EDITORIAL BRIEFS.

John Robinson, the veteran show man, is no more. He died in Cincinnati Saturday morning.

Even the London Times, away across the mighty deep, is for Cleveland.

Not if the court knows itself, will the Third party triumph in Wake or any other county in North Carolina.

"Dr. Storrs's representation of Benjamin Harrison stands out like a statue." Very properly. Harrison is destined to remain in statu quo.

A HORRIBLE MURDER.—From Oxford it is learned there has been perpetrated the most horrible murder in the history of Granville county. The murderers were lodged in jail Saturday, making fifteen there to be tried for their lives at the next term of court.

About seven miles from Oxford lived Henry C. Adcock and wife Annie Adcock, while his brother, John W. Adcock, and his wife, Jennie C. Adcock, lived about half a mile, in a thinly settled neighborhood. For several months Henry C. Adcock had pretty much deserted home and taken up at his brother's on account of an infatuation (or, as they call it in those parts, "cungering"), about which he and his brother John had had several fights. On the 31st of July Eliza Ann, wife of John W., died very suddenly, and as no neighbors were called in to help shroud her, etc., suspicion was aroused, and Coroner J. J. Renn was sent for on the 1st inst. He took along with him Dr. J. B. Williams, arrested the parties above named and summoned a jury of inquest.

Upon analysis of the stomach arsenic was found, upon which fact, together with admissions of the parties, the jury brought in a verdict of guilty against Henry C. and Jennie Adcock. Both parties are in the meridian of life, Henry C. having eight children and his paramour two, the youngest about ten years of age.

Deputy Sheriff Poliard and police officer Rogers brought the party to Oxford and lodged them in jail, where rumor says they have made further criminal confessions, and an officer has been sent to bring the arsenic bottle from its hiding place designated.

The Wake county Third Party lists have nominated a ticket. Two of the candidates, Willis Graves, nominated for the Legislature, and L. A. Scruggs, nominated for Coroner, are negroes. This is a fine recommendation to Democrats, and we hardly think under the present circumstances that the Third Party will carry Wake county.—Durham Tobacco Plant.

TWELVE IMMENSE LOCOMOTIVES.—The Baldwin Locomotive Works recently turned out six of the largest bituminous coal locomotives ever built at that establishment. They are for the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, and are designed to make the run from New York to New Haven, with a full express train, seventy-two miles in eighty minutes. They weigh each 112,000 pounds. The cylinders are 20 inches in diameter, with 22 inches stroke and the driving wheels are 68 inches in diameter. The builders have been informed that one of the engines made a run, with seven cars, up a grade 30 feet to the mile, at a speed of sixty miles per hour. The works have also just completed six of the heaviest locomotives ever built by them, four being for the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad and two for the Central Railroad of New Jersey. They are of the consolidation type, with cylinders 22 inches in diameter, 28 inches stroke and each weighs 153,000 pounds.

MABEL'S KNOWLEDGE.—"And isn't my dear little girl afraid to become the wife of a poor man?" asked Harry St. Clair of Mabel Mageon the other night, after they had gone through the bliss of a betrothal.

"Afraid?—Oh, Harry!" she said, reproachfully.

"But remember, darling, that I cannot keep servants for you, and that we will have to live in a very plain and simple way for the first few years."

"As though I cared for that," she replied, with the ring of true love and true womanhood in her tone. "Why, my dear old boy, you don't know what a famous housekeeper I am, and if you think I don't know how to cook, you are greatly mistaken."

"Now," she went on, gleefully, "let me tell you what I can do: I can dust beautifully, and I know how to make the loveliest dust-rag holders; and I can make the—oh, the nicest cream tarts, and the most beautiful angel cake! Know about housekeeping! Afraid to become the wife of a poor man! You foolish old boy!"

And Harry thought the matter over carefully on his way home, and didn't know but that he had made a fool of himself, after all.—Times.

LATEST NEWS.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Gen. Sheridan Dead.

Nonquitt, Mass., August 6.—It was this morning substantially arranged that General Sheridan's remains will be transported to Washington in a special car, to leave New Bedford Wednesday, and the funeral service will be held in St. Matthew's Catholic church as soon as possible thereafter—either Friday or Saturday. The work of embalming the General's body was begun at an early hour this morning. General Sheridan has repeatedly expressed a strong dislike of display in funerals, and in accordance with his wish and that of Mrs. Sheridan, the ceremonies in Washington are to be made simple as possible. The funeral however, will, of course, be a military one. The interment will be made at Arlington, Va., as the assurance can be readily obtained that his wife and children may be given a resting place beside him.

