Why?

"I wonder why Hugh don't come home? It is now almost ten o'clock and I am quite certain that tonight he is not detained by business; it is year ago just after we were married he seldom was away of an evening, and then, only when business absolutely required; but now his being at home for an evening is the exception, not the rule."

So spoke Mrs. Hentz, a bright, vivacious woman, who, though married for more than a year was yet not three years past her teens.
It was a bright, cheerful room in which the speaker sat; not large but trim, and decorated with cheap but inviting pictures and furniture; just such a room as men in moderate means often picture as what they would wish for in their home, and the fair face that looked up to her visitor when she spoke, seemed well calculated to draw a man to love his home.

The lady to whom this remark was addressed was an elderly, trim and graceful woman, with a placid thoughtful face that lighted up into a quiet beauty when she smiled, which she frequently did when speaking.

"You say he is not detained by business; where do you think he is,
Anna?"

"I presume he is in that horrid billiard room or talking politics with some one at the hotel," replied Anna.

"If I mistake not," said the other lady, "Mrs. Hentz, 'Hugh was in his younger days rather dissipated in his habits; tell me if you believe he is falling back, or has fallen back into his old ways.'"

"Oh, no," replied Mrs. Hentz,
"Hugh is too ambitious and too proud of his good name to yield again in that direction; but it makes me uneasy sometimes in spite of my faith in his manhood, to think of him so surrounded by temptation and I wish he could come again to love his home as he used, and to delight in the companionship of his wife as a pleasure most to be desired."

The next question which Mr.
Milton asked, startled and aroused in the young wife almost as much as if a thunderbolt had fallen; it was this:

"Who drove him from home?"

"Who drove him from home," cried Mrs. Hentz, "why what a question, surely no one; you would not imagine that I had done so? I kind to a husband in whose talent and integrity I had such confidence, and whom I admire for many traits, and whom I long before I had learned to love him or regard in any nearer relationship than a friend? Surely you do not mean to intimate that I have done anything to bring about the change I deprecate so much?"

"Not willfully, my dear Anna, I am sure," replied Mrs. Milton, "but unconsciously perhaps, you have wrought the work which was farthest from your thoughts or wishes; you will pardon me if in my more extended experience I should deem such a thing possible, and you will

The Rads. have got the man and brother into a trap, and got him secure for Billy and his party; but, when they get through with him the colored individual will find himself under a mighty big log, while Billy and his Yankee civil-righter will display their digits on the nasal organ. The negro had better come out from under that log.

"Independents" are under the same trap.

Dark-Eyed Inez.
BY FRANCIS M. DEEMS, M. D.

Dark-eyed Inez, do I love thee?
Ask the stars that shine above thee,
That have heard so oft and over
The confessions of thy lover.

Dark-eyed Inez, dost thou doubt me?
Look above thee, look about thee.
Does the sun forget the river,
On whose wave it loves to quiver?

Does the moon forget the stream, love,
On whose breast it loves to dream, love,
Or the upward-leaping fountain
Its high source upon the mountain?

Does the bee forget the flower?
Or the butterfly the heather
In the warm and balmy weather?

Dark-eyed Inez, I will love thee,
When no stars can shine above thee;
When the sun can no more quiver
On the surface of the river;

When the moon can no more dream, love,
On the bosom of the stream, love;
When the upward-leaping fountain
Has no source high on the mountain;

When the bee forgets the flower,
Or the butterfly the heather,
And the butterfly the heather,
In the warm and balmy weather;

For no cloud can intervene, love,
Pride that chokes come in between, love;
Nor cold winter's chilling power
Blight our heather or its flower.

Why?

For the Patriot.

Meeting in Jefferson.

The Conservatives of Jefferson Township held a meeting at Mc-Leansville, on Saturday, June 13th.
T. B. Donnell was called to the chair, and J. W. Forbis appointed Secretary.

The following preamble and resolutions were adopted.

WHEREAS, The people of this State are burdened and oppressed with heavy taxes, and whereas we believe this is owing in a great measure to the greatly increased number of places to be filled by offices whose salaries and fees are about twice as large as was paid such officers before the war, when the people were much more able to pay high salaries than now, and to the fact that our legislators have fixed their own per diem at nearly twice as much as was paid members of the legislature previous to the war, and

Whereas, We can see no just reason why common people should be compelled to pay these heavy taxes, in order to enrich the officeholders, when they themselves have to labor hard and are more pressed to make a living than at any former time when they were in better circumstances, and

Whereas, This is a reckless extravagance in the administration of every department of the State government, and

Resolved, That we are in favor of lowering the salaries and fees of public officers in all cases where they amount to more than a reasonable compensation for the time and labor of the incumbent, and that we will support no man for the legislature who is not in favor of retrenchment and economy in the management of our State and county affairs, and who is not willing to serve in the legislature for three dollars per diem.

Resolved, 2. That we consider the revenue law, that taxed the farmers provisions which he has raised on his land, on which he has paid a tax, and cultivated with a plow which has been taxed, drawn by a horse that has been taxed, before he has had time to realize on it, or even tried to satisfy the cravings of his hunger with it, as an unjust, unequal and oppressive one, not being able to see why the man who is possessed of an income should be exempt in the first place five hundred dollars, and in the second place exempt entirely if that income is derived from property that has been taxed, while the farmer is taxed, tax upon tax.

Resolved, 3. That we believe the true policy of our State to be, and we think our next legislature should exempt from taxation for a limited time, all capital hereafter invested in the manufacture of woolen, or cotton goods, shoes, iron, machinery and farming implements of all kinds, thereby encourage capitalists to come among us, and take hold of our abundant facilities for manufacturing purposes, of all kinds; believing that such a course would do more towards building up our State, giving us a home market for our surplus products, and infusing life and energy into our own people, than any other course that could be adopted.

Resolved, 4. That our delegates be requested to present these resolutions to the county convention and urge their adoption.

Resolved, 5. That if the candidates nominated for the legislature will pledge themselves to go for the principles set forth in our first resolutions we will give them a cordial support.

The following persons were appointed delegates to the county convention, viz:

Jas. A. Stewart, Wm. F. Thom, T.
A. Rankin, Dr. J. A. McLean, and F. B. McLean.

Congressional Nominations.
1st District—	Jesse J. Yates, of Hertford.

5th do	Hon. A. M. Scales, of Guilford.
6th do	Hon. Thos. S. Ashe, of Anson.
7th do	Hon. Wm. M. Robbins, of Rowan.
8th do	Hon. Robert B. Vance, of Buncombe.

