NORTH CAROLINA TROOPS IN GREAT ALLIED PUSH

ALLIES DRIVING WEDGES INTO ENEMY LINES FORCING HIM INTO RETREAT OR DEFEAT.

London, Sept. 29.—Troops from the states of New York, Tennessee and North and South Carolina attacked the Hindenburg lines on a front of nearly three miles today, capturing Bellecourt and Nauroy. This announcement was made by Field Marshal Haig in his report from Headquarters tonight.

An English division crossed the Scheldt canal on life belts, mats, rafts and improvised bridges and stormed the main Hindenburg defenses around Hellenglise and captured the whole German position.

Latest War Summary.

The entente allied troops everywhere are continuing to make progress against the forces of the teutonic alliance.

In Belgium, Flanders and France material advances have been made on all the fighting fronts; in Serbia the territory of the overrun Kingdom is fast being reclaimed, while in Palestine the Turkish armies under the attacks of Gen. Allenby and the tribesmen of the king of the Hejaz have steadily pressed to exist in the desert.

Additional large numbers of the enemy have been made prisoners and large quantities of stores have been captured.

Repeating themselves their victories about the sea in the Adriatic to the position of Verdun, the British, French, American and French troops are fast driving wedges into the enemy line forcing him to retreat or defeating him in successive battles. No rest is being accorded the Germans and apparently their front is fast going to pieces under the pressure of the allied blows.

On a three mile front the Americans stormed the Hindenburg line and captured the towns of Bellecourt and Nauroy, crossing the Cambrai canal in the operations.

Meanwhile to the south the British stormed the main Hindenburg defenses on the Scheldt canal, crossed the waterway and gained the hills beyond, taking many prisoners. To the north the British have their hands on Cambrai, the important German base over which recently there has been so much fighting. The Canadians are in the northwestern outskirts of the city, while a rival division has reached the northern environs.

South of St. Quentin to Lofere, the French have pressed forward their line and taken some 500 prisoners. Along the Chemin des Dames the French have advanced their line for a distance of two miles, capturing the highest point on the famous ridge.

In Belgium the Belgians and British have driven forward and taken Dixmude, ten miles from the North Sea southeast of Nieuport, forcing their line into closer union with that of the region of the Ypres. The capture of Dixmude if it is pressed for further gains eastward will seriously affect the German submarine bases on the North Sea.

Mail Christmas Packages Early.

Washington, Sept. 27.—Christmas packages for men serving on naval vessels abroad must reach New York no later than November 15, Secretary Daniels announced today in making public regulations governing the sending of such packages for men serving in the naval service both at home and in the war zone.

No perishable food product other than those in cans or glass jars should be packed.

No packages must be marked with a "Christmas box."

For Collection of Soldiers' Insurance.

Washington, Sept. 26.—Immediate passage of a senate bill providing for the collection of soldiers' and sailors' insurance was urged to-day by Secretary Daniels, in a letter to Speaker Clark. The secretary said, "that without some arrangement, the beneficiaries will be required to initiate court action or await the termination of the war before they can secure the benefits of insurance policies."

PERSHING'S FORCES CAPTURE PRISONERS

AMERICANS MAKE A GREAT HAUL OF MEN, GUNS AND AMMUNITION.

London, Sept. 27.—Very hard fighting was in progress to-day along the Franco-American front in Champagne and northwest of Verdun. The Germans were still holding out at Montfaucon this afternoon, but in all probability that stronghold has since fallen.

With the American Forces Northwest of Verdun, Sept. 27.—General Pershing's forces this morning continued their drive against the German positions between the Argonne forest and the river Meuse. The Americans increased their total of prisoners. They also captured guns and other war material but these have not yet been enumerated.

The prisoners belonged to various units and included a number of officers. Certain divisions opposing the Americans were identified. They included the famous guards unit which the Americans fought at Belleau Wood last June and another equally famous Saxon division.

With the American Forces Northwest of Verdun, Sept. 27.—General Pershing's troops in their drive between the Meuse and the Argonne forest made a great haul of German artillery in the region of Dannevoix. The American captures included four big 210 millimetre guns and eight 150 millimetre pieces and 15 trench mortars, 10 field guns and 34 machine guns. West of Dannevoix the Americans captured twelve 77's which are now being used against the Germans, a large amount of ammunition also having been captured.

Enemy Resistance Stiffens in Lorraine.

American Forces in Lorraine, Sept. 27.—German artillery opposition grew increasingly stiff toward the end of the afternoon today. There were indications that the enemy was moving reinforcements to the edge of the Argonne forest and the western and central portion of this sector, especially was under a fairly heavy fire.

German Counter Attacks Achieve No Gain.

With the American Forces Northwest of Verdun, Sept. 27.—The Germans delivered counter attacks northwest of Varennes and between Ivroy and Montfaucon late to-day, but achieved no gain.

There was heavy artillery firing west of Mont Blainville and southwest of Charpeny this afternoon, a further indication that the Germans are making an effort to stabilize their line. The enemy is known to be massed in Clerges, and the forest of Clerges and the forest De Mont. All those places are being heavily shelled tonight.

Number of Prisoners Exceeds 16,000.

London, Sept. 27.—The number of Germans captured by the French and Americans in their drive in the Champagne and to the east exceeds 16,000, according to a Paris dispatch of the Exchange Telegraph Company.

Were Fortified Four Years.

With the French Army on the Champagne Front, Sept. 26.—Troops of the French army, operating in conjunction with the Americans in a new battle along the Champagne front, have today conquered positions that the Germans have been fortifying for four years, positions that they have sacrificed thousands of men to hold. The French losses have been remarkable light, in spite of the fact that the German resistance stiffened this afternoon.

Gen. Van Zandt Elected Commander.

Tulsa, Okla., Sept. 26.—The United Confederate Veterans today unanimously elected General K. M. Van Zandt, of Fort Worth, Texas, commander in chief, chose the commanders for the three chief divisions of the organization and adjourned their twenty-eighth annual reunion, leaving the location of their next reunion to be determined by a committee headed by Gen. Van Zandt, and the division commanders.

THE FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN

A PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

Whereas, six billions of dollars must be raised in these United States by the sale of Liberty Bonds, from the 28th of September to the 19th of October; and of this sum the state of North Carolina must subscribe $39,900,000.00 and to raise this vast amount we must have the united, heroic and uninterrupted efforts of all our people.

Now therefore, I, Thomas Walter Bickett, Governor of said State, do hereby declare and proclaim,

FIRST: That from Monday, September 30th, to Saturday, October 19th, no Superior Courts be held, except to clear the jails; and the Superior Court Judges are requested to adjourn their courts accordingly.

SECOND: That Sunday, October 6th, be and is hereby designated as Heroes' Day, on which day all of our people shall assemble, in their Churches, Sunday Schools and meeting houses, in cities and towns, in villages, hamlets and at cross roads, and shall pay tribute and homage to the boys who have laid down their lives in the sacred cause of Liberty. Let this day be made memorable and hallowed, and let the memory and spirit of the neighborhood boy, dead on the Field of Honor, so move us that we shall withhold not of our substance in the cause for which he died. Let committees of patriotic men, women and children sell these Liberty Bonds by the millions on that sacred occasion, while messages from stump and pulpit proclaim the purity of our motives and the justness of our cause.

THIRD: That Saturday, October 12th, be and it is hereby designated as Liberty Bond Day. And on this day I especially enjoin all stores, schools and all factories, not engaged in war work, and other industries, to close their doors until 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Let the school children of the state, under the direction of Superintendent J. Y. Joyner, join hands in making this a great and glorious day in North Carolina annals by doing their utmost in selling Liberty Bonds, and in arousing their friends and neighbors to the peril and the necessity of the hour.

