

THE GREENSBORO PATRIOT

VOL. 82.

GREENSBORO, N. C., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 8, 1903.

NO. 14

Dr. W. J. RICHARDSON

OFFICE:
KATZ BUILDING.
RESIDENCE: 318 WEST GASTON ST.

Wm. P. BEALL, THOS. R. LITTLE,
408 S. L. & T. Bldg.
BEALL & LITTLE
PHYSICIANS and SURGEONS
Office: No. 315 So. Loan & Trust Bldg.
Hours: 8 to 9 A. M.; 11:30 to 1, 2 to 5 P. M.
Will practice in Greensboro and surrounding country.

E. L. STAMEY, M. D.
RESIDENCE:
200 North Davis Street.
OFFICE:
At Fordham & Grissom's Drug Store.

Dr. J. E. WYCHE
DENTIST
OFFICE IN SAVINGS BANK BLDG.
SOUTH ELM ST., GREENSBORO, N. C.

Dr. M. F. FOX
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
GUILFORD COLLEGE, N. C.

Dr. E. A. BURTON
DENTIST
OFFICE IN CARLAND BLDG., OPP. GUILFORD HOTEL.

Dr. THAD. S. TROY
RESIDENCE: 115 Mendenhall Street.
OFFICE: Room 5, Katz Bldg.
Phone 227. Phone 36.

A. M. SCALES, Z. V. TAYLOR, J. I. SCALES.
Scales, Taylor & Scales
ATTORNEYS and COUNSELLORS AT LAW
GREENSBORO, N. C.

Robert D. Douglas, Stephen A. Douglas.
DOUGLAS & DOUGLAS
ATTORNEYS AT LAW
Office in Greensboro Loan and Trust Bldg.

C. G. WRIGHT
ATTORNEY AT LAW
WRIGHT BUILDING, OPP. COURT HOUSE,
GREENSBORO, N. C.

THOMAS C. HOYLE
ATTORNEY AT LAW
115 Court Square, GREENSBORO, N. C.

Special attention given to collections. Loans negotiated.

Robert C. Strudwick
ATTORNEY and COUNSELLOR
AT LAW
115 Court Square, GREENSBORO, N. C.

SPENCER B. ADAMS, JACOB A. LONG.
ADAMS & LONG
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW
104 and 108 Court Square, Greensboro, N. C.

Practice in the State and Federal Courts and before the departments in Washington. Prompt attention given to all business.

Combined Capital, $325,000
Combined Assets over, $500,000

The Greensboro Fire Insurance Companies

Have, in the last eight years, saved to the people of Greensboro not less than $40,000 in the cost of their insurance. When you insure call for your home companies. : : : : :

J. Simpson Schenck, Agent

HAIR CUTTING

A SPECIALTY AT

Ferguson's Barber Shop

He has none but the best of barbers employed and they guarantee satisfaction. They are all white. Give them trial.

106 S. Elm St., Opp. Postoffice

WANTED—1,500 bright respectable girls to learn cigar making. Steady work. $2.00 a week paid while learning.

AMERICAN CIGAR CO.
Greensboro, N. C.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. Henry W. Wharton is visiting relatives in Wilson.

Judge Boyd visited Washington the latter part of last week.

The cold weather Saturday and Sunday nights ruined the fruit crop of this section.

The county board of education held a meeting here Saturday, but transacted no business of special importance.

Mr. C. G. Wright returned Monday from a visit to his mother, who is in a hospital in Richmond, Va., for treatment.

A tribe of Red Men was organized here last night. Greensboro now has lodges of about all the secret societies going.

The best 10-cent coffee in town; a full line of Wood's garden beans, corn, peas and all kinds of seeds at Hiatt & Lamb's.

Mr. Al. Kahn, an expert pool player from New York, will have charge of the new pool and billiard parlor which will be opened in the McAdoo hotel this week.

Mr. W. Giles Mebane, of this city, has gone on the road to sell chemicals and dyestuffs to the cotton mill trade for the Oakes Manufacturing Company, of New York.

The members of the First Baptist church gave a reception to their new pastor, Rev. Dr. H. W. Battle, and his wife in the Sunday school annex of the church last night.

Good second-hand cutaway and 10 styles of new harrows at Townsend and Co.'s. No one can make better prices or show so large a stock to select from. Our terms are easy. 14-4t.

On account of some technicality in regard to registration, the county commissioners of Rockingham have found it necessary to call off the election on the $300,000 bond issue in that county.

Judge W. P. Bynum, Jr., of this city, has been retained to represent Mr. Harvey Terry, of Columbus, Ohio, in a big land suit in the Federal court at Raleigh. The amount involved is about $10,000.

Mr. A. M. Scales has returned from New York, where he went to have his eyes treated. He is now able to attend to business and is to be found actively engaged in pushing the good roads campaign.

FOR SALE OR RENT—The Presbyterian manse three miles east of Greensboro. Good six-room house, outbuildings, and nearly three acres of ground. Apply to J. W. Alexander or W. D. Wharton, Greensboro, N. C. 14-4t.

During the month of March officers working under Revenue Agent Patterson of this city, destroyed 48 illicit distilleries, just two less than the number destroyed during February. Several government distilleries were seized during the past month.

Miss Lizzie Amick died suddenly at Mrs. Treadaway's boarding house, on Lewis street, last Saturday evening, aged about 18 years. The remains were carried to the former home of the deceased, near Pleasant Garden, Sunday afternoon for interment.

Messrs. R. D. Douglas and J. Van Lindley will speak at Liberty Store on Easter Monday in behalf of the good roads bond issue. We hope our Washington township friends will turn out in numbers to hear these gentlemen discuss this important matter.

Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, the successor of Henry Ward Beecher as pastor of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, will deliver a lecture in the Grand Opera House on the evening of May 5th. This will afford our people an opportunity of hearing one of the most noted divines in the country.

Dr. Charles Wyche, brother of Dr. J. E. Wyche, of this city, is spending a few days in town with relatives. He was surgeon in the United States army in the Philippines for two years and spent last winter in Europe taking a special course on diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat. He will go to St. Louis to locate.

William Clapp, a young white man, was arrested last week on the charge of operating an illicit distillery in the southeastern part of the county. He was given a hearing before United States Commissioner Wolfe, who held him for the District court under a bond of $200. He was confined in jail until Saturday, when he gave bond.

We have just received two more carloads of fertilizers. Come on and get what you want. Our aim is to please. We have the very best goods at low prices for cash. Our stock of hardware is of the best quality. Sewing machines a specialty.

THE GUILFORD HARDWARE CO.,
521 South Elm St.

Woman Thrown Into Jail for Debt.

Considerable comment was heard here last week concerning the case of an old woman, a stranger, who was thrown into jail because she was unable to pay her board. The woman in question, Mrs. Katherine E. Carnman, accompanied by a young daughter, came to Greensboro from Philadelphia several months ago and stopped at Mrs. Cooper's boarding house, on West Washington street. The daughter secured employment in the Harry-Belk Brothers Company's store, but gave up the position some time ago to go on the road with a sister, who is said to be a representative of some corset house. The two daughters left their mother alone in Greensboro, without friends or money. Mrs. Carnman was unable to pay her board, but told her landlady that she would square her indebtedness as soon as she received some money she was expecting from Philadelphia. She said that she and a sister were joint owners of valuable property near Philadelphia, and it was rent money from this that she claimed to be expecting.

Mrs. Carnman remained at her boarding place until her indebtedness amounted to $104, when the landlady became skeptical. Believing that her boarder had made false representations in regard to the money that she professed to be expecting, Mrs. Cooper swore out a warrant for her arrest, charging false pretense. The trial was held before Justice Pritchett, who committed the defendant to jail to await the next criminal term of Guilford Superior court. The old lady's condition excited the pity and sympathy of a minister and several other persons, who interested themselves in her behalf. Habeas corpus proceedings were instituted before Judge Shaw, who held that the defendant was being detained of her liberty illegally. Judge Shaw dismissed the case against Mrs. Carnman, whereupon she was released from custody. Friday evening she received $35 from a daughter in Camden, N. J., and that night left for her home in Philadelphia.

Married Man Shot Under Suspicious Circumstances.

Robert Stanford, a married man of this city, with a wife and three children, two of whom are grown, was shot under suspicious circumstances Sunday night. He was found lying in a clump of bushes near the Hucomuga cotton mill, with a bullet wound in the right side of his abdomen, and suffering great pain. He claimed to have been shot at a house of ill repute by a woman named Maggie Harris. Stanford was taken in charge by police officers and carried to his home near Sergeant's foundry, where he was given medical attention. The woman was arrested by Sheriff Jordan and placed in jail to await the result of the wounded man's injury, when she will be given a preliminary hearing before Justice G. T. Glascock.

When Stanford was examined by physicians, it was found that he had been desperately wounded. Monday afternoon it was thought that he could not recover, and as a precautionary measure, County Attorney John N. Wilson was delegated to take the wounded man's ante-mortem deposition. When Mr. Wilson arrived at the house, it was found that Stanford was improving, and accordingly the deposition was not taken. It is now thought that Stanford will probably recover.

Young Woman Attempts Suicide.

Miss May Barrett, a step-daughter of Frank Landreth, of this city, attempted to commit suicide Monday afternoon by taking a deadly drug. Prompt and efficient work on the part of a physician saved her life, though it was with considerable difficulty that fatal results were averted. It is reported that the young woman was moved to make the rash attempt to end her life by something connected with a love affair, though the particulars in regard to this are unknown. There is a rumor that the young lady's sweetheart had quarreled with her brother and that the latter had forbidden him to call on his sister.

Miss Barrett has been employed in the American Manufacturing Company's overall factory. It is understood that she purchased the drug with which to end her life at a drug store on her way home to dinner Monday.

Mr. M. S. Sherwood has awarded the contract to Mr. J. N. Longest to erect for him a modern nine-room residence on his lot on West Gaston street, just east of his mother's home. Mr. Longest has also been awarded the contract to build a handsome nine-room residence for Mr. E. A. Brown, on Schenck street, in rear of St. Benedict's Catholic church.

Deplorable Accidents.

William Sullivan, an employee of the Coulter & Lowery Company, proprietors of the Finishing mill, was instantly killed yesterday afternoon. The unfortunate young man was at work in the company's box factory, when he was caught by a loose belt and hurled with great force against a pulley. The force of the blow was sufficient to break his back and the young man fell to the floor a corpse. The dead man was about 27 years old.

Fred Hood, a conductor on the Southern Railway, and Joe Weaver, an employee in Superintendent Coapman's office, had a narrow escape from death yesterday afternoon. As it was, both young men were the victims of a horrible accident. They were standing on the main line track, near the passenger station, when northbound train No. 36 came in. They stepped out of the way of the approaching train and got on a parallel track just in time to get in the way of an approaching engine. Both were knocked down, the engine passing over the left leg of each. Hood's leg was so badly crushed that physicians announced immediately that it would be necessary to amputate the member just below the knee. Weaver's foot and ankle were crushed, but it is not thought an amputation will be necessary.

The accidents are peculiarly unfortunate for both young men. Hood had previously lost an arm in a railroad accident, for which he was given employment for life, and Weaver has not had the use of one of his arms since he was a small boy, owing to some disease which dwarfed that member. Hood is a married man, having married Miss Alice Tye, of this city, a few weeks ago.

Gathering of Republicans.

Greensboro is this week a rendezvous for Republican leaders in this state and many prominent men of that party are here. In addition to the officers of the court and revenue officers, the following are among the Republican politicians in the city: Hon. Jeter C. Pritchard, recently appointed an associate justice of the Supreme court of the District of Columbia; Zeb Vance Walser, of Lexington, formerly attorney-general of North Carolina; ex-Judge W. S. O'B. Robinson, of Goldsboro; ex-Judge E. W. Timberlake, of Louisville; J. Wiley Shook, a well known politician from the Asheville section, and J. A. Smith, of Bessemer City. A number of others will be here by tomorrow, when the Republican state committee will meet to elect a successor to Judge Pritchard, who at the present holds the dual position of state chairman and national committeeman from North Carolina.

It seems to be understood that Mr. Thomas S. Rollins, a young lawyer of Marshall and Judge Pritchard's son-in-law, will be elected state chairman, but there are rumors that the state may be broken and a man who has not been mentioned put in the position. There are several gentlemen who desire the endorsement for national committeeman, among them being ex-Congressman Blackburn, ex-Judge Robinson and Mr. Z. V. Walser.

District Court in Session.

The spring term of United States District court convened in this city Monday morning and will continue during this week only, as the county court house will be occupied next week by the Superior court. On this account, the criminal docket only will be disposed of at this time.

There are a number of criminal cases for trial, the majority, as usual, being for infractions of the internal revenue laws. Mr. June English, of Randolph county, is foreman of the grand jury.

In his charge to the grand jury Monday morning Judge Boyd adverted to the Watts bill, recently passed by the legislature, saying he believed it would have a good effect in reducing the number of cases for violating the revenue laws that come up for trial in his court. The judge added, probably as an afterthought, that the members of the legislature evidently thought the town people in North Carolina needed whiskey worse than the country people, since they had been given a monopoly of the business.

Burned to Death.

Kittie Baisley, an aged colored woman, was burned to death at her home near the fair grounds, a short distance west of the city limits, Saturday evening about 7 o'clock. She was standing in front of an open fire-place, when her clothing became ignited, burning her so badly that she died in a very short while. The house also caught fire and was saved only after considerable difficulty. The unfortunate woman was 85 years old and made her home with a son.

TOBACCO NOTES.

Items of Interest to the Grower, the Dealer, and the Manufacturer.

MARKET REPORT.

The receipts on our market for the past week were rather small, owing to the harsh weather and the fact that farmers were busy with their farm operations, making preparations for another crop. The quality of the offerings was very good, with the exception of a good deal of moldy tobacco, which was apparently caused from the wet season we had a week or two ago, when farmers packed down a good deal of their tobacco in soft order and it damaged before they were aware of the fact. Tobacco in good condition was in good demand at little better prices than for the previous week and the market was active on all desirable tobacco sound and in good condition. We regard it a good time to sell the remainder of your tobacco and would advise winding up your crop as early as convenient.

Mr. T. J. Gwynn, of Alamance, sold a curing of good working tobacco on the market Saturday for $93.08.

Mr. J. M. Sutton, of Alamance county, made a very satisfactory sale last Thursday, his prices ranging from 6 1/2 to 15 cents.

Whitsett & Whitsett, Neal & Allen and Rufus Knight, of Rockingham county, made satisfactory sales on the market last week.

Montgomery May, of Alamance county, sold the first of his crop last week. His load brought him $80.19, getting from $6.75 to $14.75 per hundred.

Mr. W. C. Iseley, of Alamance county, sold quite a lot of tobacco on the market a few days ago and got more money than he had expected for the lot.

W. F. King, Dennis & Jones, Daniel Jeffreys, A. J. Hooper, R. O. Weatherly, W. A. Hodgins, J. L. Davis and J. Richard Jessup, all of Guilford, made fairly good sales during the past few days.

Mr. A. T. Coble, of Randolph county, came up last week with the last of his crop. After he had reached the city he mired down and had to pull out by hitching a log chain to the rear axle and going backward. Oh, for the day when our roads and streets will all be macadamized so that our people can get to market without such hindrances.

County Commissioners.

The county commissioners were in session Monday and yesterday, each of the five members of the board being present. The two-days' session was made necessary by the large amount of business to be transacted, this being the second quarterly meeting for the year. Most of the business transacted, however, was of a routine nature, consisting of paying bills, making allowances, etc.

Several complaints were heard as to the miserable condition of the public roads in different sections of the county, but this is an old story and is no longer a matter of news.

Tax lists and assessors for the 18 townships of the county were appointed and a jury list was made out for the May (criminal) term of Superior court, but the clerk to the board will not be ready to give these out before next week. The commissioners recommended to State Auditor Dixon the following gentlemen for appointment as members of the Guilford county board of pension examiners: J. W. Scott, of Greensboro; J. S. Ragsdale, of Jamestown, and C. A. Tickle, of McLeansville. The law provides that all pension examiners shall be Confederate veterans.

Real Estate Deals.

The real estate market in and around Greensboro continues quite active. The following are some of the deals which have been made during the past week: Mr. B. L. Lineberry, of Trinity, Randolph county, has purchased ten acres of land on the macadamized road leading out of town from Spring Garden street.

Mr. J. M. Simpson, one of the clerks at the Benbow House, has purchased a lot on Fifth avenue upon which to build a residence.

Mr. C. P. Vanstony has sold a building lot on Spring Garden street, a short distance west of the city limits, to a Mr. Aiton, who recently moved here from Canada. Mr. Aiton will build.

Makes a Clean Sweep.

There's nothing like doing a thing thoroughly. Of all the Salves you ever heard of, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best. It sweeps away and cures Burns, Sores, Bruises, Cuts, Boils, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions and Piles. It's only 25c, and guaranteed to give satisfaction by C. E. Holton, druggist.

All kinds of grass seed and clover seed at C. Scott & Co.'s, McAdoo House building.

STATEMENT

OF THE CONDITION OF THE

Southern Loan & Trust Co.

GREENSBORO, N. C.

At the close of business Feb. 6, 1903.

Condensed from Report to Corporation Commission.

Resources.

Time loans and discounts	$261,941.92
Overdrafts (secured and unsecured)	7,850.75
Advanced on trust accounts	2,576.33
Stocks and bonds	84,251.50
Real estate	22,137.99
Furniture and fixtures	4,159.16
Due from agents (Jan. 1st)	4,577.86
Demand loans	$ 64,222.08
Cash on hand and in banks	104,707.50 168,929.58
	$556,425.06

Liabilities.

Capital stock	$100,000.00
Surplus fund	50,000.00
Undivided profits	6,616.59
Special reserve	21,391.43
Bills payable and rediscounted	32,000.00
Deposits	346,417.04
	$556,425.06

Interest paid on deposits in Savings Department.
Certificates of Deposit issued bearing interest from date.

Fertilizers.

W. O. Doggett's store, at Brown Summit, N. C., is the place to buy your fertilizer cheap.
Obies' per ton, $23.50 cash; $26.50 on time.
Piedmont, per ton, $22.20 cash; $25.20 on time.
Hyco, per ton, $23 cash; $26 on time.
Orinoco, per ton, $21.50 cash; $24 on time.
Alliance, per ton, $21 cash; $23.50 on time.
Farmer's Bone, per ton, $19 cash; $22 on time.
Will keep a big lot on hand after April 25th. I am a farmer and willing to do all in my power to save you money. Thanking you in advance for your trade, I am, Your friend, 13-4t. W. O. DOGGETT.

New Seed Store.

We have bought the clover and grass seed business from J. W. Scott & Co. and have opened up in the McAdoo House building, where we carry a complete line of staple and fancy groceries in connection with our seed business. Come to see us. C. SCOTT & CO.

One hundred farm wagons and 200 buggies and carriages in stock at Townsend & Co.'s, all bought before the advance in price. Sold on easy payments. Come and see them. 14-4t

It costs only about two cents a day to feed Mrs. Lee's milk and butter purifier. It destroys all taste of onions and weeds. HIATT & LAMB.

Buy a Barbour buggy from Townsend & Co. and get a chance to draw a prize worth from $30 to $210 without a cent of cost to you. 10-St.

THE

City National Bank
Of Greensboro, N. C.

With assets of over half a million dollars, offers absolute security to depositors. We want accounts of all kinds, both large and small, and pay interest when you desire it. Give us a part of your business. : : : :

J. M. WALKER, J. VAN LINDLEY,
President. Vice Pres.
LEE H. BATTLE, Cashier.

One Day

After Date

We promise to pay any purchaser of our clothing his money back if our garments are not just as represented, and if they are not in every way satisfactory.

Our popular price Suits range in price from $7.50 to $13.50. We have a good selection of Worsteds Pants at $2.50 to $3.50.

These are Sunday go-to-meeting Suits and Pants.

Chisholm, Stroud,
Crawford & Rees
DENTISTRY

CIVILIZED TEETH

Toothache and tooth decay are among the penalties of civilization. The savage has no need of dentists. Only a few years ago, though, the dentist was a stranger. If a tooth ached he simply worked away at it with crude and barbarous tools until he got it out. What a difference a few years have brought about. I am now extracting teeth without pain by the most modern and scientific methods and instruments, and am saving teeth and restoring them to good service that not long ago were condemned and taken out. I have all the appliances and employ all the scientific methods known to modern dentistry. Come to see me when you have tooth troubles. My prices are right and my work is guaranteed.

Dr. GRIFFITH, Dentist.

Office in Southern Loan and Trust Building, Near Postoffice, East Market St.

The Greensboro Hospital

We have just received six new private room beds, making our number fifteen in all. We are open for the treatment of surgical and medical cases of a non-contagious character. Large airy rooms; quiet, restful location; competent graduate nurses.

Anyone desiring to put patients in the institution will please notify the Superintendent a day or two before hand, so as to be sure of a room.

Physicians may take patients to the institution and treat them.

Rooms—Private, $15 per week; with two in room, $10 apiece, including nursing and board.

J. P. TURNER, M. D., Supt.

DRS. J. T. J. BATTLE,
E. R. MICHAUX,
W. J. MEADOWS,
CHAS. ROBERTSON,
A. F. FORTUNE,
J. P. TURNER,
Hospital Staff.

Schiffman Jewelry Company
326 South Elm St., Greensboro.

Up-to-Date Jewelry of Every Description.

An Elegant Assortment of Goods Adapted for Wedding and Birthday Presents.

Call and examine our goods. It's a pleasure to show them.

LOCAL NEWS.

Don't buy a binder, mower or rake until you see Townsend & Co. They have some special inducements to offer. 14-4t.

A street fair and carnival will be held here on April 27th and 28th for the benefit of the Greensboro fire department.

The family of Mr. W. H. Stone, Jr., a member of the firm of Ellis, Stone & Co., has moved from Durham to Greensboro.

Handsome offices have been fitted up over Mr. C. C. Fordham's drug store, at 514 South Elm street, for Dr. A. L. Petree and Dr. J. E. Grimsley.

Townsend & Co. pay no rents, hire no clerks, have cut expenses to smallest possible point and can and will sell you goods for less money than their competitors can afford to.

Judge Boyd last week signed the final decree in the Henderson county bond case. The defendants are allowed 60 days in which to prepare their case on appeal to the Circuit Court of Appeals.

The Piedmont Baptist Association has decided to put a colporter in the field to look after the work of the church in cotton mill communities especially. The association will also establish a monthly paper in Greensboro.

Charles Mobley, a young white man who was arrested in Greensboro a few weeks ago for breaking into and robbing a store at Siler City, last week escaped from jail at Pittsboro, where he was awaiting trial at the next term of Chatham Superior court.

An order has been placed for a fine pipe organ for West Market Street Methodist church. The organ will be built according to specifications furnished by the finest pipe organ architect in the country and is to cost $5,000. The instrument is to be installed within four months.

The Hotel Huflin is to be enlarged again. The alley between the building and Mr. D. R. Huflin's bottling works is to be made a part of the hotel, one end of the addition to be used as a kitchen and the other as an office. The dining room will be enlarged by taking in the space at present utilized by the office.

The local committee of arrangements for the big reunion of former residents of North Carolina, to be held in Greensboro next October, had a conference a few days ago with Mr. S. H. Hardwick, general passenger agent, and Mr. R. L. Vernon, traveling passenger agent of the Southern Railway, in regard to reduced rates for the occasion. The conference was very satisfactory and it is believed that very low rates will be granted for those who visit Greensboro during the reunion.

Can't Send After Whiskey.

Since the law prohibiting the shipping of whiskey into High Point went into effect, those citizens of the town who imbibe in alcoholic stimulants are sometimes put to more or less trouble in purchasing spirits. Formerly it was an easy matter to 'phone a saloon in Greensboro to send a case of whiskey or a crate of beer on the next express, but now the man with a thirst must either come after the goods himself or order from some point outside the state. The law does not even permit a man to send some one over to Greensboro on the train to make a purchase. A man who was ignorant as to this point came near getting into trouble last week. He sent a messenger after a gallon of old corn liquor, but the messenger, unfortunately, got drunk and landed in the lock-up. The thirsty citizen came to Greensboro the following day to bail out the prisoner, but asked that the gallon of whiskey be delivered to him first. He was sorely disappointed when he learned that the liquor had either been stolen or consumed and threatened to allow his messenger to remain in jail for his carelessness. When informed that both he and the messenger were liable to indictment under the law, he put up the amount of the prisoner's bond and hastened out of town.

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from Asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c, and $1.00. Guaranteed by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Manager Wanted.

Trustworthy, either sex, by wholesale merchandise company of solid financial standing, to manage local representatives who will organize clubs among consumers, 40 per cent. saved for our customers. Business no experiment but a proven success. Salary $18.00 a week, expenses advanced. Experience unnecessary. Address D. B. CLARKSON, Mgr., 334 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill. S-7t

Fewer gallons; wears longer.

Child Burned to Death.

Little Pauline, the eight-year-old daughter of Mr. J. S. Moore, died last Thursday night from the effects of fatal burns received on the afternoon of that day. The little girl, in company with other children, stopped at the home of her grand-parents, Judge and Mrs. W. H. Eller, on her return from school. While the children were at play in the yard Mrs. Eller heard startled screams and ran out to find her little granddaughter enveloped in flames. Mrs. Eller hastily threw her skirt around the little girl, and, with the assistance of a negro man who was doing some painting around the house, the flames were extinguished, but not until the unfortunate little girl had been fatally burned. Mrs. Eller was also painfully burned, but not seriously. The little sufferer lingered until 10 o'clock at night, when she breathed her last.

The funeral was held from the home of Judge and Mrs. W. H. Eller, Friday afternoon, the service being conducted by Rev. Dr. H. W. Battle, pastor of the First Baptist church.

There had been no fire in the yard where the children were playing since the previous Tuesday and the manner in which the little girl's clothing became ignited is a mystery. It is supposed, however, that some one had dropped a match and that this became ignited while the little one was at play on the ground.

Benaja Items.

Deferred from last week.

Wheat is looking fine through this section.

The rains for the past two weeks have been unusually heavy.

