LATEST NEWS.

FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Death of an ex-Governor.

Hagerstown, Md., Oct. 26.—Ex-Governor and ex United States Senator Wm. Hamilton died of pneumonia today, at his home in this place.

Hanged for Murder.

St. Louis, Oct. 26.—Hugh Blackman, of California, was hanged at Toledo, Ark., today. Blackman killed a negro known as "Big Sid" in a quarrel over a game of crop over two years ago.

Chicago for Cleveland.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—A Democratic Club has been organized among the members of the Board of Trade here, with astonishing success. Over one hundred of its recruits are Republicans, who voted for Blaine in 1884, but are now outspoken for Cleveland and Tariff Reform.

Convicted of Murder.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—A dispatch from St. Louis says: James Talmadge, son of the late A. A. Talmadge, Gen'l manager of the Wabash Railway, was yesterday convicted of murder in the second degree at Keytesville for killing a telegraph operator, named C. P. Tydd, one year ago, and sentenced to 21 years in the penitentiary.

The Work of the Gallows.

Rawlins, W. T., Oct. 26.—Ben F. Carter was hanged at 11 o'clock today. At his request newspaper reporters were not present at the execution. Carter walked to the scaffold unsupported. His last words were: "I am going to leave you; see you again. Good-bye." His neck was broken by the fall and death was instantaneous.

A Desperate Fellow.

St. Louis, Oct. 26.—A Post Dispatch special from Jackson, Tenn., says: Last night Walter Howard, negro porter for the Southern Express Company, shot and seriously wounded policeman J. E. Owens, who was attempting to arrest the negro. Howard had robbed the express office and was making his escape. He is at large, but will be pursued until caught, having only a slight start.

Thurman and Carlisle.

Lima, Ohio, Oct. 26.—Senator Thurman and Speaker Carlisle arrived here at one o'clock this afternoon, and were met at the depot by a crowd of eight thousand people, political clubs, etc. They were escorted through the principal streets by a procession over five miles in length. Thurman spoke in the Music Hall to several thousand people, and as many more were unable to gain admittance.

A Human Brute.

Ithaca, N. Y., Oct. 26.—A verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree was rendered this morning in the case of Richard Barber, who murdered an old woman named Mason, and beat her husband so badly that he is now insane. After committing the crime, Barber set fire to the house and burned the body of Mrs. Mason. The crime was committed last March. Sentence will be imposed on next Tuesday.

Fatal Railroad Collision.

Bloomington, Ills., Oct. 26th.—Near San Jose, Illinois, yesterday afternoon, a freight train collided with a passenger train composed of empty coaches. The crews of both engines jumped.

Fireman Baum, of the freight train, was caught between the cars and crushed to death. Engineer Foote, of the freight engine, was pinned under the wreck and fatally injured. The engineer and firemen of the other train were also seriously injured. Both locomotives and seventeen cars were destroyed.

A Woman Gets $30,000 Damages.

Boston, Oct. 26.—This morning, in the suit for $50,000 damages brought by Mrs. Myra Beals against Dr. Augustus Thompson, of Lowell, the jury rendered a verdict for the plaintiff of $30,000.

It is understood that counsel for the defense will file exceptions and ask to have the verdict set aside on the ground that the verdict is against the evidence, and that the damages awarded are excessive.

A Savage Blow.

Sheepshead Bay, N. Y., Oct. 26.—Henry Granel, the proprietor of a small hotel, a middle aged man weighing 190 pounds, while intoxicated last evening, became involved in an altercation with a seventeen year old jockey named Brown, weighing only eighty pounds.—Granel struck the boy a savage blow with a base ball bat, felling him senseless to the floor.

Young Brown is seriously injured. The villagers threatened to lynch Granel, and the officers who took him into custody had to draw their revolvers to keep the crowd back.

Rich and Starving.

