Rev. J. W. Lee, went to Marion last week to conduct a protracted meeting. In the game of foot ball between the University and Wake Forest at Raleigh Saturday the University was victorious to the tune of 40 to 0.

Cards are out for the marriage of J. E. Wyche, D. D. L., of Oxford, N. C. to Miss Sallie Richardson, of this city at West Methodist Church.

A great many of our readers will be glad to learn that a well written sketch of the life of Dr. Nerius Mendenhall will appear in the November and December issues of the Guilford Collegian. This sketch will be written by one who knows him very intimately. Persons can get two copies for only 25 cents. Write to the managers of the Guilford Collegian.

The Battle Ground Company are erecting a handsome monument to the memory of Col. Julius A. Grey. It will be made of Mt. Airy dressed granite. Mr. Chas. M. Hackett architect.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Dr. Edward Dendall Wright, of Wilson, N. C. to Miss Alice Geneva Barnes, also of Wilson at the Methodist Episcopal Church, on Wednesday evening Nov. 20.

Oak Ridge was defeated at foot ball last Saturday by Guilford College by a score of 10 to 0. In the second half Oak Ridge kicked at a decision of the referee and refused to play further.

Greensboro Record celebrated its third birthday last week. The Patriot offers congratulations. Our neighbor is getting out a splendid paper and our citizens should be proud of it. There is not a daily in the state that gives more local news.

Mr. Clary of the Original Ketchikan stated to the Patriot reporter last week that notwithstanding the extremely hard times he had done more business during the past six months than he did during a corresponding time last year. We are glad to hear of some one who is doing well these hard times.

The Cantata "On Shore and Sea" last Friday night was a great success both in point of finance and as a musical performance. The Conkey Club took in the net little sum of $50.00 and every body was pleased with the performance.

At the installation services last Sunday, Rev. R. E. C. Lawson in his charge to the people of West Minister Church got off a good one on Rev. Mr. Hall. Mr. Lawson said now ladies you must not expect too much of your new pastor wife at first you must not expect her to take charge of every social party organized. Just here Dr. Smith whispered that Mr. Hall was not married at this Mr. Lawson turned around and said "I know it Dr. but it is to be hoped he will not remain that way long." This created quite a ripple all over the house.

In our issue of today Mr. J. W. M. Caple of Brown Summit, advertises his Clydesdale Stallion, Bay of Dunelm, No. 4551. This animal is a grand specimen of a great race of draught horses. The Clydesdale is today the work horse of England, Scotland and Australia, and is rapidly becoming so in this country through their inherent value as producers and special fitness for heavy work, (deep ploughing and bad roads). Farmers who merely scratch their land have no use for such horses, but as agriculture advances, as science surely overcomes ignorance, when the days of the old ploughing and thorough cultivation became a necessity then will the husbandman know the value of a heavy, well built, strong and active horse of which the Clydesdale is the type.

Mr. Carver's horse is of the purest breeding and the service fee is certainly extremely low.

Death of Dr. Deems.

The large circle of friends and admirers of this great and good man will be pained to hear of his death at the home of his son-in-law, in New York City, on last Saturday. About six months ago he was stricken with paralysis, but he fought a good fight, he has finished his course, he has left the halo and has gone up to receive the crown of righteousness.

For the last twenty-eight years of his life he has been living in New York City, where he has established the Church of the Strangers, of which he was pastor till his death. He was born in Baltimore, Md., 4th Dec., 1820. He was graduated at Dickinson College, Pa., in 1839, and entered the Methodist ministry in New Jersey and soon after became general agent of the American Bible Society in this State. In 1841 he was elected professor of logic and rhetoric in the University of North Carolina, which position he filled for five years. Afterwards he filled the chair of Natural Science for one year at Randolph Macon College, Va.

In 1860, he was stationed at a Methodist pastorate in New Bern, and during this year was elected President of G. F. College, which place he held till 1871, when he returned to the regular pastorate. In 1875, he became President of the Church of the Strangers in New York City, where he engaged in literary pursuits, and subsequently established the Church of the Strangers. He was at one time President of Rutgers College in New York City.

