Sheep Leave Golden Tracks Behind Them.

(From the Hillsboro Recorder.)

MR. EDITOR—The subject of sheep husbandry is such an interesting topic to me and in my judgment, is of much vital importance to the agricultural community that I must again trespass upon your indulgence and ask space in your valuable paper for some suggestions and additional facts connected therewith.

The report of the Commissioner of Agriculture for the State of Georgia shows that one hundred sheep penned for ten nights consecutively will enrich the poorest hill side to such a degree as to make it equal in production capacity to the best river low ground; what a marvellous fact is this for the contemplation of the owners of the worn out old fields abounding in our State! Just think. By the continuous penning every night of one hundred sheep from October to April, you can have eighteen acres of upland, not subject to overflow, ready to yield from eight to ten barrels of corn per acre; by continuing the penning to the first of October eighteen acres more fertilized to the capacity of yielding from twenty to thirty bushels of wheat to the acre; and all this for the slight trouble of penning your sheep at night, turning them out in the morning and every five or ten days moving a small hurdle pen; an increased product of at least five bushels of corn per acre, and three hundred bushels of wheat, and this too, all clear profit. For, from my previous communication, it is obvious that one hundred ewes by their products of wool and lambs will pay very handsome interest on the cost besides paying their food and necessary attention. The same authority states that one hundred ewes will raise annually seventy-five lambs, notwithstanding the ravages of dogs.

Taking these statements as a basis for calculation, the farmer who purchases one hundred ewes and two bucks, say at a cost of two hundred and fifty dollars, will, at the end of two years, have received upwards of two hundred and thirty dollars for wool and have a flock of two hundred and forty sheep. Do not these figures verify the adage "Sheep leave golden tracks behind them." What more profitable investment can any one desire? Why is it that our farmers do not engage in this profitable occupation? Is it because our farmers have not the intelligence to see their obvious interest? or have they not the energy to engage in and carry out successfully an enterprise? or is it because they are too lazy to do it? or is it because they are too poor to do it? or is it because they are too ignorant to do it? or is it because they are too proud to do it? or is it because they are too lazy to do it? or is it because they are too poor to do it? or is it because they are too ignorant to do it? or is it because they are too proud to do it?

The true answer to the query is the dog; the non-producing, destroying dog, the consuming, unprofitable dog; the untaxed, and it would seem, untaxable dog. Strange that Statesmen do not see the importance of sheep husbandry to all of our people and exert themselves to have a developed and duly protected. Strange that our farmers themselves do not see to it that their representatives in the Legislature do their duty and pass such laws as will encourage and promote this the most profitable of all agricultural pursuits. Strange that the wishes for immigration, the talking and wishes for immigration do not see that the impossibility under existing laws of profitably rearing sheep is one of the great obstacles to the promotion of their wishes.

The U. S. Census for 1870 shows that of the number of persons of all employments in this State seventy-six per cent. engaged in agricultural pursuits, and I apprehend that the same may be said of the voting population, and yet strange to say the men sent to the Legislature by these farmers go there and legislate for banks, railroads, corporations of all kinds, make some political speeches and tax the farmer. This is the farmer's share of the "possum partnership."

I may hereafter develop more fully some of the suggestions here in contained. Yours &c. J.

A joint committee of the Senate and House in the South Carolina Assembly have submitted a bill redistricting the State. The State has five Congressional districts, and in every one of the census of 1870 shows a negro majority.

The Internal Revenue officers in the Tennessee district, during their raid upon the moonshiners, succeeded in destroying 20 illicit stills, 20,000 gallons of beer, 250 of stings, 110,000 gallons of whisky, 25 bushels of meal, 15 bushels of corn and a lot of mash.

Sharpsburg Ky., has a natural mathematician in Reuben Fields, who, while he knows not one figure from another, correctly solves intricate problems in his mind, without hesitation, computes the time of day almost in an instant, and tells how many revolutions the driving wheel of a locomotive will make between given points. He cannot read or write.

It costs the government $5,187 to run the revenue office at Frenchman's Bay, Maine, last year, and the receipts were $5,850. — Ex.