New York, Oct. 26.—Patrick Shelly, of Louisiana, who was picked up on Park row with about $16,000 in his pockets, came up for examination in the Tombs court this morning. The prison doctors say that he is suffering from partial paralysis and is beginning to show evidence of softening of the brain. They do not believe he eats any solids whatever and takes so small a quantity of liquids as to barely sustain life. His greed for money has been so great that he has actually deprived himself of proper nourishment in order to increase his gains. He was committed until his friends have been heard from.

A Young Girl's Suicide.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 26.—The Cincinnati conservatory of music was the scene of a horrible suicide today. The victim was one of the pupils, Miss Mazie Mount, a beautiful girl, 21 years of age, whose parents live in Connersville, Ind. Last night she took a dose of morphine with suicidal intent, but a doctor was summoned, who gave her an antidote and walked the floor all night with her. She was in a fair way to recovery this morning, and was left alone. At eleven o'clock her dead body was found stretched out on the floor of her room, her feet resting against a dresser and head beneath a piano stool. She had cut her throat from ear to ear with a razor. The cause is supposed to be a love affair.

STEDMAN AT RALEIGH.—The following is the conclusion of a long article in the News and Observer of Major Stedman's speech in Raleigh Tuesday night:

He took his seat amid a perfect storm of applause, above which loud shouts and hurrahs were heard. A beautiful bouquet was sent up and presented as the tribute of some of the ladies present. Many came up to congratulate him, among whom were numerous ladies.

The speech was pronounced one of the finest ever heard in Raleigh. It was ornate, beautiful and polished; it abounded in profuse and happy illustrations, with wit, humor, poetry and eloquence most beautifully blended. It was at once the production of a scholar, a statesman and a high toned gentleman of the noblest, manliest type.

The frequent and hearty outbursts of applause throughout attested the high appreciation of the audience and their hearty esteem and respect for the speaker.

Major Stedman may always be sure of an overflowing house and a warm welcome whenever he speaks in Raleigh.

DRY GOODS "NEWS"

BY

Woodward & Lothrop.

The fall trade may be said to be fairly underway. The store is brim-full of the season's best productions, both foreign and domestic. Our preparations for the coming season's business have been on a greater scale than ever before, and we are in a position to cater to your wants to better advantage than was ever otherwise possible.

Great Silk Bargains.

A fortunate purchase of Guinet's best black imported silks enables us to offer our customers the greatest values in these world renowned fabrics ever placed on sale. The forced stagnation of the trade in the far South is being felt in that commercial heart-center, New York; and importers are compelled to find a sale for the goods that would otherwise have gone into that section.

We are always on the alert, and have just secured, among other goods, five lots of Guinet's black silks, which we propose to unload at a small advance, thus retailing this most reliable brand at the lowest prices it has been known to reach.

Lot 1, Qual. E, only 87 1/2c. pr yd. Lot 2, Qual. D, only 94c. pr yd. Lot 3, Qual. C, only $1 per yd. Lot 4, Qual. B, only $1.12 1/2c. yd. Lot 5, Qual. A, only $1.20 yd.

We refrain from quoting the usual selling price of these five qualities, confident that your discerning judgment will instantly recognize their intrinsic value. (First floor, annex.)

"Opening" of Ready-made Garments.

The entire third floor has on its best dress this week. Every line is full of the best of the season's styles and qualities. Ladies' suits, jackets, wraps, both long and short; Newmarkets, Raglans, Modjeskas, &c. Children's and Misses' suits, jackets, cloaks, newmarkets, &c. Ladies' flannel wraps and waappers, tea-gowns, &c., of other materials. The entire floor is in "dress parade," and we beg you will give it an inspection. As we purchased only one, two, and a few of some of the extreme styles, we suggest to those of our customers who wish something "exclusive" to call early in the week. Bargains will be offered, and especially in the lower grades. (Third floor.)

New Curtain Materials.

