and despise him, but help him with our sympathy, our good will. Then, when there shall be no more strife and envy, no more jealousy and bitterness, then, indeed, shall come the true fraternity, and this is a realization possible and practicable by moral agencies and mental enlightenment."

Punishment sooner or later falls upon all transgressors, and that which once seemed so sweet, though unlawful, will one day become its own avenger and recoil upon the transgressor with dreadful results. Justice triumphs, wrong fails, and rogery will meet its just deserts.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

We venture the assertion that no organization in this city is contributing more to the material prosperity of Greensboro and building up her waste places than the Chamber of Commerce. Interest grows with each meeting and the good results from united action is already apparent. The meeting last Tuesday night was well attended and we may confidently expect good results to follow. An amendment to the Constitution providing for a committee on manufactures and manufacturing interests was carried, and the following gentlemen constitute the committee: Thomas B. Keogh, C. D. Benbow, O. W. Carr, A. T. Vernon, and C. D. Yates.

The lack of prize houses and facilities for handling the increasing tobacco business of the city was brought up and discussed by Messrs. Bevill Cobb, Land, Caldwell, et als, and resulted in a motion by Mr. Land for the appointment of a special committee to report to the next meeting the number of prize houses needed, their probable cost, capacity, and what the same would rent for, &c. On this committee the President appointed W. B. Land, W. E. Bevill and H. W. Cobb. The Immigration Convention at Hot Springs was discussed and the following gentlemen chosen to represent Greensboro: Judge David Schenck, John L. King and J. W. Fry; Alternates: T. B. Keogh, J. R. Mendenhall and C. H. Ireland.

Some interesting speeches were made for the continuation of the R. R. from Millsboro through Asheboro on to Troy in Montgomery.

The following committee was appointed to prepare a brief sketch of Greensboro for distribution at the Hot Springs Convention on the 25th of this month: T. B. Keogh, W. S. Hall and Geo. B. Sergeant.

THE BLOODY FIELD OF APPOMATTOX.

If the readers of THE PATRIOT wish to read something truly beautiful, soul-stirring and eloquent, read the following editorial from the gifted Blount in the Wilson Mirror:

Senator Ingalls keeps up his bitter attacks upon the South, and he is reported as saying last week that the rebellious spirit of the Southern people was as bitter now as it was in the days of Secession, and that the country was in just as much peril as then. 'Tis true the South in the madness of secession, though not yet acknowledged a crime, inaugurated a terrible war, beneath whose waves went down many of the best and bravest of both sections; but when her cause was lost on the ill-fated field of Appomattox. She accepted the stern, hard decree of Fate, turned bravely away from the grave of her buried hope, and resolved like Parthenia to awake to the duty of the situation, and grapple with he responsibilities of the hour. She has not faltered or quivered or proved recreant to a single trust; but faithfully, nobly, yea gloriously she has made good the fulfillment of every solemn obligation. She does not wish to recall the war, and Ingalls knows it well. She does not even revert to the scene of so much hallowed grief. No, she would not resurrect that buried past—a past now encircled with the frontlet of sacred bereavement, or would she stop for a moment to listen and brood o'er the touchingly mournful idyl of the passionately melancholy "It might have been." A past, all dotted with graves and glistening in the tears of mornful sorrow, is sacred, and will ever be enshrined amid the shadows of hoary memories; but the South does not wish now to stroll in the cemetery of her dead. The South wants peace—a real genuine peace. It is tired of dissensions, bickerings and constant turmoilings. It longs for reconciliation. It is now, the spite all of Ingalls assertions, yearning, craving, praying for a return to the good old days of the Republic. She remembers the blessings of the olden times, and as the sad sea shell, when taken away from its watery bed, is ever murmuring the lullaby of its billowy home—so has the South been wending up its ceaseless longings in one grand canticle of sorrowing moan for peace and domestic tranquility and fraternal harmony. But Ingalls "et ol omne genus" know that only by the light of the fires of passion, that burn in the furnace of sectional bitterness, can his party find its way out of the darkness of disgrace, and hence it is they never lose and opportunity to kindle and feed it with the fuel of slander and misrepresentation.

