RAILROAD MEETINGS.

There will be a meeting for the purpose of taking into consideration the ways and means of constructing the Greensboro & Cheraw Railroad at CENTRE, Guilford Co., Friday, November 7th, and at GREENSBORO, Saturday, Nov. 8th, when it is hoped the people will turn out in force and take an active interest in this important work.

Township canvassers are requested to give as extended a notice of these meetings as possible, so that the public may be generally informed as to time and place of meeting. Good speakers will be present on both occasions.

By order of Executive Committee,

VIRGINIA RIGHT SIDE UP.

CONSERVATIVES TRIUMPHANT.

The election in Virginia yesterday was a glorious triumph for the white men of that State. We have reports showing immense gains every where, and the election of the Conservative ticket by from 20,000 to 25,000 majority. Well done for "The Mother of States and of Statesmen."

The Financial Troubles.

Reports that daily reach us from the large cities of the north indicate a decidedly unsettled feeling in financial circles. The rate at which operatives are being discharged from factories and public works augurs a hard time and much suffering this winter among those who were dependent on the labor of their hands for their daily bread. And yet the worst has not come; for in addition to the scarcity of money just now, in a few weeks more the streams will be frozen where most of the manufacturing is now done, and thousands more of employees will be thrown out of employment till spring. So we see nothing in store for these vast numbers of toilers but a long, cheerless winter.

Money is scarce now and it will be more so. It will continue so at least till spring. It would be impossible to revive business now, to re-open the enterprises that have been closed this fall, and it cannot be done in mid-winter.

Whether mercantile communities can withstand this continued strain remains to be seen. We don't believe they can, and shall not be surprised if we read of numerous failures between now and the 1st of January. The scarcity of money must necessarily result in low prices and lead to no little embarrassment among the farming community. Cotton planters will fail to realize the figures they had counted on for their crops, and western farmers will find but small returns for the immense quantities of grain now garnered, the bulk of which they will be compelled to put into market during the winter months. In ordinary times with money plentiful, prices out there when crops are abundant range low, and with cash scarce will be still lower. The South will not suffer to the same extent the West will except in those localities where they may have contracted debts to raise their crops and where they will be compelled to go to market, irrespective of prices, to meet their liabilities.

There is nothing particularly cheerful in the outlook; but whilst it will undoubtedly result in much distress throughout the country for the present it will be productive of great good in the future, especially to the South if we choose to avail ourselves of the advantages to be derived from it.

It will do much toward turning public attention to the South and turning the tide of immigration this way, too, if we are active in presenting correct views of the South, and making her known as she should be. There are thousands of industrious people in the North and in the West who would gladly exchange their cold winters for our sunny clime if they knew more about it than they do, and their present experience will only add to the desire to seek new homes.

Five thousand male and female operatives have been thrown out of employment in Patterson, N. J.

Nicholas Doyle, at Oneida, N. Y. got jealous of his wife, shot her dead and then shot himself.

Prof. Agassiz will lecture before Congress this winter on the "relation of man to other animals." He thinks that Congressmen ought to know their relations.

Astronomers predict that the coming winter will be the coldest we have had in 76 years.

A Burlesque on Justice.

The third trial of Stokes for the murder of Fisk has resulted in finding a verdict of "manslaughter in the third degree." They might just as well have gone a little further and rendered a verdict of "justifiable homicide," which would have looked better, to say the least of it.

The press of New York is indignant at the result and is savage in its denunciations of the jury whose stupidity or mercenaryness rendered such a verdict possible.

We were perfectly satisfied from the start that Mr. Stokes would never be hanged for the murder of Fisk, and we are a little surprised now that it did not turn out a case of justifiable killing.

Mr. Stokes was too nice a gentleman to dance into the other world with a rope around his neck, and he was entirely too well connected to be handled by the law in the vulgar manner that common people are. The idea of choking a kid-gloved, cloth-clad, perfumed, curly-haired gentleman to death is simply monstrous and absurd. Had he been a poor cuss, belonging to some humble family, justice would have avenged herself, and twelve virtuous, pure-minded guardians of public morality, would have looked wise and decreed that he should die and the judge would have looked solemn, passed sentence and said "may the Lord have mercy upon your soul." And then he would on the day fixed be brought out from his cell and a favored few be invited to see him dance in mid air.

Well poor people have no business to indulge in the luxury of killing folks, and they can't expect to enjoy all the privileges extended to the rich. If they do they shouldn't feel hard if they are hanged for it.

It was about time this hanging business was dispensed with anyway. We think the history of the gallows sufficiently shows that it has proved a failure as a preventative of murder, and having failed it ought to be abolished as a disgusting, barbarous and demoralizing practice. If it is to be used only for the execution of poor devils who are unfortunate enough to imbue their hands in blood, while the rich are exempt, that is another reason for doing away with it.

Opposed as we are to death on the gallows we are not sorry that Stokes was not hanged, but we are sorry that such a mockery of justice was made in his trial and the ridiculous verdict of the jury. He ought to have gone to the penitentiary for life.

The following are said to be Grant's pet schemes, which the Washington Republican assures us we shall certainly have within five years:

1. A Postal Savings Bank.
2. A Government Telegraph.
3. A Bureau of Railroads and Transportation.
4. Free Banking.

What next?

A. & N. Sprague, the large cotton manufacturers of Rhode Island, have failed.

The U. S. debt statement for October shows an increase of $3,000,000.

Mount Etna has begun to spout fire, and shake things around it with earthquakes.

