The attention of dealers is particularly called to this department of our trade. We can sell wines, liquors and cigars on better terms, taking into consideration cost and carriage, than they can be procured in Northern markets.

BARTER.

We are in exchange for goods of all kinds allowing the highest market prices.

We are now receiving from the celebrated city of Petersburg, Va., a full stock of DRAUGHT ALE, which we intend to deliver to purchasers at a very low price. In quality this superiorly favors with any of the other brands manufactured in the North.

Correspondence of The Patriot.
Our Special Paris and Continental Letter.

PARIS, June 22nd, 1866.
EDITOR OF THE GREENSBORO PATRIOT:
We are at last beginning to see clearly in the embroilment that oppresses Europe the denouement of which will no doubt be a most dreadful butchery of christians.
HUMANITY OF THE PRUSSIAN.

The soldiers of Bismark, in opening the campaign, have begun by assuring the people of those countries which they have invaded, that they have come there as brothers and not as enemies; in less than six days, the troops of King William are masters of Hanover, Hesse Electoral and Saxony.

The Hanoverian army which was massed in Guttering in order to form a junction with the Austrians now sees itself cut off from its ally by the Prussians. All the German papers inform us that the Prussians have generally been well received by the populations. The soldiers of Bismark who now occupy Wetzlar menace Frankfurt, which is defended by the Federal army under the command of Alexander of Hesse.

The army called that of the Elbe, commanded by Prince Frederic Charles, which is now operating in Saxony, consists of 35,000 men.

The army of Silesia under the command of the Prince Royal of Prussia is much inferior.

THE AUSTRIANS, in Silesia, on the contrary, are massed in great numbers under Field Marshal Ben-deck to the amount of 250,000 to 300,000.
We have not as yet had any battle of importance. However we must mention THE BATTLE OF KUNESBURG.

On the frontiers of Bohemia, where, it is said, the Austrians had the advantage.
Per contra, at Friedberg near Frankfurt a regiment of Hessians were completely routed by the Prussians who menaced Frankfurt.

We are daily expecting to hear of a great battle, but to do justice to the Germans, we must say that they do not seem in a hurry to come to blows, but the unhappy Teutons already know the wretchedness of war, as all communications are interrupted, the rails taken up in several places, hundreds of families have to lament the absence of fathers, husbands, &c., called away to the Landwehr. Business is bad and almost dead; what is even more deplorable, the cholera has come to make bad worse. It has made its appearance in Berlin, in Stettin and in Prussian Silesia.

ITALY'S DECLARATION OF WAR.
On the 20th inst. Victor Emmanuel declared war upon Austria after which he left Florence for head quarters at Cremona.
The quadrilateral will be attacked in three or four days.

The Italian army will commence operations in four different points at the same time. The Italian fleet will attack Venice at Rovigo; Cialdini at the head of eight divisions will try to cross the lower Po; Victor Emmanuel will attempt to get hold of the quadrilateral, whilst Garibaldi at the head of the volunteers will attack Trent, which is the key of the Tyrol. According to all accounts, the Italian army is better than is generally believed; the volunteers are the weakest part of the army. Garibaldi it is said, is still suffering from his wound received at Aspromonte, and it is probable that this will be the last campaign of Giuseppe Garibaldi.

TACTICITY OF NAPOLEON III.
Our army to be sure is still on the peace footing, but this peace footing looks very like a war footing of other nations. Our fleet is ready for every emergency. The head of our Government, before risking an inch, wishes to be well prepared on land and at sea. This undecided attitude very much provokes the war party round about the Emperor, of which Prince Napoleon is the leader. They observe that we are losing the best opportunity of making a lasting ally of Prussia and getting the borders of the Rhine which are so necessary to us.

In fact, says the war party, if we wait until the Prussians are beaten to intervene and the Austrian troops are triumphant, our moral influence will be diminished in Germany. If, on the other hand, the Prussians are victorious without our aid, it is not likely that they will quietly give up the Rhenish provinces. I think the Emperor would have taken some decisive step had it not been for THE ATTITUDE OF RUSSIA AND ENGLAND.
Russia more than any other country gives our Emperor much anxiety. After much hesitation the cabinet of St. Petersburg, notwithstanding its professions of attentive neutrality, seems more or less inclined to go a little farther. Should France take one step, Russia will take two. On the other hand the defeat of the Gladstone Ministry in England may be the means of changing things on the other side of the channel. We may be said to be dancing on a volcano. There are now five millions of armed men in Europe at the present moment—in the midst of this embroilment home matters are entirely neglected, the corps legislatif is quite unneeded and they can go on discussing the budget without let or hindrance, the clever speeches of the radical orator Yules Favre, being sweetness wasted on the desert air.

