

The Daily Patriot.

GREENSBORO, N. C.

TUESDAY, OCT. 23, 1888.

SPECIAL PARAGRAPHS.

Lay on, McDeft!

Rally! boys, Rally!

Prepare your ballots, gentlemen!

Away with Morton, boodle and all!

Only two weeks till the election!

Blaze the way for Fowle and Holt.

Away with high taxes, says the Democratic party!

Register in order that you may vote soon and late.

Democracy first, Democracy last, Democracy for us all the time!

Cleveland and reform grow with each rising and setting of the sun.

The Forsyth Democrats are going to fortify the political firmament red to morrow night.

Winston will have a grand torch-light procession and Democratic rally to-morrow night.

Let us march to the polls on election day in one solid phalanx, if we wish to bury "Radikilism."

The Winston Daily refers to Major Chas. M. Stedman as "the fairest among ten thousand and altogether lovely."

The outlook for the Democrats at this time is simply brilliant. And it grows brighter every day. Hurrah, boys, we've got 'em on the run!

The Daily says Governor Stedman killed and skinned the Republican coon last Saturday night, and "Our Zeb" is coming to roast the deceased varmint on the burning, red hot coals.

The Republican League of Dakota county, Minnesota, containing eighty members, a branch of the National League of Republican clubs, has repudiated the Republican ticket and disbanded the league.

The Wilmington Star says: "We are satisfied that the only danger threatening Democratic success is Republican rascality. Boodle and colonization are the sole Republican factors in this campaign."

Can the Star remember any period in the history of North Carolina politics since the war when anything else than Republican rascality threatened Democratic success?

"The Pittsburg manufacturers have begun to 'fry' their working men. They demand a day's wage to aid the Republican campaign.—The rascals still mouth about a free ballot, while old Cump Sherman talks of another civil war to give the negro the franchise, &c."

With protection taxing them 47 per cent., every political campaign assessing them a part of their sweat earned wages, and their "bloody-shirt" orators threatening them with all the horrors of civil strife, if they refuse to "stand up to the rack, fodder or no fodder"—what a pitiable condition is that of the masses of white and black voters in the clutch of the Republican party!

LATEST NEWS.

FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

BY TELEGRAPH.

$10,000 per Ton.

Bozeman, M. T., Oct. 22.—A rich find is reported in the Empire mine, near Bozeman. A body of ore has been found in the 500 foot level, that assays $10,000 per ton.

The Acme Factory Burned.

Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 22.—The fibre factory of the Acme Manufacturing Company, 18 miles from here, was burned this morning. The spinning and weaving mill and the fertilizer factory were saved. The loss is not stated. Insurance $10,000.

Another Big Scoop.

New York, October 22.—The Richmond & Danville Company today decided to accept the option offered them in the stock of the Georgia Central Railroad, thus adding 2,500 miles to the Richmond system, and making the total 9,000 miles.

The Forest of Fontainebleau Set on Fire.

Paris, Oct. 22.—Incendiaries have attempted to destroy the forest of Fontainebleau. Fires were started in five different places, and were extinguished with difficulty. A large quantity of forage was consumed, entailing a loss of 1250,000 francs. Two men have been arrested on suspicion.

Women's Christian Temperance Union.

New York, Oct. 22.—At the session of the Women's Christian Temperance Union here today, Mrs. Barry, of the Knights of Labor, made a brief address, offering the co-operation of the order against vice and the saloon. Mrs. Willard was re-elected president of the Union. Rev. Joseph Cook delivered a speech against the liquor traffic.

Death of a Good Old Democrat.

Louisburg, N. C., Oct. 22.—Mr. John E. Thomas, the "old warhorse" of Democracy in Franklin, died here last Saturday. He was in his eighty first year, and was one of the most uncompromising Democrats in the county. For many years he had been in feeble health. He represented this county in the Legislature several terms.

The joint canvass will commence in this county on the 24th instant.

Two Vessels Collide.

