her.

COMMISSIONERS IN SESSION.

Farmers' Union Asks for Appointment of Agricultural Officer.

The monthly meeting of the board of county commissioners was held at the court house Monday and yesterday, all the members being present.
The greater part of the time of the first day was consumed in auditing accounts and approving bills. Jurors were drawn for two terms of court and several road matters were considered.

The board adopted a resolution prohibiting the sale of near beer in the county outside of incorporated cities and towns.

A communication was received from Governor Kitchin announcing the fact that a special term of Guilford civil court had been ordered, the term to convene March 7 and continue for two weeks. Judge G. W. Ward is to preside. Jurors were drawn for this term, also for the February criminal term.

The clerk of the board was instructed to notify Miss Minnie Williams, the official court stenographer of the county, that the board will not advance her per diem as court stenographer any longer and that she will have to rely upon collecting the same by the taxation of costs in cases tried in court. This means that the county no longer assumes responsibility for the payment of the court stenographer's per diem.

The board granted the petition heretofore filed asking for a public road in Fentress township, beginning at the railway crossing south of Pleasant Garden church and running southwest across the lands of W. D.
Hardin and others to J. M. Fentress; thence west with the line between J.
M. and T. C. Fentress to the corner of F. R. Fentress; thence southwest to W. M. Fentress and to the corner of J. G. Hodgins' land; thence west on the line between W. M. Fentress and J. G. Hodgins to the corner of William Hodgins' and John Murrow's land to the public road below Milton Davis' pond. The new road was ordered opened according to law.

The petition previously filed asking for the opening of a public road in Sumner township, beginning at a point on the line between J. A. Mc-Candless and D. L. Hodgins, on the new road from Hodgins' store to the Coltrane mill road, and running south to the Randolph county line, was granted and the road ordered opened according to law.

A petition was received asking for the opening of a public road in Gilmer township, beginning at the Holt's chapel road, where Tom Kirkman, Dr. Jones and D. W. Dawson corner, and running on the Macadam road near C. E. Landreth's. The petition was ordered advertised and will come up for action at the next regular meeting of the board.

A majority of the property owners on Haw river, in Bruce and Oak Ridge townships, filed a petition asking that a drainage district be established under an act of the legislature of 1905, the petition to begin at the upper line of W. H. Hoskins and extend up the stream, including the bottom lands on both sides, to the public road on the upper or west line of the farm of Thomas J. Benbow.
The matter will come up for action
at the March meeting of the board.

Superior Court Jurors.

The following jurors were drawn for the criminal term of Guilford Superior court to convene February 28:
John R. Cook, Henry Hedgecock, J.
L. Frazier, J. A. Bolejack, M. L. Hendrix, J. M. Hester, John A. Suits, W.
G. Wiley, W. C. Brady, B. F. Copeland, John Paschall, L. Wadford,

FARMERS' UNION MEETING.

County Commissioners Asked to Employ Agricultural Official.

The Guilford county branch of the Farmers' National Co-operative and Educational Union held a largely attended and enthusiastic meeting in the court house in Greensboro Saturday. All the local unions were represented, among those present being a number of good and influential farmers who have recently identified themselves with the organization.
While the meeting was an executive session, it is understood that the questions presented and discussed looked solely to the improvement of conditions among the rural population of the county.

Among other things, the union considered the fertilizer question and heard interesting remarks on the best methods of mixing fertilizer ingredients.

Perhaps the most notable action of the meeting was the adoption of a resolution requesting the county commissioners to employ a competent person to fill the office of county commissioner of agriculture in accordance with an act of the last session of the legislature. The act in question, which was introduced and passed at the instance of members of the board of commissioners and other influential citizens of the county, reads
as follows:

"Section 1. That the board of commissioners of Guilford county are hereby empowered, if in their judgment it shall be for the best interest of said county, to employ some person educated and skilled in agriculture and sanitation, who shall be a bacteriologist, to assist in the building up of the agricultural interests of the county and the protection of the health of its inhabitants.

"Sec. 2. That said board shall fix his compensation and the time for which he shall be employed."

Ex-Sheriff J. A. Hoskins presented the resolution to the county commissioners Monday, but no definite action was taken. The sentiment of the commissioners, who expressed themselves seemed to be that there is no necessity of creating this new office, with the additional expense that would be incurred, at the present time, especially in view of the fact that the government is bearing a portion of the expense of a county demonstrator (Mr. W. C. Michael), who is doing much of the work that would be expected of a commissioner of agriculture.

On the other hand, it appears that there are many farmers, both in and out of the Farmers' Union, who desire to see the office of county agricultural commissioner created and a competent man placed in the position. They figure that such a man would be worth more than his salary and that the farmers of the county would profit by his services.

THE DAIRY FARMERS.

They Are Among the Most Prosperous People on Earth.

Here is what the editor of the Dairy Farmer of Iowa has to say about the dairy farmer:

"Dairy farmers are the richest and most prosperous people on earth.

"They have the best farms,
the finest homes, raise the best stock—are the real leaders of the agricultural world.

"They market cream every day in the year and get checks every Saturday, besides raising everything else that other farmers raise. Thus, they always have money.

"They are the largest buyers of automobiles of any class of farmers, for the simple reason that they market cream every day. The automobile is just what they need, and they have money with which to buy."

Are you a dairy farmer? That is,
do you sell milk or cream every day?

Home and Farm has been preaching practical dairying for many years, but cotton and corn have kept the dairy in the background.

It must come. With the increase in population and with the increased purchasing power of the people, greater demands than ever will be made on the dairy.

Guilford Takes a Good Citizen From Randolph.

Mr. George G. Hendrix, who recently purchased the Greter farm at Friendship, has moved his family to that place from his former home in Asheboro. The Greter farm is one of the best in the county, and Mr.
Hendrix and his interesting family will receive a cordial welcome to the community. Mr. Hendrix is a former sheriff of Randolph county, and for many years he has been one of the most prominent men in his section.
He is a good citizen anywhere, and the Patriot is glad he has cast his lot in Guilford.

Farms Wanted.

DEATH OF C. H. HANCOCK.

Aged and Well Known Citizen Called to His Final Reward.

Mr. Calvin H. Hancock, who had been desperately ill of Bright's disease for over a week, died at his home on Guilford avenue at an early hour Monday morning. The end was not unexpected. The funeral was held from the home this afternoon,
the service being conducted by Rev.
E. K. McLarty, assisted by Rev. Melton Clark. Interment was made in Greene Hill cemetery, with Masonic and Confederate veteran honors. A number of out-of-town friends attended the funeral.

Mr. Hancock was 68 years old and a native of Randolph county. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Hancock and early in life was married to Miss Cynthia Lassiter, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Micajah Lassiter.

About 23 years ago Mr. Hancock moved his family to Guilford county and settled on a farm a few miles west of the city. He was a successful farmer and stock raiser and followed his business closely until three years ago, when he moved to this city. He was a good and useful citizen and was held in high esteem by his friends and neighbors. He was a soldier of the Confederate army, serving throughout the four years of the civil war. For many years he had been a communicant of the M.
E. Church, South, holding his membership at Muir's chapel. He was a member in good standing of Masonic Lodge, No. 404, at Farmer, Randolph county.

Mr. Hancock is survived by his widow, three sons and two daughters. The children, all of whom were with their father when the end came, are: Messrs. John R. Hancock, of Dallas, Tex.; Austin F. Hancock, of New York; E. P. Hancock, who resides north of this city; Mrs.
N. L. Hanner, of San Jose, Cal., and Mrs. Charles E. Pugh, of this city.

Negro Woman Murders Her Rival.

Following a quarrel in the eastern section of the city Saturday afternoon over a man with whom both were infatuated, Emma Walker and Jessie Crisp, both colored, engaged in a fight, and later the Walker woman procured a revolver and shot her antagonist to death. After committing the murder, the Walker woman made her escape for a while, concealing herself in the house of a friend, where she was located in about an hour and arrested by Police Officer Causey. She was given a preliminary hearing Monday morning before Judge Eure, who committed her to jail without bond.

Census Examinations Held.

Mr. Joseph H. Armfield, chief clerk in the Greensboro postoffice, conducted a civil service examination Saturday of applicants who desire positions in this county as census enumerators, examining 85 white and 12 colored people. On the same day an examination was held in High Point, there being about 15 applicants at that place. Over 80 enumerators will be appointed in this county, and word comes from Mr. D. H. Blair, the census director for this district, that all appointments will be made strictly on the merit plan.

Back After 44 Years.

Mr. Dempsey Brown, who left Guilford county for Missouri soon after the civil war, is back on a visit to his brother-in-law, Dr. J. G. Ector, of Guilford College, and other relatives and friends in this section.
Mr. Brown settled in Pettis county, Mo., and is one of the most prominent farmers in his section of the state. His friends of former days are glad to see him back in Guilford on a visit and are pleased to know that he has prospered in his adopted home.

A Good Showing.

The Home Savings Bank, of this city, made a most excellent showing in response to the call for a statement on January 31. Their deposits show a little over 100 per cent. gain in eleven months and twenty-five days. This substantial increase demonstrates that ABSOLUTE SAFETY BRINGS RESULTS. This bank is an exclusive savings bank, does the business of a savings bank only, and nothing can be safer. We congratulate this institution on its showing.

Stokesdale Commercial Bank.

The Stokesdale Commercial Bank
publishes in this issue their statement as called for January 31, to which we invite the attention of our readers. This is a most excellent showing for a young institution, and demonstrates very clearly that the Stokesdale community has money and has kept it in circulation, as this bank has handled over $210,000 since opening a little over a year ago.

The Cornelian literary society of the State Normal and Industrial College, presented "The Egyptian Princess," a delightful play, to a large audience Friday night. It was one of the most enjoyable entertainments ever given at this institution.

Mr. William Crawley and Miss Georgia Belle Mann were married last Wednesday night at the home of the bride's mother, on Highland avenue, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. W. Long, pastor of Spring Garden Street Methodist church.

Mr. F. B. Reid, who has been a traveling representative of the Greensboro Boiler and Machine Company for some time, has resigned that position and moved his family to Roanoke, Va., where he has formed a connection with a brother-in-law in the cash register business.

Mr. David B. Smith, of Charlotte, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Y. Smith, of this city, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for solicitor of the judicial district composed of Mecklenburg, Cabarrus, Gaston, Lincoln and Cleveland counties. Mr. Smith is one of the brightest young members of the Charlotte bar and for some time has been recorder of the city of Charlotte.

Several weeks ago it was stated that a Stanly county man had brought suit against a Guilford horse trader for having sold him a horse with "inflated shoulders." That is to say, the horse's shoulders had been puffed out by some sort of process and were good to look upon, but when the animal was placed in harness the shoulders shrunk. Some of the newspapers in the state had some fun out of the incident, but the Stanly Enterprise says a witness has volunteered to swear that he saw the inflating done.

