OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

Special Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, March 22, 1896.

The organization of Maj. McKinley's forces is about perfect. He has the hearty co-operation of two of the ablest Republicans in North Carolina, Senator Pritchard and Congressman Linney. Both these gentlemen are Republicans from principle and are making the fight for McKinley on two issues—protection and free silver. But for the race question, there would be many recruits from the ranks of protection. It is easy to understand how Americans would wish to support American industries. Linney has made a remarkable impression here for a new member. Pritchard ranks high among his Republican colleagues. The best thing about both is, you know where to find them.

Judge Wm. Allen spent several days here last week on legal business before the Internal Revenue Bureau. He is one of the ablest lawyers in the state, and made a model judge.

When Marion Butler first came here I told him the best way for him to begin keeping his reform pledges to the people was to attack Senatorial extravagance. He said he thought he would. It is time he was beginning his work in this direction. Here are a few figures and facts for his use. There are ninety Senators. They have 350 employees to wait upon them at a cost of about $132,000 a year. That is to say each Senator, besides his salary of $5,000 a year, must have attendance costing $5,355 a year. There are 121 clerks to committees, etc., in a body numbering only ninety persons. There are fifty-two laborers, though nobody can imagine what labor they perform. There are fifteen policemen, though the Senate end of the Capitol is fully guarded by the Capitol Police. Senator Charles has rendered a public service by calling attention to this monstrous extravagance. It is an abuse of large proportions, and it is made worse by the fact that most of the money is paid to persons near the Senators themselves for purely nominal services. In other words, the Senators are squandering their families and dependents upon the country at an annual expense of nearly half a million dollars to the taxpayers.

Here is a singular story which implicates some man in North Carolina who ought to be punished. The unlawful child of a fourteen-year-old mother, who was herself born out of wedlock, was given into custody of the children's guardians yesterday by Judge Miller. The mother is a mulatto, and the daughter of a prominent and wealthy North Carolina politician. The father of her child, who has no birthright, is a colored man, who is now in Philadelphia. Before the baby's birth the mother was ill for two months with typhoid fever. After its birth the young mother contracted a bad case of measles, and was living in squalor and distress on Pierce street, when Rev. John Robert, the colored prison missionary, found her and reported the distressing case to the board of children's guardians. An investigation showed that the girl was sent to Washington four years ago by her white father. It seems that he cared for her in North Carolina and acknowledged to his family that she was his child. Her name is Lucy Holmes. The father sent the illegitimate child, with colored blood in her veins, to his sister here. The girl acted as a servant to this woman, who is in reality her aunt, although the relationship was not acknowledged. Last summer this wealthy aunt went to Europe and left the girl alone and friendless in Washington, but with a considerable sum of money and a supply of good clothing. The girl was taken in by a colored family, and having no one to care for her, ruin soon followed. Then Lucy became ill with typhoid fever and was sent to Freedmen's hospital. Six weeks ago she was discharged from the hospital, penniless and with a baby in her weak arms. She was soon stricken with measles, and one or two other kindly colored persons, both she and the baby would have died from neglect. The child's mother was not able to appear in court yesterday, but an old colored "aunt" stood up, with the baby in her arms, and told the judge the story.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided to allow depository banks a larger margin than heretofore on United States deposits on the same amount of United States bonds. Under this more liberal policy the government's deposits within the last week have increased about $1,500,000. It is said that the government security is ample to warrant the extension.

Guilford College Items.

The week just closed has been one of unusual activity and interest at Guilford College. Prof. Davis was absent one day, having been invited to make an educational address at Marlboro at the close of a school.

Mr. Henry Bartlett, of Philadelphia, spent a day at the college, visiting the Battle Ground in the afternoon.

The holding of the Christian Endeavor Convention for Greensboro district on the 21st was looked forward to with much interest, and the occasion proved to be a very helpful one. A good representation from the different societies in attendance at the opening of the convention in King Hall at 10 o'clock. The President of the State Union, Mr. A. D. Thaler, of Winston, was present and opened the convention with a Bible reading. This was followed by a greeting to the convention by Mr. James P. Parker, of the Guilford College society, to which Rev. J. R. Jones, of Greensboro, responded. Mr. Jones also gave an address on Christian Endeavor and Missions. Then followed reports from the different societies and adjournment.

The program in the afternoon consisted of song service; Christian Endeavor and Free Will Offerings, by Mr. C. F. Johnson, delegate from Flat Rock; Young People and Their Vows, by George Wood, of Deep River; The Banner of C. E. Societies, by Mr. J. S. Williams, of Greensboro; and an address by Mr. Thaler on Latter Day Problems and their Solution.

At 7:30 p. m. a thoughtful address on Euthanasia was given by Mr. J. F. McCulloch, of Greensboro. The exercises throughout were interesting and impressive and the work of the convention will, it is believed, result in much good.

The farming operations at the College and in the community have been some what checked by the cold weather the past week. Farmer Knight, of the College, has planted about twenty-five bushels of Irish potatoes and intends planting about twenty bushels more. One would judge his purpose is to supply the college with potatoes.