New York, Oct. 22.—The Old Dominion Line steamer Roanoke, which sailed from this point on Saturday afternoon for Norfolk, collided near midnight with the brig Hyperion, just West of the Abscom light. The Roanoke took on board the Hyperion's crew of five men and attempted to tow the brig to port, but it sank when at the breakwater, north by west of the light. The Hyperion was bound from Philadelphia to Portland and was loaded with coal. It lies in the track of vessels. The Roanoke was not injured by the collision and reached Norfolk last night.

A "Short" Cut.

Minot, D. T., Oct. 22.—Patrick McNamar, postmaster and treasurer of Minot, has fled to Canada.—About a week ago, postoffice inspector, J. D. Wood, arrived here and began an examination of McNamar's books. Before he had been at work an hour, he came to the conclusion that McNamar was short in his accounts, and as the examination proceeded the shortage increased. Before the inspector had completed his work, McNamar fled across the international line. The inspector represents that McNamar's shortage amounts at least to $25,000, and perhaps more.

TELEGRAPHIC FLASHES.

Judge Thurman has returned from Indiana, to his home in Columbus, Ohio.

Snow to the depth of three inches fell at Nebraska City, Nebraska, on Sunday.

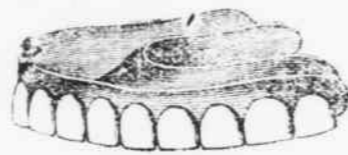

Near midnight, on Sunday, Claudia Harris, a woman of the town, was shot dead at the door of Trinity Episcopal church in Columbia, S. C. Three bullets struck her breast. No outcry was made by her. The moon was bright. The crime was not discovered until yesterday morning. There is no clue to the murderer, who may be imitating the example of the White-chapel fiend.

Charles R. Eban, a prominent clerk in the mailing department of the Boston postoffice, was arrested yesterday, charged with stealing letters. He pleaded guilty, and was held for the grand jury.

A grand Democratic parade of clubs from all through Virginia and North Carolina will be held in Richmond to-morrow. It is estimated that about 25,000 men will be in line.

INTERESTING DRY GOODS "NEWS"

BY Woodward & Lothrop.

The fall trade may be said to be fairly underway. The store is brim-full of the season's best productions, both foreign and domestic. Our preparations for the coming season's business have been on a greater scale than ever before, and we are in a position to cater to your wants to better advantage than was ever otherwise possible.

Great Silk Bargains.

A fortunate purchase of Guinet's best black imported silks enables us to offer our customers the greatest values in these world renowned fabrics ever placed on sale. The forced stagnation of the trade in the far South is being felt in that commercial heart center, New York; and importers are compelled to find a sale for the goods that would otherwise have gone into that section.

We are always on the alert, and have just secured, among other goods, five lots of Guinet's black silks, which we propose to unload at a small advance, thus retailing this most reliable brand at the lowest prices it has been known to reach.

Lot 1, Qual. E, only 87 1/2c. pr yd. Lot 2, Qual. D, only 94c. per yd. Lot 3, Qual. C, only $1 per yd. Lot 4, Qual. B, only $1.12 1/2c. yd. Lot 5, Qual. A, only $1.20 yard. We refrain from quoting the usual selling price of these five qualities, confident that your discerning judgment will instantly recognize their intrinsic value. (First floor; annex.)

"Opening" of Ready-made Garments.

The entire third floor has on its best dress this week. Every line is full of the best of the season's styles and qualities. Ladies' suits, jackets, wraps, both long and short; Newmarkets, Raglans, Modjeskas, &c. Children's and Misses' suits, jackets, cloaks, newmarkets, &c. Ladies' flannel wraps and waappers, tea gowns, &c., of other materials. The entire floor is in "dress parade," and we beg you will give it an inspection. As we purchased only one, two, and a few of some of the extreme styles, we suggest to those of our customers who wish something "exclusive" to call early in the week. Bargains will be offered, and especially in the lower grades. (Third floor.)

New Curtain Materials.

This will be good news to the ladies who have been waiting. We beg your indulgence for the unavoidable delay, and believe those who have not yet bought will be glad they waited. We can only tell of a few lots to-day, as more are yet coming.

3,000 yards of Imitation Pongee Curtain Drapery, in a handsome variety of attractive colorings and effects. Only 15c. per yard.

2,500 yards 40 inch Printed, Lace Striped Serges, in light, medium and dark effects. Only 12 1/2c. yard.

