MR. KENNETT SERVES PAPERS

REQUIRING GASTON MEANS AND WIFE TO APPEAR BEFORE JUDGE BOYD TOMORROW.

Concord, Sept. 20.—Attorney Phil McDuffie, of Atlanta, and Deputy United States Marshal J. C. Kennett, of Greensboro, spent several hours today in Concord in connection with the investigation of the death of Mrs. Maude A. King, near this city, on the night of August 29. The former, who represents Mrs. Anna L. Robinson, mother of the dead woman, was here to serve notice on the banks of this city that Gaston Bullock Means, former business manager for Mrs. King, had been enjoined by an order from Federal Judge Boyd, at Greensboro, from transferring any funds of the King estate.

It had been learned that a draft for $5,000 had been drawn through a local bank on the Corn Exchange Bank of New York city, by Mrs. Bullock Means and Afton Means, the latter a brother of Gaston, parties to the restraining order issued a few days ago. Another banking institution here was informed that a draft had been drawn through them for something more than $3,000 and was ordered to hold any funds that might come into their hands.

J. C. Kennett, the deputy marshal, was here to serve on Gaston B. Means the notice of Judge Boyd to appear before him on next Tuesday and show why he should not be held in contempt of court. After service of this paper, the deputy marshal and Mr. McDuffie left for Salisbury.

Preparing to Remarry.

New York, Sept. 20.—Information indicating that Mrs. Maude A. King, widow of James C. King, millionaire lumberman, intended this fall to remarry her first husband, Edward B. King, has come into possession of Assistant District Attorney Dooling, who is gathering evidence here to aid the authorities of Catarrus county, N. C., in determining whether Mrs. King was a victim of foul play when she was killed by a pistol at Concord on August 29. Mr. Dooling announced he had received information that the couple met by accident last year at Chicago and after several brief meetings decided to remarry. Mr. Dooling today telegraphed State's Attorney Hoyne, at Chicago, asking him to ascertain from Hull, at present at LaGrange, Ill., whether the information is correct. Mr. Dooling said this point was important to establish in connection with the inquiry, as to whether there was a plot to obtain Mrs. King's fortune which might have been interfered with by her marriage.

Mr. Dooling expects to go to Concord tomorrow, taking with him documents found in the New York apartments of Gaston B. Means, Mrs. King's business adviser, who was present when she was shot.

Bull Frog Tried to Eat Pig.

Goldboro, Sept. 21.—Mr. Harvey Tew, a well-known farmer of this county, gave the following unusual story to a reported Saturday: He stated that one night last week he heard one of his young pigs squeal like it was in great distress. He secured a lantern and went out to the pasture near the house to make an investigation. When he arrived on the scene, to his great astonishment he found a large bull frog had attacked the pig, partially swallowing its head. In fact, the frog had swallowed the pig's head up to its eyes, and in a few more minutes the pig would have been dead. As it was its head was swollen, and its head and body badly swollen.

Junior Red Cross.

School children of the nation are asked to do their part in the war by joining the Junior Red Cross to assist in the mercy work of the senior organization. The president has issued a proclamation to the school children of the United States expressing his interest in the movement and urging their participation in the work. Schools are to be recruited as units, with membership fees of twenty-five cents for each pupil. The donors are expected to aid in the making of the simpler articles and supplies needed in the hospitals abroad.—Richmond Journal.

GERMANY'S REPLY TO POPE'S PEACE NOTE.

Amsterdam, Sept. 21.—The German government in its reply to the peace note of Pope Benedict, a copy of which has been received here, "cherishes a lively desire" that the appeal may meet with success.

Emperor William, the German note says, has been following the efforts of the pope toward peace for a considerable time with this respect.

The text of the reply reads: "Herr Cardinal: Your eminence has been good enough, together with your letter of August 2, to transmit to the kaiser and king, my most gracious master, the note of his holiness, the pope, in which his holiness, filled with grief at the devastations of the world-war, makes an emphatic peace appeal to the heads of the belligerent peoples. The kaiser-king has designed to acquaint me with your eminence's letter and to entrust the reply to me.

"His majesty has been following for a considerable time with high respect and sincere gratitude his holiness' efforts in a spirit of true impartiality to alleviate as far as possible the sufferings of the war and to hasten the end of hostilities. The kaiser sees in the latest step of his holiness fresh proof of his noble and human feelings and cherishes a lively desire that for the benefit of the entire world the papal appeal may meet with success.

Austria-Hungary's Reply.

Amsterdam, Sept. 2.—Peace would come from the recent proposals of Pope Benedict if the belligerent nations would enter into negotiations in the sense of the pontiff's suggestions, Emperor Charles, of Austria-Hungary, says in his reply to the Vatican note. The emperor sees in the pope's peace plan a suitable basis for starting negotiations toward a just and lasting peace and expresses the hope that the nations opposing his own may be animated by the same idea.

AMERICAN PRISONERS WILL BE SENT FOOD.

Washington, Sept. 21.—Each American prisoner of war held in Germany will receive every two weeks through the American Red Cross committee in Switzerland three "food kits" containing from nine to ten pounds each. It was announced today that the food division of the surgeon general's office has prescribed a table of food for each "kit" so that sufficient nutriment may be sent to take care of a prisoner until the next package arrives for him.

In order to fulfill the desire of families to send food to relatives held prisoners, arrangements will be made later for boxes to be sent to Red Cross headquarters in Switzerland to be re-packed there and forwarded to Germany.

The German authorities have agreed that each American shall personally sign a receipt for his "kit." At this time 101 Americans are prisoners in Germany.

NO "WHEATLESS DAYS" THEY FEED HOGS WHEAT.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Sept. 21.—While the food administration is urging the holding of "wheatless" days, farmers in Woods, Blaine and other northwestern Oklahoma counties are feeding wheat to hogs and horses rather than sell it at the price fixed by the government, according to reports of county agents to the state board of agriculture.

Farmers are dissatisfied, according to agriculture authorities, not so much with the price of wheat, fixed by the government, but by the fact that prices on commodities for their consumption were not also fixed.

Helping Former Convicts.

