The Black and Tan Convention.

On Saturday morning a black cloud with a peculiar smell told the people of Greensboro that the Republican party would hold its convention that day, and at 12 m., ex-revenue officer Bilbro called the meeting to order. Ex-senator Morrow was chosen chairman and ex-revenue officer Starbuck secretary. A committee on credentials was appointed and while absent ex-revenue officer Hoskins showed the crowd that a powerful supply of gas was all that God gave him. He was followed by ex district attorney Boyd, who spoke of the Blair bill, but failed to tell what grand-son Harrison had done for it. The crowd became very boisterous when he mentioned grand pa Harrison, and a big groan came from the black cloud when the speaker said he was a little better than the nigger. Mr. Boyd spoke at some length; said he fought prohibition a few years ago, and was well informed about the western whiskey. We were not surprised. He said he did not expect to make a speech, and the crowd did not think he went beyond his expectations.

Then came the "tug of war." Nominations for sheriff were in order and poor Eckle had to die—he was not enough of an ex-revenue. Ex-railway postal clerk Hoskins beat him, as ex postmaster White said, "in the first round." J. W. Causey, who said he knew no party, was nominated for register of deeds, ex store keeper Hodgins for treasurer, ex-brandy gauger Holton for the Senate, ex-revenue officers Starbuck and Kime for the House, after which the crowd adjourned.

Ex-marshal Keogh is again happy, for if the nigger did beat him in Raleigh he downed him at home. The above is the ticket except two unknown men. This is the ticket they want the men of Guilford to support, but

WINSTON-SALEM GOSSIP.

Pencil Points of Things Generally in and around the Twin City.

[Special correspondence of the Greensboro Patriot.]
WINSTON-SALEM, Aug. 26.—The attraction here just now is Jumbo Jewett, the 649-pound fat man. He is certainly a human monstrosity, that is about the size of him, and he is gathering in the shekels from a curiosity-loving public.

There has been an abundance of railroad talk here for some time past, but matters have now assumed a business aspect. Not less than 1,000 hands, with all the necessary equipments, are moving dirt now within a radius of ten miles, on our two lines, the Wilkesboro and Roanoke and Southern. The former is to be completed as far as Rural Hall, and trains running by Christmas. There the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. will be tapped and the road extended on, either to Wilkes county or Ashe county—the former, of course, if subscriptions cannot be extended.

By a hurried estimate we readily count contracts already let for the erection of $150,000 worth of buildings in our town—a veritable boom and no mistake. These include stores, residences, tobacco factories, &c.

Next week a special through train will pass through your city freighted with young lady pupils for Salem Academy. The train starts away down in the lone star State. The fall season opens next Tuesday.—The attendance will be the largest for years. An addition, 60x70 feet is being added to the Academy to accommodate all applications, and even now it is the largest female college in the South, and the most thorough.

A large number of our citizens will attend your Firemen's Tournament next month. The Salem company will enter for the prizes, and the boys are practicing diligently. The Winston company will probably bring a reel. By mutual agreement both engines do not leave the town at one time. The last visit to Greensboro was made by the Winston boys, so it is Salem's turn next.

Mr. J. T. Alexander, of Wilkes county, was here this week showing specimens of gold nuggets and dust taken from his mine near Trap Hill, Wilkes county. It is operated as yet on a small scale by J. S. Holbrook & Co., but the returns are gratifying. In two days four men unearthed $8 worth of dust. This, thus far, is about the average returns.

Although our people wanted Buxton for Congress, they acquiesced without a murmur in the action of the convention, and will give Col. Morehead a rousing welcome when he comes this way and a still more effective manifestation of esteem at the polls in November next.

It is reported here that C. B. Watson, Esq. and solicitor Settle came very near getting to an exhibit of muscular power at Surry court last Monday. They held a joint discussion and their retorts became too personal for each other's comfort.

Our Sambo and Dinah population are happy. Watermelons are abundant and excursion fever rages high. Three hundred visited Danville last Monday. Another cargo will exult to Mt. Airy next Monday.

The Durham folks are after our Dr. Jas. A. Blum to aid in preparing their elaborate exhibit this fall.—The doctor has an enviable reputation in arranging displays for public demonstration. His services would prove a valuable acquisition to our Durham friends.

