles. One case of smallpox was reported in Sumner township—but the report speaks for itself:

Report of Wm. M. Jones, M. D., to the County Commissioners
For April, 1922.

County Home: Here twelve visits have been made. These have been all for one case.

County Jail: Here only nine calls have been made, most of which were for the purpose of examination and minor complaints. One case that has been in the hospital ward for several weeks will be transferred to the county home next week. Two men who were injured and sent to jail have been returned to camp.

County Camp: Here twelve calls have been made, most of which were for only minor complaints. One case was removed from the camp and carried to the hospital for an operation. Much improvement has been made in the camp by using the cots in place of bunks. I recommend the cutting of another window in the room occupied by the white men.

Office calls, 56; charity calls, 7; smallpox vaccinations, 12; marriage license examinations, 12; examined for federal child labor, 1; nuisances examined, 4; court examinations, 4; insane examinations, 4; coroner examinations, 2; lectures, 4; anti-tetanus vaccine, 2.

Communicable Diseases Reported.

Chickenpox, 1; Friendship; septic sore throat, 0; whooping cough, 0; smallpox 1; Monro; scarlet fever, 1; Gilmer; diphtheria, 1; Morehead; cerebro spinal meningitis, 0; typhoid fever, 2; Morehead and Gilmer. Measles, 29; Jefferson 2; Morehead 3; Gilmer 24.

I believe in BUICK dependability, I believe in BUICK economy, I believe in BUICK service. And I believe in these things because I have seen them demonstrated time after time. The best BUICK salesman is the BUICK itself. On thousands of highways it speaks the language of Greatest Performance, Supreme Dependability, Maximum Economy, Superior Service and Matchless Satisfaction for the motorist. I have limitless faith in that message---certainly I believe in the BUICK.

Dozen 'possums were found in Greensboro the other day. They had probably heard all the roaming dogs were to be muzzled.

North Carolinian recently purchased a railroad for $6,000, a thing which some people will be unable to understand, as he could have bought a half dozen automobiles for that much money.

SHOULD REPRESENT ALL.

It may be a little early to be giving any advice to the voters, but the candidates will be singing their songs in the near future, indeed some of them are tuning up now.

It is hard to forget the personal element in voting. This fellow is a "good fellow," we say, and he gets lots of votes being that way. Another promises well, making a particular appeal to some of us, perhaps. Another promises a great deal to everybody, more than he can fulfill, and everybody knows it. Still another type, getting common now in national, state and county politics, promises great things for one particular class.

For example, in the thickly congested industrial regions some fellow or other will promise to look out altogether for the interests of the wage earners. He will get all he can for them, he says, and to the devil with the other citizens—who help to pay his salary. That is not right. Neither is it right for one man to come out and say to the farmers, for that matter, in effect, "To the devil with all the others, I will cut their throats if I can and you and I will drink their blood."

There is too much of class legislation and class feeling as it is. A candidate should represent all the people. A man in the legislature should represent the people of his county, those in the cities and those in the rural districts, everybody, giving them all a fair, square deal. Then he should represent the state, too, having intelligence and courage enough to take an active part in matters affecting the welfare of the whole state. He ought to be the representative of everybody.

IT WILL SUCCEED.

There is no reason why the curb market, to be started here on Tuesday, May 16, should not succeed. Here on the one hand are the farmers, wanting to sell their produce with the least expense and expenditure of time. There on the other are the housewives of Greensboro, wanting to buy in a fresh market, where they can have a big variety to choose from. Producer and consumer coming together—that is the ideal arrangement, with no middleman taking his toll for handling.

It may be pointed out that many of the women of Greensboro will stick to their telephones to order their vegetables and other food stuffs. Of course. All the women of Greensboro could not get on the lot where the curb market is to be held, the open space before the two new tobacco warehouses on Greene street. If all the women of Greensboro were there there would be no room for the farmers to get in the market. Of course they will not all be there. But there is many a woman in Greensboro and there will be plenty of them at the market. They have promised to come, plenty of them.

