

A BLOODY REVOLUTION PLANNED FOR AMERICA

AMALGAMATION OF ANARCHISTS, SOCIALISTS AND I. W. W. BEING PERFECTED.

Washington, March 10.—Mail matter seized since the signing of the armistice has disclosed that the I. W. W., anarchists, radical Socialists and others are "perfecting an amalgamation" which has for its object the overthrow of the American government through a "bloody revolution" and the establishment of a bolshevik republic, according to a memorandum sent to the senate propaganda committee by Solicitor General Lamar of the postoffice department. The memorandum was made public by the committee and Chairman Overman said it would be read into the record tomorrow.

Declaring that in bolshevism the radical elements of the country had for the first time "found a common cause upon which they can unite," Mr. Lamar said his information showed propaganda against the government was being conducted with great regularity and its magnitude could be measured by the "bold and outspoken statements" found in the literature. Accompanying his memorandum were several hundred excerpts from mail matter showing the trend of the propaganda. These will be made public later.

Particular reference was made by the solicitor to the activity of the dissatisfied foreign element in the country, but he said perhaps the I. W. W. was the most active in the dissemination of the propaganda because it "has at its command a large field force known as recruiting agents, subscription agents, etc., who work unceasingly in the furtherance of the cause."

Lamar's memorandum, to which was attached a list of newspapers printed in English and foreign languages alleged to be regularly conducted and published by the I. W. W., said in part:

"This propaganda is being conducted with such regularity that its magnitude can be measured by the bold and outspoken statements contained in these publications and the efforts made therein to inaugurate a nation-wide reign of terror and overthrow the government."

"In classifying these statements, they are submitted in a major or general class as follows: I. W. W., anarchistic, radical, Socialistic and Socialist. It will be seen from these excerpts, and it is indeed significant, that this is the first time in the history of the so-called radical movement in the United States that these radical elements have found a common cause (bolshevism) in which they can all unite. The I. W. W., anarchists, Socialists, radical and otherwise, in fact all dissatisfied elements, particularly the foreign element, are perfecting an amalgamation with one object, and one object only, in view, namely, the overthrow of the government of the United States by the means of a bloody revolution and the establishment of a bolshevik republic."

I. W. W. Most Active.

"The I. W. W. is perhaps most actively engaged in spreading this propaganda and has at its command a large force known as recruiting agents, subscription agents, etc., who work unceasingly in the furtherance of the cause."

"This organization publishes at least five newspapers in the English language and nine in foreign languages, as shown in the list given below. This list comprises only official papers of the organization and does not take into account the large number of free lance papers published in the interest of the above organization."

The newspapers listed were: The New Solidarity, English, weekly, Chicago; One Big Union, English, monthly, Chicago; Industrial Unionist, English, weekly, Seattle; California Defense Bulletin, English, weekly, San Francisco; The Rebel Worker, English, bi-monthly, New York; La Nueva Solidaridad, Spanish, weekly, Chicago; Colos Truzen, Spanish, weekly, Chicago; Li Suero Proletaria, Italian, weekly, Chicago; Nya Varlden, Swedish, weekly, Chicago; Der Industrialer, German, weekly, Chicago; Proletaria, Bulgarian, weekly, Chicago.

so: A. Fels Badulas, Hungarian, weekly, Chicago.

Robins Again Appears.

The information furnished by Mr. Lamar coincides to an extent with the statements reiterated to-day by Raymond Robins, former head of the American Red Cross mission in Russia, when he again appeared before the committee, primarily to answer statements concerning him made Saturday by David R. Francis, American ambassador to Russia.

Mr. Robins insisted it was the desire of the bolsheviks to overthrow all the governments of the world and in their place set up terroristic governments similar to those in Russia. He said he did not know of his own knowledge that bolsheviks from Russia actually were engaged in trying to accomplish this purpose in the United States, but he was convinced certain people here were engaged in propagating bolshevik ideas.

"The I. W. W.," he added, "has borne it for 20 years."

Russian Reds to Aid.

In reply to questions, Mr. Robins said he did not know whether bolshevik agents were being sent into South America but he agreed with Senator King, of Utah, it was quite probable the Russian Reds would undertake to aid any radical groups wherever operating.

Turning to Ambassador Francis' testimony Saturday Mr. Robins denied he had gone to the headquarters of the bolsheviks in Petrograd, asked about their principles and indicated his approval of them. He also denied that he had ever pretended to represent the American government in Russia. Ambassador Francis told the committee he had heard Mr. Robins was spoken of in Moscow as the mouthpiece of the American government and as a consequence the ambassador thought it wise to make a public announcement that statements coming from sources other than the American embassy were not authorized.

Mr. Robins submitted to the committee copies of cablegrams which he said passed between Ambassador Francis and the state department, and telegrams and letters which he asserted were sent him by the ambassador. The witness explained his purpose in offering these documents was to show at all times his relations with the ambassador were valued and cordial and he was authorized by Ambassador Francis to maintain contact with the bolsheviks.

Given Him by Francis.

One of the letters was given him by Ambassador Francis, Mr. Robins said, "to provide against the possibility of error in statement and subsequent refutation of my authorization to represent the ambassador in the manner indicated by his verbal instructions."

This was at a time when, according to the correspondence, Mr. Robins was in conference with Lenin and Trotsky and other officers of the soviet government, seeking to prevent the signing of the treaty of Brest-Litovsk.

Another letter which Robins said was written by Ambassador Francis contained in the statements as to what the United States might do in case the treaty was not signed. Mr. Robins told the committee the letter was given him to be used at his discretion as evidence to Lenin and the officials of the fourth all Russia soviet at Moscow to aid in the prevention of the ratification of the treaty and "as evidence of the willingness of the ambassador to urge against intervention in Siberia by the Japanese."

DRAFT OF PEACE TREATY HAS BEEN FINISHED.

London, March 11.—Premier Lloyd George and Foreign Secretary Balfour have sent word to their colleagues here that the peace conference has nearly completed its work, the Evening News says it understands. The draft of the peace treaty already has been finished and will be signed before the end of March. When the Germans are summoned to Paris, the News adds, the treaty will be read to them and they will be invited to sign it. There will be no discussion with a view to alterations of the principal articles of the treaty. If it is thought necessary, questions involving the adjustment of details will be referred to a special commission.

THOUSANDS VIEW PRETTY FURNITURE DISPLAYS

A POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE JOINED IN HOLY WEDLOCK DURING THE EVENING.

Greensboro people had an introduction Tuesday evening to something absolutely unique in the way of a spring opening, that was held by the Huntley-Stockton-Hill Company. From 7.30 until 10 o'clock the company had "open house" for their friends, and estimates of attendance ran all the way from 5,000 to 10,000 people. Certain it is that many hundreds were unable to gain admittance to the mammoth establishment at any time during the evening, and the three floors were packed to overflowing every minute of the time.

For weeks past the company had been planning the event, and the announcement that a wedding would occur during the evening doubtless brought a large number. So closely had the secret been guarded as to the identity of the couple that scarcely anyone outside the personnel of the organization knew who they were. It was an eager and expectant crowd, therefore, that awaited the ceremony and the entrance of the contracting parties.

It was shortly after 9 o'clock that the orchestra launched into the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, and Miss Gracie May Leonard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Leonard, of this city, and Earl D. Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Wright, of Liberty, now a resident of Greensboro, appeared from an improvised reception room at the rear of the second floor and advanced along the aisle to the front, where they were united in marriage by Dr. E. L. Bain, pastor of West Market Street M. E. church. The ceremony was a simple but pretty one without attendants.

The music program was most appropriate and beautiful. Mrs. W. W. Stanley sang "I Love You" and "Because," Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as the processional and the wedding march from "Lohengrin" as the recessional. Miss Britt, at the piano, played softly during the ceremony.

