SPECIAL PARAGRAPHS.

Judge Thurman has "waked up"
the West.

Fowle skins Dockery every time he tackles him, it seems.

Additional inquiries about Walter Bingham, have been instituted in Tennessee.

The farmers and Democrats are after the Bagging Trust with a sharp stick.

Don White admits that his day has past, but says Eugene Eckles's shall never come. So mote it be.

Republican speakers, remembering Mr. Blaine's late mistake, will hereafter say that they "hope" and not that they "trust."

Harrison voted against the reduction or repeal of the internal revenue laws, and absolutely made a speech against the "Blair" bill.

Esquire John Pritchett ignominiously failed last Saturday to secure the nomination for a seat in the lower House because he was a strong K. of L.

Notwithstanding Jesse Hoskins' out and dried speech on revenue officers at the Republican convention here last Saturday, a majority of the nominees of that convention are ex-"revenue booties." Bah!

The New Berne Journal says:— We are not in favor of going back on the St. Louis platform; but if it were an open question we would plant ourselves on the two messages and defy "the world, the flesh and the devil."

Yes, Dockery is posing before the people as a friend of the farmers; yet he is absolutely on record and has been forced to admit it, as having voted for a negro lawyer against a white farmer, and we dare one of his supporters to deny it.

"It is a bad wind that blows nobody any good." We thought the Democracy was in bad luck when the Senate rejected the treaty, but it gave Cleveland the opportunity of his life, and he improved it with the wisdom of Thomas Jefferson and the courage of Andrew Jackson.

Fowle and Dockery at Wadesboro.

[Correspondence Raleigh News-Observer.]

WADESBORO, Aug. 28, 1888.—
Judge Fowle and Col. Dockery reached here at 11 o'clock last night. Judge Fowle, in stepping from the train to the platform, sprained his leg, which at the time was very painful—so much so that he was carried from the platform to the carriage, but at 7 o'clock this morning was getting ready for the day's work.

His speech to-day was confined mainly to State and county affairs —contrasting the treatment of the people's interests by the two parties in the past, their present impos-sibilities. The Republican party, he declared, is pledged, if elected, to change the present system of county government. The result of this would be a negro judge in the 2nd district, and he, by rotation, would be seen holding court from time to time in the western as well as eastern counties. Here Judge Fowle asked both Democrats and Republicans if they wished to see anything of that sort. The red-shirt men—and all I know of these men is that there is a sight of them here—responded in concert: "It will be 'all night' with that judge when he gets here!"

Col. Dockery made his entire speech on national issues. He has some very strong points as a speaker, and his talent is worthy of a better cause than the one he espouses. He plainly feels keenly the utter disregard of the people for what he says; in truth, the white people, thus far, have not heard anything he has said.

In Fowle's rejoinder he made some telling points on Dockery.

Washington Notes.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 29.— Representative Belmont has returned to this city from Maine, and resuming the chairmanship of the foreign affairs committee has added Mr. Morrow and himself to the sub committee which has been charged with the duty of collecting information regarding treaties concerning Canada and the United States, and supplemental legislation for the guidance of the full committee in acting upon the President's message and the Wilson bill.

Surgeon General Hamilton said to-day in regard to the yellow fever in Jacksonville that there have been 131 cases to date, of which forty have recovered, nine teen have died and seventy-two are under treatment. Dr. Starbuck, of the Marine Hospital service, at Fernandina, Fla., telegraphs to Surgeon General Hamilton that that city was never healthier or in better sanitary condition than at present, and that there is no truth in the rumor of a recent death there from yellow fever.

A Heinous Crime.