Judicial Nominations.
1st District—	Mills L. Eure, of Tyrrell.
4th do	A. A. McKoy, of Sampson.
5th do	Harolden W. Fuller, of Cumberland.
7th do	Hon. JOHN KERR, of Caswell.
8th do	Thos. J. Wilson, of Forsyth.
9th do	D. Schenck, of Lincoln.

Divide and Conquer.

This was the policy of the British Government and, perhaps, to its skillful application, with the liberal use of place and gold, she has been more indebted for the great power she has attained than to any other cause. The Radical party in this State is now attempting to pursue this policy and by trying to create where it does not exist, and foster where it does, dissatisfaction and dissension in our ranks it hopes to accomplish its purposes and win victories that it otherwise despairs of.

With well matured design it is professing respect and sympathy for gentlemen in the Conservative party and is holding out to them to run as "independent" candidates with the promise of support if they do. We do not put such a low estimate on the sagacity of these gentlemen as to suppose, for an instant, that they could be duped by any such transparent device, nor will we do their devotion to principle, nor their patriotism the injustice to believe that they would meet with favor such advances, supposing them to be made in earnest. We allude to it simply to show the tricks the enemy resort to to effect their aims.

The game is too shallow to deceive anyone, the purpose to appear. Could they by hook or crook elect a man from their own organization you would never hear of any advances to Conservatives, for they would prefer, were success certain, the meanness of their own to the best of ours. It is only where they know they stand no possible chance that they are willing to go out of their own organization and offer to support anyone not in full membership with them. Their little game of "divide and conquer" has been very well planned, but they will find themselves disappointed in their calculations as they have been in other pet schemes on which they had counted so confidently.

How is This?

The last North State has not got a word to say about its candidate for Congress? How is this? Was the subject exhausted in the first effort? We submit it is hardly fair to drop him so suddenly and so early in the campaign. Let us hear some more about his "genius and undoubted natural abilities."

We Sympathize,

We sympathize from the soles of our boots with some of the defeated candidates in the Radical convention last Saturday. (We write this in return for the disinterested sympathy expressed by the Radical papers for some of our friends.) We think the party treated them shabbily and showed a brutish ingratitude (that's a good way to express it) for past labors, sacrifices and devotion. We think, too, that they ought to run independent, as their papers are advising our fellows to do.

We especially feel sad for those patriotic gentlemen who rose from their morning couch elated with happy anticipation and so confident of the full success in store for them. Alas! how darkly set the sun that rose so brightly. We can only say, by way of consolation, that in future they should place less reliance on Radical promises and none whatever on Radical conventions. It may also console them to remember that the populace is said to be ungrateful and never to appreciate nor reward its deserving men, which is forcibly illustrated by the fact that Clapp got thirty-seven votes and Fetzor only five.

Bro. Ball, of the North State, J. T. Rees and J. D. White were appointed alternates to Jesse Holmes, J. F. Jarrell and Frank Jordan to the last Saturday's convention. We submit if this order had been reversed there would have been a little more fitness in it. Making Mr. Ball alternate to Jesse Holmes does not show a proper appreciation of brains, however it may be regarded in a civil rights point of view.

A Pacific cable is talked about to San Francisco. The estimated cost will be $20,000,000.

What Republicans Thought of William F. Henderson in 1868.

We publish elsewhere the proceedings, in full, of the Republican convention in this district in 1868, to show what Republicans thought then of their present candidate for Congress. Where this document is produced now Henderson is in the habit of answering it by saying that the feeling which existed against him then arose from his connection with the Darr case, and from the charges in which he has since been acquitted. But this is not so. There is no allusion anywhere in the proceedings to any particular charge or objection the whole opposition being based, to use the language of the chairman, on the "general character and repute of the nominee." Mr. Pugh withdrew from the convention, to quote him again, because "the character of the nominee was so odious to a large portion of the Republican party," and because "from his own knowledge of him" he was unable to "conscientiously" support him.

We call especial attention to the remarks of Gen. W. L. Scott, and the resolution drafted by Mr. Welker, in both of which the nominee is denounced as unworthy the support of Republicans, not because of any particular offense but on the ground of general repute and manifest unfitness.

The entire Guilford delegation endorsed these proceedings and we want to know how it is that Messrs. Tourgee, Welker and others are so silent now over the nomination of the man whose success six years ago filled them with such intense disgust as to cause them to prefer the disruption of their party rather than see him elected. They assert that he was then nominated by a "bare majority" and urge this as an evidence that the convention had been tampered with, and a sufficient reason why they should refuse to acquiesce in its action. But in this very convention he received seventeen votes to the thirteen cast against him, giving him a majority of four, while at High Point he only received twelve votes to eleven cast against him, one less than a majority. Martin, of Stokes, having left the convention in disgust carrying with him two votes. So he actually received five votes more in '68, when they urge it against him that he was nominated by a "bare majority," than at High Point, where he got less than half the votes in the convention. Then he beat his competitors four votes, while now he beats them one, leaving out the two votes of Stokes, which had been cast against him all along and would so continue to be cast if the delegate had not retired in disgust. In point of fact he was more a nominee in '68 than he is now and the objection so forcibly urged against him then doubly applicable now.

We want to know by what species of morallegerdemain the Republicans who then opposed him can endorse him now.

Has the lapse of time brought him up to their level, or brought them down to his? Is he reformed or are they demoralized?

No Nomination.

The Radical Convention which met at Graham yesterday failed to make a nomination. This was not treating Tourgee square. They won't say what they did, but their programme is to try to get some Conservative to run and endorse him at the Mass Meeting they have called at this place on the 4th of July. They are in a terrible way to find a candidate and don't want Tourgee forced upon them. They'd give their boots for just one respectable name to use for a little while.

The Raleigh Republican charges that there is a conspiracy on foot to defeat the appointment of W. A. Smith as director on the N. C. R. R. on account of favors to Spelman. It is said T. R. C. is very wrathful on the appointment of the Blasting Powder man and has laid down his ultimatum to Smith demanding the removal of John. And the Major has got his back up, too, and can't see why they should make such a thundering rumpus over his little man when they are doing their level best to buy up Democrats every day. Decidedly inconsistent.

The Republic Courier, (Rad.) of Newbern, asks the question: "As a political party, where are we drifting?" To the devil, where you ought to have gone long ago.

Minister Welker was the happiest looking victim we ever saw when he was nominated for the Legislature. We have heard of martyrs submitting to death and smiling upon the rack, and so the good person smiled when they put him up for a sacrifice, though he begged them plaintively not to slaughter him.

California sowed 3,000,000 acres of wheat this year and reaps 35,000,000 bushels. Some wheat.

Tourgee a Candidate.