Woodson, of the News, is doing a good work in Raleigh by calling public attention to the destitute condition of the poor at home.

There are only 127 different kinds of grasshoppers in the Yellowstone region.

Of the money contributed in Washington for the relief of Memphis, $600 was from the frail creatures who dwell in the habitations of vice.

Colored gemmen in New Orleans value a glass of soda water at $500, and that's what they sue for when a druggist refuses to sell it to them.

A monument is to be erected to Gen. Scott in Washington. It will be composed of four immense stones weighing respectively 119, 84, 48, 37 tons. These blocks as they come from the quarry cost $40,000.

Patsey Manley, a bruiser was fatally shot in St. Louis, on the night of the 28th ult., by Mike McCool, another bruiser.

The Board of Health, in Memphis has issued a circular to absent citizens, informing them that the yellow fever is sufficiently abated to permit their return home. That is "good news from home."

Salem is making arrangements for a series of winter lectures.

The register of voters this year in New York is 26,000 less than last year.

Molly Fay, a frail denizen of Green street, New York, got drunk, cut the veins of both arms with a razor and bled to death because her lover deserted her.

Twenty thousand working girls have been deprived of work in the factories of New York.

Is That All?

During the session of the Federal Court at Statesville, last week, a conservative lawyer, while interceding in behalf of his clients, represented to the Judge that illicit distilling had quite if not entirely ceased in Gaston county.

The Judge answered very positively, "That such couldn't be the case, as since his arrival at Court, he had received intelligence from sources entirely reliable, that not less than fifty were then in operation in that county, and that the United States Commissioners and Deputy Marshals were interested in a number of them."—Piedmont Press.

Fifty is not many. And who has a better right to engage in that kind of business than United States Commissioners and Deputy Marshals? In consideration of the immense sacrifices they make, and the loyalty they display, they ought to be allowed to run a few distilleries on the sly.

The Providence, R. I. Journal declares that a printed calico is a handsome article than an India shawl, and that if prints were two dollars a yard no woman would rest quiet until she had a dress of them. It adds that it would be easy to name a hundred women of social position and fashionable leadership, who by resolving to dress for a year in American fabrics, might give an impulse to industry and production that would be felt all over the country. If the pay of Congressmen and President were at the rate of twenty-five years ago (there would be several hundred women willing to do without India shawls, and to wear handsome and cheaper American goods. The aping of European fashions is the consequence of aping European salaries.

Four leaders of fashion, male and female, would just set the example to their imitators, there wouldn't be one-fourth the demand for foreign goods that there is. And if our Southern ladies and gentlemen would wear home-made goods and encourage their manufacture, our cotton would soon be woven at home, and we would not be sending the millions annually North, as we do now.

CHALLENGE TO NORTH CAROLINA.—Fifteen gallant Knights of Virginia, challenge an equal number of North Carolina Knights to meet them in a Tournament at Boydton on the 14th of November. Committee—Jas. A. Wimbish, H.C. Overby and W. H. Finch. Gentlemen desiring to take part in the Tournament will please address the Committee.—South Side Virginian.

We hope North Carolina hasn't got a sufficient number of idiots to accept this challenge.

We do think of all the ridiculous absurdities in the human line this modern "tournament," where "gallant knights" display their proficiency in poking a stick through a ring, takes the palm.

As a meritorious institution the whirling beats it all hollow.

Wilmington has a pig with four eyes, eight legs and two tails.—That's nothing. One of our neighbors has two pigs that have four ears, eight legs and two tails.

The cotton manufacturers of Massachusetts had a meeting last week and decided on a reduction of working time. Thirty-nine of the mills represented employed 14,000 hands.

They want the United States Marshal in San Francisco to pay $10,000 for carrying witnesses through the streets hand-cuffed like felons. What's the use of being a Marshal, we'd like to know, if they are to be denied these little amusements.

There were elections held yesterday in Virginia, Mississippi, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Kansas, Arkansas, Illinois, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

In the last three the farmers have tickets in the field.

If some of our editors will persist in writing French, we wish they would make their compositors study a little so they might set it up right.

What a big thing that Harper wrote in the Caucasian for some of the Radical editors. They will have something now to write about.

The Cheraw Road.

We again call attention to the effort that is being made to secure the construction of this road, and urge the people in the neighborhood of the places where the meetings will be held on Friday and Saturday, to turn out in force and show by their presence that they are interested in the success of the enterprise.

There never will be a better opportunity presented of supplying railroad facilities to the section of country in question, and the people between here and Cheraw will make a grievous mistake if they permit the opportunity to pass by without taking advantage of it.

This road completed and in operation from here to Charleston would place the four counties through which it will run among the first in the State. Lands would appreciate in value along the line and property holders would be benefited thrice the amount of stock they are asked to take in it.

As the case stands there is nothing to lose and everything to gain by taking hold promptly and pushing the work along.

We are all interested in it and should do all in our power to make it a success.

What Education Will Do.

TRUE, OF COURSE.—Some one writing from Indiana to the Patriot, signing himself "Don," tells a heavy story about social equality in the West. Of course, all who read it will know it to be truthful. He says the negroes escort white ladies to church, balls, parties, &c., while the poor white man has to stand aloof. That correspondent must have a very poor opinion of the Patriot's readers, if he expects any of them to believe him.—New North State.

