Terrible Accident.

Reading, Pa., Nov. 2.—A terrible accident, resulting in the killing of five men and injury to many others, took place this forenoon on the farm of Jonas Spayd, in Bern township, this county, where a steam thrasher was in operation. The boiler exploded with fearful force, carrying destruction on every hand. The killed are: William Rever, a boy aged 16; Joseph Machmer, aged 14, the only support of a widowed sister; Isaac Marbor, aged 16; Joseph Spayd, aged about 32; and Irvin Duntelberger, aged 18. These men were engaged in operating the threshing machine when the boiler burst, standing but a few feet distant, and when the smoke had cleared away a terrible scene was presented. The bodies of all five were lying some distance away, terribly mutilated, having been hurled from thirty to fifty feet. The body of Machmer was driven clear through the weather-boarding of the barn, which was completely wrecked. The force of the explosion was felt for many miles around. Several others were injured, some of whom cannot recover.

Bad Blood at Raleigh.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 3.—Eaves in this circular, which your correspondent read, says he has employed a number of Pinkerton detectives to go into eight or ten counties, with instructions to keep an eye on the Democratic registrars and poll holders. Chairman Whitaker has a fine corps of detectives under his instructions who are closely shadowing Eaves's detectives, and for weeks he has been receiving daily reports of their talk and movements. Even the cipher dispatches of these rascals are known to Chairman Whitaker, and they and their employers are already in danger of the penitentiary. It is with the greatest difficulty that Chairman Whitaker has been able to prevent these detectives from being ridden on rails and given coats of tar and feathers. Some of these Radical detectives have gone so far as to advise the negroes to set fire to the houses of white Democrats. There is much excitement here to-day over this matter. Two more of these emissaries arrived here this morning. They were constantly watched and no action of theirs was unobserved. One was spotted at Henderson last night and followed here. One of these men left this afternoon for New York, a detective accompanying him to see that he got out of the State. Thus far these agents of Morton have been heard from at six places in the State.

JUDGE DICK'S CONDUCT.

A Letter from the Judge—Is He in Contempt of His Own Conduct?

[From to-day's Charlotte Chronicle.]

Judge Dick, it is understood, is not pleased with the circular that the Democratic committee issued in regard to the appointment of supervisors. As far as the Chronicle knows, and as far as it is concerned, there was no attempt to criticize the appointment of Federal supervisors. When Gulliver put out the Lilliputian King's castle, he was knighted for his gallant services, but he was sentenced to punishment for the manner in which he extinguished the candle size blaze.

When the list of supervisors became known here, Mr. Robertson, the chairman of the Democratic County Committee, wrote Judge Dick this letter:

Hon. R. P. Dick, Judge U. S. Court, Greensboro, N. C.

Dear Sir:—I learned today that Federal supervisors of election had been appointed for the several voting precincts of this county. In the list are included presumable persons appointed to represent the Democratic party.

I desire to call your attention to the fact that neither this Committee nor any Democratic authority was given an opportunity to suggest names. On the contrary the Chairman of the Republican Campaign Committee informed me that the Republicans would not ask for the appointment of supervisors.

I therefore must respectfully protest against these appointments and ask that they be revoked. We shall throw no obstacle in the way of "a free ballot and a fair count," nor shall we interpose the slightest objection to a proper supervision of the election, but we must insist upon all our rights under the law.

Very Respectfully Yours,

T. R. ROBERTSON,

Ch'm Dem. Ex. Com. Meck'g Co.

To this letter Judge Dick replied as follows:

T. R. Robertson, Esq., Ch'm Dem. Ex. Com. Mecklenburg County, Charlotte, N. C.

Dear Sir:—I have just received and duly considered your letter of the 31st inst., in relation to the appointment of supervisors of elections for Mecklenburg county.

In my opinion the appointments were made in strict conformity to law, and upon recommendations that were honest and reliable. The papers were handed to the general supervisor by a gentleman in whose integrity and honor I have entire confidence.

I greatly prefer to have recommendations made by the chairman of the executive committees of the respective parties, but the law makes no such requirements. If such a requirement were made by law it might sometimes defeat the purposes of the law.

If any of the supervisors appointed for Mecklenburg—as Democrats—are not Democrats, or are in any other way disqualified, I will revoke their commissions and appoint other men, if just cause is shown on or before Saturday next.

