The Charlotte Chronicle has changed hands, with G. W. Chalk assuming control.

The New York World thinks President Cleveland's letter of acceptance is due.

Old John Robinson, the showman, left property valued at more than $3,000,000.

Ex-Senator Jo McDonald thinks Indiana is safe in the Democratic column.

Blaine had a Borchard, and so has Harrison. He is called Blaine of Maine.

Don White says if the Republican party can stand ex-revenue officers for candidates he can too.

Robt. Leson Porter has turned out to be the Earl of Melton, Ireland.

New Bern has lifted the quarantine against Goldsboro, and all's quiet along the Potomac once more.

Capt. Ball's opposition to Brower lost him the empty honor of the nomination for the Senate last Saturday.

New York Democracy will nominate a candidate for Governor on the 11th David B. Hill has the inside track.

It is simply a question of who and which between Blaine and Harrison—which is the horse and who is the rider?

Boss Mahone, of Virginia, is still sitting on the box of the Republican coach with whip in hand, waiting to see if there is to be any more kicking out of the traces.

Arkansas will elect state officers and legislature and vote upon the question of holding a convention to frame a new constitution on Monday, September 3.

The Republican headquarters at Elizabeth City are said to be in a room in the county jail, and the Harrison Dockery campaign flag floats gallantly over that building.

If indeed the Third party is dead in North Carolina, an appropriate epitaph is respectfully suggested:
"If so soon we are done for, We wonder what we were begun for."

In this world of push and get allyou can, no young man must neglect the cardinal virtues of manhood, sobriety, honesty, industry and courtesy.

Reports say that Judge Fowle whipped Dockery at Monroe yesterday, and created an enthusiasm rarely ever witnessed by the Democrats.

The Greensboro negroes are complaining already, and say that they nor their man had any showing at the Republican Convention here last Saturday. Did they expect any?

Republicans are making cheap pilgrimages to Indianapolis to see Harrison, because they feel that they ought to be doing something, and don't know what else on earth to do.

Our Government belongs to the people. They have decreed its purpose, and it is their clear right to demand that its cost shall be limited by frugality, and that its burden of expense shall be carefully limited by its actual needs.—Grover Cleveland.

DEATH FROM GUNSHOT.—A very sad accident occurred on Ramses street late Saturday afternoon that resulted in the death of Mr. William Fletcher, who has been at work as a carpenter, for some time, upon the new court house. He and Mr. J. W. Goodson were returning from a hunt, in a buggy, and when within only fifteen or twenty feet of the home of Mr. High, the father-in-law of Mr. Fletcher, and with whom he lived, the buggy uncoupled and the front wheels pulled out, throwing the front of the buggy to the ground. Mr. Fletcher had the muzzle of his gun under his left arm and the jar caused the gun to explode and the entire contents of one barrel entered his shoulder.
Physicians were immediately summoned to the relief of Mr. Fletcher, but all efforts to avert fatal results proved unavailing, and the unfortunate young man died from the effects of the wound this morning, leaving a wife and one child and many friends to mourn his sad death.—Durham Tobacco Plant.

GAINING STRENGTH.

A Tidal Wave of Enthusiasm for Cleveland.

Washington, D. C., August 27.

—Reports from all parts of the country show that the President's message on the fisheries question has invoked an enthusiasm that promises to sweep over the land like a tidal wave. The feeling in New York before his message was about even, now it is reported at 100 to 1 in favor of Cleveland! Such States as Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Michigan, Illinois, and Iowa that have heretofore been regarded as certain for Harrison are put down as doubtful, and there are lots of Democrats in this city who would be willing to take an even bet on all of them. An ex member of the Indiana Legislature informed me to-day that he had heard from the best authority that the chairman of the State Committee there, after a careful canvass of the State, was of opinion that if the election were to come off now Indiana would give a majority of twelve thousand for Cleveland and Thurman. Talking with the Postmaster of the House Dalton, last night I found him in the best of spirits over the prospects there. General Matson and General Hovey both made application to the House to-day for a leave of absence for fifteen days from August 30th, which after some opposition was granted. They will stump the State of Indiana together, and the canvass there will probably be the hottest that State has ever yet known.

