RELEASES AMERICAN

BETWEEN TWO AND THREE MILLION DOLLARS WORTH HAD BEEN HELD UP.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Release of between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 worth of American tobacco held at Copenhagen and Rotterdam because of failure to comply with the conditions of importation laid down by Great Britain has been ordered as a result of representations by the state department. The department announced tonight that it had been advised of the action by the British embassy, the statement adding that "officers of the department express much satisfaction over the concession given in this case."

Because of inadequate warehouse facilities, the dampness and chilliness of the atmosphere, the special brands of tobacco designed solely for use in those countries would have been almost a complete loss unless relief had been given quickly. The announcement follows:

"The British embassy has made the following statement in regard to American tobacco bought by dealers for shipment to Scandinavia and The Netherlands and affected by the restrictions put into effect on July 15, 1916:

"Shipment of tobacco made under bona fide contracts entered into before July 15, need not be consigned to The Netherlands overseas trust or covered by guarantee in the case of shipments to Scandinavia, provided that the consignments under a direct steamship bill of lading, before August 31."

"The British authorities regard as most important, that provision that the goods must have been shipped on an through bill of lading for land and sea carriage or under direct ocean bill, before August 31, and they must insist upon its fulfillment."

"It was at first announced as a concession to American tobacco interests that tobacco bought and paid for prior to August 4, and shipped prior to August 31, would be allowed to go forward free of the restrictions referred to above. It was found at once that this concession was inadequate to relieve the hardships brought upon the tobacco interests by the sudden imposition of the restrictions named, and the department of state took up the question by the British government and has since made every effort possible to secure more favorable rule."

"While the points at issue were under discussion a large number of shipments went forward and were detained upon arrival at the various ports at which they respectively arrived. It is estimated that from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000 worth of tobacco now at Copenhagen and Rotterdam will become subject to release under this new concession and that somewhat lesser amount put on hold before August 31, but detained at the board for one reason or another will also be permitted to go forward free of all restrictions."

"Officers of the department expressed much satisfaction over the concession given in the case."

Proves Mail Men Honest.
Washington, Oct. 24.—Five thousand dollars in bonds, good as cash and readily negotiable, poorly concealed in a much torn envelope which revealed their value to scores of employees, traveled safely in the ordinary letter mail from Rusk, Tex., to the postoffice department, where they were delivered today to the postoffice savings director.

Officials thought it a fine testimonial to the honesty of postal employees. The bonds came as security for postal deposits from a national bank which was requested to register such negotiable mail in the future.

600,000 Profit in Wheat Alleged.
Chicago, Oct. 25.—Charges that the milling interests have made a profit of $600,000,000 by using rejected wheat and wheat below milling grades while charging consumers for the best grades of flour based on the best grades of wheat made here by Miss Florence King, of the Woman's Association of Commerce, in a commercial suit filed with United States District Attorney Clyne.

Miss King will seek to have federal inspection of grain provided in recent act of Congress apply to this year's wheat crop.

IN READINESS FOR COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Reports coming to the county Sunday school headquarters from day to day indicate that the workers in the various townships throughout the county and in the local schools will be able to make complete reports at the county convention which meets at Asheboro Street Friends church Saturday.

As it now stands, it remains only for Morehead, Gilmer and High Point townships to finish their work in order to reach the goal set for the association this year. These townships can easily finish their work by Saturday with diligent work on the part of the township workers and a hearty response on the part of the superintendents of the various schools.

Many automobiles from the county schools will enter the parade to be given at 3 o'clock in the afternoon of the convention in the interest of a bigger spirit of co-operation and fellowship. Some of the rural schools will enter as many as six cars, and if the Greensboro and High Point schools match the country schools, as doubtless they will, the parade will be the best demonstration of an educational nature ever exhibited in the county.

It is planned that at least one car from a school shall bear the name of the school and some of the outstanding facts regarding its work, while other cars, trucks and vehicles of various kinds, representing the same school, might display special facts regarding organized class work, teacher training and work of the various departments.

The Boy Scouts of the city will aid materially in arranging many details and will enter the parade in uniform. Mounted horsemen will also assist the direction of the parade and the Greensboro church band of 16 pieces will furnish the music.

Beginning at Asheboro Street Friends church, the line of parade is as follows: East and West Lee streets, turning at Sterling Furniture Company into Spring Garden; on Spring Garden east to South Mendenhall; north to West Market; south on Ashe; east on Washington to South Elm; thence northward to Fisher park, east to Church street, disbanding at the First Presbyterian church.

BIG DEMOCRATIC RALLY AT MONTICELLO SATURDAY.

Big things are in store for the people of northern and eastern Guilford at the all-day Democratic picnic and rally at Monticello Saturday. The Oak Ridge Institute brass band has been secured to furnish music for the occasion. In addition to ex-Governor Kitchin, who will speak in the morning, Congressman Robert N. Page is expected to be present and speak in the afternoon. Others who will speak are Senator A. M. Scales, Messrs. C. G. Wright, Carter Dalton and W. A. Bowman, candidates for the legislature, and the county candidates.

Monday night Senator F. M. Simmons and Hon. E. L. Travis will speak in the city hall in Greensboro, and Chairman Hines asks all precinct committeemen to serve on the reception committee. Many people of the county will come to Greensboro to hear the two men. It will be the big event of the campaign in Greensboro.

Chairman Hines says that about 35 meetings will be held in the county during the next ten days. Many of these appointments are published in this issue of The Patriot.

The county and legislative candidates will be Guilford College tonight, at Tabernacle tomorrow night and Jamestown Saturday night.

See the speakings announced elsewhere in this issue.

The registration books close Saturday.

Counsel Tries to Stop Execution Friday.

Raleigh, Oct. 24.—Former Judge J. D. Murphy, of Statesville, is in Raleigh making special investigation as to the next step to be taken in the matter of saving from the electric chair the two Mitchell county prisoners, Wiggins and Miller, who must die Friday of this week unless there is some sort of intervention.

It is thought since all other efforts have failed he may institute a habeas corpus proceeding in the federal court.

BRINGS SUIT FOR $5,000

DURHAM COCA COLA MAN DEFENDANT IN DAMAGE ACTION AS RESULT MOUSE CASE.

Durham, Oct. 25.—Summons was issued this afternoon by G. G. Dickson, a local newspaper reporter, through his attorney R. O. Everett, against W. K. Rand, manager of the Durham Coca-Cola Bottling Works, for recovery of $5,000 in a civil action. The alleged illness and personal humiliation suffered incident to imbibing of a bottle of Coca-Cola which served as a watery grave for a healthy mouse inspired the suit for damages. The court records, of the United States reveal another case which exactly duplicates the suit filed by the Durham newspaperman. "Liability for Foreign Substance in Beverage" is the legal clause under which the court recognizes this bitter human experience.

A Mississippian trailed the untrodden path in 1914 and drank heavily of a bottle of Coca-Cola tinged with decayed mouse. Chapman, of Jackson, Miss., brought action against the Jackson Coca-Cola Bottling Works. An excerpt from the case reads: "A bottling company which bottled a beverage for retail trade to be sold to the general public and represented it to be refreshing and harmless, was liable to a consumer for sickness caused by the presence of a foreign substance in one of its bottles." The defendant in question sipped of several generous swallows which made him sick when he discovered a small decomposed mouse in the bottle.

The complaint against Mr. Rand will be filed subject to a return at the November term of court. The North Carolina laws offer similar suits in instances where the bottles of Coca-Cola were improperly capped and the caps became unjoined and injured the eyes of parties. Mr. Dickson claims that he has suffered mental anguish in addition to an illness which has impaired his efficiency as a workman. No other case of exact duplication has ever been started in North Carolina, according to information available.

PERSISTENT REPORTS OF FALL OF CHIHUAHUA CITY.

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 25.—Persistent reports of the fall of Chihuahua City to the Villa forces, which have been current here, have not been confirmed in advices to southern department headquarters of the United States army. Major General Funston, questioned regarding the reports, said tonight that so far as he knew they were not true.

Trevino Denies It.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 25.—General Gonzales, at Juarez, tonight announced the receipt of a message from General Trevino at Chihuahua City stating that all was quiet there and authorizing him to deny "in vigorous terms" the report that the city had fallen before an attack by Villa.

More Reinforcements.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Mexican Consul Garcia at El Paso, Texas, telegraphed the Mexican embassy here tonight that he had been advised by General Trevino, of the arrival at Chihuahua of troop trains bringing about 8,000 men under General Maycotte to reinforce the garrison.

URGES NEGROES TO STAY IN THE SOUTH.

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 24.—Major R. R. Moton, principal of Tuskegee Institute, in an address here yesterday, declared that the negro should remain in the South and study his own shortcomings, with a desire and aim to overcome them. He said the race needed to get rid of the lazy, shiftless negro if it hoped to cope with the white man, and added that the race had much to be thankful for in the South. Major Moton urged the negroes to stay in the South, saying:

"In New York I understand from a letter just received from a physician, the negroes are finding it very difficult even now to find places to stay; they are huddled together in quarters like pigs, and many of them cannot find any place, and there is bound to be suffering this winter. They will take colds and develop pneumonia and consumption as well as other diseases, and either will die there or be brought home in a dying condition."