The Best Hour of Life

Is when you do some great deed or discover some wonderful fact. This hour came to J. R. Pitt, of Rocky Mount, N. C., when he was suffering intensely, as he says, "from the worst cold I ever had. I then proved to my great satisfaction, what a wonderful Cold and Cough cure Dr. King's New Discovery is. For, after taking one bottle, I was entirely cured. You can't say anything too good of a medicine like that." Its the surest and best remedy for diseased lungs, Hemorrhages, LaGrippe, Asthma, Hay Fever—any Throat or Lung Trouble. 50c, $1. MR. J. W. FORBIS INTERVIEWED.

Tells Why He is a Candidate for Clerk of the Superior Court.

"Mr. Forbis, I hear your name mentioned as a candidate for clerk of the Superior court of Guilford county. Is it a true bill? Are you really a candidate?"

"I plead guilty," replied Mr. Forbis. "I certainly am a candidate and believe I am going to be nominated by the good people of this my native county."

"Upon what do you base your hopes of being nominated as the candidate?"

"Well, I have been encouraged to run by the assurance of the support of a large number of the leading Democrats throughout the county and the members of the bar. This being a judicial office, I take it the opinion of the lawyers will have some influence upon public sentiment."

"What else encourages you to make the race?"

"With great humility, I feel that my life's training has specially qualified me for the position; and all the public cares for, except those who either want the office themselves or want it for some special friend, is to know that the one who gets it is just an ordinary average good man, qualified to fill the office to the satisfaction of all our people; that he will diligently inquire and true presentment make of all such matters and things as may come before him, and this is what I claim to be."

"And I believe I have as many good, true and loyal friends in the county as any man who may become a candidate; and I am sure I want it as badly as any one who may offer, and I believe the people will be as much inclined to give it to me as to any one else."

"Why do you believe this, and where is your strength, in the town or in the country?"

"I have lived for many years in town and have been honored by the people of my native county town with some places of trust and confidence and have never been accused of unfaithfulness. I was born and reared in the country, in eastern Guilford, amid the storms of the civil war and the hardships of reconstruction days, and have not been before the people of the county for election to office since 1883, 27 years ago, when the people of the county elected me to the legislature."

"Having always been a man of sorrow and acquainted with grief, I can sympathize with all classes of our people; and if there is a place and people on this earth that I love and feel an interest in, it is Guilford county and her people. My ancestors for five generations, since the revolutionary war, are buried in Guilford county, and truly she is my fatherland, my guardian and my mother."

So I do not think it immodest to say that I expect strong support from both town and country."

"Have you considered the question as to whether you are an available candidate at this time or not?"

"Yes. Having been for a number of years disconnected with all the feuds and political disagreements in town and country, I cannot believe there is any prejudice against me, or that my people, among whom I have lived and whose honor and welfare I have ever made one of the first and highest objects of my life, will be unwilling to give me this office as a fresh manifestation of their continued confidence and esteem."

"I have reached, if not passed, the meridian of life and have always stood true and loyal to the people of Guilford county, in sunshine and in storm, in adversity and in prosperity, and have been faithful to the Democratic party in triumph and defeat, sincerely believing that the continued prosperity and happiness of our people depends upon the success of Democratic principles. It cannot be right for a Christian to speak against his conscience; I stand here and can say no more. God help me."

"Have you any other grounds for your hope of success?"

"No, none that is proper to state here and now. I cannot buy the office. I could not if I would and I would not if I could. So appeal to the good Democrats of the county for their support upon the grounds stated above and any others that may be suggested by what I have said or they may think of that exist in my favor."

A Safeguard to Children.

"Our two children of six and eight years have been since infancy subject to colds and croup. About three years ago I started to use Foley's Honey and Tar, and it has never failed to prevent and cure these troubles. It is the only medicine I can get the children to take without a row." The above from W. C. Ornstein, Green Bay, Wis., duplicates the experience of thousands of other users of Foley's Honey and Tar.

THE LATE J. M. CUMMINGS.

Was Good Man and Held Respect of His Acquaintances.

The Winston-Salem Journal had the following notice of the death of Mr. J. M. Cummings, a native of the Guilford College neighborhood, who passed away at his home in Winston-Salem February 1:

"Mr. J. M. Cummings, after a short illness, died yesterday afternoon about 4.30 o'clock at his home, 1266 North Liberty street, at the age of 58 years. Mr. Cummings had been ill for only about a week. He became sick Monday, January 24, with grip, but some kind of stomach trouble resulted from the grip, and almost before his friends knew that he was critically ill, he was dead."

"Mr. Cummings was a good man and had the respect of all who knew him. He was a native of Guilford county, having been born and reared near Greensboro. He had been living in Winston-Salem since 1891, where he was a building contractor."

"He is survived by his wife and by four children: Kemp P. B., J. Cleveland, Alfred E., and Amos J. Cummings. Besides these he has several brothers and sisters: Mr. C. R. Cummings, of High Point; Mrs. W. W. Mills and Miss Alice Cummings, of Winston; Mrs. Annie Pegram, of Greensboro; Mrs. Nora Caviness, of Warrenton, and Mrs. H. G. Cummings, of Winston-Salem."

Mr. Cummings was a faithful member of Fairview Moravian church and the funeral was held three last Wednesday afternoon, the service being conducted by the pastor, Rev. L. G. Luckenbach. Interment was made in the Moravian cemetery."

GUILFORD'S "SEED CORN DAY."

Interesting and Well Attended Meeting of Farmers and Boys.

Thursday was "seed corn day" in Greensboro and the occasion attracted a large number of Guilford farmers and farmers' boys. Over one hundred of them brought specimen ears of the best corn they raised last year, from which selections of seed for this year's crop were made. Prof. I. O. Schaub, of the State Department of Agriculture, who was present to advise the farmers as to the selection of the seed, was profuse in his praise of the corn exhibited, saying he had never seen finer specimens anywhere.

The meeting, which was held in the court house, was presided over by Mr. J. A. Davidson, chairman of the board of county commissioners and president of the Guilford County Agricultural Association, and after the selection of seed corn had been completed, there were several practical talks on corn culture. Mr. C. R. Hudson, who is in charge of the farmers' co-operation and demonstration work in North Carolina, spoke of the methods of preparing the soil, planting and cultivating the crop. Mr. E. S. Millsaps, the farm demonstrator of Iredell county, talked on the question of fertilizing the corn crop. Professor Schaub spoke of the various varieties of corn best adapted to the soil of this section, laying special stress on the importance of seed selection.

Among the interesting spectators present at the meeting were 85 colored youths who are taking the agricultural courses at the Agricultural and Mechanical College for the colored race, in this city.

The farmers of Guilford are aroused on the subject of corn-growing, and as a result of the movement inaugurated in the county last year, more attention is being paid to corn than ever before. The boys have caught the fever and 92 youthful farmers have enlisted for the boys' corn-growing contest this year.

Rules for the Contest.

Following the meeting in the court house, the executive committee of the Guilford County Agricultural Association held a meeting in the office of County Superintendent Thomas R. Foust and adopted rules governing the corn contest among the men of the county for the coming year. It was determined to have nine prizes, divided as follows: Three prizes, first, second and third, for the greatest yield on one acre, three prizes for the greatest yield on three acres, and three prizes for the largest yield on five acres, the cost of production to be considered in determining the winners of the prizes in the last two classes. In the first class the cost will not be considered, each man being allowed to use his own judgment along fertilizing and other expensive lines.

The rules governing the contest are: No one shall be considered in awarding prizes who raises less than 50 bushels to the acre. Every contestant must be a member of the Guilford County Agricultural Association. Each contestant must agree to give one bushel of corn in the ear to the association for seed planting purposes. Corn shall not be gathered earlier than October 20. Reports of yields must be in the hands of the secretary by November 20. All applications for entrance must be filed by April 1. Each person, at the time of filing his application, must designate the class in which he expects to enter.

In addition to the regular prizes to be given by the association, the person raising the greatest number of bushels, it was announced that three members of the committee had offered prizes aggregating $135 to the person who beat the record of the Wake county farmer who last year averaged 226 bushels per acre. The executive committee will hold another meeting in Greensboro March 8 to make final arrangements concerning the prizes to be awarded in the men's contest.

THE MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION.

Annual Meeting Held Thursday Night—Satisfactory Reports.

The annual meeting of the Greensboro Retail Merchants' Association was held Thursday night in the reception hall of Hotel Guilford, and the reports of the committees showed that the organization is in a flourishing condition and that considerable work had been accomplished during the past year. The meeting was presided over by the president, Mr. R. C. Bernau.

Miss Florence E. Cain, secretary of the local Y. W. C. A., appeared before the merchants and tendered the use of the rest room at the Y. W. C. A. to the farmers' wives when they came to Greensboro shopping. The merchants tendered Miss Cain a vote of thanks, and it was ordered that a number of cards be printed giving information as to the rest room.

The reports of the different committees were submitted, these reports showing what had been accomplished, one matter being the additional train between here and Sanford. The reports of President Bernau and Secretary Harrison showed that the association is in splendid condition, financially and otherwise. The president's report recommended the reorganization of the Chamber of Commerce.

The following directors were elected: R. C. Bernau, H. W. Clendenin, C. H. McKnight, R. C. Hood and J. M. Hendrix.

A committee consisting of Messrs. J. J. Stone, C. H. Ireland and J. J. Phoenix was appointed to investigate the inadequate facilities of the Southern Express Company for handling its business here and also the high rates on small packages.

The merchants strongly condemned the condition of Elm street and appointed a committee consisting of Messrs. T. A. Walker, Max T. Payne and J. L. Brockmann to formulate some plan whereby the condition of this street can be improved.

Excellent talks were made by Mr. C. H. Ireland on "What the Business Man Owes to Greensboro," and by Mr. R. C. Hood on "What Greensboro and the Business Man Should, Can and Must Do for Future Advancement."

At a meeting of the executive committee of the association Monday afternoon the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: R. C. Bernau, president; Henry W. Clendenin, vice president; Miss Bessie Hackney, secretary and treasurer; S. Clay Williams, attorney.

NEW INDUSTRY IN GREENSBORO.

Oil Distributing Station to be Established in This City.

The Patriot is in receipt of a communication from the Indian Refinery Company, with general offices in Cincinnati and refineries in Georgetown, Ky., and Lawrenceville, Ill., stating that the company will establish in Greensboro within the next 30 days "a fully equipped modern oil distributing station, from which we will be able to make prompt deliveries of refined oil and gasoline by tank wagon."

