do the voting, levying and assessing the taxes, collecting and appropriating the same to their use and the pampering and keeping up of an "odious" horde of political cormorants—while

Long and hard was the struggle to secure a republican form of government. It was an eight years war—four with armed "rebels," on the tented field—four with disarmed "traitors," ostracized and kept back from the polls by the bayonet. But the war was finally over, and now the people of the South have the FORM, but the form only! But so damaged, is it by the battle of the contending host, that the people who used to enjoy a republican government, even doubt whether we have the form—they know, however, that the life-giving, liberty fostering spirit of the republic has long since fled before the despotic tramp of the Radical hordes that rule this sunny land.

The plaintiff means to try out to the uttermost the question, whether there is any law left in this land or no; and if no, then to demonstrate that fact and leave it there. In the meantime it is as well to state the fact that at the time of the arrest and false imprisonment there was peace; at least nobody could see anything to the contrary; and further, that the person arrested was not only not charged with having committed any offence against the laws, but was not even suspected of any. He has, therefore, a very natural curiosity to find out why his harsh usage was given to him; a curiosity which is the main object of this present suit to satisfy; for in civilized or even demicivilized countries, a person seized upon and treated as a felon for months usually told why.

St. Louis, Aug. 28.—Chief Justice Chase writes to a gentleman here—"I am out of all future political contest and no one need be jealous of me hereafter."

REVIVING DROWNING PERSONS.—As the bathing season has commenced, and persons are liable to drowning several times this summer, the following hints will tell how to bring him to life. If this drowned person be a politician, whisper in his ear that he has just been appointed to a fat office. If a married woman, softly tell her that her husband is just cutting it fat with that woman she hates. If it be a young man tell him confidentially that another fellow is after his sweetheart. If a married man, slyly tell him that a handsome young lady called yesterday, and is to call again to-day at his office on important private business. If he is a carpet-bagger, let him drown!

Question—"Who was the first Radical?"
Answer—"The Devil, and he was not the worst one either."
Q—"Who was the first rebel?"
A—"The Devil, and he was not the worst one either."

Q—"What did he get for it?"
A—"He got h—l."—Northern Times.
What did the late rebels get?
An influx of the meanness of the aforementioned gentleman's poor relations, the future inhabitants of the aforesaid place.

OVERDOING THE MATTER.—An elderly lady, who had insisted on her minister's praying for rain, had her cabbage cut up by a hailstorm, and on viewing the wreck, remarked that she "never knew him to undertake anything without overdoing the matter."

Justice in Texas is still very rapid, if not always certain. A black mare was stolen from a livery stable, and, after search, was heard from in a distant town. The proprietors sent a messenger after her, and a day or two afterwards received a dispatch as follows: "Your mare is here; I will bring her; thief hung."

An old gentleman who rides almost daily to Boston from Lowell on the cars, has a card with a slip cut from it, just to the width of a line in the newspaper, which he uses to read through. Whether it assists the eye or not, we cannot say.

Women are now editing papers, founding societies, delivering addresses, lectures and orations, and holding conventions. Their "rights" are certainly being asserted.

This is an express way-bill received at Cleveland: "One child, alive, to Mrs. Sarah A. Leonard, Cleveland, O., from Mrs. W. Bush, Williamsport, Pa. Charges $5.70."

"See here, minister," said a lad of seven summers, who was driven up a tree by a ferocious dog, "if you don't take that dog away, I will eat up all your apples."

"Figures won't lie," is an old and homely expression, but few men can look on a fashionable woman's figure now-a-days and say as much.

Mr. Johnson asks: "Whose ass have I taken?" No prominent member of the Radical party is missing that we know of.—Philadelphia Age.

A Hannibal, Mo., merchant advertises for a burglar. He has broken the key of his safe, and cannot get at the valuables.

The New York Express says that in the incomes of business men of our city, "those who advertise make the largest returns."

Two hundred girls answered an advertisement in the Chicago papers by the manager who is to exhibit forty thieves.

