Nominations by Acclamation!

A WINNING TICKET!

The Senior Editor is in Raleigh and sends us by telegraph the first day's proceedings of the State Democratic-Conservative Convention. There never was a more harmonious or enthusiastic assemblage in the State. Every county in the State represented except one—one thousand delegates present—and all working for the common good.

Hon. Z. B. Vance was nominated for Governor, and Hon. T.
Jarvis, for Lieutenant-Governor—both on first ballot; Col.
Thos. Keenan for Attorney-General; Maj. Jos. A. Englehard for Secretary of State; Dr. J.
M. Worth for Treasurer—by acclamation.

We have no room for comment, but must say, that the ticket is a good one, and will rouse the old State from the mountains to the sea-shore!

A man may be able to calculate the distances of the stars, run a sewing machine, polish a stove without knocking the hide off his fingers, cur a mule and retain that animal's esteem, rub a cat the wrong way without getting clawed, weed his wife's flower garden without pulling up some of her pet plants and leaving dog fennel or some other wild shrub in their stead, but he never knows how powerfully ignorant he is of the realities of life until he undertakes to plant a tube rose and finds, after wondering for three weeks why it don't grow, that he has planted it wrong end down.

The telegraph informs us that some $300,000 of Georgia bonds were sold in Europe the other day at a premium and a larger amount at home. Georgia is a Democratic State. Can this be said of any other Southern State where the Radicals have had control?

The Danbury Reporter, which was burned out in March last, has made its appearance greatly enlarged and improved. We don't know what the proprietors lost by the fire, but must say the good people of Stokes have been the gainer thereby. The paper is now No. 1 in every respect and we wish it much success.

W. M. Robbins has been re-nominated for Congress in the 7th district. W. B. Glenn was chosen elector. F. L. Shober and Geo. Mathes, of the Winston Sentinel, delegates to National Convention, with J. B. Hussey of the "Statesville Landmark" and J. W. Manning as alternates.

Republican National Convention, now in session at Cincinnati, had not balloted up to time of going to press.

Blaine over his own Signature.

If after reading the two following letters from Blaine to Fisher any doubt remains as to his venality and the truth of the charges against him there is no force in the English language. The man who requires more evidence must be either a fool or a partizan who shuts his eyes and refuses to be convinced:

[Personal.]

AUGUSTA, ME., Oct. 4, 1869.

MY DEAR SIR:—I spoke to you a short time ago about a point of interest to your railroad company that occurred at the last session of Congress. It was on the last night of the session, when the bill renewing the land grant to the State of Arkansas for the Little Rock road was reached. Julian, of Indiana, chairman of the public lands committee, and by right entitled to the floor, attempted to put in the bill, as an amendment, the Fremont El Paso scheme, a scheme probably well known to Mr. Caldwell. The House was thin, and the lobby in the Fremont interest had the thing all set up and Julian's amendment was likely to prevail if brought to a vote. Root and the other members from Arkansas, who were doing their best for their own bill, to which there seemed to be no objection, were in despair, for it was well known that the Senate was hostile to the Fremont scheme, and if the Arkansas bill had gone back to the Senate with Julian's amendment, the whole thing would have gone on the table and slept the sleep of death. In this dilemma Root came to me to know what on earth he could do under the rules, for, he said it was vital to his constituents that Julian's amendment was entirely out of order, because not germane. He had not sufficient confidence in his knowledge of the rules to make the point, but he said General Logan was opposed to the Fremont scheme, and would probably make the point. I sent my page to General Logan with the suggestion, and he at once made the point. I could not do otherwise than sustain it, and so the bill was freed from the mischievous amendment moved by Julian, and at once passed without objection.

At that time I had never seen Mr.
Caldwell, but you can tell him that I did him a great favor.

Sincerely yours,

JAMES G. BLAINE.

W. FISHER, Jr.,

24 India st., Boston.

After an explanation of this letter, a second letter, dated Oct. 4, 1869, of which the following is a complete copy, one sheet having been omitted in arranging it for publication, was read as follows:

AUGUSTA, ME., Oct. 4, 1869.

MY DEAR MR. FISHER:—Find enclosed contracts of the parties named in my letter of yesterday.

The remaining contracts will be completed as rapidly as circumstances will permit.