The last Liberty Loan drive took place in the month of May and the bulk of our people had no ready funds in hand, and so it came about that, while we over-subscribed our allotment (the allotment being $18,555,000.00, and our subscription being nearly twenty-five million dollars, or 31 per cent over the top) less than 4 per cent of the people of the State purchased these bonds. This was the lowest ratio of any State in the Union. In the present subscription it is earnestly hoped and believed that, with practical unanimity, all the people of the State will participate. Let the slogan be, "A BOND IN EVERY HOME." Napoleon once said that in every battle five minutes decided which army would conquer. We have now reached this moment in the World War.

Men of this commonwealth, which historians agree is the freest of free, in this hour, big with the fate of America and of Freedom, let us highly resolve that, under God, we will do our full duty, withholding nothing from the cause—howsoever costly or dear—for,

It may be in yon smoke concealed,
Your comrades chase e'en now the fliers,
And, but for you, possess the field.

Done at our City of Raleigh, this the 26th day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, and in the one hundred and forty-third year of our American Independence.

T. W. BICKETT, Governor.

By the Governor:
SANTFORD MARTIN, Private Secretary.

GERMANY DELAYING THE PRISONERS' CONFERENCE.

Zurich, Sept. 27.—The American-German war prisoners' conference opened in Berne yesterday with merely a formal session, after a fortnight's delay, due to the unexplained non-arrival of the German delegates, a default that is regarded as an example of enemy obstructive tactics. John W. Davis, the new American ambassador to England, Minister Garrett, of The Hague, and all the other American delegates and secretaries had been vainly waiting for several days for the arrival of the Germans.

It is not yet decided whether or not reports of the proceedings will be given to the press. The American delegates favor publicity. Negotiations will probably extend over from six to eight weeks, unless obstructive tactics by the Germans force the Americans to terminate them sooner.

THIRTY-FOUR AMERICAN PRISONERS ARE ADDED.

Washington, Sept. 26.—Twenty-four additional Americans are held prisoners in Germany, it was announced to-day at the war department.

Sergeant Roy W. Billingsley, of Louisville, Ky., previously reported killed in action, is a prisoner at Camp Darmstadt. The names of Sergeant Raymond D. Wolk, of Co. Burn, Va., and Private Charles Ozment, of Halls, Tenn., are included in the list of prisoners.

Three civilians also were in the list, but the department was unable to supply their addresses.

Lumber Prices Unchanged.

Washington, Sept. 27.—Chairman Baruch, of the war industries board, announced to-day that the maximum prices on southern or yellow pine lumber fixed June 14, will remain in effect until December 24 next.

BULGARIA HAS ENOUGH; ASKS FOR ARMISTICE

FIRST BREAK IN THE UNITED TEUTONIC FRONT—AUSTRIA'S BACK DOOR AJAR.

London, Sept. 27 (Via Montreal).—Arthur J. Balfour, the British foreign secretary, and Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer, are in conference with David Lloyd George, the premier, with regard to the Bulgarian armistice proposal.

With the welding of the armies of the entente into a compact whole under command of the inter-allied war council, guided by the master strategy of Marshal Foch, apparently has come the first break in the united front of the central powers.

Bulgaria, smallest of the teutonic allies, seems to have struck her colors. Premier Malinoff has asked for an armistice to consider terms of peace. Whether he is acting upon his own responsibility as the representative of a revolutionary party or with the approval of King Ferdinand and the government, remains in doubt. In either case, however, there is little doubt that Bulgaria has ceased to be a military factor in the war. Her armies are in full retreat and her soil has been invaded.

Secession of the Balkan state from the thralldom of Germany will be almost as severe a blow to the teutonic alliance as was the collapse of Russia to the allies.

If Bulgaria lays down her arms, Turkey, her armies shattered by the coup of General Allenby in Palestine, will be cut off from her allies. Her lines of communication will be severed except across the Black Sea through Rumania or over the mountain peaks of Transcaucasia into Russia where the grip of the German-controlled Bolsheviks is becoming steadily weaker.

With her supplies of German-made munitions and raw materials hanging by such a slender thread, military observers believe the Ottoman empire will have no course left but to follow the example of her Balkan neighbor.

But it makes little difference to the entente whether the Turk abandons Germany and Austria. If Bulgaria quits he can no longer be a menace to their plans.

The back door of Austria will stand ajar before the victorious British, French, Serbians, Greek and Italian armies plunging ahead through the mountains of liberated Serbia. Only 230 miles ahead of their advance guards is Belgrade, across the Danube from the plains of Hungary. They already have pressed forward a quarter of this distance since the great Macedonian offensive began on September 14. Once over the river they would be passing through territory occupied by the "oppressed nationalities" of Austria who have little love for the dual empire and there would be no great natural obstacles between them and Budapest. The early winter in the Balkans with the limited means of communication available would present the most serious difficulty and one which could not be overcome before spring.

With the defection of Bulgaria it would be necessary for hard pressed Austria to throw an army across her southern frontier, thus making another serious inroad upon her waning manpower. The bulk of her forces is facing the eager Italian army along the Piave and in the mountain region. Emperor William already has called upon Emperor Charles for help on the western front and Austro-Hungarian divisions are fighting beside the Germans against the steadily advancing British, French and Americans. Italy still has large reservoirs of men and any weakening of the Austrian front to send forces to the other frontier of the empire probably would be the signal for a general attack to recover not only the invaded Italian territory but the "lost provinces as well."

Revision of Cotton Prices Postponed.

Washington, Sept. 27.—The war industries board announced to-day that revision of prices on cotton products has been postponed until November 16, when results of the investigation into the raw cotton situation are expected to be in hand.

AMERICANS CAPTURE TWELVE MORE TOWNS

FIVE THOUSAND GERMAN PRISONERS WERE ALSO TAKEN BY AMERICANS AND FRENCH.

Twelve towns and more than 5,000 German prisoners have been taken by American troops, fighting in conjunction with the French, in a new offensive begun with the break of day Thursday in the region extending from the northwest of Verdun to within 15 miles of the cathedral city of Rheims.

The Americans advanced to a depth of seven miles, overcoming the stubborn resistance of the enemy. Pennsylvania, Kansas and Missouri troops were among the fighting forces, which in less than a day won territory of great importance to the enemy and further depleted his army through men captured or killed or wounded.

American troops have taken over a new sector in France and in conjunction with the French have forced the Germans on the defensive on still another battle front.

The gage of battle has been thrown down on a forty mile front extending from the Suippe river to Champagne 15 miles east of Rheims, eastward through the Argonne forest to the Meuse river northwest of Verdun.

In the first stages of the battle the allied lines were pushed forward for material gains—that portion immediately northwest of Verdun held by the Americans to a depth of from five to six miles and that of the French to the west nearly four miles at certain points.

Under the terrific bombardment preceding the commencement of the battle the Germans hurriedly quit numerous positions and into these the Americans and French went unimpeded. At last accounts the allied attack was progressing favorably. Many French villages and German strong points had been captured.

New Drive of Foch.

Taken in conjunction with the allied offensive, which has materially bent back the German front in Flanders, Artois and Picardy and along the Aisne, the new drive of Marshal Foch in the south will bear important fruit if it meets with success. Driving northward the entire western battle front would be shaken and of necessity be compelled to readjust itself. Lateral railway lines of great importance to the German positions between Laon and Verdun lie directly in the path of the advancing Franco-American forces. Vouziers, an important railway junction, on the main line from Laon to Metz, is but twelve miles north of Servon, which already is in the hands of the French.

Have Won the Aves Valley.

The Americans, through the capture of Garicourt, northwest of Verdun, are in the Meuse valley, which leads northward to Sedan, and a little farther west at Varennes, have won the Aves valley, which winds in a northwesterly direction to Vouziers. A successful advance along these two valleys for any appreciable distance would be disastrous to the German lines from the North sea to the Swiss frontier.

GERMANS LOSE 600,000 IN TWO MONTHS.