A New York paper supposes that during the Peace Jubilee the Boston Landlords furnished their tables with tuning forks.

A member of Congress advertises in a New York paper a cadetship appointment to the United States Naval Academy for sale.

The city bill poster at Lowell stuck the notices to milkmen the other day on the public pumps, certain that they would be seen there.

The Keokuk Gate City says: Mr. Rose married Miss Violet at Winterset last week. That Rose may reasonably expect to be a Poppy—in time."

Of a person who died lately at Bethany, Conn., the obituary says: "He was as honest a man as ever lived, and had worn no hat for forty years."

It is observed that the men of the most check make the best performers in brass bands. Like that modest plant, the sunflower, they bloom well.

If a three-wheeled velocipede is a tricycle, and a two-wheeled one a bicycle, then why not call a one-wheeled velocipede an icicle?

Vain young ladies are like drunkards, in one respect. They use the glass a great deal.

Flannel and mahogany are like each other when made into drawers.

LITTLE FINGERS. Busy little fingers, Every where they go; Rosy little fingers, The sweetest that I know!
Now into my work box, All the buttons finding, Tangling up the knitting, Every spool unwinding!
Now into the basket Where the keys are hidden, So mischievous looking, Knowing it forbidden.
Then in mother's tresses, Now her neck enfolding, With such sweet caresses Keeping off a scolding.
Darling little fingers, Never, never still, Make them, heavenly Father, One day do Thy will.

Elephant Plow.—Among the usual agricultural implements now manufactured in Great Britain are large numbers of elephant plows, which are forwarded by way of the Mediterranean, the Isthmus of Suez, and the Red Sea and Indian Ocean, to the place of their destination. Every morning at sunrise the elephant takes his mahout by the waist-belt, places him on his back, and starts into the field. Two assistants guide the two plow-handles, and as long as the sun is above the horizon the elephant marches along, throwing up a high ridge behind him, the furrow having a breadth of four and a half feet and a depth of three.

From Rev. J. P. Mason, Baptist Minister. CHAPLAIN HILL, July 24th, 1868. Dr. G. H. Livingston, Dear Sir: My wife was for many years subject to severe and dangerous hemorrhages from the lungs. In Feb. 1863 she was so reduced that her life was despaired of by one of the best Physicians in the State. By accident, and by the directions of Providence, I heard of your Florida Balm, and purchased a bottle. After much persuasion she was induced to try it, when she found immediate relief, several times afterwards she was induced to use it, and each time it brought instant relief by the use of one or two drops. She attributes her present recovery, by the help of God to the use of your valuable medicine. She has not been troubled with hemorrhages for more than two years, and wants all persons especially females afflicted in the same way to try your valuable remedy, therefore she speaks of her benefits in this public manner. J. P. MASON.

From Algonquin S. Womack, Esq. Dr. Livingston, Dear Sir: I have used your Florida Balm in my family for years and have found it first rate for Pain in the Back, and for Sore Throat it cannot be beaten and I am of the opinion every family should have a bottle of it. I hope you may have success in effecting large sales. ALGERNON S. WOMACK. Yanceyville, N. C., 20th, 1868.

From Hon. John Kerr. YANCEYVILLE, N. C., June 25th, 1868. Dr. Livingston, Dear Sir: For several years I have used your Florida Balm, and find it to be without comparison the best family medicine I have ever been able to procure. For Summer diseases of the bowels, for all forms of cutaneous eruptions, and for piles it is according to my observation, a sovereign remedy. I wish you much success in the sale of it, as it will be for the benefit of others as for your own advantage. Very truly your friend, JOHN KERR.

Certain Cure for Colic in Horses. I certify that I had a horse badly afflicted with Colic and gave him Livingston's Florida Balm which afforded almost immediate relief. N. K. ROAN. Danville, Va., Oct. 7, 1868.

