The North State in its last issue

claims that the PATRIOT has not answered its question as to the net gain from Democratic rule in North Carolina and goes on to say that our reply was the usual dry "rot about what happened twenty-five years ago." We are sorry we cannot accommodate our brother with facts about Republican rule later than twenty-five years ago, but as the people became so thoroughly disgusted with it then, they have never allowed them a chance since. As to the question: "Has the condition of the people been bettered?" We say most emphatically, it has in many ways. And notwithstanding the enormous state debt put upon us by the radicals, the taxes are lower than they were at the close of their administration. If our brother will compare the tax books of 1869 with those of 1891, he will see that our state and county taxes are nine cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, less now than in '69. The idea of the people being near bankruptcy now than when the radicals were in power, is simply absurd and it looks as if our brother were attempting to mislead the people. Then the North State asks "has not all these schemes of the Democrats caused a large number from their own ranks to form Alliances to relieve themselves of these burdens?" To this question we reply by asking another. Is North Carolina the only state where Alliances have been formed? How about Kansas, and all the other Republican states? If there is not more discontent today among the laboring classes in Kansas than in North Carolina we are greatly mistaken. Is there anything else our neighbor would like for us to answer? Or would it not be more profitable to go back to its occupation of breeding strife among Democratic Alliancemen?

(Communication.)

Democrats and Alliancemen.

Editor of PATRIOT,

Democrats and Alliancemen, we are now approaching a crisis. The fate of the Alliance is to be decided, and if honest and true men fail to grasp the helm and steer clear of the political rocks that threaten, the Alliance will go to pieces, and in her mad plunging and death struggles she may drag down to the bottom the only hope of the South, the Democratic party, the party to which we looked not in vain for deliverance in the dark days of the past, the party that offers the only gleam of hope for the future, the party that drove Corruption from his throne and out of his ashes has brought peace and prosperity, and made our beautiful South land honored and respected at home and abroad.

The Alliance was formed by good men for good and wise purposes, but in an evil hour we allowed unprincipled demagogues to sneak in and assume the leadership. At first, these self-constituted leaders preached politics with one breath and with the next declared there was no politics in it. When the time was ripe, as they supposed, they threw off the thin disguise and declared for political action with as much glee as the little boy manifests when he has snared his first covey of birds. Democratic Alliancemen white men of North Carolina, will you be caught in this net? Will you surrender all you have contended for in the last twenty-five years? Will you follow this will-o'-the-wisp, this phantasmagoria, this glittering bubble called the People's Party? As well might you choose the rainbow to find the fabled pot of gold as to expect to find peace and prosperity in forming a third party.

The only possible result that can come from any considerable number of Democratic voters taking this course will be to place the Republican party again in power. You cannot have forgotten the time when ignorant negroes, and white men, many of whom were little better, held carnival in our legislative hall, when the doors of our universities, public schools and asylums were closed, when our State and county treasuries were bankrupt and our credit ruined.

When I joined the Alliance I was expressly informed that neither my religious nor political convictions would be interfered with. When representatives of the Alliance go to a convention, as at St. Louis for example, and there vote to endorse a political party, and at the same time attempt to commit the Alliance this party, they violate the constitution of the Alliance.

It is true they say this party was endorsed by a mass meeting called after the convention adjourned—that is, about three minutes after, as I understand. Were they not in this meeting as Alliance men? And were not some of them, as Alliance men, trying to persuade the great mass of the Alliance to follow them in their wild goose chase?

It is reported that Republican money is to be used to widen the breach between Alliance and Democrats. Will not the Republican party think their money well invested in purchasing weak-kneed Democratic Alliancemen? They may catch a few suckers, but it will take a curiously woven net to catch the hundred thousand sons of toil who represent the farmers of North Carolina.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

(Special to the PATRIOT.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 7th, 1892.

I admire the candor of our friend and correspondent, Mr. T. A. Wilson, of Summerfield. He misunderstands me, however. If he will use his own good judgment he will see that my sole motive in opposing had money and the pernicious tinkering with financial questions by men who never earned a living by hard, earnest work, was to have sound money and plenty of it for the honest, hard working yeomen of our state, of whom I hope Mr. Wilson is one.

