

The Daily Patriot.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 29, 1888.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

For Camp Perry.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 28.—As a result of a conference with Mr. J. G. Burnett, of New York, the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital service has ordered an additional portable barrack for use at Camp Perry, Fla. Several merchants here have promised certain articles of furniture by way of decoration.

Blaine Going West.

Boston, Sept. 28.—Jas. G. Blaine, accompanied by his son, Walker, left for New York today on the one o'clock train. He will remain in New York until 6 p. m., Monday, when he will leave for Detroit, speaking there on Wednesday.—Mr. Blaine will speak in New York to-morrow.

Caving of a Mine.

Serauton, Pa., Sept. 28th.—The fall of the roof in the Grassy Island shaft of the Delaware and Hudson company's mines this morning killed Martin Mahady, aged 60, and Christopher Gabriel, aged 43.—Patrick O'Mahoney was caught by the fall, but he managed to drag himself out of the gangway and give the alarm.

Wholesale Cremation.

Cronstadt, Sept. 28th.—A lofty wooden tenement house, filled with people, burned here to-day with great loss of life. The stair case was destroyed before the inmates could escape, and many leaped into the street from the window and were mortally injured by falling on the stone. Sixteen who could not escape were burned to death in the house.

Suicide in South Carolina.

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 28.—Richard Coleman, a prominent farmer of Edgefield county, has recently been very despondent over the damage to the crops by the freshets. Yesterday he arose from the dinner table, went into an adjoining room, took his gun, seated himself in a window, placed the muzzle of the gun against his heart, pushed the trigger with a yard stick, killing himself instantly. He was fifty three years old.

A Brutal, Fiendish Negro.

West Chester, Penn., Sept. 28.—An eleven year old daughter of Isaac Brens, near Paoli, this county, was forced into a cornfield last evening by a negro named James Miels. Her hands were tied behind her back and her person outraged. The brute then supposing the child dead, threw her body into a pond. The girl recovered, and at midnight crawled to the residence of Dr. Rickenbaugh, to whom she related the story. A posse has started in search of Miels.

Homicide at Warrenton.

Warrenton, N. C., Sept. 28.—Robert Tucker, white, stabbed and killed Weldon Davis, colored, last night at Warren Plains. Davis was a station hand at Warren Plains. Tucker was here last evening and on his way home stopped at the Plains. Davis came out of Johnson's store just as Tucker drove up and spoke to Tucker's horse. A few words passed and the scene ended as above described. Tucker is at large.

Happy Little Children.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 28.—This was children's day at the Centennial exposition, and the buildings are literally jammed. Up to eleven o'clock 50,000 persons are reported to have passed through the buildings. The crowd is increasing, and it appears as if all the school children in Ohio and adjoining States are pouring into the city.

It is said that the turnstiles have registered over 100,000 at four o'clock to-day.

Jack Frost.

Washington, Sept. 28.—Special Bulletin—Signal Office, 10 A. M.—Freezing weather is reported in northern Minnesota, killing frosts from the southern portion of Michigan and Wisconsin and light frosts in the northwest, as far south as southern Missouri. The indications are that severe frosts will occur to-morrow morning in the State of the Ohio valley and that light frosts will occur in exposed places in the northern portion of the Gulf States and in Tennessee; also in the western portion of North Carolina and Virginia and in the interior of the Middle Atlantic States and the interior of New England.

Frightened into Insanity.

Queenstown, September 28.—The Inman Line Steamship, city of New York, arrived here to-day, after a passage of seven days and twenty-three hours. Her circulating pumps were defective, and she was able to use only the starboard engine. For four days, the steamer met with continuous gales, during which two passengers were thrown to the deck, and they sustained broken ribs. During the tumult, which was occasioned by the storms, the passengers were greatly frightened. One passenger became insane, and grew so violent that the officers were forced to put him in a straight jacket.

A Horrible Death.

Wadesboro, N. C., Sept. 28.—Benjamin Debery, a white man of about 30 years of age, left this place this morning for his home in Stanly county. He was riding in a buggy and was very much intoxicated. About five miles from here he was found dead and entangled in the wheels of his buggy, with his head and neck horribly bruised and cut. He had been dragged for four miles, and when found the horse was still moving homeward. His death was caused from bruises and cuts received while being dragged over the rocks and stones. The road is very billy and rocky.