This will be good news to the ladies who have been waiting. We beg your indulgence for the unavoidable delay, and believe those who have not yet bought will be glad they waited. We can only tell of a few lots to-day, as more are yet coming.

3,000 yards of Imitation Pongee Curtain Drapery, in a handsome variety of attractive colorings and effects. Only 15c. per yard.

goods, and a chance to do more business. New Colorings in Best Dark Prints, warranted to wash perfectly. Only 6 1/2c. per yard. Percales, 12 1/2c. Indigo blue prints, &c. (Fourth floor.)

WHAT TO THANK GOD FOR.

Hon. Allen G. Thurman, Democratic nominee for the Vice-Presidency, closes one of his recent speeches out West with the following magnificent peroration:

"No, my friends, let me tell you, you have many things for which to thank the Almighty. You have to thank Him that you live in a country so bounteous, so plentiful as this. You have to thank Him that you live in an age of civilization and progress; and you have especially to thank Him that you live in a country of free institutions where every man stands, in law, the equal of every other man; where you can walk with head erect, as high as the proudest man in the land and as much entitled to respect if you behave yourselves well and live a virtuous and upright life. You have a good deal, therefore, to be thankful for, then, that you have the rights of an independent American citizen."

How long, fellow-citizens, are we to have these causes for gratitude to a beneficent Creator? Ours is a goodly land, over all of which He has poured forth manifold blessings with a lavish hand. From its great prairies of the West, along the frozen North to the genial South, it has proven, throughout its century of history, the "asylum for the oppressed of all nations." But what avail immense wealth and boundless resources in territory, soil, agricultural products and mineral and manufacturing advantages, to a people deprived of civil liberty—bereft of independence of thought and action? What is the observant and reflecting man to expect from the plainly-avowed policy of the Republican party, should it again assume control of the national government? Think for a moment over the remarkable utterance of Senator Ingalls, of Kansas, now acting Vice President of the United States. During the heated contest at the Chicago convention a telegram was sent to him, asking his advice as to whom the convention should nominate for the second place on the ticket after Harrison, and his reply was: "any man belonging to or in close, constant sympathy with the moneyed interests of Wall street—Phelps, of New Jersey, for instance." (This is the substance, if not the exact words.) Can there be any mistake about the meaning of this? Is it not a servile concession to the monopoly and tyranny of money? Could the national Republican party have possibly chosen two men for the highest positions in the gift of the people who would be more antagonistic to the interests of the workingmen of the country than Harrison and Morton?

What is to come from a Republican administration of affairs? They themselves proclaim it—not one cent of abatement of high tariff; a continued accumulation in the United States Treasury, sums recklessly lavished for pensions which no government in the world ever before dared to grant, every public trust conducted on a scale of unbounded extravagance—and the people paying for it all.

While Democratic leaders in Congress—justly alarmed at the encroachments upon the rights of the people by these overgrown and arrogant corporations—are endeavoring to frame a system of legislation which will at least check the operation of "trusts" and "combinations," the great statesmen representing Northern Republicanism—even such as Blaine, ex-Senator, ex-Secretary of State and candidate for the Presidency—are engaged in a desperate defense of these monstrous conspiracies against the pockets of the people.

Independence for the American under this policy in the management of financial affairs? Have our readers marked the effects upon the business of the country which have attended the clutch of the speculation upon the necessities of life? Who reap the benefits of the bagging trust, the coffee trust, the sugar trust, the present "corner" on flour, the very staff of life? Ask your Greensboro merchant if the profit on them all is not seized and pocketed by the cormorants in the great markets of the North.

Farewell to independence with the re-inauguration of the Republican party into power!