The New York World announces to-day the following contributions to the fund of the National Democratic Committee: Grover Cleveland $10,000; Chairman Price and William L. Scott, $20,000 each; Secretaries Whitney and Endicott and Postmaster General Dickinson $10,000 each, and the same amount from Chairman William H. Barnum, Herman Oehlrich, Oliver Payne, and Patrick Kelley —in all $120,000. That will do pretty well for a nucleus. As Jay Gould announces himself in an interview in that paper as in favor of free wool, perhaps he will contribute his mite, but as all his interests lie with the monopolists it is more probable that he will put his money-bag on the other side.

Jay Gould Not Afraid.

Sartoga, N. Y., August 27.—Jay Gould was interviewed before leaving here Saturday. He said he anticipated a good season for the railroads on account of the good crops. "I apprehend no serious injury to the business interests of the country, no matter which political party wins," was Mr. Gould's answer to a question on that point.
"It is always claimed in every political campaign by each party that the success of the opposition means destruction to the interests of the country, but I notice that after election everything goes on nicely."

FOWLE AT MONROE.

Over Four-Fifths of the County Received Him.

Monroe, N. C., August 27.—A tremendous crowd greeted Fowle at the depot. He was received by D. A. Covington, W. H. Fifer, and Dr. S. J. Welsh, into a splendid phaeton, and a cavalcade of over a quarter of a mile long escorted him through the town. The Sardis and Monroe bands united and enlivened the crowd with music.

Over five thousand people heard the speaking. Several said that four-fifths of the Union county were present and on the streets, and the town at every corner resounded with cheers for Fowle, as the procession passed. The excitement was of the wildest character.

Dockery came on the regular Charlotte bound train, to the satisfaction of the great crowd. He had no escort. The joint debates began at 3:30 p. m. A large fraction of the audience were ladies.
Dockery led off for an hour. The crowd was almost to a man for Fowle. Dockery made the same old speech he had made elsewhere, and disappointed the crowd.
Fowle followed in a speech of an hour and excelled himself even in the estimation of his friends. He was applauded at every turn to the echo. He charged upon Dockery that he voted for a negro lawyer instead of a white farmer, who was a competitor, and Dockery admitted it. The crowd became uproarious. Each had a reply of twenty minutes. The greatest enthusiasm was evoked. It was a field day for Fowle and Democracy. No State campaign was ever begun more auspiciously by the Democrats.

LOG CABINS are fast going out of style as fashionable residences. Log Cabins will, however, always have a place in American history, as they were the most prominent feature of our country's early social life. The pioneers were strong, rugged, healthy. Warner's Log Cabin Cough and Consumption Remedy is a reproduction of one of the best of the old time roots and herbs remedies, which kept them well. Everybody praises "Tippecane" as a stomach tonic.

Desirable Farm For Sale,

Only Two and a Half Miles From Town.

I have for sale on easy terms a most desirable farm only two and half miles from the city, with good dwellings and out houses, poultry yard &c., including a fine straw berry bed and 20 acres in fruit trees of the most select kind. The farm contains about 150 acres more or less and in a healthy neighborhood, produces fine corn, wheat and tobacco.

Also one small farm adjoining the above containing about 100 acres more or less, one half under cultivation and the balance well timbered. The land is especially adapted to the growth of corn, tobacco, wheat, and corn with splendid bottom lands for the growth of hay. Call on or address

TAYLOR HOUSE,

Danbury, N. C.

Will be open on the 15th of June for the accommodation of visitors to Piedmont Springs.

These Springs are about 2½ miles from Danbury, and are now the most popular waters in the State.
Dyspeptics can, after using the water, eat anything they desire without inconvenience. Bad cases of scrofula have been cured by its use and it is a specific for female diseases.