I have performed an official duty, imposed upon me by law—in the manner required by law, and I have no power to revoke said appointments, except for just cause shown. The applicants had a clear legal right to have supervisors appointed, and they complied in their application with the legal requirements.

I have ordered your letter to be filed in court so that you may have all the benefits arising from your respectful protest.

With high regards,

Yours sincerely,

ROBT. P. DICK, U. S. Judge.

The law requires Judge Dick, however, to act on the petition of "ten citizens of good repute." Does Judge Dick regard a man a "citizen of good repute" who, clothed with the majesty of the law as a magistrate, stands indicted by the grand jury of his county for malfeasance in office, with in not making returns of fines received by him? It is such a matter of record in the case of Esquire McIninch, beneficiary (forsooth and in truth) of the county government, that even Judge Dick might be expected to have known it.

Is James J. Sims, who issued the circular referred to elsewhere, disclaiming having anything to do with even suggesting the appointment of supervisors, whilst it was on his authority that the court had acted, "a citizen of good repute?" Is the Old Man of the Sea, Creighton, a "citizen of good repute" such as would warrant the unbiased action of any court?

However honest men may differ as to nine of the ten names, the fact of the indictment of Esquire McIninch, beneficiary in fact of county government, for malfeasance in office, ought to be sufficient to deter any unbiased Judge from considering him as a "citizen of good repute," notwithstanding that in the eyes of the law the wily Magistrate is innocent until convicted. The list of "ten citizens of good repute" was not complete. Judge Dick, then, acted rather in defiance than in obedience to the law. He is in contempt of his own court, and as he is generally regarded as an up right Judge, the spectacle may be presented of Judge Dick's sentencing himself to jail for contempt of himself, a veritable Pooh bah and Lord High Executioner combined.

Judge Dick has the highest respect of the Chronicle. That he was imposed upon by the list of petitioners of "ten citizens of good repute" is, doubtless, as much regretted by himself as by the citizens of Mecklenburg who demur from being classed with the judge's "ten citizens of good repute."

The Judge's retreat behind the fact that the law does not require that he shall consult any one in selecting the representatives of the parties, is equally applicable in his considering the petition of "ten citizens of good repute," and if it holds good at all, must plead justification for him in considering a magistrate indicted for malfeasance in office a "citizen of good repute."

OBEYING REPUBLICAN CHAIRMAN EAVES.—At Hoffman, in Richmond county, day before yesterday, a party of five or six Republicans went into the office of W. J. Whitaker, registrar of election, and asked to be allowed to inspect his registration books.

He made no objection. They looked at the books, and then in a very threatening tone told him they were not kept right in accordance with law and that they would fix them. Whitaker was not intimidated by their manner, and told them he knew the law and that the books were properly kept. He told them to mind their own business. The men thereupon assaulted Whitaker and used some very insulting language. As they began the assault Whitaker drew a revolver and began firing. He shot one man through the thigh. The others ran and Whitaker kept up the fire. He put two bullets through the hat of another man.

WORTHY OF IMITATION.—The News and Observer of this morning has the following paragraph, taking occasion to urge the people of Raleigh to imitate the example of those of Charlotte:

The Democratic merchants of Charlotte, we understand, have agreed to close their places of business Tuesday next and devote their whole energies on that important day to the work of securing the success of Democracy, of good and honest and economical government, of the cause of the white man in this State.

We have seen this action taken years ago by a community in this State, and it was wonderful in its results. There is nothing so catching as zeal and enthusiasm, and the display of deep feeling and earnestness in any cause goes far toward crowning it with success. Let the Democratic business men of Greensboro close their stores and offices, and give one day to their country.

DRY GOODS "NEWS"

BY

Woodward & Lothrop.

The fall trade may be said to be fairly underway. The store is brimful of the season's best productions, both foreign and domestic. Our preparations for the coming season's business have been on a greater scale than ever before, and we are in a position to cater to your wants to better advantage than was ever otherwise possible.

Great Silk Bargains.

A fortunate purchase of Guinet's best black imported silks enables us to offer our customers the greatest values in these world renowned fabrics ever placed on sale. The forced stagnation of the trade in the far South is being felt in that commercial heart-center, New York; and importers are compelled to find a sale for the goods that would otherwise have gone into that section.

We are always on the alert, and have just secured, among other goods, five lots of Guinet's black silks, which we propose to unload at a small advance, thus retailing this most reliable brand at the lowest prices it has been known to reach.

