TRACK TEAM MEET.

Interesting Athletic Event in Green-boro Monday Night.

In the intercollegiate track team meet at the auditorium Monday night Wake Forest College won the loving cup offered by the Chamber of Commerce of Greensboro. In making up the totals it was found that Wake Forest scored 35 points as compared with 27 points made by the next highest, Guilford College. The University of North Carolina finished third, with a score of 25 points, followed by Davidson College with a score of 16 points and the A. & M. College, of Raleigh, with 14 points.

The auditorium proved an ideal place for a track meet and it is more than probable that this will be made an annual affair. The audience numbered 1,500 or 2,000 people and there was much enthusiasm throughout the evening.

Wake Forest won first and second prizes in the pole vault; third prize in the 100 yard dash; second and third in the shot put; third in the high jump; second in the half-mile run; second in the 440 yard run; third in the 220 yard hurdle; first in the 100 yard high hurdle; second in the one mile; third in the 220 yard run and first in the one-mile relay.

The scores were as follows: 100-yard dash, Winston, of the University; first; Klutz, of Davidson, second;
Coughenor, of Wake Forest, third;
Davis, of Guilford, fourth; Johnson, of A. & M., fifth. Time 10 seconds.

Shot-put: Edwards, of Guilford,
35.5; Gardner, of Wake Forest, 34;
Gay of Wake Forest, 33.2; Neal, of Davidson, 33.1.

High jump: Williams, of the University, 5.3; first; Johnson, of A. & M., second; Cooper, of A. & M., third; Gay, of Wake Forest, and Erwin, of Davidson, tying for third place.

Half-mile run: Thomas, of Davidson, first; McCutcheon, of Wake Forest, second; Bowditch, of A. & M., third; Everett, of the University, fourth. Time 2:18. (This race was declared off on account of the failure of the starter to fire a pistol on the last lap.)

440-yard run: Davis, of Guilford, first; Murchison, of Wake Forest, second; Denny, of Davidson, third;
Teague, of the University, fourth;
Stephens, of A. & M., fifth. Time
57 seconds.

100 yard high hurdle: Highsmith, of Wake Forest, first; Johnson, of A.
& M., and Shaw, of the University, tied for second; Perkins, of Guilford fourth; McClintock, of Davidson, third. Time 15 seconds.

Broad-jump: Johnson, of A. & M., 20.2; first; Williams, of the University, second; Hobbs, of Guilford, third; Briggs, of Guilford, fourth.
Time 4.59.

220-yard run: Davis, of Guilford, first; Klutz, of Davidson, second;
Coughenor, of Wake Forest, third;
Johnson, of A. & M., fourth. Time
25 1/2 seconds.

Pole vault: Carrick, of Wake Forest, 9 feet, first; Settle, of Wake Forest, second; Winslow, of Guilford, and Osborne, of University, tied for third place.

220-yard hurdle: Briggs, of Guilford College, first; Wood, of University, second; Highsmith, of Wake Forest, third.

The one mile relay was the last event of the meet and in this Wake Forest was an easy winner; time, four minutes, three and a quarter seconds. This was probably the most exciting event on the program.

According to the terms of the meet Wake Forest won the silver trophy for the team making the highest number of points. Guilford won four gold and three bronze medals. Wake Forest, winner of the trophy, won also three gold, five silver and four bronze medals. Davidson won one gold, and three silver and one bronze medal. The A. & M. won one gold, one silver and two bronze medals.
The University won three gold, two silver and one bronze medals.

The Boys' Corn-Growing Contest.

The entries for the Guilford county boys' corn-growing contest closed Thursday, when 23 farmer boys had

People past middle life usually have some kidney or bladder disorder that saps the vitality, which is naturally lower in old age. Foley's Kidney Remedy corrects urinary troubles, stimulates the kidneys, and restores strength and vigor. It cures uric acid troubles by strengthening the kidneys so they will strain out the uric acid that settles in the muscles and joints, causing rheumatism. All druggists.

We once saw a liniment advertised that was wonderful. The advertiser said, illustrating its power, that a man came along one day with a pen knife and cut his little dog's tail off. He said he applied a little of the liniment to the dog's tail and it grew out perfectly again to the utmost tip. Then he said he scraped around in the dust and found the piece that was severed and applied the liniment to it and out grew another dog. Now what do you know about that?

We do not have any such liniment as this, but our

Rexall White Liniment

Is absolutely the best liniment sold. We personally guarantee it to cure sprains, bruises and cuts, also to allay pain, remove irritation and inflammation, and reduce swelling and to take soreness and stiffness out of the joints.

The telephone line between Greensboro and Brown Summit has been completed, the line connecting with the Southern Bell Company's exchange in this city. The line will prove a great convenience, both to people in Greensboro and in the Brown Summit community.

Mrs. L. L. Hill died Thursday night at the home of her mother, Mrs. T. A. Grissom, on Battle Ground road, after a brief illness of one week. She was 48 years of age. Mrs. Hill is survived by two children, Mrs. C. O. Mangum and Miss Eunice Hill; one sister, Mrs. Bancroft, and three brothers, Messrs. E. K. and H. B. Grissom and Rev. W. L. Grissom of this city.

Mr. E. H. Stockton, of Winston-Salem, president of the State Christian Endeavor Union, made an interesting address before the annual meeting of the city union in the Christian church Thursday night. Mr. Stockton told of the preparations being made for the state convention and described the different features in detail. He extended to every one present a cordial invitation to attend the state convention to be held in Winston-Salem April 23-25.

Miss Pearl Scott died last Wednesday night at the home of her father, Constable David Scott, on Lyndon street. She had been in ill health for some time and became suddenly worse Wednesday. The funeral was held from the First Presbyterian church Friday morning at 10:20 o'clock, the service being conducted by Rev. Melton Clark. In addition to her father, Miss Scott is survived by two sisters—Mrs. J. J. Smith and Mrs. R. L. England, of this city, and two brothers—Mr. Frank Scott, of Richmond, Va., and Mr. David Scott, of Pittsburg, Pa.

Words to Freeze the Soul.

"Your son has consumption. His case is hopeless." These appalling words were spoken to Geo. E. Blevens, a leading merchant of Springfield, N. C., by two expert doctors—one a lung specialist. Then was shown the wonderful power of Dr. King's New Discovery. "After three weeks use," writes Mr. Blevens, "he was as well as ever. JUDGE BOYD ALLOWS FEE.

Attorney to Get $7,500 for Services Rendered Fisher Estate.

A case of long standing was decided in the United States court last Wednesday, when Judge Boyd allowed Col. John N. Staples $7,500 as counsel fees for services rendered the estate of the late Capt. B. J. Fisher, this amount having previously been awarded by a board of arbitration and later repudiated by representatives of the estate.

The matter came before Judge Boyd in the form of a petition from Colonel Staples, in the matter of Fisher vs. the Guardian Trust and Deposit Company, asking the court to make an allowance of fees for service rendered in recovering $33,000 in an equity suit. This suit was instituted by the late Captain Fisher against the Greensboro Waterworks Company for damages for the destruction of the old Benbow hotel by fire, it being alleged that the property loss was due to insufficient water pressure.

After final judgment had been rendered for the plaintiff in the state court a receiver of the waterworks company's property was appointed by the Federal court, and the contest then was over the priority of liens against the fund recovered. Finally the case was argued by Mr. A. L. Brooks in the Supreme court of the United States, where the decision of the lower courts was affirmed.

Upon the collection of the amount recovered by Captain Fisher a dispute arose as to the amount that should be paid to Colonel Staples for services. By consent of all parties, the matter was referred to Col. Clement Manly, of Winston-Salem; ex-Judge R. C. Strudwick, of this city, and Mr. R. D. Reid, of Wentworth, for arbitration. The arbitrators awarded Colonel Staples $7,500, whereupon suit was instituted in the Superior court by Mr. C. A. Bray, trustee of the Fisher estate, to set aside the award, the plaintiff being successful in this action.

In the meantime Mr. Brooks, into whose hands the money recovered in the Fisher suit had been placed, had paid Colonel Staples $3,500 on account of services as attorney, payment having been made after the decision of the arbitrators had been announced. After having the award set aside in the Superior court an effort was made to avoid paying Colonel Staples anything and to hold Mr. Brooks, as receiver for the Fisher estate, liable for the $3,500 he had paid.

It was at this juncture that Colonel Staples petitioned the United States court for an order enjoining Mr. Brooks from paying out any money and to have the court make an order in the original cause, which was still pending, allowing him compensation for services. After hearing the argument, the court expressed the opinion that Colonel Staples was entitled to be compensated and ought to be paid, and Judge Boyd stated he would allow the same amount that had been allowed by the arbitrators. Counsel representing the Fisher estate, Maj. Charles M. Stedman and Mr. E. J. Justice, gave notice of an appeal.

During the progress of the hearing Mr. Brooks went on the witness stand and stated to the court that he held the money by an agreement between Colonel Staples and the representatives of the Fisher estate to the effect that he should retain an amount sufficient to satisfy the Staples claim until the matter should be finally adjudicated. Mr. Brooks stated further that he had no interest in the matter other than to see justice done to both parties.

Any lady reader of this paper will relish, on request, a clever "No-Drip" Coffee Strainer Coupon privilege, from Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. It is silver-plated, very pretty, and positively prevents all dripping of tea or coffee. The Doctor sends it, with his new free book on "Health Coffee," simply to introduce this clever substitute for real coffee. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee is gaining its great popularity because of: First, its exquisite taste and flavor; second, its absolute healthfulness; third, its economy—1½ pounds 25c; fourth, its convenience. No tedious 20 to 30 minutes boiling. "Made in a minute," says Dr. Shoop. Try it at your grocer's, for a pleasant surprise. C. Scott & Co.

OF GUILFORD COUNTY STOCK.

Mother of Indiana Corn King Native of This County.

Many readers of the Patriot will be interested in learning that Mr. Leonard B. Clore, the Indiana corn king, who has been asked by the Russian government to go to that country for three years and instruct Russian farmers in the methods of raising American corn, at a salary of $4,000 a year and all expenses, is the son of a Guilford county woman whose parents emigrated to Indiana from this county when she was a fourteen-year-old girl. Mr. Clore has won fame and fortune from prizes taken on yields of corn from a farm of thirteen acres. The entire tract of land is 125 acres, but on this two other brothers and their families live and have prospered.

Mr. Clore has long been recognized as a king among corn raisers. He has taken prizes at the Paris, Buffalo, Chicago and St. Louis world's fairs and won the $1,000 trophy of the American Corn Growers' Association at the Omaha corn show last December. At the Chicago corn show in 1907 a single ear of corn grown by him was sold at auction and brought the world's record price of $250. His prizes alone have exceeded the total sum of $9,000.

Mr. Clore, with his mother, visited Greensboro at the reunion of non-resident natives held here in 1904 and spent a week visiting relatives in the county, they being among the best of the Quaker population.

MAY ENJOIN COMMISSION.

Citizens of Graham Protest Against Road Building in Alamance.

Burlington, April 15.—At a mass meeting of the citizens of Graham Monday evening a resolution was adopted looking to the employment of counsel to determine the advisability of enjoining the road commission of Alamance and stopping the work of road building and showing that, as they see it, they have not had a square deal in the matter of distributing the 46 miles of road which the county is preparing to build. The citizens of Burlington feel that this step on the part of Graham shows the citizens participating in the movement up in a bad light, as more than half of the proposed roads will benefit Graham more than Burlington and of those macadam roads already built there is not a mile that does not lead to Graham and none of them to lead to Burlington except one between Graham and Burlington. In selecting the routes to be macadamized the road commission has complied with the law which plainly defines its duties and have endeavored to please all as nearly as was possible in the expenditure of the $200,000 provided for road improvement.

