SPECIAL PARAGRAPHS.

"Old Hatch" has lost his grip on the wheat market.

A triumphant Democracy means more money for the free schools.

Fellow citizens, remember that Democracy is the people's defense.

Register and prepare to vote the Democratic ticket from President down.

Foraker, that little fool who happened to be elected Governor of Ohio has been heard from again.

About the only thing connected with the Senate Tariff bill that will interest the public is Senator Beck's minority report.

Sam. Small got left in his Senatorial aspirations down in Georgia something over 1,300 votes. Thank God Almighty!

Bob Furman, one of the cleverest quill drivers in North Carolina, has severed his connection with the Asheville Citizen.

Some of the manufacturers of Indiana are discharging those of their employees who purpose voting for Cleveland. How long will labor tolerate such coercion?

Senator Ingalls expectorates on the Republican platform by saying: "I agree that the tariff needs revision, but the time is too short for intelligent action before adjournment."

The Central Labor Union in an address to the American people denounces trusts and speculation in the necessities of life, and advocates the election of Cleveland and the reform ticket.

There are nine more cases against Cross and White which are up for trial at the January criminal term of Wake Superior Court. Three are for forgery, one for larceny and five for false pretence.

It is not supposed that Mr. Thurman will publish a letter of acceptance. The Old Roman has accepted the nomination about a hundred times since the St. Louis Convention, and he don't see any use in doing it any more.

The closing of two sugar refineries in Williamsburg in obedience to the command of the Trust, which is based upon the high protective tariff, throws about six hundred men out of employment. Thus the fallacy of a protection tariff is exposed.

Linney, the renegade democrat, and now vindictive republican, said in his late speech at Sparta, that "if the democratic party were successful this time, it would be the end of the republican party forever in this State and nation." Mr. Linney lets out inadvertently a most welcome truth for his side, a most welcome one to the other.

News from the Second congressional district to day is that there is great dissatisfaction with Cheatham, the negro Republican candidate. Many negroes say they will support Simmons, Democrat. The only trouble is that it is national election year and this may have the effect of giving Cheatham much more command of votes than he would otherwise have.

LATEST NEWS.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Three Days' Snow.

Vienna, October 9.—In Styria it has been raining and snowing for three days without cessation, and the Emperor, for much of the time has been kept in doors.

Destructive Fire Near Shelby.

Shelby, N. C., October 9.—The saw mill, cotton gin, engine and six bales of cotton, belonging to C. I. Hamrick & Sons, eight miles from Shelby, were burned at 2 o'clock this morning. The loss is twenty-five hundred dollars, upon which there is no insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Brutal Murder.

Charlotte, N. C., October 9.—News of a very brutal murder comes from Alexander county, where two brothers, Arthur and Gaston Barnes, killed a man named J. W. Robinett. The facts as gathered by your correspondent are these. The three men were riding along the road in a wagon when Arthur Barnes became involved in a quarrel with Robinett. This resulted in a fight, which took place in a wagon. Robinett, being a good fighter, downed Barnes at a single blow, and was pelting him severely when Gaston seized a club in the wagon and knocked Robinett senseless with it. This blow alone would have killed Robinett, but the two men drew from their pockets knives with which they made many gashes in his breast, stabbing his heart and producing instant death. The two Barneses threw the dead body from the wagon and drove a short distance, when they jumped to the ground and ran for the woods. The body was found shortly afterwards, but the Barneses are yet at large.

CHICAGO'S STRIKE.

Two Great Street-Car Systems now Tied up.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The two great street car systems on the West and North Sides are now tied up. The strike on the West Side began this morning as soon as the last night car was run into the barns. For a time last night it seemed as if this new complication could be avoided and the original strike settled amicably but the negotiations, which were conducted in Mayor Roche's private office, failed, because the company and the men could not agree on the subject of wages. President Yerkes opened the conference with an offer to correct the present system of hours as far as possible. An agreement was reached on this point but when the wage question was taken up the men insisted upon twenty cents per hour for gripmen, 23 cents for train and grip conductors and 24 cents for horse-car men. Mr. Yerkes offered 20 cents for horse-car men and 21 cents for grip car men. The strikers refused to make any concessions and after much argument the conference broke up. A committee of West Side car men was waiting to learn the result and when the failure to reach an agreement was reported the chairman said a strike would be ordered and hurried away.

Republican Senators.