CARRANZA WILL QUIT MEXICO

CHARGES BEING FREELY MADE BY HIS POLITICAL OPPONENTS AT THE CAPITAL.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Charges that Gen. Carranza is preparing to leave Mexico are being freely made by his political opponents in Mexico City. They are based upon his decision to leave his capital for Queretaro, and the fact that Mrs. Carranza already has crossed the border into the United States, accompanied by the wife of her husband's war minister and chief supporter, Gen. Obregon. Information to this effect is reaching officials here from various reliable sources. So far nothing tangible tending to support the story has come through official channels. It is known, however, that many officials here believe Gen. Carranza has committed a political blunder at least if he is not in fact preparing for flight, by permitting his family to leave Mexico just at this time. The trip, they say, was certain to be construed by his enemies as a confession of weakness.

The purpose of the visit of Mrs. Carranza and Mrs. Obregon, as explained at the Mexican embassy, is for a tour of the United States. Word of the arrival at the border, also, of Mrs. Jacinto Trevino, wife of the military commander of Chihuahua state, had not been received tonight. It was pointed out, however, that Trevino has been among Carranza's staunchest supporters and that if the first chief believed his hold on the political situation was weakening Trevino very probably would be warned in order that he might also place his family in safety.

The state department had not received tonight word that Generals Carranza and Obregon had left Mexico City for Queretaro. Previous advices, however, said that the first chief would go to that place in connection with the meeting of the constitutional convention for which delegates were elected last week.

Persistent reports that Carranza was about to leave Mexico have been in circulation along the border for some time and war department officials have privately expressed their conviction that the de facto government, or at least Gen. Carranza's personal control of the political situation, was growing steadily weaker. They have thought that the time might come soon when he would be forced to leave Mexico.

FELIX DIAZ COMPLETES MEXICO STATE CONQUEST.

Douglas, Ariz., Oct. 25.—Felix Diaz completed the conquest of the state of Mexico four days ago, when he entered Toluca, the capital, according to a message received here today by a Mexican identified with the Diaz government. Diaz was said to be but a short distance from Mexico City with a force of several thousand men, well armed and amply provisioned.

A letter from General Barron, a partisan of Diaz, received here today, said he was in complete control of the state of Colima, having 3,000 men under his command. He said that he had sufficient arms and ammunition for 60,000 men.

Advices from the same source said that General Aguilar, at the head of several thousand men, holds the towns of Sayula and Ameca in Jalisco, as well as the surrounding territory for a considerable distance. The Carranza forces were concentrated chiefly around Guadalupe, it is said.

The state of Oaxaca with the exception of the capital city of Oaxaca, has been overrun by the Diaz adherents, the letter claimed. While not under actual siege, the Carranza forces were said to be surrounded in such a manner that they cannot leave Oaxaca without precipitating a general engagement.

The forces of Zapata, several thousand strong, were in the suburbs of Mexico City less than two miles from the most densely populated quarters, the letter asserted.

Cotton Brings 19 Cents.

Gastonia, Oct. 24.—D. M. Jones & Co. bought cotton today here at 19 cents. Sales in Gastonia amounted to about 20 bales. The buyer of this cotton firm said he expected to see cotton sell for 19 1-2 cents tomorrow in view of the violent advance of 25 points late this afternoon in the New York market.

RAILROAD OFFICIALS HERE FOR ANOTHER CONFERENCE.

Mr. L. E. Jeffries, chief counsel of the Southern Railway, was in Greensboro Tuesday and held another conference with the city commissioners concerning the building of the proposed new passenger station and the elimination of several dangerous grade crossings in the city. At a previous conference it was suggested that the tracks might be raised through the city and underpasses constructed at the principal street crossings, but it appears that the cost—estimated at $1,600,000—makes this plan impracticable.

Mr. Jeffries exhibited plans at Tuesday's conference for an underpass at the South Davie street crossing and a new station on Depot street, between South Elm and Davie streets. Should these or similar plans be adopted, the station would be built partly underground, an entrance being provided from the Davie street underpass. An entrance would also be provided from the street level on the Elm street end.

It is estimated that the underpass would cost about $140,000, irrespective of any damage to adjacent property. Mr. Jeffries stated that he would like to have the city make a tentative proposition to bear a share of the expense and was informed that the city might make an appropriation of $25,000 and assume any responsibility for damage to property that might be occasioned by lowering the street. The cost of the new station has not been determined, but it will probably be in the neighborhood of $150,000.

Mr. Jeffries is to take the matter up with the president of the Southern, and it is not improbable that some definite agreement will be reached in the near future.

REPORTED DEFEAT BY VILLA IS CONFIRMED.

El Paso, Texas, Oct. 25.—Government agents here claim to have received additional confirmation of Villa's reported defeat of Gen. Carlos Ozuna's column at Palomas, west of Chihuahua City, last Friday. The confirmation is said to have come from refugees reaching the border from Chihuahua City, who claim that Villa captured General Ozuna's 11 troop wagons carrying ammunition and supplies.

The refugees claim to have talked with survivors of Ozuna's column who said Villa led the Carranza troops into a trap at Palomas then attacked them at the front, flank and rear and cut the railroad line behind the trains. The same source claims 250 Carranza soldiers were killed and an equal number taken prisoner. The refugees claim to have seen Villa's campfire six miles west of Chihuahua City Sunday night.

It is stated that Villa had received a large amount of arms and ammunition stolen from the government arsenals by agents serving the Carranza army.

Just Like a Diving Bell.

Millsboro, Del., Oct. 24.—Upset under a speedy motorboat, Walter Campbell lived for more than three hours, until help came, on the air that was held underneath the hull of the overturned boat. Campbell went down the Indian river in his fast craft yesterday and, in going around the Old Landing "reach," the boat hit a stump and upset, turning bottom upward.

Campbell could not swim, but he managed to keep under the hull. For more than three hours he held on, breathing the air that had been captured by the overturned hull until another launch party, coming down the river, noticed the capsizing craft and, overturning it, found Campbell nearly unconscious but still alive.

Mill Operators to Share Wage Advance.

Greenville, S. C., Oct. 25.—Several hundred operatives at Brandon Cotton Mill, Greenville, are affected by an advance of wages announced by the mill management today.

This advance with one granted some time ago make an increase of approximately 10 per cent. The increase was voluntary.

Ex-Congressman Thomas Settle, of Asheville, arrived in the city Tuesday from a campaign trip to Stokes county and went to Hillsboro yesterday to make a speech to the Republicans of Orange county.

FRENCH TURN ON GERMANS

SWITCH OFFENSIVE FROM SOMME REGION TO ADVANCE OF TEUTONIC ALLIES.

London, Oct. 25.—Military experts here point out that the French coup at Verdun has regained virtually all the ground lost in the second battle of Verdun. This was accomplished with lightning suddenness in a single day, whereas the Germans occupied nearly two months in wresting this ground from the French.

London, Oct. 24.—Switching their offensive from the Somme region in France—possibly as a counter to the advance of the teutonic allies in the Dobrudja region of Rumania—the French have smashed the German line north and northeast of Verdun over a front of four and one-third miles, penetrating it along its entire length, in the center gaining a distance of nearly two miles.

Preceded by a violent bombardment, such as marked the great attacks and counter attacks during the days when Verdun was the focal point in world interest, the offensive was delivered approximately from the eastern bank of the Meuse river near Bras, eastward to the Dambloup battery.

When night fell, the village and Fort of Douaumont, in the center, were in the hands of the French, while on their left wing the Frenchmen had pushed beyond Thiaumont and captured the Haudremont quarry and taken up positions along the Bras and Dambloup front. On their right wing considerable progress also has been made from Douaumont to Dambloup. More than 3,600 prisoners and quantities of war material were captured by the French.

In the Dobrudja region of Rumania, the Germans, Bulgarians and Turks are giving no rest to the Russians and Rumanians who continue in retreat along the entire front from the Black Sea to the Danube river, although at some points they are vigorously opposing the advance of the invaders.

Rachova on the river a short distance below Tchernavoda and Madjidie, on the railway midway between Tchernavoda and Constanza have fallen into the hands of the teutonic allies. In the latter region cavalry is pursuing the retreating Russo-Rumanian forces well to the north of the railway line. More than 6,700 prisoners have been taken by Field Marshal von Mackensen.

Constantinople reports the operations of Turkish submarines in the Black Sea off the Rumanian coast in the sinking of a 3,000-ton Rumanian transport and sailing supply ships bound for Constanza with provisions.

Predeal to the southward of Kronstadt on the Transylvania front has been captured by the Austro-Germans according to Berlin and resistance of the Rumanians in the Rothenthurm pass south of Hermannstadt has been broken. Bucharest announces that in an attack along the entire Oltuz region the Rumanians captured several hundred prisoners and ten guns.

From the Baltic Sea to the Carpathian mountains a period of comparative calm has again set in.