The bride, who is known to a wide circle of admiring friends, wore a gown of Alice blue crepe de chine, with hat and accessories to match.

Mr. Wright, who but recently returned home after serving in the national army, is making Greensboro his home, having a connection with the circulation department of the Daily News.

Decorations and arrangements of the interior on all three floors were artistically worked out, the lighting effects showing off to wonderful advantage the rare collection of furniture and home furnishings assembled for the opening display. To say that the event was successful, that those attending were deeply impressed with the exposition of beautiful things for the home, would be putting it mildly indeed. Members of the organization were overwhelmed with congratulations upon the extent and character of the displays. The reception accorded the thousands of visitors was most cordial, and so perfectly had detailed plans been worked out that the crowds were handled masterfully. Carnations were distributed as souvenirs, and everyone in attendance was made in some way to feel the welcome in which they participated.

WILSON WILL ARRIVE AT BREST TOMORROW.

Paris, March 12.—President Wilson will be met at Brest by the French minister of marine, Georges Leygues; Captain Andre Tardieu, Col. House and his son-in-law, Gordon Auchincloss, who left Paris by special train this evening.

President Poincare with a guard of honor and band, will meet President Wilson at the Paris station between 11 o'clock and noon. The reception will be unofficial and will lack the ceremony which attended the first arrival of President and Mrs. Wilson in Paris.

The steamer George Washington is expected to reach Brest about 8 o'clock Thursday night, the President going immediately to a special train, which will make a slow trip to the French capital.

DEMOCRATS GET READY TO LICK REPUBLICANS

THE ISSUES FOR THE 1920 CAMPAIGN ARE ALREADY TAKING SHAPE.

Washington, March 11.—Political questions are taking definite shape here now. The Democrats are getting ready to go to the bat to wallop the Republicans.

The issues of the 1920 campaign are taking permanent form, and would-be candidates have out feelers. The league of nations may prove to be a good thing for the Republicans to leave alone. It is believed here that by the time Senators Borah and Reed have completed their speaking tours in opposition to any and everything that looks like an association of nations to prevent wars the sentiment in the country will have crystallized, and then other aspirants for the presidency can get their bearings. It is understood among their friends that Messrs. Borah and Reed will seek the nominations of their respective parties. At present they have no apparent following in their parties but the purpose of their talks is to create factions of their own. The group of Republicans led by Senator Lodge deplores the extreme position of Mr. Borah. It is understood here that Mr. Lodge would be satisfied with a league of nations but is not willing for President Wilson to have the credit for the exact form of the covenant. Most of the Republicans who signed the Lodge round robin saw to it that they could support a "league" without appearing to back down. It was the "Wilson league" they opposed. The change of a few phrases would enable those who signed the paper to say to their constituents that they forced modifications. That is a favorite trick in Congress.

The atmosphere of Washington has undergone a decided change since Congress quit last Tuesday. Sentiment is turning toward President Wilson. An impression that the Republican leaders played poor cards when they filibustered to death the army, navy, agricultural, general deficiency and other important bills to force an extra session of Congress. The Democrats will make the Republican filibuster of the last session of the sixty-fifth Congress an issue. They will use it in the campaign for seats in the senate and house.

"It is erroneous," said Senator Thomas S. Martin, former leaders of the senate, "to assert that the Republican filibuster lasted but a few days, and that the bills they killed were opposed because they were rushed in at the last moment. The truth is, and it can be proven, that filibuster commenced the day Congress met last December. There never was a moment from that time on that we did not know that the Republican leaders were using dilatory tactics in committees and elsewhere to hold back legislation."

"Defect of departmental appropriations and important fiscal measures through a Republican filibuster in the senate," said Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the Democratic national committee, to-day, indicating that issues for the coming campaign, "delays and hampers reconstruction at the moment when the country's industrial and commercial interests were reviving from the effects of the war, retards demobilization of troops, prevents the organization of a regular army to replace men overseas, deprives the railroad administration of funds for repairs and improvements, checks the employment of labor and the absorption of materials in naval, military and general construction, and impairs business confidence."

That is the comprehensive charge the Democrats will make on the stump. In a speaking tour of the country, immediately after he returns from France, President Wilson is going to analyze the Republican opposition to the league of nations and the Republican filibuster which upset the plans of the administration for a readjustment program. Before setting out from New York President Wilson promised to make a speaking visit to the various sections of the country when he gets back. The Democratic leaders urged him to do so, feeling that the people would respond to his appeals.

Summing up the harmful effects of the filibuster, Mr. Cummings said: "The Democrats tried to repeal the tax of 10 per cent on the sale of semi-luxuries, which will be felt by every man and woman in the country. The Republicans made repeal impossible. "The aggregate appropriations killed by the Republican filibuster was $3,000,000,000. The army appropriation of $1,238,282,697 was needed for the war department to continue its provision for the American forces overseas and to hasten the return of the soldiers to peaceful pursuits. They also represented a large credit for the purchase of materials and supplies and the employment of labor. "The general deficiency bill provided $750,000,000 for improvements and betterments."

Having enumerated the other appropriations, and the purposes to which they were to be applied, Mr. Cummings declared: "The Republicans sought to cripple the government, force an extra session of Congress, and prevent the President's return to Paris, solely that they might promote their partisan purposes and embarrass the President. The Republican leaders have assumed a heavy responsibility in preventing the passage of appropriation bills as well as these necessary reconstruction measures."

BRYAN ENDORSES LEAGUE, SUGGESTING AMENDMENTS.

Washington, March 11.—William Jennings Bryan issued a statement here tonight endorsing the league of nations, but suggesting amendments to the proposed constitution which among other things would preserve specifically the Monroe doctrine, enlarge the proportionate voting power of the United States and make it clear that each member nation might decide for itself whether it would support decrees of the league's general council. While pointing to imperfections, Mr. Bryan urged they should not be allowed to lead to rejection of the plan, declaring risks to be run in accepting the league were less than those involved in rejection and returning "to the old ways of blood and slaughter."

Mr. Bryan dictated the statement from his sick bed at the home of friends, where he has been confined for nearly three weeks. He said the league of nations idea, "the greatest step toward peace in a thousand years," was taken from the 30 arbitration treaties negotiated by the United States while he was secretary of state. It was not to be expected, he said, that so great an idea would be made perfect in so short a time and, while President Wilson "had done the best he could," he would be helped by intelligent and friendly criticism from the American people.

JURY TURNS DOWN "ELECTION FRAUD" CASES.

Beaufort, March 11.—The case against a number of citizens of Atlantic, in this county, charged with election frauds came to a rather abrupt end here to-day when the grand jury, after due deliberation, returned a verdict of "not a true bill."

These men, some fourteen in number, were indicted for alleged frauds in connection with the absentee voters act. One was a pollholder, another an election judge and two of them, L. H. Hardy and W. E. Hocutt, are ministers. The rumor here is that the verdict of the grand jury, although composed of both Republicans and Democrats, was unanimously the outcome of the affair is regarded as a complete exoneration of the men indicted. Democratic leaders here say the whole affair was merely an exhibition of partisan politics and they are consequently pleased over the result of the jury's investigation.

Victory Liberty Loan Campaign.

Washington, March 12.—The victory liberty loan campaign will open Monday, April 21, and close three weeks later—Saturday, May 10. Secretary Glass announced the dates tonight, together with the fact that short term notes maturing in not over five years would be issued instead of longer term bonds. The amount of notes to be offered was not disclosed, but it has been generally understood the loan would be for a minimum of $5,000,000,000 with the treasury reserving the right to accept all oversubscriptions.

WIND UP OF THE STATE LEGISLATURE

SUMMARY OF THE LAST TWO DAYS' PROCEEDINGS—DOING THE HONORS.

