CONSTITUTIONAL LIBERALISTS.

There is a great hue and cry about party names since the great triumph over ultra Radicalism in Virginia—the Conservatives, Democrats and Radicals each claiming the victory. The Standard says the party adheres to and has advocated since the surrender, is "the only conservative party in the South." If this be true we pity the conservatives. It further proclaims the "Republican party as the only liberal party in the South." Let the thousands who are to-day disqualified from holding office by this same Radical party, answer this libel.

There is an admitted necessity for a consolidation of the better men of the nation. A combination against the treachery and usurpation of the ultra Radicals, who now hold the reins of the State and National government, is loudly called for by those who have the good of the country at heart. Such a combination saved Virginia, and scattered the Wellsties, (the ultra Radicals) to the four winds. The liberal people can and must unite, and that right speedily, or all of the Republic that is worth saving will be gone and that forever! With a hope to unite all the people who favor a liberal constitutional republican form of government, we have suggested as a suitable name the two words which head this article—"Constitutional Liberalists." The appropriateness of the name, we think, peculiarly applicable at this time, when a faction is advocating the establishment of an EMPIRE instead of the government which was founded by such men as Washington, Jefferson, Madison, &c. If we can get a liberal constitutional government, such as we once enjoyed, there would once more be peace, quiet and prosperity in the land.

We would suggest something like the following as a declaration of principles:

- Impartial Suffrage.
- Universal Amnesty.
- Low Duties on imports—but no protective tariffs.
- Ad Valorem taxation for everything.
- Stringent usury laws.
- A uniform national currency.
- No gold interest bearing untaxed bonds.

The same currency for the rich that is paid the poor laborers in the army, navy and government workshops.

Opposition to extravagance and corruption, and the squandering of the public funds.

Opposition to oppressive taxation.

Upon such a platform the good of all parties could unite.

Let us hear the views of the press and the people upon the suggestion.—No party is responsible for this article. THE PATRIOT is owned and edited by James W. Albright & Bro., (R. H. Albright), and no one else is responsible for the articles. No clique rules our columns, and we pledge ourselves to support any administration that endorses in substance the above declaration of principles.

THE SECOND ANNUAL meeting of the Stockholders of the N. W. N. C. railroad is in session to-day at the Old Fellow's Hall.

E. A. Vogler was called to the chair and L. Swain and A. F. Phil appointed Secretaries.

The amended charter was accepted. Reports were read by the President and chief engineer.

The location of the depot between the towns of Salem and Winston was left to the chief engineer.

The following gentlemen were elected directors for next year:

- C. E. Shober, T. B. Keogh, D. W. C. Benbow, H. W. Fries, E. A. Vogler, D. H. Starbuck, E. Belo, R. Gray, P. A. Wilson, W. P. Henley, I. G. Lash, M. Masten. All the old officers re-elected.

(The entire old board with the addition of two new directors allowed by amended charter.)

This is about all the proceedings prior to our going to press.

We see from the Statesville American, that Col. Wm. Johnston, who has recently been elected president of the consolidated line from Charlotte to Augusta, is canvassing this State in the interest of the Plaster Banks & Salt Works R. R. He will address the citizens of Surry at Dobson on Saturday, 24th, and Mt. Airy on Monday 26th.—Col. Johnston has a grand scheme on foot and our Salem railroad men ought to give some pledge to our Mt. Airy people that their road shall reach the section so soon as the necessary funds can be procured. "Delays are dangerous!" In this instance particularly so.

IMPORTANT DECISIONS.

We learn from the Standard that the Supreme Court on Monday last decided, all the Judges concurring, that intermarriage between a member of the colored race and a member of the white race is unlawful and therefore void, according to the laws of North Carolina. Let the freedmen and Constitutional Liberalists remember this. The Governor and military, backed by the whole Radical Empire, threatened the clerk of Guilford with direful vengeance for refusing to license a negro to marry a white woman. The clerk was forced to grant the license, and a savage yell of joy went up from the Radical wigwag. The Radicals proclaimed "no distinction of color under the new constitution," until they got comfortably seated in power and now the poor negro is kicked at every turn. Was there ever such treachery?

The Court also decided, Chief Justice Pearson alone dissenting, that the homestead and personal property exemption provided for by the Constitution and the laws of North Carolina, is constitutional and retrospective that it operates to protect the property against debts contracted prior to the adoption of the Constitution. We are pleased to know that Chief Justice Pearson, had sufficient honesty to withstand this undisguisedly political biased decision. There is not a lawyer in the State, who has any legal reputation, that would agree with this decision of the Radical Supreme Court. With the power of the Legislature to pass retrospective laws, admitted, what security can we have that any contract—either State or individual—will not be vitiated by a corrupt body like the last General Assembly, which only sat to subvert party ends and fill their own empty pockets?

