

PROSPECTUS

FOR THE
Genius of Universal Emancipation.

VOLUME XI.

THE object and character of this work are too well known to require a statement. It has been published nearly every year, and circulated in all the States of this Union, as well as in the West Indies & some parts of Europe. It is issued in monthly numbers, about four years from the commencement, and is often weekly, with the exception of a few short intervals. It is now published monthly again, though in an improved form, and exclusively devoted to the subject of African SLAVERY.

Within a few years, the original proprietor has tried much, and has been necessitated to depend somewhat upon the assistance of others to conduct the work. It is now solely given his own control; and he is resolved to devote his undivided attention to it. If a patronage shall be obtained that will justify it, he pledges himself that he will steadily maintain in the great fundamental principles which he has ever professed to advocate; and the cause so supported, however, will not materially vary from that which he insisted on in the beginning. The correct course of the horrible evil of slavery shall be traced—this fell ganger upon the body-polity shall be pealed—that the heading blow may be applied when the hurtin mass is removed. Every possible investigation will be made, as for the state of the slave system, of what is done relative to its perpetuation, or abolition, in the various parts of the United States and the West Indies. Every exertion will also be made to show what can be done with EMANCIPATION AND SAFETY, in aids evaduating this enormous and increasing evil from the American soil.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

The work will, henceforth, be issued in the early part of every month. It will be neatly printed, on fine paper, and folded in the octavo form, each number making 10 large pages. It will be stitched, with an elegant cover; and (in case it shall be sufficiently patronised) accompanied with an appropriate engraving.

The price to subscribers, will be One Dollar, payable in advance.

Subscriptions will not be received for a shorter period than one year; and subscribers who do not particularly specify the time they wish to receive the work, or notify the Editor of a desire to discontinue it before the expiration of such current year, will be considered as engaged for the next succeeding one, and their bills will be forwarded accordingly.

Agents will be entitled to six copies, for every five dollars remitted to the Editor, in current money of the United States.

All Letters and Communications, intended for this Office must be addressed (free of expence) to BENJAMIN LUNDY, Baltimore, Maryland.

THE JOURNAL OF LAW.

Addressing itself to THE People of the UNITED STATES, will be principally devoted to the expression, in popular language, of the philosophy, history, and actual state of law and government in different countries, of our own notwithstanding its Indian, French, English, civil and criminal judiciary systems, and modes of procedure; together with particular essays on these branches of the law, a knowledge of which may be most practicably useful to men engaged in active pursuits; such, for instance, the law of corporations, patents, insurance, bills of exchange, and commerce; and other contracts, to all their varieties, real estate, with the modes of conveying it, insolvency, wills, descent, intestacy, &c. &c. &c.

Reports of interesting decided cases, biographies of eminent lawyers and others, medical jurisprudence, sketches of the legal, literary and benevolent institutions of various countries, anecdotes, and the various topics of general literature will be considered within the scope of this journal.

It aims will be to afford instruction without tediousness, and amusement without trifling.

The Journal of Law will appear in numbers of 16 pages each, concurring in the first and third Wednesdays of every month, at the Office of the Journal of Health, 159 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia. Price $2.00 per annum, payable in advance.

J. DOBSON, Agent for the Proprietor.

CAUTION.

I HEREBY, give on my person from trading for a note I gave William Long for thirty dollars, dated the 2d of June, 1822, which note he transferred to Isaac Albright, as I have paid him. Although the sum due on said note,

JOHN G. CAMPBELL.

REMOVAL.

THE subscriber takes this notice to his numerous friends and customers, that he has removed from his old stand to the new brick building, adjoining the store of H. A. L. Lundy, two doors north of the Court House where he will be sold, at all times, to accommodate them with all kinds of work, in his line, in short, police, good tories, and in the most approved and fashionable style.