Whitsett Items.

Mr. J. A. Whitsett spent Sunday in Graham with relatives.

Mr. Joseph Vanderford, of Burlington, was here Saturday.

Mr. O. H. Fogleman, a former student, was here visiting Saturday.

Mr. Edward Clapp, who has been away on a trip to Joppa, has returned.

Mr. Willie Coble, of Low's Church, has been among our recent visitors.

Mrs. Eulalia Whitsett and Mrs. Lavinia Foust are both suffering from an attack of la grippe.

Miss Beulah Patterson spent a day or two last week with friends in the southern part of the county.

Mr. Charles Sheets is away this week attending the state convention of the Y. M. C. A. at Charlotte.

Miss Amelia Barnhardt and brother have just returned from a visit to Mrs. J. O. Simpson, of Caswell county.

Mr. Graham Bell, whom many will remember as an old student of F. I. now holds a good position in San Antonio, Texas.

Rev. H. D. Lequeux has been chosen to preach a special sermon before the Y. M. C. A. on the second Sabbath in May.

The Star Circle, the literary society of young ladies, will give an entertainment March 28th, 7 p. m. The public cordially invited.

The street improvement still goes on.

Dr. Clapp is making some improvements on his lawn.

The students have a nice lot of school and society pins.

Messrs. McCallum, Hopkins and Elmore are at home on a visit.

Messrs. Elmore and Wayne visited friends near Brick Church recently.

Mr. Dowdy, who has been spending a few days here, left for Virginia last week.

The young ladies of the "Star Circle" are preparing an entertainment for Easter.

Mr. J. D. Oldham and Miss Beulah Patterson spent Saturday and Sunday at Oakdale.

Mr. C. M. Streets left for Charlotte Wednesday to attend the Y. M. C. A. convention.

Mr. J. D. Oldham, the merchant, has lumber on the ground for the erection of a dwelling. There must be something behind all this.

Attempted to Kill an American Consul.

New York, March 19.—The steamer South Cambria, which arrived from Porto Rico to-day, brought news that an attempt was made on the life of United States Consul J. D. Hall by a Spanish soldier at St. John on March 4. From what could be learned from Felix Tausig, one of the South Cambria's passengers, it seems that Consul Hall's residence adjoins the Spanish prison of the city. On March 4 the consul was fired on by a Spanish soldier from the prison wall, but fortunately was not struck by the bullet, which whizzed close to the consul's head. It was reported that the shooting was accidental and that the soldier was firing at an escaping woman prisoner, but Tausig says it was a deliberate attempt on the life of Consul Hall. The news that Congress was about to recognize the Cubans had just reached St. John on March 3 and caused considerable comment.

Oak Ridge Items.

Rev. W. R. Lowdermilk is on the Ridge this week on business.

Class day exercises of the senior class will be held on Easter Monday, at 7:30 p. m.

The series of meetings held here the past week resulted in the conversion of only about five of the students.

Misses Ella Benbow and Cora Donnell attended the district convention of the C. E. at Guilford College last Saturday.

Miss Josie Case, who has been teaching at Axton, Va., returned to her home here last week, much to the delight of her many friends.

Messrs. D. S. Hayworth, H. A. Lambeth and M. S. Ozment represented the Y. M. C. A. at the State convention at Charlotte last week.

Smith, of Guilford College, and Reed, of Asheville, are among the latest arrivals at the Institute and the ball team will be greatly strengthened by their good playing.

Det King is expected this week and then our team will be ready to cross bats with any team in North Carolina. A game has been arranged with Trinity College at Greensboro March 26. The game here last Saturday between our team and Bunker Hill and Kernersville combined resulted in a defeat for Bunker Hill combination. Score, 5 to 22.

On Sunday evening, at about 9 o'clock, death claimed Andrew Jackson Boling for his victim. He lived the allotted three score years and ten, but sad it is to say that his gray hairs were not a crown of glory. For more than twenty-five years he has been a habitual drinker, and he died without hope. He once belonged to the Masonic order, but the lodge went down. For more than sixteen years he was postmaster at this place. He leaves a wife and one daughter to mourn his loss. His life should be a warning to all who are winebibbers.

GENERAL NEWS.

Gov. Bradley was hanged in Citty at Danville, Ky., last week.

Fifteen men lost their lives in mine explosions near Dubois, Pa., Monday.

The Cuban resolutions in the Senate have been recommitted to a conference committee.

A new Democratic daily paper, but advocating a protective tariff, is to be started in Atlanta.

The banks of the country now hold $19,402,075 in excess of the requirements of the 25 cent rate.

Colorado pledges $25,000 to help in the cost of organizing a campaign for free coinage of silver.

The Senate committee on Territories ordered a favorable report on the bill admitting the Territory of Arizona to Statehood.

The House yesterday after a two hours debate and with but one dissenting vote, passed the bill removing Confederate soldiers' disabilities.