Bellefontaine, Miss., Aug. 29.—
On Saturday night a negro, known as Pony Poe, forced an entrance into the residence of Mrs.
Blisset, a widow, and criminally assaulted Mrs. Blisset and her young daughter and the daughter of a neighbor, aged 14 years, first choking them into insensibility.
The next day the sheriff and a posse arrested Poe at a religious meeting, where he was taking a prominent part in the services.
While the sheriff's posse was enroute to the jail with the prisoner, Monday, a mob of 300 men overpowered the officers and took the negro to the scene of his crime, where they hanged him. Poe confessed his guilt and said he deserved death. He further said that a few years ago he criminally assaulted a white woman in northern Mississippi, but made his escape. Poe was the leader of the negroes of Webster county; had taught school, and was last year a candidate for the office of tax assessor.

The Tobacco Men.

Morehead City, N. C., Aug. 29.—
The North Carolina Tobacco Association held an interesting session to-day. The question of preventing warehousemen from buying on their own floors provoked considerable discussion and great interest is being manifested.
The matter will come up to night for final decision. Other questions of importance will also be considered. The following officers were elected to-day for the ensuing year: President, J. S. Carr, Durham; vice presidents, J. L.
King, Greensboro; J. M. Carrin, Oxford; D. Y. Cooper, Henderson;
E. C. Edmunds, Winston; R. P.
Walker, Asheville; S. P. Arrington, Warrenton; secretary, G. E.
Webb, Winston; treasurer, W. T.
Lipsecombe, Raleigh.

Catches Two Dozen Fish.

Eagle Rock, Va., August 29.— President Cleveland and party, consisting of Private Secretary Lamont and Commissioner Miller, arrived here yesterday morning in a special car. They were joined here by prominent citizens, and spent the day fishing. Last night the President held an informal reception at the Eagle Rock Hotel and a large party greeted him.
Mr. Cleveland and party left this morning, and are spending the day quietly on the James between here and Jackson.

Later.—The President and party fished to-day near Jackson very successfully, the President catching over two dozen fish.

NEW FALL GOODS.

As the stocks of Spring Goods this season have become exhausted, so much so that it is impossible for customers to get what they want, I have replenished with an Entirely New Stock of Goods, added to the late Summer and Fall trade. The goods are in the house in shape to furnish all of my trade and the public generally with the very latest styles the market affords, in all of the Newest Designs of Dress Goods,

with Trimmings to match.

And I can assure all that my

BLACK GOODS DEPARTMENT

is better supplied than ever before with all kinds and prices of Cashmeres, silk warp Henrietta Cloths, Jubilee Cloths, Flannels, Black Silks, and a full line of the latest Trimmings to match.

CLOTHING.

The Clothing Department is better supplied than ever before, as I have closed out most of my old stock. The trade compelled me to fill in ahead of the season, so I have now in stock the largest and best selected assortment of Clothing I have ever offered, and at prices lower than ever before. All I ask is a trial before you purchase.

SHOES.

The Shoe Department is now about complete, and all I have to say is just call in and you will be satisfied in style and price.

If you want a Straw Hat to spice out the season, come in and you can get one very reasonable.
I will not say at cost, for you would not believe it, as that is an old song—and not many merchants ever succeeded in selling on such terms.

Fur, Wool and stiff Hats to suit every body.

THE CARPET DEPARTMENT

will be complete in a few days, as the order for my fall stock is now in the mills and will be filled in a short time.

I can supply the demand with every thing in the line of Carpets, Old Cloths, Rugs and Curtains.

Call and see for yourselves. I have been doing business too long to sing the old song of "Rock Bottom." "Below every one else,"
"Cost," and many other such straws; but come and see and you will be satisfied politely and business-like.

Respectfully,
G. WILL ARMFIELD.

"TRUSTS."

Oliver Twist cried for "More!" but, poor little wretch! his was the pathetic appeal of starvation; from its dank, loathsome pool it is the horse-leech's demand of insatiable voracity. The American monopolist never has enough; his "appetite grows by what it feeds upon," and with him there is no satiety—it is all boundless greed. The necessities of the common people are almost unbanded, and consequently his avarice is unmeasured.

