OVER TEN MILLION REGISTER

YOUNG AMERICA CHEERFULLY ENROLLS FOR ACTIVE WAR SERVICE.

Washington, June 5.—More than 10,000,000 young Americans enrolled themselves today for war service. Registration day, with but a few weeks of preparation, saw the first military census ever taken in the United States completed without a single untoward event of consequence.

The manhood of the nation obeyed the president's call and volunteered in mass, setting at naught all seditions and plottings of German sympathizers and the few cranks who have agitated against registration. It remains but to select the men who are to go to the front.

From virtually every state reassuring measures came tonight to Broadie General Crowder, provost marshal general, federal supervising officer of the great enterprise. While no complete returns from any state were transmitted up to a late hour, the governors were unanimous in reporting that complete quiet had prevailed throughout the day and that a full registration was indicated.

In some precincts the late comers tried officials to keep the polls open long after the 9 P. M. closing hour set in the registrations. The results will be further to delay the transmission of returns, however.

Indians Refuse to Enroll.

Indian, Colo., June 5.—Indians on the reservation near here today refused to register under the selective draft act and spent most of the day dancing "war" and "bear" dances, in native costume. A number of the younger men are said to be out in the hills near here and to have obtained a quantity of liquor.

It is reported here that the Indians are threatened to burn this settlement. Threats also have been made against the Indian agent at the reservation. It was said.

Indian Agent Driven Away by Navajos.

Flagstaff, Ariz., June 5.—Navajo Indians drove an Indian agent and other federal officers off the government reservation one hundred miles northeast of here today, when the latter went to register the Indians under the war army selective draft bill according to advices received last night. The federal officers feared the Indians would go on the warpath if further attempts were made to register them, it was reported.

Recruits Chinese For Service in the Army.

New York, June 5.—Philip Kee, a Chinese interpreter at the Ellis Island immigration station and proprietor of a Chinese restaurant, has recruited 699 American-born Chinese for service in the United States army. He announced here today by J. Murray Holbert, a representative in Congress, who has introduced a bill to accomplish the unit. Kee plans to increase his recruits to one thousand in number before offering their services to the war department.

MRS. WILSON "CAPTURED" BY HERO OF THE "LOST CAUSE."

Washington, June 5.—As President Wilson, at the conclusion of the session of the United Confederate Veterans where he spoke today, filed his way down the long line of veterans who flanked him on both sides at attention, he suddenly missed Mrs. Wilson, who had accompanied him. While he was standing in deliberation, one of the veterans called his attention to his wife, who, after 20 feet down the corridor, was "captured" by one of the veterans from whom she has long known.

Charge Mail Robbing.

Norfolk, Va., June 5.—After being trailed for one year by federal inspectors, Thomas N. Reed, clerk in the Portsmouth postoffice, and Wiley L. Brewster, a mail carrier, were arrested here today charged with robbing the mails. Marked money, sent in a decoy letter, resulted in the arrests. Reed is superintendent of a local Sunday school.

GUILFORD REGISTERS 6,445

PATRIOTIC STREET PARADE IN GREENSBORO—PASSED OFF IN AN ORDERLY WAY.

Registration day in Greensboro passed off with fine spirit. The young men flocked to the polls early. Everything was done quietly, decently and in order. The number registered for the city was 2,049. They all came out to register yesterday it seems, certainly more than go to the polls on election day. Of course the negroes swelled the total over what is usual for elections. The negroes did their part handsomely. They came to the polls, showed that they knew what they were about, and did their duty cheerfully. Not a complaint was heard.

The ladies did splendid service at the polls. They had organized for the event, and every young man that registered was decorated with an arm band of khaki by the ladies. The negro women, too, were at the polls, and the colored boys received their decorations along with the others.

Many patriotic services were held during the day. At 6.30 o'clock in the morning a community prayer service was held in the Municipal theater with a large crowd in attendance. The ministers of the white and negro churches jointly conducted the service. Two short addresses were made, Judge W. P. Bynum speaking for the white race, and Prof. W. B. Windsor for the negroes. Both speeches were well received.

At 11 o'clock in the morning an inspiring parade was held. Practically every organization of the city was represented in the parade. The Guilford Grays were out in fine style, and made a splendid showing, as also did the newly raised company of engineers. Many women were in the parade as representatives of the National Security League, the Red Cross and the Y. W. C. A. At the conclusion of the parade Judge Albert Cox, of Raleigh, addressed the tremendous crowd in front of the Municipal theater. He made an impressive address, and brought out clearly that the present fight for America is a fight for the triumph of democracy over individual crushing rule of Prussia.

It was a big day in Greensboro, and there were many comments heard on every side of the quiet, assured, and effective patriotism of the people of the city. No one got out and tore his hair about being patriotic, but every one showed a realization of the seriousness of the situation. There is no doubt but that Greensboro can be depended on to do her "bit" in the great war.

The total registration for the county is 6,445. The count by precincts is as follows:

Gilmer township, northeast, 565; east, 452; southeast, 149. Morehead, northwest, 249; west, 319; southwest, 441; south, 377. These included the Greensboro, proper, registration. Rock Creek, Gibsonville, 127; Whitsett, 45. High Point, southwest, 433; southeast, 625; northeast, 350; northwest, 335. These totalled 1,743 for the township, including the town of High Point. Oak Ridge, 43; Stokesdale, 74; North Madison, 65; South Madison, 22; South Monroe, 55; North Monroe, 62; Bruce, 99; Center Grove, 60; Deep River, 36; Friendship, 107; Fentress, 75; Greene, 90; Jamestown, 133; South Jefferson, 47; North Jefferson, 56; White Oak, 387; Proximity, 367.

DECREASE IS SHOWN IN LOSSES BY SUBMARINES.

London, June 6.—The weekly report of the British admiralty concerning British shipping losses by mines or submarines says that 15 vessels of 1,600 tons and over and three vessels under 1,600 tons and five fishing vessels were sunk last week. Summary: Arrivals numbered 2,693 and sailings 2,642.

The above report, compared with that of the previous week, shows a decrease of three in vessels of 1,600 tons and over sunk, but an increase of two in the category of less than 1,600 tons. The previous week's report announced the sinking of 13 vessels of 1,600 tons and over, and of one vessel of less than 1,600 tons.

The new report shows an increase of three in the number of fishing vessels sunk—five as against two the previous week.

TORNADOES SPREAD RUIN

GREAT LOSS OF LIFE AND PROPERTY IN MISSOURI AND PENNSYLVANIA.

Kansas City, Mo., June 6.—Tornadoes last night and early today spread death and destruction through rural districts of Missouri and Kansas. Reports tonight showed 15 were killed in Missouri and nine in Kansas. The number of injured has reached approximately 150 and estimates of the property damages place it anywhere from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000. The greatest loss of life apparently was in Boone county, Mo., where the tornado, dipping here and there as it raged from the southwestern to the northeastern corner, claimed 11 persons. In Carroll, Chariton and Ray counties, further west, four are dead, three at Richmond and one at Whittam.

In Kansas the deaths totalled eight in the country southeast and west of Topeka, one other was killed at Savonburg, near Iola, where the tornado appeared early today.

The course of the tornado was marked by odd jumps. First it appeared near Topeka, early in the day, and then came to earth again in Ray county, Mo., shortly before midday. Then it tore through a wide section of that county, wiped out half the town of Dean Lake, in Carroll county, and then swooped down again, demolishing the little town of Whittam. The tornado descended again at Providence in the hills of southwestern Boone county, and twisted its way through Midway, Prathersville, Hallsville and through Centerville, after which it disappeared and was heard of no more until it struck Savonburg, Kans., this morning.