Raleigh, March 10.—The bill of Senator Brown, of Columbus, for a constitutional convention went to its death in the house this afternoon by almost a unanimous vote after it had passed the senate by a large majority some weeks ago. Its death was largely due to consideration of the success of the income tax amendment to the present constitution that has to be submitted to the people for ratification at the next election, and a desire to not hamper this issue with any question as to further revision of the constitution.

This, the last busy legislative day of the session, saw the ratification of the state highway federal aid bill that gave both branches of the legislature so much trouble in reaching a compromise. Adjustment of diversified views that would provide a really workable law, under which the counties, the state and federal aid could co-operate for the building and maintenance of both main artery highways through the state, linking county seats and principal towns, and the lesser roads that radiate into localities and lead to these thoroughfares.

Representative Pharr, in the house, was apprehensive that there was a defect in the bill that should be remedied by two more roll call votes in the house, but Representative Doughton was sure that fears of the Mecklenburg gentleman were unfounded and the bill takes its chances as ratified. It seems that the last amendment to the bill provided that the question of the counties assuming one-fourth of the cost of the state highways in the county should be left optional instead of mandatory. Mr. Pharr thought this change would require roll call enactment. He was assured that the bill was safe as passed.

Noon Tuesday is the time set for final adjournment.

The senate passed a bill to make the appropriation for factory inspection under the new child labor or child welfare act $10,000, instead of $4,000. In that connection, Commissioner of Labor Shipman renewed effort to make that department substitute for the commissioner of public welfare and the effective officer, but the senate was not inclined to reopen the matter, although every one insisted that in this whole matter the legislators meant no reflection on Commissioner Shipman or his department.

The house, on motion of Representative Gold, reconsidered the vote by which the amendments to the election law to require the registrants of election to furnish lists of those registered to candidates of either party on demand, and then passed the bill by a safe majority. These were the amendments asked for by the minority party legislators and approved by Doughton and Bryant, of Durham, as a committee from the house. Grier, of Iredell, made the fight against the passage of the bill and lost gracefully.

Representative Crisp, in personal privilege, gave Representative Saunders, of Pasquotank, a tongue lashing for criticisms of Crisp in his paper, the Independent, in which he referred to "The habit of the representative from Dare, Crisp, of taking a bit of the fluid that cheers the heart of an inebriate! Crisp told the story of Samuel Coleridge and Charles Lamb and the latter's declaration, "Yes, I am drunk but I will get over it, but you are a damned fool and won't get over it." Saunders joined in the uproarious laughter. But Crisp was not done. He denounced Saunders as having had to be called down on the floor of the house for using unfit language and having run the only newspapers in the state that had to be suppressed at any time.

The so-called "equal pay for equal service" bill, relating to salaries of teachers of the state, which had been adopted by the senate, was unfavorably reported by the house educational committee to-day. In accordance with the suggestion of Dr. E. C. Brooks, head of the state schools, this question will be investigated by the special state educational commission with a view to

The 1919 Legislature Adjourns.

Raleigh, March 11.—The general assembly at 1.55 o'clock this morning found the work in the enrolling office so thoroughly up that the side die adjournment could be taken without waiting for the noon hour to-day, which, under resolution adopted previously, was the time set for the final adjournment. At 1.15 the last batch of enrolled bills was laid before President Gardner and Speaker Brummit for their signatures of ratification and at 1.55 the great doors between the legislative chambers were thrown open, the president of the senate and the speaker of the house faced each other in their respective stations and gavels fell as they declared the 1919 session at an end.

It was a source of general congratulation among the legislators that the enrollment was rushed through and the adjournment taken without the possible mischief-making wait until noon to-day, these last hours being always regarded as dangerous through the possibility of some objectionable bills being slipped through in the rush and confusion.

This legislature passed and ratified 1,130 acts, compared with 1,215 for the 1917 session and 1,498 for the 1915 session. There were 63 legislative days, the legislators, of course, receiving pay for only the constitutional limit of 60 days. The last bill ratified was an act to place on the pension roll a widow of a Confederate soldier in Surry county.

With the killing of the Senator Brown bill for calling a constitutional convention by the house in the last hours of the session after it had passed the senate by a big majority some weeks ago, there is left only one act involving the state constitution to go to the people for ratification. That is the Doughton act to amend the constitution as to income taxes so that incomes from rentals and other sources can be taxed along with salaries and the like. This act also submits the question of eliminating the payment of poll tax as a prerequisite for voting.

There was an amendment proposed to increase the pay of members of the legislature, but this also was killed by the house some days ago, after it had passed the senate.

Friends of the income tax measure are gratified that it is to go to the people for ratification unhampered by any other constitutional amendment proposal. It was chiefly to this end, it is intimated, that the leaders finally decided on killing the Brown bill from the senate for the constitutional convention.

DRY KILN AT STERLING FURNITURE CO. BURNED.

What proved to be one of the most stubborn fires encountered by the local firemen in some time, occurred Tuesday morning, when the dry kiln at the Sterling Furniture Company, on West Lee street extension, was burned, both building and contents being destroyed. The loss was estimated at around $6,000, partly covered by insurance.

By energetic efforts on the part of the firefighters, aided by a favorable wind, the factory building, adjoining the kiln, was not damaged to any appreciable extent. The kiln was full of dry oak timber and it burned furiously, the water having but little effect, seemingly, in checking the course of the flames.

The fire was discovered by workmen about 10 o'clock, though it had evidently been eating its way into the lumber for some time previously. An alarm was turned in and the various companies responded immediately, a number of lines of hose being sent. When it was seen that the kiln and contents could not be saved, efforts were directed to the end that the main building was not damaged, although the kiln was built into the factory plant proper.

Operations at the plant will not be suspended on account of the destruction of the kiln. Manager J. A. Kellenberger stated Tuesday afternoon. Some cuttings from the kiln were in the factory and by the time these are converted into furniture it is hoped to secure kiln dried material from other places, pending the construction of a new kiln. In this way it is hoped to have the plant operated on full time. The work of constructing a new kiln will be commenced to-day and will be rushed to a speedy completion.

THE NEW STATE ROAD LAW.

Perhaps one of the most disappointing acts of the legislature just adjourned is the public road law.

As we understand the new law it does not require anything to be done in any county unless the county so desires. A county can apply to operate and construct roads and by meeting certain conditions it seems, that three-fourths of the cost will be paid by the state with aid of federal road money and one-fourth by the county in which the road is built.

In those counties where good roads are needed most and where the counties are least able to spend money for roads, it seems to us under this law, there is little to hope for or expect.

Mecklenburg county, Buncombe county, Guilford county, and Durham county may be able to move forward under this new law, but those counties that need most help and need roads most, will as we see it now have very little to hope for under the new law.

We copy section five as it will be of interest to drivers of motor vehicles:

Section 5. That section six of chapter 140 of the public laws of 1917 be stricken out and the following inserted in lieu thereof: "That a license or registration fee shall be charged and collected annually on motor vehicles registered under the provisions of this act; on each motor vehicle, except motor trucks, motor vehicles for the carriage of passengers for hire and motorcycles, as follows: On each motor vehicle having a rating of 26 horsepower or less, a registration license fee of $10; on each motor vehicle having a rating of more than 26 horsepower but not more than 30 horsepower, a registration or license fee of $15; on each motor vehicle having a rating of more than 30 horsepower a registration or license fee of $20; that each motor vehicle used for the carriage of passengers for hire shall carry a special "service" license to be furnished by the secretary of state, for which the license fee shall be twice the amount fixed for like motor vehicles for private use. The annual license or registration fee for a motorcycle shall be $5. The annual registration or license fee for motor trucks shall be as follows: On each motor truck with a carrying capacity of not more than one ton, $12.50; on each motor truck with a carrying capacity of more than one ton but not more than two tons, $25; on each motor truck with a carrying capacity of more than two tons, but not more than three tons, $40; on each motor truck with a carrying capacity of more than three tons but not more than four tons, $65; on each motor truck with a carrying capacity of more than four tons but not more than five and one-half tons, $100; on each trailer, $10 for the first ton carrying capacity, and $20 for each additional ton; provided, that any applicant for the registration of any motor vehicles on or after the first day of March of each year shall be required to pay for said registration a license fee for the balance of the year ending June 30 only one-half of the fee levied in this section; provided, further, that no country, city or town, shall charge any license or registration fee on motor vehicles in excess of $1 per annum; provided, further, that no motor truck with a carrying capacity of more than five and one-half tons nor any motor truck with steel tires shall be licensed or allowed to be used upon the state highway system.