The evening newspapers are caught up with avidity—the Government has given orders to the unstamped press not to make any mention of any military news coming from Germany.

EIGHT MONTHS IN AMERICA.
We have now naturally little time to devote to either literature or the drama.
We have a book by Monsieur Duvergier de Hauranne one of those who the most contributed to the fall of the house of Orleans. It is curious to see with what acrimony this author speaks of the republican institutions of the United States; he seems to think that there is too much liberty in the land of the stars and the stripes—still Monsieur Duvergier calls himself a liberal.
This is the only literary work I have to mention.

THE DEATH OF MERY.
Our celebrated poet, novel-writer and improvisatore, the author of so many charming novels—La Guerre de Nizam and La Floride, &c., is no more—he expired a few days ago, at the age of 63.
Mery, born at Marseilles, could not live out of the sun's rays, whenever Sol showed himself on the Boulevard Mery was sure to be there basking in the sun all day long at the Cafe de Madrid and charming all those around him by his witty and lively sallies.
He knew everybody. In eight days he will most likely be forgotten—sic transit gloria mundi.

THE DUKE DE CHARLES AND THE ITALIAN ARMY.
A week ago the brother of one of the pretenders to the French throne, demanded to be admitted to take a part in the coming war in the army of Victor Emmanuel, out as his royal Highness had during the war of 1859 suddenly thrown up his commission in the Italian army at the time that Cialdini invaded the pontifical territory, he has met with a refusal. I hear it is Prince Napoleon who has secretly intrigued against the prince. What a comedy is all this!

DION BOURGUELLIN IN PARIS.
All those who take interest in theatricals in Paris have for some time been looking forward to the performance of Dion Bourguelin's Arrah No Pogne entitled here Jean Laposte, which has taken the town by storm, as it is found as regards plot and scenery very superior to the pieces we have had of late.

LADIES' FASHIONS.
The bonnet which has for some time been dwindling to nothing, is a thing of the past. What is now worn on the head by our Parisians is about the size and shape of a piece of note paper and looks very much like the head dress of the Roman women, but on a smaller scale—there are no longer any strings worn as formerly—long ribbons are worn hanging down the back, and are called by the street boys, "follow me home girls."

SOCRATE.

Interesting from South America—Val paraiso to be Avagued by a Coup de Main Coeur.

NEW YORK, July 9.—The steamship
New York, from Aspinwall, brings latest South American advices. Chili, Peru, Bolivia and Ecuador are said to have formed a league to wrest Cuba from Spain, and had invited Venezuela and Colombia to join the alliance—the first three named to furnish the money; the other to furnish the men. Hopes are entertained that the scheme will receive the aid of Southern "emigrants" who will embark from the coast of Florida.

Intelligence from Bogota announces the installation of Mosquera as President.
He voted an act of Congress giving an amnesty to the men for property confiscated.
The Senate insisted on the adoption of the measure, when an armed mob forced them to sanction the veto of the President. It is believed that Mosquera will declare himself permanent Dictator.

From Porto Rico.
NEW YORK, July 9.—Advices from Porto Rico say that the slave population is rapidly diminishing, and the sugar and coffee crops are not more than half the former average.

FALSE CALVES, BOSOM AND PLUMBERS.
A Mississippi paper has the following:— The false calves are rendered necessary by the new style of "tilting hoops," which go very far toward exposing what was before only dreamed of, or existed only in imagination. In the language of an exchange:—
"These calves are not a fleeting show, For man's passion given, They're clothed with brain, or stuffed with tongue,
And swell first rate, by heaven."
The false bosoms are made of fine wire in the shape of a bird's nest, with a small spring in them, and really look and feel quite natural.

The plumbers are fastened on the teeth in such a manner as to make the face look round and plump, and are calculated to deceive the unsuspecting. Young gentlemen need have no fears as regards the ladies in this section—they are all right and need no artificial fixings—but we do advise them never to marry a Yankee girl without a full investigation.

PATRIOT.

GREENSBORO, N. C.

FRIDAY, JULY 13, 1866.

THE NATIONAL UNION CONVENTION.