John M. Langston lately delivered an address in Baltimore, in which he took the position, that as the colored race progress in education and civilization, color will be lost sight of and they will be treated according to merit. This may be so; but before it occurs, the whites themselves will have to be educated in such a way as to remove their prejudices. We believe their antipathy to the African race is caused by education alone, and that it is a morose natural and inherent. In the last ten years, much has been done to overcome this prejudice, and with the education and progress of the blacks, themselves, another ten years will produce much more remarkable changes.—New North State.

Perhaps in Indiana they are "educated in such a way as to remove their prejudices."

A bold attempt at highway robbery was made in Richmond on Friday night. Three villains attacked Prof. D'Oroville, the rope-walker, on 14th street, and demanded his money. He knocked one down, another ran away and the third let him with a knife, cutting him pretty severely, when his cries for police and the sudden appearance of two gentlemen, put a stop to the knifing operation. This will make little sensation for a city usually as orderly as Richmond.

The Revenue Service—Its Oppressions and Abuses.

The investigation of the Deaver case, and the examination of divers alleged cases of illicit distilling, at Statesville, last week, together with a general review of the conduct of the officers of the service, forces the conclusion that the Internal Revenue system, as generally conducted in North Carolina, and the South, is an imposition on the government, and an outrage on citizens of the United States.

We find deputy marshals, deputy collectors, special agents, informers and spies, ranging over the country, leading squads of soldiers, pushing down fences, riding through cornfields, cutting up at people's houses, and with travelling Commissioners to arrest, try and bind over the country as they go.

Now and then a poor fellow is found in the attempt to convert a little unmarketable grain into cash and is put through the mill of pains and penalties, for such cases made and provided.

But in the majority of cases persons are arrested on trumped up charges of illicit distilling, and so far has the practice of manufacturing testimony and creating circumstances gone, that jury refuse to convict on the bare testimony of men paid so much a year as standing witnesses for the government, hence there are few convictions, and these generally include that class of men too poor to defend themselves.

The spectacle is therefore presented of a great government, whose institutions are the pride of civilization, whose strength and beauty are the admiration, and whose growth the wonder of the world, the power and machinery of its Courts, aided by snorered witnesses, a population of its people too poor to maintain themselves, ordinarily, against a constable's claim involving four shillings of cost.—Under the system as it now is, conviction is the penalty of weakness and poverty; acquittal the reward of wealth and the applause of strength.

The member of Congress from this District, Hon. W. A. Smith, has pledged himself for the abolition of the entire Internal Revenue system. He will have the support and hearty applause of the masses of the Republican party, and only encounter the opposition of a few office-holders, informers and spies. Let the Internal Revenue system be totally abolished, and the Revenue raised on imports.—Raleigh Era.

The Late Elections.

Figures and Comparative Statements.

The popular vote cast in the late Ohio election for Governor was thus divided:

For Allen, Democrat, 214,603
For Noyes, Republican, 213,847
For Collins, People's, 9,991
For Stewart, Temperance, 10,040

Whole vote cast, 448,481

Allen over Noyes, 756
The vote of Ohio for Secretary of State last year was:

For Wikoff, Republican, 265,930
For Wiley, Democrat, 251,780

Republican majority, 14,150
Decrease in Republican vote this year, 52,083

Decrease in Democratic vote, 37,177
Late October vote short of last year's, 89,260

The late Ohio election, therefore, upon a vote less than a full vote by nearly thirty thousand, going by default, as indicating the strength of either of the two great parties signifies nothing.

Memphis—The Absentees Called Home.

The Board of Health of Memphis has issued the following address, which will be welcome intelligence not only to the absent citizens of that stricken city, but to good people everywhere:

"We deem it our duty to announce to the public that we no longer consider yellow fever as epidemic in Memphis. If all past experience holds good, then the continued cold weather, heavy frosts and severe freezes, justify the opinion that the conditions of its spread no longer exist.

"Therefore, after humbly returning thanks to the Good God, for at last removing the terrible scourge from our stricken city, we invite all absentees back to their long deserted homes. At the same time we urge a repetition of the precautions suggested in a recent circular, regarding free ventilation and disinfection of all houses, before re-occupying them.

"By order of the Board,"
We notice in the Avalanche of the 30th inst. the following: "$4 from a fair held by Susie McDonald and four other little girls at Richmond, Va., contributed to the Leath Orphan Asylum."

Horrible Outrage by Kellogg's Metropolitans in Louisiana.

New Orleans, November 1.—A letter from ex-Judge Merrill, dated Colfax, Grant Parish, October 29th, says:

"In haste and with feelings of horror I write to inform the public of the action of the Metropolitan police, sent here by Lieutenant Governor Antoine during the absence of Governor Kellogg. On Saturday night last the house of a most respectable widow lady on Red river, near this place, was fired into. The doors were broken open, and the unfortunate lady and her daughter of seventeen summers were taken out, and horrible to relate, violated. One of the ladies could be found until late Sunday afternoon. An infant 18 months old, and grandchild of ex-Governor Wells, was found out in the woods some half a mile from the house and near the spot where the foul deed was perpetrated. The infant was the niece of the lady and child of Mumford Wells, son of ex-Governor Wells.

The negroes all here say that it was the soldiers, and we all believe that they were not the perpetrators, but that they instigated negroes to the horrible deed of infamy. It is said here that when Col. McKlyne was informed of the outrage he smiled and said his troops, were up here for higher purposes than arresting men for such a petty offence. Antoine is believed to have sent these creatures up here to give the negroes a chance for revenge, and one of them told the writer that he had this night under protection of the United States to shoot any white man he wanted to shoot and violate any woman he met. He said to him that these were State troops, and not United States troops, and he replied that the Colonel had said at a negro ball the night before that he wanted all the colored people to come and see him; that now they could do as they pleased, as they were under protection of his soldiers."