Continuing, the communication says: "The Indian Refining Company is absolutely independent of the trust. We control our own crude supply, transporting same through our own pipe lines and in our own tank cars from the producing field to our own own refineries at Georgetown, Ky., Lawrenceville, Ill., and East St. Louis, Ill."

The new industry will be welcomed to Greensboro, and the Patriot hopes it may find business here both pleasant and profitable.

SENATOR ELKINS BUCKS.

West Virginia Senator Makes It Embarrassing for His Colleagues.

Correspondence of the Patriot.

Washington, Feb. 7.—There is a senator, Stephen B. Elkins from the state of West Virginia. Senator Elkins is a recalcitrant Republican, a kind of bull in a china shop that frequently makes his Republican conferees grieve. About thirty days ago he proposed an investigation into the cost of the high price of food stuffs. His proposal had no limitations and it was to go to the bottom of the subject. His resolution was smothered in committee, but last week Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, proposed a resolution with limitations dodging any reference to the tariff, and this resolution was approved next day. Then up rose Senator Elkins and spoke his mind, saying in substance that Aldrich and Lodge were conspiring to keep back facts in the interest of their recent tariff legislation.

Senator Elkins has taken the initiative in this investigation as to the cost of living. He offered the first resolution providing that a committee make an inquiry, but he has protested in no uncertain language against the smothering of his measure in the senate committee on auditing expenses. In short, Senator Elkins is an insurgent. Not a universal toggle-jointed insurgent like LaFollette, but a belligerent, multi-millionaire inconvenient insurgent and is giving the old guard senators on the Republican side a great deal of trouble. The charges coming from the inner ranks of the Republican household that the investigation proposed by Senator Lodge and approved by Aldrich is intended merely to acquit the tariff tinkers of the extra session, is very embarrassing to the senate leaders. An investigation in good faith must be instituted or Messrs. Aldrich, Hale and Lodge and their assistant Republican senators will be made short work of in the congressional elections that are not far off.

The Ballinger inquiry has suddenly halted. The testimony against Secretary Ballinger had become quite hot and a halt was called and Ballinger advised to employ counsel. Hearings have been postponed until February 11, but at this writing two lawyers have already been employed and they will spend the next week in studying the case. Mr. John Vertrees, a Democratic lawyer from Tennessee, has been employed to defend Mr. Ballinger and has had an interview with the president. He was taken to the White House by Secretary of War Dickinson, where the Ballinger-Pinchot situation was thoroughly canvassed. Ballinger did not stay to the regular cabinet meeting, but left with Mr. Vertrees to consult with other interior department officers. Another lawyer has also been taken into the case, and two ex-senators it is said will be called in to assist Mr. Ballinger.

BRIEF ITEMS OF GENERAL NEWS.

A Week's Events of More or Less Interest to the Public.

Halley's comet probably will begin to be visible to the naked eye about April 1, and will cross the face of the sun at 6 P. M., May 18, says Prof. Edwin B. Frost, director of the Yerkes observatory.

Reports from Boston, New York, Washington, Chicago and other large centers of population say the weather is the coldest of the winter, so far. There is great suffering among the poor and a number of deaths from freezing are reported.

In an address in a negro Baptist church in New York Sunday, Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, one of the wealthiest women in the country, invited the negro women of New York state to join the Political Equality Club, of which Mrs. Belmont is president. The invitation has created a profound sensation.

The Mexican National Packing Company, a New Jersey corporation, controlled by English investors and operating a string of slaughter houses in the Republic of Mexico, under special concessions from the Mexican government, failed a few days ago with liabilities, including stock, of approximately $37,000,000.

One of the greatest disasters in the history of Mexican coal mining, which has heretofore experienced several crushing blows, resulting in a tremendous loss of human life, took place last week in the Palau mine at Las Esperanzas, Mexico. The toll of human life which paid the penalty of negligence on the part of some miner is officially placed at seventy, while the list of injured numbers nearly as many, principally Mexicans and Japanese. The accident was the result of an explosion.

The proposal of Commander Robert E. Peary, the discoverer of the north pole, made on behalf of the Peary Arctic Club of New York to the National Geographic Society that these two organizations fit up a joint expedition for the unconquered south pole, was received with enthusiasm by the members of the board of managers of the Geographic Society and the matter was referred to the finance and research committee of the society, with instructions to report at a special meeting to be called at an early date.

The Associated Press reports a sensation in Rome over the action of ex-Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks nullifying an engagement for an audience with the pope Monday by making an address in the American Methodist church of Rome Sunday. Saturday word came from the Vatican that it would be impossible for the pope to see the former vice president if he carried out his announced attention of speaking in the Methodist church. Mr. Fairbanks insisted upon filling his engagement at the church, irrespective of the attitude of the Catholic authorities.

PRESENT HIGH COST OF LIVING.

More Expensive in United States Than Any Other Country.

"It costs more to get the common necessities of life in the United States today than in any other country in the world."

This startling statement was made a few days ago by James Wilson, secretary of agriculture, in an address delivered before the Manufacturers' Club of Philadelphia. Secretary Wilson discussed "The Present Food Crisis," in a way that was original and forceful. "Some people," he said, "tell us that if we repeal the present tariff law to let in foreign products free of duty, the present difficulty will cease. I do not believe it. Eggs are 35 cents a dozen in Canadian cities and 60 cents a dozen in some American cities. The duty is 3 cents a dozen. What difference would it make whether you took off that 3 cents or not?"

The secretary further stated that he believed the American people are suffering at present not so much from high living, as from the cost of living, his statement being:

"It has been said that the American is the best fed, best clothed, best educated and best housed man upon earth. We shall have to add now that he is the most expensively fed." Secretary Wilson pointed out that the fundamental difficulty was that the people are leaving the farms to such an extent that there are not enough remaining to produce the food of the increasing population. The boys and girls of the farm, he asserted, are being lured away to the cities, to the factories and to the mines, and to too great an extent the agricultural resources of the country are being neglected. He said he was convinced that the combination of retailers, wholesalers and the like were responsible in great measure for the keeping up of prices and that that same influence would be sufficient to control the prices of products brought from other countries, even though the tariff were removed.

Secretary Wilson, after declaring that the record made by the manufacturers of the United States is a good one, said "the education of the farmer, however, has been overlooked. The young farmer has been educated away from the farm and from the production of food, for the people."

Sues Brewery for Selling Him Beer.

O. M. Dyer, of Knoxville, who was convicted in the Tennessee Supreme court of violating the liquor laws in having sold beer at a soft drink stand, and who was pardoned by the governor, has filed suit against the East Tennessee Brewing Company for $25,000 damages. Dyer claims he ordered "Swankey," a near beer, from the brewing company, and that the goods delivered him proved to be beer. He claims to have signed a receipt which specified "swankey" was delivered to him. He now seeks to have the courts place the liability of his violation of the law.

POSITIONS GOING BEGGING.

Tar Heels Slow in Applying for Jobs in the Census Bureau.

The Washington correspondent of the Charlotte Evening Chronicle writes his paper as follows:

"Jobs are going begging in Washington. North Carolinians do not like pie of the Uncle Sam brand. Representative Webb asked Director Durand, of the Census bureau, how many Tar Heels had stood examination for temporary positions, lasting from one to three years at from $500 to $1,200, and got the following answer:

"I have your letter of January 29, and in response beg to say that 48 persons passed the examination in the state of North Carolina. Of this number four claimed residence in your district, three of them being located in Charlotte.

"It is impossible to state positively the number of appointees that will be required from your state, as that will depend upon the work and the number of eligibles available from all the states, but on the basis of three thousand appointments for the United States, which is approximately the number required, North Carolina would be entitled to seventy-seven appointments.

"Another examination has practically been decided upon, and I shall take pleasure in advising you of the date as soon as it is definitely fixed."

"This says in plain English that North Carolinians are busy, and do not have to go away from home. The positions in question have to do with the compiling of the facts and figures collected by the census supervisors and enumerators."

Wants to Return to Insane Asylum.

"I am an escaped lunatic from the state sanitarium at Milledgeville, Ga., and want to be locked up." With this declaration, a well-dressed stranger, apparently rational, explained his visit to police headquarters in Memphis, Tenn., a few days ago.

According to his story, the man's name is Guy Underwood, and his father is a prosperous merchant of Carr, Ga. He was committed to the Milledgeville institution about a year ago, Underwood declares, but two months ago he escaped, and after wandering through Georgia and Florida, he finally made his way to Memphis. There he became stranded and was unable to secure employment. Rather than seek alms, he says, he wants to go back to Milledgeville. The Georgia authorities have been communicated with, and the man held pending instructions.

Fighting the Cotton Exchange.

President Barrett, of the Farmers' Union, left Atlanta a few days ago for Washington to direct the fight his organization is making against the New York cotton exchange. In an interview given out upon the eve of his departure he said:

"The time has come when the congressmen who have been making protestations of sympathy with us in our fight on the iniquitous practices of the exchange must show their faith by works. We are going to give them the opportunity to do that this trip. We are better prepared than in many years to demonstrate to congressional committees the economic injuries wrought by the New York cotton exchange, and congressmen from South and West must line up against the exchange or answer to the Farmers' Union in the elections next fall."

Native of Madison Murdered in Knoxville.

Knoxville, Tenn., Feb. 5.—Bert Redford, assistant secretary of the Railroad Y. M. C. A., was shot and killed in the association rooms in the Southern Railway station this afternoon by John W. Cash, a flagman in the employ of the Southern.

Cash, under the influence of liquor, walked into the association rooms, and when he monopolized the telephone, Redford demanded that he desist. Cash's reply was an epithet, at which Redford picked up a chair and struck Cash on the head. Cash drew a pistol and fired five times. Two shots took effect and Redford died almost instantly. Cash is in jail.

Redford was a native of Madison and had been engaged in Y. M. C. A. work in Knoxville for the past two or three years. He was 27 years old and unmarried.—Patriot.

Sound Advice.

Progressive Farmer.

Again we say, do not pledge your vote to the earliest candidate for the legislature, Congress, or county offices.

Wait until you see who are to come out and then give your support to the man who has the most practical and helpful policy for building up the community and the state.

Only in this way can the farmer ever make his influence count as other trades and professions make theirs counts. The business man does not pledge his vote to the first man who asks him for it, but first demands what policies the candidates will support, and the candidate really has contempt for any man who is so "easy" as not to follow this policy.

FOR AGRICULTURAL EDUCATION.

Plans for Establishing Farm Schools in Every County.