Tourgee has concluded to run for the Judgeship and issued the following card:

To the Voters of the 7th Judicial District.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of Judge of the Superior Court. I have been impelled to this course by the following considerations:

1. Nominations already made for offices connected with the Courts of the District are of a character, in themselves, to constitute a direct assault upon their administration during the past six years.
2. Since these were made I have received numerous petitions from the various counties of the District requesting me to adopt this course—signed by persons of all shades of political thought.

A. W. TOURGEE.

Greensboro, June 15th 1874.

He has held out the impression that he didn't desire the position again and this announcement has accordingly struck his party friends with dismay and amazement. They had fixed up a little programme to nominate some Conservative, if they could get one to accept, but his coming out has spoiled this game and they are consequently very indignant at him. There is no very good blood between Tourgee and the Radical party leaders, since the High Point Convention nominated and endorsed Henderson—his pet aversion—when he had reason to look for and hoped to receive the nomination himself, and the Radicals accordingly think he has his dander up and is going to run just to spite them, although he has no hope of an election. They refused to endorse him yesterday at their Graham Convention.

Another Radical Dodge.

Last Friday we noticed on our streets considerable hobnobbing among the Radical menagerie managers, including Billy Henderson and Jim Boyd, who were both in town, and we knew that something was in the wind. They were as busy as bees, and after putting their heads together, consulting and making a "long pull and a strong pull all together," here is the result:

"MASS CONVENTION OF THE PEOPLE AT GREENSBORO."

A grand mass convention of the people of the seventh Judicial District, who are opposed to having our laws administered by violent and bitter partisans, and disappointed office-seekers, and men who are indicted for murder, will be held in the Court House, at Greensboro, on the 4th day of July, 1874.

This call is made at the instance of many citizens of both parties, in each county of the 7th Judicial District. The candidates who have been put in nomination by the late Convention at Graham, are exceedingly distasteful to a large majority of the thinking men of the district; and the widespread dissatisfaction caused by the action of the extremists in that Convention, in putting forward men who represent only their own violent and bitter feelings, and who are therefore totally unfit to administer justice, calls for a remedy at the hands of the people—a remedy which shall be short, sharp and decisive.

Let every county in the district, therefore, turn out on the 4th day of July, and nominate calm, dispassionate, able and firm men who will do justice, without fear or favor, and in whose hands the property, LIBERTY and LIFE of every man, woman and child will be safe.

This precious document was printed after night and in the small hours, between one and two, a few of them were posted up on our streets. If the parties engaged in it were not ashamed to be detected in this shallow device why did they not take daylight for it as is usual in posting notices of meetings so that the people might see and know who they were? If the Radical ring masters think they can humbug the people by any such transparent humbuggery as this they must imagine them very gullible indeed, especially when the whole production exhibits as plainly as this does the ear-marks of its author. We'll wager a hat that if this "Mass Convention" assembles at all it will be composed entirely of Radicals headed by "disappointed office seekers and bitter partisans" who have resorted to this dodge to misrepresent better men, with the hope of thereby securing votes enough to elect themselves to the positions to which they aspire, and to which they know they cannot be elected by fair means.

Try some other dodge, this is too thin.

There is a cool, determined war going on in Guilford in the Democratic party between the old Democrats and the old Whigs. We heard a Whig say the other day that the Democrats ought to be well satisfied to have the honor of associating with the Whigs—enough so as to refrain from asking for office.—New North State.

This "cool, determined war" originated in the North State office, and being confined to those limits, won't do much harm.

The Odd Fellows are endeavoring to get up an excursion to Beaufort, and we hope the railroads will make a liberal offer.

Proceedings of the Republican District Convention, Fifth District, North Carolina.—Held at Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 18th, 1868.

At a Convention of the Republican delegates of the Fifth District, held in the Court House at Greensboro, on the 18th of September, Dr. Wm. P. Pugh, of Guilford, was called to the Chair as President, and Samuel Stoltz, of Forsythe, was appointed Secretary.

On motion, a committee of three, consisting of Henderson Adams, of Davidson, John P. Vest, of Forsythe, and David Hodgkin, of Guilford, were appointed by the President, to examine the credentials of delegates.

After the report of the Committee on Credentials, which report was adopted, the Convention proceeded to call for a candidate for Congress. The first ballot being irregular, was set aside. Upon the second ballot, Wm. F. Henderson, Esq., received seventeen votes, Hon. J. G. Laab, seven votes, Hon. A. W. Tourgee, six votes, and scattering one vote. The whole number of votes being thirty-two, and Wm. F. Henderson having received seventeen votes, was therefore declared the nominee.

Mr. Badham, of Alamance, then moved that the nomination be made unanimous by acclamation, which motion was lost.

Mr. Adams, of Davidson, then moved that H. A. Badham, of Alamance, be nominated as elector for the Fifth District, which motion was adopted.

After a recess of about one hour, the Convention re-assembled, whereupon the President arose and spoke as follows:

Gentlemen of the Convention:—"In accepting at your hands the place of President of this Convention, I felt myself highly honored by the confidence reposed in me by the members of this body. Gentlemen, I am a Republican, an earnest, self-sacrificing Republican. With upright, honorable men, men of intelligence and probity, in any event, I am willing to work in political harness earnestly and faithfully. With such men, as leaders, honest men and fair minded citizens can work for our cause with cheerful goodwill. With and for such men I can and will work for success and for none other. Above the matter of mere political success, above the issue of a single struggle, I value the honor and parity of our party. If our candidates, the nominees of our party, our public representatives are men of corrupt and odious character, of damaged reputation, and of a fame so enviable that good citizens regard them with disgust, then our party has lost its strength, and released its members from their party allegiance. Knowing as I do, the general character and repute of the nominee, who has been put forward for Congress by this Convention, knowing how odious is his character to a large portion of the Republican party, and being unable from my own knowledge of him, to give him my support, I think it unfitting that I should hold the position of President of this Convention. I regret that I am compelled to adopt this course, yet I cannot in consideration of my duty to our party and myself conscientiously continue to preside. I therefore resign the Presidency of this Convention."

The Secretary, Mr. Stoltz, also withdrew from the Convention.

Major W. B. Stipe, of Forsythe, then arose and asked all who approved the sentiments of the President, to meet immediately at Garrett's Hall, for consultation. Thereupon a large portion of the delegates withdrew from the Convention, and a meeting was organized at the place designated. The following are the names of the delegates, with other leading Republicans, who joined in the organization of an "Independent Republican Organization."

FORSYTH.—Dr. W. H. Wheeler, John P. Vest, Anderson Nicholson, Esq's, Major Wm. B. Stipe, T. Chitty, H. A. Lemly, Esq's, Hon. P. A. Wilson, E. B. Teague, Joseph Phipps, Samuel Stoltz, Smith Frazier and David DeSchweinitz.

