LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. J. B. Jones, of South Greensboro, has a violin that was made in 1758.

Twenty-five dozen men's shirts that would be cheap at 50 cents, will be on sale in a few days at 35 cents, or three for $1.
J. T. RANKIN.

Daisy Donnell, a colored woman who lived on Perkins Row, was found dead in bed one morning last week. She had been sick for several days but not seriously, it was thought.

If it's shoes you are looking for it will pay you to come to Rankin's new store, next to Townsend's. We have shoes of all kinds, all new fresh stock.
J. T. RANKIN.

On Wednesday and Thursday of next week the Southern will operate trains
between this city and the fair grounds, leaving the passenger station every forty minutes. Round trip fare, 15 cents.

Mr. G. Cam Smith, superintendent of the Atlantic & Birmingham Railroad, was here the first of the week on a brief visit to his family. He left last night for his headquarters in Brunswick, Ga.

Policeman Patterson has been elected
second sergeant of the force, to succeed
Mr. R. E. Pearce, resigned. Mr. G. W.
Small is serving temporarily on the force again, pending the selection of some one to fill the vacancy.

Mr. George H. Royster, who has been general organizer for the Endowment Bank of the Knights of Pythias
in North and South Carolina for several years, has been notified that his territory has been enlarged to include the state of Virginia.

Bruce Davis, the negro who was reported to have discovered a gold mine north of town a few months ago, is in jail charged with retailing. He evidently had a "gold mine" all right, judging from the reports that come from his neighborhood.

Mr. J. Van Lindley returned last week from Kansas City, where he attended a meeting of the American Pomological Society, in which he has been a prominent figure for several years. He had a delightful trip through the fruit belts of the West.

Mrs. S. A. Hanner, of this city, was slightly injured in a wreck near Danville, Va., yesterday morning, two passenger trains coming together with such force as to crush a rear coach in one of them. Two or three other persons were also slightly injured.

The city tax books are now completed and taxes are due and payable in full by the first of November, otherwise a new amendment to the charter imposes
1 per cent. a month until paid. A man who does not pay up very soon will add something to the city treasury.

It is estimated that there were over 150 conversions or recommitments at the recent revival meetings here. Within the past two weeks over forty have joined the West Market church by letter or on profession of faith, and there have been corresponding additions to other churches.

Mr. Paul Lindley, who was knocked from his automobile some time ago by a Winston street car, is able to get about with the aid of crutches. He had a hip badly wrenched in the accident and it will be several weeks before he can bear his weight on the injured member.

Barring any unanticipated delay the Industrial News will make its bow to the public next Sunday morning. The editorial staff, printers, stereotypers, pressmen, etc., are here ready to begin work when the gong sounds for the first time. The plant is practically ready for operation.

Mr. William Moser, Jr., a young carpenter employed by Contractor J. C.
Morris, fell from the roof of the Southern Railway's new freight depot Monday afternoon and his right leg was broken near the thigh. He was taken to his home on Macon street, in South
Greensboro, and attended by Drs.
Grimsley, Turner and Reeves.

Ladies who like to look at nice dress goods should by all means visit Thacker & Brockmann's establishment while the great stock of new fall and winter goods is fresh and unbroken. While the new fabrics are up-to-date and pleasing, prices are very reasonable and an early call at this store will prove both pleasant and profitable.

The fall millinery openings last week caused the usual flutter among the fair sex. The stores of the city make their openings more elaborate each year and there is a corresponding increase in returns. Greensboro is really an important millinery center, the stores enjoying a patronage that covers a wide scope of territory, and it is fitting that they should meet the requirements of their trade.

With the County Commissioners and Highway Commission.

The county commissioners were in session
the first of the week, both bodies transacting a large amount of business, mostly of a routine nature. The county board approved three of the road petitions submitted at the previous meeting and continued one—that proposed by Peace church—to the next meeting.
In the highway commission Mr. John L. King was elected chairman to succeed Mr. W. C. Boren. A secretary to succeed Mr. King was not chosen and he will continue to perform the duties of that office temporarily. Mr. Boren's resignation from the commission was unanimously rejected by the board of commissioners. The highway commission, while not announcing a definite policy, seems disposed to continue work on all the roads undertaken until the county lines are reached, and a new outfit will be purchased at once to start the work on other roads. Strong delegations from various parts of the county appeared before both bodies in the interest of roads, and there was strong pressure brought to bear on the county board to induce it to turn all or a large majority of the convicts over to the highway commission, which has been seriously handicapped by the scarcity and high price of labor. The board seems disposed to do this as soon as existing promises have been fulfilled,
and one camp of convicts will be transferred in a couple of months and the other next year. The county board is authorized to call for sufficient convicts
at any time to meet all emergencies.
Better results are sure to follow when the transfer is made.

Death of Mr. Will L. Guthrie.

Death ended the sufferings of Mr.
William L. Guthrie, son of Capt. and Mrs. C. B. Guthrie, at one o'clock Monday morning. Mr. Guthrie's health failed some months ago, beginning with what appeared to be malaria, and his decline was gradual until the end.
Like his father, he was a railroad man,
and had risen by merit to a responsible position. For several years he was with the Southern, leaving that road to take a position with the Atlantic & Birmingham road in Georgia, where he was a freight conductor. He enjoyed not only the esteem of his employers
but that of all his acquaintances and friends as well in a manner that indicated that his was a noble character.
His funeral took place at ten o'clock yesterday morning from Westminster church, of which he had been a member for several years. The service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. C. E.
Hodgins, and interment was made in Greene Hill cemetery. The funeral was largely attended and there was a most beautiful collection of floral tributes. The pall bearers were Messrs. E.
J. Mendenhall, W. L. Cranford, W. E.
Phipps, R. A. Erwin, J. H. Gilliland
and J. W. Crews. The Order of Railway Conductors and the members of Southside Hose Company acted as honorary pall bearers. Several companies of the fire department were in the line.

Tobacco Factory for Sumner.

Messrs. W. J. Groome, J. A. Groome and Z. L. Groome, three progressive citizens of Sumner township, and extensive tobacco growers as well, have about closed a trade for machinery which will enable them to manufacture their leaf into smoking tobacco.
In addition to their crop of 1905, which is bright and will work to advantage, they have several thousand pounds of scrap carried over from last year, making in all about 25,000 pounds that they will work. It is possible that they will interest some of their neighbors
in the enterprise, making it co-operative,
in which event the output of their factory will be materially increased. They lack neither the enterprise nor ability necessary to success.

Guilford's Endowment Reaches $175,000.

President Hobbs and Mr. J. Elwood
Cox returned from the North last week with sufficient subscriptions to meet the provisions of the conditional subscriptions heretofore made to Guilford College, making an aggregate of $175,000
in the endowment fund of that favored institution. Further subscriptions which have been proffered but not actually received will, it is believed,
enable the college to erect one or more
large new buildings that are necessary
because of the increased attendance.

Federal Court.

The October term of Federal court opened Monday with a forcible charge delivered by Judge Boyd. Mr. E. A.
Guyer, of Jamestown, was made foreman of the grand jury. An unusual attendance was noted, both on the part of attorneys and their clients and witnesses. Eighty-eight cases were on the criminal docket, including the twenty-eight indictments found at the recent special term. The first case of importance was that against D. L.
Arey, the well known government distiller and rectifier of Salisbury, who was convicted at the June term in Charlotte and sentenced to three months in jail at Salisbury and fined $200. He appeared in court and his sentence started Monday afternoon, a stay of execution of the sentence having been granted by Judge Boyd until October 2nd. Arey at the Charlotte term pleaded guilty to the charge of defrauding the government to the amount of $22,000 and a judgment for this sum was entered against him. This judgment has been paid in part by the defendant.

Yesterday Lum Staley, of Julian, was convicted of illicit distillery. He will be sentenced today.

Unusual interest attaches to this term of the court, as it is expected that the indicted revenue officers will be tried, and the cases against N. Glenn Williams and the Old Nick Williams Company, of Yadkin county, will also be heard, although there are rumors that they will all be continued.

The Governor to Open the Fair.

The management of the Central Carolina Fair Association has been assured
by the Governor of North Carolina, Hon. R. B. Glenn, that he will be present and open the fair Tuesday, October 10th, with an address, and every farmer in this section is urged to attend the opening exercises of their home fair and show his excellency by their presence their high appreciation of him. An elaborate program is being arranged and the association wants everybody to get in the procession and make the attendance on the first day
the largest in the history of the fair.

Many people have an idea that the first day is not as good as those following, largely from the fact that the exhibits are not all in place before noon,
but this is a mistaken idea, as racing,
free attractions, etc., are booked for the first day the same as the balance of the week, and you will miss a treat if you fail to be at the opening and do not participate in these exercises.

Changes at Vanstors's.

The withdrawal of Mr. G. A. Rankin from the Vanstors Clothing Company to engage in the insurance business brought about several changes in the personnel of the officials of that well known establishment, of which Mr. C.
M. Vanstors is president. Succeeding
Mr. Rankin as secretary and treasurer is the former vice president, Mr. W. G.
Balsley. Mr. T. L. McLean, heretofore one of the directors, has been chosen vice president. Mr. A. W. Mc-Knight was added to the board of directors, which includes, in addition to the above-named officers, Messrs. J.
Van Lindley and J. R. Cutchin. Mr.
Rankin, who now has charge of the Greensboro business of the Southern Life and Trust Company's life department, retains his interest in the store.

State Fair Excursion Rates.

The Southern Railway will run excursion trains from Greensboro to Raleigh on Wednesday and Thursday of the State fair, October 18th and 19th, leaving here at 7 A. M. and arriving at Raleigh at 10:20. Returning trains leave Raleigh at 5:15 P. M. The round trip fare, including admission to the fair grounds, is only $3.15. As our readers know, President Roosevelt will attend the state fair on Thursday, the 19th, and the reception in his honor will be on an elaborate scale. Military and civic associations representing every section of the state will participate and the attendance promises to be a record breaker.

Mr. R. C. Bernau has purchased the interest of Mr. J. B. Ellington in the firm of Bernau & Ellington, jewelers, of this city. Mr. Bernau will conduct the business in the future at the same place as formerly. He is an experienced jeweler and a most clever and affable gentleman. Mr. Ellington has rented the store room recently vacated by Wills' book store and will open a jewelry store there about November 1st.

GREENSBORO TOBACCO MARKET.

MARKET REPORT.

The receipts on our market for the past week have been the heaviest in ten years for this season of the year.
On last Thursday and Friday the high-top wagons rolled in from every section of the country and filled our warehouses to overflowing, and on Friday everybody seemed to want to sell tobacco on this market. There were about 100,000 pounds on sale and anywhere from 150 to 200 wagons on the market, which made things quite lively all over town. On Friday's opening sale of the Planters warehouse there were lots of farmers present. A great many ladies visited the sales.

Considering the large quantity of tobacco offered there was pretty general satisfaction, but of course some people came to market expecting more for their tobacco than it was worth because it was the opening sale in the new warehouse, but if they had stopped to think a moment they would not have expected more than it was worth, for our buyers are not that kind of people.
They always want to pay every farmer everything his tobacco is worth at all times and under all conditions, but it is not our intention to run one man's tobacco up to a high price and let another man's tobacco go at a low price.
This would not be right, and we cannot afford to do it. The writer stopped and looked over the sales a great many times last Friday and remarked that there was the most common tobacco
on sale that he ever saw to be no time wrappers at all. There was not a single pile of fine wrappers in all of that large sale, but the bulk of the offerings was common to medium tobacco, mostly common to very common.

Prices on all grades were unchanged,
and notwithstanding the large quantity of tobacco our buyers seemed to be as anxious for the weed on yesterday as they were last Friday. There was a good sale yesterday and everybody was very well pleased.

We now have three warehouses in full blast on this market and our buyers are very anxious for tobacco, so we trust farmers will patronize us just as long as they can get fully as much if not more for their tobacco on this market than they can get elsewhere.

CAUTION TO FARMERS.