Then it is said, perhaps, that they will not want to take their purchases home with them. Yet in Greensboro there are several cash and carry stores and they all do a big business. The next time you are in Greensboro stand in front of one of them for a few minutes and see the women going in and out; their arms full of packages. Of course they could not take home two 50-pound watermelons unless they came in a car, but there will be many things sold at the curb market other than watermelons. They could not take home half a hog, either, but there will be other things sold there.

This market will be a success. One thing is necessary. There must be enough produce there for the women. When a lot of them come if there should be but a few farmers offering their wares the women will decide, and rightly, that the farmer would rather sell for less at the grocery stores, or take up a great deal of his time peddling through the streets, selling at perhaps one house in 20. Let there be plenty for sale Tuesday morning, May 16.

The Volstead act is designed to be a disturbing influence in the lives of some bad actors.

MOSTLY NONSENSE

By Gee Gee Dee.

MICHIGAN CLAIMS to have the long-whiskered champion of the world as one of its citizens. Name, John Turner; address, Brighton, Mich.; age, 84; length of beard, nine feet, or three yards, or, if you prefer, one hundred and eight inches. How on earth a man succeeded in growing a nine-foot beard in only 84 years is an unfathomable mystery, but the records in this case appear to be duly authenticated. Perhaps Uncle John will be able to function as the man with the longest beard at the Sacramento celebration of the "Days of '49," which is scheduled for May 23-28.

It is our solemn opinion that in order for a man to develop such remarkable hirsute adornment he must neglect many tasks which ordinarily he would perform. Up to a reasonable limit, beard culture probably does not require a vast amount of time or effort, but when they are ranging around the nine-foot class it is a different matter. For instance, let us consider the possible assistance which might be rendered to manufacturers of hair tonics, assistance requiring much time and attention. "Within three weeks after I began using the first bottle of this Marvelousmagnificent Tonic," one of the extremely long-bearded gentry might write, "I could detect signs of greatly stimulated growth. Within three months my wife was threatening to pluck my whiskers, and within three years the children were undertaking to use my beard as a jumping rope. Six bottles—six feet of beard. Please send me another consignment of six bottles of your should-be-famous preparation so that I can sweep the floors with my brag beard. My wife now uses it as a furniture duster. I shall always praise your wonderful product."

If such cases should become very numerous much money might be made in the manufacture of invisible containers in which to secrete the beards when desired. For example if the hero wished to address the barbers' convention he could conceal his beard in that patent container. On the other hand, if while walking in the Zoo he wished to attract more attention than the other animals he might put his beard on dress parade. And, when honors ceased to come as thick and fast as craved, notes reading as follows might be dispatched to such men as General Carranza: "When it comes to whiskers and sitchlike, you're a piker. Watch mine and do your dog-gonedest." If occasionally his hirsute effulgence seemed on the verge of getting beyond control the worried whisker-producer might softly carol, "Where is my wandering beard tonight, O beard of my tenderest care?"

Some consternation recently was caused in Atlanta by the discovery that a snake had been making its home in a piano in a happy Georgia home. It appears that the snake was "wiggling across the chords, making weird music. Naturally the people in that home were somewhat upset."

However, close examination of jazz might disclose serpent-like qualities inhering in the notes, although comparatively few people raise their voices in protest. Dangers greater than those attaching to the presence of snakes sometimes lurk in jazz. Their presence may not be so well established in the minds of devotees of jazz, but they are there, nevertheless, fantastically and fearfully exercising their sinister spell upon jazz victims.

General Pershing recently took an 80-mile horseback ride. He made greater speed than he would probably make in running for public office.

AUTO THIEVES GET FIVE YEARS.