Speculation in stocks and bonds has long since fallen into "disuous desuetude," for this kind of property lies mostly in the hands of the millionaires, and beasts of prey feed not upon one another except in cases of dire necessity. Sugar and coffee are among the daily needs of the laboring man—the one indulgence of his physical appetite, in lieu of costly wines and liquors—and these are favorites for the "corner" of the speculator: to such extent that not infrequently the steaming cup graces the humble board of the "Cotter's Saturday night" at an added cost of twenty-five per cent. over the price ten days before. But the American "trusts" and "combines"—in defense of which Mr. Blaine is chiefly occupying his time at present—depend not alone for their exorbitant profits upon the pantries and kitchens of the land. The cotton fields of the South are now "white unto the harvest," and the planter is bending every nerve to get the staple into market. What a "bonanza" for the speculator—and how eagerly he seizes it! Bagging is now "cornered," the price having advanced about 100 per cent., which means almost ruin to the cotton grower. All over the cotton country dealers have large stocks accumulated on their hands, which the farmers are unable to pay for or take out, and all the old bagging that can be raked together from the factories is being called into requisition.

Democratic legislation is being introduced in Congress, with a view to checking the intolerable exactions of these "trusts" and "combines" upon the earnings of the people. Mark our words: the Radical party will resist to the last any attempt to curb the Monopoly of Money.

TIME TO CALL A HALL.

The PATRIOT wishes to go on record as entering its most solemn protest against the instruction of Democratic candidates for the Legislature to vote for Hon. M. W. Ransom to be his own successor to the United States Senate. Senator Ransom is no part of the Democratic State platform, and we are unalterably opposed to the substitution or addition of such a plank. Moreover, we condemn such chicanery as unwise and imprudent and undemocratic at this critical period. Let every Democratic candidate for the Legislature throughout the length and breadth of North Carolina enter the contest free and untrammelled, without instructions to vote for anybody for Senator.

Senator Ransom, like all other public men holding office for fifteen or twenty years, has made many bitter enemies in almost every county in the State, and such a resolution as that which passed in the Iredell County Convention a few days since would strangle the zeal and enthusiasm of the anti-Ransom Democrats for the success of the Legislative ticket, on the first round, which can only result in handing the State over to Dockery and his gang of carpet-baggers to ruin and debauch, as they once did. Therefore we say in all candor and without fear or favor, that it is time to call a halt to such tomfoolery.

The success of the Democratic party in North Carolina in November next is of infinitely more importance to one hundred and sixty thousand white voters than the reelection of Senator Ransom to the United States Senate, and we are unwilling that the success of the Democracy should be jeopardized for no other purpose than to further the individual ends of Senator Ransom or Senator anybody else.

THE KING OF GREECE.—One often meets the King walking with the Queen or the Princess Alexandra, generally followed by a splendid Danish dog; at another time it is the Queen with her two sons or King with an anti-decamp, both dressed in civilian's clothes. Sometimes they go on horseback, in which case they are followed by two servants in livery; but the Queen prefers driving to riding, although she is an excellent horsewoman.

They have so much confidence in the affection of their subjects and are so sure of their own personal safety that our royal family rather enjoy mixing with the crowd on the occasion of some illumination or other public amusement, when they walk about among the people like any ordinary family. On Holy Friday, for instance, I met them moving about in this way among the crowds standing in Constitution place and along Hermes street waiting to see the processions pass by, one of the most beautiful sights of Athens.

The life that their majesties lead at home is very simple. They indulge in but few amusements. Two or three court balls and receptions, and an occasional ball at one of the foreign legations, are the only occasions they have of seeing society in general. The rest of the time is spent with the court officials and their families. The court, however, being at the head of a great many philanthropic institutions, is in constant communication with most of the ladies of Athenian society who are members of the different committees.

One of the great amusements of the royal family is skating. As it never freezes enough in Greece to produce solid ice, the King has had a skating rink arranged in one of the wings of the royal stables, and here the royal family go three or four times a week to pass the afternoon with a few gentlemen and ladies belonging to the court circle. Every Sunday afternoon is spent at the Pireus, where the King owns a pavilion built on a lovely site at the entry of the port, given him by the town of Pireus, and here the family take tea and enjoy the beautiful view and the fresh sea breeze.

