DAILY PATRIOT.

GREENSBORO, N. C.
TUESDAY, JULY 10, 1888.

SPECIAL PARAGRAPHS.

Stand by your colors, white men of the 5th district.

Let's bury Republicans for all time to come in November, boys; what say you?

With hats off, the PATRIOT gives three cheers for Col. James T. Morehead, the gallant and favorite son of old Guilford.

The report of the Department of Agriculture, relative to the crops throughout the country, is generally of a favorable character.

There are fifteen newspapers in New York supporting Cleveland and Thurman, and but three supporting Chinese Harrison and Money bag Morton.

The Democrats in Pennsylvania will make a fight to carry it. That is the way to win. Many Republicans are very sick of G. O. P. elsewhere than in Pennsylvania, too.

The question is being asked seriously, "Will Harrison retire?" His prospects are certainly gloomy just now. But his grandfather always "kept a stiff upper lip." It looks now like the old fellow will have to grin and bear it.

At Grand Rapids, Michigan, many old republicans are saying, that they cannot stand this platform of Monopoly adopted at Chicago by their party. Four leading men of the party are out against it.

Russia has signed the convention for the abolition of sugar bounties.

Uncle Frank says Prohibition means nothing more nor less than fine liquor for the so called better classes.

The N. C. Prohibitionist says: "vote as you pray; Pray as you vote." All right, but be sure you pray for and vote the Democratic ticket.

The New York Herald says: "Mr. Cleveland's strong point is that he knows when not to talk. It is said, however, that he is an accomplished linguist, and can keep mum in seven languages." A political Von Moltke, so to speak.

"Like the English sparrow, the American tramp must go," says the Philadelphia News. The American tramp does go. That's just where the trouble comes in.

Seven-Eighths of a Town Burned.—Sonoma, Cal., July 11.—The total loss by the fire of Monday is now placed at $400,000 with insurance of $450,000. Seven eighths of the town was burned.

GETTING EVEN.—Eh Perkins, the alleged humorist, was lately paid in his own coin, according to the Albany Journal. He wrote to Mr. Caldwell, the general manager of the Michigan Central railroad, for a pass over the Nickel Plate road. Caldwell is a dignified gentleman, who seldom condescends to a joke. Perkins wrote what was intended to be a funny letter, closing with: "Inclosed find $5—if you can." Mr. Caldwell's reply acknowledged the receipt of the letter briefly, and closed by saying: "Inclosed find pass as requested—if you can!" Mr Perkins paid his fare.

LATEST NEWS.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Incendiaries at Shelby. Shelby, N. C., July 11.—The floor of the depot of the Charleston Cincinnati & Chicago railroad at Rutherfordton was saturated with kerosene last night, and fired and slightly damaged. An attempt was also made to fire B. A. Hampton's store, near by. No clue to the perpetrators has been discovered.

Freeman Hanged. Wilmington, N. C., July 11.—Stephen Freeman, colored, convicted of the crime of rape on a white woman, was hanged here today. The execution took place in the jail, only thirty-six witnesses being admitted, as required by law. Several applications were made to the Governor for pardon or commutation of sentence to life imprisonment, but after careful consideration he refused to interfere. Freeman protested his innocence to the last.

A Disastrous Storm.

Parkersburg, W. Va., July 11.—The storm on Monday night was the most disastrous of many which visited this region during the past week, and the loss of property in the range of twelve counties hereabout is estimated at a quarter of a million dollars. A bridge worth $40,000 was swept from its moorings here yesterday. All day immense quantities of wheat and timber floated past in a tangled mass. Almost every farm in valleys of counties adjoining this has been swept clean of its products. The Middle Island Tie Co. lost 45,000 ties last night valued at $13,500. A number of restles and bridges on the Columbus & Northern road running into Harmar, on the Ohio side, are washed away and travel indefinitely suspended.

THE TUFT OF WHITE HAIR.—The Duke of Simonetta, an Italian nobleman, who is making a name as a musical composer, is the descendant of a long line of dukes who have a strange peculiarity. They have jet black hair, and just above the forehead a white tuft. This they had for a long series of years until the father of the present duke was born some 60 years ago. He had a thick, curly head of brown hair, without a particle of white, and with him it was supposed there was an end of the special mark. But his son is a tall, handsome man, with a head of black hair, and he has exactly the same white tuft.