COMING HOME TO THEM.

This writer believes in the United States government—all over its territory, whether North, South, East or West, and we have no patience with any one trying to stir up sectionalism at this day and time.

But still we can not help from calling attention to the fact that our Northern friends are now reaping the reward for some of the seeds they have sown in this goodly land of ours.

Our friends up there have shed tears for years over the way the white people of the South have treated the poor negroes, now these Northern friends are not behaving very well towards the colored people, that they have induced to come among them and get away from their down trodden condition in the South.

Recently in Pittsburgh the negroes awoke one morning to find placards with words like these on them: "THE KU KLUX KLAN. THE WAR IS OVER. NIGGERS STAY IN YOUR PLACE. IF YOU DON'T WE'LL PUT YOU THERE. THE KU KLUX KLAN."

The truth of the matter is the best friends the negro race has ever had or ever will have, are the liberal minded white men of the South—the men who have been spending their taxes for the uplift of the colored race as well as that of the white race. These broad minded white men have never been cruel to the colored race as charged, but have always given them a chance to work anywhere that they could and would work. The real friends of the colored race are in Dixie land and it seems to us that it ought not to take very much more time for the colored race to find out this important fact.

THE LEGISLATURE OF 1919.

The legislature of 1919 is a thing of the past. Its record has been made and some of its acts will make landmarks in the history of the state.

The revaluation of property is something that will make history for us. What the final outcome will be no one knows, but the time had come for a readjustment of our taxing system and we feel sure that some honest effort has been made to work out a better and a more just system of taxation than we have had in the past—if the present plan does not work—then something else can be tried.

The burden of taxation under the old system hit the man with his little home—his all that he had where every one could see it—more heavily than the large property owner. This the new law will be intended to remedy.

The unseen property that has escaped taxation will be sought out under the new law as we understand it. In short there will be very few if any tax-dodgers under the new law.

More money for public education will be raised than ever before in the history of the state. One feature of the educational law that the writer does not like is that more power is not given to the folks down in the counties. We must come down to the folks more closely than we have been.

We believe in professional training—but this centralizing of power at Raleigh to say who shall and who shall not teach in every nook and corner of every county in the state, is something that our people will not stand for—and the sooner some of the leaders find this out the better it will be for all concerned.

THE BURDEN PLACED ON THE KAISER.

Word comes from the peace conference that those who were charged with finding out who was responsible for the world war, have come to the conclusion that the burden of the war shall be charged up against the kaiser.

It seems to the average person that it ought not to take much time to come to such a conclusion as this. It is said that the kaiser shall be officially designated as "the arch criminal." This means that he is the chief sinner among the wicked men who planned the war.

Now let punishment be meted out to him in accordance with the destruction, misery and woe that he caused to come upon the world within the last four or five years.

It would seem that it will be impossible to punish one mortal man in this world as the kaiser ought to be in order for him to receive anything like justice for the wrongs he has done in the world.

BETTER READ WASHINGTON'S WORDS.

Ex-President Taft gave some of the United States senators a knock-out blow, when he said that he doubted if some of those senators who are so fond of quoting Washington's farewell address, had ever read that famous document.

"Peace, commerce and honest friendship with all nations—entangling alliances with none." These are the words attributed to Washington, when in fact they are the words from Jefferson's first inaugural address.

The sentiments expressed by Jefferson were in substance expressed by Washington, and both of these great men sought to discourage undue partisanship in this country for England and France, which they thought might involve us in an imperialistic war.

THEY STILL LIKE A DRINK.

The recent elections in some of the New England towns indicate that lots of people still like a drink, that is when it comes to taking the goods for themselves rather than the other fellow—that they vote to keep it at home for home use. But booze has been weighed in the balance and found wanting and the United States and before long we will be a dry nation, so far as laws can make us dry.

WOULD RATHER DIE THAN VOTE FOR THE LEAGUE.

"I would rather die than vote for the ratification of the league of nations convention framed to sacrifice America's nationality." — Senator Gronna.

This senator's record will show that during the last four years he would, no doubt, have died rather than vote for anything that would uphold the rights of America against the wrongs of Germany.

CHIEF OF POLICE FOUSHEE FINDS IN RIGHT FOOT SHOES.

Police were searching diligently Tuesday for a man whose left foot is either missing or incapacitated to the extent that he is unable to wear a shoe. There is no clue as to his identity but his queer actions have led to much conjecture on the part of police.

Chief of Police W. H. Foushee was walking in the rear of his backyard and discovered 18 brand new shoes for the right foot, half concealed in a cluster of grass on the banks of a small branch. Perhaps, those for the left foot were concealed on the other side, he thought; but a careful search did not reveal their whereabouts and he was greatly puzzled.

The shoes bore the name of a concern in Roanoke, Va., and were made apparently for wear in the mountains or on the farm. Some of them had high tops; others were of medium length but all of the shoes were made of good material.

A more serious view to the incident leads to the conclusion that they were, perhaps, stolen from a traveling salesman who carried them as samples. Evidently the thieves saw that shoes for only one foot were valueless without the mates, and abandoned their plunder.

GREENSBORO LED THE STATE IN BOND DRIVE.

According to the report on the fourth liberty loan, just issued from the office of the fifth federal reserve bank in Richmond, Greensboro led the state of North Carolina in the percentage of the population subscribing to the bonds of that issue, although she was third among the cities in the per capita subscription to the bonds. In the latter Raleigh led with a per capita subscription of $102.92.

Among the counties New Hanover won first palm for the percentage of population subscribing, with 24 per cent and a per capita of $57.22. Forsyth was second, Mecklenburg third and Guilford fourth. Guilford was fifth in the per capita subscription. When it is considered that Guilford it listed as having a larger population than any county in the state, even larger than Mecklenburg, it is considered this showing is good.

The state average is 6.53 per cent with a per capita subscription of $20.39. This is almost double that of the third loan. The statistics show that North Carolina had the smallest percentage of population subscribing and the lowest per capita subscription of any state in the fifth district. The figures follow for North and South Carolina and Virginia:

| | Sub- | Sub- |
|----------------|--------------|----------|
| | scription | scribers |
| North Carolina | $48,804,250 | 156,414 |
| South Carolina | 39,317,150 | 153,294 |
| Virginia | $3,576,800 | 257,142 |

The recapitulation shows that North Carolinians have during the war invested a total of $110,826,250 in liberty bonds, a per capital subscription of $46.29. South Carolina invested $83,359,200, a per capita subscription of $52.55. Virginia invested $204,404,109, a per capita of $95.40. The average per capita subscription for the four loans by states are, respectively, as follows: $11.57, $13.12, $23.85.

SAD DEATH OF A LITTLE FOUR-YEAR-OLD BOY.

Robert West, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. West, 39 Vine street, Proximity, was fatally burned Tuesday morning, the little fellow dying in the afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mr. West had builded the fires and was doing his morning chores, while Mrs. West was cooking breakfast. The lad got out of bed and walked before the open fireplace, his clothing catching on fire. Mr. West heard the boy scream and ran in. He smothered the flames with a cloth, painfully burning his hands in an effort to save his son, but the blaze had blistered a considerable portion of the body before it was extinguished.

Medical attention was at once summoned, but the physician could only alleviate the intense suffering of the child until the end came.