Seven Persons Killed.

Springfield, Mo., June 6.—Seven persons were killed and much damage done in the apple belt tonight, when a tornado swooped down between Mountain Grove and Norwood. All wires are down and only meager reports have come from the stricken district.

Cyclone Killed Three.

St. Louis, June 6.—Three people were killed in a cyclone at Centerville, Mo., tonight.

One Man Killed.

Johnstown, Pa., June 6.—One man was killed and three men injured late today by a tornado-like wind storm that swept across the top of the Allegheny mountains near here late today. The men had driven into a barn for shelter and the barn collapsed. Thousands of dollars of damage was done to orchards and growing crops.

GERMANY EVEN REQUIRING ITS LUNATICS TO FIGHT.

London, June 6.—Lunatics do not make good soldiers, says the annual report of the lunatic asylum at Statin, Germany, which advises against any more of its inmates being conscripted for service with the colors.

"The asylums are proud that their inmates are allowed to serve the Fatherland," says the report, "but the results have not been satisfactory because the lunatics have generally proved to be an unbearable nuisance in the various armies in which they have served, refusing to obey orders, deserting from their companies and becoming vagrants. Hardly any are of any real value for military purposes and many have had to be sent back to the asylums."

The report complains of the increase in the death rate at the institution, owing to underfeeding, the rate of mortality having been increased last year to 97 persons in 1,000.

Turks Decide to Defend Jerusalem.

Stockholm, via London, June 5.—The Turks have changed their minds concerning the defence of Jerusalem, according to information reaching the Associated Press from a most trust-worthy source.

Less than a fortnight ago the Turks had decided to evacuate Jerusalem, without battle, provided the city was seriously menaced. It has been learned that this decision has been changed at the instance of the Germans and that the city will be defended.

TO HAVE 180,000 MEN THERE

THIS NUMBER OF TROOPS WILL BE SENT TO EUROPE BEFORE WINTER.

Washington, June 5.—The United States will send 180,000 troops to Europe before winter, according to plans being worked out by the army general staff today. Approximately 140,000 will be national guardsmen.

The guard regiment will be given a short period of intensive training at their state camps and the federal divisional encampments and then will be sent to France to complete their preparation behind the lines as announced by the International News Service last night. The entire command will be under Major General John J. Pershing.

The sending of the guardsmen abroad is in answer to the appeal of France for man power. The pressing necessity for every soldier available at the front if Germany is to be defeated has been made clear to President Wilson by Marshal Joffre and others. The decision to send the guardsmen abroad was taken, it is stated, because the majority of them already have had training on the border, while the regular army is needed to train the 500,000 selective conscripts who will be ordered out early in September.

Present plans of the general staff call for the sending of five divisions of national guardsmen to France by the end of September. The movement is expected to begin in August.

The divisions will be made up of regiments which showed the best condition while on the border. Illinois and New York will be expected to supply practically their whole strength, it is said, and Massachusetts also will be called upon for a heavy draft.

A heavy division numbers approximately 28,000 men. This would make the total force of guardsmen sent abroad 140,000. All the militia regiments are well equipped and have their own tentage and selecting them to go abroad would lift a great weight from the quartermaster general's department, already hard pressed with preparations for the draft army.

The guardsmen have been ordered out in three increments beginning July 15. They will be held at their state camps for about two weeks, according to the plans of the war department and then will be mobilized at divisional camps in the South.

Preparing for the influx of conscripts on September 1, the war department also proceeded with arrangements for cantonment camps. Six sites, all for national army cantonments, out of twelve selected under the thirty-two cantonment plan were re-approved today. They are at Linda Vista, Cal.; Columbia, S. C.; Wrightstown, N. J.; American Lake, Wash.; Atlanta, Ga., and Myers, Mass.

Secretary of War Baker refused to comment this afternoon on the plan to send national guardsmen to Europe.

"The only announcement so far made is that a division will be sent to Europe under General Pershing," he said. "Any other announcements that the department may have to make will be given out as it is deemed expedient."

Secretary Baker let it be known that he is urging action by Congress in making General Pershing a lieutenant general. His recommendations are that all the officers now holding the rank of major general be made lieutenant generals and that the brigadier generals be made major generals. He would abolish the rank of brigadier generals, having two grades in the major general rank.

Maximum Price For Corn.

Chicago, June 4.—Board of trade directors fixed a maximum price for corn late today, as was done with wheat several weeks ago. The price fixed was $1.65 on all contracts of corn for future delivery.

A special meeting of the directors was called immediately after trading closed this afternoon.

Excess Profits in Germany.

Berlin, June 6.—Two of the principal factories of the German gunpowder trust have declared dividends of 20 per cent and two others of sixteen per cent. Three of these factories are paying dividends on capital which was doubled last year. One German arms and munition company has declared a dividend of 30 per cent.

SOLDIERS OF DIXIE WELCOME

THE NATION'S CAPITAL SWARMING WITH THE VETERANS OF THE CIVIL WAR.

Washington, June 5.—Veterans and visitors in Washington by the thousands for the twenty-seventh annual reunion of the United Confederate veterans joined today in giving President Wilson a great ovation when he welcomed the soldiers of Dixie to the nation's capital, and told them that the country was beginning to understand that one of the purposes of Providence in keeping the nation united was for the opportunity now before America to fight for liberty and mankind. His declaration that the day was one of gladness because of the sacred memories and of a rededication of a united country to those principles that have made America great among the nations of the earth was greeted by the veterans with a rousing cheer.

The great hall in which the president spoke was filled with thousands and twice that many more had to be turned away because of the lack of room. While waiting for the president the veterans and visitors cheered the various leaders as they came on the platform. The marine band kept the old soldiers in a joyous humor by playing the beloved airs of the South and each time they swung into "Dixie" the "Rebel yell" would go ringing through the hall. The Confederate choir from Portsmouth, Va., dressed in gray Confederate jackets, sang "If you want to have a good time fine the cavalry." "Maryland, My Maryland," and other tunes to which the young men of the South marched to battle in the sixties.

The number of veterans here is estimated at nearly 7,000 and the tents provided for them on the union station plaza could not accommodate all of the late comers and nearby buildings had to be utilized. Officials who have charge of arrangements for the accommodations estimate the attendance as one of the largest gathered in Washington in some time. Many of the leaders declare this the largest reunion in point of attendance of visitors ever held.

Governor Bickett Speaks.

Governor T. W. Bickett, the second regiment band and twelve members of the governor's staff will spend a portion of the week here, arriving here Thursday.

The North Carolina Confederate veterans in the national capital will have an opportunity to hear Governor Bickett at the Casino theater Thursday night. The North Carolina Society in Washington has arranged for a reception and addresses from the governor and Representative Charles M. Stedman on that occasion.

More than 1,000 North Carolina veterans are already here and the number increases almost hourly. The local committees have not been able to take care of the visitors. There has been a lack of organization somewhere and many old fellows have actually suffered.

Those veterans who have money to pay for rooms have had much trouble getting places. Washington is unusually crowded because of the war and the revenue bill. The hotels were turning away people before the flood of veterans commenced to arrive.