There are some custom houses that cannot make a much better showing than the above. By the way what has become of civil service reform? Is it dead or is it sleeping? If the latter it is indeed "death's counterfeit," for it gives no sign of life and is "senseless to feel." — Wilmington Star.

Infanticide and abortion have become so frequent in New York, that Recorder Hackitt styles it a regular business and urges the grand jury to give it their attention.

Col. Scott, president of the Pennsylvania railroad company, receives a salary of $24,000, $6,000 less than he received last year. It is said that his combined salaries from the different roads with which he was connected last year footed up about $100,000.

Madison, Indiana, according to a correspondent of the Raleigh Observer, must be a model town. It has 18,000 or 20,000 inhabitants, and not a policeman in it. We have seen cities four times that large without policeman—that is none could be found when wanted.

The children of Commodore Vanderbilt are showing themselves the veriest dogs in the shameful legal squabble over the old man's effects. They are revealing family broils and secrets, that ought to have been buried with the old man, as no man with an atom of self respect would do for thrice the dead man's estate.

Beverly Douglas, member of Congress from the first district of Virginia, added a little variety to the proceedings in Congress the other day by taking about a quart under his shirt, staggering down the aisle, interrupting Conger, of Michigan, who was trying to make a speech, and raising the devil generally. The Speaker's gavel failed to bring him to time, and finally his friends had to lug him out.

The editor of a Western paper who was rusticated at Hot Springs, Ark., wrote to his paper that that town most needed was a first-class fire, starting at one end of the town and sweeping through to the other. Before the ink was dry that fire came and did just what he wanted it to do. The question now is whether that is another proof of the power of the press or whether that wrecked editor hired somebody to fire the town.

The editor of the Washington Post was troubled about the shabby hat that Senator Conover, of Florida, wore, and announced that he would pay for a new hat for that gentleman. Next day a bill was presented by a hatter for $5, which Hutchins paid, and Conover now wears a new hat.

Disappointed.

The New York Herald is evidently disappointed in Hayes, to whom from the start it has given a most cordial support, and discourses thus in one of its leaders of last week:

President Hayes has been nearly a year in office, and he must be a very self-complacent as well as a very sanguine man if he thinks what he accomplished in reforming the civil service is worth all it has cost him. By his vacillating, inconsistent course, which has won the approval neither of the true friends of civil service reform nor of the spoils-hunting politicians, he has put himself in a state of humiliating isolation. He has failed to improve the civil service, and at the same time he has stripped himself of all the support he could have had. It is now plain to everybody that a party President of the usual type would have been a altogether more successful and more useful.

The Charlotte Observer, while agreeing with us in the main in our views on the narrow gauge question, does not see any advantage to be gained in applying it to roads now in operation.

There is not a road in the South that would not make money in the long run by adopting the narrow gauge, and the time is not far distant when the wide gauge will be the exception instead of the rule on our roads.

The Supreme Court of Louisiana has decided that the returns from Vernon township were not proper evidence in the case against Anderson, that consequently the indictment was defective, and that he must be discharged. This virtually blocks proceedings against all the Returning Board scoundrels.

We wonder by what hocus pocus that decision was procured.

The news from Europe this morning looks warlike. England has refused to go into the congress called to consider the treaty between the Russians and Turks.—Russia is massing her troops on the Austrian frontier, and is making preparations to occupy Constantinople. The outlook is warlike.

U. S. Grant had a good time dead-heading it at the expense of the Khedive of Egypt, up the Nile, and pirating around generally in the land of pyramids.

Important to Tobaccoists.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, OFFICE INTERNAL REVENUE, WASHINGTON, March 1st.

On and after May 1st, 1878, all manufacturers of tobacco, snuff and cigars will be required, on closing business, to render the closing inventories as provided in Article 10 of the Internal Revenue Act of 1872, and to pack and stamp all manufactured goods on hand at that time, and close up their accounts, as manufacturers, with their several collectors. By renewing from year to year their special tax stamps and keeping them posted conspicuously in their places of business, by continuing to render monthly reports of all purchases of stamps and sales or removal of goods, by keeping their places of business, legal facilities and themselves legally qualified as manufacturers, although not actually engaged in manufacturing or making taxable goods, they can enjoy all the privileges the law accords to manufacturers, and keep their stock of goods unstamped at their factories until they are sold or removed.