This proposed Convention, the object of which is to organize a National Union party, without regard to former party distinctions, based upon the Constitution and President Johnson's Reconstruction policy, in order to oppose and overcome the Radical element that controls the Congress, which denies the Constitutional rights of all the people alike to partake in an equal degree in the blessings which the Government was designed to confer by its founders, will be held in Philadelphia on the 14th of August next. A call which we have published, has been made upon all the States alike, and we presume most of the Southern States will be represented as desired, two delegates from each District, and four for the State at large.— Should this Convention result in no permanent good for the country, as some are inclined to think, we can see no harm as likely to grow from it; and certainly there can be no inconsistency in the Southern States sending delegates to represent them.
Indeed, it is certainly the duty of the people of those States to send delegates. First, a cordial invitation is extended to them; secondly, by this act they may prove to the masses of the people of the North the sincerity of their professions of a desire for fraternal Union. By men's acts are they judged. Should the Southern States not heed this invitation extended to them it may be argued that they are indifferent. We presume such is not the case with an overwhelming majority of our lately rebellious people. Some persons have argued that the late "secessionists" of the South will at last be the instruments of restoring the Union and preserving constitutional liberty. The prophecy is not improbable. And the ball may be put in motion in Philadelphia on the 14th of August. There is ample time for meetings to be held in the various counties of this District, for the purpose of appointing delegates to meet at some given point in the district for the purpose of choosing two delegates to represent them.
Let the people move in this matter, so that no time may be lost in efforts to restore our disordered country.

We acknowledge our indebtedness to The Raleigh Sentinel for the Address of Ex-Gov. Vance before the Graduating class at Chapel Hill, which we publish on the third page.

RELEASE OF MAJOR GEE.—We learn from The Raleigh Sentinel that Major Gee has been released by order of Gen.
Grant, in advance of the official publication of the proceedings of the Court Martial and of his acquittal. The Major has his liberty, and attended church in Raleigh on Sunday last. We congratulate him, his family, and the friends of justice and humanity, upon his restoration to liberty.— The exalted testimony borne to his character and worth on the trial, the evidence of his kindness and humanity in the trying position in which he was placed at Salisbury, his sufferings in confinement and the manner in which he bore them, will still further raise him in the public estimation.

THE TELEGRAPH.—The tariff of prices on the Southern Express line of telegraph has been reduced one hundred per cent., making the charges as low as on any line in the country. Mr. S. A. Howard, the gentlemanly operator at this place is ready at all times to serve the public.

EX-GOV. HOLDEN.—Many persons are deeply exercised about the recent course of Ex-Gov. Holden in Washington City.— His slanders of North Carolina and her people astonish some and excite indignation in others. We are neither astonished or indignant at anything his Ex-Provisional Excellency may do. He has been a living slander to his State all his life, and certainly at this late day cannot damage it much more than he has already.

The "conversations" which correspondents of radical papers of the North have recently had with him, and which they are reporting with such avidity, need excite no great alarm in this State, albeit they contain nothing but falsehood and misrepresentation. President Johnson, with more sagacity than many would at first blush foresee, has nominated Mr. Holden as minister to a foreign Government. This nomination must be confirmed by the Senate—and to secure this confirmation is what the ex-Gov. is now striving to do in Washington by misrepresenting his own people to the radical Congress, and creating the impression that he is one of only ten that will do to trust. We say let him go! Even at the cost of a few slanders of our people, we hope he may succeed in so quelling the radical Senators as to secure his appointment to San Salvador. This will amply compensate the people of his State for all the injustice he may do them.
They certainly wish him God speed in his mission to San Salvador, no matter at what cost it may be obtained.

THE PICNIC LAST FRIDAY.—The innocent means of enjoyment and pleasure seeking known as the Picnic, has become quite popular in our community—or rather, we should say the popularity of it has this summer, the first for many years, been revived. The picnics by which the Sunday Schools of the town were celebrated, which recently passed off much to the enjoyment of all concerned, oldsters as well as youngsters, seem to have opened the way for one on a larger scale, in which the iron horse and railroad car were substituted for the more plodding mode of traveling over rough roads in wagons. Accordingly the young gentlemen of town initiated the movement on Wednesday last, by appointing as a committee of arrangement, Messrs. B. H. Lambert, G. W. Howell and L. H. Routhman, who secured a train of cars and at 7 o'clock on Friday morning had it in readiness for departing to Haw River Station. At a much earlier hour than 7, groups of ladies and gentlemen, the belles and beaux, the matrons and their staid liege lords, with a slight sprinkle of frequent bachelors began to assemble from every street, the former class proving that "To business which we love, we rise before, And go to it with delight!" and the more sober and grave plainly spoke by their actions that "Though sages may pour out their wisdom's treasure,
There is no sterner moralist than pleasure," while our bachelor friends indicated that by devoting one day to pleasure, a witnessing the happy state when souls each other draw, they were "Tired with vain joys and false alarms," and that it is a bitter thing to look "Into happiness through other men's eyes," decided to accompany the party, even though it might be instrumental in converting them into Benedicts (of course against their inclination) ere "autumn all in yellow clad."