THE IMMIGRATION OF FOREIGNERS.—There is no line of statistical figures more amazing, and yet unquestionable in their bearing, than those which give us the immigration of foreigners into our States. In 1820 there were a little over 8,000. In 1825 a little more than 10,000. In 1830, 23,000, and in 1835, 45,000; 1840 does not quite reach 100,000, but 1845 goes over that figure up to 114,000. From that date the tide has risen higher, with only occasional ebbing. In 1855 there were over 200,000. In 1870 over 300,000. In 1872, over 400,000. In 1882, 788,992. This was the maximum figure touched. The total immigration during these years, from 1820 to 1887, amounts to 13,632,771. The effect of pouring such a vast bulk of foreign people, with foreign ideas, into our land, has been nearly as great on ourselves as on them. Our institutions have been largely modified, and are in danger of still greater modifications.—Globe Democrat.

ANCIENT ARCHITECTURAL WONDERS.—Interesting facts concerning ancient cities: Nineveh was 15 miles long, 8 wide and 40 miles around, with a wall 100 feet high, and thick enough for three chariots abreast. Babylon was 50 miles within the walls, which were 87 feet thick and 350 high, with 100 brazen gates. The Temple of Diana, at Ephesus, was 420 feet to support of the roof. It was 100 years in building. The largest of pyramids is 461 feet high, and 653 on the sides; its base covers 11 acres. The stones are about 30 feet in length, and the layers are 380. It employed 83,000 men in building. The labyrinth in Egypt contains 300 chambers and 250 halls. Thebes, in Egypt, presents ruins 27 miles around. Athens was 25 miles around, and contained 250,000 citizens and 400,000 slaves. The Temple of Delphos was so rich in donation that it was plundered of $500,000, and Nero carried away from it 200 statues. The walls of Rome were 13 miles around.

WORK OF THE NIGHT OWLS.—Very much more of the work of a city like New York than is imagined by the unthinking tens of thousands who lead conventional lives is done at hours which compel a faithful and useful minority to sleep by day. Editors, reporters, composers, pressmen, electrotypers, telegraph operators, bakers, policemen, railroad employes and hundreds of other occupations must bring rest to their tired eyes and weary limbs when most of the world is awake and busy—thoughtless, too, with the brutality of the money pursuits and what may befall those who are not as they.

It is true that a majority of the night owls get home before 2, 3 or 4 o'clock in the morning, but they are tired and nervous, not sleepy. Who would be sleepy immediately after leaving his work? How would a bank clerk feel about resting at 5 o'clock in the afternoon? They settle down in a conscientious effort to take the sleep that is as necessary as a medicine to a sick man, and after an hour or two of tossing drowse off.

FOR CONGRESS—5th DISTRICT:
COL. JAS. T. MOREHEAD,

THE NOMINATION.

It gives us both pride and pleasure to place upon our State ticket the name of the nominee for Congress in the 5th District, Col. Jas. T. Morehead, one of the leading, esteemed and influential citizens of Guilford county, whom its people have delighted to honor in the past, into whose hands they place with confidence an exalted trust to-day, and whose leadership they accept with glad enthusiasm to achieve the highest and most important results in the future. Son of a former Chief Magistrate of the State, whose honored life and distinguished services form part of the history of North Carolina, Col. Morehead is "to the manor born." Reared among the people whom he loves so well, all the years of his life have been passed in their midst, and the full fruitage of his manhood has been given with generous heart and unstinted hand.

With the commencement of the civil war, he offered his services to his State, and went to the field as Lieutenant of the Guilford Grays, serving throughout the whole struggle with all the fidelity and devotion of his nature, and receiving in behalf of his native land four wounds, together with the high honor which he had so worthily won—the colonelcy of his Regiment, the 53rd N. C. T.

He was elected in 1866 to the last House of Commons, the lower branch of the legislature becoming after that time the House of Representatives, and was chosen as State Senator, in 1872, from the district composed of Guilford and Alamance, over which body he was elected to preside, performing his official duties with dignity and ability. He was sent again to the Senate in 1874, during which session he was Chairman of the Committee on Constitutional Amendments and also of the Judiciary Committee. 1882 Guilford chose its Senator as a district in itself, and again called for the services of Col. Morehead, his nomination resulting in his election by more than 250 majority. In 1886 the Senatorial convention again tendered to him the nomination in terms which would admit of no denial, although he was strenuously working for the nomination of some one else, and by no means desired the position. The defeat of the whole ticket that year, through the efforts of the third party, is still fresh in the minds of our readers.