H. A. Watkins & Bro. make an assignment. The firm is a new one, and the liabilities and assets are about equal.

Quite a number of lots of new tobacco have appeared upon the market. The first installment came in at least a month ago.

We read the DAILY PATRIOT with much interest. Our people are doing the good part by our journals, and to them Winston Salem are indebted for a large amount of their prosperity. This is a broad assertion, but a fact not to be disputed. Let Greensboro do her part for the PATRIOT, and we are confident the results will be returned a hundred fold. It is a bright, wide awake paper, and all who read it so pronounce it.

LATEST NEWS.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Thurman En Route.

Chicago, August 25.—Judge Thurman and his party on Friday travelled in the private car of General Manager Spicer, of the Grand Trunk Line, and it was understood that they were the guests of the road. However, before reaching South Bend the superintendent of the road managed to get orders to the conductor to collect fare from the entire party. It was a disagreeable task for him, but he obeyed orders, and every member of the party, including Judge Thurman himself, paid for his passage with good solid cash. The parade of today began to form some time before noon, although 12 o'clock was the time set, and soon after that hour marched through the streets to escort the Judge and his party to the train on which they were taken to Cheltenham Beach. Prominent in parade were organizations of naturalized citizens with mottoes such as "We make citizens legally," "No dynamite in ours," and other expressions of their loyalty to their adopted country. The traveling men and local political organizations, some organizations from neighboring towns, the bands and carriages made up the rest of the procession. Judge Thurman was greeted with great enthusiasm by an immense crowd that filled the sidewalks along the line of march. At the beach a grand barbecue had been prepared at which ten beehives and twenty sheep were served, besides ear loads of other eatables and drinkables. No expense had been spared to make the day a grand success.

The Shelby Democratic Senatorial Convention.

Shelby, N. C., August 25.—The Democratic Senatorial Convention thirty eighth district, met at Cherryville to day and was called to order by Capt. J. W. Gidney, who was elected permanent chairman. Jno. F. Leeper, of Gaston, was nominated by acclamation—a good selection. He is very popular in both Cleveland and Gaston.

Hons. R. McBrayer and James L. Webb addressed a large crowd after the convention.

C. M. Lattimore was elected chairman district executive committee.

North Carolina Politics.

Charlotte, N. C., August 25.—The new cotton-mill at Gastonia is complete, the work of putting in machinery being done. It will commence operations the latter part of September.

The Third party has nominated a county ticket in Iredell county. Candidate Walker spoke there some days ago, and organized a club with thirty members. It is said all the leaders are Radicals.

For the past ten days or more great progress has been made in organizing Democratic clubs. Every day new ones are reported, and still the work goes on.

Shot Through a Window.

St. Paul, Minn., August 25.—From Currie, Minn., the Pioneer Press has news of the assassination Wednesday, near Tracy, of Moses T. Lufkin. Lufkin was shot through a window of the house of Eli Slayyers, at which he was a guest. He had had trouble with the Rose and Averill families, and had slander suits pending against them.

Yellow Fever.

Jacksonville, Fla., August 25.—No new cases have been reported to the board of health in this city since 9 o'clock last evening. Quite a number will be reported this afternoon. There is one new case and one death at Greenland. The board to-day rescinded its action declining to furnish the names and residences of the patients for publication.

WHAT A CONTRAST!

President Cleveland has just sent a message to the United States Senate which is a scathing rebuke and unanswerable argument to the partisan action of that body in the rejection of the fisheries treaty, and of which the leading Northern journals—such as the New York Herald and Times, the Boston Globe, the Philadelphia Record, etc.—speak in terms of unstinted praise, eulogizing its patriotism, statesmanship and ability. Up holding in this finished state paper the honor and dignity of the great republic of which he is the chief magistrate, this is but one of the many acts of Mr. Cleveland's administration which have enabled his people to form a correct judgment of his admirable character—a rare combination of the qualities which fit men for high and responsible position: unflinching firmness, exalted love of country and a clear and unprejudiced sense of right and justice.