If he is above selling lightwood at five cents a bundle, however, I fear he has a good deal to learn. I don't want him to "stay at home and pick up sticks." I would like for him to sell enough lightwood to pay his fare here, and call on me when he comes. I will pledge you to make him change his mind in twenty-four hours both about my selfish policy and some of my other heresies. I will show him some of the sights of this beautiful city (and a bundle of lightwood worth five cents) and deliver him a free lecture on the desirability of a simple, pure, straight out Democracy and the dignity of any kind of hard, honest, manly work as opposed to Third Party tomfoolery and schemes to degrade our currency and get loans on crops by turning the U. S. Treasury into a big brokerage establishment. Please give him my address and this invitation for I hope he will come. I don't often offer to go sight seeing with people, because I glory in working nearly all the time, but I would like to make a convert of the candid gentleman who expresses his unfavorable opinion of me with so much evident sincerity. He may be lazy, but I believe he means to be honest.

Spencer Crisp says he will be compelled to forego the pleasure of going to Charlotte on the 20th, proximo, because of the pressing duties of his position. He has had to decline a number of similar invitations.

I see the Republican delegates from North Carolina will go to Minneapolis instructed for Harrison. "Our friends the enemy" had better not be premature. They must excuse me for advising them but a number of the leaders of the G. O. P., including Chauncey Depew, Ingalls, Platt, Clarkson and Quay, are opposed to Harrison and a large number of them are in the city today trying to start a boom for Sherman or Blaine! They were in solemn convulsion yesterday about the same thing.

I saw Sherman a day or two since, and he had a very satisfied hopeful look on his face. He is perhaps, nearer the goal of his ambition than he has ever been. I predict in a few days that a giant "boom" in his favor will have developed all over the country. His financial ability is his strongest card, and without regard to party, I admit he understands the subject better than any one man in the country, today.

There is an effort on foot to resurrect the silver bill in the House. The movement is unfortunate at this stage of the game.

Last Wednesday, Congressman Williams appeared before the Committee on Coinage, Weights and Measures and earnestly advocated his financial measure, on which no action has yet been taken.

Congressman Branch deserves great credit for securing a favorable report on his bill to erect a public building at Elizabeth City at the cost of $10,000. This action of the Committee is due to Mr. Branch's persistent and well-directed efforts.

On the adoption of the conference report in the House on the Chinese exclusion bill, Congressman Grady voted with the minority.

Mr. Cleveland's chances brighten every day. The action of the recent Wisconsin and Michigan Conventions caused Mr. O'Ferrall, of Virginia, to say to your correspondent: "My country and section are strong for Cleveland. It looks to me as if nothing could prevent his nomination, except his withdrawal and I have no information that will justify the belief that he intends to do this. If he is our candidate, I believe the Democrats will win."

Mr. Henderson says our delegates will go uninstructed to the Convention.

Yesterday the Republicans were busily circulating the rumor that this Congress would exceed the amounts appropriated by the $1,000,000 Congress! The New York papers got hold of it and made the most of it. Mr. Sayers, a member of the Appropriations Committee, explains away the misleading rumor in the following plain figures: The appropriations at the first session of the Fifty-first Congress aggregated $192,361. This did not include an appropriation for sugar bounty—$10,000,000—and for dependent pensions—$36,367,605, making the sum of $46,367,605, which the present Congress must provide for because of laws which were enacted during the first session of the Fifty first Congress. "Our estimate of the appropriations to be made at the present session of Congress," said Mr. Sayers, "is $485,820,499. None of the regular appropriation bills have become laws, and but two urgent deficiency bills, amounting to $1,068,305, have passed, and it may be assumed that the total may be increased or diminished before the several bills become laws. In making the estimate I believe that I have made a liberal allowance for all proper expenditures. The appropriations at the short session of the last Congress amounted to $541,441,672. It will be borne in mind that there was no river and harbor bill passed during that session, while the pending river and harbor bill involves an appropriation, as reported to the House, of $21,290,975.

"My reason for adopting as a basis of comparison with the expenditures of this Congress the appropriations made at the short session of the Fifty-first Congress is that it became necessary then, as now, to appropriate $46,367,605 on account of pensions and sugar bounty which were not provided for in the appropriations of the first session of the last Congress. Supposing that the appropriations of the short session of the present Congress do not exceed those of the present session proportionately they will aggregate, excluding the River and Harbor bill, $460,820,499, as compared with the appropriations of short session of the Fifty-first Congress, aggregating $541,441,672, being a difference of more than $80,000,000 in favor of the last session of the present Congress. The total appropriations of the Fifty-first Congress were $1,008,000,000, and this statement which I have prepared shows that the total appropriations to be made by the present Congress will be less by about $63,000,000 than those of the Fifty-first Congress. The estimate of revenue for the next fiscal year submitted by the Secretary of the Treasury is $455,000,000, which will mean a deficiency in revenues, as compared with expenditures, of about $30,000,000. The estimate of our appropriations for this session—$485,820,499—includes a provision for the sinking fund, of $48,000,000. Of course, in view of the expected deficiency in revenue, the operations of the law relative to the sinking fund must be suspended during the next year, as it has already during the present year, to the extent of about $10,000,000.

