J. T. RANKIN & CO.

Mr. Frank A. Matthews, a well known citizen, is in a critical condition at his home near Vandalia. He was stricken with paralysis Sunday night, his entire left side being affected.

The property of the Greensboro Table Company was sold at auction
Monday by the receiver, Mr. R. C.
Hood, and was purchased by Mr. E.
P. Wharton for $11,300. The sale is subject to confirmation by the court.

Mr. Henderson Christopher, who was one of the oldest men in North Carolina, died at his home near Oak Ridge last week, aged 97 years. He possessed remarkable strength and vigor for one of his age until a short time before his death.

Mr. A. C. Rankin, a good citizen of North Gilmer township, has leased his farm and mill and will move to the city in the near future. He has rented a portion of the Vanstover livery stable building, on South Davis street, and will operate a boarding stable.

Citizens and business firms of Greensboro have subscribed a little over $2,000 to a fund for defraying
the expenses of the centennial celebration. It is the purpose of the committee to increase the amount to at least $5,000 or $6,000, and it is believed this can be done with little effort.

John Ed. Collins, colored, wanted for killing a negro in Orange county
a few months ago, was arrested Sunday afternoon near Liberty, where he was known as John Mebane. The prisoner was brought to Greensboro and committed to jail, where he remained until Monday morning, when he was carried to Hillsboro.

Mr. Frank Stedman and Miss Mamie Strader were married at the home of the bride's brother, on West Lee street, yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. L. E. Johnson, pastor of the Christian church. Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Stedman left for a visit to relatives in the eastern part of the state.

The public is cordially invited to attend the exercises of "academy evening" to be held in the chapel of Oak Ridge Institute next Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Music will be furnished by Elam's orchestra, of Lenoir county. The program will be varied and interesting and will be followed by a faculty reception. Refreshments will be served. There will be no charge for admission.

Mrs. Charles D. McVier, of this city, has been appointed field worker for the North Carolina Woman's Betterment Association, which is doing a great work in improving the condition of the state's public schools.
Mrs. McVier has been actively interested in the work of the association
since its organization and is peculiarly fitted for the duties of the position she assumes.

GETTING READY FOR THE FAIR.

To be the Biggest and Best in North Carolina—A Big Line of Special Attractions.

The Central Carolina Fair Association is arranging to give this year
"the biggest fair in North Carolina," and no stone will be left unturned in an effort to come up to this mark.
The exhibits are to be more numerous and on a more extended scale than ever before; there will be more and better free attractions, and the racing is expected to be the best ever seen in this section of the country. The management has in store many things to please and instruct the people.

Among the free attractions which will be well worth the attention of the public may be mentioned: The airship, which has been engaged at a great expense to give an exhibition every day; the New York equestrian combination, comprising four lady riders, 18 horses and 12 acts, giving a complete performance on the race track each day in all the daring and sensational riding imaginable; the big "Wild West" show, with its many big free acts on the race track each day; a big trained wild animal show, a dog and pony show, merry-go-rounds, a Ferris wheel and many other attractions too numerous to mention.

In addition to the above named special attractions, there will be the usual line of shows on the midway—and in this connection the Patriot is requested to state that no gambling will be allowed on the grounds. Another nuisance that will be abated
this year will be the sale of whips.
The management having declined to sell the privileges or allow the whips to be used on the grounds under any circumstances.

The fair will be in progress during centennial week, which will bring thousands of visitors to the city and afford interest and amusement for
all. There will be United States cavalry and infantry companies, companies of the National Guard, a celebrated United States military band and other musical organizations, with sham battles, band concerts, parades, etc.

Perhaps the leading amusement feature provided by the centennial management is Pain's famous pyrotech-nic and spectacular "Fall of Port Arthur," being a reproduction of the battle as it was given on a stage 350 feet long and requiring from 500 to 700 people to carry out the wonderful scenic effect. This attraction will be presented on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights, in front of the grand stand at the fair grounds,
which will be brilliantly illuminated
by electrical and pyrotechnical effects.

$300 in Gold Prizes for Farmers.

As announced by the premium
list, the Central Carolina Fair Association this year offers $300 in gold,
in two prizes, the first being $200
and the second $100, for the largest and best display of farm products, etc., produced by any individual. The offering of these prizes doubtless will result in larger and better exhibits of farm products than have ever been seen at this fair before. In speaking of the prizes awarded for agricultural products, an official of the Central Carolina Fair Association said yesterday:

"The farmers in this immediate section last year received over $1-000 in cash as prizes for different commodities exhibited from the fair, and many of them were paid premiums on various articles when they really did not expect them. This, of course, was due to the fact that they had no competition; still they got the money. Ours is a home fair, and like all agricultural fairs, it is just what the farmers and others make it."

The New Buildings.

The big double annex to the main building is practically completed, and the new poultry building and the new agricultural building are ready. These buildings add much to the appearance and convenience of things around the fair grounds.

The poultry building occupies the site of the old poultry building destroyed by fire a short time ago. The agricultural building is located on property recently purchased by the association, directly west of the main building and with a 40-foot avenue leading to it.

The land purchased for hitching grounds, comprising seven acres immediately west of the main building and along the macadam road, has been fenced in with the old grounds, thoroughly cleaned up and is in fine condition. This insures an abundance of room for stock and vehicles, and in addition, an abundance of fresh water will be supplied on the grounds.

In a word, nothing is to be left undone that can add to the comfort, convenience and pleasure of visitors to the fair this year.

Mr. McKight's Brandy Distillery Seized.

Monday afternoon Revenue Officers Starbuck and Banks seized the brandy distillery of Mr. John E. McKight in North Gilmer township, because of alleged irregularities. The officers also levied on the product of the distillery, about 200 gallons of apple, peach and plum brandy, and placed it in the government warehouse in this city. It is understood that Mr.
McKight will make a fight to regain possession of the property and give bond for its value in order that he may be able to resume operations.

REPUBLICANS NAME A TICKET.

County Candidates Nominated at Adjourning Session of Convention Saturday Afternoon.

The Guilford county Republican convention met in adjourned session
Saturday afternoon and nominated
the following ticket: For the state senate, W. P. Ragan, of High Point; for the house of representatives, R. L.
Blalock, postmaster of Oak Ridge,
and J. R. Woods, of Greene township;
sheriff, J. A. Newton, of High Point; register of deeds, E. S. Wilson, of High Point; treasurer, Hiram B.
Worth, of Greensboro; a son of ex-
State Treasurer Worth; surveyor, E.
N. Hodgins, of Guilford College; coroner, Dr. J. J. Hilton, of Greensboro; county commissioners, Charles D.
Benbow and R. G. Campbell, of Greensboro; E. E. Spencer, of Jamestown; Prof. J. W. Woody, of Guilford College, and Alfred Apple, of Brown Summit.

The convention proper was in session only about five minutes, its work having been mapped out by a caucus of the delegates. Mr. G. S. Bradshaw, the permanent chairman, called the convention to order shortly after noon and announced that an adjournment of an hour would be taken to give the delegates an opportunity to confer. When the convention reassembled, shortly after 1:30 o'clock, it was found that the delegates had not yet gathered on a ticket and a motion was adopted that the delegates go in-
to a caucus to decide upon candidates.
The ticket suggested by the caucus was nominated without a dissenting voice.

All the caucus nominations were made by acclamation except those for sheriff and register of deeds. W. E.
Bowman and J. A. Newton were named for the nomination for sheriff, Mr.
Newton receiving 81 and Mr. Bowman 55 votes. The contest for the nomination for register of deeds was between E. S. Wilson, Charles Coe and J. W. Causey. Mr. Wilson was named on the first ballot, receiving 64 votes to 15 cast for Mr. Coe and three for Mr. Causey.

In addition to nominating a ticket,
the convention adopted the following resolution, which was offered by Mr.
L. C. Huffines, of Guilford College:
"Resolved, That it is the sense of this convention that the people are entitled to have an audited and itemized account of the condition of the county finances published, as required by law, and that there shall be elected by the board of commissioners a finance committee to inquire into, investigate and report by public advertisement and otherwise to the people the real condition of the county's finances, as required by law."

The adoption of the resolution is taken to mean a criticism of the present method of publishing the annual statement of the county's affairs.

Speech by Mr. A. H. Price.
Following the business of the convention, the delegates listened to a speech by Mr. A. H. Price, of Salisbury, who spoke for an hour, consuming the greater part of his time ridi-culing the candidacy of Bryan.

In reviewing the two defeats of Bryan, and predicting for the Nebraskan a worse defeat this year, the speaker declared, with an oratorical flourish, that Taft is better equipped for president than any man since the days of Washington.

Mr. Price said that Democratic abuse of Republican leaders in North Carolina is becoming very tiresome and predicted that the people will rebuke it. He said the last Democratic legislature drove hundreds of railroad men out of employment and thought the time has come for North Carolina to cast its electoral vote for a Republican.

DEATH OF MRS. W. S. MOORE.

One of Greensboro's Oldest and Best Beloved Women.

Mrs. W. S. Moore, one of the oldest and best beloved women in Greensboro, died at her home on East Market street Monday night. She had been an invalid for several years and for the past two years had been paralyzed.

Mrs. Moore was 79 years of age, and had she lived until November
she would have celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of her marriage with Mr.
Moore. For 65 years she was a faithful member of the first Presbyterian church of this city. The funeral was held in this church yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock and was attended by a large number of people who knew and loved the deceased. The service was conducted by Rev. Melton Clark, the pastor, and interment was made in the old burying ground in the rear of the church.
The pall-bearers were: Messrs. R. R.
King, Neil Ellington, E. M. Hendrix,
J. W. Fry, W. E. Allen and George
R. Purdy.

Just Exactly Right.
"I have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for several years, and find them just exactly right," says Mr. A. A.
Felton, of Harrisville, N. Y. New Life Pills relieve without the least discomfort. Best remedy for constipation, biliousness and malaria. 25c

SUPERIOR COURT IN SESSION.

Heavy Criminal Docket Being Disposed of This Week.

A week's criminal term of Guilford Superior court was convened Monday morning, with Judge E. B.
Jones, of Winston-Salem, on the bench. The docket is being prosecuted by the new solicitor of this district, Mr. Jones Fuller, of Durham, who is making his first visit to Guilford in his official capacity.

The following constitute the grand jury: J. R. Ross, foreman; T. N. Sel-lars, John R. Faucett, George W.
Lemons, J. A. Horney, J. T. Benbow,
H. R. Gerringer, E. W. Brewer, James
Dennis, A. A. Gray, John R. Whittemore, W. H. Levens, W. M. Fen-tress, W. R. Beeson, W. H. Vickory, Daniel F. Albright, William Albright and Caleb Barker.

The opening of court found 62 prisoners in jail, and the greater part of the week will be consumed in trying these cases. Good progress is being made with the docket, a number of cases of minor importance having been disposed of. No case of public interest has been tried so far.

Two cases of homicide are to be tried if they can be reached—the case of Will McAdoo for killing Ed.
Alred and that of Sydney Pass, colored, for killing Arthur Brittain, colored.

The cases against Baxter Shemwell,
a well known Lexington citizen, charged with assaulting with a deadly weapon Capt. W. B. Smithers, a Southern Railway conductor, and Dr.
W. P. Webb, a passenger on the train at the time, have been continued until the December term of court.

Conductor Smithers, who was here to attend court as a witness against Mr. Shemwell, was arrested on a warrant sworn out in Lexington charging him with assaulting Shem-well. The case will be transferred to Guilford and set for trial at the December term.

CAMPAIGN WELL UNDER WAY.

Activity Among Democratic Speakers and Party Workers.

The Democratic campaign is well under way, and from now until the election on November 3rd candidates and party workers will be actively engaged in speaking to the people and arousing enthusiasm. Mr. Charles
A. Hines, chairman of the Guilford county executive committee, says that, in addition to local speakers, speeches will be delivered in this county by a number of the state's leading Democrats.

Mr. W. A. Seif, of Hickory, one of the strongest political speakers in the state, will address the people of Proximity tonight, at which time a Democratic club will be organized.

Mr. Walter Murphy, one of the candidates for elector at large, has an appointment to speak at Jamestown tonight.

Tomorrow night the White Oak Democratic club will be addressed by Col. John A. Barringer, the Democratic candidate for the state senate, and Solicitor Jones Fuller.

Hon. Claude Kitchin, the representative in Congress from the Second district, and a brother of Hon. W. W.
Kitchin, the Democratic candidate for governor, will speak at the court house in this city Monday night. He is one of the most eloquent and forceful speakers in the state and doubtless will be heard by a large crowd.

Hon. A. L. Brooks will speak at Gibsonville Friday night, October 2.

Interest to Farmers.

I fully realize that farmers have been extremely busy for the past two or three weeks cutting tobacco and saving feed, but now as most of that work is over, my advice to you is to begin to sell tobacco. In all my experience as a warehouseman I have never seen tobacco selling higher at this time of the year than it is selling now, especially in Greensboro, and at the old reliable farmers. I had a good size sale Tuesday and my entire floor averaged between $11 and $12.

Below I give you a few names of the many farmers who made good sales on that day: T. C. Carmac, 78
at $8.25, 120 at $9.75, 78 at $12.50, 70 at $17.50, 32 at $25, 10 at $30. P.
O. Ferrell, 180 at $9.25, 170 at $10.75, 158 at $15, 198 at $17.50. A.
S. Coltrane, 70 at $10, 120 at $12,
62 at $12.25, 114 at $14, 42 at $15.50,
30 at $20, 54 at $20.00, 12 at $30.
Motley & Medearis, 30 at $8.50, 196
at $9, 330 at $10.75, 24 at $11.50.
T. F. Iseley, 70 at $7.75, 148 at $10.50, 34 at $11.

Don't these prices make a fellow smile? Well, all you have to do is bring Morgan a load soon, and he will do the rest. I am going to look for you.

Your friend and hard worker,
E. L. MORGAN.

A Word About Shoes.

The time to sell shoes is in the beginning of the shoe season. Merchants usually make big cuts in prices at the end of the season. We are going to begin it right now and keep it up for some time. We have a lot of medium weights that we want to close and we will save you big money. We carry everything in

CHARGED WITH KIDNAPING.

Lacy Troxler to Stand Trial for Serious Offense.

Lacy Troxler, a young man from the Gibsonville section, has been arrested under a warrant issued by Justice Collins, of this city, charging him with kidnaping Miss Myrtle Andrews, whose parents reside at the White Oak Cotton Mills. The alleged crime was committed about two months ago, while the young woman was returning to her home from Burlington, where she had been employed in a cotton mill.

It seems that Troxler offered to carry Miss Andrews home in his buggy and on the way stopped at a house where they spent the night.
The next day she was carried by the young man to another place, where she remained until a few days ago, when the people with whom she was stopping sent her to Greensboro. During all this time the young woman's parents were making diligent efforts to locate her.

Troxler has given a cash bond of $300 for his appearance before Justice Collins October 3rd for a hearing.

The Patriot has a scholarship good for a business course in one of the highest class commercial schools in the South. The scholarship will be sold at a reasonable price. If you desire a really high grade course, address The Patriot for further particulars. 31-1t.

The graded schools of the city are unable to take care of the children without having morning and afternoon grades. Already two afternoon grades have been organized and it is evident that a third afternoon grade will have to be organized, necessitating the employment of an additional teacher. Applications for entrance have been made for about twenty pupils who cannot be accommodated either in the morning or the two afternoon grades.

A CALL TO THE VETERANS.

Will Have Right of Way Friday of Centennial and Fair Week.

The great celebration of the centennial of Greensboro will take place October 11th-17th, the same week of the Central Carolina Fair. The managers of these enterprises have very kindly invited Guilford Camp of Confederate Veterans to be present and participate in the exercises Friday, October 16th. That day is especially set apart to be known as Greensboro and veteran day, when the great street parade of trades displays, in pageant, will come off in the day and the grand concert that night. This will be the big day and the veterans are to be the guests of honor.

