Mind Your Own Concerns.

Mind your own concerns, my friend,

For they are yours alone;

Don't talk about your neighbor's faults.

But strive to mend your own.

Suppose he does not always lead

A truly perfect life—

What matters if he should sometimes fret

Or quarrel with his wife?

Don't meddle—let him know, my friend,

Your better nature spurs

To set the spy on him or his—

Just mind your own concerns:

Yes, mind your own concerns, my friend,

And presently you'll find

That all your time is occupied.

And you're quite enough to mind.

Why need you care if Snooks or Spooks

Should wed with Sallie Jones?

What matter if your neighbor C

A half a million owns?

The money is not yours, my friend,

Though golden stores he earns;

So do not envy him his wealth,

But mind your own concerns.

Yes, mind your own concerns, my friend,

It is a better plan,

Than always to be spying out

The deeds of brother man.

Remember that all persons have,

Though hidden from the view,

Thoughts that to them of right belong,

And not at all to you.

And also bear in mind, my friend,

A generous nature worms

No secret from a brother's breast—

So mind your own concerns.

The Legislature.

There has been very little done of general importance, though nearly a hundred bills and resolutions have been finally acted upon. Both houses have at last agreed upon a series of Constitutional amendments. The most important of which were voted down—among them the clause fixing the pay of members of the legislature at $300 per session.

STATE FAIR.—The Raleigh papers are fully alive to the importance of making the State Fair a success this year. A subscription list has been started for the purpose of raising funds to improve the new ground, &c. This is right. North Carolina should not be behind any Southern State with her fairs.

THE UNIVERSITY OF VA.—We have received a circular address, lately published by the students of this institution, non-residents of the State of Virginia, setting forth its claims upon the public, its power for good in the sphere of education, its importance not only to Virginia but to the whole Southern country. The address is well written and signed by young men from most of the Southern States. The object is to raise a fund sufficient to endow it as a free institution. We would be glad to see the suggestions carried out.

MICA.—The Asheville papers are wild on the mica developments in Buncombe. New mines are being discovered every two days and vast sums of money have already been realized from the business. A company has recently been formed for extensive operations, and we may expect glowing accounts from our mountain press.

IN FOR A LONG TERM.—Gen. D. H. Hill, the able editor of the Southern Home, says:

We have been told that it is reported that the Editor of The Home is about to retire from editorial life. If blessed with health and life, he will not retire till a Democrat is President of the United States, or to put the case more strongly, not until one out of one hundred of the loyal officials is honest.

The Danbury Reporter says: "There will be a petition to our Legislature asking for a charter to construct a narrow gauge Railroad from some point on the N. W. C. Railroad between Kernersville and Salem, from thence by the most practical route to Danbury, Stokes county."

Why is Mr. Airy so dead to her interest? Push on the Salem road to the thriving towns on the Ararat—Mt. Airy and Hamburg—and Lynn Massachusetts will cease to be the manufacturing city of the Union.

The fate of Colonel Tew, which has long been involved in mystery, has at last been officially ascertained. The Secretary of War writes: "The archives of the late (so called) CSA now on file in this department, show that Col. C. C. Tew, 2d Regiment N. Carolina Infantry, was killed at Sharpsburg in 1862."

It was stated that he had been sent to the Dry Tortugas.

The Veil De Leau gift concert seems to have been a small affair. Our eastern exchanges generally invested, but none drew anything as far as heard from. A Mrs. Butt drew the capital prize—which was scaled down to $900 instead of five thousand, in consequence of the whole amount of tickets not having been sold.

The Spirit of the Age says Brother McDuffy, &c., of the Patriot How is that P. F. F. —Roanoke News.

AWFUL. There would have been a dead editor if Broughton hadn't promised not to do so any more.

Michael Arthur, a respectable citizen of Craven County, aged 70 years, committed suicide on the 21st by shooting himself.

The Cape Fear and bar improvements at Wilmington have received an appropriation of $100,000 from Congress.

Trains are running again on the Air Line railroad—the land slides having been removed.

The Democratic State convention of Connecticut have nominated C. J. Ingersoll for Governor and G. G. Lill for Lieut. Governor. They are going to make the run on the Liberal platform.

The franking privilege expires on the first of July.

The Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford road is advertised for sale on the 10th of April.

"Stay Where You Are." The Kansas Central Advocate, published at Salina, has an article on "Who Should Emigrate," in which it uses the following language, which should be carefully reflected upon by all our discontented people:

"To those persons, young or old, who are comfortably and well established, we would say, stay where you are!"

And so says every candid mind that knows anything of the West or South-West. The Charlotte Democrat says:

We hear of some men who went from North Carolina to Texas, who would gladly return to this State if they had money enough to do so.