The day was propitious—bright and clear, moderately warm and seated in the cars, excluded from heat and dust, a pleasant ride of thirty miles was soon performed, the time being enlivened with excellent music by the Greensboro Brass Band, when all alighted opposite the "Haw River House," and the festivities of the day commenced. The greater number of the party preferred to remain at the "House" (for the use of which we are requested to return many thanks) but many strolled about the pleasant grounds, amusing themselves in various ways, fishing in the river being the principal pastime; while others wandered to the neighboring houses and enjoyed themselves in the company of the social citizens of the "Haw Fields." At one of these houses, we learn, a young gentleman became very "patriotic," and in the midst of an eloquent peroration, endeavoring to make more emphatic his words by a graceful gesture, accidentally smashed a pitcher of buttermilk sitting on the table near him. The milk was "spilled," and it being useless to "grieve" over it, the damage was repaired by an apology, and the young man reserved the residue of his eloquence for another occasion.— He will excuse us for mentioning the matter which is only introduced as an episode to the main narrative.— But with those who remained at the "House" time sped swiftly in pleasant chatting and social converse, and as the hour of noon approached the dinner, prepared respectively by the ladies of the party, was spread in the dining-room of the Hotel building. The table was loaded with all the substantial and delicacies of the season, and a more sumptuous repast, we have seldom seen. Upwards of two hundred partook most heartily of the fragrant viands spread before them. After dinner was over the company enjoyed themselves in various innocent amusements, one room of the house being devoted to dancing, in which the votaries of Terpsichore,

"To the dulcet sound of flute and fiddle, Gave signal sweet in that old hall, Of hands across and down the middle."

Thus the evening imperceptibly passed away, and at sunset the shrill whistle of the locomotive summoned the gray and festive throng to the cars. Soon all were safely seated, the "brakes" were lifted, and the train, in charge of Captain Lewis and Engineer Robinson, sped its way, without an accident, arriving at Greensboro in time to allow all ample opportunity to ruminate upon the pleasures of the day, before courting balmy sleep, which, at last, is the "Chief nourisher in life's feast."

THE President's Health.—The Radicals, WASHINGTON, July 9.—The President is much indisposed to-day, and compelled to decline receiving visitors. The hot weather is too exhausting even for his vigorous constitution.
A marine guard has been sent to Portland, by order of the Secretary of the Navy, to aid in protecting the city from thieves, who have gathered there. They were sent at the request of the citizens.
General Sickles will be instructed by the President to-day tooley the writ of habeas corpus, which he had refused to comply with in the case of Stovess and others confined at Castle Pinckney, in Charleston harbor, charged with murder.
Governor Hamilton and others of Texas, have issued an address to those loyal Southern Loyalists to meet here in September. The projectors of this scheme are in the interest of the Radicals.
The Republican Senators and Representatives meet in caucus to-morrow night.
There is scarcely a doubt that the President will veto the Freeman's Bureau bill.

Proceedings of Congress.
WASHINGTON, July 9.—The Senate, today, passed the army bill reported by Mr.
Wilson.
The House passed Mr. Schenck's army bill. This action will necessitate a conference committee.

The tariff bill was again considered, and various sections adopted by the House.— One amendment adopted was to suspend the collection of so much of the direct tax imposed by the act of 1861, as is uncollected until January, 1868.

Mr. Morrill said he considered this one of the best measures of reconstruction.
The bill was reported from the Committee of the Whole to the House with many amendments. A motion was made to recommit the bill to the Committee of Ways and Means and another motion was made to postpone the consideration of the bill until next session. Pending which the House adjourned.

Great Destruction of Oil by Fire.
LOUISVILLE, Pa., July 9.—During the storm last night the lightning struck a gas pipe in a well, which, communicating to the tank, exploded, the oil therein and ignited eighteen or twenty other large wells, causing the heaviest loss ever experienced in the oil regions. Upwards of twenty thousand barrels of oil were destroyed.

New York Markets.