For PLEASURE SEEKERS no place can surpass it.

My table will be provided with the best the market affords. The dining room is large and cool; bed rooms well ventilated; nice parlor, and the long double verandas, make the House one of the most desirable in this section of the State to spend the heated term.
The yard is beautifully and densely shaded with Aspen trees.

A PLACE FOR AMUSEMENTS has been set apart, and music will be provided.

TERMS.—Per month of four weeks $16; per week, $5; per day, $1; children of 10 years and under half charges. Servants who wait on their employers' room half charges.

Thankful for past favors, I ask a continuance of the same.

Address me at Danbury,

E. A. POE—Brick!
M. H.—Wanted!
MRS. GEO. DONNELL—Rooms for Rent!

Local News.

If you want to enjoy yourself thoroughly, don't fail to attend the fete at Col Keogh's residence to-night.

We direct attention of our readers to the advs. of Edgar Allen Poe and Mrs. Geo. Donnell.

Mr. W. G. Balsley, of this city, has been appointed a gauger in the internal revenue service.

The walls of Mr. Thos. Bailey's new brick building on South Elm street are gradually climbing up.

Prof. Long, of Graham College, is in the city to-day and will lay a proposition before the Chamber of Commerce to-night.

Mill Point is making a bid for the Graham College to be located there, and has tendered 40 acres of land for the campus.

Don't fail to attend the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to-night if you are a member and have the growth and prosperity of the town at heart.

ON DRILL.—The Fire Company were out on drill yesterday in their new uniforms. The best time was made by Mr. John Wittington—150 yards in 17 seconds.

AN ERROR.—We stated yesterday among the "Personals" that Hon. A. H. A. Williams, of Granville, was registered at the Benbow House. It should have been McAdoo House, where Mr. Williams always makes his headquarters when in the city.

DIRECTORS' MEETING.—There was a meeting of the directors of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway Company held here to-day—Col. Julius A. Gray President, John M. Rose, Secretary, Jno. D. Williams, D. W. C. Benbow, J. Turner Morehead, R. T. Gray, W. S. Moore, W. A. Lash. Proceedings will be given in tomorrow's issue.

THE ORPHANS' ENTERTAINMENT.—The court-house, even with its off-repeated experience of big political meetings, has hardly ever held a larger crowd than assembled there last evening to enjoy the entertainment given by the orphan children, conducted with great skill and efficiency by Miss Lena Hudgin. Even all the available standing space was occupied, and the Female College girls were ushered in in a body, and assigned to seats reserved for their special accommodation. The programme consisted of fine vocal music, interesting recitations, etc., and we are glad to know that substantial aid was given in a collection from the audience.

NEARLY ONE HUNDRED.—Last Thursday the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry celebrated its 95th anniversary by target prize-shooting, competitive drill and grand military ball at night. It is a splendid corps of volunteer soldiery, and, though venerable and time-honored in organization, is by no means in the "sere and yellow leaf." It is full of that vigor and "esprit du corps" which promises a long life of honor and usefulness yet—its ranks made up of young, aggressive, energetic men. The prize for best marksmanship was won by Mr. E. L. Pemberton, one of the best shots in North Carolina; the second prize by Capt. Alex. Campbell, and the third by Maj. W. F. Campbell, commandant of the company. These two gentlemen are also keen sportsmen and unerring shots both with the fowling-piece and rifle. The award for best drilling was given to Mr. James Vann. The prizes were presented by Mr. Thos. H. Sutton in an eloquent speech.

CALLER MEETING.—I hereby give notice that a special meeting of the members of the Chamber of Commerce is called for TO-NIGHT, August 28th, at 8 o'clock, in the Chamber, over Brown's store. As this meeting is called for a specific purpose every member is urgently requested to attend at the time and place above mentioned. By order of the President.