FOUND HIS CANTEN.—A gentleman told me yesterday of a strange experience related by a friend of his. It was during the battle of Gettysburg that his friend, just before entering the action, took his canteen from his shoulder and hid it in a crevice in the rock. Then came the fiery hail of shot and shell that swept down regiments like fields of wheat before the reaper. At the close of the battle the soldier forgot all about his canteen, nor did it even occur to him again until he visited the field at the reunion. Then it flashed through his mind, and after a few minutes' search he found it where he had left it on that momentous day. It seemed scarcely credible that it could have been overlooked during the minute exploration of the field ever since the war, but the gentleman who related the incident is of unimpeachable veracity.—Albany, N. Y., Argus.

TASTES OF THE HORSE.—The horse is a creature of simple tastes; still he has a very nice perception of what are to him luxuries, and happily all he classifies as such are things that are good for him. He dearly loves a lump of sugar or a carrot, and the honest, faithful fellow will be heartily grateful to the kind master who gives them to him. Win his gratitude and affection. It is well worth while doing so, if only for considerations of selfish interest.

A BRANCH OF LILIES.

A branch of lilies, with their stems upright and crowding heavenward, lies in the moonlight. With leaves that are not shut by night. Filled full of love and passion to the rim, Even flower across a sea, as the sea ship. Trembles as Abraham, when God talked with him. So, ere they listen wait the Spirit saith; No oil is on the vessels; with such a sea The angel spoke—There shall be no more death.

JUDGING FROM APPEARANCES.—A noted professor in one of our colleges, in speaking of his own college days, said: I remember a student, Frank W., who sat by me in the lecture room, who fell under grave rebuke because the lecturer judged by appearances. Frank had a trick of whittling. One day he fashioned a small keel of a ship, a dainty thing, with a witching figure head. He finished it just as the lecture was finished. Dr. M., the lecturer, was a reverend man, with white hair and a kind heart. But the good man was wounded by the whittler. He was idle, and disrespectful; and he summoned him to his study, to administer a wholesome rebuke.

"Young man," said he, "I am obliged to speak to you about the foolish and trifling way in which you spend your time." Frank looked at him in surprise. "Please take that thing out of your pockets that you made during lecture," Frank drew forth the keel; he had made it, without thinking, and he was hardly conscious of its existence.

"Your disrespect for me and the students I might pass by," said Dr. M., "but your irreverence for important subjects I must treat more severely. Can you tell me the subject of the lecture this morning?" Frank told the subject readily.

"Can you tell me anything about the manner in which it was treated?" "I think so," said Frank. And he began at the first remark of the lecturer, and repeated almost every word of the lecture.

"I did not think you noticed anything that I said, Mr. W.," said the doctor, astonishment and respect struggling for the mastery of his mind.

"I suppose I was whittling," said Frank. "I generally am, but I did not know it, upon my honor. I never was more interested in a lecture in my life."

"Appearances are deceitful," said the doctor. "You will pardon me for judging you accordingly." "And I hope you will pardon me for my everlasting whittling," said Frank. "I would give it up, but I am afraid I should lose the thread of my ideas if I had not something in my hands."

GOD UNCHANGING.—A minister asked an old negro his reasons for believing in the existence of God. "Sir," said he, "I have been here going hard upon fifty years. Every day since I have been in the world I see the sun rise in the east and set in the west. The north star stands where it did the first time I saw it; the seven stars and Job's coffin keep on the same path in the sky; and never turn out. It isn't so with man's work. He makes clocks and watches; they may run well for a while, but they get out of fix and stand stock still. But the sun, moon and stars keep on the same way all the while."

IN NEED OF EXERCISE.—Wife (ominously)—It must have been very late when you came in last night, John, for I didn't go to sleep until after 11 o'clock. Husband (fearlessly)—It was half past eleven, my dear. Wife—And you kept murmuring in your sleep: "Set 'em up again," "set 'em up again."

Husband—Yes, I was playing tenpins with Brown. I need a little exercise of that sort.

Utterly Surprised.