RANDOLPH.—Nathan H. Hill, Samuel W. Blair, Clement G. Hayworth and Alfred Julian, Esq's.

CASWELL.—Charles H. Walker, Esq.

STURGE.—Mordecai Fleming, Esq. ALAMANCE.—G. W. Shoffner and Robert L. Mebane, Esq's.

PERSON.—Samuel C. Barrett, Esq.

GUILFORD.—Rev. G. W. Welker, John T. Poe, S. G. Horney, Isaac H. Stanley, Thomas Marsh, Geo. W. Bowman, Fred. Smith, Esq's, Alex. H. Lindsay, Levi F. Davis, P. H. Bilbro, Esq's, Gen. Will. L. Scott, Dr. Wm. P. Pugh, Charles Albright, Daniel C. Welker, Madison Gilmer, Eli Lindsay, David Hodgkin, Stephen Hunt, Frank Jordan, Dr. P. Jones, Robert M. Stafford and Jacob Ansey.

Among the above delegates were the entire delegations from the counties of Forsythe, Person and Guilford.

The meeting was organized by the above delegates and a large number of other Republicans by the election of Major W. B. Stipe, of Forsythe, as temporary Chairman. Hon. Peter A. Wilson was then elected permanent President, and Dr. Wm. P. Pugh, of Guilford, Samuel C. Barrett, of Person, Nathan H. Hill, of Randolph, Charles Albright, of Guilford, and David DeSchweinitz, of Forsythe, Vice Presidents.

Samuel Stoltz, of Forsythe, and David Hodgkin, of Guilford, were elected Secretaries.

Gen. Will. L. Scott, of Guilford, being called upon by the President, briefly explained that the object of this organization, which was to express the dissatisfaction which so large a portion of the Republican party feel in regard to the nomination which has been made for Congress. The character of the nominee is too well known to a large portion of the People of the District, and too unfavorable known, to enable any person, with due respect to his own individual repute to sustain and support him. Unfortunately this is added an incapacity and ignorance which would bring disgrace upon any party whose candidate he might be. Unless another candidate was put in the field, the Conservative candidate would certainly be elected.

Stirring speeches were then made by Judge Dick, Rev. G. W. Welker, and others, heartily approving the course of the members of the meeting.

The following preamble and resolution was then offered by Rev. G. W. Welker:

WHEREAS, a convention of the Fifth Congressional District of North Carolina, by a majority of one, has nominated as a candidate for Congress, Wm. F. Henderson, a man of such questionable character, that as honest men and true Republicans we cannot conscientiously give him our support as such candidate; therefore,

Resolved, That we, Republicans of this District and delegates to the District Convention, having used our best exertions to prevent the unfortunate circumstance which we so much regret, and having withdrawn from the Convention making this nomination, do respectfully request —to be a candidate for a seat in Congress, and we hereby pledge to him our hearty, individual and untiring support.

Which preamble and resolution were unanimously adopted.

On motion of Mr. Vest, of Forsythe, the Hon. A. W. Tourgee was chosen as the nominee of this meeting for Congress.

Judge Tourgee being called, accepted the nomination in an appropriate speech.

H. A. Badham, of Alamance, was chosen our nominee for Elector for this District.

Mr. Hodgkin, of Guilford offered the following resolution, which was adopted without a dissenting voice, viz:

Resolved, That Rev. G. W. Welker, Gen. Will. L. Scott, John P. Vest, S. C. Barnett, Nathan H. Hill, Mordecai Fleming and W. B. Stipe be appointed a committee to draft an address to the voters of this District, setting forth the reasons for our action and its result, and to have 5,000 copies of the proceedings of this meeting, their own address, and the speech of Judge Tourgee accepted of this nomination, published in pamphlet form.

Upon the suggestions of Hon. R. P. Dick that a committee of conference be raised, the President appointed the following named gentlemen as members of said committee, viz:

S. C. Barnett, R. L. Mebane, N. H. Hill, W. B. Stipe, Mordecai Fleming and David Hodgkin, which committee was authorized by the meeting to make any arrangements with those who remained in the Court House, which would be satisfactory to both parties; and if advisable, to withdraw our nominee and select another candidate.

The said Committee of Conference at once waited upon the candidate and prominent members of the other meeting before their adjournment, requesting a conference, with a view of reconciling difficulties, and of selecting another candidate. Time was asked by the parties with whom they conferred. Afterwards the committee were informed that they had no compromise to make.

On motion, it was unanimously resolved that the Daily Standard and People's Press be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

P. A. WILSON, President.

SAMUEL STOLTZ, DAVID HODGIN, Sec's.

ADDRESS OF THE COMMITTEE.

FELLOW CITIZENS:—Having been appointed a committee by the afore-said Convention to prepare an address to the voters of this Congressional District, in behalf of the purity and honor of the Republican party and the very best interests of our country, we would respectfully invite your attention to a few facts of vast importance to every pure and patriotic citizen, and the conclusions there to be legitimately drawn.

Before the Convention met, it was apprehended that improper means had been used at some primary county meetings, with the view to secure the success of certain aspirants, and, after its assembling, it was discovered that the apprehension was not unfounded. On balloting, William F. Henderson was declared the nominee by a bare majority. So unacceptable was he, in consequence of his bad moral character, that the Convention refused to make the nomination unanimous.

A large portion of the Convention was determined not to have such a man thrust upon them. They withdrew, as stated in proceedings of the Convention, retired to Garrett Hall, held a public meeting which was addressed by Judge Dick and Rev. Mr. Welker, approving of the steps just taken, and selected a standard bearer, the Hon. ALBION W. TOURGEE, a man of learning and great ability; a man who has always sustained, before and since he has been a citizen of this State, an irreproachable character, despite the tongues and pens of calumniators; a man whose powers of argument and of eloquence command even the admiration of his opponents; a man who can present with force to the people, the dangers which are impending our common country, and how they may, by the elevation of Grant and Colfax to the first offices in their gift, secure permanent peace and lasting prosperity. He is a champion of whom any people may be proud. With our present strength in this District, notwithstanding William F. Henderson may be in the race, Judge TOURGEE can, if the party will rally to its interest, honor and dignity, be elected by a handsome and triumphant majority. We appeal most earnestly to all pure and good patriots, lovers of peace, no matter to what party they have hitherto been attached, to put their shoulders to the wheel for GRANT, COLFAX and TOURGEE at once, and we shall roll up such a majority for FRANK, and visit such a rebuke upon unworthy aspirants, as shall firmly establish the purity and honesty of Republicanism in the hearts of all American Union Patriots. We have able men, good men, men who can reflect honor upon their party and country, and we intend to strive to put such in place and power. Without we can have such, we prefer none at all. Our own self-regard and the vital interest of the country demand such representatives in high and responsible positions. Without them our free and glorious institutions cannot be preserved and perpetuated. Let us then go to work resolutely and determinedly; let us work until the last moment before the ballot boxes are closed; let us work by day and by night; let us work manfully and untiringly, and all will be well.

