LATEST NEWS.

FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Negroes Have Their Fare Paid.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 31.—At a meeting of Virginia Republicans last night, more than five hundred colored voters were supplied with free railroad tickets to enable them to go home to vote.

A Prize Fight at the Capital.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 31.—In a seventeen round prize fight, fought near this city this morning, between Patrick Duffy, of Boston, and William McMillan, of this city, the former won.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 31.—Murder was enacted here last night in the midst of the big Republican parade. Dolly Phillips, aged 20, was the innocent victim of an assassin's bullet.

Another Robber Captured.

Greenville, S. C., Oct. 31.—Another one of the Pickens county robber band was jailed here today, having been captured near the mountains last night. He is the third member of the gang captured so far.

Republicans Playing with Prohibitionists.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 1.—The Republicans are literally playing with the Third Party people. Some of the latter are sincere, but not a few of them know that the Republican party is backing them and that it put the Third Party on its feet. There will be some revelations about this matter on election day.

Decatur Destitute.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—The following telegram has been received from Decatur, Ala. Mayor Roche, Chicago: Can you raise us some funds for the yellow fever sufferers? Our funds are exhausted and we are in great need. C. C. Austin, Mayor.

Over 2,000 persons have been publicly provided for, and both provisions and money are now exhausted.

Shot His Niece Dead.

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 31.—A special to the News says: At Hinesville, Liberty county, Monday night, William Harrison in an inexplicable fit of jealousy shot his little niece dead, without warning, while sitting by the fireside. He then fired at his sister, wounding her in the hip. She will probably recover. Harrison fled but returned, admitted his crime and said he had attempted suicide by jumping in a well. Later he denied all knowledge of the crime. Harrison said he had been drinking heavily lately.

Fatal Railway Accident.

Salina, Col., Oct. 31.—A serious accident occurred on the Villa Grove branch of the Rio Grande road, 18 miles from here, yesterday. The air brake on the engine attached to the pilot gave out as the descent of the steep grade from Ponca Pass was begun, and the engine shot down the mountain at a terrific speed. On rounding a sharp curve, the engine left the track and went tumbling down the embankment twenty or thirty feet. Fireman Ludlow was instantly killed, and Conductor Vinson had his leg torn open and died a few minutes afterward from loss of blood. Engineer Whitlock and brakeman Allen were seriously injured.

Railroad Smashup.

Swedesboro, N. J., Oct. 31.—A train of seventeen heavy laden cars on the Swedesboro branch of the West Jersey Railroad, carrying the West Men's Republican Club of Camden home from a demonstration at Salem, was wrecked at 3 o'clock this morning about a mile below Clarksboro. Five of the rear cars jumped the track and three of them toppled over on their sides, but fortunately the train was running slowly, and fatalities that might otherwise have occurred were prevented. The occupants of the cars were badly shaken up, but beyond a few bruises no one was injured. Great excitement prevailed among the occupants of the train till it was learned positively that no one was killed. The accident was due either to a broken rail or spreading of the track.

Threatening a Registrar.

Winston, N. C., October 31.—J. G. Young, Registrar of Winston precinct, received a letter today from J. B. Eaves, chairman of the State Republican Committee, threatening to put Mr. Young in the Albany penitentiary, if he continued to refuse to register every negro who applied for registration.

Mr. Young replied that he was not afraid of any threats, and would still continue to refuse to register all persons except bona fide citizens.

The Republicans are trying to carry this county by registering the hands working on the new railroads here.

Negro Democrats in Pennsylvania.

West Chester, Pa., Oct. 31.—Colored men who have forsaken the Republican party for Democracy have been laboring with the colored voters of this town for some weeks with good effect. On Monday evening a meeting was held, when a large number of colored men were present and applauded the addresses of the Democratic speakers, who were also colored. S. S. Lacey and R. G. Still, of Philadelphia, and Franklin J. Wood, of West Chester, a graduate of Lincoln University, were the speakers. A club was afterwards formed to spread the doctrines of Democracy among the 400 colored voters of West Chester.