S.S.S. CURES OLD SORES

We want to show you in this short, but honest and reasonable talk, how and why S. S. S. cures Old Sores. We do not claim that S. S. S. works wonders, but we do know it will cure sores and ulcers, and its record of forty years past abundantly justifies this confidence.

Any old sore shows an unhealthy and impure condition of the blood. It is a diseased condition of the flesh at that particular spot, caused and kept inflamed and irritated by a continual discharge into it of unhealthy matter from the circulation. In various ways the blood

BAD SORE FROM AN OLD WOUND.

I want to recommend S. S. S. to any who are in need of a blood purifier, and especially as a remedy for sores and obstinate ulcers. In 1877 I had my leg badly cut on the sharp edge of a barrel and having on a blue woolen stocking, the place was badly poisoned from the dye. A great sore formed and for years no one knows what I suffered with the place. I tried it seemed to me, everything I tried ever heard of but I got no relief and I thought I would have to go through life with an angry, discharging sore on my leg. At last I began the use of S. S. S. and it was but a short time until I saw that the place was improving. I continued it until it completely removed all the poison from my blood and made a complete and permanent cure of the sore.
256 Navy St., Brooklyn, N. Y. JNO. ELLIS.

A CANCEROUS ULCER.

I had a large sore or ulcer on my face and nothing I tried would benefit me. It began with shooting pains and soon the itching was terrible. At last it discharged a watery fluid which soon changed to one of thicker composition and the pain became very severe. It was nearly as large as a football and terribly inflamed in all the surrounding parts. It had been there so long and growing worse all the time, I became very much discouraged and despondent. At last I began the use of S. S. S. At first the ulcer seemed to get worse, but I soon found that the poison was being removed from the blood and I continued to take S. S. S. It was not long before I noted a decided improvement and I kept up the use of the medicine until I was entirely cured of the cancerous ulcer. This has been some time ago and I cheerfully recommend S. S. S. where a blood purifier is needed.

POISONED FROM INSECT BITE.

Wilmington, N. C.
From the bite of an insect I was poisoned and had a dreadful sore on my ankle and took different treatments with no benefit. I was induced to try S. S. S., and after a few bottles it cleared my system and cleansed my blood and cured the sore. My mother took it for rheumatism, with success. I cheerfully recommend S. S. S. where a blood purifier is needed.
109 South First St. CHAS. S. PRIDGEN.

S. S. S. cures old sores by removing the causes which produce them. It goes down into the circulation, drives out all impurities and poisons, and by nourishing the flesh with rich, pure blood causes the place to heal naturally and permanently. S. S. S. does not make a surface cure, but, being the greatest of all blood purifiers, it begins at the bottom and by rebuilding broken down tissue, and supplying healthy healing qualities to the circulation, causes the place to fill in with firm, healthy flesh, while it steadily but surely removes the cause and effects a permanent cure. The sore cannot remain when the blood is pure and S. S. S. will thoroughly purify the blood. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free to all who write.

S. S. S. is for sale at all drug stores.

VIRGINIA DEFEATS CAROLINA.

Exciting Game of Baseball Played Here Monday Afternoon.

In the presence of over 4,000 rooters, the University of Virginia defeated the University of North Carolina in an agonizing game of baseball at Cone athletic park Monday afternoon by a score of 3 to 1. From 3.30 o'clock, when "Red" Stewart, the 19-year-old slab artist for the Tar Heel team, struck out the first man who faced him with three slings of the ball, until at 6.30 the last sad batsman in a fatal twelfth had been sent back to the bench, it was anybody's game. Four safe drives to the credit of the Virginians in the twelfth tell of the usual splendid Virginia rally, productive of so many hard-won victories in the past.

It was a hard game for Carolina to lose, and had Stewart had errorless support it would not have been lost. Securing a lead of a run in the first inning, when Pitcher Stewart rapped out a two-base hit with Duncan on second who had been errored and sacrificed, Carolina bade fair to hold it, and did, until, in the eighth, by error of the right fielder, Walker was later given the chance to tie the score. From that moment each second of the struggle was one of breathless suspense until the twelfth, when Stewart, though game to the last, was "found" by the Virginia sluggers.

Walker, Virginia's star pitcher, did not appear so invincible at first, but grew stronger as the game progressed. In the matter of strike-outs his record ties that of Stewart, each fanning eight men. Much uneasiness was felt on account of the illness of Hamilton, Carolina's star first baseman, who rose from a sick bed to play his position at first in his usual steady style.

BASEBALL. Everything is in readiness for an auspicious opening in this city of the league season of the Carolina Baseball Association tomorrow, when Bob Carter's Twins will trot down from Winston-Salem to try conclusions with "Pop" McKevitt's Patriots. Reports are heard here to the effect that Carter has a very fast team this year—a team that will be hard to handle. The Winston rooters have chartered a special train to bring them down to the opening and they are expected to come 500 or more strong, for the Twin City folks are enthusiastic over their idols of the diamond.

"Pop" McKevitt is not making any rash boasts, but is working hard every day, and the Greensboro fans are satisfied that, when the gong sounds, he will send a team to the field that will make good. The champions have been on a trip in Virginia, playing the clubs of the Virginia league, and reports from Manager McKevitt are to the effect that the men are rounding up in good shape. The team returned to Greensboro yesterday for a day's rest before the opening game.

The lineup of the Champions will be practically the same as last year. Cook, Cogswell and White being the only 1908 players missing. "Reddy" Walsh will be assisted in the receiving line by "Togo" Bentley. Manager McKevitt will hold down the initial sack and "Pug" Hicks will cover second. Doak, who played second last year, will work at third. Lynch or Simmons will cover the short field. The outfield will be made up of Anthony, Sisson and Jackson. The ability of Anthony and Sisson is well known throughout the league. Jackson is a new man secured during the winter from the Lynchburg club and comes highly recommended. He will not report until after the opening of the season, so the local fans have not had an opportunity to pass on his work. Until Jackson reports, Bentley is playing in the right garden, and it may be remarked in passing that he is hitting the ball for keeps.

Seven pitchers have been signed, and all of them are good. Bertrand, Hamersley and Walters, of last year's team, are back. Then there is Long, who lead the South Carolina league last year; Mersman, a young pitcher from Grand Rapids; Fitzpatrick, who pitched star ball for the independent Petersburg team last year, and Ridgeway, a young pitcher from Philadelphia, who has been doing excellent work on the strong Guilford College team this year. The addition of these new men gives McKevitt's team the appearance of being at least 25 per cent. faster than it was last season.

Mayor O. B. Eaton, of Winston, and Mr. D. H. Blair, president of the Winston club, have been invited to take part in the opening ceremonies tomorrow.

Saturday afternoon a 40-foot flag pole was erected at Cone Athletic park on which to fly the championship pennant. Pennant raising day has been set for May 3rd, when the Spinnors (Greenville, S. C.) are to come to Greensboro on their first visit of the season. President Wearn has been invited to be present on that occasion.

Through fourteen innings of a hot contest A. & M. and Guilford played to a tie in Raleigh Friday afternoon, the score being 2 to 2. The game was called on account of darkness.

In a game of baseball at Guilford College Saturday afternoon the Guilford second team defeated the Proximity first team by the score of 13 to 0.

AGAINST THE ROAD LAW.

Mass Meeting of Taxpayers Held in This City Saturday.

In response to the call published in last week's issue of the Patriot, quite a number of taxpayers who look with disfavor upon the road law enacted for Guilford county by the recent session of the legislature attended a mass meeting held in the auditorium Saturday. Maj. Charles M. Stedman and ex-Judge W. P. Byrum, Jr., who have been retained as counsel to fight the enforcement of the law, appeared before the meeting and stated that the law is constitutional, but it is worded so as to include the citizens of Greensboro and High Point the same as the citizens outside the incorporate limits of the two cities. The citizens present were advised that the commissioners have the power to enforce the law.

Mr. John A. Young, a member of the board of county commissioners, was present and explained the law, saying that when the people understood it they would be pleased with it; that the statement that each person was liable for six days' work on the roads was untrue. The law is a copy of the old law of a hundred years ago in this particular, the six days being only the maximum, and that only such number of days were compulsory as in the judgment of the supervisor the roads needed; that the employment of a superintendent and the use by him of a mule and cart provided by the county for each township would be found of such benefit that but few days of road work would be required.

A committee composed of Messrs. G. W. Dawson, A. J. Draper, V. L. Rockfield and E. W. Isley submitted the following resolutions, which were adopted:

"Resolved, that we, the taxpayers, absolutely refuse to work or pay under the present road law until this law is applied to incorporate cities.

"Resolved 2nd—That we, as the taxpayers of said county subject to said road law, do pledge ourselves in person and purse to defend any member of this organization who may be prosecuted for having failed to comply with said law.

"Resolved 3rd—That a copy of these resolutions be sent to each primary organization in the county to be endorsed and signed by each member.

"Resolved 4th—That each primary organization shall correspond regularly with the county chairman and secretary as to the attitude of the people and growth of said organization.

"Resolved 5th—That committee on counsel are hereby authorized to obtain counsel to be paid out of funds raised or to be raised to defend any member who may be prosecuted.

"Resolved 6th—That, if necessary, each member of the organization shall be assessed by the treasurer and executive committee to defray his pro rata part of any expense."

The committee was requested to present the resolutions to the county commissioners at the next meeting of the board, and if the commissioners refuse to enforce the law upon the citizens of the two cities, then another meeting will be held, at which time such steps as may seem necessary for defying the law will be taken.

Section 21 of the road law, which defines who shall be liable to work the roads, follows:

"Section 21. No person between the ages prescribed shall be exempted from working upon the public roads, except such as are exempted in section ten, or such as may be exempted by the board of commissioners on account of personal infirmity, of which the said board shall be the sole judge."

Sections 10 and 11 of the law are as follows:

"Section 10. All able-bodied male persons and all male persons able to perform or cause to be performed the labor herein required, residing in the county, and between the ages of twenty-one and fifty years, except persons disabled or in the military service of this state, and all persons actually engaged in the ministry of the gospel, shall be liable annually to do and perform six days labor on the public roads of said county under the direction of the superintendent of the township in which he shall reside. Provided, that if any such person shall pay to the superintendent in whose township he may reside, the sum of seventy-five cents for each day he shall be required to work the same shall be received in lieu of said work and shall be applied by the superintendent receiving the same to the improvement of the roads in his township.

"Section 11. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of each township to order out every such person resident as aforesaid on the public roads of his township, and if any such person being personally warned by such superintendent or by leaving a written notice at his usual abode shall refuse or neglect, having had at least two days notice except in cases of emergency, then immediate notice to attend or having attended, shall refuse to obey the directions of the superintendent, every such delinquent shall forfeit and pay the sum of one dollar for every such offense and shall also be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction fined not exceeding five dollars or imprisoned not exceeding five days. All fines collected under this provision to be paid over to the county commissioners, and used for the purpose of roads."

Old Soldiers' Reunion May 10th. Guilford Camp, No. 795, United Confederate Veterans, will hold its next annual meeting Monday, May 10, 1909. All ex-Confederate soldiers are requested to assemble on the court house corner in Greensboro at 9 o'clock A. M. sharp that day.

FOR AN INCOME TAX.

Senator Bailey Introduces Measure in Congress—Would Produce Much Revenue—Tariff Commission Bill.

Correspondence of the Patriot.

Washington, April 19.—The Democratic senators in their recent caucus on the tariff decided to support the income tax proposition which Senator Bailey, of Texas, has introduced as an amendment to the Payne bill. The amendment provides for a tax of three per cent. on all incomes above $5,000, exempting incomes from federal, state, county, and municipal securities, the salaries of state officials and the incomes of corporations when they are below $5,000. Mr. Bailey explained that by exempting incomes from state, county and municipal securities he had, he was convinced, avoided the constitutional rock on which the former income tax law was wrecked when it reached the Supreme court of the United States. When asked for an estimate of the amount of revenue which his amendment would produce Mr. Bailey said that, while it was impossible to state this accurately, he was convinced it would yield from sixty to eighty million dollars a year. There are some senators who hope that as a result of a coalition between the solid minority and the disaffected Republicans the Bailey amendment may be adopted by the senate, but the general view is that there is no likelihood of so fortunate a result, and even did that happen it is almost certain that the house, under the domination of Speaker Cannon, would prove successful in killing the amendment.

Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, has reintroduced his tariff commission bill of a year ago, offering it as an amendment to the Payne bill, and is extremely confident that it will be adopted. There is little doubt that the finance committee will incorporate in the senate substitute a portion of the Beveridge amendment. That is to say, there will be created a tariff bureau, probably under the direction of the secretary of the treasury, which will be charged with the duty of gathering together and collating all that tariff information which now reaches the government through several different sources, and also of collecting and preparing for the use of the president data concerning foreign customs laws so that the president may be informed, when the time comes to enforce the maximum duties against any country which does not accord to the products of the United States as full privilege as it accords to those of any other country. There is, however, a fundamental difference between the policy of the finance committee which will be adopted by the senate and the Beveridge commission idea. Mr. Beveridge would create a commission clothed with authority and responsibility which would seek conscientiously to ascertain the facts regarding the cost of production at home and abroad, whereas it is not the purpose of Congress to delegate such authority to any executive body. The makers of the tariff in the Republican party have no purpose to establish the machinery whereby such facts may become generally known, as once known, they would constitute a basis for merciless criticism of the party which frames tariff bills to protect its friends and promote special interests. Senator LaFollette has introduced a tariff commission bill, his measure providing for a straight-out tariff commission clothed with authority not only to collect data, but also to make recommendations to Congress regarding proper changes in the tariff schedules. It is almost unnecessary to add that Mr. LaFollette's measure has far less chance of adoption than that of the senator from Indiana, a fact which he doubtless fully realized when he introduced it.

An important and interesting inquiry has been set on foot by the president, who has requested the attorney general, the secretaries of the interior and of commerce and labor and the solicitor general to consider and prepare for him an opinion on the feasibility of utilizing some quasi-official organization which shall act as a medium between the railroads of the country and the federal government. Experience has demonstrated that in its quest for information the interstate commerce commission is constantly hampered by the fact that it is compelled in numerous instances to conduct prosecutions based on information acquired in its investigations. The president believes that if such data as is required by the federal government could be gathered by a separate branch of the administration, or at least by a distinct portion of the commission, such friction would be largely avoided, and it is to that problem that he has directed some of the ablest lawyers of his administration to apply themselves.

Representative Scott, of Kansas, has introduced a bill "to prohibit interference with commerce among the states and to remove obstructions thereto," the real purpose of which is to prevent the speculation in commodities which results in such phenomena as the present corner in wheat. Mr. Scott fully realizes that there is no chance of his bill being considered at the present session of Congress, but he will have it submitted to the legal officers of the government with the hope that it may be put in constitutional and effective form before next December. The report that the federal government was about to institute legal proceedings with a view to ending the wheat corner is fully unfounded.

Turks Kill Christians.

Constantinople, April 15.—A massacre of Armenians is reported at Merzina, a seaport of Asia Minor, on the Mediterranean. TO PRISON UNESCORTED.

Unusual Case of Manslaughter From Richmond County.

Raleigh, April 16.—Probably for the first time in the history of the North Carolina state prison a citizen came today unaccompanied by any officer of the law and presented himself at the office with his 'commitment' in his pocket to begin the service. His name is H. F. Griffin, and he comes from Richmond county, having been sentenced by Judge Biggs for one year for manslaughter in that he shot and killed a negro in Hamlet while, as a police officer of that town, he was trying to arrest him for larceny. It seems that the negro had a gun in his hand with which Griffin feared he would shoot, but it developed that the gun was out of fix and the negro knew that it could not shoot. When Judge Biggs sentenced Griffin he gave him permission to spend a few days with his wife and children in the western part of the state and then the sheriff of Richmond county just handed him the commitment and told him he would trust him to go to the penitentiary without escort. It is understood that a strenuous move will be made at once on Governor Kitchin made at once on Governor Kitchin for a pardon. Several of the passengers on the train that brought Griffin to Raleigh today urged him to go to see the governor in person before he went to the prison, but he insisted that he had promised the sheriff that he would go direct to the prison and he would keep his word.

Wife Slain Despite Her Armed Vigil.

Kansas City, April 17.—Four persons in a house at Rosedale had slept every night for two months with loaded revolvers beneath their pillows to prevent the tragedy that took place there this morning. Frank Williams eluded their vigilance, killed his wife, Addie Williams, by shooting her as she lay asleep and then with two other bullets ended his own life.

Mrs. Williams lived with her two children and a son-in-law. Williams had threatened to kill his wife and himself. He practically had held the house in siege since his wife started divorce proceedings, February 11. Early today, while all in the house were sleeping soundly, he shattered a door with a piece of wood, ran to the bed of his wife and shot her dead.

The other members of the family were awakened by the shot. James Goodell in an adjoining room seized his revolver and fired three times, but none of the shots hit Williams. As the young man reached the side of his dead mother-in-law the husband killed himself on the back porch.

Sleeping with Mrs. Williams was Johnnie Aldine, her four-year-old grandson. When Goodell ran into the room the child cried to him:

"Grandpa shot grandma! I saw the fire!"

"He said he would kill mother," James Goodell told the coroner, "and we knew he would keep his word. He has been prowling about this house for the last two months, waiting for a chance. Mother went to sleep many times with her hand on her revolver. I had mine where I could reach it."

"The strain of the siege has been terrible. Many nights we have been awake much of the time until daybreak for what we knew would come."

Rock Creek Ready to Get the Benefit of the New Road Law.

Editor Patriot: Through the columns of your paper I want to give expression to a few observations I made while in Greensboro last Saturday. I went, merely as a spectator, to the "indignation meeting" held by some of the taxpayers of Guilford county.

From what I saw and heard, I am highly pleased with the new road law, and feel that it is just the law for our county. I think that a few designing ones have taken advantage of the situation for political and selfish motives. I have talked with a number of men who live in and pay the largest taxes in my township, and they all are heartily in sympathy with the new road law. One old gentleman in particular, whose road law alone is near fifty dollars, told me that he was very much pleased with it. There is no kick being made in my township in opposition to this new road law. All have gone cheerfully to work.

Show me a community where there are good roads and driveways, and I will show you well kept farms, beautiful homes, and every evidence of prosperity.

Now, one word for our worthy county commissioners. They are all honorable, upright gentlemen, who have the welfare of Guilford county at heart, and who would not do anything to bring our county into disrepute. I think every citizen, both white and black, should strive to make Old Guilford the greatest county in the state.

Famous Hotel Destroyed.

Danville, Va., April 16.—The beautiful Mecklenburg hotel at Chase City, 70 miles east of this city on the Keyville and Durham branch of the Southern Railway, was destroyed by fire this afternoon. The hotel was an expensive frame structure, built 19 years ago by the Mecklenburg Springs Corporation at a cost, including furnishings, of $200,000. At the time of the fire, it was owned by the estate of M. L. T. Davis, of Norfolk, and was leased and managed by W. T. Hughes, who has conducted it for several years. The owners carried only $75,000 insurance on the hotel and equipment. Only about 30 guests were registered at the hotel at the time of the fire. The structure, situated on an eminence just outside of town had two hundred guest chambers, all well furnished.

BOY KIDNAPPED IN ST. LOUIS.

Unknown Woman Takes Lad From Grandmother's Home.

St. Louis, April 16.—James Shepard Cabanne, third, was kidnapped shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon. The boy, aged seven, left the home of his grandmother, Mrs. J. C. Cabanne, of 5363 Cabanne avenue, saying he was going to a store on Belt avenue, near by.

At 7 o'clock a man called upon the grandmother and told her that he had helped an unknown woman to abduct the boy; that they had taken the child to the union station, where he had left him with the unknown woman, who had requested him to inform the abducted lad's grandmother that she was taking the boy out of town, but would return him in a few weeks.

The abducted boy's father, James Shepard Cabanne, Jr., is a commercial traveler, traveling out of Memphis, Tenn. His suit for divorce is tonight reported as pending in the Circuit court here. This cannot be verified at this hour.

Another account says his wife declares she is already divorced. Her name was Smith when she married Cabanne, and she comes from a prominent Paducah, Ky., family. The penalty for abduction in Missouri is hanging.

PACKING COMPANY INDICTED.

Liability, if Guilty, to $737,000 Fine for Oleomargarine Tax Swindle.

Topeka, Kan., April 16.—The federal grand jury indicted the Cudahy Packing Company, of Kansas City, Kan., today on 737 counts. The company is charged with defrauding the government out of $80,000 by violations of the internal revenue laws. The minimum fine on each of the 737 counts is $1,000.

The revenue law provides that each pound of uncolored oleomargarine must bear a revenue stamp of a quarter of a cent, but that to each pound to which coloring matter has been added a 10-cent revenue stamp must be attached. It is charged that the Cudahy company has sold the colored product under the quarter of a cent tax.

It is alleged by the government officials that the Cudahy company has succeeded in monopolizing the oleomargarine market by selling the colored product and paying the tax on the basis of uncolored.

District Attorney Bone will bring a civil action in the federal court against the company to have the plant and machinery used in the manufacture of oleomargarine confiscated. The oleomargarine manufacturing plant is connected with the Cudahy packing establishment in Kansas City, Kan.

Grover Cleveland's Ideas About Ex-Presidents.

In the April American Magazine Jesse Lynch Williams, writing about Grover Cleveland, says:

"He felt strongly about the anomalous position of 'these poor ex-presidents of ours,' men trained and habituated for energizing, fitted by remarkable experience for great usefulness, suddenly cast to one side. Long before he was persuaded to sum up his views formally upon the question he used often to talk about it informally. 'Something ought to be done,' he would say plaintively shaking his head. 'As it is now, nothing seems to be dignified enough for them. Now there was Harrison; he went into law. The first time he got up to argue a case in court everybody laughed; it seemed so queer. I know how it is. I went back into law myself between the two terms at Washington. Well, the first time I went into court the Supreme court, there on the bench sat two judges I had appointed myself. No, it doesn't do.' So a fellow has to remain a loafer all the rest of his life simply because he happened to be president. It isn't right. It isn't fair."

"Why don't you write about this subject?" was suggested.

"I'd like to, I'd like to very well—only they'd say I was trying to feather my own nest."

"When finally he wrote his paper on this important subject he prefaced his discussion by stating that he had enough for his own needs, and that no one should take what he said as a plea in his own behalf. As if anyone would."

Discovered Burglar as She Kneled to Pray.

Durham, April 16.—The officers yesterday searched as they did quietly the day before for a negro who frightened Mrs. Jeffries so badly Wednesday night in her bedroom. Mrs. Jeffries was preparing to retire and kneled down by the bed to say her prayers. She dropped upon the negro, who caused her to forget her devotions momentarily. He looked up at her a short time, crawled away, made his escape and attempted to do no violence. It did not prevent some very feminine fright, however, and the officers were put on the trail. It is not believed from the easy way in which the negro backed out and avoided demonstration, that he really meant any harm, but was probably after something to eat.

Shot by Deputy Sheriff.

Spencer, April 18.—Jim Keesler, an employe of the Southern Railway shops here, was dangerously shot near his home in East Spencer, this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff D. L. Beasley, who left immediately after the shooting. The trouble between Keesler and Beasley is said to have resulted from family affairs. Keesler's condition is critical, but it is thought he will recover.

Murder Follows Dance.

Roanoke, Va., April 18.—As the result of a drunken row at a dance in Patrick county last night, Fred Roller is dead and his assailant, John Howell, is being hunted by officers of the law.