Among the people of the great West the Democratic candidate for the Vice Presidency is addressing immense audiences of his fellow-citizens, and more remarkable speeches have never been reported through the columns of the press. Plain, practical, forceful; rendered impressive by the wisdom, and fortified by the extensive information, of a long life devoted to the public service, Mr. Thurman's utterances are entirely free from the wiles of the demagogue, appeals to passion or the ad captandum method of argument practiced by his opponents. Incapable of a perversion of facts, he lays before his hearers the plain, all-convincing truth, carried home to every mind by the invincible power of true eloquence and incisive reasoning. Is there any wonder that unparalleled enthusiasm meets him everywhere, and that his journey has been an ovation from beginning to end?

What a refreshing contrast to the attitude of our political foes! Can anyone adequately portray it? Can human ingenuity diagnose its present condition? Of the Republican majority in the Senate, the New York Herald pithily says that they have for months been engaged in digging a pit for the Democratic administration, only to find themselves buried therein by his recent message, covered up and decently buried before they had time to draw breath.

Except the partisan Radical press, whose bitterness and appeals to passion are no longer heeded by the great masses of either party, Mr. Blaine seems now to be the only active, militant leader of the party, and his time is occupied in advocating the very worst measures of Republicanism, and in defending the obnoxious and crying abuses of corrupt and overgrown monopoly.

A WITTY PHYSICIAN—There is a great and celebrated physician who invariably prescribes for his patients one dish and one glass of wine. The other evening he chanced to find himself dining with a patient on one hand and a staunch teetotaler on the other. The patient, who through many weary weeks had followed the dreary curriculum of a dish and a glass, watched his physician to see in what manner he dined, and was highly incensed to find that the doctor ate and drank heartily of everything that came before him. At last he burst forth:

"Well, sir, you certainly do not practice what you preach. Why, you have eaten of everything on the menu."

"Yes, yes," said the doctor testily, "but what is a man to do who runs about all day and comes home at night with twenty or forty letters to answer? He must have a bottle of champagne."

Here the teetotaler burst in angrily, saying:

"But, doctor, do you mean to tell me that a man is better able to answer twenty or forty letters when he has had a bottle of champagne?"

"No," said the doctor, "but when he has had a bottle of champagne he does not care a d—n whether they are answered or not."—St. Louis Republic.

SQUELCHED.—"When I was young and callow," said Mr. Brent Good this morning, "I fell in love with a winsome little lass of 17. She seemed to me to be the perfection of grace and beauty, and I, in the flush of love, deliberately set to work to win her affections. My suit progressed favorably, and I was in the habit of settling in with her in the parlor of her mother's house. One Wednesday night about 11 o'clock I was sitting on the sofa very close to my darling when her mother came to the head of the stairs and shouted:

"Maria!"

"Yes, mother," dutifully responded the daughter.

"Well," said the mother, in a loud nasal voice, "has Mrs. Good's boy gone home yet?"

"I went then, but never went back."—New York Evening Sun.

THE MASTER'S WAKENING TOUCH.

In the still air all music lies unheard. In the rough marble beauty hides unseen: To wake, the music and the beauty need The master's touch, the sculptor's chisel keen.

Great Master, touch us with thy skillful hand; Let not the music that is in us die; Great Sculptor, hew and polish us, nor let, Hidden and lost, thy form within us lie.

Spare not the stroke, do to us as thou wilt. Let there be naught unfinished, broken, marred;

Complete thy purpose that we may become Thy perfect image, O our God and Lord!

A STORY OF TOM CORWIN.—Recommendations do not count much in obtaining office in these days. The president and his cabinet know how easy it is to get signatures to any kind of a petition. One can get a thousand signatures in any county for the release of a murderer, and public men give letters freely to get rid of office seekers. Almost any man who has not been to the penitentiary can get an endorsement from his congressman or senator, and the majority of public men are like Tom Corwin. Corwin was too good natured to refuse anything of any man who asked it, and he indorsed the applications of all who came to him. At last he was appointed secretary of the treasury, and these indorsements began to come in. One day a man whom he did not remember called upon him in the treasury department and asked for a position. Corwin asked the man if he had any indorsements. He said that he had the best in the world, and Corwin reached out his hand for them. He opened the first paper he touched, and it was a letter to William M. Meredith, who had been secretary of the treasury before Corwin, and it strongly indorsed the bearer for a position. It was signed by Corwin's unmistakable autograph, and as he read it his dark face twined. At last he looked up. "And did not this letter get you a position?" said he.