Cleveland's Letter to the Senate. Washington, August 6.—At one o'clock the following communication was sent to the capitol:

To the Senate and House of Representatives:—It becomes my painful duty to announce to the Congress and to the people of the United States the death of Philip H. Sheridan, General of the Army, which occurred at a late hour last night at his summer house in the State of Massachusetts. The death of this valiant soldier and patriotic son of the Republic, though his long illness has been regarded with anxiety, has, nevertheless, shocked the country and caused universal grief. He had established for himself a stronghold in the hearts of his fellow countrymen who soon saw the true meaning and purpose of his soldierly devotion and heroic temper. His intrepid courage, his steadfast patriotism and the generosity of his nature inspired love and peculiar warmth in the admiration of the people. Above his grave affection for the man and pride in his achievements will struggle for mastery, and too much honor cannot be accorded to one who was so richly endowed with all the qualities which make his death a national loss.

GROVER CLEVELAND. Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C., Aug. 6, 1888.

Vance Speaks. Washington, July 6.—The fisheries treaty was then taken up, and Mr. Vance took the floor and made a speech in favor of its ratification. He accounted for the remarkable heat exhibited by the Republicans against the treaty, by telling a story of a fellow in North Carolina, who was once caught with an extra "Jack" in his sleeve when playing a game of "old sledge," and who in reply to the fierce denunciation of his adversary, said, "Bill, you know we were six and six and it was your deal; and I had obliged to do something." So, said he, the Presidential election is coming on; and the Republican party knew that the game stood about "six and six" and that the deal was ours and that they had obliged to do something.

Continuing, Mr. Vance said: "There are some offences against the dignity of nations that can be assessed in cost, and there are some that cannot. You heard the Senators from Maine, (Mr. Frye) describe, 'in words that burn,' the tearing down of the American flag by Capt. Ormigli, of the Canadian cruiser, and you heard him taunt the Senator from Ohio. (Payne), shaking his fist in his face and telling that he was apologizing for a man who tore down his country's flag. All of the eloquence on this subject must be understood in a Pickwickian sense. It must be all understood as what the lawyers term 'matter of inducement,' that is, an order to make the British government pay higher damages, if possible, a duty on fresh fish, and a higher duty on salt fish will be the salve that will restore our wounded honor."

"The proposition to whip Great Britain so glibly talked about by Senators was not going to aid the settlement of the fisheries question, although it might get some votes of those who could be controlled by such appeals."

Waddell Creates Unbounded Enthusiasm at Oxford. Oxford, Aug. 6.—Col. Waddell spoke here today to a large audience in the new Opera House. He was introduced by Capt. A. H. Williams in a ringing speech frequently interrupted by applause. The effort of Col. Waddell was able, argumentative and eloquent, producing a profound impression and carrying conviction by his unanswerable logic. Our people greeted him with marked attention and the result of his visit has been inspiring to the cause of Democracy.

A Double Murder in Birmingham. Birmingham, Ala., August 6.—Amos Miller, a white miner twenty-five years old, was arrested here late last night charged with wife murder. Saturday he became enraged at his wife and beat her severely, from the effects of which she died yesterday. The murder was a double one, as Mrs. Miller would have given birth to a child.

TAYLOR HOUSE, Danbury, N. C.

Will be open on the 15th of June for the accommodation of visitors to Piedmont Springs.

These Springs are about 21 miles from Danbury, and are now the most popular waters in the State. Dyspepsia can, after using the water, eat anything they desire without inconvenience. Bad cases of scrofula have been cured by its use and it is a specific for female diseases.

For PLEASURE SEEKERS no place can surpass it.

My table will be provided with the best the market affords. The dining room is large and cool; bed rooms well ventilated; nice parlor, and the long double verandas, make the House one of the most desirable in this section of the State to spend the heated term. The yard is beautifully and densely shaded with Aspen trees.

A PLACE FOR AMUSEMENTS has been set apart, and music will be provided.