Lot 1, Qual. E, only 87½c. pr yd.
Lot 2, Qual. D, only 94c. pr yd.
Lot 3, Qual. C, only $1 per yd.
Lot 4, Qual. B, only $1.12½c. yd.
Lot 5, Qual. A, only $1.20 yd.

We refrain from quoting the usual selling price of these five qualities, confident that your discerning judgment will instantly recognize their intrinsic value.

(First floor; annex.)

"Opening" of Ready-made Garments.

The entire third floor has on its best dress this week. Every line is full of the best of the season's styles and qualities. Ladies' suits, jackets, wraps, both long and short; Newmarkets, Raglans, Modjeskas, &c. Children's and Misses' suits, jackets, cloaks, newmarkets, &c. Ladies' flannel wraps and waappers, tea-gowns, &c., of other materials. The entire floor is in "dress parade," and we beg you will give it an inspection. As we purchased only one, two, and a few of some of the extreme styles, we suggest to those of our customers who wish something "exclusive" to call early in the week. Bargains will be offered, and especially in the lower grades.

(Third floor.)

New Curtain Materials.

This will be good news to the ladies who have been waiting. We beg your indulgence for the unavoidable delay, and believe those who have not yet bought will be glad they waited. We can only tell of a few lots to-day, as more are yet coming.

3,000 yards of Imitation Pongee Curtain Drapery, in a handsome variety of attractive colorings and effects. Only 15c. per yard.

2,500 yards 40-inch Printed, Lace Striped Scrims, in light, medium and dark effects. Only 12½c. yd.

1,500 yards of Curtain Madras Cloths, in Cream and Lemon, warm colorings, and make a very attractive window drapery. Only 25c. per yard.

(Fourth floor.)

New Raw Silks.

Excellent styles and colorings in 50 inch Raw Silks at 42½c. pr yd. Other prices 65, 75c., $1, $1.10, $1.25, $1.35, to $2. Undoubtedly the best line yet.

(Fourth floor.)

Trimming Braids.

New line of "Novelties" in Dress Trimming Braids to match the new shading in Silks and Woolen Dress Goods. Jet Trimmings in profusion. Galloons, Fringes, Passementeries, Pendants, &c., in great variety. Beautiful Persian Trimming Braids in oriental iridescent effects.

Superior Line of Cream, Gold, and Silver Braiddings for trimming evening costumes.

Special attention is called to the Silk and Satin Corded Braids, in all the new shades, at 42c. pr yd. Silk and Steel Braids, crocheted edge with steel center; colors, black with silver, blue with drab, brown with gold, green with bronze, terra cotta with gold; 2 inches wide, very handsome, and only 65c. per yard.

(First floor.)

Wash Goods.

The Wash Goods department has been moved to the fourth floor, where it has more space, more goods, and a chance to do more business. New Colorings in Best Dark Prints, warranted to wash perfectly. Only 6½c. per yard. Percales, 12½c. Indigo blue prints, 8c. (Fourth floor.)

Ribbons.

No need to advertise Ribbons except to give you a hint now and then as to the fashion. You can count on finding the latest here as soon as it is out. Satin and Gross grain, with plain edge; Gross Grain with Satin edge; Moire with Satin, and crown edges, &c., in such new shades as Pepita, Marabla, Reseda, Cornelian, Rose, Gobelins, Don Quixote, Chasseur, Cresson, Boveal, Suez, Amandian, Ramier, Porcelain, Caspian, Tabac, Turquoise, Montard, Golden Brown, and the ordinary shades of Blues, Cardinals, Garnets, Ecru, Beige, White, Cream and Black.

Moire Silk Ribbons, with crown edge, for Decorative Art Work; widths 1 to 2½ inches; price 10 to 22c. per yard.

Full line of Art Shades in 5 inch Satin and Gros Grain Ribbons.

Fancy Ribbon in Gros Grain Satin Stripe and wide Satin Border on one side; 3½ inches wide; Colors: Cream, Black, Cardinal, Gold, Brown, Ramier, Suez, Amandian, Navy and Mahogany.

All the newest shades and fancies in Satin and Velvet Ribbons.

Superb line of "Novelties" in the most fashionable shadings and edges for millinery trimmings.

(First floor, front of main entrance.)

Black Goods.