Washington, Oct. 9.—An informal conference of Republican Senators was held this morning to talk over the general situation and more especially to arrange the course of debate on the tariff bill. The results were meagre, owing to the doubt everywhere entertained whether a quorum of the Senate can be had in Washington should the tariff debate be protracted beyond next week. A dozen or more Senators were named who desire to make speeches, and a list of Republicans was started which so far includes the names of Hiscock, Culom, Platt, Spooner, Aldrich and Teller. The desire of a number of Senators, however, to get away is very strong, and with the system of pairs prevailing in the Senate and always rigidly adhered to, every absentee reduces the voting force by two. In considering these matters it became apparent that there would be great difficulty in keeping a voting quorum to act upon the amendments and finally upon the bill. No action was taken in the conference and no definite policy was sketched, but there is reason to believe that if the Senate finds itself for any length of time without a quorum, either an adjournment sine die or a recess for several weeks will be taken.

THE TRUSTS.

The Republican Tariff Bill Fosters Trusts.

New York, October 9.—Speaker Carlisle writing to a member of the Democratic National Committee, says of the Senate tariff bill:

"I have not had time nor opportunity to make a satisfactory analysis of its provisions, but it is apparent, at a glance, that it proposes in many instances to reduce the revenues of the government by increasing the taxes upon the people. This is a new departure in our financial legislation, and if adopted as a permanent policy, trusts and combinations to limit the production, and to control the prices of domestic articles, will become part of the established institutions of the country."

The increase of duties in the bill are quite numerous, and altogether unjustifiable; and I hope the committee will have it carefully examined by competent experts in order that its true character may be exposed before the election.

In some cases these increases are effected by changing the existing classifications of dutiable goods, and in others they are affected by changing the duty from an ad valorem to a specific rate. In such cases the increases are not apparent on the face of the bill, and it requires some expert knowledge to detect them."

A CARD.

Having other business that will largely occupy my attention and probably call me away from the city at intervals during the next year, I have arranged with Mr. A. 2. Frey, of Millersburg, Ohio, to take charge of my jewelry store. Although recently from Ohio, Mr. Frey is a Virginian and a gentleman whom I am proud to introduce to my customers. He has a thorough knowledge of the jewelry trade. If you want a new watch, or the time piece you have needs repairing, call and make his acquaintance.

The ladies especially will find him courteous and attentive. He will sell them new goods or repair their broken jewelry at the lowest prices possible for fine quality and superior workmanship. The science of optics is one of Mr. Frey's specialties. A careful study and long experience have made him one of the best practical opticians in the country. If you require an expert to fit you with a pair of spectacles or eye-glasses, don't fail to call and see him, and no matter what the defect of vision may be, if it is possible to receive assistance from the use of glasses, he will supply you with just what is best suited to your eyes. Engraving is another specialty, and in fact for anything you ordinarily require at a jewelry store you cannot go wrong if you call. Very Respectfully, JNO. J. THORNTON. Greensboro, Sept. 11, 1888.

DOCKERY AT THE LOWEST DEPTH.

Again Oliver H. Dockery shows his lack of principle and disrespect for the truth in repeating his untruthful charges against Mrs. Cleveland "that she kissed negro wench."

It has long been the boast in our Southern land that we did not fear men or slander women; that with us a woman's fair fame was a sacred thing. But what shall we say to see a man born upon our own soil, as was his father before him, having enjoyed all the educational and social advantages that wealth and high social position could give him, bred to the bar and for a time a practitioner there, a prominent member of the Old Line Whig party, embracing as it did so many men of the highest rank intellectually, morally and in every other way, a prominent representative of that party in the Legislature, and, in a word, for nearly forty years connected in every way with the best people in the State; what shall be thought, we say, when from the lips of such a man is heard a vile slander of an honest, respectable woman?

It is a shameful case indeed; but we must make up our minds what to say about it, for it is just the case now before us, as Oliver H. Dockery, Radical candidate for Governor, is the slanderer and Mrs. Cleveland, the wife of the President of the United States, is the slandered woman. It matters not, however, whether the slandered woman be the wife of the President or the wife of the humblest citizen in the land, provided only she is honest and reputable, and this is no man who knows her, of whatever political creed, will deny Mrs. Cleveland to be.

But to the slander.

Colonel Oliver H. Dockery, Radical candidate for Governor, in his public speeches charges that Mrs. Cleveland, a reputable white woman, so far debases and degrades herself as to "kiss negro wench." Now be it known, lest it be supposed otherwise, that Dockery is a white man, a Southern born white man, a born North Carolinian, we are especially ashamed to say, who understands fully the vile reproach involved in the charge to which he thus gives the sanction of his name. No man better than this same Dockery understands the odium and infamy involved in the statement for which he has thus gives currency, to-wit: that a reputable white woman is given to kissing negro wench, a charge that, if true, would shut in her face every respectable white door in the State. We say Colonel Dockery understands fully the force of the vile calumny he is circulating, for in his own antipathy to negroes he went so far when in the Legislature as to favor driving every free negro from the State, or forcing him to become a slave. No negro, he thought, was fit for anything but slavery.

