DANVILLE, VA.—We passed a day in this enterprising little city last week, and found it as full of go-as-headliness as usual.

We will refer briefly to some of our most enterprising business men, and as we expect (having been treated so well) to visit here again soon, will afterwards refer to others not mentioned in this article.

The first place, of course, (and the most important to a hungry man) is the Paxton House. With such men as Maj. Bethel and Col. Williamson to attend to your every want it would take a hungry man "grumble" to complain of anything. Then if you wish something to stimulate you, walk in the bar room and you will find "Long Bill" Adams, as long, as lank, and as crabbed as ever, though at the same time ever ready to wait on his customers; he still has a frank, cordial greeting for his friends, of whom he has many in this section.

SEXT.—Is the large wholesale and retail Dry Goods store of W. H. P. & Co. These gentlemen do a large amount of business—their stock on hand amounting to $40,000, and their average sales per year $150,000. Pretty good, we think, for one house in a little inland city.

They have also a large furniture establishment, and assort, and from what we saw, we have no right to doubt the assertion, that they can and do sell goods in their line as cheap or cheaper, freight included, than the same quality can be bought North. The Richmond establishments are nowhere, and we may leave out the freight at that.

We went through their wholesale establishment, including 4 large salerooms, and never saw a larger or better assortment of Dry Goods or Furniture than was there shown us.

MORE A FEW.—who-by-the-way are very clever gentlemen, are in the same line of business, and have also a large stock of both Dry Goods and Furniture, but they being busy and we the same, we did not have time to get all the items from them we wished. We'll interview them, if possible next week. And now the BIGGEST MAN we saw in Danville was Col. Voss, proprietor of that popular tailoring establishment on Main Street. Go there for your clothes.

Since the above writing, business having called us to another portion of the city, we went, and who should we run against but Voss. We invited him to a saloon to imitate with us, but he would not comply, and now he may go to ——— Danville and all the many orders he has received in this and other towns and cities he has lately visited.

He choked us nearly to death with a $250 cravat and we'll never forget him, never. Now if he'd have just given us ——— a something to wear it on we could go to church on Sundays.

CANED.—And nicely too, we were by W. M. Gilliam, of whom we saw without fear of contradiction is one of the best Harnessed Makers in Va.

REVISED.—We are in receipt of the prospectus of The New North Star, which is to take the place of the Republican which died for want of fodder and too much Klu Klux on the brain. We trust the new management will be warned by the sad fate of its predecessor, and give us a paper whose first object will not be to slander and misrepresent the Southern people as a mass. If it will labor to build up instead of pull down our section we will wish it success in everything but its politics.

PERSONAL.—Maj. N. H. Hotchkiss, known to most of our citizens as the leader of the editorial party which visited us last summer, called upon us yesterday and illuminated our office with the sunshine of his genial presence. The Major is now traveling in the interest of the Richmond & York River Railroad for the purpose of making the acquaintance of our business men and people generally. No man who has more at heart the welfare and interest of the South moves on the ground, nor no man who in his sphere has labored harder or done more to promote both. Wherever he goes let him be taken by the right hand of fellowship, and greeted with that cordiality which true men merit.

Open-hearted, genial, trusty men like he are sure of a host of friends wherever they go.

Don't fail to read the advertisement of Mrs. Gorrell.

A BEET that beats all the bees we ever heard of was shown us yesterday evening. It beats and badly beats the bees we were bragging on last week.

It was raised in this city, not far from where we are now writing, and weighed the modest little amount of 134 pounds.

Old Joe (colored) claimed to be the man that "dugged" it, and it was dug up, up, too, ——— and the last we saw of it and the beet, the former with the latter on his shoulder, came as it was a log of wood, they were going down West Market, and he stopped only long enough to say: "Now, Maribah, gin old like a puff, won't you?"

Maribah, gin old like a puff, won't you? Maribah, gin old like a puff, won't you? Maribah, gin old like a puff, won't you?

We promised him the "puff" and here it is, and we think Greensboro, or old like, or both, now claims the champion beet.

We again ask: Who can beat this beet? P. S.—We wish it distinctly understood that this is not a "dead beet," but we think we can compete successfully with any other city in the State on that score also.

If any of them are disposed to test the matter, let's hear from them. We can trot out our man in a moment's notice.

THE NEW YORK OBSERVER enters upon its Fiftieth Year on the 1st of January next. Its career has been one of the most successful in the history of American journalism. Every department is conducted with ability. Its Foreign Correspondence is unrivaled, and its independence in commenting upon political corruptions is in the highest degree praiseworthy.