From France.

PARIS, Nov. 4.—President McMahon to day received delegations from all sections of the Right. It is believed that after the prolongation of the President's powers has been voted the ministry will be reconstructed, and series of strongly conservative measures be introduced in the Assembly. The deputies of the entire Left have agreed to the question of Government on its participation in the intrigues of the monarchical coalition.

In view of a large increase of emigration from Europe the coming year the Canadian authorities are making efforts to turn its course toward the Dominion. The Government offers to agricultural laborers a passage from Liverpool to Quebec for $11 for all over eight years. The Ontario Government grants to the emigrant, or person or associations aiding $6, so that the actual cost of the passage is reduced to $5. Other emigrants, not coming under the head of agricultural laborers, pay $25 for the voyage, of which the government remits $5, making the cost $18.

It is not generally known, but nevertheless a fact, that the late William Eaton, Sr., of Warren county, was the largest tobacco grower in the world. The large farm that produced this great quantity of tobacco is now devoted exclusively to the production of cotton.—Raleigh News.

There will be a special term of New Hanover Superior Court fourth Monday in December, and of Robeson Court second Monday in January.

Call for the Redemption of Bonds.

Washington, D. C., November 1.—The Treasury has just issued the seventh call for the redemption of five-twenty bonds of 1862 as follows:

By virtue of authority given by an act of Congress approved July 14th, 1870, entitled "an act to authorize the refunding of the national debt," I hereby give notice that the principal and accrued interest of the bonds herein below designated, known as five-twenty bonds, will be paid at the Treasury of the United States, in the city of Washington, on and after the 1st day of February, 1874, and that the interest on said bonds will cease on that day.

That is to say, coupon bonds known as the third series, act of February 25, 1862, dated May 1, 1862, as follows: Coupon bonds, $50, Nos. 10,201 to 10,600 both inclusive; $100, Nos. 30,751 to 34,000 both inclusive; $500, Nos. 15,801 to 17,600 inclusive; $1,000, Nos. 36,001 to 41,000 inclusive—$4,500,000. Registered bonds, $50, Nos. 1,376 to 1,410 inclusive; $100, Nos. 10,301 to 10,560 inclusive; $500, Nos. 6,101 to 6,300 inclusive; $1,000, Nos. 25,601 to 25,650 inclusive; $5,000, Nos. 7,901 to 8,001 inclusive; $10,000, Nos. 10,101 to 10,320 inclusive; $500,000—total, $5,000,000.

Of the amount outstanding, embraced in the numbers as above, four and one-half million dollars ($4,500,000) are coupon bonds and five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) are registered bonds. United States securities forwarded for redemption should be addressed to the Loan Division, Secretary's Office, and all registered bonds should be assigned to the Secretary of the Treasury for redemption.

[Signed] WM. A. RICHARDSON, Secretary.

Important Decision.

The Homestead in Bankruptcy, &c.

In the Circuit Court of the United States, in the cases of George W. Dillard and others, bankrupts. In these cases the creditors having docketed judgments, obtained decrees in State courts directing the lands of their debtors to be sold to satisfy their judgments. Afterwards the debtors filed petitions in bankruptcy, claiming the homestead exemption of $2,000 each. Judge Underwood, of the United States District Court, entered orders allowing these exemptions. The creditors took the cases to the United States Circuit Court by petition.

The decision of Judge Underwood was over-ruled by Judge Bond, who yesterday decided the following points:

1. Where suits are pending in State Courts before the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings, if there be no suggestion of fraud, and no interest of general creditors will be prejudiced, the bankrupt court ought not to interfere with the jurisdiction of the State court.
2. When the bankrupt has made a deed of trust to secure creditors, he is not entitled to any exemption out of the property conveyed until the deed is satisfied, even although the deed be adjudged fraudulent as to creditors by the State court.
3. When the proceedings in bankruptcy were commenced before the passage of the amendatory act of March 3rd, 1873, the bankrupt is entitled to such exemption only as was allowed by the laws existing at the time the proceedings commenced.
4. The amendatory act, so far as it is declaratory of the intention of the act of 1867, is void.
5. The rights of the bankrupt, and of his creditors, are fixed according to the laws in force when the bankruptcy proceedings commenced, and no subsequent legislation can affect them.—Rich. Whig.

Proposed Legal Convention.—Some Western papers have broached the subject of calling a convention of delegates from all the States, to be composed of the ablest lawyers, to recommend to the State Legislatures a uniform system of laws and forms concerning the acquisition, enjoyment and disposition of real and personal property, the forms and requirements of wills, deeds, mortgages, notes, receipts; the rules of taking and certifying depositions and other similar matters.

Professor James Allen, a veteran aeronaut of Providence, R. I., has nearly completed arrangements with some persons in San Francisco for a trans-continental voyage with a balloon which will have a capacity of 200,000 feet. He will make the attempt about the first of May 1874.

The fall term of the Davidson Superior Court has been postponed until the 3rd of next month on account of sickness in the family of Judge Cannon.