Please do not get your tobacco in soft order, for it will not bring as much because our buyers cannot handle it to advantage when it is so soft. We want tobacco in good nice soft keeping order and will pay more for it in this order than we will in any other condition.
Please be careful to observe this request,
as we have seen hundreds of piles during the past week sell for less than they were worth because they were too soft.

Claude Barker, the twelve-year-old son of Mr. G. P. Barker, of Providence township, Randolph county, attempted a Wild West performance last week with a cow which he was driving to pasture. With one end of his rope lariat wrapped about his wrist he succeeded in landing the noose on the cow's horns, and then there was trouble.
The frightened cow jerked the boy off his feet and dragged him two hundred feet over a stony piece of ground and when he and the cow parted company
he lacked just one fig leaf of having on as much apparel as Adam wore in the Garden of Eden. It is needless to say that the boy's body was painfully cut and bruised in innumerable places, but he is recovering rapidly and will soon be well again.

FOR LEASE—One two-horse farm.
Good buildings, orchard and meadows.
See me at once. ANNIE ROSS,
36-1f. Pleasant Garden, N. C.

Opening of the Planters.

Mr. R. O. Gamble is to be congratulated on the successful opening of his new warehouse, the Planters, last Friday. He had all the leaf that the big house would hold, the warehouse lot and much surrounding vacant property being covered with teams and wagons.
There was general satisfaction with the sale except on the part of a few farmers who had an impression that an opening sale would enable them to work off
a lot of very common tobacco at a fancy price. Common tobacco brought all it was worth, and in some instances more,
if disinterested farmers are to be believed, while the little sprinkling of fair leaf sold well. Mr. Gamble has a good house and a competent force of employees, and there is every assurance that he will be favored with a flattering patronage.

The famous W. L. Douglas line of men's shoes are now made in five grades, sold at $2, $2.50, $3, $3.50 and $4.00. Thacker & Brockmann have built up a big trade in these excellent shoes, carrying a large stock in many different weights and shapes, so that every man who calls for a Douglas shoe can be fitted and pleased. Every pair is positively guaranteed and people who buy one pair of the Douglas make generally wear them "forever after."

The Farrington arson trial in the Superior court resulted in the conviction of Bailey and Prince Farrington, a mistrial resulting as to Tom Farrington, their father. A verdict was rendered Wednesday afternoon, and the boys were sentenced to five years each on the county roads. Notice of appeal was filed. Tom Farrington gave $1,000 bond for his appearance at the next term of court. The jury is said to have stood 10 to 2 in favor of his conviction.

The residence of Mr. A. E. Brooks, 636 South Elm street, was the scene of a very pretty wedding last Wednesday night at 9 o'clock, the marital vows being taken by Mr. Luther C. Mullican and Miss Annie K. Jones. Rev. L. F. Johnson, pastor of the Christian church, officiated. The attendants were Mr. W. S. Hire and Miss Ada Evans, and there was a large attendance of friends. The groom is employed by J. W. Bloxton & Co. The bride is an attractive daughter of Mr. G. M. Jones, of 702 West Lee street. The happy couple will live at 600 West Lee street.

Mr. Smith Richardson, who is a student at the naval academy at Annapolis, has had his leave of absence extended till October 7. He had started back to Annapolis, but just before boarding his train received a telegram extending his leave. This was because of typhoid and diphtheria at the academy. Another student, who was to have passed through here Thursday going back to Annapolis, was stopped here by Mr. Richardson. The telegram to him from Annapolis had in some way miscarried and he was on his way back without knowing the alarming prevalence of disease at the academy.

The Food Value of a Soda Cracker

You have heard that some foods furnish fat, other foods make muscle, and still others are tissue building and heat forming.

You know that most foods have one or more of these elements, but do you know that no food contains them all in such properly balanced proportions as a good soda cracker?

The United States Government report shows that soda crackers contain less water, are richer in the muscle and fat elements, and have a much higher per cent of the tissue building and heat forming properties than any article of food made from flour.

That is why Uneeda Biscuit should form an important part of every meal. They represent the superlative of the soda cracker, all their goodness and nourishment being brought from the oven to you in a package that is proof against air, moisture and dust—the price being too small to mention.

High Point Saves Its Money.

One of the great secrets of High Point's marvelous growth is the saving of the money earned from wages and deposited in the various banks, savings institutions and the building and loan associations. The High Point banks and trust companies have 4,000 depositors. This is a remarkable record for a town the size of High Point. Add to these the 5,000 people who have building and loan stock, 2,000 of whom who are not included among the bank depositors, and they have the astounding situation of over three-fourths of the city's population saving their earnings.

Letter to S. L. Alderman,
Greensboro, N. C.

Dear Sir: A great many people will see your house in the course of the next ten years. We want it to show what Devco lead-and-zinc will do. We should like you to paint it, and then not paint it again for ten years—unless it needs repainting.

We'd like such a sample as that in every town in the country—with a notice about it in the local paper: "Mr. Alderman's house was painted ten years ago with Devco lead-and-zinc, and has never been repainted. The color is not so bright as it was; but the paint is as perfect a coat as ever, to keep out water."

A good lead-and-oil job is expected to last three years; it is a good one that lasts three years; it generally does not. Devco lead-and-zinc lasts twice as long, if not—

"If you have any fault to find with this paint, either now in putting it on, or hereafter in the wear, tell your dealer about it."

"We authorize him to do what is right at our expense."

We want your house as a sample, and you as a witness.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVCO & Co.

Convention of Socialists.

A state convention of the Socialists will be held in Greensboro October 11th. Members of the party say the prospects are bright for a large attendance and that it is proposed to make a thorough organization in the state. The promoters of the convention are making an effort to bring a number of well known Socialists here, including Eugene V. Debs, candidate for president of the Socialist ticket last fall.

often ends in a sad accident. To heal accidental injuries, use Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "A deep wound in my foot, from an accident," writes Theodore Schuele, of Columbus, O., "caused me great pain. Physicians were helpless, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly healed it." Soothes and heals burns like magic. 25c at all druggists.

ACID IRON MINERAL

Contains the most wonderful combination of health giving factors ever discovered. It is a natural remedy compounded by nature, therefore contains no narcotics. It is king of all inflammation. Put it on a wound and it quickly stops the flow of blood and heals the wound. If the inflammation is external take A-I-M. It does precisely the same work for the raw stomach of the dyspeptic, the ulcerated throat, inflamed bowels, kidneys or liver as if they were external and could be cured before the eye.

A-I-M is unequalled for diseases peculiar to women. It builds up the broken down system and enriches the blood as nothing else will. 50c per bottle. Ask your dealer for it, or write

G. S. Bradshaw, Attorney.

Notice by Publication.

North Carolina. In the Superior Court of Guilford County. October Term, 1905.

Order of Publication of Summons and Warrant of Attachment.

Centaur Knitting Company vs. Adelaide Mills.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant, Adelaide Mills, is a foreign corporation, a non-resident of the State of North Carolina, and cannot after due diligence be found in the state and that a cause of action exists against the defendant in favor of the plaintiff for a failure to deliver to it certain knitting yarns according to contract, and it further appearing to the court that a warrant of attachment has been taken out at the time of issuing the summons herein against the property of said defendant to satisfy a claim of $500 in favor of the plaintiff for damages caused by reason of the breach of said contract.

It is therefore ordered that notice be given by publication of the issuing of said warrant of attachment. It is further ordered that the defendant the Adelaide Mills be and it is hereby commanded to appear at the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Guilford County and answer or demur to the complaint of the plaintiff which will be filed in said office at Greensboro at the October term of said Superior court to be held on the 23rd day of October, 1905.

It is further ordered that this notice be published in said county, for six successive weeks preceding the said October term of court.

This August 29th, 1905.

next week. Patronize them and help the worthy cause they represent.

The music department of the State Normal and Industrial College was moved Saturday into the new quarters in the students' building, where there are fourteen rooms especially arranged for the purpose.

Dr. J. T. Rieves has traded his residence and store property on Asheboro street to Mr. S. S. Brown for the old Joshua Lindley nursery place of 115 acres west of town. He will continue to live on Asheboro, however.

Graham Gleason: A negro giving his name as Alex Watts, who says he recently came here from Greensboro, and who has been doing some upholstering here, was arrested Tuesday night and lodged in jail for housebreaking.

Mrs. Nannie W. Caldwell went to Winston-Salem Saturday to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Henry Roan, and to be present at the laying of the corner stone of the "R. E. Caldwell Building" by the Masons Monday afternoon.

High Point Ledger: W. B. Stout, who holds a position with the E. K.
Messick Grocery Co., was married to Miss Maud Rogers, of Jamestown, Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. They left for the western part of North Carolina to spend their honeymoon.

Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. W. H. Kimbro, on West Bragg street, Miss Mary E. Kim-bro and Mr. E. A. McGhee, of High Point, were united in marriage by Rev.
D. E. Bowers, of High Point. Mr.
and Mrs. McGhee will reside in High Point.

The residence of Mr. L. D. Aydelette, seven miles northeast of the city, was entered by burglars last Sunday while the family was at church. The house was ransacked from top to bottom.
Sixty-five dollars in cash, two pairs of shoes and several small articles were taken.

Mr. D. C. Aldridge, of High Point, was here Monday and purchased a nice vacant lot on Asheboro street, near the end of the car line. He says the High Point people are investing freely in "suburban" property of late, and as he considers the Gate City a little more promising than Mechanicsville, he put his money here.

High Point Ledger: Mr. Baumgardner, an employe of one of the factories
at Thomasville, met with a serious accident Friday. He was climbing over a saw and fell on it, cutting his hands
so badly that they had to be amputated.
He was brought here to the Junior Order hospital, where the operations were performed. Mr. Baumgardner is getting along as well as could be expected
under the circumstances.

Mr. J. T. Pruden, who lives on West Gaston street, had a buggy demolished and a horse injured by the collapse of a small bridge on the Guilford College road Saturday evening as he was returning from his farm, the old McAdoo place, west of town. The condition of the small bridges along this road has caused numerous complaints of late and they should be attended to by the proper authorities before they furnish a basis for a heavy damage suit.

Mr. J. A. Groome's four-year-old daughter Ruby narrowly escaped serious injury last Thursday while playing with her cousins at the home of Mr.
W. J. Groome, in Groometown. A farm bell weighing perhaps a hundred pounds fell near the child and toppled over on her right foot, bruising it badly on one side, and several days will elapse before she entirely recovers. The bell came down edgewise from its support and cut two or three inches into the roof of a tree. Had it struck the child she would undoubtedly have been instantly killed.

Cheated Death.
Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but
by choosing the right medicine, E.

complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and

The First Anniversary of The Hub Dry Goods Company.

Just twelve months ago The Hub Dry Goods Company opened up in their present quarters in the Arcade building under the capable management of Mr. S. A. Levy. The steady increase of patronage has caused additional room to be made and their store presents a very business-like appearance. To celebrate the wonderful growth of this business in one year, a monster anniversary sale has been inaugurated, to begin next Monday and last throughout the week, with the exception of next Tuesday, when they will be closed until 6 P. M. We take pleasure in pointing to this enterprise, which shows what can be done in Greensboro where honest methods are adhered to and good values given. Mr.
Levy has won for "The Hub" an enviable reputation by giving the best merchandise at a moderate price and returning the money for any purchases not satisfactory. We bespeak for this firm continued success and recommend them to the readers of the PATRIOT as being absolutely reliable in every instance. See their large announcement on the tenth page.

Engine Hits a Team.

Some men are not born to be killed.
One of them is Phillip Moore, colored,
a driver for the wholesale house of J.
W. Scott & Co. He was in the act of crossing the tracks of the Southern Railway on South Ashe street about 12 o'clock Friday when an engine hit his team of two horses. He says he saw no signals and heard no noise as of an approaching train. When fairly on the track the first intimation he had was the engine, a shifter, hitting the wagon amidships. The next thing Phillip knew he was taking a ride on the cow catcher of the engine. He says he recalls jumping and that he must have alighted on the pilot, for he was there all right, and escaped with a few bruises and a big lot of fright.
Neither horse was badly hurt, though both were bruised and skinned up. Of the wagon little was left to tell the tale:
it was torn to pieces. The wonder is that either horses or man escaped. The wagon was empty at the time.