Paris, Sept. 28.—In a review of the battles in France during the past six months, the Havas Agency, the chief news bureau of France, credits to the American troops the re-establishment of the balance on the western front and points out the entire change that has taken place in the last two months.

"In the last two months alone," it says, "the allies took 185,000 prisoners. The enemy losses in men who will never be able to return to the ranks are estimated at 600,000—a void which the 1920 class will not suffice to fill."

PATRIOTIC MEETING— ENTHUSIASM RAN HIGH.

One of the most thrilling war speeches heard in Greensboro was delivered Friday night at the mass meeting at the city auditorium.

Patriotic songs were led by Prof.
Wade Brown. The enthusiasm and patriotism was stirred to a high pitch by the music, and this was carried on and on by Dr. Jones, the speaker of the evening.

The meeting was presided over by R. L. Thompson, who declared it to be for the purpose of arresting the attention of the thoughtless and to concentrate all energies toward making the campaign a success. He called on F. P. Hobgood to introduce the speaker, Mr. Hobgood declaring that Dr. Jones was a minister who believed he could best serve the principle of peace and humankind at this time by urging a more forceful prosecution of the war against those forces that seek to destroy civilization. Dr. Jones was given the Chautaqua salute as he arose.

Dr. Jones touched on the remarkable achievement of this country in getting an army overseas, of the matchless patience of the administration in the face of criticisms. German intrigue and other things calculated to make one swerve from the even path of righteous dealings. What is the meaning of our sending an army to France, he asked. In answering this question he discussed the theories advanced that we were bound to enter the war because of the Hague convention, by others that the ethics of human sympathy directed it, and others that democracy was at stake. Had we entered the war earlier we would have been fighting for non-democratic principles. Mr. Wilson tried to get Germany to right her own wrongs and used every effort to bring about peace that would mean the freedom of mankind. As a result of the pur-suanee of his course, mapped out long in advance, the president had sent the men overseas with no thought of vengeance, but to fight the battle of world freedom and that there could be no talk of peace so long as a militaristic dynasty headed one side of the peace delegation.
Like a physician he had diagnosed the case of Germany and prescribed radical surgery which meant the elimination of autocracy and the bringing to the fore a government of, by and for the people.

Speaking of the liberty loan campaign launched Saturday, Dr. Jones declared that by over-subscribing the $6,000,000,000 loan the people of America can send an inspiring message to the people of the world, especially to our boys over there, and say: "We love liberty first, and will have it at any cost; we are not money, but liberty mad; we pour our billions on the altar of liberty and in return will exact—not a dollar or a flock of land—but freedom, and we will give that freedom to all the sons of men."

The success of our army over there depends upon those of us left behind. Our boys are fighting for a flag; that women may walk in safety and children may play beneath its folds without fear of harm, no matter where it waves; that the world round it may be locked upon not to harm but to help. When they are giving their all, how can we hold back, even a single dollar. God keep us true to them, was his closing thought.

C. W. Gold was asked, when Dr.
Jones had concluded, to present to the Boy Scouts the medals awarded by the government for their assistance during the past drive. From the several troops 26 were marched upon the platform to receive the recognition from the government. Mr.
Gold pointed out that the boys had not solicited bonds until the regular campaign was over, but even at that they secured 500 subscriptions totaling $65,500. He likened them to gleaners after the reapers. The boys receiving a government medal were:

Troop 1—Garland Daniel, James
Hendrix, Edward Thomas, Walter
Robinson, Charles Hole, William
Devin, Charles Hinkle, Hoyt Boone, James Poole and Hampton Howerton.

Troop 2—Worth Williams, Read
J. Edmonds and Spencer B. Adams.
Troop 3—Marion Moore, Charles
Clark, James Wilkins, Guy Rawls,
Howell Council, Spencer Blaylock, Julian Johnson, Thomas Smith and Rae Hopkins.

Troop 4—William Copper, Billy Vanstory, Norman Cooper and Jeff

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hanner and Mr. Ed Coble and family, of Route 6 Greensboro, recently drove to Ramsour in auto to visit friends.

WAR STAMPS WILL BE GIVEN TO EXHIBITORS

GREENSBORO FAIR WINNERS TO BE PAID WITH GOVERNMENT SAVINGS STAMPS.

One of the attractive features of the forthcoming Central Carolina fair, is that all premiums will be paid in war savings stamps. It is estimated that at least $8,000 worth of stamps will be required for this purpose. If all the entries are filled in the premium department, this sum will be increased from 50 to 75 per cent.

A glance at the premium book shows that excellent premiums are offered in all departments and the inducements are that the field crops, horticultural, animal and corn club, the stock and like departments the awards will be pretty well filled. The only drawback this year is the scarcity of labor, but the excellent premiums offered will doubtless overcome to a large extent this handicap.

Secretary John L. King, who has had much experience in managing fairs, having served for a number of years as secretary of the Central Carolina fair, is most optimistic over the outlook for a successful exhibit this fall, and thinks there will be a most creditable display of products from all parts of this and adjoining states, and especially from Guilford county.

Regarding the county displays, Farm Demonstration S. R. Bivens and Home Demonstration Agent, Miss G. Stephenson, have been arousing interest for some time and expect their departments to be well filled.

The fact that the premiums are to be paid in war stamps doubtless increased the war department officials in permitting an aeroplane to come here for the fair, as it is the policy of the State to encourage every means for creating a demand for war stamps. The government also encourages the holding of fairs, as the exhibits tend to arouse interest in production of foodstuffs and in conservation, also.

NORTH CAROLINA CROPS WILL BE WORTH MILLIONS.

Washington, Sept. 28.—The monthly crop report, September, for this year, shows some interesting figures for North Carolina.

The state will produce 60,000,000 bushels of corn, and the present price is $2.10. That makes a total value of $126,000,000.

The oat crop promises 7,000,000 bushels, at $1.07, or a value of $7,490,000.

The Irish potato crop will total approximately 2,802,000 bushels at $1.27.

The sweet potato crop will yield 7,500,000 at $1.16.

The tobacco crop will be 235,000,000 pounds, with a price that ranges far above anything in recent years.

There will be 577,000 tons of hay at $2.50 per ton.

There has been a large increase in the production of alfalfa, buckwheat, peaches and other smaller crops. Apples and plums of the garden crops depressed.

There are some important differences in values in products of the farm: Hogs at 100 pounds in 1918 are $17.50 against $12 in 1917; beef $9.50 against $6.70; sheep $10.50 against $7.70; wool 65 cents against 53 cents; milk cows $75.80 against $50.20 a piece; horses $165 against $147; cotton seed $67 against $49.

North Carolina is to have a cup for this year if the president does fix the price on cotton.

SPANISH INFLUENZA STOPS ENTRAINMENT

GEN. CROWDER CANCELS CALL FOR 142,000 DRAFT MEN FOR OCTOBER.

Washington, Sept. 26.—Because of the epidemic of Spanish influenza in army camps, Provost Marshal General Crowder tonight cancelled calls for the entrainment between October 7 and 11 of 142,000 draft registrants.

6,000 New Cases, 170 Deaths.
During the 24 hours ending at noon today, 6,139 new cases of influenza in army camps had been reported to the office of the surgeon general of the army. One hundred and seventy deaths, resulting chiefly from pneumonia following influenza, and 723 new cases of pneumonia also were reported.

Spreading in Virginia.
Roanoke, Va., Sept. 26.—Reports received tonight indicate Spanish influenza is tightening its grip on this section. Seventy-five cases, said to be of a mild type, have developed at Hollins College, near here, and this morning one of the young ladies died of pneumonia contracted after an attack of influenza.

Influenza has developed among a crew of Norfolk and Western laborers brought to the outskirts of the city from Pearisburg, Va., for development work. Thirty cases are reported.

The number of cases among the children of the Baptist Orphanage, at Salem, Va., has increased to fifty-eight.

A private funeral has been ordered by the health officer for a man who died of pneumonia following an attack of influenza, five cases of which are now reported in the family.