I enclose you a part of the Congressional Globe of April 9, containing the point to which I referred at some length in my previous letter to-day. You will find it of interest to read it over and see what a narrow escape your bill made on the last night of the session.

Of course it was my plain duty to make the ruling when the point was once raised. If the Arkansas men had not, however, happened to come to me when at their wit's end in despair the bill would undoubtedly have been lost, or at least postponed for a year. I thought the point would be made by you and Caldwell, though occurring before either of you engaged in the enterprise. I beg you to understand that I thoroughly appreciate the courtesy with which you have treated me in this railroad matter; but your conduct toward me in business matters has always been marked by unbounded liberality in past years, and of course, I have naturally come to the conclusion to expect the same of you now. You urge me to make as much as I fairly can out of the arrangement into which we have entered. It is natural that I should do my utmost to this end, and that is definite and expressed arrangements with Mr.
Caldwell. I am anxious to acquire the interest he has promised me, but I do not get a definite understanding with him as I have with you. I shall be in Boston in a few days, and shall then have an opportunity to talk matters over fully with you. I am disposed to think that whatever I do with Mr. Caldwell must really be done through you.

Kind regards to Mrs. Fisher.

Sincerely,
J. G. BLAINE.

MR. WARREN FISHER, JR.

The National Republican corrects the remark it made about Judge Settle, whom it quoted as saying that no ex-Confederate ought to be trusted with the responsible position of Vice-President. It corrects by saying the Judge said he doubted the policy of such a nomination at this time as it would probably not be popular with the Northern people.

We didn't believe the Judge could have as little respect for himself as to give utterance to the remark as it was first quoted by the Republican. Still if that were the only reason against his nomination he scarcely did military duty enough to subject himself to any serious objections on that score.

Rowell's Centennial Newspaper Exhibition, a book of three hundred pages, is to hand. It contains a list of American newspapers, a statement of the industries, characteristics, population and location of the towns in which they are published; also, a descriptive account of some of the great newspapers of the day.

the United States Senate to pay Pinchback the expenses of his contest for a seat has been defeated by the opposition of the Democratic

The Centennial is the title of a new Conservative paper just started at Warrenton. It is vigorous, sprightly and chuck full of vim.

Donan is demoralized. He struggled against the pun fever that attacked so many of the editorial fraternity, and now he's got it as bad as any of them.

The New York Herald exposes a fraud on champagne drinkers, by showing how baskets, bottles, labels, &c., of the foreign manufacturers are gathered up for use by establishments in New York which decoy a vile article of puny lightning, &c., and palm it off as the genuine article.

Two articles which appeared in last week's Patriot should have been credited to the Danville News.
One, "Keep the Missionaries at Home" was inadvertently credited to the Church Journal; the other, "Dirty-Jack Logan" to the Times.

We don't make blunders of this kind often and when we do we think pretty much as juvenile Jake did when the old gentleman was re-monstrating with a victory god against his using "profane" language.

Independent Candidate.

Josiah Turner announces himself as an independent candidate for Governor, and here's his platform:

No repudiation of any debt, as the Constitution of the United States forbids it.

No payment of the special tax-bond debt of $16,000,000.

The adoption of the last amendment by legislative enactment, forbidding the Legislature to pay any portion of the special-tax bonds without first submitting the question of payment to the people at the polls.

A universal crusade against the railroad corporations and rings engaged in running editors and politicians for their own selfish ends.

The State not to part with its railroads, but to hold to them as the great highways leading to Counties.

No more bond swapping between the Chatham Railroad and the State Treasurer, where bonds payable in Confederate money are exchanged for bonds as good as gold.

The proposed constitutional amendments, one and all.

JOSIAH TURNER.

P. S.—This announcement was excluded, but subsequently admitted as an advertisement. The rig-men say the Radicals have bought me. Leading men of both parties failed to see that after ten years' trial, and that's what's the matter between myself and the ring.

For this advertisement I paid the Receiver $4 in the Daily and $2 in the Weekly. JOSIAH TURNER.