Roller and Howell had long been friends, but recently had a dispute and when they met last night the quarrel was renewed. The two men left the dance room and meeting later in the dark began shooting at each other.

Roller was shot through the breast, dying a few hours later. Howell made his escape.

Turned the Tables.

Statesville Landmark.

The Greensboro colored man who worked the wealthy Northern housekeepers by proposing to send them servants on receipt of railroad fare and $3.50 bonus for each servant furnished, was simply turning the tables. It was hard on the Northern housekeepers, for domestic servants are always in demand and it is not surprising that the ladies responded eagerly to the Greensboro colored man's proposition. But while it is no fault of the Northern ladies, the imitative colored individual was simply playing a trick similar to those by which shrewd Northerners have for many years fleeced conflicting Southerners.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO CROP

Production of the Weed in Different Sections of the Country.

Frederic J. Haskin in the Washington Herald.

The tobacco growers of the United States are entering upon their crop season with every prospect that the production of the weed this year will be more profitable than ever before. Competing among themselves, in the light of the best scientific knowledge, and with federal and state government aid, there is every reason why the American tobacco producers should feel satisfied with their lot, even though the tariff bill may not altogether suit them.

As is usually the case, the growers of cigar wrapper tobacco can look forward to the largest returns from their labor, albeit their initial investment and subsequent expenses may be greater. The production of wrapper tobacco has been most successful in the Connecticut River valley and in Florida. The product of those districts has been pronounced equal to the best Sumatra wrapper tobacco, and that is the world's standard of quality. It seems strange that two climates so different as those of New England and the "Land of Flowers" should foster similar crops as well as the tropical islands of Cuba and Sumatra do, but such is the case.

To accomplish so much the Connecticut and Florida growers have had to pass through a struggle that was disheartening at times. Through steadfast perseverance the Connecticut growers have almost reached the point where Connecticut's tobacco is as well known as their mythical wooden nutmegs, or her clocks, which tick around the world. Twenty per cent of Connecticut's population is interested financially in her tobacco crop. Although the acreage of that crop is only 2 per cent. of the total acreage of the American tobacco crop, it yields one-fifth of the gross returns from the total tobacco production of the United States. A few thousand acres in a little district in Connecticut and Massachusetts have been producing one of the most valuable crops in the country. Last year the production was over 31,000,000 pounds, valued at more than $5,000,000 on the farms, which value was increased greatly through the various processes of curing, marketing, and manufacturing. This value was greater than that of the entire cotton crop in some Southern states.

To produce wrapper tobacco successfully in the Connecticut Valley requires constant care from start to finish. First, seed beds are prepared and sterilized with steam, or are burned over, to kill fungi which attack the roots of the young plants. The field is heavily fertilized, sometimes at a cost of $200 per acre. The seedlings are transplanted and cultivated with great care. Probably the best results are obtained in producing wrapper tobacco by the use of Havana seed which has been acclimated in New England, and is grown under shade. This shade is usually a tent about nine feet high, covering an entire field. In Florida growing under shade is also practiced, but Sumatra seed is said to do best. The shade in Florida may be obtained from lattice work built over fields. The latter plan is not satisfactory in Connecticut because the structure is broken down by the winter snows. The damage to the crop from hail stones is sometimes great.

When ready for harvest Connecticut wrapper leaves are stripped from the stalks, strung on strings, and hung up in barns to dry. The drying and curing processes are mostly delicate, and many a fine crop has been ruined because climatic conditions have been unfavorable, or the grower was inexperienced. During these processes an even temperature, good ventilation, and a certain degree of moisture are necessary. After the leaf is dried it cannot be packed until damp weather comes, so that it will not break when handled. Then the leaves are tied into "hands" and ready for curing.

This latter process is said to be a sort of fermentation. The tobacco is arranged in huge piles in a warm, humid atmosphere. It soon begins to heat, and at times reaches a temperature of 140 degrees. This is ascertained by a clever arrangement where by a thermometer is lowered into the center of the pile. When a high temperature is reached the pile is taken down and the tobacco carefully rearranged with the outside "hands" on the inside of the new pile, and vice versa. This process may be repeated several times before the tobacco is ready for the market.

Good wrapper tobacco is being grown in Hawaii without shade, the heavy fog blanket hanging over certain portions of those islands serving as a substitute for tents. Tobacco is grown under shade in Porto Rico and Cuba. Of course, the cost of this system of cultivation is very heavy, but the financial returns are compensatory. Some of the first shade-grown tobacco in Connecticut was sold for $1.65 a pound, being a net profit of $1,000 an acre.

The benefits conferred upon the tobacco industry by the Department of Agriculture are almost incalculable. The department carries on co-operative work with the state agricultural colleges and experimental stations in Connecticut, New York, Ohio, Florida, Alabama, Texas, Maryland, Virginia, Kentucky, North Carolina and South Carolina.

This work is most varied in character. Government experts have made soil surveys of the several tobacco districts and determined what kinds of soil will produce certain varieties of tobacco. Good tobacco land must be rich in lime and potash. Cigar wrapper tobacco requires light alluvial soil, such as is found along the banks of the Connecticut and Susquehanna ivers, in Pennsylvania, and in the Florida peninsula. Cigar binder and filler tobacco grows best in silty and loamy soils in the Miami Valley, Ohio, and in certain parts of Wisconsin and western Florida. Sandy soil is ideal for the famous bright leaf, such as thrives in Virginia and the Carolinas, and which is used in cigarettes and to wrap plug tobacco.

The limestone soil of the Blue Grass section is best for Kentucky white burley, used in the manufacture of smoking and chewing mixtures, while the heavy, dark varieties of tobacco, for export purposes, thrive only in the silty soils of western Kentucky and Tennessee. Perique, a particular strong tobacco, is said to grow only in Louisiana. Maryland tobacco is mostly made into snuff.

The government experts say the American tobacco crop can be increased wonderfully in acreage, yield per acre, quality and value. By the judicious use of fertilizers bad soils can be made rich. Crop rotation helps greatly in this connection. Seed selection offers a wide field for improvement. Under the department's advice the best tobacco plants in a field have paper bags tied over their flowers. The self-fertilized seed thus obtained is put through a machine invented by a government expert, which fans out the lighter seed, leaving only the heaviest, which is best for planting.

Cuban seed has been acclaimed in Texas and is yielding 800 pounds to the acre, good Havana wrapper and filler. The government is encouraging the growing of tobacco from Cuban seed in Alabama, and is meeting with success. It is believed the yield of fire-cured Virginia tobacco can be doubled by extensive cultivation. In Ohio the Agricultural department has been carrying on tobacco investigations for a number of years, and good fillers and wrappers from Havana seed are being grown. Recently the department has been testing a batch of 1,000 cigars made from its Ohio-grown tobacco. One cigar is made from each plant and carefully marked. A corps of young men, who are willing to take the risk, like Dr. Wiley's celebrated "poison squad," are given all the "smokes" they want, to pass judgment upon the flavor and aroma. The burning qualities are tested in a smoking machine. The cigars averaging the best are traced back to the plants that bore them, the seed of which are to be planted next year. Thus the strain is improved.

Some of the worst enemies the tobacco grower has to combat are destructive insects. These include the flea-beetle, which attacks the lower leaves of the plant; the horn worm or "hornblower," with which the farmer's children become familiar in the "worming" process; the bud worm, the name of which describes it; the suck fly, which draws the juice from the leaves; the split worm, which burrows inside the leaf; the cut worm, which attacks the roots; tobacco thrips, tree crickets, plant lice, slugs, and others. The weed is liable to insect attack after being dried. Some persons prefer cigarettes that are infested with the cigarette beetle, because that little beast imparts a distinctive flavor to the cigarette. This is admitted to be an acquired taste. With the help of the government experts these insect pests are being overcome with poisons and other agencies.

The department has invented a system of regulating moisture in tobacco establishments. By means of certain solutions the atmospheric condition is controlled automatically.

It is a far cry from the first cigars peddled by Mrs. Prout, of Windsor, Conn., more than a century ago, to the enormous tobacco manufacturing industry of today, which embraces 25,000 cigar factories. Pennsylvania leads in the production of cigars. The United States consumes almost half a billion pounds of tobacco, in all forms, annually, or more than Germany, France and Great Britain combined. Tax is paid on 7,000,000,000 cigars here every year, compared to which the 150,000,000 cigars it is proposed to admit to the United States from the Philippines without paying a duty, seems scarcely a drop in the bucket. It is not known whether the proposed importations will include some of the famous brand known as "tobacco grande," three feet in length, which are the favorites of the dusky Filipino maidens.

Paper is being made of tobacco stems. The French government has succeeded in producing a so-called nicotineless tobacco. The poisonous element of the weed is partly washed out with water. The ideal tobacco plant, it is said, would be one that would combine the excellent qualities of Sumatra and Havana leaf. Fashions in tobacco change and the grower and manufacturer must keep up with the style.

Swept Over Niagara.

This terrible calamity often happens because a careless boatman ignores the river's warnings—growing ripples and faster current—Nature's warnings are kind. That dull pain or ache in the back warns you the Kidneys need attention if you would escape fatal maladies—Dropsy, Diabetes or Bright's disease. Take Electric Bitters at once and see Backache fly and all your best feelings return. "After long suffering from weak kidneys and lame back, one $1 bottle wholly cured me," writes J. R. Mr. Ericson's Old Home.

Go see it, it's a beauty. It stands out among all its neighbors, because the coloring is so bright and clear. Mr. Ericson painted with L. & M. Paint and says it cost 1-3 less than ever before. He bought only 12 gallons of L. & M. Paint and 9 gallons of Linseed Oil to mix with it. This made 21 gallons of pure paint, and cost only $1.20 per gallon. It's as handsome as the finest in town. The L. & M. is sold by Gibsonville Store Company, Gibsonville.

A Box Party Near McLeansville.

A box party and church social was held for Peggy Lutheran church, at the Union school house, near McLeansville, last Saturday night. This event marked the culmination of the splendid efforts of the ladies of the church to secure the necessary funds for the improvement of their church and grounds, which they have planned.

Several weeks ago at the suggestion of their pastor, Rev. C. Brown Cox, a number of the ladies each took a square of a quilt. On these squares were written the name of all their friends who would give as much as ten cents for the improvement fund. Many responded more liberally, one giving as much as $5. A day was appointed for the quilting (Good Friday) of what is known as the Peace autograph quilt. Nor was it all spent in work, as those who are acquainted with the ways of woman-kind will testify.

A picnic dinner was prepared and ample justice done the fare set forth by these famous housewives. Then followed, best of all, the box party of Saturday night. After the boxes, which were prepared and filled with good things to eat, were sold at auction, it was announced that the prize of the evening, the Peace autograph quilt, itself, had been won by Miss Ora Alvah Cobb, she having succeeded in collecting the most money of all the ladies holding squares. Miss Cobb's list showed one hundred and twenty-two names, and a total of $26.25 collected for her share of the quilt money. She received many congratulations from her many friends, praising her for her faithful work in her church. Miss Cobb desires through the columns of this paper to thank her friends who in any way helped her to win the prize.

Altogether it was a very joyful occasion and every person present reported a good time.

ADVANTAGES OF IRRIGATION.

As one becomes more familiar with the conditions under which the farmer in the irrigated tracts of the west makes his land and handles his crops, it is clear that he has several advantages over his fellow farmer in the central and eastern states, who relies upon rainfall alone for the moisture necessary for the growth and maturing of his crops. Perhaps his chief and most important advantage is that he is able to put water on his land at will, being free from the distraction and annoyance of heavy rains during the time of seeding and cultivation, which would soak the ground, delay sowing and give the weeds a big start. Coupled with a perfect regulation of the moisture which is allowed to go upon the land is another favorable condition—the large number of bright days during the harvest months, which make possible the perfect ripening of the grain and hay and the harvesting and securing of it under most favorable conditions. Any farmer who has tried to cure hay between showers in June in the central and western states will appreciate this point. Lastly, the irrigated lands have a vital point in their favor—that the soil has been soaked out and washed out by repeated and heavy rains. This accounts for the remarkable productivity of western soils, which have waited centuries for the gentle touch of water to make them the garden spots of earth. In view of these points and others which might be mentioned, it is not surprising that the eastern farmer looks longingly toward the west and many an easterner pulls up stakes and goes out to the irrigated sections.

