The Grave of the Fallen.

There is a grave in yonder dell Beneath the willows gloomy shade, Where whispering winds doth softly tell The name of one who there is laid;

No marble marks the lonely spot, Or points the turf within the grove,
The weeping willow bends alone Above the lost, the erring one.

Yet lightly when the summer breeze Hath softly pierced the wild wood vale, It bears unto the trembling leaves The murmur of its whispered tale.

Then of its own sad voice afraid, It whistles through the startled glade,
And from the willow's drooping bough, Shakes tears upon the turf below.

God pity her, the erring one,
And look in mercy on the heart That stings, yet yet for that sin hath known A misery that doth never depart.

May tears of penitence restore The suppliant to home once more,
And in a world of love and bliss Forgiven be the sins of this.

A Good Father.

The Wonderful Will of Wade Hampton Bolton—Nonchalant Jackson's Widow Remembered—Old Tom Dickens and His Tool, Sarah W.
Bolton.

The following singular will is in the Chancery court of this city in the case of John W. Wright, sheriff, and administrator of Dickens vs.
Bolton's administrator, &c. The old man (W. H. Bolton, was before the war a prosperous slave-trader, and his immense plantation was on the banks of the Mississippi river, and could be seen from the steamboat windows. He had an enormous sign at the landing, which is spoken of by Mrs. Stowe in "Uncle Tom's Cabin." The feud between old man Bolton started by an altercation about the sale of a slave, and was continued for years, and ended in the death of Bolton, who, about a month after he made his will, was shot down on the court-green by "this gigantic swindle, old Tom Dickens." The will was dated August 6th, 1869.

In the name of God, amen. I, Wade H. Bolton, at my home place in Shelby county, Tennessee, being in good health, of sound mind, and disposing memory, knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, make and publish at my office at home this my last will and testament:

First. After all my just debts and liabilities and funeral expenses are paid, it is my will and desire that my ashes may repose at the Pleasant Ridge church buryingground, three miles below my homestead, and a suitable monument erected to my memory by my executor.

He bequeathes sundry articles to his beloved wife, and then he gives her ten thousand dollars in money in fee simple forever, in addition to his life insurance of ten thousand dollars.

Fourth. I give and bequeath Seth W. Bolton five thousand dollars, provided that he lends an assisting hand and helps to defeat

THIS GIGANTIC SWINDLE that old Tom Dickens and his tool, Sarah W. Bolton, has instituted against his father's estate and mine in the Chancery court of Memphis, and the onus of proof shall be upon him to show to my executors that he has done all he could to defeat the same, then my executor shall, in the event, if Seth W. Bolton be married, or does marry a white woman of his own choice, shall invest the five thousand dollars in a piece of land for their support and maintenance, title to be made to them and their children for their body—But should Seth W. Bolton remain in celibacy, which he is quite likely to do, my executor is instructed to loan out the $5,000 at interest, and give him the interest annually, as long as he lives, and nothing more.

Fifth. I give and bequeath to Mary L. Bolton, now wife of E. C.
Pattison, $5,000; provided that she and her husband, E. C. Pattison, does all they can in assisting me to defeat this gigantic swindle of old Tom Dickens and his tool, Sarah W. Bolton, has instituted against J. L. Bolton's estate and mine in Chancery court at Memphis, and the onus of proof shall be on them to show to my executor that they have done all they could to defeat the same. In this event my executor shall have five years to pay the same without being coerced by law.

Sixth. I give and bequeath to my niece, Lucinda Bolton, now the wife of Jos. A. Andrews, if she survive my death, five thousand dollars, to be invested in a piece of land for their mutual interest and support, provided her and her husband, Jos.
A. Andrews is my friend and co-workers in helping all they can to defeat this gigantic swindle of old Tom Dickens and Sarah W. Bolton, his tool and ally, in the fraud against me and Isaac L. Bolton's estate, and the onus of proof, &c.; and I give and bequeath to my niece, now Mrs.
Wade Bolton, five thousand dollars, provided that she is and so remains a true and faithful friend of mine, and does all she can to defeat this gigantic swindle of the

OLD LAND PIRATE,
Tom Dickens and Sarah W. Bolton, his ally, against her father's estate and mine, in Chancery court at Memphis, and the onus of proof, &c. I also gave her my gold watch.