200 Cases in Johnson City.

Johnson City, Tenn., Sept. 26.—Physicians report fully 200 cases of Spanish influenza in Johnson City today. City schools have been partially depopulated, the health physicians sending the children home, and city physicians co-operating are taking every precaution to prevent spread of the disease. Most of the cases are mild but there are some of a malignant type.

GEN. GORGAS GIVES MOTHERS SOME GOOD NEWS.

Tours, France, Sept. 28.—Major General William C. Gorgas, surgeon general of the United States army, who is making a complete inspection of the medical corps of the American expeditionary forces, said today:

"I am very much pleased with the care and the health of the troops. Their sanitary condition is good; the sick rate is low and the wounded are excellently cared for. A large bulk of these men are getting very much better professional care here than they would have had 'at home.'"

General Gorgas cited as an example a man whose leg had been crushed in a logging camp, or a farmer's son shot accidentally, and pointed out that they would have had country practitioners treating them at irregular intervals, often with more or less long delays, while the troops in France have the most skilled surgeons and the foremost physicians attending them, with all appliances and conveniences as well as trained nurses.

"From what I see," concluded the surgeon general, "so far as the medical department is concerned, I look forward to the troops getting through the winter very satisfactorily."

TRAP TURK ARMY; HOLD RIVER JORDAN

BRITISH CAPTURE 45,000 PRISONERS AND TOWNS ON SHORE OF SEA OF GALILEE.

London, Sept. 27.—Gen. Allenby's forces in Palestine have virtually surrounded the 4th Turkish army in the region east of the River Jordan, according to advices received here today. The annihilation of this army now hoped for, would complete the cleaning up of the Turkish forces in Palestine, amounting to approximately 80,000 men. The total prisoners counted was increased today to 45,000.

The Turks, trapped, are being harassed on the north by Arab forces operating from Deraa (30 miles east of the lower end of the Sea of Galilee), and by Arab and British forces on the east from Deraa to Amman, along the Hedjaz Railway (a line of about 70 miles).

Allies Hold River Jordan.
The occupation of the strategically important town of Amman was officially announced today, and the British troops are now operating from Amman to Es Salt (nearly 20 miles northwest of Amman and 10 miles from the River Jordan).

Advices from Palestine state that the River Jordan on the west is in the hands of the allies, along with the crossings.

British troops are also reported officially to be extending their occupation of towns around the Sea of Galilee. The town of Tiberias (on the west shore of the sea) and Semakh (at the most southern point) have been taken, despite desperate resistance by the Turks, according to official advices.

The British casualties during the offensive were less than one-tenth of the number of prisoners taken from the Turks, the announcement states.

SON OF J. R. COCKMAN KILLED IN DURHAM.

Mr. J. R. Cockman, who is well known to many of The Patriot readers, as he has done collecting among its subscribers time and again. They will all be interested and will sympathize with him in the great sorrow that has come to him.

We give the account taken from the Durham Herald:

"Dashing across the street, Hilton Cockman, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cockman, of East Angier avenue, ran directly in front of an automobile driven by Mr. Carlton Byrd, salesman for the Peabody Drug Company, and was run down, receiving injuries from which he died a short while later.

"The accident occurred about 6 o'clock on East Angier avenue, and according to those who witnessed it was unavoidable insofar as Mr. Byrd was concerned. The little boy who was on his way to Mrs. Morris' across the street, to purchase some milk, had stood on the sidewalk to wait until a car driven by Mr. Jim Gregory and going towards East Durham, had passed. Before looking in the other direction he started to run across the street.

"The automobile driven by Mr. Byrd was within a few feet of him, and before the brakes could bring it to a stop, had run him down. In an unconscious condition the little boy was picked up and placed in the automobile of Mr. Gregory and rushed to the Watts hospital. He died before the hospital was reached.

"Mr. Cockman, father of the boy is at present working at Quantico, Va. He was notified by wire last night of the fatal accident, and will probably reach the city this afternoon. Besides his parents, the boy is survived by two small sisters.

"No blame whatever has been attached to Mr. Byrd by those who witnessed the accident, it was stated last night. He was driving his car at a moderate rate of speed, and applied his brakes with all possible haste. The close proximity of the car to the boy made it impossible to bring it to a stop quicker.

"The boy's mother last night was prostrated with grief, and Mr. Byrd was suffering from severe nerve shock. After the accident occurred he assisted in taking the boy to the hospital, and afterwards offered to render any assistance within his power."

Heider THE REAL ALL-PURPOSE Tractor

Ten Years of Actual Field Work.

Belt Power for all Your Farm Machinery.

You've seen the big locomotives pull long, heavy trains through their friction grip on the rails. The same principle of friction transmission used by these monsters of power is built into the HEIDER, the Real All-Purpose Tractor. This friction transmission is said to be the greatest single feature ever built into a Farm Tractor. Think what this means in a Tractor you want to operate year after year. Yet this is but one of the many big features in the Heider—the thoroughbred of all Tractors. Come, see the Heider at actual work.

NOT WITH VENGEANCE.

No finer speech has been heard on the war by the writer than that delivered by Dr. Jones, of Atlanta, in Greensboro on Friday night.

There were many parts of the speech that appealed strongly to the hearts and consciences of his hearers—many fine sentiments calling forth the best that is in the hearts of men and women—but nothing more splendid than the appeal to the people that we must not take vengeance for the wrongs that the Germans have done—must not answer in kind.

Our soldiers would be debased, the cause for which they fought dishonored if this were true. We are fighting that military beasts shall no more ravish helpless women, and murder innocent little children—then shall we and our soldiers murder women and children because the German soldiers have done so.

It is our duty to show to the world that womanhood shall be held sacred, that helpless children shall be protected and that justice and truth shall prevail throughout the world. "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, sayeth the Lord."

THINGS ESSENTIAL.

Since the war and especially within the last twelve months there has been much discussion as to what things are essential and what are not essential.

We are of the opinion that we shall never have much unity of opinion on essentials—so long as men are like they are.

Good corn liquor is essential for some men and if they can not get good liquor—then bad liquor will do.

A good circus seems to be an essential with the government as it allows as many of them to pass through the country as desire to do so.

A moving picture show is essential to some. They could not exist without a picture show. So it seems to be a matter of personal inclination and choice as to what constitutes an essential.

"The fourth Liberty loan is the barrage which will precede the victorious thrust of our army."—W. C. McAdoo.

A CALL FROM THE COMMANDER IN CHIEF.

President Woodrow Wilson has sent out the following letter to the people of the United States. The appeal of the Commander in Chief of the Army of the United States ought to be heard by all of our people and to meet hearty and liberal response hereto made by the most liberal subscription yet made for bonds. The words are as follows:

"Again the government comes to the people of the country with the request that they lend their money, and lend it upon a more liberal scale than ever before, in order that the great war for the rights of America and the liberation of the world may be prosecuted with ever increasing vigor to a victorious conclusion.

"And it makes the appeal with the greatest confidence because it knows that every day it is becoming clearer and clearer to thinking men throughout the nation that the winning of the war is an essential investment. The money that is held back now will be of little use or value if the war is not won and the selfish masters of Germany are permitted to dictate what America may and may not do. Men in America, besides, have from the first until now devoted both their lives and their fortunes to the vindication and maintenance of the great principles and objects for which our government was set up. They will not fail to show the world for what their wealth was intended.

SOLICITOR BOWER EXPLAINS.

The Patriot is glad to give space on its editorial page to the statement of Solicitor Bower relative to the Schoeller case referred to in The Patriot last week.

Since this matter has been given publicity The Patriot has heard that Solicitor Bower has been a faithful public official and has done his duty against evils that required the back bone of a real man to expose and punish.

SOLICITOR BOWER EXPLAINS.