1,500 yards of Curtain Madras Cloths, in Cream and Lemon, warm colorings, and make a very attractive window drapery. Only 25c. per yard. (Fourth floor.)

New Raw Silks.

Excellent styles and colorings in 50 inch Raw Silks at 42 1/2c. per yd. Other prices 65, 75c., $1, $1.10, $1.25, $1.35, 10 to 22. Undoubtedly the best line yet. (Fourth floor.)

Wash Goods.

The Wash Goods department has been moved to the fourth floor, where it has more space, more goods, and a chance to do more business. New Colorings in Best Dark Prints, warranted to wash perfectly. Only 6 1/2c. per yard. Percales, 12 1/2c. Indigo blue prints, 8c. (Fourth floor.)

Club Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Young Men's Democratic Club in the court-house this evening at 7:30 o'clock. All the officers and members of the Club, as well as all good Democrats generally, are requested to be present.

—All the prisoners have made their escape from the jail at Troy, Montgomery county, by cutting through the walls of the building.

PRAYER MEETING.—Young men's prayer meeting at Westminster Church to-night at 7:30 o'clock. The young men are all cordially invited to attend.

IMPROVING.—A letter received here from Durham last night announces the convalescence of Mr. W. H. Branson, who is now and has been for some time very ill with typhoid fever.

"REBELLION OF THE DAISIES."—A practice and rehearsal of the Cantata, "The Rebellion of the Daisies," will take place in the hall of the Women's Christian Temperance Union at 7:30 this evening. All participants in the cantata are requested to attend.

A GREAT REVIVAL.—A dispatch from Durham yesterday says:

The great meeting conducted here by Sam Jones is growing in interest till enthusiasm knows no bounds. People are coming here on every train to hear the evangelist. Many conversions are already reported.

ALL HONOR TO THEM!—Hon. D. F. Caldwell spent last Sunday at his home in this city—a brief season of respite from the arduous and wearying duties of the campaign—as did also Mr. John McNairy, next sheriff of the county. Our county leaders are doing a noble work in the canvass—work deserving of the grateful tributes of the people and the significant expression of their appreciation at the ballot-box.

THE LETTER OF "PROHIBITIONIST."—The custom of adopting a "nom de plume" for ordinary newspaper communications, and the natural reluctance to rushing into print over one's own signature, alone prevented the publication of the real name of the author of yesterday's excellent Open Letter to the Prohibitionists of Guilford county.

His name is at the service of any Democrat, Republican or Prohibitionist who may wish to be assured of his character, reliability and standing. No man has a better record among his fellow-citizens as an earnest, consistent Prohibitionist and advocate of temperance. In 1886 he voted the Third Party ticket, with one or two exceptions, and he is impelled to his present course by an honest conviction of the danger incurred in dividing the white voting strength in this election, by which there is probability of bringing about the success of the Republican ticket, but no chance of electing a single nominee on the Third Party ticket.

We are glad to know that in this and adjoining counties, in which the Prohibition element is comparatively strong, many good men are rapidly coming to "Prohibitionist's" way of thinking, and they will powerfully aid in the redemption of this county on the 6th of next month.

AN OLD HAND AT THE BUSINESS.—Dr. W. D. Vieyard, representing himself as from Virginia, otherwise known as Watson Cumbo, was arrested in this city on Saturday last, charged with horse-stealing in Davidson county. He was arraigned before Esquire Eccles this afternoon, who bound him over in the sum of $500, in default of which he was committed to jail. The sheriff of Davidson is expected here to-night to take charge of the prisoner.

Senator Vance next Thursday.

WHAT MISREPRESENTATION!—None of the most desperate expedients are left untried by the Radicals in this campaign to excite prejudice and gain votes.

Recently they have been making the statement—wherever they could find anyone to listen to their idle folly—that the expenses of the barbecues recently held in the county have been paid out of the taxes taken from the people. Deplorable is their condition when they are compelled to resort to a falsehood so easy of immediate refutation!