Democrats of the Fifth District, salute your leader. His record is before you—without spot or blemish. He has been loyal to every trust confided to him; he will be true to your interests and worthy of your cause.

INSIDIOUSLY INSULTING.

Judge Russell's plain talk to his own party may be taken for what it is worth, so far as the motives which prompted its expression are concerned, but it was an enunciation of indisputable facts by one of the shrewdest Republican politicians in the State, for all that. However, it will have no salutary effect upon the blind, headlong policy of Radicalism. "Whom the gods would destroy they first make mad," and this time "Ephraim is joined to his idols" to his own destruction, beyond a peradventure.

But the intention of this article is to point out the cool insult embraced in Judge Russell's advice to the Republicans of North Carolina—to rub out the "slate" which they have made, and form a coalition with the Third Party. If there be any one thing more than another concerning which the Prohibition press and speakers are emphatic it is that they are equally at war with both the Democratic and Republican parties; and yet Judge Russell assumes as a matter of course that everybody looks upon a coalition of the Third Party with the Radicals as the natural and fitting thing to happen. Prohibition Democrats, do you like the boat you are in?

How FLORIDA WAS BUILT.—Among the agencies which have helped to build up the peninsula of Florida, according to Mr. A. H. Curtis, are certain trees, like the mangrove and cypress, which grow on land more or less under water. Like the coral builders, they have worked slowly, but in thousands of centuries the change wrought would be great. It is all together probable that the thousands of tree covered "islands" in the everglades and Big Cypress were once mangrove thickets, and that the present mangrove islands will in time be added to the mainland.—Arkansas Traveler.

MAJ. ANDRE'S FATAL PASS.—A relic of the Revolution has lately been found in Washington. It is the original document given to pass Maj. Andre through the American lines when Benedict Arnold had resolved to betray West Point into the hands of the British. The pass is signed by Arnold as major general, and is countersigned by general Gage. The possessor is a direct descendant of Paulding, one of the scouts who arrested Andre when he attempted to pass the picket under the name of Anderson.—Chicago Herald.

Capt. W. M. Swann, a former citizen of Moore county, was killed at Wilmington last Saturday by lumber falling from a flat car. The standards broke just as the car rounded a curve where the Capt. was standing, and the load of timber struck him, killing him instantly. Capt. Swann was well known in Jonesboro, and his many friends will regret to hear of his sad death.—Jonesboro Leader.

CURIOUS EXPERIENCE IN BARBADOS.—Lying beyond St. Andrews, a long drive from Bridge-town, and occupying the eastern town of the northern end of the island, are a series of remarkably steep cliffs, that climb out of the sea to a perpendicular height of hundreds of feet. To their bases come along Atlantic swells that have met no hindrance to their will for 3,000 miles, and these attack this rocky barrier with a fierceness that gives to the coast some of the most magnificent sea effects that I have ever watched. Even North Irish or Hebridean cliff surges were but baby play beside them. Striking with a boom, they mounted almost to the summit with a green, glassy rush that reminded me of Niagara just above the fall; then coming into spray, lashed out freely fangs of foam at the looker on, and retreated with a roar like near and heavy thunder.

They followed in quick succession, each seeming to climb a little higher than the last, until one's senses were quite upset by enormous force, and we experienced a curious illusion of motion. Land and wave were waltzing to the music of the sea. An infernal one, two, three, one, two, three move ment, began; solid rock lost its anchorage, and the world went round and round until giddiness came and the steadiest head dragged the rest away. There was a wild look in my companion's eyes, and she was half hysterical when the earth regained its senses a little away from the orchestra's reach.—Dr. William F. Hutchinson in American Magazine.

Local News.

CORN CROP.—Information from the western part of the county places the corn crop ahead of anything seen for many years in that section, while the other crops are not so good.

REELECTED.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the N. C. R. R. Co., held in this city to-day, the old board of directors were re-elected and the old officers were reappointed.