On the Austro-Italian front the Austrians and Italians at various points, especially on the Asiago plateau, in the Sugana valley in the Piave sector of the middle Isonzo, and on the Carso front are vigorously bombarding opposing positions.

The Serbs in the Cerna region of the Macedonian front have put down a German-Bulgarian attack and themselves delivered a thrust which was rewarded by the capture of several trenches. In the Doiran sector the British also captured a teutonic allied trench. The floods are interfering with the operations on the Struma front.

Four British and four Norwegian steamers have been sunk by submarines or mines. The tonnage of the British steamers sunk aggregate 12,291.

House Built by George Washington Burned.

Alexandria, Va., Oct. 24.—The three-story colonial residence on the Hayfield farm, in Fairfax county, which was built in 1772 by George Washington for one of his managers, and sold by him to his cousin, Samuel Washington, in 1784, was destroyed by fire today. It was owned by James M. Duncan. The loss is $30,000.

CHAMPION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

WHY A LARGE SHOE MANUFACTURER WILL SUPPORT WILSON.

A Binghamton, N. Y., special under date of the 21st says:

"I can easily understand how men who have always had the best things in life, the easy way, the soft places, the privileges and the favors that inherited money and special laws can give, would vote for Hughes. He is their natural candidate and their logical choice.

"But how the working people, who have always had the worst of it, could bring themselves to vote for Hughes is beyond my comprehension. He should not have the vote of a single workingman in the entire country. Woodrow Wilson should get the ballot of every worker in the land!"

The man who told me this very earnestly and very seriously in Binghamton was no politician, nor was he an agitator. He happened to be George F. Johnson, partner in Endicott, Johnson & Co., the biggest manufacturers of shoes in the world. They employ 12,000 people. Two little cities, Endicott and Johnson City, just outside of Binghamton, have been named after the partners. And here their army of contended working people live.

Johnson started as a workman in one of the factories he now owns. He got to the top by application and genius for large affairs. But money hasn't spoiled him.

Ask the policeman at the depot and he begins to enumerate the many private, hidden philanthropies of the man. The cop was inclined to believe this city, always Republican, might go for Wilson because of Johnson's support of the president. Johnson is independent in politics.

"One of my impelling motives in coming out for the president," said Johnson, "was that he was the only president I have studied who has grasped the idea that a human being is more to be considered than a dollar or a machine.

"I hold fast to the idea that human rights are greater than property rights. In Woodrow Wilson human rights have had the kind of ardent champion that I have never before seen in high places.

"Wilson has fostered and pushed laws that give the average man a chance to rise in the world. That is true Democracy with a small 'd.' Only by helping the average man, instead of the wealthy classes, do we make for a greater republic. Wilson's attitude toward public questions, and especially to social service measures, seems to me to be a very hopeful sign, not only for this country, but for the world.

"I like the way he has handled our foreign policies. I have said it very reverently that Wilson must have been raised to God to carry this country through a great crisis. He seemed destined to serve the people at a time when their best interests needed just that kind of service.

"I look at our factories, all busy, and at the hundreds and thousands of young men all at work, strong and well and supporting wives, mothers and sisters. That is Wilson peace and prosperity.

"And then I think what might be—factories closed, machines rusting, young men killed and maimed and blinded, widows and orphans here in this busy city, and all over the land. And I thank God for the way in which Wilson handled both the German and Mexican situation.

"And, finally, I like the way he handled the railroad strike situation. He faced the matter intelligently and did well. He could not have averted that industrial crisis in any other way.

"My partner, H. B. Endicott, and myself, not only endorse what Wilson said about the eight-hour day, but have tried to prove our faith by our works. We have just announced that beginning November 1 all our employees will share Wilson prosperity by having the eight-hour day with ten hours' pay. This will in no way affect the wages of piece workers, who will receive a scale that will enable them to continue at the prices they now receive."

As a footnote to the above it may be mentioned that a committee of 130, representing the employees, printed a full page card in the Binghamton papers testifying publicly to the many kindnesses the firm had extended to them, stating this was the reason there had never been a ripple of labor disturbance in "the big family," and thanking Endicott and Johnson for the voluntarily granted eight-hour day and increased pay. The "ad" is almost unique in the history of industrial concerns.

Hoax—"Your friend, the shoe salesman, is fond of blowing his own horn." Joax—"Yes, but he sticks to the shoe horn."

Register Before Saturday Night.

STEADY DRIFT TOWARD PRESIDENT WILSON.

Ohio seems to have changed front in the New York Herald straw ballot and now gives the president a comfortable lead. In all the industrial centers the trend is strongly pro-Wilson and the Republicans are greatly worried. Illinois, too, is now recognized as in the doubtful column, with the chances favoring the president, because of the large woman vote, which is recognized as leaning toward the president. With upward of 350,000 likely to be cast, it could easily offset the Republican male majority and turn the electoral vote to Wilson; we expect to see this happen. Michigan continues to show a Wilson trend; Detroit has increased its lead for the president and in other industrial cities a like situation is noticeable. In Wisconsin the defection of the La Follette Republicans to Wilson is unabated, with his following trading votes on the presidency for their senatorial candidate. Minnesota is by no means assured for Hughes; in fact, the straw vote shows still further gains for the president. Iowa, Kansas, North and South Dakota promise to give Hughes a majority; Montana and Colorado are doubtful, Nebraska is favoring the Republican candidate, but by only a small lead. Missouri is revealing unexpected Hughes strength. Oregon continues to favor the Republican nominee, but Washington is looking toward Wilson. California will, unquestionably, endorse Hughes by a big majority. Arizona is pro-Wilson; New Mexico pro-Hughes, but Maryland and West Virginia hold true to the president. Little Delaware is inclined to Hughes save in the factory districts, where the Wilson vote is strong. New Jersey still shows a preference for Hughes. In New York it is an even race and the result by states is likely to be so close that the empire state's forty-five votes may decide the election. Both sides are putting forth herculean efforts to gain the decision. In the city a big majority for Wilson may overcome the upstate vote for Hughes but the attitude of Tammany is not altogether encouraging. In all directions it is evident that Hughes is hardly so strong as his party, while of Mr. Wilson the reverse is true. The drift of sentiment is gradually setting in toward the president, although indications are that a close vote is likely. In a total straw vote of 146,664, Hughes has 72,965 and Wilson 69,178, but California's plurality of 6,123 excluded would give Wilson a lead of 2,396. The longer the people ponder the relative virtue of the two candidates, the one tried, the other only of partially appraised value, the more certain it appears that the preferences of the majority will be for Wilson. That is an unbiased viewpoint at this writing with election only fifteen days away.—Richmond Journal.

LEADS FORD TO STEP IN WOMEN'S BEHALF.

Long Branch, N. J., Oct. 25.—Henry Ford, the automobile manufacturer, announced after a conference with President Wilson today that as the result of an "inspiring talk" he had with the president two weeks ago, he had established the women workers in his plants upon the same pay basis as the men.

Mr. Ford authorized the following statement: "I had the pleasure to inform President Wilson this afternoon that I had established the women workers of my plant at Detroit and in the branch factories in other cities upon a pay equality with the men workers. I took this step following my conference with the president more than two weeks ago and I did so because of the inspiring talk I had with Mr. Wilson on the forward movement among womankind. This principle is now in operation and I look forward with complete confidence to its vindication."

Mr. Ford came here late today to show the president advertisements supporting the Wilson administration which he plans to have published prior to the election. When he stepped off the train and was asked why he came to Shadow Lawn, he replied: "To get on the Wilson bandwagon."

Judge Places Value of Baby's Eyes at $25,000.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 24.—The value of a baby's eyes was fixed at $25,000 here today by Judge Murasky, in Superior court, who gave judgment for that amount to the parents of Mary Rubio, one year old, against Mrs. Amalia Razzuoli, a graduate mid-wife. It was alleged that the mid-wife failed to care for the baby's eyes properly at birth and now the eyes are sightless.

"A pair of baby's eyes are priceless," said the judge. "No amount of money that this or any court could give, no matter how large the amount would compensate for the loss of the baby's sight."

A MILL MAN'S REPLY TO APPEAL FOR MONEY.

Mr. C. M. Powell, of the Cabarrus Manufacturing Company, received one of the requests by Republican campaign committee of New York for a contribution to the campaign fund, says the Charlotte Observer. His reply was discouraging to Bliss, but interesting to the public. It follows:

Mr. Cornelius N. Bliss, treas. Uptown Dry Goods Association, No. 511 Fifth avenue, N. Y.

Dear Sir: Replying to your letter, or letter from one of your committee, asking funds for the election of Hughes to the office of president of the United States, will say that you are barking up the wrong tree, as I do not think that Hughes would make a good president of the United States.

In my judgment a man that would flounder around, hunting for something to knock Wilson with, and caring nothing for the country, of which we all ought to be proud of, is not fit to be our president, and I assure you that I will never forget myself long enough to make the great blunder of sending funds to elect a man of his make up, against one like Wilson, the greatest president that this country has ever had. God grant that we may keep him.