A Triangular Congressional Fight.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 31.—It is learned today that William P. Mabson (colored), of Edgecombe, has come out as a Republican candidate for Congress in the Second district. This is the outcome of the view of many negroes that Cheat-ham, the negro candidate, did not really receive the nomination. It will be remembered that Mebane, who was another negro candidate, was bought off six weeks ago by the Protection League of New York, through the Republican State Executive Committee. Mabson's taking the field makes the contest again triangular. It is not known yet what strength Mabson can command. Simmons, who is the Democratic nominee, is still in high spirits.

WINSTON-SALEM TATTLE.

Penclings in and Around the Twin-Sister Towns.

[Special Correspondence of the Patriot.]

Winston-Salem, Oct. 31st.—Old Forsyth is getting red hot in politics. Both sides are working like beavers, but the Democratic fowle can begin to oil his feathers for a luty crow on the 6th proximo.

Tuesday evening a serious accident happened in Salem. Mrs. Martin Peoples was engaged in ironing. Upon going to the fire she was suddenly thrown into the flames by an epileptic attack, and before assistance could be rendered was horribly burned upon both her face and body.

Pritchard, the Republican nominee for Lt. Governor, failed to meet his appointment here Tuesday.—Why, Pritchard alone can tell.

This week a number of convicts are being quartered about five miles from here upon the Mocks ville branch of the Wilkesboro extension. Col. Hicks is with them, getting things in ship shape. This makes the third road for our towns upon which active work is being done.

Willis Hall, Jr., a well known tobaccoist of our towns, died last night. He left a short time since for New York. Was compelled to stop in Richmond from feeble health, and from there he went to Alexandria, Va., and last night returned home, dying a few moments after the train arrived. The deceased was at present one of the firm of Taylor Bros. & Co.

The Y. M. C. A. of the towns will make an effort to build a Hall.—There are some 150 names enrolled in the association.

The death of Mr. W. J. Yates, of the Charlotte Democrat, leaves Salem the distinction of having the oldest editor alive, and who is still in active harness. We refer to Mr. L. V. Blum, of the Press, who is high unto 70 years old, and still works regularly upon both the famous Blum's Almanac and the Press.

Mr. M. I. Stewart, of the firm of Stewart Bros., Job Printers, has gone to South Carolina to accept a position with the State printer. He was once a resident of your city, and is no doubt well known among the craft.

Pearson's sermons, while in Winston, are out in print. Mr. Gorham finds a ready sale for the publication.

The Moravian Synod, for the Southern Province of that church, meets in Salem Nov. 20th.

Fifty three persons have joined the Centenary M. E. church since the Pearson meetings. The church has now a total membership of some 700, which is only exceeded by the Moravians, who claim some 900 for their church in Salem.

Large breaks of tobacco are to be seen at the warehouse—a veritable deluge. The prices remain good, and both farmer and buyer appear contented and happy.

Court remained in session this term only one week. Politics captured it, while the litigants are cursing delays and continuances.

The Wilkesboro extension is running to Old Town, and as soon as a couple of small trestles can be completed will tap the C. F. & Y. V. R. R., at Rural Hall.

The color line, politically, is being drawn here pretty close—and a writer, in the Daily, would have it introduced into business circles—but this is carrying things too far, and it is fool hardiness to attempt it, or even agitate the question.—So say many prominent business men of both parties.

Several prominent marriages are on the tapis, all about which the Patriot reader shall know in due time.

DRY GOODS "NEWS"

BY

Woodward & Lothrop.

The fall trade may be said to be fairly underway. The store is brim-full of the season's best productions, both foreign and domestic. Our preparations for the coming season's business have been on a greater scale than ever before, and we are in a position to cater to your wants to better advantage than was ever otherwise possible.

Great Silk Bargains.

A fortunate purchase of Guinet's best black imported silks enables us to offer our customers the greatest values in these world renowned fabrics ever placed on sale. The forced stagnation of the trade in the far South is being felt in that commercial heart center, New York; and importers are compelled to find a sale for the goods that would otherwise have gone into that section.

We are always on the alert, and have just secured, among other goods, five lots of Guinet's black silks, which we propose to unload at a small advance, thus retailing this most reliable brand at the lowest prices it has been known to reach.