TERMS.—Per month of four weeks $16; per week, $5; per day, $1; children of 10 years and under half charges. Servants who wait on their employers' room half charges.

Thankful for past favors, I ask a continuance of the same.

NEW FALL GOODS.

As the stocks of Spring Goods this season have become exhausted, so much so that it is impossible for customers to get what they want, I have replenished with an suited to the late Summer and Fall trade. The goods are in the house in shape to furnish all of my trade and the public generally with the very latest styles the market affords, in all of the

with Trimmings to match.

And I can assure all that my

is better supplied than ever before with all kinds and prices of Cash meres, silk warp Henrietta Cloths, Jubilee Cloths, Flannels, Black Silks, and a full line of the latest Trimmings to match.

CLOTHING.

The Clothing Department is better supplied than ever before, as I have closed out most of my old stock. The trade compelled me to fill in ahead of the season, so I have now in stock the largest and best selected assortment of Clothing I have ever offered, and at prices lower than ever before. All I ask is a trial before you purchase.

SHOES.

The Shoe Department is now about complete, and all I have to say is just call in and you will be suited in style and price.

HATS.

If you want a Straw Hat to splurge out the season, come in and you can get one very reasonable. I will not say at cost, for you would not believe it, as that is an old song—and not many merchants ever succeeded in selling on such terms.

Fur, Wool and stiff Hats to suit every body.

THE CARPET DEPARTMENT

will be complete in a few days, as the order for my full stock is now in the mills and will be filled in a short time.

I can supply the demand with every thing in the line of Carpets, Oil Cloths, Rugs and Curtains.

Call and see for yourselves. I have been doing business too long to sing the old song of "Rock Bottom," "Below every one else," "Cut," and many other such straws; but come and see and you will be treated politely and business like.

Respectfully,

G. WILL ARMFIELD.

THE STATE CANVASS.

The Democratic party in North Carolina should allow neither the Republicans nor the Prohibitionists to mislead the people as to the great and paramount issue to be decided by them at the ballot box in November—the continuance of justice, economy and wisdom in the administration of the government throughout the State.

If the Radicals had presented to us this year a ticket superior in material, or offering more valid claims to the support of the people than any with which in past years they have entered the field, there might be some shadow of reason in the hope which they hold out to their political friends in the North that North Carolina can be severed from the Democratic line of the "solid South." But what are the facts? In principle, in its aims, in its personnel, in the appeals which it makes to the public ear, it is identically the party which climbed into power twenty years ago by the instrumentality of the bayonets of the Canby and Sickles satrapies, and by the aid of that arbitrary dictum of so-called legislation which disfranchised thousands of white men, took possession of the commonwealth body and soul, throttled the poor old

State, brought her to the verge of destruction, and offered to the world a picture of misgovernment, incompetency, recklessness, fraud and corruption as black as that presented by even South Carolina, negro ridden and prone in the dust—poor, devoted people—for the "heresy of secession."

It is true, Milton S. Littlefield, Abbott, Eaton, Pilgrim Ashley, "Kildee" Lassiter, Timmy Byrnes, "Indy Billy" Henderson, and all that motley host—who, after wasting and throwing away the public funds for a series of years, put the cap stone to the fair fabric of their public labors by a grand bacchanalian revel in the capitol of the State, to the lugubrious refrain of "John Brown's body"—have gone out from our midst; there being nothing left to atone, they "folded their tents," and, like the Arab, "silently stole away," and are among the "dispersed abroad," but not forgotten. But the old leaven is in the mass yet. It is the same pernicious, desperate, revolutionary, Radical party of 1868, and the leader of to day was the most wily, most unscrupulous, par excellence the bad man, among the many bad men in that bad party twenty years since. This is language in its terseness, without the "frills" of euphuism, but it is not the language of abuse; it is the language of lamentable truth—yes, lamentable truth, that a citizen of North Carolina should be so recreant to his race and people. Let any man show us today a single bitter, proscriptive act of the Radical party in North Carolina in all its history since the close of the war, which did not find in Oliver Dockery a willing advocate; let him point us to one single instance in which he failed to give his assent and his influence to its most extreme measures; let him place his finger on one single refreshing spot in all Dockery's public career which will show him not an enemy to the best interests of his native State—and our denunciation is an injustice.