Mr. J. L. Jones, of Brown Summit, visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Watson, of High Point, are visiting relatives here.

Miss Mattie Chrismon, of your city, is visiting her father, Mr. J. H. Chrismon.

Mr. A. A. Bevil, a popular knight of the grip, spent Sunday with his family.

Mr. D. R. Crowder visited his brother, Mr. R. W. Crowder, of Monroeton, Sunday.

Mr. Jack Richardson, who has been on the sick list for quite a while, was here Saturday.

Mr. J. M. Small, one of the Southern's cleverest conductors, visited relatives here the past week.

Mr. R. F. Hopkins, now of your city, visited his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hopkins, Sunday.

Miss Maud May, of Rudd, who has been visiting the Misses Millaway for several days, returned home Wednesday.

Our charming young friend, Miss Nona Millaway, spent a few days with Misses Carrie and Nannie Green last week.

Mrs. G. W. Lemons was called to Reidsville today, to attend the funeral of her niece, who has been an invalid for several years.

Mr. E. K. Skinnell, night operator here, who had the misfortune to get his shoulder dislocated some time ago, has resumed duty.

Mrs. Cyrus McMichael, of your city, who has been visiting her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rudd, for a few days, returned home yesterday.

Letter to J. Van Lindley,
Greensboro, N. C.

Dear Sir: You can afford the best, and your business experience has shown you that it is also the cheapest. If all men would learn this, they'd save a lot of money.

Devote Lead and Zinc costs a little more per gallon than mixed paints, but it takes fewer gallons to paint a house, and it wears longer. It is the cheapest paint in the world.

Mr. Frank A. Morse, druggist of Rutland, Vt., writes: "I ordered 15 gallons of your paint, thinking, from experience with mixed paints, that it would require that amount to cover my house. I used only 8 gallons."

Mr. M. Austin Belcher, of Winthrop, Mass., bought eleven gallons; he only used six.

Our agent at Morrisville, N. Y., Mr. E. N. Dexter, writes:

On every job I have sold, Devote Lead and Zinc has given good satisfaction and has taken a less quantity than expected.

We could make this letter a hundred times long with such examples.

Yours truly,

F. W. DEVOTE & Co.
New York.

P. S.—Odell Hardware Co. sells our paint.

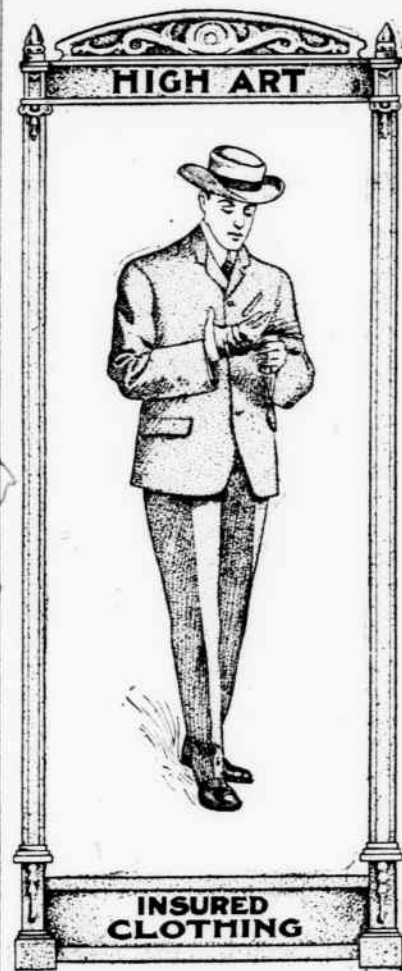

A dispatch from Reidsville, dated April 1st, says: "R. Huflines, Frank and Lucy Huflines were given a preliminary hearing this afternoon before Magistrate Johnson. They are charged with finding and concealing about seven hundred dollars belonging to J. R. Neal, of Gentry, this county. Frank Huflines and wife arrived from Danville yesterday. The old man today was sent to jail in default of bond."

A Prominent Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Rev. Francis J. Davidson, pastor of the St. Matthew Baptist church and president of the Third District Baptist Association, 231 Second St., New Orleans, writes as follows: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for cramps and pains in the stomach and found it excellent. It is in fact the best cramp and colic remedy I have ever used. Also several of my parishioners have used it with equally satisfactory results." For sale at Holton's drug store.

A negro driver for Dr. J. M. Covington, at Wadesboro, while the doctor was away, undertook to cure himself of headage by taking some of the doctor's medicine. Two days later, when the doctor got home, the negro was about dead, but his life was saved. He had taken four arsenic pills and some other stuff, the nature of which he did not know.

SPRING ATTRACTIONS!

Clothing, Hats and Furnishing Goods

now arriving daily.

The progressiveness of our house and the artistic fitting of our garments clearly demonstrate our leadership for good, reliable Clothing throughout this section.

Come and see our attractions. Lots that's new to you. You'll like the prices.

Vanstory Clothing Co.

The One Price Cash Clothiers.

ANY CHURCH or parsonage or institution supported by voluntary contribution will be given a liberal quantity of the Longman & Martinez Pure Paints whenever they paint.

Note: Have done so for twenty-seven years. Sales: tens of millions of gallons; painted nearly two million houses under guarantee to repaint if not satisfactory. The paint wears for periods up to eighteen years. Linseed Oil must be added to the paint (done in two minutes). Actual cost then about $1.25 a gallon. Samples free. Sold by our Agents: Southside Hardware Co., Greensboro; Gibsonville Store Co., Gibsonville; B. J. Sapp, Kernersville.

Baseball Goods!

We have just received a large line of Spalding's and Reo's Baseball Goods and Slugger Bats.

Call and see our line.

WHARTON BROS.

Booksellers and Stationers.

PROVIDENT SAVINGS

Life Assurance
Society of New York

DEPARTMENT OF THE CAROLINAS

Peacock & Gold

MANAGERS

D. Peacock. P. D. Gold.

Incubators

Incubators that incubate and Brooders that beat the old hen all hollow. If you want to know all about these valuable machines send your name and postoffice address to the undersigned and he will mail you catalogues and literature telling you about the price and handling. Every poultry raiser should have them. Every machine guaranteed to be as represented or money represented. It's the "Cyphers."

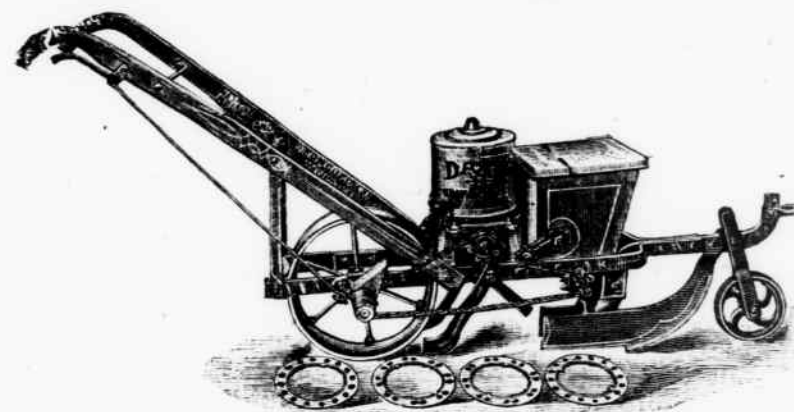

W. H. REES,
214 WEST GASTON ST.

VICK'S
YELLOW PINE

CURES WORST COUGHS AND LUNG DISEASES.

25 CENTS

Corn Planting Time

It is not far off now and we want to call your attention to our "Sure Crop" or Daisy Corn Planter, the cut of which you see above. Of course, as we are selling this planter, it would be perfectly natural for us to claim that "it is the very best planter made," but we will not do that for we don't know how many different kinds of planters there are in this big world, and it would be a mighty big statement to make to say that we had the best. But the farmers who have used this make of planter say that it is the best one sold in Greensboro, and they are usually the best judges of such things. If you want a planter which is simple, accurate, durable and easy to manage, we have it in our "Sure Crop." This planter has the corn box behind and each grain can be seen as it drops—no guess work about it. This planter will handle any kind of fertilizer, putting on from 20 to 450 pounds per acre. This planter will plant any depth—you can use your own judgment. This planter will handle any size grain. It has four corn rings and we give free one each pea and bean ring. This planter can be thrown in or out of gear without stopping the horse, which is not true of some other makes. This planter is the one for you to buy if you want a good one. This planter is fully guaranteed and you get your money back if it is not as we represent it. We want you to see it before making up your mind as to the kind you will buy this season. Yours for a "Sure Crop."

Wakefield Hardware Company

Our Imperial Chilled Plow is a winner.

THE PEOPLE

Perhaps know us best as a banking institution, but that is by no means our only line of business. The General Assembly of North Carolina, by a special act, has given us authority to act as Executor, Administrator, Guardian, Trustee, Assignee or Receiver. Making a corporation the Executor of your will or the Guardian of minor children, or having it act in any of the judiciary capacities in which you have been in the habit of seeing individuals will, no doubt, seem strange to you at first thought, but it is, after all, the most sensible way. Why? This corporation has assets of considerably over half a million dollars, all of which are responsible for the faithful performance of all trusts committed to it. Can you find an individual executor, guardian, etc., offering the same security? This corporation never dies unexpectedly leaving odds and ends of business which no one else can understand. Is it so with an individual? This corporation gives to every trust the best ability, care and attention of its officers and attorneys. Can an individual do more? If you are interested in the subject we will be glad to talk it over with you and give you any information you may desire.

GREENSBORO LOAN AND TRUST CO.

SPRING IS HERE!

AND SO ARE OUR

Spring Shoes

IN ALL THE LEADING STYLES.
IF IT IS QUALITY, SNAP AND STYLE YOU ARE LOOKING FOR,
WE ARE SURE TO PLEASE YOU.

The Peebles Shoe Company

ONE PRICE. 216 S. ELM ST.

WILL VOTE FOR BONDS.

Exsheriff Gilmer Tells Why Every Voter in the County Should Support the Good Roads Bond Issue.

EDITOR PATRIOT:—Will you please allow me space in your valuable columns to correct a statement going the round which is misleading as to my views and as to how I shall vote on the bond issue for good roads in the coming election? I learn that it is being circulated by opponents of the bond issue that I made the proposition that I would rather give for good road work $1,000 than to see Guilford county in debt. This proposition I did make when the bond issue was being agitated several months ago, and my plan then was, as everybody knows who heard me on this subject, that the county levy an additional tax and use the whole road force and road taxes and amounts subscribed along the different lines of county roads, as I proposed, in building macadam roads. As this bond issue proposes to do this, and being more than anxious to see our roads improved and the grand old county of Guilford keep pace with, if not lead, her sister counties in road improvement, and having made figures from a letter signed by our honorable board of county commissioners, from which anyone who can figure at all can see that this bond issue can and will do what it is proposed, I have no doubt every cent will be paid without an additional levy, and knowing the importance of this great work, and having the confidence in the equal distribution of the road work from this bond issue, I shall vote for the bond issue for good roads with all my might.

Mr. Editor, I look at this matter in this way: We are now paying a road tax to make roads of what is mud a great portion of the year and is no more than a makeshift. When we build roads by a bond issue we will be paying a road tax to build roads of stone, which will be permanent, and I honestly believe there will be but little difference, if any, in the amount of taxes paid by any one individual for road purposes. Through Jefferson township there is a stretch of public highway that the convict force repaired a few years ago, it being the first road worked in this township by the county force, which is now ready for the force again, and I learn that the board of county commissioners has promised parties living along this line to put the force on it again at an early date. Now, if this is to be done on all the roads every six or seven years, when will we have better roads? It looks to me we are as far advanced as we ever will be, if the present plan is continued, although we are paying taxes to improve our roads. Now is the time to start anew.

I don't believe a voter in Guilford county who gives this matter the proper study will vote against the bond issue, unless it be some voter or voters who have decided that their road would not be macadamized if other roads were. Just here let me say to such voters, you are now and are likely to continue paying a road tax and the board of county commissioners can spend it all on the other side of the county from you if they see proper, but not so with this bond issue fund, as the road law plainly says that all sections shall be treated equally and the road commission will, I have no doubt, endeavor to carry out the law as it is; and further, if the commissioners should fail to act as the road law directs, you would have the right to bring proceedings to stop them and the court would compel them to carry out the intent of the law as contemplated in the act. You are the voter above all others that should vote for a bond issue, something that makes you and your section equal with all others, which you are not now, except through the courtesy of the board of county commissioners, they having the right to use the road fund and force where they see proper.

This bond issue will come in the near future to sure as stock hauled in Guilford. Then why not it off? The sooner, the better. When once here and our roads are macadamized I will venture the assertion that there could not be a man found who would take for his interest in the public roads of Guilford county several times his position of the cost of building them.

Very respectfully,
J. H. GILMER.
Mill Point, N. C.

Higher Standard for Revenue Service.

A Washington official of the Internal Revenue department, in an interview a few days ago, stated that blockading was decreasing at a very gratifying rate and that a larger percentage of violators of the revenue laws were being captured and convicted. He also stated that there are fewer fatalities among revenue officers and deputy marshals than formerly, saying that only one man had been killed during the past year. A well-known officer stated in Greensboro a few days ago that he thought there were fewer accidents because the standard of the service has been raised, which is taken to mean that better men are employed than formerly. It is said that, during the past four or five years, only one deputy marshal has been killed in this district. During the time two deputies have been tried for killing men, but in each case an acquittal was secured, the defendant proving self-defense.

A Bear Hunt in Alamance.

A few days ago the tracks of a bear were seen on the farm of Capt. J. R. Stokard on the south side of Big Alamance creek and also on the north side of the creek on the Ruffin farm. Some one saw the animal at a distance last week and took it to be a very large black dog. It has caused some excitement and a party with plenty of dogs went out this morning to take a bear hunt. Whether they take in Mr. Bruin or not, in any event they will be as successful as Mr. Roosevelt when he went bear hunting in Mississippi. A bear escaped from an Italian near Greensboro a week or so ago and this is supposed to be the Italian's bear.

Too Great a Risk.

A reliable remedy for bowel complaints should always be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy never fails and when reduced with water is pleasant to take. For sale at Holton's drug store.

Methodist Preacher Goes Slumming.

Asheville Special to Charlotte Observer, 4th.

The fact was disclosed in police circles today that a number of Asheville ministers who are endeavoring to reform the social evil, in conjunction with the Anti-Saloon League campaign, had adopted Parkhurst methods of obtaining data by going slumming. Pastor Siler, of Central Methodist church, hoping to procure information which would enable the Ministers' Association to proceed intelligently, requested the companionship of a policeman and this being arranged made a visit to every house of ill-repute in the city. Dr. Siler remained long enough in each house to talk to the inmates, to find how long they had been there, and in some instances the influences that had led them to adopt such a life, and to make personal observations of value in a crusade against the places. The police officer introduced the pastor as a friend of his, giving a fictitious name, and at no place were the women aware until the following day that they were conversing with one of the most prominent ministers of the city. It was past the hour of midnight when the minister came away from the last house, but he went to police headquarters to relate his observations. Dr. Siler did not find quite the number of women that he expected, but was greatly surprised, he said, to see certain faces among the men in the places he entered. He thought the time had arrived for another raid by the police and to satisfy himself that it was legally as well as morally possible to close all the houses within the city limits, took home a copy of the city code, which he proposes to study carefully. Members of the Anti-Saloon League are very much in earnest in this effort to actually close every questionable house in the city.

A Horrible Double Murder.

A horrible double murder was committed near Whiteville, Columbus county, a few nights ago. Under cover of the rain and darkness the assassin or assassins crept up to the home of Mr. Jesse Soles, a prosperous farmer of that section, and shot both him and a colored man named Jim Staley as they sat by the fire. The house was then fired and the bodies of the two men partially burned, only their charred trunks having been found in the destroyed home the following day.

The bodies could not be identified except by the keys found by the larger man. These keys were always carried by Mr. Soles and as he was the larger man it was naturally supposed to be his remains.

The motive for the deed was evidently robbery. The negro Jim Staley was reported to have from $500 to $1,000, and Mr. Soles had about $75 in the house. No trace of this was found in the ashes of the burnt building and as part of the money was gold and silver it is believed to have been stolen.

Several shots were heard in the direction of Soles' home about 7:30 o'clock on the night the crime was committed and later that night several saw the light from the burning home.

A coroner's jury was empaneled and an investigation made. This resulted in nothing more than a strong suspicion being formed. The investigation was not finished and the jury will meet at Whiteville today to complete their work.

A Big Plant.

The Carolina Steel Bridge and Construction Company, which has recently established a big plant in Burlington, for the manufacture of steel bridges and other structural work, is now ready for business and is meeting with gratifying success. The company occupies the old North Carolina Railroad shop buildings and has a working capital of $200,000. The business is in the hands of the following capable gentlemen:

E. P. Wharton, president, Greensboro.
Z. V. Taylor, vice president, Greensboro.
M. E. Mottinger, secretary and treasurer, Burlington.
R. W. Curtis, manager, Burlington.
L. C. Carter, chief engineer, Burlington.
John C. Ort, shop superintendent, Burlington.
The board of directors is composed of the following gentlemen:
Geo. W. Watts, Durham.
Eugene Holt, Burlington.
John Karr, Hackettstown, N. J.
E. P. Wharton, Greensboro.
Jas. N. Williamson, Jr., Burlington.
R. W. Curtis, Burlington.
M. T. Welsh, German Valley, N. J.
Z. V. Taylor, Greensboro.
George W. Anthony, Burlington.

Churches and Schools Incorporated.

The state liquor law known as the Watts act was supposed to do away with the necessity for the usual omnibus bill, but a large number of representatives seemed to have some doubt about it and a larger omnibus bill than usual was passed, after having been carefully drawn. This bill has just been printed for distribution by the secretary of state. The distance which churches and school houses are incorporated against the sale and manufacture of liquor varies from one to four miles, and some of the counties have a large number incorporated. The counties in which churches and schools are incorporated in the omnibus act are as follows: Anson, Davidson, Moore, Beaufort, Carteret, Columbus, Chowan, Guilford, Alexander, Henderson, Granville, Burke, Hyde, Jones, Montgomery, Nash, Northampton, Pitt, Polk, Rockingham, Randolph, Rutherford, Surry, Stokes, Union, Wake, Washington, Wilkes, Alleghany, Davie, Bladen, Craven, Caldwell, Catawba, Duplin, Greene, Haywood, Iredell, Jackson, Lincoln, Mitchell, Mecklenburg, Person, Perquimans, Tyrrell, Rowan, Wayne, Graham, Stanly, Alamance, Robeson and Watauga.

Good for Children.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of Cough, Croup and LaGrippe because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues. Howard Gardner.

It is said a fear that American and German tars might clash determined the President's declaration to send the

VIRGIN'S WILD CAREER.

Checkered Life of a Supposed Safe Cracker and Gambler.

Asheville, April 3.—The story of the arrest in Charlotte of E. P. Virgin and W. F. Adams, suspected of having blown open the postoffice safe at Mt. Olive, was read with peculiar interest by a gentleman in this city, who has an intimate knowledge of the former's career. Virgin, says this gentleman, was born in New Orleans of highly respected parents. He, however, drifted from under home influence and going to Greenville, Miss., became the owner of a gambling house, which was patronized by the poker pirates of the Mississippi river. Virgin's notoriety, according to a story he himself gave this Asheville gentleman, spread the full length of the river, and his luck was so phenomenal that it reached the point at which even the most expert players feared to engage in the game with him. Ultimately the authorities closed down on Virgin, as his place became notorious as headquarters for wine and women. The women he brought from New Orleans and were of the Creole type.

After his departure from Greenville he "played the races" in New Orleans, and from that city he went to Central America, where he remained for a couple of years in an endeavor to live down his unsavory reputation. Returning to the United States, he went to Chicago, and in answering an advertisement for a shipping clerk, found that in reality a detective was wanted, and that the advertisement had been inserted in a morning paper by the Pinkerton agency. After several visits extending over a period of two weeks, he was given employment as one of the Pinkerton men in the Chicago division. While engaged in this service he had a number of thrilling experiences, one of them being the effort to recapture Buck Davis, a desperate character who escaped from the state penitentiary at Nashville, Tenn., along with a score of other prisoners, a year or so ago.

Virgin has a wife, and a daughter six years old in or near Louisville, Ky. The daughter is an exceptionally beautiful child, having been awarded a valuable prize at a child's prize beauty show in Chicago.

Shot His Father.

Concord, April 4.—Mr. James A. Ashby, of the northern part of this county, was shot and killed yesterday by his son, who was about sixteen years old. Early yesterday morning Mr. Ashby arose and began chastising his daughter because she did not get up at once and get his breakfast. The boy took the part of his sister, and in the row shot his father with a shotgun. Dr. Rogers was summoned and found Ashby shot in the abdomen with No. 6 shot. He did all he could, but the shot had reached vital parts and Ashby died yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock. It is said that an ante-mortem statement was made in which he said that he did not wish his son prosecuted, as the boy was not to blame. Immediately after the shooting the boy mounted a horse and has not returned, though he has been seen in the neighborhood.

James Ashby was a rather rough character. The sympathy of the community is with the boy. No effort has been made so far to apprehend him.

To Repair Elton College.

Christian Sun.

We congratulate Miss Jennie Herndon on having secured for the college $500 with which the college building is to be painted and new stone steps are to be placed at the three main entrances to the building. Miss Herndon has proven herself quite a valuable friend to the college, this being the second instance in which she has raised a handsome sum with which to do some special and needed work on the college building. We understand the work is to begin soon after Easter and is to be completed before commencement. Mr. Root, L. Holt, of Burlington, who has previously shown much interest in the college and proven himself to be a substantial friend, was one who made the raising of this amount possible and in sending his check for the $500 of the above amount Mr. Holt writes: "I hope to see the building nicely painted for commencement." The college is always grateful for such good friends.

Money in Broom Corn.

Raleigh Post.

President Dudley, of the A. & M. College, Greensboro, referring to a recent suggestion of The Post that he induce nearby farmers to raise broom corn for the factory just established at the college, writes:

"In response to your suggestion as to growing broom corn I beg to state that antipathizing this new industry I requested our farmers to plant broom corn, and that which we are now using was raised on our (college) farm."

If there is another plant in operation in this state where brooms are made, The Post would be glad to hear of it, and specially from whence the material used is obtained, and what per cent. thereof is grown in this state.

There is profit in the culture of broom corn, and unquestionably there should be profit in the manufacture of brooms of the various kinds used, and our people ought to reap these profits.

How the Roads Are Worked in Rutherford.

Rutherfordton Cor. Charlotte Observer.

If there is any subject in which our people are more vitally interested than any other, it is in the establishment of good roads. Heretofore what little we have done has been done by main strength and awkwardness. A few days before court, spring and fall, the overseer gets out and throws around here and there a few spadeful of dirt, cuts down a few pine bushes, puts them in the holes and covers them up, and about 4 o'clock in the afternoon calls the road force to prayer—the burden being that it may not rain before the court convenes—pronounces the benediction and dismisses the congregation. No permanent good is done the roads, and those who have to attend court have come to dread the mud made and created by the road overseers. The roads are neither ditched, sloped or drained. The whole road system as now administered is a farce.

The Newbern Journal says that Mr. J. B. Ashford, of Kinston, has been made an honorary member of the In-

PLENTY OF BARBED WIRE

CAN BE HAD OF THE SOUTHSIDE HARDWARE COMPANY

CAR LOAD JUST RECEIVED

ALSO A LARGE STOCK OF POULTRY NETTING
SEE US BEFORE YOU BUY

The Southside Hardware Co.

525 SOUTH ELM STREET.

Water Power and Farm for Sale.

One mile from Jamestown, four miles from High Point. In rural graded school district. Five hundred acres of land, 100 acres in good state of cultivation, 300 acres under wire in three separate pastures. Thousands of cords of wood and good home market. Best water power in county, 30-foot fall of Deep River on place, 18 feet now developed and in use. Two new corn mills now running. (Roller mill burned last May.) Best stand for roller mill in the county. Buildings for everything and all of them in good shape. Everything goes, including farming machinery of every kind needed (all practically new) for $7,500.

This property was never offered before for less than $10,000. This is a very low price, but have good reasons for wanting to make a quick sale. Will exchange for good city property. Photographs to parties meaning business.

O. C. BENBOW,
Jamestown, N. C.

The SPRING OPENING

At Mrs. Nannie C. Weatherly's Millinery Parlors is On

Her stock is complete in every particular.

I Have All Grades of Corn, Cotton and Tobacco Fertilizers

Also Wood's Seed Irish Potatoes, Flour and Shipstuffs, Good Green Coffee at 8 and 10 cents a pound.

Just received a shipment of Pratt's Stock and Poultry Food. This is the best stock and poultry food on the market. All size packages.

Market price paid for chickens, eggs, corn and wheat.

100 cords of pine and oak wood for sale.

J. F. ROSS

Pleasant Garden, N. C.

Stop! Think! Investigate!

Come and make arrangements for the loan of money. Get you a home. Stop paying rents. Payments like paying rent. Agent having returned, will be at his office, 114 East Sycamore street, to wait on you. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M.

W. L. Thurber,
Special Agent for Georgia, North and South Carolina. 1-1f

Notice by Publication.

North Carolina, Guilford county, In the Superior Court.

George O. Hoskins, W. H. Hoskins, J. G. Gamble and wife Harriet Gamble, J. A. Hoskins, Annie K. Blair, Harwood and wife Hattie H. Harwood, Carrie Hoskins, Clark H. Hoskins, Cornelius Knight and wife Susan H. Knight, and Emma H. Meddars, plaintiffs, vs.

David A. Hoskins, James E. Blair, Dan W. Hoskins, Newton C. Hoskins, John Hoskins, Charles Hoskins, Eugene Hoskins, John F. Hoskins, ———— Holson and wife Leila H. Holson, and Clyde Hancock, defendants.

The defendants above named will take notice that an action entitled as above has been commenced in the Superior court of said county to sell the land of the late Ed J. Hoskins for partition, the said land being situate in Summerfield township in said county; and the said defendants will further take notice that they are required to appear before the Clerk of the Superior Court of said county at his office in the court house in said county on or before the 15th day of April, 1903, and answer or demur to the complaint in said action, or the plaintiffs will apply to said court for the relief therein demanded.