GEO. W. WELKER, JOHN L. SCOTT, JOHN P. VEST, SAMUEL C. BARNETT, NATHAN H. HILL, MORDECAI FLEMING, WM. B. STIPE.

The Milton Chronicle pays the following just tribute to one of our truest citizens:

"ON THE SLATE.—Prominent and very prominent—stands the name of D. F. Caldwell, Esq., of Guilford, on our political slate. This gentleman is eminently qualified for any State office within the gift of the people, and a more honest and consistent politician never figured on the world's stage.—He seems inclined—probably from supreme disgust with the scrambling character of the times—to hide himself from public life, and give him notice of our intention, at no distant day, to drag him from his concealment. He was one of those glorious old-line whigs whose head was as level as pond-water on the late war and its results, and no such man shall cast him in oblivion, from disgust with scrambling political tricksters or other human cause. The people of Guilford and Alamance would do well to send this Cincinnati of North Carolina to the Senate to watch the boys—too many of whom part their hair in the middle.

Mr. Welker seems to have changed his opinion, entertained some time ago, about mingling in politics conflicting with ministerial duties. We quite agreed with the Rev. gentleman then and regret to see him in his advancing years straying so far from his pious resolves and going back to wallow in the mire.

Geo. W. Nason has sold the Republic-Courier, of Newbern, to other parties and retires from the profession. We regret parting with Nason who during his connection with the press in this State won a reputation for candor, fairness and independence that no other Republican editor in the State could claim. He was a Republican of the strictest sect but this did not make him a defender of corruption nor pervert his sense of right and wrong. He was honest and his party ignored him. Wherever he goes he will carry with him the respect and the good wishes of the fraternity.

That bastard mass meeting dodge wont work. We'll make a small conservative of standing in the district in it otherwise than a spectacle of the show.

In justice to Louis Howlett we will state that the Radical Convention nominated him for Coroner without his knowledge or consent. He has no sympathy whatever with the Radical party and the use of his name was simply an unwarranted liberty taken in his absence.

The Swozey Bondholders File a Petition. The Swozey bondholders of the late suit filed petition previous to the adjournment of the United States circuit court, before Judge Bond, asking that the North Carolina Rail Road Co. be restrained, and enjoined from purchasing the Western North Carolina Rail Road, or any part thereof, and from mortgaging the franchise, road-bed and property of the North Carolina Rail Road Company, for any purposes not contemplated by the original charter, or amendments thereto. It was ordered by the circuit Judge Bond that the motion be heard before him in the city of Raleigh, on the 18th of August next, and that the defendants be restrained in accordance with the prayer, of the petition in the meanwhile.—Sentinel.

This time the negro woman threw her child into the hog pen for the hogs to eat. Says the Charlotte Observer: A gentleman from Pineville Township, who was in the city yesterday, tells us of a horrible case of infanticide which occurred in that township a few days ago. It appears that a negro woman, named Mag Alexander, living on the premises of Mr. Lee Wilkinson, gave birth to a child one night last week, and immediately upon its birth threw it into a hog pen, when it was devoured by the next morning with having given birth to a child, but denied strenuously, until some person went to the hog pen and found blood and part of the remains of it.

We learn, just as we go to press, that the Radical Convention which met at Yadkiville on last Tuesday nominated Dr. C. L. Cook, of Wilkes, for Congress; by a resolution, endorsed W. H. Bailey, for Judge, and nominated A. H. Joyce, for Solicitor.

Civil Rights in Salisbury.—Last Sunday night a colored gentleman, believing, no doubt, that the Civil Rights Bill would become a law, walked into the Methodist Church and deliberately seated himself among the whites. He was finally prevailed upon to leave inasmuch as the Civil Rights Bill is not yet a law. He did so, though very reluctantly.—Watchman.

Gold in Burke. Says the Press: Captain J. C. Mills, of Brindletown, Burke county, struck some rich gravel, which yielded 600 pennyweights of the precious metal, on Tuesday last.

Cap't. Mills immediately stopped work in the gravel which was thirty feet underground and commenced a sort of railroad cut, 50 feet wide, 30 deep and 50 long and says he is going at the gravel wholesale fashion.

Murder near Weldon.—At about 10 o'clock, Wednesday night, two colored men named Cornelius Williams and Austin Hill went to the house of Mr. Samuel Presson an old gentleman of 60 years, employed by the Seaboard & Roanoke Railroad as a watchman, and decoyed him to his stable under the pretense of leaving some horses for the night, whereupon they made an attack upon him. They beat him and shot him through the neck, and leaving him for dead, they made an attempt to rob the house, but were frightened away. Presson rallied and got to his house, and told his wife that he had been shot by Cornelius Williams and Austin Hill. They escaped.—Presson lived only about 20 minutes.

Since writing the above, we learn that Williams and Hill have been arrested after a desperate resistance.—Newberne Courier.

Fine clover in Caswell.—Says the Milton Chronicle: Our friend, Col. J. R. Winston, who resides in the neighborhood of Wm. Long, Esq., up Countryline creek, in this county, has left at our office for exhibition clover 44 feet long raised on his farm. He also presented us with a bunch of 36 stems of clover as the yield of one solitary seed.

A Young Lady Raped by A Negro.—We learn by a telegram just on the eve of going to press, that a horrible rape was perpetrated near Morrisville to day, twelve miles from this city, a station on the North Carolina Railroad by a black neg in human shape, upon a most respectable young lady sixteen years old whose name we withhold until further advised.

HARBOR HOUSE—We have once or twice before called attention to this house, at Morehead. We do so for the special benefit of those contemplating visiting the sea shore, because we know the proprietor and can guarantee them every attention.

DEATH—John W. Parker, aged 76, died on Sunday night after a short, but painful illness. Mr. Parker was a respected citizen and leaves a large family and circle of friends to mourn his loss.

GIFT CONCERT—Bona Vista Lodge decided last night to give a grand gift concert this winter, for the purpose of raising funds to build an Odd Fellows' temple, or hall. The full particulars will be given soon.

SABOTAGE—On Sabbath last Mr. E. Tate lost an infant child; and on Monday night a grown daughter. The community sympathize with him in his bereavement.

PROTEST—It is unnecessary for us to refer at any length to these celebrated springs, and we desire in this only to say that large additions have been made to the buildings and means of accommodation, and the number of which is increasing annually. For particulars see advertisement in another column.