It is reported that Judge John H. Ragan, the last surviving member of the Confederate States cabinet, is dying at his home in Palestine, Texas.

Dudley, Brown & Co., one of the leading tobacco manufacturing firms of Martinsville, Va., has made an assignment. Liabilities $37,000, assets $22,000.

The Supreme Court of Tennessee rendered an important decision Friday which directly sustains the legislative committee that seated Peter Turney as Governor.

It is officially declared in Havana that Captain-General Weyler is satisfied with the progress of the campaign against the insurgents and has no intention of resigning.

The Senate committee on Privileges and Elections made a favorable report on the amendment to the constitution providing for the election of United States senators by a direct vote of the people.

The jury in the case of Benjamin Harrison Miliken, charged with house-breaking with intent to commit an assault on a doctor, the daughter of an ex-Solicitor Samuel F. Phillips, Washington, D. C., rendered a verdict of not guilty.

Representative Jones, of Virginia, has introduced a bill in Congress appropriating $50,000 for a monument to the memory of James Monroe at Fredericksburg. The monument is to be surrounded with a life-sized statue representing in his hand a scroll inscribed with the words, "The Monroe Doctrine."

The enormous circulation of such a magazine as "The Ladies Home Journal" is a source of wonder when it is said that during the last six months of 1895 there were printed, sold and circulated over four million copies—(in exact figures 4,658,891). Figures such as these give one some idea of the influence which may be exerted by even a single one of the modern magazines.

In Cuba the arrests of suspects continue and the prisons are so crowded that thousands of men are crowded into the cells. The Spanish officers have orders to take no prisoners; orders are given to fire, without warning, on all persons outside the towns at night; Gen. Weyler's recent reverses have driven him to harsher measures against the unarmed; citizens of all foreign nations are arrested and thrown into prison on political accusations; among these are eight Americans.

Loss by Wear of Silver Subsidiary Coin.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—All the old and worn subsidiary silver coins of the United States will soon be replaced by the new design adopted in 1892. The progress being made in that direction by the United States mints is most encouraging to treasury officials. For some years past efforts have been made by the Treasury department to keep the subsidiary silver coin up to face value. With this view appropriations have been obtained from time to time to reimburse the Treasurer of the United States for the difference between the value of worn subsidiary coin and what they would produce when transferred to the mints for recoinage. Since 1893 the amount of such coin of worn and unrecurrent subsidiary coin transferred by the treasury to the mints for recoinage has amounted to $29,642,384. The value of the same in new subsidiary silver coin is $28,535,745, showing a loss by wear of $1,106,639, which was reimbursed to the Treasurer of the United States from appropriations made by Congress for that purpose. The amount transferred from the treasury to the mints from July 1, 1893, to December 31, 1895, was larger than for any other period, amounting in the aggregate to $20,964,962 face value, and producing in new coin $20,115,820, showing a loss on recoinage of $848,843.

Democratic State Executive Committee to Meet April 9th.

The central committee of the State Democratic executive committee met here last night to consider the time for calling a meeting of the Democratic executive committee. Mr. Joseph P. Caldwell, editor of the Charlotte Observer, and Major E. J. Hale, editor of the Fayetteville Observer, were among the out-of-town members of the committee who were present. The committee was in session until nearly midnight last night.

It was decided to call the State executive committee to meet in this city on the 9th of April next. The committee at that meeting will fix the time for the meeting of the State Democratic executive committee.

The committee held its meeting in the office of the Secretary of State.—Raleigh News and Observer.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mr. J. M. Gant was born about the year 1813 and died March 15th, 1896, aged about 83 years. He had been afflicted with heart trouble for more than twelve months, and during the last few days of his suffering was very much. He professed faith in Christ about the first of January last and connected himself with the M. E. church at this place. He was a most feeble and infirm man, which seemed to be his greatest desire, and called upon his pastor, Brother York, to preach to him in his room, which he did twice. One thing about the life and death of Mr. Gant is somewhat remarkable or uncommon. He was born on the 15th day of the month, was married on the 15th day of the month, and died on the 15th day of the month. He was a kind and affectionate husband, a loving father and respected citizen. He leaves a wife and seven children, three sons and four daughters, to mourn and weep after him. The people of the village of Stokesdale extend their sympathy to the bereaved family trusting that their loss is his eternal gain. May we all have grace to bow to this dispensation of the Divine will of our Heavenly Father, who will do right. A FRIEND.

The Dismal Swamp Canal.

The Secretary of War has transmitted to the House a survey of the water-ways through the sounds of North Carolina and the Dismal Swamp canal, with a view of obtaining a depth of nine feet and the necessary width for a ship canal with the sounds of North Carolina. Capt. Casey states that the cost for a nine-foot canal, as called for by the act of Congress, would be practically the same in all items, save excavation and locks as for a ten-foot canal. Assuming the cost of a ten-foot canal to be $1,711,380. Capt. Casey estimates that a nine-foot canal would cost $1,364,930.