I once had the honor of being shown over the palace by the King himself, who was careful to point out all the interesting details of the construction. He had me remark how the planks of the floors were joined together exactly as they are on a ship's deck, and how the doors and windows were carved according to designs made by himself. He also dwelt on the fact that the whole building had been executed entirely by Greek workmen, which shows the progress that industry and art have made in Greece within the last few years.

A WOMAN CREGSUS.—The Cregsus of South America is a woman, Donna Isadora Cousino, of Santiago, Chile, and there are few men or women in the world richer than she. Before her marriage she and her husband had the largest two estates in the country, which they continued to manage separately up to his death, when she received his estate as a legacy. She has millions of acres of land and millions of money; flocks and herds numbered by the hundreds of thousands; copper, coal and silver mines; acres of real estate in the cities of Santiago and Valparaiso; a fleet of iron steamships, smelting works, a railroad and other property that yield her an income of several millions a year—all of which the little woman tries her level best to spend, and it must be said that she succeeds remarkably well.

She owns several handsome villas fitted up like palaces, and manages part of her business herself, in which, although generous to prodigality, she requires a strict account of every dollar derived from or expended upon her vast estates, and is very sharp at driving a bargain. The income from her coal mines is about $1,000,000 a year, and she receives almost $1,000,000 from the rental of her city property. She is the principal stockholder of the largest bank in Santiago, and not long ago she presented to the city 100 acres of land with a race course adjoining.

She breeds and raises the best stock in the country, bets on her own horses at the races, and at the last meeting won over $100,000, outside of the purses won by her racers.

Her vineyard supplies nearly all the markets of Chili with claret and sherry wines, and her wine cellar, 50x140 feet, is kept constantly full. She has two daughters, aged 17 and 19, both pretty, bright and popular in society, the elder of whom is a talented performer on the piano and violin.

CRUSHED HOPES.—"And what answer do you make to my appeal?" he asked as he knelt at her feet.

"James, I will be frank with you," she murmured.

"Oh, speak," he implored, "and relieve me from this agony of suspense!"

"Then let me say it cannot be."

"Why not?"

"Because, James, I do not feel able to support a husband."—Boston Courier.

THE YOUNG HOUSEKEEPER.—Young Wife—Will you love me forever Charles?

Young Husband—How long, darling?

"Forever, Charles, forever."

"I don't really think, Clara, that I'll last quite that long unless you quit making those biscuits for supper."—Sittings.

BUSINESS NOTICE.

We have this day placed our DAILY PATRIOT subscription list in the hands of Messrs. T. H. Tate and W. C. Sullivan, who are duly authorized to receive subscriptions and collect all moneys due thereon. This arrangement has been made in the interest both of our patrons and ourselves—insuring more direct supervision of the city carriers and promptitude in the delivery of the paper, while it leaves us more time to devote to the editorial and literary work of the office.

We commend these gentlemen to the liberal support and patronage of the reading public.

COMING BY THOUSANDS.—Our information from every quarter is to the effect that the city of Greensboro will be filled up, packed, brimful and running over on the two days of the Firemen's Tournament. Not only from the immediately surrounding country will the crowd be drawn; from towns and cities at a distance we may expect numbers of guests. Our Winston correspondent advises us of a large contingent from the twin-city, and Capt. Kyle yesterday informed us that his road will run excursion trains both days from Fayetteville, in order to accommodate the crowd from that direction.

"THERE IS A TIDE."—Yesterday's issue gave a report of the proceedings of the Directors' meetings of the North State Improvement Company and the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway Company, from which the steady and continued extension of this great road both east and west can be seen. Greensboro's golden opportunity is now within her grasp. We have expressed and still hold the opinion that, after Wilmington, which must now become one of the great seaports of the southern Atlantic coast, our town is to reap in the future the most substantial benefits from this great work of internal improvement.