A meeting of the state educational committee of the North Carolina Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union was held in Raleigh a few days ago in the office of the department of public instruction, State Superintendent J. Y. Joyner, Dr. D. H. Hill, president of A. and M. College, and Editor Clarence H. Poe, of the Progressive Farmer, meeting with the committee. At the Greensboro convention of the union a committee was appointed and instructed to hold the meeting, its object being to promote the cause of practical, or industrial education, in the public schools of the state.

The committee consisted of H. D. Egerton, of Franklin county; W. S. Cobb, of Robeson county; Dr. H. Q. Alexander, of Mecklenburg county, and E. C. Fairles, of Cleveland county, all of whom were present at the meeting.

Dr. Alexander was named as chairman and Mr. Poe as secretary. Dr. Alexander stated the objects of the meeting, the committee being organized to promote the teaching of agriculture and domestic science in all public schools, and the establishment of agricultural high schools in every county in the state.

Superintendent Joyner outlined his ideas about farm life schools as set forth in his last report, his idea being to develop among the public high schools of the state one strong farm life school in each county, starting the first year with six or eight in the counties where they will be best supported. He also urged the adoption of a curriculum and text books in the primary schools suited to the minds of country children.

Dr. Hill urged that if necessary some of the studies now over-emphasized be curtailed in order to make room for agriculture and domestic science, and that the reading books, arithmetics, etc., be saturated with a rural atmosphere.

That the members were practically unanimous in their views was emphasized by Mr. Clarence Poe, who declared the great needs to be (1) farm life schools started on a modest scale wherever they would succeed best, and letting the movement grow until there is one in each county; (2) the teaching of agriculture and domestic science in the rural schools, the text books in connection with the practical work in corn clubs for boys, poultry clubs for girls, etc.; (3) the substitution of text books suited to the needs of country life instead of the miserable misfit text books now generally in use.

Mr. Poe urged in this connection that special attention be given to the adoption of text books with a rural atmosphere when the state adoption is made next year. He also argued that the State Normal and Industrial should have a more genuinely industrial curriculum.

Mr. Fairles and Mr. Egerton reported that the Farmers' Union contemplated putting a paid educational secretary into the field, so great is its interest in educating the farmer, as the fundamental step in agricultural progress.

The failure to teach agriculture in the schools as required by law was indicated by Dr. Hill, who says that five times as many copies of "Agricultural Beginners," written by North Carolinians, are sold in Oregon as in North Carolina. Mr. Cobb told how his county union got behind the teachers of his county and secured the general teaching of the text book.

On motion Superintendent Joyner was requested to prepare a definite statement of the general purpose of the meeting and the best machinery for putting them into effect, this to be submitted to a meeting of the committee to be held in Raleigh later in the spring.

THE TAX ON OLEOMARGARINE.

Mr. Young Says Removal Would Cripple Dairy Industry.

Editor Patriot—Knowing the interest you feel in the agricultural development of our country, I call your attention to the effort being made to repeal the tax on colored oleomargarine and butterine. Both of these are packing house products, made principally of suet colored to resemble butter. There is a tax of 10 cents per pound on either of these packing house products colored to resemble butter, and there is being and will be a powerful effort made to have the tax of 10 cents per pound on this colored product removed, while there apparently seems to be no effort made to have the one-fourth cent per pound removed from the uncolored product. The uncolored product is easily told, while the colored product resembles butter so closely that it is hard to tell from the genuine.

The removal of this tax would be a severe blow to the dairy interests of the country and especially in the South, where this industry is in its infancy. There is no section where dairying can be so successful as in our southern piedmont sections. Our winters being short and not so severe, we do not have to have the costly and often badly ventilated barns necessary in colder climates. All the grass and grains grow to perfection and our soils respond liberally to manure and careful cultivation.

The number of live stock fed is an index to the prosperity of any farming community, and to cripple this industry in the South just at this time, when our people are turning their attention to better stock and better farming, would be very unwise, and every paper which has at heart the real prosperity of our farming interest should take the matter up. Likewise every farmer and stockman should agitate the matter and write and get others to write our representatives in Congress their views on the matter.

If the people want oleomargarine or butterine, let them have it without the coloring so they will know what they are getting, and do not let a great industry be crippled by having to come in contact with a fraud product so nearly resembling the genuine in appearance as to replace it on the market.

A PARTING WORD.

I wish to announce to the thousands of Patriot readers that this paper has passed to the control of Mr. W. I. Underwood, one of the most capable newspaper men of North Carolina, who will hereafter shape its destiny. Mr. Underwood is by no means a stranger to our readers, his last connection with the paper covering a period of more than two years, during which time he has virtually done all the editorial work thereon. With the interest that naturally attaches to ownership, I feel he will strive harder than ever to meet the exacting requirements of a large and diversified clientele. That he will merit a continuance of the flattering patronage this paper has enjoyed for many years, goes without saying.

For more than sixteen years has the writer shared the joys and sorrows of the good people of this favored section of the Old North State. Friends innumerable have left an impression that time can not efface. May God's richest blessings be their share. If in all those years one heart has been wounded by a word uttered in jest or in stress, may its memory be effaced by a flood of forgiveness ere the dawn of another day. The call of the West lures me to the Pacific slope, but wherever my habitation may be in the years to come, there will I revel in the bright memories of the happy years spent among you.

Farewell!

W. M. BARBER.

GREETING.

In assuming the responsibility embodied in the position of editor and publisher of the Greensboro Patriot I wish to say that it shall be my constant aim and purpose to keep the paper up to the high standard maintained by my predecessor since he took charge of the business nearly seventeen years ago. The Patriot is essentially a local newspaper, and it is my ambition to make of it a mirror reflecting the life of Guilford county and the communities elsewhere where the paper circulates. No newspaper could have a more laudable or praiseworthy aspiration.

So long as I direct its fortunes the Patriot shall be dedicated to the best service of the people it espouses to represent, and in this endeavor I earnestly request the sympathy and co-operation of all the friends of the paper.

There will be no change in the politics of the paper. It will continue to battle for the principles of the Democratic party, but will never become so blindly partisan as to be unable to acknowledge virtue and merit, from whatever source they may come.

W. I. UNDERWOOD.

RANG THE BELL.

The increased cost of living is a serious matter with most of us, for there are few men who have not felt the burden imposed by the higher prices demanded for all the necessities of life. Touching this matter, the Raleigh News and Observer said a few days ago: "The vital and pressing question that touches men most nearly is the increased cost of living. It is generally supposed that the farmer is living in clover because of high prices, but this is a mistake. He is better off than town people if he has produce to sell, but his money crops are not as high as the things he has to buy. Cotton is higher, but so are mules and all supplies. Tobacco is low, but what the tobacco farmer must buy is high."

Our Raleigh contemporary follows this by asking the question, "What is the cause of high prices?" and gives an answer in the following:

"A New York paper interviewed the governors who have been in Washington this week. It was interesting to see some of their squirms. Governor Kitchin rang true and told the reporter that, while many causes entered into it, the tariff was the main cause of high prices. It sets the pace for high prices, and other conditions help to send prices so high that it is a hard thing for men with small incomes to make buckle and tongue meet."

There is nothing more to be said. The News and Observer and Governor Kitchin rang the bell.

There is a rumor to the effect that Mr. Samuel L. Rogers, of Macon county, will not seek a renomination as a member of the corporation commission at the forthcoming Democratic state convention, and in that event it is understood that Mr. H. C. Brown will seek the nomination. Mr. Brown, who is from Iredell county, is the efficient clerk of the commission and has held the position continuously since that body's predecessor, the North Carolina Railroad commission, was created over 20 years ago. He is an expert in matters pertaining to rates, taxation, classification, etc., and his friends believe him to be exceptionally well qualified to sit as a member of the corporation commission.

MERRY OAK ITEMS.

There has been a lot of sickness in our community, but we are glad to state that every one is improving. Mr. Millard Rankin, of Gibsonville, visited his father, Mr. Robert Rankin, recently.

Miss Myrtle McNeely, the teacher of the Merry Oak school, spent last Saturday with her parents near Greensboro.

Mr. James Michael, who is now traveling, paid a visit to our community recently.

Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Blaylock, from near Greensboro, visited Mrs. Blaylock's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Huffines, who has been suffering from an attack of rheumatism, does not improve much.

Mr. B. L. Boon, of Gibsonville, visited at Mr. D. F. Clapp's last Sunday.

An entertainment will be given Saturday evening, February 19, beginning at 7.30, at Hines' chapel by the Ladies' aid society of the church. The ladies have pieced several quilts, which will be sold. Ice cream, cake and other refreshments will be sold. The proceeds will be used to help build a new church. If it is bad weather, the entertainment will be on Monday night following. The public is cordially invited to attend. Come and spend a pleasant evening and help out a good cause.

COBLE'S SCHOOL ITEMS.

It looks like the ground hog is going to keep his reputation as a weather prophet.

Mr. D. A. Shoffner, who has been working on the new school house at Sedalia, is at home.

Miss Ethel Coble, who has been very sick with tonsillitis, is improving and expects to return to school next week.

Misses Flora Jones and Charlie Mabel Starr visited Mrs. Grant Coble last Saturday night.

Misses Cora Shoffner and Bessie Coble attended preaching at Pleasant Union last Sunday.

We are glad to say Mr. Harvey Coble, who has been very sick with lagrippe, is improving.

Miss Myrtle Welker entertained a number of her friends Friday, February 4. Among those present were Misses Corina, Etta, Flora and Bessie Jones, Ida and Jessie Greeson, Charlie Starr and Bessie Coble, Messrs. Lewis and Ira Jones, Albert and Milton Foust, Ed. Greeson, Tom Starr and Wyatt Friddle.

During the long, dreary winter months mothers become tired, worn out, can't eat, sleep or work. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is the greatest blessing for mothers. Makes them happy, healthy and strong. Howard Gardner.

APPLE'S CHAPEL ITEMS.

Mr. Milton Cook was buried at Bethlehem one day last week. He leaves a wife and ten children to mourn his death. May God who doeth all things well, guide and comfort the bereaved in this sad hour.

Miss Bessie Wagoner, of Lexington, and Miss Bessie and Mr. Edgar Kernodle, spent last Wednesday night in Greensboro.

The singing at this place is progressing nicely under Miss Bessie Wagoner, of Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. James Apple visited at Mr. C. A. Apple's Sunday.

Choppings are beginning in this neighborhood. Miss Bessie Wagoner and Miss Ollie Kernodle visited at Mr. C. A. Apple's Friday night.

The singing will begin at Barber's school house next Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Huffines visited at Mr. Henry Gerringer's Sunday.

Miss Laura Apple spent Saturday in Greensboro.

Miss Blanche Burgess attended the singing at this place last Saturday.

What greater gift or blessing could one give than health and happiness. To your unrelenting friends give Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, nature's greatest tonic remedy. Drives out disease, brings back health and happiness. You'll be surprised the good it will do. Howard Gardner.