Editor of Daily News:

There appeared an article in your issue of the 22nd inst., written by me Charles L. Van Noppen, entitled "Prosecution or Persecution," but does me a great injustice. This article contains some false and misleading statements.

The article had reference to the continuance of the cases against the Schoellers, at Greensboro, they being under indictment for an aggravated assault upon a four year old child—the daughter of Mr. Schoeller—and also for leaving the child alone in a building exposed to fire.

When these cases were called for trial last week, Mr. Fentress, city solicitor, who was assisting me in the prosecution, and myself found that two very material witnesses were not present. These witnesses were Dr. Roberson, who had been the family physician of the defendants and who knew about the condition of the child, and also a colored girl by the name of Sarah Houston. Dr. Roberson had been in the hospital several days suffering from some ailment and when the cases were called he failed to answer. And we were informed by some parties present that Dr. Roberson had not yet left the hospital. Mr. Van Noppen says a few Dr. Roberson on the street the day these cases were continued. Perhaps so, but I do know that Dr. Roberson was not present in court when he was called as a witness, and I am also reliably informed that he was still confined to his bed when I was in Greensboro last Saturday.

But the unfair part of Mr. Van Noppen's article, was the fact that in his article he never mentioned the absence of the colored girl, who was the most material witness the state had in the assault case. I cannot be denied that this girl was sick, was under subpoena and was unable to attend court. We possibly could have gone to trial without the presence of Dr. Roberson but we certainly could not have gone to trial without the evidence of this girl. And it was because of the absence of this girl that we were forced to ask for the continuance of these cases and it was so stated at the time.

I would have been derelict in my duty had I not asked for the continuance of these cases when I ascertained that two material witnesses were not present—one of them sick, the other supposed to be. I stated to the court that I regretted to have to ask for continuance of these cases but that I felt it was my duty to do so under the circumstances.

I have been solicitor for several years and I have never knowingly used my office to oppress or persecute anyone. And it was unfortunate that these cases had to be continued because of circumstances over which I had no control, and not for the purpose of persecuting anybody.

Lexington, N. C., Sept. 27.
Note.—We are glad to publish Solicitor Bower's answer of the Schoeller case, as we said in last issue an explanation was in order.—Editor.

SERIOUS AUTO ACCIDENT ON HIGH POINT ROAD.

A High Point special in yesterday's Greensboro News gives this account of a serious auto accident that happened on the Greensboro-High Point asphalt road Friday night:

"Three people were seriously injured in an automobile accident on the Greensboro-High Point asphalt road Friday night that occurred just south of Cobb's farm. Mrs. J. E. Austin is in the local hospital in a serious condition as a result of the shock and bruises; her son, Lawrence Austin, aged three years, sustained a fractured skull, and the left leg of Mrs. Ed Kearns was broken in two places below the knee. The injuries resulted when the automobile owned and driven by J. Neil Thompson, of this city, collided with the machine of Dr. J. E. Austin, local physician. A few hours after the accident Mr. Thompson gave bond in the sum of $1,000 to insure his appearance for trial under the technical charge of committing an assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill.

"According to accepted version of the affair Dr. and Mrs. Austin and their son were returning from a ride to Greensboro. Immediately behind them was the car belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Kearns. Dr. Austin's car had a puncture and either to land a tire or to help repair the puncture, the Kearns stopped. Both cars were driven off to the left side of the asphalt road, coming toward High Point, leaving the right wheels standing about 18 inches or two feet on the highway. The lights of both cars were on and were used to do the repair work.

"The car owned and driven by Mr. Thompson was going to Greensboro and was traveling at a high rate of speed. It is reported. When just a short distance from Dr. Austin's car Mr. Thompson pulled out to the right, the side of the road the left cars were standing on, and his front right wheel struck the front right wheel of Dr. Austin's car, which was knocked against Mrs. Kearns and caused her injury. Mrs. Austin and her son were in the machine. Dr. Austin's car was thrown out into the roadway about four feet while its rear went into the ditch beyond the sand clay road on the side of the asphalt. Mr. Thompson's car was thrown into the ditch on the opposite side of the road.

"Whether Mr. Thompson was blinded by the lights from the Austin machine is not known, but it is assumed that he felt by keeping to the right he would be in the right. Mr. Austin and Mr. Kearns had taken particular care to leave practically all of the asphalt open for their machines. However, the warrant was served on Mr. Thompson several hours after the accident while Mrs. Austin, her son and Mrs. Kearns were immediately brought to the city and placed in the hospital. They were reported to be doing as well as could be expected today."

Mr. C. E. Kirkman, of Pleasant Garden, has taken the Progressive Farmer and Patriot, both for $2.

WE LOVE TO SELL CLOTHING AND MEN'S WEARABLES, But at Present We Prefer to Sell LIBERTY BONDS!

THE best Liberty Loan advertisements ever written have been by the Kaiser and the German Armies. They have been written in blood and in flame, at the point of the bayonet and at the cannon's mouth—they have been written in the innocent blood of little children and in the red shambles of Louvain—they have been written in the charred embers of fair cities and on crumbling walls that stand as silent monuments to homes that are no more—they have been burned into the flesh of innocence and branded on the breasts of virtue—they have been written so indelibly on the face of the seas that the stain is still upon the waters that hushed the victims' prayers—they have been written in the name of God but in the hand of Hell, in the guise of defence but in the cause of dominion, and they have rallied one hundred million Americans to the ensigns of freedom, sold three Liberty Loans, are going to sell a fourth, and will sell them indefinitely till the human race is emancipated from the maw of militarism and the tyranny of autocracy.

MAYOR STAFFORD ISSUES QUARANTINE.

A proclamation placing a quarantine on Greensboro for all points seriously affected by the recent outbreak of Spanish influenza was issued by Mayor E. J. Stafford, as a means of protecting the citizens of this city from the invasion of those who would come here from various points.

Reports have been current that cases of this disease have been discovered in Greensboro, and while the health authorities have not yet found a case they could positively identify, some suspicious cases have been found.

In this connection, Dr. J. T. Rieves, city physician, has issued the following advice:

"While there has been no case in Greensboro reported that we can say positively belongs to the type of epidemic influenza there have been a few cases that were suspicious, and while the spread of this disease is hard to control there are certain precautions that will materially help to control it."

"Do not visit patients suffering from this disease. If case occurs in the home isolate patient by putting patient in room in separate room from the rest of the family, with only the nurse in attendance. If you have what you think is only a cold, and wish to cough or sneeze, keep your handkerchief over mouth and nose during the act. Beware of crowded houses and the common 'flu'."

WAR TROPHIES TO BE ON EXHIBITION THURSDAY.

The car of war trophies, sent out by the United States government for the purpose of arousing interest in the liberty bond campaign, will be in Greensboro next Thursday morning and will doubtless be visited by thousands of people from the city and surrounding country.

This car will be filled with implements of warfare, small arms, munitions, taken from the battlefields of France and brought back here. There will also be pieces of uniforms, helmets, shells, swords, etc., the exhibit being the most complete ever brought to this country, as it was gathered for the purpose of giving the people a more comprehensive idea as to modern warfare. A squad of American soldiers, home on furlough, will be on hand to answer questions concerning each of the trophies and to tell of their use in the fighting.

The train will arrive here Wednesday night at 10.45 o'clock from Reidsville, and will remain here until 11 o'clock Thursday morning. During the morning hours the car will be open for visitors.

It is requested by the government, and Chairman R. R. King hopes the suggestion will be carried out here, that the arrival of the train be noted with the blowing of whistles and the ringing of bells in all parts of the city. It is also probable that arrangements will be made to have all the bells and whistles sounded each day at noon, especially during the three days of the concentrated drive.

The train will leave here Thursday morning at 11 o'clock and arrive in High Point at 11.40. It will remain there until 2.45 o'clock that afternoon.

WITH OUR BUSY ADVERTISERS

—Eighty cedar posts wanted by W. B. Aydelette, at 193 Lyndon street. See notice in bargain column.