New York, Sept. 21.—Twenty thousand employees of the country are co-operating to give employment to former convicts, 95 per cent of whom have made good when given the chance, according to a statement made here today before the Rotary Club by E. E. Dudding, of Huntington, W. Va. Mr. Dudding is connected with the Prisoners' Relief Society, and said he had served five years in prison. During the last three years 9,500 men, released from prison found employment through the organization, he said.

ARRESTS MEANS FOR MURDER A YOUNG WOMAN IS SHOT

CONCORD MAN HELD FOR THE DEATH OF MRS. MAUDE A. KING—HEARING TODAY.

Concord, Sept. 22.—A warrant charging him with the murder of Mrs. Maude A. King, the wealthy New York widow who met a mysterious death near this city on the night of August 29, was served today on Gaston Bullock Means, her former business manager, a member of the automobile party on the night of her death.

The warrant for Means was issued at the request of Hayden Clement, solicitor for the fifteenth judicial district, after a conference with representatives from the office of District Attorney Swann, of New York city, and with federal and local officials. Those present were John T. Dooling, assistant district attorney; Dr. Otto Schultze, pathologist; Capt. William T. Jones, pistol expert of the New York police force; John Cunniff, of the detective force from Swann's office; Phil C. McDuffie, attorney representing Mrs. Anna L. Robinson, mother of the dead woman, and C. B. Ambrose, the agent of the department of justice.

These officials went over evidence that had been obtained from the New York and Chicago offices, and also examined several witnesses from this city. M. F. Ritchie, of the Ritchie Hardware Company, from whom the two pistols and the repeating Marlin rifle were purchased was called for examination, and also Capt. W. S. Bingham, a member of the automobile party.

Will Assist the Solicitor.

Attorney General Manning is in Concord to assist and confer with District Attorney Hayden Clement in the prosecution of the case against Gaston Means.

SLAPPING CASE IS UP TO THE GOVERNOR.

Durham, Sept. 21.—J. R. Cole, a farmer of Durham county, has taken an appeal to Governor T. W. Bickett and Adjutant General Laurence Young in the episode in which Dr. Arch Cheatham, county superintendent of health, and member of the Durham county exemption board, slapped his son, Robert Cole. The young man was picked in the draft lottery and had been examined and passed but upon appearing for re-examination he intimated to the Durham physician that the test applied to his eye-sight had been defective.

The health superintendent resented the remark of young Cole and administered a left-handed blow on the boy's face. When Dr. Cheatham questioned Cole as to whether his insinuations signified that he had not been given a fair deal, the answer was in the affirmative. The father appeared before the state officials yesterday and inquired into the prerogative of a member of an exemption board slapping applicants for the selective draft. Governor Bickett informed the Durham man that local boards are not empowered with any such authority.

Must Use Restraint.

He likened the restraint to that imperative upon police officers in the handling of prisoners—the offended officer must grit his teeth and hold his temper. The father of the 20-year-old young man is not satisfied, and threatened today to make his appeal for redress direct to President Wilson. He was told by friends that among the mass of complaints filed with the president the letter would be lost in the shuffle.

Bob Cole is serving an apprenticeship in the printing department of the Morning Herald. A Durham optometrist has testified that his eye-sight is defective, and on this ground his claims for exemptions are based. Testimonials and affidavits are being compiled by his father, and the adjutant general informed Mr. Cole that they would be considered by the war department.

While They Are at It.

"Germany able to furnish food to neutrals," recalls the old maxim, "When you tell a lie, tell a good one."—Wall Street Journal.

If the suggestions of the food administration are followed Brer Rabbit will have a prominent place on bills of fare in North Carolina this fall and winter.

WHILE KNEELING AT SPRING NEAR HER HOME—POSSE AFTER JOHN LONG.

Bahama, Sept. 22.—Armed with Winchester rifles and shotguns a band of fifteen citizens of the Bahama section of Durham county are patrolling the countryside for miles around this afternoon on a determined hunt for John Long, a 34-year-old white man of Bahama, charged with shooting Miss Nellie Ball, a member of one of the leading families of the village. Long penetrated the forest after firing a 44-Winchester bullet from ambush. The young woman will recover unless pneumonia develops, or complications excite the wound, produced by the bullet entering the small of the back, coursing upward, and making its exit from the right shoulder.

Shoots Her at Spring.

The act that might have found fruition in the brain of the midnight assassin has stirred the village and the countryside roundabout from center to circumference. The 22-year-old young woman was at the spring, situated 100 yards from the home, on the errand of conveying a bucket of water and colliers of milk to the house for the supper. It was about 6.30 yesterday afternoon, and darkness had just enveloped the miniature valley that is reached from a steep incline from the home on the hill. Miss Ball was in a stooping posture, evidently lifting the containers of milk from the spring-branch, when the shot came from the thickly clustered willows and sweet-gum trees above the spring.

Feeling Runs High.

Community feeling against the alleged assailant gathers strength as the deed is gossiped in the stores and on the dry-goods box of the typical village. Word was eased to the sheriff last night, and he quietly slipped out to the scene, twelve miles away. Not a whisper of the crime was talked on the streets of Durham last night, and the sheriff wished to keep silent until Long's capture was effected.

ANTI-DRAFTERS DYNAMITE POSTOFFICE IN PAMLICO.

New Bern, Sept. 20.—Belated reports reaching this city this afternoon told of the dynamiting at Lowlands, Pamlico county, at an early hour yesterday of the building occupied by the postoffice, this being done by a mob consisting of 50 or 75 men who are opposed to the selective draft law and who have been doing everything within their power to evade it.

It is said that the men who composed the mob are disciples of Tom Watson and that they have been lead to believe that the draft law is unconstitutional by the Jeffersonian. Watson's publication. On the afternoon previous to the dynamiting, S. J. Clark, the postmaster, it is alleged, heard open threats made against his life by a crowd of men who had gathered around his store and as soon as darkness fell he made his escape from the building and was not in it when the blast occurred.

Today the sheriff of Pamlico county was to have gone to Lowlands to arrest two members of the mob, who, it is claimed, were recognized by the assistant postmaster, who was in the building a short time before the explosion occurred.

The people of that section are considerably worked up over the affair and more trouble is expected.

ARIZONA COWBOY FINDS FORTUNE IN OLD TREE.