Meridian, Miss., July 12, 1888. For a number of years I have suffered untold agony from the effects of blood poisoning. I had my case treated by several prominent physicians, but received but little benefit. I reported to all sorts of patient medicines spending a large amount of money, but yet getting no better. My attention was attracted by the cure said to have been effected by B. B. B. and I commenced taking it. In a few days I began to feel better. In a few weeks I was cured. I am now well and hearty, and am indebted to the excellent qualities of B. B. B. I cannot commend it too highly to those suffering from blood poisoning. J. O. GRISBORN, Trainman M & O R R.

The reputation of our Fertilizers, the ACME and GEM, is now established, and the results of three years use in the hands of the best farmers of this and other States fully attest their value as a high grade manure.

The MATTING made from the leaves of our native pine, is conceded to be equal to any wool carpet for comfort and durability, and the demand for it is daily increasing. It has virtues not found in any other fabric.

The FIBRE or wool is extensively used for upholstering purposes, and as a filling or mattresses is almost equal to hair, being light, elastic, and proof against insects

W. T. CHICHESTER.—Big Drives!

MARRIED.—By W. S. Coffin, J. P., at his house on the 21st inst., Mr. George Edwards to Miss Nancy Quate, all of this county.

CONVICTS.—Another squad of 25 convicts were on Thursday sent down from Raleigh to work on the Wilmington extension of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway.

READING CLUB.—The Chataqua Reading Club will meet at the residence of Mrs. Cunningham, on Church street, next Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—A gospel temperance meeting will be held in Benbow Hall to-morrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, presided over by Mrs. Wells, of Chattanooga, Tenn. All are cordially invited to attend.

COLLISION.—News has reached this city of a collision of two freight trains on the Western N. C. R. R., near Bridgewater. Several cars were demolished and a negro brakeman was killed, being mashed under the falling cars.

TOBACCO.—One young Nash county farmer, Mr. R. H. Hicks, who took the premium at the Durham Exposition on bright tobacco, will make this year $10,000 on his crop. Nash is taking the lead in brights this year. This is notable.

FLOURISHING.—On the line of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway, between this city and Bennettsville, S. C., there are now in operation 60 steam saw-mills, pushing the development of the lumber business throughout the whole section, and giving employment to hundreds of men.

PINE-STRAW.—Several factories for the manufacture of pine-straw bagging will soon be established at different points in North Carolina, contracts for the machinery of which are even now being made. These enterprises will doubtless be placed mainly in the southeastern part of the State, where immense quantities of the straw are available.

A TIP-TOP OUTFIT.—Mr. W. S. Jessup, of this city, has closed a contract with Col. Julius A. Gray, for a double burglar proof safe of the Herring patent, with all the modern improvements, including special deposit boxes, fire locks, &c., for the National Bank, on the corner of East Washington and South Elm streets. The entire outfit costs $6,500.00, and is one of the finest outfits south of Baltimore.

A GOOD RECORD.—Full of years and usefulness, with a record of nearly half a century of untarnished public career, Hon. D. F. Caldwell, our nominee, is now engaged in his crowning act of inestimable service to the people of his county and State. Arrived at that period of life when men court retirement, and above all things enjoy repose of mind and body, he has accepted a difficult and arduous position which came to him unsolicited, in which he is unflinchingly bearing the brunt of a fierce political warfare of misrepresentation, in defense of the rights of his people.

Intelligent white men cannot fail of appreciation of his self-sacrificing labors in their behalf, and this appreciation will be manifested at the polls week after next.

NO GO.—By reason of some misunderstanding as to the amount asked by Graham College for the location of the same in this city, the outlook at present would indicate that the college will remain at Graham.

This, however, is not due to any lack of public spirit on the part of our people, for they subscribed liberally to the project, and bestirred themselves manfully for what they understood to be the amount asked.

A move is on foot—and the PATRIOT heartily agrees with the idea—to subscribe the four thousand dollars—tended Graham College—to the capital stock of a manufacturing enterprise of some description, to be located in Greensboro.