The funeral was held from the residence Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Ivery, pastor of the Proximity Baptist church. Interment followed in the Proximity cemetery.

BUYS AN INTEREST IN THE BROWN-LYNDON SHOE CO.

Sergt. Charles W. Irvin, who has been in the service for the past several months, has received his honorable discharge and has purchased an interest in the Brown-Lyndon Shoe Company, becoming salesman and assistant manager of this growing concern. He has had many years' practical experience in dry goods and notions, having for a period of seven years been connected with J. W. Scott & Co. Prior to his enlistment, he was with the Southern Life and Trust Company.

Something more than a year ago the old firm of Fordham-Brown was reorganized under the ownership of F. M. Brown and E. C. Lyndon. Since that time, when they removed into the present handsomely outfitted business establishment on West Market street, the business has grown very rapidly and with the accession of Mr. Irving to the personnel of the company, an even greater growth of business is anticipated.

CITY EXTENSION PLANS TO BE DISCUSSED.

Mayor Stafford is planning to call a meeting of the special committee recently appointed, composed of H. R. Bush, chairman, J. A. Barringer, W. C. Boren, R. G. Vaughn, Martin F. Douglas, and the work of defining the proposed corporate limits, to be voted on in June, will be taken up.

It is the desire of the commissioners to immediately take under consideration the question of fixing the limits. In company with the above committee and city engineer, the commissioners will take a trip along the outskirts and form a decision as to how they think the new lines should be run. The committee being an advisory board to the commission. The city engineer will then make the complete survey of the boundaries as proposed and the work of securing such information as can be had will be undertaken.

INTERESTING LETTER

SUMMERFIELD BOY.

From Sgt. 1 Cl., Jasper A. Ladd, San Deb Camp, Camp Lee, Va., to his mother at Summerfield, N. C. Camp Lee, Va., Feb. 1919.

Dear Mama:

Received your letter to-day. Am glad to know that all of you are well.

I am very sorry that I can't come home at present, as I had my mind fully made to be there soon, and I sure hate to miscalculate, but I did, and I didn't, so will tell about the outfit I am with.

I am first sergeant of eighty-two "niggers," besides myself. It sounds bad and listens worse I guess, but it isn't bad at all compared with the work I have done for the past three days.

I have worked here in the office from 8:30 after breakfast until 9 P. M. and then dreamed about paper, men, ink, typewriters, blank forms, filled-in forms and anything else including general orders, circular orders, special orders, verbal orders, special regulations, army regulations, and the mistakes I have made and must be corrected.

This is the first time I have felt like I earned my money since being in the army. At other times I acquired it, but now I know I am earning it, and prospects now seem to tell me that I shall continue to do so for some two or three months if something doesn't turn up that will make me earn both money and food.

And speaking of food—I wish you could only see me now when meal time comes. It really makes me ashamed to think of it much less talk about it. I really cannot give good enough description of it to justify all concerned. I have a table all to myself, and when I go into the dining hall my table is set with the proper dishes and two waiters start bringing the different courses of food, which is well prepared and quality fit for kings, and when I push the chair back preparatory to going I am always stopped and some extra delicacy is placed on the table for me. (It is kept back until this moment and I am supposed not to expect it) and I don't know what it is going to be, so naturally I always get something I didn't expect and finally when I leave the waiter says: "Sergeant yo alls aint eat enuff, yo-alls goin to starve if you don't eat."

Now you may be able to imagine how I feel. Of course I feel funny—in fact I feel funny three ways. I feel like I am better; I feel like I am worse; I feel like I had the upperhand; I feel like a royal guest; I feel like a royal prisoner; I feel like my food is poisoned, and I feel foolish. Now of course this is more than three ways, but I only feel three at a time.

I will close this part of the letter before it gets the upperhand.

Now myself—I weigh the same as I did in April, 1916, am one-half inch taller; am feeling tolerable but intend feeling better next week. It looks as if I won't have to work tonight so think I will stop the letter and take a walk.

Write again as I have not yet received the letter with the news in it.

When I was telling you about my working I didn't tell you that it was my first work in a long time, but it is. I have to be doing something anyhow, and as Petersburg is about as dead as you may know there isn't much fun around here.

I suppose I should have written you from France that I was coming back, as I knew it last November, but I thought I would come on over and walk in on you. But when we got to Newport News I happened to hear about the Red Cross sending you the telegram, so thought I might as well send one too.

Let me know when school is out there and send me an invite and I think I will be able to come.

We discharged twenty of my "niggers" Monday and are transferring twenty-two tomorrow, also we are expecting to get rid of a few more shortly, so that won't leave much crowd to look after.

I have found that imagination is a great thing. One can pass away many hours with it. I may remark that my imagination is running low. I told the lieutenant a furlough would help my morale, but he thinks he is very busy and I have found it is best to let officers have their way.

We moved yesterday. It was a good sized job but we made it in fine shape.

I went to Richmond Saturday afternoon and came back Sunday. Had a very good time, though was alone.

Petersburg may have seemed O. K. to Clay and Douglas, but after seeing some of the other places around, it doesn't strike me favorably.

I am still working a good deal, but we are cutting the detachment down to twenty-five men and as soon as that is done I can handle the work easily. I guess I can brag if I want to. I believe I am writing only because I can get another letter because I am not telling anything. I sure like to get letters but hate to write them. Love for all.

THE "SLEEPING DISEASE" HAS REACHED DURHAM.

Durham, March 11.—Has the "Sleeping Disease" reached Durham?

This is the thing that is puzzling Dr. E. H. Bowling, one of the city's physicians. He has a patient he attended more than a week ago, who had a case of sleepiness then, and has been, since that time, sleeping 20 hours out of the 24. It is a case the physician has no knowledge of ever seeing anything like it before.

It is Mrs. Rena Mims, age 20, of 148 12th street, West Durham. She is a widow, her husband having been killed in one of the big battles in France. Her mother states that when a child she had a fall, and her head was injured, and she has never been entirely well since that event.

But the symptoms in the case, under the present circumstances, are such that the physician is led to believe that it is one of the "sleepy sickness," the new disease which is said to be following the "flu." Mrs. Mims, the past week, had to be awakened for her meals, and when awake appeared to be rational and in a normal condition. There are no signs of her physical condition growing worse. She eats her meals and then goes back to sleep again. Her sleep has all the appearance of being natural, and she suffers no inconvenience from it. When aroused she comes to a conscious awakening in a listless, yawning manner, as if she wanted more sleep. And if not kept awake she is sleep again.

CONVICTION OF DEBS AND FROHWERK SUSTAINED.

Washington, March 10.—Convictions under the espionage act of Eugene Debs, Socialist leader, and Jacob Frohwerk, a newspaper editor of Kansas City, were sustained today by the Supreme court in unanimous opinions delivered by Justice Holmes. Both men were sentenced by the lower courts to 10 years imprisonment.

While not passing directly upon the constitutionality of the act, the court in effect did declare valid the so-called enlistment section and reaffirming the opinion that the espionage law was not an interference with the constitutional right of free speech.

Debs was convicted on three counts, but the court passed directly on only one of these, that charging him with obstructing recruiting and enlistment through statements made in a speech at Canton, Ohio, last June. The other two counts charged him with attempting to incite insubordination and disloyalty, and also with uttering language intended to provoke and encourage resistance to the United States government.

In arguing the case before the Supreme court, however, the government did not press the last charge.

Frohwerk's conviction resulted from articles written by him and published in the Missouri Staats Zeitung, criticising the United States participation in the war.

Some attorneys interpreted the failure of the court to give a direct opinion as to the constitutionality of the espionage act as indicating its intention to pass upon the merits of each individual case considered by it. The court to-day granted petitions asking it to review the case of H. E. Kirchner, convicted under the espionage act because of statements made in a recent speech at Elizabeth, W. Va., in which he declared the government in the prosecution of the war was corrupt and was controlled by the moneyed interests. He was sentenced to two years imprisonment. A number of other espionage cases are now before the court, while about 75 cases involving charges similar to those against Debs are pending in appellate courts over the country.