Yellow Jack.

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 28.—Noon reports to the Board of Health show nineteen new cases, all colored people; one death, W. V. Burke. Refugees from Fernandina in large numbers, colored people, are seeking entrance to Jacksonville and are being turned back.

The condition of Col. J. J. Daniel is a little more hopeful this morning.

Memphis, Tenn., September 28.—Travel on all railroads centering here was resumed this morning. The raising of the quarantine last evening by Memphis has been followed by many of the small towns along the lines of the several railroads of this vicinity, and the business outlook shows quite an improvement. The receipts of cotton to-day were 1,815 bales, the largest so far of the season, and by Monday the receipts will increase to over 5,000 bales daily. The weather was quite chilly this morning, and frost has been predicted for to-morrow by the signal service.

A CARD.

Having other business that will largely occupy my attention and probably call me away from the city at intervals during the next year, I have arranged with Mr. A. B. Frey, of Millersburg, Ohio, to take charge of my jewelry store. Although recently from Ohio, Mr. Frey is a Virginian and a gentleman whom I am proud to introduce to my customers. He has a thorough knowledge of the jewelry trade. If you want a new watch, or the time piece you have needs repairing, call and make his acquaintance.

The ladies especially will find him courteous and attentive. He will sell them new goods or repair their broken jewelry at the lowest prices possible for fine quality and superior workmanship. The science of optics is one of Mr. Frey's specialties. A careful study and long experience have made him one of the best practical opticians in the country. If you require an expert to fit you with a pair of spectacles or eye-glasses, don't fail to call and see him, and no matter what the defect of vision may be, if it is possible to receive assistance from the use of glasses, he will supply you with just what is best suited to your eyes. Engraving is another specialty, and in fact for anything you ordinarily require at a jewelry store you cannot go wrong if you call. Very Respectfully, JNO. J. THORNTON. Greensboro, Sept. 11, 1888.

A CREED TO STAND BY.

The New York Herald feels very sure that it is right in politics this year, and has no hesitation in calling upon American voters to "follow its lead" in the present campaign in the following pithy words:

As for politics, follow the Herald and you are sure to be right for this world and ready for the next. We are just as ready to rub against Cleveland as to praise Harrison, having no favors to ask of either. What we demand of the President, to whichever party he belongs, is that he shall be honest in his dealings with the people, stand with them, stand by them, stand up for them and keep his hands clean.

We like the attitude of the present administration because it does that. It seems wholesome, square, level headed, and is trying to get a cheap pair of blankets for the poor man before December comes, and a woolen petticoat—all wool, not shoddy—for the wife and little ones.

Professional politicians, bosses, dealers, trimmers, tricksters in both parties, are our abomination, and we hammer their heads whenever they become too officious.

That is a short creed, but it is warranted to wash.

In truth, there has never been an administration in the history of our government which appealed more powerfully than that of Cleveland to the support of honest men—of the great mass of the people, of whatever former political affiliation. We at last have a President whose head is not so high up-lifted that he can see piercing the clouds only the ornate domes of the gilded palaces—the inmates of the modest homestead, the tenants of the workman's cabin are, too, his people. We at last have a Chief Magistrate whose lines are not "cast only in the pleasant places" of the high and rich—the toiling millions are his fellow-citizens, to whose demands his ears are ever open, whose rights he has in no single instance failed to protect. We at last have at the head of this great republic a ruler who does not approach the great money power of the country with bated breath, or "bend the pregnant hinges of the knee that thrift may follow fawning."

Yes, this is a clean-handed, whole-some, level-headed, square-toed administration—just such a grand figure in American politics as challenges the American admiration for the fair, square thing, which has fired the American heart, and which will sweep the country with an enthusiasm unprecedented in the history of parties for fifty years.