Insurance Companies at High Point.

High Point, Sept. 30.—Two insurance companies, capitalized at $100,000 each,
are to be established in High Point.
One will be organized to write fire insurance and the other life insurance and both are promoted by W. J. Arm-field, Sr., and E. M. Armfield, his son.
A large portion of the stock has been subscribed by High Point people. The remaining stock is being taken up by people all over the state. Already $130,- 000 of the required $200,000 has been subscribed and the other will be forthcoming. These companies will be of a great benefit to the state and especially High Point, bringing $200,000 to this city to begin with.

The Armfields now have a controlling interest in a chain of banks throughout the state, besides being interested in a number of manufacturing interests here and elsewhere, and this last progressive stride on their part puts them in the front rank of promoters and builders of enterprises that go to make up a great commonwealth.

FOUR HELD FOR NALL'S DEATH.

Wake Grand Jury Indicts Asylum Attendants for Murder—Trial Continued. Until January.

Raleigh, Sept. 28.—The grand jury returned a true bill for murder in the first degree against J. C. King, Jack Peel, L. R. High and W. F. Durham, attendants at the state hospital here for killing George Nall, August 24.

When the prisoners were arraigned this afternoon, Solicitor Jones said he would not prosecute for murder in the first degree, but would insist upon a verdict for murder in the second degree or manslaughter, or any other less offense. The judge ordered an entry made to that effect.

Attorney Argo, for the defense, asked for a continuance to the January term on the ground that the defendant's counsel had not been informed what charges would be brought against his clients, and some material witnesses had not been subpoenaed. Attorney Womack, for the state, said that the state did not want to rush the defendants into a trial, but he did not see any legal grounds for a continuance.

Solicitor Jones said he had told the defendant's counsel that a bill for murder in the second degree would be sent and in his opinion they had had plenty of time to get witnesses.

Ex-Governor Aycock, in behalf of the defendants, said the trial should be continued because time should be given for the strong feeling to die down; that the minds of the public were naturally wrought up when any suspicion of cruelty to the insane was aroused, and for the defendants to have a fair trial the time should be moved for the reasoning powers of the people to become normal again.

The judge said, in a case so important, he thought the defendants should have every opportunity to prepare a defense, and he would continue the case, as requested, as no harm could come of it. Counsel for both sides agreed that the judge set Monday of the second week of January term for trial and the witnesses were discharged until then.

GOV. GLENN'S ATTITUDE.

States His Position as to the Sensational Nall Case.

Raleigh Post, 30th.

A statement was issued by Governor Glenn yesterday setting out clearly his position with reference to the noted Nall case at the state hospital for the insane and with reference to the trial of the four attendants charged with causing Nall's death by harsh treatment. Here is the statement as issued by the governor:

"So many letters have been written me, desiring to know what I would do in regard to the investigation of the state hospital at Raleigh, and being unable to answer each one separately, I ask you to say to the public that at the proper time, every possible investigation shall be made of this unfortunate occurrence, to the end that equal and even justice may be done all concerned."

"By authority of the council of state, I employed Judge T. B. Womack to represent the executive department in the investigation of the crime alleged against the attendants in their treatment of Thomas Nall, telling him that we did not desire him to carry on the investigation, either for the purpose of incriminating anyone, or exonerating anyone, but to find out the exact truth, as obtained from witnesses under oath in a court of competent jurisdiction, and then to report the evidence taken in that case, with his recommendations to the council, so they could take such steps as to them seemed best. I very much regret that the ends of justice required the continuation of this case at this time, but as it seems that it could not be avoided, I trust the general public will withhold its opinion until all the facts are brought to light, in order that no injustice may be done anyone. Everything will be done to make this matter to the bottom, with regard to the rights of parties accused, as well as giving ample protection to the unfortunate inmates in our state institutions. We feel it is best to await the termination of the criminal proceeding before definitely deciding what further course will be taken."

Discourage Japanese Immigration.

Washington, Sept. 29.—According to information received at the Department of Commerce, Japan wants the United States to enact legislation discouraging Japanese immigration to the United States. This information comes from a department special agent who recently had a conference with Durham White Stevens, diplomatic adviser to the emperor of Korea. The special agent reports that Mr. Stevens explained that Japan is eager to undertake the development of Korea and Manchuria and to settle them with her surplus population, in order to maintain her dominating influence there. For this reason it would not object if the United States passed laws discouraging Japanese from coming to this country. He added, however, that Japan would protest against any act on the part of this country which would look like discrimination or which would reflect on Japan's dignity.

Philippines Stormswept.

An unusually destructive typhoon swept over Luzon and the southern islands of the Philippine group last week, resulting in great loss of life and property. In the waters surrounding S. mar many coasting vessels and island transports were wrecked. In the interior of the island thousands of natives are homeless, and the same report comes from many of the other smaller islands. The coast guard cutter Leyte is a complete wreck and eleven Americans and twenty-four natives were drowned. The loss on hemp plantations is estimated at $1,000,000. The army posts in the southern islands have been destroyed. Owing to the destruction of the telegraph system, reports received from other points are very meagre.

True Bill for Assault Against Policeman Rogers.

Raleigh, Sept. 30.—The grand jury today returned a true bill for assault against Policeman Isaac W. Rogers, for shooting United States Deputy Marshal John Duckey. The trial will probably be held next week. Rogers had stated that he did not think a true bill would be returned.

Kills Her Seven Children.

Rock Island, Ill., Sept. 30.—Mrs. Clarence Markham, of Cambridge, near here, in a fit of temporary insanity today, killed her seven children with an axe, after which she placed their bodies on a bed, saturated it with coal oil and set fire to it. She then hacked her throat with a knife, and threw herself on the burning bed. Neighbors rescued her, but she was so badly burned that she died soon after she had made a confession. The oldest child was nine years of age, the youngest a baby in arms.

Neighbors, attracted by the smoke of the burning dwelling, rushed to the rescue, and found Mrs. Markham covered with blood and badly burned.

Barely able to tell her story, she at first declared the crime had been committed by a strange man, but later when the sheriff arrived, she admitted that she had slain her children, one by one, and attempted to destroy their bodies and her own in the fire. Soon afterward she died. When the ruins of the home had cooled, a confirmation of her story was had in the finding of the charred corpses, each with its skull crushed. The Markhams lived apart from neighbors, the husband being employed as a laborer on a nearby farm. He was compelled to be away from home during the day. Having noted his wife acting queerly for several weeks he had kept the children, the oldest of whom was but nine years of age, out of school to be with the mother. She was never known to exhibit violent tendencies previously.

Rock Island, Ill., Oct. 1.—Late last night Clarence E. Markham, husband and father of the victims of the tragedy wrought by Mrs. Markham in a fit of temporary insanity, committed suicide by shooting.

Olsen Gets Decision Over Schoenfeld.

Asheville, Sept. 29.—Prof. Charles Olsen, who two weeks ago, butted victory out of Professor Ono's head, was awarded the decision between himself and Professor Schoenfeld. Schoenfeld agreed to throw Olsen twice inside of an hour to win the decision, all strange holds and other dangerous methods barred.

After the men had been on the mat twenty-five minutes Olsen secured a firm hold on Schoenfeld, got Schoenfeld's head between his legs and pressed one shoulder to the mat. Referee J. W. Wood, of this city gave Olsen the fall. Immediately there was a squabble. Schoenfeld and his friends claimed that it was not a fall. Olsen stated that he would not claim a fall and awaited his opponent on the mat.

Schoenfeld appeared before the footlights and stated that he had agreed to wrestle for the sport of the thing, that Olsen fouled with finger holds and strangles and that he would not wrestle a man who fouled and used such methods. He declined to return to the mat and the decision was given to Olsen.

During the time the men were on the mat there was some beautiful work.

Death-Bed Confession of Murder.

Asheville, Sept. 28.—The murder of a tourist in the Balsam Mountains by an old mountain trapper is reported here by W. B. Nelson, a lumberman, to whom a death-bed confession of the crime was made by the trapper's son. The dying mountain lad stated that the mountain climber was found one morning by his father and himself caught in a bear trap on Balsam Mountain. He was mangled and in agony. "We uns didn't want him to law us," the dying boy declared, "and so dad raised his rifle and fired."

The body was hidden in a cave, and since the confession the skeleton has been unearthed.

The old mountain trapper and his son left the state, but the son returned a few days ago, in a dying condition, to tell the story of his crime.

Mr. Nelson says that he will give the names at the right time, but refused to divulge them now.

Three Bitten by Rabid Dog.

Wilmington, Sept. 30.—Mrs. Roger Kingsbury left tonight for Richmond to enter her little daughter Margaret, in the Pasteur Institute for treatment, she having been bitten yesterday by a dog whose viciousness gave suggestion of rabies. Mrs. Margaret Lippitt, owner of the dog, a beautiful shepherd, and her daughter, Mrs. John M. Walker, were bitten by the same dog this morning and they, too, left tonight for Richmond for the Pasteur treatment. The dog was killed today and while the symptoms of hydrophobia were not marked, the attending physician advised the Pasteur treatment as a safeguard.

Hearing Before Governor Glenn in the Murray Case.

Raleigh, Sept. 30.—Hearing was held today before the governor in the notable case of Murray, of Durham, convicted of killing an uncle there after the uncle had fired upon him several times. He was out on bail when the Supreme court decided the case. His lawyers early in the week made an effort to get the governor to defer the beginning of his sentence until they could come here and apply for a pardon. He decides to defer until October 17th, and to hear argument on the 14th for pardon. He says the case has very unusual features.

Spencer to Have a Wrestling Match.

Spencer, Sept. 30.—Prof. Charles Leonhardt, the world's champion middleweight Graeco-Roman wrestler, who last night issued a challenge to Prof. Olsen, the winner of the wrestling match with Schoenfeld at Asheville, today secured an acceptance of the challenge. The match has been arranged for next Friday and the event will be pulled off in Spencer. Prof. Olsen has also accepted Prof. Leonhardt's challenge to give a second exhibition in Asheville a week later.

Death of Capt. Charles Price.

Salisbury, Sept. 28.—Capt. Charles Price, one of Salisbury's leading citizens, died at his home here early this morning, at the age of fifty-nine years. Capt. Price was one of the most prominent lawyers in North Carolina, having a reputation as an attorney for railroads, and at his death was division counsel for the Southern Railway. He was a Confederate soldier and at various times represented his district in the legislature.

The Peabody Fund Receipts and Disbursements.

State Superintendent J. Y. Joyner sent his report Friday to Dr. S. A. Green, Boston, Mass., agent of the Peabody Fund. This report embraces the amount received and disbursed since October 1st, 1904, to September 30th, 1905.

There was on hand October 1st for public schools $450. Since that time checks for the following amounts and purposes have been received: For public schools $2,000; for colored normal schools $1,000; for Greensboro Normal and Industrial College $1,000; for summer schools $1,167.19; for the total of $7,050, about $3,000 more than North Carolina has been receiving from this fund heretofore.

This money was disbursed as follows: For local tax public schools $2,100; for colored normal schools $750; for summer schools $1,167; for the Greensboro Normal and Industrial College $1,000, making a total disbursement of $5,017.19, leaving in the state treasury from this fund $2,032.81.

Of this amount $350 is already promised to public schools; $550 belongs to the colored normal school fund, and $832.81 to the summer schools.

Of the $2,100 distributed to public schools the amounts have varied from $25 to $100, and thirty-seven school districts were aided in various counties.

Charlotte Druggists Fined.

Charlotte, Sept. 29.—In the Superior court this afternoon Judge Webb sentenced R. S. Gray, Jr., and Cleveland Palmer, clerks in the Gray Drug Company's store, to pay a fine of $250 each and the costs, amounting to $450 each, for violation of the Watts law by retailing whiskey. They were also placed under a $200 bond each to appear at each term of Superior court for twelve months and show that they were not guilty of any violation of the Watts law. The cases against R. S. Gray, Jr., were continued. Owing to the prominence of both parties this trial, which has consumed four days, has been watched with great interest.