"No," replied the man; "It did not."

"Well," rejoined Corwin, "if this indorsement was not good enough to get you a position under Mr. Meredith it certainly will not get you one under me. Good day."—Washington Letter.

POOR SHELLS.—A good story of Prince Paskievitch, father of Prince Volkonsky, and grandfather of the charming Princess Kourakine: During the siege of Warsaw he had ordered a certain Polish battery to be silenced by his own artillery, and became perfectly wild with rage on observing that the artillery fire produced no appreciable effect. Galloping to the battery, he asked: "What idiot is in charge here?" "I, sir," answered an officer. "Then down you go to the ranks this very day," said Paskievitch; "you don't begin to know your trade; your shells do not explode." "I know they don't," answered the captain; "for the best of all reasons, that they can't explode." "That's a lie," said the prince. "It is! See for yourself then," replied the officer, coolly picking up a shell from the pile and lighting the fuse, and holding it up between him and the marshal. The marshal tranquilly crossed his arms and watched till the fuse sputtered and went out. "There, sir," said the artilleryman, triumphantly, as he threw the shell on ground. "You were right after all," growled the marshal, and rode away to another point of the line, but at night the captain received at his tent the cross of St. Vladimir for bravery in the field.

NEVER SURRENDERED.—The flag of the Pedee Light Artillery was never surrendered, but when the war ended in defeat was hidden under the color bearer's coat, and by him carried back to the lady who, four years before, had given it into his keep, and by her has been religiously kept ever since, and only brought out upon occasions of the battery's reunion.

ALUMINUM.—Aluminum, the silvery metal that used to cost $240 a pound thirty-five years ago, is now produced at the Krupp gun works at Essen, Germany, for twenty-five cents a pound. Common clay everywhere contains from two to ten pounds of it in every 100 pounds, and it is likely, within the next decade or two, to become more common than iron.

MANUFACTURING. Missouri contains over 20,000 manufacturing establishments, which furnish employment for about 150,000 persons. The material annually used and worked up amounts to $300,000,000, and the product put upon the market amounts to $500,000,000, while the wages paid are nearly $100,000,000.

Mrs. M. V. BINGHAM—Millinery at Cost!

Local News.

Don't forget the fete champetre at Mrs. Keogh's Tuesday evening.

A train with about 400 colored excursionists passed through here from Winston to Mt. Airy this morning.

ENTERTAINMENT TO-NIGHT.—Remember the entertainment in behalf of the orphans in the court-house to-night.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—The Joel Shipman place, an extensive farm of about 400 acres on Deep River, was purchased at public sale today by Mr. J. N. Nelson, for the sum of $3,000.

AFTER HIM.—Hon. John Morehead Brover was in town to-day. "Uneasy lies the head," &c., and we suppose the scare is still on him which sent a "tremor cordis" through all his frame just after he cast the memorable Mills bill vote. But he had better betake himself with all convenient speed to the safe shelter of the House of Representatives, for the Sergeant-at-Arms has summoned him and other legislative delinquents to return immediately to their Congressional duties.

THE EVANGELIST PEARSON.—At the morning service of the First Presbyterian Church on yesterday, Rev. Dr. Smith, the pastor, read a letter from Rev. Mr. Pearson, from which we are to expect this city to have a share of the great evangelist's labors during the month of February next. For the month of January, 1889, he will be engaged at Greenville, S. C., and will come to us immediately after if the engagement be concluded.

A JOLLY TIME FOR THE YOUNG FOLKS.—Carry your little ones to the festival in aid of the Episcopal Church, to be held on the lawn in front of Col. T. B. Keogh's residence to-morrow evening, and give them an hour or two's innocent enjoyment.

MASONIC.—A meeting of a committee of Masons—consisting of Judge Gudger, Hon. A. H. A. Williams, Geo. W. Blount, Mr. Thompson and others—was to meet here to-day, with a view to considering the question of changing the place of meeting of the Grand Lodge in January from Raleigh to Oxford, where the order owns $70,000 or $80,000, and which would seem to be the most suitable place of meeting.