Phoenix, Ariz., Sept. 22.—The discovery of $400,000, cached in an out of the way spot in the hills of Graham county, this state, is reported by H. R. Whitman, of Solomonville, who is now in Chandler. The discovery was made by Joe Walsey, a cowboy, who is making efforts to discover the former owners, according to Whitman.

While hunting stray cattle northwest of Solomonville, Walsey found a tree trunk from which the handle of a shovel protruded. Digging disclosed an iron box containing old Spanish gold coins and gold vessels.

Old residents declare Walsey has discovered a hiding place of priests who left that section about seventy-five years ago, when it was a part of Mexico.

Raleigh, Sept. 21.—Not until Governor Bickett had addressed and assured them that he would today order a special term of Wake county Superior court to try Earle Neville, a negro, who on Wednesday night is alleged to have assaulted the wife of a street car conductor, did a mob of 75 or 100 masked men leave the jail where they demanded that the negro be turned over to them.

The mob made two attempts to batter down the doors of the court house, which leads to the jail, but both attempts failed. Hundreds of shots were fired and many window lights of the court house were broken. No arrests have been made.

The men in the mob arrived at the jail in high-power automobiles at 12.45 this morning and divided into squads and hammered at the four doors of the court house. After beating at the doors for about 15 minutes the would-be lynchers fired hundreds of shots into the air. Citizens who rushed to the scene to see what occasioned the firing were ordered by the mob to clear away from the court house.

Governor Bickett and Adjutant General Young were telephoned and hastened to the jail. Hearing of the governor's presence, the mob got into their machines and left the scene, but returned in about 15 minutes and again battered the doors.

Governor Bickett attempted to address the men, but as he commenced the leader of the mob began addressing the masked men. The governor continued, however, and his efforts later bore fruit and the crowd dispersed.

"We appreciate you, Governor Bickett, but we love our women folks, and we are going to have that negro," one of the mob yelled as the governor continued his talk.

When Governor Bickett told the men that he would order a special term of Wake county Superior court today to try the negro they shouted their approval and emptied their revolvers and rifles into the air. Jumping into their machines, they whizzed away shouting and firing volley after volley into the air.

Removed to Charlotte.

Earl Neville, the negro whom a mob tried to take from the Wake county jail Thursday night, was removed from the state penitentiary Friday afternoon at 6 o'clock and turned over to Deputy Sheriff Harward, of Wake county, who left at once in a high powered machine for Charlotte, where the prisoner will be placed for safe keeping in the Mecklenburg county jail. He had been removed to the penitentiary from Wake county jail about two hours before.

Governor Bickett in explaining his action in sending the negro to Charlotte said that late Friday afternoon reports commenced to come to him from various sources that there would be an organized attempt to take the prisoner Neville from the state prison during the night.

The governor did not believe that any such attempt would be made, but the reports came from so many and such respectable sources that he deemed it his duty to take every precaution possible. To this end he ordered that the prisoner be sent to Charlotte. Charlotte was selected as the proper place to detain the prisoner pending his trial because it is far removed from the scene of his crime and because there are abundant troops there to maintain peace and order. The prisoner will be brought back to Wake county in time to stand his trial.

The order of removal was made not for the purpose of protecting the life of the prisoner, but to avoid the necessity of killing persons who might attempt to break into the state prison. The prison is abundantly able, the governor declared, to defend itself against the assaults of a thousand men and any attempt to break into the prison would have resulted in the death of many persons engaged in the attack. The rigid rules and regulations of the prison do not permit anyone to come within the stockade at night, and specific instructions had been given the prison officials that under no circumstances must anyone be permitted to come within this stockade.

The governor has resorted to every means possible to avoid bloodshed and to protect excited people from their own rashness.

RUSHED TO PENITENTIARY

NEGRO ATTEMPTS CRIMINAL ASSAULT UPON A YOUNG GIRL IN HARNETT COUNTY.

Dunn, Sept. 22.—Rufe Cagle, a negro twenty-six years old, was arrested at Linden today, charged with attempted criminal assault on Miss Adelaide Jeffreys here last night and has been carried by automobile to the penitentiary. The negro was arrested late this afternoon after being tracked through the swamps near Linden by the aid of bloodhounds and brought here.

A mob intent upon lynching was in process of formation when Sheriff Turlington and Chief of Police Bass decided to carry him away. A part of the mob had already formed at the doors of the town prison when a strong force of officers arrived with a high power car. Forming a line they drew revolvers and unlocked the doors, holding the mob at bay. In a few seconds they had the prisoner aboard and underway. Members of the mob yelled "shoot him boys," and a fusillade of bullets followed the speeding car, but no one was hit. Several automobile loads of infuriated men followed the car with the prisoner but it is not thought here that they overtook it. It is certain that the negro would have been lynched had darkness found him in the Dunn prison.

Two brothers of Cagle were also arrested today but were released when proof of their innocence was assured. Cagle prayed incessantly from the time he was put in prison until he was taken away.

Early this morning, the girl was found unconscious, lying on her face, at the edge of a corn field on the Jeffreys plantation. Her sister discovered her where, in the darkness of night, she had been repeatedly passed by searchers.

The girl is now conscious, but suffers from nerve shock and many bruises. According to her story she was seized by an unknown man in the back-yard of her home a few minutes after her sister had left her on the front porch, upon retiring at about 9 o'clock. The assailant covered her head with a cloth and stifled her cries. She was frightened into unconsciousness and remembers nothing that transpired from that time until she regained consciousness this morning.

Examination by Dr. I. F. Hicks this morning disclosed that no criminal assault had been made. This is probably due to the fact that the girl's sister raised an alarm a few minutes after the girl was missed. Adelaide and her sister, Miss Kathleen, were seated on the front porch of the home until 9 o'clock. At that hour Miss Kathleen went to her room to retire. When the girl did not follow within a few minutes the sister called to her. Upon drawing no response she went to the porch to find her gone. Then she lighted a lantern and searched through the yards, calling loudly as she searched. Her cries are believed to have frightened the man away before he had had time to accomplish the more fiendish crime.

RETAIL PRICE OF SUGAR TO BE EIGHT CENTS POUND.

Washington, Sept. 21.—Beet sugar producers in conference with the food administration today reached a unanimous agreement under which the stable retail price of sugar will be about eight cents a pound. They will sell to wholesalers at eastern refining points at 7-14 cents a pound, cane basis, and the retail price, it was stated, would normally be not more than three-fourth cent higher.