ANOTHER Chapter of interest has been added to the WHITE and Cross case at Raleigh, by the publication of a card from Solicitor ARMFIELD in which he states that he has never authorized to be made concessions or terms with and between Cross and WHITE and Mr. BLAINE, and will not regard such as valid. To this District Attorney BUSBEE replies, showing that under the circumstances he would have been woefully derelict in his duty, had he pursued any other than that which he has.

EDITORIAL BRIEFS AND POINTS POLITICAL.

BISMARCK will not resign.

FRANCES is the finest "first lady" we've had.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND contemplates making another Southern tour.

CIVIL Service Reform seems to be quite indigestible to the District of Columbia Democrats.

THERE isn't a better lawyer in the National House of Representatives than JOHN HENDERSON. THE PATRIOT is proud of him.

GRAN'MA BROGDEN wants it the worst in the world. By all means let him have it—the nomination, we mean. That's as far as he or any of his ilk will get.

THE fight now going on between JAMES GORDON BENNETT of the New York Herald and JAY GOULD the eminent Wall Street conspirator, is getting at fever heat.

MAHONE and JOHN WISE have fallen out. Possibly white men will now get their dues—and the control of this great American government is their "due."

JUDGE WALTER CLARKE and HON. THOMAS J. JARVIS are out of the Gubernatorial race, both these gentlemen having written letters withdrawing their names.

A BLACK boy in Washington last Saturday received $3,000 for being "butted" by a locomotive. It is hardly necessary to add, that he was not attacked on the crainum "by the engine."

THIS is the way the Florida Times-Union puts it: "The New York Sun is already pegging down the flaps of the small tent in which it proposes to run another Republican side show this year."

GOVERNOR HILL, of New York, has come to the conclusion that it is best for him to take the ripe plum that is within reach and bode his time for the fruit that hangs higher up and is not yet ready to be plucked.

THE house of representativees is engaged just now in one of those silly squabbles that pass current for parliamentary generalship, but are really nothing but a very bald exhibition of exceedingly bad judgment and worse temper on both sides. Fillisbursting settles no principle.

"IN the spring the young man's fancy, lightly turns to thoughts of"—how long, suffering MOSES, will that tariff business last. It begins Monday and THE PATRIOT violates no confidence in remarking to you, privately, that it will last until the dog—days have come and gone on their 12 monih's visit.

THE demands of the Virginia democracy for the repeal of the internal revenue laws is not only genuinely democratic and in line with the precedents, but it is timely for there is an enormous and growing surplus in the National Treasury. North Carolina falls into line with the "Old Dominion" State and pleads pitiously for relief.

THE New York Herald publishes an interview with a physician of of standing who has recently seen Mr. BLAINE, and who says that "the distinguished American is fast failing in health. That he has diabetes in a virulent form and will not live more than six months." Mr. BLAINE should not take his defeat so hard.

THE Wilmington Star has cut another notch in the mile post of time and will soon be "free-white, and twenty one." The Star is one of the brightest gems in North Carolina journalism and redounds to the honor and glory of the scholarly KINGSBURY, its editor-in chief, and the great Cape Fear metropolis in which it is published. It is edited with marked ability and as an educator on public questions has few equals. Long may it shine.

THERE may be among the readers of THE PATRIOT some who do not know whether they are full-pledged citizens, or not.

We don't want to be naughty, but by the eternal powers! we want to see this war over or try it over again!

Now, no man who served in the Confederate army can become a commissioned officer in either the army or the navy of the United States, and because Senator DANIEL, of Va., on last Friday introduced a bill to repeal that section of the Revised Statutes which makes the discrimination lawful—what do we hear? "The REBELS [GOD bless 'em!] are in the saddle again!" Our grandfathers were "Rebels," and on this side of Mason and Dixon's line the pluck which won the Independence of this country came. You'd be only too glad to see "Rebels" in the saddle again had we a foreign war.