THE DIRECT LAND TAX AT THE SOUTH.—A Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Herald says:

"There is some talk of enforcing the collection of the direct land tax in the South. The Southern States' share of this tax—amounting to twenty millions—of this sum only about three millions have been paid into the Treasury from the Southern States. It will be remembered that when this amount had been collected, President Johnson sent a message to Congress setting forth that in view of the poverty produced in the South by the war it would in many instances be ruinous to that section to enforce the collection of the tax at that time, and recommending that it be suspended for some time, so as to allow the industrial interests of the South to recuperate. It is stated that the limit of the suspension fixed by Congress has now passed, and the law providing for the levying and collection of the tax comes in full force again. It is argued by those who urge this proceeding that the industries of the South have greatly improved in the interim, that the crops are abundant and that there is no longer any excuse for delay on the score of poverty. Whether the Secretary of the Treasury will act upon the advice tendered him in this matter remains to be seen."

This will be a heavy blow to the prosperity of the South, notwithstanding a large yield is anticipated by the farmers. The tax was partially collected in Guilford and several other counties in the State in 1867. The present taxes to be collected for State and county purposes, with the oppressive revenue laws are more than the industries of the country can stand,—yet so determined is the Radical party to keep down the South, this unjust land tax must be rung from the hard earnings of our people. Cannot the "Constitutional Liberalists" unite and put down the Radical Destructionists who levied these taxes and are growing rich in their collection?

It is rumored in town that Holden's colored melish, who have been on a bloodless tramp in Jones—hunting K. K., on their return got into a melee among themselves, at Goldsboro, on yesterday. Shots were exchanged and bayonets used. One had his throat cut, one was bayoneted in the breast and one shot—no deaths had occurred when the train left Raleigh. "Let us have peace!"

Gov. Holden seems determined to force the amended charter of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford road upon the Stockholders. The annual meeting to be held on the 29th inst., was indefinitely postponed by the President; but the Governor issues a proclamation calling the meeting at the time first designated.

DROWNED.—We regret to learn that Julius E. Leach, son of Gen. J. M. Leach, of Lexington, was drowned at Topsail Sound, whilst bathing in the surf on Saturday last. Mr. L. was in his 19th year.

The Democrats of Pennsylvania, have nominated Asa Packer for Governor.

Rev. T. M. Jones has taken charge of Warrenton Female College.

RALEIGH AND GASTON R. R.—The annual meeting of the Stockholders of this road was held in Raleigh last week. The Standard says: From the report of the President, made to the meeting, we learn that the total earnings during the year just closed were $228,118.02. Receipts from other sources, $6,342.97. Balance brought from last fiscal year, less dividends, &c., paid out of same, $40,332.23; making a total amount of $294,743.12. The total expenditures were $191,977.87; leaving a cash balance of $102,815.25. Of this amount $50,000 was paid for bonds of the Columbia and Augusta Railroad Company, at par, leaving an unexpended balance of $52,815.25. A three per cent. cash dividend, amounting to $45,000 was paid on the day of the meeting.

The purchase of the bonds of the Columbia and Augusta Railroad, which was authorized by the stockholders at the last meeting, together with a similar purchase by the North Carolina Railroad, enabled the Columbia and Augusta Company to connect with the North Carolina road at Charlotte, and thus make a through line from Augusta to Norfolk, which tends greatly to increase the business of all the roads and add to the receipts of the ensuing year.

After the adjournment of the meeting, the Board of Directors met and re-elected Dr. W. J. Hawkins President, W. W. Vass Treasurer, and A. B. Andrews Superintendent.

We publish the following by request, and call the attention of those concerned to the proposed Convention:

To the Clerks of the Superior Courts throughout the State:

In view of the fact that there exists great doubt and uncertainty in regard to many of the duties pertaining to the office of Superior Court Clerks under the new laws, and as many of these doubts and difficulties might be removed or their remedy suggested by a conference and interchange of views of Clerks,

We, the undersigned, after due consideration and consultation with other Clerks upon the subject, thought it proper and necessary to invite our brother Clerks throughout the State to meet at the Court House, in Raleigh, on Tuesday the 3d day of August next, for the purpose of adopting a settled and uniform mode of keeping our records, and for the discussion and more fully understanding all the duties and responsibilities pertaining to our said offices, and we hope that every Superior Court Clerk in the State who can possibly do so will meet us, and that they will come prepared with memoranda of the subjects and questions in regard to which there is doubt or difficulty. It affords us much pleasure to state that W. A. Smith, Esq., President of the North Carolina Railroad has kindly consented to allow us to pass and return on said Railroad for one fare, and we trust the Presidents and Managers of the other roads in the State will give us the same generous assistance. Clerks will obtain tickets of station agents which will be issued at one fare.