J. H. Roberts, found guilty Monday of stealing J. H. Matheson's car at Proximity, and E. L. Rankin, a negro, convicted of the theft of a car at Palmer Memorial institute, were given the sentences. John Gregory, mixed in the case with Roberts, got two years for receiving a stolen car.

Two negroes, A. B. Simpson and John Williams, found guilty of the theft of several suits and dresses from a store at High Point, were given four years on the county roads.

Judge Long ordered the clerk of court Monday to verify a list of 119 Guilford men classed as deserters during the world war and that the list be put on the records of the court. The judge thought that it will be well to have the list for future reference. It may be that some of these men might want to run for sheriff or governor, he said.

Ten persons were tried Monday. Pearl Floyd was given eight months for the larceny of an automobile tire from the Central garage here.

D. E. Ridge, a Randolph county man, guilty of obtaining a suit of clothes from Farley's store here under false pretenses and forgery, was given a sentence of three months on the roads and a fine of $100.

Buble Barnes and Frank Johnson, for breaking and entering the store of the High Point Hardware company and stealing $150 worth of knives and pistols, were sentenced to five years on the roads. Johnson was also found guilty of attempting to break and enter and carrying a concealed weapon. Judgment was suspended, to be pronounced any time within the next eight years.

Walter Marshall, found guilty of retailing whisky, was sentenced to six months on the county roads, but when the judge was told that he had tuberculosis, the sentence was changed to four months in the county jail, with the county commissioners given authority to work him under the direction of the county physician. The Red Cross is trying to get Marshall into a government hospital and Judge Long said that if the effort is successful Marshall may leave the jail for the hospital.

J. H. Roberts plead guilty to larceny of an automobile and John Gregory was found guilty of receiving stolen property. The car was stolen at Proximity and found at Kings Mountain. Sentence was not passed Monday.

Neal Harrell, tried on a charge of embezzlement in connection with obtaining $10 to get some liquor and failing to come back with the money or the liquor, was fined $10 and the costs.

Fred Dixon was found not guilty of temporary larceny of an automobile.

Sidney James was given 30 days on the roads for carrying a concealed weapon. He had a razor in his pocket when he was arrested by officers recently, they waking him up while he was sleeping out.

Because he failed to appear on time as a member of the grand jury T. A. Lyon, Sr., was fined $50. Morris Stadium, failing to appear as a witness in a case, was fined $50.

Cheaper Fertilizer Plan.

Washington, May 3.—A secret process for making cheaper fertilizers has been discovered and is being tested for commercial use at the government's nitrate plants at Muscle Shoals, Alabama. W. B. ## NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

PLEASANT GARDEN.

With the presentation of diplomas to the 26 members of the graduating class by Thomas R. Foust, Guilford county superintendent of education, the commencement exercises of Pleasant Garden high school came to a close in the big school auditorium last Tuesday morning.

The commencement program was an exceptionally interesting one and its unfolding was witnessed by large crowds not only from Pleasant Garden but also from other sections of the county. To the principal, E. D. Nicol, who, by the way, has been re-elected and will consequently again have charge of the school next year, and to his able assistants, much credit is due for the success which has marked activities of the scholastic year just closed, patrons say.

On last Thursday night, the commencement exercises began with a delightful recital by the music class under the direction of Miss Ruby Michael. The declamation and recitation contests were staged Friday night. The following boys declaimed: Robert Royals, Lee Kennen and Ernest Hearn. In the declamation contest the following girls participated: Mary Elizabeth Hunt, Leah Cox and Pearl Coble. The successful declaimer was Robert Royals, who graduated with the class of '22 and who is from Trinity, near High Point, he receiving the medal in that contest; while the medal in the recitation contest was won by Mary Elizabeth Hunt. The medals were presented by Principal Idol.

On Saturday night the exercises of the primary and grammar grades were given with large, appreciative crowds in attendance. The exercises consisted of plays, pantomime, recitations, dialogues and songs.