English statisticians tell us that twenty years before the Crimean war the military and naval expenditure of the country was ten millions. In 1854 it had risen to sixteen millions. Since the termination of the Crimean war, it has averaged more than $26,000,000 a year, and including interest, paid to maintain army and navy exceed the total value of the coal produced in the United Kingdom, far exceeds the total deposits of the industrial and economic classes invested in all the saving banks, while the expense of keeping up the army and navy last year was only $4,000,000 less than the value of the entire importations of wheat, barley, oats, maize and flour for the same time, which amounted to $30,000,000.

C. C. Fulton, editor of the Baltimore American, states that during nearly five months he journeyed in Prussia, Austria and France he never encountered any one laboring under the influence of intoxicating liquors, not even sufficiently exhilarated to be noisy. In the districts through which he travelled, the people make free use of the lighter wines, which are regarded as promotive of temperance, as beer is in England.

London Saturday Review mentions among the distinguished Protestants who attended the Old Catholic Congress, which met at Constance August 31st: "Dr. Lyman, Bishop of North Carolina." The Review further says that Dr. Lyman and Dean Howson, of England, officiated at the English service on Sunday.

In the matter of the shooting and killing of a negro desperado, by Wm. Harris, Esq., of Person county, some months ago, the Grand Jury of Person Superior Court investigated it last week thoroughly, and failed to find a true bill. This case created a great deal of excitement throughout the county, but the people express the greatest gratification at the verdict.—Milton Chronicle.

The Carter Murder Case.—True bills were found yesterday against Elizabeth Carter, white, and David Martin, Jimmie Anderson and W. H. Merrick, colored, and not a true bill against Elijah Martin. A panel of two hundred extra talismen has been ordered, from which to select a jury and the parties will be arraigned for trial at 10 o'clock this morning.—Wilmington Journal.

A North Carolina author and journalist has gone to the shadowy land. Major Stephen F. Miller died of consumption in Columbus, Georgia, last week. Maj. Miller was one time assistant editor New Orleans Delta, and afterward edited the Tusculooa Monitor and the Edgefield Reformer. He also contributed to various other papers. "The Bench and Bar of Georgia" an original work, and "Reminiscences of Distinguished Men in Alabama," which he edited, had considerable circulation.—Wilmington Star.

Killed on the Railroad.—The down train last Saturday morning, ran over and Irishman, a section hand, eight miles above this place and cut his right arm off, and completely crushed his head. A coroner's jury was summoned, and from facts elicited before them, proved that he was struck by the engine, and had doubtless lain down on the track and went to sleep. No blame attached to the engineer.—Concord Sun.

The Raleigh News says: Lead mines were discovered in Wake county years ago, and only a few weeks since we published the fact that a Philadelphia firm had commenced mining operations seven miles east of the city, and upon their testimony, gave it as our opinion that they would be worked to an immense profit.

Yesterday we were shown a specimen of lead taken from a ledge or strata from a hillside on Walnut Creek, three miles west of the city, which is said to be of very superior quality. The supply from this vein in the opinion of our informant, is inexhaustible. We have the specimen on exhibition at our office, open for the future inspection of all interested.

A special to the Raleigh News, dated at Hillsboro, on the 29th, says: The suit of the State vs. Hon. W. W. Holden, was dismissed, on motion of defendant's counsel, on the plea that the offence alleged came within the provisions of the amnesty act of 1872-73. Mr. Turner protested against the decision of the Judge, but his decree was irrevocable and thus the matter rested.

The Bible Cause.—We had a pleasant call yesterday afternoon from Rev. P. A. Strobel, the agent of the American Bible Society for North Carolina. Mr. Strobel is just returning from an extended tour through the mountains, where he has been laboring for some time past, and reports the Bible cause spreading and flourishing. He tells us that his collections for the month past exceeded by over $200 those for the same month last year. The people wherever he has been, are awaking to the importance of the work, and are laboring in its behalf. Mr. Strobel, since he began the work in which he is engaged, has been entirely over the State (in every county) once, and since last April has visited and lectured in fifty-eight counties. On one occasion, as he informs us, he delivered seven addresses between Sunday morning and Wednesday morning.

Mr. Strobel has his heart fully in the cause in which he is engaged. He is an earnest, efficient worker in the Master's cause, and through his instrumentality much good has been, and is being, accomplished.—Charlotte Observer.

And Still Another Murder in Fayetteville.—Fayetteville and its vicinity has been the scene of three murders since the 1st of October, and we are at a loss to know what has got into the old town. The last murder was perpetrated in that place on Tuesday morning, on the person of Mr.—Baker, by a negro man whose name we were not able to learn. Mr. Baker, the proprietor of a turpentine distillery, charged the colored man, who was in his employ, with stealing a watch, whereupon the colored man seized a bar of iron, and striking Mr. Baker on the head inflicted injuries that resulted in his death. The murderer made good his escape and is still at large.—Raleigh News.

The Western Examiner tells of a baby born in McDowell that has six fingers on each hand, without eyes or ears, and is a breathing, living phenomenon. The enterprising localizer of that journal interviewed a lady of McDowell county, who vouched for this singular freak of nature.—Raleigh News.

Rev. J. Henry Smith was in attendance at the Presbyterian Synod at Wilmington.

SPECIAL TERM.—There will be a special term of Guilford County Superior Court, commencing Monday, December 23d, for the trial of civil and criminal cases.

NEW GROCERY.—Wm. M. Houston & Co. have opened their new grocery store on East Market street, and will always keep on hand a full stock. See card in another column.

Bishop Atkinson will preach in St. Barnabas' church next Sunday.

On Thursday 27th Thanksgiving services will be held, instead of next Thursday as previously announced.