"It seems proper to state," the Secretary says, "that the Dismal Swamp canal is the property of a private corporation."

Scrofula

Makes life misery to thousands of people. It manifests itself in many different ways, like goitre, swellings, running sores, boils, salt rheum and pimples and other eruptions. The First of the Civil-Service Extension Orders.

The President has issued a comprehensive order placing the Indian service under the operations of the civil-service law. Only the agents themselves and a few minor positions are excepted. This order is probably the first of a series which will practically take the entire government service out of politics and remove the offices from the grasp of the spoilsmen. It was within the President's discretion to have issued an order embracing all the departments of the government, or to extend the working of the civil-service law so each branch. Evidently he has chosen the latter course, and unless all reports as to his intentions are without foundation, other orders will soon be made until finally the whole government service is on a practical civil-service basis. If this should be done, the spoilsmen will be deprived of one of their most effective and dangerous weapons, and hereafter the voters who have been influenced by the promise of office will have an opportunity to vote according to their convictions, and not with an eye fixed upon the spoils alone.

HEART DISEASE, like many other ailments when they have taken hold of the system, never gets better of its own accord, but constantly grows worse. There are thousands who know they have a defective heart, but will not admit the fact. They don't want their friends to worry, and don't know what to take for it, as they have been told time and again that heart disease was incurable. Such was the case of Mr. Silas Farley of Drysville, Ohio who writes June 19, 1894, as follows:

"I had heart disease for 23 years, my heart hurting me almost continually. The first 15 years I doctored all the time, trying several physicians and remedies, until my last doctor told me it was only a question of time as I could not be cured. I gradually grew worse, very weak, and completely discouraged, until I lived, propped half up in bed, because I couldn't lie down nor sit up. Thinking my time had come I told my family what I wanted done when I was gone. But on the first day of March on the recommendation of Mrs. Fannie Jones, of Anderson, Ind., I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart and wonderful to tell in ten days I was working at light work and on March 19 commenced framing a barn, which is heavy work, and I haven't lost a day since. I am 56 years old, 6 ft. 4 in. tall and weigh 280 lbs. I believe I am fully cured, and I am now only anxious that everyone shall know of your wonderful remedies."

—Mr. J. E. Tomlinson, mail transfer clerk at the Southern depot, has gone to Asheville for a couple of weeks, in order to recuperate from a severe spell of sickness.

—Judge Schenck's condition is not as favorable as his friends could wish, a relapse the first of the week causing additional alarm. He is reported some better today.

—The board of aldermen has instructed Mayor Nelson to accept the proposal of the Gamewell Fire Alarm Company and that system will be established here at once.

—One hundred driving, saddle and work horses are advertised for sale at Vanstory's stables, next Saturday. You can't afford to miss these sales if you want a bargain. See Col. Gabers' ad.

—Mr. Chas. Hammond, of Binghamton, N. Y., has purchased a farm near this city and become a welcome citizen of Guilford. He could not have found a more desirable place in the South.

—The Brown Mercantile Company invites attention to a new and varied assortment of dress goods, shoes, Oxford caps, mittens, etc., just received. Their new ad. will give you further information.

—I have a few of those celebrated "Spot Head" Disk harrows which I will sell and take in exchange corn at 50 cents a bushel. I will also exchange said plow and plow for corn.

—W. O. Stratford.

—Revenue officers Davis and Smith who shot the Jordans at Kernersville, were taken to Winston yesterday for a preliminary hearing. It is understood that they will be permitted to give bail in the sum of $500 each.

—Work will begin this week on two large boarding houses, seven six-room cottages and a commodious residence for the superintendent at the new Proximity cotton mills. Mr. Cone has also given a free site for a mission Baptist church.

—The individuals who are not pleased with at least one of the many varieties of this typical March weather is certainly hard to suit. All the variations between a tropical zephyr and a Manitoba blizzard have been encountered here this month.

—A smooth-tongued rascal fleeced W. D. McAdoo out of a few dollars last week by representing that his brother was coming on with a load of horses that he wanted McAdoo to sell for him here. Rank Thomas "donated" the fellow a rubber coat.

—Rev. Samuel Purdy, a missionary of the Friends' church who has been stationed in Mexico for the past fourteen years, was in the city last week and left Wednesday evening for San Salvador, Central America, where he will resume work for his Master.

—"Do you ever go fishing?" Well, we are willing to presume you do not when the weather is like it was yesterday morning, but the time is coming soon when you may be tempted to indulge in that delightful pastime, and Wharton Bros. want to supply you with the most approved outfit for angling. See their new ad.

—The Merchants' Grocery Company has leased the three-story brick building, Nos. 320 and 322 South Elm street, opposite the Odell Hardware Co., and will open for business as soon as the stock can be put in place. Two members of the firm have had considerable experience in the jobbing line and will no doubt succeed in this enterprise.