Under the Republican administration, we have always suffered, and why should we change now, when we have never known times to be better, and another good reason, why I support Wilson, I will never forget what I know and what all ought to know of the reconstruction days.

Nay, good brother, if you can elect your man, we will all be good sports and back him up after he is elected, but we will fight like — to defeat him.

Very truly yours,

VIRGINIA IS DRY NOVEMBER 1

MAY ACT. STRINGENT IN ITS PROVISIONS. IN EFFECT ON THAT DATE.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 24.—Virginia will join the sisterhood of prohibition on November 1, when the state act, prohibiting the sale of alcoholic liquors, except by bonded drug stores, and throwing stringent restrictions around its shipment, will become effective. About 650 liquor dealers will close their doors. They have been preparing to close for several weeks and stocks are being disposed of rapidly. Liquors valued at hundreds of thousands of dollars have been purchased by consumers and stored against the "dry" days.

It will be unlawful after November 1 for any person in the state to manufacture, transport, sell, advertise, or in any way, dispense or solicit the sale of any spirit, which are defined to embrace alcohol, brandy, whisky, rum, gin, wine, porter, ale, and all other liquors, absinthe, and all varieties of any of these with the addition of other substances that will produce intoxication. In the case of any person placed in the hands of the law, more than one-half of the alcohol by volume.

The prohibition does not apply to other countries not more than one-half of the alcohol by volume. Prohibition is made for the handling of pure alcohol and fruit alcohol and pure medicinal, pharmaceutical, scientific and mechanical purposes, and of the use of medicinal purposes for religious bodies.

The manufacture of cider from fruit of one's own raising and for consumption at home is permitted. Under certain restrictions, are allowed to purchase and keep on hand liquors and wines for culinary purposes only.

The law permits every adult male and every adult female who is the head of a family to receive not more than once a month one quart of whiskey, one gallon of wine or three gallons of beer. Arden spirits are prohibited in lodges, clubs, fraternal houses and other public places. Newspapers published within the state are prohibited from carrying liquor advertisements, but the sale and distribution of newspapers published out of the state and carrying liquor advertisements are permitted.

The first violation of any provision of the law is deemed a misdemeanor punishable from $50 to $500, with a confinement in jail for not less than one nor more than six months. The second offense, if not a felony, is punishable by fines from $100 to $1,000 and confinement in jail for not less than six months nor more than one year; if a felony, by confinement in the penitentiary for not less than one year, or, in the discretion of the judge, by confinement in jail for not less than twelve months.

There has been much speculation as to the law in the several cities of Norfolk and Newport News. The attorney general and solicitor general have declared that the law will be carried out to the letter.

The prohibition in Virginia into the "dry" states came after a fifteen year campaign of four years by the Anti-Saloon League. Bills introduced for a referendum to ascertain the will of the people were introduced in the legislature of 1910 and 1912 only to meet defeat at the hands of one of both branches. An act was passed in 1914 in compliance with which the referendum was submitted to the people on November 2, 1914, and statewide prohibition was by about 30,000.

During the campaign of 1915 the Anti-Saloon League worked for the election of a new general assembly which would enact statewide prohibition. A large majority of the 140 members and senators were elected to support a platform and the legislature met in January, 1916, followed closely the Anti-Saloon League's prohibition program. The state act, declaring prohibition in force on November 1 and providing machinery for enforcing it, was carried by overwhelming majorities in both houses and was promptly signed by the governor.

The Mapp act creates a prohibition commission at a salary of $3,500 a year, who will be charged with the enforcement of the prohibition law.

You can always tell the fellow who knows it all, but you can't tell him much.

MORE THAN 100 MEXICAN LEADERS FORM NEW PARTY.

Mexico City, Oct. 24.—More than a hundred of the most prominent generals and other leaders who have been actively associated in the revolution, many of whom came from long distances, met today at the home of General Gonzales, and formed a political party, the objects of which, it is stated, are to unify all elements of the constitutional party and support the candidacy of General Carranza for the presidency. Among those who attended were Generals Obregon, Gonzales, Benjamin Hill, Aguilar, Casario Castro and Francisco Goss.

The project of the party, which was made known by General Gonzales was enthusiastically accepted by all present. The meeting was originally called to select a successor to General Gonzales as commander of the division of the east but opposition to his giving up the command caused this plan to be abandoned at least temporarily.

EPISCOPAL BODY ON TRAFFIC

FOR FIRST TIME IN HISTORY OF CHURCH CONVENTION ACTS ON LIQUOR QUESTION.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 24.—For the first time in the history of the church according to well informed leaders, a stand on the liquor traffic was taken here today in the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal church. A resolution adopted by the house of deputies placed the church on record as favoring "such action in our legislative assemblies as will preserve the interests of temperance and the repression of the liquor traffic."

The action was an outgrowth of a memorial asking the convention to record itself as favoring nation-wide prohibition, submitted by the church temperance society through Francis L. Stetson, of New York.

The saloon was scored in the report of the committee which considered the memorial. This said:

"Our age is witnessing vast and universal readjustment with reference to the manufacture and sale of liquor and it is generally recognized that the saloon has become more and more a menace to the best interests of our corporate and individual life."

A resolution was presented in the house of deputies today appealing to "all of the people of the church to set the example of self-control and temperance by abstaining from the use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, especially at public functions and social gatherings." The resolution was referred to the commission on social service.

A report showing that the church has more than 1,080,000 communicants and 5,700 clergymen were presented to the house of deputies by the committee on the state of the church. Baptisms, the report showed, have increased by about 12,000 and confirmations by about 14,000 over the preceding triennium. Parishes and missions number 8,341 and the total number of church buildings is 7,310. The report added that the church controls endowments aggregating $55,000,000, many educational and charitable institutions and has an average income of more than $20,000,000 a year. Endowments for the support of churches for the triennium totalled $19,078,112.09 as against $14,320,147 in 1913. Endowments for the support of bishops totalled $4,491,047, as against $4,626,884 given in the previous three years. Contributions for the aid of the infirm clergy came to $3,295,052 and for other purposes endowments totalling $28,063,411 were given. Sitting in the churches in the triennium just ended totalled 1,504,890, an increase of 194,672 over the triennium ending in 1913. Church hospitals accounted for in the report, number 135 as against 79 accounted for in 1913.

A man might take a lesson from the humble egg, which is never spoiled by success.

Even flattery should be handled with care. It is generally wasted if it doesn't come in tact.

PRIZE FLAG PRINTS MAILED TO VOTERS.

Raleigh, Oct. 24.—The state Democratic headquarters is sending out 10,000 handsome prints, in colors, of the silk North Carolina flag banner, which the state committee is to give the county showing the biggest Democratic gain over that of 1912.

"We are shelling the woods now," said State Chairman Thomas D. Warren, "and are getting results in added interest. A general movement has started to support the state and the national tickets to the fullest extent."

The observance of "Wilson Day" on October 28 is booming. Senator Simmons is to be the principal speaker for the observance in Charlotte; Governor Craig at Marion; T. W. Bickett at Carthage; Walter Murphy at Winston-Salem; J. W. Bailey at Mt. Olive and Goldsboro; Cameron Morrison at Newton and Max Gardner at Durham.

There will be parades, torchlight processions and big demonstrations generally. At each of these "Wilson Day" meetings there will be special messages read from President Wilson.

Chairman Warren said today: "Reports from all parts of the country show that Wilson is gaining ground. I feel sure he is going to be re-elected. Hughes is losing ground every day and Roosevelt is helping him do so. In North Carolina we are going to have a Democratic majority of the record kind and Democracy is going to win in the nation."

Just Possible.

"I wonder what causes the flight of time?" said the fair maid.

"It is probably urged on by the spur of the moment," rejoined the brilliant young man.

FOR WILSON and MARSHALL

FOR PEACE PREPAREDNESS and PROSPERITY

PRESIDENT WILSON SERVING MANKIND.

New York, Oct. 24.—The great achievement that President Wilson has accomplished were described in Cooper Union, to an enthusiastic assemblage of workmen, of many nationalities. Henry Morgenthau, former United States ambassador to Turkey, presided, and the speakers were United States Senator Charles S. Thomas, of Colorado; Dr. Frederick C. Howe, commissioner of immigration at the port of New York; Herman Bernstein, Leon Sanders, Bernard Edelheit, Rev. Joseph Seff and Abraham Goldberg.

In his opening remarks Mr. Morgenthau suggested the following prayer:

"Let us thank God that, in His great kindness, he has given our beloved country the best-equipped, most just and most efficient man in the world as its guide during this period of bloodshed and destruction. Guided by the united desire to preserve peace, order and prosperity, let us prepare not for war, but to prevent it."

M. Bernstein, noted as a traveler, editor and author, paid the following tribute to the president:

"President Wilson not only has kept America out of war, but he is laying the foundation to keep the whole world out of future wars. He is serving mankind. He sees America's destiny as the leader of the nations of the world. He is a new Lincoln, who has added to Lincoln."

"There is but one vital issue in this campaign. It is this: Do we want this great country to complete the work of the great constructive statesman who is building a greater America, a nobler America, a freer America, an America truly emancipated, or do we want to drift back and follow the blundering and strife and hatreds that are destroying Europe?"