NEW YORK, July 9.—Gold 132½; counpon five twenties of '62, 108; do of '65, 105; Treasury notes, second series, 103½; North Carolina sixes, 84½. The statement shows an increase in loans of $865, 000, specie $2,668,000, circulation $589, 000, deposits $1,442,000. Decrease in legal tenders, $2,281,000.

New York, July 9.—Cotton firm; sales 1,000 bales at 36½ cts.

DIED.

On the 2nd of June, SAMUEL N. ROBYN, infant son of J. W. and B. A. Stewart, aged 1 year, 10 months, and 9 days.
Death preceded his withering wintry arms,
And beauty smiles no more, Ah, where are now those rising charms Which pleased our eyes before.
That once loved form now cold and dead, Each mournful thought employs,
We weep our earthly comfort fled And withered all our joys. P. A.

Suddenly, in this town of Chelsea Morris on Saturday evening last, the 7th inst., 1866, P.
S. KATES, aged 50 years, 7 months and 1 day.
Mr. Kates was one of our most respected citizens, had long been a resident of the town, and by his Christian piety and benevolent disposition commanded the respect and esteem of all who knew him.—Ed

FRENCH MEDICINES IN VOGUE

BY GRIMAUD & CO.
CHEMISTS TO D. I. H., PRINCE NAPOLEON, 49 rue Richelieu, Paris.

No more Cod Liver Oil.
Grimaud's Syrup of Iodized
Horse Radish

Syrup is employed with the greatest success, in place of Cod Liver Oil, to which it is infinitely superior. It cures diseases of the chest, scrofular, lymphatic disorders, green sickness, muscular atony, and loss of appetite. It regenerates the constitution by purifying the blood, being thus invaluable in the treatment of skin disorders, and is administered with the greatest efficacy to young children, subject to humors, or obstruction of the glands.

No more poverty of the blood and pale complexion.

Dr. Leras' Phosphate of Iron.

This new ferruginous medicine contains the elements of the blood and bones, and iron in a liquid state. It is different from all hitherto offered to the public, is liquid, colorless and tasteless. It especially cures chlorosis, pains in the stomach, difficult digestion, dysmenorrhea, anemia.

The majority of the Academies of Medicine of Paris, recommend the Phosphate of Iron, as the best of deplete constitution suffering from anemia and all other persons judged from over excitability, nervous exhaustion, overwork, general debility and poorness of blood; never causes constipation.

No more Consumption.

Grimaud's Syrup of Hypo-phosphate of Lime.

So called "bone" is the chief. This medicine is especially adapted for use in the Bronchitis chronic, for consumption, for anasarca, for rheumatism, for indigestion, for men in England and France.

Better than Copaliba.

Grimaud's Vegetable Maji-co Tincture and Capsules.

Whereas other Medicines have failed, these preparations will always effect a cure. They cure rapid and extraordinary cure of scrofular and chronic diseases of private life. They are used in the hospitals of Paris, by the celebrated Dr. Ricord, and are found greatly superior to all hitherto known mineral remedies and Copaliba and Cubebs. The tincture is used in cent, and capsules in the more chronic cases.

Grimaud's Brazilian Guaiacu.

For immediate cure of Nervous Headache, Nausea, Vertigo, indigestion entirely independent of Brazilian origin.

GENERAL DEPOT: in Paris, at Grimaud & Co., 46, rue Richelieu; in New York, at Fowler & Vandewater, 30 North William Street, and at every good Chemist.

PROCLAMATION
TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

In obedience to an Ordinance of the State Convention, ratified the 25th day of June, 1866, entitled, "An Ordinance submitting to the qualified voters of the State the ratification or rejection of the Constitution adopted by the Convention," I, Jonathan Worth, Governor of North Carolina, hereby give notice that on Tuesday, the second day of August next, polls will be opened by the Sheriffs of the respective counties, and kept open for three successive days, at the several election precincts in each of the several counties in the State, under the same rules and regulations as now exist for the election of members of the General Assembly; at which election all persons qualified to vote for members of the General Assembly, may vote for or against the ratification of the same; those who wish a ratification of the Constitution voting with a written or printed ticket, "Ratification,"—those of a contrary opinion, voting with a written or printed ticket, "Rejection." Sheriffs will observe the provisions of this ordinance as to the duties thereby imposed.

In Witness whereof, His Excellency, JONATHAN WORTH, Governor of said State, has hereunto set his hand and the great seal of the State to be attested.
Done at the City of Raleigh, this 1st day of July, A. D. 1866. JONATHAN WORTH.

By the Governor:
W. H. BAKER, Private Secretary.