The same is true in regard to those who went to Missouri and other North-Western States. Many who left comfortable homes in North Carolina are now suffering for the necessities of life.

Since the above was in type, a letter from a gentleman of intelligence and truth, has reached us. He has spent about a year in Texas—travelled almost all over it, and has his candid opinion of the same:

I have been intending to write a series of articles for the Patriot on Texas; but have not found the time yet. Besides, the more I see of Texas the less I think I know of it. For the present, I cannot advise any body in North Carolina either to move or not to move. Law, medicine, merchandise, and living by its fruits are overdone; it is not safe to steal cattle. Nor is the preaching or printing business profitable, and I rather think that planting and farming are in the same category.

Counting the Vote.

Wednesday, the 19th instant, the two houses of Congress counted the vote for President and Vice President. The following is the official announcement:

Whole number of electoral votes 366, of which a majority is 184. Of these 349 were cast for President and 32 for Vice President.

The vote for President was: U. S. Grant, 286; B. Gratz Brown, 18; Thomas A. Hendricks, 42; T. J. Jenkins, 2; David Davis, 1.

The vote for Vice-President was: Henry Wilson, 286; E. Gratz Brown, 47; N. P. Banks, 3; George W. Julian, 5; John M. Palmer, 3; Thomas E. Bramlette, 3; W. S. Groesbeck, 1; A. H. Colquitt, 1; Willis B. Machen, 1.

The Vice-President therefore declared U. S. Grant elected President and Henry Wilson Vice-President for the term of four years from the 4th day of March, 1873.

WHAT A MAN!—The Charlotte Observer says:

A gentleman laid an egg upon our table yesterday that weighs over a quarter of a pound.

THE SUFFOLK HERALD is a new candidate for public patronage. It is owned by T. G. Elam and edited by Dr. T. E. Cropper. It is well printed, ably edited and quite an accession to our enterprising oyster emporium.

MISPLACED CONFIDENCE.—Sitting in our office playing the "freeze out," while relying upon the promise of delinquent country subscribers to bring us wood.—Asheville Pioneer.

Certainly has not been in the paper business long.

BRING IT BACK.—If the person who took an umbrella out of this office, will bring it back as soon as the weather clears off, he will confer a great favor upon the poorest man in Charlotte.—Observer.

What an idea. Who ever heard of a borrowed umbrella being returned? We are surprised at brother Caldwell.

THE ALDINE, for March, is on our table. As usual, it is filled with beautiful illustrations and choice reading matter. Altogether the March Aldine is the best yet issued. Subscription price $5 including chromos "Village Belle" and "Crossing the Moor." James Sutton & Co., publishers, 58 Maiden Lane, New York.

THE CHRISTIAN SUN, the sterling religious paper published at Suffolk, Va., by Rev. W. B. Wellons & Co., has donned a new dress.

Durham wants a bank.

All the papers are talking about a press association. Very well; let us have it. We hope it won't be all talk.

The Charlotte Observer says, that Sergeant Clemmons, or Clement, one of the U. S. soldiers stationed at that place, committed suicide by taking laudanum Tuesday 18th.

Col. Wm. Bingham, of Orange, died in Savannah, Ga., on the 20th. His remains were brought home for interment.

The Era says, Capt. J. G. Hester has been nominated by the President as Consul to Santiago. Let him go—the farther the better.

The Western N. C. R. R. The case of Sibley and others against the Western N. C. Railroad came up Thursday last, before Judge Dick, at Chambers.

Hon. W. N. H. Smith and Geo. V. Strong, Esq., Attorneys for the Governor, opened the argument—Judge Merrimon, for plaintiff, replied. An appeal was granted with a bond in the sum of $200,000. Bond was given by Col. Wm. Johnston, L. W. Humphrey, Dr. J. M. Worth, J. I. Shaver, A. C. Cowles and Col. T. D. Carter.

A writ of injunction was served on Treasurer Jenkins, issued by Judge Merrimon, the name of the tax payers of Alamance Co., by Deputy Sheriff, J. T. Rees, restraining him from signing the bond on the part of the State.

Col. S. McD. Tate was appointed temporary receiver. The Directors of the road, while in the city, held a meeting in the parlor of the Benbow House and passed the following resolutions presented by A. C. Cowles, of Yadkin:

RESOLVED, That the Western North Carolina Railroad Company, Eastern Division, appeal from the decree rendered in the Circuit Court of the United States for the Western section of North Carolina against defendants in the cause of equity, wherein Hiram Sibley, Henry Clews and such others are plaintiffs, and said railroad company and others are defendants, and at the last term of this Court held at Asheville, to the Supreme Court of the United States, and in order thereto that David Coleman, B. S. Gaither, and Messrs. Smith & Strong, Attorneys, separately or both, then take any and all such steps and proceedings as they may deem expedient and proper in taking such appeal and prosecuting the same to a final issue.