"Do we want to prepare to heal the wounds of bleeding Europe, or do we want our own homes, our own institutions, our own people hurled into the fires that are consuming the flower of the nations abroad?"

"This is the gravest crisis in the world, and America must face the big problems in a large way. No American president has had such an opportunity for service and achievement, and no American statesman could rise to the opportunity as Woodrow Wilson has risen."

What Mr. Taft Thinks of President Wilson.

This is no time to point out mistakes of the past. This is no time, by attacks upon the general in command, to give the idea that our commander has not a united people behind him.

We are fortunate in having kept out of the present European war and we ought to support the administration in keeping us out. If we had a jingo in the White House this country would now be at war with Germany.

He (Wilson) is not a Democrat president. He is our president. He is first an American, the same as we are. We must all be Americans first.—Ex-President Taft.

Register Before Saturday Night.

WAR INCREASES THE COST OF LIVING.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Secretary Redfield, of the department of commerce, said today the war in Europe is increasing the cost of living. The millions of men withdrawn from the productive enterprises of the warring nations to make war need more to eat and wear than they would have needed had they been at peaceful pursuits, he explained.

"The world is at war," said Mr. Redfield. "It is probably within the truth to say that 20,000,000 men of the most productive ages are withdrawn from productive work and are spending their time fighting. The world is therefore short of goods by the amount that these men would produce if they were working instead of fighting."

"On the other hand, these men are consuming much more than they would consume if they were working. Probably it is true to say that each of these 20,000,000 men in peace wear out not over three suits of clothes a year. As a soldier in the trenches he wears out completely a suit of clothes every month. In other words, his consumption of clothing is at least four times as great as in peace. This would mean for the 20,000,000 men 60,000,000 additional suits of clothing each year."

"Again, the best authorities think these soldiers, living out of doors under severe exertion, consume at least one-half more food than they do in time of peace. Here then is an added consumption equal to the food regularly eaten by 10,000,000 persons."

"It is further true that factories in all the belligerent countries that ordinarily produce goods for general use are busy on war munitions. Four thousand such factories are so busy in Great Britain alone. The same is true of every belligerent country, and to some degree, but to a very much smaller degree, of our own country. The result is that at the time of greatest consumption the production is greatly reduced. In addition, it is a fact that the great crops of Russia are shut off from the markets of the world by the war, hence her wheat is not available to feed the nations of the west. At the same time it is the fact that our own crops of almost every kind are shorter than for some years past."

"I need hardly say more, but it is perhaps fair to add that this country is prosperous as it never was before, and this means that millions of men and women are spending more than before, which is another way of saying that their demand is greater at a time when the supply is less."

"For all these reasons, which seem to me sound, there is nothing strange about the advance in the cost of goods. It is not, in my judgment, faked up. It is on the whole the result of the terrible folly of war."

181-Year Votes For Wilson.

Chicago, Oct. 24.—Arm in arm with his 79-year-old wife, Jacob Harris, 102 years old, of No. 814 South Laffin street, the oldest registered voter in Illinois and probably in the United States, will walk to the polls, November 7, and both will cast their ballots for Woodrow Wilson.

The couple recently celebrated their golden wedding anniversary and had about them 33 descendants, including great-grandchildren.

Mr. Harris cast his first vote for Andrew Jackson and was a Democrat until after the war, in which he fought on the side of the Union. He voted for Van Buren, Polk, Pierce, Fillmore and Buchanan. Conditions led him to change to the Republican party and he voted for Lincoln and every other Republican candidate until 1912.

He has now returned to his early love, the Democratic party, induced to do so by the character and services of President Wilson. As Mr. Harris expressed it to an interviewer, he cannot consistently remain with the Republican party any longer.

Mrs. Harris declares that "Mr. Wilson is a just and noble man and every woman in Illinois should vote for him. Besides, the nation is in an extremely grave and critical situation, because of war-mad Europe, and I believe President Wilson is the only man who can steer our ship through the troubled waters."

Both are in good health. They read the newspapers closely and keep in touch with current happenings.

Boys on Border Get Their Money.

Camp Stewart, El Paso, Tex., Oct. 24.—The first and third regiments were paid off today. It is the first pay day the men have seen since September 1, and there is joy in the camp. The second will be paid off tomorrow. The men were paid mostly in gold. Maj. Wade H. Phillips, third regiment, has been appointed a member of an efficiency board of certain officers of this division.

The brigade enjoyed a half-holiday this afternoon, today being soldier day at the fair and reunion of Spanish war veterans.

DOUBT'S REMOVED AS TO WHO'LL BE ELECTED.

Wadesboro, Oct. 25.—There is no longer necessity for doubt as to who will be elected president on November 7. Political prophets have made their guesses, party leaders have made their predictions and politicians have made their claims, but the oracle has spoken and the only uncertain question now is the majority and the manner in which this election will be accomplished.

Up in Huntington, W. Va., there is an infallible sign by which residents of that city will swear, not only swear but put up real money to back the judgment of their prophet.

Mr. Charles E. Archer, an engineer on the Atlantic Coast Line, running between this place and Floyds, S. C., has just returned from a visit to the West Virginia city and brings the wonderful story of the destiny of our country for the next four years. Mr. Archer possesses considerable property in and near Huntington and while visiting one of his properties, his attention was called to a phenomenon in the shape of a spider web. This web was about two feet in circumference and suspended at the top of an open door to an outhouse. In the center was the spider's nest and just above him was woven into the silky skein letters that formed the word "Woodrow," just beneath his bed were characters forming the word "Wilson." The species of spider that has become famous as a prognosticator is known as "The Gold Bug" Spider. He is about the size of a man's thumb with two gold streaks down his back over a black coat. Mr. Archer states that the first time this species was noticed in that section was during the fall McKinley was elected president, at which time he wrote McKinley's name in his web several weeks before election and each successive election he has correctly foretold the successful candidate for president.

Mr. Archer is willing to back the authenticity of his story and offers to bet heavy odds that any one who makes the trip to his West Virginia home will be convinced that he is correct. At the first appearance of this phenomenon thousands of people were for miles to satisfy their curiosity.

J. BRYAN GRIMES PREDICTS A REPUBLICAN FURNAL.

Wilson, Oct. 24.—Hon. J. Bryan Grimes, secretary of state, spoke in the court house here last evening to a large and enthusiastic assemblage of Democrats. There were quite a few Republicans present and it was plainly written on their countenances, as the honorable secretary told of the prosperous times the country is now enjoying, that they are on the fence and almost persuaded to cast their votes to renew the lease on the White House for four more years of peace, prosperity and plenty that will be issued with Woodrow Wilson at the head of the nation.

The speaker told of how, under Mr. Wilson's administration, the power has been wrested from the money sharks of Wall Street to fit the price of cotton; told of how usury has been eliminated by the establishment of reserve banks; of the passage of the land loan act which enables farmers to borrow money on long time at a minimum rate of interest; the extension of the parcels post, good roads, etc.

In comparing conditions in the state—Democratic government against Republican misrule—the comparisons were as marked as between mountains and molehills.

In concluding Mr. Grimes said: "Victory is ours; take my word for it that on November 7 Republicanism will be buried so deep in oblivion in the filthy cesspool of their own making that not a bubble will rise to the surface to mark their passage from the political field—for on that day the majority will be for president, Woodrow Wilson, for governor, Thomas W. Bickett."

Indiana Will Go 50,000 For Wilson.

New York, Oct. 25.—"Indiana will give Wilson at least 50,000 majority and elect all the state Democratic candidates," declared Senator Taggart, Democratic state leader of Indiana, when he called today upon Vance McCormick, chairman of the Democratic national committee.

"The best tip-off as to the way things are going in Indiana is that I'm in New York just sort of loafing. If the state wasn't safely Democratic, I'd be out there in the thickest of the fight, wouldn't I?" he added.

Bright Girl.

He was holding down the parlor sofa while she was doing a piano stunt.

"Why is it that you play only religious pieces?" he queried.

"Well, you see, this is an upright piano," she explained.

FORMER REPUBLICAN WILL SUPPORT DEMOCRATS.

Asheville, Oct. 25.—Consternation struck the local Republican camp yesterday when it was announced that J. M. Patterson, former county chairman of the Progressive party, had resigned as judge of elections for West Asheville, and had announced that he would support Zebulon Weaver, the Democratic nominee for Congress. Mr. Patterson is a wheel horse in the ranks of the Republicans, and has a large following, as evidenced by the fact that four years ago, as county chairman of the Progressives, he polled a total of 2,500 votes in this county against the Republicans and Democrats, both in the field. In explaining the reason for his resignation, Mr. Patterson explains that he cannot support Mr. Britt because of the latter's disregard of the sentiment of his district, when Mr. Britt voted for Hughes for the nomination at Chicago. He declares that the Republican portion of the district is ninety per cent Progressives, and says that Mr. Britt should have taken that into consideration regardless of his own personal feelings. Mr. Patterson was named as judge of elections at West Asheville by Dan W. Hill, Republican county chairman, and his resignation yesterday created a great deal of surprise.