—Greensboro has a Bicycle Club. It was organized Monday night with E. M. Elliott, Jr., president, Dr. G. W. Whitsett vice-president, H. C. Berger recording secretary, C. J. Maguire, corresponding secretary, D. G. Devenish captain, Weldon Schenck and R. W. Murray first and second lieutenants, and R. G. Glenn and Sidney Johnson trustees.

—The Burlington News of Monday evening says: "Solicitor W. P. Bynum got off the train here Saturday evening, and while it waited for supper strolled down town. When he returned the train was gone. He hired D. L. Godfrey to send him to Greensboro, with the understanding that he was to get $5 extra if the trip was made in three hours. Dugan lost the 'Bynum minutes'."

—Prof. P. P. Claxton has returned from Raleigh, where he attended a special meeting of the executive committee of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly, called to determine the next annual meeting place of the assembly. Asheville was chosen. Liberal reductions in hotel and railroad rates are guaranteed. The assembly meets June 10 and the session continues four days.

—The Southern and Western Textile Elevator has this to say of one of Randolph's mills: "Randolph Manufacturing Co., Franklinville, N. C., is now running full time. Their new mill is one of the best arranged mills in the country. The plans were all drawn and machinery placed by their own people without the aid of Northern architects or machinists. W. C. Russell, one of the owners of this and the Franklinville Cotton Mills, being the chief architect."

—We introduce to our readers this week the firm of W. G. Mebane & Co., new wholesale grocers and commission merchants of Greensboro, who, it will be seen by referring to their advertisement in another column, solicit the patronage of merchants only in full lines of staple and fancy groceries. This firm may be found in the large brick building, Nos. 110 and 112 Lewis street, and will be pleased to meet buyers from all parts of the territory contiguous to Greensboro.

—The claim of the Mr. Airy Granite company against the C. F. & Y. V. Railroad company and Gen. John Gill receiver, for $5,000, was argued at Asheville last week by R. R. King, Esq., and James T. Morehead, Esq., of Greensboro, for the Granite company, and by James E. Boyd, Esq., of Greensboro, and Sol. C. Weil, Esq., of the law firm of Ricard & Weil, of Wilmington, for the Farmers' Loan and Trust company and for receiver Gill. Decision was reserved.

—The eighty-fourth anniversary of the birth of our esteemed fellow citizen, Hon. Robert M. Sloan, occurred Sunday. We are glad to note that the health of this remarkable gentleman continues so good that he is able to attend to business for the Southern Express Company right along, with no visible decline in his mental faculties and with but slight impairment physically. His energy would do credit to the average man fifteen or twenty years his junior. We sincerely hope he may long continue to enjoy present blessings.

—Would you like to have an elegant pair of Nottingham lace curtains free of charge? In order to advertise their business Thacker & Brookmann are giving away to every customer, whose purchases amount to twenty dollars, a pair of these handsome curtains. You do not have to buy the whole twenty dollars worth of goods at one time, unless you prefer to do so. They furnish you with a premium card on which all your purchases are checked off, and when they amount to twenty dollars you get the curtains. The curtains are now on exhibition at Thacker & Brookmann's store. Go and see them and get one of the premium cards.

—The Loudonville, Ohio, Advocate of Thursday, March 19, says: "Mrs. Addie M. Sikes, the wife of the late Rev. J. R. Sikes, died yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock at her home in Perryville of softening of the brain and other complications, aged 46 years, 9 months and 5 days. Deceased was a sister of Rev. J. N. West, the missionary to India, and a half-sister to Thos. H. Heavers, and was an exemplary woman who probably had not an enemy in the world. Her husband died at Gibsonville, N. C., about a year ago and his remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at the home of his childhood. The funeral of Mrs. Sikes will take place on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment to be made at St. John's church. The funeral sermon will be preached by Rev. Dr. Wiles at St. John's church."

—The workmen of the city held an enthusiastic mass meeting at the court house last night to express their approval of the Summit Avenue proposition, which is to be voted on next Monday. Sam Browne, Esq., was chairman of the meeting. A number of excellent short speeches were made and strong resolutions favoring the improvement were adopted. Greenboro's future depends largely on the success of this measure. The city has through different channels heretofore to the world that it wanted manufacturing enterprises, and now that it is asked to open and improve a street leading to one of the largest manufacturing establishments in the state and which is placed here by outside capital entirely, it will be seen whether or not our inducements were offered in good faith. It is not a matter of sectional interest to the city, but one that is calculated to promote our general welfare. If the proposition fails Greensboro will go on record as being opposed to showing any favors to capitalists who are disposed to come here and invest their money in enterprises that can not fail to benefit us as a whole. We must not let insignificant considerations influence us when the prosperity of our city is at stake. Let there be a unanimous vote in favor of building Summit Avenue. Don't stay away from the polls next Monday. Vote, and vote like public spirited men should.

—Five big twists of tobacco for a quarter, at Scott's.