Resolved, further, That our said Attorneys, separately or together, be authorized on behalf of said company, to institute any other proceeding in said Court as elsewhere, in law or equity, and take any other orders in the premises, deemed by them proper and expedient to protect the interests of said company, and defend their rights against the claims operated by said Plaintiffs, and any and all of them under the alleged deed of trust to said Henry Clews and Tod R. Caldwell or in any way whatever and the interest of the stockholders of said company therein.

Resolved, further, That said Attorneys and each of them are fully authorized to act for and represent us in any and all proceedings had or to be had as aforesaid.

Supreme Court Decisions. The Raleigh papers are publishing the recent decisions of the Supreme Court as they are rendered. We learn from the News that Judge Read filed a decision sustaining the Governor in his appointment of Directors of the Asylum, &c. He, also, renders a decision in favor of hold-over McIver against Mr. Battle, the Governor's appointee to the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction.

THE STATE AGRICULTURAL JOURNAL is the title of a neat and interesting weekly published at Raleigh, by R. T. Fulgum; terms $2 per year. We learn from the first number that the Journal is simply a combination of the Reconstructed Farmer and Farmers' and Mechanics' Journal. The consolidation was effected with a view of establishing a first-class agricultural weekly in the city of Raleigh. We wish it unbounded success. When our farmers read journals in their own interest, we will see our State take rank agriculturally which nature designed she should occupy.

Troops Moving.—The following general order has just been promulgated from the headquarters of the army: The 7th United States Cavalry is hereby transferred from the Department of the South to the Department of Dakota. The detachments of the regiments in Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi and Alabama will march to Louisville, Kentucky, or Memphis, Tennessee, to take steamboats and proceed by river transportation to Fort Randall, Dakota Territory; the detachments in North and South Carolina will be transported by rail to Memphis and then embark in like manner for Fort Randall. The movement will begin by the first of March next.

Extra Billy Smith's disabilities have been removed. Virginia will rejoice.

STATE ITEMS.

The Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F. of this State, meets in Raleigh on the 17th of May.

The new hotel in Goldsboro has been named the Humphrey House, and has been leased by Mr. S. P. Wright.

Senator Ransom has introduced a bill in the United States Senate appropriating fifty thousand dollars for the erection of public buildings at Asheville, N. C.

In addition to Gov. Graham's disabilities, the United States Senate has passed a bill removing the political disabilities of Hon. Burton Craigh, Hon. W. N. H. Smith and Capt. Samuel A. Ashe.

Salem Lodge No. 36, I. O. O. F. was re-opened last Thursday evening by D. G. M. W. E. Edwards by electing the following officers: F. Meller, N. G.; T. Crist, V. G.; E. Spach, Secretary; A. Fogle, Treasurer.

Joe Doss, colored, murdered a colored child, 18 months old, in Surry Co. last week. The Visitor says he killed it by taking it by its feet and striking its head against a hearth. The murderer escaped.

On Friday last, we are informed, while Dr. B. F. Arrington was sitting in his room at home, he suddenly became speechless, and unable to arise from his chair. His condition is much improved, however, at present.—Goldsboro Messenger.

Doc. Sherard, a prisoner in Green county jail under sentence of death, for murder, died in his dungeon on last Saturday, from voluntary starvation. He did not eat anything for twelve days, when death ensued.

We learn from Maj. H. M. Miller, Deputy U. S. Marshal, who has just returned to this city from the East, that on Friday last, in Sampson county, William Henry Gaine, shot and seriously wounded, Henry Godwin, a witness against him in the Federal Court, and it is thought that Godwin will die.—Raleigh News.

The first mortgage bondholders of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railway Company have obtained a decree of foreclosure in the Superior Court of this county. The bondholders compromised with a number of creditors of the road who were resisting the foreclosure. C. M. Steadman, E. E. Burruss and John D. Taylor are appointed commissioners to sell the road after giving 40 days notice. The bondholders assert that they will complete the road to Charlotte by January 1st, 1874.—Wilmington Journal.

In Murfreesboro, on Saturday night last, G. W. Thompson was killed in an affray with Charles Adkins. Thompson, who kept a bar-room, went to Adkins' bar-room and threatened to whip a negro for drumming for Adkins. An altercation ensued between the white men, which resulted in the killing of Thompson. Adkins surrendered himself to the sheriff of the county.