ORCHARD CULTIVATION.

There is nothing which can be done for the young orchard which will tend to make it more thrifty and vigorous than to give it careful cultivation for the first few years after it is set. This result may be brought about to advantage by growing some crop between the rows of trees, such as strawberries, potatoes, popcorn or, better still, beans. The frequent cultivations keep the ground loose and moist and keep the young trees from suffering should a hot and dry spell come in middle or late summer. If the orchard is an old one and blue grass and weeds are gradually working their way in, a good plan would be to give it a shallow plowing, so as not to injure the surface roots, to disk frequently with a reversible disk until about the middle of July and then sow buckwheat and oats, which will come on and make a good winter cover crop. Next spring, if it is desired, the orchard may be thoroughly disked or plowed and sowed to clover. In Pennsylvania orchards, where there is no danger of injury from winter freezing, the orchards are usually kept cultivated the season through.

STINGENT MEASURES NEEDED.

It is becoming more apparent every year that the legislatures in all states have the noxious weed problem before them and should pass laws making it a crime punishable by heavy fine for a farmer to sell any product of his farm which could possibly carry the weed seeds to adjoining farms. It is true that in some cases some such laws are on the statute books, but they are either not enforced or else the penalties they provide is not sufficient to stop the nuisance. With many landowners waging an almost futile warfare against the worst weeds and their appearance in new fields and localities each year, it is clear that stringent measures will have to be adopted to give relief. Men whose farms are not so contaminated have the same interest in giving aid to the movement for a quarantine placed to prevent the spread of a loathsome disease is concerned.

CARE OF CHICKS.

Little chickens are better off if they are not fed at all during the first twenty-four or forty-eight hours. This is due to the fact that by a provision of nature the yolk of the egg is the portion to be absorbed in the embryo from egg to chick, and this provides sufficient nourishment to supply the little creature with all it needs during the time mentioned. The first food may be Johnny bread crumbs, cottage cheese, chick feed and a little cracked corn, while a little green food in some form should be furnished. Clean water and milk if available should be where the little fellows are kept at all times. Three things which should be remembered in the care of the little chicks is that they should have dry and clean quarters, be kept free from the attacks of lice and not allowed to eat wet, raw meal that has become sour.

A melon raiser of considerable experience reports powdered tobacco as an effective check on the striped melon bug, while tobacco tea he finds sure death to all plant lice.

A mechanical quack grass exterminator has lately been put on the market, being a combination of plow and rotary rake, which pulls the roots of the grass free from the soil. He is indeed fortunate who does not have to investigate into the merits of this machine.

A good part of California's success in fruit growing is said to be due to the fact that there are within her borders 45,000 Italians, who are usually rated as the most painstaking and successful horticulturists in the world. These people own 2,726 farms in the state, while the value of their fruit farms and business interests is placed at $115,000,000.

A gasoline engine of a fairly docile type is a big improvement over the average windmill in that it is not put out of business by a windstorm and will jog along satisfactorily whether the wind is blowing or not. Besides this, when properly mounted it can be taken where the owner wills to saw wood, shred fodder, grind corn or do other useful tasks.

The country dog that rushes out at every passing team and sometimes frightens them into running away is an all round nuisance and should be suppressed. He can be broken of the habit when a puppy if he is lapped soundly every time he tries the trick, and if this does not effect a reform the owner would confer a favor on society by breaking the brute's neck.

Stock cattle will get along very well under out of door conditions if only they are provided with a clean, dry place in which to sleep which is protected from storm and wind. Not only is the comfort of the animal, but its health as well, dependent upon this, and both will be decreased if it has to put up with a wet and nasty sleeping place. A way out under such conditions would seem to be the liberal use of straw, which will absorb the liquid manures and also increase materially the volume of fertilizer which can be hauled on to the hungry land.

The Charity Organization Society of Youngstown, O., has obtained the use of a twelve acre garden close to the town for cultivation during the summer. An experienced gardener will be put in charge, and work will be provided for all. The society has been through an experience which would undoubtedly have killed an organization less strongly and enthusiastically backed. It started work just at the height of the industrial depression last year. In consequence it was obliged to raise special relief funds, and its total budget exceeded by thousands the original and normal estimates.

The United States department of agriculture has decided on the location of a federal forestry station at Madison, Wis., which will be conducted in connection with the state experiment station. The work of the station will be directly beneficial to the lumber, papermaking and furniture interests of this section. Tests will be made of various kinds of wood for the manufacture of wood pulp, while methods will be studied for the more effective utilization of the pine stumpage of the north. When organized the station will offer a special course of study for the training of forest rangers.

There is hardly a creamery company anywhere which from the standpoint of dollars and cents merely could not well afford to supply all of its patrons with an annual subscription to some good dairy paper. The better methods which would doubtless be adopted in the handling and care of the cream as well as greater pains taken in the weeding out of unprofitable individuals in the dairy herd would combine to increase not only the quality but the quantity of the butter product. The more progressive dairymen in any community already take dairy papers, but many do not, and in the case of these such a plan would bear good fruit.

Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt's plan of building in New York city four model tenement houses for tuberculosis families deserves praise. What the tuberculosis patient needs and what he can get only in a well conducted hospital or sanitarium is intelligent supervision of his sleeping quarters. According to Mrs. Vanderbilt's scheme, the families to be housed in her model tenements will be thus supervised until they can safely live elsewhere. A particularly valuable feature of her plan is the fact that it tends to keep the family together. The dispersion of the family undoubtedly has its bad effect upon the patient himself and frequently results in the separation of the entire family.

With eggs the past winter ranging all the way from 25 to 40 cents per dozen, it is possible there may be some who will want to put some nice fresh eggs down for future use. A method which gives better results than any other is putting the eggs down as fast as they are laid or can be secured in a water glass solution, which is made by mixing one quart of sodium silicate to ten parts of water previously boiled, the solution being mixed while hot. The vessel used for the purpose should be of wood or stoneware, preferably the latter. Fresh eggs put up in the above manner will keep remarkably well for ten months. The best time to lay by such a store of eggs is when they are the cheapest possible consistent with freshness.

The horses will be better off in narrow or box stalls if they are supplied at all times of day and night with an abundance of bedding. If they have this they will lie down during the day and rest when not at work, while the cushion of straw will be much easier on their feet and legs.

The national apple show which was held some weeks ago at Spokane was exceptional in more points than one. It was the largest exhibition of apples ever held under one roof. A total of fifteen carloads of apples was on exhibition, amounting to 10,000 boxes. The total attendance at the exposition was 102,000.

A western exhibitor who attended the National Horticultural exposition at Council Bluffs, Ia., remarked to a friend (not for publication) that even the pigs out in his country wouldn't be caught eating a Ben Davis or Wolf River apple if there were Winesap or Jonathan trees about. The western hog is a discriminating fellow.

Probably there is no class of men who are today buying more automobiles than farmers, and it may be added that there is no class which can better afford to buy them. If this tendency keeps on it will not be long before farmers as a class, appreciating more fully than now perhaps the advantages of smooth, hard roads, will join hands in a definite campaign for road improvement. The reform will come when both town and country fellows get after it seriously.

The undesirability of much land in the semiarid belt of western states is possibly due to some measure to the bad reputation which such lands have been given by men who wished to keep the use of large tracts for grazing purposes. In some sections this bias has taken the extreme form of a positive discouragement and even intimidation of settlers who so much as looked at these grazing preserves with the idea that they might prove useful for agricultural purposes. At the same time it is well to consider that vast areas in the west can never be utilized to advantage for anything but pastoral or grazing purposes.

Every progressive farmer should be, along with many other things, a student of the soil which it is his privilege to work. By the aid of suggestions for practical investigation which the soil specialists of his state agricultural college can give him he can inform himself sufficiently so as to get much better returns from his acres. One soil should receive a different physical treatment from another. One may need tilling, another liming, while still another, cropped for years, may need re-enforcing with artificial or homemade fertilizers. All these conditions should be inquired into and measures adopted which will put the soil to rights.

Two problems which are of vital importance to the present day farmer and which will be even more so in the future are a conserving of the fertility of his land and the more economical use of the byproducts of his farm. The first object may be largely attained by adopting some sensible system of crop rotation, coupled with stock raising and dairying. The latter may be achieved by a more economic handling of the corn crop, and this is possible by means of the silo, which, apart from the economy it makes possible, furnishes the best possible ration for dairy cows and feeding cattle. Many farmers have realized this situation and have acted upon it. Thousands more should realize it before time to cut corn for the silo next fall.

Nature has provided a delicate automatic plan for the regulation of the setting of fruit buds in certain varieties of fruit trees, like the apple. It consists in this—that the buds for the production of fruit one season are set, if at all, during the preceding season. Thus, if the tree has borne a heavy crop of fruit and had its vitality considerably taxed, the fruit buds set sparingly, thus acting as a safeguard against the tree overbearing itself. On the other hand, if the tree has had a layoff one season it usually sets full of fruit buds, the excess vitality seeming to make this condition possible. In the case of a tree that is sick or dying this rule seems to be violated in that all the waning vitality it possesses seems to be put forth in a blind and pathetic effort to reproduce itself before it dies.

The grubs which are often found just under the skin on the shoulders, backs and sides of cattle hatch from the eggs of the ox botfly, which are laid in the spring on the legs, heels and flanks of the animals and from these places are licked off by the tongue and taken into the stomach. Here they hatch, the little grubs gradually working their way through the flesh of the animal until they reach the hide on the back, where their presence is indicated by lumps or swellings, which open after awhile, the grub finally escaping as a full fledged botfly, ready to repeat the process. The grubs may be killed by rubbing down the lumps with a round stick. Later, as the opening appears, lard or oil will kill them. Sometimes they may be forced out by grasping the skin firmly between thumb and finger and giving a sharp pinch. In such cases a little carbolic acid mixed with grease will hasten the process.

Campbell Corn Drill

We take pleasure in calling attention to this Drill, which is one of the most successful implements on the market. It possesses many features which commend it to progressive farmers. The frame is of angle steel, strongly bolted together. The drive wheel is solid and does not collect any rubbish. The gear lever is so located that the operator can regulate two dropping distances, or throw the drill out of gear without stopping the horse. Every grain is in full view of the operator as it leaves the seed box. Send for special catalogue.

Odell Hardware Co.

An Old Slave's Legacy.

Lexington Dispatch.
Unusual interest attaches to the placing of a brass railing and a beautiful plush curtain in the choir space at the Presbyterian church, for the reason that the railing, which is costly, was paid for by money bequeathed to the church by Aunt Jennie Payne, a colored woman who died at an advanced age several years ago. She was a slave of the Payne family in this county and had been a member of the Presbyterian church all her life, her membership dating back to the time when the negroes attended the "white folks' church," in ante-bellum days. When she died she gave a third of her small estate to the Presbyterian congregation, a third to the colored Presbyterian church and a third to a daughter. With the money the Presbyterian people have bought the railing, and will have the old negro's name inscribed thereon in remembrance of her.

It requires as much courage to spend the last dollar as it does the first one.