—The remains of Postoffice Inspector Conard were taken to Washington City last Wednesday and interred in Arlington cemetery during the afternoon of the day following. Funeral services were conducted by Rector Johns, an intimate friend of the deceased. Representatives of the G. A. R. post of Greensboro and several other organizations were present. Mr. Conard was a member of the post and had also acted as a ritualistic officer at the grave. An autopsy conducted by Dr. Lamb, who officiated in a similar capacity at the death of President Garfield, showed numerous complications, confirming the diagnosis of the physician who attended Mr. Conard here. The heart, lungs and stomach were found to have been affected, a disease of the stomach of long standing being primarily the cause of death. Mr. Conard carried a life insurance policy of $2,000 and an accident policy of $10,000, but as death did not result from accident the latter is forfeited. A wife, three sons, brother and sister, and a host of warm friends are left to mourn his death. His age was 35 years.

—Three pounds large prunes for a quarter, at Scott's.

—David Wheeler, of this county, was struck by a train and instantly killed near the coal chute last Thursday night. He was walking along the Southern tracks shortly before 10 o'clock and evidently failed to notice the approach of the northbound passenger train, stepping up onto the track only a moment before he was struck and before the engineer had time to signal a warning or apply the brakes of his train. Both arms and both legs were broken and by the time the trainmen reached his body life was extinct. The remains were brought to the city and later turned over to the father of the deceased, who is a miller and lives north of the city. Mr. Wheeler's age was perhaps forty years. He was a quiet unassuming citizen, and his untimely death is deeply deplored by his friends and acquaintances.

Death of Major J. C. Winder.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 22.—Major John Cox Winder died at his home here at 2 o'clock this morning, having been stricken with paralysis at 3 o'clock last Thursday morning. He was conscious most of the time until shortly before his death. He had for over a year had heart disease, and several times was near death. He was born October 1, 1831, at Smithville, now Southport, near Wilmington. His father was Gen. John H. Winder, a distinguished Marylander. Major Winder ranked as one of the ablest railway officials in the South. For several years he was general manager of the Seaboard Air line system. Ever since the war he has been actively engaged in railroad construction. He leaves four children and nine grandchildren, and all his family were with him when death came. His funeral will be held from Christ Church here at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, and the burial will be in Oakwood Cemetery. There will be a notable gathering of railway men to pay the last tribute of regard.

The Southern's Bid.

In a conversation this morning with Hon. G. M. Rose, who has just returned from Asheville, we learn that it is the general opinion that the C. F. & Y. V. Railroad will be sold as an entirety probably in July. Three propositions for the disposal of the road were submitted to Judge Simonton and he now has them under consideration. The Southern Railway Company has been an "upset" offer of $1,625,000 for the whole road. One million for the A division which is that from Greensboro to the South Carolina line, $500,000 for the B division, that from Greensboro to Mt. Airy, and $325,000 for the C division, which is from Fayetteville to Wilmington.—Fayetteville Observer.

Lineback Gets One Year.

Mr. ARRY, March 19.—The young man Bud Lineback, who was arrested yesterday and sent to jail for stealing tobacco, was tried today, convicted and sent to the penitentiary for one year.

Citizens of Concord offer the Seaboard Air Line $100,000 to build a branch line there from Charlotte. The Seaboard Air Line has made an offer to the French Road railway for a charter which it holds for a railway from Asheville to Rutherfordton through Hickory Nut Gap. The matter will be decided April 4th.

STATE NEWS.

All the saloons at Fayetteville close from 11 to 12 o'clock A. M. on account of Dr. G. W. Russell's revival meetings.

Capt. E. B. C. Hambley, of Rockwell, Rowan county, will leave next Monday for an extended trip to Johannesburg, Africa.

Rev. N. S. Jones, a prominent divine of Salisbury, has accepted a call from the Board street Baptist congregation at Winston.

Rev. Dr. Shirey, president of Mr. Pleasant College, is suffering from a second stroke of paralysis and fears are entertained that it will prove fatal.

Randolph and Chatham have more post-offices than any other counties in this State. Randolph heads the list with 33 offices and Chatham comes next with 29.

The Sanford Express says the New York Gas and Coal Co., of New York City, has purchased the coal mine at Chimney, Chatham county, N. C., formerly owned and controlled by the Langdon-Hensley Coal Mining Company.

The Salisbury Herald says that Pettigrew & Co., of Lexington, Va., have secured the contract for the main building of the Southern Railway shops there at $75,000; another Lynchburg firm has the contract for the roofing at $18,000.

Col. W. J. Martin, professor of Chemistry at Davidson College, who was stricken with paralysis last week, died Monday. He had been in bed for a number of years. His death is a severe loss to the institution.

E. T. Rawlins, merchant at Oxford, made an assignment last week. Liabilities, $4,100; assets, $3,000, no counts $2,000. He had been in business for sixteen years, and was a prominent and substantial business man, and his failure is a great surprise in business circles.