Baseball at Providence.

Last Friday the Pleasant Garden baseball team crossed bats with the Providence team. It was a very interesting game. The Pleasant Garden boys came with the intention of winning the game, but went back disappointed, the score being 4 to 5 in favor of the Providence boys. We hope the Pleasant Garden boys will come again. We will try to make it interesting for them.

Last Wednesday the Millboro boys tried conclusions with the Providence boys, and at the close of the ninth inning the score stood 10 to 22 in favor of Providence.

NOTICE.

United States of America. In the District Court of the United States for the Western District of North Carolina.

In the matter of R. B. Waddell, Bankrupt.

Petition for Discharge.

To the Honorable James E. Boyd, Judge of the District Court of the United States, for the Western District of North Carolina:

R. B. Waddell, of Greensboro, in the county of Guilford and state of North Carolina, in said District, respectfully represents: That on the 18th day of December, last past, he was duly adjudged a bankrupt under the acts of Congress relating to bankruptcy; that he has duly surrendered all his property and rights of property, and has fully complied with all the requirements of said acts, and all the orders of the court touching his bankruptcy.

Wherefore he prays that he may be decreed by the court to have a full discharge from all debts provable against his estate under said bankruptcy acts, except such debts as are excepted by law from such discharge.

Dated this 5th day of February, 1910.

R. B. WADDELL, Bankrupt.

Order of Notice on Petition for Discharge.

On this the 5th day of February, A. D. 1910, on reading the foregoing petition, it is ordered by the court that a hearing be had upon the same on the 28th day of February, 1910, before said court, at Greensboro, in said district, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, and that notice thereof be published in the Greensboro Patriot, a newspaper printed in said district, and that all known creditors and other persons in interest may appear at the said time and place, and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of the said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered by the court that the clerk shall send by mail to all known creditors copies of the said petition and this order, addressed to them at their places of residence as stated.

Witness G. S. Ferguson, Jr., referee of said court, at Greensboro, in said District, on the 5th day of February, A. D. 1910.

G. S. FERGUSON, JR., Referee in Bankruptcy.

Drainage Petition.

A petition having been presented to the Board of County Commissioners by a majority of the land-owners along Haw River in Broome and Oak Ridge townships asking for the establishment of a drainage district under the provisions of chapter 541 of the laws of 1905; the district to begin at the upper end of line of V. H. Hoskins, the same being the lower or east line of David Matthews, on the south side of Haw river, and to extend up said stream, including the bottom lands on both sides, to the public road on the upper or west line to the farm of Thomas J. Benbow, this is to notify all persons objecting to same to appear before said board at the next regular meeting on Tuesday, March 8, 1910, and state said objection.

J. A. DAVIDSON, Chm. B. C. C.

ROAD NOTICE.

A petition having been presented to the Board of County Commissioners asking for the opening of a public road in Gilmer township, leading from where Tom Kirkman, Dr. Jones and D. W. Dawson corner the Hog's chapel road and leading to the macadam road near C. E. Landreth's, a distance of not over three-quarters of a mile, this is to notify all persons objecting to same to appear before said board at the next regular meeting on Tuesday, March 8, 1910, and state said objection.

J. A. DAVIDSON, Chm. B. C. C.

Administrator's Notice.

Having qualified as administrator of the estate of S. H. Lester, deceased, this is to notify all persons indebted to said estate to make payment to me at once, and all persons to whom the estate is indebted to present their claims to me within one year from date of this notice will be paid in full in due recovery.

This 19th day of January, 1910.

J. C. LESTER, Admr.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. V. Taylor returned Monday morning from a sojourn of three months in Europe. A SALE OF UNDERMUSLINS AND WHITE GOODS

News that will be welcomed by all Women who wish to replenish their supply of Underwear for Spring.

Dainty Undermuslins

It hardly seems possible that such beautiful garments can be made to sell for such unusually low prices as I am quoting on the new arrivals in this line. But knowing when, where and how to buy accomplishes wonders, as you will have to admit when you investigate these values.

All winter goods reduced throughout the store.

PRUNING THE ORCHARD.

The best time in which to do pruning work in the orchard is from Feb. 1 on to blossom time. Were it possible to get all of this work done at one fell swoop the best time for it would be the week just before the blossom buds open, as from this time on is the period of quickest growth and hence most rapid healing of pruning cuts. But since the work cannot be done in a week it has to be started earlier and extended through a period of several weeks. For the one learning the orchard business a few simple directions will be helpful. Aside from giving the tree the type of head, low or high, whichever may be desired, by means of the pruning process, all cross limbs, those that rub one another and water sprouts should be cut out. In a choice between two limbs the one should be left which is more vigorous and will at the same time add most to the symmetry of the tree and its value as a fruit producer. The head of the tree should be kept sufficiently thinned so that a good sized cat can be thrown through from almost any direction. More exactly, it should be kept open enough so that the spray rod may be inserted to the center without inconvenience and the work of picking the fruit done without a fellow's having his shirt torn off.

With trees which have a tendency to spread too much one should prune the outspreading branches to an inside bud or shoot, which will tend to give an upright growth. With trees of the upright habit of growth breadth of top may be secured by pruning the upright limbs to outside buds. No two trees are exactly alike, and on this account each presents an individual problem for the pruner, who must be guided to some extent by the ideal tree type he has in mind, but even more largely by the needs and possibilities of each individual tree. Like boys and girls, trees to attain their best must be given continuous attention, it not being possible in the case of pruning any more than in the case of training to do all of the work at one time. Best results are obtained where it is started early and persisted in carefully until maturity is reached.

BIG CORN PRIZES.

The Hoosier State was very much in evidence at the national corn show held in Omaha in December. F. C. Palin of Newton, Ind., won the prize for the best single ear of corn and also the Kellogg trophy, valued at $1,000; J. R. Overstreet of Franklin got first prize on the best ten ears of corn and also the $1,000 trophy put up by the Indiana Corn Growers' association, while C. L. Kerlin exhibited the best bushel, or seventy ears, of corn and received therefor prizes aggregating $500. This makes the third consecutive year that Indiana has won the leading prizes at the national corn show. Mr. Palin states that his prize ear was the result of seven painstaking years of seed selection, the seed which produced the prize ear being descended from Reid's Yellow Dent and the Alexander Gold Standard. Judges pronounced the ear in question by far the superior of any ever exhibited. Its kernels were three-fourths of an inch deep, with very little row left for cob.

CORN FREAKS FROM PERU.

Two cereal freaks exhibited at corn shows held the past season have been the primitive or wild husk corn, in which each kernel is incased in a husk of its own, as in the case of grains of wheat, and the giant Cuzco corn, grown in Peru, South America. The husk corn is supposed to be the parent of the varieties of cultivated American maize, the husk of the original type being reduced to the light chaff to be found incasing the germ of present day corn. The kernel of the primitive corn is short, nearly round and flinty in character and about one-third of the size of an average kernel of corn. Samples of the Peru corn exhibited were twenty-two inches long and fourteen inches in circumference, the kernels being three-quarters of an inch long, nearly as broad and having a surface as large as a nickel.

OILED ROADS GOOD.

The people of Sedan, Kan., have had a good object lesson the past season in the use of oil as an aid in road-making. A mile of road running south of the town was oiled at an expense in crude petroleum and dragging the road of $50. The road was well rounded, and the oil was applied in May and when once packed down was firm and smooth, much resembling asphalt. The road is the talk of the farmers of the locality, and they will go a long way to get a drive over it. In California, where crude oil is generally used as a dressing for highways, the same results are noted, it being necessary to apply oil but once a year after the road is put in shape. The oil road is not only dustless, but quiet and very light in wear and tear on horses and vehicles.

Ten cents' worth of creosote will add more than a dozen years to the life of a twenty cent post. At these figures it pays to give the treatment.

White strawberries imported from the West Indies a number of years ago are still grown in a limited way in one or two sections of Massachusetts and Michigan.

Besides taking an annual toll from the western farmers of $10,000,000 annually, the California ground squirrel has recently been found afflicted with germs of plague and thus likely to be ready distributors of it.

There are times when it is better for the small boy not to take a dare. One who didn't have the backbone to do so, whose case was reported in the papers a short time ago, left a good chunk of the peeling of his tongue on a frosty wagon tire.

Orchard work is a most fascinating occupation for those who love outdoor work, and one is well repaid in the responsiveness shown by the trees to the thoughtful care bestowed upon them. More than this, they never bite or kick or talk back.

On an area of 11,000 square miles Belgium supports a population of over 7,000,000 people. Were any one of several of the north central states, which are richer than Belgium agriculturally, as densely populated they would be supporting populations of from 35,000,000 to 50,000,000 inhabitants each.

Many a native milk cow is cheap at $60 or $70 as a producer of butter fat, while many another, possibly better bred, would be a costly investment at $10. It is not a cow's appearance, but the cash margin lying between total annual returns from her products and the cost of her feed, that determines her worth as a factor in the dairy.

Contracting one's crop a year in advance is advantageous sometimes, and at other times it is not. The western hop grower, notably in the Willamette valley, in Oregon, who year before last thought he was saving his bacon by contracting his crop at 9 cents per pound, is at present gnashing his teeth when he sees prices mounting to from 20 to 25 cents. He will know better next time.

A flock of forty goats has been doing a good work in a county in Indiana. They were taken to the section five years ago to clear up brush land and during the interval since have changed hands ten times, in every instance being employed to do the same work. They are turned loose on a brush patch, and as soon as the piece is cleared they are put on another or sold to a neighbor.

At the land and irrigation show held lately in Chicago one interesting exhibit was samples of woven materials made from Arizona cotton, which passed the highest grade tests for Egyptian cotton. In view of the fact that the United States imports annually $16,000,000 of this product, the discovery that there are large areas in Arizona suited to the production of this type of cotton is a most interesting and valuable one.

The job of basting the roasting fowl may be simplified if it is not supplied with a good coat of natural fat. If slices of salt pork are stuck on to the legs and breast with toothpicks, the melting fat serving the same purpose as the basting and preventing the upper portions from being baked too hard. The strips should be removed from twenty minutes to half an hour before the baking process is completed so that the bird may be evenly browned.

The boy and girl will give a fair indication of the kind of grown folks they will be by the kind of reading they do in their spare hours. The kind of reading they will do will depend to quite an extent upon the kind of books placed in their hands, whether inspiring, stultifying or positively pernicious. It is at this point that the good judgment of the parents should come in and where a very heavy responsibility rests with them for what they do or do not supply. Good books and magazines were never cheaper, and it's a very destitute home which cannot provide a few of the best and most wholesome.