Here's how the Danville News notifies the arrival of the Radical N. C. delegation to Cincinnati last Friday:

AN AWFUL CAR-LOAD.—Whew, what a mess! I and no storm, deluge, hurricane or earthquake yet. Never saw in Danville a darker cloud. A whole car-load of the head-devils of North Carolina radicalism, bound for the Cincinnati bummer pow-wow. Thos. B. Keogh, chairman, and Francis M. Sorrell, secretary of the white-and-black Ethiopian state committee; Col. Thos. Powers and W. H. Wheeler, delegates from the state at large; E. K. Page, second district; Col. W. Smith and John A. McDonald, fourth district; Thos. M. Owen and Bob Douglas, a recrunt son of the "little giant" of Illinois, fifth district; R. N. Nor-mont, sixth district; and T. N.
Cooper and J. J. Mott, seventh district. They all dined at the Arlington; pocketed a copy apiece of the Danville Weekly News, as missionary documents; admired our flourishing metropolis of the Southside; and lit out. Never did one palace car bear more political sootiness.

A bust-up of the train would not crash on every dock-knob and carpet of Tarheel niggerdom, and yet clever fellows than most of them would be hard to find. We sincerely hope they may have a delightful trip and a free fight in their con-venticle, and that the creature they nominate may be smashed next November into a million stinking fishers so fine that Beelzebub will have to mount a 46 mile power pair of spectacles to find his share.

The Newbern Times a Republican journal of the better order, lays claims to respectability, and declines submitting to the dictation of politicians who take the trouble to tell Manix how to run his paper.

We append a few of his reasons:

1st. Our paper is not, nor can it be made a cess-pool, into which every political blackguard can pour his slops.

2d. It being our paper, we do not propose that every smart chap who comes along shall use it as a transient convenience to further his own ends and aims.

4th. It may be respectable journalism to take up every blackhead's gargle, get into a row and shoot and be shot at, but we fail to see it.
Perhaps some of our fire eating individuals may say we are cowardly, and all that sort of thing, but when ever the occasion arises perhaps we will be found exhibiting as much brute courage as those who make more bluster, far as men go, we must say that we are so far from having any fear of personal difficulty with any one from any publication that we may make that we neither carry an arsenal in our breches pockets, or base our reputation for valor upon having murdered somebody, or committing a murderous assault, as a protection.

5th. When it becomes necessary for gentlemen who run newspapers to descend to the level of slanders, corner-lorers, blackguards and Briek Pomeroy's in order to be appreciated, we will step down and out from the fraternity with as much celerity as we would put our selves outside of a brothel if we happened to get into one by accident.

6th. Principles and not men, are the levers with which we expect to move our little political world, and we think they will live the longest and do the most work. Men die, lie and steal, but right, truth and justice have endured since the creation of the world.

Resignation of Col. Pool.

In the following card Col. Pool resigns the position of school superintendent:

Raleigh, N. C., June 10, '76.

MR. EDITOR:—I have this day tendered my resignation of the office of Supt. of Public Instruction to Gov.
Brogden, to take effect June 30, 1876, at the close of the present school year. On that day, I shall go to the public, through the columns of such papers as shall see fit to publish it, a brief, yet full statement of my official conduct, and in addition thereto an explicit account of all matters connected with the Peabody Fund and its disbursement by me. From these statements, when published, the public can see whether I have failed to perform any duties imposed upon me by virtue of the office of Superintendent. Very respectfully, S. D. POOL.

Blaine as a Gun Jobber.

At the outbreak of the civil war in 1861, James G. Blaine was thirty-one years old, full of health and vigor, and physically more capable of endurance than the three-fourths of the gallant men who then rushed to the defence of the Union. The spirit which animated others did not reach his cold and calculating nature. His thoughts were turned on peace and speculation, and in the midst of a patriotic excitement the best he could do for the country was to hire a substitute to fight in his place.

Blaine belonged to the noble band of non-combatants and contractors of whom Gen. Scott said it would require an army to restrain them after the war was over. He has verified that prediction of his own person. As in war his voice was for peace, so in peace his voice is for war. He wants no reconciliation, no union, and no harmony between North and South; but, instead of these, he seeks sectional strife, discord, and constant agitation, because they may be, as he supposes, turned to political account, and used to retain jobbers like himself in Congress to legislate for Kings and to share in their plan-der.