WOULD END LABOR WARS.

Practical Plans by P. H. Scullin Indorsed Arbitration for Disputes.

Washington Post, 25th.

Industrial peace, through the arbitration of all labor disputes, is the object toward which P. H. Scullin, of San Francisco, is now working in Washington. He has addressed the Master Craftsmen's Association explaining his plan, and that body has given its indorsement to these plans in a resolution signed by the president and secretary, and has joined in the call for a meeting in Typographical Union, No. 1, to be held on Tuesday evening, October 2, to discuss the subject and take action relative to the enactment of suitable legislation to accomplish the end, and to organize a branch of the National Industrial Peace Association in this city.

The plans of Mr. Scullin have also been indorsed by Secretary Metcalf, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, Charles P. Neill, Commissioner of Labor, Rabbi Simon, of the Washington Hebrew congregation; George Scowell, secretary of the Typographical Union; Louis Levy, secretary of the Laundrymen's Association; the president and secretary of the S. R. T. Union; the president and secretary of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners; and others of prominence in the government and labor circles. Mr. Scullin has been in the city but a few days, and it is expected that before the meeting of October 3 many signatures will be appended to the plan.

Some features in Scullin's plan. The plan of Mr. Scullin has some features that are new. He proposes to form an association in which employers' members of labor unions and the public shall be represented. The executive committee of this association shall be composed of an equal number of employers, labor leaders and prominent citizens who are neither employers nor members of labor organizations. To this committee labor disputes shall be referred. In case the committee is not able to reach a satisfactory settlement of the contention, then a disinterested umpire of one person or a committee is to be chosen to hear the contention and pass upon its merits. The association is to hold meetings from time to time and inaugurate a campaign of education in the community upon economic and labor questions, seeking to develop public opinion in regard to the settlement of industrial disputes by arbitration or judicial decision on the lines of equity. Mr. Scullin realizes that most communities are not yet ready to carry his plan into effect, and the first purpose of the organization is to educate employers, labor men, and citizens to the new order of things.

Those to whom Mr. Scullin has talked here and elsewhere have given him cheering, and generally have adopted his plan as being the best yet devised to meet the great problems involved in the industrial world at the present time.

Mr. Scullin organized his first association in San Francisco, Cal., where labor unionism is probably stronger than in any other American city. His next association was organized in Indianapolis, Ind., where all classes took hold with enthusiasm and where the association is already recognized as a power. A third association was organized recently in Jersey City, and Mr. Scullin is now in Washington working up his project here.

Mr. Scullin has drafted a bill which he hopes in time to have enacted by the legislatures of states, and possibly by Congress for the District of Columbia and territories. This act proposes a board of arbitration and conciliation for the determination of all differences, commonly called labor troubles, between employers and employees.

Quoted from Commissioner Neill. As a sample of the indorsements which Mr. Scullin is receiving in Washington is the following from Charles P. Neill, Commissioner of Labor, who speaks from a personal and not an official standpoint:

Department of Commerce and Labor, Bureau of Labor, Washington, Sept. 25.

Mr. P. H. Scullin, Secretary National Industrial Peace Association. My dear Sir: I have gone over the papers you have shown me relating to the National Industrial Peace Association and I have given careful consideration to all you have said concerning it. I have been very much impressed with your plan. Your idea is a lofty and far-reaching one, and it seems to me the steps you are taking for its realization are thoroughly practical and will promise of some very concrete success.

No argument is required to convince me of the folly and the crudity of the present method—or want of method of settling industrial disputes, and, finally, if we are to maintain our reputation for resourcefulness as a people, we must evolve some plan of settling industrial disputes which will be more satisfactory than the present one to the wage-earner, the wage-payer, and the general public.

It seems to me that your plan for the organization of the National Industrial Peace Association can only be productive of good, and that it will be a distinct step in the direction of a more rational method of adjudicating industrial disputes than anything we have tried.

You have my earnest sympathy in the effort you are making, and I shall be very glad to do anything I can to further the establishment of a branch of the organization here in the national capital. I am,

Very sincerely yours,

CHARLES P. NEILL.

Non-Payment of Poll-Tax Does Not Prevent a Man Being a Registered Voter.

Raleigh Post, 25th.

Judge M. H. Justice yesterday decided to issue the mandamus ordering the board of aldermen and the city administration of Raleigh to call an election on the question of dispensary saloons, on the ground that the petitioners for the election constitute more than one-third of the registered voters of the city, registered at the last city election.

The judge's decision was reached immediately after hearing the argument of counsel. Indeed, it was clear that long before the argument was concluded. He stated from the bench, however, that he would have liked to rule the other way and hoped the Supreme court would overrule him, but with the law as it was he was obliged to grant the mandamus.

Mr. Battle stated that the question would be appealed to the Supreme court, and that it would probably be argued there next week.

Judge Justice's position was that when the law said registered voters it meant registered voters and not qualified voters, that a man who failed to pay his poll-tax was not taken from the registration books legally, as he was when he moved out of the precinct or died or was found not to be able to read and write; that this was the marked difference between a registered voter and a qualified voter. In other words, the non-payment of poll-tax does not prevent a man from being a registered voter in the meaning of our constitution.

The formal judgment was not drawn up yesterday, but will be today. It will set forth that the only question at issue is the one regarding the payment of poll-tax, both sides having agreed upon this.

Numbers on Mail Boxes.

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General De Graw has been asked to settle a controversy now raging between the large mail-order houses, on the one hand, and the country merchants and small jobbers on the other.

Some time ago orders were issued providing that boxes on rural routes should be numbered. Application has now been made for permission to address mail to the box numbers on rural routes as well as to individuals. This comes from some patrons as well as from mail-order concerns interested.

The country merchants and the jobbers who sell to them, have interposed a vigorous protest to the proposed plan of permitting mail to be addressed to the box on rural routes as is now done in the case of lock boxes in postoffices. The claim is made that if such a privilege were exercised it would ruin the business of the country merchants.

One must have a good memory in order to know when and what to forget.

BRYAN OFFERS AID.

Comments Roosevelt's Rate Legislation Plans—Urges Appeal to People.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 26.—William J. Bryan, before departing from San Francisco, tomorrow, upon his world tour, addressed in his paper, the Commoner, an open letter to President Roosevelt. He commends the Chief Executive for his expressed determination as to railroad rate regulation, and assures him of the support of the people regardless of party affiliation. Mr. Bryan says:

"To President Roosevelt: Permit a parting word. You have the contest of your life before you, and I desire to render you all the assistance in my power. You have asked Congress to enact a law so enlarging the powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission as to permit it to fix and enforce a reasonable freight rate, and the railroad lobby was strong enough to stop in the Senate the bill passed by the House. The railroad magnates expect to block the passage of the bill again. The National City Bank of New York has advised its patrons that no rate legislation is probable; the railroads have been at work all summer circulating literature against railroad regulation, and the Senate contains a number of members so intimately connected with railroad interests that they cannot be expected to take the people's side. The railroad will try to persuade you; if they fail in this they will try to secure you; if they fail in this also, they will try to defeat your recommendation. It will embarrass you to have strong party leaders against you; you may even be embarrassed by having so many Democrats co-operating with you, but you must reconcile yourself to both.

"In this fight your strength lies in the fact that you have a large majority of the voters of all parties with you.

URGES AN APPEAL TO PEOPLE.

"Pass over the railroad representatives and appeal to the people. Compel the opponents of railroad legislation to meet the issue in the open. There is no logical or even plausible argument against the legislation which you recommend. Extortion in rates, unfairness, discrimination against persons, discrimination against places, midnight tariff and rebates galore—all these inequities have resulted from lack of regulation. They are intolerable, and must be stopped. Will you use the great influence of your office to secure the regulation now or will you leave the honor to a successor.

"They will tell you that effective rate legislation will disturb the harmony of your party. You can answer that a refusal to respond to the just demand of the public means not harmony but political death.

"The Democrats, if they had no higher purposes than to secure control of the offices, might wish you to lead the railroad element of your party, but they are citizens first and Democrats afterward. They are more interested in securing needed reforms than they are in securing credit for them. If it be found necessary to change the method of electing senators before that body is brought into sympathy with the masses, you will find enthusiastic support in the advocacy of this reform. Four times the House of Representatives has, by an almost unanimous vote, declared in favor of the election of senators by direct vote, twice when the House was Democratic and twice when it was Republican.

TARIFF REDUCTION AND ARBITRATION.

"If in your fight you deem it wise to attack the trusts, you will find that they have few friends—none worth cultivating. If you are willing to help reduce the tariff where it shelters a trust, you will find the Democrats ready to aid you and with them an increasing number of Republicans. If, encouraged by success of your efforts in the anthracite strike, you decide to urge the establishment of a permanent board for the arbitration of differences between labor and capital, you will find a growing force behind you.

"Stand by your guns. You have developed a reform element in the Republican party; you must lead it or suffer the humiliation of seeing the leadership pass to some one else.

"Your words have excited great expectations which must be met, for you will be measured by your own words. The commoner commended your message of last December, and will lend you any influence it may have, so long as you advocate reforms. Go forward; you owe it to yourself, you owe it to your party, and, more than all, you owe it to your country.

Thought Greeley Had Gall.

New Orleans States.

Albert E. Pillsbury, former attorney general of Massachusetts, on visiting the birthplace of Horace Greeley in Amherst, N. H., noticed that there was no placard about the place to inform the public of its historical interest. According to himself he tackled on the house a card which read: "This is the birthplace of Horace Greeley." While engaged at the task a passing native paused to read the card, and turning to Mr. Pillsbury, he remarked with some acidity: "The gall of some of you fellows that have made money in the city is fairly sick'nin'. What do you suppose folks here care whether you was born on this farm or some other old farm." Them's my sentiments, Mr. Greeley, and don't you forget it."

MERCURY WORSE THAN THE DISEASE

The effects of Mercury and Potash are worse than the effects of Contagious Blood Poison, for which these minerals are generally used. They cannot cure the disease, and in addition set up a poison of their own, producing dyspepsia, by drying up the gastric juices, salivation, sores, mercurial rheumatism, and often necrosis of the bones.

Bowling Green, Ky., Mitchell House.

Gentlemen:—For over four years I suffered greatly from a severe case of Contagious Blood Poison. I went to Hot Springs, staying there four months at a big expense. I then consulted physicians, who prescribed Mercury. Nothing did me any good, in fact the treatment proved more harmful than beneficial. Thus I continued to suffer for four years. I mentioned my case to a friend, who told me that S. S. S. had certainly cured him. I at once commenced its use, and in six months could find no trace of the disease whatever. This was about two years ago, and there has been no signs of return. D. M. SANDERS.

S. S. S., a remedy made from roots, herbs and barks, is the only known antidote for Contagious Blood Poison. It thoroughly and permanently eradicates the poison from the blood so that no sign is ever seen of the disease in future. S. S. S. builds up instead of tearing down the system, as do Mercury and Potash, and when it has cured the disease every part of the body has been toned up by its purifying and tonic effects. S. S. S. also removes any effects of the mineral treatment from the blood. We offer a reward of $1,000.00 for proof that S. S. S. contains a particle of Mercury, Potash or any other mineral. Home treatment book and any medical advice will be given without charge.

"Piedmont Heights"

is located to the southwest of Greensboro, in what is destined to be the future residence section of the city. The breeze you get at "Piedmont Heights" is pure, fresh country air. We have an addition of about 500 lots, each 40x125, laid out with broad, spacious streets to be graded and to have uniform artificial stone sidewalks throughout, which improvements, with the beautiful shade trees and park, will make it an Earthly Paradise. The property is also to have water, electric lights, sewerage system and first-class street car service, as noted elsewhere.