Supervisor Perry has advised of 4 boxes of manufactured tobacco detained in Charlotte the 19th from the factory of D. A. Bilby, 5th N. C. District, for re-use of stamps. Also detained, same day, 15 boxes from factory of A. Lewis, 5th district, because of stamps insecurely affixed and on part of the boxes canceled in but one place.—Raleigh Era.

Trained mocking birds. The Wilmington Journal says: Mr. Geo. P. Lamb has at his rural store, on Third Street, opposite the City Hall, two mocking birds, both splendid singers, which he has trained to a number of pretty little tricks. One of these, named "Bob Lee," will come at his call and perch on his finger and will sing whenever a tune is hummed to him.

Tremendous Freshet in the Tar.—In the year 1859 a freshet occurred in the Tar River, which reached a height at Tarboro beyond the memory of the "oldest inhabitants." It took place in June, and consequently, caused much damage to the growing crops.

Another freshet is now raging which promises to equal, if not surpass, that of 1859. Yesterday evening the flood had come within a few inches of the high water mark of that year, and was still rising. It is a subject of congratulation that it has come so early in the season, before our farmers along the river had put in their crops. So far we have heard of no material damage, though many bridges are reported as dangerous and impassable.—Tarboro Southern.

Death of an "Irish Peddler."—Franklin Gillespie, an Irish peddler, who for several years past has been plying his vocation in this State and North Carolina, died in this place on Saturday night last. The circumstances attending his death were deemed such as to render a coroner's inquest necessary, which was had by coroner John R. Wallace, on Monday, resulted in a verdict that the deceased came to his death from the imtemperate use of ardent spirits.—Yorkville Enquirer.

Troops Moving.—The following general order has just been promulgated from the headquarters of the army: The 7th United States Cavalry is hereby transferred from the Department of the South to the Department of Dakota. Correspondence of Patriot.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 22, 1873.

THE CLIMAX APPROACHING.

On Tuesday next the climax of the Credit Mobilier excitement will be reached when the question comes up in the House for consideration. The committee, headed by the natty old gent—Judge Poland—in silver hair and clawhammer blue coat with brass buttons, from whom the country expected so much, have like the mountain in labor brought forth a mouse, at present supposed to be still born, but this will be determined on Tuesday when the Congressional doctors hold a consultation on the case. Such diversity of opinion never existed as in this matter and the dissatisfaction with regard to the report is general among those who do not see through party glasses. The Democrats are particularly dissatisfied when looking at the report from a party standpoint and all agree that the Democrats have been outwitted. The case stands thus: The Radicals save from disgrace half a dozen, at least, prominent leaders and sacrifice a nobody stamp a conceded leader as infamous, and this is supposed to balance the scales. A school boy can figure up the sum, but I do not think that Mr. Brooks, one Democrat, can stand against Pig Iron Kelly, Bingham, Dawes, Garfield, Schofield, Oakes Ames, and Vice-President Colfax, who also came under the committee's power, by any rule of arithmetic that I am conversant with. According to the report "honors are easy." Such a counting up would make an old witted player say cuss words and forever banish the Devil's prayer book from Mr. Brooks' suffering very much from sickness which to gether with mental anxiety caused by his present trouble quite proscribes him; he is preparing an elaborate defence. Oakes Ames shuffles around the House perfectly unconcerned with about as much expression on his phiz as is on one of his own shovels. He jokes about the matter in his own heavy way; he told Judge Niblack that he purposed offering a resolution for the expulsion of the Credit Mobilier committee, and he thought it would pass. The truth is the committee, by their action, are as much on trial as Brooks and Ames. The first of the latter and playing a big game of bluff by reporting that Ames threatens in case of his expulsion to shake the Congressional tree and there will be such falling of rotten fruit as will astonish the natives; but I am inclined to believe that he has told all he knows with regard to Congressmen. Ben. Butler will take charge of his case and then the committee may expect to be exonerated in his sermon, the text being "That nobody was bribed and yet Ames is guilty of bribery." Daniel W. Voorhees and others will defend Mr. Brooks; and what grounds has not been tried, but it is expected that Mr. Voorhees will have great ability and remarkable oratorical powers that his effort will be one worthy so great an occasion. Mr. Ames' case will come up first. It is not known what course the committee will adopt. The impression is very prevalent that there will be no expulsions, as it requires a two-third vote.

COLFAX IMPEACHMENT.

Little did Mr. Colfax think when he was Speaker in the House, and cast his vote for the impeachment of Andrew Johnson with such a flourish of trumpets, that he would so soon be placed in a like position, with the difference that President Johnson was the victim of partisan malignity and political expediency, while he (Colfax) is charged with criminal practices and an old perjured and traitor friend. Alas! what a change has come over the scene. Even though the Judiciary committee, presided over by Daniel John A. Bingham, one of the Credit Mobilier lame ducks, should not find sufficient evidence before the Poland committee to prefer articles of impeachment against any public officers, as the resolution reads, the fact that Mr. Colfax was screened by the vote of Dawes, Garfield, Bingham and Schofield—his brothers in Mobliery—when Fernando Wood's resolution was voted down, by that vote he is politically tried, found guilty, hung, drawn and quartered with no hope of resurrection this side of the River Styx.