This is the party and this is the leader now seeking restoration to power; this is the party which Prohibition Democrats intend foisting again upon North Carolina by the manner in which they cast their votes!

THE TRUE WAY.—In the garden of the heart no weeds of distrust should be allowed to grow, for their poisonous stench and witching exhalations send blight and destruction to those pure and sweet and beauteous flowers of affection and devotion which alone should bud and blossom there with all their Heaven tinted bloom and beauty. These flowers, at first, are tender, fragile and delicate, and cannot live in an atmosphere permeated and saturated with the foul breath of distrust, and their soft sensitive roots cannot derive sustenance from a soil embedded with the briars of accusation and the brambles of animadversion. No, they cannot flourish amid such surroundings. They need the purest atmosphere of implicit and perfect trust; they need the refreshing dews of the kindest ministry, and the soft, mild, invigorating and fructifying sunlight of that Heaven created faith whose effluent fires melt all fogs and mists of doubt away, and leave a flood of glory there. With these agencies, the flowers of the heart—love, devotion, harmony and honeyed endearments, will attain the richest bloom and beauty and luxuriance, and their odors will make home life as sweet and delectable and entrancing as the fragrance distilled from the gardens of Paradise.—W. H. Blount in Wilson Mirror.

EMPEROR NAPOLEON'S THRONE.—A correspondent sends the following: Some interesting information with reference to a very curious incident which occurred during the Franco German war has just come to hand. In 1870 three visitors established themselves at a hotel in a well known German town, where they remained several months. Being then in want of funds and unable to pay their bill, they were compelled to leave a package, which they had brought from France, in the hands of the landlord in satisfaction of his claim. This, upon examination, was found to contain a sumptuously designed state chair. The name "Napoleon" was embroidered upon the silk covering of the back and seat, and on the occupant pressing his hands upon the finely carved gilt arms a musical air was played by an instrument concealed within the upholstery. The care of this remarkable piece of furniture seemed the only occupation of the strangers, who are supposed to have been awaiting the advance of the French army, and in the event of its proving victorious would, doubtless, have conveyed the chair to Berlin, where, it is presumed, it was to have been used as a throne by Emperor Napoleon. The chair remains in the possession of the widow of the Frenchman's host.—London Times.

FROM TRUCKMAN TO MILLIONAIRE.—Thirty years ago a freckled-faced, stout English lad, broganed and roughly dressed, applied for work in a wholesale shipping and chandler house on South street, Boston. He had just landed. He was given a place pushing a hand truck and he did his work satisfactorily. He found a better situation presently and drifted away. The other day a rosy cheeked man stepped along among the trucks and the crowd of South street to find the place where he once worked as a roustabout and laborer. He could have well afforded to have sought the old store in a carriage, but he did not, though he is a millionaire now more than three times over, and lives, when at home, in one of the grandest houses in Cleveland, O. His name is Samuel Andrews. When he left New York he went West and made some money in the then comparatively unknown trade of tar roofing. He saved what he made, and when the Standard Oil Company was formed he got in on the ground floor. The way to millions was then opened to him.

DAMAGE WROUGHT BY INSECTS.—The annual loss to productive industries in the United States caused by insects is estimated at $150,000,000. Here is a fair battle between man and another sort of earth occupiers. They are smaller, but if they can whip us, have, undoubtedly, as good a right to the world as we have. As civilization advances, new insects make their appearance, marching sometimes eastward, but generally westward. There are few if any forms of vegetation that have no parasites that devour either foliage or fruit. The loss to the cotton crop is estimated at $15,000,000 a year, while that to the apple crop is not much less, and that to the potato crop at least one-half as much. But the estimate is not a fair one until into the loss is counted the time spent in fighting to secure the proportion that is saved.

THE GREATEST FORTRESS.—The greatest fortress from a strategical point of view is the famous strong hold of Gibraltar. It occupies a rocky peninsula jutting out into the sea, about three miles long and three quarters of a mile wide. One central rock rises to a height of 1,435 feet above the sea level. Its northern face is almost perpendicular, while its east side is full of tremendous precipices. On the south it terminates in what is called Europa Point. The west side is less steep than the east, and between its base and the sea is the narrow, almost level, span on which the town of Gibraltar is built. The fortress is considered impregnable to military assault. The regular garrison in time of peace numbers about 7,600.