And they'd be there, too!

THE political pot has begun to simmer. The Raleigh News Observer has sent out letters of inquiry to the chairman of the county commissioners in all the counties of the State with the view to ascertaining their counties' choice for Governor. Only about fifty counties out of the 96 however have responded. In the counties that have expressed a preference, FOWLE heads the list with 157 votes, STEDMAN 117, ALEXANDER 50, GILMER 31, HOTT 28.

THE Republicans carried Rhode Island on Wednesday by a small, but sufficient, majorit. The vote of the candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, which was scratched by the Providence Journal, was somewhat smaller than the vote for Governor. He was carried through by the force of party discipline. It is announced, by the way, that this is influential journal will advocate the re election of Grover Cleveland, but if the Presidential campaign is fought out on the tariff issue we suppose there is but little reason to expect that the Democrats can win this State next November.

"LETTER writing" says the Petersburg Index Appeal, "whether in politics or in love, is a risky business, as the experience of Mr. BLAINE and Mr. PICKWICK proves." Just at this time Virginia Republicans are engaged in the dangerous and generally disastrous business of stirring their fire with the sword. And the trouble is, the more the fire is stirred the fiercer the flames of discord blaze. The racy letter from Mr. WISE to Mr. ELAM, which the Whig published last Sunday morning, is but another faggott, to be followed, in all probability, by a letter from Mr. WISE to Gen. MAHONE, and perhaps a letter from Mr. ELAM to Mr. WISE, and so on ad infinitum. Wa say "let her go Gallogher." It is safe to predict however that some of the writers will wish ere the frosts of November that they had burnt their letters before they were published.

WHAT has Governor Scales done? Of all the possible availabl candidates mentioned for the head of the Democratic State ticket this year the name of Governor Scales is conspicuous for it's absence. A Democrat at our elbow suggests its not for what he has done, but for the things he has failed to do. Alas! Alas! Poor Grand-ma Scales.—Winston Republican.

The above renders the crack brain editor of the Republican conspicious for his ignorance in regard to the election laws of North Carolina, as the Governor of this State is not allowed, under the constitution of North Carolin. to succeed himself, and any man who had sense enough to come in out of a shower of rain or keep out of the fire would not have indulged in such tomfoolery as the above extract. Thus it will be seen that the reason why Gov. Scales is not mentioned is, because the statute of North Carolina forbids any man holding the office of Gov. for more than four years in succession. Furthermore the editor of the Republican should remember that it is good manners for children to be seen and not heard, and as he is a goslen the natural inference is that he is yet too small to set at the first table, he should be seen and not heard.

"N Y Z" DRIVES A NAIL IN TITUS' COFFIN.

COLFAX, N. C., April 3d, '88.

Mr. Editor:—

A short time since an article appeared in the North State, over the signature of "Titus," that fell far short of truthfully stating the facts in the case. The following clause occurs in his article:

"Why, even at our little free school exhibition you will see one of them, and he comes armed with concealed weapons in the shape of pen, ink, and a black State's warrant. Then squire Blue bottle sets to the task of looking for "sign," he he calls them of any one selling liquor—and when the signs make their appearance, some sorry white man, or sorry negro is given by some one five or ten cents with instructions to go and buy himself a drink from the poor cuss who is selling, and report at once to his honor, Mr. "Blue Bottle, Esquire." And when the drink has been brought back, the noble squire hides himself away to a secret place, and there draws his weapons in defence of the peace, and the dignity of the State of North Carolina, and on the oath of five cent gentleman filled with moon whiskey, he issues a State's warrant."