At the same time, the food administration announced that an international commission of five had been named to arrange for the purchase and distribution of the vast quantities of sugar needed by the United States and allied countries. This commission, acting through the food administration, under authority of President Wilson's proclamation placing the sugar industry in this country under license, will control a large proportion of the world's sugar output.

Details of the sugar distributing plan will be worked out by a food administration committee.

Paul C. Lindley spent Saturday at Overhill, Harnett county.

LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF FORM

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO THE
READERS OF THE PATRIOT
FAR AND NEAR.

Mr. Kennett Serves Order.

J. C. Kennett, deputy marshal, has returned from Concord, where he served the summons on Gaston B. Means to appear here tomorrow to show cause why he should not be held in contempt of court for refusal to obey an order of the court to turn over property belonging to the estate of Mrs. Maude A. King. Mr. Kennett experienced no difficulty in finding his man. He inquired for Mr. Means and one informant told him that he might look for a man on the street who was handsome and who would be addressed by many people. The officer walked up a street and met such a man. He asked him if he was Gaston B. Means and he answered affirmatively.

Kellam-Gordon.

Miss Agnes Kellam was married to Elzevan T. Gordon Saturday evening at the residence of Rev. W. O. Johnson, pastor of Magnolia street Baptist church. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Frances Kellam, who lives about four miles west of the city. The bridegroom is a son of R. P. Gordon and wife, who live near Gettysburg church. He is a member of the ambulance company organized here and now in training at Columbia, S. C. Mr. Gordon and other members of his company got a two-days leave of absence Friday and came here. Saturday he and Miss Kellam decided to marry right away. He returned to camp yesterday and the bride will visit in High Point for a few days.

Caldcleugh Home Sold.

Greensboro gave its consent Saturday to the sale of the home of E. M. Caldcleugh, on Spring Garden street extension, by the executor of the estate of Mr. Caldcleugh to S. A. Hodgins, the assistant postmaster. The home sold for $4,000, a moderate price, inasmuch as Mr. Caldcleugh paid $4,500 when he purchased it seven or eight years ago from J. Gilles Foushee. The city was made party to the sale because it has an equity in the home. By the terms of Mr. Caldcleugh's will, the city will some day have the bulk of his estate for a city park to be graced by a Caldcleugh mausoleum. During the life-time of his widow, or until she should marry again, the city cannot realize on this provision.

"Bud" Farlow Caught.

While actually at work at a still in Summer township Friday afternoon, "Bud" Farlow, formerly a Greensboro contractor, was arrested by Sheriff Stafford and his deputies, M. D. Caffey and J. A. Hobbs. At a hearing Saturday before Squire Collins he was bound over to Superior court. The still and three gallons of new liquor were taken by the officers. Farlow disappeared from Greensboro four months ago, and members of his family supposed he had deserted them and gone from the state, it is said. His wife is an invalid and four children in the cotton mill to support themselves and their mother. He has ability as a builder, and it was he who superintended the construction of the Revolution cotton mill. A pardon was obtained for him at that time in order that he might supervise the work. He had been convicted on the same charge he now faces.

Didn't Have Dimmers.

Saturday Sheriff Stafford received from Secretary of State Grimes the names of the people owning cars running at night without reflectors. The law is very plain on this subject, and officers of the county have been attempting to apprehend all who violate the law. Quite recently a large number were spotted by officials on the lookout and the numbers of the cars were sent to Raleigh to ascertain who were the owners of the cars. The letter reveals the fact that number 2804 belongs to the North State Paper Company; 10391 to W. C. Boren, Pomona; 29104 to E. Clay Hodgins, Greensboro; 39340 to Hazel S. Smith, Pomona; 44240 to C. F. Farley, High Point; 48213 to John E. Marion, Mt. Airy; 5252 to J. M. Bales, Greensboro. Some dealers were also reported, they being number 314 R. G. Sloan, Greensboro; Will Ross, Greensboro; 227 Charles Benbow, Greensboro.

Negro Youth Badly Hurt.

Aye Hardin, a negro aged 17 years, whose home is in Winston-Salem, sustained serious injuries when he was struck by a train on the Pomona yards about 4 o'clock Friday morning. He was found an hour later lying beside the main line tracks, along which he had been walking en route to his home. He was brought to a hospital and the local surgeon of the Southern Railway attended him. It was necessary to amputate his right leg below the knee and his left arm below the elbow. The negro's left ankle is also crushed and his right wrist fractured. The attending surgeon reported the youth was in a serious condition, though he stood a chance of recovery.

Newman Bound Over.

J. J. Newman, who lives out beyond Goshen church, was bound over after a hearing before Squire Collins Saturday, for selling whiskey and having more of it in his possession than the law allows. It will be remembered two negro women were arrested because they had three gallons and a half of whiskey in a buggy. They were put in jail and Bessie Lindsey, one of them said she would take the officers to the place where the whiskey was procured. This she did and Newman was arrested. He has been out on bond, and was again placed under bond of $300. Bessie swore that six dollars a gallon was paid for the three gallons and a half purchased of Newman. Newman did not go on the stand.

Bean Crop Large and Valuable.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Beans take their place this year as one of the country's most important and valuable crops. Forecast of production in the five important bean-growing states, Michigan, California, New York, Colorado and New Mexico, announced by the department of agriculture today in a special report, shows 19,969,000 bushels, compared with 8,846,000 bushels last year, and 10,321,000 bushels in 1915.

More than 1,500,000 acres were planted to beans in those states and the average farm price paid for them August 15 was $7.24 a bushel compared with $4 on that date last year. At the August 15 price the prospective crop was worth about $145,000,000.

Money in Soy Beans.

Mr. Sanford Smith, of Lanes Creek township, has a field of soy beans which are about five feet high and the finest ever. For some time Mr. Smith has been growing soy beans and pasturing hogs on them. He finds it pays handsomely. The fine field of beans now on his farm was very poor land just a few years ago. Mr. Smith is a practical farmer—he has theories, it is true—but he wants to know that a crop pays and he finds there is money in soy beans.—Monroe Enquirer.

Only Three Classes.