In addition to that, the managers have consented that every member of Guilford camp, and through them all other visiting veterans, shall have one full and free admission into the fair grounds on that day, provided that they join in the short parade and remain until the end of it. Free tickets to the fair grounds will be distributed to every old veteran, while in line, just before the command is given to break ranks. No free lunch or dinner will be served. Free tickets to the fair grounds are all of it this time, but we shall have a jolly good time anyway.

Every member of Guilford camp is requested to come and invite other old veterans to come and join in the exercises of our day—Friday, October 16th. It will be a great occasion to all who attend that day—the big day.

Veterans are requested to meet at the court house in Greensboro at 9 o'clock A. M., October 16, to get their guns and form ranks for the short march in parade.

General Clement A. Evans, of Atlanta, Ga., the commander in chief of the United Confederate Veterans; Gen. Julian S. Carr, commander of the North Carolina division, and Gen. P. C. Carlton, of Statesville, commander of the First North Carolina brigade, are expected to be present and command the veterans.

General Evans fills the place of our beloved Gen. John B. Gordon. He is eminently fitted for it and all veterans will be glad to see this battle-scarred old soldier who commanded and fought at the head of a division in Lee's army on many battle fields.

Let all old Confederate veterans be sure to come, and remember that every one of them participating in the short march, in parade, to its finish, will receive a ticket for free entrance to the fair grounds that day, Friday, October 16th.

Every Confederate veteran who expects to be in the march that day is requested to notify Adjutant W. W. Wood, Greensboro, N. C., by letter, postal card or a message sent to him by some reliable person. This is important so that he will know how many to secure arms for. The march will be very short.

Officers and men of all other camps are hereby invited to join Guilford camp in these exercises. J. Y. WHITTED, Commander, W. W. WOOD, Adjutant.

DISTINGUISHED MEN COMING

Eminent Preachers and Statesmen to Participate in Centennial Exercises—Marshals and Committees.

Greensboro's centennial celebration, which, by the way, is attracting wide attention among former North Carolinians all over the country, will not suffer for the lack of oratory, either in the pulpit or on the platform, a number of distinguished divines and statesmen having accepted invitations to be present and participate in the exercises of the occasion.

On the opening day of the centennial, Sunday, October 11th, special religious services will be held in the city churches. Among the appointments made for these services so far are the following: Rev. Wilbur F. Tillett, D. D., dean of the theological department of Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn., at West Market Street Methodist church; Rev. Samuel M. Smith, D. D., of Columbia, S. C., at the First Presbyterian church; Rev. J. B. Hawthorne, D. D., of Richmond, Va., at the First Baptist church; Rev. W. W. Staley, D. D., of Norfolk, Va., at the Christian church; Rt. Rev. Joseph Blount Cheshire, bishop of the diocese of North Carolina, at St. Barnabas Episcopal church. Other appointments will be made in a few days.

Among the distinguished men in public life who will participate in the good roads congress, the peace congress and other exercises of centennial week are: Governor Glenn, Senator Overman, Senator Simmons, Chief Justice Clark, Judge Pritchard, Dr. George T. Winston and other eminent North Carolinians. Chief Justice Hill, of Arkansas; Chief Justice Fitzgerald, of Nevada, and Senator Dixon, of Montana, all native North Carolinians, have been invited and are expected to be present.

The following marshals have been appointed to have charge of all parades during centennial week: F. P. Hobgood, chief; S. G. Brown, E. D. Kuykendall, Paul Schenck, S. Levy, Pitman Boyles, G. S. Ferguson, Jr., R. D. Douglas, J. E. Latham, J. S. Betts, A. W. Cooke, M. H. Justice, J. F. Jordan, R. J. Mebane, A. G. Coffin, Paron Jarboe, H. J. Thurman.

The committee on decorations is composed of the following: W. H. Stone, C. H. McKnight, Norman Wills, W. B. McGregor, J. M. Hendrix, M. W. Sterne, Frank Boyles, Everett King, C. H. Dorsett, E. L. Sides, C. C. Townsend, C. C. Fordham, Alexander Meyer, C. E. Holton, M. G. Newell, C. H. Boyst, W. E. Allen, E. A. Woodruff, J. M. Dick. The official decorator for the centennial board is Harry W. Lewis, of Pittsburg. He will decorate the auditorium and do street work. He will also solicit private contracts for houses.

Messrs. J. W. Scott, J. B. Blades, C. D. Benbow, E. J. Justice and E. P. Wharton constitute a committee to judge floats and award prizes. The educational parade will be reviewed by a committee consisting of Prof. J. I. Foust, Dr. L. L. Hobbs, Prof. W. H. Swift and Prof. Thomas R. Foust.

TO PUSH GREENSBORO GOODS.

Local Manufacturers Form Organization for This Purpose.

The "Made in Greensboro Association" was formed at a meeting of local manufacturers held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce Thursday night. E. M. Oettinger, of the Oettinger Buggy Company, was elected chairman. The organization is to be run as a sort of branch of the Chamber of Commerce. It is the purpose of the organization to induce every Greensboro manufacturer to make a good exhibit at the fair and in this way show to people generally, and especially those who live in Greensboro, what the city manufactures.

Much enthusiasm was aroused among the manufacturers and it is possible that a permanent exhibit will be kept somewhere, showing the products of Greensboro manufacturers.

New Dormitory for G. F. College.

The Raleigh News and Observer of the 17th, said:

"Rev. W. M. Curtis, secretary and treasurer of Greensboro Female College, passed through Raleigh yesterday on his way from Wilson, where he preached Sunday. He reported a fine opening for the college last week. The building is now full of students and a number have been turned away for want of room. He said that it is the purpose of the trustees to build another dormitory as soon as an endowment of $100,000 is secured. The amount now pledged toward the endowment is $76,090. Surely the Methodists of North Carolina will not be long in contributing the remaining $24,000 necessary to complete this fund."

Progressive Farming in Forsyth.

Union Republican.

Mr. A. E. Burke, living some six miles west of the city seems inclined to follow suit of some of the progressive Western farmers by purchasing a 15-horse power traction engine and gang plow outfit. He has studied the methods of handling them in the West and thinks that they can do good service in North Carolina. This is one of the first equipments of the kind to be used in this section and the results will very naturally be watched with especial interest. The capacity of a steam plow is such that Mr. Burke can handle his own well-tilled acres readily and do the plowing for adjoining farmers as well at a very nominal cost.

A pleasing, good, high grade, truly flavored, amber colored cup of coffee can be had—and without the real coffee danger, or damage to health—by simply using Dr. Shoop's new substitute called "Health Coffee." Pure, wholesome, toasted cereals, malt, nuts, etc., make Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee both healthful and satisfying. No 20 to 50 minutes tedious boiling. "Made in a minute," says Dr. Shoop. If served as coffee, it's taste will even trick an expert. Test it and see. C. Scott & Co.

BIG RALLY AT BATTLE GROUND.

Democrats to Make Candidate Kern's Visit Great Occasion.

The visit to Greensboro of Hon. John W. Kern, the Democratic candidate for vice president, is to be made the occasion of a big Democratic rally and barbecue at Guilford Battle Ground, and arrangements are being made to have voters present from all the surrounding counties. Mr. Kern will be accompanied by Col. J. Hamilton Lewis, of Chicago, and both gentlemen are expected to address the immense crowd that will be assembled at the historic battlefield.

The distinguished visitors will reach Greensboro from Asheville about 1 o'clock in the afternoon of October 6th and will be conveyed to the Battle Ground by automobile. They will return to Greensboro and speak in the Grand opera house in the evening.

The committee in charge of the rally and barbecue is arranging with State Chairman Eller to have several of the more prominent Democrats of the state present to make speeches in the forenoon. Among those expected are: Mr. Kitchen, the candidate for governor; Mr. Brooks, the candidate for Congress in this district; one of the candidates for elector at large, and Mr. P. W. Glidewell, the nominee for district elector.

All the county candidates will be present and announce themselves during the forenoon.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablet—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasantly delightful. Gently though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure. If it's painful periods with women, same cause. If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.

Bruse your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.

We sell at 25 cents, and cheerfully recommend

Pomona, Guilford County, N. C., March, 27th, 1908.

Mr. Sides,
Dear Sir:

I am thinking you would like to hear how I am getting along after using the new remedy you and Mr. Yates so kindly had me to use. After nearly four months of suffering with rheumatism and kidney complaint, and everything done for me which only relieved for the time being, I am now using the Band, which seemed to help me at once. At the time my feet, knees and hips were so swollen that I could not walk a step. As soon as I put it on there was a heating sensation all over my system, and in one week I was surprised that the swelling was going out, and I could sleep. In two weeks I could walk around the room, the third week I could go where I pleased. I feel stiff in my knees somewhat, but that is going out fast. You may think this is quick work, but it is nevertheless true. My family and neighbors will testify the same. They all know I have suffered all winter, and I feel very grateful to you both, for what this remedy has done for me, and will recommend it to all suffering as I have.

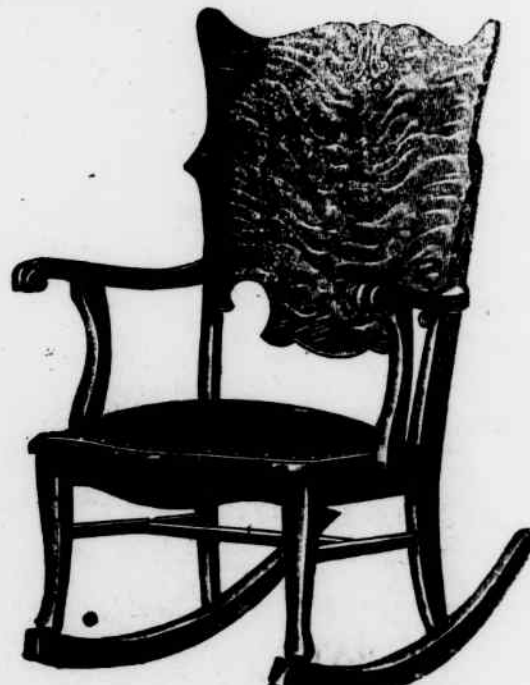

Respectfully yours,
A. D. V. LEIGH.

Why don't you profit by the experience of others? Your family doctor is all right, and will do all he can for you, but he cannot cure that rheumatism. I have cured hundreds of hopeless cases with my wonderful Band, dozens of them right here in Greensboro and in Guilford county. Write today for full information and terms.

GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION.

Calls on People to Attend Good Roads Congress in Greensboro.

Governor Glenn, who is manifesting much interest in the good roads congress to be held in Greensboro during centennial week, has issued the following proclamation to the people of North Carolina:

"Whereas, the good roads congress has been called to be held in the City of Greensboro, N. C., on October 12th, 1908, for the purpose of encouraging a more general interest in the building of good roads in the Southern States, and for the advancement of education, and the upbuilding of the agricultural and industrial interests of the South; and, whereas, I deem it of the greatest importance to our state that every county and every town in the State should be represented at this convention, I hereby issue this proclamation, urging county commissioners of every county and the mayors of every city to appoint some of the wisest and best men of their respective counties and cities as delegates to this convention, and do urge said delegates when so appointed to attend this convention, as in my judgment it will tend greatly to advance the material interest of our state."

It's a pity when sick ones drug the stomach or stimulate the Heart and Kidneys. That is all wrong! A weak stomach means weak stomach nerves always. And this is also true of the Heart and Kidneys. The weak nerves are instead crying for help. This explains why Dr. Shoop's Restorative is promptly helping Stomach, Heart and Kidney ailments. The Restorative reaches out for the actual cause of these ailments—the failing "inside nerves." Anyway test the Restorative 15 hours. It won't cure so soon as that but you will surely know that help is coming. Sold by the Greensboro Drug Co.

THE OFFICIAL COUNTY MAP.

The official county map of Guilford county will not be complete before December 1st. Any agent or agents who represent that they are selling this map for which these surveys are made, and by these representations obtain orders for another map are guilty of false pretense.

Any person giving an order under these misrepresentations not only does not have to take the map, but can prosecute the agent in the criminal courts of Guilford county for obtaining money under false pretense.

I am informed that several agents are trying to palm off cheap state maps, especially in the rural districts.

When the map as authorized by county officials, and the one that two sets of surveys have been making surveys for since last June is complete, one will be placed in every school room in the county. Agents will also canvass the county, giving every one an opportunity to get one of these maps.

These agents will not only have a certificate signed by county officials and myself, but will have a sample of the map they represent, showing your name and that of your neighbors, the public and private roads, creeks, school houses, churches, macadam roads, telegraph lines, townships, etc.

It sure looks like these young people would be keeping house by Christmas or sooner—and we haven't got a thing to do with it, except to remind them and everybody else that this store carries a big stock of carpets, matings, squares, rugs, oil cloths, linoleums, curtains, window shades, and many other things used in and around the home. Because we handle this class of goods in connection with our extensive dry goods and shoe business with very little extra expense we can afford to sell them very close. Our new lines for fall are here and we will be glad to show you through them.

It is no joke, Townsend & Co. have the best cheap buggies you ever saw. They also sell fine buggies and carriages.

PROMISING YOUNG MAN DEAD.

W. O. Reitzel Passes Away at His Home in Liberty.

Mr. Walter O. Reitzel, a well known young man of Liberty, died at the home of his parents in that place Thursday afternoon. He was 25 years old and had been critically ill for several months. During the past summer he spent some time in St. Leo's hospital, in this city. While under treatment at the hospital one of his legs was amputated, and for a while it was hoped he would regain his health and strength. He recovered sufficiently to return to the home of his parents in Liberty, where he remained under the care of a trained nurse until his death.

Mr. Reitzel was a well known and popular employee of the Southern Railway, and his funeral, which was held in Liberty Saturday afternoon, was attended by a number of his fellow employees. He was also a member of the Greensboro lodge of Odd Fellows, which sent a delegation to the funeral.

FACTS ABOUT REGISTRATION.

Information for Voters Who Desire to Participate in the Coming Election.

Being asked many questions about the registration for the coming election and the qualification of voters, I desire to state some things which ought to be generally known.

1. No new registration is required.
All persons who were registered in the last election can vote now without registering again. However, minors coming of age must register; and persons who have moved their residence must register. If they moved from the precinct in which they were registered more than four months
prior to the time of the election, otherwise they vote in the precinct
in which they are registered.

2. No person liable for poll-tax can vote in this election, unless he has paid his poll-tax by May 1st of this year, and he must exhibit his receipt or take the oath required of him before voting. In order to vote he must be twenty-one years old, must have been a resident of the state
two years, of the county six months, and precinct four months. If any person moves into a new precinct within four months of the time of the election, he must go back to the precinct he removed from in order to vote.

3. The residence of a married man is where his family resides; a single man where he sleeps. No person convicted of crime and sentenced to state's prison can vote, unless his disability be removed.

4. A voter must be able to read and write any section of the constitution in the English language to the satisfaction of the registrar. A lineal decendant of any person who could vote on January 1st, 1867, or prior thereto can register, even though he cannot read and write. He must, however, register under the "grandfather clause." This is the last election in which those who cannot read and write can register under the "grandfather clause," as the constitution of the state limits the time to December 1st, 1908.

5. The clerk of the Superior court has in his keeping the permanent roll of all persons who have registered under the "grandfather clause," and it is highly important that every man in the county who cannot read and write ascertain if his name appears upon the roll in the clerk's office. It is also very important that the voter under the "grandfather clause" obtain a certificate of permanent registration. This is given him by the registrar and it ought to be certified to by the clerk of the Superior court.

6. The registration books will be open October 1st and close at sunset on October 24th. No registration will be allowed on the day of election, unless a person shall become twenty-one years old after the closing of the books.

7. The registrars will keep the registration books open at the voting place at the several precincts on each Saturday during this period until the evening of the 24th of October.

8. On any other day except Saturday all persons desiring to register must go to the registrar at his home or his place of business. On Saturday, as before stated, he will be at the voting precincts from 9 o'clock in the morning until sunset.

THE AIRSHIP DISASTER

Causes Much Regret—International Tuberculosis Conference.