What, then, shall we say about it? For one, we say he ought to be disowned by every white man, woman and child in North Carolina, and, like Stanton and the writers and other signers of the horrible Legislative Address, consigned to everlasting infamy. With such men he has made his bed, and upon it he must lie.

But what a warning all this ought to be to any one thinking about joining the Radical party! If Dockery, with all his social, educational and other advantages, be brought to this low, dirty level by his association with his negro and other Radical allies, what can other men hope for? If a man with Dockery's antecedents is brought to open slander of an honest woman, what may be expected of any other man who goes into the Radical ranks? Can any man touch pitch and not be defiled? Can any man become a Radical and not be dirty? Alas, poor dirty Dockery; how have you fallen from your former high estate?

And this is the man who is parading himself before the farmers of the State as a farmer of farmers and their special champion and friend! What say you, ye white men, farmers of North Carolina; will you own him? We think not. And this is the man who is going about over the State asking white men to make him their Governor, their chief magistrate! What say you, ye white voters of North Carolina, who have wives or daughters or sisters or mothers; will you vote for him? In God's name, no, say you!

If the wife of the chief magistrate of this great country cannot escape the slimy drippings from unclean lips what woman in all the land is safe! And Colonel Dockery says Mrs. Cleveland kisses negro wench, with all the vile words imply! Think of all this when you go to the polls, fellow citizens!

MORE CHEERFUL.—Hon. Thos. M. Holt, who is in the city stopping with his son in law, A. W. Haywood, Esq., it is hoped, is gradually improving. He is under the treatment of Dr. Burke Haywood and Dr. Laird and seems more cheerful since his arrival here. His many friends hope earnestly for his early recovery.—Raleigh News and Observer.

DAILY STAR.—That is the name of a new afternoon paper that made its first appearance in Charlotte yesterday. It is a five column four page paper. It takes the place of the afternoon Observer that suspended on Saturday. It is the right size to succeed; and the Chronicle hopes it may.—Charlotte Chronicle.

LARGE SHIPMENTS OF COTTON.—Never since the completion of the C. F. & Y. V. Railroad, have they been so crowded with work. On last Saturday five trains arrived at this point between four o'clock in the evening and twelve o'clock at night, aggregating 118 cars. The receipts of cotton for the past week have been heavier than ever before. Yesterday there was a large number of hands loading and unloading at the platform. The steamer Murchison will carry about three hundred and fifty bales of cotton to Wilmington this morning.—Fayetteville Journal.

"TWO SOULS WITH BUT A SINGLE THOUGHT."

"I want to see the day come when placing my right hand on the head of a little white child, and my left hand on the head of a little colored child, I can pass them into Sunday School together."—Oliver H. Dockery, Republican candidate for Governor of N. C.

"Down with the White Man's party." "That the right of suffrage rests on no mere circumstance of race, color, sex or nationality."—7th plank of the National Prohibition platform and slogan of the organ of the Prohibition party in North Carolina.

Local News.

—Register! Register!! Register!!!

—Register and see that all other Democrats are registered.

—The Durham Exposition and Alamance Fair both open to-day.

—Millie Poteal, colored, will be hanged at Yanceyville next Friday.

—A bucket shop is to be established in Raleigh. Greensboro's time next.

—The Reidsville Light Infantry will pass through here to-night en route to Durham.

GOV. SCALES TAKES THE STUMP.—Elsewhere will be found a list of appointments for Gov. Scales beginning at Reidsville on the 15th.

DR. LACY MARRIED.—Dr. J. H. Smith went down to Gulf to-day to unite in the holy bonds of matrimony, the Rev. Dr. H. O. Lacy to Miss Mary Shepherd. Dr. Lacy is popular all over this State and the PATRIOT joins a host of friends in extending hearty congratulations to the happy couple.

NOTE THIS, PLEASE.—Voters should remember that if they have changed their residence from one township to another since the last State election, they must register anew in the township wherein they at present reside. South Elm and North Elm streets is the dividing line between Gilmer and Morehead townships, so that moving merely across the street changes one's place of residence.

GRAND RALLY AND FLAG RAISING.—The good old simon pure Democrats of Rockingham county are making extensive arrangements for a big barbecue and flag raising at Reidsville on the 15th inst. Governor Scales will be present, also C. B. Watson, of Forsyth, N. B. Broughton, of Wake, and other prominent Democrats of the State, and a big time generally is booked for that day.

BALLOON ASCENSION.—Chief among the attractions at the approaching State Fair at Raleigh will be a balloon ascension on Wednesday next. Prof. Myers, of New York, a well-known aeronaut, will make the ascent, and when a height of 2000 feet is reached will make a descent per parachute. This new feature of the fair will be hailed with special delight, and a sight but few of our people have ever witnessed.

ATTENTION.—Members of the Hook and Ladder Company are requested to meet at hall to-night at 7:30 o'clock, for special business. By order of the President. W. H. RANKIN, Sec.