Z. W. WHITEHEAD, Sec.

SUNDAY AT THE TABERNACLE.—A day lovely beyond description drew together an immense assemblage of people at the Sunday Tabernacle services at Ruthford College. In the morning an experience meeting was conducted by Rev. J. M. Watson, of Hyde county; at 11 a. m., Rev. R. H. Whitaker delivered an impressive discourse, and at 3 p. m. Rev. Levi Branson, of Raleigh, preached on Divine Compassion, the closing services at night being conducted by Rev. W. P. Williams. Dr. Abernethy has been present during the Tabernacle services, and prominent in every movement. The conference is accomplishing much good, and embraces over 300 local preachers throughout the State.

FETE CHAMPETRE.—The second entertainment by the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Barnabas' Episcopal Church, to take place this evening on the lawn in front of Col. Keogh's residence, promises to be of an exceptionally fine character. Delightful refreshments will be served, varied and attractive amusements will be offered, and Misses Brockman, Dixon and Scales, with Messrs Alderman and Woodroffes, will delight the audience with vocal and instrumental music.

THE BITER BIT.—One day about two weeks ago, during that period of sweltering weather, a young "blood" from the country entered a store on South Elm street, the proprietor of which is a much liked and esteemed Teuton. The customer was attired in a pair of snuff-colored velvet corduroys, a pea-green seersucker sack-coat, through which his crossed cotton suspenders shone like the red cross of Malta, and he was smoking probably the worst specimen of cigar ever manufactured, the fumes of which were worse than unquarantined yellow fever. He turned over half a dozen piles of goods, looked through eight or ten boxes of merchandise, and finally turned off with the remark that "may be he'd come in after a while and get a blue necktie." The worthy German had gone through it all without the change of a muscle, save a gentle shudder now and then as a puff of the cigar smoke struck his nostrils. Now a queer gleam passed over his face, and he said as he took the young fellow's arm:

"Mein friend, come mit me; I show you somdings fine. Come mit me!"—and he lead him to the rear of the store into a little room where all the windows were down, the mercury had knocked the top out of the thermometer, and you could order a soft-boiled egg in three minutes. Whipping out from a pile of ready-made winter clothing a big brown beaver overcoat, he had it on the young chap in a trice, buttoned up to the neck, and the velvet collar turned up.

"Er—hold on, Mister—I—" stuttered the victim, as the sweat commenced to start.

"Mein young friend, dot suits you fine. Ah, if it vas only winter! Look here!"—And he skillfully wrapped a big red woolen comforter round his tortured customers neck, and clapped a cloth cap with big flaps for the ears on his head.

"Oh, look here—I don't want—" By this time the poor fellow's paper collar was wilted flat, the perspiration was pouring down, and as it dropped off it put out the cigar, and you might hear it "sizz" like a cat-fish fisherman's torch thrown into a mill pond.

"Ah! Is'n dot bootiful? If der vos only snow and sleet on der sidewalk! I put on dese leggings!"—and he stooped down to button a pair of heavy cloth leggings around the corduroys. The agonized young man gave a wild yell of dismay, tore off the "duds," and dashed for the door, the water splashing in his shoes as he fled.

"Heinrich," said the proprietor, as he walked slowly to the front of the store, "vot you dinks, eh? Dot young fellow vos in some hurries, aind it?"

Pure ice-cream, sherbet, peach-cream, lemonade, cake, etc., dispensed for the delectation of the lovers of good things at the Fete Champetre to-night.

COMPLIMENTARY TO TWO CHARMING YOUNG LADIES.—The Fayetteville Journal of Saturday, 25th inst., has the following pleasant "society" item:

The banquet given at the Hotel Lafayette last night, in honor of Mr. M. W. Divine, of Rocky Mount, Miss V. Stella Divine, of Wilmington, and Miss Maie Keogh, of Greensboro, was pronounced by all to be the most pleasant affair of the season. A large assembly was present, who remained until the "wee" hours of morning, and enjoyed the programme, especially the German which followed.