This 12th day of March, 1903.

JOHN J. NELSON, C. S. C.

G. S. Bradshaw, Attorney for Plaintiffs.

A Model Home

In the country, four miles southwest from the city. Ninety-four acres of land; fifty acres in high state of cultivation, with all kinds of fruit, including grapes and strawberries. Splendid buildings and plenty of them. Forty acres in fine wood—oak and pine. This place must be sold and sold quick. Big sacrifice in price. Worth $4,000, but can be had now at only $2,500. See me at once.

S. S. BROWN, Agent

Down's Early Risers
The famous little pills.

NOW FOR SOMETHING NEW FOR SPRING!

We are now showing the newest things out in Men's Wear.

The "New Soc" is only one of the many styles just out for young men.

You are invited to call and see the "Princeton" and Gramarcy." These are shown only by

The Merritt-Johnson Co.

Clothiers and Gents' Furnishers, 308 S. Elm St.

SALESMEN—Thos. A. Walker, Chas. A. Tucker, C. C. Johnson, J. W. Merritt.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

Correspondence of the PATRIOT.

Washington, April 6.—Some remarkable instances of lack of harmony in Republican ranks have come to light during the past week. In an extraordinary speech Secretary Root has announced that there must be no "tariff tinkering," that the sacred Dingley schedules must not even be touched before election, nor at a short session, and, as the session following the election will be short, this postpones the "tariff revision by its friends," of which Mr. Root talks so confidently, until the winter of 1905-'06. Secretary Shaw has taken occasion to deprecate all tariff revision, not even holding out the promise of a reform in the system in 1905. Mr. Shaw urges that high prices bring prosperity and the trusts and all their attendant evils are to be preferred to competition. No tariff revision for the present and probably none for the future, this seems to be the sum and substance of Republican doctrine.

There is a seriously discordant voice in the Republican concert, however, a voice which, now that there is no election at hand, dares to tell the truth. It is that of Representative Babcock, of Wisconsin, who cries out against the dilatory tactics of his party and frankly states that the Dingley tariff law is robbing the American people of millions of dollars, is transferring from the pockets of the people to those of the Steel Trust alone upwards of $80,000,000 annually. This is how Mr. Babcock explains the situation. He says that protection means the equalization of the cost of American labor. On an article which costs to produce in this country $1.25 and which, because of cheaper labor, can be produced abroad for $1, Mr. Babcock would place a tariff of 25 cents and he unhesitatingly says that every cent of tariff above that amount means the robbing of the people. The Steel Trust can produce steel cheaper here than it can be produced anywhere else in the world, therefore the tariff of nearly $18 per ton which is now assessed is actually a license to the trust to rob the American people of that amount on every ton. What the Republicans will do to Mr. Babcock when they learn that he has talked thus to a newspaper correspondent remains to be seen.

Great expectations have been entertained with regard to the President's speeches in the west and those members of his party who looked for some encouragement in the nature of a promise of tariff relief have been disappointed. The President has already demonstrated that he has been converted to the "stand pat" policy of Mr. Hanna and other high protectionists. Amusement is expressed in Washington at a trick of which Mr. Roosevelt was guilty in Milwaukee. He pretended to quote in entirety his famous Minneapolis speech, but attempted to take advantage of the memory of his audience and omitted without reference one of the most important statements made in that speech. In his speech of September 2, 1901, Mr. Roosevelt, then Vice President, said: "The vast individual and corporate fortunes, the vast combinations of capital which have marked the development of our industrial system, create new conditions and necessitate a change from the old attitude of state and nation toward property." These words the President deliberately omitted without reference to or explanation of the omission. In the opinion of Democratic statesmen no clearer evidence is required that Mr. Roosevelt has abandoned the cause of the people and espoused that of the capitalist and the monopolist.

It is stated in Washington on excellent authority that the President has sharply rebuked Secretary Shaw because of the latter's activity in making changes in the personnel of the Treasury staff. Heretofore Mr. Shaw has had free scope in the making of changes. He has been permitted to get rid of Secretary Spaulding and to promote his private secretary, Armstrong, a young man only 29 years old, to the important position of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury. Recently, however, Secretary Shaw has listened to charges preferred by Wilbur F. Wakeman, whom Mr. Roosevelt deposed, against George Robinson, whom the President appointed Assistant Appraiser only two weeks ago, and the Secretary is now investigating Robinson. The Secretary has also stirred up trouble in the Chicago custom house, and the President has apparently put a quietus on this extraordinary activity on the part of his Secretary of the Treasury.

Secretary Root has issued further instructions with regard to the inspection of militia regiments by officers of the regular army, prior to their enrollment as proper troops. The Secretary instructs that only thoroughly competent officers be charged with the duty of inspection and that they refrain from undue formality in the performance of their duty. He urges that the militia be provided with magazine guns of the required type as soon as possible so that they may become accustomed to handling and drilling with them. In every instance the officer charged with making the inspection is instructed to first confer with the adjutant-general of the state with regard to the most convenient time and place for the inspection which may, and probably will, in many instances take place during the annual encampment.

Although the President and Mrs. Roosevelt are out of the city, improvements at the White House are still being made. On the long terraces at each end of the main building have been placed rare trees and shrubs, including a number of Dutch green bay trees which have been especially imported for the purpose at a cost of approximately $200 each. All of the trees and shrubs are grown in tubs so that they may be removed to a place of safety in cold weather.

An instance of the mistake the government makes in dealing on a purely arbitrary basis with the Indians came to light this week. A delegation of Feathered Indians have come to Washington to protest against a ruling of the Secretary of the Interior whereby every Indian is compelled to pay a tax of $1 per head for all cattle he pastures in excess of 100 head on the reservation. This, the Indians claim, was ordered without consultation with them and amounts to putting a tax on enterprise. The amount collected is redistributed pro rata among the Indians so that the lazy, shiftless members of the tribe profit at the expense of those more

Stabbed by a Drunken Man.

Wilmington Special to Charlotte Observer, April 2nd.

Last night between 8 and 9 o'clock, while in the act of defending the home of a widowed sister-in-law from the disorder of a young man who had formerly boarded there and returned under the influence of liquor, Mr. Roderick MacRae, engineer at the Wilmington Cotton Mills and a member of one of the most prominent families in Wilmington, was seriously and probably fatally stabbed by Samuel L. Mann, who was lately employed in the health department of the city. Mr. MacRae is an unmarried man and boarded with a brother about half a block distant from the scene of the trouble. His brother and he received a message from their sister-in-law, widow of the late Dixon MacRae, saying that Mann was at the house and refused to go away when ordered to do so by her. They at once went to the house and ordered the obstreperous young man off the premises. Mann went into the street and commenced to curse in a loud and very vehement manner. Mr. W. W. MacRae, the wounded man's brother, hastened to the nearest telephone to summon an officer but before he could return an altercation had ensued in which Mr. Roderick MacRae was stabbed in the left breast, penetrating the lungs, and had been severely gashed back of the left shoulder, on the head, and on the right arm, between the wrist and elbow. Mann was arrested two hours later on his way to the hospital for treatment of a flesh wound in the right leg, just above the knee. He is now being held without bail, pending the result of Mr. MacRae's injuries. When seen by The Observer correspondent, he refused to make a statement, only saying that liquor was the cause of all the trouble. Mr. MacRae says that he was unarmed and the assault upon him was unprovoked. The affair is greatly deplored. Mr. MacRae is very quiet in his disposition and is not the man one would take to start a difficulty. He is about 50 years of age, while Mann is scarcely 25.

A Bank Clerk Short $94,000.

Atlanta, April 4.—G. Hallman Sims, collection clerk for the Capital City National Bank, has been placed under arrest by United States Deputy Marshal Scott, upon a warrant sworn out by President Spear, of the bank, charging Sims with embezzling a sum estimated at nearly $94,000. Sims is now held at the Piedmont Hotel by the deputy marshal. He refuses to talk about the affair.

The first suspicion of a shortage in Sims' accounts arose yesterday. Expert accountants immediately began work on the books and it was soon disclosed that large sums had been abstracted at various times, extending back several years. The warrant was then sworn out by the president of the bank. Sims had been in the service of the bank for 8 years and was considered one of their most trusted employees. He moved in exclusive circles of Atlanta society and was a young man of fashion.

Prominent outside bankers have made a thorough examination of the bank's condition and have given out a signed statement that it is absolutely safe. A portion of the defalcation is covered by Sims' bond and he also owns some property, which will be turned over to the bank. The directors state that the amount of the defalcation has already been charged to undivided profits. National Bank Examiner Desautels also states that the bank is in no danger.

Sims, who has admitted his guilt, will be prosecuted by the United States government. He is unmarried and is the son of Thos. L. Sims, a prominent merchant of Kirkwood, one of Atlanta's suburbs.

To Force Bryan to Bolt?

Washington Special to Baltimore Sun.

According to information from a source worthy of consideration, a deliberate plan is afoot to drive Hon. W. J. Bryan either to bolt the party after the next Democratic national convention or else keep absolutely silent during the campaign. The proposition advanced is that the platform may be so worded in some particular as to give him mortal offense.

The plan was learned by a correspondent of The Sun today from a Southern Democratic leader in Congress. He is a Gorman follower, who believes that with the Maryland senator the Democrats would win.

It is not known that Mr. Gorman gives the proposition his approval, but it is evident that much of his following believes that Bryan should be put out of active politics in the future.

It seems there is an element of the reorganizationists holding to the opinion that the thing greatly to be desired is not harmony between the actual followers of Bryan and the Democrats of the other extreme of the party, but the entire elimination of Bryan and all who will insist upon following him. It is represented that this element would be delighted at a situation which would compel Bryan to bolt the convention and that they propose to do all they can to bring it about.

Page Did not Dine With Negroes.

Rev. C. G. Vardell in the Charlotte Observer.

I was at first somewhat amused and then a little annoyed at the criticisms that have been passed on my friend, Dr. Walter H. Page, and the circumstances attending the dinner given by the Unitarian Club, at Hotel St. Denis, at which time it is alleged that Dr. Page dined with a negro. The facts are briefly these: The Unitarian Club numbering with its guests, two hundred or more, met for a discussion, the dinner was incidental, no negroes were invited to the dinner; but two came in when the dinner was supposed to be over to hear the discussion, just as they might have gone to a hall where there had been no dinner.

Mr. G. C. Eggleston was invited to speak on "The South as It Used to Be"; Mr. Bladwin on "The South as It Is," and Dr. Page was on "The South as It Is to Be." I was at the time a guest of Dr. Page and was invited to the dinner. I listened to the addresses with interest. Nothing was said that was hurtful and very much that was in true sympathy with and helpful to the South. Allow me then to say that Dr. Page in no sense dined with a negro and the whole matter is a mistake.

Secretary Shaw's bond-refunding scheme is one of the steps taken to relieve the customary money stringency

BRYAN ON REORGANIZATION.

The Nebraskan is Suspicious of Those Who Want Harmony.

Hon. William J. Bryan was one of the speakers at a Jefferson banquet held in Des Moines, Iowa, last week. In the course of his remarks he said:

"Harmony, like happiness, is not secured by seeking for it; it comes as the reward of right doing. Harmony is a thing to be felt, not a thing to be talked about. The mere mention of harmony suggests differences that need reconciliation, and the vociferous talk about harmony among those who disturbed it, left the party and lent their influence to the enemy, naturally recalls the issues that created the disturbance and naturally suggests the inquiry whether the prodigals have repented, or demand repentance of the party. The difference which existed on the money question still exists, for while the Republicans are boasting that the money question is settled, money is tight in the great financial centers, and the financiers of this country are resorting to extraordinary methods to get enough money into circulation to carry on business.

"On the trust question the same line of cleavage appears. The men who threatened a panic if silver was restored, now threaten a panic if the trusts are disturbed, and the trust magnates are casting about for a Democratic candidate so much like a Republican that the trusts can rest easy, no matter what candidate is elected.

"Reorganization means retreat, and retreat means demoralization and disaster. From the low standpoint of expedience, retreat could not be justified. The party polled nearly a million more votes in support of the Chicago and Kansas City platforms than were polled by Mr. Cleveland, even before his political crimes were exposed. What would be the result today, if the standard were put in the hands of men, known to be unfaithful to Democratic principles, or even in the hands of those that are known to be faithful? But there is a sordidness about the arguments made by the reorganizers which ought to disgust any well-meaning or high-minded citizen. It is really insulting to a man to intimate that he thinks it is more important that we get control of the administration than that we administer power in accordance with Democratic principles and in the interest of people at large.

"To say that a right principle must be dropped because the party has suffered defeat in support of the principle is as ridiculous as it is cowardly. The Democratic party has been defeated more often on the tariff issue than any other issue, and yet that is the issue that the reorganizers would make the paramount one. The trust question was an issue both in 1896 and in 1900, and there is as much reason for declaring that the elections vindicated private monopolies as to say that they vindicated the gold standard. In 1900, the trust question was more discussed than the money question, and yet the people who want to drop the money question pretend to feel an interest in the trust question. Imperialism was the paramount issue in 1900 and overshadowed all others, and yet those who are opposed to imperialism would not be willing to drop that issue.

"While circumstances determine the emphasis that should be placed upon particular issues, no party can afford to abandon a righteous position once taken for fear that to maintain it would be unpopular."

Government Crop Report.

The monthly crop report of the Agricultural department is as follows: General conditions indicate that winter wheat is in very promising condition generally. The crop has wintered well and is now making vigorous growth in all sections. Too rank growth is reported from limited areas in Kentucky, and some damage by water on lowlands in Maryland and the lower Ohio and Central Mississippi Valleys. Fall sown oats are making vigorous growth in the Southern states with excellent prospects, although seriously damaged by frost in some portions.

Little corn is planted north of the Gulf states and while the bulk of the crop is planted in Florida and planting is general in Texas, it has been greatly delayed by excessive moisture and is confined so far to the uplands. The early planting is up and the stand is fair, and in extreme southern Texas is receiving its first cultivation.

Cotton planting is in progress in southern Georgia and eastern South Carolina. Very little has been planted in Alabama and Florida. Preparations are general for this work in Louisiana and Mississippi, except in the flooded districts. In Texas the crop is being planted in the central and southern portions, and some is coming up.

Serious injury to the peach crop by frost is reported from nearly all sections east of the Mississippi and from Oklahoma and northern Texas.

John S. Wise on the Negro Question.

John S. Wise, formerly a member of congress from Virginia, spoke on the negro question at a dinner in New York a few days ago. The attitude of the nation, he said, toward the question has all along been that of indolence. No white man, he asserted, would subscribe to a policy that meant ultimately a blight upon the race to which he belonged.

"It is idle today," he said, "to try to enforce laws permitting the negro franchise. He cannot find a white man, no matter where he lives, or under what circumstances, who will subscribe to a policy that means eventually a possible negro domination. There is only one solution to the negro question. The nation must recede from the position taken by it on the matter of negro suffrage. The nation must remit to the state control of the suffrage issue. This may be a great concession, but it is a concession of sound common sense.

"By reducing the question of suffrage to a sensible basis you will touch the tender spot of the Southerner. I am one myself, and I know it will reach my heart. You soon must tell the negro that he cannot have all that he expects; you will have to tell him this at the cost of a race war among ourselves.

You Know What You Are Taking

When you take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic because the formula is plainly printed on every bottle showing that it is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form.

Your Spring Suit

Are you in need of a Spring Suit? If so we can supply your wants in prices and quality in Suits handsomely tailored and patterns of the latest fabrics. Note some prices below:

$15 Buys an English Worsted

FANCY OR PLAIN.

$10 Buys a Worsted

FANCY OR PLAIN.

$5 Buys a Gray Cassimere

Be sure and examine our line before buying.

I. L. BLAUSTEIN

The One Price Cash Clothier, 304 S. Elm St.

Successor to Will H. Matthews.

War to the Knife Against Saloons.

The campaign against the saloon in North Carolina under the Watts act was formally started in Raleigh last week, when the state executive committee of the Anti-Saloon League elected a manager of the campaign, appointed a day for the convention and authorized a formal address to the people of the state.

The convention was called for July 7. It is expected that the entire state will be represented, and that the banner of the moral forces will be raised aloft in a great convention of men who believe earnestly in moral supremacy.

Mr. J. W. Bailey was chosen manager of the campaign. There are already a number of campaigners in readiness, and he said last night that he expected to hear from many volunteer campaigners. It is not unlikely that some of the foremost public men of the state will take a strong part in this movement.

Upon the testimony of persons who stated that they had been intoxicated by the medicine, the authorities of Lumberton have forbidden the sale of Peruna in that town.

Buyers

Pine, Poplar and Oak Lumber, Shingles, Lath, Flooring, Ceiling, Siding.

Correspondence solicited.

Sellers

Doors, Sash, Blinds, Paints and Oil. Everything usually manufactured in an up-to-date wood-working factory.

Yellow pine and quartered oak finish. Also locally, in Greensboro and vicinity, contractors and builders of small and medium dwellings, repairs and additions, sheds, fences, shelving and counters.

Greensboro Lumber Company
Greensboro, N. C.

J. H. NEESE

MONUMENTS

and Headstones, Marble Doors and Window Sills and Floor Tile.

LA GRIPPE

AND COLDS

Why will you suffer when a 25-cent box of

Helms' Harmless Cold and Grippe Capsules

will cure you?

Sent by mail on receipt of price if you can't get them from your druggist. They have no equal, so take no other. Buist's Fresh Garden Seeds.

Foreign and Domestic Soaps and Perfumes.

Cigars and Tobacco. And anything in the drug and sundry line to be found in a first-class drug store. Give us a call. Will be pleased to serve you. Prescription work a specialty. W. B. Barker, Prescriptionist.

J. D. HELMS

The Grissom & Fordham stand, Opp. McAdoo Hotel, Greensboro, N. C.

Save a Little

EACH WEEK

Subscribe for stock in the Pioneer Building and Loan Association. Twenty-five cents per share. Second series now open for subscription. Splendid investment. Excellent opportunity to save rent.

J. E. DELLINGER, President.
JAS. B. DUDLEY, Sec.-Treas.

Barred Plymouth Rocks

We have fine Cockerels for sale that were hatched in May, 1902. Weigh from 9½ to 10 pounds.

Cottage Grove Farm
Greensboro, N. C.

GARDNER'S CHILL PILLS CURE

50¢ GUARANTEED BY DRUGGISTS 50¢
NORTH STATE CHEMICAL CO.

IF YOU NEED A

CLOCK

COME TO US FOR IT

We have a new and very carefully selected line of clocks of every description, from the loud alarm at 85 cents to the very finest French and American makes. Come in and look them over and see if we cannot suit you in style and price.

Rosenblatt & Co.

110 SOUTH ELM ST.
Next Hotel Guilford.

Sydnor & Hundley

RICHMOND, VA.

HEADQUARTERS FOR

Bridal Suites!

Virginia's Leading Furniture House begs to extend a happy New Year's greeting to our many friends and patrons in North Carolina, and to assure them that our stock of Furniture and kindred branches will, in the future as in the past be STRICTLY UP TO THE TIMES.

Sydnor & Hundley

709-713 E. Broad St., Richmond, Va.

VICK'S TAR HEEL SARSAPARILLA

50 CENTS.

NEWS FROM ALL AROUND.

High Point Enterprise.

Mr. M. J. Wrenn's palatial residence is nearing completion as far as the exterior goes. He hopes to finish the interior and be in the house in sixty days.

The many friends of Mrs. A. P. Staley were pleased to see her out last week. She has been confined to her room since the early fall.

Mr. J. H. Drake, of the Southern freight department, was a visitor here Friday. He has just returned from Cuba and is on fire with enthusiasm as to the prospect of trade relations with that country.

Mr. C. C. Muse received a telegram last week stating that on that day his father, Mr. A. B. Muse, had been stricken with paralysis, at his home at Harrison, N. C. Mr. Muse left at once for the bedside of his father. He returned Saturday and reported him some better.

Rev. A. S. Caldwell has resigned the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church of Hight Point to take effect April 30th. Mr. Caldwell will not resume active ministerial work for some time, as private business interests demand his attention. His home will be in Charlotte after May 1st.

The Enterprise was gratified to learn this week that a local fire insurance company would be organized here at once. The capital stock of $50,000 has already been subscribed by some of the business men here and in adjoining communities and it is expected that an organization will be effected next week, when the officers will be named.

The problem of giving reading facilities to the hundreds of young men in the city will probably be solved by the churches of the community. Last Sunday Rev. W. M. Bagby, pastor Washington Street M. E. church, suggested for his congregation the inauguration of a reading room in connection with the church. Mr. Bagby is very much in favor of such a plan for his people and thinks that it would be helpful to the community if all the churches adopt similar methods.

There were perhaps 600 people at the Friends church last night to witness the marriage of William N. Tullock and Miss Geneva Farlow. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. Eli Reese. The contracting parties stood under a white parasol while the minister made them one. They entered the church in the following order: The bride with her cousin Mr. Elbert Farlow, of Philadelphia, the groom with his best man, Mr. J. S. Beavers. The ushers were Ed L. Hagan, Bascom Hoskins, Ernest Bennett and Junius Gray. The ceremony over, the bridal party repaired to Farlow's restaurant on Main street, where a most sumptuous repast was served to a few special friends.

Mr. Airy News.

The starting up of the Laurel Bluff cotton mills will help the Bluff section and this place. We need lots of manufacturing and other enterprises—we haven't enough yet.

Mr. John Banner is closing up contracts for the building of a large tobacco warehouse on the vacant lot between the livery stables of Messrs. Rierson & Samuels and the residence of Mr. W. F. Banner on Franklin street. The building will be of wood, but the roof will be of metal.

The work on the Mt. Airy ice factory is progressing nicely, and in a short time our enterprising citizen, Mr. Joyce, will be shipping ice to other points instead of bringing it to this place.

Farms on Stewart's creek were riddled by the terrible floods a week ago. Numbers of acres of fine land on the different streams near this place have been ruined for many years to come.

The city jail was nearly full of negroes last week, charged with retailing liquor without license. The arrests were made by the sheriff and police officers, and a number of those arrested were guilty of flagrant violations of the law.

Quite a severe storm from the east struck this city last Sunday night, the wind at times rattling things in a terrific manner. We have not heard of a great deal of damage. One barn on Mr. J. M. Durham's land was blown down. A few trees were uprooted and considerable glass blown out of windows. A section of the roof of the Farmers' warehouse was blown off and other property injured slightly. Numbers of people in this city spent a sleepless night.

Winston Chronicle.

Considerable frost and ice last week. Fruit is injured some, but it is thought that if there is no further damage the crop will yet be a good one.

There were several from the region about Congo postoffice who left last week for Shady Valley, Tenn. Among them were Lee Parson and family, William Minton and family and others. They were all inhabitants of what is known as the "Red Bresh" section.

The fellows who didn't get appointed as United States commissioner honestly believe that Judge Boyd made a mistake. It is natural for every fellow that applied and failed to think he was the right one, and it comes natural that he questions the Judge's judgment.

We learn that Ex-Congressman Blackburn will keep an office here and visit it occasionally so as to claim his citizenship here. This no doubt means that he wishes to try the race for congress again.

The revenue fellows went over on the Alleghany side of the mountain last week and made prohibitionists out of several blockade establishments. At least, the old coppers are prohib. until they get mended up.

Something like 40 or 50 persons have left Bushy Mountain within the last week to try their fortunes in the west. We hope it is a good move for them.

High Point Argus.

H. A. Moffitt, of High Point, has bought the Worthville Manufacturing Company's store at Worthville. He is a brother of T. J. Moffitt, of Asheboro.

Dr. Wm. J. Moore and Miss Mattie Butler, of Asheboro, were married Wednesday night at 8:30 at the home of the bride in Asheboro. They left on the 9 o'clock train for New York, and will visit Philadelphia and Washington on their return.

N. H. Shack will move his family to Greensboro about April 15th. Mr. Shack has lived in Asheboro about twenty years and we regret that he has decided to move away.

The little child of Will Dickens, who lives in South Asheboro, fell into a branch last Saturday and came near being drowned. When found the child was lying on its back unconscious in the water. By prompt and careful treatment the child was restored.

DIED.—At his home in Liberty, March 27th, Mr. W. F. Bowman. Mr. Bowman had been ill from pneumonia about a week. He was a consistent member of the M. P. church, and for several years had been mayor of Liberty. He leaves a wife and four children. He served as county commissioner for two years.

Winston Republican.

The new passenger depot of the Southern Railway at Winston-Salem is said to be an assured fact and that the proposed structure will be among the handsomest in the state.

Deputy Sheriff Hutchens is training five bloodhounds for service in catching criminals.

Judge Connor, of the Supreme court, has accepted an invitation to deliver the literary address at the commencement of Salem Female College in May.

At Davie court this week the grand jury returned a true bill against Ephraim Barnhardt for murder in the first degree for killing young Frank Williams. The prisoner is an old man, probably 60 or 65 years.

A correspondent writes that Mr. Calvin Fields, living near Boston College, Davidson county, has sold $54.15 worth of mink hides this season. If any one can beat it they are entitled to the papers.

Mr. Sanford Dimmett, who was accidentally cut in the head by an axe in the hands of Mr. John Burcham, near Ronda, the other day, has since died from his wound. He lived about twelve days after a portion of his brains had been taken out of the wound by attending physicians.

Lexington Dispatch.

Inability to secure lumber caused the sash and blind plant of Mr. C. M. Thompson to close down three days of last week. The public roads are in such condition that it is almost impossible for lumber dealers to market their products. Another reason for issuing bonds and thereby securing macadam roads!

Dr. John Thames, of Greensboro, spent yesterday in Lexington visiting his wife and children, who are guests at Mr. W. H. Moffitt's. Dr. Thames has just returned from Philadelphia, where he has been for the past three months taking a post-graduate course in his profession.

Rev. W. A. Smith received a call last week from the Baptists at Henderson to become pastor of the church at that place. The call was an urgent one, both letters and telegrams being sent to Mr. Smith. His congregation here and the public generally will be pleased to learn that Mr. Smith will not accept the call, but will remain here as pastor of the First Baptist church of Lexington.