AN ENORMOUS DEBT HANGS OVER FRANCE.

Paris, March 10.—In opening today's discussion of the financial situation in the chamber of deputies Chairman Peret, of the budget committee, estimated that on March 31 France's assets will amount to $31,800,000,000 and her liabilities to $36,200,000,000, leaving a deficit of $4,400,000,000. He estimated that the after-the-war budget will be $3,600,000,000 and the revenue $2,600,000,000.

The assets are the liquid resources raised to meet the nation's expenses to March 31 and not, of course, the entire wealth of France. M. Peret said that something must be done at once, and that an internal loan is impossible. What is wanted, he declared, is a financial league of nations. He read a letter he wrote February 6 to Minister of Finance Klotz, proposing the pooling of all the indebtedness of the nations, as it is impossible for each nation to pay its debts separately.

The deputy contended that an international loan bearing the signature of all the allies must be issued immediately and that from it the sum first taken should be for repairing the devastation in France, Belgium and Serbia.

ADMINISTRATRIX'S NOTICE.

All persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment. This February 24, 1919. 17-27. LAURA R. JORDAN, Admrx. of A. W. Jordan, Deceased.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.

Having qualified as executor, with will annexed, of the estate of Mary E. Iddings, deceased, late of Guilford county, N. C., this is to notify all persons having claims against said estate to present them to the undersigned on or before the 27th day of February, 1920, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. All persons owing said estate will please make immediate payment. This February 27, 1919. 17-27. J. H. IDDINGS, Executor, with will annexed of Mary E. Iddings, Deceased. Pomona, N. C.

MORTGAGE SALE.

Pursuant to the powers vested in the mortgagee by virtue of a certain mortgage deed executed by Stephen Reed to A. Schiffman on the 1st day of November, 1916, and duly recorded in the office of register of deeds of Guilford county, in book 206, page 123, the undersigned will expose for sale at public auction at the court house door in the city of Greensboro, N. C., on at 12 o'clock noon, a certain tract or parcel of land lying and being in the county of Guilford, state of North Carolina, in Morehead township, adjoining the lands of A. A. Hinton, deceased, J. C. Hanner and others and bounded as follows:

Beginning at an iron stake 260 feet south of the southeast corner of Patterson and Scales streets, said iron stake being on the eastern margin of Scales street; thence running south with eastern margin of Scales street 142.7 feet to an iron stake, J. G. Hanner's line; thence running easterly with J. G. Hanner's line 103.9 feet to west corner; thence running north 6 degrees east with Hinton's west line 165.3 feet to a stake A. A. Hinton's northwest corner; thence running westwardly 133.1 feet to the beginning, being lot No. 9, section 5, of J. Van Lindley Nursery Company, plot of West Lee extension. This February 10, 1919. A. SCHIFFMAN, Mortgagee.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

GUILFORD COLLEGE.

Owing to the unusual amount of rain for the past few weeks very little has been done in the way of farm work.

Rev. Lewis McFarland was at our meeting last Sunday morning and preached a good sermon.

Rev. Edgar Williams and Prof. Anscomb attended Yachin Quarterly Meeting and Mr. Williams is spending this week in that locality in the interest of the college endowment campaign now being conducted throughout the limits of North Carolina Yearly Meeting.

Several deals in real estate have been made in this section during the past few weeks and others are being talked mostly for small tracts.

Mr. Rudd Newsum, our singing evangelist is at Asheville this week, helping in a series of meetings being conducted at that place.

Dr. Fox and Mr. Jesse Henley left last Friday for a few days trip to Florida.

Mrs. W. P. Stanley has been confined to her room for the past few days on account of severe cold and throat trouble.

The Guilford high school girls played a nice game of basket ball with Jamestown last Friday evening in which they were defeated by a score of 26 to 14.

The student volunteer conference for the colleges of the state will be held here the last of this week beginning Friday evening. Delegates from the various colleges of the state are expected to be in attendance.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. are holding silver teas each week at the home of some member of the union. This week Mrs. Mary E. W. White entertained. Mrs. Goodno was present and addressed the meeting on the drive now being carried on to raise a million dollars for the jubilee fund for the furtherance of temperance throughout the world.

ALAMANCE.

Mrs. D. M. Glass spent a few days in Greensboro last week visiting relatives.

Miss Hallie Greeson spent the week-end with Miss Jennie Gorrell. Mr. Thomas Whiteley is remodeling his residence.

Mr. Graham Hanner and family, of Greensboro, visited at Mr. C. C. Parker's Sunday.

Mrs. J. A. Starr spent one day last week in Greensboro visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Platt.

Mr. Ross Weatherly, of Camp Jackson, spent the week-end here with relatives.

Mrs. A. L. Allred visited relatives in Greensboro recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Causey spent Sunday at Mr. Nathan Smith's.

Born, March 8, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Forbes, a daughter.

Mrs. J. Ed. Kirkman spent one day last week at her brother's, Mr. J. A. Allred's, who continues in poor health.

A Birthday Celebration.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Dillard, at the "Owl's Roost Farm," on Saturday, March 9, a birthday dinner was given in honor of Miss Annie Dillard and Mr. Mike Miles, who each celebrated their twentieth anniversary, and also in honor of Edward Dillard, who fifteenth birthday, was the following day. There was present quite a number of friends and relatives who together with them enjoyed a good dinner and wished them long lives and prosperity. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Rufus McFarland, of Dayton, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Parrish, of Greensboro, and Misses Mattie and Floy Florence, Ophelia and Mazie Ray, of Hillsdale; Messrs. Dewey Strader, of Greensboro, and Arminious Lowe, Mike and Rufus Miles, Leonard Rayl and others of Hillsdale. After spending a most delightful day all said good bye with the earnest wish that all might be participants in many more birthday celebrations to these young people.

MARCH CIVIL TERM OF GUILFORD SUPERIOR COURT.

Practically all of Monday afternoon in Guilford Superior court was taken up with divorce cases, the jury rendering seven verdicts in favor of divorce decrees, the latter being signed in six instances. The court then took up the case of M. Wilensky, et al., vs. Max Lefthowitz, who was suing to recover $32, alleged to be due on leather purchased by the defendant from the plaintiff. The amount was allowed by the jury.

There were no cases ready for trial Tuesday and court recessed until Wednesday morning. The Wednesday calendar was continued with the exception of one case, that of Mrs. Bertha Luther vs. W. C. Beasley. She is suing for damages on account of her husband being killed by the defendant in an auto accident in December, 1917.

The Thursday calendar was advanced to Wednesday and the Friday calendar to Thursday, and attorneys were instructed to notify their witnesses and clients of the advance.

Judge Henry P. Lane arrived Monday at noon from his home at Reidsville, and at 2:30 o'clock court convened and at once entered upon the trial of divorce cases. The following were disposed of: divorces being granted:

W. W. Arendar from Amma Arendar.

Susan Lineberry from William Lineberry.

Nettie Mann from Alexander Mann, no judgment.

M. O. Moxley from Callie Moxley.

Alice Boone from R. H. Boone.

Oscar C. Beville from Lillie Bell Beville.

Maude Cox from John Cox.

The following four divorce cases, all of which involve white persons, were Wednesday granted in Superior court. Merton R. Hinkle from Minnie Lee Hinkle; Mamie C. Wood from Dwight L. Wood; James Poole from Emma Poole; John Mitchell from Vera Mitchell.

WILL END THEIR LABORS THE LAST OF THIS MONTH.

All functions of the local draft boards will cease and they will be only a matter of history after March 31, according to John S. Michaux, state inspector of draft boards, who was at his home here Monday. Although the draft boards have practically been out of existence since December 10, they have been instructed to try deserters or delinquents and to send them to camp, and they have been responsible for other duties of little public interest.