Correspondence Patriot.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 19.—The disaster to the air ship of Orville Wright in which the inventor was badly wounded and his companion killed is keenly felt in Washington, where the experiments were made.
The official test was to have been made this week and Mr. Wright and the officials of the War department, as well as the crowds who have daily attended the trial flights, were confident that the aeroplane would easily pass all the tests. It lies now in the shed where it had been kept,
a mass of broken wires, splintered wood and torn muslin. Lieutenant Selfridge, who accompanied Mr.
Wright, is dead and Mr. Wright, with a broken leg, several broken ribs and many bruises, is lying in the Army hospital at Fort Meyer in the suburbs of the city.

The official opening of the International Tuberculosis Congress will take place next Monday, when distinguished scientific men from far away parts of the world will meet for the first time in three years to discuss the progress that has been made in the fight against the great white plague and to exchange ideas for the advancement of the work. Many distinguished officials of the government who have only the layman's knowledge of the subject will address the convention, but it is safe to predict that no one who goes to the quarters prepared for the convention in the national museum will escape without having learned something about the work in which its members are engaged. There will be many comprehensive exhibits from European countries and from the different states to show just how the scourge is being attacked and to demonstrate the scope of the crusade against it. Dr.
Carl Hamel, of Germany, is already putting in place the German exhibit which will be a small but perfect model of the tuberculosis colony at Belitz, a health resort near Berlin, where the most advanced methods are used in caring for patients with that disease. It will be true to scale, even to the forests of balsam firs which surround the sanatorium buildings.
Sweden is sending a similar exhibit in charge of one of the officers of the Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, whose members number twenty-two thousand, and who support this flourishing society without the financial aid of the government.

FAIR BUILDING COLLAPSES.

One Man Killed and a Dozen Injured in Accident at Winston-Salem —Dead Man Native of Guilford.

Winston-Salem, Sept. 17.—One man was instantly killed and a dozen of his fellow-workmen were injured tonight at 7.15 o'clock at the Piedmont Fair grounds here, when the general exhibit hall, nearing completion, collapsed. The dead man is John H.
Parker, aged 50, a widower, who was one of a force of carpenters. He was a native of Guilford county, but had lived here for the last six years.

The exact cause of the catastrophe can scarcely be stated with exact-ness, but some of the workmen say that the cross beams on the second floor of the building separated at the point of joining along the middle line of the structure and sank, with the ceiling caving in and the walls bulging out all within five seconds, as a foreman expressed it. The building was the main structure of the group that is in course of construction at the new fair grounds and double forces of workmen have been engaged night and day getting them in readiness for the county fair October 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th. It is here that Hon. John W. Kern, Democratic vice presidential candidate, is to speak October 7th.

As soon as the first horror of the death of Parker had been experienced, the directors of the fair took counsel for the partial change of plans the collapse of the building will necessitate. They are not responsible for the catastrophe. The building had not been delivered from the contractors, Harwood & Moss, of Norfolk, Va. Work will be begun tomorrow on a huge shed which will take the place of the collapsed building. The most rigid inspection will be made of the grandstand and other structures before the fair days so that all possible danger will be eliminated for the throngs that will be in attendance.

The building was 160x81 feet and two stories high, the timber was apparently sound and strong and the workmen say that there was no intimation of any defectiveness of construction. Quick as a wink, however, it crumbled like an eggshell.

Parker and another workman named Hodges were on the timbers designed to support the second floor
when they felt them giving away.
They half leaped half fell to the floor
below and dashed toward the east doorway, but just before they reached it a heavy beam struck Parker down, crushing in his skull. Hodges was hit but only slightly bruised, as were other workmen on the first floor.
Only the foreman, W. W. Washburn, got out unhurt, and he says he can not explain it. The exits were all closed by the collapsed timbers. The electric lighting switch was immediately thrown off, preventing danger in this quarter to the men trapped inside. A hole was cut through the roof and the body of Parker drawn up through it, life being quite extinct. The minor injuries of the other men were attended to by physicians who hurried to the scene.

Five of the injured men were taken to the Twin City hospital, one being hurt internally.

WOMAN RUN DOWN AND KILLED.

Was Returning From Church When Sad Accident Occurred.

Winston-Salem, Sept. 11.—Returning from church last night, in the company of several persons, Mrs. Alexander Ketner, 40 years old, wife of a farmer residing near Crater's Mill, seven miles west of this city, was run down by a horse, receiving injuries from which she died early today.

The horse was ridden by Mr. Anderson Hege, a young man, who has a farm near Harmony Grove church.
When services at the church were over Mrs. Ketner, with several friends, were walking home in the roadway, when Mr. Hege came along.
He was riding fast, it is said, and the roadway was in shadow at the spot where the fatality occurred, so that the young man did not see the pedestrians until he was almost upon them. They made a scramble for safety at the side of the road, but
Mrs. Ketner was too late.

The horse's hoofs struck her down
and she lay senseless in the road, with wounds on the head. Horrified,
those of the party who had escaped,
rushed to her side and Mr. Hege, who had succeeded in stopping the frightened animal a short distance away, came to her assistance. He was grief-stricken at the tragedy, which he said he was not able to prevent.

Mrs. Ketner was taken to her home and a physician summoned, but she expired in a few hours without having regained complete consciousness. The case is particularly sad, on account of her five children, two of them being twins, just two years old.

South Carolinian Arrested for Fraud.

Union, S. C., Sept. 21.—Thomas C.
Duncan was arrested here today charged with obtaining money by misrepresentation to the amount of about $8,000. The charge was made by the receivers of the People's Bank of this city, which several months ago went into voluntary liquidation, and relates to certain checks and drafts on the Bank of Spring City, Tenn., paid by the People's Bank, but turned down by the Spring City bank
as Duncan had not funds on deposit.
He was released on bond.

Duncan is the son of the late Bish-

GUILFORD BATTLE GROUND.

Mr. Wooten Pays a Visit to the Historic Field in Company With Maj. Morehead.

On my return from Charlotte the last of August I spent a few days in Greensboro. I met my old friend Col. Joseph M. Morehead, the president of the Guilford Battle Ground Association. He is a son of Hon. J. T. Morehead, who was a member of Congress from the Greensboro district before the war and is a nephew of Governor Morehead. We were students together at Judge Pearson's law school. Joe went to Lexington to practice after he acquired his license and remained a week and quit and returned to Greensboro. I saw his brother, Col. J. T. Morehead, a prominent lawyer and a gallant colonel in the Confederate army, and he asked me why I abandoned the law after having equipped myself for the profession, for I practiced three years in Goldsboro and became disgusted and quit. I told him I had rather go into the penitentiary than to practice law. I hated the wrangling and the fighting in the court house over trivial cases. It reminded me too much of two dogs fighting over an old bone and after they had gotten it they had nothing. I remember reading a poem once—"The Devil and the Lawyer." It describes a scene of wrangling between two lawyers over a petty case in the court house and after the case was over they went out of the court house with locked arms and a smile on their faces, and went to the nearest saloon and took a drink. The devil was present in the court house and witnessed every minute from the way they talked and gesticulated, and darted furtive glances from their eyes, that they would soon come to blows, but when he saw them walk out of the temple of justice like lovers and take a social glass and smile on each other, he directed his agent not to send him any lawyers, for he said those slick rascals would soon cheat him out of his dominions. I wish I had the poem so I could publish it for the benefit of the lawyers. I clipped it out of a newspaper more than thirty years ago and put it in my pocketbook and while attending Mr. Cleveland's inauguration on the 4th of March, 1885, some slick rascal ran his hand in my pocket, stole my pocketbook containing the poem and about $35 in money. I reckon, however, the main reason I quit the practice was laziness. It is too hard work and I don't like to have a lash behind me. But let me get back to my story. Colonel Morehead saw me on the street and said I wish to take you to the battle ground. I replied I would be glad to go, for I knew he was well versed in the history of the struggle that had made that field immortal and that he had devoted the best years of his life in constructing monuments and arches to perpetuate the memory of those revolutionary heroes and preserve the history of that battle for future generations. The legislature of 1887 incorporated the Guilford Battle Ground Association, whose purpose was to reclaim, preserve and adorn the battlefield of Guilford Court House. The first president of the association was Judge David Schenck, who was the originator and promoter of the project to reclaim the battlefield. Colonel Morehead is now president of the association and it is a labor of love to him to devote his time and labor without pay to preserving the history of the battle and taking visitors over the grounds. I know of no North Carolinian who has devoted as much time to the service of his state without reward as he has done, and he never asked for an office in his life. If a politician makes a speech he expects to get a big office as his reward, and if he does not he is ready to grumble and talk about the base ingratitude of his party. The colonel said to me as I stood on the street: Wait here and I will get my horse and buggy and take you to the battle ground. Soon he returned with a fine black horse to his buggy. The battle ground is five miles north of Greensboro. A fine macadamized road leads to the grounds. It is on a high ridge and the driving over such a road was a luxury. The Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad, running north and south, divides the grounds and the old road leading from Hillsboro to Salisbury, running east and west, crosses the railroad. The grounds contain 100 acres and over twenty-five monuments, and is the property of the association and is exempt from taxation. To the west of the railroad Colonel Morehead showed me the first line of battle that was formed on both sides of the old dirt road. This line was held by Butler's and Eaton's North Carolina brigades, supported by Singleton's Virginia and Maryland artillery. These troops had orders to fire twice and then retreat. This caused the report that the North Carolina militia fled from the field and threw away their guns. Even Light Horse Harry Lee, the father of Gen. R. E. Lee, gave currency to this report and it has been a stigma upon the fair name of the state, when they were simply obeying the orders of General Greene, who commanded in the battle. The second line was a few hundred yards to the east of the first line, and the third, where the last stand was made, is over a half mile on the eastern edge of the grounds. Colonel Morehead has stone blocks placed along these lines, where they can be indicated by future generations. On the west side of the railroad and across the old dirt road is a massive granite arch, costing $5,000, erected to Gen. William Lee Davidson, who was killed at Cowan's Ford on the Catawba river in 1781, and immediately across the railroad on the eastern side is an arch erected to Gen. Francis Nash, who was killed at the battle of Germantown, in Pennsylvania, on the 4th of October, 1777. This arch cost $5,000. The Continental Congress voted appropriations for monuments to the two generals, both of North Carolina, which were never erected. In 1842 General Graham, a sensible kind of man, who restored some of the old monuments, and then a United States senator from North Carolina and in 1888 Senator Vance, and 1896 the Society of the Cincinnati, endeavored to revive appropriations, but they failed in their efforts. In 1902 the Guilford Battle Ground Association induced Hon. W. W. Kitchin, the member of Congress from the battle ground district, to take up the matter and he secured an appropriation from Congress and the arches were erected as the result of his labors. On the west side of the railroad is a plain block of granite in its rude state, without any ornamentation, about six feet high, erected to Nathaniel Macon. In his will he said his monument should be a rude stone. His body reposes on his plantation in Warren county with nothing to mark the place but rude stones upon the top of the grave. Efforts were made to remove his remains to the battle ground, but objections were offered and it has not been done. Nearby is a monument to Jethro Sumner, a general of the war of 1776, and a few feet from Sumner's is a monument to John Davis, of Newbern, who was buried in that town October, 1804. In 1893 his remains were removed to the battle ground. He was the grandfather of Governor Ellis' wife and Major Graham Davis, who was Governor Ellis' private secretary, and grandfather of Col. Edward Graham Haywood, the greatest intellectual giant the state ever produced. A monument in the shape of a tent is erected to the memory of Capt. James Morehead, tenth regiment of the Continental line, and uncle of Governor Morehead. Within a few feet of this monument is one to the memory of Mrs. Kerenhappuch Turner, of Maryland. Her sons and grandsons were in this battle with Greene. One of her sons was wounded in the battle and she rode on horseback from her Maryland home to nurse her son. One of her daughters married Joseph Morehead, who was the father of Governor Morehead and Hon. James Turner Morehead, whose descendants are among the best citizens of the state. This is the first monument ever erected to a revolutionary heroine. To the south of the Davidson arch is a monument to John Penn and William Hooper, signers of the Declaration of Independence. Their remains were removed to the battle ground in 1894. Hewes' body, the third signer, lies in an unknown grave. East of the Nash arch is a monument to Clio, the muse of history, and nearly is a granite shaft to the battle of Alamance, thirty feet high, fought May 16th, 1771, the first battle of the revolution. There is a monument to Judge Schenck, the first president of the Battle Ground Association. It is a beautiful monument and is an exact model of the one to Gen. A. P. Hill, in Richmond, Va. Judge Schenck devoted his time and services to the reclamation and adorning of the battle ground and it is appropriate that he should be thus honored. He was a noble patriot and loved the state and he took pride in perpetuating the deeds of her heroic sons. His memory should ever be cherished by the people of the state. On the southeast corner of the battle ground, where the last stand was made by Col. Joseph Winston, is a monument to him and Jesse Franklin, erected by Governor Holt in 1893. In 1896 the remains of Winston and Franklin were removed to the battle ground and reinterred near the monument. To the northeast is a plain granite block erected by the Maryland Historical Society to the Maryland troops, who made a brave stand on the third line of the battle. This stone was placed there in 1892. There are in all about twenty-five monuments, and the property of the company is valued at over $50,000. Some gentlemen went over the field with Colonel Morehead and he talked so familiarly about the battle and where the troops were stationed, that the gentlemen said, "You must have been there." Colonel Morehead deserves the thanks of the state for the part he has performed in this patriotic work. He ought to teach his story to some younger man.

PLANNED TO "SHOOT UP" TOWN

Eleven Negroes Arrested in South Carolina as Insurrectionists.

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 14.—Eleven negroes arrested at Ninety-Six, S. C., are in jail at Greenwood today on a charge of insurrection, growing out of race friction. An intercepted letter revealed the fact that a band of negroes had been planning secretly at Ninety-Six to "shoot up" the town on Sunday night, September 6, but that the floods which caused the annulment of all freight trains had delayed the delivery of rifles to the negroes. Sheriff McGillan asserts that the evidence against the negroes is conclusive. There has been much friction between the races since the general election race riot near Ninety-Six ten years ago, when many negroes were killed.

Two years ago it was rumored that negroes were obtaining guns to use in an attack on white citizens, but the merchant who it was found sold the guns furnished the names of those who bought them, and all the guns were collected.

Four weeks ago Joseph Tolbert, a white Republican, was run out of Ninety-Six at a local election, and it is said that in the intercepted letter the negroes mentioned as marked men four of those most active against Tolbert.

Handed a Lemon.

If the wet folks expected anything from the Republicans they were handed a lemon of generous size, for the Republicans not only ignored the question of prohibition, but nominated the dullest pro-high-bitionist in the state for governor.

The Remedy That Does.

"Dr. King's New Discovery is the remedy that does the healing others promise but fail to perform," says Mrs. E. R. Pierson, of Auburn Centre, Pa. "It is curing me of throat and lung trouble of long standing, that other treatments relieved only temporarily. New Discovery is doing me so much good that I feel confident its continued use for a reasonable length of time will restore me to perfect health." This renowned cough and cold remedy, throat and lung healer is sold by all druggists, 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

BRYAN ROASTS HIS OPPONENT.

Declares Candidate Should Explain Record—Insists He Dodges the Issues.

Philadelphia, Sept. 15.—William Jennings Bryan severely roasts William H. Taft in a statement here today. The Republican candidate was openly accused of deliberate evasion and of misrepresentation. He also assailed Taft's record as governor of the Philippines, and insisted that there was much for the Ohioan to answer.

Mr. Bryan said: "Mr. Taft is dodging. Instead of defining his position on public questions, he is inquiring about my record, as he does about the public questions which he has attempted to discuss. He accuses me of being changeable and of abandoning issues. Let me refer to the questions which I have been discussing:

"I began with the tariff question twenty-eight years ago, and I have been a tariff reformer all these years. Mr. Taft is just beginning to see the necessity for tariff reform.