But our geographical position will not of itself bring prosperity. The mere fact that ours is a great "railroad town" will not put money in our pocket. Our permanent advantages are to come from competition in railway lines, giving cheapness of transportation, access to market and something to send to market. In truth, it is doubtful if railroad extension helps the retail trade; new stations establish new country-stores, which the traveling salesman will visit and supply with goods as cheaply as he will the largest dealer in Greensboro, and country customers gradually transfer their trade to neighborhood merchants.

We need an increase of mechanical industries—small at first, if need be, until there is an increase of capital—wood works, grain mills, factories for textile fabrics; everything, in fine, which offers a fair remuneration for the investment of money and steady employment to labor. A self-sustaining population would be added to our numbers, who would want homes, enhancing the value of real estate, giving an impetus to the building of dwellings, aiding in the support of our schools and churches, and contributing to every branch of business.

With eight or ten prosperous manufacturing establishments in Greensboro paying off their hands at the close of every week, Saturday night would see our stores filled with buyers obtaining their week's supplies and paying the cash therefor, thronging the streets, a contented, well-cared for people, participating in the benefits of a well-ordered community, and doing their part in bringing about this flourishing condition of affairs.

DO WE DESERVE IT?—From yesterday's Twin-City Daily we clip the following, with the very uncomplimentary heading of "Rough on Greensboro," and copied from the Greensboro Workman:

Charlotte is building a house for knitting mills. Sensible people are they who put their capital to work, thus making it contribute to the general good. A Greensboro man would be apt to bury his money, and sit up of nights to see that no one should steal it. There are some marked exceptions.

We know that there is no better, more esteemed and valued citizen than the venerable editor of the Workman, nor is there one who has more deeply at heart the welfare of the community to which he has in the above only unwittingly done an injustice.

"There are some marked exceptions," but can it be that the "burying" man constitutes the rule of Greensboro men—men who have helped to build up a fair city, with beautiful suburbs, comfortable homes, flourishing schools, well-sustained churches; who pay taxes for water works, street improvements and public buildings; who have made investments in various industries; who are energetic and enterprising in business; who have established a Chamber of Commerce; who leave no effort untried to keep up a good tobacco market; who are now busily engaged in the preliminaries for the establishment of a co-operative manufacturing company; who have been potent factors in showing to the world a decennial increase of thousands in their city's population, with a proportional increase in the value of real estate? We believe they will compare favorably with the people of Charlotte or "sensible people" anywhere else in the world.

AT GIBSONVILLE.—When we are as deep in politics as we are these days, we'll "bear watching." We made a "whopping" mistake yesterday. The meeting at Gibsonville was not political at all, but was for a better purpose if possible:—the establishment of a college. The speech of Hon. D. F. Caldwell was therefore educational, but if such a thing were possible where he is universally esteemed, he made new friends by his excellent address.

Talking about politics, Mr. Caldwell needs spurring up. In his conversation with us about Gibsonville, he had not a word to say about college or Democracy:—it was all about the pretty girls, the "blooming country lassies," by whom he was surrounded there. We cannot speak for Col. Morehead, but our Senatorial candidate seems to be trying to "kill two birds with one stone," in this campaign, and not only reach the legislative halls of North Carolina, but to "get there, Eli!" in the race matrimonial in this leap year, 1888.

HELPING THE TOWN.—"What a well-kept, pleasant little hotel they have at Walnut Cove!" We have heard this remark, in substance, at least half a dozen times from persons traveling for health and pleasure in this part of the State. The writer never stopped at the "pleasant little hotel," but its proprietor is doing a great deal to help his town on. A well-kept hotel is as valuable as a bank full of money to any community, and is the next thing to a factory with a big weekly pay roll and hundreds of employees.

"Would you conquer man, the hungry sinner?
The way to his heart is through a good dinner."