Every preparation has been made for doing a large Fall business in Black Dress Goods. Black is being worn considerably by Ladies in morning. We have the goods—more than ever before, and what's better yet, they are all reliable fabrics, products of the best Foreign and Domestic manufacturers. As good illustrative bargains we quote the following three:

39 inch (called 40) Black All-wool Foulle Serge. Perfect Black and a very desirable fabric, only 50c. per yard.

40-inch Black All-wool Bison Twilled Serge, heavy-weight and a very dressy weave, only 50c. yd.

1 Case 39 inch (called 40) Black All-wool Croise cloth or India Twill a new weave and destined to be much worn this season, only 55c. per yard.

Nearly all all of B. Priestly & Co.'s Elegant Black fabrics are here. We have selected the most desirable weaves, the most appropriate weights for this climate.

Courtland's Best Black English Crapes at a wide range of prices.

(First floor, annex.)

Flannels.

Largest stock, greatest variety, and best values we have ever shown, be it in white, colors, or fancy. We could fill a column of the Star and then not tell half. We quote these few special lots, and leave the colorings to your imagination.

French Wrapper Flannels at 37½, 42, 55, and 75c.

Cashmere Flannels at 50c.

French Printed Flannels at 65c.

German Figured Flannels at 75c.

Best Jersey Flannels at 62½c.

Shrunken Homespun Flannels at 50c.

Woven Bordered Skirting Flannels at 65c.

Best Elderdown Flannels at 75c.

Homespun Flannel Skirt Patterns at $1, $1.35, $1.50, $1.75, and $2 each.

(Second floor.)

For Manufacturing Comforts.

Many ladies make their own bed comforts. We call their attention to our large supply of Cotton Bats and Coverings, such as Prints, Cheese-cloths, Batiste (Cheese-cloths, Sateens, Chintzes, &c.

Pound Cotton Bats, 12½, 15, 18, and 20c. each.

Cheese cloths, 5 and 10c. pr yd.

Prints, 6½, 8, and 10c. pr yd.

Sateens, 12½c. pr yd.

Batiste Cheese cloths, 12½c. yd.

(Second and fourth floors.)

Boys' Clothing.

Never before were we better prepared to dress your boys from 2½ to 14 years. The bulk of the stock was late arriving—now all in, even to the heavy dead of winter Overcoats. Close buying at the very source of the supply enables us to give unrivalled values.

Local News.

—Mountain butter is quoted at 12 and 15 cents on the Danbury market.

—By all means see that your name is properly registered or you might lose your vote.

—It is no harm to inquire if you have registered, and if you have not, remember you can't vote unless you register before Monday, 5 o'clock.

MORTGAGE BONDS.—John W. Graham, trustee of the sinking fund of the North Carolina Railroad, gives notice that the mortgage bonds of that company which mature November 1st next will be paid promptly at Burlington, N. C.

LECTURE.—A very appreciative audience listened to the impressive lecture of Prof. Jones in the Female College last evening—a discourse evincing great research and extensive information, full of humor, and teaching many valuable and useful lessons.

LAST EVENING'S ENTERTAINMENT.—The entertainment given last evening at the residence of Capt. Ball, by the Beatrice Club, was very much enjoyed by the friends and patrons present. Delightful refreshments were served and the music was exceptionally fine. In behalf of the ladies we are desired to return thanks for the generous encouragement tendered their first effort, which netted the sum of $26.00.

CANTATA.—"The Rebellion of the Daisies," one of the most elaborate and beautiful cantatas ever put upon the stage, will be performed in Benbow Opera House on Friday evening, 9th inst., under the auspices of the West End Club, "King's Daughters," assisted by their friends. The orchestral music will be furnished by the Messrs. Woodroffes and Alderman.

The price of admittance will be very low—only 25 cts., and, for children under 10 years of age, 15 cents—reserved seats 40 cents.

A BOLD ROBBERY.—A bold robbery was committed in Mt. Airy night before last, about 1 o'clock, by Walter Shelton and Tom McBride, who forced an entrance into Mr. J. R. Paddison's store. The police discovered something wrong as he was passing the store, homeward bound, and quietly called to his assistance a few men who at once surrounded the building and succeeded in capturing the former with several articles on his person, while the latter succeeded in making good his escape.

(For other local see 1st page.)

RATHER HIGH PRICED.—A well-known drummer who was registered at the Benbow House the other night—a clever, jolly Teuton—found his pocket full of small currency, inconvenient to lug about, and wished to get it converted into a bill of larger denomination. Stepping into Porter's drug-store, he asked the clerk, Mr. Higgins: "Haf you a five-dollar pill?" The young man's eyes flushed out, his hair riz, his face flushed, and he stammered out: "Grr-great Scott, no! The highest priced pill we have is $2 a box!" Then, as a happy thought struck him, he added: "But I can turn a battery on you, and give you half a dozen shocks at $1 a shock."