"I began advocating the direct election of senators as early as 1890, and I have been advocating it ever since. In his notification speech he announces that he is personally inclined to this. So far as I know, it is the first utterance in favor of this reform and he makes it eighteen years after I began to work for it.

"I helped to draw the income tax law in 1894 and have been an advocate of the principle ever since. He now admits that the principle is sound. Thus he comes to my position after fourteen years of waiting.

"I said in 1898 that the Philippines ought to have their independence. We declared that to be the paramount issue in 1900 and I have ever since insisted upon ultimate independence of the Philippines and of an immediate declaration of the government's intention. Mr. Taft has this year admitted that the people must ultimately have independence, although he postpones the day of it for at least two generations. I have maintained my position. He has come around to it. I have also discussed the Philippine question in this campaign and called attention to the fact that Mr. Taft made a mistake of $114,000,000 in his estimate of the cost of imperialism. In his notification speech he put the cost at $6,000,000 a year, whereas the increase in the army and navy alone amounts to more than $20,000,000.

"On the railroad question he has expressed himself as strongly as I have. He has said, and the president also has said that government ownership will follow if the railroads prevent regulation. I have said the same thing. I do not desire government ownership. I hope that the railroads will permit regulation. Our position only differs in that he has more faith than I have in the willingness of the railroads to be regulated, but we agree that the subject of ownership is one that cannot be determined until effective regulation has been tried; so that ownership is not an issue, and I never sought to make it an issue.

"He spends some time on the money question. The money question has been taken out of politics because the unexpected discoveries of gold have given the increase which was demanded by the Republican party as well as by the Democratic party. Mr. McKinley voted for free coinage when he was in Congress, and the Republican platform of 1896 contained a promise of international bimetalism. The elimination of the money question is not due to Republican legislation, but to an increase in the discovery of gold, which has given an impetus to business throughout the world.

"Mr. Taft cannot escape from the issues. Will he define his position on the tariff question, on the labor question, on the trust question, and on the other issues that are presented in this campaign? He will not be permitted to run away from them.

"He has accepted the nomination of his party; now let him take the people into his confidence and interpret his platform so that the public will know where he stands and what he intends to do.

"If he prefers to delve into the past, rather than meet the issues of the present, will he explain the issue of the Bland-Altman Railroad system and the perpetual franchises that he wanted to fasten upon the Filipinos with a perpetual guarantee of income to the corporations securing the franchises? Will he explain his record on the labor question and the trust investigation during his official service at Washington?

Fifty-Nine Years in Office.

Hillsboro Observer.

Why, certainly, Mr. John Laws was re-nominated by the Democratic county convention held on Saturday, August 29th, for register of deeds of Orange county, and that, too, by acclamation and without a dissenting vote. The Democrats of Orange have about made up their minds that this office belongs to Mr. Laws by right of possession, and they are going to continue to elect him as long as he lives. Mr. Laws recorded his first paper as public register for Orange county in August, 1849, 59 years ago last month. The Orange County Observer will pay a handsome reward for the names of any married couple who are now living in this county or elsewhere, who were married in Orange county, and whose marriage license was not issued by Mr. John Laws.

Tickling or dry coughs will quickly loosen when using Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. And it is so thoroughly harmless, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers to use nothing else, even for very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung healing mountainous shrub give the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. It calms the cough, and heals the sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Demand Dr. Shoop's. Accept no other. Sold by Greensboro Drug Co.

S.S.S. CURES SKIN DISEASES

There is an evaporation from the body going on continually, day and night, through the pores and glands of the skin. This is nature's way of maintaining the proper temperature of our systems and preserving the softness and flexibility of the skin, and so long as the blood is free from impurities no trouble will result. When, however, the blood from any cause becomes infected with humors and acids, these too must be expelled, and coming in contact with the delicate fibres and tissues with which the skin is so abundantly supplied they produce irritation and inflammation, and the effect is shown by Eczema, Acne, Tetter, and skin affections of various kinds. These impurities and humors get into the blood through a deranged or inactive condition of the system; the members whose duty it is to carry off the waste and refuse matter of the body fail to properly perform their work, and this impure, fermenting matter is left in the system to be absorbed by the blood. The skin is not only affected by poisons generated within the system, but poisons from without, such as Poison Oak, Poison Ivy, Nettle Rash, etc., enter through the open pores and glands, and so thoroughly do they become rooted in the blood that they are ever present, or return at certain seasons of each year to torment the sufferer. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., cannot cure skin diseases. True, such treatment relieves some of the itching and discomfort, and aids in keeping the skin clean, but it does not reach the real cause, and at best can be only palliating and soothing. A thorough cleansing of the blood is the only certain cure for skin diseases. S. S. S., a gentle acting, safe blood purifier, made entirely of vegetable ingredients of the forest and field, is the proper treatment. S. S. S. goes down into the circulation, and neutralizes the acids and humors, thoroughly cleansing and purifying the blood, and curing skin affections of every kind. It supplies to the blood the fresh, nutritive qualities necessary to sustain the skin and all other parts of the body, and rids the blood of any and all poisons. S. S. S. cures Eczema, Tetter, Acne, Salt Rheum, Poison Oak and Ivy, Nettle Rash, and all other skin troubles, and cures them permanently by removing every trace of the cause from the blood. Special book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice desired furnished free to all who write.

SOMETHING TO THINK OF

Did you ever hear of a family having pneumonia who had GOOSE GREASE LINIMENT in their home?

Did you ever hear of a child dying of croup or cold who had rubbed Goose Grease on their chest?

This is something to think of.

Mother, don't be without this liniment for the sake of your little one.

NATURE'S GREAT BLOOD TONIC

Piedmont-Bedford Concentrated Iron & Alum Water

contains 17 of the most powerful Mineral Tonics.

An 18-oz. bottle contains all the minerals in a barrel of the average water. We furnish the minerals, you furnish the water.

We have certificates both from the public and from eminent physicians, telling of its virtue in Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, a large variety of Female Diseases, Chronic Diarrhoea and Dysentery, General Debility, Anaemia, Malar, a Ulceration of the Throat, Diabetes, Piles, Chronic Eczema, Nervousness, Chronic Constipation, and many showing the wonderful cures in that dreadful disease, Scrofula.

Dr. T. L. KABLE, for fifteen years a resident at the Springs, says: For Scrofula, that fearful destroyer of human health and happiness, we have in this water a remedy which neither science nor fortune accident has hitherto found an equal. It is in this malady, and some forms of secondary and tertiary Syphilis, that this water when carried to its full alternative effect, displays its highest curative powers. In all forms of diseases peculiar to females, this water will be found to exert a curative influence second to none in Virginia.

I have given your Concentrated Water a fair trial, and say with pleasure I have been greatly benefited. For some years I have suffered more or less with Indigestion, followed by Constipation and other attendant ills. Within the past two months I have found such relief from your remedy that I have improved in strength and weight; have eaten what I have not dared to do for a long time, and have done harder work than I have been able to do before for years.

REV. OSCAR LITTLETON,
Presiding Elder, Lynchburg, Va.

Since 1894 I have been afflicted with Chronic Diarrhoea. About six months ago I commenced using your Concentrated Iron and Alum Water with the most wonderful and satisfactory results. For three or four years past I have been deprived of the privilege of visiting friends or going to church, as my trouble kept me in constant apprehension, having lost almost entirely the control of my bowels; but now I am happy to state that after using about a half dozen bottles of your remedy I am entirely cured, not having used any for the last four months. I can confidently and most gladly recommend your remedy for Chronic Diarrhoea.

CAPT. RUFUS AMIS, Virgilina, Va.

I was an intense sufferer for some months with Indigestion, and could get no relief from the ordinary remedies. During the month of January I began the use of your Concentrated Water, and one bottle has entirely relieved me. I can now digest any diet and am entirely free from suffering. I take great pleasure in giving this testimonial.

REV. H. M. BLAIR,
Editor N. C. Christian Advocate,
Greensboro, N. C.

I have used and prescribed waters from several Iron and Alum Springs, but none of them begin to come up to your Concentrated Water in all that goes to make the ideal alternative, strengthener, appetizer and restorative. It is at once a fine tonic and flesh-builder. Have advised several recently to try it, and always with fine and quick results. In January I had a bottle sent from one of your dealers to a lady, with the understanding that if it did not at once improve her digestive apparatus, I would pay the $1.00 myself. She not only willingly paid the bill, but used a part of one-half dozen more bottles, and is now completely cured of a long and annoying Stomach Trouble. This seems to be the case with all who try it.

HIGH POINT HAS BAD FIRE.

Blaze in Heart of Business District Does Much Damage.

High Point, Sept. 18.—This morning at 3.45 o'clock fire was discovered in the A. V. Sapp block, on North Main street, and gutted the interior of the building, the brick work being little damaged. The origin of the fire was in a room occupied by Mr. Fagan, tailor, and was caused by a kerosene lamp which had been turned over in some way. When the alarm was turned in and the firemen reached the building the fire had spread all over the building and it took hard work to confine the fire to this block, being located in the heart of the business quarter.

In the building was the Clark Shoe Company, which firm lost everything, the stock being valued at $10,000, with $6,000 insurance. A large bill of new goods had just been received yesterday and put in the store, and this makes the loss heavier.

The High Point Clothing Company suffered a complete loss. Their stock was valued at from $10,000 to $12,000, with $7,500 insurance.

The Moore book store, valued at $2,000 or more, carried $1,200 insurance, and was almost a complete loss. Several families living upstairs also lost all their effects, personal and otherwise. Some of the occupants had narrow escapes, especially an old lady who was taken out just in time. The fire burned for an hour or more before it was completely under control.

FLYING MACHINE WRECKED.

Orville Wright's Aeroplane Meets With Tragical Mishap.

Washington, Sept. 17.—After having drawn the attention of the world to his aeroplane flights at Fort Myer, and having established new world records for the heavier-than-air flying machines, Orville Wright today met with a tragical mishap while making a two-man flight. The aeroplane was accompanied by Lieutenant Thomas E. Selfridge, of the Signal Corps of the army.

Lieutenant Selfridge was fatally injured and died at 8.10 o'clock tonight. Mr. Wright was seriously injured, but is expected to recover.

While the machine was encircling the drill grounds a propeller blade snapped off and hitting some part of the intricate mechanism, caused it to overturn in the air and fall to the ground, enveloping the two occupants in the debris.

Soldiers and spectators ran across the field to where the aeroplane had fallen and assisted in lifting Mr. Wright and Lieutenant Selfridge from under the tangled mass of machinery, rods, wires and shreds of muslin. Mr. Wright was conscious and said, "Oh, hurry and lift the motor." Lieutenant Selfridge was unconscious and had apparently struck the ground with great force. His head was covered with blood and he was choking when the soldiers extricated him from under the machine.

KILLS WIFE OF HIS FRIEND.

Oklahoma City Man Lures Woman to Isolated Part of Town.

Oklahoma City, Sept. 19.—Mrs. Harriet Pearson, wife of Harry Pearson, prominent socially, was murdered in cold blood last night near Central Park by Harry Parker, a grain dealer.

Parker was a friend of the Pearsons, and had lived with them. He and Mrs. Pearson had gone out for a walk. According to the story told by Mrs. Pearson, a short time after the tragedy, the crime was inspired either by unholo love or a lust for gold. Parker was infuriated with Mrs. Pearson.

It is thought that Parker deliberately planned the murder and that he lured Mrs. Pearson out to that isolated part of the city that he might more fully carry out his fiendish plans.

Two shots were fired by Parker, one of them entering the left side, an inch below the heart and plowing its way through the lungs, lodged near the right side. The other bullet struck Mrs. Pearson in the abdomen and, piercing her bowels, caused hemorrhages, which were the cause of her death.

Mrs. Pearson, after the shooting, managed to crawl on her hands and knees to the home of Robert Putnam, where she told him everything that had happened.

It Can't Be Beat.

The best of all teachers is experience. C. M. Haden, of Silver City, North Carolina, says: "I find Electric Bitters does all that's claimed for it. For Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles it can't be beat. I have tried it and find it a most excellent medicine. It is Haden's right; it's weakness, lame back and all rundown conditions. Best too for chills and malaria. Sold under guarantee by all druggists, 50c.

CONVICT SYSTEM IS ABOLISHED.

An End to Regime of Corruption and Brutality in Georgia.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 20.—Just at midnight last night Governor Hoke Smith signed the convict lease bill which hereafter prohibits the leasing of felons except by the consent of the Governor and prison commission. The bill was passed by the Legislature yesterday after $35,000 had been spent in an extra session, and nearly a month used in discussing the legislation. With the signature of Governor Smith on the bill as engrossed, Georgia has done away with a system which has been in existence ever since 1865.

It was to settle this convict lease question that Governor Smith called a special session of the Legislature. He desired that the lease system be absolutely abolished and the bill as passed provides that there will be no leasing of convicts to any contractor for private gain. It is said these contractors have made thousands of dollars out of convict labor in Georgia in the last forty years, men being leased to them at $100 a piece with three proviso of board and sleeping quarters.

In the investigation which led to the present legislation there was considerable testimony to the effect that negro convicts had been whipped by overseers, that in several cases the abuse had resulted in the death of men under the control of the lessee.

NIGHT RIDERS IN THE STATE.

Write Letters Threatening to Burn Cotton Gin at Shelby.

Shelby, Sept. 21.—Mr. J. F. Jenkins, the manager of the Southern Cotton Oil Company at this place, received a letter Saturday notifying him that if he continued to gin cotton in the face of the declining market night-riders would burn his gin. Not knowing whether this notice was genuine or a hoax, he requested local papers to make no publication until he could submit it to the Charlotte office of his company. In the meantime he has instructed his night watchmen to shoot any person found around the premises at night. The original letter was sent to the Charlotte office and only two or three of Mr. Jenkins' intimate friends were informed of its receipt. Under this situation less than a dozen people of this place have any information or knowledge of the matter and Mr. Jenkins, when approached about it, stated that he had nothing to give out, as he had referred same to the Charlotte office.

No other ginner of this section has received such notice, so far as can be learned, and there is a difference of opinion among the few who have heard of the notice received by Mr. Jenkins. Some think it to be genuine, while others think that possibly it is the work of some personal enemy.

Kills Officer Who Had Arrested Him.

Barnesville, Ga., Sept. 20.—Ben F. Perdue, a farmer living near here, shot Deputy Marshal Ben Porch at 2 o'clock this morning, inflicting wounds from which the officer died at 2 o'clock this afternoon. A shotgun at close range was used, one load passing through one thigh into the other, the other load entering the lower part of the back. Mayor Cochran heard the officer's cry for help and went to his rescue, carrying him home and securing medical aid.

Porch earlier in the night locked up Perdue for being drunk and disorderly. Friends appeared for Perdue's release and Porch turned him out. Afterwards Perdue secured a gun and waited on Market street for Porch's regular round, when, without warning, according to the officer's dying words, he opened fire.

Minister Led Blind Tiger Raid.

Newbern, Sept. 21.—As the result of a blind tiger raid last night ten men, seven white and three colored, were arrested and jailed. The raid was engineered by Rev. J. W. Ham, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church, and began at midnight. Eighteen warrants were issued, but thus far only ten of the men have been caught.

The preliminary trial was to occur at noon today and a large crowd assembled in the court house, but Justices Hines and Barrington finally consented to postpone the trial until Tuesday at 9 o'clock, fixing bail at $1,000 each. Only one man was able to furnish the bond required and there are nine in jail tonight.

The evidence is very strong against the men and has been worked up by two detectives, who have spent three weeks here.

Three Deaths Due to Fog.

Chicago, Sept. 17.—Three persons were killed, at least 50 others injured, three collisions occurred on the elevated railways, three railroad trains were wrecked, and many street cars, automobiles and boat accidents and serious delays in transportation today attended a heavy early morning fog. The whole city was plunged into darkness, and it was feared that the toll of life would be even heavier when a breeze suddenly dissipated the gloom.

Night Riders Give Warning in Georgia.