Lot 1, Qual. E, only 87½c. pr yd.
Lot 2, Qual. D, only 94c. pr yd.
Lot 3, Qual. C, only $1 per yard.
Lot 4, Qual. B, only $1.12½c. yd.
Lot 5, Qual. A, only $1.20 yard.
We refrain from quoting the usual selling price of these five qualities, confident that your discerning judgment will instantly recognize their intrinsic value.

(First floor; annex.)

"Opening" of Ready-made Garments.

The entire third floor has on its best dress this week. Every line is full of the best of the season's styles and qualities. Ladies' suits, jackets, wraps, both long and short; Newmarkets, Raglans, Modjeskas, &c. Children's and Misses' suits, jackets, cloaks, newmarkets, &c. Ladies' flannel wraps and waappers, tea gowns, &c., of other materials. The entire floor is in "dress parade," and we beg you will give it an inspection. As we purchased only one, two, and a few of some of the extreme styles, we suggest to those of our customers who wish something "exclusive" to call early in the week. Bargains will be offered, and especially in the lower grades. (Third floor.)

New Curtain Materials.

This will be good news to the ladies who have been waiting. We beg your indulgence for the unavoidable delay, and believe those who have not yet bought will be glad they waited. We can only tell of a few lots to-day, as more are yet coming.

MANLY, OF COURSE.

Rev. Sam Jones's religion is of the gladiatorial sort, and naturally his opinions of matters secular are proportionally strong and incisive, but wanting in the saviter in modo which comes smoothly from the tongue and makes pleasant reading. He expressed the truth in an epigram, however, when he recently expatiated on the size of President Cleveland's back bone. Perhaps there is not a people on the face of the earth, excepting possibly the English, with whom genuine, manly pluck will find more admirers than Americans; and they have the satisfaction of feeling that their choice for Chief Magistrate has fallen upon a man conspicuous for courage, firmness and immovability in his convictions of duty. His recent action in having a formal notification presented to Lord Sackville that his presence was no longer acceptable to our government will receive the cordial endorsement of every citizen concerned in the preservation of our dignity and self respect as a nation. Precedent did not imperatively demand this course on the part of Mr. Cleveland, and, at first blush, it might be thought that expediency would condemn it; the "fuss and feathers" of diplomacy, with an immense superfluous show of indignation, would have characterized the conduct of nine men out of ten in the President's position—notably would the "Plumed Knight of Maine" have delighted to pose in the cap and bells and trickery of the harlequin of state-craft. But the straight way is the best way, and Cleveland's directness in disposing of the Sackville matter catches the sympathy of the popular heart, and challenges the hearty assent of popular judgment.

It is a pleasant expression of fatalism to call Grover Cleveland the "man of destiny"—he may be. It is very certain that he is the man for this supreme hour of the country's political destinies—the man for the control of public affairs in this crisis of the two great parties. If Machiavelli or Talleyrand did not say it, one or the other thought it—that a crime might be condoned, but a blunder is inexcusable.

Our President is not infallible, of course; but, from the beginning of his administration in March, 1885, to the present time, the critic or political foe will look in vain for a step taken hurriedly which he would fain retract, or an act committed with due appreciation of the responsibility, the record of which he would fain obliterate. The rare quality which distinguishes him can best be described in the vernacular of "level headedness," and extorted a reluctant tribute from even the cynicism of Ingalls, the jay-hawker of Kansas. Superior to dictation, while an able and consistent advocate and exponent of Democratic principles; the faithful custodian of the people's rights in his uncompromising opposition to extravagance in the disposition of the public funds; prompt to assume his place in the leadership of his party by his remarkable message of last January—he has throughout proved himself equal to even so great a trust as that of chief executive of this wonderful republic of the New World.

Weakened by no flaw in management, clouded by no error of judgment, besmirched with no sin of malfeasance or delinquency, Cleveland's administration is clean and white before the people, and their verdict of approval will be voiced at the polls next week.