$500.00 GIVEN AWAY!

Do You Want It?

We want new subscribers and we are willing to pay for them. Listen to our plan: On the 21st of the next December we will pay the next little sum of $25.00 to the man or woman who will get the largest number of subscribers during this year. To the young lady who brings in the next largest number we will give $15.00. To the boy or girl who gets the next largest number, will get $10.00.

In order to keep from being imposed upon, we are obliged to make the following conditions: The person who gets the $25.00 must get us at least 25 subscribers. The second 15, and the third 10 subscribers each. 2nd. With each name we must have $1.00 in cash. 3rd. Those who are working for the Patriot on a per cent. cannot compete for the prize.

SUGGESTIONS.
The coming year will be an unusual year for the Patriot. We will write his name on a special book and keep an accurate account of the number he brings in. In case no one should succeed in getting enough names to produce any of the prizes we will pay all those who have taken 25 per cent of the cash thereon taken in. We hope every boy and girl in Guilford, Rockingham, Surry, Stokes, Randolph and other counties will try for these prizes.

Straws.

Your attention is called to the change of the Wakefield Hardware Co.'s advertisement this week.

The Patriot is indebted to some one for a very interesting and attractive illustration to the 15th annual commencement of Catawba College, which takes place on May 15th, 1892. Rev. W. P. Crenshaw, D. D., is looked to deliver the annual address.

Married.

On the 4th of May, 1892, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. G. W. Wharton, by Rev. J. L. Currie, M. Michael J. Anthony, of Alamance, and Miss Corina M. Wharton, of Guilford. The above was a quiet marriage attended by only a few outside of the family, but the occasion was greatly enjoyed by the two who were present.

The Meanest Man.

Every now and then we hear that the "meanest man" has been discovered, but we believe that so far the Patriot can beat them all. One of our subscribers became indignant at us for some reason, and although he was owing us for about two years back pay, he refused to take our paper from the office, but so far he has not settled his account, although we have sent him a gentle hint by mail. Can any of the brethren of the press beat this tale of meanness?

Meeting of Aldermen.

At the meeting of the new board of Aldermen last Friday night, several changes were made in the government of the city. The city tax collector who has heretofore been chief of police also will now only collect taxes and the Chief of Police will now be a separate officer. Mr. Rees, was re-elected tax collector and Mr. Frank Hall was elected Chief of Police. Mr. David Scott was also elected police. Messrs. Whittington and Weatherly were re-elected on the police force.

Personal.

Capt. Carraway, of the Richmond (Va.) paid us a pleasant call Friday. Miss Elsie Hood, of Baltimore, is visiting Judge Robert P. Dick, on Church street.
Hon. A. H. Williams placed us under very great obligations, last week for one of the most complete maps of the United States we have ever seen.

You Can Help Us.

The time for our clubbing arrangement with the Atlanta Constitution is almost here. We are now sending the Patriot and Constitution both one year for only $12.50, but this arrangement will expire on the first of June. Our subscribers realize as a great favor by speaking of this arrangement to their neighbors who would probably like to take advantage of this opportunity to get two good family papers very cheaply. Can't you send us in a nice batch of names during this month? Several of our friends have already sent in the names of 10 to fifteen names and with very little trouble. Bring in the names.

Township Convention.

The Mordecai Township primary was held at the Court House last Saturday. Mr. J. S. Michaux, in the chair. Mr. Jno. Wilson was requested to act as secretary.

The following gentlemen were elected as delegates to the county Convention which takes place next Saturday: W. J. Edmonson, W. C. Boren, Ellis White, Wm. M. Edwards, W. R. Jenkins, D. E. Albright, J. H. Johnson, Robert Davis, John A. Berringer, W. S. Hill, M. H. Hobbs, George H. Gregory, J. H. Walsh, J. H. Billard, Jr., W. E. Revell, Jas. W. Forbis, C. G. Higgins, J. T. McFadden, W. B. Died.

Saturday, May 7th, 1892, at the residence of Mr. John C. Wharton, Mr. James Rankin in the 69th year of his age. Mr. Rankin was one of twelve children—ten sons and two daughters, of Mr. Robt. Rankin, dec'd. In 1763, his grandfather bought a tract of land on the waters of North Buffalo, the deed for which was made by John, Earl of Cranville, and this land has been in the possession of the Rankin family to this time.

Of the twelve children only four now survive. Mr. Thomas Rankin, Capt. N. P. Rankin, Capt. Sam'l Rankin and Robert C. Rankin.
For many years Mr. Jas. Rankin was a successful merchant and until within the last ten years no man was more generally and favorably known than he. For the last fifteen or twenty years he suffered from an acute chronic disease which finally compelled him to retire from active business life.