Rev. Charles Coble, Presbyterian minister of High Point, preached the commencement sermon in the Methodist Episcopal church, south, here. "Depart not from the old paths," a notable Biblical injunction, served as the preacher's textual basis. It was a forceful, inspiring sermon, one which palpably made a lasting impression upon the young graduates and other members of the audience.

"Borrowed Money," a play, was given last Monday night by students of the high school, and it was received with approbation by a packed house. In accordance with popular requests the play was again given Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

Dr. E. W. Knight delivered the baccalaureate address Tuesday morning. Dr. Knight, who is a member of the department of education of the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, held the earnest attention of his audience as he told of his conception of education, its proper scope, purpose and accomplishments. The university professor gave some timely advice to the graduates. Incidentally, he expressed gratification because of the adoption by the voters of the county of the equalization plan.

On Tuesday afternoon Ramsbur defeated Pleasant Garden in an interesting game of baseball here.

In connection with the presentation of the diplomas Superintendent Foust made an extremely helpful and interesting talk. He felicitated the people of Pleasant Garden upon the success which has attended their educational activities.

High Point property is valuable, business lots on East Washington selling recently as high as $50 per front foot.

High Point and Greensboro are growing closer together. Pretty home sites are being sold and attractive residences built all along the splendid asphalt highway between the two cities. When High Point carries out her present program of enlarging her boundaries and Greensboro widens out and takes in all that population that really belongs to her, they will at some time be linked by only a short country thoroughfare, thickly dotted by beautiful, comfortable homes, with Jamestown as a pretty suburb. That is the opinion of a local prophet.

HOME DEMONSTRATION

The women of the McLeansville section are anxious to form a club and it is probable that the home demonstrators, Mrs. S. Wells, will visit them Monday afternoon to aid in its organization. They asked Mrs. Wells to help them, either Friday or Monday, and it is probable she will go Monday.

It is thought that a good club can be formed at McLeansville. There is no reason why it should not be. Other clubs in the county are doing good work and the meetings are proving very interesting, as well as instructive. The club is of great social value, as well as useful in practical matters, and where clubs are organized they have made fine progress.

The club at McLeansville should be as progressive and as live as any in the county, and there are some very live ones in Guilford.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Wells was scheduled to attend a meeting of the Woman's club at Brightwood. A dress form was to have been made. The Brightwood club is a strong organization with the members interested very much in the work. A great deal of practical work has been done by the Brightwood club and the meetings have been a source of much pleasure.

Friday afternoon a meeting of the Woman's club at Monticello is scheduled. Here, too, the club is a good one, with several members who take pride in the work and work hard to make their club one of the best in the county.

Good work is being done with the boys' and girls' clubs now. They are beginning to see some of the fruits of their labors now and most of them are very enthusiastic over the work. With poultry, gardening and other things, they are keeping busy and find that there is profit and pleasure in their activities.

A good club is one of the best things for a community. It helps in many ways to make rural life pleasant. The desire to get together and accomplish work in clubs is a natural one and one that deserves praise.

Tired Of Life.

BONUS PROBLEM TO MR. HARDING AGAIN

New Plan To Be Presented To Him For Consideration—Full Details Are Withheld.

Washington, May 3.—The soldiers' bonus problem is to be put up to President Harding again. This was decided yesterday at a meeting of the senate finance committee Republicans, who agreed tentatively upon details of a measure embodying substantially the house bill plan of bank and government loans on adjusted service certificates in lieu of the original cash proposal.

Full details of the new measure were withheld, but as now outlined it would contemplate no taxes and bills from adjusted service certificates it would provide for vocational training, farm and home aid, and cash payments to veterans whose adjusted service pay would not exceed $50. The so-called reclamation section of the house bill has been eliminated.

Fire In Treasury Building.

Washington, May 3.—Flames which burst from the roof of the treasury department shortly after 1:30 a. m. today, eating their way through a superstructure and spreading to the central portions of the roof, were brought under control after threatening heavy damage to the building.