But, barring many discomforts, some of which could have been avoided by proper efforts, the veterans are having a good time. They assemble in the tents at the "Tented City" near Union station, and talk over old times. They meet many men of the Union army and go over exciting times in which both engaged, but on opposite sides. They hear the old banjos, the old violins, the old fiddles and drums they used to hear. Many of them sing the old camp songs of 1861-1865. Hundreds of the Tar Heels called at North Carolina headquarters at the Oxford hotel today and registered and chatted with old comrades.

Certificates Oversubscribed.

Washington, June 6.—The government's latest offering of $200,000,000 in treasury certificates of indebtedness has been oversubscribed and the books were closed today, two days ahead of the designated time.

A VIOLENT ARTILLERY DUEL

A raid by a squadron of German airplanes over the counties of Essex and Kent, England, serves for the moment to distract attention from the maneuvers on the battle fronts, where for the most part artillery engagements are still in progress.

About 16 of the German aircraft were engaged in the attack, during which bombs were dropped and two persons were killed and 29 injured, and material damage resulted in residential sections. Taking to the air, British aviators succeeded in driving off the invaders, who lost two of their machines.

The British and Germans near Wytshaete, in Belgium, are still engaged in a violent artillery duel, which probably is the forerunner of a great infantry action at an early date. Already, according to Berlin, the British, after having hurled great quantities of steel against the German defenses, advanced to see the result of the work of their guns, but were forced by the German fire to return to their positions, whereupon the rain of British shell again was resumed.

There has been no resumption on the part of the line where the French are facing the Germans of the intense battles of Saturday and Sunday, and the artillery duels there have died down in volume.

During Tuesday, 13 German airplanes were accounted for by British aviators on the western battle front, 12 of them having been brought down in air fighting. The British themselves lost five machines.

Apparently the Austrians on the front from Gorizia to the sea are still the aggressors against the Italians, but according to the Rome war office, their attacks have all been repulsed, except south of Jamiano, where assaults compelled the Italians to give way.

A British squadron has heavily bombarded the German naval base at Ostend, Belgium, and also has sunk a German torpedo-boat destroyer and put to flight five other German vessels of this class in the North Sea. An Austrian destroyer has been sunk in the Adriatic by a submarine.

SUBMARINE SUNK BY ARMED SHIP. BELIEF.

Washington, June 6.—A German submarine is believed to have been sunk by an armed American steamer in a running fight lasting an hour and a half, in which 35 shots were fired by the submarine and 25 by the steamer. An official announcement by the state department today says the steamer's final shot "apparently struck the submarine, which raised clear out of the water and stood stern up for a few seconds. Then she disappeared."

The department's announcement follows:

"The department of state is advised by telegraph of an engagement between an armed American steamer and a submarine. The guns of the steamer were manned by an American naval crew. The submarine was first seen at about 7,000 yards. She had a six inch gun forward and another aft. She flew no flag.

"Upon sight of the submarine, the steamer hoisted the American flag and waited for about ten minutes. As the submarine approached the steamer fired. The submarine responded. The steamer kept a speed that would permit the submarine to come within range. Then followed a fight lasting for an hour and a half. The submarine came to a distance of about 2,300 yards. By that time the submarine had fired 35 shots and the steamer 25. The last shot of the steamer apparently struck the submarine, which raised clear out of the water and stood stern end up for a few seconds. Then she disappeared. The captain of the steamer and the commander of the guard believe that the submarine was sunk. The steamer suffered no damage."

THE TEACHERS' PENSION BILL

GUILFORD COUNTY TEACHERS
WILL ORGANIZE WITH 22
MEMBERS.

At a meeting of the board of education held on the second day of June the board formally adopted the Guilford County Teachers' Pension bill. Twenty-two teachers have joined the association and the sentiment among the teachers is decidedly in favor of a retirement fund. Those who are members of the association will meet on Monday, July 9, in the offices of the board of education to select one of their number to serve on the board of trustees. The board of education will also select a business man to serve on this board.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Sec. 1.—That the county board of education of Guilford county, N. C., by a majority vote may create a teachers' retirement fund and those who are eligible to participate in said fund may form an organization to be known as the "Teachers' Retirement Fund Association of Guilford County." Said fund shall be under the control and management of a board known as the board of trustees of the Teachers' Retirement Fund of Guilford County. Said board of trustees shall consist of the members of the county board of education, one person selected by the teachers' retirement fund association from their number, and one business man selected by the county board of education. The person selected by the association shall serve for a term of four years and at the expiration of his term his successor shall be chosen for a term of six years. The business man chosen shall serve for a term of six years, and at the expiration of his term his successor shall be chosen for a term of six years. The term of office for those selected from the association and the business man shall begin on the first Monday in July next succeeding their election.

Sec. 2. That any person who is now or shall hereafter be engaged in teaching or administration of public school work in Guilford county shall be eligible to membership, provided, that those who are eligible shall first make application to the county board of education in writing and pledge themselves to comply with the conditions imposed by this act, and whenever said application is accepted by the board of education the applicant shall become a member of the teachers' retirement fund association of Guilford county.

Sec. 3. That the trustees of the teachers' retirement fund shall be a body corporate by the name and style of board of trustees of the Teachers' Retirement Fund of Guilford County, and by that name shall be guardians of all funds secured for the purpose of awarding pensions to those who are entitled to the same under the provisions of this act. The said board is authorized to receive gifts, grants, or bequests, and the county board of education is authorized to appropriate to said fund not more than two per cent of the general school fund of the county, and each member of the teachers' retirement fund association shall pay into the fund not exceeding two per cent of the salary which the said applicant receives for services rendered to the public schools of the county.

Sec. 4. That before any one is eligible to participate in the benefits of this fund he shall have spent at least twenty-five years of service in teaching or administration work in the public schools of the state of North Carolina, the last ten of which must have been spent in Guilford county: Provided, further, that if a teacher or one engaged in administration is incapacitated by reason of physical or mental infirmities he may be retired on a pension after twenty years of service in the public schools of North Carolina, the last ten of which have been spent in Guilford county.

Sec. 5. That no person shall be retired or receive any benefits under this act until he has been a member of the association for five years. All who are engaged in public school teaching or administration at the time the county board of education authorizes the creation of the teachers' retirement fund shall be eligible to membership in the association, and those who enter the public school work of the county after the county board of education has authorized the creation of said fund shall be eligible for membership under such rules and regulations as the board of trustees may determine.

Sec. 6. That the amount of pension under this act shall be one-half of the average annual salary for the last five years of service rendered, provided, that no annual pension shall exceed six hundred dollars. If the funds are insufficient to pay in any one year all that is due under this act, then the amount available shall be pro-rated.

Sec. 7. That the board of trustees shall not pay any pensions under this act until it has secured a permanent fund of at least ten thousand ($10,000), and only the income derived from this permanent fund can be used in paying annual pensions: Provided, that all gifts, grants and bequests shall be added to the permanent investment fund: Provided, further, that if the annual revenue received from the interest on the permanent fund, the annual appropriation by the board of education from the general school fund, and the annual amount collected from the members of the association shall exceed the amount due the beneficiaries in any one year, the excess shall be added to the permanent investment fund.

Sec. 8. That the permanent fund created by this act shall be invested by the board of trustees in government bonds, state, county or municipal bonds, or loaned by note secured by first mortgage upon real estate. The loans upon real estate shall not exceed fifty per cent of the actual value of the property mortgaged.

Sec. 9. That the board of trustees are empowered to make rules and regulations and are given full authority to do any and all things to carry out the provisions of this act, provided, they do not violate any of its expressed commands.

Sec. 10. That this act shall apply to Guilford county only.