Words of Praise

For the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, as given by leaders in all the several schools of medicine, should have far more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has the badge of honesty on every bottle-wrapper, in a full list of all its ingredients printed in plain English. If you are an invalid woman and suffer from frequent headache, backache, gnawing distress in stomach, periodical pains, disagreeable, catarrhal, pelvic drain, dragging down distress in lower abdomen or pelvis, perhaps dark spots or specks dancing before the eyes, faint spells and kindred symptoms caused by female weakness, or other derangement of the feminine organs, you can not do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The hospital, surgeon's knife and operating table may be avoided by the timely use of "Favorite Prescription" in such cases. Thereby the obnoxious examinations and legal treatments of the family physician can be avoided and a thorough course of successful treatment carried out in the privacy of the home. "Favorite Prescription" is composed of the very best native medicinal roots known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments, contains no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs.

Do not expect too much from "Favorite Prescription"; it will not perform miracles; it will not dissolve or cure tumors. No medicine will. It will do as much to establish vigorous health in most weaknesses and ailments peculiarly incident to women as any medicine can. It must be given a fair chance by perseverance in its use for a reasonable length of time.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this remedy of known composition.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic. Easy to take as candy.

ORANGE PRESBYTERY.

The Spring Session Held in Lexington Last Week.

Orange Presbytery met in its 278th session in the Presbyterian church of Lexington on Tuesday night of last week and was opened with a sermon by the retiring moderator, Rev. D. McIver, of Burlington. There were in attendance 24 ministers, 23 ruling elders and one licentiate.

Rev. Neal L. Anderson was elected moderator and Rev. E. L. Siler and Elder T. L. Smith were elected temporary clerks.

Rev. R. K. Mosley, at his own request, was dismissed to the Abington Presbytery. Revs. Melton Clark, E. R. Leyburn and R. M. Williams and Elder Henry Field were appointed a special committee on bills and overtures. Rev. G. L. Leyburn, now in California, was granted permission to labor outside the bounds of the Presbytery until the next meeting. Mr. G. W. Lee, formerly of Mount Airy, now of Winston, after due examination, was received under the care of the Presbytery as a candidate for the ministry. Rev. Carl Barth, of the Presbytery of Kanawa, and Rev. T. R. Taggart, of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, North, were examined and received as members of this Presbytery. Mr. Taggart has been called by the First church of Lexington and Mr. Barth has been called to the First church in Durham to do mission work in the city.

Ruling Elder J. M. Rogers, of Winston, addressed the Presbytery in the interests of the Laymen's Missionary Movement. He was appointed Presbyterial representative of this movement and each church session is asked to appoint a local committee to represent the Laymen's Movement.

Rev. C. W. Summerville was heard in the interest of the Assembly Home and School at Fredericksburg, Va., and Rev. P. R. Law in the interest of the Presbyterial Standard.

The treasurer's report was received and approved, showing a total of $11,452 receipts during the year for benevolent purposes. The committee on apportionments recommended that the apportionments be the same as last year. This was adopted.

Rev. T. W. Lingle was heard in the interest of Davidson College and the week beginning December 17 next was adopted as Davidson College week.

The following commissioners to the general assembly were elected: Revs. D. I. Craig and M. C. Arrowwood, and Ruling Elders E. J. Davis and George W. Watts. Alternates: Revs. R. L. Liston and Melton Clark, and Elders J. H. White and W. F. Carter.

The report of the home mission committee was received and adopted, showing all workers paid to April 1 and a balance of nearly $1,000 in the treasury.

Rev. S. M. Rankin presented the matter of the Glade Valley school in Allegheny county, showing that several thousand dollars were in sight for establishing a Presbyterial high school in that mountain country. This school is heartily endorsed by the liberality of those blessed with means.

Rev. C. G. Vardeil, president of the Southern Presbyterian College at Red Springs was heard in the interest of that institution; and Rev. M. C. Shields, superintendent of Synodical missions, was heard in the interest of that cause. Rev. John Wakefield was heard in the interest of the Orphan's Home at Barium Springs.

The Presbytery voted for a change in the elect infant clause of the Confession of Faith, the same being an affirmative answer to a query sent out to various Presbyteries.

The session came to a close Friday to meet next at Cross Roads church, Alamance county, September 21.

Price of Flour Soars Skyward.

Chicago, April 16.—The rise in the price of flour until the mills in America are selling spring wheat flour at $7 a barrel, or $1.30 more than a year ago, is brought to light as one of the effects of the present condition of the wheat market and the country's supply of the cereal.

According to the Chicago managers of the Washburn-Crosby Company, the Pillsbury Washburn Company, and the Northwestern Consolidated Milling Company, which operate what are declared the largest mills in the United States, and practically fix the price of flour, there is no relief in sight from present conditions, and every indication is that the price of flour will continue to soar, and may go to $10 a barrel.

Seeks to Prick Wheat Bubble.

Washington, April 17.—The highly interesting debate between Secretary of Agriculture Wilson and Wheat Growers' Patten as to whether the American nation can feed itself continued today. Patten insists there isn't enough wheat, and that the price is going up, up, up until we'll have to take it from the tariff a day from Canada. Meantime, Patten is counting about $5,000,000 paper profits as the result of his Chicago wheat corner, and as the Big Stick is in Africa just now he doesn't feel worried about it.

Secretary Wilson insists that there is plenty of wheat and always will be and that Gambler Patten is headed straight for the demitison bow wows, because, in the opinion of this grizzled old farmer from Iowa, wheat corners are out of fashion since the days when Joseph managed things in the household of Pharaoh. A sidelight on the controversy is the fact that Patten is betting millions in good money that he is right. Secretary Wilson has only his reputation to lose.

"There is sufficient wheat in the country at normal prices to make bread for the American people up to the time when the new crop comes in," declared Secretary Wilson today, "and those who attempt to keep prices up at present rates expect to get their money out of the common people—the consumers."

The old fashioned way of dosing a weak stomach, or stimulating the heart or kidneys is all wrong. Dr. Shoop first pointed out this error. This is why his prescription—Dr. Shoop's Restorative—is directed entirely to the cause of these ailments, the weak inside or controlling nerves. It isn't so difficult, says Dr. Shoop, to strengthen a weak stomach, heart or kidneys, if one goes at it correctly. Each inside organ has its controlling or inside nerve. When these nerves fail, then those organs must surely falter. These vital truths are leading druggists everywhere to dispense and recommend Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Test it a few days, and see! Improvement will promptly and surely follow. Sold by Greensboro Drug Co.

BRYAN CRITICIZES DICKINSON.

Declares That Secretary of War is Not a Democrat.

In the last issue of the Commoner William J. Bryan devotes a page to ridiculing the claim of Secretary of War Dickinson that he is a Democrat. Mr. Bryan says Dickinson's appointment will not break the "Solid South," but will simply arouse real Democrats effectively to repudiate masqueraders in party life.

Dickinson, he says, is not a Democrat at all, as Democracy is defined in recent platforms. A paragraph reads:

"If the president wants to appoint a Democrat he ought to appoint a sure-enough Democrat, and not one in name only. The president was not under any obligations to appoint a Democrat to his cabinet. It would have been a surprise to every one if he had appointed one. In fact, there would have been a unanimous protest from his party if he had appointed a sure-enough Democrat."

"The fact that the Republicans are satisfied with the appointment of Mr. Dickinson is proof conclusive that they do not regard him as a Democrat, and that they do not expect him to act as a Democrat."

Improving the Quality, Increasing the Quantity of Tobacco Crops

The ambition of every tobacco planter is to secure the largest possible crop of the best possible quality—and this is most surely, easily, and quickly accomplished by the use of

Virginia-Carolina Fertilizers

As a rule the more liberal the amount of these fertilizers used per acre, the better the results. Mr. John F. Cunningham of Cunningham, N. C., probably one of the largest tobacco growers in the world, says: "I have been using your fertilizer for twenty years. I have sold tobacco made by this fertilizer as high as 90c a lb. Virginia-Carolina Fertilizer is used by the best tobacco farmers in the Tobacco States. It stands upon its merits. There is no better fertilizer made or used in the United States. I take great pleasure in recommending it not only to the farmers of Virginia and North and South Carolina, but to all the tobacco growers in the Union."

The best results are invariably obtained with the use of Virginia-Carolina Fertilizer. Over one million tons were sold last year.

Be sure and get the 1909 Virginia-Carolina Farmers' Year Book from your fertilizer dealer, or write our nearest sales office and a copy will be sent free.

GUILFORD COLLEGE ITEMS.

Miss Ida Garrison, secretary of the Young Women's Christian Association, spent some days at Guilford last week.

Professor Meredith will leave a few days before the close of the year in order to reach Germany in time to do a term's work in Latin preparatory to his doctor's degree at Johns Hopkins University. He will spend a part of the next year in Germany and a part at Johns Hopkins.

Prof. Raymond Binford will spend the summer in the United States laboratory of fisheries at Beaufort.

Professors Jay and Hodgins have prepared a schedule of the courses of study to be given here in a summer school, beginning May 31.

Prof. R. N. Wilson, who is spending the year at the University of Florida as assistant chemist of the Florida agricultural experiment station, will take the master's degree at the close of the year. He will return to Guilford College at the beginning of next year.

Mrs. L. L. Hobbs will return from Philadelphia Tuesday, and Wednesday will go to Farmington to give an address at the closing exercises of the high school, which has been conducted the past year by Mr. William P. Henley.

The Philomathean Literary Society gave its first annual oratorical contest Saturday evening. The speakers were: Misses Mary Gertrude Frazier, Janie Peele Brown, Lillie Elliott Bulla, Mary Ricks White, Julia Anna Raiford and Caroline Stuart Whiting. Among the judges of the contest was Prof. Z. H. Dixon, of the Yadkinville Normal College.

An effort is being made to erect an administration building on the old site of King Hall. It is the purpose of the trustees to enter upon this work immediately upon the completion of the library now in process of erection.

Spring time is here and farm work is progressing nicely.

Prof. Zeno H. Dixon, of Yadkinville, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at this place.

Miss Sallie White is having a dwelling house built on her lot opposite Mr. Carl Wheeler's place.

Several students from this place attended the ball game between the two universities in Greensboro last Monday. Some of them also participated in the track exercises Monday night, taking second place.

Mrs. Couch spent part of last week with her sister, Mrs. Grantham, near Deep River, who is quite sick with rheumatism.

Mrs. Lola S. Moore and son are visiting at the home of her parents at this place.

Mrs. Stanley and her daughter, Mrs. Moore, visited their son and brother, Mr. William Stanley, at Biscoe, last week.

The young ladies of the Philomathean literary society gave their first oratorical contest last Saturday evening, which was a very enjoyable occasion. There were six speakers. The orations were all fine productions and all well rendered. Miss Janie Brown was awarded the prize.

Miss Georgia Holt spent last Saturday and Sunday with friends at this place.

The graded school at this place will close next Saturday with public exercises by the children, beginning at 10 o'clock A. M. In the afternoon there will be an address by Mr. J. J. Parker, of Greensboro. There will be an entertainment that evening by the school for the benefit of improvement of the school building and grounds. We understand the exercises will be first-class in every particular and hope it will be attended by all who want an evening of real enjoyment. The exercise in the evening will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

We are glad to see some of the young people of our locality interested in horseback riding, as there is no more healthful exercise for either girls or boys than a good horseback ride, to say nothing of the pleasure to be derived from such exercise.

Mr. Ed Holt visited his brother last Sunday, who is in school here.

Misses Lillian Jinnett and Ida Mills spent Saturday and Sunday at this place, returning to their schools Sunday evening.

Mr. George Roberson, who has been traveling for some time past for a Philadelphia drug house, is visiting his mother.

Mr. Boyles, who lived some little distance east of here, had the misfortune to lose his house by fire last Friday night. They saved some of their furniture, but their best beds and bed clothes and some of their best furniture were upstairs, and nothing was saved from that part of the house. A defective flue is supposed to be the cause of the fire.

DANAMORA ITEMS.

The health of the community is good at present.

Mr. R. O. Lee, of Spencer, visited relatives here Easter.

Mrs. A. B. Lee and daughter, Miss Mabel, visited the family of Mr. James Lee, at Summerfield, last week.