"Deep River township "rolls up a handsome republican majority every year" and many of the leading citizens of that township are republicans. Now for the facts: Miss Judith Matthews, an excellent lady, the daughter of Mr. Tunday Matthews who belongs to the honorable wing of the republican party that does not want to see whiskey sold at the close of a school taught by a lady, had just closed a term of school, nearly all the patrons of which were republicans. A sale had been in the neighborhood a short while before at which a great deal of drinking had been done. Miss Matthews and the patrons of her school were very desirous that the closing day should be free from disgraceful scenes, and invited the magistrates to be present to that end. The men who made the raid, the men who gave the "sorry negro five or ten cents" were patrons of the school, republicans, and men of far better standing than any of Titus's red-nosed brethren who defend liquor-selling at the close of a public school. The democratic magistrates were present by request of republicans, they did nothing except try the case that the republicans had worked up—nothing more. But the republicans who had the "sorry cuss" arrested are of quite a different stripe from "Titus." They are sober men. Men who want to see good order prevail and who are determined to put down rowdyism at the close of schools, even at the risk of defending Red Nosed Titus and his followers. If Titus was the friend of the "sorry cuss" he would have us all believe, he should have gone his security by all means. No, no, "Titus" you have made nothing by your attack upon the honest men in your own party, but you have showed how men a little, insignificant nothing such understrappers of the party will use for party purposes.—Your own party ought to kick you out after this.

Very Respectfully,

X. Y. Z.

FINAL STATEMENT

Of the Affairs of the State National Bank --Cash Short, $149,783.41.

Col. Tate, after some laborous and unremitting work, has about gotten the affairs of the National Bank in shape, and yesterday kindly furnished the NEWS AND OBSERVER with a statement of the result of his examinations. Col. Tate estimates the total shortage at $149,460.61. The amount due to other banks and to depositors, all told, is $401,783.41.

THE ASSETS

are nominally $456,703.91, but consisting of notes, overdrafts and real estate in the main, will not produde exceeding $284,000 in cash. The Park Bank of New York has a debt of $54,000 which is secured by some of these notes as collateral, and hence are to be paid in ful. This will leave, of the debt, $347,783, and a balance of assets of $230,600 with which to pay it, or about 66 cents on the dollar, less the expenses of collecting and winding up. Nothing is counted in this for the recovery of stolen money nor assessment of stockholders.

Col. Tate says that the aggregate amount of forgeries is $51,709. He is sure that all forgeries have now been discovered.

This statement is made on a minimum basis, and in all probability depositors will receive more than 66 cents on the dollar. No allowance is made for either the recovery of any of the stolen funds or for the assessments of Stockholders, and it is almost certain that the per cent of reimbursement to creditors will be increased from one, it not from both of these sources.

The result of the investigation will no doubt prove highly satisfactory to all who are interested. Ten days ago depositors thought that everything would be lost. The affairs of the bank, howeve, have proven to be much more satisfactory than was dreamed of immediately after the announcement of the crash. The fact is, very little mischief was done by the simple fact of Cross and White running away, as they carried comparatively little with thim, and it has since been found that the bank has been weak for some time and the final crash was inevitable and only a question of time.

Col. Tate has won compliments from all sides by the masterly manner in which he has disposed of the tangle. He has done some faithful work and deserves great credit for the dispatch with which he has pushed the matter. His labors are now about completed and it is probable that a receiver will be appointed in a few days more.

NEWS FOR A FACT.

(From the Associated Press Reports.)

NEW YORK, April 6.—Wm. H. Gibson, of Long Island City, on behalf of the holders of $210,000 of the "ten share bonds" of the Western North Carolina Railroad Company has brought suit in the United States Court against the Richmond & Danville Railroad Company. The latter company leased the Western N. C. road, agreeing to pay semi annual dividends on its stock, most of which is held by the State of North Carolina. The complaint alleges that the interest has never been paid. He demands that an injunction be granted restraining the lessees from further receiving the earnings of the Western North Carolina Railroad and prays for the appointment of a receiver for its stock.

Proposals for Paving South Elm St. Greensboro, N. C.