FOR SPOT CASH.

MOUNT AIRY, the terminus of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley railroad, STANDS ALONE, unequalled, unrivalled, and is springing into importance because of its many natural advantages. The opportunities for investment are numerous. Brains, energy and capital are coming in from all points of the compass. The impelling power must be ascribed to the geographical location which nature has planned for a large city, being centrally located and the natural market for nine counties. Rich in mine, forest and farm, and having enough qualified water power to drive the machinery of the entire State. To see the stupendous scenery when the mountain peaks and pinacles loom their lofty heads in the hazy atmosphere of more than 3,000 feet above the sea level, and to enjoy the invigorating air and health-giving climate, few will be surprised at the rapid growth of Mount Airy. Don't forget the time.

Local News.

—A big excursion of Sunday School folks from Durham passes through here to-morrow morning for Winston.

—Mr. Goodrich has retired from his partnership with Mr. Baker in the management of the Jonesboro Leader. It is a good paper, and the press will miss the services of Mr. Goodrich.

—Nothing more exquisite in the way of flowers have we seen this year than a box of rare lilies, roses, heliotrope, geranium, etc., sent to Mr. Humphrey, of the McAdoo House, by his mother at the charming little city of Goldsboro.

DON'T FORGET.—Don't forget the Dime Sociable by ladies of the North End Club at Mr. A. Hagan's residence to-night.

DIED.—On Sunday last, Graham, son of Mr. W. R. Forbis. The funeral took place at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the residence of the parents, and the remains were interred in Green Hill Cemetery.

ANNUAL CAMP MEETING.—The annual camp meeting at Muir's Chapel embraces the 3rd Sunday in August. Tent holders are expected to be moved in by Saturday noon, the 18th. A large crowd will be in attendance. We learn among other distinguished divines that will be in attendance will be Revs. P. F. W. Stamey, of Reidsville, W. C. Norman, of Winston, T. H. Pegram, of Winston, J. E. Mann, of Greensboro.

BAND OF HOPE.—The entertainment in Benbow Hall last evening was largely attended and very enjoyable. The declamations were highly creditable, with the result of the prize of the first-class to Miss Julia Pearce, and of the second class to Miss Rosa Abbott.

The Demorest medals were presented by Prof. W. A. Blair in remarks very beautiful and graceful, which delighted the large audience following his very eloquent words.

CHANGING HEADQUARTERS.—Mr. James S. Battle, revenue agent for this State, Virginia and South Carolina, will in a few days remove his headquarters from Greensboro to Raleigh. The change made has no significance in an official point of view, but is solely a matter of personal convenience to Mr. Battle, putting him in more direct communication with family and friends.

This city will be sorry to lose Mr. Battle, whose promptness and efficiency in the discharge of his duties, with his affability and pleasant manners, have made him many friends.

DIME SOCIABLE.—Considerations of the "intense heat" need not deter you from attending the entertainment this evening, at the residence of Mr. A. Hagan, on Church street, and thus evincing your kindly appreciation of the efforts of the ladies of the "North End Club" to give some financial assistance to a most deserving object—the hospital. The heat and burden of the day over with, the refreshing breezes that come with the stars and the twilight to accompany you in your pleasant walk to that beautiful part of the city—you will be ushered in to the enjoyment of an hour or two of unalloyed pleasure, and be served with the delicious creams, ices and other refreshments which seem especially put together for the relief and delectation of the wearied physical frame, panting under the debilitating influences of the "dog star."

VERY COMPLETE AND HANDSOME.—Capt. J. W. Fry's courtesy enabled us this morning to make an examination of the new officers' parlor and sleeping observation car, just purchased for the use of the President and other officials by the North State Improvement Company, and placed on the line of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley R. R.

The car was constructed by Jackson & Sharp, Wilmington, Delaware, and is very complete in all its appointments, with elegance and tastefulness in the wood-work, upholstery, etc. The rear compartment is furnished with the delightful easy-chairs of the Scarrett Furniture Co., and is designed as the parlor of observation, the plate-glass windows permitting a full view of the country traversed by the speeding train. In this parlor is also an extension table upon which meals may be served, and the comfortable, capacious sofa can be transformed at night into two roomy berths.