A reader of these notes told us the other day that he was nearly mobbed once for making a suggestion in a meeting of the patrons of a creamery of which he was a director that a resolution be passed requiring all cows supplying cream to the creamery be tested for tuberculosis. He added that as a result of using the buttermilk from this creamery for his pigs about half of them were infected with tuberculosis as a result of eating it. It does not require a great stretch of imagination to suppose that the conditions here referred to could be duplicated in thousands of places all through the dairy sections.

Now and then one wishes to stop a newspaper or magazine. It is very easily done. First pay the subscription in full to the time when it is ordered stopped and notify the local postmaster that you want him to order the publication discontinued, at the same time refusing to take it from your box, and see to it that it is not taken out by any member of your family. If this does not stop the paper coming, instruct the postmaster to send a second notice to the publisher and keep shoving the paper back. If it keeps coming after this, the postmaster throws it into the wastebasket, which means an end of the nuisance.

Prince Edward Island, Canada, raised last year 60,000 geese and 100,000 turkeys, a large per cent of these birds being exported to this country.

Exercise is a law or requirement of health with hens as other animals. It is on this account that they will lay best when scratching most—because in the best physical condition.

Somewhat oddly, perhaps, the best way to take the chill from one's hands is to put them in cold water, and the best way to reduce frost bitten noses and ears is to apply a handful of snow.

December saw the highest prices ever paid for steers on the Chicago market. One bunch of nineteen, averaging 1,572 pounds in weight, brought $9.50 on the open market, while a single animal of about the same weight sold for an even $10 per hundred weight.

There are 40,000,000 acres of land in the United States susceptible to reclamation by irrigation. Of this area there will have been reclaimed by 1911 by projects at present completed or under way 2,000,000 acres at a cost placed at $70,000,000, or an average of $35 per acre.

The hens of the country never did so big a business as during 1909, the total value of poultry products being $625,000,000, of which amount the value of eggs alone was $300,000,000. The total egg crop of the year is placed at 1,500,000,000 dozen and cost the consumer, at from 30 to 60 cents per dozen, close to $540,000,000.

It is a quite generally accepted fact that apples from an orchard kept in sod are better colored, but smaller in size, than those from trees given continuously clean cultivation. A further fact that seems to have been demonstrated is that the trees under the latter condition not only attain a greater size, but produce a considerably larger quantity of fruit.

Generally speaking, roup in chickens is a chronic cold or catarrh brought on by housing under damp and unfavorable conditions or allowing the flock to roost where direct drafts will strike them. Dry feet and freedom from drafts are the best preventives. Roup is not only brought on by the conditions referred to, but is contagious as well when once it gets a foothold.

Much can be done to give the limbs of young pear and apple trees which grow too close in the right direction by pulling them out to the proper position and inserting a cornstalk brace of the desired length. If from a stalk of sufficient size such a brace is both strong and light, while the ends are easily notched with a sharp knife to fit the limbs on which they are to rest.

A large per cent of the hogs produced in the south would be a real curiosity at a fat stock show, not having been perverted by the artificial conditions imposed by their owners. Such hogs range wild in woods and swamps, live on grass, roots, acorns and grubs, breed at will and are slaughtered at two or three years of age, weighing from 50 to 125 pounds, a far cry to the corn belt porker that tips the scales at 350 when ten months old.

The practice followed by some of feeding spoiled or moldy corn or grain with a view to saving it is a very questionable one, merely from the standpoint of dollars and cents, often impairing the condition and retarding the development of a feeding animal to an extent greater than the value of the feed involved. It is safe to assume that it is much the same with animals as with human beings—that what they do not eat with a relish does them little good and often harm.

Many an animal abundantly equipped with pedigree is put up at the dispersion sale as a full blooded animal fit for breeding purposes when in appearance and getup it is essentially a scrub and instead of becoming sire or dam—the progenitor of other scrubs—ought to be converted into beefsteak or pork chops and its pedigree used to light the fire. Atavism, this tendency in an animal to show scrub traits of an ancestor, is perhaps more often seen in cattle than in sheep or hogs, but when it or other disqualifications appear in any pedigreed animal it should serve as a bar to its sale as a breeding animal.

When the owners of fruit ranches in the Grand valley, Colorado, fought frost last spring it was done on a grand scale. The mature value of the fruit on the trees was placed at $3,000,000, and it was this stake the owners worked for. Over an area of twenty-seven miles the temperature was raised from 8 to 9 degrees F. by means of 300,000 fire pots, part of which burned oil for fuel and part coal. All operations in the fighting of the frost were directed from Grand Junction by means of telephone connections with weather stations here and there over the valley, from which reports as to the temperature were received every half hour. When the danger point approached the signal for lighting the fires was given, and they were kept up as long as there was need. In the manner described 75 per cent of all the fruit trees in bloom were saved for directly, while the trees of many a skeptical ranch owner were protected from frost damage by the fires in adjacent orchards.

Are You Honest?

With your land when for the sake of saving a few dollars you use a fertilizer whose only recommendation is its analysis. It requires no special knowledge to mix materials to analyses. The value of a fertilizer lies in the materials used, so as not to over feed the plant at one time and starve at another. This is why Royster brands are so popular. Every ingredient has its particular work to do. Twenty-five years experience in making goods for Southern crops has enabled us to know what is required.

In this connection, I would like to call your attention to the fact that Guilford county, has enjoyed one of the most prosperous years, not only financially, but one of advancement and permanent improvements, that it has ever been fortunate to have.

Would especially call your attention to the fact that she has erected and paid for four iron bridges, and one concrete bridge, that is a credit to not only Guilford, but to the South.

There have been built over eight hundred small bridges, from three to twelve feet wide, and all the principal roads in the county have been worked and scraped. This leads all previous records of the county.

This work has been accomplished without any increase in tax rate or incurring any indebtedness, and with a rate of 79 cents, which is 31 cents under the average county rate of the state, of $1.10.</

NEWS OF THE OLD NORTH STATE

A Survey of What is Transpiring in the Commonwealth.

The voters of Jonesboro township, Lee county, have authorized a bond issue of $15,000 for good roads.

Smallpox has broken out in the Rowan county jail. The sheriff and prison attendants are quarantined.

The February term of Davidson Superior court has been postponed on account of smallpox in Lexington and the county.

A movement has been inaugurated for placing a marble bust of the late Senator Matt. W. Ransom in the rotunda of the state capital at Raleigh.

Herbert Bailey, a young man of Rowan county, 24 years old, was killed Friday by a falling tree. He was assisting in the work of cutting down the tree.

Rev. William T. Walker, of Red Springs, has been elected superintendent of the Presbyterian orphanage at Barium Springs to succeed the late Rev. John Wakefield.

A message from Washington states that Senator Overman's resolution providing for an appropriation of $25,000 for the establishment of a fish hatchery at some point in the eastern part of the state has passed the senate.

Mrs. Martha Stoltz, of Bethania, Forsyth county, aged 75 years, was gored and seriously injured by a cow Monday. She was entering the stable with a milking pail when the mad animal rushed upon her. It is feared that the injuries will prove fatal.

Mooresville has been selected as the location for the home for aged and infirm Masons to be established by the North Carolina Grand Lodge of Masons. The town has donated a desirable tract of land and a building to cost from $15,000 to $20,000 will be erected.

John D. Rockefeller has made a conditional gift of $75,000 toward $300,000 to be raised for the Salem Female Academy and College, the well known Moravian institution at Winston-Salem. The friends of the institution have made a good start toward raising the remainder of the fund.

While engaged in leading his congregation in prayer Sunday night, Rev. William McDonald, pastor of the colored Baptist church at Waxhaw, was shot three times by some unknown person on the outside of the church. The wounds are serious, but not necessarily fatal. The criminal has not been apprehended.

A special committee of the Democratic state executive committee met in Raleigh a few days ago and decided to recommend to the next state convention a change in the plan of organization whereby all precinct meetings, primaries and county conventions of the party will be held simultaneously. It is believed that this plan will be found preferable to the present system.

There is an outbreak of smallpox in the Baptist orphanage at Thomasville. Fifteen cases are reported, and the physicians say one little boy has passed the point of possible recovery. All the teachers, matrons and children, numbering 430, have been vaccinated, but many of these had been exposed before their vaccination. The disease was brought to the institution by several children who were permitted to visit their mother during the Christmas holidays.

Lexington Dispatch, August 13, 1908, Leila Sances, three-years-old daughter of Mrs. Hanse Sances, of this county, swallowed a watermelon seed which stuck in her throat, causing much suffering for over 16 months. Twice the mother carried the child to Greensboro for examination by X-ray, without result, for the seed could not be located by the machines. Some weeks ago the child coughed the seed up and is now all right. During the time she got so she could not lie down and all the time was in pain.

SOUTH HOLDS THE KEY.

Lower Food Prices Must Come From
This Section of Country.

The South holds the key to lower food prices, according to Governor Malcolm R. Patterson, of Tennessee. Here is what Governor Patterson had to say in New York the other day when asked for his solution of the problems presented by the higher cost of living:

"We are not feeling the pinch nearly as much in the South as you are up here. The principal reason is the plentiful and productiveness of our land. There is no congestion of population in the South. What we most need is an increase in population."

"If a method could be devised whereby millions of the poor in the crowded sections of the East could be scattered over the agricultural lands of the South, the problem of the excessive cost of living would soon be solved."

"I hope soon to see an organized movement led by able men to scatter the people back to the soil. Our vast domain is yet undeveloped. There is where the fortunes of the future are to be made. Any man who comes to the South willing to do the work of a man will find profitable employment and an open road to independence."

"Our land, though better than most Western land, is cheaper because the demand has never been stimulated by the adventitious use of subsidies for railroads as the West, which has been settled and developed through the necessity of the great railroads to entice people to occupy their lands."

Judge James E. Shepherd Dead.

Hon. James E. Shepherd, of Raleigh, at one time an associate justice of the Supreme court of North Carolina and later chief justice of that tribunal, and one of the most learned lawyers in the state, died suddenly and unexpectedly at a hospital in Baltimore Monday morning. He entered the hospital Saturday for an operation on the throat, and messages received by members of his family stated that the operation was successful. It is presumed that death was caused by heart trouble.

Judge Shepherd was 63 years old and a native of Virginia. He left school when less than 15 years old and entered the Confederate army, but being too small to handle a musket, was made a marker. Later he learned telegraphy and was made an operator for the Confederate government. Judge Shepherd is survived by his widow and one son.

Mass Meeting No. 3

CHURCH FEDERATION

Counting the Cost

What Episcopalians, Catholics and Lutherans Must Surrender.