THE VALUE OF THE PRESS AND ITS ABUSES.

It is only the observer here that can get a correct idea of the influence of the press upon Congress; generally it is salutary, though sometimes it is the reverse. This power has been strikingly illustrated in stirring up investigations and especially the Credit Mobilier fraud and the New York stock exchange expose. While we find much to commend in the independence and fidelity to the profession there are many among the craft, if I may so term it, who prostitute their pens to slander or black-mailing purposes.

A NOTABLE INSTANCE.

of this kind was nipped in the bud by the President of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, of New York, who at once brought suit for libel against a writer who attacked the management as fraudulent; the result was the ambitious scribbler was lodged in jail. As an answer to the charge made the company, the largest in the world, issued its regular yearly statement which is a complete and satisfactory vindication of its management, showing it to be a model of economy and financial success, and one that might not only be an example for corporations generally, but for our government, as its expenses for the past year were only 7 per cent. of its receipts. The prompt action of the Mutual in bringing the question before the courts instead of shrinking from the breath of the defamer is worthy of imitation in similar cases where would have the effect of deterring venal and malicious scribblers from the work of bringing discredit upon the profession.

THE SOLDIERS' LAND GRAB BILL.

was killed yesterday by the Senate committee on public lands reporting adversely on it. The reasons given are numerous and conclusive, it being universally conceded that it was a bill for the benefit of land speculators. The committee do not appreciate the services of the soldiers and sailors in the war, but for reasons of public policy have squelched this job.

GALIVANT DEFERRED.

The President has determined to postpone his intended Southern trip on account of business that will be created by the incoming administration. He had purposed, it was said, to see the South for himself, so as to be better able to inaugurate an era of good will between the North and South, but it must go over for another year because the President cannot forego the pleasures and gayeties of Long Branch during the summer, but then the South can wait for the more than doubtful reforms that Grant would inaugurate.

Upsetting the Senate.

On the 4th of March the terms of twenty-two of the seventy-four Senators will expire: Messrs. Blair, Cole, Conklin, Cameron, Corbett, Harlan, Hill, Howe, Kellogg, Matheon, Morton, Nye, Osborne, Patterson, Pomeroy, Pool, Rice, Sawyer, Spencer, Trumbull, Vickers and Wilson.

Messrs. Conkling, Cameron, Howe and Morton are re-elected, and Spencer probably, and Wilson goes into the Vice-President's chair. Blair is to be succeeded by Louis V. Boggs, Cole by Hon. A. A. Sargent, Corbett by John H. Mitchell, (Ben Holladay's friend,) Harlan by Hon. Wm B. Allison, Hill by Gen John B. Gordon, Machen by McCreery, (former Senator,) Nye by John P. Jones, Osborne by Sanford Conover, Patterson by Fairbridge Wadleigh, Pomeroy by Ingalls, Pool by A. H. Merrimon, Rice by Stephen V. Dorsey, Sawyer by Patterson, of S. C. (who is to be "quired into"), Trumbull by Gen Richard Oglesby, Vickers by George R. Dennis, and Wilson by Dawes or Boutwell.

Madrid, February 24.—The excitement is increasing, particularly among working men. Barricades are apprehended. The Red Republicans are urging extreme measures, and the Carlists are operating and intriguing actively. The army is dissatisfied. The reactionists denounce the American Minister as officially active in Spanish politics.

Troops are hurrying to reinforce those operating against the Carlists, who are burning railway stations and bridges. The fighting in the North is quite severe.

TO BE ABSENT.—We will be absent for a couple of weeks, during which time Mr. J. W. Albright will attend to the business of the office.

Raffling. a modest way of gambling, is getting very popular among our young men.

Col. J. A. Houston, of Ore Hill, will accept our thanks for recent favors in the way of subscriptions.

Mr. J. A. Bennett will accept our thanks for another list of subscribers from Zeidville.

Pete Wagstaff, F. M. C., severely nipped Frank Garrett, another colored gent, on Monday night last.

PERSONAL.—Woodson, of the Raleigh News, called on us last week. He is looking well, and gives a good report from his office.

Another cold spell reached us on Sunday night. We don't keep a thermometer, but it was considered severe on temperance men.

"One by one the roses wither."—"Commercial Hall," the bar opposite the Benbow House, closes out at auction tomorrow. Go it, G. T's.