Personal.
J. S. Ragsdale, of Jamestown, was here a short while to-day.

Col. Winstead went up to Winston this morning.

Mr. G. W. Blount, of the Wilson Mirror, is in the city to-day.

Mr. J. L. Durham, of Fayetteville, is in the city to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Royster have returned from a pleasant visit of a few days at Winston.

Dr. W. A. Lash, an influential citizen of Stokes, is here to-day on important railroad business.

Mr. B. F. Hall and family, of Wilmington, passed through the city last night en route to the mountains.

Col. Paul C. Cameron, of Hillsboro, passed through the city last night on his way to the mountains.

Mr. Thos. H. Pegram left via the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway this morning on a short business trip.

Miss V. Stella Divine, a charming and accomplished young lady of Wilmington, is visiting her friend, Miss Maie Keogh.

Mr. R. T. Gray, of Raleigh, is attending an important meeting of the directors of the C. F. & Y. Railway Company here to-day.

Miss Carrie McAdoo, who has been spending several weeks with Mrs. R. R. King, left for her home in Atlanta, Ga., this morning.

Miss Lena Jordan, who has been making a visit to Miss Gay Hawkins, has departed for her home near Boston, Va.

Miss Nellie Cramer, of Thomasville, who has been visiting the Misses Hagan, went to Salem by this morning's train.

Mr. W. A. Moore, of Mt. Airy, is spending the day in Greensboro, attending the directors' meeting of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway Company.

Miss Myra Alderman, who has been on an extended visit to friends and relatives in Wilmington, returned to her home last night.

Mr. Jno. D. Williams, of Fayetteville, President of the North State Improvement Company and one of the directors of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway Company, arrived in the city this morning.

Messrs. John L. King, S. S. Mitchell and John Whitt are representing the Greensboro market at the Tobacco Convention in Morehead to-day.

Mr. W. G. Sapp, of Jamestown, Democratic candidate for Register of Deeds, is in the city shaking hands with his many friends and admirers.

Col. J. Turner Morehead, of Leaksville, is here to-day, attending meetings of the board of directors of the North State Improvement Company and the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway Company.

Mr. Jno. M. Rose, a Guilford county man, but for many years a citizen of Fayetteville, is in the city, attending the Directors' meeting of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R., which is held here to-day. Mr. Rose is one of the best informed railroad men in the South, and with the C. F. & Y. V., especially, he is closely identified from the inception of the work, through all the years of its struggles and progress, until to-day, when it has reached the enviable position of the most popular and most important railway line in North Carolina.

Members of the Volunteer Hook and Ladder Company are hereby notified to attend a called meeting of their company to night at 8 o'clock, sharp. A full attendance desired. By order of

MUSICAL INSTRUCTION
Given by Prof. N. Schmitt.
On Violin, Violoncello or Bass, Guitar, Flute, Clarinet, or any other Musical Instrument! I have been giving Musical Instructions for the past thirty years, in most all portions of Georgia, North and South Carolina! I have numerous suitable recommendations from professors and prominent citizens, and the press of the different places, at which I have given instructions! Those who desire to take lessons, will find me at my residence, on King street, near Sergeant's foundry, or addressed through the city postoffice. Terms reasonable. I will also Tune and Repair Pianos and Organs, with the greatest satisfaction, or make no charge.

TO THE PUBLIC.
On Saturday night, when the Buchanan and McDonald block was destroyed by fire, I had one of Ferrell & Co.'s Herring Safes in my office, on second floor. It fell to centre of main floor and was subject to the hottest part of the fire. Upon having it opened I found all valuable papers, books and monies preserved, and in as good condition as when I put them in.
I cheerfully recommend Herring Safe to the public.
Respectfully,
THOMAS BAILEY.

The undersigned is agent for the above Safes, and solicits orders which will be promptly filled, with satisfaction guaranteed.