TOOK HER AT HER WORD.—A queer episode in Connaught life was the case of the king at the relation of Dennis Bodkin versus Patrick French. The plaintiff and defendant were neighbors. The latter was of the "ould shlock" full of airs, and possessed of an intolerant temper. He and wife had conceived a deep dislike for Mr. Bodkin, who entertained an equal aversion to the Frenches. Bodkin had happened to offend the equire and lady. That evening they entertained a large company at dinner, when Mrs. French launched out in abuse of her enemy, concluding her wish "that somebody would cut off the fellow's ears, and that might quiet him." The subject was changed after a while, and all went on well till supper, at which time, when everybody was happy, the old butler, one Ned Regan, who, according to custom, had drunk enough, came in. Joy was in his eye, and, whispering something to his mistress which she did not comprehend, he put a large snuff box into her hand. Fancying it was some whim of her servant, she opened the box and shook out its contents, when lo! a pair of bloody ears dropped out on the table. The horror of the company was awakened, upon which old Ned exclaimed: "Sure, my lady, you wished that Dennis Bodkin's ears were cut off, so I told old Geoghagan, the gamekeeper, and he took a few handy boys with him, and brought back his ears, and there they are, and I hope you are pleased, my lady." The gamekeeper and the "boys" left the company. French and his wife were held in heavy bail at the Galway assizes, but the guests proved no such order was given, that it was a mistake on the part of the servant. They were acquitted. The "boys" and their leader never reappeared in the county until after the death of Bodkin, who lost his ears many years before his death.—Argonaut.

No CHOICE.—Traveled Dame.—Oh, I can rest as well when traveling as when at home. Do you like to sleep on the rail?

Mr. De Winks (proud father of a first baby)—No, I don't like to, but I have to.—Philadelphia Record.

TWO NEGATIVES.

"Two negatives, I've heard, sweet maid, make an affirmative; pray, is it true or is it not?"
"An answer quickly give, for you are tenebrous of a school, and certainly should know all that relates to grammar." And she answered—"It is so."
He pressed the tiny hand, and gazed upon the lovely miss.
And said, "I pray you let me take from those sweet lips a kiss; those lips on which the rose you kissed has left its crimson glow."
She blushed, she sighed, she hung her head, and answered him—"No, no."

BEAUTY OF BALTIMORE GIRLS.—The beauty of Baltimore girls is due to the purity of their stock, and to the conditions of life in the pleasant old city. They lead comfortable lives, with a plenty of recreation and excellent food. As a class they are remarkably independent, and are fond of the open air. They ride well, walk a great deal, play lawn tennis from spring until late autumn, and dance clear through the programme. As a consequence they are well developed, have good color, good forms and good muscles. There are fewer great beauties in Baltimore than there used to be, but the crop of girls who are pretty and bright shows no diminution, and the year's debutantes of the coming season will more than sustain the fame of their sex.—Baltimore Cor. Detroit Free Press.

WATERMELONS.—Georgia marketed 7,800,000 watermelons last season, from which the farmers are supposed to have netted about $200,000, while the railroads took $800,000 for freight, and something like $500,000 went to commission merchants. The farmer got less than 3 cents apiece for his melons; the man who ate had to pay 20.

A CHANGE OF BASE.—"Dimpie, have you been at the preserves?"
"No, mamma," was the faint answer.
"But they are all over your face, child!"
"Den, mamma, I dess ze preserves 'ave been at me," replied the little miss promptly.—Detroit Free Press.

DRUMMERS.—The best paid drummers traveling for Chicago houses are five men in the grocery trade, who receive salaries of from $8,000 to $10,000 a year. There are perhaps 100 traveling men in the Lake City who make $5,000 a year, but the average is not above $4,000.

AN UNPARDONABLE OFFENSE.—Hotel Proprietor.—What have you said or done to that lady that she should pass you in that angry way? Her eyes darted fire at you.
Clerk.—She expected a letter in this morning's mail, and I told her it hadn't come.—Philadelphia Record.

RUSSIAN ENTERPRISE.—The Russian government has granted an annual subsidy of 111,000 rubles to a private firm who contract to run a line of steamers between the Russian Pacific ports and Korea, Japan and China, the vessels in time of war to be at the disposal of the government.

VERY CHARITABLE.—The late Prince Schwarzenberg, whose landed estates were so enormous as to be called the Schwarzenberg empire, left a fortune of $50,000,000, from which a sum of $400 was bequeathed to the poor of Vienna.—That was his sole charitable bequest.

Utterly Surprised.