The religious interest in the city still continues. On last Sabbath fifteen persons connected themselves with the Presbyterian church and thirty-six with the Methodist.

Cloe Charles, a colored woman, residing in Deep River township in this county, fell dead at her dinner table on Monday last. She prepared her dinner, was apparently well, but died without uttering a word.

THE WANT of Greensboro is houses. There are parties here almost daily seeking residences, but none are to be had. We believe this is doing more to keep us back than anything else. There were gentlemen here this week from Newberry and Danville seeking dwelling houses.

Spring Term of Guilford Superior Court commences next Monday. There are no criminal or civil suits of general interest. The Old Fellow's Hall will be used as the court room. By the next term our new and beautiful Court House will be completed.

FIRE.—We regret to learn that the store of Messrs. Williams, at Summerfield, in this county, was destroyed by fire on Saturday night last. They had in a good stock of goods; but saved nothing. They were partially insured. Supposed to have been fired by an incendiary.

The attention of consumptives is called to the card in this paper of Mr. Wm. A. Smith, (not Congressman Billy) of Concord. We never recommend any patent medicines, but we see no reason why a home-made preparation should not be as good as any other. If we were going to take physic we should prefer knowing that the Dr. who compounded it was all right.

PATENT ENCUMBRANCE. I. O. O. F., No. 19, has been recently re-organized, and is now in fine working order, with the following officers:
C. P.—Dr. A. S. Porter.
H. P.—J. W. Dock.
S. W.—Geo. M. Adams.
J. W.—D. Scott, Jr.
S. T.—Jas. W. Albright.

WINSTON as a Tobacco Market.—We learn that Winston is fast becoming a market for leaf tobacco. One hundred thousand pounds were sold on Tuesday of last week, at from $4 to $100. Scales & Hobson are doing a heavy business, and no wonder, for, besides being clever gentlemen, they have one of the best auctioneers in that or any other market—our townsman, W. E. Edwards. Few men have more experience as an auctioneer, and none a better reputation.

TRAIN TO KERNERSVILLE.—We are glad to learn from Mr. Vernon, agent at this place, that a passenger and freight train will be put on the Salem Railroad on next Monday, running from this place to Kernersville daily except Sundays. The train will leave Kernersville 9 A. M.; arrive at Greensboro 10:30 A. M.; leave Greensboro 3:45 P. M.; arrive at Kernersville 5:15 P. M.

I. O. O. F.—Buena Vista Lodge, No. 21, which has been scarcely able to retain its charter since the war, has experienced a considerable revival this year. Most of the old members in the city have renewed their connection with the order, and there is scarcely a meeting that new names are not being added. There are now 41 members.

The following are the officers for first term, 1873:
N. G.—Dr. A. S. Porter.
V. G.—D. Scott, Jr.
Treas.—W. C. Porter.
Sec'y.—Jas. W. Albright.

Col. D. G. Neelley renews his subscription and adds that he "has taken the Patriot for twenty-five years and will continue fifty years more if permitted to live." This is the way our list keeps up—paying subscribers have less to trouble them in this world and can live to enjoy good old age. If any one don't believe this let them take the Patriot for fifty years—always paying in advance and see how it works. It is much better than Tatt's Pills or Life Insurance Companies to prolong life; but both of which are strongly recommended and good in their places.

CELEBRABLE.—We are in receipt of a communication condemning the practice of young men in alight and scurrilously alluding to young ladies. This is by far a too common practice, and is a very reprehensible one. We think it generally proceeds from thoughtlessness; for what man would utter a word that could be even construed into a disrespectful allusion to a young lady? There is a sanctity that surrounds woman that should prevent even an unhalloved thought. That young man who would intentionally defame the fair name of any woman—no matter how humble her walk in life—is schooling himself for a life of infamy, that will end in jail, if not on the gallows. Whenever a young man so far forgets the tender kiss of a sister, or the fond embrace of a mother, as to defame or offend a trusting, loving, unsuspecting girl—one who, probably by her damning fault, has learned to love him—there is no safe place for him outside the penitentiary.

JOB PRINTING.—We are so frequently asked and written to about job work that we deem it necessary to make a statement in regard to the capacity of our job office. We have all the improved machinery required to make our office a first class one, and being constantly added to as the wants of our patrons demand—two large orders now out and daily expected. A full line of cards, flat and letter-press, bill-head paper, colored paper, colored ink, bronzes, &c., always on hand, enable us to get up, in the shortest possible time, any thing from a visiting card to a circus poster. The size of our type run from nonpareil (1-10 inch) to 36 line pica (6 inch). Besides, we have two as good job printers as are in the State—one of them having been twenty-two years in the business, the other nine. In short, we guarantee our work to give satisfaction.