We notice that it appears in a "New Dress," and also announces that the success of its Year Book for 1871 will result in Volume No. 2 for 1872, which will be still more complete in its statistical and other tables of information, and in its general arrangement.

Such enterprise deserves success, and we advise our readers to send for a specimen copy of the paper. New subscribers will receive the paper free until January 1st.

ON OUR TABLE.
Ballou's Monthly Magazine for December. The December number of this popular magazine is out and for sale at all the depots in the country. It is a capital issue, and has more publication of real value and interest than any other of its class in the country. No one can fail to be interested in "Ballou's Magazine," for the simple reason that the publishers cater to the tastes of all, and not to one class alone, as many serials do. Old and young can find amusement in Ballou's, and it is not of an expensive kind either, for $1.50 secures it for a year, and it is rich and varied, as will be seen by the following list of contents:—A Christmas Carol; "Moosecow, Russia;" "Christmas Rhymes;" "The Toucan and the Pelican;" The Port of Lerwick, Scotland; "New Blackfriars Bridge, London;" "With what Measure ye Mete;" "Somebody's Love in the Years long ago;" "The Story of Effland;" "The Bird Witness;" "Manderville;" "My Dead;" "Was it a Dream?" "Gideon Bunker's Exile;" "At Christmas;" "Angie Barber's Captain;" "Cornbury—A Christmas Tale;" "The Gipsies;" OUR YOUNG PEOPLE'S STORY-TALKER—"Guess or, The Son of a Politician;" "Three Boys and a Bear;" "Mamma's Kisses;" "The Housekeeper;" "Facts and Fancies;" "A Neighborly War;" Humorous Illustrations. Now is the time to start clubs for the new year. Address Thomas & Talbot, 63 Congress Street, Boston.

ACROSS THE FIVE—The School Festival.—Quarterly magazine, devoted to original matter, for Day School and Sunday School Exhibitions, and Public Occasions.

The October number of this popular magazine (which was destroyed by the great Chicago fire, when all ready to mail, has been reprinted, and has just reached us. As its subscription list was burned, the Publishers request us to ask their subscribers to send their addresses, stating what numbers were yet due them, and to remit their subscription for next year. Let all teachers and pupils subscribe now, for the School Festival—they all need it. It costs only 50 cents a year, in advance, or 15 cents for a single number.

The Publishers were very heavy losers by the great fire, but they don't propose to allow their subscribers to lose anything.

Send by mail, to Alfred L. Sewell & Co., Publishers, Chicago, Ill.

Incidents of the Great Fire.—Send, by mail, fifty cents to Alfred L. Sewell, Publisher, Chicago, Ill., and receive, post-paid, a copy of his cloth-bound book of Incidents of the Great Chicago Fire.

Great America, a joy to our juveniles, and the admiration of parents, has completed another year. In its very useful career we have no doubt its old patrons will continue, and new ones will flock to its steady support, as it is one of the many of our juvenile publications that fill all the requirements we desire in such a book, while the small price, $1 per year, or the liberal inducements for clubs, put it within the reach of all families. W. Jennings Demorest, Publisher, 535 Broadway, N. Y.

I am thoroughly satisfied that Simmons' Liver Regulator is all it claims to be for indigestion and Bilious Complaints. I have also heard many of my friends speak of it, and all agree that it possesses the virtues claimed for it. A. H. HIGHTOWER, Conductor M. & W. R. R.

A Brand of Whiskey controlled by Messrs. W. D. Blair & Co. of Richmond, Va., called "Old Scotch," is fast becoming the most popular brand in Virginia. It is a pure medicinal article, and its price is only $2.50 per gallon. 1944w

ROUSSEAU COUNTY, GA., Dec. 22, 1868.
Messrs. Zeller & Co., Merces, Ga.:
GENTLEMEN:—Simmons' Liver Regulator has been used in my family many years with great success. I regard it an invaluable family medicine, and take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

Very respectfully,
REV. J. RUFUS FELLER.

It is said that if a put of air were to be blown into a vein of an animal, death would instantaneously follow, because circulation would be stopped. The blood makes the entire circuit of the human body every seven minutes, and whenever this circulation is impeded or any of its channels are clogged by impurities which ought to be carried off, disease follows—fever or a disorder of liver or kidneys, or scrofula, or dyspepsia. To get at and remove the source of the difficulty use the old and infallible blood purifier, Dr. Wm. A. McFarland's VENUSIAN PILLS. 1924w

GUESS WHO IS THE NEAREST HOUSEKEEPER in our town? We know her. She cleans her knives, china, windows, paint, oil clothes, tables and floors, and brightens her tin, brass and copper wares with Enoch Morgan's Sons' Sapolio. Ask for it. It is a good thing.—For sale by