Wilson Supported by Progressive Nominee.

Speaking in Faneuil hall in Boston, the other night, John M. Parker, vice presidential nominee of the Progressive party, declared that the election of a Republican president and Congress meant the return to power of the "Old Guard, Wall Street, and relegated Progressives." He advocated the re-election of President Wilson but claimed that the Progressives were responsible for much of the Progressive legislation enacted during his administration.

Mr. Parker criticized Col. Roosevelt for his attacks on the president, who he said were deserving of loyalty in his hour of trouble and responsibility.

More Straws.

Straw votes taken in the state of Washington, which show a decided majority for President Wilson, give him nearly 40 per cent of the Roosevelt vote cast in 1912. If any such proportion holds true of other Far Western states Hughes clearly has no show there. In one place the women voted 14 to 1 in favor of the president, and in another 10 to 4. The ballots cast in Seattle's labor temple numbered 61 for Wilson to none for Hughes. In view of such showings the reasons for the growing Wilson strength in the betting are obvious. It begins to look like a landslide for Woodrow.—Philadelphia Record.

Swebston, of Ross county, vice president of the American Sheriffs Association and president of the Ohio sheriffs organization, was sentenced to 40 days in jail by United States Judge John E. Sater, here today, for permitting a federal prisoner in his custody to take long automobile rides and have other liberties outside of the jail at Chillicothe.

Donald Swebston, who is deputy sheriff and son of Sheriff Swebston, was fined $60. Both men were ordered to pay the costs and were released on $500 bond each, pending a hearing of the case on error before the Court of Appeals.

PATRIOT FRIENDS ARE BUSY

—Mr. Soots has some fine Duroc pigs for sale. See his notice in the bargain column.

—Messrs. Johnson, Hinkle & Co. are still selling winter overcoats, suits, and underclothing at last years prices. They will sell you a fine $12.50 overcoat for only $8.75 if you buy quick. It's a bargain too. See notices in bargain column.

—Chairman Hines, in addition to the regular appointments of the legislative and county Democratic candidates, has also arranged dates for quite a number of prominent Democratic speakers to address the voters of Guilford county within the next ten days. Read them elsewhere.

—The great administrator's sale at the Globe Clothing Company, 336 South Elm street, is still drawing the crowds, and hundreds leave this big store daily with bargains in their arms. If you haven't visited this sale yet be sure and do so as soon as you read Mr. Stadium's bargain announcement in another part of today's Patriot.

—The M. G. Newell Company call your attention to their large line of Syracuse and John Deere walking and riding plows in their new advertisement elsewhere today. This firm also carries in stock every description of a farming implement made by the best manufacturers in America. If its anything for the farm you need you will find it at Newell's.

—Thacker & Brockmann are still selling men's whole-stock Elkin shoes at three dollars and a lot of other shoes at just about old prices, but they give you fair warning that prices will be higher later on and maybe just the size you need all sold out. Look up their ad. on page eight and you will find a price list of good work shoes for men, women and boys.

—If you are all run down and need a good tonic to build up your system, drop in at Fordham's drug store, just south of the Southern passenger station, and get a bottle of "Vin-Kre-Ol," the great builder-up of energy and vitality in the human body. If you can't go just telephone or drop Mr. Fordham a letter and he will take pleasure in filling your order. See his advertisement in another column.

—Many fine suits for men and boys are being offered this week at Brown-Belk Co.'s at special prices. Every suit is a real value, while all new patterns of overcoats are being sold cheaper than the manufacturers are asking for them. If you need a suit, overcoat, shoes and winter underwear you can save money on your purchases by buying them now at Brown-Belk's. See Mr. Brown's new advertisement in another part of today's Patriot.

—The Greensboro tobacco market is second to none in the state when it comes to prices. Read the averages made at the Farmers' warehouse this week and then you will agree with us. Mr. J. H. Whitt, the owner, is never happier than when he is getting the top prices for all tobacco sold at the Farmers'. He has spent years in the warehouse business and knows just what is needed to please tobacco farmers, and is always working in their interest.

—The Center Brick warehouse sold 17,698 pounds of tobacco Saturday at fine averages. Messrs. King & Aydelette are determined that every farmer who sells his tobacco on the floor of the Center Brick shall return home more than satisfied with the prices he gets if their efforts in his behalf will avail anything. They are untiring in their efforts to make every pile bring its full worth. See their big announcement elsewhere in today's Patriot. These gentlemen give a few of the averages made at the Center Brick this week.

—Every citizen of Guilford county knows Mr. S. L. Gilmer, who has been in the mercantile business in Greensboro for nearly a quarter of a century. Hundreds of them have been trading with him continuously for years, and they know that when they spend a dollar at Gilmer's they always receive more than a hundred cents in value. Manager Staley has had long experience as a buyer and seller and has surrounded himself with the best and most dependable line of merchandise for the fall and winter trade that his firm has ever carried. Today he is calling the attention of the mothers of Guilford county to an excellent line of durable and stylish coats for girls from six to fourteen years of age, at prices that will appeal to every one who values a hard earned dollar. Don't lay this copy of The Patriot aside until you have read Gilmer's announcement on the back page.

Crop of Ginseng Brought $12,000.

J. Q. McGuire, of Asheville, has just purchased what is believed to be the largest single crop of ginseng ever raised or bought in this state. He paid L. L. Sandridge, of Bryson City, $12,000 for his crop. The "sang" will be shipped to Asheville, dried and then shipped to China, where it is used for medicinal purposes. The crop just purchased by Mr. McGuire, the roots, of course, being the part sold, ranges in age from six to nine years, and brings in the neighborhood of $8.50 a pound. A few years ago ginseng farms were numerous, but when the amateurs found out the trouble and expense incurred in growing the valuable weed, few of them stuck to the business.

HANLY TURNS GUNS ON CANDIDATE HUGHES.

Binghamton, N. Y., Oct. 24.—Receipt of a copy of a letter Charles E. Hughes' secretary recently sent to the Michigan Dry Federation, saying that Mr. Hughes probably would make no declaration of his stand on the liquor question during the campaign, caused J. Frank Hanly, the presidential prohibition candidate here tonight, to launch a fresh attack on the Republican nominee.

"Hughes said the other day," Hanly declared, "that the country needed as never before an Abraham Lincoln and left the intimation that it might find a Lincoln in him, forgetful of the fact that Lincoln in his day accepted the challenge of invisible government, called a million to his side, put muskets in their hands and bade them shoot it to death."

"Where Lincoln stood and fought, Mr. Hughes bows in dumb and silent acquiescence."

Many women attended the meetings today and the national candidates assured them repeatedly that they were for equal suffrage. The dry special will enter Pennsylvania tomorrow.

AMERICANISM OF PRESIDENT

WILSON MAKES MR. BRONNER THINK OF LINCOLN IN HIS INTENSE AMERICANISM.

Milton M. Bronner, of New York, has this to say of Wilson and Lincoln, and their devotion to the well-being of the average American:

"The more I study Woodrow Wilson, the more I see the parallel between him and Lincoln. Wilson makes me think of Lincoln in his intense Americanism, in his entire devotion to the well-being of the average man of our country and not to any particular favored class."

Thus Miss Ida M. Tarbell began, in her study in the quiet Gramercy Park section, when I asked her whether there really was a parallel between Lincoln and any man of our time.

Hardly anyone could give a more authoritative and unprejudiced answer than she. The life of Lincoln long has been one of her deepest studies. To Lincoln she has devoted some of her best and most famous books.

"Most presidents," said Miss Tarbell, "no matter how peaceful their times, have serious problems, and most of them are inclined to think that no president since Lincoln has had such troubles. In the case of Wilson the parallel has more to rest on."

"Both men had a pretty clear issue that they kept to the front. With Lincoln the main issue was the preservation of the Union. Wilson is seeking to keep the peace with honor."

"Wilson makes up his mind what his object is; he sticks to it, and you can't get him away. That was Lincoln. He stuck to his object like a dog to a bone."

"Wilson, like Lincoln, doesn't make up his mind quickly, or without deep thought. A decision with him is not a matter of impulse. Wilson takes his time. He gets all the facts. He weighs them, draws his conclusion and then hangs on that. And while he does this, his mind is open to new facts."

"He has no pride of opinion. His enemies accuse him of shifting his position. An intelligent, honest man, when in a position where the facts shift, must change his position. Otherwise he would be dogmatic."

"Lincoln, too, used to be accused of shifting his position, but he replied that whenever he was convinced his views was wrong, he would change. It was the true view he was after."

"I think there have been few occasions in our history in which intelligence called more urgently to a man to shift his position than in Wilson's case. And this was so because for a long time every morning he was confronted by a new set of acts in a new set of circumstances."

"Lincoln used to say before the war that the dispute about slavery should be settled by ballots and not bullets, so Wilson's position is that in a civilized world reasonable processes and not bullets should settle disputes."

"Wilson, amid a world in arms, has been trying to preserve the little body of international law that the world has worked out. He has prevented the world from stepping back entirely from the highest point it had reached."