FRUIT TREES.—A LARIE TRADE.—We are informed that the different agents of the three leading nurseries, of this county, sold last season 200,000 trees for about $40,000. These sales were principally made in this State, Virginia and South Carolina.

This is a pretty business and is bringing into our midst annually a large sum of money. Is this not an indication of advancement in our country? Two hundred thousand fruit trees planted in one season! Sooner than this Southern land will be a garden.

It is a gratification to note, too, that the pioneer nurseryman—Joshua Lindley—leads the sales, his firm having sold over half the whole number; the remainder being sold by two other young but deserving nurseries—G. L. Anthony's and J. M. Ward & Co's.

For good things in the grocery line Sikes & Sons are offering superior advantages.

THE GENERAL R. E. LEE MONUMENT.—The grand monument to the memory of General Lee is now rapidly being constructed under the direction and skill of Prof. Volentine. And in order to complete it at the earliest possible date, the Executive Committee of the Lee Memorial Association, of Lexington, Va., which is composed of such distinguished men as General Pendleton, General Terry, Hon. Wm. McLaughlin, Col. Preston Johnston, Charles Davidson, and others, have authorized the publication and sale of a perfect life size steel engraved portrait of General Lee. The proceeds of its sale to be applied in furtherance of the object of this Association, namely: to the erection of a monument to the memory of General R. E. Lee, at the Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va. The portrait will be sold only by subscription, through regular authorized agents. Every subscriber for the portrait will receive a certificate signed by the Secretary and Chairman of the Lee Memorial Association. We commend this portrait to the public, and hope some good, energetic man will secure the agency in this section in order to help on the good work.

Messrs. W. W. Bostwick & Co., Nos. 177 and 179 West Fourth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, have been constituted and appointed General Managers of Agencies, and any communications addressed to them for circulars, terms, and certificates, will receive prompt attention.

The next regular meeting of the Eclectic Literary Club will be held at the residence of Mr. Jesse H. Lindsay, on Friday evening, February 28th inst. A large membership is expected to attend.

LIVINGSTONE'S AFRICA.—Messrs. Hubbard Brothers, of Philadelphia, the well known enterprising publishers, have issued a new volume of surpassing interest under the above title. In this volume, at small cost, the public has condensed and accurate and full account of the results of all of Livingstone's voyages of discovery in Africa, together with the account of the Stanley expedition sent out for his discovery by the New York Herald, the success of which was our great sensation last summer. The book is most admirably conceived. It contains everything of Livingstone's discoveries, in his own language, excepting merely the scientific details of observations, etc., which are so uninteresting and incomprehensible to the general reader, and which, however, make the English publications so expensive. Besides this and the Stanley expedition, it has the letters this bold explorer brought home to England from Livingstone himself, in which he gives a detailed account of what he was doing when shut up from the knowledge of the world in Central Africa, together with an outline of what he purposes to do before his final return. The book also contains the most recent discovery of the diamond fields of South Africa. The preparation of the volume and the graphic illustrations with which it is decorated will inevitably make it a most popular work. As it is sold only by subscription, we hope a hint to the agents in our vicinity will not be thrown away, but that advantage will be taken by one of them of this opportunity to do a good thing for himself while doing a better thing for those of the community who are eager to get hold of just such a book as this.

Climax Wood Collars.
The Climax Collar is just the article wanted. It is made entirely of wood, and is the exact shape of the collar. The outside is concave so as to combine elegance with great strength and lightness. It is in fact, not half the weight of collars of equal size. It will prevent galls and scalds, and promote the comfort of the animal, and its use will save two-thirds the cost of pad collars every year. The collar requires no names, as they are fitted with collars of a new and improved pattern. These collars are suited for all express, truck, mining, farm or plantation use.

AGRICULTURAL.

Value of Raising Sheep.—The high price of wool this year, and the great demand for sheep or lambs for meat, has made many a farmer wish he had a good flock of sheep. The price of wool for a few years has been so low and fluctuating that it has led the farmers to kill off their sheep, and just the same results follow that have in years before they find when wool advances, they have no sheep on hand. We have advocated high prices for wool, advising the farmers if they had any and could afford to hold it, not to sell. Although there has been a little depression in the market, we still adhere to the view, that the wooled mills during the coming season will be large buyers of domestic wools, and we notice the reports from foreign markets show great firmness abroad arising from the same causes that prevail in this country—shortness of supply. Nor do we think, with the growth of business in our country, the supply for several years to come, will not exceed the demand for medium grade of wools which are the staples grown here.