Talk of "slackers" in the United States is without warrant. Under the law, there can be no "slackers." There are some eligibles to military service who have escaped registration by flight, but these are, to all intents and purposes, deserters. The draft law put the term "slacker" out of legitimate use. There can now be only three classes in the list of eligibles: Those who have not yet been called, those who have been called and exempted, and those who have been called and accepted.—Christian Science Monitor.

BIG CENTRAL CAROLINA FAIR

THIS YEAR PROMISES TO BE THE BIGGEST AND BEST IN ITS HISTORY.

This week advertising vans of the Central Carolina Fair Association started out from Greensboro to spread the tidings of the enormous fair that will be held here on October 9, 10, 11 and 12. That it will be the largest ever held in this part of the state is vouched for by the splendid attractions it has engaged and the amount of space already bid for by agricultural and industrial interests for the display of their products.

Not in the history of the Central Carolina fair has as much energy and effort been expended in making it an epoch making event. The list of prizes and special premiums offered for exhibits and for the various events to be staged is one hardly equaled by any fair, and already indications point to a record number of exhibitors for the various events.

Beginning October 9 the fair will continue day and night until the evening of October 12. At night the fair grounds will be ablaze with fireworks and other attractions. On each of the four days there will be horse racing, the purses ranging from $300 to $550, the rules of the National Trotting Association applying.

Three races will be staged every day. Heretofore the agricultural exhibit of the Central Carolina fair has been a matter of much pride to the exhibitors and a subject of comment throughout the state. It is announced that the exhibits in this department this year will be even bigger and more varied than ever before.

Many of the farmers of Guilford county have signified their intention to take part in the agricultural exhibits, and many others from outside Guilford will also have their products here. Primarily the agricultural department was organized for the benefit of Guilford's farmers, but it has grown to such proportions that it meets the demand for a space by farmers from other counties attracted by the conditions were made and it is a matter of record that the farmers from other sections are entered in the list of exhibitors with practically the same privileges accorded them.

The list of special premiums for the best exhibits in the agricultural department holds out fine inducements for the farmer.

There will be numerous other products of the farm besides the grain, maceo and truck exhibits. Horses and mules, cows, chickens, turkeys, ducks and everything imaginable will be found in the stalls in the agricultural building. While the breeding of sheep in Piedmont North Carolina is not as big an industry as in some other sections of the state, there will be found on exhibit many fine specimens from the flocks in this section.

Swamp raising as a profitable industry in this section has long been conducted and many farmers are keeping a small number which will likely increase each year.

The promotion recently of the county authorities of a method of packing thoroughbred hogs in the hands of a number of young men and by this means starting a campaign for "better Guilford hogs" has given an added impetus to the meat industry locally, and the effects of it will be likely to be found in the class of exhibits in this department. The running clubs, tomato clubs and other rural organizations will be well represented and suitable prizes will be given for the best exhibits made.

One of the big features of the fair will be the industrial products on exhibit. Probably known to many is the fact that Greensboro is one of the principal textile manufacturing centers in the entire South. And no longer is High Point referred to as the Grand Rapids of the South. It has taken the lead in the manufacture of furniture and everything made of wood. Everything manufactured in the two cities will be on exhibit at the Central Carolina fair.

Wanted to Go Back to Prison.

Some 15 years ago Ike Cruse, colored, of No. 7 township, killed his wife and was sent to the penitentiary for 35 years. He had served 15 years of the term this year when Governor Bickett gave him a pardon and he returned to Concord to live, a few months ago. He liked it so well in the state prison that a few weeks ago he got up funds to try to get back to Raleigh. He got as far as Salisbury, where he was advised that he could not get in again, so he came back. He is an old negro and he doesn't like freedom after spending so long in confinement.—Kannapolis Star.

RUTH BYRD FAILED TO MAKE GOOD HER CHARGE.

Ruth Byrd, the girl who charged Roby Snyder, W. L. Martin and Donnie Jessup with assaulting her near Glenwood last month, failed to receive credit for telling the truth in Superior court Thursday, and the case against the defendants was dismissed. Judge Harding gave the four young people a good lecture before discharging them.

Walter James, convicted of bigamy, raised such a doubt in the mind of Judge Harding as to the defendant's guilt, that the judgment was suspended on payment of costs. James, who was claimed as husband by two women, averred that he had a twin brother exactly like himself, and that the prosecution was a mistake. He made out a good case but the jury convicted him. After the verdict Judge Harding gave James until Thursday to get letters from a cotton mill in Virginia, where he claimed to have been employed part of the time the woman alleged they lived together in Spartanburg, S. C. He got the letters from the mill, in which the statement was made that the records supported his contention. Then Judge Harding passed a four months' sentence and suspended that in the event of the payment of the costs.

Among those sentenced was Hence Caldwell, a negro, who was convicted of keeping a disorderly house and given six months on the roads.

J. J. Isaacs, a white man, of High Point, was sentenced to four months for larceny.

The commissioners were authorized to hire out Sylvester Lockhart, a young negro, who was convicted of the larceny of some automobile tires and given four months.

Six months in the work house was the punishment meted to Lee Bryant, a youthful negro of High Point, who was convicted of disposing of stolen property.

For an assault on his wife L. M. Hinson, white, was allowed to pay the costs and go free.

Court adjourned late Thursday evening.

No Need of a Home.

An Atchison woman explains that she and her husband concluded not to buy the house they were considering last spring, because they have bought a car and don't need a home now.—Atchison Globe.

With rabbits commended as war diet to release beef and pork for export for the allied armies in Europe, Coatham county should certainly come into its own.

FARMERS RESOLVE TO GROW MORE WHEAT.

A well attended meeting of farmers in the court house Saturday afternoon resulted in the determination of those present to urge upon farmers of the county the planting of a bigger wheat crop than ever before.

A price of $2 a bushel is guaranteed by the government for the 1918 crop, and this will make certain a fair return for the investment and labor necessary to produce wheat. Several other practical matters were discussed in the meeting.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the Guilford County Farm Bureau. W. A. Bowman presided.

Shube Coltrane, a farmer who is successful in growing wheat, made the opening talk. He told how he had brought his acreage out of a condition which yielded 10 to 12 bushels an acre to a state which produces 27 1-2 bushels. He believes a clover sod, turned over and cultivated in corn for one year, and then devoted to wheat, is the very best preparation for the grain.