COMPLETED.—The new telegraph line to Oak Ridge Institute has been completed as the following will testify:

OAK RIDGE, N. C., Oct. 10, '88.
EDS. DAILY PATRIOT, Greensboro, N. C.:

Oak Ridge sends greetings over her new telegraph line.

J. A. & M. H. HOLT.

The PATRIOT in return congratulates the enterprising people of Oak Ridge upon their connection with the outside world.

MOREHEAD AND BROWER.—

Reports say that Col. Morehead is "literally mopping the face of the earth" with Brower at every place where they have spoken. Capt. S. B. Taylor, of Danbury, writes us bearing date of Oct. 4th: "We had a rousing convention here last Tuesday and nominated R. I. Dalton for sheriff, John Y. Phillips for Register of Deeds, J. A. Leak for the House, and the old reliable, Gid Mitchell, for the Senate. These nominations foreshadow a glorious victory for the Democracy in November."

Morehead and Brower spoke here on the same day to a tremendous crowd and our gallant standard-bearer carried the day with a whoop and gained a signal victory over the Surry county 'shyster.' The verdict of all important hearers and judges of such an occasion was that 'Morehead got on top in the outset and remained on top to the last.' Morehead is making a bold and aggressive fight for the cause; has Brower on the defensive and hacketed already, and is making Democratic votes everywhere he speaks.

The county canvass opens next Monday and in my judgment everything is 'right side up with care' for the straight Democratic ticket. Give us harmony in our own ranks from now on and let us meet the enemy with a united front and victory will perch itself upon our banners once more.

MOREHEAD AND BROWER AT PRESTONVILLE.—From all accounts the joint discussion between Col. Morehead and Brower at Prestonville where they first met, was a red letter day for the Democracy. A correspondent of the Raleigh News and Observer heard the debate, refers to Col. Morehead as having so satisfactorily discussed the principles and the legislative and administrative achievements of the two parties both in national and State affairs, touching upon the tariff, the internal revenue, the public lands, the Blair bill, official appointments, the public debt, the county government system, State taxes, &c., all of which he handled with a degree of ability and fairness which convinced and captivated the entire audience. The effect on the people was so apparent that Brower announced the expiration of his time seventeen minutes before it had really expired. Morehead would not dispute with him about it, however, and sat down amidst prolonged and enthusiastic applause. Says the correspondent:

Brower's rejoinder was a confused and silly mass of misrepresentation which disgusted everybody—an ignominious failure which served only to emphasize his pusillanimity. He was listened to with contemptuous silence, and closed the first day of the joint canvass without eliciting even a hint of applause from beginning to end. There were many Republicans present, but they were white men, many of them intelligent men, and they were evidently too much disgusted with Brower to give him even the semblance of a recognition.

Morehead concluded the debate in triumph. He had won a complete victory in his first speech, and now he sought only to confirm the good impression he had already made by a strict recapitulation and a brilliant illustration and enforcement of his arguments. When he had finished speaking the people thronged around him to shake his hand in congratulation and assure him of their cordial support, while Brower wended his solitary way to his buggy and set off for Danbury. Even I felt sorry for him.

"Pity thee? So I do; I pity the dumb victim at the altar; But does the robed priest for his pity falter?"

I pity the stammering criminal at the altar; but does the judge for pity hesitate to pronounce the sentence of the law?

"Lay on, McDuff; And damned be he who first cries hold, enough."

Sudden Death.

Maj. John W. Young, a prominent citizen and teacher in Portsmouth, Va., was found dead in his bed in that city on Monday morning, Oct. 8th.

The family of deceased refueged at Trinity College while he was in the Confederate service during the war.

Several years ago Maj. Young was Instructor in Law at Trinity College, N. C., where he still has many warm friends, and where for the last two years he has spent the summer vacation with his family.

He left Trinity only a few days ago to return to his work, leaving his wife and three daughters to follow about the first of November. On Monday they received a telegram of his sudden death, at the time they were expecting a letter from him. The bereaved mother and daughters passed through Greensboro Monday night to be present at the funeral.

Maj. Young was of rare conversational powers, an eloquent speaker, the soul of honor, affectionate, gentle, and more than all a model christian gentleman. The afflicted family have the tenderest sympathy of their many friends at Trinity. A FRIEND.

Our New System.

We find we are getting too old, and our business too much scattered, to longer continue the credit system, and have adopted a new plan this season. Each girl will have a cash check pad slip that must be sent to the cashier (employed for that purpose), and they will have no books on which to charge.

Thankful for past patronage, with regrets for the necessity of change, we hope to merit a continuance. Those who have not paid up please do so at once.

W. S. MOORE.
Our opening on Saturday next, oct 4-4