In 1881, he was elected President of the American Institute of Christian Philosophy, and in 1887 became editor of "Christian Thought," a monthly Magazine. He also edited Frank Leslie's "Sunday Magazine" and five volumes of the "Southern Methodist Pulpit," and completed three volumes of "Annals of Southern Methodism." From Randolph Macon College he received the degree of D. D., and from the University of this State that of L. L. D.

Rev. E. W. Smith Elected Co-pastor. In accordance with a notice given last Sunday week the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church met at 11 A. M. to consider three propositions: 1st. Shall they have a co-pastor, 2nd. What they could pay him, and 3rd. whom they would elect.

The congregation having been called to order, on motion, Judge Dillard was chosen moderator, and the clerk of Session, Secretary of the meeting. After an appropriate prayer by Dr. Smith, who then retired, Judge Dillard fully explained the object of the meeting. He said that Dr. Smith, in a joint meeting of the elders and deacons, had stated that for some time past he fully realized his inability on account of his age, to do the work that he felt ought to be done, in a large and growing church that he felt the need of assistance, and that he was willing to relinquish $700 of his salary toward paying the salary of the co-pastor.

Judge Dick then made one of his characteristically eloquent and touching appeals in support of his motion that the congregation should grant the beloved pastor an assistant.

Mr. W. S. Moore seconded the Judges motion and made a feeling allusion to the long, laborious and eminently successful life of Dr. Smith, as pastor.

Judge Dick's motion was unanimously carried by a rising vote. Judge Dick then moved that the congregation should raise $500 additional to the $1200 heretofore paid, Dr. Smith, which would give the co-pastor $1200. Mr. E. R. King offered an amendment fixing the additional amount at $600, which was carried. Judge Dick having withdrawn his motion. This gives the pastors $1,800 and the co-pastor $1200. The next question as to whom they would have as a co-pastor, was determined by ballot without any nomination. It was for a unanimous conclusion that Rev. E. W. Smith would be chosen. It seemed to be the universal desire of the church that Rev. E. W. Smith should be the man. Of the 122 votes cast he received 119. Of the latter votes cast Rev. Ernest Caldwell received two votes and Rev. Chas. Payne one. Perhaps no more harmonious congregational meeting was ever held. The action of the church on last Sunday was undoubtedly wise, and the result far reaching in extent. It is perhaps proper to say that in accepting this call Mr. E. W. Smith is making a considerable personal sacrifice as we understand he has called that would give him a much higher salary than the one he accepts.

Good prices for tobacco at the Banner Ware House. J. W. Ellis, of Liberty, sold as follows: 35 lbs., 10 1/2; 34, 35 lbs., 10 3/4; 21, making an average of $31. S. M. Goff, of Kings Cabin, sold 20 lbs. at 40, 5 lbs. at 41, 65 lbs., 22 1/2, 34 lbs., 30, 70 lbs., 15, average $23. Good tobacco is selling well and farmers will do well to go to the Banner Warehouse and sell with Smith and Blackburn.

Bucklen's Arnica Ointment. The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. Mr. Carver's horse is of the purest breeding and the service fee is certainly extremely low.

A Flight and a Capture.

Last Thursday night policeman Jordan found a negro drunk and down on the street and proceeded to take him to the "lock up" but while waiting at the jail gate the negro pulled a whiskey bottle from his pocket and threw it at the policeman fortunately missing him the liquor flew all over him. Mr. Jordan then hit the negro with the baton and knocked him down but the prisoner managed to trip up his captor and got away Jordan, was after him in a moment yelling "catch him catch him." About this time Policeman David Scott joined in, just as the negro ran across First Street and started behind the post office, but then the fleeing man struck the building with his foot and tumbled head over heels into the law and was soon on his feet again and running for life. Apollonist at this juncture helped him, on his course around the post office square but on coming into East Market street he met some one coming up the street and he retraced his footsteps only to run into the arms of policeman Jordan who with the help of another policeman managed to get him to the cooler all safe.

Personal.

Miss Myra Alderman who came over to officiate at the concert Friday night but went back to Guilford Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Lindsay of McLeansville were in the city Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Rankin, came home last night from a visit to relatives at Kenja.

Dropped Dead.

Geo. Jones a negro waiter at the Railroad depot at this place went home last Thursday night in his usual health and after taking a drink of water he suddenly expired without a word. Jones was very healthy and his death was undoubtedly due to heart disease. He was a very popular waiter. He used to wait at the McAdoo House.