Guarantees and Restrictions

1. An Electric railroad to "Piedmont Heights"—5 cents fare.
2. Water mains from "Piedmont Heights" to connect with City Water Works.
3. Free deed to lot in case of death of purchaser before maturity of contract.
4. No lots to be sold, rented or disposed of to those of African descent.
5. No liquor or ardent spirits to be sold or given away on property.
6. No scheme of facing lots in other direction than original layout permitted.
7. No use to be made of any lot so as to constitute a nuisance to neighborhood.
8. The streets are to be graded, sidewalks constructed, park laid out and shade trees planted.

Prices and Terms

"Piedmont Heights" is intended to supply a demand for large lots at a reasonable price, and is destined to prove the most popular and successful addition ever opened in the South.

The size of the lots is 40x125 and until November 1st, 1905, are priced at $240 each, $50 extra for corners, on terms as low as TEN DOLLARS DOWN and FIVE DOLLARS MONTHLY, no interest or taxes. They are as sure to increase in value as Greensboro is sure to grow!

There were 1,200 new houses erected in Greensboro last year; some of these were on the car line, but NO water. Houses to be erected in "Piedmont Heights" will have both CAR service and WATER.

Pleasant Garden's High School.

EDITOR PATRIOT: Perhaps not all the readers of the PATRIOT are aware of the fact that there is springing into existence a high school at Pleasant Garden. After Fentress township had voted a local tax for its public schools there was developed an idea of having a central high school to which any one in the township might go and prepare for college. With such a school in view the people of this township, headed by John C. Kennett, went nobly to work and by their untiring efforts have built a beautiful, substantial house 70x32 feet, two stories high, which is today, with the lot on which it stands, valued at $3,000. Joined to the rear of this building is the old Pleasant Garden academy building repaired, which will serve for an auditorium. The class rooms will be heated by new ventilating heaters and other needs will be supplied as finances will permit.

This central school does not interfere with the regular public schools as heretofore existed but rather completes the work begun by them. A student, after having passed the seven grades taught in the regular public school, can at home continue his studies through the tenth grade, which prepares him for any of our colleges.

The first term of this institution will begin on Monday morning, October 10, at 8:30. O. V. Woosley, A. B., Guilford College, will serve as principal and have charge of the high school work. Miss Virginia Stover, a graduate of Davenport Female College, will teach the fourth, fifth and sixth grades, while the primary department will be carefully looked after by Miss Minnie Brown, a teacher who has had much experience in this line of work.

Any student desiring a high school education will be cordially received. Those coming who live outside the township will be charged a small tuition rate.

Prospects for a good opening increase all the while.

Farmers' Protective Association.

There was a meeting of the Farmers' Protective Association at Hall's schoolhouse Saturday, September 30th. There were some very interesting talks on farm topics, such as preparation of the soil for sowing wheat, the cultivation of grasses, and on terracing. The subjects were very interesting to farmers who wish to get out of the old rut and improve their land.

Now, Mr. Editor, in our opinion the best institute for the education of farmers is right here at home. Let good, practical farmers meet together and give their knowledge about farming. They can learn more in this way than from professors who usually have the professional part and not the practical. We hope you will give us your aid in getting the farmers to come out and take part in these meetings and help to develop the farming interest in this county.

Our next meeting will be at Hall's schoolhouse Saturday night, October 14. We invite all who are interested in farming to come and take part in the meeting. We expect to discuss some very interesting topics.

Rockefeller Turns Over $10,000,000 in Cash to Education Board.

New York, Oct. 2.—The $10,000,000 gift of John D. Rockefeller to the general education board, which was announced last June, was paid to the board by Mr. Rockefeller in cash today. The $10,000,000 were delivered to the executive committee of the board while in session by F. T. Gates, a representative of Mr. Rockefeller, and also a member of the committee. The payment was made in a series of checks made payable to George Foster Peabody, treasurer of the board. Six of the checks were for one million and two for two millions each.

To Complete Wilkesboro and Jefferson Turnpike.

Raleigh, Sept. 30.—Penitentiary directors met with the governor and council of state this evening, and decided to complete Wilkesboro and Jefferson turnpike to the top of the Blue Ridge. About a mile and a half remains to be done. The top of the mountain is about nine miles from Jefferson. If the latter place will pay for the work, the road will be built, there if not the convicts will be withdrawn.

John Sharp Williams to Stump Virginia.

Jackson, Miss., Sept. 30.—Congressman John Sharp Williams has been invited to visit both Maryland and Virginia, and the Democratic state executive committee is especially insistent that he shall visit the latter state and deliver addresses in behalf of Congressman Swanson's candidacy for governor. It is very likely that Mr. Williams will go to Virginia, delivering his first address at Salem on October 29.

Mechanicsville Items.

Mr. Henry Harvey lost a fine horse last week.

Mr. Arville Wilborn, from Statesville, spent Saturday night and Sunday with relatives here.

Mr. Carl Jester's mother, Mrs. Will Jester, and his aunt, Mrs. Kidd, from Hickory chapel, visited him one day last week.

Mrs. J. W. Montgomery, from your city, returned home last Sunday after spending a week with relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Crouch are visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. Lewis Smith, near Wauwatown, and their daughter, Mrs. Chap. Bodenhamer, of Winston.

A good many of our people went to Abbott's creek last Saturday and Sunday to the baptizing. There were eight baptized on Saturday and two on Sunday, and there will be two or three more baptized on Saturday before the fifth Sunday in this month. The Primitive Baptists are increasing as well as other denominations.

The protracted meeting closed at Lebanon last Sunday. There were between fifty and sixty conversions. About forty joined the church, and part of them will by choice be baptized by immersion next Sunday. Rev. Whitaker, from High Point, and Rev. Ashburn, from Liberty, assisted Rev. Cecil. The people ought to be very thankful indeed for such a glorious meeting and such a manifestation of the holy spirit, for the Lord is surely with them.

Liberty R. F. D. No. 2 Items.

Rev. W. F. Ashburn preached one of his best sermons at Mt. Pleasant Sunday.

Miss Mary Smith, of Whitsett Institute, visited her parents Saturday and Sunday.

We are expecting to have a new bridge across the creek near Mr. Bennett's soon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bowman represented Pleasant Union Sunday school at the county convention.

Messrs. T. A. Shepard and Charles Spoon have gone to Nashville, Tenn., to finish their courses in medicine.

A township Sunday school convention will be held at Pleasant Union on the fifth Sunday in October. Everybody invited.

Mt. Pleasant Sunday school was represented at the county convention at Alamance church Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Amick, Misses Lalah Amick and Nannie Smith and Mr. Willie Neese.

We noticed the following young ladies from the Liberty Normal College at Mt. Pleasant Sunday: Misses Maude Lednum, Mattie Coble, Mary Thompson, Nettie Spoon, Myrtle and Martha Amick.

Westminster Items.

Mr. Nathan Wright is improving his dwelling.

Lumber is being hauled to repair the Armfield bridge.

Miss Lizzie Williams, of Atlanta, Ga., is here on a visit.

Mr. Emmett Bristow came home from Raleigh last week on a visit.

Mr. John Harvey has purchased the Henry Davis place and will move there soon.

Misses Lillian and Estelle Williams, who have employment at High Point, spent Sunday here.

Deep River school will begin October 16th with Miss Mamie Lowe principal and Miss Flora Lloyd assistant.

Mr. Charlie Davis expects to meet his singing class at Deep River Saturday. He has been sick for several weeks.

Jim Marlow and Frank Flynt are painting Mr. M. B. Williams' house. Mr. J. R. Borum has just had his house painted, also.

Pine Grove Items.

Mr. John Hardin has returned to school at Liberty.

Miss Octavia Hockett expects to enter Peele's College soon.

Farmers are quite busy saving their crops and preparing to sow wheat.

We are glad to know that a large bell has been put on the Pine Grove school house.

We are glad to know that little Sallie Myrtle Fentress, who has been quite ill with diphtheria, is improving.

Miss Emma Lena Fentress, daughter of Dr. R. F. Fentress, was married to Mr. Vernon Fields September 20th. We wish them much joy.

Mr. A. M. Fentress closed his singing school at Tabernacle last Sunday. His Center class went over and sang with them. We are glad to know that he has such interesting classes, and we wish him much success in his efforts.

Center Items.

Yes, we are all coming to the fair.

Mr. John Hardin buried two small children the past week.

The Hockett & Bristow saw mill is tied up because of the scarcity of water.

Mr. G. P. Barker's little son was badly hurt last week while leading a cow.

One day last week Mr. Will Wall, living west of here, had the misfortune to lose his barn and contents by fire. It was accidentally set on fire by children playing nearby.

A large feed barn on the farm of Mr. A. W. Vickory, three miles southeast of Climax, was destroyed by fire recently. A small boy, a box of matches and a straw stack furnished the combination that started the fire. Neighboring buildings were saved after great exertion. There was only $150 insurance.

Nubbin Ridge Items.

Nubbins are short on the Ridge. Peas are plentiful.

There is not a case of sickness on the Ridge. We attribute our good health to good water, good habits and the perfume of the blackjack.

The Ridge is still booming. Since our last report Will Little has covered his barn, Frank Letheo, D. S. Hall and Joe Newman have dug wells, and Abner Davis is going to follow suit. Dock Stinson's well is running over and he is digging a ditch to carry off the surplus water.

High Rock Mill Items.

Mr. T. H. Overman will be at High Rock next Saturday.

The High Rock mill is doing more business this year than ever before.

Mr. John Page will soon move into the old High Rock brick house with Mr. Phil McKinney.

Some good people should be imported here to pray for rain, as the water power is getting weak.

A gold mine has recently been discovered about a mile south of here by a gentleman from Gibsonville.

Prof. D. T. Cook, ex-engineer of the Overman chair works, Gibsonville, recently visited the works and found them doing a rushing business.

Last Hope Vanished.

When leading physicians said that W. M. Smithart, of Pekin, Ia., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished; but Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, kept him out of his grave. He says: "This great specific completely cured me, and saved my life. Since then, I have used it for over 10 years, and consider it a marvelous throat and lung cure." Strictly scientific cure for Coughs, Sore Throat or Colds; sure preventive of Pneumonia. Guaranteed, 50c and $1.00 bottles at all druggists. Trial bottle free.

Neighborhood News.

Matters of Interest Reported by Our Corps of Correspondents.

Whitsett Items.

Mrs. G. W. Davenport visited Burlington Saturday.
Mr. J. D. Oldham is visiting friends in western Guilford.
Miss Carrie Smith visited near McLeansville Saturday.
Mr. Zeno Perrett expects to build a residence here sometime soon.
All three literary societies have decided to give entertainments this term.
Several attended the "Clansman" last night in Greensboro from this place.
We were glad to see Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cone in our place last Saturday.
Several life insurance agents have been working this territory the past week.
Last Thursday Dr. Whitsett made a business trip to Raleigh, returning on Friday.
Rev. S. M. Rankin will preach at Springwood church next Sunday at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Livinia Foust, who has been unwell for some weeks, continues to improve.
A moot court will soon be presented as an exercise by one of the literary societies.
The protracted services at the Reformed church this week are attracting large crowds.
Miss Lizzie Whitt, who has been unwell for some weeks, is out again and has entered school.

Miss Georgia Clapp, who has many friends here, has entered a school of elocution in Philadelphia.
Mr. F. M. Eason, a student at Trinity College, spent Saturday and Sunday here. He graduated here two years ago.
Mr. J. R. Coleman, of Amherst, Va., is trying to secure contracts here to drill wells. He guarantees water or no pay.

The Sunday school in the chapel was reorganized last week, with over one hundred members. Many others will soon join.
Rev. J. C. Leonard came down from Lexington Monday to assist Rev. J. D. Andrew in the meeting now in progress here.

The number of partridges is unusually large this year. They are increasing year by year since the Audubon law was passed.
Foot ball and base ball are played now almost daily, and every Saturday afternoon. Great interest is taken in these games.