In business matters "uncle Jimmie" as he was called by his friends, was accurate, energetic and scrupulously honest.

Having a warm and generous heart he was sometimes imposed on by those who took advantage of his kind and generous disposition.

At Guilford College, Monday, May 9th, Mr. John Dundas, in the 81st year of his age. Mr. Dundas moved to this county some years ago from Canada. He was an honest, upright citizen and had the confidence of those who knew him.

Mr. Hiram Cobb, who lived about six miles from Greensboro, died last Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, in the 79th year of his age. He had been paralyzed about a year. The deceased leaves a wife and three children.

At Kernersville, N. C., last Wednesday, Mr. Joseph Armfield, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of that community. He was in his 92nd year at the time of his death.

Not many physicians make great therapeutic discoveries. For the most part they content themselves with administering judiciously what is prescribed in the books. To Dr. J. C. Ayer, however, is due the credit of discovering that greatest of blood purifiers—Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Captain and Captive Flee.

Last week, Dr. Taylor, of Mt. Airy, received a telegram from Salisbury stating that McKnight, who last year so brutally choked and robbed his mother had been captured, and would be brought to Greensboro at once. Dr. Taylor came at once to Greensboro to identify him. When the train from Salisbury arrived, a man claiming to be a detective got off leading a man, heavily chained and handcuffed. On arriving at the Hotel, where Dr. Taylor was in waiting, as soon as he saw the prisoner he at once declared that he was not the man. Capt. Carraway, of the Richmond "Dispatch," who was present, asked the detective to show the warrant for the arrest of the prisoner, he had no warrant, but said he had left it behind with the Sheriff. At this point, Capt. Carraway advised the prisoner to have his captor arrested for false arrest. By this time the detective began to get very much agitated, and he called Policeman Weatherly to one side and asked his advice. Mr. Weatherly told him he had no advice, but he thought it would be best to turn the prisoner loose. All this time Capt. Carraway, who enjoys a joke immensely, was asking all sorts of annoying questions about his detective agency. At last Policeman Weatherly, detective and prisoner all three arrived at the jail, but when they arrived at Fitzsimmons's store, the detective asked to be allowed to speak alone to the prisoner. Mr. Weatherly allowed this and after waiting for the couple a long time found that both captor and captive had sloped.

Jessie H. Bedloe, Burlington, Vt., had a disease of the scalp, causing her hair to become very harsh and dry and to fall so freely that she hardly dared to comb it. Ayer's Hair Vigor gave her a healthy scalp, removed the dandruff and made the hair thick and glossy.

WHY GO HENCE

In Search of Health or Mineral Water.

From time to time we have called attention to the medicinal qualities of Moore's Mineral Springs—which are within the city limits. Rev. R. R. Moore, the owner, throws these springs open to the public free of charge, and every pretty day hundreds of persons visit these springs.

With such springs in our midst our people should never go elsewhere in search of mineral water, and the city ought to be crowded with visitors all the year around. Why? Because there are very few mineral springs where all the benefits of city life can be enjoyed while visiting them for the benefit of the water. Here we have extra boarding houses—fine hotels—good schools—ample church facilities. We say to all in search of a salubrious climate and fine mineral water, come to Greensboro.

Read the following from a physician who has tested these waters, after visiting the principal watering places in the North:

MOORE'S CHALYBEATE SPRINGS.

I have been testing, on patients, the water from these springs and am satisfied, from the results obtained, that the water is equally as good as any to be found in the United States. The analysis, by the State chemist, shows its constituents to be just what is needed in the system of patients who are suffering from debility produced by various and numerous causes and in those cases which chalybeate water is indicated I do not believe a better water can be found than this. There are hundreds and thousands of persons who go to seek just what they have here at home and which they can obtain free of cost, and also without the needless expense of such trips to the watering places, at the same time have home comforts, &c. Now, to such as feel the need of a tonic to build them up and restore vitality and strength, let me say that, if you will take a walk or ride, morning and evening, out to Moore's Springs and drink the water freely, and use prudence and care with yourself just as you would do if you went to some watering place, you will soon realize the same benefits and good results that you would in such a trip, and thereby save money enough to pay your expenses to the World's Fair at Chicago.

Very respectfully,
R. K. GREGORY, M. D.