For Raw Sore Throat

At the first sign of a raw, sore throat rub on a little Musterole with your finger.

It goes right to the spot with a gentle tingle, loosens congestion, draws out soreness and pain.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It has all the strength of the old-fashioned mustard plaster without the blister.

Nothing like Musterole for croupy children. Keep it handy for instant use. 35 and 65 cents in jars and tubes; hospital size, $3.

Wrinkling a brow in search of a fitting theme we thought of an Aesop fable, written almost 3,000 years ago, 620 B. C. What a wonderful advertising man Aesop, the Slave, would be were he alive today.

One beautiful summer's day a Grasshopper was hopping merrily about, singing with joy as if he had not a care in the world.

Soon an Ant passed that way, dragging along with great effort a large crumb of bread he had found by the wayside.

"My friend, wait awhile," said the Grasshopper, "stop and chat with me. What is the use of working all the time when you might be enjoying yourself in the sun?"

"I am storing up food for the winter," replied the thrifty Ant. "You had better be doing the same."

"Oh, I'll worry about winter when it comes," laughed the foolish Grasshopper, "there is an abundance of food here at present." But the Ant continued on its way to the nest.

After a while winter came and the thoughtless Grasshopper soon began to suffer the pangs of hunger. He recalled that the ants had accumulated great stores of food and called upon them to share their stores with him, but they would not listen.

FOR THE HOMELITE

The Portable Electric Light and Power Plant

Here are some uses to which the HOMELITE is put in a country home where it has been installed: Every morning breakfast is cooked on a three-compartment cooker and coffee made in an electric percolator. Furnishes power for 85 lamps, each from 20 to 30 candle power. An electric iron does the household ironing. A feed grinder, an emery wheel for grinding tools, a cream separator, scythes, etc.; a sturdy lathe, a drill press, a cider press, an automobile pump, and a washing machine—in short, a complete light and power plant for a country home. HOMELITE also is ideal for the country garage and bank. At a small additional cost we will furnish the motor to drive the pump that supplies the house with water.

Let Homelite Do It! A Child Can Operate It

HOMELITE is made in a modern, well equipped plant, with large capacity, by an organization educated to make magnetos and other electrical devices that require skill and close work in their making. All material is carefully selected, and high quality is the determining factor—not low cost. Low voltage is most dependable. Low voltage will do all high voltage will do and more. HOMELITE furnishes current for any work not requiring over 1-2 H. P. HOMELITE is simple, compact and strong. It is our honest opinion that it has fewer parts than any lighting plant made at anything like its capacity, and a minimum of wearing parts. It is simplicity itself.

Cheaper Than Kerosene, And a Thousand Times More Useful

There is nothing experimental about HOMELITE. There are more than 250,000 of the motor-generators in use. It has been frequently stated by competent engineers to be the most powerful unit of its size and weight made. The engine is simple and of remarkable power for its weight—it certainly is a little giant! It has been thoroughly and long tested. The motor-generator and gas engine, both constructed by the Simms Magneto Company, of East Orange, N. J., have been built into a distinctive house lighting and power plant by that company. The HOMELITE is air-cooled and thoroughly cooled; there is absolutely no danger of freezing. Not susceptible to climatic extremes.

Saves Time and Money! Can be Moved Without Trouble

The portable feature of the HOMELITE is mighty important. You can use it in your house, pick it up, put it in your automobile, take it to your camp or boat, or if you have special night work in your barn, take it to the barn; or if you are building a shed, picking apples, or doing any one of dozens of other things, take your lighting plant wherever it is needed. If it should need repair work, you don't have to telephone to town to have a man come out to fix it—just put it in your car and bring it to our shop, where service on the HOMELITE is a great feature. No foundation is needed. Put it on a table, bench or the floor, and don't fasten it down (except in a boat). The coil springs take the vibration.