Eighth. I give and bequeath my niece, Josephine Bolton, now the wife of the notorious Dr. Samuel Dickens, the

JUDAS OF THE FAMILY, five dollars, one-sixth of what Judas

Negro Emancipation.

NATIONAL INDEPENDENT POLI-

OF INDEPENDENCE.

Republican Faithfulness and Cor-ruptions Exposed and Scathingly Denounced by Colored Men—They are Tired of Party Yoke, and will Combine to Reconcile the Sections and Maintain Local Self-government.

At a largely attended meeting of the colored citizens of the different States, held in the city of Washington on February 28th, 1876, the following was unanimously adopted, and on motion, it was ordered that the document be printed in circular form for distribution throughout the United States:

We, colored men, representing nearly all the States and Territories of the United States, believing, with the fathers, that the happiness of the people is the sole end of government, and taking into consideration the unhappy condition now existing, growing out of the prostration of business, the decrease of commerce and the heavy taxes forced from an impoverished people to carry out the extravagances of an administration become infatig-ated by sordid ambition, and taking into consideration the duplicity, want of faith, corruption, vacillating policy and selfish motives of the Republican party, to which have been allied since we became citizens, and for which we have sacrificed so much, do hereby denounce it as being the primary cause of all the wrongs committed against us, the impediment of the progress and prosperity of the country, because it has never caused to use us as a cover for its base designs, usurpations and encroachments upon the liberties of the people of the South, and, therefore, we sever all connections, with that infamous and tyrannically administered organization, for the following reasons:

For its palpable violation of the principles upon which it is founded; for its failure to fulfill its solemn promises made in National and State platforms; for the political servilism in which it has kept our Southern brethren whose impolite banding together has perpetuated its supremacy to the detriment of the material prosperity and tranquility of the States in which they live; for establishing a bank, ostensibly for the benefit of the Freemen, but actually for the pecuniary advancement of knavish bankrupts, favorites of the Administration, and appointing men of speculative ability and doubtful characters to control it, who have not only mismanaged, but stolen millions of our hard earnings, thereby reducing us to abject want, and for persistently refusing to pass any legislative measures for the relief of the ignorant, but confiding men and women who deposited their all in that pseudo philanthropic, but ruinous receptacle, only because of its Republican character; for ignoring integrity in the distribution of the patronage, and appointing either ignorant blacks who were used as administration tools, or infamous whites who depleted the treasuries, and prostituted the offices for political preference, even in States where the overwhelming numerical strength of the blacks make Republican ascendancy possible; for banding ignorant colored men against their white fellow-citizens, against that greedy and unscrupulous comorant from the North may ride into office and then leave them, after amassing fortunes and attaining honor and fame, the enemies of those who would have otherwise befriended and protected them, for conniving with white men inimical to our best interests and relentlessly bent on engendering class hatred for party ends, whose plundering and coercive legislative measures and insatiable thirst for gain have made of the fair fields of the South a howling wilderness, and palsied the very energies of the people; for robbing treasuries, ruining whole communities by oppressive taxation, increasing the State debts to fabulous amounts, and goading the people to desperation; for usurping powers not delegated to the General Government; for throttling State legislatures and expelling the people's representatives from State capitals by force and arms, thereby substituting military despotism for civil authority; for disgracing the American name and character abroad by the appointment of gamblers, stock jobbers, swindlers, men whose villainous characters were known to the appointing power as ambassadors, consuls and diplomatic agents, for speculating with the finances of the country; for aiding and abetting conspirators to defraud the public treasury; for unprecedented extravagance in the administration of the Government; for sustaining the Executive in the practice of nepotism and in the appointment of persons to office to whom he was indebted for favors received, and many unconstitutional measures, such as the appointment of a military satrap to negotiate a treaty without being confirmed by the Senate; for using the public revenues to carry elections; for creating and maintaining a Board of Public Works, a Board of Audit, and a Board of Commissioners, who have, in violation of law, prostituted the credit of the United States, piled up an enormous debt on the people of the District of Columbia, subsidized presses, and paid lawyers' fees for personal defence with public money, corrupted contractors for personal gain, fraudulently issued bonds and certificates, and left the city bank-