Among the speakers were J. E. Latham, J. A. Rankin, Ernest Sharp, Kerr Scott, of the state extension service, and E. H. Anderson, the county farm demonstration agent. Nearly everybody in attendance joined in the discussion from the floor, as questions were freely asked and answered. The meeting was beyond question the most successful one for farmers of its sort held in the city.

Mr. Anderson advised the farmers to increase their wheat acreage materially. He stated that wheat should be planted between October 14 and October 24, for best results. Prior to the 14th, there is danger from the hessian fly, after that date the wheat does not get a good start to insure a full growth. The agent itemized the cost of the production of an acre of wheat, as discovered by the experiment station in Iredell county, where conditions are very similar to those existing in Guilford. The figures were $2.80 to break the ground; $1 to disc it; 30 cents to harrow; 40 cents to seed it; $3 for six pecks of seed for it; $3 for the rent of the land; $6 worth of fertilizer, or a total of $17.28. He estimated the profit from an acre under favorable conditions should be about $12, more than the average of 1914.

Mr. Scott addressed the meeting on the subject of wheat clubs.

In connection with the principal gathering was a conference of women, presided over by Miss Ola Stephenson, the home demonstration agent, and addressed by Miss Ethel Gowans, who is attached to the national department of education with home gardening as her specialty.

Union Men Indicted.

Boston, Sept. 14.—An indictment charging monopoly, returned several months ago by the Federal grand jury against the National Union Association, was sustained by Judge Morton, in District court, today while another of the charges against the union men, alleging unlawful combination and conspiracy in restraint of trade, was thrown out on a technicality. The National Union Association deals in what are known as "Northern onions," the principal supply after the early Southern variety has been consumed.

With corn worth two cents an ear, or more, it pays to husk the cornfields clean. The ears that are missed don't help to feed the allies.

ARMIES HOLD TIGHT TO NEW POSITIONS.

In reply to the peace proposals of Pope Benedict, the German and Austro-Hungarian governments express the hope that the pontiff's efforts may bring about a cessation of hostilities. Emperor William "cherishes a lively desire" that the vatican appeal may meet with success.

Meanwhile the opposing armies still are busy from the North Sea to Switzerland in the west, from the Baltic to the Black Sea in the east, in Macedonia, and in the Austro-Italian mountains to the Adriatic. In Flanders, however, the activity is not intense.

Field Marshal Haig has made complete his last success and his men are holding tight to the new positions taken from the Germans on Thursday. Crown Prince Rupprecht hurried counter-attacks against the new British lines without avail. Berlin officially admits that the British shot was successful and that the Germans were forced to evacuate some of their defenses in the vital West salient, but it attempts to minimize the importance of the advance. The British losses in the assault are reported to have been light.

The German crown prince has suffered severe losses in an unsuccessful attempt on Mont Haut, in Champagne. Other attacks by the Germans on the Alsne front and near Verdun were repelled by the French. There has been no marked fighting activity on the eastern front. Gen. Alexieff, chief of staff to Premier Kerensky, commander in chief of the Russian armies, has resigned. Differences between the two men over matters appertaining to the Korniloff revolt are given as the reason.

The Austrians and Italians apparently are resting on the Carso front. In the Trentino, however, in an attack at Gima Stef, in the Dolomite Alps, the Italians gained the enemy defenses. The impossibility of securing shelter, however, forced the Italians to retire.

The Argentine chamber of deputies has postponed until Saturday action in the matter of the republic's relations with Germany. The foreign ministry has received new information which probably will compel Argentina to take grave and rapid measures, including the possibility of a declaration of war against Germany.

Dog Sucked Cow.

Mr. John A. Baker, city mail carrier, residing in the west end of Oxford, is the owner of a very fine cow. For more than a month Mr. Baker noticed that the flow of milk from the cow was very uneven, some times getting from her as much as two or three gallons and at other times none at all. The cow had every sign of being a healthy animal, and Mr. Baker could see no reason why the milk was not forthcoming unless some one was milking the cow unknown to him.

It was suggested to Mr. Baker that possibly a snake, which is often the cause in the mountain districts, was sucking the cow's teat. Determining to discover the real cause, he established a constant watch over the cow during the day. Late in the afternoon he discovered the real cause and great was his astonishment. The little worthless dog which was the constant companion of the cow, drove her to a shady nook and proceeded to help himself to the good rich milk.—Oxford Public Ledger.

HOW TO MAKE WHEAT PALATABLE FOR FLOUR.

Raleigh, Sept. 22—Wheat contaminated with the smut disease not only yields much less, but also is not very desirable as human food. There is a way to eliminate this disease from the wheat by treating the seed before planting. The North Carolina agricultural experiment station advocates and urges the use of a formalin solution of standard strength before the seed are planted, as a means of overcoming the disease.

A good plan is to treat seed one day and plant next. This is not absolutely necessary, as the seed will keep all right, if properly dried, but it is advocated as a good measure. A practical method of treating the seed, given by Mr. R. W. Freeman, district agent of the extension service, is as follows: "Spread the seed wheat on a tight floor and sprinkle with a solution of formalin made by adding one ounce (about two tablespoons) of formalin to three gallons of water. It takes about one gallon of this solution to each bushel of wheat. It should be sprinkled on the wheat and the wheat stirred until every grain is thoroughly wet. Then cover the grains with bags or sheets that have been saturated with a stronger solution of formalin. After about eight hours remove the covers, spread the wheat out in a thin layer and dry rapidly. If allowed to remain wet longer than this the wheat will swell, and in that case allowance will have to be made in order to get sufficient seed to the land. Don't bulk seed up until thoroughly dry or loss will occur from heating and moulding. Your druggist can secure formalin for you if he does not have it in stock already. One pint is sufficient to treat fifty bushels of seed. This treatment is also effective in controlling oat smut."

TAKES LOT OF TOBACCO TO KEEP SAMMIES GOING.

Washington, Sept. 21—Don't think that just because your local papers appeal for contributions to the soldiers' smoke fund has been running for a long time they've got all the money they need for smokes.

It's taking a lot of tobacco for America to fight this war.

Just the little handful of fighting men we've got at the French front now yelled back across the Atlantic to the Red Cross the other day for ten tons of stuff.

Remember that suitable tobacco for Americans can't be found in France.