Lawrenceville, Ga., Sept. 19.—Night riders have posted written notices, painted with red hands on them, on several signs of this county, warning the proprietors that their gins will be burned to the ground should a bale of cotton be ginned before the price of cotton has reached 12 cents. It is reported that similar warnings have been posted on many gins and oil mills over the country.

Millions of bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar have been sold without any person ever having experienced any other than beneficial results from its use for coughs, colds and lung troubles. This is because the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package contains no opiates or other harmful drugs. Guard your health by refusing any but the genuine. All druggists.

Revival Services in Greensboro Churches.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the simultaneous revival services being conducted in the white protestant churches of Greensboro. The revival opened Sunday, with special services in the various churches, and will continue through the week and probably longer. Services are held each evening at 8 o'clock, conducted by the pastors.

Rev. Dr. John E. White, of Atlanta, a well known Baptist divine, arrived in the city Monday and is conducting union prayer services for the men and women. These services are held in Grace Methodist Protestant church, the men's meeting being held at noon and the meeting for women at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

County Commissioners in Special Session.

The county commissioners were in special session Monday and yesterday attending to bridge matters and other business. W. J. Grantham, of this city, was awarded the contract for building abutments for the bridge across the creek about a mile this side of High Point. An order was placed with the Oswego Bridge Company for steel tubes for supports for the McCuiston bridge across Reedy Fork. The steel tubes will make the bridge practically indestructible. Good progress is being made in replacing the bridges at Armfield's mill and across North Buffalo near Buffalo church.

Two Valuable Farms for Sale

Pursuant to a decree of the Superior court of Guilford county, made in the case of J. C. Causey, administrator of J. C. Amick, deceased, vs. Everett Amick, et al., the undersigned, as administrator and commissioner, will sell to the last and highest bidder at public auction, on the terms and at the place hereinafter mentioned, two valuable farms, located in Greene township, Guilford county, N. C., belonging to the said J. C. Amick at the time of his death, one known as the home place, containing 151 acres or thereabouts; the second place known as the William Amick farm, containing 224 acres or thereabouts.

These farms join each other and also join the lands of John Lineberry, Calhoun Brown, Alton Lineberry and Rev. G. W. Bowman, and are located about six miles north of Liberty railway station and about one mile and a half west of Kilmessville, and are on a rural free delivery route. Both farms are almost entirely under fence and are well watered, with good meadows and orchards, with a large variety of fruit; the soil is productive and well adapted to the growth of grain, etc., with sufficient quantity of wood and timber. Both farms are located in good neighborhoods with good church and school facilities. The buildings on these farms are in good condition.

The sale to take place at 12 o'clock M. on October 5, 1908, at the late residence of J. C. Amick, deceased, on the terms of one-third cash, one-third in six months and one-third in twelve months, with interest on deferred payments from date of sale till paid at the rate of six per cent. per annum, and title retained. This September 3, 1908.

J. C. CAUSEY, Administrator of J. C. Amick, deceased.

Neighborhood News.

Matters of Interest Reported by Our Corps of Correspondents.

MCLEANSVILLE ITEMS.

Mr. Karl Cook, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday here visiting his sister, Mrs. C. D. Cobb.

Mrs. J. W. Causey and children, of Greensboro, have been spending a few days with her father, Mr. Henry Cobb, and other relatives near here.

Quite a number of students from this place attended the picnic at Peace Lutheran church last Saturday. Among the number was a hay wagon load of young ladies, who were afforded a most pleasant trip to and from the picnic through the kindness of Mr. Samuel Cobb, who sent for them.

Mrs. L. S. Shirey and children, of McLeansville, are the guests of Prof. and Mrs. C. D. Cobb for a few days. Mrs. Shirey is a sister of Mrs. Cobb and is very favorably known here.

The Presbyterian church will be observed on the fourth Sunday in this month. A nice program is being arranged, including recitations and songs by the children in the forenoon, while in the afternoon some prominent speakers are slated for speeches upon mission topics.

Mr. Robert Thomas and family, and Miss Lillian Elliott, of Greensboro, visited their kinsmen, Mr. Harrison Waters and family, Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Hornbuckle, of Gibsonville, filled the pulpit at Mt. Pleasant M. E. church Sunday in the absence of Rev. A. S. Raper, who is making a visit to his old home.

Mrs. H. V. Cobb, of Greensboro, spent part of last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Browning, in the southern part of our village.

Several new students arrived Monday to enter school. Among those from a distance were Miss Carrie Smith, of Doggett's Mill, and Messrs. Cicero Phibbs and L. E. Fayette, of Elon College.

Our music department of the academy continues to grow as it were by leaps and bounds. It now numbers 26 students, with more to be added in the near future. We feel sure much will be accomplished during this scholastic year in a musical way under the excellent instruction of Miss Gardner, who is at the head of this department.

Rev. C. R. Pless, a member of the faculty here, has been selected to preach at Bethel on the second Sunday, and Rev. Melton Clark, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Greensboro, to preach on the fourth Sunday—in each month during Rev. J. C. Shive's absence in search of health.

There was a very good sized audience present at service in the academy chapel Sunday to hear a very instructive discourse by Rev. Pless. His subject was, "Prayer." Text, Luke 11:28. It was deemed best to change the hour for Sunday school to 3 o'clock in the afternoon, to be held in the morning, followed by preaching at 11 o'clock. This schedule will remain in effect till further notice is given.

Among others who have visited our town recently were Miss Cora Davis, Messrs. D. C. Cobb and S. B. Blackwood, of Greensboro.

Miss Louella Dick has returned home after having spent several days visiting friends in Madison and Greensboro.

Mr. G. S. Miles made a short trip over to Greensboro Saturday on business.

HINTON ITEMS.

Miss Christine Causey visited Miss Jane Jobe quite recently.

Mrs. Carey Scott, from your city, visited her parents recently.

Mrs. Norma Starr, who is attending school in Greensboro, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents.

Mr. Charlie Whiteley spent a few days at home last week on account of illness.

Rev. Mr. McCulloch filled the pulpit at Amabance Sunday and was heard by a large congregation.

Mrs. Polly Gladstone, who has been sick for some time, is reported much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Wyrick, from Greensboro, visited at Mr. C. C. Parker's recently.

Miss Avis Starr visited her sister, Mrs. Robert Andrew, quite recently.

There will be preaching at Alamance the first Sunday in October at half past two o'clock by Rev. Melton Clark. Sunday school at one o'clock.

Two elder mills at cost at Townsend & Co.'s.

PLEASANT GARDEN ITEMS.

Pleasant Garden high school has opened up fine, and is enjoying one of the most prosperous years since its beginning. Since the opening of our little village, it seems, has taken on new life. There are many boys and girls here from different parts of the eastern half of Guilford, and more than that, they are continuing to come.

Our school, and the presence of those from off, are not the only signs of new life and hustle, for many new dwellings have been built during the past twelve months. This is not all. Many more will be erected within the next twelve months. There are lots for sale at Pleasant Garden; now why not get the building idea? If you do, build at Pleasant Garden high school. The new auditorium project is still being agitated, and it is thought that plans for it will be perfected in a very short while.

On Sunday, Sept. 20, Dr. C. Gray entertained quite a number of relatives and friends at a birthday dinner. Dr. Gray is 78 years of age, and is still hale and hearty. The Doctor has rendered a great and good service to the community in which he is located. He has always stood for those things that build up. It is our wish that he will still for many years be spared to this section.

Miss Jessie Foust, of Jamestown, spent Saturday and Sunday here visiting Miss Ada Michael.

Prof. M. S. Giles spent Saturday in Greensboro on business.

Mr. C. Gray, Jr., made a business trip to Liberty on Monday.

Miss Florence Bevell, of Brown Summit, arrived Monday to enter Pleasant Garden high school.

Mr. Layton, of Kimesville, registered as a student of the high school Monday.

Miss Beatrice Neeley left several days since for Charlotte. She expects to prepare to be a trained nurse.

Miss Laura Ross, of Greensboro, spent a few days in town last week.

On next Friday night there will be a box party given by the ladies' home missionary society in the high school auditorium. Let everybody come.

Monday, Oct. 5, the primary and intermediate departments of Pleasant Garden school will begin. Let every mother have her children present the first day.

TABERNACLE ITEMS.

The people in this community are busy moving and saving their fiddler. Quite a large number from here attended the Clay township Sunday school convention at Cobb's church recently.

Miss Lena Campbell has gone to Charlotte to prepare for a trained nurse.

Mrs. Nancy Hanner visited her son, Mr. J. E. Hanner, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Coble, of your city, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Coble, last Sunday.

Rev. H. L. Powell is all smiles. It's a girl.

Miss Ola Whiteley visited relatives in High Point recently.

Misses Madge, Maggie and Ruth Coble will start to school at the State Normal at the opening.

Charles Smith and family will soon be one of our near neighbors.

Miss Ivey Trodden has entered school at Pleasant Garden.

Miss Maude Malcolm, of Greensboro, recently visited Miss Maude Hanner.

FAIRFIELD ITEMS.

Sunday school at Fairfield has not been crowded since August the first.

Whooping cough is entertaining the children of this community at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lowe, of Pennsylvania, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Lowe.

Farmers are about done with fodder, and are cutting peas this fine weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Con. Scott, of Greensboro, are visiting the former's father and sister, Mr. E. M. Scott and Mrs. W. O. Cobb.

The public school at Oak Shade will open October 19th. Miss Bettie Blackburn, of Guilford College, will be the principal, and Miss Lowe, of High Point, assistant. There will be an educational rally and flag raising that day by the Juniors. Prof. Foust and Mr. C. H. Ireland, of Greensboro, and probably State Superintendent Joyner will be the principal speakers. Full program announced later.

Those shop-worn drills are moving fast because the price is right at Townsend & Co.'s.

WELCH ACADEMY ITEMS.

School opens at this place September 28th by Mr. G. A. Wright and sister, from Liberty.

Mrs. S. N. Guyer is very sick, we are sorry to note.

Misses Violet Welch, Grace Horney, Vallie Gordon and Messrs. Jack Bolling and Ruffin Kimrey, from this place, have entered the high school at Jamestown.

Dr. S. B. Turrentine, from Greensboro, preached an excellent sermon at the schoolhouse Sunday, Sept. 13.

Mr. Kirby, from High Point, will preach at the schoolhouse September 27th at 3 o'clock.

The sociable given by Miss Violet Welch Saturday night was greatly enjoyed by Misses Vallie and Viola Gordon, Eva Payne, Gertrude Bolling, Ava and Laura Lamb, Grace Horney, Allie and Leona Guyer, Eva Allred, Bertha Culler, Fay Kirkman, Ollie and Irah Henderson, and Messrs. Elmer Spencer, Ruffin Kimrey, Walter and Eugene Rule, Willie Guyer, Martin Smith and Clarence Pearce.

Mrs. Mary Ragan and little daughter Mary recently visited relatives in Virginia.

Mrs. J. W. Sechrest and daughter, Miss Ruth, from High Point, recently visited the former's sister, Mrs. S. N. Guyer.

A temperance society was organized at this place July 26th. Mr. N. E. Kirkman was chosen president, Miss Allie Guyer secretary and treasurer, and Miss Violet Welch assistant. Forty-seven members were enrolled.

Mr. Martin Smith and sister, Miss Cora, spent the day with Mr. Willie and Miss Allie Guyer recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Cicero Weaver, from Wallburg, spent Saturday and Sunday here with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Guyer.

Mr. Willie Guyer and sisters, Misses Allie and Leona, spent Sunday with Mr. Martin Smith and sister.

Little Miss Maggie Jester, from Hickory chapel, is staying with her brother, Mr. N. P. Jester.

Mr. J. C. Elliott and family visited at Mr. J. M. Gordon's last Sunday.

Mr. Walter Clodfelter and wife are visiting at Mr. J. M. Gordon's, Jr.

The temperance society met at the schoolhouse at 3 o'clock Sunday.

WHITSETT ITEMS.

A very enjoyable geographical party was held Saturday night. The attendance was large, about two hundred being present, and all had a delightful time.

Mr. Lucian Ferdinand, of New York, spent Friday here and entered his son in school. He returned to New York Saturday.

Last week was a fine one for our school, numbers of students entering—from Vance, Wake, Guilford and Cabarrus counties, and two from Cuba.

Mr. L. W. Flythe, of Richmond, is here on a visit of a few days.

Mrs. I. R. Miller, of Goldsboro, spent last week here on a visit to her nephew, who is a student.

Mr. J. B. Whitsett is confined to his room suffering from an accident to one of his eyes. A few days ago a pebble struck him in the eye and he has suffered quite severely.

Rev. A. S. Raper will preach here at 11 A. M. Sunday. He hopes to resume work upon the M. E. church soon.

The students took a stroll a few days ago which was enjoyed greatly. Miss Minnie and Agnes Clapp have just returned from a two weeks' visit to Washington city. While away they visited many points of interest and are greatly pleased with their trip.

Mr. Junius Clapp, of the Southern Railway, spent Saturday at home.

Mr. Ernest Clapp, of Greensboro, was a pleasant visitor Tuesday.

SEDALIA ITEMS.

Farmers are about through saving fodder and curing tobacco.

Mr. E. P. Huffines went to Greensboro Friday on business.

Quite a number of people from near here attended the picnic Saturday at Peace church.

Miss Ethel McLean visited Mrs. E. P. Huffines Thursday night.

Capt. Wyrick has moved his camp between here and Whissett.

Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Williams and little daughter, of Greensboro, visited the latter's parents near here Sunday.

Mr. R. P. Ballinger, of Guilford College, spent last Tuesday at Capt. Melver's camp.

Miss Cora L. Reese and sister Florence visited their cousins, Misses Annie and Minnie Reese, Tuesday last. Children's day exercises will be held at Bethel church Sunday, Sept. 27. All are cordially invited.

Many friends will be surprised to hear of the quiet wedding of Mr. C. E. Greeson and Miss Bessie C. Reese. They wished to keep it a secret, and in so doing they give us a great surprise. They drove to the home of Rev. J. C. Shive and were quietly married the 29th of August. The groom is a prosperous young farmer near Brick Church, and the bride is one of eastern Guilford's charming young ladies. We wish them much success and happiness.

RAMSEUR ITEMS.

Mrs. Bettie Martin, aged 78 years and 5 months, died at her home in Ramseur September 14. She was a most excellent christian lady and was loved and esteemed by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Mrs. Sallie Thomas left Saturday to spend some time in Durham.

Sam. Brady was taken to Greensboro last Saturday by Dr. Tate for an operation for appendicitis. Dr. Long performed the operation and at last report he was progressing nicely. Sam is one of our best young men and his many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. W. H. Watkins, Jr., and little son are visiting relatives at Troy.

A tent meeting conducted by the Holiness church has been in progress the past week on Franklinville street. Miss Annie Black left Friday for High Point, where she has accepted a position in the graded school.

Planters Warehouse

For High Prices for Tobacco

We have leased this house for five years and expect to succeed by your help in building a market for tobacco second to none in the state.

Why should Greensboro not succeed?

Our buyers want tobacco in large quantities. We want it now. Drive to see us or write for tierces. Don't let any designing party deceive you; come and see for yourself.

A White Child Abandoned.

Wilmington, Sept. 21.—The Salvation Army at Wilmington through James Yates and several friends who have interested themselves, is investigating a sensational report of the abandonment of a 2-year-old white child to the care of a negro yesterday a week ago in Norfolk, the circumstances being such as to indicate that the father is a resident of this city and is employed at a leading front street establishment, the proprietors of which are also making a careful inquiry into the matter.

EFFECTIVE BIRD PROTECTION.