The question of raising sheep for their meat is not an unimportant one; with the growth of our country the consumption of eatables increases, and the favorite meat, now, and that which brings the highest price is lamb, and with an increasing demand for it as the most wholesome and palatable of all meats—it is already getting so scarce and high that it has to be purchased only as a luxury by those who can afford it. We have spoken thus far of the demand for wool and mutton at a price that will pay largely for sheep raising.

Their value to the farm is not, perhaps, fully understood. It is an old proverb, "wherever the foot of the sheep touches the land is turned into gold." Sheep will enrich land faster than any other animal. On the mountain pastures they are valuable in clearing the land, freeing it from weeds, shrubs, and briars, and bring to it clover and nutritious grasses. They are easily raised and cared for both Summer and Winter. The risk in loss by death is small, and if well managed will not die in debt to the owner. If it dies at birth it has cost nothing. If it dies the first year the wool and pelt is worth all it has cost up to that time. Sheep husbandry has a value to make the land more profitable, more productive, at a less expenditure than any other animal kept on the farm.—N. E. Homestead

Deep Ploughing.—If our agriculturalists would only recognize the truth of the saying that "even another firm immediately under the one they now cultivate," and that they have a fortune buried somewhere on their places a foot under the surface, which they can find by stirring the soil to that depth, we would soon be the richest people in the world. There are hundreds of thousands of acres, capable of being profitably ploughed to the depth mentioned, which have never been broken to a greater depth than three or four inches. There are hundreds of thousands of acres thrown out as worthless for cultivation, and now growing up in pines and broom-sedge, which have never been penetrated by a plow beyond three inches, and which, if stirred by a subsoil-plow to-day, would yield good crops.

Do not imagine, Mr. Editor, that we are improving in this essential particular of good farming. A few intelligent planters plow deeply, and have found the benefit of doing so; but the mass of farmers stick to the twister and the scoter and the bull-tongue with a fond tenacity, plow about two or three inches deep, and then blame providence for bad seasons, bemoan their bad luck, and talk of moving away to some fresh land. While we employ negroes to work our plantations on shares and while we rent them our lands, improvement is an impossibility. It is quite vain to look for it. What negro could be made to believe in the efficacy of a two-horse plow, followed by a two-horse subsoiler?

I tell you, Mr. Editor, that I have not seen a furrow turned on upland this year by a negro plowman, which was deeper than three inches. But I must not throw all the blame on the negroes. There are very few overseers who believe in deep plowing and subsoiling—who do not think that it is "killing the land" and "killing up the stock." And are there not plenty of planters who entertain the same opinion? You have to repeat your sermons in every number if you will make our people become converts to the doctrine of deep plowing.

Corn Vinegar.—Boil 1 pint of whole corn until soft. If you have not soft spring water, use rain water. When soft, put it in a vessel that will hold about 9 quarts, then add 1 pint of molasses, 1 gallon of soft warm water, and let it stand in a warm place. In three or four weeks you can pour the vinegar off ready for use. Add another pint of molasses and a gallon of water to the same corn and make more vinegar. The same corn will do for six months.

A New Very Early Peach.—Thomas Rivers, the well-reliable fruit grower of Sawbridgeworth, England, has, during a few years past, originated many new and early ripening peaches of good quality. Among them one called Early Beatrix we learn has been fruited by S. G. Blyen, of North Carolina, who says that it does not rot, is of good size and color, and of superior quality, ripening two weeks earlier than Hale's Early.

One of the most profitable, as well as interesting kinds of business for a woman is the care of bees. In a recent agricultural report it is stated that one lady bought four hives for $10, and in five years she was offered $1,500 for her stock, and refused it as not enough. In addition to this increase of her capital, in one of these five years she sold 22 hives and 430 pounds of honey.

MOREHEAD & HOBSON,
General Agents for Fertilizers for
TOBACCO, Cotton, Wheat, Corn, Vegetable, &c. Guaranteed first-class and "simon-pure." We no longer go to mill with "a rock in one end of the bag and a grist in the other." Every one, in this advanced age, confesses the value of FERTILIZERS, and the more they increase the yield from 50 to 200 per cent. and improve the land every year, while the quality of the crop is improved. Home made manures will do well, but they do not return to the land the proper proportion of substances removed from the ground by a crop. Hence the land will wear out. Call for a circular.

Puckeye Mower. To say that all that could be truthfully said of this Mower would look like fulsome adulation. We must be excused, however, for the benefit of the farmers of Guilford and adjoining counties to say that it has the unqualified commendation of all who have used it.
It is so simple, compact and manageable, that a boy, capable of driving a gentle team, can work it successfully.
Call and give us an opportunity of showing you the machine, and to furnish you with certificates of what can be done with this labor saving machine.
Sold either with or without the reaping attachment.