Sec. 11. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

A Denver, Col., dispatch says the last tribute was paid Sunday to the memory of Col. William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) by a vast assemblage when the body of the famous scout and plainsman was placed in a vault blasted from solid rock on top of Lookout mountain, twenty miles from Denver.

More than 10,000 people attended the ceremonies.

The ceremony at the grave was simple. The Masonic ritual was under the direction of the Golden Masonic lodge. A delegation of Knights Templar from North Platte, Neb., where Col. Cody held his membership, acted as an escort.

At the conclusion of the services a bugler sounded taps. When the last note had died out a battery of Colorado national guard artillery fired a salute of thirteen guns and the Stars and Stripes were hoisted from a flag at the grave.

The body was transported to a vault hewn in the solid rock of "Wildcat Point," on Lookout Mountain, there to remain.

From the summit of the mountain the plains of the states of Kansas, Nebraska and Wyoming are visible. It was upon these plains that the old scout and hunter spent his early life. Often in later years when a showman he had gone to the place and it was his fondness for the scenery that led those in charge of his funeral to choose "Wildcat Point" as the pioneer's last resting place.

Colonel Cody died on January 10 last. On January 14 public funeral services, attended by thousands of persons within and outside of Colorado, were held for the plainsman. Sunday's services were simple and no provision had been made for the attendance of a great crowd. The massive bronze coffin containing the great scout's body was sealed into the vault with the rites of the Masonic burial service, which was performed by Golden City Lodge No. 1, the oldest Masonic organization in this part of the West. A delegation of Knights Templar from the commandery in North Platte, of which Colonel Cody also was a member, acted as escort. Members of the Rocky Mountain Rangers, of which organization the colonel was a member, formed a guard of honor.

The vault in which the body was placed will be in the center of a memorial building to be erected to the memory of the pioneers of all America. The rotunda of this building will be the tomb of Colonel Cody, while its wings will be devoted respectively to a liberty of pioneer lore and a gallery in which are to be hung paintings of the great pioneers of surrounded by a granite terrace on each state. This building is to be surrounded by a granite terrace on which will be a bronze equestrian statue of Colonel Cody.

CHANCE TO GET MONEY BACK

SMITH FORM-A-TRUCK PER-
FECTS A STANDARD ATTACH-MENT FOR ANY MACHINE.

Announcement is made by the Smith Motor Truck Corporation, manufacturers of the Smith Form-a-Truck, that a standard attachment has been perfected and that now any leading machine can be converted form an inutility vehicle into a producing force. The Form-a-Truck is the first to standardize, and the placing of this unusual attachment upon the market is the indication that the Form-a-Truck is getting away from its dependence upon the Ford.

"This attachment is designed to be as useful to the owner of every other make of car as it is to the possessor of the Ford," states Mr. C. W. Jennings, who handles the Smith Form-a-Truck in this city.

"We have opened up a new field which should be fruitful for the car owner, who desires to make practical use of his machine, and prevent wholesale loss on his investment. Instead of having a practically worthless piece of machinery on his hands at the end of a third season, his pleasure car is useful.

"The motor owner, no matter what make of car he may have purchased, now has an opportunity to get his money back through converting his old machine into a new commercial car. Demand for one-ton and one-and-a-half ton trucks is so great at present that there is no difficulty in disposing of the converted machine."

SOBER THOUGHT ON THE WAR.

The excitement of our entry into the war for liberty in order that the world might be safe for democracy has passed away. The exaggerated patriotism of the man who jammed for war has surrendered to those who have come out for service.

The people at home owe the soldiers at the front one thing above all else, that they shall guard their passions, smother their emotions and be on their guard lest the intensity of their feelings obscure the cause of their nation's struggle. The people at home should not endanger the lives of American soldiers in order to appease a longing cry for vengeance. They should remember that they are at home, and that the lists were open for them to take up the fight, but that they stayed at home, and were silent, when the call for men went around.

We have some training now, we know others dear to us, who will see service should the war last, and we sorrow at their loss, even though it be but for a day of their lives. To turn a man from the peaceful pursuits of life is a fearful thing and to train a nation to kill is a thing that should not be prolonged. We regret that war has come to our country and we insist that it must not be needlessly extended in order to enforce striking victory by either side. This is in line with President Wilson's idea of peace without victory; in no other way can permanent peace be found. The world will be made safe for democracy, not through compulsion, but through adjustment, compromise and conciliation.

THE STORM IN THE WEST.

The journey of the cyclone which has appeared in seven states of the union has been littered with debris and dead. It is beyond the imagination of those who have not witnessed the destruction to conceive of a more terrifying spectacle, or of a disaster more sinister in its toll.

From Illinois to Arkansas are country homes in ruins with bodies buried beneath the timber. Along its course the tornado, twisted and swirled, hitting here a town, there a town, here a settlement, there a settlement, jumping into the air and missing the earth again for miles, to attack again with violence the innocent habitations of man.

We can hardly understand the awe with which citizens witness the dread funnel shapes cloud approaching. Before time has elapsed for men to secure their families, before children could scurry into safety, the tormenting vortex has gripped them and their abodes, lifting them into the air, casting them to earth again, to destruction and to death.

One of the freakish things reported was the stunt of the tornado in picking up six cars of a train and carrying them a quarter of a mile, where they were destroyed. This was a freak happening, but the deaths and the wounds and the wrecks were not freaks, they were the result of the tornado itself, the fruit of its growth.

PENSIONS FOR THE WAR OF 1917

The first claims for pensions, due to deaths resulting from the war of 1917, as Washington dubs this struggle, have been entered in a book for the purpose. One was filed by a widow of a gunner who lost his life on a ship sunk by a submarine and the other was by the mother of a guardsman who was killed while on duty at a railroad trestle.

We do not object to the state paying the dependent of a man killed in the service of the country, but if the pensions for the present war ever amount to the grab game of the present system it will be hard on the honest man. Something should be done to safeguard an enormous expense after the war. Interest on the debt will be enough by itself.

RUSSIA POINTS THE WAY.

The Russian revolutionists have appealed to the Socialists of Great Britain and France for a peace "without annexation or indemnities" and the recognition of "the right of the people to settle their destinies." The same appeal has been sent to Germany and Austria.

This is easily the platform upon which peace should be made. All nations now engaged in the struggle, including the United States, should signify their acceptance of such a program. It would be a long step to the end of warfare.

MAKE THE JAPS CONTRIBUTE.

A prominent Chilean has declared that "the safety of the American state demands that Japan should enter the war with all resources." We are inclined to agree with the speaker and concur in his further remark that "Japan has already reaped important material advantages and is exercising certain supremacy on the Asiatic continent. The American state should not be left to exhaust herself to the point of falling under the menace of another domination."

PLAN TO PREVENT GROWTH OF HORNS.

A San Francisco special of a recent date says that the suffering caused thousands of cattle each year as a result of dehorning has led the State Humane Association of California to make an effort to stop the practice. It is claimed dehorning has been growing in favor due to popular belief that dehorned cattle graze better, fatten more easily and sell for a higher price than horned cattle.

The association asserts, however, that the lives of many animals are lost through the operation, as not infrequently infection sets in. The horn of a grown animal contains a mass of sensitive tissues, the severing of which causes acute pain and, in every case, suffering of intense character.

Prevent Growth of Horn.