Her many friends are very glad to learn that Mrs. F. K. Trogon, who has been seriously sick at Salisbury, is greatly improved.
New students are constantly entering school. Last week there were arrivals from Pamlico, Nash, Alamance, Guilford and Camden.
Miss Etta Wharton, who is at Salem this year, was reported some days ago to be sick, but we are glad to know she is about well again.

Mr. C. A. Wharton, who has in charge of the work of repairing Bethel church, hopes to complete the work soon. It will be a handsome job.
Every single department of the school is well attended this year, and an unusually large number are already enrolled. The number increases daily.

Messrs. Hobbs and Weatherly attended the Sunday school convention at Alamance last Saturday. They remained over Sunday to visit relatives.
The large kennels, containing about fifty fine dogs, and the new barn just completed at a cost of over ten thousand dollars, on the Elmwood farm near here, attract visitors almost daily. It is perhaps the prettiest farm in the county.

One day the first of the week Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Balsley and Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Gold, Jr., came down in their automobile and spent the day visiting a number of points of interest in this community. They have a great many friends here who are always glad to see them. They came from Greensboro easily in fifty minutes, making a number of stops on the route.

Center Church Items.

Rain is much needed in this section. Miss Maud Paschal will teach the Center school again this winter.
Miss Fannie Burkett, of Asheboro, is visiting Misses Bessie and Jessie Hodgins.
Some of the Center boys and girls will enter Pleasant Garden high school when it opens.

Miss Grace Murrow, of the G. F. College, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Murrow, Saturday and Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Edgerton, of Goldsboro, made a flying visit to the latter's mother, Aunt Sallie Hodgins, last week.

Messrs. Hugh D. White and A. Grant Ottwell, of Guilford College, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Ottwell, Saturday and Sunday.
Prof. Fentress' singing class at Center went down to Tabernacle Sunday to sing with his class there at their closing exercises. They report a splendid time. His singing school at Center will close on the fourth Sunday in this month, when the Tabernacle class will come to Center.

Rev. W. H. Reynolds and family, from Indiana, are spending a while with Mr. Reynolds' sister, Mrs. D. L. Hodgins. Mr. Reynolds preached two excellent sermons at Center Sunday, morning and night. We are glad to hear that he has decided to permanently locate in North Carolina.

County Superintendent Thomas R. Foust and Mr. Charles H. Ireland gave some very interesting talks on education at Hodgins' store on the afternoon of September 26th. Prospects are that a new graded schoolhouse will be built. It will be centrally located, thereby combining Center, Turner and a part of the Reynolds public school.

Orchard grass, red and sapling clover seed at C. Scott & Co.'s.

McLeansville Items.

Ours is a very lively little town these days. School is in progress now and we have a fine set of students indeed.

Quite a number of new students came in during the past week. Prof. Cobb is very much pleased with the present outlook. The prospects were never so good as now. Several more are expected to enter school this week.

Mr. P. V. Boone, our popular merchant and postmaster, has resigned. We regret very much to give him up. He is a gentleman of the highest type and business ability. He hasn't fully decided what he will do. We wish him much success in whatever he may undertake.

Mr. Chas. A. Hines, who holds a responsible position with the Industrial News, came down yesterday morning and spent the day with friends near here. His brother, Mr. Lacy D. Hines, who holds a responsible position with the Clymer Machine Co., came with him. Glad to have them with us.

Mr. Edgar Troxler was very painfully injured while on his way to attend the Sunday school convention and picnic at Hines chapel Saturday. He and a party of friends were riding along in a wagon when the horses became frightened, stopped suddenly and started again. Mr. Troxler was thrown violently to the ground and his collarbone was fractured. Dr. Golden was summoned to set the fractured bone.

Quite a number from our city attended the county Sunday school convention at Alamance Saturday. They report a most enjoyable time. A picnic was held in connection with the convention. A very long table was filled to its utmost capacity with most excellent provisions. Interesting speeches were made by Dr. Detwiler, Dr. Smith and other prominent Sunday school workers. Upon the whole it was a great success.

Guilford College Items.
Mr. J. Mott Lindsay, of Madison, visited at the college last Saturday and Sunday.
Dr. and Mrs. Fox spent last week recuperating at Piedmont Springs and vicinity.
Mrs. Cox, of Franklinsville, who has been spending the past two weeks with her brother, Dr. Fox, at this place, returned home last Monday.

Quite a large delegation from the Sunday schools at this place attended the county Sunday school convention held at Alamance church last Saturday, and reported a very pleasant and profitable meeting.
Messdames Mary C. Woody, Mary E. W. White, Ellen Stanley, Gertrude Smith, Olive Newlin and Velina R. Mills are at Raleigh this week attending the annual meeting of the state W. C. T. U. convention as representatives from the local union at this place.

Several of the bridges on the road between this place and Greensboro are in dangerous condition and should be attended to before the county has to pay damage for some accidental injury to persons or stock. We learn one man got his buggy and harness badly broken up one day last week.

Mr. E. T. Shuler, of the Muir's chapel neighborhood, died suddenly last Sunday morning. He ate his breakfast as usual and died at 9 o'clock. The funeral took place Monday afternoon at Muir's chapel. Mr. Shuler was over three score and ten. He was a Confederate veteran, an honest, upright citizen and a good neighbor. For many years he was a familiar figure in the Greensboro Federal court, where he served as an officer. His wife and surviving children have the sympathy of everyone in their bereavement.

Gibsonville Items.

Mr. Earl Fonville is now carrying the mail on route No. 1 from Gibsonville.
Mr. G. B. White's family has moved from Gibsonville to Lexington, where Mr. White is spinning-room boss in Holt's cotton mill.
Holt, Gant & Holt, who have leased Hiawatha cotton mill, took charge of the mill last week. Rumor has it that they have bought, instead of leasing, the mill.

On the 20th of September Miss Daisy Gregg, of Gibsonville, and Mr. C. B. Thompson, of South Carolina, were married at the bride's home, Rev. Lingle officiating.
Our druggist, Mr. Carpenter, has returned from a visit to his home in Stanley, Gaston county. No doubt there is some other magnetic attraction drawing him beside the home.

Miss Bessie Zimmerman, of Gibsonville, and Mr. Lon Smith, of Kimesville, were married Tuesday, October 3, at the home of the bride's father, W. R. Zimmerman, Rev. Bethea officiating.
Rev. Parker returned Monday from Shiloh church, near Lewisville, Forsyth county, where he preached Saturday, Saturday night and Sunday. He also received one member by confirmation and administered the holy communion on Sunday.

Hinton Items.

Farmers are well up with their fall work.
Mr. Eli Royal has a child sick with fever.
Mr. Wiley Pritchett is still confined to his room.
Misses Blanche and Viola Allred are on the sick list.
Mr. Clayton Woods has treated his barn to a new roof.
Mr. J. W. Allred is confined to his room with heart trouble.

Mrs. Thomas Whitely is sick with something like diphtheria.
Mr. William Weatherly have moved his saw mill to Mr. John Andrew's farm, near this place.
Capt. Tyson has moved convict camp No. 1 from the McConnell road to Mr. Henry Andrews'. Two roads leading to the macadam road at Alamance church will be worked—one from John Jones' place and the other from Mill Point.

The Sunday school convention at Alamance church last Saturday was a great success. The addresses were far above the ordinary and the attendance very gratifying. Over sixty schools were represented. A fine dinner was spread for the visitors. Much credit is due Rev. S. M. Rankin and his congregation for their thoughtfulness in preparing for the convention. The next meeting will be held at High Point.

Re-Sale of Land.

By virtue of an order of the Superior Court of Guilford county in a proceeding entitled "Last et al. vs. ex parte" I will sell on premises to the highest bidder for cash,

Saturday, October 7th, 1905.

Tract No. 1, the full wing tracts of land in Oak Ridge township, Guilford county, bounded as follows:
Tract No. 1, Beginning at the center of the Southern Railroad track, formerly the C. F. & W. V. Railroad, running south 5 degrees west 1/2 mile to the south bank of a creek, thence south 65 degrees east 28 rods to a stake on private John Frazier's line, thence south 33 degrees east 21 rods to a stone on public road, thence west 1/2 mile to a stake on small branch, John Stone's line, thence north 22 degrees east 7 rods to the center of the Southern Railroad track, corner Jake Medaris' line, thence along said railroad track 12 poles to the beginning, containing 40 acres more or less.

This land is well wooded and adapted to the growth of grain and to acres. Tract No. 1 has some 2 or 3 acres creek bottom. It is in a good state of cultivation. The land is within 25 miles of Stokesdale depot.
This 15th day of September, 1905.
T. E. WHITTAKER,
Commissioner.

Administrator's Notice.

Having this day qualified as administrator of the estate of J. H. Verberth, deceased, this notice is hereby given to all persons indebted to said estate to pay to me, and all persons having claims against said estate to present them to me, within one month after date of this notice, which will be held in court for the recovery of said estate on the 15th day of October, 1905.

High Point Items Culled From the Enterprise.

Mr. D. F. Maddox offered Mr. R. A. Wheeler $20,000 cash for his property on Broad street, but Mr. Wheeler would not accept the offer.

The farm of the late B. F. Steed, three miles from town, was sold at auction Saturday. Mr. R. E. Coltrane, of Coltrane's Mills, was the purchaser. There were 120 acres and the price paid was $2,615.

As far as we could learn about 100 have connected themselves with the churches since the Stuart meeting. There were 12 at the M. P. church last week and about 15 more to join. It is probable that the churches will receive 150 new members in all.

W. T. Parker left Monday for New York to attend the funeral of his uncle, Mr. Elliott, who died in Germany a few weeks ago, an account of which appeared in the Enterprise. Mr. Parker was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Deborah Parker, who will visit relatives in Baltimore.

Superintendent Bergman, who has had the convict force grading the road to the Davidson line towards Winston, has completed his work and you will only have to ride over the route to be convinced that it is an excellent job. Mr. Bergman makes good time on his work and does it well. He has moved the convicts to the Oakdale road running by Mr. Kivett's place.

Mr. Barlow, representative for Stehli & Co. of New York, owners of the silk mill here, arrived in town this morning on very important business. For some time the firm has had under advisement plans to materially increase their plant here. The decision has been made and Mr. Barlow is here to arrange the preliminaries for the work. The capacity of the present building will be doubled and a large power house will also be erected. It is the plan of the firm to make this the most model silk factory in the country.

The highway commission meets in a few days, Monday week we believe, and the matter of macadamizing the road towards Greensboro from this point will come up. If there is not an adjustment of matters about the road leading into town the commissioners will direct that the work commence at Dr. Williams' place and proceed towards Greensboro. Either that course will be pursued or the commission may just lay out its own route to the town limits which in their judgment seems best. There should be some understanding between the city authorities and the commission before the meeting.

FREE TRAINING OF NURSES.

Young Women of Small Towns and Country Districts to be Favored

By the terms of a fund to be administered in connection with the Philadelphia School for Nurses, Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, a number of young women from every county will receive free training in nursing. It is planned to ultimately reach and help in this way every village and township.

The young women will be provided with rooms, board, nurse uniforms and all of the refinements of a well-appointed christian home. At graduation the diploma of the school and the Order of the Red Cross will be conferred, qualifying for practice in any state or country; the railroad fare will then be paid back home.

Those applying and chosen to receive the benefits of this fund will be given two years' training, with rich experience in nursing the sick poor of the city under skilled leaders. The term may be shortened to eighteen months by taking a preliminary course of six months' reading and study at home. A special short course enables young women to quickly qualify themselves for self-support and a substantial income.

In addition to regular nursing, the young women are taught how to preserve their own health; how to recognize, avoid and destroy contagion; how to establish and maintain perfect sanitary conditions about the home; they are prepared for positions as office nurse and physician's assistant; they get a practical knowledge of city mission movements, deaconess training, college settlement work, and are trained for special positions of trust in institutions.

The school is ten years old and is endorsed by physicians, leading educators and prominent men throughout the country.

MILLIONS IN ELECTRIC PLANTS.

Census Bureau Bulletin Gives Data on Private and Municipal Stations.