Memphis, Miss., July 12, 1888.
For a number of years I have suffered untold agony from the effects of blood poison. I had my case treated by several prominent physicians, but received but little, if any, relief. I resorted to all sorts of patent medicines spending a large amount of money, but yet getting no better. My attention was attracted by the cures said to have been effected by B. B. B. and I commenced taking it merely as an experiment, having but little faith in the results. To my utter surprise I soon commenced to improve, and deem myself to-day a well and hearty person—all owing to the excellent qualities of B. B. B. I cannot commend it too highly to those suffering from blood poison. J. O. GIBSON, Trainman M & O R R.

Local News.

—THE PATRIOT gives THREE CHEERS for Major John G. Young, of Winston, registrar for that precinct.

—The correspondence between Major John G. Young, Democratic registrar for Winston, and J. B. Eaves, of the Republican State Executive Committee, will be published in to-morrow's PATRIOT. It's "a honey."

IDENTIFIED.—J. A. Cox, Esq., of Pickens county, S. C., arrived in the city last night, identified the stolen horse brought to this city by one W. D. Bayard, and left this morning for his home.

"REBELLION OF THE DAISIES."—A rehearsal of "The Rebellion of the Daisies" will take place in the W. C. T. U. hall to-night. All who take part are requested to be present.

STATE CONVENTION.—The State Convention of the W. C. T. U. held its first session to-day in Winston. Delegates from Charlotte, Concord, Archdale, High Point and New Garden joined Mrs. Wells, of Chattanooga, Miss Aston, of Asheville, and a large number of Greensboro representatives here this morning, en route for Winston.

TURNER'S N. C. ALMANAC.—Turner's N. C. Almanac for 1889 is on our table, Jas. H. Ennis, Publisher, Raleigh. Like an old familiar face it makes its annual visit to the homes of our people. It is valuable for reference the year round, and so true has it been that it is termed the old Reliable. Every citizen ought to have one. Price 10cts.—to be had of merchants and postmasters or of the publisher.

OPPORTUNITY FOR INSPECTION.—In accordance with Sec. 2,677 of the Election Law, the registration books of Gilmer township will be open on Saturday, 2nd inst., from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., to give all voters wishing to do so an opportunity of inspecting the books, with a view to making challenges where deemed desirable. This notice is made concerning Gilmer by request, but of course the same is true of Morehead and other townships.

DIDN'T MEAN ANY HARM.—Copying our local notice of the arrival in this city of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lacy, the Jonesboro Leader says:

Wonder why the PATRIOT didn't give Mr. Lacy credit of having been pastor of the Presbyterian church here, where he was certainly as much thought of as at the other two.

We are not going to "step on your coat-tail," brother. The fact of his pastorate of the Jonesboro church simply did not occur to our mind at the time.

LECTURE.—Prof. Jones, of Columbia, S. C., will deliver his lecture, "The True Evolution," in the Chapel of Greensboro Female College, to-morrow evening. The public invited to hear this admirable lecture.

BAPTIST CONVENTION.—Our readers should keep in mind the fact that the annual convention of the Baptist church in North Carolina takes place in this city week after next, and it should be made the duty and pleasure of us all to receive the delegates in the cordial manner consonant with the well-earned reputation for hospitality which pertains to Greensboro. The sessions of the convention will be of great special and general interest, attracting a large assemblage of distinguished persons, and affording us all opportunity of enjoying an unusual intellectual feast of forensic ability and pulpit oratory.

We have been informed that, as the result of the recent canvass of the city by Mrs. J. W. Payne and other ladies, the thanks of the Baptist congregation are due to the community generally for the willingness expressed to entertain ministers and delegates; but, as the attendance will be very large, more open doors are yet needed, and it is hoped that our friends will be prompt to offer additional accommodation.

ENTERTAINMENT TO-MORROW NIGHT.—As we announced on Monday last, the Beatrice Club of "The King's Daughters" are preparing to offer to the community a very enjoyable entertainment at the residence of Capt. W. S. Ball, in South Greensboro, to-morrow evening; and the programme—which we will give more fully in to-morrow's issue—includes the substantial feast for the lover of the good things of the table, in fine oysters, coffee, cake, elegant cream, etc., supplemented by excellent vocal and instrumental music by our very best amateur talent. A nominal admittance fee will be charged of 10 cents for one person, or 15 cents for a lady and gentleman.