The growth of the horn can be prevented, states the association, by the use of caustic potash applied as soon as the horn starts to grow, when the animal is between three and four months old. As soon as the budding horn can be distinguished by the touch, the hair should be clipped from the skin and the horn moistened with soapy water to which a few drops of ammonia have been added. This dissolves the oily secretion of the skin, so that the potash will more readily adhere to the surface of the horn. The caustic potash may then be applied, repeating the operation at intervals six or seven times until the part becomes slightly sensitive.

Leaves Smooth Poll.

A slight scab will form and drop off in the course of a month or six weeks, leaving a perfectly smooth poll. The operation is practically without pain and can be employed even with calves that are five and six months old. In such cases the horns will become soft and chalky, and can be gently scratched away, fresh caustic potash being applied until they disappear.

Having Beans.

E. P. Bunch brought a well formed bean to the office on Tuesday, and stated that he gathered three quarts from his vines that morning. They were the Early Mohawk variety, the very earliest green bean grown in this section.—Williamston Enterprise.

The Texas Surplus.

We suppose it will gratify the president to know that Texas will produce all the food she needs except the salt mackerel, cranberries and mushrooms, an dthis we hope to buy with the proceeds of the $200,000,000 surplus food that we intend to sell.—Houston Post.

VETERAN ROBBED OF HIS BRASS BUTTONS.

Washington, June 5.—Capt. W. E. Weaver, of Asheville, today was besieged by a group of Maryland ladies. Before he could get away, they had cut from his coat several brass buttons. Mr. Weaver was greatly elated tonight that he had been chosen from a group for this form of honor. He was selected because he was "the tallest in the bunch." He said he would order more buttons. Captain Weaver is father of Congressman Weaver, of the tenth district.

Clad in a uniform of Confederate gray and wearing the insignia of a private of company K, 34th North Carolina regiment, there stepped into the army recruiting tent on Pennsylvania avenue a gray-haired veteran yesterday afternoon, a veteran who followed the Stars and Bars in '61, who expressed the desire to enlist and serve under the Stars and Stripes with the new army which Uncle Sam is raising to fight the Kaiser's legions in Europe.

In the eyes of this Tar Heel veteran was reflected the same patriotism for his native land that caused him to answer the call to the colors in '61. Despite his 75 years, he appeared almost as fit as the recruits of 1917 who are volunteering for service across the Atlantic, and was keenly disappointed when informed by Sergeant W. C. Hunt, on duty at the tent station, that he was over age for enlistment. He declared that he was a fighting man of four years' experience.

His name was given as Martin Rush, of Montgomery county, N. C., and when it was explained that it was impossible to secure a waiver for a man his age, the old fellow grinned and said:

"I have three grandsons in the army, and I guess they will uphold the traditions of the family."

Going to the War.

No one knows the poignant grief of it like the mother who gives up her boy. The first acts of the silent tragedies are being put on now—already in many homes the last supper has been eaten together, and the last good-byes said. Off to put on the khaki, off to march to the strains of the Star Spangled Banner. With solemn pride we stand the leave-taking, for nothing is nobler in history than the defense of liberty. And that's what it is. It is that the world may be safe for democracy—for human peace, prosperity and happiness.—Danbury Reporter.

Potato Growers Busy Now.

The potato growers in these parts are busy now harvesting their crops and will be until about the 10th of June. By that time the crop will practically all have been gathered.—Beaufort News.

Signs of the Times.

There was never a time in the history of this generation when the people of Granville county were buying and laying aside such stores of foodstuffs as at present. For once in the history of the country the farmers have fully made up their minds to preserve all their surplus fruits and vegetables.—Oxford Public Ledger.

PINE CREST.

We are glad to have Miss Jessie Swain, of North Greensboro, in our community. She has been the guest of Miss Estelle Jones for the past few days. We hope that Miss Swain may make us another visit.

The farmers were greatly favored with the much needed rain which came the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Johnson, of Liberty, spent Sunday with Mrs. Johnson's sister, Mrs. I. C. Jones.

The Mt. Hope Sunday school is preparing for a children's day exercise. The date will be published later.

THE PATRIOT'S BUSY FRIENDS

—Attention is directed to the certificate of dissolution of Hardwood Manufacturing Company, of this city in another column today.

—Citizens living near the Guilford College and Oak Ridge roads have petitioned the county commissioners for a public road in that section of the county. See notice elsewhere.

—All applicants for license to conduct pool and billiard rooms must file the same with the county commissioners as required by law. The applications of C. M. Webster, at White Oak, and J. M. Newlin, at McAdoo Heights, have been filed. See notice in another part of today's Patriot.

—J. H. Venable, the local representative of Oxweld Acetylene Company, of Chicago, has another illustrated announcement of the Pilot-Carbide Lighting and Cooking Plants on the third page today. The Oxweld company is said to be the largest makers of private lighting and cooking plants in the world, and if you are interested it will pay you to see Mr. Venable.

—Large numbers of people from the country visited the sales rooms of the Greensboro Auction and Sales Company, at 339-341 South Elm street this week and secured some of those good values in furniture and housefurnishings offered by Manager Silver in last week's Patriot. Mr. Silver is in Charlotte today attending the "old boss" sale of the Southern Railway and when he returns he expects to "have some extra good bargains to offer you. See his furniture ad. on the eighth page today.

—"It's a false alarm!" That is, the impression that summer footwear is unreasonably high this season. Thacker & Brockmann are still selling good shoes and oxfords for men at $3 to $4. Patent pumps for ladies at $2.50 to $3.50. Kid pumps for ladies at $3 to $4, and kid oxfords for ladies at $2.50 to $3.50. They also have a very good line of girls, boys and infants' slippers at very moderate prices. These goods were all bought before the advance, and these gentlemen are giving their friends the benefit of the saving. See ad. on the fifth page today.

—The American Realty and Auction Company, Thomas Bros., managers, has sub-divided the Robert Harris farm of 1,100 acres, near Reidsville, and will sell these small tracts at public auction on next Tuesday, June 12, the sale beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning and continuing until every tract is sold. This farm is now owned by Mr. D. R. Huffine, of this city, who has decided to give others a chance to own a small farm at their own price. If you are interested be sure and read the big announcement of this sale on the third page today.

Alumni Day at Trinity College.

Durham, June 5.—"If I had a little yellow dog, with a greasy nose and bobbed tail, I would not call him Nero, but brand him as Bernstorff," was the emphatic and uncompromising statement of Dr. James S. Montgomery, eminent Methodist minister of Washington City, in addressing the alumni luncheon at Trinity College this afternoon. He had just suggested the invidiousness of the German spy system that branched from Washington throughout the United States, and this characterization of the German ambassador came as the climax to an eloquent plea for a unity of Americanism. "The world is my country, and to do good is my religion," is the maxim he offered for adoption. The praiseworthy terms of President Wilson that concluded his speech brought forth a storm of applause from "old Grads" of Trinity—some 175 that had gathered in Angier Duke gymnasium.

Getting Behind the Bible.

There has been a small amount of opposition to the selective draft law on the grounds that it may take married men contrary to the Biblical injunction. Says Deuteronomy: "When a man hath taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war, neither shall he be charged with any business; but he shall be free at home one year, and shall cheer up his wife which he hath taken." However, in time of war these days little heed is paid to Biblical injunctions, and no man with a "new wife" can feel himself safe.—Wadesboro Messenger and Intelligencer.

Flour High.

Ten dollars a barrel for flour is the price the employees of the Enterprise Manufacturing Company, at Coleridge, and the Central Falls Hill Company, at Central Falls, are paying while the retail price is soaring around $18 a barrel.—Asheboro Courier.