The Census Bureau has just issued a bulletin on central electric light and power stations for the year ended June 30, 1902, showing there were in the United States 3,629 such stations, with a cost of construction and equipment of $504,740,352.

Employed were 6,996 salaried officials and clerks with salaries amounting to $5,665,580, and 25,350 wage earners with wages amounting to $14,985,112.

The gross income was $85,700,695, comprising $84,186,695 from sale of current and $1,514,000 from other sources. Total expenses were $68,081,375. The total output of stations for the year, in kilowatt hours, was 2,507,051,115. The number of arc lamps was 385,638, and of incandescent lamps 18,194,044.

Private stations form by far the largest portion of the industry, constituting over 77 per cent. of the total number of stations in operation during 1902. Their income from sale of current was $78,735,500, or almost 92 per cent. of gross income, the expenses of operation more than 92 per cent. of the total, while they gave employment to more than 89 per cent. of the total number of wage-earners engaged in the industry and paid over 90 per cent. of the total amount of annual wages.

The primary power plant equipment of these stations formed 91 per cent. of the total horsepower of all stations, while their generating equipment formed almost 91 per cent. of the total horsepower output of dynamos. The kilowatt hour output of private stations formed 92 per cent. of the total. The average private station is much larger than the average municipal station.

It makes no difference how long you have been sick, if you are troubled with indigestion, constipation, liver and kidney troubles, Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well. 35 cents. Holton's drug store.

Low Rates to California.

Round trip tickets are on sale at reduced rates every day in the year from all points via the Chicago Union Pacific & North-Western Line, and colonist one way tickets will also be on sale on specified dates this fall at a rate of only $33 from Chicago, with correspondingly low rates from other points.

Daily and personally conducted excursions in through Pullman Tourist sleeping cars, only $7.00 double berth from Chicago. Send 4 cents for booklets, maps and full information to W. B. Kniskern, P. T. M., C. & N. W. Ry., Chicago.

EXCURSIONS TO THE WEST

To the Pacific Coast—to California, Oregon, Washington—round-trip, long transit and return limits, liberal stop-over privileges.

The rate is practically on the basis of one fare for the round trip. Of course, if you wish to visit both California and Oregon or Washington, the cost is slightly more.

These reduced rates are in effect on certain dates in months of May to October, inclusive. They apply from all Eastern points via Chicago, St. Louis or Memphis gateways. The Rock Island System will take you up in either Chicago or St. Louis, or at hundreds of other Middle West points and carry you to the Coast in through Standard or Tourist Sleepers with unexcelled Dining Car service. The Rock Island also affords a choice of routes: on the "Scenic" route you can stop off in Colorado—see Salt Lake City—visit Yellowstone National Park; on the "Southern" route you can go via El Paso, thru New Mexico, then "up coast" to San Francisco and on to Portland or Seattle if desired.

In short, these Pacific Coast excursions offer an unusually good chance to see our western country in a comprehensive manner.

If you desire to go only as far as Colorado, there are excursion rates in effect to that section and return, all summer long, specially reduced June 30 to July 4, August 12 and 13, and August 30 to September 4. Extension trips to Ogden or Salt Lake and return at low cost also.

From September 15 to October 31, 1905, one-way tourist or "colonist" tickets will be on sale to California and the Pacific Northwest—about half regular fare.

If interested, send name and address on this coupon, designating which booklet wanted and to what point you plan to go. Name probable date of start also, so we can advise definitely with respect to rates, etc.

Send Colorado booklet and rates.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

Correspondence of the Patriot.

Washington, Sept. 30.—An important change has been made in the administration of the State Department, by which the handling of cipher dispatches has been taken out of the chief clerk's office and turned over to the chief of the Bureau of Appointments, Charles R. Dean. The switch was made on the initiative of acting Secretary Loomis. Mr. Loomis' alleged reason for making the change is that there has been a serious leakage in the department's secrets. It is said, however, that while it is probably true that there has been a leakage, the real reason back of the change is the personal hostility of Secretary Loomis to Col. Michael, the chief clerk. It is known that Col. Michael inclined to the side of Minister Bowen in the recent Loomis-Bowen controversy, and that this is one way in which Mr. Loomis is getting back. However that may be, the action is a hard blow at the chief clerk, who has held his present post under two administrations and is generally regarded as an upright and trustworthy man. It is also known to those on the inside that the codes of nearly all the great powers are in the hands of their rivals, so that it is not very remarkable if some of the State Department's telegrams have been deciphered where they should not have been. The question of leakage has been raised several times before, but it was found once that Secretary Hay himself had let out some news that should have been kept secret, and on another occasion Secretary Olney had done the same thing. It is possible that in view of the present disturbance in the usually placid current of State Department affairs that the government will get a new code, which it has been thinking of doing for some years.

The Navy Department is getting busy over the preparations for the reception of Prince Louis of Battenburg, who will arrive in this country about November 1. The announcement of the prince's coming was made by the British Minister, Sir Mortimer Durand, and everything will be done that is possible to make his Serene Highness have a good time while he is here. The British squadron is now in Canadian waters and will be at Annapolis from about the first till eighth of November. About the second or third of November will come to Washington, where he will be received by the president. The blue jackets of the North Atlantic squadron are also arranging in their own way to show the British tars a good time. The American and English fleets have met at different times in all quarters of the globe, and sometimes the sailors have cracked bottles with each other and sometimes they have cracked heads. But while the English sailors are in this country everything will be done to make pleasant the stay of both the officers and men. The English squadron will sail from Annapolis to New York about the ninth of November and the prince will be received by a special committee of the municipality. From New York the squadron will proceed to Gibraltar.

There has been considerable satisfaction in the War Department over the action of the conference of army surgeons who recently recommended the re-establishment of the army canteen. The canteen in the army was abolished some years back, as will be remembered, by act of congress. The congressmen who passed the bill did not believe in it, but they did not have the moral courage to stand out against the pressure that was brought to bear on them by a great many good but mistaken people who were earnest advocates of temperance and who did not think that the United States had any business to sell liquor. About the same time the same influence was used to prohibit the selling of liquor at the house and senate restaurants in the capitol. Now both restaurants are nominally dry. But anyone who has the combination can get any sort of liquor they want served to them in a teacup. It was a good deal more serious with the army posts. They did not have congressmen among their patrons, and they abolished the sale of beer and light wines to the enlisted men. The officers in charge of the posts knew just what would happen, for they knew the peril of "The Blue Goose." That is the army name for the groggeries that spring up on the outskirts of every army post where there is no canteen. The soldiers, when they had the canteen, spent their money for drinks there. They got pure drinks and there was about 75 per cent. profit in it. This profit went to the "mess fund" and the men were able to buy themselves things to eat that were not on the regular ration list of the army. But as soon as the canteen was abolished the Blue Goose sprang up again, the soldiers had no place of meeting and they bought vile liquor and got none of the profits. The recent conference of army surgeons declared flatly that the bulk of the disease and desertion in the army could be traced directly to the abolition of the canteen and they urged its re-establishment. Army officers, after three years' experience of doing without the canteen, hope that the recommendation of the surgeons will be heeded. But there will be a great howl from the temperance advocates if it is. The question is, shall soldiers drink wine and beer under decent home restraining surroundings, or shall they drink rot-gut in a brothel.

There is some talk of appointing ex-President Grover Cleveland as the head of the American delegation to the new Hague conference. It is said that he will be appointed if he can be induced to serve, and a great many people who admire his sturdy personality, irrespective of politics, hope that he will consent to act.

Obscene Post Cards Barred.

Washington, Sept. 29.—The Federal government has begun an earnest crusade against the obscene postal card. In an order issued today Acting Postmaster General Hitchcock directs the attention of postmasters to the following section of the postal regulations:

"All matter which is manifestly obscene, lewd or lascivious will, when deposited in a postoffice, be withdrawn from the mails and sent to the dead letter office."

The acting postmaster general announces that under this rule every postal card bearing a picture or language that is obscene, indecent or improperly suggestive should be immediately withdrawn from the mails and forwarded without delay to the first assistant postmaster general.

WOULD ANNUL HOWLAND LEASE.

Sensational Action Crops Out at the Meeting of the Howland Improvement Company.

Newbern, Sept. 28.—The annual meeting of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad Company was held here today. President J. W. Grainger called it to order, and although the session was short, there was considerable excitement. There were 1,378 votes represented and J. W. Grainger, president, and W. Broadbuss, secretary and treasurer, were re-elected and the directors appointed by the governor. H. B. Holland was made expert accountant, and the finance and proxy committees were raised in numbers from 5 to 8. C. E. Foy introduced a resolution to annul the lease, which was voted down. The following formal notice of suit to enforce the annulment was filed:

"A suit was this day instituted against the Atlantic and North Carolina Company, and the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad Company for the purpose of setting aside the lease of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad. It is understood that some two thousand shares of private stock is interested in this suit. The people in this section are much against the lease and feel that great property rights have been unlawfully taken from them, and at a price much under its value, for instance the entire road with all of its equipments, franchise and privileges has been leased to the Howland Improvement Company, now the Atlantic and North Carolina Company, at $53,000 per year, when the year before, when it was operated under great difficulties, its net earnings was more than $75,000 per annum, and the present lessee made a net earning of $70,000 for the first seven months. Eastern North Carolina is increasing in commercial, agricultural and manufacturing industries more rapidly than ever known, in this country and further that the harbors of the South Atlantic seaboard must of necessity share in this increased value, in which will be produced by the construction of the Panama Canal by the United States government. We are informed that the basis of the suit is the lack of power of the directors and stockholders to make the violations of the various covenants therein, especially the raising of the freight rates from 10 to 100 per cent. in direct violations of one of the covenants therein."

To Confederate Veterans.

To the Confederate Veterans of North Carolina:

The Major-General, commanding the North Carolina division of the United Confederate Veterans, hereby announces that he has been requested to inform the comrades of this division, and all other Confederate Veterans in this state, that they have been invited "to occupy the place of honor," and wear their uniforms at the reception to be given the President of the United States at the capitol of this state on the 19th of October, 1905.

All veterans accepting this invitation are requested to meet at the Capitol promptly at 9 o'clock on the morning of the 19th.

Major-General J. S. Carr, Commanding North Carolina Division. H. A. London, Adjutant-General and Chief of Staff.

J. W. Aycock, state bank examiner, has resigned and F. J. Haywood, Jr., of Raleigh, has been appointed his successor.

THE HUB

OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

Correspondence of THE PATRIOT.

Gorman News Bureau, Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 2, 1905.
Although the four attendants connected with the Central Hospital for the Insane at Raleigh were arraigned in the Superior court the latter part of last week, after the Wake county grand jury found a true bill for murder in the first degree against them, their cases were postponed till the January term of court at the request of the lawyers for the defense.
Ex-Governor Aycock, one of their lawyers, in asking for the postponement, emphasized the fact that his clients are charged with a crime which has naturally excited and inflamed the indignation and passion of the general public, and that it would be almost impossible to secure a jury at this time that would not be prejudiced against the prisoners. That therefore, in the interest of justice, the trial of the case should wait till the excitement cooled down and men could be secured for jurymen who would bring in a verdict according to the evidence produced in court, and not a verdict based on rumor and accentuated by prejudice and anger over a general proposition that had not been legally proved.
The bitter light here in Raleigh over the liquor question has reached the courts and will be finally disposed of soon. Raleigh has been operating a municipal dispensary for the last two years, and the concern has proved to be the greatest revenue raising machine that was ever devised, the net profits (after all expenses of every character are paid) amounting at present to between $1,600 to $2,000 per week, or close on to $100,000 per year. Half of the net profits go to the city treasury, and as a consequence the city administration has been enabled to reduce municipal taxation to some extent, and this fact has of course served to popularize the dispensary among certain people.
But notwithstanding these facts the dispensary is not as popular as it was when it was adopted two years ago by a vote of more than two to one. The prohibitionists who led that fight and who are chiefly responsible for the existence of the dispensary in Raleigh today, are no longer ardent advocates of that institution, and a considerable proportion of them have declared that they will never again vote to perpetuate the dispensary. The cause of their changed position is this: When the dispensary was first adopted the prohibitionists and temperance people generally honestly believed that its advent here to take the place of the saloons would result in greatly decreasing the amount of liquor consumed by the people of Raleigh and Wake county. It was their hope that the dispensary would be operated, not as a money making machine, but so as to sell just as little liquor as possible. But just the opposite has characterized the present management of the dispensary and it is now claimed that even more liquor is being sold over the counters of the dispensary than all of the more than 25 saloons that were in existence here when the dispensary was adopted. This result has disgusted many of the more fair and honest prohibitionists and in the coming fight between the dispensary and the saloon advocates the temperance people will largely stay away from the polls, as they did in Asheville, at the election last spring when the saloons whipped the dispensary.