Mrs. John Bevil, of Brown Summit, visited her sister, Mrs. R. P. Gordon, here last week.

A very large crowd from here attended the picnic at Monticello Easter Monday. All had a jolly good time.

Mr. E. T. Jordan and sister Bessie were among the visitors at Mr. Osborne's, near Rudd, Easter Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Christman spent last Saturday and Sunday near Brightwood, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Watlington.

Mr. C. N. Farrington went on a flying trip to Greensboro last week.

Mr. C. L. Osborne, of Rudd, was a welcome caller in this community Sunday.

Mr. James Lee went to Brown Summit last week on business.

The people of this community are very much opposed to the new road law.

We often wonder how any person can be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung trouble. Do not be fooled into accepting "own make" or other substitutes. The genuine contains no harmful drugs and is in a yellow package. All druggists.

STOKESDALE ITEMS.

We are glad to be able to say that all of our people who have been confined to their rooms by the grippe have been turned loose, with the exception of Mr. Jap Smith, who is still confined to his bed. We hope that he will soon be able to be out again.

The Stokesdale baseball team was defeated by a team from Oak Ridge Institute last Saturday by a score of 12 to 4. Our boys went up in the air in the eighth inning, letting Oak Ridge score 6 times; otherwise it was a very pretty game. The next game will be played with Richfield next Saturday.

The Stokesdale public school closed last Friday, with an entertainment at night. Saturday there was a contest by six young ladies for a gold medal. Friday night there was a very creditable contest, each young lady acquitting herself very highly. The medal was won by Miss Essie Vaughn.

The contest by six young men on Saturday for a gold medal was won by Mr. Grover Pegram, with Mr. George Jones close second. They all did well. The addresses of Prof. J. Allen Holt and Superintendent Swift were well received and enjoyed by a very large crowd.

The board of directors of the Stokesdale Commercial Bank met April 6 and ordered the cashier to pay interest at four per cent, compounded quarterly on certificates of deposit from $50 to $2,000. The bank is doing a splendid business, the deposits having increased about $2,500 during the past week.

Mr. Percy Bullard, of Manchester, Va., spent several days here last week with Mr. J. L. Hilton and family.

Miss J. Olivia Dean left Tuesday for her home near Kernersville, taking with her the best wishes of a host of friends.

Rev. W. L. Sherrill, of the Christian Advocate, spent Monday in our town in the interest of that paper and the job printing department.

The trustees of Goshen M. E. church request all who are interested in the keeping of the graveyard in good nice condition to meet there next Saturday morning and assist in cleaning off and clearing more space, as all the available space has been taken up. They hope to have a good force out. All who have friends buried there should assist in this work.

PINEY GROVE ITEMS.

The farmers are all busy planting corn this week.

The wheat is looking very well in this section.

There was a singing at Mr. P. L. Stanley's Saturday night, and all report a good time.

We are glad to see Mr. P. A. Shaw able to go back to his work.

Mr. Lee Roach and Mr. Fletcher Stanley made a flying trip to Kernersville last week on business.

Rev. Albert Peele, of Guilford College, preached an excellent sermon at the school house Sunday evening.

The scholars were glad to see their old friend and teacher, Miss Margaret Peele, in the neighborhood again Sunday.

Mr. Buck Moton, of Hillsdale, visited at Mr. J. F. Warren's Sunday.

Mr. Fate King and family visited at Mr. Calvin Stanley's Sunday.

Jack Frost got the most of our peaches this time.

The baseball team of this place crossed bats with three teams last week and had the misfortune to lose two of the games. The teams played were as follows: Finishing Mills, on Piney's diamond, score 17 to 6 in favor of the home team; Guilford College graded school, on Guilford's diamond, score 15 to 8 in favor of the home team; Hillsdale, on Piney's diamond, score 8 and 6 in favor of the visitors. The last game was an excellent one and both teams did some good playing. The visitors made eight runs in the first and second innings on Wrenn. Then Jessup went in the box, and they never had the pleasure to cross the home plate again.

Gourley-Bailey Wedding.

There was a very beautiful marriage solemnized at the home of the bride's father, Mr. J. W. Bailey, of Summerfield, R. F. D. No. 1, Wednesday, April 14, at 6 o'clock P. M., by Mr. P. H. Simpson. The contracting parties were Mr. D. L. Gourley and Miss Lucy Bailey. A large company of relatives and friends were present. The attendants were Mr. James S. Gourley, best man, and Miss Jennie Bailey, maid of honor; Mr. G. F. Lester and Miss Annie Gourley, Mr. D. B. Bailey and Miss Viola Bailey, Mr. A. M. Bailey and Miss Alsie Bailey, Mr. A. Golsby and Miss Lillie Gourley, Mr. P. H. Gourley and Miss Cora Lester.

After the ceremony all were ushered into the dining room, where a most sumptuous supper was served.

On the following day almost the entire bridal party, joined by others, assembled at the home of the groom's father, Mr. William Gourley. When the noon hour arrived the guests were invited to the dining room, where a delicious and refreshing dinner was enjoyed by all. As the day drew to a close the guests took their leave, wishing for Mr. and Mrs. Gourley all the happiness that life can afford.

RAMSEUR ITEMS.

KIDNEYS. BLADDER & LIVER

Experiments upon animals show that if the channel which conducts the urine from the kidneys—the ureter—be tied so that no urine can escape, the animal will die in a few days, sometimes in a few hours. The fatal result is preceded by symptoms which are due to the accumulation of certain substances in the blood; these substances are the waste products that the kidneys filter out of the blood when they are healthy and working properly.

If there is anything wrong with your kidneys they should be given prompt attention. The impurities in the blood gather and impede circulation so that in time such diseases as Rheumatism and Bright's Disease result.

Nyal's Stone Root Compound stimulates the kidneys and bladder to healthy action and invigorates the liver. It is a combination of stone root with other drugs recognized for their beneficial action in cases of kidney trouble. Price 50c. and $1.00.

CHRIST OUR PASSOVER IS SACRIFICED FOR US

"Therefore let us keep the feast, not with the old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth."—1 Cor. 5:7, 8.

The Passover ceremonies, the first institution of Divine favor with the nation of Israel, prefigured the first institution of Divine favor toward Spiritual Israel inaugurated by our Lord Jesus in the Eucharist or Holy Communion. As the Apostle indicated in our text, the Jewish Passover was a foreshadowing or typifying of the better things, the real passover, with which we have to do. While we are not wholly dependent upon the Jewish type for our information, but have clear, Divine statements by our Lord and the apostles respecting the relationship between our Lord and the Church and the special salvation of the "elect" class, nevertheless we find in the Passover type many details which assist us greatly in the understanding of the antitype.

We should notice first of all that the passover directly affected only the first-borns of Israel, although it indirectly affected all the remainder of Israel. That is to say, the last plague upon Egypt was the death of their first-borns only, and the Passover celebrates the fact that the first-borns of Israel were spared or passed over by the destroying angel in that night. As the younger of the Egyptians were not endangered, neither were the younger children of the Israelites endangered; hence the latter were not passed over; yet they were certainly interested in the passing over or sparing of the first-borns, not merely because of their relationship, but because in the Lord's providence those first-borns became leaders and deliverers of the people on the next day, as they went forth from Egypt. Those first-borns of Israel, exchanged by Divine direction for the entire tribe of Levi, were thereafter represented in them, and they, as the sacrificing Priests and teaching Levites, became the ministers of the Law Covenant for that nation. The antitype of this was distinctly pointed out by the Apostle, namely, that the "elect" Church of this Gospel Age is the "Church of the First-Born, which are written in heaven." (Heb. 12:23.) These are to be the "able ministers of the New (Law) Covenant."

These first-borns alone are being dealt with during this Gospel Age or "night." These alone are in danger of a death penalty. As the Apostle declares, "If we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for our sins, but a certain fearful looking for of judgment, and fiery indignation, which shall devour us as the adversaries of God and righteousness." (Heb. 10:26, 27.) Nevertheless, the whole world of mankind is certainly interested in this Church of the First-Born, in its successful passing over, its attainment of everlasting life, because these are the Royal Priesthood and instructors of the New Covenant, shortly to be sealed, by the terms of which all the families of the earth will receive the blessing of reconciliation to God through the knowledge of the Truth, and through the blessing of the Millennial Kingdom, associated with the New Covenant.

Jesus the Passover Lamb.

Having noted the first-born class we should discern clearly also the Passover lamb, through the merit of whose blood the passing over of the first-borns was effected. The lamb is a peculiarly innocent animal, wholly unprepared for defense or resistance, and thus a suitable picture or type of our Lord, who was non-resistant and fully and freely surrendered his rights and earthly interests on our behalf—on behalf of the First-Born. True, others than the First-Born will ultimately be profited by his sacrifice, but these specially and peculiarly so. Thus far God's only dealings during this Gospel Age are with this class. These alone have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous. These alone thus far are reconciled to God. All of God's blessings to the unbelievers must come in the future under the New Covenant, because only believers can be justified by faith and receive the blessings of the Faith Covenant—the Abrahamic Covenant. "The Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world" first saves or passes over the Church of the first-borns and later in the Millennium will bless all who will become Abraham's seed.

There are pictures in the Church which represent her as participating with the Lord in his sacrifice, but this Passover type is not one of these. The Passover lamb represented our Lord Jesus as "The Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." (John 1:29.) But the sin of the world has not yet been taken away. He has not yet applied his merit for the world, but only and expressly for the Household of Faith. In another sacrifice, which represents our Lord and the Church conjointly sacrificing, as Head and members, the members were cut into various pieces and laid with the Head on the altar, thus typifying Christ, as the Head and the Church as his members. But provision was made that the Passover sacrifice was not to be divided. It was to be eaten whole—not a bone was to be broken. It represented not Christ and the Church, but Christ alone in his sacrifice.

"In That Night."

Be it remembered that the passing over took place in the night, not in the daylight. When the morning arrived the Israelites went forth out of the land of Egypt to liberty, to freedom from bondage. But during the night they were still in bondage and waiting for the deliverance which could come only after the passing of the first-borns. That night of the type represented this Gospel Age. The same thought is given by our Lord when he says, "Let your light shine before men." (Matt. 5:16.) Again, "Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house." (Matt. 5:15.) The Apostle Peter expresses the same thought, saying, "We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts." (2 Pet. 1:19.) Again, the Prophet, speaking of the Church, says, "Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." (Psa. 119:105.) And numerous Scriptures refer to the new Millennial dispensation as the morning in which the Sun of Righteousness will arise with healing in his beams, in which the shadows of supererogation and works of darkness shall all be driven away. The appropriateness must be evident to every reasonable mind. God's people are children of the day in the sense that their hopes and sentiments belong not to the darkness of sin and to the night-time, but to the reign of the Sun of Righteousness, for which they are praying, "Thy Kingdom come; thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven."—Matt. 6:10.

Eighteen centuries ago our Lord said that he came as a light into the world, but that men loved darkness rather than light. Only a few yet recognize him as "the True Light." But eventually he will "light every man that cometh into the world." Indeed, his Church are invited to become associated with him as lamp-bearers and, if faithful in permitting their light to shine now, they will do so by the parts of that great Sun of Righteousness which shall heal the world with its beams. Our Lord pointed this out in the parable of the wheat and the tares; that in the end of this age he would gather the wheat into the barn, and then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the Kingdom of their Father. Alas, that so few have "an ear to hear" and accept the wonderful teachings of the Divine Plan!

The Blood on the Door-Posts All Night.

The Israelites were instructed that the blood of the lamb must be sprinkled on the door-posts and lintels of their houses that night. This indicated that all who would belong to the Household of Faith must believe in the precious blood of Christ, and be thus "justified by faith" irrespective of denomination. To believe thus would make us members of the Household of Faith, but it would not determine whether or not we should be of the First-Born ones. The Very Elect, the Saints, the Royal Priesthood, have this place of seniority in the Household of Faith—not by reason of natural years, but by reason of spiritual development. They are priests, elders in the sense of their primary development in the character-likeness of their Redeemer, which also indicates their faith and their obedience.