BRIGHT BACK.—Messrs. Murrow and Corbise returned last Sunday from Illinois, having in charge Peter Staley, an old man of 71 years, charged with killing Jacob Clapp in this county last spring. His son Allison, an accomplice, died in Illinois.

SOME PUMPKINS.—Miss Nancy Clark, residing in the eastern part of town raised a pumpkin in her garden weighing 54 pounds. There were 200 lbs. of pumpkins on the vine, and it isn't a good year for pumpkins either.

MORE PUMPKINS.—Mr. Milton Loyd, living one mile south east of Benbow's yard raised a pumpkin this year weighing 73 pounds, and five feet in circumference. The shell of that pumpkin would answer for "Peter, Peter, pumpkin eater" to put his wife in.

NEW GARDEN MEETING.—The meeting of Friends at New Garden on Sunday was one of the largest assemblies seen there for years. A very large number of visitors went from the town and surrounding country. There were quite a number of visitors, also, from Winston and Salem who took advantage of the accommodation extended by Mr. Allen, in putting on a train for the use of those desiring to attend.

APPOINTMENTS BY BISHOP ATKINSON. for the month of November:
Sunday, 9th, Greensboro.
Tuesday, 11th, Salem.
Thursday, 13th, Reidsville.
Saturday, 15th, Mountain Chapel.
Sunday, 16th, Rockingham Co.
Sunday, 16th, Leaksville.

HANDSOME COMPLIMENT.—The last number of the Concord Sea thus tenderly refers to Mr. Odell, engaged in merchandising there, now located in our city.

We regret, in common with all our people, the removal of Mr. Odell, to Greensboro. He has won golden opinions from all classes. A more liberal, high-toned gentleman, cannot be found in this country. We congratulate the citizens of Greensboro, on the accession of so good a citizen as Mr. O., and we especially congratulate the newspapermen, for he is one of the kind that has strong faith in printer's ink.

JUST SO.—We clip the following from an exchange and commend it to the attention of businessmen:

A good advertisement is the best of all possible salesmen. It is a salesman who never sleeps; is never weary; who goes after business early and late; accosts the merchant in his shop, the scholar in his study, the lawyer in his office, the lady at her breakfast table; who can be in a thousand places at once, and speak to thousands of people every morning and evening, saying to each one the best thing in the best manner.

STRIKE.—Thirty odd colored youths ranging from six to twelve years, employed in "toting" brick on McAdoo's new building, hearing of the strikes among mechanics and laboring men else where, concluded they would do likewise, Monday morning, and struck for an increase of 10 cents per day. Discharging the leader in this hostile movement, disarranged the plan of action and in five minutes they were at work and "toting" twice as many bricks as they did before the strike.

RAILROAD MEETINGS.—Our readers are apprised of the meeting at Centre next Friday and in Greensboro next Saturday. Speeches will be delivered on both of those occasions by Messrs Dockery, Worth, Caldwell, Settle, Welker, Ball, Mr. Jesse Lindsay will also give his views at the meeting in Greensboro.

We hope the attendance will be large and the results satisfactory.

RUN OVER.—Last Saturday afternoon the train going to Salem ran over C. S. Gossett, colored, badly bruising the right thigh. It seems he was either standing or walking on the track about a mile or so from town, and from the fact he made no effort to get out of the way and had no recollection of what occurred before he was struck by the engine, the Drs. think he had an attack of catalepsy. When picked up he was pretty badly bruised but Drs. Hall and Cheek who attended him, report that he will recover without permanent injury.

LOCAL ITEMS.—Subscribers receiving their papers with a cross before their names are reminded that their subscription has expired, and unless renewed in two weeks will be discontinued.

She was first attacked on the 26th, but was not considered in danger, until last Thursday when she had a chill terminating in congestion of the brain. At 5 p. m. Tuesday when Dr. Glenn arrived in obedience to the message sent him, she was speechless and unconscious and so remained until death summoned her away.

Her body was brought home on Sunday and after appropriate services in the Methodist church, of which she was a member, conveyed by sorrowing friends to its resting place in the Methodist cemetery.

COMMISSIONER'S COURT.—The case of Wm. Bryant, W. R. Blackwelder, Joseph Gray, Edward Lipe and Daniel Lipe, charged with dealing in counterfeit money, came up before the U. S. Commissioner last Thursday.

The two first were committed to jail in default of bail, the other three were bailed in the sum of $5,000.

P. Black, of Madison, Rockingham Co., previously bailed, was discharged, there being no evidence against him.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE has long excelled all others of its kind, but in its December number it excels even itself. The principal text engraving, "The Orphan Musician," will touch every heart. There is also a beautiful steel title-page for 1873, and a double-sized, colored, steel fashion plate. The novelets and other original stories are all by our best writers. "Peterson's" is, without question, the cheapest of the really good lady's books.

CHARLES J. PETERSON, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

INTERESTING STATISTICS OF YEARLY MEETING.—The following statistics of the denomination of Friends in this State, reported at the Yearly Meeting at New Garden will be found of interest. The small number of deaths among children, the average age of death, and the small number of persons who indulge in ardent spirits as a beverage will attract attention:

CHARLOTTE FAIR.—The Fair of the Carolinas begins at Charlotte, Nov. 24th continuing to 29th. This is one of the best fairs in the South, and will be more than usually attractive this year. Elsewhere will be found an advertisement to which we refer the readers for particulars.

The Secretary will please accept our thanks for a complimentary.