For more than 18 months, action of the draft boards was watched with interest by men within the age of service. Friends and relatives also manifested interest, and news from them was read eagerly. But with the end of war, their importance has disappeared and they will exist only in memory.

NOTICE OF SALE OF LAND.

By virtue of the directions contained in an order of the Superior court of Guilford county, N. C., made in the case entitled: In the matter of J. F. Stephens, guardian of Lottie Bartley, Charles R. Sowder, Nellie B. Fuqua and her husband, W. D. Fuqua, E. R. Bartley and his wife, Minnie Bartley, ex parte, the undersigned commissioner will offer for sale to the best bidder, at the court house door, in the city of Greensboro, N. C., on at 12 M., a tract of land situated in Sumner township, Guilford county, N. C., adjoining the lands of Vernon Murphy, S. Saferlight, A. Coltrane, Rufus Marsh and others, and containing 194.11 acres more or less, and known as a part of the Bartley lands.

This tract of land has been recently surveyed and sub-divided into three separate tracts, the first tract containing 53.92 acres, the second tract 71.08 acres, and the third tract 69.11 acres. A plat of same can be seen at the law office of S. R. Adams, in the city of Greensboro, N. C., and will be shown on the day of sale.

The land will first be offered for sale in separate tracts and then as a whole, and if the price bid on the separate tracts is more than the price bid as a whole, it will be sold in separate tracts, and if the price bid as a whole is more than in separate tracts, then it will be sold as a whole.

Terms of sale: One-half cash, the balance in 12 months, and title retained until all of purchase money is paid. Deferred payment or payments to bear 6 per cent interest from date of confirmation of sale.

This is a splendid tract of land, well watered, and upon which there is a large quantity of excellent timber. The land is situated near the Freeman Mill road and is in a good community.

This February 11, 1919.

RED CROSS GIFTS $400,000,000

War Council on Retirement Announces Cash and Supplies Contributed.

WORKERS WILL "CARRY ON."

Five Big Societies in World Wide Plan.

H. P. Davison Heads International American Red Cross Commission. Dr. Livingston Farrand Permanent Leader of Peace Organization.

Washington.—(Special).—Henry P. Davison as chairman issues the following statement on behalf of the War Council of the American Red Cross:

"To the American People:
"The War Council of the American Red Cross appointed by President Wilson on May 10, 1917, to carry on the work of the American Red Cross during the war, at their request and by vote of the Central Committee, ceased at midnight, February 28.

"Immediately the armistice was signed the War Council instituted studies to determine when the strictly war work of the organization would have been sufficiently matured to enable the direction of affairs to be resumed by the permanent staff. Henry P. Davison, being in Paris when the armistice was signed, summoned a conference there of the heads of all the Red Cross Commissions in Europe to canvass the situation. After considering all the factors it was concluded to make the transition on March 1. The very fortunate choice of Dr. Livingston Farrand as the new chairman of the Central Committee, and thereby the permanent chief executive of the Red Cross, makes possible the consummation of this plan under the most favorable conditions.

Accounts Audited by War Department.

"Detailed reports to Congress and a complete audit of its accounts by the War Department will constitute the final record of Red Cross activity during the war. Although it has been the rule to make public all expenditures when authorized and to give detailed information relative to all work undertaken, the War Council in turning over its responsibilities to Dr. Farrand and his associates desire to give a brief resume of Red Cross war time activities to the American people, to whom the Red Cross belongs; and whose generous contributions have made possible all that has been accomplished.

"During the past nearly twenty-one months the American people have given in cash and supplies to the American Red Cross more than $400,000,000. No value can be placed upon the contributions of service which have been given without stint and oftentimes at great sacrifice by millions of our people.

"The effort of the American Red Cross in this war has constituted by far the largest voluntary gifts of money, of land and heart, ever contributed purely for the relief of human suffering. Through the Red Cross the heart and spirit of the whole American people have been mobilized to take care of our own, to relieve the misery incident to the war, and also to reveal to the world the supreme ideals of our national life.

"Everyone who has had any part in this war effort of the Red Cross is entitled to congratulate himself. No thanks from anyone could be equal in value to the self satisfaction everyone should feel for the part taken. Fully 8,000,000 American women have exerted themselves in Red Cross service.

Has Over 17,000,000 Adult Members.

"When we entered the war the American Red Cross had about 500,000 members. Today, as the result of the recent Christmas membership Roll Call, there are upwards of 17,000,000 full paid members outside of the members of the Junior Red Cross, numbering perhaps 9,000,000 school children additional.

"The chief effort of the Red Cross during the war has been to care for our men in service and to aid our army and navy wherever the Red Cross may be called on to assist. As to this phase of the work Surgeon General Ireland of the U. S. Army recently said: 'The Red Cross has been an enterprise as vast as the war itself. From the beginning it has done those things which the Army Medical Corps wanted done, but could not do itself.'

"The Red Cross endeavor in France has naturally been upon an exceptionally large scale where service has been rendered to the American Army and to the French Army and the French people as well, the latter particularly during the trying period when the Allied World was waiting for the American Army to arise in force and power. Hospital emergency service for our army in France has greatly diminished, but the Red Cross is still being called upon for service upon a large scale in the great base hospitals, where thousands of American sick and wounded are still receiving attention. At these hospitals the Red Cross supplies butts and facilities for the amusement and recreation of the men as they become convalescent. Our Army of Occupation in Germany was followed with Medical units prepared to render the same emergency aid and supply service which was the primary business of the Red Cross during hostilities. The Army Canteen service along the lines of travel has actually increased since the armistice.

"As for work among the French people, now that hostilities have ceased, the French themselves naturally prefer as far as possible to provide for their own. It has accordingly been determined that the guiding principle of Red Cross policy in France henceforth shall be to have punctilious regard to its every responsibility, but to direct its efforts primarily to assisting French relief societies. The liberated and devastated regions of France have been divided by the government into small districts, each officially assigned to a designated French relief organization.

"The American Red Cross work in France was initiated by a commission of eighteen men who landed on French shores June 13, 1917. Since then some 9,000 persons have been upon the rolls in France, of whom 7,000 were actively engaged when the armistice was signed. An indication of the present scale of the work will be obtained from the fact that the services of 6,000 persons are still required.

"Our American Expeditionary Force having largely evacuated England, the activities of the Red Cross Commission there are naturally upon a diminishing scale period. Active operations are still in progress in Archangel and Siberia.

"The work in Italy has been almost entirely on behalf of the civilian population of that country. In the critical hours of Italy's struggle the American people, through their Red Cross, sent a practical message of sympathy and relief, for which the government and people of Italy have never ceased to express their gratitude.

Supplies and Personnel to Near East.

"The occasion for such concentration of effort in Italy, England, Belgium and even in France having naturally and normally diminished, it has been possible to divert supplies and personnel in large measure to the aid of those people in the Near East who have hitherto been inaccessible to outside assistance, but whose sufferings have been upon an appalling scale. The needs of these peoples are so vast that government alone can meet them, but the American Red Cross is making an effort to relieve immediately the more acute distress.

"An extensive group of American workers has been dispatched to carry vitally needed supplies, and to work this winter in the various Balkan countries. In order to co-ordinate their activities, a Balkan commission has been established, with headquarters at Rome, Italy, from which point alone all the Balkan centers can be reached promptly.

"A commission has just reached Poland with doctors and nurses, medical supplies, and food for sick children and invalids. An American Red Cross Commission has also been appointed to aid in relieving the suffering of Russian prisoners still confined in German prison camps.

"An important commission is still working in Palestine. Through the war special co-operation has been given to the Armenian and Syrian Relief Commission, which was the only agency able to carry relief in the interior of Turkish dominions.

Red Cross Will Continue.