AN INCONVENIENCE.—Riding up the Salem road last Saturday, we were obliged to purchase a ticket for Kernersville, although we wished to go only to Colfax, two or three miles this side. As to the amount of money involved in the price of the ticket, that is a matter of but a few cents, but it occurs to us that there is very little consideration shown to local travel. It is presumable that the railroads want passengers, even if they travel but a few miles, but an extra charge of this kind is a poor way of securing this local travel. If it is not convenient to establish a ticket office at Colfax and points similar, it is certainly practicable to require of local passengers only proportional rates of fare for short distances.

"MUSIC HATH CHARMS."—From the barbaric but golden age when the pipe of Pan woke the echoes of untrodden depths to this cultured day of Theodore Thomas and Rubinstein, trained ear and untutored heart have alike bowed to the power of the "concord of sweet sounds," and the great English bard declares that he who "hath no music in his soul is fit for treason, stratagem and spoils."

To-morrow evening Miss Brockmann and the Messrs. Woodroffes and Alderman will furnish to those who are so fortunate as to be present at the fete champetre in front of Col. Keogh's residence a musical entertainment which has been rarely excelled in this city.

DEEP RIVER TOWNSHIP.—We had the pleasure of making a visit to the Colfax section of Deep River township last Saturday, and attending a meeting of the Cleveland and Fowle Democratic Club at Sandy Ridge School-house. Many names were added to the roll of membership of the club, and on motion it was decided to continue the temporary organization—Mr. H. W. Barrow, Chairman, and Mr. Alex. Campbell Secretary—until next Saturday.

At about 3 o'clock in the afternoon Mr. Barrow introduced to his audience Hon. D. F. Caldwell, Democratic nominee for the State Senate, who in a very strong, argumentative speech of an hour and a half discussed before his hearers the great issues in national, State and county politics. Years but add to the popularity of the "old war-horse," as they affectionately styled him out there last Saturday, while times takes naught from either his physical or intellectual vigor. He is received with enthusiasm wherever he goes, and not the least of the acts of wisdom and good judgment of the convention of the 18th inst. was placing the leadership of the county Democracy in the venerable patriot's hands. At the conclusion of Mr. Caldwell's speech the associate editor of this paper made a few remarks.

The audience was remarkably good—the school-house well filled with both Democrats and Republicans, the latter of whom listened to the speeches with courteous attention—and we were much pleased to see several ladies present. Deep River is the Republican stronghold of this county, but its Democrats constitute a faithful if not a numerous band, and we are assured by prominent and well-informed members of the party that in the coming election we will poll our full vote in the township, and make very considerable gains over 1886.

The tobacco looks fine in that section. We saw a patch belonging to Mr. Long which cannot be surpassed anywhere, and we were informed that elsewhere he has five acres just as good. A mile or two north-west the recent hail did much damage to tobacco, and there is a small area where the devastation was complete. Corn generally looks well, and we were told that farming in that part of the county is improving.

FETE CHAMPETRE.—The second one of the series of delightful entertainments to be given by the Ladies Aid Society of the Episcopal Church will take place on the lawn at Col. T. B. Keogh's residence, in South Greensboro, to-morrow evening at 6 o'clock. Amusements of a varied and attractive character will entertain both young and old, and refreshments of pure ice-cream, peach-cream, cake, sherbet, lemonade, etc., will be served.

The evening's programme will be enlivened by excellent instrumental and vocal music—Miss Laura Brockmann presiding at the piano, and accompanying Messrs. Woodroffes and Alderman.

The public are cordially invited to be present.

A QUESTION OF FACT.—Some time since a local article appeared in the daily edition of this paper, in which we stated that we had information of action taken at a meeting of the members of the Christian Church at Shallow Ford, Alamance county, deprecating the Third Party, while fully alive to the importance of the suppression of the liquor traffic. On Saturday Mr. Holt called upon us to make a denial of this, and ask that a correction of the statement be published. We consider it our duty to do nothing more than give Mr. Holt the benefit of his denial. We attempt to throw no discredit upon his statement; so far as we know, he is a perfectly trustworthy man; but the information upon which the local article was based was, in our opinion, as authentic as the denial. When we are convinced that our first informant was in error we will cheerfully make a correction in accordance with ascertained facts.