LECTURES.—We are informed by letter from Theo. N. Ramsey, that he has completed his arrangements for a series of lectures at prominent points in the State during the coming winter. The services of the most entertaining and distinguished lecturers and speakers in the country have been secured.

We will be favored on Thursday and Friday nights, Dec. 4th and 5th, with the presence of T. W. Hartley, the celebrated eloquentist, and on the night of Thursday, Dec. 12th, we will have the pleasure of listening to Rev. John E. Edwards, D. D., one of the most gifted pulpit orators in the South. The admission fee to those lectures will be 50 cents, reserved seats 75 cents.

We trust there will be such an attendance at these lectures as will encourage Mr. Ramsey to continue them at intervals throughout the winter.

DIED.

Mrs. Fannie Glenn, wife of Dr. R. W. Glenn, of Greensboro, N. C., at Col. J. Miller's, Pittsylvania county, Va., Oct. 18th, 1873. She was born and raised in Lynchburg, Va. She was twice married. Her whole married life was in the delicate relation of step-mother; but, no woman ever met the peculiar responsibilities of that relation, with more satisfaction and success to the families or admiration to acquaintances.

She was converted and joined the Methodist church when quite young, and lived a most consistent and useful life. Religion was the controlling power in her life. Duty was her pleasure, and the approbation of her God her highest joy.

Her funeral was preached in the Methodist church on Sunday 2nd to a large and sorrowing congregation.

She is gone to a blessed reward, but she has left the legacy of a holy life to her family and friends. Her death is a great loss to the community. May God sanctify her death to the weeping ones, and may they join her again on the other shore.

A more extended obituary will appear in due time.

J. A. CENNINGER.

At his residence in Rockingham county, Oct. 18th, 1873, after a painful and protracted illness, Alfred Reed, a highly respected citizen, a member of the Baptist church and once a representative from his county in the Legislature.

Over-Exercition, either of body or mind, produces debility and disease. The usual remedy is to take some stimulant, the effect of which is the same as giving a tired horse a whip instead of rest. The true way is to fortify the system with a permanent tonic like the Peruvian Syrup, (a protoxide of iron) which gives strength and vigor to the whole system.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—As an evidence of hard times in this city it is stated that pawn brokers are doing four times the amount of business they were doing a few months ago, and owing to the scarcity of money are giving less than one-third of the value of articles presented.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY
which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

PREPARED BY
SETH W. FORTUNE & SONS, Boston, Mass.,
And sold by Druggists and Dealers generally.

DR. TUTT'S EXPECTORANT
Is composed of Herbar and Mucilaginous products, which have a specific effect upon the pulmonary organs, penetrating every portion of them. It detaches from the Bronchial or Wind Tubes the irritating matter which accumulates, and assists them to throw it off, mitigates the pain, reduces the pressure of inflammation and removes the constriction of the chest.

The properties of this Elegant Preparation are Demulcent, Nutritive, Balsamic, Healing and Soothing. It loosens and cleanses the lungs, refreshes sleep, and relieves gloom and depression of spirits. It is very pleasant to take, causes no nausea, and strengthens the Lungs to resist attacks in the future.

YOU NEED NOT GO TO FLORIDA To Cure Your Cough.
If you use this Remedy, you can remain at home and enjoy its comforts, a privilege of vast importance to the sufferer from Pulmonary disease.

Dr. Tutts' Expectorant is a Specific for Croup. No mother should be without a supply of it. It is very pleasant to the child, and relieves the pain and suffering.

It is the most valuable Lung Balsam ever offered to sufferers from Diseases of the Throat or Chest.

For a full bottle, or six for $5. Sold by all Druggists. Office 42 Cortlandt St., N. Y. Nov. 5, 1873.

DR. TUTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS.
At one and the same time.
The research has at last been rewarded by a discovery which fully satisfies the fond desires of the medical faculty, and which is justly regarded as the most important triumph that Pharmacy has ever achieved. This important discovery is
Dr. Tutts' Vegetable Liver Pill.
Which purifies the blood and removes all corrupt humors and unhealthy accumulations from the body, and yet produces no weakness or lassitude whatever, but on the contrary invigorates the system, and encourages the progress of their operation. They unite the heretofore irreconcilable qualities of Strengthening purgative and a purgative.

DR. TUTT'S PILLS are the most active and searching medicine in existence. They at once attack the very root of disease, and their action is so prompt that in an hour or two after they are taken the patient is aware of their good effects. They may be taken at any time without restraint of diet or occupation; they produce neither nausea, griping or debility, and as a family medicine they have no rival.

How to Hang Gates.—A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette writes: "In the spring of 1867 I hung four large gates. The posts were six by eight inches square, and were put in the ground two and a half feet. The post that I hung the gate to was put down first and the gate then hung. I then set the other post so as to let the gate shut inside the post, one foot from the top and bottom of the gate. Then I put a one-inch pin through the head of the gate, putting the pin through the gate the same way the gate shuts, and extending through four inches, with the point of the pin elevated one inch. This pin was thus arranged so as to slip over the top pin in the post, with sufficient bearing to take out the spring of the gate.

In this way, when shut, the gate is supported by both posts. The gate is made of lumber, bars one inch thick, four or five inches wide, and eleven feet long. I take for the heel pieces lumber one inch thick, four inches wide, and four feet ten inches long. I also take two pieces two inches wide for the head of the gate. I then put a brace on both sides running from the top of the centre upright slats to the bottom of the heel pieces, all being firmly bolted together. The latch or bolt (three and one-half feet long) is placed on the top of the third or fourth bar. A mortise is cut in the post for the latch or bolt to slide in. The above four gates were hung in the spring of 1867. They stand as firm to-day as they did the day I hung them."