RECEIVED—Morehead and Gilmer townships held meetings last Saturday and resolved that all the conservatives present on Saturday next be authorized to act as delegates. No instructions given.

RECEIVED—We are indebted to our old friend Maj. N. H. Hotchkiss, who we see was present at the meeting of the editorial association of New York, for a copy of the proceedings. He seems to be as popular there as here, but the question is, where is he not popular?

FINE TOBACCO—Col. Jones showed us a splendid sample of the kind of work done in his factory. It is a fine fine as we ever saw, and we take pleasure in calling the attention of our buyers to it.

BASE BALL CLUB—The young men who are fond of exercise are happy now in the organization of a base ball club. Stephen A. Douglas is president, and will take a prominent position in the shade.

RECEIVED—The Steiff Pianos have been before the public for over a quarter of a century, and are justly popular in the South, towards which the manufacturer's attention has been specially directed. Since the war over 2,000 of these instruments have been sold in the South—more than 200 in this State alone. Being built expressly for the Southern trade it is no wonder that they are so popular. Persons competent to judge say they are as near perfect as a piano can be. See advertisement.

RECEIVED—See schedule of Chesapeake & Ohio R. R. Now that the hot season is upon us, there are no more delightful places for recreation, and the invalid, than the famous Springs on the line of the Chesapeake & Ohio R. R., the White Sulphur Springs, Hot Springs, Jordan's Alum, &c., all too well known for us to present their attractions and virtues. This great line, with its elegant equipments and fast trains also offers special inducements to travellers to the West, North-West and Texas. Those contemplating a trip for pleasure or profit will do well to select this popular line. Call on its general agent here for any information in regard to it.

AN INDIAN MYSTIC—We have in our office a stone pot which was plowed up on the farm of Mr. H. Lambeth, on Reedy Fork last week. It is symmetrical in shape, with handles on opposite sides, and holds about two gallons, and is quite a clever piece of workmanship for the rude artist who chiselled it out.

DESERVED COMPLIMENTS—The Raleigh papers speaking of the concert at Peace Institute pay the following compliments, well deserved, to Miss Katie, who, we hope, will pardon us for reproducing them.
"The 'Shadow Song' from the Opera 'Dinorah' sung by Miss Katie Tate was charming, sung with an abandon and grace that was completely new and fine. A full scope of voice, the beautiful song came gushing forth to admiration with all the beauty and ease imaginable."
—Society.

An instrumental piece, well performed followed, and was succeeded by 'Shadow Song' from the opera 'Dinorah,' by McArthur, sung by Miss Tate, of Greensboro, whom Charlotte with a pride claims. Miss Tate's voice is one of rare power, compass, sweetness and delicacy; a clear, brilliant soprano, and is managed with matchless skill. Even the faintest bird-like notes were distinctly heard, and in truth, and in intonation and expression, her execution was superb. It is not saying the less for the other fair singers and their performances, and to say that she was the Queen of Song, and this piece the gem of the evening."
—News.

Miss Katie Tate was the throat phenomenon of the evening. Her neck is as easy of a hard note as a canary. She is undoubtedly a remarkable young contralto, just fifteen years of age, and if she live to be married, North Carolina may well proud to cage her as its bird of song.—Greensboro.

The Newbern Times calls her the 'Greensboro Thrush.' We'll back everything they say on this score, but we shall consent to let Charlotte claim her for North Carolina 'cagebird,' as the Greensboro says, either.

LANDMARK—We welcome to our exchange list the first number of the Landmark, published at Statesville, by that stirring writer, J. B. Hussy. The first number is a bright index of what it will be and we predict for it success.

Judge Settle has returned from Raleigh. Messrs. Dillard & Gilmer appeared in several cases at the Supreme Court.

Picnic of our Baptist friends at South Buffalo yesterday.
You have no right to go to church and bolt out in crowds, annoying the congregation and interrupting the service. Unless some good reason exists, you should remain till the congregation is dismissed.

Apples have made their appearance. The thermometer has been reasonable for the past week.

Rev. Dr. Hoge, of Richmond, will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sunday. W. F. Henderson was sick at Thomasville when he met Gen. Scales last Friday. That ain't a circumstance to how sick he will be on the sixth of August.

The proceedings of township meetings at Jamestown and Jefferson will be found on the outside of this paper. They reached us last week, but after we had gone to press.

Work commenced on the New Market House to-day.
The Methodist Sabbath School will have a basket picnic to-morrow in the College grove. The children and friends will meet at the church at 9 A. M.

The Episcopal Sabbath School had a picnic last Friday in Wharton's grove. On Thursday last Miss Lina Porter's school picnic on South Buffalo. Mrs. Morton's school at Dr. Egbert's spring. Miss Lizzie Lindsay's at Wharton's grove.

Messrs. Ogburn, Lindsay, Foster and Sergeant took a protracted fishing frolic last week and hooked 'lots of 'em.'

Messrs. Charles T. Bailey and T. Ruffin Taylor, of Richmond, were in town this week. They are both clever young men and represent good houses.

Della Yarborough is now proprietor of the dry line, having purchased from E. P. Jones & Bro. He is industrious and energetic, and we trust our merchants will give him every encouragement.

E. M. Caldwell, the grocer, remembers us frequently. This week he sampled us with a variety of articles in the grocery and confectionery line too numerous to mention. He keeps the best of everything.

Stores close now at eight o'clock, P. M., and clerks have a little breathing time. This is right and should be the custom everywhere.

MARRIED—Miss Jessie Dick, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Judge Dick, was married yesterday evening, the happy man being Col. Robt. M. Douglas.

GUILFORD COUNTY RADICAL CONVENTION—On Saturday last this select body assembled in the Court House, and at the call of T. M. Owen, David Hodgins was made temporary Chairman. This so completely took the wind out of David's prospects for nomination, that he with great difficulty and awkwardness filled the chair. A call of townships was made and only one answer.

The committee on credentials, however, found all the townships represented except two—Whether the committee made the report to enter themselves or the delegates did not have sense enough to answer we don't know. But we do know that it was the smallest County Convention ever assembled in this place.

It was apparent, however that Windy Billy was not well represented. Only one colored man was honored with even a place on a committee, notwithstanding it is a negro party so far as this county is concerned—the negroes polling two-thirds of the Radical vote.

T. B. Keogh was made permanent chairman. An effort was then made by Henderson's friends to adjourn, in order to give time for getting up a plan by which to carry their nominations; but it was no go.

Parson Welker, fearing that some of the Stanley's friends would get the start of him, put R. M. Stafford in nomination for Sheriff, urged his nomination by acclamation. The convention acclaimed and the person was happy.