The kitchen is a model, and would extort fervent ejaculations of admiration from the lady visitors. Its range, sink, heating and water apparatus, culinary implements from the most improved potato-masher to the waffle-iron, dinner and tea sets, with all the adjuncts of the table and the larder—are completeness itself. There are sleeping accommodations for eight persons, one state room, especially, being fitted up in most attractive style, with bath room, bureau, etc. The front of the car forms a cosy smoking room, the windows opening in the same manner as in the rear parlor. The car is to be heated throughout by steam pipes, hot and cold water being conveyed by pipe to every sleeping apartment, as well as to the kitchen, and electric bells are furnished throughout. The exterior and interior decoration is in excellent taste, of dark brown and gold.

The officers traveling over the line from one end to the other have all the conveniences for writing and the transaction of other business, its accumulation being thus obviated, as is otherwise the case in an absence of some duration from headquarters.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.—The regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held last evening, J. L. King, Esq., in the chair, and the minutes of last meeting being read, were approved after amendments. The report of the Secretary and Treasurer was read and referred to the Finance Committee, and a resolution was passed requesting the secretary and treasurer to call on all members in arrears for quarterly dues, within the next five days, and report result of same to the finance committee.

The amendment offered by President Gray was brought up and was adopted by a vote of 10 to 3. Under the call of miscellaneous business, Mr. R. R. King read to the Chamber the plan of organization for a joint stock spoke and handle company, and, after discussion, on motion of Mr. Ireland a committee of three was appointed to take the matter in charge, and ascertain what could be accomplished, as follows: Wm. Love, R. W. Brooks and J. H. White.

Mr. Ireland, from the Committee on Firemen's Tournament, stated that the committee would meet on the following Tuesday evening, when definite action will be taken.

Mr. R. R. King moved that a committee be appointed to wait upon the tobacco manufacturers, warehouses and all other manufacturing and business houses of the city, with regard to the preparation of trade floats for the Firemen's Celebration in September—this committee to confer with the Committee of Arrangements.

OBITUARY.—The funeral services of Mrs. Haywood Alderman took place this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock from the Baptist Church, the pastor, Rev. W. R. Gwaltney, officiating. The remains were conveyed to Green Hill Cemetery for interment, attended by sorrowing friends, whose numbers and deep grief attested the near hold which the estimable deceased lady had upon the hearts of the community. Accomplished, keenly sympathetic of the woes of humanity, devoted, heart and hand, to the work of vital godliness—society loses a beloved member, crowned with many virtues and graces, the suffering and afflicted lament the departure of a staunch and faithful friend, and the Church has given a pure and lovely daughter to the protecting arms of God.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The session opened with the usual devotional exercises of singing, reading and prayer. Supt. Wharton then introduced Mr. O. Connet, of McLeansville, who gave a very instructive and entertaining lecture on writing. Mr. Geo. R. McNeill then followed with a lecture on geography, which was enjoyed by all. Mr. Sam'l. C. Smith read his poem on the Graded School, and we must say it did great credit to him, and was appreciated by the audience. After this a recess of ten minutes was given.

After recess the following lectures were given: School Management and Organization, by Prof. W. A. Blair; Recitation, by Mr. M. Whitsett; Lecture, by Prof. J. M. Weatherly, of Jamestown; Spelling Reform, Prof. J. M. Weatherly also. After this the session for the day closed till 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

The whole number of teachers that have attended during the Institute has been 138, an average of 90 per day.

Personal. Prof. J. M. Weatherly, of Jamestown, is in the city.

Prof. Jno. J. Blair is back from his visit home, attending the Normal.

C. F. Crutchfield, of the High Point "Enterprise," was in the city a short time to-day.

Miss Mallet, of Fayetteville, arrived via the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. yesterday afternoon.

Mr. F. N. Lake, of South Carolina, was registered at the Benbow House yesterday.

Miss Sadie Murphy, of Walnut Cove, has been spending a short time in the city.

Miss Katie Glenn, of Memphis, Tenn., is paying a visit to Mrs. J. D. Glenn.

Mrs. A. S. Glenn returned on yesterday to Winston, having spent a short time with her son, Col. J. D. Glenn, of this city.

Mrs. M. V. Bingham, accompanied by Misses Myrtle and Lillie Bingham, are spending a while at White Sulphur Springs.