The Audubon Society of America has inaugurated a vigorous campaign having in view the more effective protection of the birds of America, and this time the appeal is being made along the line of practical rather than sentimental considerations. The argument now being put forth is that bird destruction means a loss in dollars and cents to the gardeners, fruit growers and farmers of the country. This will win. Present an argument that hits folks in their pocketbooks and they are bound to sit up and take notice. The plan of campaign of the society contemplates the dividing of the country into seven districts and the placing of an expert ornithologist in charge of each. It would seem as if with the prosecution of its work along general lines the society could make a definite advance by using its influence to secure the passage of federal laws prohibiting absolutely the destruction of useful birds migrating at different seasons of the year from one state to another. A communication sent by the writer to the congressman of his district and referred by him to C. H. Merriam, chief of the bureau of biological survey, seemed to develop the fact that the reason action had not been taken along the line suggested—that of federal bird protection—was due to inability to arouse interest in the subject on the part of members of congress, coupled with inadequate appropriations which would be available for carrying such laws into effect. Just so long as the matter of bird protection is left to the several states results secured will be incomplete and unsatisfactory. A law passed by congress for the protection of interstate birds would cover all states. State laws are good so far as they go, but they should be re-enforced by federal enactments.

A REFORM NEEDED.

The protest presented to President Roosevelt a short time since by the officers of the American Humane society looking to preventing the terrible suffering of grazing animals on the western plains, which die in large numbers annually from exposure and from hunger and thirst, seems to find abundant provocation in conditions which have prevailed for years. The committee cites the fact that, according to government reports, 1,345,000 cattle and 1,250,000 sheep died from exposure in the year ending March 31 last. The pitiful manner in which they died is told in the following statement by E. K. Whitehead, secretary of the bureau of child and animal protection: "Imagine a single animal in December, already gaunt from hunger, cold and thirst—for of the three thirst is the most terrible—imagine this wretched creature wandering about on an illimitable plain, covered with snow, with nothing to eat except here and there, buried under the snow, a sparse tuft of scanty mosslike grass, eating now for days and weeks because there is nothing to drink, by day wandering in the snow, by night lying down in it, swept by pitiless winds and icy storms, always shivering with cold, always gnawed with hunger, always parched with thirst, always searching for something to eat where there is nothing, always staring with dumb, hopeless eyes, blinded, swollen and festering from the sun's glare on the wastes of snow. Imagine that and imagine yourself enduring one hour of it. Multiply that period by the slow moving days and nights from December to April, if life lasts that long. Multiply that by 40,000,000, and you have the statistics of brute suffering in this one way for one year and every year in this unspeakable trade."

A CASE OF CROOKED STICK.

An Idaho farmer is being accorded a great deal of newspaper and magazine notoriety and advertising these days through the exploiting of a test which he has made with a variety of Alaska wheat which he claims has yielded for him at the rate of 222 bushels per acre. In view of the fact that the average yield of wheat for the country is but twelve bushels per acre, the claim of this Idaho granger is quite naturally being received with bean shake and skepticism. The grower claims that one head of this Alaska wheat, which is frost proof and hardy, produced seven pounds, that these seven pounds produced 1,545 pounds and that this quantity produced in turn 33,900 pounds of prime hard wheat of No. 1 grade. There are a lot of folks who would like to think the above claim possible and reliable, yet who will more authentic evidence is forthcoming will be compelled to class it as the "lying" Davis yarn about the stick that was so crooked it couldn't lie still. A feature in regard to the matter that would seem to put it in the crooked stick class is the fact that the grower of this marvelous cereal is now selling it at the rate of $20 a bushel.

The real standing of a man in a community is often as accurately indicated by his rating in the county credit book as by the presence of his name on a church membership roll.

In the course of two years enough will be saved by covering the haystack with a canvas cover to pay for the improvement. In addition to this, it may be used as a cover for machinery temporarily, to pile apples on and as a thrashing floor for beans.

No farmer can be said to be living up to his opportunities if he resides within a reasonable distance and fails to attend his own state fair. It is an education all by itself, and the inspiration to be got from it ought to pay the expenses of his trip several times over.

Time was, when witches rode broomsticks in New England and possibly later, when tomatoes were considered as poisonous and were grown only because they were pretty to look at. In the succeeding interval they have come to occupy a leading place as one of America's staple fruits.

A nice illustration of the way folks will adjust themselves to their necessities and environment is shown in the philosophical way in which folks in the corn belt put up with sweltering hot weather for the sake of this staple crop. They frequently ejaculate about the fierceness of the heat, but always wind up by remarking how fine it is for the corn.

A family living in a western city who had been securing their milk from the town milkman went away not long since for several days. This gentleman left his milk regularly every morning. When they came home they found that the milk brought on the first day of their absence had not soured. They tried to sour it and could not. An inspection by the city chemist revealed enough formalin in the milk to keep it indefinitely. An investigation of this man's methods is now under way, and relief is in sight.

A report made during July by Professor Woodworth, head of the entomological department of the University of California, was to the effect that the cantaloupe louse, which had lately made its appearance in California, was doing extensive damage to the lima bean crop in the vicinity of Carpinteria, the pest being quite extensively distributed over the fields. Inasmuch as the lima bean crop of California is valued in the millions, the appearance of this new pest can only be viewed with alarm.

While a leader of other nations in many commendable lines, the United States surpasses them also in some that are not pleasant to contemplate. A recent report issued by a member of the imperial railroad administration of Germany states that out of every thousand railway employees injured each year in the three countries the United States stands first with 43.5, England second with 11.8 and Germany with but 2.8. Out of 10,000 employees there are killed annually in this country 26.1, in England 12.3 and in Germany less than 4.

Those afflicted with tuberculosis should derive both comfort and real benefit from the fact that after years of patient and thorough research into the causes of and cures for the "white plague" no single thing is today considered of so great value in checking the ravages of the disease as abundance of sunshine and pure, fresh air, tones that are free and ought to be available for all. In view of these findings those afflicted should spend every possible moment of their waking hours in the open, in light work or recreation, as circumstances may require, while the sleeping room at night should have windows wide open winter and summer. Of importance, but less so, are a nutritious ration and plenty of sleep.

The thoughtful parent will be as concerned touching what his boys and girls do with their spare time as he is with the progress which they make in the prosecution of their school work. Often a purposeless and idly spent vacation will undo much of the work which the student and teacher, working jointly, have been able to accomplish during the preceding school year. Because of this fact the boy or girl is better off who has with a reasonable amount of leisure and recreation enough definite work to keep his faculties and his energies occupied during the vacation season. It is well if this is largely physical, thus giving a needed change from the necessarily confining work of the school room. Passed in such way, the school work will be resumed in the fall with a zest and interest that will give it a maximum value.

A railroad president who owns a 200 acre farm at Barrington, a suburb of Chicago, has hit upon the unique plan of devoting it to the raising of mud turtles, mushrooms, goldfish and guinea pigs, which may very properly be styled diversified farming. Besides the naturally boggy spots on the farm, lagoons will be dug which will be fed with a system of irrigating ditches. The guinea pig yards are expected to cover several acres and be the most extensive in the country, while the mushrooms will be allowed to grow where they will in damp places over the farm. The justification for the mud turtle aspect of the enterprise will be understood when it is known that 10,000 turtles are consumed annually in the eating houses and restaurants of the city of Chicago alone. While, of course, some of these are bona fide terrapin, the majority are mud turtles, soft shells and snappers.

The strength of a fence like that of a chain is determined by its weakest point.

The estimate in which one is held by the members of his own family and the dumb animals of which he has the care constitutes a truer rating of a man's worth and character than the lines of poetry that may be carved on his tombstone.

A heavy windstorm will often reveal weaknesses in the corn plant that are not manifest in fair weather. Perhaps the injury is done by the corn root louse, the corn root worm or the stalk borer, which works higher up, but if any of these pests have been getting in their work it will come to light at such times.

One Iowa county has paid out the sum of $5,274.50 within a little less than two years in the shape of pocket gopher bounties. Eight cents goes to the trapper, while the officer taking the affidavit receives 2 cents. The returns indicate that in this county 19,836 gophers were trapped in 1907, while this year 32,609 lost their claws.

Professor Ferbush, state ornithologist of Massachusetts, has recently come out in an edict favoring the extermination of cats within the state. He asserts that the crops of the state suffer irreparable loss because of the destruction by cats of bird life, while the felines are a prolific source for the transmission of diphtheria, smallpox, tuberculosis and other diseases.

As soon as the tops of the potato vines are ripe and dry it is just as well to dig the potatoes at once and put them into a dry, cool place as to leave them in the ground through the September rains, with the likelihood that some of them will rot. It is a good thing from the standpoint of the potatoes and likewise enables one to clean the weeds from the field before they shed all their seed.

A report issued by the bureau of statistics of the department of agriculture under date of July 31 last gives the average condition of cotton on July 25 as 82 per cent of a normal as compared with 75 per cent on July 25, 1907, and 81.4 per cent, the average for ten years. The report shows that this year Texas will produce 30 per cent of the country's cotton, Georgia 15 per cent, Alabama 11 per cent and Mississippi 10 per cent.

Automobile owners in two central Iowa towns have formed clubs and voluntarily taxed themselves $10 each, which is put into a road fund. Immediately after every rain a man is hired at 40 cents an hour to go over the country roads with a King road drag, which puts them in tiptop shape in a short time. It is said that farm lands lying adjacent to the treated roads have risen materially in value and that as a result of this farmers in nearby localities are anxious to have the same treatment extended to the roads in their neighborhood. The plan is a practical one and is worthy of extension.

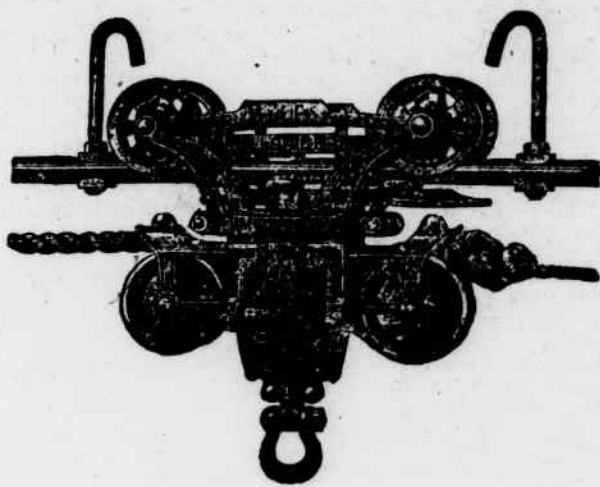

A brighter day is dawning for the Irish peasant as a result of the movement which has lately been made by the government which enables the poorer classes to borrow money on long time at a low rate of interest for the purchase of small tracts of the landlord estates. A recent bond issue by the government for $25,000,000 on a 3 per cent basis was oversubscribed forty times. Various schemes for bettering the lot of the Irish peasant have been suggested by English and Irish statesmen, but none of them has been proved practicable or effective, ignoring the fact that the highest degree of thrift and enterprise can only be awakened in a man when he owns the land on which he labors to earn his daily bread.

The rather stringent way in which the pure food officials of several states are enforcing the pure food laws relative to the sale of stale and addled eggs would seem to call for some changes in the care of poultry on the farm which will result in the hens doing more of their busy work in the henhouse and less in the haymow mangers and straw stacks on the place. Perhaps little can be done to bring about a reformation, but a fixing up of the henhouse where needed and the arranging of plenty of clean and attractive nests will go far toward causing the hens to lay in their own quarters. If the poultry house is fixed up as well as may be in the particular mentioned, there will still be need of looking in inviting places over the farm for eggs, but a smaller number will be found there.

The president of a western gasoline traction engine manufacturing company who is considered an authority in his line over the country has recently suggested the feasibility of using gasoline traction motors of high power as a substitute for the expensive electric motors and equipment at present in use on interurban trolley systems. In many sections of the country where a trolley system would be welcomed by folks along the right of way in town and country the territory adjacent is so sparsely settled as to make impractical as well as unprofitable the construction of an electric interurban line. The suggestion made would seem to offer a definite way out of the difficulty and will be seriously considered by promoters of interurban lines in many sections.

TO WIPE OUT CONSUMPTION.

German Scientist Thinks It Can be Done in 30 Years.

London, Sept. 18.—Nathan Straus' efforts to teach the world the practical method of preventing tuberculosis by pasteurization of milk, were cited today by eminent scientific men at one of the most important meetings of the present season.

In Dublin, before the British Association for the Advancement of Science, Sir Robert E. Mathieson described the campaign against tuberculosis conducted by the Women's National Health Association, which Lady Aberdeen had founded. He said that there was no doubt that Ireland had achieved the unenviable distinction of having the highest death rate from consumption of any part of the United Kingdom, largely through the infection derived from milk and meat.

Sir Robert, in describing the methods pursued by Lady Aberdeen's organization, both in the treatment and prevention of tuberculosis, told of the city by Mr. Straus, the American philanthropist, of an equipment for pasteurizing milk, assuring thereby for Dublin supplies of milk free from the germs of tuberculosis.

In Liverpool, at the annual conference of the Sanitary Inspectors' Association, Sir James Crichton-Browne, the president, predicted that tuberculosis will be altogether abolished in another thirty years. As grounds for this optimistic assertion he cited the recognition of the fact that the disease does come from diseased cows into the human system through the use of raw milk.

This knowledge, he said, was based upon experiments which had clearly shown that cows' milk containing tubercle bacilli was the cause of tuberculosis in man. Cumulative evidence left no doubt about the matter.

The methods by which the stamping out of tuberculosis could be effected, Sir James pointed out, were the summary slaughter of tuberculous cows and the pasteurization of milk.

He congratulated the lord mayor, Mr. Canon, and the medical officer of health, Dr. Hope, on the acceptance of the plan of a pasteurization laboratory from Nathan Straus, and pointed out how far reaching would be the result of cutting off the main source of human infection by supplying milk that did not contain the germs of the disease.

This would result, he said, in the diminution of epidemics and in a lowered rate of mortality as well as in getting tuberculosis.

Passing Examinations Successfully.

Dr. Donahue, New Britain, Conn., writes: "I tried several kidney remedies and was treated by our best physicians for diabetes, but did not improve until I took Foley's Kidney Remedy. After the second bottle I showed improvement, and five bottles cured me completely. I have since passed a rigid examination for life insurance." Foley's Kidney Remedy cures backache and all forms of kidney and bladder troubles. All druggists.

TO STOP SALE OF WHISKEY.

Resolutions Adopted by National Association of Retail Druggists.

Atlantic City, Sept. 17.—Sale of rum by druggists was condemned before 2,000 delegates to the annual convention of the National Association of Retail Druggists, at their meeting here today. Members of the law committee presented recommendations in which they advised pharmacists of the country to halt the sale of liquors in any form, and followed with another recommendation that druggists back up the movement for laws against the sale of narcotics or habit-forming poisons, except under strictest regulations.

"The drug store cannot perform the functions of both saloon and pharmacy without detriment to the latter," said the report, which was adopted, "without offending the sensibilities of a large number of the best patrons of the drug store. Furthermore, the drug store loses caste, so to speak, when it becomes the dispensary of whiskey."

"We believe the time has come when the association should put itself on record as being opposed to the sale of intoxicating beverages by druggists. We do not believe, in the first place, that it is the proper function of the druggist to act as a bartender in slaking the thirst for whiskey of that part of the public that drinks it."

"In view of the constant and increasing crusade against the sale of whiskey generally, we believe that we should declare against its sale by druggists. We, therefore, recommend that whiskey or other alcoholic beverage-selling by druggists cease. We believe that by this means the propriety of guarding against the abuses of whiskey-selling privileges in force in many states, as well as of having to bear the stigma of some saloonists doing business under the guise of druggists."

Declaring that the growing use of narcotics threatened the very existence of the country, the druggists went on record in favor of the most stringent anti-narcotic legislation. "We recommend that the most stringent laws be urged for passage in various states looking to prevention of the sale of narcotics, except in such ways as are safeguarded by law, and that any and all steps be taken that will minimize the dangers that result from the use of narcotics in any form."

Shoots Estranged Wife.

Oil City, Sept. 16.—Lamont McEhatten, a painter who had been separated from his wife for several months, forced his way into her apartment early today and shot her in the breast. He then turned the weapon on himself and fired a bullet into his brain, and physicians say both will die.

Foley's Urino Laxative is a new remedy, an improvement on the laxatives of former years, as it does not gripe or nauseate and is pleasant to take. It is guaranteed. All druggists.