SOUTH BUFFALO.

Mr. and Mrs. William Causey, Jr., have moved to their farm near here. Rev. Dr. E. C. Murray will preach at Brown's school house next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Master Charles Causey spent Saturday night at Mr. W. A. Causey's.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fogleman and son John visited at Mr. Monroe Greeson's, near Mill Point, recently.

Shady Grove Sunday school is preparing for a children's day exercise, the date will be announced later.

Mrs. J. A. Lewis, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at St. Leo's hospital some time ago, has returned home much improved in health.

Master Colen Forsyth, from Greensboro, is visiting Mr. Charlie Gorrell.

Miss Jennie Forsyth, from Greensboro, visited her brother, Mr. George Forsyth, recently.

DOCTORS URGE THAT LESS MEAT BE EATEN.

New York, June 6.—A resolution urging the American people to eat less meat and more corn, rice and barley products as substitutes were adopted today by the house of delegates of the American Medical Association, in convention here. The memorial will be sent to President Wilson, Herbert C. Hoover and to Congress.

The resolution was introduced by Dr. Seale Harris, of Birmingham, Ala., who said the country was facing a shortage of meat and wheat products. Dr. Harris declared consumption of wheat products could be reduced 50 per cent by using meal, hominy and other corn products, and that the average life of the nation's adults could be extended perhaps 10 years if each person ate only a small portion of meat once a day.

Dog Days Early.

An Iowa citizen wants to raise $25,000,000 of the war revenue by a $5 tax on dogs. Senator Stone says why not turn them into sausage. Another member of Congress says tax dogs $25. Surely the dog days are coming early in 1917.—Washington Herald.

"LEAKS" BY WAY OF MEXICO?COMPLETE WIRELESS PLANTS
SENT TO MEXICO BY PIECEMEAL.

New York, June 4.—Evidence that two complete high-powered wireless installations, assembled here from various sources, were shipped piecemeal to Mexico, supposedly for use of a German spy system in this country, was unearthed today in connection with the arrest of three men on charges of conspiring to send mail, containing military information, surreptitiously from the United States to Germany through members of Norwegian ship crews.

It was intimated by the United States commissioner before whom the alleged plotters were arraigned that it was through their instrumentality that advance news of the impending arrival in England of the American fleet was sent to Germany before it became generally known in this country that it had sailed.

With only a scratching of the surface of the mass of evidence in the government's hands, indications have been found that the secret mail system was operated both ways between the United States, Germany and Mexico. Several hundred letters have been seized, written in English, German and Spanish, and some apparently in code. They are being translated in the expectation that they will open the way to full revelations of the alleged spy plot which is said to point to other persons besides those under arrest.

The prisoners are Harry F. Perissi and Irving Bonaparte, both said to be American born, employed by a German electrical company here, and Axel E. Melcher, said to be a naturalized citizen from Sweden. They are charged with conspiring to induce members of the crews of the steamships Bergensfjord and Kristianfjord, both chartered to carry regular United States mails, to take letters and packages from this country destined for Germany, in violation of the law prohibiting competition with the United States mail. The maximum penalties provided by the statutes under which the charges are brought are $10,000 fine and two years' imprisonment for conspiracy, and $500 fine and six months' imprisonment for competing with the mails, but it was said that the investigation would continue with a view of determining where treason had been committed.

Bail was fixed at $25,000 for Perissi and Bonaparte, and $20,000 for Melcher. Upon objection by counsel for the men to these amounts as excessive, United States Commissioner Hitchcock said:

"These are unusual times and while the people of our own country did not even know of the departure of our destroyers, it was published four days ahead of their arrival in England in the papers in Berlin, and it is my understanding that this case is part and parcel of the same inquiry."

He held the men in the amounts asked for examination Wednesday morning. That others are implicated and that the men under arrest are going to tell all they know was intimated by counsel for Bonaparte, who said his client was willing to help the government in every way in his power. Perissi, speaking in his own behalf, said "I did not start a conspiracy—the mail came to me first from others, and I had nothing to do with the crews of the ships."

A fourth man was detained, but not arrested, pending further investigation of evidence connecting him with the others, particularly in the wireless part of the alleged plot. He is Ferdinand H. Adam, a German citizen, employed by an electrical company here.

Evidence has been found indicating that with his help the apparatus was assembled and consigned to the Cruz. Government officers are trying to determine whether he was the apparatus was to be used for a German spy system, or whether there is anything to show the crime was espionage.

Parts of the outfit got through. A part was held up in this country. The outfit is a complete set, capable of communicating with Germany, was seized by the constables in Mexico and has been determined.

May Try by Court Martial Men Arrested in New York.

Washington, June 5.—If the three men arrested in New York in the mail plot case are connected by the evidence with the forewarning which reached Berlin regarding the sailing of American destroyers, a military court-martial is one of the possibilities facing the prisoners.

No comment on the case was forthcoming tonight from the department of justice, under whose authority the original prosecution was brought, or the war department, under whose jurisdiction the case might fall.

HOW HOOVER GOT THE FLOURTHREAT TO ASQUITH GOT BEL-GIANS FLOUR SUPPLY ON SHORT NOTICE.

New York, June 5.—A friend who has recently returned from France told me this story about Herbert Hoover, which illustrates what the American people may expect of him when he takes hold of the food question in earnest.

Early in the war, when the relief committee was driven to desperate straits to feed the starving women and children of Belgium, the patriotic women of Canada sent over a shipload of flour for their troops on English soil.

Hoover realized that the Canadian soldiers did not need the bread that the poor little children were waiting for. He went to the colonel of the Canadian contingent and asked for the flour. He was met with a polite but decisive refusal.

"It cannot be done," was the reply; "we cannot deflect a most patriotic and beautiful gift from the women of Canada to their loved ones into a different channel."

"But I've got to have the flour," was Mr. Hoover's parting comment. He went to the next man in authority and got the same answer. All through the red tape of army and civilian service went this man who had sworn to feed Belgium's starving mouths, until at last he reached Asquith, then premier of Great Britain.

The premier was delighted to see the man who was doing so much for Belgium. What could he do for him?

"You can give me that shipload of flour sent over for the Canadian troops," answered Hoover bluntly.

"Impossible. It is against all British tradition," said the premier, "that the government of Great Britain should arbitrarily send to someone else a gift from the patriotic women of one of its colonies to their own loved ones."

"I don't care a darn for your traditions," exclaimed Hoover. "These Belgian women and children are starving."

"Mr. Hoover, I have never been spoken to like this before."

"I am sorry, Mr. Asquith, but I've got to have that flour."

"I am very sorry, but it will be impossible for me to give it to you."

"That is your final answer, Mr. Asquith?"

"Absolutely final. I cannot possibly give any other."

Hoover took out his watch and looked at it thoughtfully. "In just five minutes I shall leave here," he said quietly, "and will go directly to the offices of the Press Associations and cable the fact that with a shipload of flour available, England is letting the Belgians starve. Bully newspaper story, don't you think, Mr. Asquith?"

Hoover got the flour and also the admiration and respect of Asquith, who has been one of his staunchest friends every since.

DANVILLE VETERAN DIES AS HE IS READY TO LEAVE.

Danville, June 4.—James P. Hodnett, one of the oldest of the Danville Confederate veterans, made plans Saturday to leave for Washington to attend the reunion, an annual event he has not missed for a number of years. At 9 o'clock he called at the office of the chief of police to get the free ticket to Washington and back supplied by the city. The ticket was handed to him and after shaking hands with the police chief and expressing himself as eager to be at the reunion, he left. Just as he reached the foot of the court house steps firemen saw him totter and fall. They ran to him and felt his heart but it had stopped beating and the city physician who was called by telephone said that apoplexy had caused his death. He was 80 years of age.