Sealed proposals will be received by the Paving Committee for the city of Greensboro, N. C., for paving South Elm street and side walks from the intersection of Market street to the N. C. Rail road, 500 yards. Bids to be put in by the 20th day of April, 1888. The bidder shall specify the mode in which he proposes to pave said street, that is, whether with Belgian Block, Rubble stones or macadamize, and as to sidewalk work, whether with concrete or flag stones, and the time in which the work is proposed to be done.

The Board reserves the right to reject or accept any or all the bids.

Utterly surprised.

MERIDIAN, Miss., July 12, 1887.—For a number of years I have suffered untold agony from the effects of blood poison. I have never had little, if any, relief. I resorted to one of patent medicines spending large amounts of money, but yet getting no better. My attention was attracted to the cures said to have been effected by B B B and I commenced taking it according to directions, having but little faith in such remedies. To my utter surprise I soon commenced to improve, and after several bottles a well and pretty person—all eruptions vanished and I felt like a new man. I cannot commend B B B too highly to those suffering from blood poison.—C. C. WELLS, Traveling M. & Tailor.

After Twenty Years.

LAFAYETTE, April 23, 1887.—For over twenty years I have been troubled with ulcerated forms, swelling legs, and grew very weak and thin from constant loss of blood. I have used four bottles of B B B and have gained 15 pounds in weight, and feel better in general health than I have for ten years. I recommend your B B B as the best medicine I have ever used, and owe my improvement to the use of Botanic Blood Balm.—ELIZABETH A. SMITH.

An Old Man restored.

DAWSON, Ga., June 30, 1887.—Being for old man and suffering from general debility and rheumatism of the joints of the shoulders, I found difficulty in attending to my business, that of a lawyer until I bought and used five bottles of B B B, which I thought has restored the blood, and my general health is improved and the rheumatism left me. I believe B B B to be a good medicine.—C. H. LAFFAU.

D. N. KIRKPATRICK, Esq:

Dear Sir: Owing to questions as to the relative strength of the bricks made here in the two yards, and wanting to be assured myself—wanting a reliable brick to stand heavy pressure—I made a thorough test of their different characteristics for this purpose.

The bricks were taken by myself from the two yards, and were a fair sample.

The one from your yard stood a crushing weight of 1,000 lbs., per square inch, without crushing. The one from Dean's crushed into powder at 450 lbs.

Your brick weighed dry, 4 lbs. 7 oz. Dean's weighed 4 lbs.

After soaking all night in water your brick weighed 4 lbs. 11 oz. Dean's weighed 4 lbs. 14 oz.

Respectfully yours,

W. W. TAYLOR,
Engineer Greensboro Water Works

Mr. Kirkpatrick informs us that he always has a supply of such brick on hand as described above.

WAKEFIELD HARDWARE CO.,

GREENSBORO, N. C.

READER:

Has it ever occurred to your mind that the Cash customers of Greensboro's merchants were being imposed on? (By cash customers we mean those, who, as a rule, pay cash and always pay their bills when presented.) They are imposed upon by being forced to pay all the bad accounts that crowd the merchants' Ledgers. Under the present system of trade, the dealer who does not add to his just and reasonable profit enough "extra" to cover his losses by bad accounts fails sooner or later; hence, the successful merchant makes his good customers pay the bills of his bad customers" Does this not show that the system of trade is all wrong? Is it right to rob our best friends—our paying customers—in order to pay the bills of our false friends—our customers who pay only in promises? Fully one fourth of the yearly profit of Greensboro's successful merchants is on their Ledgers there to remain for all time.

This system of mercantile credit is responsible for most of the failures that occur in business. The losses cause, by it consume fully one fourth of the profit resulting from the labors of our country. This ruinous credit system in its operation with the produce is absorbing nearly or quite all his profits, for it lowers the value of his produce and elevates the price of what he must buy.