The newspapers throughout the State will do the public a service by publishing this notice.

Very Respectfully,

Too Good to be True.—The Staunton Spectator of Tuesday says:

"Before the issue of the next paper it will be announced authoritatively that the contract for building the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad to the Ohio River has been entered into by Huntington and others."

The Chesapeake and Ohio railroad to be finished to the Ohio river! Think of that! When this is done, Richmond will begin to increase in population and wealth as rapidly as Baltimore did immediately after the completion of her great road to the Ohio.

The skies are indeed bright and brightening. Surely the day of our prosperity is dawning. "Jocund day stands tip-toe on the misty mountain tops."—Dispatch.

The Republican party of New Hanover county has split and put forward two candidates for a vacancy in the Legislature; and one of the candidates predicted in a speech to-day that blood would be shed before the campaign closed. The extreme faction, led by Northern whites, have nominated a negro, and the negroes have nominated a white man. The discussions at the meetings are very bitter, and strong bodies of police are stationed where the meetings are held. Several slight collisions have already occurred. The Conservatives and Democrats are running no candidate, and letting the Republicans have it out among themselves.

The State Journal announces Walker's official majority at 18,726.

SABBATH SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The friends of Sabbath Schools met at Oak Ridge, July 2d, 1869, by previous appointment and after the reading of the 4th chapter of James, which was followed by prayer, organized themselves into a Sabbath School Convention, by electing

Allen Jay, Pres.
H. W. Peeples, vice Pres.
S. A. Powell, Sec.
P. J. Benbow, Ass't. Sec.

On motion a Committee for the arrangement of the business was appointed, consisting of Lewis Starbuck, J. E. Cox and F. E. Case, together with the officers of the Convention.

Reports from the Sabbath Schools represented were then called for. Interesting statements were received concerning Ai, Summerfield, Liberty, Dover, New Hope, New Garden, Centre, Deep River, Springfield, County Line Union School, Below's Creek, Back Creek and Ridgefield. Aggregate number of pupils enrolled in these schools is 1172 and average attendance 780.

The question "what is the great want of our Sabbath Schools?" was then written upon the black board, the answers of which were to be placed in a box during intermission.

On motion the Convention adjourned to meet again at 1½ o'clock.

AFTERNOON.

Convention met near the time adjourned to, and was opened by reading of the 103 Psalm, followed by prayer.

The box was then opened and the answers to the question read, the general purport of which was that live, earnest, self-denying Superintendents and teachers, together with the encouragement of parents, would go far towards making our Sabbath Schools what they ought to be.

The questions, "Are Teachers' meetings advantageous and shall we have them?" was then discussed.

Conclusion. They are, and we must have them.

There was then an exercise of a scripture class, by A. L. Mendenhall, demonstrating the manner of teaching; subject, the Prodigal Son, Luke, 15th chapter, commencing at the 11th verse.

Remarks and criticisms on the manner of conducting the class followed.

Next, a question was discussed, "How shall we prepare our Sabbath School lessons?" All concurred in the opinion that we should carefully compare different portions of the scriptures, using whatever helps are at hand.

A class of old persons was then conducted by Albert Beel, lesson, Matthew 23d chapter. Criticisms and general remarks, earnestness of the class recommended.

On motion the Convention adjourned to meet again next morning at 9 o'clock.

July 3d, 1869.

Convention met according to adjournment and was opened by reading the 34th Psalm, followed by prayer.

The minutes of the day before were then read, amended and adopted. The qualifications and duties of a Superintendent were next discussed, placing the standard not so much upon literary attainments, as earnest zeal which will soon make him well informed upon his own subject, the Holy Scriptures.

Anna Putman then conducted a class of little boys and girls in a very satisfactory manner, lesson, Matthew 26 chapter 7—14 verses.

The gratification and duties of teachers were then brought up for consideration. All agreed that about the same was required of teachers as superintendents. This was followed by an object lesson, given by Ezra Meader, subject, the wheat and chaff. The question, "How shall we best secure the attendance of the parents?" was then considered. Among other things it was suggested that senior classes be formed in every Sabbath school, since no one is too old to learn something from divine truth.

P. J. Benbow then conducted an infant class, subject, the good boy, Samuel. The teacher commenced by showing to the class a picture of the little Samuel, and thus gained their attention. All pronounced it a success. The convention then took a recess for one hour.

AFTERNOON.

Convened according to adjournment. After reading the 90th Psalm, and a few moments silent devotion, A. L. Mendenhall, addressed the convention, subject—"Living we act, and dead we speak." We would be glad to give the address entire, but cannot; the main thought was that our influence would follow us through the cycles of the ages, citing illustrious examples, both from sacred and profane history. There was then another demonstration of the manner of teaching given to an adult class by Mahala Jay, lesson, Matthew 3d chapter.