The new $300,000 cotton mill at Mayodan, near Madison, has begun operations. Only 15,000 spindles are running now, but this number will be increased to seven or eight thousand when all of the machinery is in. The town started at the mills now has a white population of some 250 people. The Moravians, Methodists and Presbyterians have already arranged for church sites there.

An organization known as the "Salisbury Commercial and Manufacturers' Club" was organized at Salisbury Friday night with Mrs. A. H. Boyden, president; N. B. McCants, first vice president; J. J. Newman, secretary; H. H. Caldwell, assistant secretary, and H. C. O'Connell, treasurer. This will take the place of the old Salisbury chamber of commerce which has been defunct for several years.

There is a great row among the North Carolina Republicans. J. C. L. Harris, the newly elected secretary of their state executive committee, sent out a call for the State convention. This Chairman Holton refused to recognize. A friend of Holton writes that he is authorized to say that Holton has had the call for the convention printed at Winston and will send them out tomorrow to the various county chairmen over his own signature and that no communication should be considered official unless signed by the chairman. This is a most remarkable situation of affairs.

Democratic ex-State Chairman F. M. Simmons, of the central committee, says: "Everything indicates that there will be harmony in the Democratic party in North Carolina, whatever may be the outcome of the national convention, in state and local matters; that there will be great conservatism in dealing in differences in our own party and between us and the Populists, our former associates, who feel more kindly toward the Democratic party than toward the Republicans. The outlook for the status of affairs in this state is of marked interest to Democrats all over the country."

Poisons engendered by food fermenting in a dyspeptic condition are the direct cause of rheumatism, gout, bronchitis, liver and kidney complaints, neuralgia, pneumonia and many nervous ailments.

These results are prevented by the use of the Shaker Dyspeptic Cure, recently discovered and prepared by the Shakers of Mount Lebanon, N. Y. It is in itself a food and has power to get clear food taken with it. Thus it feeds the diseased stomach and finally makes the worst cases of dyspepsia. It acts promptly and food strength and increase of weight soon follows. The first thing to be noticed is that it relieves the pain and distress so dreaded by dyspeptics. Trial bottles—enough to prove its merit—free.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

The Republican State Convention to Meet at Raleigh, May 14.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 18.—The Republican State executive committee met here today, 17 members being present, no proxies being allowed. The committee decided unanimously to call the State convention to meet here May 14.

J. C. Logan Harris, of Raleigh, promoter of Mr. Russell's gubernatorial boom, and one of the leading fusionists in the party, was elected secretary by a vote of 8 to 7, his opponents being friendly to General Pickens for Governor.

The Russell men introduced a resolution to taking away the power of the chairman, who is a Dockery man, to appoint the committee on credentials for the State convention. The Russell resolution provided that the executive committee shall now appoint a committee on credentials to pass upon the delegates to the State convention two months hence. The Dockery men in a hot debate denounced the resolution as an unheard-of proceeding.

The executive committee adopted the policy of Senator Pritchard, leader of the fusion element, and a committee of five was named to confer with the Populists, with a view to fusion, this committee to report to the Republican State convention the result of the conference.

Chairman Holton, James H. Young, H. L. Grant, Senator Pritchard and Thomas Settle were named as the committee.

Logan Harris, secretary Republican State committee, says State Chairman Holton and Congressman Settle made an offer to Senator Pritchard that if he would "hands off" they would support him for the Senate and would insure no opposition if he would let North Carolina's vote be divided between Reed and McKinley and that they would stop their fight against Russell.

Pritchard refused the offer. Otto Wilson, one of the leading Populists, says of today's work here that it appears to him like a complete victory for the radical fusion crowd. Hal Ayer, secretary of the Populist State committee, who always voices Senator Butler's sentiments, when asked what the Populists are going to do about those Republicans who are vowing they will have the naming of the Governor or else no fusion, replied, "The Populists will nominate and vote for a man for Governor whether we elect him or not, and if the Republicans want to nominate a candidate they can do so."

A Revenue Raider Shot.

LEXINGTON, March 20.—Revenue Agent Moffitt, accompanied by Messrs. J. L. Michael and Vic Davis, ran upon an illicit distillery last night about 9 o'clock three miles north of town. It was in full blast and two men holding the fort. J. F. L. Tussey surrendered himself to the officers, but the other fellow slid through a hole on the other side of the little house and was making good time across the old field when he discovered Mr. Davis was unpleasantly near him, and without a word of protest he fired a load of shot into Mr. Davis' side. Messrs. Moffitt and Michael cut down two 55-gallon stills and destroyed about 800 gallons of beer, and with Mr. Tussey brought Mr. Davis to town. He has suffered greatly, but his physicians think he will recover. The man who did the shooting escaped.

Veterans Only Half Fed.

RICHMOND, Va., March 20.—The legislature failed to make ample appropriations for the Confederate veterans in the Soldiers' Home and the allowance of food has been cut down. Now the inmates complain that they are not getting enough to eat and some of them talk of leaving the institution.

Ex-Governor Holliday, of Virginia, Paralyzed.