Sunday, Jan. 30.—The third meeting for the consideration of Church Federation was held today. The spacious Brooklyn Academy of Music was crowded with Christian people of all denominations to attend the third of the series of four meetings called by the Peoples Pulpit Association. Pastor C. T. Russell of the Brooklyn Tabernacle addressed the large audience for an hour and a half. The deep interest felt was evidenced by the profound silence, as well as by the eagerness of face. The text was the same as on the two previous occasions, "Woe ye not, A Federation, to all them to whom this people shall say, A Federation; neither fear ye their face, nor be afraid" (Isaiah viii, 12). The speaker said:

We meet today to consider what sacrifices would need to be made in the interests of Federation by the three chief denominations of Christendom. Of these Lutherans have least to surrender. Their tenacity for the Word of God they may still maintain, even though others of the federated bodies might more and more abandon the Holy Scriptures, under leadership of the Universities, Colleges and Seminaries teaching Higher-Criticism-Infidelity and the Evolution theory. The Federated non-evolution would still permit Lutherans and others to love and reverence the Word of God and yet be in fellowship. Almighty God, the Son of God and the Holy Spirit, truly believed in by Lutherans, would not be acknowledged with more or less of mental reservation by all the denominations associated in the Federation. Nothing along these lines would need to be abandoned. Even Luther's plea of consubstantiation in the Eucharist may be held without objection. Even the honor of being the first denomination of the Reformation might still be held. We conclude then that Lutherans would not be required to sacrifice anything.

Some Things in Common.

Episcopalians and Catholics have some things in common. They each claim to represent the original apostolic Church. They each claim through their bishops in the laying on of hands apostolic authority. Their common claim is that all other denominations of Christians whatsoever are false churches without Divine authority and hence not to be recognized or tolerated. Accordingly no minister of another denomination would be permitted to preach either in a Catholic or an Episcopalian pulpit. And if by mischance such a circumstance should occur it would be considered necessary to purge the sacred spot by a kind of re-consecration. From the standpoint of these denominations all others are heretics; but, they say, not willingly so, but ignorantly so.

Here note the fact that a cleavage is in process amongst Episcopalians. A minority, termed high-churchmen, are gradually separating themselves, while the majority are sharing the sentiments of other Protestants, to the effect that the matter of "apostolic succession" is probably less important than their forefathers supposed. For the purposes of this discussion we may without offense ignore the high-church minority and say that the Scriptures which plainly foretell the perfecting of Church Federation indicate that it will include Episcopalians, but will not include Catholics. Nevertheless the indication is that while the Federation will be a Protestant one, it will not be anti-Catholic. On the contrary the two great systems, Catholic and Protestant, will fraternize and co-operate along various lines—especially in the manipulation of social and political influences.

The breadth of the Episcopal creed will not call for particular sacrifices in Federation, if only their pride on the subject of apostolic succession can be satisfied. They are all prepared to admit that no particular wisdom or holiness has been communicated from generation to generation, from bishop to bishop and from bishop to lower clergy through the laying on of hands. They are willing to admit that there have been men as wise and others as foolish outside as inside their Communion. They are willing to admit that no greater light upon the Word of God and its meaning has come down to humanity through its channels than through outside channels. They are willing to admit that their clergy have no more of Divine Grace and Truth, Wisdom and Power than have others of God's people, both clergy and laity, outside their boundaries. Hence they are willing, nay, anxious, for Federation, and ask only that their "face be saved," by some acknowledgment of the long idolized thought that ability to expound the Scriptures and the Grace of God in expounding them could be had only through their channel. They have no desire to prove their claim to superior grace and truth by measuring swords of the Spirit with other ministers.

Up to the present time Episcopalians decline to be parties to the Federation unless their special claim be in some sense or degree recognized. Pride says it would never do to retract now all that the denomination has stood for in separation for centuries. They would urge Christians of the other denominations, especially the clergy, to consider the advantage which would accrue to the Federation by having all Protestant ministers accept their ordination. They do not claim that it would make them wiser or better men, nor more efficient teachers, either of truth or error. But they do claim that it would give them an authority in the eyes of the people and give color and reasonableness to the Federation of many churches with discordant creeds posing as one church in the Federation arrangement.

The argument is, "The common people, the laity," are disposed more than ever to think for themselves on religious subjects and to study the Bible for themselves. If, therefore, as ministers, you desire to hold the people in check so that they shall not think for themselves you would do well to concede the claim of apostolic succession—that no one is permitted to interpret or teach the Bible except those who have received apostolic benediction. It was disregard of this claim of apostolic benediction which led to freedom of thought on religious subjects and ultimately led to the formation of the various sects. You should now seek to restrict further investigation of the Bible and further interpretation of it by accepting our theory, by permitting us to grant you recognition in some simple form of the rights of apostolic authority through our bishops. If you do not do so you will more and more lose your hold on the people, for we are coming more and more to a time of individual thought on every topic.

The Scriptures intimate that this argument will ultimately prevail and great Protestant denominations be thus vitalized and, in co-operation with Catholicism, for a short while dominate Christendom socially and politically, crushing out individual thought and negating and black-listing all religious teachers outside the Federation and its Catholic Ally. From this standpoint the Episcopal system will lose nothing, but even be a gainer of prestige through the Federation.

What Catholics Would Surrender.

For Catholics to join the Federation would signify the surrender of a great deal, and yet, in the light of the Twentieth Century, surely much could be surrendered without any sacrifice of manhood—merely with the sacrifice of a little pride. For the Church at Rome to federate with the Protestant Churches would mean that they ceased to protest and that she relinquished her peculiar claims:

- (1) That she alone is the Church of Christ and has authority to instruct;
- (2) That she is more than a Church or prospective Kingdom—that to her has been committed by God the rulership of the world in respect to all matters temporal and spiritual, hence that she is the reigning Kingdom of God;
- (3) That her Pope is the authorized representative of Christ, anointed and commissioned of God to fulfill all the prophecies of the Scriptures respecting the reign of Christ, his Millennial Kingdom, etc. This claim of Papacy that the Pope's reign is de facto the reign of Christ is expressed in the declaration that he is the vice-gerent of Christ—the one reigning instead of Christ.

(4) The doctrine of trans-substantiation—that by the blessing of a priest the ordinary bread and wine are transmuted into the actual soul of Christ—(his flesh and his blood) for sacrifice afresh in each celebration of the Mass. Whatever may have been true in the remote past, assuredly our Catholic friends can no longer claim that all the purity, all the faithfulness to God, all the sanctity of life amongst believers in Christ are to be found in her communion. St. Paul declares, "If any man have not the Spirit of Christ he is none of his." Surely all Christians admit this standard and the correctness of the Apostle's teaching. Hence the ignoring and setting aside of all creeds and barriers which have heretofore hindered the Unity of the Church of Christ might be possible. Thus the first Catholic objection might easily be removed in favor of Federation, or, still better, in favor of Union. As our Episcopalian friends fail to prove that the apostolic succession to ordination gave either greater wisdom or more grace to their clergy than to other ministers of the Gospel, might not our Catholic friends reasonably admit the same?

The second claim that Papacy is God's Kingdom, that the Pope reigns successively as Christ's Vice-gerent, should not be difficult for Catholics of our day to lay aside. However strongly it was held in the dark past it is surely little appreciated by Catholics today. No longer do the Pope dominate the civil rulers of Christendom. And no longer do the people consider it wise that they should do so. More and more the masses appreciate the fact that the original kingdom of earth was given to father Adam and that mankind as his children are the natural heirs of the inheritance. More and more the people are disposed to consider popes, emperors and kings as merely figure-heads, without any real title or authority from heaven to rule or to coerce the people. More and more the masses demand Congresses, Parliaments, Reichstags and Dumas. And more and more do they demand that these shall reflect the sentiments of the people in civil and religious matters. The day of darkness and ignorance in which the people believed that popes and kings were Divinely appointed to rule them with Divine authority has gone by. General intelligence has taught mankind that it is a mistake to suppose that one God-appointed king and kingdom were Divinely appointed to wipe another Divinely appointed king and kingdom off the face of the earth. Hence popes and kings now admit that they reign by a popular suffrage, and their appeals for money, for armies and navies, is no longer on the score that they were Divinely instructed to obliterate each other, but on the score of self-defense.

This claim, however, wholly destroys the argument that we are now or ever in the past have been under Christ's Kingdom, either direct or through the popes. Neither now nor at any other time in the world's history has there been a reign of righteousness such as the Scriptures declare Christ's Kingdom shall be. May we not, then, with good grace—Catholics and Protestants—admit that neither our Catholic popes, emperors and kings, nor our Protestant kings, emperors and heads of Churches are reigning with any Divine authority manifest to human judgment? Let us humbly admit the nonsense of the legends on our coins, Catholic and Protestant, to the effect that kings and popes reign by the grace of God—by Divine appointment. Let us rather say that they came into power through the exercise of brute force and in a time of common public ignorance. Nor by this do we mean any disrespect to the governments of today—rather we have shown that to-day the people are ruling through their Congresses, Parliaments, Reichstags, etc., and that the kings and emperors are mere figure-heads of power, more or less useful and dependent upon the good-will of their people.

If it be asked how we shall account for the period of the dark ages and autocratic and devilish misrule, our reply would be to point to the Apostle's words. He declares that Satan is the god or ruler of this world. Who now operates through the disobedient—through those not in harmony with God, who constitute the vast majority in Christendom and elsewhere. And we remind you that our Lord Jesus also spoke of Satan as being the Prince of this world or age (John xii, 31), and of himself as the Prince or Ruler of the coming Age, the Millennial Age (John xviii, 36).

Ah, yes! the sooner both Catholics and Protestants admit what they and all the world now see, the better—namely, that for a long time our great Adversary held us in a bondage of ignorance and superstition, in getting free from which many bright minds have reacted towards infidelity, because they did not see that many of the teachings of the past, both Catholic and Protestant, were not only irrational, but most positively unscriptural teachings of men, and, as St. Paul declared, "doctrines of demons" (I Timothy iv, 1).

Not Vice-gerent Christ.

In view of the foregoing—in view of the fact that the Divine titles of all kings and emperors are now abrogated, papacy need feel no special disgrace to her cause in similarly abrogating the claim that the pope reigns as representatives of Christ or have authority so to do. Indeed such a claim is more safely denied than held, for in the light of our day papacy's best friends cannot look into the past and point with pride to any achievements as properly representing the reign of the Prince of Peace—Immanuel. In the light of the present all of God's people, Catholics and Protestants of every shade, should rejoice to join in the Lord's Prayer—"Thy Kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is done in heaven." Surely this is what all saints of all denominations should desire and pray for and labor for.