Four million, eight hundred and ten thousand cigarettes already have gone across to the boys. They're merely a starter; just a puff in the smoke-cloud, you might say.

Then there's the matter of smoking tobacco in sacks and cans.

"Thousands of the boys," cabled Major Murphy, from Red Cross headquarters in France, "have faithfully clung to their pipes, though they have been without the makings for weeks."

To relieve them for a few days the Red Cross has just shot over a ton of smoking tobacco. The other nine tons will follow immediately.

In addition to this, 10,000 cuts of chewing tobacco—ten cent size—have gone across.

These figures sound big, but if you could see the way the boys smoke and chew as they go about the business of war, you'd divvy up half your tobacco money to your local paper's smoke fund every day.

BOWMAN PROPERTY SOLD FOR SPLENDID PRICES.

Thirty tracts, containing 72 acres, on the High Point road and known as the Bowman land, was sold by the American Land Company Friday. This company is composed of Mr. J. M. Milliken and Penny Brothers. The land was owned by W. M. King and J. F. Thompson. The average price paid was nearly $300 an acre.

The largest single buyer was J. B. Cobb, owner of the beautiful property adjoining. He acquired a strip along his holdings, paying more than $3,000 for it. Other purchasers at the auction sale included J. T. Beach, G. S. Bradshaw, E. D. Golden, W. W. Dick, J. Cook, S. S. Brown, W. B. Merrimon and P. H. Beeson.

The property sold was so subdivided that each tract had a frontage on the highway. The total frontage was 4,000 feet. The sales aggregated approximately $20,000.

The American Land Company is subdividing another valuable tract of real estate in the vicinity of Greensboro to be sold October 2. This is the Buchanan farm, northeast of the city three miles, and one mile from Proximity, owned by Dr. Z. T. Brooks. The farm contains 125 acres.

Tangoing With the Stars.

Tobacco prices are tangoing with the stars this year, averaging about 25 cents a pound as against half that price last year. H. S. Hardy, a few days ago sold several hundred pounds on the Greensboro market, and he expects to ship about 3,500 pounds there Friday. The few tobacco farmers in Bear Creek township made splendid yields this year, and their efforts show what can be accomplished along this line in western Chatham soil.—Siler City Grit.

Dog Returns Home.

Making his way over 400 miles of territory and crossing two large rivers on the way, a black shepherd dog, belonging to Jack Smith, of Asheville, returned home Saturday after traveling from Tarboro, Ga. The dog was sold to E. A. P. MacCarthy, of the Georgia town, and was shipped to Tarboro by express. He seemed to be doing well in the Georgia town, but escaped a few nights ago, and the next heard from him was when, footsore and weary, he scratched at the door of Smith's home in Asheville and wagged himself all over the place when Jack opened the door. The sale has been called off.

GREEN SAND MAY SUPPLY OUR POTASH.

Washington, Sept. 21.—The indications are that the question of how the United States is to obtain potash to meet the agricultural and munitions needs is about to be solved as the result of the discovery of a young New York chemist, T. C. Meadows, who has been in Washington in consultation with officials of the agricultural department. Meadows has discovered a process for separating potash from green sand, which is abundant all along the Atlantic coast from Sandy Hook south. The process is so feasible that Carl Vrooman, assistant secretary of agriculture, has recommended to the priority committee of the war industries board of the council of national defense that steel be supplied without delay for the building of an adequate plant.

Chemists have realized for a long time that the green sand contains potash in large quantities, but as with other forms of felspar the process of separation was so expensive as to make it unworkable. The Meadows process provides for a by-product that reduces the expense to a workable basis. After the 10 or 15 per cent of potash that the sand contains has been reduced, the residue, which has assumed the form of a cement, is mixed with ordinary silicate sand to make bricks. No burning of these bricks is required and the cost of production is much less than that of kiln brick.

The bureau of soils, to which the plans were submitted, reports that it is feasible and that it will greatly reduce the cost of potash production under present conditions, and that it may even enable the United States to produce potash at a lower cost than Germany has done. A remarkable coincidence connected with the investigation is that while Dr. Bryn of the bureau of soils was making his investigations of the Meadows process Dr. J. C. Ross, one of the chemistry experts of the department, had worked out the same process independently and was about ready to submit it to the department.

Assistant Secretary Vrooman's recommendation to the war board is that sufficient steel be supplied to a company organized by Meadows and associates to erect a plant with a capacity of twenty tons of potash a day. The plant will be erected some where on the Atlantic coast.

CASWELL FARMER AFRAID MONEY WOULD GIVE OUT.

A Caswell county farmer had a load of good tobacco at one of the Reidsville warehouses the other day and it so happened that the warehouse he sold at had the last sale. The Caswell man had not been on the market before this season and evidently had not been reading the Review, as he should have done. He went to the first sale and was astonished and excited over the prices paid for tobacco. He began to get restless and fidgety. He counted the rows of tobacco that had to be sold before his lot would be reached and watched the sales closely to see any signs of a slump in tobacco. He showed noticeably evidences of uneasiness but confided his fears to no one.

Finally when his tobacco was sold and his check was handed to him he lost no time in reaching the bank. He rushed up to the paying teller's window, panting, and shoved across the check. The teller leisurely counted out the big wad of long green and flipped it over to the farmer. "Gosh," said the Caswell man in a relieved tone, "I was afraid the money would all be gone before I got mine." He was assured that money was now the most plentiful thing there was. After counting over his wad two or three times and lovingly fingering the crisp bills, he handed back three-fourths of the money to the banker, asked for an interest bearing time certificate of deposit and left for home with quieted nerves—serene and happy.—Reidsville Review.

Another Theory Punctured.

New York, Sept. 14.—Backers of the old theory that in war times the birth of boy babies far outnumbered those of girls, were given a setback today at the news that the kaiser had another granddaughter. The girl was born to Prince and Princess Adalbert at Kiel. The crown princess also recently gave birth to a girl baby. Thus the most warlike family of the most warlike nation in the warlike world has had two girls born to it in the midst of the greatest war in history.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

IS A WONDERFUL FAMILY RECORD.