W. A. TUCK, A. G. P. A.

This to certify that I have been afflicted with scrofula, or Blood Poison, for a number of years. The best physicians of Mobile and this city said nothing could be done for me. I also took a large quantity of —, but found no relief in anything that I took. My limbs were a mass of ulcers, and when I was sent to a physician in Mobile my entire body was a mass of sores. I had given up all hope, and as a last resort tried P. P. P. (Prickly Ash, Poke Root and Potassium), and after using four bottles (small size) the sores have entirely disappeared, and my general health was never better than at the present time, and people that know me think it a wonderful cure.

Respectfully,
ELIZA TODD.

KEELEY COLUMN.

Thirty-five years of Bondage. Broken by the Keeley Cure.

Feeling internally prompted from a sense of duty to our fallen fellow-man, to the Keeley Institute, and to myself. I desire to make a brief statement of the unspeakable benefits derived from the Keeley treatment. A confession, however, humiliating, is good for the soul, a divine command, and may strengthen the weak and encourage the fallen to fly to the city of refuge. Having been periodically addicted to the use of liquor for the past thirty-five years, our experience has been a painful one. During intervals of sobriety from one week to three years we were a slave to the terrible appetite all the time. There was a formidable enemy within as well as without, which we have fought upon our knees in secret, in public, in isolation, and by drawing around us all the hollowed influences at our command. But all in vain, and why? Because there was a hereditary disease, the most terrible malady that, perhaps, every transmigration, a law which theory and practice generally admits. A disease which the grace of God in the human heart, physical force an hallowed influence, might restrain for a time, but cannot or did not cure. I believe in the potency of God's grace in the heart, but it is God's purpose to cure a disease contracted by or inherited by an injection of grace if it is, let us be consistent and call upon Him to heal all of our ailments. I agree with the editor of the Prisoner of Hope that tens of thousands can testify to the efficacy of God's grace to redeem and save for time and eternity, but they are gone up scared, wounded, and lacerated from the field of their earthly conflict. Grace saves souls, but it does not cure diseases. A man afflicted with rheumatism before conversion is a rheumatic after conversion. To eradicate the seat of the appetite for strong drink, they need about $1 injections of Double Chloride of Gold. How many thousands to-day in church is battling with this unconquerable enemy, whose influences for good are almost paralyzed. Because their most virtuous resolutions to live soberly often fail. How many voices to-day that might lift, thrill, rally and bless the sanctuary, but for the fact they know their irresistible appetite for drink, and their almost helplessness to resist.

What is the conclusion to which we are forced from experience and observation. It is plainly and rationally this. The habit of the moderate or excessive use of ardent spirits is a disease, permeating every part of man inherited or brought about by persistent practice. The Keeley Cure proposes to, and does remove the cause and place the unfortunate on an equal footing with the one who never knew the omnipotence of this thirst. Twelve weeks have elapsed of ignoble slavery, we have enjoyed a liberty unfelt before. This we attribute to the scientific treatment of the Keeley. There are many question propounded. The old one often asked and as often answered is, "Will it last?" Our answer is this, "Will a case of fever cured last, yes, until the patient is exposed to the original cause." If in the light of knowledge and joyment of health and the right use of his mind, if he goes to some fever-breeding swamp he stands a chance to contract the disease again. Again, is it not subversive to the attributes of Religion? We answer medical science is not religion, but all science is commendable that has for its object the uplifting and amelioration of suffering humanity. The Keeley cure lays no claims to being a substitute for the grace of God, but it may proudly and truthfully claim to be the greatest auxiliary to the church, morals in general that it has pleased God, the giver of every good institution, through human instrumentalities to confer upon man. If King Alcohol is to ever find a grave on the American continent it must come by the annihilation of the infernal appetite that demands satisfaction at the cap of rum. All other restraints may bridle for a time, but it will prove abortive until the cause is removed.

The will power of a man is weak under the favorable circumstances, but utterly impotent when under the control of alcoholic powers.

Paul expresses the condition of thousands when he says "That which I would do I do not, That which I would not do that I do." "O wretched man that I am, who shall deliver." The Keeley treatment, in some mysterious way to us strengthens the will-power that enables man to resist the enemy of his soul. To our mind in order for the subject to be fully benefited by the Keeley Cure. There are some pre-requisites.

1. He must realize the fact he is diseased and the necessity of being cured.
2. He must take the remedy to be cured for there is no physical force brought to bear.
3. Having been cured let him prove manly to himself, his God, his fellow-man by making good use of the ability given.

The conclusion, may God bless the Keeley Institute of this rum protected land and forever put to shame any fraud practiced upon the name of the founder, and hasten the time when Old King Alcohol shall go down to the Bacchanalian's grave, unwet, unhonored, unsung, unpraised to bear forever the epithet upon the stone that marks his resting place. Literally starved to death by the American People.