Biggest Corn Planter.

Mr. M. R. Long will plant more corn and raise more corn, than any single planter in the country. The scene presented at his farm just on the outskirts of town reminded one of the way they do things out West. Monday and Tuesday he had ten double teams, and they were sure enough teams, big, strong mules, all at work in one field.—Roxboro Courier.

Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey will stop that hacking cough that lingers from January. The soothing pine balsams loosen the phlegm, heal the irritated membrane, the glycerine relieves the tender tissues, you breathe easier and coughing ceases. Don't neglect a lingering cough, it is dangerous. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is antiseptic and pleasant to take, benefits young and old, get it at your druggist today. BOMBARDMENT LASTING
ONE HUNDRED MINUTES.

London, June 5.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Flushing says that, according to a frontier correspondent, the bombardment of Zeebrugge last night was the most formidable since the war began. It was carried out by the fleet with heavy guns and lasted for 100 minutes.

"The damage must have been severe," says the dispatch, "for the explosions were heard continuously until 8 o'clock this morning. Several fires were seen. The German batteries replied forcibly but owing to the mist, found it difficult to locate the positions of the British ships and it is not believed they got a single hit."

"This morning German soldiers were busy clearing up the debris and removing the dead and wounded."

The Strenuous Idea of Liberty.

That preacher who discontinued his Sunday morning service in order that his congregation may stay at home and make a garden believes in a God who helps those who help themselves. Also he believes that liberty and America are worth fighting for, and he knows that hungry soldiers can not do much fighting. At the right time that man will lead his flock into the battle if need may be—and history will inscribe the name of another hero.—Houston Post.

Sprains and Strains Relieved.

Sloan's Liniment quickly takes the pain out of strains, sprains, bruises and all muscle soreness. A clean, clear liquid easily applied, it quickly penetrates without rubbing. Sloan's Liniment does not stain the skin or clog the pores like mussy plasters or ointments. For chronic rheumatic aches and pains, neuralgia, gout and lumbago have this well-known remedy handy. For the pains of grippe and following strenuous work, it gives quick relief. At all druggists, 25 cents. adv.

The Farm Thresher!

The 24x32 1/2 "Waynesboro Eclipse Thresher" exactly meets the requirements of the farmer who has a 4 or 6 H. P. Steam Engine, or 7 or 10 H. P. Oil Engine of his own. With this Light Weight Thresher—which weighs about twenty-eight hundred pounds—included in his farm equipment, he can Thresh Wheat, Oats, Rye, Barley, Buckwheat, Peas and Beans, and do so just at the right time, when these crops should be garnered. "No waiting." But thresh fast or slow as best suits the conditions. This is a good Thresher for the thresherman, who goes from farm to farm to THRESH for his neighbors. It has good capacity.

We can furnish you a long list of satisfied customers, if you will only write us.

Farmers, Threshermen—with an estimated shortage in the wheat crop of 430,000,000 bushels, and 300,000,000 bushels already contracted to Europe, will it not pay you to operate a Thresher? The price of grain is going to remain high. WRITE US FOR PRICES AND TERMS.

SCHOOL BOND ELECTION.

Fentress Township Special Tax
School District.

A petition having been presented to the Board of County Commissioners signed by one-fourth of the legal voters of the Fentress Township Special Tax School District, asking that a special election be held to ascertain the wishes of the people within the said school district, whether they desired the amount of Forty Thousand Dollars ($40,000) should be issued in bonds for the purpose of erecting a new school building in Chapter 480 Public Laws of North Carolina, session 1917, as amended by session 1917, and whether they desired to authorize any school district in Guilford county to issue bonds for permanent improvements to school buildings, and furnishing the same with suitable equipment, and the Board of Education of said county, in accordance with said act, a new registration is hereby ordered for the said election, and the same is ordered to be held at the Fentress Garden public school building, on Friday, June 15, 1917.

A. F. Ross is hereby appointed registrar, and Robert Moore and B. Watlington are appointed judges of said election.

In accordance with said act, the following is the form of the ballot to be written or printed on the ballot for the said election, and those desiring to vote a ballot on which shall be written or printed the words, "Yes" or "No."

It is further ordered that the registration books for said election be open from Thursday, May 17, 1917, to Friday, June 2, 1917.

By order of the Board of County Commissioners this 5th day of May, 1917.

LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF FORM

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO THE READERS OF THE PATRIOT FAR AND NEAR.

$798,000 in Liberty Bonds Sold.

Reports from the county indicate that about $798,000 in liberty bonds has been subscribed for, and it is hoped that before the time for subscriptions closes Guilford county will bring its subscriptions up to a million dollars. The campaign has been on for two or three days in which the people of the city have been solicited for these small subscriptions.

Enlarging Reservoir.

Messrs. Cone and Sternberger are enlarging the reservoir which supplies the Revolution mills at a cost of about $100,000. This reservoir will be filled from Buffalo creek by hydraulic pressure, and will contain about fifty million gallons of water. The lake will cover twelve to fifteen acres of ground. About fifty men with mule teams are at work upon the venture.

In the Federal Court.

Wednesday Judge Boyd addressed the Federal grand jury for the present term. The judge commented on the war, the draft law, and went at some length into an explanation of the justness of America's present position. The work of the court in the actual trial of cases was very little. The case against the Smiths, of Smithtown, who are charged with the interference with federal officers in Virginia, was continued. Two indictments in cases were tried, but verdicts had not been rendered when court adjourned. The defendants are P. P. Shoo, of Guilford, and Warren Wilson, of Orange county.

Red Men in Session Saturday.

The Red Men of the sixth district will have a big meeting here Saturday with sessions in the afternoon and at night. The meeting will be called to order by District Sachem A. C. Staley. Address of welcome will be by F. J. Blackwood and response by H. J. Wynn. Officers for the next term will be elected and the next place of meeting chosen. At the evening session there will be reports from tribes in the district. General business will be considered and there will be several addresses by prominent members of the order, after which refreshments will be served.

Coltrane-Dawson.

A wedding of great interest was that of Miss Elizabeth Coltrane, of this city, to S. Vance Dawson, of Greenville, S. C., Tuesday night at 8:30 o'clock at West Market Street Methodist church. The ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Dr. E. L. Bain. The wedding party consisted of the strains of Lohengrin wedding march. The ushers, Prof. A. L. Hook, of Elon College, and Mr. B. B. Gunter, of Greensboro, entered first. They were followed by the bridesmaids who were Vernor Isley, of Gibsonville; Ralph L. Lewis, of Greensboro; W. P. Landroth, of Besoe. The bridesmaids came next. They were Misses Lillian Russell, of Charlotte; Fannie Hendrix, Helen Richard and Mable Dawson, of Greensboro. Next came the attractive little flower girl, Miss Virginia McClamroch. Then entered the contracting parties. The impressive ceremony was used. After the ceremony the bride and groom left on a southbound train. Both young people are well known in the county for their many splendid qualities.

Lambeth-Harrell.

A marriage of interest was that of Miss Ione Lambeth, of Guilford College, to Lieut. S. D. Harrell, of company K, second North Carolina infantry, Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. L. Bain, pastor of the West Market Street Methodist church, of Greensboro. After June 10, Mr. and Mrs. Harrell will be at home in Weldon, where Lieut. Harrell is stationed.