We are heartily tired of the old, ruinous system and propose to adopt a new one. We do not care to lose from $300 to $500 yearly in bad accounts and pay a book keeper $500 to $600 a year besides to keep the useless accounts for us. We prefer to sell for cash, to cash paying customers at cash valuations—in fact to do a business on a cash basis. We know we can sell our goods lower, since we have adopted the cash system, hence we have knocked the props from under the of Credit prices and down they fall to a solid Cash Basis.

We give you our Cash Prices on a few articles, that you may see for yourself how the new system works.

And then we might go on thro' our whole stock. We offer no baits but offer all our goods on the closest possible margin for cash.

FERTILIZERS.

If there is any branch of the credit business that we hate worse than any other it is the Credit Fertilizer Business. It is now, and for years has been a curse to the farmer, the dealer and the manufacturer. We have always "fought shy" of it, and now we are shyer than ever.

We offer to our farmers, at rock bottom cash prices:

British Mixture at $35

Here is a fall of $3.85 a ton—over 10 per cent, quality remaining the same.

Baugh's Raw Bone Meal at $35 per ton.

No chance for a fall here, as Baugh's prices have always been on a cash basis, but the price of Bone Meal has declined $5 a ton since we began selling Baugh's Bone.

Baugh's Bone and Potash Compound for Tobacco. In this Fertilizer you have a Bone base to which has been added Ammonia, Phosphate and Potash. Price, $30. It's as good as any $40 time Fertilizer.

Durham Bull Tobacco Fertilizer at $27.5 $31 $32 a ton. The last named contains more ammonia than the first. Those who bought Durham Bull Guano last year will appreciate the decline in price, the quality being better.

A few special Bargains.

One Extra Horse Pow

One 2 horse No. 20 A $2.50

One 2-horse Mukle Plow,

One walking 2-horse Plow, Dec. Cultivator, $12.50.

Missouri Steam Washer, $6.50.

We carry a large stock of Building Material and sell it very low. Our stock of Paints, as you know, is ahead of anything of the kind in Greensboro, and taking quality into consideration, day in and day out, our prices are always as low, generally lower, than those of our competitors. We'll make it to your advantage to trade with us.

—The letter at the city water works is finally gone, and we have reached a point of 27 on the scale, which is 67 feet high. The tank which will hold about 8 will be 24 feet high, making the entire distance from the ground to the high point 92 feet.

—Capt. John A. Bridges, of this city, has accepted the position of roadmaster of the Georgia Carolina and Northern R. R. with headquarters at Monroe. The Monroe Enquirer-Journal says: He served the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. in the same capacity, leaving credit upon record and there is no doubt but he will satisfactorily serve with him. But Greensboro loses a worthy gentleman.

—A party from Aberdeen, Scotland, arrives in the city yesterday for the purpose of making an estimate and putting in a bid for the purpose of making an estimate and putting in a bid for the paving of South Elm street. They are now running the lock along the line of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R., near Mt. Airy and will report in a few days.

Murder

Persons passing along the road near Rush Arbor, in the southern part of Caswell county last Monday morning, found a dead body lying in a thick clump of bushes within twenty feet of the road. Upon examination the body was found to be that of Robert Oliver, a very worthy and industrious colored man. His teeth were beaten out, his skull fractured and his face horribly mangled and covered with blood. Near Oliver's body was a heavy oaken stick with blood and hair sticking to it. It was also indented with some of the bark peeled off—evidently being the weapon with which Oliver was murdered.

Badly Mixed.

Durham has a sensation. R. H. Mabry and his alleged wife settled in Durham some time ago. On Sunday A. R. Mabry dropped in and claimed the woman as his wife. The brothers had a row and were summoned to court. The woman put up $100 for herself and one of the men and skipped. She says she is the lawful wife of A. R. Mabry, who was a worthless fellow and spent $2,000 of her money. That he left a wife and children in Littleton, N. C., and went to Georgia and married her; that she lived R. H. Mabry, but he had a wife in Richmond county, Ga.; that she did not like any one of them too well, and if she could get out of it she would be willing to take a new husband.