"Lincoln felt that the world had reached a certain point as to slavery. If slavery spread in this country, he felt, the world would be going backward in its attitude toward human beings and the democratic ideal. If the small body of international law was destroyed, Wilson felt that the world would be going back in a similar manner."

"And there is another parallel, too. There was always in the North a great variety of opinion against Lincoln during the war. There were radically opposed interests united in only one thing—bitter hostility to Lincoln."

"He was opposed by the rabid abolitionists because he did not move fast enough in freeing the slaves, and there were the copperheads who were against him for just the opposite reason."

"At present, too, there are radically opposed interests united in only one thing—bitter hostility to Wilson. There are the rabid pro-allies, who think he should have made war on Germany, and the rabid pro-Germans, who think he was too severe with Germany."

"Lincoln in his own party had men who were opposed to him. Thus Greeley, while abhorring slavery, so detested the idea of men killing each other that he was for peace at any price."

"So, in our day, there are pacifists who oppose Wilson because, while trying to keep this country at peace, he is preparing it against aggression. They see only their ideals. They refuse to recognize the state of the world in which we live."

"Just as petty abuse and gossip followed Lincoln, so similar abuse follows Wilson. That seems to be true in times of great national stress. People become so partisan that they cannot relieve their feelings unless they invent scandals and untruths. In their bitterness any peg will do on which to hang something as ugly as it is false."

"Wilson's Americanism is of the kind that Lincoln's was. All his legislation has been in the interests of the common man."

WADESBORO MAN SAYS OKLAHOMA'S FOR WILSON.

Wadesboro, Oct. 24.—Since the Supreme court of the United States has rendered a decision declaring the franchise law of Oklahoma unconstitutional, certain clauses of which were similar to the North Carolina franchise law, considerable speculation and some apprehension was indulged in by the Democrats as to the probable effect in the November election. Republicans have claimed that they have an even chance of carrying that hitherto strong Democratic state.

A message received here today in a letter from Dr. James A. McLaughlin gives the reassuring news that Judge Hughes has not a ghost of a chance to carry Oklahoma. Dr. McLaughlin was for many years president of the State Normal school at Edmund, Okla., and has taken considerable interest in the politics of his adopted state during the past fifteen years. He is a native of Wadesboro and an alumnus of Davidson College.

To quote from his letter, he says: "You asked me about politics in Oklahoma. This state will give Wilson a plurality of about 25,000. In western Oklahoma, the Socialists will poll a larger vote than the Republicans. We expect to elect seven and maybe all eight of the congressmen. In the seventh district, our man, Congressman McClintic will have to hustle to beat the Socialists. He is hustling and will probably have from 4,000 to 5,000 plurality. The Republicans have not a ghost of a chance to carry Oklahoma. I look to see Wilson receive 345 electoral votes."

AN AX SAVES MAN FROM DEATH BY BEAR.

Ammon Harer, a farmer living near Liberty, Pa., saved the life of his brother, Ellery (who lay prostrate under a wounded bear which was tearing and chewing the man's arm), by striking the animal on the head with an ax.

The exciting battle occurred on the Harer farm. As Ellery Harer opened the kitchen door at his farm home to investigate a peculiar noise he was confronted by a large black bear, only a few feet from the doorsteps. The farmer jumped back into the house and slammed the door almost in the face of the bear.

Armed with a gun containing one shell, he partly opened the door and fired. The shot wounded the bear, which turned and disappeared down a gulch below the house.

Harer, carrying his gun with five shells—all the ammunition in the house—and his brother, armed with an ax, followed. They soon overtook the bear. Harer pumped the remainder of the ammunition into the bear's body, and the enraged animal turned on him.

Raising itself, the animal struck Harer with a front paw, tearing the flesh of his arm. As the bear struck, both fell, the man under the bear. The man was held a prisoner as the bear tore and bit at his bleeding arm, until his brother rushed to his rescue and with a blow with the ax on the bear's head killed it.

MECKLENBURG TO HAVE SIX FARM LOAN ASSOCIATIONS.

That Mecklenburg will boast of at least a half dozen farm loan associations within the next few weeks is the confident judgment of H. W. Graeber who went out to Friday night to assist in the launching of another association there among the farmers of that progressive community. Recently an association was formed in Charlotte among the farmers of the Sharon neighborhood when J. C. Reid was elected president. A second organization was perfected Friday night among the Dixie farmers while a third will be instituted within a few days at Huntersville.

Another is being talked of in the Mint Hill section and still another at Matthews. A sixth is in contemplation for Cornelius-Davidson and a seventh for the Pineville community.

In addition to these there are still others being discussed but it is expected that they will be merged with those already formed. This will give Mecklenburg at least a half dozen farm loan associations, which will be ahead of any other county in the South.—Charlotte Observer.

TUESDAY THE DATE FOR BUFFALO BILL HERE.

A great deal of preliminary interest has been aroused by the announcement that the Buffalo Bill 101 Ranch show is to exhibit in Greensboro Tuesday, October 31, and there is no doubt that there will be a big crowd on hand to see the strenuous performances promised for this notable exhibition.

The show will arrive at an early hour in the morning and as rapidly as possible the cars will be unloaded and the paraphernalia transferred to the exhibition grounds on Whittington street.

It goes without saying that a crowd of city as well as out-of-town people will be on hand to witness the sights and scenes incident to the arrival of the big caravansary and the erection of the military and frontier camps.

A great show is promised, and what is especially interesting is the announcement that Buffalo Bill will absolutely be "in the saddle at both performances." The performance will introduce the great military spectacle, "Preparedness," which has aroused a tremendous amount of interest and enthusiasm, and which has the endorsement of the United States war department; a battle between white settlers and Indians; scenes from the early days in the Far West, when the borderland was in the making; the actual life of the great cattle ranches, with its sports and dangers, including a realistic round-up of long-horned Texas cattle, and many other strenuous and exhilarating displays.

Naturally, the greatest interest will be concentrated upon the "Preparedness" spectacle, for that is a subject that is very much in the public consciousness at the present time. Realism is given to this striking military display by the fact that the participants are soldiers furloughed from the United States army especially to appear in this patriotic production. There are reviews, marches, sabre drills, cavalry charges, artillery practice, and a sham battle, in which every branch of the service is strenuously utilized.

There will only be two performances in this city, but they will be complete in every way. They will take place at 2:15 and 8:15. At 10:30 there will be a big military and Far West parade, in which the processional resources of the big street show will be generously displayed.

The United States army recruiting tent will be open on the grounds all day to receive enlistments for service on the Mexican border.

Reserved seats on sale show day at the Greensboro Drug Company.

TURN MUNITION PLANTS INTO GREAT DYEWORKS.

Washington, Oct. 24.—With the aid and co-operation of Dr. F. D. Norton, dye expert of the department of commerce, two of the largest munition manufacturers have completed plans and arrangements to turn all of their auxiliary plants into dye-works as soon as war contracts are completed.

Such plans have been worked out practically to the last detail by the duPont Company and the Aetna Explosives Company, two of the biggest explosive and munition makers in the world. Both concerns have great new plants built to meet the requirements of huge contracts with European governments. When the demand for munitions and explosives becomes normal all extra plants will be turned to dye-making. It was learned today.

Changes necessary in plant and machinery are comparatively few, as practically the same raw materials and intermediates are used for explosives as in dye-making. Government authorities believe that such substantial expansion of the dyestuffs industry here by countries with unlimited resources will put the industry beyond the possibility of being crushed by German competition after the war. Germany has always held the dye market, and up to the time of the war the industry amounted to practically nothing in the United States.

Turning Away Wrath.

A gentleman who discovered that he was standing on a lady's train had the presence of mind to remark: "Though I may not have the power to draw an angel from the skies, I have pinned one to the earth."

The lady excused him.

See the Various Discs and Note Their Work. Ours is at the Bottom. Take Your Choice. We Know It Will be A PEORIA UNION

Note how the grain clings to the disc, on the open boot style of disc, and the uneven depths in the furrows.

The closed boot as made later overcomes the objection of the disc carrying the grain but leaves more grain on top of the ground and allows the soil to fall back into the furrow before the grain is deposited.

The closed boot with scraper does no better, the boot is farther in the rear of disc and allows the soil to fall into the furrow before grain is deposited. Not over 50 per cent of the grain is covered.

Placing the shank ahead of the center of disc makes an ideal construction for pushing trash, deposits the grain no better and cannot be operated in foul land. It has caused more trouble than all others.

Every objection is overcome in the the Disc Shoe, found only on PEORIA DRILLS, no explanation necessary. Every seed deposited at uniform depth in the bottom of a packed seed furrow. Will work any place other drills will work, and in places where others cannot be operated. The only furrow opener made that prepared the seed bed.

PREACHER FOR PRESIDENT

MR. WILSON A MAN FOR UNPRECEDENTED PROBLEMS, SAYS
REV. DR. GRANT.