We are not emphasizing too strongly that this is the Scriptural teaching; that we are not merely to believe in Jesus—that he lived, that he died—specially to believe that he died sacrificially, the just for the unjust; and to accept our share of the redemption which he secured by his precious blood. The sprinkling of the blood on the door-posts implied public confession of the precious blood of the Lamb of God, in his death and its efficacy for us which is thus signified.

It will be remembered that the Israelites were enjoined against going out of the house during the night, because when the Lord would pass through and see the blood on the lintel and door-posts, he would pass over and not suffer the destroyer to come into the house. The injunction that those under the door sprinkled with blood should not go out from under it during that night has special application and force with respect to the first-borns, and antitypically signified that if any of us who are of the First-Born should go out from under the blood, in the sense of denying the merit, the efficacy of the blood of Jesus, the penalty of such a course would be death—Second Death—hopeless extinction.

Eating the Lamb.

As the blood of the lamb marked the Household of Faith, not merely the first-borns of that household, so the eating of the lamb was not merely for the first-borns, but for all of the household. So our Lord said, "My flesh is meat indeed." (John 6:55.) And again, "This is that Bread which came down from heaven; he that eateth of this Bread shall live forever." (John 6:48.) In other words, it was not only necessary that Jesus should die, a meritorious sacrifice, but it was necessary additionally that all who would have profit through his sacrifice must feed upon him—must appropriate the merit of his sacrifice.

What did he lay down? What did he surrender on our behalf? We answer, He sacrificed the human nature and all of its rights and interests. He made this sacrifice for us—both human rights and privileges. As a perfect man, holy, harmless and undefiled, separate from sinners, he possessed the full rights and privileges of the perfect Adam, lost through disobedience. The man Christ Jesus gave himself a sacrifice to redeem or buy back the human nature, the human rights lost by father Adam. This price he paid when he surrendered all and "died, the just for the unjust." The eating of the lamb pictured or typified the appropriation by the Household of Faith of those earthly rights and earthly interests which were forfeited by Adam's disobedience and redeemed by Jesus' death. In other words, the eating of the lamb signifies our appropriating justification from sin. We eat by faith and are, therefore, said to be "justified by faith." By faith we are permitted to count ourselves as fully reinstated in God's favor through the merit of Christ's sacrifice, even as we were barred from Divine favor through the demerit of Adam's sin. The eating signifies the appreciation of these things and the appropriation of them to ourselves. The more we eat the more we appreciate and the greater is our feeling of satisfaction in respect to our freedom from condemnation and our reinstatement in Divine favor through the merit of our Passover Lamb.

The First-Born of the Household of Faith, stronger, more rugged, more advanced, naturally appreciated the more of the Lamb. Besides this, bitter herbs were provided for sharpening of the appetite, and these herbs represented the bitter trials and experiences of the saints, which more and more show us our imperfection, and cultivate in us an appreciation of the merit of our Lord as fully covering our blemishes and fully satisfying our every craving, and making us fully acceptable to our Heavenly Father.

The Blood of the New Covenant.

Year by year for more than sixteen centuries the Jews by Divine direction had kept the Passover—not merely emblematically representing the sacrifice of the lamb and the eating of it on the same night and the sprinkling of the door-posts with the blood, but additionally they kept a feast of seven days following. That feast represented the joys and rejoicings, the blessings and favors of relationship to God, based upon the merit of the Passover lamb, and its sacrifice and the eating thereof.

Yet the Jews understood not the meaning of what they did. It was not necessary that they should understand it. When God's due time should come the key would be granted. And that time came on the night in which our Lord was betrayed, the night of the fourteenth day of the first month, the very night of the typical killing of the passover lamb, of which this evening is the anniversary. Jesus said, "With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer." (Luke 22:15.) He gathered around him his twelve apostles. They had their usual Passover supper of roast lamb, and afterward our Lord introduced what we familiarly term "The Lord's Supper," or a new symbolization of the Passover—antitypical.

What he introduced with his followers was to take the place of the Jewish ceremony with them, to carry out the same thought, but on a higher plane, as representing a clearer and better understanding of the matter. Instead of the lamb would be the unleavened bread representing our Lord's flesh. This he distributed to them, saying, "This is my body, which is given for you; this do in remembrance of me." (Luke 22:19.) The eating of that unleavened bread represented justification, their appropriating to themselves of the merit of Christ's sacrifice. Then our Lord added a new feature; for awhile all believers might partake of the bread and realize justification through the merit of his sacrifice; only a certain class of believers were invited to partake of the blood—"the cup." The cup represented death. Ordinarily under the Jewish Law the partaking of blood would represent blood-guiltiness or responsibility for the death, but our Lord gave his disciples fruit of the vine as symbolic of his blood, and urged upon them its appropriation, saying, "This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you"; and "for many." "Drink ye all of it."—Luke 22:20; Matt. 26:27, 28.

This invitation to drink of his blood signifies a participation with Christ as his members, in a sacrifice of earthly life, earthly interests, hopes, aims, ambitions, everything. All who accept this invitation to drink of his blood thereby pledge their lives in the same service for which he gave his life. It will thus be seen that these undertake a great contract. This thought is entirely additional to anything in the Jewish Passover type. There is no intimation that any of the "household" were to partake of the blood of the slain lamb. Nevertheless we who now accept our Lord's proposition to share in his blood and lay down our lives with him in defense of the Truth, thereby mark ourselves as elder brothers in the Household of Faith and members of the First-Born with our Lord, our Redeemer and prospectively the "royal priesthood."

"As Ye Are Unleavened." The Apostle points out these items to which we have called attention, saying that the Lord's consecrated followers are counted as members of the Body of Christ, the Church, under Jesus the Head. He indicates that the broken loaf represents primarily our Lord Jesus broken for us, and that secondarily the Church of Christ are of those who "willingly and joyfully yield themselves for the sake of and in the Lord's cause. He points out also that the cup of Christ's blood, in which we are invited to partake, signifies to us a "common union in the sufferings and afflictions of Christ, so that whoever intelligently partakes of the Memorial Supper represents two things, namely (1) his faith in Jesus as the Passover Lamb and the eating of it as his appreciation and participation in the merits of Jesus, by which he is justified. (2) He intimates that he is a member of the Body of Christ, all the members of which agree to be broken, a member in that "little flock" whose faithfulness is manifested by drinking of the Master's cup—sharing with him in his sacrifice. Note his words, "The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? For we, being many, are one bread and one body, for we are all partakers of that one bread."—1 Cor. 10:16, 17.

Everywhere throughout the Scriptures the word leaven stands for corruption, as in contrast with purity. And so, in our text, the Apostle exhorts the Church that the old leaven of wickedness, the leaven of malice and pride, be thoroughly purged out of the Church, that we all together might be a new lump, a new class of purified ones, representing Messiah in the world as his members.

GEN. M. C. BUTLER DEAD.

Was Distinguished Confederate Soldier and Statesman.

General Matthew Calbraith Butler, of Edgefield, S. C., one of the last of the Confederate cavalry generals, died in a hospital in Columbia last Wednesday night. For some weeks General Butler had been ill and had been gradually growing weaker and for several days it had been seen that the end was near. General Butler's death was due to a complication of diseases, induced by an old wound. He lost a leg at Brandy Station, and after recovery continued to serve throughout the war. His wound had not bothered him up to a few months ago.

General Butler was born in 1836 of a distinguished South Carolina family. He served with distinction throughout the Civil war, rising from captain to major general of cavalry in the Confederate service. After the war General Butler took a prominent part in the movement to reclaim the state to the Democratic party and aided greatly in Hampton's victory in the gubernatorial race of 1876. In 1876 General Butler was elected to the United States Senate and served three terms. During the Spanish-American war General Butler was a major general in the United States army. After the war General Butler was appointed a member of the Cuban Peace Commission. He is survived by his widow and three children.

General Butler was a nephew of Commodore Perry, of the United States Navy.

People will pay for knowledge as well as for anything else if they believe it to be something they already know.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidneys. Nerves, the Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggists recommend and sell.

NOTICE

United States of America. In the District Court of the United States, For the Western District of North Carolina.

BANKRUPT'S PETITION FOR DISCHARGE. To the Honorable James E. Boyd, Judge of the District Court of the United States for the Western District of North Carolina:

In the matter of L. M. CAUDLE, bankrupt. L. M. Caudle, of Handmade, in the county of Randolph and State of North Carolina, in said District, respectfully represents: That on the 16th day of January 1909 last past, he was duly adjudged a bankrupt under the act of Congress, relating to bankruptcy; that he has duly surrendered all his property and rights of property, and has fully complied with all the requirements of said act and all the orders of the court touching his bankruptcy.

Wherefore he prays that he may be decreed by the court to have a full discharge from all debts provable against his estate under said bankrupt act, except such debts as are excepted by law from such discharge.

Dated this 8th day of April, A. D. 1909.

L. M. CAUDLE, bankrupt.

ON this 8th day of April, A. D. 1909, on reading the foregoing petition, it is Ordered by the court that a hearing be had upon the same on the 29th day of April, A. D. 1909, before said court, at Greensboro, N. C., and that all persons in interest may appear at the said time and place and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of the said petitioner should not be granted. And it is further ordered by the court that the clerk shall send by mail to all known creditors copies of said petition and this order, addressed to them at their places of residence as stated.

Witness G. S. FERGUSON, Jr., referee of the said court at Greensboro, N. C., this 8th day of April, A. D. 1909.

G. S. FERGUSON, JR., Referee in Bankruptcy.

LAND SALE.

By virtue of an order of re-sale made by the Superior court of Guilford county in a special proceeding therein pending entitled Margaret L. Summers, Sallie E. Troxler, et al., vs. Partie, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder at the court house door of Guilford county, North Carolina, at 12 o'clock M., on the following described tract of land, lying and being in Guilford county, a joining in the lands of Lewis Apple, John Fryar and others, and being situated on the south bank of Reedy Fork; the north 80 degrees west 25 poles to a peach tree on line of lot No. 2, thence south 63 degrees east 112 1/2 poles to a stone near a 1-rod Spanish oak; thence north 2 degrees east 112 1/2 poles to a rock on the bank of Reedy Fork; thence up said river to the beginning, containing 84 acres, more or less. With this last tract of land will be sold two small places in timber, the first adjoining the lands of Ed. Whitell, John Fryar and others and fully described in the petition in this case, and containing 8 1/2 acres more or less. The second place containing 6 1/2 acres more or less and adjoins the lands of John Fryar and Robert Thomas and is fully described in the petition in this case.

SATURDAY, APRIL 24, 1909,

This land is sold under a ten per cent upset bid and the price of it will be started at $600.00.

Terms of sale—Cash.

Nervous Women

For nervous, tired women, we recommend Cardui. Cardui is a woman's medicine. It acts specifically on the female organs and has a tonic, building effect on the whole system. It contains no harmful ingredients, being a pure vegetable extract. If you suffer from some form of female trouble, get Cardui at once and give it a fair trial.

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

Mrs. W. W. Gardner, of Paducah, Ky., tried Cardui and writes: "I think Cardui is just grand. I have been using it for eleven years. I am 48 years old and feel like a different woman, since I have been taking it. I used to suffer from bearing down ains, nervousness and sleeplessness, but now the pains are all gone and I sleep good. I highly recommend Cardui for young and old." Try it.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One dress, diplomas will be awarded to the graduates. The contest for the recitation medal will be held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock and at 8 o'clock in the evening a minstrel show will be given by local talent.

Everybody is cordially invited to all these exercises. A picnic dinner will be served on the school grounds
Tuesday in accordance with the cus-