The "Savings and Deposit Bank of N. C."

Having seen the importance of more extended banking facilities in this city, as the result of the rapid strides of progress the town has made within the last few years, we are glad to announce that the capital stock of the "Savings and Deposit Bank of N. C." with office in this city, has nearly all been subscribed, and it now remains with the citizens of Greensboro to say whether they will lend a helping hand by a small if not large subscription, and thereby insure the establishment of another bank in our midst. The shares are placed at $5.00 each and the payments are upon the installment plans—making it within the reach of everybody who wishes to encourage the enterprise.

The Peoples' Five Cents Savings Bank.

Greensboro is proud of her Peoples' Five Cents Savings Bank. The incorporators of this institution met Monday and re-elected the old officers for the ensuing year, at a meeting of the directors last week it was found that the deposits up to that time amounted to $22,274.90, just about double what they were three months ago. After paying all expenses, one-eight of one per cent was put in the guarantee fund as required by law, making it now $129.05. Interest was declared at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum on $17,320, which had been on deposit the six months, and $5,601, which had been on deposit the three months' period, payable on and after April 12. The undivided profits are $81.12. Messrs. M. Strauss, A. P. Eckel have been elected to make a monthly examination of the affairs of the bank, and give the Treasurer his justification.

The April Skies.

The April night will be full of interest to those who follow the courses of the stars. The opposition of Mars, the opposition of Uranus, the quadrature of Saturn, and the conjunction of Venus and Mercury will occur. Night after night the sky will beam with the light of three large planets as evening stars. This is something new, for of late the morning sky has been the scene of action where the largest planets have shone resplendent. Jupiter rises on the 18th about 9:30 o'clock, and then the sky will be beautiful to see. These planets rise in the southeast surrounded by Scorpio, ruddy Mars approaching the zenith closely followed by the silver-tinted Spica and pale, serene Saturn descending in the west, following in the wake of Pollux and Procyon. Intelligent observers can find these planets without assistance, and will find great satisfaction in a knowledge of the stars obtained by personal effort.

—President J. T. Crowell, of Trinity College, will deliver the address at the close of the Winston graded school on May 17th.

—Miss Sallie Cheek who has been spending several months with her sister, Mrs. R. E. Woodsman, of this city, will leave to-morrow for her home near Mebanesville.

An Undoubted Blessing.

About thirty years ago, a prominent physician in the name of Dr. William Hall discovered, or prepared after long experimental research, a remedy for disease of the throat, chest, and lungs, which was of such wonderful efficacy that it soon gained a wide reputation in this country. The name of the medicine is DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and may be safely relied on as a speedy and positive cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, &c.

—CARTLAND has now in his full line of Spring Cloths and Cassimeres. Call and see them. Also Underwear, Shirts, Neckwear, Umbrellas, Canes, &c.

GRAND AND GLORIOUS!

The Guilford Battle Ground Celebration

MAY 14th, TO ECLIPSE ANYTHING EVER BEFORE WITNESSED IN THESE PARTS.

GRAND MILITARY PARADE!

Camp-meeting, Big Speeches, Picnic Dinner and Show Ruses.

There continues in charge for the Guilford Battle Ground celebration on the 14th of May, a meeting with an enthusiastic encouragement on every hand, and the old-fash grass barbecue with roasting ox and a calling of the roll by one of the grandest orchestras ever witnessed in Turkeytown. People from almost every quarter have signified their intention of being present on this grand occasion, and from reliable information that we have received we are now already in possession of positive information that at least 2 or 3 military companies will participate in the exercises of the day, from the following towns: Charlotte, Winston, Thomasville, Reidsville, Fayetteville, Raleigh and Whitsburgh, with the Guilford Greensboro Rifles.