Joseph G. Hester's Jail.

Sent by Postmaster-General Jewell to Create a Reign of Terror in Alabama.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The Committee on Expenditures in the Post Office Department had before it to day Joseph G. Hester, and examined him in regard to his operations in Sumter county, Alabama, in the fall of 1874. He was sent by the Postmaster-General to create a reign of terror and thus make sure the election of Charles Annals Hays. Hester, notwithstanding he pretends to have been converted from his wicked ways, could not refrain from stretching the long bow occasionally to-day. Although his story was in the main true, he admitted that he was taken to the Post Office Department by Hays and White, two members of Congress from Alabama, and introduced to Postmaster-General Jewell. The object of his visit was to have Hester sent to Sumter county, ostensibly to investigate the Ivey murder.
Ivey was a negro mail agent, who was killed on a postal car, and it was assumed that the murderers were Ku Klux or White Leaguers.
Hester had as an assistant one Beach, who was formerly in the revenue service, but was detailed for this work, and acted under instructions from the Attorney General, Williams. Hester says that when he saw the Postmaster General, he told him that he would not serve for the regular pay of special agents, which is $1,000 per annum.
The mission was dangerous, and he was not going to risk his life for nothing. Mr. Jewell asked him what pay he wanted, and Hester said $10 per day and $5 for expenses, with all travelling expenses and necessary disbursement allowed.

After some discussion Mr. Jewell agreed to Hester's terms, and the fellow departed. He admitted to day that he did create a reign of terror in Sumter county, and that he drove hundreds of innocent white men to the swamps, who were willing to risk their lives in this way rather than to be dragged hundreds of miles away from their homes to be at the mercy of Federal officials, who, in the past, had been hard-hearted and cruel.

The Postmaster-General in allowing Hester to be paid, was guilty of a flagrant violation of law. Section 47 of revised statutes at large is as follows:

The Postmaster-General may employ two special agents for the Pacific coast, and such number of other special agents as the good of the service and the safety of the mail may require. Such agents shall be entitled to a salary at the rate of not more than sixteen hundred dollars a year each, and shall be allowed for travelling and incidental expenses, while actually employed in the service, a sum not exceeding five dollars per day.

The Age of Birds.

The eagle, swan, raven and parot are each centenarians. An eagle kept in Vienna died after a confinement of a hundred and fourteen years, and on an ancient oak in Shelborne, still known as the "raven tree" the same pair of ravens are believed to have fixed their residence for a series of more than ninety years. Swans upon the river Thames, about whose age there can be no mistake—since they are annually nicked by the Vintner's Company under whose keeping they have been for five centuries—have been known to survive one hundred and fifty years, and more. The melody of the dying swan is mythological. Upon approach of death the bird quits the water, sits down the banks, lays its head upon the ground, expands its wings a little and expires, uttering no sound.

Persons receiving THE PATRIOT with a cross before their names are reminded that their subscription will expire in two weeks, and that the paper will be discontinued if not renewed within that time.

P. S. Send $2.10 and you will receive THE PATRIOT twelve months free of postage.

Hon. D. F. Caldwell was now able to sit up, and will soon be about again.

Mr. Thos. B. Keogh is in Washington.