Nothing promotes good temper like good feeding; the traveler looks back lovingly to the place where his sensitive stomach was affectionately petted, and his tired frame wooed slumber in well-aired sheets and downy beds; he goes back at the first convenient opportunity, and on the way he tells all his friends of this haven of comfort and rest.

Take any train coming in to Greensboro Saturday evening from any direction, and you will find traveling salesmen with their faces set toward this city—their Sunday Mecca, where they are sure of a good hotel table, good rooms and efficient attendance. "Shall I not take mine ease at mine inn?"

WE WILL WELCOME HIM.—Night before last Prof. Long, of Graham, met the members of the Chamber of Commerce in their rooms on South Elm street, for the purpose of a consultation as to the advantages which could be offered by Greensboro for the location of the Graham College for young men at this point.

Should proper inducements be held out to Prof. Long in the offer of an eligible site, ready of access, suitable for the erection of the necessary buildings, reasonable in price, &c., our city can certainly, in every other respect, make a very strong claim for the location. Its railway facilities are unsurpassed, its climate pleasant and healthful, its rates of living as cheap as in any town of its size in the State, its people moral, law-abiding and refined, while it is no less the "City of Churches" than the "City of Flowers," with the best of religious influences and example. We trust that every effort will be made by the Chamber of Commerce, the municipal board and the citizens generally to win Prof. Long to a permanent stay with us.

ON INSPECTION.—Capts. J. W. Fry, General Superintendent, and W. E. Kyle, General Freight and Passenger Agent, of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R., arrived here yesterday afternoon on a special car, making an inspection tour of the road throughout the whole line from Bennettsville, S. C., to Mt. Airy. Bridges, trestles, culverts, etc., are examined with the watchful care which characterizes Capt. Fry as one of the best of railway officials, while the stations, accounts of agents, &c., come under the same careful supervision from Capt. Kyle. They will return on the downward trip to-morrow morning.

MUSICAL CONCERT.—The Blind Orchestra, assisted by Master Henry Easley, of this city, will give a musical concert in the court-house to-morrow (Friday) evening, at 8 o'clock, the proceeds of which will be expended in the equipment of the Greensboro Volunteer Hook & Ladder Company. Those will certainly go who have enjoyed the performance of the Orchestra and Master Easley, and all who have not should avail themselves of the occasion to pass a pleasant evening, and at the same time render some aid to a cause in which the community feels an interest.

Admission, 25 cents; children 10 cents.

OBITUARY.—Miss Mary S. Eldridge died in the city of Charlotte at 5 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, 25th inst., of typhoid fever, after a long and painful illness.

Though just upon the threshold of beautiful young maidenhood—15 years of age—her pure heart abounded in the christian faith which accepted with resignation the summons of the Master, in the last fluttering whisper from her lips: "The Lord's will be done."

In the midst of their own deep grief, her many friends here extend to the bereaved family, recently a part of our social circle, their heartfelt sympathy in the affliction which has come upon them.

Personal.

Col. W. S. Rankin went down to McLeansville this morning.

Mr. J. M. Vaughn, Jr., of Madison, is in the city to-day. His many friends are always glad to see him.

Mrs. F. Fishplate has been telegraphed at New York to go to Wilmington, N. C., to see her mother, who is very sick.

Mr. W. H. Merritt, who for several months has been traveling for the late Mr. J. L. Stone, of Raleigh, is in the city to-day.

Mrs. Tom Johnson, formerly of Rock Hill, S. C., returned home this morning after a very pleasant visit to her father's family.

Mr. Joe Moore, who has been on a visit of several weeks to his home at Burlington, has returned to his position with Mr. Geo. Sergeant.

TO THE PUBLIC.

On Saturday night, when the Buchanan and McDonald block was destroyed by fire, I had one of Ferrell & Co.'s Herring Safes in my office, on second floor. It fell to centre of main floor and was subject to the hottest part of the fire. Upon having it opened I found all valuable papers, books and monies preserved, and in as good condition as when I put them in.

I cheerfully recommend Herring Safe to the public.

Respectfully,
THOMAS BAILEY.