This decision is reached after a careful examination of the provisions of sections 3355, 3358, 3367, 3369, and 3373, relating to tobacco and snuff, and of sections 3357, 3359, 3362, 3363, 3364, 3365, 3366, 3367, 3368, 3369, 3370, 3371, 3372, 3373, 3374, 3375, 3376, 3377, 3378, 3379, 3380, 3381, 3382, 3383, 3384, 3385, 3386, 3387, 3388, 3389, 3390, 3391, 3392, 3393, 3394, 3395, 3396, 3397, 3398, 3399, 3400, 3401, 3402, 3403, 3404, 3405, 3406, 3407, 3408, 3409, 3410, 3411, 3412, 3413, 3414, 3415, 3416, 3417, 3418, 3419, 3420, 3421, 3422, 3423, 3424, 3425, 3426, 3427, 3428, 3429, 3430, 3431, 3432, 3433, 3434, 3435, 3436, 3437, 3438, 3439, 3440, 3441, 3442, 3443, 3444, 3445, 3446, 3447, 3448, 3449, 3450, 3451, 3452, 3453, 3454, 3455, 3456, 3457, 3458, 3459, 3460, 3461, 3462, 3463, 3464, 3465, 3466, 3467, 3468, 3469, 3470, 3471, 3472, 3473, 3474, 3475, 3476, 3477, 3478, 3479, 3480, 3481, 3482, 3483, 3484, 3485, 3486, 3487, 3488, 3489, 3490, 3491, 3492, 3493, 3494, 3495, 3496, 3497, 3498, 3499, 3500, 3501, 3502, 3503, 3504, 3505, 3506, 3507, 3508, 3509, 3510, 3511, 3512, 3513, 3514, 3515, 3516, 3517, 3518, 3519, 3520, 3521, 3522, 3523, 3524, 3525, 3526, 3527, 3528, 3529, 3530, 3531, 3532, 3533, 3534, 3535, 3536, 3537, 3538, 3539, 3540, 3541, 3542, 3543, 3544, 3545, 3546, 3547, 3548, 3549, 3550, 3551, 3552, 3553, 3554, 3555, 3556, 3557, 3558, 3559, 3560, 3561, 3562, 3563, 3564, 3565, 3566, 3567, 3568, 3569, 3570, 3571, 3572, 3573, 3574, 3575, 3576, 3577, 3578, 3579, 3580, 3581, 3582, 3583, 3584, 3585, 3586, 3587, 3588, 3589, 3590, 3591, 3592, 3593, 3594, 3595, 3596, 3597, 3598, 3599, 3600, 3601, 3602, 3603, 3604, 3605, 3606, 3607, 3608, 3609, 3610, 3611, 3612, 3613, 3614, 3615, 3616, 3617, 3618, 3619, 3620, 3621, 3622, 3623, 3624, 3625, 3626, 3627, 3628, 3629, 3630, 3631, 3632, 3633, 3634, 3635, 3636, 3637, 3638, 3639, 3640, 3641, 3642, 3643, 3644, 3645, 3646, 3647, 3648, 3649, 3650, 3651, 3652, 3653, 3654, 3655, 3656, 3657, 3658, 3659, 3660, 3661, 3662, 3663, 3664, 3665, 3666, 3667, 3668, 3669, 3670, 3671, 3672, 3673, 3674, 3675, 3676, 3677, 3678, 3679, 3680, 3681, 3682, 3683, 3684, 3685, 3686, 3687, 3688, 3689, 3690, 3691, 3692, 3693, 3694, 3695, 3696, 3697, 3698, 3699, 3700, 3701, 3702, 3703, 3704, 3705, 3706, 3707, 3708, 3709, 3710, 3711, 3712, 3713, 3714, 3715, 3716, 3717, 3718, 3719, 3720, 3721, 3722, 3723, 3724, 3725, 3726, 3727, 3728, 3729, 3730, 3731, 3732, 3733, 3734, 3735, 3736, 3737, 3738, 3739, 3740, 3741, 3742, 3743, 3744, 3745, 3746, 3747, 3748, 3749, 3750, 3751, 3752, 3753, 3754, 3755, 3756, 3757, 3758, 3759, 3760, 3761, 3762, 3763, 3764, 3765, 3766, 3767, 3768, 3769, 3770, 3771, 3772, 3773, 3774, 3775, 3776, 3777, 3778, 3779, 3780, 3781, 3782, 3783, 3784, 3785, 3786, 3787, 3788, 3789, 3790, 3791, 3792, 3793, 3794, 3795, 3796, 3797, 3798, 3799, 3800, 3801, 3802, 3803, 3804, 3805, 3806, 3807, 3808, 3809, 3810, 3811, 3812, 3813, 3814, 3815, 3816, 3817, 3818, 3819, 3820, 3821, 3822, 3823, 3824, 3825, 3826, 3827, 3828, 3829, 3830, 3831, 3832, 3833, 3834, 3835, 3836, 3837, 3838, 3839, 3840, 3841, 3842, 3843, 3844, 3845, 3846, 3847, 3848, 3849, 3850, 3851, 3852, 3853, 3854, 3855, 3856, 3857, 3858, 3859, 3860, 3861, 3862, 3863, 3864, 3865, 3866, 3867, 3868, 3869, 3870, 3871, 3872, 3873, 3874, 3875, 3876, 3877, 3878, 3879, 3880, 3881, 3882, 3883, 3884, 3885, 3886, 3887, 3888, 3889, 3890, 3891, 3892, 3893, 3894, 3895, 3896, 3897, 3898, 3899, 3900, 3901, 3902, 3903, 3904, 3905, 3906, 3907, 3908, 3909, 3910, 3911, 3912, 3913, 3914, 3915, 3916, 3917, 3918, 3919, 3920, 3921, 3922, 3923, 3924, 3925, 3926, 3927, 3928, 3929, 3930, 3931, 3932, 3933, 3934, 3935, 3936, 3937, 3938, 3939, 3940, 3941, 3942, 3943, 3944, 3945, 3946, 3947, 3948, 3949, 3950, 3951, 3952, 3953, 3954, 3955, 3956, 3957, 3958, 3959, 3960, 3961, 3962, 3963, 3964, 3965, 3966, 3967, 3968, 3969, 3970, 3971, 3972, 3973, 3974, 3975, 3976, 3977, 3978, 3979, 3980, 3981, 3982, 3983, 3984, 3985, 3986, 3987, 3988, 3989, 3990, 3991, 3992, 3993, 3994, 3995, 3996, 3997, 3998, 3999, 4000.