AT MCLEANSVILLE.—The funeral services over the remains of young Mr. Dick in that neighborhood prevented the meeting at McLeansville last Saturday, and there were but few in attendance. Messrs. Forbis and Sharpe made no set speeches on the occasion, but talked to the few assembled on the tariff, the Mills bill and other vital questions. In that township the full vote will be brought out, and the Democrats are earnest and already at work.

CARE OF CONVICTS.—Mr. Levi Scott and Dr. W. C. Porter returned to Greensboro on Saturday night, having made a tour of several of the western counties. Mr. Scott was appointed by the Governor to examine into the condition of the convicts on the public works, their treatment, etc., and he reports them comfortably provided for and doing well.

SUPERIOR COURT.—The August term of the Superior Court of Guilford county convened this morning, to continue two weeks—his Honor Judge Shipp on the bench and Mr. Strayhorn Solicitor. The term will be occupied with both the criminal and civil docket, but we have heard of no case of unusual interest on either docket. The town is full of people to-day, and the indications are that the attendance on court will be unusually large.

The Judge's charge to the Grand Jury was clear, thorough and able, and listened to with much attention throughout. The following compose the jury: J. H. Johnson, Foreman; Peter Wilson, W. W. Shields, Lewis C. Heath, A. M. Bradshaw, J. O. Little, J. S. Brookbank, James White, L. M. Hawkins, Geo. W. Clapp, J. K. Osment, Wm. Dennis, J. M. Balling, J. G. Causey, Sam'l Wheeler, (col.) William Shaw, Mebane Apple, T. A. Sechrist, H. C. Lamb, officer of Grand Jury.

Up to the hour of going to press no cases of importance had been disposed of.

A TRIBUTE WELL DESERVED.—The readers of this paper and all other good citizens of Guilford, with wonderful unanimity, will endorse this tribute to an honored citizen from the State Chronicle:

Hon. D. F. Caldwell, who has been nominated for the Senate by the Democrats of Guilford, is a notable figure in North Carolina politics. Mr. Caldwell was first in the Legislature of 1848, and was one of the leaders in the important Internal Improvement legislation of that day. He originated the idea in North Carolina of imposing a tax on solvent credits and the capital of the rich, as well as upon lands. He was always a man of originality and courage. In 1879 he was a member of the State Legislature, and took a prominent part in the adjustment of the State debt. An able, patriotic, well-furnished publicist and Democrat, his experience will be valuable in the next State Senate.

Of course he will be elected, for in Guilford county he has never been defeated. The people know and trust him. "Uncle Frank" as he is familiarly called, will make a campaign as earnest and as vigorous as when he was younger, and the people will give him a big majority.

School Notice.—Miss Lina Porter will commence the fall session of her school on Monday, Sept. 3rd. aug15-td

Mrs. Cator, Mrs. H. R. Hall and Miss Mollie Thornbug, accompanied by Dr. G. W. Whitsett, Mr. H. R. Hall and Mr. W. J. Woodburn, took the 10:45 train last Saturday night to spend two or three days in Asheville, enjoying the unexampled natural beauties of the "Land of the Sky." They formed a merry, congenial party, and as the reporter bid them good night when the train pulled out from the depot, he felt that his "lines would indeed have been cast in pleasant places" had it been his good fortune to have "hooked on" with the happy crowd.

TO THE PUBLIC.

On Saturday night, when the Buchanan and McDonald block was destroyed by fire, I had one of Ferrell & Co.'s Herring Safes in my office, on second floor. It fell to centre of main floor and was subject to the hottest part of the fire. Upon having it opened I found all valuable papers, books and monies preserved, and in as good condition as when I put them in.

I cheerfully recommend Herring Safe to the public. Respectfully, THOMAS BAILEY.

The undersigned is agent for the above Safes, and solicits orders which will be promptly filled, with satisfaction guaranteed. jun21-tf W. S. JESSUP.

The dining room is large and cool; bed rooms well ventilated; nice parlor, and the long double verandas, make the House one of the most desirable in this section of the State to spend the heated term. The yard is beautifully and densely shaded with Aspen trees.

A PLACE FOR AMUSEMENTS has been set apart, and music will be provided.