From Dr. Brinkley of Carroll. Dr. Livingston: From the knowledge which I have of your Florida Balm, it affords me pleasure to say to you that I look upon it as being a highly valuable remedy for the relief of one of the various forms of disease for which you have recommended it. It is very extensively used in the neighborhood in which I am practicing, and I have not heard of a single instance where it has not given entire satisfaction. I am therefore pleased to say to the afflicted generally, that if you wish a prompt and efficient remedy, try Dr. Livingston's FLORIDA BALM.

I hope you will be very successful in your plan for introducing it more extensively. Very truly, your friend, CLILLEY.

From Hon. A. Mitchell. In using Dr. Livingston's Florida Balm two or three times to soothe an irritation of the skin, it appeared to me an effective remedy for that purpose. A. MITCHELL. Sept. 20th, 1868.

Cure for Chills. Alamance county, Oct. 9, 1868. Dr. Livingston: I have used your Florida Balm in case of chills and fever and it cured me thoroughly. I took one teaspoonful internally and rubbed well the back with the same. I would advise everybody suffering with chills and fever to use your Balm, as it is a sure remedy in every case for which I have tried it and I have used it in different cases. I wish you great success in the sale of your Balm. Yours truly, W. R. ISOLT.

LOOK! READ! PONDERS!!! FORESTED CITY, N. C., Nov. 5th, 1868. Dr. G. H. Livingston: Dear Sir—I feel that it is a duty I owe to suffering humanity, to give a relation of the great benefit I derived from the use of your Florida Balm. On the 25th of last May I had the misfortune to be seized by that dreadful disease "Articular Rheumatism," and after exhausting nearly all the remedies prescribed by Physicians for about three months, all of which I could not walk without the aid of crutches, neither could I rest in any position for the excruciating pains located in my left hip and leg, about the joints, and in all human probability I should have fallen a victim to the malady if I should have been in a hopeless condition, made acquainted with your Balm, which I resolved to try. I sent to Greensboro and procured a single bottle, and commenced using it according to the directions for Rheumatism, and the result was, within 24 hours, my complete recovery. My only regret is, that I did not earlier know of this extraordinary virtue. Since that time I have regularly used the Balm in my family, and the more I use it the better I like it. I think, as a family Medicine, it has no equal. Respectfully Yours, Not. 12th—11ft R. H. MORRIS.

From Hon. A. Mitchell. In using Dr. Livingston's Florida Balm two or three times to soothe an irritation of the skin, it appeared to me an effective remedy for that purpose. A. MITCHELL. Sept. 20th, 1868.

Cure for Chills. Alamance county, Oct. 9, 1868. Dr. Livingston: I have used your Florida Balm in case of chills and fever and it cured me thoroughly. I took one teaspoonful internally and rubbed well the back with the same. I would advise everybody suffering with chills and fever to use your Balm, as it is a sure remedy in every case for which I have tried it and I have used it in different cases. I wish you great success in the sale of your Balm. Yours truly, W. R. ISOLT.

LOOK! READ! PONDERS!!! FORESTED CITY, N. C., Nov. 5th, 1868. Dr. G. H. Livingston: Dear Sir—I feel that it is a duty I owe to suffering humanity, to give a relation of the great benefit I derived from the use of your Florida Balm. On the 25th of last May I had the misfortune to be seized by that dreadful disease "Articular Rheumatism," and after exhausting nearly all the remedies prescribed by Physicians for about three months, all of which I could not walk without the aid of crutches, neither could I rest in any position for the excruciating pains located in my left hip and leg, about the joints, and in all human probability I should have fallen a victim to the malady if I should have been in a hopeless condition, made acquainted with your Balm, which I resolved to try. I sent to Greensboro and procured a single bottle, and commenced using it according to the directions for Rheumatism, and the result was, within 24 hours, my complete recovery. My only regret is, that I did not earlier know of this extraordinary virtue. Since that time I have regularly used the Balm in my family, and the more I use it the better I like it. I think, as a family Medicine, it has no equal. Respectfully Yours, Not. 12th—11ft R. H. MORRIS.