COUNT VON MOLTKE'S SNUFF.—During the winter of 1870-71, Count von Moltke, the great military strategist, while his headquarters were at Versailles, ran short of snuff. Failing to find any "sneeshin," of the brand he likes, in the local tobacco stores, he instructs a subordinate at the War Office in Berlin to forward him a packet of his "own peculiar" rappee. The snuff was bought, paid for, sent to Versailles, and duly charged to the account of the nation. When the time came for examining the official entrusted with the revision of the accounts of the War Office came upon this startling item: "For one pound of extra fine, with of Tonquin bean perfume, highly impregnated snuff, by his Excellency the Count von Moltke, commanded, three thalers, seven and a half silbergroschen." The auditor would not pass this unprecedented item, but made a memorandum of the entry, referred it to his superior, with the suggestion that as snuff could not be held to be a material nor ammunition of war, it could not be saddled upon the national exchequer. The item and the suggestion passed from one official to another, until it came to the crown lawyers, who gave their opinion that the State could not pay the snuff claim. Von Moltke was officially addressed and requested to pay for his snuff, and he at once complied with the demand.

SWALLOWED BY QUICKSANDS.—"Do you remember the mysterious disappearance of an engine that ran into Kiowa Creek in Colorado?" queried an old traveler at the Pacific Hotel of a Chicago Times reporter. "I came over the Kansas Pacific a few days ago and across that creek, near which we were held some time by a washout in July, 1876. The creek is perfectly dry most of the year and has a quicksand bottom. It is less than two rods in width. It had risen that day by one of those water-spouts, and the torrent of water had washed away the bridge. While we waited at the next station back the construction train passed us for the break. Its engine did not stop soon enough and went into the raging flood. The engineer and fireman were both washed out of the cab and their bodies recovered several days after, a long distance away. That engine went to the bottom, sank in the quicksand and has never been seen since. The next day the bottom was almost dry. Magnets and other scientific implements have been used, but there is no trace of that engine. It's a strange story, isn't it? But it's as true as history."

A SISTER'S RIGHT.—She-George, dear, I don't quite like the way you go on with Ethel White. And she is as familiar as a sister would be. He—Yes, darling, that relation ship was established last June at Saratoga—New York Sun

"It was a severe punishment," said the father, so reproachfully, "but answers the purpose. It keeps John from running on the street." "You didn't cripple the boy, did you?" "No; I had his mother cut his hair for him. You ought to see the poor boy." And the proud father wept bitterly.

SCARCITY OF BIRDS.—Who that lives in the country does not notice in the last few years a great scarcity of small birds? The mocking-bird formerly built her nest in the trees around the Southern farmer's home and sang merrily every spring to amuse the family where she was hospitably treated. Numerous other birds made their appearance near Southern homes and on Southern farms in the spring and remained all summer—a merry, happy, singing, twittering, nervous crew that everybody admired. They come and sing no more—boys, hunters, negroes have killed them for sport and to cook and eat. Their wings, heads and whole bodies in countless thousands have been sold for ornaments to gratify female pride and vanity. We never see a lady's bonnet bordered with the carcasses or wings of slaughtered songsters of the forest that it does not remind us of the coffin and the sepulchre.

THE SWISS GOOD NIGHT.—"The Swiss Good Night" refers to the custom of the Swiss mountaineers of calling through their speaking trumpets at dusk, "Praise the Lord God." One herdsman starts the call, and his neighbors from every peak echo it. The sounds are prolonged by reverberation from one mountain to another. After a short period, which has supposed to have been devoted to prayer, a herdsman calls "Good Night." This, too, is repeated, and as darkness falls, each retires to his hut. These calls may be heard for miles and are re-echoed from the rocks, for some minutes after the original call has died away.

The MATTING, made from the leaves of our native pine, is conceded to be equal to any wool carpet for comfort and durability, and the demand for it is daily increasing. It has virtues not found in any other fabric.
The FIBRE or wool is extensively used for upholstering purposes, and as a filling or mattresses is almost equal to hair, being light, elastic, and proof against insects.

LIEUT.-GOV. STEDMAN.—A rare entertainment in political speaking is in store for us on Thursday, Oct. 18th, when Hon. Chas. M. Stedman, Lieutenant-Governor of North Carolina, will address the citizens of this section in this city.