In the first hour of the country's trial and distress, when the minds of all true men were weighed down with deep anxiety as to the future, Blaine's occupation, according to his own account, was that of a lob

PROBABLE STONE.—Prof. Doubt has been presented by Dr. Nobles of Edgemont county with a piece of meteoric stone weighing some eighteen pounds,—it is exceedingly hard, the color of slate, and bears a greater resemblance to flint than any other rock we know of. It seems to be a combination of cobalt and iron.

☞ Gulford will be well represented at Raleigh this week. The following, and perhaps others, left Tuesday: C. G. Tate, J. I. Scales, P. F. Duffy, R. M. Stafford, J. N. Staples, W. W. Ragsdale, A. G. Gilmer, J. T. Morehead, Jno McCulloch, W. U. Steiner, G. H. Gregory and E. P. Jones.

☞ The suit of John Hall, former treasurer, against the county of Guilford, was decided by the referees Monday last. He entires claims of Hall were allowed,—amounting to some $1600 of bonded debt on account of $300 being now due on matured coupons.

☞ The following are the officers elected at Elmwood Lodge 246 of A. F. & A. M., Greensboro, N. C.: Steph: A. Douglas, W. M.
J. A. Odell, S. W.
Thos. J. Sloan, J. W.
J. M. Odell, Treasurer.
John Chamberlain, Secretary.

☞ SUNDAY SCHOOL EXCURSION.—This Saturday Sunday School of this place has engaged a train for an excursion to Salem and Winston, on Tuesday, the 27th inst. The train will leave the depot here at 7 A. M., returning about 7 P. M. Ample arrangements have been made for the pleasure and comfort of all. A good time may be expected. The fare for round trip will be as follows: from Greensboro $1.00; West Green and New Garden 75 cents; Friendship 60 cents; Kernersville cents.

☞ Rev. R. L. Abernethy, of Happy Home, advertises in the Christian Advocate, that there will be an excursion from Ferry, on the Western railroad, to Beaufort on the 11th of July, at a very low rate. If the railroad authorities persist in the present high tariff to Beaufort excursions will be the only chance for Beaufort to make anything this year out of lake seekers. It is cheaper from Greensboro to Philadelphia than to Beaufort. So much for the wisdom and patriotism of our railroad men.

☞ The picnic at New Garden Fair ground, last Saturday, was a very enjoyable occasion, yet the crowd was not so large as we expected. There was rather too much public speaking to admit of the usual amount of social intercourse at the picnic. The music was furnished by the Sabbath-school teachers and pupils of the Friendship Academy, under the charge of Miss Ella Dundas, who played the accompaniment upon an organ. W. E. Edwards and John A. Gilmer were called out to make short speeches. The plan of organization of the Society was read by the secretary, J. Van Lindley, and an appeal to the audience to take stock was made by A. E. Kitchen. The orator of the day, George R. P. Dick, delivered a beautiful address upon the Divine origin and the blessing of the husbandman and farmer,—closing his remarks principally upon the teachings of Holy Writ. He was attentively listened to with pleasure.

The People Want Proof.

There is no medicine prescribed by physicians, or sold by druggists, that carries off bile, digests and assimilates food so quickly as BOSCHIE'S GERMAN SYRUP for Coughs, Cold settled on the Breast, Consumption, or any ailment of the Throat and Lungs, or of that fact that this person administered it, and gets Sample Bottles for 10 cents and try its superior effect upon his own system. Dr. Trott's has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderful effects are astonishing everyone that uses it. —Lancet, London, England. Try it. Sold by W. C. Porter & Co., and Callum Bros., & Co., Greensboro, N. C., and S. H. Smith, High Point, N. C. 379-lv

THE GRAND SECRET OF BEAUTY IS HEALTH. The secret of health is the power of assimilation, and the power of assimilation consists in wholesome, nutritious food. It can never be done when the liver does not act up its part. It is the great digestive, absorptive and excretory organ, and when it is out of order, the whole organism becomes deranged, and fever dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Constipation, Piles, Rheumatism, Kidney disease, general debility ensues. To restore normal functions of the liver and impart that beauty, which always attends a healthy constitution, Dr. Trott's Vegetable Liver Pills are conscientiously recommended. They are designed solely for the disordered liver and the disease attending its derangement. They cure all ailments, but in the cases mentioned they rarely fail to effect a cure. 428-zw