Burlington News.

Acts establishing graded schools for Graham, Haw River, Sylvan Spring, Oakdale, Friendship, Oakwood, Hawthorne and Melrose have been duly ratified and the election is to be held on the first Monday in May.

There will be a meeting in the mayor's hall Friday night for the purpose of organizing a local baseball league.

Gov. C. B. Aycock and J. Y. Joyner will speak in Graham Wednesday morning April 15th at 11 o'clock, and at night. He will also speak at Hawthorne Thursday April 16th and at Melrose on the same day at night.

We are glad to announce that our Lutheran friends refused to accept the resignation of their pastor, Rev. W. J. Ritchie, which was tendered last week. Mr. Ritchie had several calls from other fields, but we are glad that his people would not let him leave our little city.

Mrs. J. T. Dick died at her home in Mebane last week after a lingering illness. She was a well known and beloved woman and her death caused much sadness in her neighborhood.

Fewer Moonshiners Now.

Washington, March 30.—An internal revenue officer in speaking of moonshiners of the South said:

"Our figures of arrests of operators of illicit stills the last year show a great falling off from those of several years ago. The number of fatalities among United States marshals and deputies is so encouragingly less that it is now considered reasonably safe to accept a commission of this kind."

"Last year our men captured only 1,004 illicit stills, which is a decrease of more than 100 per cent. in the number captured four years previously. In rounding up these 1,004 whisky factories that were operating without Federal license we had one man killed and two wounded, which is a smaller fatality list than we used to have in making a single raid."

"This business is still confined to the mountainous districts of North Carolina, Kentucky, Alabama and adjoining states, but the vigor with which our deputies are pursuing the moonshiners is gradually discouraging the business. We captured and sent to jail last year over 1,000 men who were engaged in the illicit traffic."

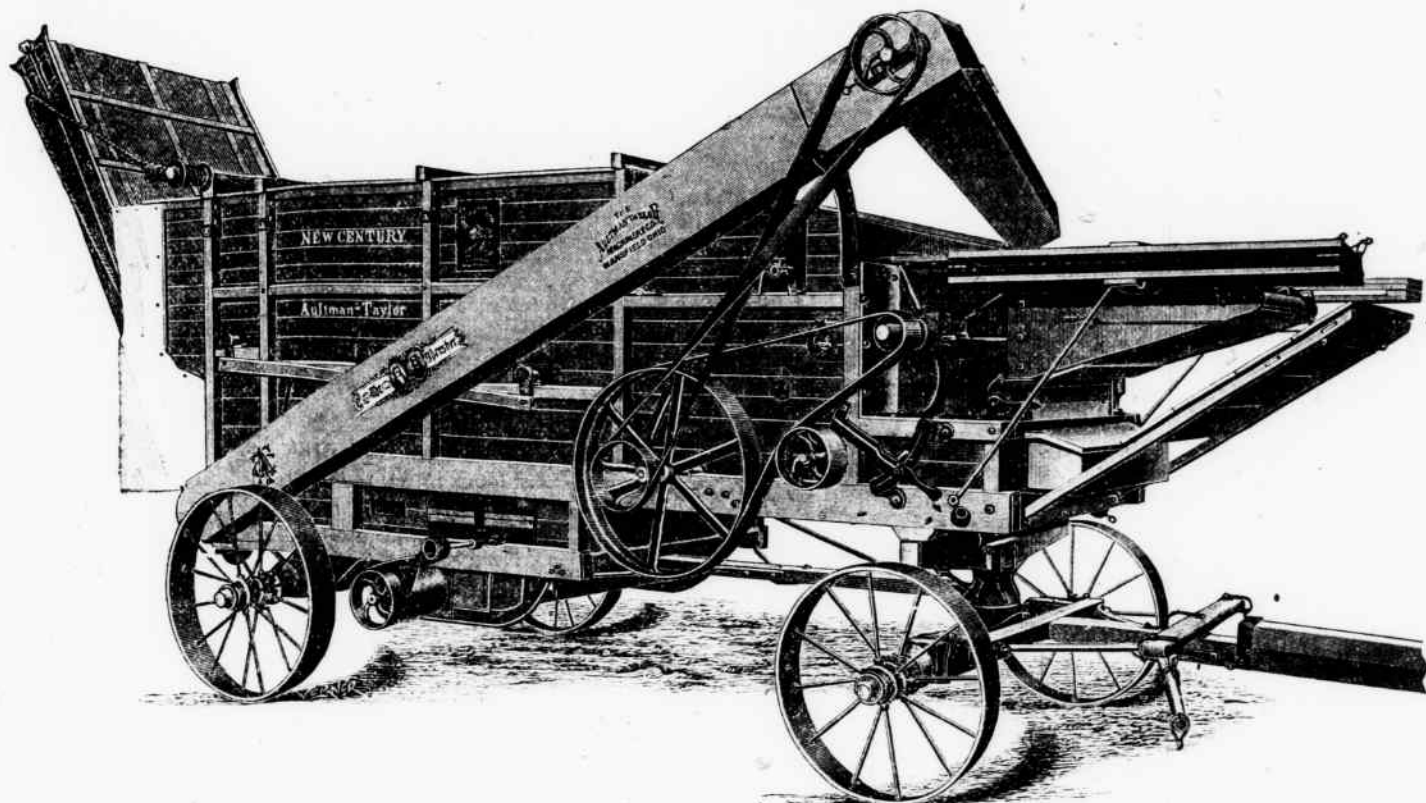

A Demonstration of What Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Can Do.

"One of our customers, a highly respected citizen of this place, had been for ten years a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea," writes Walden & Martin, druggists, of Enterprise, Ala. "He had used various patent preparations and been treated by physicians without any permanent benefit. A few months ago he commenced taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and in a short time was entirely cured. Many citizens of Enterprise who know the gentleman will testify to the truthfulness of this statement." For sale at Holton's drug store.

The Troy Examiner says a two-year-old child of Mr. M. E. Mills came very near losing its life in a singular way a few days ago. It climbed on a gate which had a small rope attached to it. There was a loop in the rope to keep the gate shut. The little one ran its head through the loop and fell and when found it was hanging by the neck almost lifeless. Prompt action saved it.

It is estimated that $25,000,000 damage will be caused by the break in the Mississippi river levee at Hymelia, La.

This Represents the "New Century Grain Separator"

The most perfect grain saver and cleaner ever invented and the lightest and most durable machine ever put on the market. Please write The Aultman & Taylor Machinery Co., Mansfield, Ohio, for their 1903 catalogue and their booklet, "Kernels for the Starving Rooster," both of which are free to any thresherman or prospective customer.

Mr. H. M. Patterson, traveling salesman for the A. & T. Mch. Co. in North Carolina, has his headquarters at Greensboro. He will be pleased to correspond with any prospective customer concerning net prices, etc., of A. & T. farm and traction engines, saw mills, grain separators, etc.

IMPORTANT FACTS AND FIGURES.

Rev. S. M. Rankin, Pastor of Alamance and Springwood Churches, Submits Valuable Information on the Road Question.

TO THE VOTERS OF GUILFORD COUNTY: Many are in doubt as to how they should vote on the bond issue for good roads. For your information permit me to submit the following facts:

The county of Lincoln, Kentucky, (where I lived for five years) has 180 miles of macadamized roads. The county judge and other responsible men of wide experience inform me that it costs from $1,200 to $1,500 per mile to build these roads. The county is floating its bonds at 4 per cent.

Connect these facts with those given out by our county commissioners and let us see what may be done in Guilford county if the bond issue carries.

The $500,000 would build for us, at $1,500 per mile, 200 miles of macadamized roads. Not having had much experience in road building and having to buy all necessary machinery, our officers may not be able to construct quite that many miles of road; but the bill provides that at least four of the highway commissioners shall be from the four sides of the county and they will no doubt be practical, economical farmers, and we may trust them to do the best that can be done.

Interest on the bonds at 4 per cent, and at the present value of money they ought to be easily floated at that will cost the county $12,000 per year when they are all issued.

Four thousand dollars must be set aside each year as a sinking fund with which to pay the bonds. Four thousand dollars each year at compound interest at 6 per cent, will amount to even more than $318,000 in 30 years.

The sinking fund and the interest on the lands, in 30 years, will cost the county $480,000. But the income in those 30 years will be about $945,000. Our commissioners tell us that because of increased property values the increase in the income is about $1,000 each year. Last year it was over $16,000. This year it will be $17,000. At this rate of increase, in 30 years, the county will receive, at our present tax rate of 12 cents on the $100 valuation, about $945,000. After the bonds, with interest, are paid there will still be left in the hands of the commissioners about $465,000, or more than $1,500 per year for the improvement of our other roads under the present system.

This estimate is based on the increase in property values in the county during the past few years, which has not materially increased the taxes of the farmers.

Having lived in a county where we had good roads, I see most vividly, by contrast, the great disadvantage of mud roads, especially to the farmers.

Respectfully submitted,
S. M. RANKIN.

A Sweet Breath

is a never failing sign of a healthy stomach. When the breath is bad the stomach is out of order. There is no remedy in the world equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for curing indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Mrs. Mary S. Crick, of White Plains, Ky., writes: "I have been a dyspeptic for years—tried all kinds of remedies but continued to grow worse. By the use of Kodol I began to improve at once, and after taking a few bottles am fully restored in weight, health and strength and can eat whatever I like. Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet." Howard Gardner.

Justice Thomas Murphy, in a report on the Burdick Inquest at Buffalo, fails to fix definitely the responsibility for the murder, but states that there is enough evidence to arrest Arthur H. Pennell if he were alive.

Rheumacide is a powerful blood purifier. It cures rheumatism, sciatica and other stubborn diseases permanently. This is proof that you want to take it to purify your blood this spring. At druggists.

Notice by Publication.

North Carolina. In the Superior Court.
Guilford County. Ida Epps vs. Eugene Epps.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

It appearing to the court in the above entitled action by affidavit of the plaintiff that she has a good cause of action against the defendant for divorce from the bonds of matrimony on the ground of abandonment and conviction of the defendant of an infamous crime and that the defendant is a non-resident of the state, and after due diligence cannot be found within the state, and that a summons has been issued and been returned by the sheriff of the county of Guilford that the defendant cannot be found in his country; it is therefore ordered and commanded that the defendant Eugene Epps appear at the next term of the Superior Court of the county of Guilford to begin on the 15th day of April proximo and answer or demur to the plaintiff's complaint, which will be filed according to law, or relief demanded in the complaint will be asked by the plaintiff. It is further ordered that this notice be published in the Greensboro Patriot for six weeks.

This March 26th, 1903.
JOHN J. NELSON, C. S. C.

TIMBER WANTED

We will pay spot cash for Poplar and Black Gum logs, cut 4 feet long and not less than 8 inches in diameter, delivered at our factory. Timber to be sound, straight and free of knots.

Southern Bobbin Co.

Vick's Little Liver Pills

KEEP THE FAMILY WELL.

40 in vial. 25 cents.

For Drowsiness and Drug Using.
Keeley Cure
Our Illustrated Handbook Sent Free On Request.
THE KEELEY INSTITUTE
Dept. L., Greensboro, N.C.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve
For Piles, Burns, Sores.

FOR BLOOD, STOMACH
AND LUNGS
TAKE
DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

The Greensboro Patriot.

ESTABLISHED 1821.

Published Every Wednesday.

W. M. BARBER & CO.

SUBSCRIPTION:
One year, $1.00; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents. In advance.

Entered at the postoffice in Greensboro, N. C., as second-class mail matter.

Communications, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will be rejected if the real name of the author is withheld.

Remittances made by check, draft, postal money order, express or registered letter will be at the risk of the publishers.

Address all letters to THE PATRIOT, Greensboro, N. C.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 8, 1903.

REAL AUTHORS OF TRUST BILLS.

It appears to be pretty well understood that the so-called anti-trust bills which the Republicans permitted to become laws last winter will in no way benefit the people or curb the trusts. There is nothing in the party record and nothing in the bills, except the titles, that forebode evil to the trusts. It will, therefore, surprise few men to know that the real authors of the bills are the trusts themselves—the very ones that tried to hoodwink the people by sending telegrams to the senators ordering them not to pass these anti-trust bills. The New York Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin, of March 25, contains the story of the authorship of the Elkins anti-trust bill. A dispatch to that paper of that date from Chicago says that at a meeting of Western railway executive officials to discuss the Elkins law, it was stated that A. J. Cassatt, president of the Pennsylvania; Paul Morton, second vice-president of the Santa Fe, and E. D. Kenna, first vice-president and general counsel of the same road, are authors of the bill. It is stated that the first draft of the bill was made by Mr. Kenna and embodied the ideas of the three men named. This draft was submitted to the president, the attorney-general and the chairman of the interstate commerce commission, and subsequently was amended. As finally introduced, however, the bill was essentially the bill prepared from the suggestions made by Messrs. Cassatt, Morton and Kenna, after repeated conferences at the White House. Mr. Morton says of the law: "I believe the act will secure the maintenance of freight and passenger rates, and this will be of inestimable benefit to the entire country, the railroads, the shippers and to consumers."

There is no doubt in the mind of any sane man that the bill will benefit the railroads, but his statement that it will benefit shippers and consumers is a gratuitous insult to the intelligence of the people of the country. The railroads can be benefited only by increased freight rates, and these must be paid by shippers and consumers. The railroads will get the benefit and the people will pay the freight. It is a case of "heads I win and tails you lose."

Even in the face of these facts the Republicans will still continue to call the Elkins law an anti-trust measure. The people can't beat such a game so long as they allow the trusts and the Republican party to shuffle and deal the cards, and hold the stakes as well.

The President of the United States has started on another huge swing around the circle which he modestly calls "an unpretentious little outing for the purpose of avoiding publicity." Let us see about that. The schedule calls for about 200 speeches and the party accompanying the president consists of two secretaries, one doctor, three stenographers, two secret service men, one poet-naturalist, representatives of three press associations, one official photographer, and two telegraph operators. What a delightfully original way of avoiding publicity. It is surprising that he did not take along a brass band with which to hunt those bears. The truth of the matter is that the gentleman who occupies the highest civic position in the country is never so happy as when he is in the limelight on the front of the stage. This trip is a stumping tour pure and simple. He wants that nomination a heap more than he wants those bears, and he is not overlooking any bet that will pile up the blue chips in front of him.

SPECIAL attention is directed to the communications of Rev. S. M. Rankin and ex-Sheriff J. Henry Gilmer, which will be found elsewhere in this issue of the PATRIOT. Mr. Rankin gives some facts and figures, based on his observation and experience, as to the benefits and cost of macadamized roads. Ex-Sheriff Gilmer contradicts an impression, which has gained currency in some quarters, that he would vote against the good roads bond issue and says he is supporting the measure with all his might. He also gives some convincing reasons why every voter in the county should do likewise.

Shake Into Your Shoes

Allen's Foot-Powder. It cures the feet. Cures Corns, Bunions, Ingrowing Nails, Swollen and Sweating feet. At all druggists and shoe stores, 25c. Ask today. 13 47

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Distillers May Move to South Carolina.

A few weeks ago it was stated that a number of North Carolina distillers would move over into Virginia and Tennessee when the Watts bill went into effect, and now it is learned that some of the distillers in Davie, Davidson, Rowan, and perhaps other counties, are looking to South Carolina as a haven of refuge when the recently enacted legislation shall have driven them out of business in this state. A Davie county distiller who was in Greensboro this week said he already had a desirable location for his business selected in the Palmetto state. He stated further that the South Carolina dispensary officials would welcome an influx into that state of Tar Heel distillers. Some of the distillers have figured it out that they can establish registered distilleries just over the line in South Carolina and sell their lawful product to the state dispensary, bringing their overplus over into North Carolina. There is also an idea prevalent in some quarters that the revenue officers do not give the distilleries in South Carolina as much trouble as they do in this state, though this belief is probably erroneous. The idea probably originates from the fact that there is a difference in the manner in which the revenue laws are enforced by the courts in the two states. If a conviction is secured in South Carolina, it is a very rare thing for the defendant to be punished, but in North Carolina it is a rare occurrence for a defendant to escape punishment.

The May School at the Normal College.

There will be quite a number of teachers in Greensboro during the May school, beginning April 28th and closing May 23rd. Tickets will be on sale at unusually low rates on April 27th and 28th and on May 4th and 5th. On May 5th there will be a meeting of a number of prominent women, teachers and others, from various parts of the state who are interested in the Woman's Association for the Betterment of Public School Houses in North Carolina.

The round trip ticket to Greensboro on the four days above mentioned will be in no case more than one and one-third fare and in some cases where the distance is considerable the cost of a ticket for the round trip will be only a very little more than one fare.

Board in the city will be furnished at $3 a week. If there are families not now taking boarders for the college who would like to do so for the month of May, they will do well to communicate with President McIver.

Two strangers giving their names as James Mack and J. W. Burton, and claiming to hail from Boston, were arrested here last week for peddling patent medicine without a license. They were selling some sort of a decoction, which was a regular "cure-all," at 25 cents a bottle. They claimed that the regular price of the medicine was $1 a bottle, but that it was being sold at the reduced price until it was well introduced on the market. The fakirs were doing a fairly good business until the police officers arrested and carried them before the mayor. They were fined $20, and being unable to raise the amount, were sent to jail. After spending a day and night behind the bars, they were released upon their promise to leave town.

Sunday afternoon police officers arrested two young boys who were found engaged in a game of poker in a room over a store on South Elm street. Mayor Osborn has continued the hearing of the case until next Monday. The boys are sons of well known people, and while quite youthful, are old enough to know better. As this is their first time to be arrested, their names are withheld in the hope that the experience will teach them a valuable lesson. It is a sad spectacle to see young boys engaged in gambling with the recklessness of hardened veterans of the gaming table.

Mr. Thomas B. Rice, who had been in poor health for several years, died at the home of his brother, Mr. R. F. Rice, Saturday night. He was perhaps 38 or 40 years of age and was unmarried. Rev. S. B. Turrentine conducted the funeral Monday morning, interment being made in Greene Hill cemetery. Mr. Rice had lived in Greensboro for about ten years and was engaged in the jewelry business until three or four years ago, when ill health forced his retirement.

Annual Meeting of the Farmers' Mutual.

The tenth annual meeting of the Guilford branch of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Association will meet in the court house in Greensboro on the second Saturday in April, the 11th, for the election of officers and such other business as may come before it. All members are requested to be present. Supervisors will be allowed $1.50 for attendance. J. R. WHARTON, Secretary and Treasurer.

The Hen That Lays is the Hen That Pays.

If you want the best paying poultry stock in the world, raise Leghorns. I can furnish pure strain Leghorn eggs in any quantity. $1.00 per sitting of 15 eggs. R. S. SMITH, Cascade, N. C.

You will find our grocery and seed store at 303 South Elm street, Holton's old stand. Drop in, whether you want to buy or not. C. SCOTT & Co.

Jim Tillman Arraigned for Murder.

A dispatch from Columbia, S. C., yesterday stated that the grand jury had returned a true bill for murder against James H. Tillman, who killed editor Gonzales, of the Columbia State, and that the prisoner would be arraigned today. The trial is not expected to begin before Monday.

A Thoughtful Man.

M. M. Austin of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c, at Holton's drug store.

Rev. Dr. E. W. Smith's book, "The Creed of Presbyterians," has recently been reviewed by leading newspapers in India, Japan, Canada, and New Zealand, and is soon to be translated into German.

If you want an Empire corn drill come quick. Our stock of 260 is about gone. We can't get more this season. GREENSBORO STORAGE & TRANSFER CO.

LOST—A black and tan hound dog, answers to name of "Jack." Return to W. A. Sharp, 328 Gorrell street, and get reward.

500 bushels of clay peas and 100 bushels of white peas for sale. C. W. JENNINGS.

GREENSBORO MARKET REPORT.

CORRECTED WEEKLY.

BUYING PRICES.

Beeswax.....	22-23
Chickens—old each.....	30-35
Small spring chickens each.....	12-20
Eggs.....	18-19
Butter, good.....	18-20
Goose Feathers, new.....	40
Hides—dry.....	8-11
Green.....	54
Lamb skins.....	30-40
Wool—washed.....	26
Unwashed.....	18
Wheat.....	47 1/2
Oats.....	40
Sheep Skins.....	47 1/2
Tallow.....	54
Corn, new.....	60
Rags—Cotton.....	4
Bones.....	4

EASTER!

You want

New Hats!
New Shoes!
New Furnishings!

We have them.

Your Size!
Your Style!
Your Shape!
Your Price!

Our new lines are beauties and will commend themselves to discriminating patrons.

Don't wait till the last moment. Come now and take your time in choosing.

S. J. Kaufmann

303 South Elm Street.
One Price. Cash Only.

GROCERIES

A full line of everything good to eat. Plenty of nice Seed Sweet and Irish Potatoes. All kinds of Feed. Nice lot of Brooms and Tinware. We make country produce a specialty and pay the best prices for it.

COE BROS.
523 South Elm St.

Big 5-Cent Embroidery Sale!

Commencing Monday Morning, April 6th

62,000 yards scooped in by our big combination of stores and divided, we getting 15,000 yards embroidery and inserting, worth 5 to 35 cents a yard. We will put the entire lot at 5 cents the yard. Make good your opportunity.

Shoes

If dollars are of any value to you, you can't afford to buy a pair of shoes until you look at our immense stock and get prices. We save you 25c to $1. Now come and see if we don't.

Clothing

Men's $7.50 new Worsted Suit at $5.
$5 Black Suit at $2.98.
$5 Fancy Suit at $3.48.
Boys' $4 Suit at $2.48.
Men's Pants at 25c.
Boys' Pants at 15c.

Ribbons

Never such values in all the color shades.
Roman Strips for Belts in lovely stripes just received.
Wash Ribbon—10c Ribbons at 7c; 12c Ribbons at 10c.
Beautiful Liberty, all shades, for sashes, etc.

Hosiery

Ladies' Lisle Lace Hose, worth 75c, at 48c.
Children's 15c Hose at 10c.
Ladies' 15c Seamless Hose, 5c.
Silk Gauze Hose at $1.98.
Beautiful Lisle Gauze at 50c. Looks like silk.

Handkerchiefs

Ladies' Sheer Linen Handkerchief at 10c.
Ladies' Sheer Linen Handkerchief, worth 20c, at 12c.
A pure Linen Handkerchief, 5c.

Silks

36-inch Black Taffeta Silk, 69c.
36-inch Black Taffeta Silk, warranted to wear, $1.18 a yard.
The celebrated Bathaldi Silk, 36 inches wide and worth $1.50, special at $1.25 the yard.
Peau de Chèvre Silks in all colors.
Creme de Chene in all shades.

Dress Goods

Sheer Spring Dress Goods. A brilliant showing. Light weight stuffs, fabrics that cling and flow, that make pretty "lines" in draping, have the preference. We are showing a full and complete line. Voils, Mistral, Etamines, Etc., in white, gray, black and blue.

Millinery

Our grand opening is the talk of the town. Never before has Greensboro had such a feast of beauty. Everybody says it is the grandest exhibit of Millinery ever shown in the Gate City. Hats for the brunette, hats for the blonds, hats for the tall, hats for the small, bonnets for the old, hats for the young—yes, hats for you.

HARRY-BELK BROTHERS COMPANY

CHEAPEST STORE ON EARTH

240-242 S. ELM ST.,

GREENSBORO, N. C.

PUBLIC AUCTION.

I, Henry Humbert, will sell my dairy farm at public auction for cash situated 4 miles south of Greensboro on the Freedman's mill road, joining the lands of A. A. Hinton, Esq., consisting of 94 acres of about 54 acres cleared and balance in good oak and pine a 2-story 7-room house, weather-stormed, papered, plastered, porch on 3 sides, force pumps on rear porch, good cellar, large barn and stables, 2 tenant houses for 3 families, all buildings only about 4 years old and costing about $2,400. The land has clay and loam soil and has been highly improved by deep plowing, ditching and clearing, and over 500 tons of stable manure and many tons of good fertilizer. Large fowl and pig yards. Large orchards of many kinds of fruit trees and vineyard. About 1 1/2 acres in strawberries and 2 acres in asparagus, bringing about $10 per year.

Wednesday, April 15th, 1903.

At the same time I will sell 1 good horse, 1 disc drill, 1 feed mill, 1 shredder, 1 2-horse wagon, 1 milk wagon, cooler and bottles, 1 top bunk, 1 2 section iron spike harrow.

HENRY HUMBERT, Auctioneer.

J. R. Pearce, Auctioneer.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE PATRIOT.

Spring and Summer

MILLINERY

We are now ready to serve you all with the latest and most up-to-date Millinery. We carry Millinery exclusively and are better prepared to serve you than ever before.

Mrs. Rosa Hamner Carter

107 West Market Street.
Opp. Court House.

ROAD NOTICE.

A petition having been presented to the Board of Commissioners of Guilford County, North Carolina, asking that a public road be opened from Raleigh's Cross Roads to the public road between Guilford College Station and Friendship, running through the lands of William Edwards, John W. Woody, S. H. Ward and others, this is to notify any person or persons who may object to the opening of said road to appear before this board at the next regular meeting, on the first Monday in May, 1903, and present such objection, or said petition will be granted.

This April 6th, 1903.

VICK'S MAGIC CROUP SALVE

TWENTY-FIVE CENTS
WARRANTED—ALL DEALERS

Adams' Early
Early Mammoth Sugar
Gentry's Early Market
Trucker's Favorite

And many other varieties of Seed Corn at Gardner's

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

Matters of Interest Reported by Our Corps of Correspondents.

Guilford College Items.

Miss Maud Hardin, of Tabernacle, visited at Guilford last week.

Miss Clara Cox, of High Point, spent a few days with friends at the college last week.

Mrs. Fogleman, of Burlington, is visiting at the home of her father, Mr. P. M. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Stewart, of Greensboro, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. P. M. Stewart.

Miss Annie Ragan and Lena Freeman, of Archdale, spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Annie Blair.