CHOLERA CONDITION IS BAD.

Disease Spreading and Causing Great Alarm in Russia.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 20.—St. Petersburg is in the grasp of Asiatic cholera, which already has exceeded in severity and number the visitation of 1893. The disease is increasing daily at an alarming rate, and unless the authorities show in the future a much greater degree of ability to cope with the situation than they have in the past, there is every reason to fear that it will get out of hand.

The government has threatened to apply the provisions of martial law, and this threat has driven the municipality authorities to bend all their energies to the campaign of clearing the city of the scourge. The aldermanic council today voted a preliminary sum amounting to $250,000 to enlarge the hospital space, to purchase and distribute disinfectants, the supply of which in St. Petersburg is well-nigh exhausted, and to expedite the internment of bodies, which has been notoriously slow. The dead houses are overcrowded and many corpses lie unburied.

Liquor Selling Restricted.

Under his authority as perfect of St. Petersburg, General Dracheffsky, on Saturday, prohibited the sale of liquor throughout the city, including the government vodka shops, until September 22nd, and he has further ordered that after that date the sale of liquor shall be suspended at 2 P. M. on Saturday until 10 o'clock A. M. Monday. This action has been taken in order to diminish alcoholic excesses, which very materially increases the liability to cholera infection and the general spread of the disease.

The Plague Spreading in Manila.

Manila, Sept. 21.—Fifty-eight new cases of cholera and nineteen deaths are reported for the twenty-four hours ended at 8 o'clock Monday morning. The infected areas in the city and suburbs are spreading somewhat, but the health officers are still confident that they will be able speedily to gain control of the situation.

Governor General Smith has summoned a special meeting of the members of the Philippine Commission to discuss the plague situation and to lay plans for an extension of the campaign now waging against the disease.

Joint Debate Between Bryan and Taft.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—A joint debate, or a series of joint discussions, between William H. Taft and William J. Bryan as a fitting climax to the campaigns marking the fiftieth anniversary of the great oratorical struggle between Lincoln and Douglas was proposed today.

It met with enthusiastic approval wherever it was discussed in political circles. The proposition grew out of the attempt of Mayor George Shumsky, of Galesburg, Ill., to get both Mr. Bryan and Mr. Taft to take part in the ceremonies at the unveiling of a Lincoln-Douglas tablet in that city October 7.

HELD FOR MURDER OF WIFE.

W. H. Tilley, of Durham County, Committed to Jail.

Durham, Sept. 17.—There was a brutal murder last night in the country three miles from Durham or an accident that has placed the husband of the dead woman in bad shape. W. H. Tilley is the man under arrest and Mrs. W. H. Tilley is dead and her body was buried this afternoon. There is great doubt in the case, but the general supposition is that it is a brutal murder and that the man Tilley deliberately killed his wife and then claims that it was an accident. The coroner's jury, that was empaneled last night and ended this afternoon by finding the facts that the woman was killed by a rifle shot fired by the husband and recommending that he be held without bail until discharged by due process of law. He was committed without bail by Coroner Maddy.

The shooting occurred last night between eight and nine o'clock, but it was after eleven o'clock when the news was conveyed to the coroner and he went immediately to the country. The jury was secured and the investigation started. The jury did not adjourn until this morning at four o'clock, and there was a second sitting at ten o'clock, and a third from two to three this afternoon.

There had been considerable trouble between the husband and wife, and he had threatened to kill her on more than one occasion, and he had whipped her on several occasions. He had said that he could not live with her and that she had to leave his property. This was all shown as the motive. It is no doubt that they were of very bad terms and if the killing was accidental, as claimed by the husband, then it came at a time that was unfortunate for him. The sentiment and evidence is directly against him.

Praying for Rain in Pennsylvania.

Churches throughout Pennsylvania were crowded Sunday with congregations offering fervent prayers for rain. Preachers of nearly all denominations dwelt in their sermons upon the serious visitation of the prolonged drought and exhorted their hearers to pray, not only in the churches, but to offer daily supplication in family and in private for relief from heaven.

The anthracite region probably suffers more than any other directly from the drought, in many of the towns the water service being severely restricted. Streams throughout the state are lower than in many years, and in numerous instances have left dry beds in which there is much decaying vegetation.

STATE NEWS.

There are 325 pupils in the state school for the blind in Raleigh.

Fire at Spring Hope Friday morning destroyed seven store buildings. The loss was total.

It is said by revenue officials that considerably more fruit brandy than usual is being made in the state.

Dr. John Francis Shaffner, Sr., a well known physician and leading citizen of Winston-Salem, died suddenly Friday, aged 70 years.

Maj. D. H. Hamilton, clerk of the Superior court of Orange county, died at his home in Hillsboro Friday of paralysis. He was 71 years old.

James H. Osborne, a well known business man of Asheville, committed suicide Thursday night by shooting himself. No cause has been assigned for the rash act.

Robert Miller, a former citizen of Reldsville, died in Bluefield, W. Va., Friday night. He is survived by his father, R. M. Miller, of Reldsville, and several brothers and sisters.

It is said that Governor Glenn received an offer from one of the great lecture bureaus for $100 for each of 100 lectures. This is one of the matters he has under advisement.

Near Parkton last week Luther McRaney, the five-year-old son of J. D. McRaney, a prominent farmer, was killed by falling into his father's cotton gin. The little boy, who had been playing in the gin house, was ground to pieces by the machinery.

A fire occurred at Spray between 2 and 3 o'clock Friday morning. The platform and shed at the Lily mills' cotton house was burned down, twenty-odd bales of cotton were badly damaged and also a considerable quantity of starch and salt lost. The loss is estimated at between $800 and $1,000, covered by insurance.

High Point dispatch: A committee composed of Messrs. W. H. Ragan, Dr. J. R. Reitzel, F. N. Tate and O. N. Richardson has been appointed from the school board to see that no child remains away from school on account of not having money to buy books, clothing, etc., necessary to attend school. The Junior Order of this city also has a fund to provide relief in such cases.

The dead body of Jack Roberson, the night watchman for the Carrington Lumber Company, of Durham, was found lying near the company's plant at an early hour Saturday morning. Wesley Bates, a negro with whom the dead man had had trouble, has been arrested charged with the murder of Roberson. The deceased was 58 years old and is survived by a widow and three children.

The murdered body of F. K. Winstead, aged 21 years, of Wilson, a flagman on the Atlantic Coast Line Railway, was found between the rails on a track of that road near Eure, Gates county, Saturday. His throat was cut from ear to ear and his severed arm and thumb were found lying close by. Winstead is believed to have been murdered by tramps whom he attempted to chase from the train.

Wilmington Chronicle: We learn that Charlie Nichols, of Miller's Creek, died Sunday. He was injured about two months ago in a fight while working the road. As stated at the time, Nichols and Hege Faw got into a fight and Walter Minton, a kinsman of Nichols, started to assist Nichols, but with the shovel missed Faw and struck Nichols on the head, making a serious wound, which probably caused his death.

The first week's enrollment at the High Point city schools showed 999, there being 641 at the South Main street school and 358 at the Elm street school. Last year by the end of the first month the enrollment was only 971. By the corresponding time this year the enrollment should be 1,050, or an increase of 79. This increase is especially gratifying in view of the recent panic and shows that High Point is still growing.

The state agricultural department's bulletin on the leaf tobacco sales in warehouses during the twelve-month ended July 31 has been made public. The total was 117,695,750 pounds. Winston-Salem led, with 16,971,182. The other towns in order are: Wilson, 15,507,558; Greenville, 11,398,882; Kinston, 9,877,055; Rocky Mount, 6,988,177; Oxford, 5,475,924; Durham, 5,323,922; Reldsville, 4,521,116; Henderson, 3,767,603; Roxboro, 3,482,370.

CANNON BLAMES ROOSEVELT.

Says He Stood Pat on the Tariff at Request of President.

Independence, Kan., Sept. 18.—Put into a new Ananias Club by William J. Bryan, Speaker Joseph G. Cannon made a bid for entrance into the original club today, when in a speech here he blamed one of his political sins on President Roosevelt. He had stood pat and prevented tariff revision in the house, he said, by request of President Roosevelt. The speech opened the Republican campaign two years ago.

The speaker said he and Congressman Campbell, of Kansas, had a conference with the president, and President Roosevelt insisted that then was no time to bring on a tariff fight in Congress; that it should be staved off till conditions were more favorable. He (Cannon) helped to stave it off, and yet he is the only one to get the blame, he continued.

"The foreigners don't pay any of our taxes. They don't help us to keep up our schools and public institutions. Then why should we let them come in and share our profits of trade? I say give the people at home and paid the taxes the inside track on our trade. The Democratic platform wants to tear down the tariff wall. The Republicans propose to cut it down, where it is now too high, but in doing so we will fully protect our labor." Speaker Cannon made a defense of the house rules, declaring that the rules of the present house have been substantially the rules of all parties for more than a generation.

It is not fair to sit at home and tell the old woman those buggies and surries are no account that Townsend & Co. are advertising so cheap. Come and see and be convinced. Their guarantee goes with each one.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

A. H. Sloumb, of Cumberland county, is the Republican candidate for Congress in the Sixth district.

After a bitter fight, Henry B. Quincy has been named as the Republican candidate for governor of New Hampshire.

Zeb Vance Walser, a Lexington lawyer, has been nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the Seventh district.

It is announced that President Roosevelt will not alter his determination to make no speeches during the campaign.

Congressman Webb, of the Ninth district, and J. A. Smith, his Republican opponent, have arranged for a joint canvass of the district.

Hon. W. W. Kitchin addressed a large crowd in Asheville Friday and was introduced by Mr. Locke Craig, his opponent for the gubernatorial nomination.

The registration books for the November election will be opened in every voting precinct in North Carolina October 1st and remain open until October 24th.

It is denied that Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, who has been in Europe for his health during the summer, will retire to private life upon his return home. He is greatly improved and is said to be in fine spirits.

Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler has been named as the Democratic candidate for governor of New York. He is at present lieutenant governor of the state, having been elected when Charles E. Hughes was chosen as the Republican governor.

Governor Glenn has appointed Major W. A. Graham, of Lincoln county, commissioner of agriculture to succeed S. L. Patterson, deceased. Major Graham is the Democratic nominee for the office and the appointment was of course expected.

Senator Joseph B. Foraker, of Ohio, the long-time political enemy of Judge Taft, the Republican candidate for president, declined to attend a political rally of national Republican clubs held in Cincinnati yesterday and speak from the platform with Judge Taft. He based his declination on the question of propriety.

Oscar S. Strauss, secretary of the Department of Commerce and Labor, is to go on the stump for Judge Taft within a short time, and by so doing will afford the unusual spectacle of two brothers leading opposing parties in the fight for the largest office at the disposal of the people. His brother, Nathan Strauss, of New York, was recently placed at the head of the Bryan business men's organization in New York.

It appears that the management of the Republican national campaign is no longer going to be a one man affair. The executive committee of the national committee and the Republican advisory committee are going to have a voice in the running of the campaign and National Chairman Hitchcock is going to hearken to it. It is said that President Roosevelt has got after Hitchcock and the latter is ready and willing now to accept suggestions from older if not wiser heads in the national organization. It means that some of the old-timers, who up to the present have been interested onlookers at the game, will take off their coats and give Mr. Hitchcock the benefit of some real training in actual politics.

GENERAL NEWS.

A mass meeting of cotton farmers in Spartanburg, S. C., passed resolutions against "night-riding."

Havana is now free of yellow fever and the authorities are convinced that the disease has been stamped out.

Chicago school census gives the city a population of 1,924,060. Four years ago the estimated figures were 1,714,144.

The city of Paris is without a telephone service, the exchange having been destroyed by a fire that caused a loss of $5,000,000.

Second Assistant Postmaster General J. T. McCleary, of Minnesota, has resigned, to accept a nomination for Congress.

James C. Dunham was identified in jail at Sherman, Tex., as the man wanted at San Jose, Cal., for the murder of six persons, 12 years ago.

While her four-year-old child watched him, John Cook, an aged farmer of Philo, Ill., shot and killed Mrs. Edna McClelland, his housekeeper, then tried suicide, but failed.

Freddie Sepulveda, seven years old, is to be arrested on a charge of murdering a playmate, Peter Bernal, at San Jose, Cal., though a coroner's jury pronounced the shooting accidental.

A temperance parade in Chicago will include nearly every Protestant minister in the city, the Salvation Army and the Volunteers of America, hosts of church members and a small army of children.

Immigration statistics for August show a great decrease in the number of immigrants coming to this country compared with the same month of 1907. The total immigration during August was 27,783, while during August, 1907, the immigrants numbered 98,825.

Reports are being received of disastrous forest fires in the vicinity of Thomas, Davis, William and other points in West Virginia along the line of the Western Maryland Railroad. Water is very scarce, complicating the situation. No water has passed over the Dry Fork dam for some time and conditions are serious in that locality. The smoke is so dense at Thomas that objects a few feet distant are indistinguishable.

Best the World Affords.

"It gives me unbounded pleasure to recommend Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says J. W. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. "I am convinced it's the best salve the world affords. It cured a felon on my thumb, and it never fails to heal every sore, burn or wound to which it is applied. 25c at all druggists."

AN UNUSUAL MAN.

This is about a man who tried to do right and was true to his convictions. Incidentally he made and lost millions.

A few days ago Ferdinand Schumacher of Canton, O., passed away. He was the pioneer in the breakfast food industry in the United States. Fifty-two years ago Mr. Schumacher came to Akron from Germany. He began to prepare oats for the table by boiling, cutting and cooking them. In the twenty years he had four big mills working night and day to supply the demand for his cereals.

Other companies imitated Schumacher and the industry grew until it was absorbed by the trust.

Mr. Schumacher did not understand the ins and outs of "high finance" and in 1896, after making an assignment, he left the American Cereal Company. Though at one time a millionaire, he died with nothing. His friends say he was manipulated out of his money.

Anyway, the man himself, and not his millions, is the important consideration. Schumacher was one of the original prohibitionists of the country, and what is more, he practiced what he believed.

An instance: When his immense cereal mills at Akron burned in 1886, large quantities of grain in his elevators became wet and sprouted. The breweries wanted to purchase the damaged grain for distilling purposes. Mr. Schumacher refused to sell the grain, preferring to lose rather than have the stuff made into intoxicants.

Possibly, but it proves the stamp of the man. What he believed he believed with all his might, and he stood ready to suffer for the cause he had espoused.

Another instance: Mr. Schumacher was the promoter of a town company at Marseilles, Ill., in which he invested nearly $1,000,000. He attempted to make the place a model town and a total abstinence community. The venture failed.

Nevertheless the man did his best. He showed his good intentions. He carried his philanthropic desire to the very end.

Here is the point in this man's career.

He made no pretenses. He put his money where his mouth was. And he stood for square to all the winds that blow. Now may not agree with his beliefs. You may call him a crank. But you must respect him as you must respect every man who makes good in a tight-fisted world.

Men like Ferdinand Schumacher are scarce, but we could wish.

LENTS FOUR OF THEM.

Don't get out of your bed in the morning and go immediately to the window and "breathe deeply twenty times" or ten times. Don't stand at all in front of the window just after you arise.

Why? Because while you have been sleeping your blood has withdrawn itself from the skin surfaces and your nerve forces have concentrated themselves at inside centers. If you expose yourself under these conditions, unless you are very strong and robust, you are likely to catch your "death of cold."

Don't take a cold bath the first thing in the morning after you arise.

Why?

For like reasons—your blood is not in the surface. It has not been needed there. The bedclothes have kept the skin warm. And a cold plunge at this time, unless you are quite strong, will do you more harm than good. If you take a cold bath immediately after brisk physical exercise, which brings the blood to the outside, or if you take a cold bath following a hot bath, which produces the same effect, you may get some benefit.

Don't "drink a glass of cold water as soon as you get out of bed." If you drink anything before breakfast, take a little sip or two of hot water.

Why?