LAST NIGHT'S ENTERTAINMENT.—The lawn party in front of Col. Keogh's residence last evening, given by the ladies of the Westminster Presbyterian church, was a very pleasant entertainment, heartily enjoyed by all the participants.

FATAL RAILWAY ACCIDENT.—We are deeply pained to announce the death of Mr. Henry A. Whittington, of the postal service between Washington and Charlotte, and a resident of this city. Mr. Whittington was killed in an accident which occurred on the Virginia Midland R. R., between Lynchburg and Orange Court-House, concerning which we have the intelligence that three other persons were killed outright, and forty wounded.

NOTES OF TRAVEL.—During a visit of a few days to Fayetteville and the Cape Fear section, from which the associate editor returned on yesterday, we gathered from the readiest and most authentic information accessible to us that in the counties of that portion of the State dry weather has injured the crops, especially forward corn, to some extent, but with propitious seasons the harvest will still be good. In the section traversed by the southern extension of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway the crops are magnificent.

In Fayetteville, F. W. Thornton has just completed a block of our iron-front buildings on Hay street, which, together with the many other improvements—notably Col. Chas. Haigh's handsome grocery establishment—contribute greatly to the beauty and attractiveness of that thoroughfare. The construction of the new Fayetteville Cotton Mills is going on steadily. The good town has one of the largest and most efficient branches of the Young Men's Christian Association in the State, the meetings of which are attended largely and characterized by proceedings of great interest. It goes without saying that the stalwart Democracy of that section are well-equipped for the great political contest at hand.

Personal.

F. W. Faucett, of the Milton Advertiser, was among the quill-drivers attending the convention here yesterday.

Mr. W. H. Rankin, of Brown Summit, called to see us yesterday, and says he can't get along without the Patriot.

Mr. J. A. Bennett, the efficient postmaster at Reidsville, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. J. S. Merritt and Mr. Cunningham, of Person, called to see us yesterday.

R. J. Oliver, of the Reidsville Democrat, T. J. Lowrey, of the Mt. Airy News, P. A. Peatross, of the Madison Leader, J. W. Duggins, of the Winston Advance, J. H. Lindsay, of the Kernersville News, were here taking in the convention yesterday.

Mr. R. W. Brooks left on the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. yesterday morning for the Hot Springs, where he will spend a while.

JAMES T. MOREHEAD.

Chosen by the Fifth District Democracy for its Standard Bearer—The 170th Ballot Does the Work.

CONTINUED.

Promptly at eight o'clock the convention re-assembled and proceeded to ballot with the following result:

84th ballot—Buxton, 96; Morehead, 121; Williams, 82.

The roll of counties was called and balloting continued until the 166th ballot was cast, which resulted as follows: Buxton, 83; Morehead, 133; Williams, 83.

After a short but rather heated debate a motion prevailed to adjourn till Thursday morning, 9 o'clock.

At nine o'clock Thursday the convention re-assembled and proceeded to ballot until the 170th ballot was reached, when Mr. C. B. Watson withdrew the name of Hon. J. C. Buxton, of Forsyth, and the chairman of the Granville delegation withdrew the name of Hon. A. H. A. Williams, of Granville, with the request that the nomination of Col. James T. Morehead, of Guilford, be made unanimous, which was ratified by a whoop.

After Col. Morehead's nomination was confirmed, R. B. Glenn placed in nomination J. H. Dobson, of Surry, for an elector for the Fifth district. On motion Mr. Dobson's nomination was made by acclamation.

The Chair then appointed a committee consisting of R. W. Winston, W. B. Glenn and Prof. J. M. Holt to wait on Col. Morehead and inform him of his nomination, and also Messrs. Buxton and Williams and inform them of the result of the convention.

As Col. Morehead entered the hall one round after round of applause went up with loud calls for the favorite son of old Guilford. The Colonel was in fine trim and spoke in his usual happy style, urging the Democrats of this district to put forth at the ballot box the same zeal and energy that the friends of each candidate had exhibited in the convention, pledging his best efforts to the restoration of the "gallant old Fifth" back into the Democratic column.

At the conclusion of Col. Morehead's remarks Buxton followed in a forcible speech, declaring to the convention, and the Democrats of the 5th district, that he would return to his native county, Forsyth, with the same enthusiasm for the success of the Democratic party that he came into the convention with, pledging his undivided and enthusiastic support to the party.