Child's Funeral.

The funeral of Albert Hunter Tucker, the three and one-half year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Tucker, of Pleasant Garden, was held Monday afternoon in the Pleasant Garden Methodist church. Rev. R. M. Andrew, of Grace M. P. church, assisted by Rev. C. E. Hodgkin and Rev. C. F. Sherrill, conducted the services. The pall-bearers were Misses Sadie Tucker, Rachel Tucker, Louise Rankin and Annie Coble. The flower-bearers were Misses Fay Adeock, Elizabeth Rankin, Frances Tucker, Tela Swaim, Sarah Neelley, Sarah Coble, Leona Wells, Ethel Wells, Margaret Daily and Sue Jeffries.

Frazier-Sellers.

Miss Mary Gertrude Frazier was married to Baxter Scales Sellers at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Frazier, 313 West Washington street, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. F. E. Smith, pastor of the Friends church, officiated, and the ring service of his church was used. Mr. and Mrs. Sellers left on the northbound train at 10 o'clock for a trip to New York. Upon their return they will be at home temporarily with the bride's parents. Mr. Sellers is connected with the Proximity Manufacturing Company and the bride is an attractive young woman, and a graduate of Guilford College.

City Planner Arrives.

Charles Mulford Robinson, the city planner employed by the old board of city commissioners, is in the days. L. E. Jefferies, general counsel for the Southern Railway Company, has been invited by Mayor Stafford to come while Mr. Robinson is here in order that plans for the new passenger station and underpass at Davis street may be discussed. The city of Greensboro and several progressive citizens have had a route surveyed to the south of the city for a proposed track that would take care of a great deal of freight traffic and also provide sites for manufacturing plants. This survey will be submitted to Mr. Jefferies and Mr. Robinson while they are here.

R. M. Wharton Killed.

Mr. R. M. Wharton, who came to Greensboro about a year ago and established a grocery business on Summit avenue, was the victim of a fatal accident in Raleigh Monday when he was killed by being run over by train No. 112. Mr. Wharton was on his way to Pamlico county, his old home, to sell his farm there. He was a passenger on No. 112 and had left the train during the wait in Raleigh. When the train pulled out, Mr. Wharton rushed towards the train as if to catch it, but seemingly he did not try to get on the train but crawled under the moving wheels with the result that he was horribly mangled. The remains were carried to Pamlico county for burial. The dead man, previous to his removal to Greensboro, was a large planter with extensive holdings in Pamlico county.

REGULAR MEETING OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The commissioners Monday made the first move towards getting help from the federal fund provided for the improvement of roads. The federal plan is to give $15,000 to the county for the improvement of the state highway, running through the county from Gibsonville to High Point, provided the county will furnish an equal sum. The commissioners Monday set aside the necessary 10 per cent guarantee of $1,500, and promises to pay up the remaining $13,500 if the federal authorities finally decide to appropriate to the section of the state highway running through Guilford.

Dr. Jones submitted his monthly report on the health of the county. The report showed the county to be in good shape in respect to health.

Tuesday the county commissioners made their annual tax levy. An extra 5 per cent was put on every $100 worth of assessed property. This increase of tax is for the purpose of raising money to make possible the erection of the new court house. Other taxes were left as formerly.

Three special school tax district elections were passed on by the commissioners. Friendship and Ridgefield special school tax districts voted for better schools. Hickory Grove refused to pass the special tax. A tax levy for the two districts passing the special tax was ordered made according to law.

Southern Spending $1,250,000.

The Southern Railway Company is spending a tremendous amount of money in building the new round-house and enlarging the yards at Pomona. The company estimates that these improvements will cost $1,250,000. This is more than double the estimates made before work was commenced. When it was announced several months ago that the work would be done the estimate was that the improvements would cost $400,000. From time to time the company has elaborated its plans until the amount of work to be done, has been about tripled. A large force of hands are at work, and on week days the yards and new round-house show as much activity as any place in the city. A large amount of grading has been done in order to provide for the tracks and approaches to the round-house. The new round-house is at the intersection of the road from Winston-Salem with the main line, and the lot on which it is situated adjoins the Pomona mills property.

RALEIGH GERMANS WILL HELP THE GARDENERS.

No slackers will be found among the German American population in North Carolina if the spirit displayed by one well-known Raleigh citizen of German birth is a fair example of the attitude of German Americans generally.

Mr. E. Schilling, of this city, in a letter to Governor Bickett, expresses his regret as being too old for military service. Since he is too old for such service he writes:

"I would like to render my services to the grandest state in the union to help those who are unable to work their gardens because of sickness or disease, and I can spare almost every day from two to three hours. * * * Or should you need my services for the good of the state, county or city only let me know and I will cheerfully respond at any time."

Mr. Schilling is offering his services gratis for the country and the benefit of those individuals who would be benefited by his labor.

Mr. Schilling is a commission merchant and broker, and for years has been an honored and respected citizen of Raleigh. He was naturalized in 1864.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Almost Unanimous.

Nearly every war road leads to Berlin these days. Brazil is assuming a hostile attitude to Germany. Chile is becoming fighting mad with her, the Spanish people are getting their blood up, and even the patient and pacific Chinese are meditating an expression of displeasure. Before long the vote against Prussianism will be almost unanimous. Very likely Turkey and Bulgaria wish they had not cast in their lot with the kaiser.

It has rarely, if ever, happened before that practically the sentiment of the whole world was united in condemnation of one nation. Is it difficult to find the reason?—Baltimore Sun.

Sure Death to Potato Bugs.

Mr. W. J. Whitfield, of Route 1, was a welcome visitor to this office yesterday, and while here he gave us a recipe for killing potato bugs. He says if you will get some little cedar limbs and boil them in a pot of water and, after the water cools, sprinkle the potato vines with it, the bugs will surely die.—Roxboro Courier.

Smith Form-a-Truck $350
F.O.B. CHICAGO

Does 4 Times the Work of 2 Horses

It won't take you long to appreciate what it means to make $1 pay for the work of $4. That is just about the proportion of Smith Form-a-Truck hauling cost to the cost of hauling with horses. And in addition, you can keep your horses busy on your farm without slowing up on any of your farm work, when it is necessary to make trips to town.

Smith Form-a-Truck will haul twice the load that you can haul with a good pair of horses.

It will haul it three times as fast.

Make one trip do the work that previously required two.

It is doing this for farmers all over the country. Practically every modern, up-to-date, scientific profitably operated farm uses Smith Form-a-Truck.

Smith Form-a-Truck will quickly enable you to sell the horses that you now keep for hauling, save the many charges horses cost you for feed and stabling.

In winter, in rainy weather, you hate to drive your horses to town for fear they will get stuck. With Smith Form-a-Truck, away you go in any kind of weather.

This enables you to carry your goods to market when you can get the highest prices.

There is not a single feature of your farm hauling where Smith Form-a-Truck will not make from 20% to 75% saving.

Smith Form-a-Truck will keep your boy on the farm. Anybody who can drive a Ford can drive Smith Form-a-Truck.

Use Any One of Six Chassis

Using any one of six chassis, Smith Form-a-Truck combines with any Ford, Maxwell, Dodge Bros., Buick, Chevrolet or Overland chassis to make a fully guaranteed one-ton truck. It gives you real truck construction that will stand up under the hardest hauling you could ever do.

When You Are In Town Drop In
When you are in town drop in and see Smith Form-a-Truck. It will pay you well.