wisest way to raise revenue for the country. We have seen that the saloon keepers who have tried it do not object. The Chicago Inter-Ocean thus puts the case.

"The drinker certainly should not object if some portion of his earnings spent in this way goes towards educating his children and keeping alive and efficient government. He will not doubt soon be accustomed to the tintinnulation of the little bell, and he will take knowledge as to whether it is duly punched, and 'punched with care,' when he pays for the drink. The moderate drinker as he nerved his arm by a stiff whiskey straight for some fatal blow, can listen as the little bell sings out, 'Nine cents to inspire the devil within, and one cent to prosecute the murderer's sin.'"

The New Dollars at the Treasury.

The sum of $10,000 in the new silver coin was received and put on sale at the Treasury Department to-day. Up to the hour of closing business about $3,000 had been disposed of. Contrary to general expectation greenbacks would not purchase the new dollar, gold or silver coins, in exchange there being received for many people who were paying their bills with the new dollar. The clerk answered by pointing to a little card overhead, bearing the legend, "Silver dollars exchangeable for gold only." The different brokers in the neighborhood were then called upon by those desirous of purchasing silver, and gold was bought from them at 102. Gold was selling in New York during the day at 101 to 101 1/2; the banks here charging the two cent premium because only small quantities were demanded. A large number of Congressmen who sent messengers from the Capitol with greenbacks with which to purchase the new dollar, either had to go without or first buy gold at 102, and then pay it out for the new coin. Secretary Sherman, by whose order of course, silver is only to be sold for gold, takes the ground that to sell it for greenbacks would make the latter payable for custom duties, which is contrary to law. By the law just passed, silver being made payable for custom duties, it is evident that if it could be purchased, that the latter currency would thus indirectly also be made payable for custom duties. No more silver will be received at the Treasury to-morrow.