The state fair begins two weeks hence and the greatest crowd that ever assembled in Raleigh is expected to materialize here then, especially on Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 18 and 19.
President Roosevelt's train is scheduled to arrive here from Richmond soon after midnight Wednesday night and he will remain in the city and at the fair grounds until one o'clock, and possibly till two o'clock Thursday afternoon. About noon that day he will deliver an address at the fair grounds and a specially arranged stand has been prepared for that purpose. So those who wish to see and hear the

President should arrange to get here either on Wednesday or before noon Thursday. Nearly all the special excursion trains will arrive here by or before eleven o'clock and all who come on them will probably be here in ample time.
Those who can do so should make arrangements for lodgings before they start, if they expect to stay in Raleigh over night. For there will be a great rush for sleeping accommodations and probably some will be unable to secure them if the crowds are as large as expected. The citizens have to a large extent promised to open their private residences to help care for the visitors, the ladies especially, but even then the demand for beds is very apt to exceed the supply. A splendid new grand stand has been erected at the fair grounds and other improvements made for the accommodation of the public. The free attractions will be better than ever this year.
The twenty-third annual convention of the state women's temperance union is in session here this week.
Move Town on Wheels.
Mason City, Ia., Sept. 29.—The town of Emory, the site of the power plant of the Mason City and Clear Lake Electric Railway, will be picked up on wheels and moved to Mason City, a distance of five miles in a few weeks. The town has hundreds of inhabitants, many dwelling houses and a number of stores and shops and these will be transported to Mason City. The power plant of the electric railway will also be moved here.

Again Before the Supreme Court.
The famous case of T. J. Gattis vs. J. C. Kilgo and B. N. Duke for libel, which has been in the courts for seven years, will be argued in the Supreme court today for the fourth time. The case was first decided in favor of the plaintiff, who had been non-suited on trial in the lower court. Plaintiff again recovered and defendant's appeal was again sustained. Plaintiff was non-suited in Raleigh in June and appealed. The case has been, therefore, three times heard in the Supreme court. If, on this appeal, the lower court is sustained, the case is ended. If the plaintiff wins his appeal, the whole matter will go back for trial again and, in any event other than the death of the plaintiff, when the case would abate, there would be still another appeal, with the possibility of still another trial on its merits.
May Let in American Corn.
Mexico City, Oct. 1.—The department of finance is investigating alleged abuses in the rise in the price of corn, which is the basis of diet for the poorer classes. One reason popularly given for the increased prices is that corn has risen in sympathy with wheat, which this year shows a short crop. Another theory is that corn is largely in the hands of large speculators. Should it prove that corn is likely for any cause to remain at the present high price, it is quite probable that the duties may be abated on American corn, allowing heavy shipments into this country.

Young Girl Burned to Death.
Nashville, N. C., Sept. 29.—Miss Clyde Brewer, aged about fifteen years, was horribly burned by the explosion of a can of kerosene oil. The young lady was preparing dinner and attempted to light the fire with oil, when the can burst, enveloping her skirt in a sheet of flames. She ran out into the yard, and her cries for help attracted the attention of her step-father, Mr. Strum, who hastened to her assistance and endeavored to extinguish the flames. Mr. Strum received painful injuries about his hands and face. So severely was the young girl burned that she died about 8 o'clock that evening after great suffering.
Shells Exploded by Burning of the Old Spottsylvania Hotel.
The war time hotel at Spottsylvania, well remembered by both Confederate and Federal soldiers, was burned Friday night. An account in the Baltimore Sun says that during the battles of the civil war the building was struck by many shells, which had never been removed. While the fire was at its height these shells began to explode. There were nine explosions which scattered the fire fighters, as they realized the danger of being near the building. This shows that the ammunition used during the civil war had staying qualities.
John Temple Graves Announces Candidacy.
Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 30.—John Temple Graves, editor of the Atlanta Daily News, in an address to the people of Georgia, which will be published tomorrow morning, makes formal announcement of his candidacy for the United States senate, to succeed Senator A. O. Bacon, whose present term of office will expire in March, 1907.

LOCAL NEWS.

When you need anything in the grocery line, come to see us. We will treat you right. C. SCOTT & CO.

The general store of Mr. D. R. Ballance, at Old Trinity, was destroyed by fire last week. A lamp fell and started the blaze.

Prof. W. W. Davidson, of Gibsonville, left Monday for Shelby, where he will have charge of the public schools the coming year.

Stokesdale Chronicle: The dwelling house of Mr. M. V. Bullock, about two miles from Stokesdale, was destroyed by fire Saturday just after 12 o'clock.

See our Southland Belle, the best lady's shoe for $1.50 to be found. We have them in all styles.

J. T. RANKIN.

The Mt. Airy News sent out a handsome special edition last week showing the advantages of the Granite City and the limitless resources of the fine country surrounding it.

Capt. and Mrs. R. C. Dick moved into town yesterday and are boarding with Mr. Julius M. Dick's family on East Market street. They have been living just east of the city for several months.

For pant goods, chevots, bed tick, outing, flannellette, gingham, denim, table oil cloth, hosiery, underwear and everything in staple dry goods and notions, see J. T. Rankin, at 335 South Elm street.

Burlington News: Mr. Julius C. Neelley, wife and three children, from Pleasant Garden, near Greensboro, have been visiting his cousin, Mrs. J. Milton Turner, and other relatives in Burlington for a few days.

Ernest Causey, of High Point, who was recently released from the county convict force because of ill health, is in jail again, this time for stealing a jug of whiskey from a man who had come here to attend Federal court.

J. Martin Elliott, a young man who had been employed as a solicitor on the Industrial News, stands charged by Miss Lula Durham, of White Oak, with criminal assault. Elliott has disappeared and the warrant against him is unserved.

The Hiawatha yarn mill at Gibsonville, which was recently leased to Holt, Gant & Holt, proprietors of the Attamahaw mills, has passed by purchase into the hands of Mr. Lawrence Holt, a member of the firm. The consideration is said to have been $40,000.

The Dixie Chair Company, of Trinity, will establish a branch at Julian which will turn out chair stock in the rough. Mr. W. H. Ragan, of High Point, principal owner and manager of the company, says one or two additional branches will be established in the near future.

The double train service between Greensboro and Wilkesboro, via Winston-Salem, is proving very popular with the traveling public. These trains leave here at 7:55 A. M. and 1:45 P. M., while there is still a later train to the Granite City which leaves here at 4:35 over the A. & Y. division, formerly the old C. F. & Y. V. road.

Mr. R. P. Gorrell's new store at 527 South Elm street was opened last week with Mr. A. A. Hinkle, the well known merchant, in charge. It is an attractive store in every particular, well stocked with staple and fancy goods, and PATRIOT readers are invited to share their patronage with the establishment. See Mr. Gorrell's advertisement on another page.

Frightful Suffering Relieved.

Suffering frightfully from the virulent poisons of undigested food, C. G. Grayson, of Lula, Miss., took Dr. King's New Life Pills, "with the result," he writes, "that I was cured." All stomach and bowel disorders gave way to their tonic, laxative properties. 25c at all druggists, guaranteed.

Blockader Escaped From Prison.

Reidsville Review, 26th.

Sid Matlock, aged about 45, was brought to Reidsville late yesterday afternoon by Deputy Marshal N. P. Easley and lodged in the city jail. An hour later Policeman Faulkner went into the jail to liberate another prisoner who had given bond, and not knowing that Matlock was inside, left his keys in the door, with which the prisoner effected his escape.

Matlock was arrested by Marshal Easley upon the charge of blockading in Caswell county two years ago. The capias had been in Mr. Easley's hands for six months.

Before his arrest yesterday Matlock made a desperate effort to take the life of Marshal Easley by firing at him five times with a Smith & Wesson pistol. Matlock was concealed in his house and the officer forced him to empty the revolver when he rushed in. Matlock then surrendered. He is considered a bad character and is said to have served a sentence in the penitentiary.

There is no trace left, and no clue to work upon. It is more than probable that Matlock will be able to evade the officers for some time at least.

United States Commissioner Yarbrough, of Locust Hill, had bound Matlock over to the Federal court in a bond of $1,000.

Still Branching Out.

Stanley Enterprise.

Stock to the extent of $5,000, with privilege of increasing to $50,000, has been subscribed for the purpose of organizing a real estate and insurance company for Albemarle.

The organization is a branch of the insurance companies at Greensboro, and one of the great benefits growing out of the organization is that every dollar paid in for insurance, whether on life, fire or real estate, will be re-invested here at home.

The Greensboro companies have grown and waxed strong in recent years, and they are commendably seeking places to invest their money in home enterprises and securities, and Albemarle is fortunate in proving a most inviting field.

Messrs. S. H. Hearne, E. M. Asbury, J. S. Eild and J. M. Peeler are among the principal local stockholders. The Southern Life and Trust Company at Greensboro has subscribed to ten shares. The stockholders will meet on October 15th for purpose of organization.

Dairying Industry in North Carolina.

A bulletin just issued by the North Carolina Experiment Station is on "farm dairying," written with the purpose of assisting to establish a better understanding of the most approved methods of handling dairy products, as well as a needed improvement in the products of the dairies.

By referring to the last census report it is found that few states have made equal progress with North Carolina in the improvement of live stock, and more especially, dairy cows. With the exception of Tennessee there is not another Southern state that can show as large an average production of milk per cow as North Carolina. It is not only in dairying that this state is forging ahead, but along all lines of agriculture. And with this advancement comes an ever increasing demand for agricultural knowledge.

Can't Afford to Swap.

Webster's Weekly.

We hope there is no foundation for the rumor that Judge Shaw will have formidable opposition for the nomination next year. The gentlemen mentioned in this connection are our friends, but we beg to say that when the state gets a man in its judicial service like Judge Shaw, whom all law-breakers dread and all good citizens know will do right regardless of the consequences, it cannot afford to swap him off for anybody. Respect for the law is strengthened wherever he holds court. We disparage no one's qualifications when we say he is the best law-enforcer the state has had since Judge Clark was promoted to the Supreme court bench.

Standpatters Up against It.

Toledo Blade.

There is no denying the fact that the standpatters are up against the hardest kind of a proposition. The cry for revision is not sporadic. It comes from the East and the West, the North and the South. The manufacturers of New England are urging it. So also are the merchants and the producers from the soil. Even Pittsburg, that rock-ribbed center of high protection, has entered its plea for a change of schedule.

Caucasian Bee Brought to America.

A race of bees brought to this country as an experiment by the United States government has been found the gentlest in the world. The one great drawback to beekeeping for most people has been the fear of stings, but recent experiments at Washington, D. C., have proved the Caucasian bees to be the most remarkable in existence for their gentleness. We do not mean by this that the bees are stingless, for they possess this organ so necessary to their welfare and so seldom do they resort to its use that they are for all practical purposes non-stinging.

The Supreme court, in an opinion delivered last evening, finds no error in the case of State vs. Thomas W. Dewey, convicted at Newbern of the embezzlement of the funds of the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Newbern and sentenced by Judge Jones to six years in the penitentiary. Since the trial and conviction, and pending the appeal of the case to the Supreme court Dewey has been out under $10,000. This bond will hold until the finding of the Supreme court is certified down to the Superior court of Craven county, which will be several days yet.