—Perry A. Sharpe and Lester F. Sharpe have qualified as executors of the estate of the late Jas. M. May. See their notice in our advertising columns.

—Attention is directed to the special offer of The Patriot on the seventh page. For $2.15 you can get five papers every week for a year. In fact you are almost getting a daily paper for the price of a weekly.

—The banks of the city are doing their best to inform our people of the importance of the fourth liberty bond loan by paying for space in the various newspapers in the county. Elsewhere to-day will be found a very attractive and interesting ad. from these banks. Don't fail to read and heed it.

—Mr. A. P. Frazier, proprietor, extends a most cordial invitation to every farmer in Guilford and his good wife to visit "The House of Frazier," and see the best makes of pianos in existence. Here you will find the Schomaker, the Emerson, Frazier, Lindeman & Sons and Frazier-Ola. See his announcement in another part of today's Patriot.

—Bookkeepers, stenographers, office help is in great demand now, and every young lady and every young man not in the draft should prepare themselves for these positions. President McClung, of the Greensboro Commercial School, is doing his part to assist, as the large classes graduated there testify. If you are not a student enroll at once. See his ad. elsewhere.

—President Grantham, of the Southside Hardware Company, wants you to surprise your good wife with one of the best ranges ever made—the Genuine South Bend Malleable Steel Range. There are none better and few as good, as Mr. Grantham says. Here you will also find a good line of wood and coal heaters. Drop in and see their line, after reading Mr. Grantham's new range ad. on the eighth page.

—Manager Tom S. Graham, of the old reliable Farmers' warehouse, has a quarter page announcement in today's Patriot that should interest every tobacco grower in Piedmont Carolina. Tom Graham, as he is familiarly called, has had 38 years' active experience in the tobacco business and knows the difference grades like a book. He knows when the farmer is getting a fair price for his tobacco and he sees that the raiser gets it. He tells you in his ad. that he is selling tobacco every day for $40, $50 and $60 per hundred, and the cry is for more. Read what he says and take him your next load.

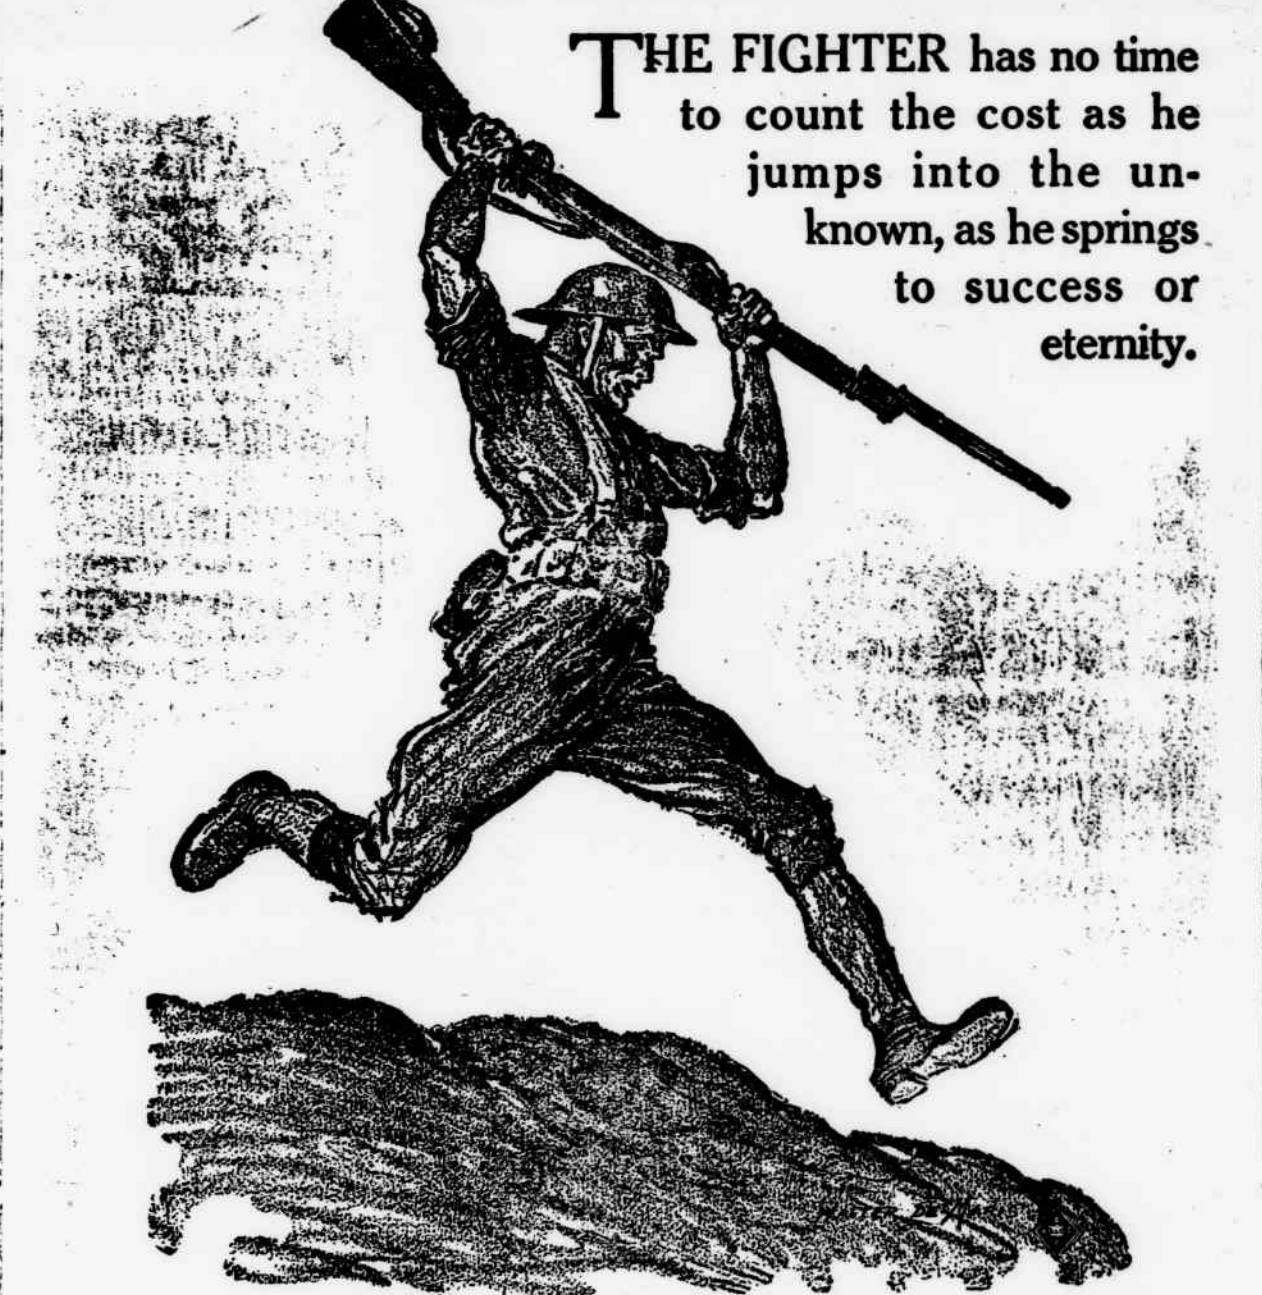

—When America goes to war, she goes to war to win—and we are going to win this war if it takes every man and every dollar we've got—but don't make the mistake of thinking that the war is already won. The Prussian beast is torn, tired and bleeding, but far from being crushed. Our boys are fighting—fighting like "Hell Hounds," according to the Hun himself—and by the grace of God winning—but they must have help, and it is up to you and to us to help—we must not fail them! Donnell & Medear's just love to sell dependable men's wear, but during the fourth liberty loan bond campaign they prefer to sell liberty bonds to help lick the Huns. (Read what they say elsewhere, and then buy liberty bonds.)