FLOWER THAT CHANGES COLOR

Botany is a division of natural science which treats of plants, and a study of vegetable Physiology must be the foundation of any knowledge of botany, and is easily possible by the improvements in the microscope and in organic chemistry. As plants are not scattered haphazard over the globe, but are geographically situated, and, with this, plant-history, anatomy may be applied to the wants of everyday life, as in Agriculture, Horticulture, and Medicine. Amongst others exhibit a marvelous instinct in selecting medicinal herbs, and an observation of their habits has often, in the case of certain medicinal valians, discovered. And should man, with his knowledge and appliances, fail to discover what nature has intended? There is one Plant, the HEPA-TINE PLANT, discovered in South India, the Flower of which changes its color with every change of the atmosphere. The remarkable changes and variations of this Plant and Flower have been for years our special study, resulting in the discovery of a scientific remedy of wondrous efficacy, the existence of which we have long have heretofore been entirely unknown to medical science. After much research and diligent investigation, we have succeeded in extracting the peculiar vital principles, which is a specific and cure for all diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels; a permanent cure for Dyspepsia, Bilious Colic, Core or Jaundice, and all Bilious Complaints—of course we cannot send living Flower Plants to all who read their address to MERRELL & COBURN, Philadelphia, Pa., with a three-cent stamp for return postage, and we will send a fac-simile of the flower, that will grow like the real one, and the real Hepatine Flower.

The Medicine, MERRELL'S HEPA-TINE, for sale by W. C. Porter & Co., and will cure all diseases of the Liver.

NEW YORK, June 3.—The following executed counterfeiters are circulating: Twenties of the National Bank of Utica, N. Y.; Tens of the Farmers' & Manufacturing Bank, Longkeepsie; Fives of the First National Bank of Chicago, National Bank of Paxton, Ill.; First National Bank of Canton, Ill.; First National Bank of Peoria, Ill.; First National Bank of Aurora, Ill.; First National Bank of Galena, Ill.; National Bank of Northampton, Mass; Hampden Bank of Westfield, Mass; Mechanics National Bank of New Bedford, Mass.; Traders' National Bank of Chicago; First National Bank of Louisville, Ky. Two men and a woman were arrested yesterday for passing some of these bills. Other counterfeiters were found on their persons.

"Now, George, my dear," said Mrs. Spittins to the play actor, "for this night, as your hubby was going to fight, say, why won't you go out and get roasted coffee for your heart burn, I have brought a handful in my pocket."—New York Mail.

We present above a table in round numbers of the number of voters and number of depositors in Savings Banks in what may be aptly termed the Savings Banks states. It will be seen that in some cases there are more depositors in Savings Banks than there are voters; notably so in Massachusetts. These depositors are certainly the working classes—not the capitalists. They are creditors and are hard money men. They will vote for only a pronounced hard money candidate.—Rat. Sentinel.

Celestial Ambition.

"Talking of China-men," said a naval officer, "reminds me of a curious thing. The other day I went down to see (mentioning a Chinese merchant on Sacramento street.) I know his wife well; used to know her in China. She's got two of the smartest little daughters you ever saw. Every time I go to see her she makes 'em sing for me." "Chinese songs?"

"No, sir; American songs. She's not a teacher for 'em, and they just pick a piano now as fine as anything in the land. Well, the last time I was to them, the old woman says to me, 'You sabee little German girl, I says, 'Yes, I sabee little German girl, what about her?' Well,' she says, 'you catchee me little German gelle, me gieve you yee dollah.' I didn't know but that the old woman might be doing some kidnapping business, so I told her pretty short I would not do it. 'I wouldn't do anything of the kind,' says I, 'if you paid me a thousand dollars.' 'Oh,' she says, 'you no sabee. Me no want to make him bad gelle. Me makee melle e same.' Ah See—that's her own eldest little girl. Why couldn't an American girl do you?' says I. 'Oh,' she says, 'me no sabee. Melian gelle, too muchee see, too muchee lay aloud.' 'And you know what the critter's idea?' said the naval gentleman, laughing for his companion's tobacco. "Why, she thinks that by getting a little German girl and by dinging her up with her own children, she'd be able to take them in white society when they grow up."

The members of the order of Patrons of Husbandry, Ocean Grange, No. 175, are constructing a hand-house, about a mile from its place, on the North river road. It will be occupied as a Grange hall and church, open to all denominations.—Beaufort Eagle.