Because the stomach is not ready to do business before breakfast. The blood is withdrawn. If you douche it with cold water at such a time, you chill that organ and derange its functions. Also, if you pour a lot of hot water into it, you wash out the gastric juices and impede digestion.

Don't take violent exercise before breakfast nor immediately following breakfast.

Why?

Because your vital forces before breakfast are low and need recuperation from within. After breakfast the processes of digestion should not be interrupted until the stomach gets a chance to begin operations.

Why?

These don't contravene popular beliefs in some respects and the advice of "health magazines" in others. That may be true, but popular opinions may be wrong, and health magazines are no infallible.

We have gathered these truths from a hygienist who has given these matters a lifetime study. In his field he is a good authority.

Resides—The reasons for these views are given, and they correspond with reason and common sense, the best authority of all.

RELIGIOUS THOUGHT.

Gems Gleaned From the Teachings of All Denominations.

Without faith man cannot be what he ought to be in this world, much less the one that is to come.—Rev. F. W. Hinit, Presbyterian, Danville, Ky.

Honesty in Worship.

It is better to worship in a barn among social outcasts than an inferior minister if the ideals of that service represent your honest convictions.—Rev. Harry E. Gilchrist, Unitarian, New Orleans.

Our Crosses.

If we put our little crosses at the foot of his great cross he will lift them up until they become transfigured into crowns of glory forevermore.—Rev. Edwin Whittier Caswell, Methodist Episcopal, Brooklyn.

Effect of Goodness.

Good deeds, good thoughts, good hearts, here would be good deeds, good thoughts, good hearts, in any niche of the unbounded handwork of the divine.—Rev. Dr. S. Edward Young, Presbyterian, Pittsburg.

Ever New and Fresh.

Religion is being renewed in the hearts of the faithful day by day. Religion, with all its power to comfort and inspire, is new every morning and fresh every evening.—Rev. Ulysses G. B. Pierce, Unitarian, Washington.

Success and Happiness.

Success and happiness, which all desire, come to us by ordinary rather than extraordinary means. Whatever is great is an aggregate of little things, and he who neglects or despises the little will never attain to the great.—Rev. Dr. St. Clair Hester, Episcopalian, Brooklyn.

Victory Out of Weakness.

Consciousness of weakness means preparation, discipline, progress and development, and these mean victory. Necessity is called the mother of invention; therefore if the young man of wealth feels no necessity he will fall of the greatest achievement.—Rev. Edwin Whittier Caswell, Methodist Episcopal, Brooklyn.

Greatness.

Seek the true hidings of greatness as they are found in God. No other greatness can take the place of that which comes from God, and as men are great with God will their greatness be lasting. God never forgets those who are truly great, and for all such he has a place on his throne in glory above.—Rev. Dr. L. M. Zimmerman, Lutheran, Baltimore.

An Encouraging Thought.

What encouragement in the endeavors of everyday life if we would rest assured that bitter disappointments, the malignity of man, the unfaithfulness of friends, the bitter animosity of our enemies, tribulation, disease and even death are but the dark chambers that lead to light.—Rev. P. F. O'Hare, Roman Catholic, Brooklyn.

Knowledge of Loved Ones After Death. The best evidence of future recognition is that the disciples knew Christ after his resurrection. In the words of the text, "They knew him." So, while there is no absolute promise of future recognition, the testimony of the Bible and logic give assurances that we shall know our loved ones after death.—Rev. E. Herz Severn, Baptist, Washington.

A Beacon to the World.

The preacher, who is a representative of the church, is a watchman on the wall, and his duty is to cry aloud and warn the people when he sees danger of any kind approaching. This is the attitude which the church ought to take. The church is the beacon where burns the light of God. She is the mouthpiece through which God speaks his message to this world. Therefore the church ought to be interested in every question affecting the moral life of the people. She ought to be interested in everything which concerns humanity.—Rev. J. Benjamin Lawrence, Baptist, New Orleans.

Glorious Harvest For True Men.

Let us grow earnest about best things, and worst things will either pass or yield as the sand for pearls. The world waits for reality. Its whole soul is truth. The true man will reap a glorious harvest on earth's bare field. The world does not want as its helpers those who only beat the cup of life until the foam rises to its surface and gleams with fictitious light, but, rather, those who by keener and juster analysis show what strength and hope are in the cup itself—that it is an elixir of grace to live, a benediction to keep on living and a triumph to have lived.—Rev. Dr. Charles Hastings Dodd, Baptist, Baltimore.

Gospel For the Age.

The "gospel for the age" must be a gospel of instruction. People need to be taught the true way of life. I have more faith in the God of intelligence as he is manifested in the intelligence of the human race than anything else. I believe that in the end the right will prevail because it is the sensible thing. Things which appeal to the human reason as right and just will prevail in the end. The greatest institution on earth today is the schoolroom of the home, and so on through all the institutions of learning, the public school and the rest. Give us a people true to their intellects and the country is safe. Off with the blinders. Up with the windows. Teach people to think and they will win in the end. Anything that will teach mankind how to rise to a higher plane of life, to recognize the responsibilities of life, that will make better fathers and mothers and better, happier homes, will meet the needs of the age best. The preacher of the age must know something. He must keep abreast of the world's thought, he must be conversant with the latest scientific achievements. The day of the old fog is almost over.—Rev. C. C. Pierce, Baptist, Los Angeles, Cal.

WHEN CARPETBAGGERS RULED.

A Confederate Veteran Accounts What the Republican Party Did in the First Election After the War.

Dr. J. B. Alexander in the Charlotte Observer.

I remember that the first election after the civil war which was held in North Carolina was in 1867. I supposed in my simplicity that I could vote. I was over 21, had never held any civil office, had never been convicted of any crime against the state, consequently I applied for a ballot to vote, when the chairman of the election committee (composed of two white men and one negro) read the oath—which was nearly half a yard long—to me, which I had no difficulty in swallowing. I then got near the middle, when he came to these words: "You further swear that at no time were you ever engaged in war against the United States." At this point I said: "Hold up, Squire. I did the best I could to achieve the independence of the Confederate states." Here I was told to stand aside. Every white man who was permitted to vote then had to acknowledge himself a traitor to the state. Yet some were base enough to sell out their manhood for gain, or to get in the good graces of the Republican party! We had 27 negroes elected to the legislature of North Carolina, and every other Southern state was equally oppressed. How a Southern gentleman could square this sort of government with what his parents were used to is something I cannot understand.

This election was continued for three consecutive days, the committee carrying the ballot boxes home with them at night and bringing them back next morning. This manoeuvre was gone through with Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and thus they had three nights in which to count the ballots and fix them to their notion; and then they sent the ballots to Charleston, S. C., to be recounted by General Canby, who was in command of the two provinces of North and South Carolina. Then General Canby, after fingering in the ballots as long as he wanted, would announce who was elected by the voters of North Carolina! Strange that some few of our men of prominence forgot their parentage, forgot their country, forgot the part they acted in the Confederacy and took sides with those who conspired against all that was dear to us! These are some of the things that I do not understand.

The legislature assembled soon afterwards, composed of very few native North Carolinians who were respected by the honest men at their homes; quite a large number of Yankee camp-followers and scalawags, with 27 negroes, the most of whom could not read, write or tell who their fathers were. The principal thing they were taught to do was to vote the radical ticket. In this law-making body they were not expected to consume much time in speech-making; they were only expected to vote, and for this they were paid $7 a day; and to prove they were not stingy of their valuable time, they gave cheerfully 300 days out of the year. They were a daisy set!

You will feel like asking where the money was to come from to defray this expensive legislature. That is easily answered. Whenever a considerable sum of money was called for, a railroad would be chartered, bonds by the million would be issued to build the road, and then sold for what they would bring. This carnival of crime was kept up until a debt was incurred of $10,000,000. Such scenes of debauchery, drunkenness and shame were committed that I have no doubt it would have been enough to make the inhabitants of Sodom ashamed of themselves.

The great majority of the legislators at that period were the very offspring of the United States. A large sprinkling of that body was Northern people, who were hunting something to pick up. I heard one fellow (and, by the way, he claimed to be a preacher), who was so recently from the North that when he commenced his speech he used the following words: "Gentlemen and fellow citizens, I appear before you to ask your suffrages for a seat in the legislature of New York." This occurred at Hicks' store, on the Beattie's ford road, fifteen miles from Charlotte. A very outspoken man in the neighborhood said to this foreign speaker, "You appear to carry more hell in your face than any stranger that has come along yet." He did not resent the remark, as the native had the looks of a very determined character. The audience was principally composed of negro men and negro women, with white men enough to preserve order.

The low order of Northern people and the scalawags of the Southern people had a most wicked and vicious influence upon the negro who had just had freedom thrust upon him. All kinds of devilment were put into his head; he was instructed to murder, steal, burn and commit rape. During the four years of war not one of these crimes was committed in any of the Southern states. When our men were all in the army the negroes behaved most remarkably well. But when freed and instructed in mischief they were apt scholars in all sorts of crime. A lady told me the writer that she stood in her door and counted at one time seven gin houses in flames in York county. The C. C. negroes—not all of them—were wild with the idea of freedom. But in their wildest flights of freedom they had not forgotten to be polite to "old massa and mistress," whenever they should meet them. They had unlimited confidence in their former owners and would often apply to them for advice on all subjects except politics. In this they were ruled with a rod of iron by the leaders of the Republican party. I remember in 1870 or 1872 when Dr. Tom Moore was the Democratic candidate for the state senate and Mr. J. R. Gillespie was the Republican candidate, at the election in Lemley's township, at 12 o'clock there was a lull in the voting, when Mr. Gillespie jumped upon the table and called to the freedmen, who were huddled up in a crowd of two or three hundred to themselves, "You niggers, come on and vote," while he took a seat by the boxes and handed a ticket to each one, saying, "Put that in," till he had voted the entire crowd. How a self-respecting white man could look at such a reality and then go home and tell the wife of his bosom that he had voted with the negro against the interest of his own wife and children! The younger people, those not exceeding 40 years of age, will hardly believe such things were possible in the last years of the nineteenth century. If any person thinks I have strained the facts in the case, I refer you to any old Confederate soldier, or other person who was acquainted with the times.

THE APPLE BITTER ROT.

Description of the Disease and Forms of Treatment.

This disease occurs in very destructive form throughout the Piedmont and eastern sections of the state, though it is possibly less destructive further west. In a recent trip through the middle section of the state, the writer saw dozens of orchards ruined by this rot which, but for the presence of it, would have yielded largely. In many of the orchards visited, the trees were in fine condition, showing suitability of soil and climate, and they bore an abundance of fruit, but closer examination showed that the ground under the trees was completely covered with rotten apples and that the apples still on the trees had numerous specks of soft, brown rot. In many villages and towns all apples offered for sale in stores were affected with rot.

The facts as stated above show the very destructive prevalence of this disease in this state.

This rot has been known in destructive form in the United States since 1867. It is estimated to have done $1,500,000 of damage in four counties in Illinois in 1900. In the middle states the losses are estimated to be from one-half to three-fourths of the entire crop. The president of the National Apple Shippers Association estimated the damage in the United States in 1900 at $10,000,000.

There are many different types of apple rot, some are hard, some soft, some wet, some dry, some of one color and some another, etc. The bitter rot of the apple, sometimes called the ripe rot, is a soft, wet, yellow rot, occurring usually as circular spots on the fruit. These spots, of which there may be from one to twenty or more on each apple, enlarge rapidly, run together, and the whole fruit becomes a soft, rotten mass. The disease usually begins while the fruit is still hanging on the tree, and as the disease progresses, many of the apples fall to the ground below.

This rot is caused by fungus, known as Gloeosporium, the spores of which fall upon the apple, grow, penetrate it, and cause the decay. The spores are produced in immense quantities in small pustules, which appear upon the rotted surface. In many instances, the fungus passes the winter in cankered spots on the twigs and bark.

Treatment—There are two forms of treatment, both of which should be followed.

First, inasmuch as the fungus is known to winter in the canker on the branches, it is important when the leaves are off the trees to carefully inspect the orchard, hunt out these cankers, cut them out and burn them, and thus remove the most dangerous source of spring infection.

Second, the trees should be sprayed with Bordeaux Mixture in order to kill all spores which fall upon the fruit or twigs. Sprays should be applied before the buds begin to swell in the spring, just after the blossoms fall, and every ten or fourteen days thereafter until the fruit is almost ripe.

These two treatments combined will, to a very large extent, serve to control this very serious disease. F. L. STEVENS, Biologist, North Carolina Agricultural Experiment Station.

A great comfort to a woman about her children is all the comfort they are going to be to her some day.

Of Interest To Women.

To such women as are not seriously out of health, but who have exacting duties to perform either in the way of household cares or in social duties and functions which seriously tax their strength, as well as to nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a most valuable supporting tonic and invigorating nerve. By its timely use, much serious sickness and suffering may be avoided. The operating table and the surgeon's knife, would it be believed, seldom have to be employed if this most valuable woman's remedy were resorted to in good time. The "Favorite Prescription" has proven a great boon to expectant mothers by preparing the system for the coming of baby, thereby rendering childbirth safe, easy, and almost painless.

Bear in mind, please that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse, because of the uncertainty as to their composition and harmless character, but is a MEDICINE OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure, triple-refined, glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol, in its make-up. In this connection it may not be out of place to state that the "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is the only medicine put up for the cure of women's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, and sold through druggists, all the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended.

A little book of these endorsements will be sent to any address, post-paid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card, or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE MEETS

Will Conduct Congressional Campaign From This City.

A meeting of the Republican executive committee of the fifth congressional district was held in Greensboro Saturday afternoon to consider plans for waging a vigorous campaign. Chairman John T. Benbow presided over the meeting, which was attended by all the members of the committee save the representative of Granville county, who was represented by proxy.

Mr. John M. Morehead, the nominee for congress, appeared before the committee and outlined his views as to the methods to be pursued in conducting the campaign, stating specifically that he would not make any public speeches.

The committee authorized Mr. Morehead to name a special campaign committee to open headquarters and have direct supervision of the campaign, whereupon Mr. Morehead named ex-Judge W. P. Bynum, Jr., Mr. G. S. Bradshaw and Mr. John J. Parker, of this city, the latter to be secretary of the committee and in active charge of headquarters. Headquarters have been opened, in two rooms on the third floor of the McAdoo building, adjoining state headquarters.

Taylor-Howerton Marriage.

The marriage of Miss Mary Taylor and Mr. J. L. Howerton took place this morning at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, on Blandwood avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. G. Kirkman in the presence of members of the family and a few friends of the young couple. Shortly after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Howerton left on a bridal trip to the eastern part of the state.

Mrs. Howerton is a gifted and attractive young woman, popular with a large circle of friends. The groom is a well known young druggist, having moved to Greensboro from Durham.

Commissioners' Association to Meet.

A special meeting of the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners will be held in Greensboro Thursday, October 15th, in connection with the good roads congress that will be in progress at that time. It is expected that commissioners will be present from a majority of the counties in the state, especially those counties interested in the subject of good roads. During the meeting representatives of several road machinery houses will be here to give practical demonstrations.

We have been selling Men's Shoes made by the Commonwealth Shoe & Leather Company for eight years and they have been improving during all that time. The simple fact that we have carried the same line for all these years is good evidence that the shoes and prices are right in every respect. Every shoe bearing the Commonwealth trade mark is fully guaranteed, and if once in a thousand pairs or so a pair goes wrong we make it right with the customer, if we have to give him a new pair to do it, and the Commonwealth Company makes it right with us every time without a single kick. The finest grade in this line, the Bostonian Commonwealth, sells at $3.50 and $4.00, and the $3.00 Commonwealth shoes are beyond comparison the very best three dollar shoes now before the American people.

THE PLOWING SEASON IS HERE

AND HERE IS THE PLOW

Notice the low sloping front.

Notice the square fit of mold board into the point.

The same bolt fastens the point, land-side and mold board. It turns all kinds of soft red push dirt, and is the lightest draft plow made.