FIFTEEN HUNDRED POUNDS OF SUGAR IN ONE HOME.

Officers Phipps, Clarke, Hobbs and Caffey Friday discovered a violation of the food conservation act, when more than 1,500 pounds of sugar were found in the loft of the home occupied by a widow, Mrs. Caudle, of Summer township, near the spot on which 1,000 pounds of sugar and a big still were located several weeks ago. The sugar was brought to town, and although all labels bearing the dealers' name had been removed, it is expected that Federal officers will be able to identify the concerns making the sale.

It is thought that the enormous quantity of sugar bears close connection with the discovery of the still, and officers are of the opinion that other stills are located in that vicinity. The widow strongly protests her innocence of owning the sugar, pleading that it belonged to someone else, and that she "didn't know it was there."

Due to the number of children she supports, it has not been determined what action will be taken against her.

TOBACCO IS HIGH AT THE FARMERS' WAREHOUSE

Look at these sales: Parris and Deboe, of Summerfield, sold at from $38 to $50 per hundred pounds, and the $50 pile weighed 4,551 pounds; sales for P. W. Isley, $51; sales for R. Isley, $52.

We are selling Tobacco every day for $40, $50 and $60 per hundred pounds. TOM S. GRAHAM is the man who is making these sales, and the house is THE OLD RELIABLE FARMERS' WAREHOUSE. Good warm stalls, four large camp rooms for white and colored. A night watchman on duty all night every night.

We want to sell your Tobacco. In fact, we are anxious to sell it. Tom Graham has three large orders himself and he is in a position to get you more money than the average warehouse man. Everybody knows Charlie Cole is the best auctioneer in this section. He stays ON and gets the farmer the last cent. The time has arrived now for you to sell your Tobacco.

Come on to the best place; sell Tobacco where you can get the most money; give it some thought; 38 years' experience, a man who knows the grades and is not afraid to bid against the BIG companies' buyers. A proof is that the FARMERS' WAREHOUSE is double in pounds, leads in dollars for the farmers. Why is this? There is a reason. It's the high dollar. Bring me your next load and I will prove it by the sales I make for you. Your Friend for High Prices, TOM S. GRAHAM.

We are selling all through October every day except Saturday. First sale days of this week, Monday, Wednesday and Friday. We are selling Tobacco nearly every day brought from other large markets and making from $2 to $4 per hundred pounds for the offerings. We can prove this if you want proof.

CHANGE IN DRAWING NEXT DRAFT NUMBERS

THE FIRST MAY BE LAST AND
THE LAST FIRST—DRAWING TAKES PLACE TO-DAY.

Washington, Sept. 27.—The following statement is issued explaining the drawing of draft registrant numbers Monday, September 30, and pointing out the differences between the ensuing and other drawings that have been held:

The first drawing of numbers was held to the country by wire as the capsules were taken from the bowl. Because, under the system then prevailing the order of numbers actually indicated the order in which men were called for service. The later creation of the classification systems however has entirely altered the situation and the order of numbers now only indicates a man's order in his class and several considerations decide his class.

As for example the first number out of the bowl might be 248. Number 248 might be held by a man 42 years old, married, and having children. The fact that his number is the first drawn stands for nothing at all. He would automatically go in the fourth class for dependency, and unless the government reverses its policy of not invading the deferred classifications he never would be called for service. If the policy ever should be reversed all the men in two classes ahead of him would first have to be exhausted. This it will be materially reduces the importance of his number being first out of the bowl.

Similarly, number 5,276, for example, might be the very last capsule drawn and the holder might be a man nineteen years old, unmarried, and single. He would be practically certain to be called to duty soon, despite the fact that his order was at the bottom of the list.

Three Classes of Registrants.

Furthermore, all the registrants whose numbers are about to be drawn have been subdivided into three classes for present purposes. Those between 19 and 37 come first; those from 37 to 45 come next and those between 18 and 19 come last. The numbers drawn are certain to be indiscriminately scattered through these classes, but it is very doubtful when the men above 38 will be called. Even though men between 18 and 19 hold early order numbers there is no likelihood of them being among the first for duty.

Then added to the effect upon the order of service which has been worked by the classification, is the business of deferment because of a man's occupation which may be considered more essential to the winning of the war than actual service with troops.

As to Men Needed at Home.

The government has made it very clear that in this draft it does not want a single man in the army who normally is needed at home. All these considerations, it will be seen, reduce the relative importance of a man's position in the drawing to his likelihood for service.

The effect of the drawing simply means that every man who knows he is in for military service and has no valid reasons for deferment can expect to be ready to be called to duty quite irrespective of where his number comes out.

When the question of telegraphing the order of the numbers all over the United States was fully investigated it was found that to do so would have entirely occupied all the facilities for distributing news for at least twenty-four hours continuously. It meant that for twenty-four straight hours, possibly more, not a single word of news of the war or events at home could have been published by the newspapers. The plan of having the government use its own machinery—through the boards—to distribute the numbers was then involved, and it brought the added advantage of making the list when finally published an official one on which boards and registrants could absolutely depend. At the same time it left the ordinary channels of news open as usual.

Official Numbers by Mail.

Under the plan as perfected the provost marshal general's office will distribute the official complete master list of numbers to the district boards by mail as fast as they can be turned out of the government printing office.

The boards will be instructed to give them out to newspapers and the public as fast as they receive them. Newspapers can make their own arrangements to get the lists from the board and the registrants can depend on the lists as published in the newspapers, which will be a few days after the drawing.

Looking For a Home For Lepers Early.

Washington, Sept. 28.—Representative Zebulon Weaver today consulted with Surgeon General Rupert Blue, of the United States public health service, as a possible home of refuge for John K. Early, the leper of Tryon, Polk county. He was told that while a bill had been introduced appropriating $250,000 for a home for lepers, the measure had not become law and no funds were available for the care of Early. However, Representative Weaver expresses the opinion that the surgeon general will make some arrangements to care for the leper who is now being harbored in western North Carolina.

NO PEACE TO BULGARIA IF GERMANY DICTATES.

Washington, Sept. 27.—Bulgaria, suing for peace with her armies beaten and her border strongholds in the hands of the allies, will get no peace in the making of which Germany even indirectly has a finger and no peace leaving in her possession the slightest portion of the spoils of her barbarous part in the war as Berlin's tool.

Nor will there be any interruption of the victorious march of the allied forces on the Macedonian front until the Bulgarians are ready to disarm, deliver up their German officers and advisers and surrender as pledges of good faith such strategic points as may be designated.

On these points there was no disagreement tonight in official and allied diplomatic quarters when word came through American official channels that the Bulgarians had asked for an armistice to discuss terms of peace. In fact, the emphasis laid everywhere upon the conditions which the Bulgarians must meet almost overshadowed the very real feeling of satisfaction over this sign that the expected crumbling of Germany's lesser allies is at hand.

Collapse of Bulgarian resistance of course would be of tremendous military advantage to the entente and might quickly affect the attitude of Turkey. Neutral diplomats in Washington appeared, if possible, even more impressed at this prospect than the representatives of the allies. They spoke of the Turkish debacle in Palestine and predicted the overtures from the Ottoman government might be expected at any time now. Some even went so far as to express the opinion that since Bulgaria has dared to defy her master, Germany's more powerful colleague, Austria, may even be encouraged to disregard German pressure and come out with an unqualified proposal for cessation of hostilities.

The United States is not at war with Bulgaria and the Bulgarian minister still occupies his legation here. The state directly and formally the American government has nothing to do with the proposal made in the French general commanding the allies in Macedonia. Actually, however, the Bulgarian affair must be considered as an important phase of the world war situation so the announcement from Paris that not only the entente governments but the United States must be consulted before Bulgarian proposals are considered — not surprising.