There was no controversy over the Register of Deeds, but making this nomination before that of C. S. C. was rather a sneaky trick on our brother quill-driver.

J. H. Fetzner—who was promised a place on the ticket. Joe was the only man before the convention who had any claims upon it—but he was a Henderson man, and that killed him.

Col. A. S. Holten was nominated for Senator, without opposition because it is known to be worse than useless to run—defeat is certain. Ab is a good fellow and we can't see why he should be selected as a martyr.

Parson Welker was nominated for the House by acclamation.
After this all was harmony until the nominations for commons were made—Here a spirited debate arose between Mr. Sampson, of the model farm, his friends and Mr. J. A. Pritchett. The parson eloquent (which largely predominated) all were for Sampson—urging temperance and many other virtues as his. John was single-handed in his defence, but he had the reserve squarely declared he saw the plot and indignantly withdrew his name from the contest. John has too much influence with the party to be thus rebuffed. So the name of Sampson came down, and Cornelius Clark was nominated. Parson Garrett, of color, during this discussion took occasion to arise and endorse Mister Welker.

The following is the ticket complete:
For Senate—Col. A. S. Holten.
Commons—G. W. Welker, C. Clark.
Sheriff—R. M. Stafford.
Register—A. Dillworth.
Clerk Superior Court—A. Clapp.
Coroner—L. C. Howlett.
Treasurer—J. W. Bowman.
Surveyor—J. A. Peale.

Commissioners—J. T. Ross, Jos. Hoskins, J. E. Cox, J. D. White, B. G. Chittent.

THOS. B. KROGH, Esq.,
Chairman Republican Convention:
Sir—Understand I was nominated by the republican convention held in Greensboro on the 20th inst., as their candidate for Governor. I am thankful for the honor intended to be conferred but beg to respectfully decline the honor.

Respectfully Yours,
L. C. HOWLETT.

RECEIVED—We are indebted to Hon. L. Q. C. Lamar for a copy of his brilliant speech on Mirabeau in the South.

RECEIVED—Just received, nicely oranges, lemons, pineapples, raisins, figs, preserves, jellies, and canned fruits of every description. New goods arriving every day.

After Fifteen Years' Experience
W. B. FARMER, the Watchmaker, Jeweler and Optician, who so successfully and satisfactorily repairs clocks, watches and jewelry, also prides himself upon being an experienced mechanic and mender of sewing machines, guns and pistols. He and his work have long been before the people of this section, and he does not deem it necessary to 'blow his own horn,' or to defend others, in order to keep a good run of paying customers. Work warranted to give satisfaction—all articles sold guaranteed as represented—and a call solicited from the people generally. Especial attention given to difficult jobs. 1w

MOUNT AIRY Sulphur Springs!
Open July 10th, 1874.

It will be enough to say to the lovers of Good Eating that I have secured the services of Mrs. Fannie E. Smith, of the Reidsville Hotel, in Rockingham county. Her table will present the best fare that the country can afford.

Passengers on the cars from Greensboro, N. C., when they leave Salem-Winston in the morning will be delighted with the stage ride over a fair road in full view and within one mile of that great Natural Curiosity, the Pilot Mountain, and they will arrive at Mt. Airy before sunset in time to view the Grass and bewitchingly beautiful Mountain scenery which will fill the eye and elevate the soul of the delighted tourist as he enters the lovely village. Mount Airy. The roughest and wildest mountain scenery may be enjoyed at the Pinnacle of Dan and other localities where the delicious Speckled Trout sparkles like a shining light in the clear water. Lizards, almost every kind will find relief or perfect cure. Consumptives had better avoid sulphur water. The best of Free Stone and Chalky-bone water can be had here.

No case of Scrofula has Failed to be Cured here. It is called by some, emphatically the 'Ladies' Spring,' and those suffering from the slightest skin blemishes, eruptions, and Skin diseases, Sore Eyes, Tetter and old sores will probably be cured in a few days. If the contents of a man's bladder have been long shut out of the system and if he be not entirely relieved of that symptom within ten days no cure will be made for board and lodging.

Hotel and Furniture all new.
Term—per day $1.50, per week $8.00, per month $25.00

Ventilation.
In reply to our friend from Franklinville, N. C., in regard to the ventilation of Cotton Factories, we would say, that we have no practical experience of the effect of dry or damp air upon the material used in such institutions, but we have seen hundreds of employees suffering and dying from the effects of imperfect ventilation of such manufactories. It is equally certain that the lungs are inflamed by fresh air in proper quantities, as that the stomach should receive wholesome and nutritious food, and without this supply of food the whole system must suffer. Thousands of children employed in such manufactories die annually from ill ventilation, and here it is too, that the foundation of future disease is laid. The little particles of lint and dust entering the lungs, become entangled there and remain to act as irritants, and soon inflammation is established. The insufficient ventilation, the scanty supply of wholesome and nutritious food, &c., act in concert as it were to awaken hereditary diseases, and to establish others from the above causes. It is computed that in all such institutions there should be 1,000 cubic feet of air space to each person employed, and that there should be constant free circulation of air through the building, and the sleeping apartments should be equally as well ventilated. Openings should be made in the walls and sides of the buildings to allow the fresh pure air to enter below, and rise as it served the purpose and become heated to be discharged from the openings above.

17th day of August, A. D., 1874.
at which time it will take place at the said Court House door in Salisbury, and upon the terms and conditions heretofore published.

C., and that such publication when made shall be a valid and complete service of said summons, as to said parties.

Witness my hand and seal of office, this 2nd day of June, 1874. R. H

FARMER'S COLUMN.

From Our Home Journal.
Leads on the Farm—Raising Hogs, &c.

That sow and pigs were sold when our currency was nearly at par, and she was just such a one as I should like to have today.

I am not raising hogs now but hope to begin in a very day or so soon as that price is completed. During that year in Coahoma County, Miss., I bought a large hog in August, and when killed on the 4th of January he weighed 425 lbs. Cost $12 and worth in pork at least $45. The shotes were some over a year old, perhaps 18 months, but they were not highly fed as I had just moved in and had corn to buy and feed very moderately until fall.

These are the kinds of hogs to raise. They are fat grazers and how quickly they fatten when compared with the scrubs taken out of the woods about December. Every grain given the former tells in meat whereas the latter are often kept up for weeks and many of them killed with little improvement.

It was before I went to Coahoma County that I became so fully satisfied raising hogs the above method of raising hogs.

Removal caused several breaks in the business, hence I did not raise my meat all the time.

Kind friends, let us take warning from the past and cease striving to run at railroad speed and resolve not to keep more hogs than we can raise to perfection and how easily we can raise our meat.