The Rev. Dr. Percy Stickney Grant, rector of the Church of The Ascension, New York City, in a statement recently given out tersely gives the reasons which prompted him to support President Wilson for re-election this year. Dr. Grant voted for Roosevelt four years ago. He says: "I shall vote the straight Democratic ticket for the first time, at the coming presidential election. Brought up a Massachusetts Republican—a rather strict sect—I have voted in the last thirty years once for Cleveland, once for Roosevelt and once for Judge Seabury. Naturally, I have been trying of late to get a clear view of my reasons for such changed political sympathy.

"Americans pride themselves upon giving everybody 'a square deal.' It is not a square deal to place unparalleled burdens upon a man, heavier than any president's except Lincoln's and then to 'turn him down.' To give four years training in our highest office and then to throw away what an exceptional man has learned in that office, is not economical. It wastes the highest human acquisitions.

"Mr. Wilson is the only original thinker on political questions we have had in the White House since Lincoln. He is a man for unprecedented problems. He is a roadmaker, a pathfinder. Mr. Wilson is the best social shock-absorber the country has produced. He makes easier going for the honest capitalist and for the honest workman.

"Mr. Wilson's enemies are for the most part the overrich and their parasites. But the luxury-loving classes are also the enemies of American ideals at home and abroad—of giving everyone wide opportunity and of treating all nations fairly and above board. A President who receives the endorsement of Charles W. Eliot, Henry Ford and Thomas A. Edison is good enough for me. These men represent in the highest degree the brains, benevolence and betterment of America. They are the incarnation of knowledge, reasonableness and unselfishness. Such disinterested patriots are America's first hope. To stand with them is an honor.

"Mr. Wilson is the young man's candidate, because he is a man of courage, hope, and confidence in human nature.

"President Wilson has kept the nation out of a world-war in which sixteen nations have become involved and has kept us out of war with Mexico. Instead of dispatching ultimatums he calls a conference.

"Nothing has pleased me more about President Wilson during his administration than his self-criticism and his frank confession of some change of opinion during his administration.

"For the United States to develop military power sufficient for defence is not militarism, but foresight. Every sensible American wants proper military and naval protection for this republic and its 100 millions of people. The first duty of a government is self-protection.

"I voted for Roosevelt in 1912, largely because he promised a considerable body of social reform. This program he had taken largely from a group of men now working for Wilson. The lesson so learned could not have been native or congenial to Roosevelt. Had it been, he would not have returned to the Root-Penrose-Barney political machine. In short, it looks to me as if Mr. Roosevelt did not achieve Progressivism but had it thrust upon him.

"The indignation of the Republican party at the Democratic party is not due to its failure but to its success. The governing class (as the Republican party has considered itself to be) cannot forgive the popular party for showing its capacity for government. Their idea of property, as bestowing capacity for government, carries with it a sneer that a lack of financial success is just another name for lack for brains. Capitalistic conceit is tremendously upset by the success of the non-capitalistic groups at the highest of games—statesmanship.

Predict Jump in Shoe Prices.

New York, Oct. 24.—Those $3 shoes you saw in the window today will be marked at $4 to $6 before spring, dealers here said today. The price of shoes has increased 116 per cent since the beginning of the war in 1914, they assert. Women's fancy shoes of white kid and gray buckskin will advance more rapidly than men's shoes, the dealers believe. They do not consider the increases entirely justified, saying the cost of shoe buttons and cloth shoe straps and parts of shoes like that have merely risen in sympathy with the leather prices.

Register Before Saturday Night.

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS FROM BRYAN'S "COMMONER."

What do the people desire above all other things? Peace and prosperity. Mr. Wilson and the Democratic party has given them both. That's a pretty fair basis for a prediction as to the outcome.

No wonder they are talking of sending Roosevelt to speak in Texas. He can not do any harm to Hughes there, which is more than can be said of his speeches in the close states.

If Mr. Roosevelt has any friends left after his desertion of them at Chicago they may interpret his speeches to mean that Mr. Hughes defeat this year will open the way for Mr. Roosevelt in 1920.

Probably one reason why so many persons believed that the women were supporting the cause of Mr. Hughes lay in the fact that Miss Representation and Miss Taken were prominent in all his campaign speeches.

There seems to be no doubt that Mr. Hughes's speeches are helping Mr. Wilson. The important question is whether the Republican candidate's strength will hold out long enough to insure the re-election of the president.

The Republican paragraphers thought it significant that in his tour through North Dakota to Mr. Hughes followed a cyclone. They will doubtless be vastly more impressed when the November cyclone overtakes Mr. Hughes.

The old tariff issue has been brushed as clean as possible and new buttons and a new collar sewed on, but somehow it seems to be exceedingly difficult to conceal the worn condition of the seams and the poor quality of the cloth.

Mr. Hughes thinks it almost a crime to change ambassadors in France during the war. What about changing presidents at a time like this?

Since entering the war Rumania has closed all the saloons. Good. War, it would seem, hath her victories no less renowned than peace.

Stop, Look and Listen.

From two widely separated sources the need of attention at crossings of railways and highways has been recently shown emphatically. The Iowa highway commission reports that in July out of a total of 36 fatalities on the roads of the state 15 were due to trains striking vehicles, and in addition 17 persons were injured. And from the Southern Pacific Company comes the statement that of 33,500 automobile drivers observed at grade crossings, 53 per cent did not look either way before crossing the tracks and 9 per cent looked only one way. Only 0.52 of one per cent stopped their machines before crossing. Trains must run on tracks and on time; their engineers have no choice of routes. The automobilist can choose his route and regulate his rate of speed, but many grade crossings cannot be seen until just before they are reached, when the driver has little time to slacken speed. Road authorities should therefore see that warning signs are placed far enough from every grade crossing to make it certain that if an accident occurs on the crossing it is the fault of the driver, through his negligence to exercise proper care after ample warning.

Reminder of Incident That Precipitated the War.

Nedjo Kerovic, one of the conspirators in the assassination of Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir apparent to the Austrian throne, in 1914, has died in a military prison, says a report from Sarajevo, Bosnia. It was the assassination of the heir to the Austrian throne, it will be remembered, that precipitated the present world war. As a result of the murder Austria declared war on Serbia and then all the other countries were drawn in.

Three of the conspirators in the assassination of the archduke were executed in February, 1915, and Jakov Zilovic and Nedjo Kerovic were sentenced to imprisonment for life, but it was later commuted to 20 years. Gavrio Prinzip, the actual assassin, was sentenced to 20 years in prison.

Risks $2,400 on Spirits.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 24.—William Shepperly, a local blacksmith, has appealed to Chief of Police Crittenden to apprehend two clairvoyants whom he charges with defrauding him out of $2,400, raised by mortgaging his home. He claims they told him $98,000 was buried in his yard, and that money was needed to "draw" it to the surface, where it could be reached. He first put up $850, which was made the subject of incantations in which the Bible played a prominent part.

This sum was insufficient, the clairvoyants declared, and Shepperly raised $1,550 more. This was placed in a box, over which the Bible was read and mystic papers were burned. Shepperly was told to prepare to dig in his garden, and left the clairvoyants in charge of the money while he obeyed directions. They failed to reappear, and he learned they had hurriedly left town.

Several years ago Shepperly's wife, now dead, lost $400 in a somewhat similar manner at Hazle Park, and $300 at another time at West Hazleton.

Rattlesnake Bit Baby.

Attracted by the screams of her 14-months-old baby, which was playing alone in the yard near the house, Mrs. Arthur Greer, who lives near Boomer, in this county, ran to her child's assistance and found it sitting in the yard with a young rattlesnake in its lap. The child was holding up one of its hands and blood was dripping from a finger. Upon examination it was found that it had been bitten by the snake. Mrs. Greer lost no time in killing the snake and applying first aid to the child's wound, by cording the arm and thus preventing the poison from entering its system. Dr. E. M. Hutchins was called and administered the necessary medical aid. The doctor said the mother's thoughtfulness saved the baby's life. —Wilkesboro Patriot.

Hogs Have Best of Babies.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 24.—A little country woman told the international dry farming delegates today that they knew more about raising hogs than they did about rearing children; that the government spent $40,000 to study children's diseases and $800,000 to study disease among hogs.

She was Mrs. M. A. Warner, of Claude, Tex., who spoke on the subject, "The Farm Woman's View Point." Men, she said, escape the pain incident to the perpetuation of the human race, and "that is the reason why men who make all the laws are so indifferent to the needs of women and children."

Carranza Wants Loan of $100,000,000.

Atlantic City, Oct. 24.—Lewis Cabrera, head of the Mexican peace delegates, has been delegated by First Chief Carranza to negotiate a $100,000,000 Mexican loan in this country tonight.

The first chief is said to believe that the commission will formulate some plan for the settlement of the border wrangle soon after November 7 and that shortly afterwards an agreement will be received regarding Mexico's tactics of American property south of the Rio Grande.

Young Girl, Crushed by Tombstone, May Die.

Statesville, Oct. 24.—Rachael, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Deaton, of Statesville, was probably fatally injured yesterday afternoon when a heavy tombstone fell on her as she was watching the monument unveiling in Oakwood cemetery.