The Governor and his staff and a number of the State officers have been invited and their attendance is confidently expected. Excursion tenders will be run over all the railroads leading into the city and rates will be low, especially for excursions. The grounds are already largely enclosed, the old grove is being cleared out, spring and water being put in for the entertainment of visitors, while tents and well shaded arbors are being erected around the speakers stand. The names of Generals Greene and Lord Cornwallis are to be still carved in the two hundred year old trees—ever and anon reminding your grandfather of the reputation of the Guilford Battle Ground. The following committees were appointed and favorably entered upon their duties in the several departments with a zeal and earnestness that guarantees success and a double

"Two Souls with but a Single Thought."

The engagement between J. M. Leach, Jr., of this State, clerk in Post Division, Sixth Auditor's Office, Treasury Department, Washington, and Miss Lucy S. Green of Virginia, is announced in the Washington Post. The affianced pair are well known in the society circles of Washington, Richmond, Louisville, and in the former city of course. Miss Green is the niece of Judge Green of Culpeper, Va., one of the most talented, learned, cultured and esteemed lawyers in the State, and his brother, Judge Green, is a justice of the Court of Appeals of Virginia. She is a niece of Colonel Markwell, the newly appointed Commissioner of Fisheries for the south-still on a remarkable Scotch family, all members of which are fine looking and handsome. Mr. Leach is well known in this city, having ably represented North Carolina in Congress before the war.

Echoes from the University

The Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina met in Raleigh on Tuesday. Chancellor Battle presided. The Chancellor's report showed the University to be in a prosperous condition. The number of students is 300. The Trustees elected Professor Alexander Graham to the chair of Mathematics, made vacant by the death of Professor Phillips. Professor Graham has been connected with the University for a long and honorable period, and his election to the chair of Mathematics was a graceful recognition of his services. Professor Graham declined the position. The chair for the present remains vacant. The Trustees also elected Professor Kemp P. Battle, Jr., to the chair of History, made vacant by the resignation of Professor Hubbard. Professor Battle has been connected with the University for a number of years, and is a graduate of the institution. He is a son of Chancellor Battle, and is a worthy successor to his father. The Trustees also elected Professor Winston to the chair of Latin, made vacant by the resignation of Professor Phillips. Professor Winston is a graduate of the University, and has been connected with it for a number of years. He is a son of Professor Winston, of Hillsboro, and is a worthy successor to his father. BACK AGAIN.

Cross and White Return to Raleigh via Petersburg and Weldon.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 9th.—C. L. Cross and S. C. White, the absconding bank officials arrived here from Canada this morning, in a special car via Petersburg and Weldon, in charge of chief of police Beatty and his assistant Rogers. Their arrival took the city somewhat by surprise, as it was not supposed by many that they would arrive until the afternoon train from Greensboro, if they arrived at all. Consequently very few persons were at the train when it pulled up at Hargett street. Mr. White was the first to come off. He exclaimed as he saw some friends on the platform, "Good morning, gentlemen, how do you do?" and then he said to the officers, "Now, gentlemen, I am ready to go to jail." He looked pale and haggard, and that his Sunday school class had prepared for him last Sunday, he seemed to be very nearly overcome by the sad occasion.

Cross spoke rather feebly. He appeared to be very much cut down in spirits. He declared that he was innocent of any crime, and that he had made no confession to anybody. He said that he had been persuaded to come back by his counsel, Messrs. Battle & Mordecai, and that he would be shown that everything that could be done would be done for him. He declared that everything that he had taken with him would be returned to the bank's books.

Cross and White were taken to the penitentiary in a hack. Cross was pale and haggard looking, and White looked as well as could be expected under the circumstances. Both men were dressed in the regular suit of blue worn by convicts, and made no remarks to the crowd that had gathered in front of the penitentiary. Their hair had been cut close to their heads. Mr. White said that he was glad to get back to Raleigh. He declared that the people treated him well, and that the people from whom he got his clothes in Canada were very kind to him. He declared that everything that he had taken with him would be returned to the bank's books.