Durham, Sept. 20.—To be a living witness to an army of 112 descendants and immediate relatives is the remarkable family record of Mrs. Martha J. Suitt, of Durham county. The birthday of Mrs. Suitt was recently commemorated, and some 75 kinspeople gathered around the banquet table to congratulate her on attaining her 90th birthday. Her oldest child is 65 years old and the youngest is 47.

Eight living children, 48 grandchildren and 56 great grandchildren—grouped according to family classification are testimony of a bountiful progeny. The living children according to their ranking ages are: Mrs. S. J. Ferrell, who is 65 years old; Mrs. J. C. Hocutt, of Graham; Mrs. Rebecca Nichols, Mrs. J. A. Stell, Mrs. A. C. Weatherly, Sam R. Suitt, R. B. Suitt and S. M. Suitt. The latter son is the youngest child, being 47 years old.

Mrs. Suitt was born and reared in Durham, the hearthstone not being removed from the Mineral Springs section through the ninety years. The farmhouse of her girlhood days still stands near the Mineral Spring school, five miles east of Durham. She was married about seventy years ago. The family reunion has been a yearly event since 1904, and occasionally the attendance of relatives has exceeded one hundred.

Mrs. Suitt is hale and hearty in approaching her one hundredth birthday—for friends anticipate that she will go beyond the century mark. Longevity of life is accredited to a simple diet and little worry. She has a regulation diet, and rarely varies from her standard menu. Happy when surrounded by an army of relatives, contented because of a life well-lived and hopeful of the future, old age to her falls on pleasant lines.

GOOD CORN MUFFINS A HEALTHY DIET.

Raleigh, Sept. 22.—That the Southern people are profiting, as well as rendering a patriotic service, by their extensive use of corn muffins, corn bread and other corn products is attested by a recent survey of 50 staple articles of food. This survey showed that in actual nutritive value 47.4 cents worth of corn meal now equals $1.00 worth of wheat flour.

Extensive investigations also show that corn products are certainly no less wholesome or desirable for foods than wheat flour. The use of corn meal as a staple food product has been much more general in the South for years than it has been in any other section of the country, and the present campaign of the food administration for the substitution of corn and other grains for wheat products is probably having a more perceptible and immediate effect in this section than elsewhere in the United States. Certain it is that the people of North Carolina are responding readily and cheerfully to the suggestion.

Enjoyed Their Trip.

Band Leader Once Lived Here.

Jim Dilworth, leader of the band of the A. G. Field's minstrel company, is a Greensboro boy. His company was at the opera house Friday night, and attention was called to the fact that he lived here as a youth and was in a band of which Dr. E. R. McAllister and the late J. M. Reece were two of the other members.

During the absence of members of the household, a thief entered the home of Guy W. Siler, on Dairy Street, Saturday morning. The visitor absconded with his own worn out clothing and donned pants, shirt and English walking shoes he found in the home. The robbery occurred about 9 o'clock while members of the family were away at daily occupations and at a store in the vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Thomas, I. R. Thomas and J. C. Thomas returned early yesterday morning from Lawrenceburg, Tenn., where the Messrs. Thomas conducted a successful land sale Friday, when they sold at auction a 400-acre farm, the total price paid by the bidders being approximately $20,000. This is considered a splendid price for land in that section.

Hurt in Auto Accident.

Mrs. E. B. Jeffries, of Park avenue, was painfully hurt late yesterday in an automobile accident on the High Point road. The car in which she rode was wrecked, as was the other colliding machine, which was driven by a person unknown and occupied by a party of men. Mr. Jeffries was driving his machine, which was occupied by Mrs. Jeffries, their four small children and Mrs. Adams, mother of Mrs. Jeffries. One of the children was thrown from the machine by the impact but escaped serious injury.

Market License Refused.

V. C. Lewis was refused license Friday by the city commissioners to conduct a meat market on Spring Garden street, near Mendenhall. The commissioners took the position that as the city has a central market, licenses should not be granted to dealers outside this market. Robert Morrison and H. S. Hudson were granted license to conduct a market in South Greensboro sometime ago because the charter required it.

Meets Friday Afternoon.

The Pomona Betterment Association, Mrs. Leslie Cartland, president, will hold its first meeting for the current year next Friday afternoon. This is one of the county organizations that has always done good work and has held its membership. Special pride is felt in the growth of Pomona school, which has outgrown its present capacity, a room in a nearby church being used this year to take care of the overflow.

Receives Many Replies.

The Pennsylvania soldier who threw a note asking for some one to write to him, has written one of those who complied with his request that he has received so many letters from Greensboro girls that he will be unable to answer them all. As a matter of information he added that he was a young man of 19 years of age and is a first class private in his company. The soldier passed through this city one night last week and while here threw out a piece of pasteboard on which he had written his name and address and asked that some one kindly write to him and send him something to smoke.

Scouts Will Pick Peas.

E. H. Anderson, county farm demonstrator, and H. W. Beecher, scoutmaster of the local boy scouts, have made arrangements by which the scouts may be used to pick peas for the farmers of the county. Mr. Anderson states that labor is short on the farms and that the work can easily be done by boys, and that therefore he sought the aid of the scouts. All farmers having peas to pick and who desire the assistance of the boys, are requested to notify Mr. Anderson. The boys will work either by shares or on a salary.

Pleased With the Camp.

Eleven young men here for Saturday from Columbia, where they have been settled for several weeks as members of the Greensboro Red Cross Ambulance Company, declared the statement that soldiers were discontented with the treatment accorded them by Columbia people and with conditions at the camp was poorly founded. On the contrary the ambulance company is well pleased with the camp—preferring it a great deal to Fort Oglethorpe, where they were first encamped—and they have found the citizens' attitude unobjectionable.

Mr. Jenkins Goes to Charlotte.

P. A. Jenkins, who has been ticket seller in the local office of the Southern Railway, has been promoted to the position of assistant ticket agent of that company in Charlotte, for which place he left last week to enter upon his new duties. Buys Out Partner.

Announcement was made Saturday of the purchase by W. H. McGlamery of the entire interest which Clifton R. Sutton has held for the past four years in the McGlamery-Sutton Auto Company, local Ford dealers. This transfer by Mr. Sutton of his interest gives Mr. McGlamery practically complete ownership, he having held previously little more than a stock majority. Mr. Sutton stated that he disposed of his interest in order to give his full attention to a manufacturing industry in which he is interested and also to his farming interests.