There will be a special meeting of Greenboro Grange, No. 2, on Saturday night, at 2 P. M. A full attendance is desired.

We have the consolation of being told that according to the old Dutch signs there will be an abundance of fruit this summer.

The fire-boys have got sick of that old cheese box hand concern and turned over to the Commissioners.

Mrs. Bilbro, mother of Mr. Peyton Bilbro, died last Friday night, in her seventy-fifth year.

A steam fire-engine would reduce insurance in Greenboro annually more than the entire cost of engine.

Our mocking bird—a king, too—has returned from his winter quarters, and now we have a concert every morning and evening.

The Supreme Court last week in the case of City of Greenboro vs. Bank of Greenboro rendered a decision sustaining the defendant.

The candies manufactured by the Starr Co., are of a superior order. They understand their business and the result is their business is largely increasing.

A complete fire-equipment would cost less than the amount paid annually for property owners for insurance. And it won't have to be paid every year, as insurance is.

Gardening has been progressing satisfactorily the past week, and if this weather continues, we can soon look for "garden cases."

ANOTHER OLD STANDBY.—Mr. Pecheff, of Monticello, renewed his subscription to THE PATRIOT for the fifth old time, having been a subscriber from the start.

A PROMPT SUBSCRIBER.—Mr. Jacob Bortel, of Lexington, this week renewed his first annual subscription to THE PATRIOT. In these twenty-one years he has never failed to pay in advance, and invariably before his subscription expires.

This is a good enough epitaph for him.

A PROMPT JUDGE.—Since Judge Kerr has been on the Bench he has never failed to be promptly at his post when the bell tapped; a striking contrast to the lack of punctuality heretofore witnessed, and a good example to judges generally.

Mr. C. Hunt, formerly of this county, now of Dallas, Texas, in a letter renewing his subscription, says he had brought out his mother from this county, who although in her ninety-seventh year stood the journey well and arrived safely in her new home.

A NATURAL GRANT.—There is one of the gardens in our neighborhood—a magnanimous bush, (an evergreen) from which is growing a large branch of silver-edged gold. Both bush and branch are in perfect vigor; but how this silver-edged gold reached itself into the bush is a puzzle which reaches beyond our plant-knowledge.

MOKE DOG.—We learn that within a short period more than twenty-five sheep have been killed by dogs in the neighborhood of Alamance church. And thus it goes on all over the State, while Legislative demagogues are afraid to speak out against the dog nuisance which costs North Carolina hundreds of thousands of dollars annually. If our farmers, however, will invest a little fractional currency in skymachine, they can abate it to some extent.

The services at St. Barnabas' church last Sunday were more than ordinarily interesting. Bishop Lyman (son of the deceased Mr. W. S. Bynum, (son of Judge Bynum) who for several years practiced law, and abandoned that profession for the ministry. Preceding the celebration the Bishop preached an able sermon on the divine mission and authority of the priesthood. The choir rendered the beautiful chants selected very effectively.

MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT.—The Concert Band of our city has engaged the services of Prof. W. H. Neave, a proficient musician and teacher of bands, and will prepare themselves for giving a concert, in 1900 some new instruments. For several years Greenboro has been without a band, and the present organization, having sustained itself and worked hard to become good players.

Prof. Neave is a fine performer and without a rival in this country.

The services of several excellent performers are expected and it is the intention to give a fine entertainment, well worthy the support of every one.

GRADING THE RIVER.—A trial was pending in the Court House last Monday when the lawyers had proceeded sometime Judge Kerr remarked, "Gentlemen, this has occurred to me from what has transpired that this is an old case in which I was employed and received a fee six years ago. I studied the case then, and am familiar with all the details, and under the circumstances, having been retained as a lawyer in it, I do not think that I can with propriety try it, and define doing so." The attorneys on both sides insisted he should try it, as they were both willing to trust the case to his hands, but he persisted in his refusal and the case will be tried by some other Judge. He acts on the principle that the Judge's integrity like the honor of a man's wife should be "above suspicion."