The members of the Friends church held a social meeting on Thursday evening, at which a delightful supper was served with coffee and tea.

Prof. Wilson left for Philadelphia last Thursday, where he is being treated for appendicitis. Reports from him Monday say he is on the road to recovery.

The members of the Young Ladies Library Society were entertained by the young men, members of the Henry Clay Library Society, last Friday evening in a royal manner.

An election will be held on the first Monday in May at the Guilford graded school house to elect successors of L. L. Hobbs, Lee S. Smith and E. A. Pleasant, whose term as members of said school board will expire at that time.

The community was made sorrowful last week by the death of Mrs. George Barbee, an estimable christian woman, and a member of New Garden Monthly Meeting of Friends. The loss to the community is great. Mrs. Barbee had for some years been superintendent of the Sunday school and was a faithful member of the church.

Lectures were also given by other speakers: The English Friends as Foreign Missionaries, by Miss Clara Cox, of High Point; The Opportunities and Essentials of Christian Service, by Eli Reece, of High Point; How to Study the Bible, by Professor Thomas Newlin; Friends' Discipline, by Joseph Elkinton, of Philadelphia.

Last week from Wednesday to Saturday remarkable series of lectures on the principles of The Society of Friends were given by Dr. Alfred C. Garrett, of Philadelphia. Dr. Garrett was for some time a distinguished member of the faculty of Harvard University, being instructor in English. His health failing, he retired from Harvard, and has recently given a great deal of thought to religious literature and has become a devoted Bible student and an earnest christian worker.

On Saturday night a very interesting lecture, with stereoscopic views, was given by Joseph Elkinton on the Donkhorers, a religious sect who have recently settled in Canada. Mr. Elkinton has shown great interest in these people from their first settlement in this country, has visited them and shown them the greatest kindness and helpfulness. He has studied their history and written a delightful history of them recently published. He brought with him to Guilford Donkhor costumes, which, certain students being arrayed in them, showed the general appearance of these peculiar people. Mr. Elkinton came to the college to give this lecture, and the large audience on Saturday night showed their appreciation of his effort.

McLeansville Items.

Mr. W. O. Stratford was down last Thursday.

Mr. D. R. Hufines came down Saturday to visit his family.

Several of Mr. Ab. Scoggins' family have been seriously sick, but now are convalescing.

Mr. Ferguson and family, of your city, came down last week visiting his wife's relatives.

Mr. Will Denny, your letter carrier, came down and was the guest of his father, returning last Sunday.

Mr. Low Montgomery, who is employed in one of the cotton mills of Maryland, came down recently to visit his family. An extract of one of the Maryland papers holds him in high repute and a number one loom fixer. We wish him success in his undertaking.

According to the new pension law for ex-confederate veterans a man has to be about three-fourths dead and one foot in the grave before he can draw $30 a year, which by close economy, if an inveterate tobacco user, would enable him to supply his demands for a year. Old vets will soon get rich under the new law and widows will be enabled to marry soon, if they have not too much inebriation.

Mrs. McDougal, an aged lady of Marion, who was severely burned a few days ago died, Saturday from the effect of the burns.

Weak?

"I suffered terribly for 12 years. The doctors said my blood was all turning to water. At last I tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and was soon feeling all right again."—Mrs. J. W. Flala, Hadlyme, Ct.

No matter how long you have been ill, nor how poorly you may be today, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine you can take for purifying and enriching the blood. Don't doubt it; put your whole trust in it.

Ask your doctor what he thinks of this grand old family medicine. Follow his advice and we will be satisfied.

Recovery will never be complete if the liver is inactive. Ayer's Pills are liver pills. Purely vegetable.

J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

New Bethel Items.

Some of our farmers have commenced planting corn.

Miss Minnie Powell, of Caswell county, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Lester.

We are having some very cold weather for April, but the fruit is not all killed yet.

Messrs. J. J. and G. T. Lester visited their sister, Mrs. W. P. Alley, last Sunday.

Our special term of court and Easter Monday come on the same day this year.

Mrs. Monroe Lester and sister, Miss Powell, visited Mrs. S. G. Lomax Saturday.

Mr. C. H. Williams and daughter, Miss Clara, visited Mrs. M. J. Lomax last week.

Mr. John H. Sharp, who left his wife and children last fall to seek other parts of the world, has become dissatisfied of his new quarters and returned to his former home to live.

Among the visitors in town Sunday we noticed W. C. Carroll, Sam Knight, Sample and John Thomas, Mr. Winfield, Charlie Dye, E. B. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Humphreys, Mr. John Porter and two sisters and Miss Cora Carroll.

One of our best and most prominent farmers, Mr. James M. Simpson, has sold his farm to Mr. Jessie Peay and will locate in some town; we have not yet learned what place, but understand he will engage in the mercantile business.

We are glad to report that Mr. Robert Neal, the gentleman who lost his pocket book some time since with quite a large sum of money in it, has located it and had the parties arrested who found it. We understand he recovered all the money except about $70.00, which they had spent in traveling around trying to make their escape.

Gibsonville Items.

M. L. Fogleman made a flying trip to Greensboro Monday.

Mr. H. C. Allen is visiting his mother and brother in Gibsonville.

Winter still lingers in the lap of spring. Fear it has left us but little if any fruit.

Miss Anna May, of Greensboro, was a welcome visitor in Gibsonville Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. J. A. Davidson is having an addition built to Mr. Hornaday's smith and wagon shop.

Mrs. Rev. C. A. Brown, who has been right sick with grip for several days, is now improving.

It is expected that work will soon begin on the new buildings and the addition to the old one of the Minneola Manufacturing Company.

There was no preaching in Gibsonville Sunday. Rev. Betha, being absent, failed to fill his appointment. He will preach here Easter Sunday night.

Rev. R. R. Sowers, of Floyd, Va., passed through Gibsonville last Thursday on his way to Low's and Richland, with the view of taking charge of work in that field.

Rev. C. A. Brown preached an interesting and instructive sermon at Friends' Sunday. After the sermon he administered the communion, assisted by Rev. E. P. Parker.

The excellent drama, "The Courtship of Miles Standish," will be presented in the Masonic hall at Gibsonville, Saturday night, April 11th, at eight o'clock. Admission 25 cents. The public is cordially invited. This is one of Longfellow's famous productions, and never fails to please an audience.

Whitsett Items.

Mr. J. R. Hoffman, of Burlington, is here on a visit.

It is feared that fruit is greatly damaged in this section.

Prof. J. Vance Dick, of Salisbury, is visiting his mother here.

Quite a large crowd attended services Sunday at the Reformed church.

The seniors will give their class day exercises on April 25th at 5 P. M. The public invited.

Prof. J. H. Rumble is expected to give a violin recital here Saturday night, April 18th.

Prof. Whitsett spent Saturday in Greensboro at the meeting of the county board of education.

A number from this vicinity will soon leave to sell fruit trees for the nurseries of this county.

There will be special Easter services by the Y. M. C. A. next Sunday, to which the public is invited.

Four new students entered school last week, two of them being direct from Cuba and unable to speak a single word of English.

Benaja Items.

Mr. C. L. Trantham is right sick this week with la grippe.

The Misses Milloway returned home Sunday night after a delightful visit to Linwood.

Mr. and Mrs. DeLapp and little daughter, Ruth, spent Sunday at Mr. Milloway's.

The many friends of Mr. Ogburn Smith were glad to see him on our streets Sunday.

Little Misses Hettie and Mary Trantham are visiting relatives near Lexington this week.

The young people are anticipating a gay time Easter Monday. There will be several picnics near here.

Messrs. Eli Geringer, of Hill Top, and Dave Crowder, of this place, were callers at Cross Roads Thursday.

Messrs. Albert Osborne and Jerry Pettigrew, of Reidsville, stopped over at this place Sunday en route to Cross Roads.

Sedalla Items.

Spring season, but winter weather.

The new game "Flinch" seems to be the rage in this community.

The cold weather has ruined the fruit crop for the coming summer.

Messrs. J. S. and C. H. Phipps, of Greensboro, were visitors last week.

Mrs. Florence Ferguson and little daughter, of your city, spent a few days at Mrs. Boone's last week.

On next Thursday evening, beginning at 7:30, the subscription school at this place, taught by Miss Rosalie Smith, will close with a spelling match, followed by music and a social time in general. Everybody cordially invited.

Educational Matters.

The public school at Smith's in Madison township, which is under the direction of Mr. H. V. Cobb, will close Thursday, April 16th, with an entertainment. The exercises by the school will begin at 10 A. M. In the afternoon, Prof. E. W. S. Cobb, principal of the Kernersville Academy the past year, will make an address. Other prominent speakers are also expected to be present. An enjoyable, occasion is expected, and the public are cordially invited.

Rev. Dr. Wallace W. Dancaw, one of the bishops of the Southern Methodist church, will preach the annual commencement sermon at Greensboro Female College on Tuesday, May 19th. Rev. J. A. B. Fry, of Concord, will deliver the address on the evening of the same day. The commencement exercises proper will take place the following morning. On Sunday evening preceding commencement Rev. T. A. Smoot, a former member of the faculty, but at present pastor of the Methodist church in Fayetteville, will preach a sermon before the religious societies of the college.

The election to decide upon enlarging the boundaries of the Guilford graded school district will be held at the school building, near Guilford College, on the first Monday in May.

Dr. Charles D. Melver delivered an address at a school closing near Climax Friday night. Saturday he spoke at the closing exercises of a school at Goldton. Monday Dr. Melver left for Nashville, Tenn., to attend a meeting of the school superintendents of that state. From Nashville he will go to Columbia to attend a meeting for the purpose of inaugurating an educational campaign in South Carolina.

New Advertisements.

The clothing firm of Chisholm, Stroud, Crawford & Rees makes a fair proposition to you this week. Their popular price suits range in price from $7.50 to $13.50.

The Peebles Shoe Company call attention to their fine line of spring shoes. Easter shoes, hats and furnishings at S. J. Kaufman's.

Try Benefield & Company for fine assortment and low prices on furniture.

The whole second floor of Thacker & Brookmann's establishment is devoted to carpets, matting and trunks. They are carrying this season a very large stock in this department and invite everybody to come and compare prices. Read their new ad. on last page.

A car load of Babcock buggies has just been received by M. G. Newell & Company.

J. Simpson Schenck, representing the Greensboro fire insurance companies, has a card on front page.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed at Holton's drug store.

RURAL MAIL BOXES

The Rural Mail Routes from Greensboro will start about April 1st. See E. Poole, 115 West Market street, and get a Log Cabin Mail Box. The cheapest and best box on the market.

When You Get Ready

FOR GARDEN SEEDS
AND SEED POTATOES

Get my prices. Seed Potatoes $1.00 a bushel. I also buy Chickens and Eggs.

JAY H. BOONE

120 North Elm St., Near Market.

New Grocery Firm

Mr. W. T. Sockwell, late of the firm of Andrew & Sockwell, has associated himself in business with his brother, Mr. J. E. Sockwell, at 108 West Market street, under the firm name of Sockwell Brothers. They will conduct a general grocery store and feel that they can please the trade. They are paying the highest cash market prices for country produce of every description. They will be pleased to serve you at any and all times.

Look for the New Drug Store

South of depot, when you want medicine. A complete stock of pure and Medicines, Rubber Goods, Stationery, and everything belonging to a drug store.

FRESH DRUGS

C. C. Fordham

514 S. Elm St., GREENSBORO, N. C.

1903 STYLES

We are now displaying an entire new line of

Go-Carts and Baby Carriages

30 styles, all new, to select from. Every vehicle guaranteed. Prices and terms to suit the customer.

E. M. Andrews

The Reliable Furniture Store, 315-317 S. Elm St.

How to Make Money Fast

Don't scratch on the surface, but go down after it.

OUR SOUTH BEND CLILLED PLOW

Steel or wood beam, can use slip or solid points, one- or two-horse, detachable turning board, adaptable to any depth of soil. The cost of this plow is in the reach of the smallest farmer.

We are headquarters for farm implements and machinery of all description. Come to us for a pound of nails to the biggest thing in hardware.

Odell Hardware Company

Greensboro, N. C.

April 4th, 1903.

We Have Just Received a Car Load of

Babcock

Vehicles

We also have other work well worth the money in the way of Buggies and Carriages that would please you, at popular prices.

We think we can give you the best quality the market affords and for the least money.

Do not forget us when you want anything in the way of Engines, Threshers, Cultivators, Corn Planters, Harrows and Cream Separators—in fact, anything in the Farm Machinery line.

We have the best stock in the city of our line, and it is the best selected.

Yours truly,

M. G. NEWELL & CO.

ACME MILL WORKS

L. M. CLYMER, PROPRIETOR.
515-517 EUGENE ST., GREENSBORO.

We are prepared to do any and all kinds of general repair work. One of the best equipped shops in the state.

Send us your orders and they shall have prompt attention. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Can You See?

If you have this feeling in your head and can't read the PATRIOT with comfort, there must be something wrong with your eyes.

If you will consult us we will fit you with a pair of glasses and make you see as good as ever. We have all the instruments required for this purpose and know how, Mr. Bernau being a regular graduate optician.

Bernau & Ellington

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS.

The President of the American Tobacco Company Says You Must Love Your Business and Find Your Highest Enjoyment in the Task Itself.

James Crockett in New York World.

"The one straight road to success is to love your business," said James Buchanan Duke, as I sat with him two days ago. "A man must love his business better than he loves anything else if he would make success sure. It is the true, the only way. We employ more than a hundred thousand persons in our vast tobacco business, and as the director of this force I never fail to observe that the man who works only because he is paid to work has no chance in competition with the man who works because he would sooner do that than anything else. It is the practical secret of success. This tobacco business is my pastime, as well as my duty. I never fish or hunt. Those things mean hard work, and there isn't as much fun in them as there is in business."

There is the utterance of a man who, at the age of forty-six years, stands at the head of the mighty Tobacco Trust, a multi-millionaire and captain of industry, whose power is felt in many lands beside his own.

"A man can do best that which he loves best," he said. "If he has started in a business which he cannot learn to love, then he should go into some other business. He will never succeed in this age of competition unless he can find real pleasure in his work. The making of money is not a sufficient incentive. He must find his highest enjoyment in the task itself. No man who works along that line can fail. That is my judgment, based on my own experience and my observation."

In these times of gigantic amalgamation of industry only four men have been found thus far with brains big enough to keep themselves and their emulいた combinations ahead of all competition from within or without, all public opposition, all private rivalry. There are great bankers, financiers, promoters, but only four giants in the actual world of industry and commerce—four incomparable, creative manufacturers and merchants:

John D. Rockefeller—Oil.
Andrew Carnegie—Steel.
H. O. Havemeyer—Sugar.
James B. Duke—Tobacco.

The youngest of these is least known to the public, and yet he is in many respects the most wonderful figure of the four.

Mr. Duke is a man of burly physique. His head and face and thick-set figure remind one of the typical Yorkshire farmer. His English ancestry shows strongly in his body and his mind. The large head, broad, full brow, straight nose, long upper lip, good-natured mouth; round, fresh-colored face; steady, shrewd blue eyes; powerful neck, deep chest and muscular hands—it is easy to find that sturdy, hearty type in the smokes of agricultural England. He talks in simple phrases and is absolutely devoid of vanity in dress or in manner, the plainest and most direct man imaginable.

HE WORKS TEN HOURS A DAY.

This master of men and affairs works ten hours a day regularly. The fact that he owns tens of millions of dollars and has armies of assistants upon whom he can lay the burden of work makes no difference. He has made of the tobacco business an avocation as well as a vocation.

It is when he speaks of business conquests that one can see the tireless flashing in his blue eyes, and it is not hard to believe that the love of his work has made him what he is.

"Another important thing which a young American should remember is that he is living in a country whose great prosperity is due to industry and commerce organized on a larger scale than the world has ever seen before," said Mr. Duke. "If he starts in a small business and has a chance of getting into a large business, he should abandon all foolish ideas about fighting against business concentration, seize his opportunity and try to work his way to the top of the larger system. With reasonable conditions and the sympathetic support of the people, the great industrial companies will in time give to the United States more wealth than all the rest of the world combined. The young man who is seeking for the road to success must recognize that fact. And he must never for a moment forget that the successful industrial companies are successful only because they serve the public better than their rivals or predecessors, that competition can never be destroyed, that monopoly is an unsound business idea—as the unimpressive state of the tobacco trade in France and Italy proves—and that large methods are better than small methods, from every standpoint, public and private. We spent something like $17,000,000 last year in advertising and promoting new business. Monopolists don't have to do that sort of thing."

It is said of Mr. Duke that when he was eight years old he watched a hen sitting on some duck eggs. When the unborn ducklings began to peck through their shells, the impatient boy could not wait for the slow process of nature, but broke the shells with his own hands and drew forth the inmates. That has been characteristic of his whole life. He will not wait for events to occur. He makes them occur. He opposes his will power to the accidents of fortune. Hard work is better than good luck.

SON OF A POOR FARMER.

Mr. Duke was born on a farm near Durham, North Carolina, in 1857. His father, Washington Duke, was a struggling farmer with three sons and one daughter. The future president of the Tobacco Trust was the youngest of the family. When the civil war broke out the farmer found himself in an embarrassing position. He believed in the Union and was opposed to secession, but his state was in arms and, in spite of his sympathies and convictions, he was forced by circumstances to serve in the Confederate navy. Mr. Duke sold his farm and stock with the understanding that he was to be paid in leaf tobacco when the war was over. His children were sent to live with their grandparents in an adjoining county.

After the war Mr. Duke returned to his farm and worked for its owner on a one-third share arrangement. He received some leaf tobacco from the purchaser of his horses, and this he peddled through the country. For two years his struggle for life was so hard that he was unable to have his children with him. He recovered his farm when his employer failed to pay for it. Mr. Duke was then fifty-five years old and his son James—who was afterwards to be one of the richest and most powerful men in the world—was an auburn-haired lad of eight years.

Life was not very gay on that North Carolina farm. Washington Duke was a Republican and made no secret of his views. The Duke family was bitterly hated in that time of political passion. Yet they gave no sign of surrender. Even the Ku-Klux considered the advisability of condemning Mr. Duke and for months he lived in expectation of a night visit from the masked ruffians. He started a primitive tobacco factory in a little barn, but his neighbors were disposed to boycott him. His sons went to the nearest country school, which was open for only three months in the year. During the rest of the time they worked on the farm or helped in the rude little barn-factory.

This was the early life of James Buchanan Duke. When he was eighteen years old his father offered to send him to college. Now mark his attitude and choice at the critical point in his formative young manhood.

"Give me an interest in your business, father," he said. "I'd sooner have that than go to college."

Was it a desire to make money, a natural love for work or a disinclination toward a supposed effeminacy and unprofitable idleness in college life that inspired the young man's decision? Nevertheless, the decision was made, and Washington Duke gave a one-sixth interest in his business to each of his two sons. The third son was otherwise engaged and, therefore, received no share.

By this time the tobacco business had been moved from the first barn to a small wooden factory. James Duke stayed in the factory and attended to the making and packing of smoking and chewing tobacco, while his brother, B. N. Duke, now treasurer of the American Tobacco Company, went on the road and promoted sales. Gradually James became the real head of the firm. In 1871 the Duke factory was built. In 1881 Washington Duke retired from business.

Now the power of the man who directs an industry involving $125,000,000 a year and employs 100,000 persons in manufacturing 300,000,000 pounds of tobacco a year, began to show itself. His capacity for work was amazing. Work was his pastime. He turned his back on all else. In 1885 Mr. Duke & Sons had a business of about $200,000 a year and a total capital of $70,000. In 1889 Mr. Duke had turned the $70,000 into $7,500,000 by sheer devotion to the tobacco trade.

For the first ten years of Duke's Mixture, a cheap and popular form of smoking tobacco, the firm lost money on it. Mr. Duke tried every known form of advertising in vain. But he would not give it up. Last year the sales of Duke's Mixture amounted to one-fifth of all the smoking tobacco used in America. He brought the Durham factory to such a state of perfection that tobacco still in the hog-heads could be manufactured, bagged, labelled and delivered on the car within thirty minutes.

MASTER OF THE INDUSTRY.

The tobacco industry was scattered and without system. Mr. Duke concentrated himself on cigarettes and smoking tobacco. By 1889 he had an annual business of $1,500,000. In that year alone he spent $500,000 in advertising. He came to New York in 1884. His first attempt to consolidate the tobacco trade was through an interview

MEXICAN

It will cure everything that a good liniment ought to cure—that's what horse-owners say of

Mexican Mustang Liniment

Instead of giving a list of ailments we will say it on your horses or cattle for almost every ailment and you may be sure good results will follow.

MUSTANG LINIMENT

with Mr. Ginter, of Allen & Ginter. Mr. Ginter treated him with scorn. "I don't recognize you even as a competitor," he said. But the time was soon to come when Mr. Duke was recognized.

In 1889 Mr. Duke merged his own vast interests with those of Allen & Ginter, the Kinney Tobacco Company, Goodwin & Co. and W. S. Kimball & Co. This was the formation of the American Tobacco Company, with a capital stock of $25,000,000, of which Mr. Duke's firm got $7,500,000.

A year before this Mr. Duke had introduced American cigarettes in Japan. The Japanese put a heavy duty on imported cigarettes and began to manufacture them from American tobacco themselves. The Mauri brothers were in control. But in 1898 Mr. Duke made arrangements to build cigarette factories in Japan. The Mauri brothers surrendered to him and gave the American Tobacco Company 60 per cent. of their stock. The tobacco trust now sells 3,000,000,000 cigarettes annually in Japan. This consumes 10,000,000 pounds of leaf tobacco and yields $1,000,000 a year to the farmers of North Carolina. The tobacco trust also sells 1,500,000,000 American cigarettes in China a year, which pays $500,000 to the North Carolina leaf growers. The magnitude of the foreign trade in American cigarettes may be appreciated when it is known that 6,000,000,000 American cigarettes, requiring 20,000,000 pounds of North Carolina tobacco, were sold in England last year, and that the North Carolina farmers got $2,500,000 from that source alone.

One American combination after another surrendered to Mr. Duke, until the tobacco trust now includes fourteen or fifteen corporations and has nearly sixty factories, which turn out annually 300,000,000 pounds of cigarettes, cigars, smoking and plug tobacco and snuff. The increase in the sale of snuff alone in the United States was more than 2,000,000 pounds last year.

So tremendous and far-reaching is the power of the industrial organization created by Mr. Duke that even in England, with an import duty of 40 cents a thousand on cigarettes to protect the English manufacturers, he forced terms from his unwilling rivals. The Imperial Tobacco Company had a capital of $70,000,000; it had control of the cigarette trade in England; it had the tariff and public sentiment in its favor. Mr. Duke went to London and by the daring of his methods and the stress of his energy he compelled the Imperial Tobacco Company to surrender to him $14,000,000 in stock and cash.

Mr. Duke is recognized today all over the world as the master of the tobacco industry. And this at the age of forty-six years.

This is the man who says that the only road to success is the actual love of work.

It does not sound much like a secret when you come to think of it. The trouble is that most people are trying to find out how to succeed without working. Mr. Duke says that it cannot be done.

IN MEMORIAM.

"Another golden cord is broken.
Another vacant chair."

On March 2nd, 1903, death claimed for its victim Sarah Stanton Hodgkin, wife of M. C. Hodgkin, who preceded her to the grave about seven years ago.

Aunt Sallie, as she was commonly known, was nearing her third mile post. She leaves three sons and two daughters, 37 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren. She received a fall the 8th of last September from which she never recovered, her case being aggravated by kidney trouble, which was the direct cause of her death. She bore her affliction with patience and fortitude and was conscious to the last. Realizing that the end was near she remarked to those around her, "It will soon be over, lay me down with Jesus." She was a life long member of the Friends church at Center, where she was laid to rest by her husband to wait the resurrection morn. The funeral was conducted by the Rev. Dugan Cox, assisted by Alpheus White.

"We shall sleep, but not forever.
There will be a glorious dawn!
We shall meet to part no more.
On the resurrection morn!"

"We shall sleep, but not forever.
In the lone and silent grave;
Blessed be the Lord that taketh,
Blessed be the Lord that giveth."

A FRIEND.

PENELOPE GARDNER.

Penelope, daughter of Aaron and Mary Henly Hill, was born in Randolph county, N. C., September 11, 1817. The home of her childhood was in the most beautiful part of the North State, on the Uwharrie river, the region, as she used to say, where the muscadine grapes grow. This early home with pleasant surroundings and its godly influence was much of her mind and conversation in the later days of her life, its memories bringing to her great comfort and pleasure. Penelope Hill was given education beyond the limits of the common school and was for some years an able and successful teacher, thus helping to develop the executive power and calm self reliance that so marked her character throughout life. The influence of a christian home and surroundings resulted in her conversion in early youth, and for nearly three-quarters of a century she was a humble and devoted follower of the Lord she loved and served.

Penelope Hill and William Gardner were married in Uwharrie Meeting May 6th, 1841. They settled in Guilford, but soon removed to Florence, where they lived until they came west nearly 20 years later. This union was a most happy one. Penelope entered the ministry at Deep River Monthly Meeting in 1863, and for 50 years she performed the duties of a minister ably and faithfully, while William to the end of his life heartily supported and encouraged her in the work to which she devoted herself. They were deeply interested in education also, and in 1855 they established a school near their home at their own expense, erecting the building, employing the teachers and providing necessary funds. This work they maintained until they left North Carolina six years later. In 1861 they came to Kansas, settling at Hesper, where they were soon joined by many relatives and other friends. Here was their home the rest of their lives.

It was not given them to rear children of their own, but at different times 11 children were taken into their home and in comfort and thrift and in godly fear were brought to honorable and useful manhood and womanhood.

William Gardner died January 19, 1881. His loss was sorely felt in the meeting and in the community. After the death of her husband, Penelope Gardner lived with her sister, Margaret Davis, also widowed, in a home not far from the Hesper meeting house. Her health began to fail seriously in the summer of 1902, and last November she was brought to Lawrence to the home of her nephew, William G. Hill. Here she passed beyond the 3rd month 11th day, aged 85 years and six months. In her days of weakness religious comfort did not fail her. The promises were with her and she realized that her hope was "an anchor of the soul both sure and steadfast."