RICHMOND, Va., March 21.—A special to the Dispatch says ex-Governor Holliday has been paralyzed at his home in Winchester, and is in a critical condition.

The C. F. & Y. V. R. Case.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., March 20.—There was a great array of legal talent in the United States Court here before Judge C. H. Simonton yesterday, when the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad hearing in foreclosure proceedings was conducted. The suit was originally brought for foreclosure under the first mortgage, and the contest was whether the road should be sold as a whole or by divisions. The arguments were finished today, and Judge Simonton reserved his decision.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local treatment, and thereby required constant attention. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 to 30 drops, and it acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it failed to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, etc.

CHICKENS AND EGGS!

How to Get 'Em.

The Ladies' Moneyed Crop.

Polk Miller's "Victory" Poultry Food.

TESTIMONIALS.

Some thirty-five years ago my wife lost an old hen, and we almost despaired of raising chickens. Several years passed by, and some one recommended to us Polk Miller's Victory Food, which we used, and have had good success ever since, never losing a fowl. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it failed to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, etc.

As an evidence of our valuation of the "Victory Food" I will testify that we have never without them in spring or summer. We buy by the dozen boxes, and when my wife has a sick fowl of any kind we make for these little remedies with us. I have used it also with equal success in hog cholera, and I have never lost a hog since I commenced using it. Before that I lost a great many.

William A. Wilson, King William county, Va. I have found it "admirable with chickens." Mrs. R. S. HANCOCK, Lenoir county, Va. I never had any success in raising chickens until I commenced to use it. Had the chicken among my fowls every spring before this, but now no longer feel. Mrs. W. W. WATKINS, Fine Creek Mills, Powhatan county, Va. Send me three more packages. It seems that I cannot get along without it. Mrs. J. K. HANCOCK, Lenoir county, Va. I am much pleased with it. Send another package. Mrs. FLORENCE MATTHEWS, Lenoir county, Va. I introduced the chicken cholera immediately last year by using the "Victory Food." Mrs. J. K. HANCOCK, Lenoir county, Va. Please send a dollar's worth at once. I have used it with great success. I raised chicken cholera and gave entirely. I recommended it to some of my neighbors and they think it is splendid. Mrs. L. A. WILSON, Pamphila, Greensboro county, Va. I received the Victory Food and am much pleased with it. Mrs. W. W. WATKINS, Fine Creek Mills, Powhatan county, Va. Send me two packages of your valuable Victory Food. Mrs. RICHARD V. GAINES, Mossy Creek, Charlotte county, Va. I am very much pleased with the Victory Food. It stopped cholera with my fowls. Mrs. FANNY JONES, Greensboro, Va. Send me some more. I am very much pleased with the Victory Food. Mrs. T. H. STICKER, Grove P. O., Va.

I enclose you a dollar for four packages Victory Poultry Food. I attribute the past year's success to the use of the Victory Poultry Food. Mrs. J. M. DAVIS, Orange county, Va. I have used it with good success. Mrs. PEARLIN GRAVES, Thorn Hill, Orange county, Va. I have tried it and am much pleased with it. Mrs. S. E. BRISTOW, Bentonville, Waverly county, Va. It is a sure preventive of gapes, and we consider it indispensable in our future efforts at poultry raising. Mrs. L. H. USAVELL, Arch Mills, Botetown county, Va. I have used it with the greatest success. JAMES W. JONES, Louisa county, Va. I have used one box and found it beneficial to young fowls. Have not lost any with gapes since I commenced its use. Mrs. NELLIE DAVIS, Lenoir county, Va. I have ever used it. Mrs. W. J. FOWLER, Lee Hall, Chesapeake and Ohio railway. Send four boxes "Victory Poultry Food." I like it so much I don't want to be without it. Sallie, Middlesex county, Va. Mrs. S. C. Tardy, of Campbell county, writes me: "I have used it with great success. I do not think it invaluable." Please send two boxes Victory Poultry Food. I used it last year and was much pleased with its effects. Cowland, Nanamoud county, Va. The Victory Poultry Food is a great remedy for gapes in chickens, and it makes them grow rapidly. Mrs. H. C. FANNIN, Giles county, Va. Please send me two packages Victory Poultry Food. I have used it with great success. I do not wish to be without it. It is so equal. Mrs. H. L. STOKES, Newbern, Va. I have used one package of Victory Poultry Food, and had it represented in every respect with both old and young. DOTTIE BARNES, Mattaponi, Va. I had at one time become so disheartened I thought of giving up. I have now a large flock of Victory Poultry Food. I shall continue to use it and couldn't do without it. DOROTHY BARNES, Mattaponi, Va. It is the greatest thing ever given to poultry of any kind. We did not have a single case of gapes any other disease among our fowls last year, all of which was due to Victory Poultry Food. LINDA H. GARNER, Danvers, N. C. The "Victory Poultry Food" is meeting with great sale, and our customers speak in high praise of the good results from its use. T. H. HASKINS, Weymouth, Va.