They proclaim from the stump on the canvass that the county is in debt, with a constant increase; that public expenditures are becoming heavier with each year; that mortgages are piling up on real estate and other property, etc. Radical leaders do not, of course, go one step farther, and introduce to their listeners the legitimate conclusion to which these premises lead—that for all the evils which we now suffer we are indebted to the delectable Canby Constitution and Radical legislation.

We say with no fear of successful contradiction, and in the full confidence that we can make good every count in the indictment, that there is to-day no bar or hindrance to our material prosperity, no obstacle to the due administration of exact justice to all classes of the people, no impediment to our intellectual advancement and educational progress, which had not its inception in the days when the Radical party had control of North Carolina.

Come to hear Zeb. Vance!

IT DOES NOT LOOK WELL.—His Excellency Gov. Scales has offered rewards for four murderers, as follows:

One hundred and fifteen dollars ($115) for Robert Tucker, Jr., white, of Warren, for the murder of Weldon Davis, colored, on the night of the 27th of September; $200 for Jerome Ruff, white, of Haywood county, for the murder of Gaither Reece, in Madison county, on the 2d of March last; $125 for W. B. Adams, white, of Beaufort, for the murder of Joshua N. Cox; $75 for Arthur Barnes, white, of Alexander, for the murder of J. H. W. Robinett.

The press of North Carolina, doubtless with the best of motives, is, by a large majority of the newspapers published, unqualified in the expression of opinion that crime is decreasing; and, compared with the condition of affairs twenty years ago, and with what would be the state of disorder and lawlessness should the political party of 1868 again assume control of the State and county governments, this is undoubtedly true. But crime is not diminishing as it should diminish during a period of profound peace. The callousness and indifference to human life, growing out of four years of bloody warfare, still makes possible too much of murder and manslaughter with the turbulent elements of society; the whipping post abolished, the penitentiary has no terrors for the thief, and larceny is rampant throughout the land. One revolting and nameless crime has become so common that the grim, masked crowd of avengers, with a moment for the doomed wretch's confession and prayer, visit swift retribution upon the offense.

With well-ordered courts, adequate constabulary and police force throughout the State, and the due execution of the laws, it is not pleasant to the law-abiding to read that within the borders of the commonwealth there are four white murderers with a price upon their heads.

A MATTER FOR REGRET.—A late issue of the Wilmington Messenger thus forcibly and truthfully comments upon the bearing and deportment of the present growing generation of the colored race:

We are sorry to say that the manners of the younger colored people are not improving. They seemed to have imbibed a spirit of disrespect for white people, and most offensively display it. We believe the teaching they receive has much to do with it, and we know that the appeals made to their passions and prejudices by political demagogues in political contests bear this fruit. This effect is noticeable in every campaign on the older and better disposed of the colored population, and of course the younger of them will more readily imbibe the spirit of vicious teaching of those who appeal to and cultivate their worst hatreds and prejudices.

This is a lamentable fact, and one for which there is no excuse growing out of unkind feeling or treatment on the part of the whites. The fact is, while all honor was due the colored race during the war for their fidelity to their people and section in the main, the whites of the Southern States have been called upon, since 1865, to exercise a wonderful amount of patience and forbearance. With a solidity and unanimity almost unparalleled, the blacks have voted at every election squarely against the material and property interests of the communities in which they live. In this State they have arrayed themselves, and do array themselves to-day, in an almost unbroken line of 110,000 voters, against the vast majority of the whites representing a large preponderance of the intelligence and wealth of North Carolina—in the face of the fact that they receive their exact proportion of benefits under the government, at least 90 per cent. of the burdens of which is borne by the Democratic party. In his recent speech in the court-house, Hon. C. B. Watson, of Forsyth, stated that in his county there were but $60,000 of taxable property belonging to negroes, and that where they paid $1 for the support of State and county government the whites paid $100—and this will be found to be nearly the proportion throughout the South.

Now, as stated by the Messenger, in addition to their injustice in the exercise of the rights of citizenship, the younger generation see fit to deport themselves with surliness, disrespect and insolence, rendering themselves disagreeable to the communities in which they live, and becoming generally so worthless that but few can obtain regular employment, the majority being little better than vagrants and loafers.

Don't let anything keep you at home next Thursday. Sen. Zeb. Vance is to speak in this city.