REALLY FUNNY.—Every species of attack has been made by the Radicals on Hon. D. F. Caldwell during the county canvass, and some of the counts in the indictment can hardly fail to provoke a smile—inasmuch as they are more calculated to win him strong friends and strenuous advocates than anything which could be brought forward.

One of the grave charges brought against our Senatorial nominee is that he has been a great power in accomplishing the construction of railroads. Is there any man, who has taken time and trouble to rightly estimate the value of railways to material progress, who is disposed to affix blame upon him for this part of his record. It is made a heinous offense against him that he owns stock in a bank; and even the blessings of God's good providence and the fruits of his own energy and thrift are brought against him—in that he has accumulated property, and has been known to lend money to those in need! He was chiefly instrumental in the settlement of the State debt; and, as the Radical party in North Carolina have all along been given to piling up rather than settling debt, we suppose that is also to be reckoned among Mr. Caldwell's enormities.

SUNDAY SERVICES.—Preaching at West Market street church at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Mann. Sunday School at 9:30 a. m., Prof. W. F. Alderman, Supt. Young men's prayer meeting at 4:30 p. m. Seats free. Public cordially invited.

Communion at the close of morning sermon.

Preaching at Centenary Methodist church to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 7:00 p. m., by the pastor, Rev. G. F. Smith. Sabbath school at 3 p. m., J. R. Mendenhall, Supt.

Preaching at the Baptist church to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by Rev. W. R. Gwaltney, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.

There will be preaching at the Episcopal Church to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 4 p. m., by the Rector, A. H. Stubbs.

At Westminster Presbyterian Church at 11 a. m. there will be a congregational meeting to consider a subject of great importance, in which every member of the congregation is personally interested. All the members of the church are urged to be present. Preaching at 4 p. m. by Rev. R. E. Caldwell. Sunday school at 2:30 p. m.

At First Presbyterian Church it is pastor's day at Sunday school—shorter catechism questions, 76 and 77; youth's catechism, 38 and 39; at 11 a. m., text of sermon, Matt. 7: 24-27. Collection for education for the ministry. At 7:15 p. m., Monthly Concert—"Thy Kingdom Come." Collection for Foreign Missions. Some account will be given of the recent meetings of Presbytery and Synod. All are earnestly invited to attend.

SUPERIOR COURTS.—Rockingham Superior Court convenes next Monday, and Stokes on the Monday following.

"THE WORLD AFTER STRANGE GODS."—A few days ago, in an interesting letter from Raleigh to the Wilmington Messenger, appeared the following paragraph:

A leading clergyman here took occasion to refer in very strong yet proper terms to unseemly language in the pulpit or at religious services. It was well understood that this was directed at the notorious Sam Jones. The world runs after strange gods these days, as it used to in days long past. It is time to call a halt, and 'the force and propriety of the clergyman's language were felt by all who heard him.

There was far too much new-born religious fervor in the good town of Durham to permit this to pass unchallenged, and the Recorder copies it with the following comment:

The Recorder would advise this clergyman and his correspondent to go and hear Sam Jones and be converted. Talk about calling a halt. Why there is no calling a halt on Sam Jones—for God is at his back, saying, go it Sam, I am with you always. It's the devil that cries halt.

It is not well to let passion or overwrought feeling "take the bit in the mouth," and runaway with us, in the discussion of any question—least of all the subject of religion. Doubtless the zeal of Rev. Sam Jones is the zeal of true piety, and it would be manifest injustice to withhold from him the meed of praise which is his due for any good that he may have done. But it is clearly the right and the duty of any clergyman to deprecate unseemly language in the pulpit; and it is a little remarkable—unless it is a case of a "cap that fits"—that a rebuke of this character, administered in the course of a sermon without mentioning names, should be appropriated for Sam Jones by his friends.

There are a great many people in the world who mistake coarseness and rudeness for independence, and very often that bluff manner which "calls a spade a spade" is nothing better than vulgarity; we do not yet believe that slang will ever prove a powerful adjunct to pulpit work, and we hope to see our ministers continue to preach God's word with the dignity of thought and expression which befits so lofty and solemn a theme.