Amid the wildest enthusiasm Mr. Williams appeared on the rostrum and in a manly way assured the convention that he had no heart-burnings over the result and that he was ready at any and all times, when and wherever called upon, to buckle on the armor and fight the battles of Democracy from the lower line of Granville to the rolling hills of Surry.

J. H. Dobson was called for and responded in his own style which pleased his audience and frequently brought forth loud applause. Speeches were also made by Watson, R. B. and W. B. Glenn, of Forsyth, Winston, of Granville, Scott, of Rockingham, Cunningham, of Person, and Sparger, of Surry, whose burning eloquence and patriotic utterances will bear good fruit in the approaching campaign, showing and convincing as they did that with the issues drawn as they were, the success of the Democratic party in November was essential to the preservation of our self-respect, lives and liberties.

The committee on platforms and resolutions rendered a report, which we will publish to-morrow.

THE CONVENTION.—The Democratic Congressional Convention of the Fifth District adjourned this morning at 10 o'clock after a session lasting from Wednesday at noon, which was marked by intense and unabated interest throughout on the part of both delegates and spectators.

We sincerely congratulate the Democrats of this district upon the work done, and the manner in which it was accomplished; we congratulate them upon the high character, the intelligence and the exceptionally fine "personnel" of the assemblage which has just put its Congressional leader in the field, and we congratulate them upon the inauguration of the campaign under circumstances so auspicious, so cheering, so fraught with the promises of gratifying success. While a spirit of generous emulation and the most strenuous advocacy of the claims of their candidates animated the three factions composing this great body of men, they were but parts of a homogeneous whole after all, welded together in union and harmony with the completion of their work, sinking individual preferences and personal predilections as secondary to the great work of securing to the party that victory so essential to the promotion of the best interests of all the people.

We have no hope that our Congressional Convention will give anything like satisfaction to our Republican friends—but we must endure this as best we can. Our neighbor, the North State, for instance, which is hyper-critical and very fastidious, will perhaps have divers grounds of complaint with its make up, its action and its final result. Formerly some of our meetings have been reproached with being "cut and dried," "poorly-attended," "wanting in enthusiasm," etc., etc. In the present instance, the charges must be pitched to a different tune. There was nothing "cut and dried" about that great mass meeting of sterling, honest, fair-minded Democrats, who engaged in a fair and square fight, with no "hitting below the belt;" there was no want of "attendance" which packed the large building to its utmost capacity for hours at a time; there was no lack of "enthusiasm," for the exultant yells of the "unterrified" disturbed the slumbers and sent a shudder through the slumbers of our Republican neighbors who had sought their "virtuous couches" in fear and trembling.

For ourselves, with our experience of such bodies, we do not hesitate to call the Democratic Convention of the Fifth District the finest we have ever attended in North Carolina.

Sparger and Maj. Fred C. Foard, of Mt. Airy, were in the city yesterday in attendance upon the convention.

Mr. W. F. Clapp, of Gibsonville, passed through yesterday morning on his way to Liberty.

Sheriff Dalton, of Stokes, was among the Stokes delegation attending the convention.

GRAND DEMOCRATIC RALLY AT GREENSBORO, N. C.—In accordance with the announcement heretofore made by the Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, there will be a grand torch-light procession in Greensboro on the night of the 20th of July, 1888. The entire State ticket, with other distinguished speakers, will be present, and with short speeches entertain the crowd, at different points along the line of march. Everybody is invited to attend and join in the procession, and especially the township clubs of Guilford county.

JAS. W. FORBIS,
Ch'm'n. Dem. County Com.

A. M. Stack, a rising young lawyer and active Democrat from Stokes, was in the city yesterday. Messrs. J. R. Paddison, Joseph GROCERIES.

TO THE PUBLIC.

On Saturday night, when the Buchanan and McDonald block was destroyed by fire, I had one of Ferrell & Co's Herring Safes in my office, on second floor. It fell to centre of main floor and was subject to the hottest part of the fire. Upon having it opened I found all valuable papers, books and monies preserved, and in as good condition as when I put them in.

I cheerfully recommend Herring Safe to the public.

Respectfully,
THOMAS BAILEY.

The undersigned is agent for the above Safes, and solicits orders which will be promptly filled, with satisfaction guaranteed.