Five thousand dollars is being paid out in Philadelphia to day for gold, and twenty thousands remains in the mint there, with an order from New York for one thousand. It is intimated that the mint at Philadelphia will be closed each day thereafter $10,000.

A rumor gained circulation to day that coupons of government bonds were being paid in silver; but inquiry at the Treasury proved it to be unfounded. Another rumor, that one hundred dollars in greenbacks one hundred silver dollars could be purchased, was groundless. The silver is paid out for gold only.

A number of erstwhile men who had procured silver sold it out on the streets at from $1.10 to $1.25, and even as high as $1.50.—Washington Star.

Death of Paul B. Barringer, Esq.

Mr. Paul B. Barringer, a native of Cabarrus county, (brother of Gen. Rufus Barringer of this city) was recently killed at Oxford, Mississippi, by the accidental discharge of a pistol which he was carrying. A friend furnished us the following facts concerning the deceased:

He was in the 70th year of his age, and was many years since a leading merchant in Concord. He was one of the first settlers in the "Chickasaw Purchase" of North Mississippi, and was at one time a member of the Legislature of that State and was active in locating the present Town of Oxford and securing for it the State University. Always strong and decided in his convictions, he never ceased to denounce the Repudiation Party and Policy of his adopted State, and at one time sought to leave his borders and return to his beloved North Carolina. The death of Mr. Barringer was sad and striking in the fact that some years ago he lost a son, an active, many youth of 16 years old, in nearly the same way—the accidental discharge of a gun.

Paul B. Barringer was the second son and third child of his father, Paul Barringer. He married Mary Carson, sister of the late Richard C. Carson, who survives her husband with three children and several grand children.

Mrs. Margaret Grier, Hon. Victor Barringer and Gen. Rufus Barringer are now the only survivors of eleven children.—Charlotte Democrat.

That Indian editor says his reason for resigning is not on account of hard work but for the simple reason that when he writes a headline announcing that "The Battle is Open," he does not want the compositor to substitute "w" for "a" in the word "battle."

A San Francisco girl spent $100,000 for an outfit to see Europe, and the New York Mail says: "It is not stated whether her father made his money in the soap business or is a bonanza king. It is evident that the fool-killer ought to hurry out to the Pacific coast as soon as possible, even though his business is still pressing on this side of the mountains."

Agriculture of the United States.

Agriculture, which lies at the foundation of all other industries, is not apt to be exposed to sudden fluctuations, save from unusual causes, and whatever may be the case with other forms of business, the tiller of the soil is likely to have something always to do, and to get a fair reward for doing it. At the time the data for the census of 1870 were compiled, there were 2,660,000 farms in the United States and Territories, and it has been estimated that not far from one-half the entire population of the country obtain their subsistence from Providence at first hands, owing it alone to that source and their own industry. The total acreage of farms at that period was 407,735,041, of which 168,921,000 was improved, and 238,814,000 unimproved, being, about 63 per cent. of the latter. In some States the percentage was much greater. The average size of farms in eighteen States and Territories fell short of 153 acres, the average for the whole. The total value of farms was $9,262,803,861, and the wages paid, including board, was $310,286,000.—Baltimore Sun.

Here is the way they manage the whiskey license question in some portions of Indiana:

Before a bartender can get a license to sell liquor he has to give notice in the papers for three weeks that he will "make application to the Board of County Commissioners for a license to sell at retail price liquor, &c., in less quantity than a quart, to be drunk on the premises," and has to give the name of street, No. of house and ward he lives in. That gives the citizens living in the ward time to object.