MEETING AT JAMESTOWN.—The protracted meeting which commenced at Jamestown last Sunday is still going on, and Rev. A. G. Kirkman, our worthy and excellent county treasurer, tells us that the manifestations of deep interest are very gratifying. The meeting will be continued with to-morrow's services and perhaps throughout the coming week. There are now 18 converts and 30 penitents.

ALAMANCE FAIR ASSOCIATION.—The first Annual Fair of the Alamance Association will be held at Burlington, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, 10th, 11th and 12th of October. The farmers and citizens generally of the county have labored to inaugurate their association by a fine exhibition, and hope to welcome thousands of their friends throughout this section of the State on that occasion. We acknowledge the courtesy of an invitation.

"FREE WHITE AND TWENTY-ONE."—The Wilmington Star attained its majority the other day, and is one of the most pleasing examples of steady growth, ever-widening influence and substantial prosperity to be found in Southern journalism. Conservative in tone, very carefully made up, eminently trustworthy in the subject matter which it offers to its readers, edited with much ability and by the resources of scholarly finish and attainments—it is a safe journal for the people, dignified, clean, wholesome.

"THE RELIGIOUS DEPARTMENT."—The North Carolina Prohibitionist has an editor who is a close reader of the PATRIOT, and in the last issue of the paper speaks of our "Religious Department." The manager of that branch of our journalism is striving to do as much good as possible in his line, and will continue to wrestle in spirit for the salvation of even the publishers of the Prohibitionist—for we are taught that it's a mighty cold, dark day when even the "vilest sinner" may not "return." It is a heavier job, though, than that of Hercules when he set to work to clean the Augean stables; and we would be disposed to leave this particular conversion to the evangelistic efforts of Mr. Pearson, were it not for the fact that he does not reach Greensboro until February—three months after the election, when Messrs. Benbow and Steele will be dead and buried beyond the hope of resurrection.

SUNDAY SERVICES.—Preaching at West Market street church at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Mann. Sunday School at 9:30 a. m., Prof. W. F. Alderman, Supt. Young men's prayer meeting at 4:45 p. m. Seats free. Public cordially invited.

Preaching at the Baptist church to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. by Rev. W. R. Gwaltney, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.

Preaching at First Presbyterian church at 11 a. m. by the pastor, Dr. Smith, and 7:30 p. m. by Rev. E. W. Smith. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.

Services at Westminster Presbyterian Church at 11 a. m.; communion services at 4:30 by Dr. Smith, after which infant baptism. Sunday school at 3 o'clock.

A GREAT SENSATION.—News has been received here that a great sensation prevails at Whiteville, Columbus county, the seat of what is claimed as the Underground river. The roaring and rushing of the water can be plainly heard, and hundreds of people are visiting the spot. When in the vicinity of the supposed stream it can be plainly heard, but when a person lies flat upon the ground the phenomenon becomes really alarming. The sound indicates that the water is not any great distance down, and that it is not in small streams, but a majestic river that is coursing on its way unseen in the bowels of the earth to the sea. Vehicles passing over the ground where the phenomenon exists create hollow echoes from below, and the earth in the vicinity for a great distance around seems to be cavernous, judging from the sounds that follow sharp blows. The Whiteville people are possessed of a very morbid curiosity about the matter. Some say there is no telling when the bottom may fall out of the whole town.

THE BLOATED MONOPOLIST.—There is nothing that the average mind more delights to revel in than a contemplation of great wealth, and the impecunious roll the very description thereof as a sweet morsel under their tongues, enjoying it all the more exquisitely in proportion to the "innocuous desuetude" of their own shakels. Here is a paragraph going the rounds of the press and quoted with great unaction on the stump:

Mr. Andrew Carnegie's income is set down at $1,500,000 per year, which means $125,000 per month, $28,486 per week, $4,120.85 per day, $343.40 per hour, $5.72 per minute and 95 1-3 cents per second, the latter sum being a few cents more than an iron ore miner in Pennsylvania receives for working 43,200 seconds, or 12 hours per day. No juggling can change these figures.