We were pleased to have a call yesterday afternoon from J. H. Sparger, Esq., of Mt. Airy, who spent yesterday and to-day in our city.

Misses Maggie Turrentine and Lizzie McMurray, fair and accomplished young ladies of Durham, are rejoicing their many friends in Greensboro by a visit of a few days.

LOG CABINS were the most prominent feature of the Presidential Campaign of 1840. At the opening of the campaign, the opposition sneeringly proclaimed "Tippecanoe" Harrison a low fellow, "born in a log cabin." His friends at once made the Log Cabin in the emblem of the most enthusiastic of campaigns. Warner's Log Cabin Remedies and "Tippecanoe" stomachic tonic are enthusiastically received by the American people to-day, because they are the remedies of the common people—simple but effective.

ATTENTION! All members of the Volunteer Hook & Ladder Company are hereby notified to meet at firemen's Hall to-night, at 8:30 o'clock. Business of importance. By order of R. E. WAGGOMAN, C. W. IRVIN, President. Secretary.

For Register of Deeds. At the earnest solicitations of many of my friends throughout Guilford county, I have decided to allow my name to go before the Democratic county convention of Guilford for the nomination of Register of Deeds. Respectfully, Z. M. FOUST.

Important! The Provident Savings Life Ins. Co.,—J. S. Jones, General Agent—is the only company that insures lives just as fire insurance companies insure property; that is to say, at actual current cost. Rates 50 per cent. less than other old line companies issuing guaranteed policies. Over $200 cash assets to each $100 liabilities. It ranks first in solvency, economy in management and low cost of insurance. Investigate, even if you are insured. aug6-2w

SALISBURY, N. C., July 7, '88. Mr. J. S. Jones, Gen. Agt. Provident Savings Life Ins. Co., of N. Y., Greensboro, N. C.:

DEAR SIR:—Allow me to thank you for the prompt payment of $2,000.00, due on policy of my husband, Robt. H. Foard, recently taken in your Co. The company has not only paid the full amount, but has done so 7 weeks before it was due, according to the contract, thus showing its ability and willingness to meet its obligations with the greatest liberality and fairness. The policy was taken out Feb. 1887, the total amount paid on it being only $52.96. With best wishes for your success and the sterling company you represent, I am yours gratefully, ANNIE FOARD. aug6-2w

The Boss Baker. Remember we have the Boss Baker of Greensboro, Mr. W. L. King, who can please you. When you want anything in the line of Breads and Cakes give us a trial. We guarantee satisfaction. Respectfully, T. S. SHELTON. jul23-tf

Prompt. Mr. J. S. Jones, General Agent of the Provident Savings Life Insurance Company, of New York, was in town last Tuesday and paid to Mrs. Annie Foard $2,000 the amount of the policy held by her late husband, Mr. Robert Foard in the above named company. The amount was not due until 90 days after proof of death had been filed, but the company issued the check the day the proofs were received.

This promptness must be a source of gratification to the many policy holders of the Provident in Salisbury.—Salisbury Watchman. aug6-2w

MUSICAL INSTRUCTIONS Given by Prof. N. Schmitt. On Violin, Violoncello or Bass, Guitar, Flute, Clarinet, or any other Musical Instrument! I have been giving Musical Instructions for the past thirty years, in most all portions of Georgia, North and South Carolina! I have numerous suitable recommendations from professors and prominent citizens, and the press of the different places, at which I have given instructions! Those who desire to take lessons, will find me at my residence, on King street, near Sergeant's foundry, or addressed through the city postoffice. Terms reasonable. I will also Tune and Repair Pianos and Organs, with the greatest satisfaction, or make no charge. jun11 PROF. N. SCHMITT.

TO THE PUBLIC. On Saturday night, when the Buchanan and McDonald block was destroyed by fire, I had one of Ferrell & Co.'s Herring Safes in my office, on second floor. It fell to centre of main floor and was subject to the hottest part of the fire. Upon having it opened I found all valuable papers, books and monies preserved, and in as good condition as when I put them in. I cheerfully recommend Herring Safe to the public. Respectfully, THOMAS BAILEY.

The undersigned is agent for the above Safes, and solicits orders which will be promptly filled, with satisfaction guaranteed. jun21-tf W. S. JESSUP.