If the Bulgarians really are ready to quit the war on the entente's terms, there is little doubt that her offers will be entertained. There will be no "round-table" peace discussions, however, with opportunities for secret German machinations to confuse the issue and bring about such a situation as it was hoped to create through the recent proposal from Austria.

NO PEACE BY BARGAIN OR BY COMPROMISE.

President Wilson in a great speech in New York Friday, among other things says:

"No man, no group of men, chose these to be the issues of the struggle. They are the issues of it; and they must be settled—by no arrangement or compromise or adjustment of interests, but definitely and once for all and with a full and unequivocal acceptance of the principle that the interest of the weakest is as sacred as the interest of the strongest."

"That is what we mean when we speak of a permanent peace, if we speak sincerely, intelligently, and with a real knowledge and comprehension of the matter we deal with."

"We are all agreed that there can be no peace obtained by any kind of bargain or compromise with the governments of the central empires because we have dealt with them already and have seen them deal with other governments that were parties to the struggle, at Brest-Litovsk and Bucharest. They have convinced us that they are without honor and do not intend justice. They observe no covenants, accept no principle but force and their own interest. We cannot 'come to terms' with them. They have made it impossible. The German people must by this time be fully aware that we cannot accept the word of those who forced this war upon us. We do not think the same thoughts or speak the same language of agreement."

No Peace by Compromise.
"It is of capital importance that we should also be explicitly agreed that no peace shall be obtained by any kind of compromise or abatement of the principles we have avowed as the principles for which we are fighting."

Attorney Carter Dalton, of High Point, was here Friday on legal business.

To Hold Mass Meeting.

The Sunday schools of every denomination of this community are to hold a mass meeting at the Smith Memorial building of the First Presbyterian church on next Sunday afternoon, October 6, at 3 o'clock, the occasion being Teacher Training day for Guilford county. Every Sunday school in the county is expected to be represented.

Will Be Here Thursday.

Augustus Nash, of Cleveland, O., expert instructor, will come to Greensboro on Thursday, October 3, and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon in the court house, a meeting of the local boards and local instruction boards, will be held, when Mr. Nash will instruct them in the work they should perform. Mr. A. M. Seales is chairman of the city instruction board. The other members are A. L. Brooks, C. H. McKnight, Dr. B. S. Williams and Marshall Stewart.

Campaign Launched by Negroes.

A largely attended public mass meeting was held at the Municipal theater yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock by the negro citizens of Greensboro as an initial effort towards the launching of the liberty loan drive of Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Dr. J. E. Dellinger, Dr. J. B. Dudley, Capt. D. J. Gilmer and others made speeches. Music was furnished by the band from the A. and T. training school. Also other musical selections were rendered.

Scout Troop at Gibsonville.

Charles W. Gold, local chairman of the Boy Scout council, and Charles C. Dailey, boys' work director of the local Y. M. C. A., returned from Gibsonville Saturday night where they went to assist in organizing the work of the Boy Scouts in that town. A mass meeting was held in the school building where the boys gathered to hear scouting presented by the visitors. A troop consisting of 23 was organized under the leadership of Rev. W. C. Jones and L. Q. Yow as scout masters. Prof. J. P. Wagoner will also assist in the work.

Returns From Meeting.

Miss Blanche Johnson, Mrs. Mary C. Weatherly, H. C. Butler, L. M. Clymer, Rev. J. W. Patton and other members of the Order of Eastern Star, have returned from Winston, where the annual meeting of the 4th district was held. This meeting was presided over by Miss Blanche Johnson, district deputy, and many matters of importance were considered. Representatives were present from the majority of the 11 chapters in the district, while four other chapters were represented by visitors. The next district meeting will be in Greensboro on August 29, 1919.

Will Represent Merchants.

W. D. Meyer, representing the dry goods merchants of this city, will leave for Washington this week to attend on October 2-3, a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States which will be held in conference with the war industries board, relative to the formation of a co-operative plan with a view to aiding the government. Mr. Meyer was recently elected by the dry goods merchants of Greensboro to represent them in this important meeting, and he goes with the assurance that those of this city will co-operate in every possible way during the period of war, and to insure the war industries board that they will cheerfully abide by its decisions.

BICKETT WIRES PRESIDENT ON PRICE FIXING OF COTTON.

Governor Bickett wired President Wilson on price fixing of cotton as follows:

"Trust that you will revert to your original intention to fix price cotton only if full, free and fair inquiry shows it to be desirable and feasible. War industries board undoubtedly honest in their position, however, their training and environment naturally prejudices the farmers case. Apparently farmers have had no adequate representation. Mills were permitted to make unlimited profits for several years, and the margin allowed them now is very large. Considering these facts it appears undemocratic to stop the producer from securing a profit that cannot equal what has been allowed the manufacturer. The labor income of the farmer and his family is entitled to the same per cent of increase as other laborers have received. They have not received this in the past, and are not now in the South. If full and impartial investigation shows desirability of fixing price and necessity is fully explained and put at fair figure no one can justly complain, but producers are deeply resentful of present attitude and state of market. Advance information secured by individuals indicates very unfortunate situation."

Mr. W. A. Groeson, of Glenwood, was among our visitors Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Ira Jones called Saturday afternoon.

JOHN ROBINSON'S CIRCUS DRAWS A LARGE CROWD.

Despite a sea of mud beneath the big tent, which prevented to a large extent the demonstration of horsemanship, racing, etc., the afternoon performance of John Robinson's circus was enjoyed by a crowd that filled the tent to capacity Thursday afternoon. As a rule the usual stunts were pulled off, but there were a few new and pleasing variations from the time honored program.

The muddy grounds caused considerable delay in getting the seating arrangements completed and the vast throng was kept standing outside in the sweltering sun, that presaged the thunderstorm which came later, for an hour and a half. The condition of the grounds, coupled with lateness in the arrival of the trains, prevented the usual parade through the streets. Everyone who entered the tent paid Uncle Sam a war tax of five cents and those with reserved seats paid 10 cents. Several hundred dollars in war taxes, of a direct nature, were contributed by the people attending the show.

The draft has entered the circus arena as well as other industries, as was evidenced by the fact that many women were employed to handle tickets and manage the reserved seat sections. Then, too, the almost total absence of men in the trapeze and horse riding acts was noted by many. It is understood that the ranks of the working force has been depleted to a point where many of the male actors assist in the work of erecting and tearing down the tents.

There were about a dozen men purporting to be clowns, but they evidently had their off day as they hardly caused a smile. Barely a half dozen stunts were undertaken, even the usual gags being left out.

A band of girl acrobats evoked a well deserved applause by their acting, while about an equal number of men gave proof as to their muscular abilities. A couple of monkeys gave a creditable exhibition, as did the seals. The usual trapeze and swinging rope acts were given, but did not evoke much enthusiasm.

On account of the hard rain that fell just after the afternoon performance was over, no evening performance was given and early in the evening the task of removing the equipment from the water-soaked field and loading it on trains was commenced. Shortly after midnight the circus trains departed for Durham, where the show was given Friday.

MEN AFFECTED BY ORDER WILL RECEIVE INSTRUCTIONS.

Discussing the report that Provost Marshal General Crowder had rescinded the order calling into service on the week beginning October 1, all men in class one A of the current quota, members of the local board say that they will mail out to the registrants affected full information concerning the course they are to follow, when official notice is received by the board from the war department. Until such notice is received, the local board states, nothing of a definite nature will be attempted, although they do not believe that any men will be sent to Camp Sevier within the near future.

As stated in the report from Washington, the present delay in the army's plans was caused by the recent appearance and rapid spread of Spanish influenza, which has affected the cantonment seriously. Several days ago the local board, when asked for an opinion, stated that there was little probability that the registrants would be held back on account of the disease, but numerous deaths, and the campaign inaugurated by the office of the surgeon general to prevent further outbreak of the disease presented a different situation.