Remember that J. W. Scott & Co. have on hand one of the largest stocks of groceries in the city, and that they sell as low as any first class house.

Also remember that they positively guarantee every article sold to be exactly as it is represented or returnable at their expense.

FOUND.—On last Sunday—a bracelet—which the owner can have by calling upon Miss Stival, mantua-maker, proving property and paying 50c—the cost of this notice.

DIME SOCIABLE.—The young ladies of the Presbyterian church will give Friday next, in the afternoon and evening a sociable for the purpose of raising funds to aid in the education of students for the Ministry in Union Seminary. There will be good things to eat and pretty things to dispose of—all for ten cents, the object being to raise a small sum without taxing the generous. The afternoon at 4 o'clock the children as well as grown folks will be entertained; in the evening the public are invited. At the Yarrowbrough House.

A MEMENTO.—In a larceny case last week, the defendant, a black man, having no counsel the Judge appointed Mr. Jo. W. Glenn as such. It was a clear case and made clear by the confession of the culprit. His attorney, however, did his level best for him and in hope of getting his punishment mitigated represented that the man upon whose goods and chattels he practised was even worse than the nigger, and so trifling and lazy that he was upon the point of starvation, and that he was about pegged out when his client interviewed his provisions.

Here the Judge asked if he supposed that the larceny was perpetrated with a view of facilitating the starving and demise of a colored white man.

The Attorney concluded not, but thought that his client anticipating and regarding his speedy demise inevitable only went for the purpose of procuring a memento, and accordingly helped himself. The Judge decided that three years in the penitentiary would give him abundant opportunity to contemplate that memento.

We heard a gentleman, Tuesday morning, regretting that Henry Bergh could not have a representative here. He had just passed the depot as the train came along with a car load of cattle.—The poor creatures were in agony from their tongues protruding and low howling indicated an extremity of suffering touching to any one with a human heart.

TELEGRAPH TO SALEM AND WINSTON.—Work will begin on the new telegraph line from here to Salem and Winston in a few days and pushed right through.

The entertainment given by Greenboro Lodge, No. 7, I. O. G. T., last night was a success. A large audience assembled, and the performances give entire satisfaction.

SUPERIOR COURT.—The Cotton larceny case occupied court the latter portion of last week, and the jury being unable to agree upon a verdict, a new trial was ordered. This week the criminal docket has had almost exclusive attention. Among the cases tried, some were petty and some quashed.

Three or four penitentiary convicts averaging from three to ten years, and a couple sent to jail.

CUT THIS OUT. It May Save Your Life.

There is no person living but who suffers more or less with Lung Disease, Coughs, Colds or Consumption, yet some would die rather than to pay 75 cents for a bottle of medicine that would cure them. Dr. A. Boesche's German Syrup has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderful cures astonish everyone who tries it. If you doubt what we say in print, cut this out and take it to your Druggist, W. C. Porter & Co., or to Mr. C. H. Smith, High Point, N. C., and get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try it, or a regular size for 75 cents.

Never give up the ship. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup may cure you, as it has done others. It costs little, and can never harm. Price, 25 cents.

It is surprising how few books have been written on the diseases incident to old age. We know of no work that is better, more generally read by the medical man, or in fact by all classes, than "Treatise on the medical management of old age," written in a plain style and free from all technicalities. We know of no work that is more happily adapted to the alleviating of the pains and aches of the aged than Dr. J. S. Pemberton's "While they live," promptly they do not wrench the system or shock the most enfeebled constitution. In cases of gout, rheumatism, kidney disease, or enlarged bowels, indigestion, loss of appetite, their healing properties are truly wonderful. Their effect on the nervous system is prompt, quieting restlessness, imparting refreshing sleep and vigor to the whole system. The old and young will be alike benefited by the use of this truly estimable medicine.