Rev. Dr. Charles W. Byrd, a Methodist minister who went from North Carolina to Atlanta a few years ago, has been elected president of Wesleyan Female College, at Macon, Ga.

The Scout says Taylorsville merchants pay an average of $150 per week for eggs and it thinks the egg crop of Alexander county is worth at least $10,000 annually.

Fruit in some parts of the mountains, notably in Transylvania county, has been badly damaged by the snow and rain and cold weather. Many blossoms were frozen.

Turks are stated to have massacred 31 revolutionists and all the people of the village of Abalitcha, Macedonia.

Mother's Girl.

There exists often a very beautiful companionship between the mother and her daughter. The intimacy is frank, free and sympathetic. But some day the mother feels as if something had chilled this intimacy. The child is silent and sad, and seems to shun her mother instead of seeking her.

This change very often occurs when the young girl is crossing the border line of womanhood. She is morbid, nervous, fearful, as she enters upon this new experience.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription at such a time will do more than restore the normal balance of mind and body. It will establish the woman's intuition upon a basis of sound health, as well as improve the appetite, nourish the nerves, and promote the general physical health.

"Two years ago my daughter's health began to fail," writes Mrs. Dan Hall of Broadhead, Green Co. Wis. "Everything that could be thought of was done to help her but it was of no use. When she began to complain she was quite stout, weighed 170, the picture of good health, until about the age of fourteen then in six months she was so run down her weight was but 120. I felt I could not give her up as she was the only child I had, and I must say, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription my daughter would have been dead had it not been for it. When she had taken one-half bottle the natural function was established and we thought of her taking only two bottles in all, and she completely recovered. Since then she is as well as can be."

The Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Notice of Election.

Notice is hereby given to the voters of Guilford county that the Board of County Commissioners has called an election to be held in the various precincts of said county on Tuesday, the 12th day of May, 1903, for the purpose of submitting to a vote of the qualified voters of said county the question of issuing $5,000 of bonds, all of which will appear in the following resolution passed by the Board, to-wit:

Resolved, By the Board of Commissioners of Guilford county, That in pursuance of "An Act to Authorize the Commissioners of Guilford County to Submit to the Qualified Voters of Said County the Question of Issuing Bonds for the Purpose of Making and Improving, Etc., the Public Roads of Said County," entitled on the 21st day of February, A. D. 1903, a special election in said county is hereby called to be held on the 12th day of May, 1903, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters of said county the question of issuing bonds of the par value of three hundred thousand dollars for the purpose of making, improving, etc., the public roads of said county, at which said election those favoring the issue of said bonds shall vote a ballot with the words "For Good Roads Bond Issue," and those against the issue of said bonds shall vote a ballot with the words "Against Good Roads Bond Issue." Resolved, That for the purpose of registering any qualified voters of said county not already registered, and for the purpose of revising the registration books of said county, and for the purpose of holding said election, the following persons be and they are hereby appointed registrars for the various precincts in said county, to-wit: (Here follows list of judges.)

Resolved, further, That the said election shall be held as provided by law, and for that purpose the said registrars are hereby directed to open the books for the registration of voters on Friday, the 10th day of April, and are directed to close said books on the second Saturday preceding the election, to-wit, Saturday night May 2d, at 9 o'clock, and during said time the said registrars are directed to have the books open at the polling places, to-wit, the polling places mentioned from 9 o'clock A. M. to 5 o'clock P. M. on April 25th, 26th, 27th and 28th, and on May 1st. Resolved, further, That after holding the election as herein provided and as provided by law, the said registrars and judges of election shall count the ballots and the result of said election be and return to the Board of County Commissioners the result of said election in the various precincts on Thursday, May 14th, at 12 o'clock M. a. the court house in Greensboro, at which time and place the said County Commissioners will tabulate and declare the result of said election. This March 10th, 1903.

W. H. RAGAN, Chmn.
J. H. RANKIN,
J. H. BROWN,
W. C. BOREN,
W. C. TUCKER.

Rheumacide

Is a new and scientific compound made from roots, herbs and barks—contains neither opiates nor poisons. It purifies the blood and removes the causes of rheumatism and all blood diseases. Anyone can take RHEUMACIDE with absolute safety. Does not injure the digestive organs.

TWO CURES.

FLORENCE, S. C., Aug. 16, 1902.

Gentlemen:—I began to suffer from rheumatism about three years ago, and had it very bad in my limbs. At times I could hardly walk. Was treated by a physician without benefit. More than a year ago, Mr. George Wilson, an engineer on the Coast Line, living in Florence, told me that "RHEUMACIDE" cured him. I got a bottle and it benefited me. I took five bottles and am now as well as I ever was in my life. I regard "RHEUMACIDE" as a great medicine. I know of others it has cured.

Truly,
S. T. BURCH.

DARLINGTON, S. C., Aug. 19th, 1902.

Gentlemen:—About two years ago I had a very severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism. I suffered great pain and was confined to my bed for five weeks. During the time I was treated by two physicians without permanent relief. Capt. Harker, a conductor on the Atlantic Coast Line heard of my condition and sent me two bottles of "RHEUMACIDE." I began to take it and in a week I got up and walked on crutches. After taking three bottles of the remedy I got entirely well and went back to my business.

I personally know of a number of other bad cases that were cured by the use of your medicine, in this town and vicinity. It is all that you claim for it.

Truly, J. L. SISKRON.

Sold by Druggists. Will be sent express paid on receipt of $1.00.
Bobbitt Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md., U. S. A.

Paracamph

Relieves Instantly, Cures Quickly

BURNS, CUTS, BRUISES,
SORE MUSCLES, SWELLINGS and INFLAMMATIONS.
Good for that Sore Feeling.

IT COOLS, IT SOOTHES, IT CURES.

25c 50c & $1.00 Bottles.

At all good Druggists.

FOR SALE BY HOWARD GARDNER.

THE GUILFORD ROLLER MILLS CO.

MAKES THE BEST
FLOUR, MEAL AND FEED

POLITE AND COURTEOUS ATTENTION TO CUSTOM WORK, AS WELL AS THE EXECUTION OF ORDERS

HALBURT'S

CHILL AND TONIC PILLS

Guaranteed to cure any case of chills or your money refunded.

ASHEBORO STREET PHARMACY

Business Notices.

LOOK OUT FOR

KING & OAKLEY

THEY HAVE OPENED THE

CITY SALOON

At 329 South Elm St.

First-class Stock of Wines and Liquors, Cigars and Tobacco

Call and get the REAL THING, as we don't keep shoddy goods. We have a handsome place, conveniently arranged to accommodate our customers.
Call and see us.

NEW

TRIUMPH IN MEDICINE

Mothers and children should be profoundly grateful for Vick's Perfected and Tasteless Pure Castor Oil.

As efficient as a dose of the nauseous, but valuable old vegetable cathartic, and as pleasant to the taste as vanilla or pineapple syrup. 10c. bottles.
Trade supplied by

THE L. RICHARDSON DRUG CO.
Wholesale, Greensboro, N. C.

No better cathartic or gentle laxative can be used than this old-time remedy now in a pleasant form.

We promptly obtain U. S. and Foreign

PATENTS

Send model, sketch or photo of invention for free report on patentability. For free book
How to Secure PATENTS write to CASNOW & CO.

OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

SUBSCRIBE TO

$1 A YEAR, THE PATRIOT $1 A YEAR.

A WEEKLY FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

Young Plants

Every farmer knows that some plants grow better than others. Soil may be the same and seed may seem the same but some plants are weak and others strong.

And that's the way with children. They are like young plants. Same food, same home, same care but some grow big and strong while others stay small and weak.

Scott's Emulsion offers an easy way out of the difficulty.
Child weakness often means starvation, not because of lack of food, but because the food does not feed.

Scott's Emulsion really feeds and gives the child growing strength.

Whatever the cause of weakness and failure to grow—
Scott's Emulsion seems to find it and set the matter right.

Send for free sample.

Scott & Bowne, Chemists, 409 Pearl St., New York

50c. and $1.00; all druggists.

Due Notice is Served.

Due notice is hereby served on the public generally that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the only salve on the market that is made from the pure, unadulterated state of the tobacco tree in France and Italy proves—and that large methods are better than small methods, from every standpoint, public and private. We spent something like $17,000,000 last year in advertising and promoting new business. Monopolists don't have to do that sort of thing."

It is said of Mr. Duke that when he was eight years old he watched a hen sitting on some duck eggs. When the unborn ducklings began to peck through their shells, the impatient boy could not wait for the slow process of nature, but broke the shells with his own hands and drew forth the inmates. That has been characteristic of his whole life. He will not wait for events to occur. He makes them occur. He opposes his will power to the accidents of fortune. Hard work is better than good luck.

SON OF A POOR FARMER.

Mr. Duke was born on a farm near Durham, North Carolina, in 1857. His father, Washington Duke, was a struggling farmer with three sons and one daughter. The future president of the Tobacco Trust was the youngest of the family. When the civil war broke out the farmer found himself in an embarrassing position. He believed in the Union and was opposed to secession, but his state was in arms and, in spite of his sympathies and convictions, he was forced by circumstances to serve in the Confederate navy. Mr. Duke sold his farm and stock with the understanding that he was to be paid in leaf tobacco when the war was over. His children were sent to live with their grandparents in an adjoining county.

After the war Mr. Duke returned to his farm and worked for its owner on a one-third share arrangement. He received some leaf tobacco from the purchaser of his horses, and this he peddled through the country. For two years his struggle for life was so hard that he was unable to have his children with him. He recovered his farm when his employer failed to pay for it. Mr. Duke was then fifty-five years old and his son James—who was afterwards to be one of the richest and most powerful men in the world—was an auburn-haired lad of eight years.

Life was not very gay on that North Carolina farm. Washington Duke was a Republican and made no secret of his views. The Duke family was bitterly hated in that time of political passion. Yet they gave no sign of surrender. Even the Ku-Klux considered the advisability of condemning Mr. Duke and for months he lived in expectation of a night visit from the masked ruffians. He started a primitive tobacco factory in a little barn, but his neighbors were disposed to boycott him. His sons went to the nearest country school, which was open for only three months in the year. During the rest of the time they worked on the farm or helped in the rude little barn-factory.

HON. WESCOTT ROBERSON.

STATE NEWS.

One of the Ablest Younger Leaders of the Legislature of 1903.

From the News and Observer.

One of the most popular, capable and useful of the younger leaders of the house of representatives of 1903 was Hon. Wescott Roberson, of Guilford county. He was one of the youngest and yet he was one of the most prudent. His judgment was excellent and he was recognized by young and old alike as a safe leader.

Mr. Roberson was born in Chapel Hill, Orange county, February 16th, 1873; was educated in the common schools of his native county and at the University of North Carolina, where he graduated in the class of '96 with a degree of A. B., afterwards studying law under Manning and Shepherd, and graduating in '98, securing his license in September of that year. In October, 1898, he went to High Point, becoming junior member of the firm of Barringer & Roberson, succeeding with marked ability in the practice with Mr. John A. Barringer. He is the present city attorney of High Point, having held that position for two years. Was a member of the house of representatives in 1901, receiving a majority of 80 that year, and was returned in 1903 by a majority of 1,700. In the legislature he was chairman of the committee on corporations, and served with distinction as member of the committees on the judiciary, court district, salaries and fees, insurance, private bills. He was especially interested in the passage of the Audubon bill, which he introduced and successfully carried through the general assembly.

Mr. Roberson is single, is of Baptist faith, a Mason and a member of the Jr. O. U. A. M.

Mr. Roberson made a reputation in the general assembly of 1903 and added to his strong position among the state's most capable and popular young leaders of the cohorts of Democracy.

Office Holders Under Severe Mental Strain. Asheville Dispatch.

Federal office holders hereabouts are under a severe mental strain by reason of the fact that some of their number have been summoned as witnesses in the election contest hearing, and as civil service regulations are strict with reference to "pernicious activity" in politics they fear the result of possible disclosures.

Thomas L. Green, secretary to the late Congressman Moody, was on the stand today, and was placed under cross-examination regarding the distribution of campaign funds. He said the late Major Moody had paid poll taxes for a few people, including a family of five brothers and that the last mother's son of them had voted for Gudgey.

While the resultant evidence did not show exact figures it did show that the Republican executive committee used about four thousand dollars besides one thousand for Buncombe county, together with special funds for Haywood, Jackson and Clay counties. Mr. Green denied that he had any knowledge of the use of two dollar bills for purchasing votes and submitted the amazing observation that federal office holders were one of the principal sources of failure from which to get funds.

Arrested for Fake Marriage.

Norfolk, Va., April 4.—A North Carolina officer carried to Wilson today John Green, the man alleged to have married Miss Sadie Davis in a mock ceremony in which a saloon-keeper acted as clergyman. There was a reward of $200 on Green offered by Governor Aycock. The girl's father hearing that Green was in this locality came here and with Constable Ferguson, of Lambert's Point, yesterday located Green on an oyster schooner. He was taken before Justice Smith and committed to the Norfolk county jail. Green denies the charge against him. He says he is not afraid of a trial and will easily prove the charges false. He says he has a family living in Laurinburg, N. C., and never passed as a single man in Wilson, as charged.

Green is alleged to have boarded with the Davises in Wilson and become infatuated with Miss Davis. He deserted her a few days after the "wedding" and since then the police have been hot on his trail. He was a much-surprised man when arrested here.

Russian Doctor Weds a North Carolina Girl.

Richmond, Va., April 2.—Dr. Nicholas Granovitch Ardan, a Russian student who graduated as president of his class at the medical college here a year ago, married tonight under romantic circumstances. While resident physician at the Virginia hospital he accepted the place as physician to the Fox River Lumber Company at Duffield, W. Va. Yesterday he returned and declared his love for Miss Minnie Cabell Roberts, a nurse in the hospital. She discarded him and he started to return to his West Virginia position, but missed his train. He renewed his suit and was accepted. Miss Roberts resigned at once. They were married tonight. The bride is a daughter of a well-known North Carolina family, a beautiful and accomplished girl.

Missionaries Return From China.

Rock Hill, S. C., Special.

The Rev. Lacy Little and his wife, Mrs. Miss Ella C. Davidson, missionaries to China, who have been stationed at Peking for some time, left Hang Chow, China, in the 14th of March on their way home on furlough on account of the ill health of Mr. Little. They will stop awhile in North Carolina, visiting relatives of Mr. Little and are expected here about the last of May, where they will be the guest of Mr. Wm. H. Hendon, a brother-in-law of Mrs. Little.

Rev. Mr. Little is a brother of Mrs. A. W. McAllister, of Greensboro.]

For liver troubles and constipation there's nothing better in creation than little Early Risers, the famous little pills.

They always effect a cure and save doctor bills.

Little Early Risers are different from all other pills. They do not weaken the system, but act as a tonic to the tissues by arousing the secretions and restoring the liver to the full performance of its functions naturally. Howard Gardner.

Congressman W. W. Kitchin will deliver the address at the close of the Winston-Salem graded schools on May 22nd.

A dispatch from Bessemer City says: John Polk, a negro boy seventeen years old, was found murdered near the railroad track here. He had been shot and badly beaten. No clue has developed as to who committed the crime.

The Heinz Pickle Company will open a pickle plant in Newbern the coming season. A representative of the company has made arrangements with some of the truckers whereby they will plant 210 acres of "cubes" for the firm.

New Bern Journal: A leading dealer in this city of sporting goods, says he is now selling more baseball goods, balls, bats and gloves to girls than he is to the boys. The athletic girl is strictly in evidence here, and she is all right.

Edenton Transcript: Bit by a stray dog, the little six-years-old son of a colored preacher named Williams, living near Sunbury, is raving mad. Frothing at the mouth and hideous cries he is dying—dying in anguish and pain while a heart-broken father helplessly watches his pitiful passing.

Another new industry is to be established at Spray at once. The Rhode Island Company was chartered on Friday. The capital stock is $125,000, and the incorporators are B. Frank Mebane, W. W. Walker and J. S. Patterson. The new company will manufacture cotton, wool and other textiles.

Troy Dispatch, April 3rd: Sunday night, as the result of a quarrel and an attempt to enter his house with a gun with supposedly murderous intent, Mayor McNair shot and instantly killed Frank Rogers at Vestal. Both the men are negroes. McNair was arrested and the trial continued twenty days.

Morganton News-Herald: Probably the heaviest family in the county is that of Mr. Jos. E. Whisenant, of Quaker Meadow township. The total weight of Mr. Whisenant and his eight sons is 1,738 pounds. The father is 68 years of age and weighs 171 pounds. And they all vote the Democratic ticket.

A special from Franklinton Saturday said: "A tenant house on the land of J. H. Kearney, about two miles west of here, was destroyed by fire last night. The house was occupied by Rufus Daniel, colored, his wife and seven children. Four of the children who were sleeping up-stairs were burned to death."

Governor Aycock has appointed his brother, Hon. B. F. Aycock, of Columbus county, a member of the board of directors of the state penitentiary to succeed Hon. E. L. Travis, of Halifax, resigned. Mr. Aycock retires as a member of the board of directors of the State Normal and Industrial College at Greensboro.

Pelham correspondence Charlotte Observer: An election will be held here May 4th on the question of a graded school. The people seem thoroughly aroused upon the subject since the address delivered here by Governor Aycock March 27th and it is now believed there will be little opposition to the schools being established.

Capt. C. E. Mindo, aged about 60 years, committed suicide last Wednesday at Tyro Shops, Davidson county. No cause for the deed is known. Capt. Mindo shot himself in the head with a shot gun. He was a famous dog trainer and handled some noted dogs. He was an Englishman, but came to Davidson from Charlottesville, Va.

Three prisoners, Abe Barbee, Frank Gunn and George Kirley, escaped from the Yanceyville jail one day last week. They were confined in cells on the second floor and used an iron bar in breaking the locks on the door, the bar being taken from the apartments. Kirley was arrested at Semora on the following afternoon, while he was waiting for a train. The others make good their escape. Kirley escaped from the penitentiary in January, where he was serving a ten-years sentence.

Monroe Enquirer: Mrs. D. C. Robinson, of Vance township, jumped into a well last Tuesday and came very near being drowned. The well is about 30 feet deep and it is about 10 feet from the top of the well to the water. There was no one at home at the time except some small children, and they ran about a quarter of a mile to get help. When Mrs. Robinson was rescued she was almost exhausted, but soon recovered. The unfortunate lady has been deranged for some time.

Reidsville correspondence Charlotte Observer: Capt. J. P. Somers is to receive a large amount from the Southern Railway Company. Some time ago he entered suit in Greensboro for $50,000 and the Southern's officials notified him to withdraw the suit and they would pay him enough to satisfy him. Mr. Somers entered suit on account of injuries received while he was conductor on a freight train. The accident happened near Benaja, and Capt. Somers had the misfortune to lose both his arms.

The secretary of the North Carolina Bar Association has addressed a letter to the chief justice and associate justices of the Supreme court calling their attention to the following resolution, which was adopted at the last meeting of the bar association: "Resolved, That it is the opinion of this association that the judges of the Supreme court of the state ought to wear robes while sitting upon the bench in the discharge of their official duties, and the association requests the court to adopt such rules as may be necessary to carry into effect this recommendation."

Monroe Enquirer: A man named Morton was arrested here yesterday for violating the new law against illegal sale of liquor in this county, and was tried before Mayor Stevens on a charge of having liquor for sale. Morton admitted having the liquor, as several bottles were found in his house, but claimed it was for his family to drink and not for sale. As this was the first case under the new law it attracted a great deal of attention. Mayor Stevens withheld judgment until next Monday and allowed Morton to go on his own recognizance until judgment is rendered. The mayor stated that if Morton is guilty he will skip before Monday, which would be the very best thing for the community.

Premier Combes stated in the French Chamber of Deputies that the religious orders were taking a threatening and violent attitude.

The BEE HIVE

320-322 SOUTH ELM ST., GREENSBORO, N. C.

The BEE HIVE

Great Millinery Opening!

We can please the hard to please.

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL HATS EVER DISPLAYED IN GREENSBORO. YOU CANNOT AFFORD TO MISS THIS GRAND EXHIBITION OF FINE MILLINERY AND DRY GOODS.

GREENSBORO'S LEADING MILLINERY STORE

EVERYTHING YOU WANT CAN BE FOUND HERE. COME TODAY, DON'T WAIT TILL TOMORROW. WE HAVE TWO OF THE FINEST HAT TRIMMERS EVER IN THE CITY.

R. G. FORTUNE & CO.

320-322 SOUTH ELM STREET

Judge Story's Money.

In 1826 Josiah Quincy, then a young man but recently graduated from Harvard, was invited by Judge Story, a member of the supreme bench, to accompany him to Washington. In "Figures of the Past" Mr. Quincy gives an incident of the journey from Boston to Washington which was made by stage-coach:

The first night of our journey was spent at Ashford, in Connecticut, where we arrived late in the evening, and here the bother of wildcat currency, as it was afterward called, was forced upon our attention.

The bills of local banks would not circulate beyond the town in which they were issued, and when Judge Story, who had neglected to provide himself with United States notes, offered the landlord a Salem bill in payment for his supper the man stared at it as if it had been the wampum of the Indians or the shell money of the south sea islanders.

"This is not good," said the host, "and I think you must know it." "I know it is good," retorted the judge testily. "And I'll tell you how I know it. I made it myself!"

This reply, of which the landlord could make nothing, unless it were the confession of a forger, did not mend matters, and it was fortunate that I had provided myself with some national notes, which ended the difficulty. The explanation was that Judge Story as president of a Salem bank had signed the bill.

A Yellow Dog Versus a Book Agent.

We used to have a yellow dog at home that always recognized book agents and tramps at sight. It made no difference how well or how poorly an agent was dressed, that dog knew him and stopped him. If he was dressed like a preacher and insisted on coming in, he didn't look like a preacher when he went away.

One sultry summer day an extra swell book agent descended upon us. He was tall and slender—made more so by his silk hat—was straight as an arrow and walked with the light, springy step of a trotting horse. He wore a neat cutaway coat, a white vest, newly pressed trousers and patent leather shoes on which the sunbeams skipped like spring lambs. He seemed to be fortune's chief favorite. As he approached the gate his sky was serene. No cloud appeared anywhere. But alas for what was just over the horizon! Under the evergreen tree, where two or three hens lay scratching in the dust, was stretched the yellow cur, taking his midday nap. The instant that agent's hand touched the latch his sky was black. The air was soon chaotic with swinging arms and legs, coattails, plug hat and cries of "Murder!"

The corn in that immediate neighborhood was never harvested. As the dog lay down again to pick the shoddy out of his teeth a torn and tattered man limped away.—"Confessions of a Book Agent" in Leslie's Monthly.

Treason.

"Well, old chap, were you sorry to leave Lunnon?" "Cawn't say I was old fellow. Beastly fog, you know." "Deah me! Why, you'll be pawising Amewica next."

Shadows Before.

"Are you not worried by your wife's absence?" "No; it's her return that always worries me."

Landlord—Young man, you should pay as you go. Guest—Very good, my dear sir, but I shan't go for three or four months yet.

This Will Interest Mothers.

Mother Gray's Sweet Powders for Children, Cure Feverishness, Bad Stomach, Teething Disorders, Break up Colds, move and regulate the Bowels and Destroy Worms. They never fail. Over 30,000 testimonials. At all druggists, 25c. Sample mailed. 12-46

Here it is in a Nut Shell

To increase my facilities and give my patrons every possible accommodation, the Millinery business of Gorrill & Dorsett has been moved to first floor of my store, and in future instead of having to travel all over town you can take a seat in my store and get anything you need in Dry Goods, Notions or Millinery. The arrangement is especially convenient for my friends from the country and I trust that they will feel free to take advantage of the addition to our accommodations. New goods, new furniture and everything up to what you want it.

Charles H. Dorsett
AGENT FOR "American Lady" THE BEST CORSET
Phone 51. 230 South Elm Street.

SHOES At Wholesale!

WE INVITE EVERY MERCHANT IN THIS SECTION TO CALL AND SEE OUR STOCK. WE WILL MEET ANY PRICES IN THE UNITED STATES AND SAVE YOU FREIGHTS.

J. B. Mathis & Co.

302 South Elm Street, Greensboro N. C.

PLAN TO GUARD ROOSEVELT.

Secret Service Man to go in Advance and Drill the Police.

Four or five days before the President starts west, one of the stars of the Secret Service will set out ahead of him. He is the President's "advance man." To him is intrusted the making of all arrangements for guarding Mr. Roosevelt at every stopping place, no matter how large or how small. His work is surrounded with the utmost secrecy and his identity is not known outside of the Secret Service office.

The "advance man" reaches each place at which the President is to stop three or four days ahead of the Presidential train. He gets the reception committee and the heads of the Police Department together and goes over every foot of ground the President will cover while he is in the city. The track on which the Presidential train will arrive is selected, and the route from his car to the carriage that will be waiting for him and his party is mapped out. It is known exactly where the Presidential car will stop, and how many steps he will have to take to reach his carriage.

PLANS MAPPED OUT.

The Secret Service man points out where ropes are to be stretched to keep the crowd at the proper distance and where the policeman are to stand. The carriages for the Reception Committee are placed on the opposite side of the street from those for Mr. Roosevelt and his party. This is done so that the committee may fall in behind and prevent confusion by a jam of carriages on one side of the street.

Then the hall in which the President is to speak, the hotel in which he is to stop and any other places he is to visit are similarly gone over, and the places for stretching ropes and stationing police guards assigned.

Then the "advance man" takes the committee and the police officials into a big room and gives them a heart-to-heart talk on how the whole affair is to be managed. President Roosevelt dislikes to be hemmed in by policemen to an extent that will interfere with his movements or prevent the assembled multitude from getting a good look at him. Until the plan of having a Secret Service man make all of the arrangements was decided on it was found to be the natural inclination of the President in all cities to crowd around the President in squads. That is just what Mr. Roosevelt does not like. He has sometimes objected even to the two Secret Service men who go with him on all of his trips and are at his side wherever he goes. He feels that they are well able to look after his safety, and depends on the police only to keep the crowds from running over him. This is all explained to the police chiefs, and every detail of the arrangements for the President's visit is made plain.