JUST AS IT SHOULD BE.—The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette has the following item of local news:

The other day, in a crowded Sixth avenue elevated car, Gen. Sherman carried a likely young colored maiden on his knees from Twenty-eighth to Thirty-third street. She was snatching at the straps, which were just out of her reach, when Gen. Sherman gently seated her on his martial knee.

This gray-haired, prominent but very dangerous American citizen has developed into such a gushing negrophillist that there is nothing surprising about this gallant exhibition of his tender feeling for the "nation's wards." Very zealous during his notorious "March to the Sea" in enticing slaves away from their masters, and in persuading them to reveal the hiding places of money, silverware and other valuables, he has recently evinced his gratitude for their war services by an article in the North American Review, upon which we commented last Saturday, in which it is predicted that this country must have a warfare of the "torch and dagger" if the negro vote is not hereafter counted to suit Gen. Sherman and his party. Gov. Wise, of Virginia, had old John Brown hung for no less a crime. Yes, the "dusky maiden" belongs on Sherman's "martial knee."

NOT AT ALL.—The Charlotte Democrat asks the following question:

Is it not a big mistake to invite females to political speakings in buildings where there is not room enough for voters? The "dear creatures" cannot vote, and when they occupy the space of a voter it is that much loss to the Democratic party in an argumentative point of view.

Not a bit of it. A political meeting is very much like an omnibus—there's always room for one more, and we have rarely found it the case that a speaker had to complain of too much crowd in front of or around about him. Then, too, is there not a deal of injustice in closing the doors of public meetings upon women simply because they are not voters? They are members of society, wives and mothers—or intend and expect to be—with a position to sustain and children to rear in the fear of God and the exercise of good citizenship, and it is only right that they should be informed of the principles of government and the issues dividing the people into parties. Besides, the great difficulty has hitherto been to get Democrats to attend campaign speakings; but let us invite "lovely woman," and the matrons will see to it that their husbands go, while the maids will draw the young men after them with an irresistible attraction far surpassing the discussion of 47 per cent. taxation on all the necessities of life.

It is true, this lovely non-voting part of our population suffer now and then for their patriotic interest in public affairs. Not long since a charming young girl (one of perhaps half a dozen of her sex who were present) sat near the writer in a Democratic meeting, and our interest in the political proceedings speedily became lost in our contemplation of her silent suffering. For the first few minutes there was an eager, expectant look upon her sweet face, but as the speaker got down to "hard pan," and crunched up the dry leaves, and reveled in the prosaic statistics of the tax on trace-chains and the $113,592,643.27½ cents surplus in the Treasury, there was a hopeless droop to the corners of the pretty mouth, unutterable weariness had taken possession of the lovely eyes; and the nervous flutter of the fan, and the impatient tap of the little foot on the floor, said as plainly as words could speak: "Sold by thunder!" When the orator closed with "I will not detain you any longer," the tasteful lace fixings at the delicate throat heaved with a deep sigh of relief, and the fresh air of heaven that struck her flushed cheeks at the outer door welcomed a glad bird out of a cage, if ever there was one.

SUPPLEMENT.

DOCKERY VOTING FOR NEGRO NOMINEES.

Like a bound slave Dockery votes as his negro masters order, and so must all other Radicals do. The reason why is the Radical party has 105,000 negroes to only 20,000 white men in it. Of course the negroes rule it.

DOCKERY'S TICKET IN 1884.

At the election in Richmond county in 1884. Oliver M. Dockery, the present Republican candidate for Governor, voted as follows:

To represent the public in the Legislature he voted for Harvey Quick, a negro lawyer, against John W. Sneed, one of the best white farmers of Richmond county.

For Coroner, he voted for Felix Jacobs, a negro man, against Daniel Gay, a one-legged Confederate soldier.

For Register of Deeds, he voted for one N. W. Harlee, a negro man, against Alexander L. McDonald, a white man competent to fill the office, and universally esteemed in the county for his courteous bearing.