NOT A CRANK.

Only a Case of the Jimmies. The officials of the National Bank had a good scare last Thursday. A man came in making strange motions and swearing like a pirate. Walking up to the little window he wanted to draw a draft but did not seem to know who he was. It was soon discovered that he was on the verge of Delirium Tremens. A policeman was called in and he was taken off to the pen for a while. The man's name is Burke and he is said to be a capital telegraph operator.

Roll of Honor.

Twenty-six members of the Buffalo Sunday-school have recited the books of the Bible in their order; thirteen of them came within the limit you have specified (twelve years of age), so you will please publish their names in the Roll of Honor:

Alma Sikes, Corrie Sikes, John M. Knight, Willie L. Wharton, Hattie Wharton, Nellie Hendrix, Jennie Hendrix, Linda Hendrix, Douglas Hendrix, Lizzie Fields, Myrtle Abbott, Winnie Jenkins, Mary Jenkins.

Yours fraternally, J. M. C. SEABROOK.

N. C. Presbyterian.

Mr. Charlie Ragan, who for some time was a citizen of our town, was badly hurt last Monday night by falling from a burning building in High Point, while assisting to put out the fire. Although he fell nearly thirty feet, we are glad to hear that he is not thought to be seriously hurt. The building, the Grimes House, opposite Jarrells Hotel, was not insured.

MARK TWAIN'S LATEST—ROMANCE OF AN ESQUIMAUX WEDDING.

A magazine is usually satisfied with one strong feature for the month. The Cosmopolitan, however, presents for November no less than five very unusual ones. William Dean Howells gives the first of the letters of the traveler, who has been visiting this country from Alutria. We have read Mr. Howells' impressions of the Alutrian; but in this first letter we have the Alutrian's impressions of New York, with some comments upon our government and society, calculated to awaken the most conservative minds. The second feature of The Cosmopolitan is the portion of the magazine given up to color work, no less than ten superb color illustrations being presented for the first time in magazine history, accompanying an article by Mrs. Roger A. Fryer on "Changes in Women's Costumes." The third feature is "American Notes," by Walter Beant, who was recently in America and is doing the United States for The Cosmopolitan a la Dickens. The fourth feature is an article by General Badeau on "The forms of Invitation sent by the English Nobility." The article is illustrated by the facsimile of cards to the Queen's drawing-room, to dinner at the Princess of Wales, and to many leading houses of England. Finally, we have a new and very curious story by Mark Twain, called "The Esquimaux Maiden's Romance." It is in his happiest vein and is illustrated by Dan Beard. The November number presents the work of many artists, among whom are: C. S. Reinhart, Otto Gullonnet, J. H. Harper, G. Hudson, Franz von Lenbach, George Wharton Edwards, F. Schuyler Matthews, Dan Beard, W. L. Sontag, Jr., F. G. Attwood, C. Hirschberg, J. Habert-Dys, August Franzen, Louis J. Reed, J. N. Hutchins and Hamilton Gibson.

Mr. Will Rankin who lives near the Poor House had a hog stolen from him last week. The thieves skinned the hog and cut it up in the field. Mr. Rankin was in town on the lookout for the thief. We hope he will get him as there is entirely too much thieving going on now days.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Our Thanksgiving Gift to Every One of Our Readers.

"AN AMERICAN BEAUTY." By special arrangement with the publisher, we are enabled to make every one of our readers a present of an exquisite oil panel picture, 20 inches high entitled "An American Beauty," which has been admired by all who have seen it. This superb picture is from the brush of the same artist who painted the "Yard of Pansies" and "Yard of Roses." The reproduction is equal in every respect to the original, from which it cannot be distinguished, and accompanying it are full directions for framing at home at a cost of a few cents, thus forming a beautiful ornament for the high, narrow wall-space for which it is so difficult to obtain pictures of the proper shape. It is a superb Thanksgiving gift. Send your name and address to the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th Street New York, with three cents (either in stamps or pennies) to pay for the packing, mailing, etc., and mention that you are a reader of the Patriot, and you will receive by return mail one of these valuable works of art.

Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound as a bell.