OTHER SECRET SERVICE MEN.

With the "advance man" while these arrangements are being made goes the Secret Service operative, whose headquarters are in that city. One is sent from the nearest point. On the day the President is to arrive the local Secret Service officer superintends the stringing of the ropes and the completion of the other plans. He boards the President's train outside of the city and posts the Secret Service men on the train as to the arrangements.

When the train pulls into the depot it stops at the place indicated, and the President finds a path to his carriage open and guarded, but with no policemen crowding around. There is no trouble or confusion, and it is the same wherever he goes. The local Secret Service officer remains in the background and sees that the arrangements are carried out as planned by the "advance man," and the police get the credit for "perfect arrangements."

In the mean time the "advance man" has gone on ahead and made similar plans all along the line. This system was introduced under President Roosevelt, and it works so well that there has never been the slightest hitch in any of his trips. Every detail operates like clockwork.

VOICE OF THE STATE PRESS.

The claim that Haywood could not get a fair trial at Raleigh is enough to make a horse laugh. The fact is that a fair trial is not what he wanted.—Durham Herald.

The fact that Mr. Page and Mr. Eggleston have gone this far "against their raising" is bad enough, but they have not yet been heard to traduce the South as have George W. Cable, John S. Wise and a few others of their ilk. But having taken the first steps, may not Messrs. Page, Eggleston, et al., go still further and turn their backs completely upon their native section, its institutions and traditions? Time will tell.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

"Roosevelt promises are like pie-crust," says ex-Senator Simon, of Oregon. That's what some North Carolina Republicans say of Pritchard. But the "ins" don't say so and they boss the whole push.—Raleigh News and Observer.

The carter who prayed to Hercules to get his wagon out of the rut, in which it was stuck fast, was told by him to put his shoulder to the wheel and help himself. The people of Rockingham county will never get good roads till they resolve to help themselves.—Webster's Weekly.

The Roosevelt family has been disposed of temporarily and if the Associated Press would refrain from telling us anything about them for a season we all might settle down to a full enjoyment of the Eastertide.—Statesville Landmark.

Somebody at Monroe wanted some whiskey last week. He gave a negro the money to get it. He also got 60 days on the chain-gang. Those who handle intoxicating beverages in this county, unlawfully, evidently have a rough road to travel.—Our Home.

Stranger Than the Siamese Twins.

Morristown, N. J., Special to St. Louis Republic.

Stranger by far than the celebrated case of the Siamese twins was a dual life that ended yesterday in Green Bower Lodge, near Hibernia, this state.

It was that of a boy and girl who, at birth twelve years ago, were connected by a small piece of tissue near the base of the brain. Although this was severed when they were but a few moments old, their lives, actions and impulses were the same, even when miles separated them, and they were away from one another when both fell ill and died at the same moment.

George and Margaret Clark were the names of these unique children and their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark.

After the early operation no thought was given to the unusual condition of the children's birth, but as they grew it was observed that their actions were similar at all times and in all circumstances.

Even as babies, if one was peevish and fretful, so was the other. If one slept the other slept. They learned to walk at the same time and they uttered their first words at the same moment.

Although one was a boy and the other a girl, their resemblance was so marked that only the difference in their clothing enabled even the parents to distinguish them.

As they grew they became inseparable. If one wished to do a thing the same thought was in the mind of the other. They went through school together and if George could not think of the answer to a question neither could Margaret. If one knew, both knew.

Astonishing instances are told of this telepathic sympathy between them. When they were only 8 years old the girl went to visit her aunt in Dover and while she was gone the boy told his parents everything she did during her absence, and it proved true. Margaret had the same gift and when her brother was out at play she was invariably able to find him as by intuition.

The circumstance of their death was as remarkable as all that had gone before. The little girl went three weeks ago to the home of another aunt, Mrs. Janet Henry, at Green Pond. George remained at home. One day Margaret was seized with the grip. At the same moment the boy became sick.

The girl could not be brought back home, and in spite of every care she died yesterday afternoon. At the same hour the boy died here. Both will be buried in one grave.

The Alamance School Exhibition.

EDITOR PATRIOT:—I notice in last week's PATRIOT that G. Will Armfield gave your readers an account of the Mt. Hope school, and as nothing appeared in regard to Alamance I thought I would give a short account of it, as I had the pleasure of being there. I must say it was the best one I have attended in a long time. The audience was large, and the best of order and attention given. The speeches, orations, recitations, etc., reflected great honor on both the teachers and pupils. I had heard there was to be some "good roads" talk, and was much in hopes to have heard some one who has given this very important subject attention. But I saw the parties failed to get there, and suppose it was from the fact that they could not on account of bad roads or some other good reason. J. S. Worth, who happened to pass by, was called on and made a few remarks in favor of good roads, the bond issue, etc. In the course of his remarks he said if he lived to be as old as his people generally lived he expected to see Greensboro the capital of North Carolina; that the people of Guilford were the most progressive on all lines of any in the state, and the only thing she now needed was first class roads; her schools and colleges were the pride, not only of the county, but state as well. He talked ten minutes, I suppose, and urged the voters to think the matter over, and was sure if they did they would be bound to see the benefit that would result from this bond issue. I think he said about three townships, viz: Morehead, Gilmer and High Point, would pay three-fourths, if not more, of this tax, and if this is the case, which I do not in the least doubt, it does look like the vote would surely carry.

I will close, hoping Mr. Worth will pardon me for saying, although he had several invitations to stop over, he went on down the road where he had an audience of one I have no doubt? For he looked pleased on Monday! I will vote the bond issue 300,000 strong, get in my buggy and say, "get up, go long." Then we country boys could drive to town and not muddy our sweethearts' pretty gowns. The old men of Guilford are true and brave. They have "blazed out the way," are nearing the grave. Let us complete the work they so nobly begun and make old Guilford blossom if we can.

Miss Stone's Ramson Started War.

Washington Dispatch.

Spencer F. Eddy, of Illinois, secretary of the United States legation at Constantinople, who is home on leave of absence, called today upon Secretary Hay. Mr. Eddy told the State department officials that the money raised in the country to pay the ransom demanded for Miss Ellen M. Stone had been used by the Macedonian revolutionary committee to buy arms and ammunition for their adherents, and the military activity of the Turkish government was the result of knowledge that this had been done.

It is reported that Hon. Jeter C. Pritchard, who was recently appointed a Justice of the Supreme court of the District of Columbia, will retire from that position within the next 18 months to succeed Circuit Court Judge Simonon, who is expected to retire on account of increasing age.

The twelfth annual debate of the Philologist and Clio Literary Societies of Elon College will take place in the college chapel Friday, April 10th, at 8 o'clock.

Baron von Sternberg is being criticised in Berlin for seeing President Roosevelt off when the President left Washington on his tour.

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box.

$10,000 TO BE DISTRIBUTED.

The St. Louis Republic Offers Fourteen Splendid Rewards to Subscribers.

An interesting announcement appears in that great metropolitan newspaper, The St. Louis Republic, in the form of a profit-sharing offer to any one now a subscriber or willing to become a subscriber of The Republic. A big sum of $10,000 is to be paid in rewards for good judgment and skill. It is possible to earn all the way from $10.00 up to $5,000.

The Republic subscribers are invited to estimate upon the number of admissions to the World's Fair grounds upon the occasion of the grand dedicatory ceremonies, April 30, 1903, of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. The subscriber whose estimate comes nearest the official record will receive $5,000; the next one will get $2,500, and additional sum of $2,500 will be divided in rewards ranging from $1,000 down to $10.00 among those whose estimates most nearly approximate the official record of admissions. A payment of $7.50 will provide for the delivery of the daily and Sunday Republic for not less than one year, or $6.00 will pay for six annual subscriptions to the Twice-a-week Republic, and if the remittance is received on or before 4 P. M. of April 29, 1903, the person sending it can make six estimates. More estimates may be made by extending a subscription beyond one year, or by organizing clubs and inducing others to subscribe.

Complete information as to the conditions of this contest, together with blanks will be found in the Daily, Sunday and Twice-a-week editions of The Republic from April 2 until April 29, 1903, or will be mailed to any one upon application. All communications and estimates should be addressed to The Republic Profit-Sharing Bureau, Call Box 201, St. Louis, Mo.

What Bothers Him.

Atlanta Constitution.

"Dis ole worl' is bright enough," says Brother Dickey. "ter blaze de pathway ter de next; but de trouble is, de next worl' is blazin' fer some er us most uncomfortable already!"

Evidence.

"Are there many foreigners in this town?" "You wouldn't be askin' such a question if you seen our statistics once. There was sixteen sets of triplets and three cases of quadruplets here last year."

The Unattainable.

Waggles—That simple little invention of his made his back a millionaire. Jaggles—I suppose he's now trying something harder? Waggles—I should say so. He trying to make something out of the millionaire.

Repartee.

Miss Reeskey (patronizingly)—Rather embarrassing for you, I should think, always to be blushing when you shouldn't.

Miss Daymure—And equally embarrassing for you, I should think, never to be blushing when you should!

Success.

"Well, Mrs. Highblower ought to be content now, having succeeded in getting her daughters placed."

"What! has she?" "Yes, they are all richly and unhappily married."

Realism.

Mrs. Johnly—I declare! We bought that picture six months ago and I have only just noticed that figure of a man fishing.

Mr. Johnly—The fishing season has only just opened, you know.

He—It makes me a better man to kiss you.

She—I want to help you all I can.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and one dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

25c VICK'S 25c

TURTLE OIL LINIMENT

Best and Largest. All Dealers.

New York Bargain House

Spring is coming fast and in order to make room for the large stock of goods coming in daily I will offer

225 SUITS AT A BIG REDUCTION

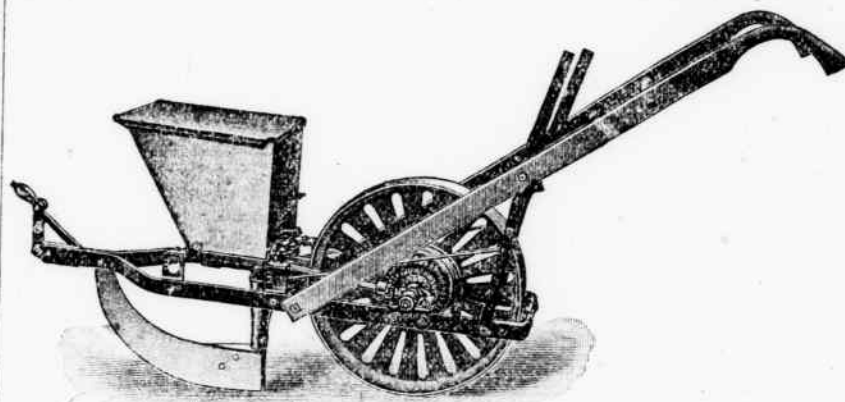

Also Hats, Shoes and Gents' Furnishings must go the same way. Yours for business,

New York Bargain House

I. ISAACSON, Prop.

332 South Elm St.

"THE EMPIRE"

The greatest little Corn Drill built. Force feed fertilizer. Drops corn from 8 to 60 inches with 12 changes. Corn and fertilizer deposited in full view; no skips. Cog and shaft drive; no chain to tighten or links to take out. Handles any size grain of corn. Weighs 120 pounds; a boy can handle it. If it don't do the work it belongs to us.

The "Continental" Disc Cultivator

With it you can cultivate anything that grows in rows. You can list your tobacco and corn land. You can make an 8 disc harrow or spring tooth cultivator out of it with small cost. 136 sold and transferred by us last season and could not fill orders. Binders, Mowers, Rakes, "Continental" Disc Harrows with roller bearings, and J. I. Case Engines and Threshers. We have the celebrated Kraus Pivot Axle Hoe Cultivator. Nothing of the kind equal it. Our prices and terms are the best. Come to see us and be convinced.

Greensboro Storage and Transfer Company

When Buying Furniture?

If not the loss is a mutual one and should be remedied at once. Our spring line is just the one to try us on for assortment and prices. You'll see cleverly designed pieces of Furniture for parlor decoration and service; the best designed, most securely built Chamber Suits; the largest and most attractive line of Iron Beds--in fact, everything dependable for the home. See our window display. For prices come on the inside.

W. G. Benefield & Co.

The Yellow Front.

327 S. Elm St.

TALMAGE SERMON

By Rev.
FRANK DE WITT TALMAGE, D.D.,
Pastor of Jefferson Park Presbyterian Church, Chicago

Chicago, April 5.—In this sermon, appropriate to the day, the preacher presents a vivid picture of the triumph of Christ into Jerusalem amid the acclamations of the common people, whose plaudits were so soon to give way to execration. The text is John xii, 13. "Took branches of palm trees and went forth to meet him and cried hosanna."

This is Palm Sunday. In the ecclesiastical year it is the day on which we commemorate the strange scene on the ancient road which constituted the one sole peasant of our Lord's life. It is the day that ushers in holy week, the beginning of which saw him riding into Jerusalem in triumph and the ending in Joseph of Arimathea's tomb. This is the time when the same surging crowds which, a few days later, will cry: "Crucify him! Crucify him!" now make the Judean hills echo and re-echo with their exultant shouts of "Hosanna to the Son of David! Hosanna to the King!"

Appropriate, also, is my subject in reference to the audience to which I speak. I know not of any class of people to whom the significant lessons of Palm Sunday can be better applied than to ourselves. Christ among the waving palms ought to have for us gospel teachings, as well as Christ in Pilate's judgment hall. Christ among the vociferating multitudes should appeal to us suggestively, as well as Jesus carrying his cross, Jesus resurrected from the grave, Jesus appearing to his disciples after the crucifixion or Jesus ascending from Mount Olivet.

Palm Sunday emphasizes the truth that a false and a selfish adoration of Jesus Christ never results in a triumphant and a lasting worship. Why did that great concourse of people, which came forth to welcome Jesus into the Davidic capital, soon turn upon Christ and become his taunting executioners? Why did they one day throw under his feet the branches of palm, which have always been the symbol of victory, and within a week be eager to mock his dying agonies upon Calvary? They were not welcoming Christ as their spiritual Saviour. They were merely greeting him as a temporal king, who would lead them on to national victories, as Napoleon did the French, Frederick the Great the Prussians, Alexander the Greeks, as Ramesses II, the Egyptians or Saladin the Saracens when he totally defeated the crusaders near Tiberias and captured their leader, Guy de Lusignan, in 1187. They were not welcoming a Messiah for whom they must if necessary suffer and die, but they were greeting one whom they believed to be about to drive the Roman tyrants off the Hebrew soil; one who would restore the Solomonian grandeur, when the national treasury would be full of gold, and the kings and the queens of the north, east, south and west would make pilgrimages to Jerusalem, the queen of Sheba came, bringing her presents of spices and precious stones. Thus, when Christ allowed himself to be arrested as a common criminal, the rabble wanted to destroy him because they had cherished in their breasts the false hope of a temporal champion.

Do We Worship Selfishly?

My friends, is our faith in Jesus unsatisfactory? Are we, too, worshipping Christ from selfish and not from spiritual motives? Do we attend the fashionable church in our neighborhood merely to win social prestige rather than with the desire to fit us to help the troubled and the lost? I once had a physician bluntly tell me that he joined the church with the same purpose for which he joined the club—he went to both places so that he could be brought into contact with people and win as many patients as he could. I wonder how many of us are kind to our friends solely from the selfish motive to make our friends kind to us. It is possible to even feed the hungry with the most mercenary of desires. Christ stated this when he said, "When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, nor thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbors; but they also bid thee again and recompense can be made thee. In other words, we should not make our Christian engagements merely a case of reciprocity—you do so much for me and I will do so much for you. But when you make a gospel feast ask that young man to your home who has no friends and is alone in a great city. Ask that young girl who has no chance of coming in touch with a refined family circle unless you give her an invitation. "Call the poor, the maimed, the lame and the blind and thou shalt be blessed, for they cannot recompense thee." Are we, this Palm Sunday, honoring Christ with the unselfish purpose of his disciples, who were accompanying him from Bethany and who not only threw the palm branches in his way, but who were also ready to die for him, or are we worshipping Jesus with the selfish adoration of the great host that came out from Jerusalem to welcome him as a temporal king?

If we are selfishly worshipping Christ for what we can get out of him, may we not here and now change that purpose, as did Dr. Bonar, through the influence of an inspired dream which he had in his Edinburgh parsonage? For many years he had been a popular preacher, but his ministry bore but little spiritual fruit. He himself had but little spiritual faith. One night, as he slept, he thought an angel came and stood by his bed and said, "Hosanna, what is troubling thee?" "Oh," answered the minister, "I do not seem to derive any happiness from my Christian belief, and I have practically no spiritual results." "That is easily accounted for," said the angel. "Let us analyze your ministerial ambition. We shall say the whole represents 100 per cent. How large a percentage of that represents your selfish pride in preaching to a big audience? Fifteen per cent. How large a percentage represents the desire to live in a fine house? Fifteen per cent. How large a percentage represents a desire to bring in a large addition to your church, so that your brother ministers will speak well of you? Forty per cent. How large a percentage represents the desire to be intellectual and to have the brainy men of Edinburgh praise your sermons? Ten per cent. How large a percentage represents your desire to have your children move in good society? Fifteen per cent. What percentage of your ambition is left to serve, for Christ's sake, the poor and the helpless? Only about 5 per cent of your whole life." Dr. Bonar awoke from the dream horror struck. In that midnight hour he then and there promised to give himself wholly up to the higher motive of serving for Christ's sake alone. Like that Edinburgh minister, may we be willing to honor Jesus not so much for what he may do for us as for what we may do for him.

The Fickleness of Humanity.

Palm Sunday emphasizes the reckless and unreasoning fickleness of the human race. Christ, the popular favorite, being led to crucifixion within six days after his triumphal entry into Jerusalem, has his counterpart all over the world. Human likes and dislikes, adulation and denunciation, approbation and prejudice are very apt to tread upon each other's heels. The oscillating pendulum which swings one way gathers momentum to swing as far the other way.

If we make an idol of common human clay, as the French did of General Boulanger in 1889, then in a very little while we may become iconoclasts and smash our idol and also the shrine before which we once worshipped. President Carnot understood this fickleness of the human race. When the "Man on Horseback" as Boulanger was called, threatened to ride down the Champs Elysees and overthrow the French republic, some of the leading statesmen, like ex-Premier Waldeck-Rousseau, wanted the president to quietly lead Boulanger to the outskirts of the city and have him shot for the good of France. The president only smiled at his friends' anxiety. He said to them: "Wait, wait just a few months. The rabble will turn. Then the most popular man of France will be the most despised. Such popular adoration as this is always short lived." Carnot spoke better than he knew. Not only did the tidal wave of public adoration which threatened to lift the "Man on Horseback" into the Tuilleries subside, but within a few months General Boulanger was friendless. In despair he committed suicide by the grave of his mistress, Mme. Bonnamy, while an exile in Brussels.

The Duke of Wellington well understood the fickleness of popular applause. Long after the conqueror of Napoleon had regained his popularity and had become the most beloved subject of the Victorian empire he always kept the fence around his city home broken down as an object lesson to recall the time when the London mob battered it down to show their disgust at one of his official acts as prime minister. William E. Gladstone was again and again execrated in the streets of the British capital, through which his dead body was afterward carried to sleep its last sleep among the honored dead of Westminster, the Prince of Wales, now king, being among the pallbearers. Jean of Arc, who led the French armies to victory, was deserted by her followers, who came to believe her a witch and a devil. The same tongue which once charmed the Roman assemblies was afterward cut out from the mouth of Cicero by the mobs and nailed up in the Roman Forum, with the epitaph, "Thou fool, wag no more!" Ah, we do not have to stand among the vociferating multitudes of Palm Sunday to hear and see the fickleness of the human race! We can see everywhere the same voices that are ready to cry to us, "Put him upon a throne!" are the voices which tomorrow will call, "Lead him away to execution!"

Is Popular Applause Worth Seeking?

Now, my brother, as the adoration of the human race is so short lived, it does not pay to sacrifice everything for popular applause. Cannot and will not we live with the nobler and higher purpose of trying to have God rather than man think well of us? Would that we might one and all heed the blessed advice which "Chinese" Gordon a short time before his death wrote to a friend, then living in distant England:

"Dear Friend—Why will you keep caring for what the world says? Try, oh, try to be no longer a slave to it. You have little idea of the comfort of freedom from it. It is bliss. All this caring for what people will say is your pride. Hoist your flag and abide by it. Thank God, I am quite well and so happy now that I resigned the government of the province and put all the faults on my 'Friend.' He is able to bear them and will use me as long as he pleases as his mouthpiece, and when he is done with me he will put me one side. 'Casting all your care on him' has just come to mind."

Palm Sunday indicates the city as the greatest of all battlegrounds where the spiritual conquest of a sinful world is to be decided. It is the field of Esdras, where the Satanic and divine powers will make their last stand and grip and wrestle in mortal combat. It is the Sedan where the demoniac invaders will be annihilated as a chemist with a pestle crushes a substance in a mortar. It is the Waterloo, the Yorktown, the Agincourt, the Solferino, the Chancellors, the Thermopylae, where all the powers and principalities of darkness shall be forever overthrown by the principalities and powers of light, and Christ shall be proclaimed King of kings and Lord of all.

Why is the city to be the great field whereon the sovereignty of Christ shall be universally recognized? In the city there is a commingling of all classes. Among the throngs who came forth on Palm Sunday to greet Jesus I see the good and the bad, the autocrat and the plebeian, the mighty capitalist and the small shopkeeper, the Pharisee, the disciple, the curiosity seeker, all commingling, all circling, some cheering and some cursing under their breath. We are not to suppose for a moment that all who came forth to see Jesus threw branches in his way. Oh, no! The high priest's hirelings were in that crowd, as well as Jesus' disciples. I am thankful that you and I live in a great city. We live in a city where our influence for good can tell most effectively if we only use that influence as Jesus would have us do. If we capture Paris for Christ we capture France; London for Christ means England saved; Berlin for Christ means Germany bowing before the cross. If we capture New York and Chicago and our other great cities for Christ, we capture America for Christ. Oh, what a blessed opportunity it is for us to be able to fight under the standard of the cross, where the Satanic forces are unlimbering their heaviest artillery and where every blow struck for Jesus can redound with the best of all results!

The City and the Country.

But while I congratulate you because you are able to testify for Jesus in a large city I also cast my eyes over the hills and send forth gospel congratulations to the Christian farmhouses that are helping us in this Christian struggle. A city is a great human reservoir which collects its streams of life from everywhere. Many of those streams trickle down from country hills, where cattle are lowing and horses neighing and sheep bleating and harvests waving. These country streams of human life are the brooks which clarify the muddy waters of a large metropolis. The country farmer and his wife are very apt to fear that their boys and their girls will be swallowed up in a large city and never heard from again. But I want to tell you that the majority of the night workers for Christ in the large cities have been born upon a farm. A short time ago thirty-eight prominent business men of New York city sat at a banquet in the Union League club on Fifth avenue. How many of them do you suppose came from the country? Thirty-six out of the thirty-eight. A history of prominent lawyers, ministers, doctors and merchants in a large city was once compiled. Eighty per cent were found to come from the country. Thus, ye farmers and farmers' wives, do not mourn whenever your stout limbed boys and beloved girls leave you for the great cities. Remember that you are giving them to the service of Jesus Christ. Remember that your prayers and Christian training are now to bring forth their gospel results in the place where they are most needed.

When my father, then a young country minister, was called to a large city church, my grandfather, David Talmage, protested against his going. He said: "De Witt, you are doing well now in your little country church. Why do you go into that large city where your influence will be swallowed up and no one ever hear from you again?" But De Witt Talmage answered: "Father, I must go. It is my duty to go. I believe God is calling me to that field. And if I go in his name he will bless me." God did bless him. And so, farmers and farmers' wives, God will also bless and is blessing the Christian work of your Christian children in the same way if he has called them to live in a great city.

Palm Sunday emphasizes the fact that the easiest way to capture a city for God is to go after the masses. Who are the masses? They are the most of folks. They are the common people who for the most part fill our churches. And yet they are the common people who today, if they are only roused with holy enthusiasm, can conquer this old world for Christ. They can do it as easily as the common people who came out to greet Jesus on Palm Sunday made the Pharisees and the high priest's hirelings at that time afraid to lift their threatening fingers or to do Jesus any harm. Today that religious organization which is most spiritually influential for Jesus is the church which appeals to the employee as well as to the employer, to the poor man's hut as well as to the rich man's palace, to the artisan and the mechanic and the laborer as well as to the merchant prince, the capitalist or the man dressed in broadcloth.

Power of the Common People.

Oh, the infinite influence of the common people! If we could only by the power of the Holy Spirit enlist the common people to fight for Jesus Christ, under the standard of the cross, there would be no doubt as to the ultimate condition of our nation. When Robert G. Ingersoll was a candidate for the gubernatorial chair of Illinois, he was defeated for the nomination. Why? Because if he had been nominated every church pulpit would have become a political rostrum. Every little meeting house and prayer meeting room would have been filled with Christian workers, who would have worked and voted against him. Thus, if we could only inspire the great mass of the church members, made up of the common people, with a holy enthusiasm for Christ, it would mean our political salvation. It would mean the extinction of the saloon. Then no Christian would vote for a candidate unless he emphatically stated he would do all in his power to drive out the destroying demon. It would mean the purification of the home and of the church. The heart of the common people rings true when it is not misled. No wonder that it was among them that Jesus passed the most of his earthly ministry. They were the first to recognize him. From them came the first members of his church, and it is with feelings of gratitude to them that we remember that it was they who gave to our Lord the only public welcome and acclamation that he ever received.