The Situation of an Orchard and Soil.—The situation of an orchard or fruit-garden should be one that has the advantage of a free circulation of air, and is exposed to the south, with a slight inclination to the east and southwest. When the situation is low and close, the trees are very liable to become mossy, which always injures them, by closing up the pores of the wood; they are also liable to be affected by light. Although having an orchard closely planted up by trees, etc., is injurious; nevertheless, a screen of forest-trees, at such a distance from the fruit trees, as that the latter will not be shaded by them is of very great service in protecting the trees in spring from severe cold winds.

A good, strong, loamy soil, not too retentive of moisture to the depth of thirty inches, or three feet is most suitable for an orchard. Great attention must be paid to the character of the soil, and it must be well drained; for if the top soil be ever so good, and the bottom wet, it is very rarely the case that the trees prosper many years—they soon begin to be diseased and go to decay. As it is so indispensably necessary to the success of fruit trees that the bottom should be dry, it is not naturally so, it must be made so by judicious draining.

How to Stew Oysters.—Drain the liquor from two quarts of oysters; mix with it a little teaspoonful of hot water, add a little salt and pepper, and set over the fire in a saucepan. When it comes to a boil, add a large cupful of rich milk, (cream is better.) Let it boil up once, put in the oysters, let them boil for five minutes or less—no more. When they "bubble," add two tablespoonfuls of butter, and the instant it is melted and well stirred in, take the saucepan from the fire. Serve with oyster or cream crackers, as soon as possible. Oysters become tough and tasteless when baked too much, or left to stand too long after they are withdrawn from the fire. A good and safe plan is, to heat the milk in a separate vessel set in another of hot water, and after it is mingled with the liquor and oysters stir assiduously or it will "catch," as the cooks say—i. e., scorch on the sides or bottom of the saucepan.

Autumn Plowing.—An exchange says: "In all heavy clay soils and heavy clay loams, autumn plowing is of great advantage. The winter frost is a mechanical pulverizer and disintegrator of such soils, if we will but put them in proper condition to be acted upon. Potash is one of the elements of such soils, and with them one of the chief values for small grain. The mineral is found under two conditions, one fixed and the other free. The free potash is slowly dissolved in water—it thus unites with sand to form the coating of the straw. In the other condition mentioned it is fixed, and in that is insoluble in water, and like humus, is unfit for food of plants.—To prepare the fixed potash in soil—that is to disintegrate it—we must expose it to air, moisture and heat; hence we must pulverize the soil by the winter frost, to admit of these conditions. Autumn plowing is supposed to kill many insects; that it does this to some extent, is doubtless true, but we apprehend less than it has credit for. It can be done at a time when the teams are strong, the weather cool, and so much of the Spring work is out of the way; while for Spring wheat and barley it is almost indispensable.

Hints to Bee-Fanciers.—A correspondent of an English rural publication relates a case from his experience, which may be useful to other fanciers. Taking possession of new premises, he placed his bees about where it would be least in the way of his alterations and improvements. But he soon found that he could no longer go among the bees with impunity. They became unaccounted to seeing human beings "and relapse into the conditions of savages." Thus it appears that the folks who would keep bees, must place them where they become accustomed to people passing and re-passing; while those who hide them away as creatures unworthy of their confidence will "find them a little difficult to manage."

GRAND TRIUMPH!

Wilson Shuttle Sewing Machine.
The Best in the World!
Two grand prize medals of honor awarded the Wilson at Vienna for being the best Sewing Machine and three co-operative medals for best work on leather and cloth. This placed the Wilson at the head of the list. No other machine received premiums on their merit, as we can prove. No one need hesitate hereafter as to which is the best and cheapest Sewing Machine. The Wilson now stands acknowledged to be superior to any other make. It is simple, easily understood, light running and noiseless, elegantly finished and fully warranted for five years.

Iron in the Blood

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protozoid of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, is easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures a thousand ills, simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The curing and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.
This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhoea, Boils, Nervous Affections, Child, and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.
Those who have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and who cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

Dr. Greene, Lindley & Bentley's Great Family Medicines

Prepared expressly for and adapted to the Southern climate.

"Compound Extract Corydalis"

is the most powerful and efficient alterative and blood purifier known, prepared expressly for Scrofula, Secondary Syphilis, Eruptions on the skin, and all diseases which are produced by blood or humors.

cures all kinds of Fits, Spasms and Convulsions which depend upon irritation of the nervous centers; often cures the Fits from the first day's use even where they have existed for years.

"Medicated Honey,"

the great remedy for Croup, Asthma, Bronchitis, Sore Throat and all diseases of the air passages and lungs. It does not sicken the patient, is pleasant to take, prompt in its action, does not injure the appetite or impair digestion as most expectorants do.

"Our 'Neuralgia Specific' is a perfect specific for Neuralgia, Sciatica, Rheumatism and all muscular or nervous pains where the system is deranged."

These Medicines are prepared with great care from perfectly reliable drugs, and for the special classes of diseases named upon each bottle. No one of them is claimed as a "cure all." They are identical the same which we have used in our practice for years, and in thus recommending them to the public we know whereof we speak. They are safe, reliable and efficient, acting quickly and thoroughly. Try them and you will want no others. Ask your druggist for them.