Not that we can hope to bring it to pass of ourselves, however. Nearly nineteen centuries of efforts show to the contrary. Even our last century of great missionary endeavor, Catholic and Protestant, proves this. United States statistics show that in the year 1800 there were six hundred millions of heathens, and that in the year 1900 their numbers had doubled—there were twelve hundred millions of heathens. While continuing our exertions on behalf of the heathens abroad and at home, let us tie our faith to the Apostle's words and "wait for God's Son from heaven" (I Thessalonians i, 10).

At the second coming of Christ and the glorification of his Church, "his elect," "his saints," gathered from all denominations, Catholic and Protestant (and some from outside of all of them)—only then will the glorious reign of Christ and the Church begin. Only then will the spiritual Seed of Abraham be complete and the work of blessing the unregenerate world begin—the Millennial Kingdom work—the overthrow of Satan and his empire—the scattering of darkness, ignorance and superstition which he fostered—the flooding of the earth with the light of the knowledge of the glory of God—the restoration of natural Israel to Divine favor—the bringing in of everlasting righteousness through a mental, physical and moral uplift. Whoever then shall refuse all those blessings and privileges will be destroyed from amongst the people. Thus eventually in the close of the Millennium God's will shall be "done on earth even as it is done in heaven"—as fully, as completely. This is the "Kingdom of God's dear Son" for which we wait and pray. And how ever good or bad other kingdoms, temporal or spiritual, have been, we need no longer consider them substitutes for this one which shall be the "desire of all nations" (Haggai ii, 7).

Trans-substantiation, Masses, Purgatory.

We are free to admit that the Catholic doctrines of Trans-substantiation, Masses and Purgatory would be difficult for our Catholic friends to abandon for the sake of Federation or for any other reason. Nevertheless we believe that in the light of our day there is more to be learned upon these important doctrines. Without agreeing with these doctrines—without claiming Catholic affiliation, let me here say that the Catholic doctrine of Purgatory, which lies at the foundation of these three, is in many respects more rational than our Protestant doctrine of eternal torture. It would surely be more God-like to provide some way of escape for the millions of humanity than to leave thousands of millions uselessly in untellable anguish to all eternity. However, the Lord willing, it is my intention to discuss this subject in a general Mass Meeting to Christian people of all denominations on Sunday, March 6. So many of you as desire to attend will be welcomed on that occasion. We will then seek for the Scriptural Explanation of these doctrines—Purgatory and Hell.

Summing up, then, we find that Lutherans would have nothing to lose by Federation—nothing to surrender, except a little pride. Episcopalians likewise will find Federation to cost them little. They can well afford to join the Federation, especially on terms upon which they insist—the recognition of the apostolic succession. And this they can afford to concede in its very mildest form, realizing that it has never specially advantaged them anyway and is impossible of demonstration, in view of the fact that the Scriptures declare that there are but twelve apostles of the Lamb and symbolically show only a twelve-star crown to the Church during this Age and only twelve foundations to the New Jerusalem—the Church in glory. How then could bishops either possess or give apostolic blessings? (Revelation xii, 1; xxi, 14).

Omitting the Catholic church, being assured from the Scriptures that she will not be a member of the Federation, we conclude by advising the Protestant Christian Communities discussed today not to be content with Federation, but to go the entire length of Union—dropping all their pet ideas and acknowledging as fellow-Christians and fellow-members of the Body of Christ, the Church, all who acknowledge Jesus as their Savior, their Redeemer, and who turn from the ways of sin and to the best of their ability walk in the path of righteousness, and who make full consecration of themselves to the Lord. These are and ever should be ONE in the most absolute sense possible, both now and beyond the veil.

Every old sore is an infected spot on the flesh, kept open by constant drainage of impure blood into the place. One of the principal constituents of blood is plasma, a healing property. Where the circulation is pure this element of the blood, which is of a glutinous or sticky nature, performs the necessary work in healing all sores, wounds and lacerations. It does this by sticking or joining the parts together, while nature causes a knitting of the tissues and solidifies the place.

This healing property is frequently destroyed by impure accumulations in the blood, and this vital fluid not only loses its power to heal, but becomes a source of irritation and disease to any open sore or ulcer on the body. Constantly it discharges its morbid matters into the place, and gradually it causes the infection to spread, and the sore enlarges. The morbid matter in the blood comes from different causes. A long spell of debilitating sickness, which breeds disease germs in the system, the retention of the refuse matters of the body because of a sluggish condition of the eliminative members, a continued malarial state of the system, inherited bad blood, etc., are usually responsible.

S.S.C. heals sores and ulcers in the very simplest way. It just goes into the circulation, and removes the impurities and polluted matter that are the means of keeping the ulcer open; then the sore is bound to heal. S.S.C. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and not only does it cleanse the circulation, but it adds every necessary property to it to promote good health. It is of the very greatest tonic value, and those who have been weakened and run down by the constitutional drainage of an old sore will find it the very remedy needed.

S.S.C. does not simply cause a scab to come over an old sore, but beginning at the bottom it heals the place permanently by building new tissue and filling in the place with firm, healthy flesh. Special book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

CURED OF EATING SORE.

Dear Sirs:—I was suffering greatly from a sore on my left breast, which had begun to eat, and at times deep, shooting pains would pass through it, and the ulcer was discharging yellow and rather offensive matter. I consulted physicians, but their treatment did not benefit me very much. My condition seemed hopeless, and I had almost despaired of getting well. I knew that the disease was hereditary in my case, as an only sister, my mother and two of her sisters had died of Cancer of the breast. After I had finished the first bottle of S.S.C. I felt some better, so continued it until I was cured. MRS. JAMES CASSELL, Belton, Mo.

Girls' Day at Zion.

The girls' day exercises at Zion Sunday school on the fifth Sunday in January was a great success. The exercises were in charge of the girls, and after the opening services and the lesson were gone through with we had the special exercises, consisting of some recitations and songs, all by the girls, which were just splendid. One of the young ladies of the Busy Bee class had been chosen to take the superintendent's place, which she filled well.

After the exercises by the girls we had short but exceedingly good addresses by Rev. E. G. Kilgore, Brother Ford, from Centenary church; Brother M. D. Lewis, superintendent of Walnut Street Baptist Sunday school, and Rev. R. A. Taylor, the pastor.

It was a great day for Zion and we felt the presence of God's spirit with us. All honor to the girls of Zion. Above all we praise God for his rich blessings upon us.

J. W. ZINK, Superintendent.

Hoarse Coughs, Stuffy Colds,

Pain in chest and sore lungs, are symptoms that quickly develop into a dangerous illness if the cold is not cured. Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough, heals and eases the congested parts, and brings quick relief. Howard Gardner.

MT. PLEASANT ITEMS.

Miss Swannie Lednum spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Vannie Fryar.

Mr. C. E. Starr made a business trip to Greensboro Saturday.

Mr. R. V. Gannon is all smiles—its a girl.

Mr. Charlie Loy visited in the community Sunday.

Mr. R. B. Fryar visited his parents Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Will Smith called at Mr. S. B. Clarida's Sunday.

Rev. S. T. Barber preached an able sermon here Sunday.

Mr. Robert Atkins, from near the Battle Ground, attended services here Sunday.

Mr. W. G. Phipps expects to start his new dwelling near here in a few days.

Mr. Robert Dick called in our community Sunday evening.

People easily constipated dread the winter. Nothing but hard, course meals. No fruits, no vegetable to keep the stomach active. Your best relief, your greatest friend now is Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, the world's tonic physic. Do it tonight. Howard Gardner.

MONETT ITEMS.

Our school is progressing nicely.

Miss Elizabeth Wheeler and Miss Minnie Hackett visited at Mr. John Reynolds' last Saturday night.

Oak Hill and Monett crossed bats Friday evening, the score being 10 to 15 in favor of Monett. Tabernacle and Monett crossed bats, the score being 11 to 16 in favor of Monett.

Miss Etta and Emma Wilson visited Mr. Albert Philippi recently.

Miss Maggie Green is on the sick list.

Mr. Clyde Teague visited at Mr. A. M. Hemphill's Sunday evening.

Mrs. Martha Monett, who has been on the sick list, is improving.

Mr. C. H. Coble made a business trip to Greensboro one day last week.

Miss Cecil Causey, of Tabernacle, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Charles Hanner.

Hawk! Hawk! Hawk! your life away if you prefer to rather than curing that terrible case of Catarrh by taking Bloodline, which will cure you, large bottles 50c, sample mailed for 10c. The Bloodline Co., Inc., Boston, Mass. Helms' drug store.

If some people had to wait until they are asked to give advice they might just as well be deaf and dumb. Bowels clogged, sick headache, no fun is it? Why not have that happy face, red cheeks that come with good digestion. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea makes the bowels work regular, natural, makes you feel like new. Take it tonight. Howard Gardner.

Our idea of heroic self-sacrifice is for a man to come home from a European tour and not try to tell it.

Sore Lungs and Raw Lungs.

Most people know the feeling, and the miserable state of ill health it indicates. All people should know that Foley's Honey and Tar, the greatest throat and lung remedy, will quickly cure the soreness and cough and restore a normal condition. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar. Howard Gardner.

What's What in Footwear

It looks now like this is going to be the greatest season that ever was for low shoes. Here it is early in February and we have already sold several dozen pairs of ladies' oxfords and pumps and quite a number of men's oxfords. Black suede pumps are going to be great favorites with the ladies this season in the finer grades, although patent leathers, violet kid and gun metal will also be a great deal worn. In men's low shoes patent colt and gun metal calf will be very much in evidence. Tans for both women and men will be worn again to a considerable extent as the season advances. You will hear a good deal this spring about higher prices for footwear and it's a fact that shoes have advanced and are likely to go still higher. Fortunately we made contracts for our spring and summer shoes last September and October at the old prices. These goods are now coming in from the factories and we are very glad indeed to be able to tell you positively that prices will be just as low here as they were last year.

The bulk of our ladies' footwear is made in Rochester, N. Y., and Lynn, Mass., and our men's shoes come from Brockton and Boston, Mass. Shoe men will tell you these places are headquarters for the very best and most reliable shoes made on the American continent.

Exton Barker, Fiske White and James McKernon are now behind the counters in our shoe department. Drop in and let them show you some of the elegant new footwear just opened up for the spring season.

QUALITY RATHER THAN PRICE

When you are sick, would you sell your chances to get well for a few cents? We hardly think so, but there are people who will for a little difference in the quality of drugs they use, buy the cheapest they can get hold of. This little difference in quality when put into a prescription makes a very big difference in the results expected by the doctor. Get the best and the quickest results by bringing your prescriptions to Gardner's Drug Store, the home of pure drugs, that old familiar store that has supplied your drug and medicine wants for over fourteen years and still caters to your wants. Still strives to more than satisfy. Still gaining more friends and still looking for more.