But Palm Sunday also throws into our raptured eyes the sunrise of Easter dawn, as well as it overshadows our heavens with the dark clouds of the blackest of all "Black Fridays." Palm Sunday practically says to us: "You may have to carry your cross and bear your burdens and suffer your death as Jesus Christ had to suffer and die, but you may also, like Christ, have your emancipation and resurrection and ultimate triumph. This was the reason why the ancient Christians chiseled the palm leaf upon their tombstones. This was the reason why they also had the palm as the symbol of martyrdom. It meant victory—victory in the name of the Lord Jesus, victory over this world, victory over sin. It meant the kind of victory that St. John described in Revelation when he cried out, 'After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude which no man could number, stood before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes and palms in their hands.' Cicero described an athlete who had won a great number of prizes as 'a man of many palms.' So today as we see the palm branches thrown under the feet of Christ we know that they may be future symbols. They may remind us of the palms of many heavenly rewards.

The Triumph of the Palms.

What a happy day that will be when Christ greets his loved ones in heavenly lands and gives to them their victorious palms—the palms of reward for all their past sufferings and trials and sacrifices which were undergone for him! When Agrippa, the grandson of Herod the Great, expressed a wish that Caligula might some day sit upon the Roman throne, Emperor Tiberius was angered. He threw Agrippa into a loathsome dungeon. There he languished week after week and month after month, but when the passing time did place Caligula upon the throne then the new emperor went in person and opened the prisoner's gates. He robed Agrippa in royal purple; he gave him a palace in which to live; he took the heavy chains which had once manacled the prisoner's feet and weighed them, and for every heavy link of iron he gave to him a heavy link of gold. Our Divine Master on that happy day of the rewardings in heaven will give to each one of his suffering children greater compensation than ever Emperor Caligula gave to the ragged prisoner Agrippa. Jesus will clothe us in white, not only the symbol of victory, but of purity. He will make the jewels of our crown out of the crystallized tears we have shed in his service, and in each one of our hands Christ will place a palm—the palm of victory, the palm of never ending joy. Oh, Christian brother, do not worry because you have to suffer for Jesus! It means a palm—a waving, triumphant palm.

The palm is such a suggestive symbol of victory that today I would that we might have had this pulpit decorated with palm branches as an object lesson. Then, after the service is over, I would have you, members of this congregation, each take a palm leaf home, as the priests allow the worshippers to do this day in Catholic churches. Then, after you had gone to the quietude of your own homes, I would have had you look long and earnestly at that palm leaf and decide what you are to do. Would you accept the palm leaf as the Grecian athlete received it, merely as a symbol of a worldly victory, or would you accept it as a symbol of a heavenly triumph? Accept it in the same spirit that the Christian martyr who was about to be torn to pieces in the Roman Coliseum accepted it. But, as we have not a palm leaf here for you to take home as an object lesson, I ask you here and now to decide the question of your life. How will you deal with your worldly conquests? Have your efforts won for you the palm of wealth? Have they won for you the palm of political power or popularity? Then, can you cast them down at Christ's feet and pledge yourselves and all you are and have to his service? If you can do this, you shall become a spiritual palm tree, planted by the river of life, a palm which will blossom on earth and which will some day be transplanted to the heavenly gardens of the New Jerusalem.

[Copyright, 1903, by Louis Klopsch.]

Spider Webs and Acoustics.

There is hope for the spider. Hitherto he has been evilly regarded as a predatory parasite, which toils not, though he spins. His toils and his castles in the air have been rudely breached by the long broom of the housemaid. But he may yet come into his own. Dr. Javal suggests that the gossamer tissues with which this artist among insect craftsmen hangs our ceilings may have acoustic virtues. Speaking recently at the opening sitting of the Paris Academy of Medicine in its new hall (which is acoustically deficient), he told a story of a public hall in England which was noted for its acoustic properties until in an unhappy moment the ceiling was given a spring cleaning and a clean sweep made of all the spiders' webs and, with them, of the hall's good name. The doctor does not suggest installations of spiders' webs, but thinks it might be a good thing to hang cotton threads over the auditorium. Tapestries hung behind all the openings on to the rostrum of his hall were found greatly to enhance the acoustic effect.

Soft Harness

You can make your harness as soft as a glove and as tough as wire by using EUREKA Harness Oil. You can lengthen its life—make it last twice as long as it ordinarily would.

EUREKA Harness Oil

makes a poor looking harness like new. Made of pure, heavy boiled oil, especially prepared to withstand the weather.

Sold everywhere in cans—all sizes.

Made by STANDARD OIL CO.

ONE MINUTE

One Minute Cough Cure gives relief in one minute, because it kills the microbe which tickles the mucous membrane, causing the cough, and at the same time clears the phlegm, draws out the inflammation and heals and soothes the affected parts. One Minute Cough Cure strengthens the lungs, wards off pneumonia and is a harmless and never failing cure in all curable cases of Coughs, Colds and Croup.

Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. I quickly secured a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure and gave her three doses half an hour apart. The croup was mastered and our little darling speedily recovered. I cannot praise One Minute Cough Cure too much for what it has done in our family.—A. L. Spafford, Postmaster, Chester, Mich.

Prepared by E. O. DeWitt & Co., CHICAGO

CROUP

HOWARD GARDNER.

Are different from all other medicines. Each performs a specific duty, thus doing away with drastic purgatives and curing by the

Mild Power Theory.

One Pink Pill touches the liver, removes the bile, the bile moves the bowels. The Tonic Pellet does the rest.

Have one? Sample free at any store. Complete treatment, 25 doses 25c. Brown Mfg. Co., N. Y. & Greenville, Tenn.

HOWARD GARDNER.

J. Van Lindley Nursery Co.

POMONA, N. C.

ESTABLISHED 1860. INCORPORATED 1899.

350 Acres

Large assortment of general Nursery Stock, including for the year 1903: Apple, 30,000; Peach, 5,000; Plum, 10,000; Pear, 3,000; Write for free 60-page illustrated "Catalogue and Price List" for children on "HOW TO PLANT AND CULTIVATE AN ORCHARD." : : : : :

ADDRESS AS ABOVE

RAMON'S LIVER PILLS

and Tonic Pellets Cure

All forms of disease caused by a Sluggish Liver and Biliousness?

The Pink Pill Cleanses
The Tonic Pellet Invigorates

The little "Doctor's Book" tells all about it and a week's treatment free proves every word true. Complete treatment 25 cents. Brown Mfg. Co., N. Y. & Greenville, Tenn.

HOWARD GARDNER.

Children

must have constant attention from the mother. Their wants are numerous, but that palatable, simple, vegetable remedy

Frey's Vermifuge

meets most of them. Keeps the stomach sweet and well ordered; expels worms; induces natural sleep. Bottle by mail 25c. E. & S. FREY, Baltimore, Md.

WRITERS, CORRESPONDENTS or REPORTERS

Wanted everywhere. Stories, news, ideas, poems, illustrated articles, advance news, drawings, photographs, unique articles, etc. purchased. Articles revised and prepared for publication. Books published. Send for particulars and full information before sending articles.

The Bulletin Press Association, New York.

PARKER'S HAIR BALM
Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Cures scalp diseases & hair falling. 25c. and 50c. at Druggists.

Monthly Pains cured by Dr. Miles' Pain Pills.

FOUR FREE FRIENDS FOR FARMERS

Our money winning books, written by men who know, tell you all about

Potash

They are needed by every man who owns a field and a plow, and who desires to get the most out of them.

They are free. Send postal card.

GERMAN KALI WORKS
98 Nassau Street, New York

Winter Tourist Tickets

NOW ON SALE VIA

Southern Railway

To all the principal Winter Resorts, at

VERY LOW RATES

THE RESORTS OF THE

South, Southeast and Southwest; also Cuba, California and Mexico

OFFER MANY INDUCEMENTS TO THE TOURIST.

SOME PROMINENT RESORTS

Are St. Augustine, Palm Beach, Miami, Jacksonville, Tampa, Port Tampa, Brunswick, Savannah, Thomasville, Charleston, Columbia, Aiken, Augusta, Pinehurst, Camden, Summerville, Asheville, Hot Springs.

"THE LAND OF THE SKY" and "Sapphire Country."

TICKETS ON SALE

Up to and including April 30, 1903. Limited to return until May 31, 1903.

STOP-OVERS

Allowed at important points.

THROUGH SLEEPING CARS

Of the highest standard between principal cities and resorts.

Dining Car Service Unexcelled.

Ask nearest Ticket Agent for copy of "Winter Homes in a Summer Land."

W. A. TURK, S. H. HARDWICK,
Pass. Traffic Mgr., Gen'l Pass. Agent,
Washington, D. C.

N. & W. Norfolk and Western

Schedule in Effect
June 8, 1902.

WINSTON-SALEM DIVISION.

No. 22 No. 32	No. 31 No. 23
P. M. A. M.	P. M. P. M.
3:00 8:00 Lv Winston	Ar 9:50 2:00
3:38 8:43 Lv Walnut Cove	Ar 9:01 1:21
4:09 9:18 Lv Madison	Ar 8:25 12:48
4:18 9:23 Lv Mayodan	Ar 8:20 12:44
5:15 10:24 Lv Martinsville	Ar 7:09 11:45
7:45 1:00 Ar Roanoke	Lv 4:35 9:15
Nos. 22 and 23 daily. Nos. 31 and 32 daily except Sunday.

WESTBOUND LEAVE ROANOKE DAILY.

4:55 a. m. (Vestibuled Limited) for Bristol and intermediate points, and Knoxville and Chattanooga, all points South and West. Pullman Sleepers to Memphis and New Orleans.

1:25 p. m. for Bluefield, Pocahontas, Kenova, Columbus and Chicago and all points west. Pullman Sleepers from Roanoke to Columbus, also for Radford, Bristol, Knoxville, Chattanooga and intermediate points. Pullman Sleeper Roanoke to Knoxville.

NORTH AND EASTBOUND LEAVE ROANOKE DAILY.

1:50 p. m. for Petersburg, Richmond and Norfolk. Pullman Parlor Cars.

1:52 p. m. for Washington, Hagerstown, Philadelphia and New York. Pullman Sleeper to New York.

8:15 p. m. for Hagerstown, Philadelphia and New York. Pullman Sleeper to Philadelphia.

12:05 a. m. for Richmond and Norfolk. Pullman Sleeper Roanoke to Norfolk and Lynchburg to Richmond.

12:05 a. m. (Vestibuled Limited) for Washington and New York. Pullman Sleepers to Washington, Philadelphia and New York via Lynchburg.

DURHAM DIVISION—DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY.

P. M. A. M.	P. M. A. M.
4:55 7:00 Lv Durham	Ar 9:15 9:35
6:07 8:16 Lv Roxboro	Ar 7:48 8:16
6:37 8:45 Lv Denniston	Ar 7:15 7:45
6:55 9:12 Ar South Boston	Ar 6:55 7:25
7:01 9:26 Ar Houston	Ar 6:40 7:00
11:45 Ar Lynchburg	Lv 4:10

For all additional information apply at ticket office, or to

W. B. BEVILL, M. F. BRAGG,
Gen. Pass. Agt., Trav. Pass. Agt.,
Roanoke, Va.

VICK'S LAXATIVE QUININE TABLETS

Cure Colds and Fevers.

10 CENTS 10 CENTS

LOCAL NEWS.

The best 10 cent green coffee in town at C. Scott & Co.'s.

A number of young men in Greensboro have organized a brass band.

Mr. Wiley Dicks was carried to Salisbury Monday night to undergo an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. H. C. Brown, of Sealeville, and Mrs. J. M. Bennett, of Gentry, were welcome callers Saturday.

Three styles of corn planters at Townsend & Co.'s. Every one guaranteed to do the work or money refunded.

The county commissioners will hold a special meeting on Friday, April 17th, to consider plans for enlarging and improving the court house.

Rev. T. J. Ogburn attended the annual conference of the Methodist Protestant Church of Maryland, which met in Pocomoke, Md., last week.

Last Thursday evening the members of the Friends church in this city generously pooled the family of their new pastor, Rev. S. Edgar Williams.

Mrs. Lee's milk and butter purifier is doing all we claim for it for our customers, and it will do the same for you.

Our representative in congress, Hon. W. W. Kitchin, has been invited to deliver the address at the graduating exercises of the Charlotte graded schools.

Mr. A. C. Boon, who has been spending the winter on the east coast of Florida, sailed last week on an excursion to the rubber groves in Honduras, Central America.

Townsend & Co.'s plow trade is enormous. The reason why is that the Vulcan is the "best plow on earth." The farmers buy and recommend them. Every one guaranteed.

Mr. George Whitesell, aged 60, and Miss Maria Iddings, aged 45, were married yesterday by Squire W. N. Kirkman at the residence of Mr. Julius Carpenter, just west of the city.

For RENT—75 acres of good truck or farm land at Greensboro waterworks, 40 acres cleared. Apply to

GARLAND DANIEL,
Greensboro, N. C.

Members are reminded that the annual meeting of the Guilford branch of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Association is to be held in the court house in this city next Saturday, the hour being 11 o'clock A. M.

Samuel Davis and Sydney Swain were brought down from High Point Monday night and lodged in jail to await the next criminal term of court. Davis is charged with retailing whiskey, while a plain case of larceny is charged up to Swain.

Three cars of Continental cultivators and harrows transferred and sold this spring, and we are out. Two cars on the road, but they won't last long. Come quick. Get the best when you are buying. GREENSBORO STORAGE AND TRANSFER CO.

The Gibson Hill gold mine property, near Gibsonville, was sold at public auction Monday to Judge R. M. Douglas for $2,490. There were several other bidders. There are about 200 acres of land in the property, and the sale was made for a division.

Mr. Wm. W. Tharpe, of Elkin, and Miss Ella Lamb, of this city, were married yesterday morning at the residence of the bride's brother, Mr. Chas. L. Lamb, on West Lee street, by Rev. A. G. Kirkman. They left on the early train for Elkin, where the groom is a well known merchant.

On April 1st two free rural mail delivery routes were put in operation from Guilford College. It had been announced that five routes were to have been put in operation from Greensboro on that date, but it was probably a little "April fool" joke on the part of the Postoffice department. The routes will be established in the near future, however.

Mr. S. H. Hardwick, general passenger agent, and Mr. R. L. Vernon, traveling passenger agent of the Southern Railway, were in Greensboro a few days ago to confer with a local committee in regard to reduced rates for the great reunion of former North Carolinians to be held in this city next October. The conference was very satisfactory and it is believed that very attractive railroad rates will be granted for the occasion.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure, Send for list of testimonials. Address
F. J. CLEGG & CO., Toledo, O.
Sold by druggists, etc.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Notice to Delinquent Taxpayers.

I will offer at public auction at the court house door in the city of Greensboro, N. C., on Monday, May 4th, 1903.

the following described real estate situate in the county of Guilford, to satisfy state, county, school and road taxes for the years indicated, listed to the following persons in the following named townships:

GILMER.

R. J. Allen, agt. Bragg st. 1901.....$ 7.90
1902.....7.90
Costs.....2.35

Total.....18.15
J. B. Anderson, near Stratford, 1901.....3.16
1902.....4.74
Costs.....2.35

Total.....10.25
C. W. Blaylock, East st. 1901.....1.58
1902.....1.58
Costs.....2.35

Total.....5.51
Ernest Curry, Percy st. 1901.....4.34
1902.....4.39
Costs.....2.35

Total.....11.08
H. E. Dean, E. Market, 1901.....1.97
1902.....2.77
Costs.....2.35

Total.....7.09
Adolphus Donnell, Boon st. 1901.....3.56
1902.....3.65
Costs.....2.35

Total.....9.56
Albert Finch, Maple st. 1901.....8.30
1902.....3.56
Costs.....1.85

Total.....14.21
Henderson Fuller, East st. 1901.....5.14
1902.....5.14
Costs.....2.35

Total.....12.63
Pleas Fuller, McConnell road, 1901.....3.16
1902.....3.32
Costs.....2.35

Total.....8.83
Joshua Galloway, Campbell land, 1901.....7.29
1902.....2.35
Costs.....2.35

Total.....3.93
Green Galloway, east of city, 1901.....1.61
1902.....1.61
Costs.....1.85

Total.....5.57
A. D. Garrett, Percy st. 1901.....1.97
1902.....1.85
Costs.....1.85

Total.....3.82
Amos Gilchrist, Swain st. 1902.....2.37
Costs.....1.85

Total.....4.22
M. W. Headen, 1901.....3.67
1902.....3.67
Costs.....2.35

Total.....9.69
W. A. Holland, Jonesboro, 1901.....9.69
Costs.....1.85

Total.....2.84
F. H. Holt, E. Washington st. 1901.....1.58
1902.....1.58
Costs.....2.35

Total.....5.51
Chas. H. Johnson, Johnson st. 1901.....3.95
1902.....1.85
Costs.....1.85

Total.....5.80
Walter E. Jones, E. Market st. 1901.....5.14
1902.....5.14
Costs.....2.35

Total.....12.63
A. L. Kestler, Beech st. 1901.....4.29
1902.....3.16
Costs.....2.35

Total.....8.71
Rufus Lemons, High st. 1901.....3.95
1902.....3.95
Costs.....2.35

Total.....10.25
Green Melver, Jonesboro, 1901.....2.77
1902.....3.59
Costs.....2.35

Total.....8.68
Jas. J. Morehead, Gorrell st. 1901.....1.58
1902.....1.58
Costs.....2.35

Total.....5.51
Rev. G. W. Morehead, Gorrell st. 1901.....7.9
1902.....3.95
Costs.....2.35

Total.....7.09
J. E. Osborne, Gorrell st. 1901.....13.04
Costs.....1.85

Total.....14.89
Alex. Page, High st. 1901.....1.97
1902.....2.06
Costs.....2.35

Total.....6.38
Henry W. Rankin, Beech st. 1901.....4.68
1902.....1.69
Costs.....2.35

Total.....8.12
John Reeves, E. Market st. 1901.....2.18
1902.....2.18
Costs.....2.35

Total.....6.71
J. R. Richmond, McConnell road, 1901.....3.62
1902.....3.53
Costs.....2.35

Total.....9.50
Mrs. B. C. Sharpe, E. Lee st. 1901.....15.80
1902.....15.80
Costs.....2.35

Total.....34.95
Wm. Sloan Estate, East st. 1901.....2.37
1902.....2.37
Costs.....2.35

Total.....7.09
Geo. W. Smith, East st. 1901.....3.16
1902.....3.16
Costs.....2.35

Total.....8.67
Robert Smith, Bennett st. 1901.....2.79
1902.....2.79
Costs.....2.35

Total.....5.51
E. L. Stack, E. Washington st. 1901.....11.29
1902.....1.85
Costs.....1.85

Total.....13.24
John Suits, E. Washington st. 1901.....1.38
1902.....1.85
Costs.....1.85

Total.....3.23
John Summers, east of city, 1901.....3.16
1902.....3.16
Costs.....2.35

Total.....8.67
P. E. Taylor, Lindsay st. 1901.....3.16
1902.....3.16
Costs.....2.35

Total.....8.67
J. A. W. Vanstony, E. Washington st. 1901.....3.56
1902.....3.56
Costs.....2.35

Total.....9.47
John H. Williams, E. Market st. 1901.....5.57
1902.....5.57
Costs.....2.35

Total.....13.45
Graham Womble, Bennett st. 1901.....5.73
1902.....5.73
Costs.....2.35

Total.....13.81
Jon B. Wright, Bellevue and Perkins sts. 1901.....8.58
1902.....8.12
Costs.....2.35

Total.....19.05
Fannie E. Wright, Asheville road, 1901.....15.69
1902.....15.95
Costs.....2.35

Total.....33.99
W. B. Bogart, W. Market st. 1901.....15.80
1902.....15.80
Costs.....2.35

Total.....33.95

Alice Cunningham, 23 acres, 1901.....7.9
1902.....7.9
Costs.....2.35

Total.....8.94
Wesley Caldwell, Mendenhall st. 1901.....2.37
1902.....1.85
Costs.....1.85

Total.....4.22
John Gilchrist, Warnersville, 1901.....3.56
1902.....3.56
Costs.....2.35

Total.....9.47
Drewry Howell, agt. country, 1901.....1.9
1902.....1.85
Costs.....1.85

Total.....2.04
Drewry Howell, Warnersville, 1901.....1.07
1902.....1.85
Costs.....1.85

Total.....2.92
Mary A. Hiatt, Jamestown road, 1901.....3.95
1902.....3.95
Costs.....2.35

Total.....10.25
Madison Headen, 1901.....2.96
1902.....5.9
Costs.....2.35

Total.....5.90
John H. Harris, 1901.....3.20
1902.....83
Costs.....2.35

Total.....6.38
Harris Hogan, 1901.....1.19
1902.....1.19
Costs.....2.35

Total.....4.73
Morman & Burton, Walker avenue, 1901.....4.74
1902.....1.85
Costs.....1.85

Total.....6.59
Warren Morehead, Warnersville, 1901.....1.61
1902.....3.46
Costs.....1.85

Total.....5.80
Ed McCadden, Austin st. 1901.....7.11
1902.....1.85
Costs.....1.85

Total.....8.96
Daniel McNeill, near water works, 1901.....3.49
1902.....1.85
Costs.....1.85

Total.....5.34
J. H. McCauley, 3 lots, 1901.....3.49
1902.....1.85
Costs.....1.85

Total.....5.80
J. L. Oakley, Cedar st. 1901.....2.37
1902.....2.37
Costs.....2.35

Total.....7.09
J. A. Porter, Jackson property, 1901.....17.12
1902.....1.85
Costs.....1.85

Total.....18.97
Julia Reynolds, country, 1901.....4.0
1902.....4.0
Costs.....2.35

Total.....3.15
Mary Russell, Warnersville, 1901.....1.38
1902.....1.38
Costs.....2.35

Total.....5.11
J. A. Whittington, 42 acres, 1901.....3.24
1902.....3.24
Costs.....2.35

Total.....9.75
B. F. Wilkerson, 15 acres, 1901.....8.96
1902.....8.96
Costs.....2.35

Total.....16.97
H. C. Williams, Whittington st. 1901.....3.56
1902.....1.85
Costs.....1.85

Total.....5.11
WASHINGTON,
Nancy M. Rumley, 31 acres, 1901.....1.09
1902.....1.09
Costs.....2.35

Total.....1.53
Jasper Wade, 8 acres, 1901.....2.37
1902.....2.37
Costs.....2.35

Total.....2.91
SUMMERFIELD,
W. H. Joyce, 1 1/2 acres, 1901.....3.25
1902.....3.25
Costs.....2.35

Total.....8.11
Gaston Lindsay, 1 acre, 1901.....4.0
1902.....4.0
Costs.....2.35

Total.....9.23
John Murchison, 72 acres, 1901.....1.58
1902.....1.58
Costs.....2.35

Total.....5.51
McNeely heirs, 8 acres, 1901.....2.59
1902.....2.59
Costs.....2.35

Total.....3.54
John Pass, Sr., 66 acres, 1901.....1.23
1902.....1.23
Costs.....2.35

Total.....4.83
W. E. Strader, 52 acres, 1901.....1.19
1902.....1.85
Costs.....1.85

Total.....3.04
S. A. Wilson & T. C. Moore, 46 acres, 1901.....1.58
1902.....1.58
Costs.....2.35

Total.....5.51
James Richmond, 2 1/2 acres, 1901.....2.68
1902.....1.85
Costs.....1.85

Total.....4.59
MONROE,
A. N. Schofield, 10 acres, 1901.....2.77
1902.....1.85
Costs.....1.85

Total.....4.62
ROCK CREEK,
Margaret Cummings, 40 acres, 1901.....2.37
1902.....2.37
Costs.....2.35

Total.....7.09
OAK RIDGE,
Caroline Dyson, 112 acres, 1901.....1.85
1902.....1.85
Costs.....2.35

Total.....6.05
FRIENDSHIP,
Henry Hayworth, 4 acres, 1901.....5.9
1902.....5.9
Costs.....2.35

Total.....3.53
John Edwards, Jr., 2 acres, 1901.....2.59
1902.....2.59
Costs.....2.35

Total.....7.73
Chas. P. Edwards, 122 acres, 1901.....3.57
1902.....5.83
Costs.....2.35

Total.....11.75
William Jones, 5 acres, 1901.....3.79
1902.....3.79
Costs.....2.35

Total.....9.93
Amos Knott, 19 acres, 1901.....3.22
1902.....1.85
Costs.....1.85

Total.....5.07
A. C. Lloyd, 70 acres, 1901.....5.75
1902.....5.75
Costs.....2.35

Total.....13.83
HIGH POINT,
Fred Adams, Washington st. 1901.....3.36
1902.....1.85
Costs.....1.85

Total.....5.21
Beal & Sharp, 65 acres, 1901.....2.83
1902.....2.83
Costs.....2.35

Total.....8.01
J. W. McKenzie, trustee, 1901.....4.12
1902.....4.12
Costs.....2.35

Total.....7.09
CENTER GROVE,
Wm. Harris, 81 acres, 1901.....2.06
1902.....1.85
Costs.....2.35

Total.....6.30
This April 4th, 1903.

J. F. JORDAN,
Sheriff Guilford County.

Say, There! Say, Hold a Minute!

No. 65.

LOOK, LISTEN AND LEARN.

Have you seen the new style Chattanooga Chilled Steel Beam Plow. It certainly will pay you to call and see this plow with the low front before you buy. The No. 65, No. 64 and No. 72 stand pre-eminent above all plows.

We also have the celebrated Hoosier Corn Planter and the Osborne Disc Harrow. It certainly will pay you to come and see this line of farm tools before you buy.

Yours sure to please,

THE GREENSBORO HARDWARE CO.

If You Are Going to Buy
Carpets, Mattings, Rugs Curtains or Poles

this spring it will certainly pay you to call on us before making the purchase. The whole second floor of our store is devoted to this line, and Trunks. We can supply you with cheap, medium grade and fine Mattings and Carpets. If you want your dollars to go as far as possible, be sure to come here when you want anything in this line.

Thacker & Brockmann

Cold Snap Coming!

Get ready to protect yourself from catching cold.
Our

LA GRIPPE
AND COLD TABLETS

are a great relief.
They break up a cold immediately.
Taken at night, when you begin to stuff up, will bring freedom in the morning.
Price 25 cents at store or sent by mail prepaid at same price.

Fariss' Drug Store
121 South Elm Street.