The question box was then opened and the questions read, some of which we will give, together with the answers as agreed upon by the Convention.

Q. Shall the whole school have the same lesson?

A. This is highly recommended because it causes familiarity in the school and gives all a chance to contribute to the same subject, and more can be learned.

Q. Should a teacher use tobacco while before his class?

A. He should not.

Q. How shall we encourage Sabbath Schools?

A. By holding conventions, Sabbath school celebrations, picnics and by circulating Sabbath school books and papers and occasionally by lectures.

Q. What is the object of Sabbath schools?

A. The extension of Christ's Kingdom on earth, and where there are eight millions of children in the United States only one half of whom attend the Sabbath school, then there is work for all Christians to be done.

Q. Shall we teach anything except the scriptures?

A. Where children have no other chance of learning to read, a portion of the time in the Sabbath school should be devoted to teaching them this.

After a short recess, a black-board exercise was given by Franklin Blair, using the figure of a light-house representing Christ's disciples as the light of the world.

The question, "what is the mission work of Sabbath schools?" was then considered and answered to the effect that it is the going out among each of our neighbors as do not attend Sabbath schools, particularly those enjoying no religious advantages, and gathering them into our schools and endeavoring to turn them to Christ; and going into adjoining neighborhoods where there are no Sabbath schools, and setting them up.

A proposition was made by Jesse Benbow to organize a Union Sabbath School Convention to meet annually within the limits of the schools hereby represented. On motion J. E. Cox and Anna Putman, from New Garden, Lewis Starbuck and P. J. Benbow, from Dover, W. O. Donnell and E. F. Case, from Oak Ridge, Samuel Donnell and Sarah Blacklock, from Ai, S. A. Powell and M. P. Tyler, from Summerfield, Elias Perkins and Mary Stanley, from Liberty, David Hufins and Maria Stafford, from Ridgefield, H. C. Edwards and Celia Starbuck, from New Hope, J. M. Bowman and Elizabeth Linville, from County Line Union School, Asa Knight and Henrietta Knight, from New Salem, Cornelius Carter and Sophronia Robinson, from Sandy Ridge, Prof. Hietman and Gail Kerner, from Kernersville, Allen Peggam and Lydia King, from Bethel, John M. Blacklock and Emily Kirkman, from Friendship, H. W. Peeples and Nancy Brown, from Union, —Smith and Phebe Ross, from Mt. Pisgah, Samuel Whit and Bettie Winchester, from Chestnut Grove, John Lambeth and Mattie Case, from Centre, Frances Peggam and William Peggam, from Goshen, J. L. Ogburn and Cynthia Williams, from Flat Rock, Z. Stafford and Rebecca Shields, from Bunker Hill, J. W. Moore, from Below's Creek, were appointed to have the care of calling a Convention next year, and laboring in any way to promote the interest of Sabbath Schools.

On motion a Committee of three was appointed to assist the secretaries in preparing a synopsis of the proceedings of this Convention, and presenting it to the County papers for publication. The minutes of the Convention having been read and adopted, the Convention adjourned after reading of the 23d Psalm, followed by prayer.

To the Voters of Morehead Township.

Having received the nomination for Magistrate in Morehead township, at a regular convention, held at West Green, and afterwards confirmed by a meeting at Smith's school house, I determined to allow my name to be run. Since that time a question arose as to my citizenship, &c.,—the only objection raised to my knowledge. I have taken great pains to consult four of the best lawyers in the place—all agree as to my eligibility. With this assurance and a full knowledge of the obligation to be taken on registration, I have determined to run, and use all laudable efforts to secure my election. Hoping this statement will satisfy my friends and put to rest the unfounded report as to my being able to qualify, I remain,

Very Respectfully,
WM. E. EDWARDS.

Mormons Moring.—A colony of one hundred persons of both sexes passed through the city yesterday, on their way to Salt Lake City. They came from Surry county, North Carolina, and got on the train at Wytheville depot. The women of the party largely outnumbered the men. It seemed a rough ignorant set altogether, though perfectly in earnest.—Lynchburg Republican.

President Grant has followed out his policy in regard to the Virginia election on the same line by issuing his proclamation ordering an election in Mississippi on the 30th of November next. As in the case of Virginia, the disfranchising clauses in the proposed new constitution of Mississippi are to be submitted to separate votes, and it would be strange if they do not meet the same fate they have in the election of the Old Dominion.

The President has proclaimed the 30 of November next as the day for the election in Texas on the constitution framed by the Austin Convention of July 15th. The vote will simply be for or against the constitution, without any separate clauses being voted on.