This would make Andrew worse than half a dozen Count of Monte Christos rolled into one; but, unfortunately, the "juggling" commenced with our statistician when he got on to the seconds. According to the above figures, Mr. Carnegie's income is a little less than a dime per second—still, he has plenty to "set up the beer" whenever the boys call on him.

JUDICIOUS ADVERTISING.—A very wealthy merchant of New York City, who has since retired from business, told the associate editor of this paper many years ago that his yearly amount expended for advertising was made a regular part of his business—just as much as the purchase of stock—and that during the two seasons of brisk trade and dull trade he advertising more heavily than at any other time. Another large advertiser and successful business man of the metropolis said to a newspaper interviewer the other day:

People who think that an advertisement of three months' standing is going to make them rich, make a mistake. Advertising is like eating. If you want to be healthy you must eat regularly, as meat to-day will not serve you for to-morrow. To be well and hearty eat at every meal time; to be prosperous in business advertise regularly. Stop the one, and you starve and die. Stop the other and your business takes consumption and dies also. Spasmodic advertising is like having a feast and a famine—more famine than feast, as a rule—and is never satisfactory. To take out your card in dull times is like killing your horse because he is lame. It is in dull times the most advertising should be done, and it is in dull times that advertising is the most effective, as more notice is taken of printers' ink then than at any other time.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—In this issue we publish the proceedings of the morning session of the County Sunday School Convention, which met in the Baptist Church at 10 a. m. to-day, and the report of the afternoon session will appear on Monday.

After devotional exercises, with the opening prayer by Rev. G. F. Smith, there was a brief but beautiful welcoming address by Rev. E. W. Smith, at the conclusion of which the convention was permanently organized by the selection of Mr. J. R. Mendenhall as president and Prof. W. F. Alderman as secretary.

The roll call of Sunday Schools in the county showed a fair representation, and the accompanying reports for the most part indicated a gratifying interest in this great moral and religious work.

Prof. M. H. Holt, of Oak Ridge, then devoted 15 minutes to the first topic of discussion: "What shall we do to extend the Sunday School work in our county?" Prof. Holt is an easy, fluent speaker, and was particularly graceful and pleasing in both the exordium and peroration of his finished little address. Answering the query which formed the theme of his remarks, the speaker gave the following as substantial helps in the work:

1. Put the schools in the hands of good, live men and women.
  2. Arrange for short, interesting school services.
  3. Provide a good library.
  4. Incite the pupils to systematic effort by the right sort of appreciation, praise and reward.
  5. Attract them by as good music as it is possible to furnish.
- Short talks then followed by Dr. J. Henry Smith, Prof. Blair, Mr. Wharton and others.

The second topic—"The real object and aim of the Sunday School"—was very practically and forcibly discussed by Prof. Woody under the following heads:

1. Better knowledge of the Bible and its history.
2. Interest in Bible character and principles.
3. Systematic study of the scriptures.
4. Wider views of christian doctrine.
5. Extension of religious influence.
6. Elevation of moral, social and religious standards of the community.
7. The work of conversion.

Edifying remarks followed by Dr. Smith, Judge Dick, Prof. Parker, Prof. Holt and Prof. Smith. The morning session closed with "All hail the power of Jesus' Name!" and the benediction. The exercises were very interesting, with excellent vocal and instrumental music.

Personal.

Mr. J. W. Sparger, of Mt. Airy, was in the city to-day.

Mr. Ireland, of the Burlington News, arrived in the city this morning, and made the PATRIOT office a pleasant call.

Mrs. J. Spott Taylor, of Danbury, who has been in the city several days visiting Mrs. S. C. Dodson, went up to Winston on a visit to relatives yesterday.

We are pleased to see in our city Mr. J. S. Garrett, senior member of the house of Garrett & Sons, of Columbus, Ga., the largest tobacco dealers and manufacturers in the South. Mr. Garrett is well-known as one of the most progressive and representative of the business men of the New South.

Prof. E. W. Lineback, of Salem, is making a brief visit to the city, and will be here for a day or two longer. As he will have no leisure to canvass Greensboro, persons wishing their pianos tuned can address him through the post office. The writer speaks from the intimate knowledge gained from years of acquaintance when he states that any work done by Prof. Lineback will be in all respects satisfactory.