We confess to a feeling of deep sympathetic interest in the praiseworthy efforts of these ladies, whose warm hearts are so keenly alive to the need and suffering which here and there obtrude themselves about them. Theirs is a "labor of love," not "labor lost," we know, for it goes not uncrowned of blessing, and we trust that hearty support and liberal patronage of their entertainment will attest the appreciation in which their labors are held.

"BOSSING" HIS OWN PAPER.—The Durham Recorder has the following to say wisely and well concerning honesty and independence in journalism:

An honest editor does not base his convictions of right or wrong upon the price of a four or five dollar advertisement, or a free ride or a free ticket to an entertainment. The advertiser buys his space in the columns of a paper, which are for sale, like other goods; but the right to criticize, and the principles of the paper that is published for the public good, are never sold.

When the time ever comes in the life of a newspaper publisher that he finds it necessary to mould his opinions, modulate his tone or give expression to his ideas according to the views of any one man or set of men in his community; when he shall find himself arrived at the pass of being subsidized by patronage for which he gives a full equivalent; when he reaches that day in his life when the columns of his paper are not absolutely his own—right there and then he should take an introspective view of his condition, give himself a good shaking up, and choose another vocation: he is in the wrong field of labor.

A community in the clutches of a "clique" or "ring" is under an incubus—a curse; and if the "ring" controls a newspaper in addition, all the salt in the Atlantic Ocean could not save that community from coming to grief in the end. Such a state of affairs cripples honesty of conviction, stifles freedom of thought, hampers independence of action, and is an insuperable hindrance to general prosperity. "Bossism" has done more than any other one influence in this country to paralyze individual enterprises, consign towns and cities to decay and "dry rot," and steep political parties in corruption. "Boss" Tweed, of New York City, was the great prototype of this species of tyranny, and he has hundreds of pigmy but mischievous imitators.

Be it understood that we do not mean that the editor should perch himself upon his tripod like a petty prince upon a tinsel throne, or that he should strut about his town—"monarch of all he surveys"—independent of all advice and friendly suggestions. He is no more superior to timely counsel than any other man, and he cannot do better than seek the assistance of known friends in different departments of the business of the place in preparing articles affecting the common interests—but this must be very far from subserviency or obsequiousness on his part.

ADMIRABLE SENTIMENTS.—It has been our earnest desire that we might have the benefit of the ability and eloquence of Col. Jno. N. Staples in this campaign, and we know that, in his deep and absorbing anxiety for the success of Democracy, he made every effort to so arrange business matters as to allow of his participation in the canvass—especially in view of the recent appeal from Democratic headquarters at Raleigh.

From a private letter received by us to-day from Col. Staples we venture to extract the following, which does honor to his patriotic feelings, and will be received with pleasure by his fellow citizens:

"My inability to participate in the campaign personally does not diminish the interest which I feel in the success of the Democratic ticket, from President Cleveland down.

I do not believe that the grand old county of Guilford will go Republican. I cannot believe that the patriotism and intelligence of the county are less than they were in 1884. It is very true that many of our worthy and highly deserving citizens have been disappointed in their political aspirations, and in many instances have good cause of complaint against those who dispense the public patronage, but that is no reason why they should forsake a principle. A Democrat who is a Democrat for office only is unworthy of the name of Democrat. Such an one, when he fails to attain the purposes of his political religion, usually becomes an apostate and a renegade.

My old and faithful friend Frank Caldwell ought to carry Guilford county in this election by five hundred majority. Honest, intelligent, faithful, patriotic, loyal and true, he should receive the suffrages of all those who admire such qualities in a representative. His services to the State have been of such a conspicuous character that it were needless to recapitulate them, but the settlement of the public debt alone, the credit for which belongs more to him than to any one else, should entitle him to the gratitude and support of every tax-payer in the county.

They say he is old, but who that is younger is better equipped for important legislation, and is more devoted to the interests of the people? I would be willing to walk ten miles for the privilege of voting for a man who has the record Frank Caldwell has, for devotion to principle and the best interests of the people.

I expect to be home Friday or Saturday, and if opportunity presents itself will speak somewhere in the county before the election.