In Lauderdale County, Miss., before the days of the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, I saw corn sold at 20 cents per bushel, and people complained and most assuredly they were far better off that day financially than they ever have been since.

Meat and bread were everywhere in abundance and no complaint of distress except by the miserably poor who infest all times. The late R. Holmes, alluded to previously, lived on sandy upland with red clay subsoil, sowed largely of small grain and peas and when he had a promising spring crop he would sometimes buy up hogs and he assured me that they cost him no more than the same hogs would have done the previous fall when money and corn were more plenty. I do not believe any planter in my knowledge excelled him in making cotton except by very superior land.

His was a complete triumph in the effort to raise hogs and plant successfully at the same time. All do not live on sandy land but here in this southwest Louisiana, where we are free from the Mississippi overflow, we have other advantages in the way of the root crops which are too much neglected, and as before said, we can raise small grain to much advantage as an adjunct in stock raising of all kinds. Clover and other grasses also.

I knew an old man, not much able to labor who followed his pork hogs nearly all day with his gun while foraging for acorns during fall. He said it paid him, not doubt, twice his only child for meat. This was in Kemper County, Miss. A friend in Mobile once sent my father, now at Ramsey, Sumter County, Ala., a fine Berkshire boar and I did want to tell how he soon raised hogs weighing near 500 pounds, but these papers are already too long.

How to Cure Clover Hay.

A correspondent of the Southern Farm and Home, sometime last Summer, gave the following sensible hints on curing clover: Let clover lie in the swaths until more than half of the upper part is sufficiently cured, which if the weather be favorable, will be in eight or nine hours, even if the swath is very heavy. If it is light, the time required for curing will be proportionately less. When the upper part is thus cured, let the swath be turned with hay forks bottom up, and let it be thus for four or five hours, until the under side is cured. Then throw these swathes together into the wind-row, and commence hauling in, running the wagon between two wind-rows and loading from each. Put it in the barn and sprinkle with salt. These operations should only take place after the dew has disappeared. Clover will keep with much less curing by drying than any other grass. It is a good test to twist a bunch of the clover hay, and if no juice exudes, the hay is perfectly cured, and may be hauled home with safety.

Unfermented Manure.

Many excellent farmers have an idea that manure to be most efficient in raising crops should be well rotted, but this is a mistake. Manure loses a heavy per centage. Fresh manure dripping with animal urine hauled directly from the stable on the land and ploughed under is worth nearly doubly that which has decomposed to saponeaceous consistency. When it is convenient for farmers to haul manure as fast as it is made it saves handling it twice and forwards the work in busy spring time. No fears need be entertained that the atmosphere will carry off the strength of the manure if left on the surface. The only danger to be apprehended by this method will be in the case of the ground being frozen and covered with snow and ice when the manure is applied; if upon sloping land the virtue of the manure might wash away, but on level land there is no exception to this plan of operation during the entire fall and winter season.

The Granger's Crest of Triumph.—The Otumwa, Ia., Courier has abolished the belligerent rooster as indicative of triumph at an election, and substituted an ear of corn, sand-wiched in the sentence, "Pretty near a clean shucking." It is an improvement.

Nearly all diseases originate from Indigestion and Torpidity of the Liver, and it is always anxiously sought after. If the Liver is regulated in its action, health is almost invariably secured. Want of action in the Liver causes Headache, Constipation, Jaundice, Pain in the Shoulders, Cough, Chills, Dizziness, Sour Stomach, bad taste in the mouth, bilious attacks, palpitation of the heart, depression of spirits, or the blues, and a host of other symptoms, for which Dr. Tutts' Liver Regulator is the best remedy that has ever been discovered. It acts mildly, effectually, and being a simple vegetable compound, can do no injury in any quantity that it may be taken. It is harmless in every way; it has been used for 40 years, and hundreds of the good and great from all parts of the country will vouch for its being the purest and best.

Dr. Tutts' Liver Regulator or medicine is harmless. Is no drastic violent medicine. Is sure to cure if taken regularly. Is no intoxicating beverage. Is a family medicine. Is the cheapest medicine in the world. Is given with safety and the happiest results to the most delicate infirm. Does not interfere with business. Does not disarrange the system. Takes the place of Quinine and Bitters of every kind. Contains the simplest and best ingredients.

DR. TUTTS' LIVER PILLS.
The startling drawback on nearly all medicinal agents has been that in their process of purification and purification they have lost their vitality. To obviate this difficulty physicians have long sought for an agent that would

PURGE, PURIFY & STRENGTHEN
At one and the same time. Their research has at last been rewarded by a discovery which fully realizes the long desired desideratum of a medicine, which is justly regarded as the most important triumph that Pharmacy has ever achieved. This important desideratum is Dr. Tutts' Vegetable Liver Pills. Which purify the blood and remove all corrupt humors and unhealthy accumulations from the body, and yet produce no weakness or lassitude whatever, but on the contrary tones the stomach and invigorates the body during the progress of their operation. They unite the heretofore irreconcilable qualities of Strengthening purgative and a purifying tonic.

Dr. Tutts' Pills are the most active and searching medicine in existence. They at once attack the very root of disease, and their action is so prompt that in an hour or two after they are taken the patient is aware of their good effects. They may be taken at any time without restraint of diet or occupation; they produce neither nausea, griping or debility, and as a family medicine they have no rival.

Price 25 cents a box. Sold by all Druggists. Principal Office, 45 Cortlandt Street, N. Y.

Dr. Tutts' Improved Hair Dye.

YOU CAN DO YOUR OWN PAINTING
READ, READ, READ, "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paints" Made from Pure White Lead LINSEED OIL & ZINC, MIXED READY FOR USE. One Gallon Covers 20 "Square Yards Two COATS.

Read the following testimonials: WALKER FOREST COLLEGE, N. C., October 4th, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight:—We have for several months been using your Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on our College building and are well pleased with it. Though it was applied by one having no experience in such work yet we have a good job. We shall continue to use it, believing that in point of economy, durability, and facility of applying it is the best paint in the market. Very Respectfully, (Signed) W. G. SIMMONS.

THE PLAINS, Fauquier Co., Va., February 6th, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight:—The paint came safely to hand as ordered, two kegs, five gallons each, and these books—mixed, one gallon each. As practice is lack, I did the job myself. Two weeks not constant work completed the house two coats, the last coat applied thick, and the result is a fine hard and body and harmony of colors there is not a handsomer job in the place. I have saved sixty-five dollars by the operation. Does not interfere with business. Does not disarrange the system. Takes the place of Quinine and Bitters of every kind. Contains the simplest and best ingredients.

FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS.