"Red Cross effort is thus far flung. It will continue to be so. But the movement represented by this work has likewise assumed an intimate place in the daily life of our people at home. The army of workers which has been recruited and trained during the war must not be demobilized. All our experience in the war shows clearly that there is an unlimited field for service of the kind which can be performed with peculiar effectiveness by the Red Cross. What its future tasks may be it is yet impossible to forecast. We know that so long as there is an American army in the field the Red Cross will have a special function to perform.

"Nothing could be of greater importance to the American Red Cross than the plans just set in motion by the five great Red Cross societies of the world to develop a program of extended activities in the interest of humanity. The conception involves not alone efforts to relieve human suffering, but to prevent it; not alone a movement by the people of an individual nation, but an attempt to arouse all people to a sense of their responsibility for the welfare of their fellow beings throughout the world. It is a program both ideal and practical. Ideal in that its supreme aim is nothing less than veritable 'Peace on earth good will to men,' and practical in that it seeks to take means and measures which are actually available and make them effective in meeting without delay the crisis which is daily recurrent in the lives of all peoples.

"For accomplishing its mission in the years of peace which must lie ahead of us the Red Cross will require the ablest possible leadership, and must enjoy the continued support, sympathy, and participation in its work of the whole American people. It is particularly fortunate that such a man as Dr. Livingston Farrand should have been selected as the permanent head of the organization. The unstinted fashion in which all our people gave of themselves throughout the war is the best assurance that our Red Cross will continue to receive that co-operation which will make its work a source of pride and inspiration to every American."

Mr. Davison, as chairman of the International Commission of the American Red Cross, has undertaken to represent the American Red Cross in the preparation of the program for extended Red Cross activities, and will spend the next several months in Europe in consultation with other Red Cross societies for that purpose.

THE WAR COUNCIL OF THE AMERICAN RED CROSS.

Henry P. Davison, Chairman.

HUMAN FLESH SOLD FOR FOOD IN RUSSIA.

Washington, March 11.—Chaotic conditions in Russia, particularly in Petrograd and Moscow, were described in reports received to-day by the state department. The depths to which the country has been plunged by bolshevik rule was said by the advices to be indicated in a report from Moscow saying human flesh had been sold to the famine-stricken population by Chinese soldiers who later were arrested.

Both Moscow and Petrograd were reported without fuel of any kind. The supplies of coal, kerosene and gasoline have been exhausted and since wood was nationalized in September it has not been available for private consumption. Because of lack of fuel the advices said the sewerage and water system of Petrograd might cease operation at any time.

The streets of Petrograd were described as deserted with the exception of soldiers and civilians begging for bread. The deaths in the city, chiefly from typhoid and smallpox, were estimated at 4,000 daily. The Swiss, Danish, Swedish and British embassies were said to have been looted.

Conditions in Moscow were reported as better than in Petrograd, although all industries in the former city except a few military plants have ceased to operate. The only food available is brought to Moscow by peasants, who sell it at excessive prices, sugar bringing 20 rubles a pound, which at the old value of the ruble would be $10, dog meat seven and horse flesh 21 rubles a pound.

Many of the stores in Moscow have been closed, and those remaining open are permitted to sell merchandise and foodstuffs only on the card system. Celebration of mass in the churches has for the most part ceased.

BRITISH TROOPS THREATEN TO SINK SHIP AT HALIFAX.

Halifax, March 12.—When the transport Tolosa docked here to-day with her captain reporting a threat by 293 British troops in her steerage to sink the vessel unless they were put ashore and given transportation to their homes in the United States. Steamship officials went aboard to interview the complaining soldiers.

They found fifty of the men had sufficient funds to cover their railroad fares and immigration head taxes, which were reported to have been insisted upon by American immigration authorities. The others it was stated would be held aboard the ship, which will sail Friday for New York, whither she was bound after discharging Canadian troops here when a wireless message recalled her to Halifax to coal, because of the harbor strike at the American port. This order keeping the men aboard was issued in spite of fears expressed by Captain Jackson of violence by the soldiers.

The troops, most of whom enlisted in the British forces from the United States and eighty-one of whom are American born, were discharged from the army with $20 and an order on the British consul at New York for transportation to their homes, the ship's officers said. Gambling among the men, they said, had left most of the funds in the hands of a few.

Plow Boy, and Get Rich.

Washington, March 12.—Archbishop Joseph J. Higgins, of the colored Christ Episcopal church, of Washington, who claims North Carolina as his home, will tour the state this summer in the interest of a campaign to have the race retain its identity with the South. "The people of the South are the best friends of the negroes," he states. Bishop Higgins formerly lived in Raleigh, Durham, Greenville and Scotland Neck. His contemplated campaign through the South has the endorsement of the national board of farm organizations.

Strike Ties Up Street Cars.

New York, March 12.—A complete tie-up of New York city's subway, elevated and surface car lines, as well as paralysis of its harbor shipping, is threatened by the strike of harbor workers which has been in progress more than a week, it was asserted to-day.

LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF FORM

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO THE READERS OF THE PATRIOT FAR AND NEAR.

Mr. Thomas Has Another Heir.

Born, Monday morning to Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Thomas, a son. Mrs. Thomas, who is at the country home of Mr. Thomas on the High Point road, and little son are getting along nicely.

Returns From France.

A telegram was received Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Simpson, of Stokesdale, from their son, Private Julius E. Simpson, announcing that he had arrived in New York from France, and hoped to be home soon.

Exercises at Longview School.

A short but interesting exercises will be given at Longview school tomorrow evening March 14. The exercises will begin at 8 o'clock and the public is most cordially invited to attend. The proceeds will go to the benefit of the school room equipment.

Faucette-Herbin Marriage.

At 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon Miss Ila Faucette, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Faucette, of near Brown Summit, became the bride of Russell Herbin, of this county, the ceremony having been performed by Dr. J. Clyde Turner, pastor of the First Baptist church.

Will be in Charge of Flying Circus.

Lieut. Herbert McLean, of Greensboro, who is in the aviation service, has been selected as the engineer officer in charge of a "flying circus," which will tour the West in the interest of the "victory loan" drive. Included in the "circus" will be two captured German Fokkers. A number of Western cities will be visited.

New Store on Market Street.

Mr. C. H. Clark is opening up a new store, corner Davis and East Market streets, to be known as the Southern Bargain House. Mr. Clark will handle a general line of merchandise, but will make a specialty of mill remnants, garden tools and seeds. Watch the columns of The Patriot for his opening announcement.

A Printer-Farmer.

Mr. W. P. Turner, formerly with The Patriot, but for several years an attaché of the Winston-Salem Sentinel, has purchased a tract of land on the High Point road, about three miles west of the city, and has had prepared plans for a handsome bungalow which he will erect thereon, beginning work as soon as possible. Mr. Turner plans to give up the linotype and become a farmer, moving his family into the bungalow as soon as he can get it ready for occupancy. Good luck to you, Will. May your farming efforts prove equal to your anticipations.

Mr. Jennings' Garage Robbed.

The Banner garage, conducted by C. W. Jennings, West Market street, was entered sometime during Sunday night, the safe opened and the contents scattered about the floor. Only a couple of tire casings were missing. Two weeks ago the same place was entered and $50 worth of war savings stamps taken from the safe. It is believed that the thieves were small boys, as entrance was effected through a portion of a rear window from which a pane of glass had been taken. The thieves left by the same way, climbing down from the roof of a shed in the rear. One of the tire casings was left on the roof by the parties. The safe, which had been left unlocked, contained nothing of apparent value when the robbers opened it Sunday night, though there were a number of papers of record.

Beer Poured Out.

County officials returned to their respective homes in this city during the small hours of Tuesday morning after emptying 1,000 gallons of "moonshine" beer during the evening and night. The first raid was made in Clay township, where 250 gallons was discovered. En route home, however, they drifted around by the farm of Oscar McCausless, in Summer township, where they found 750 gallons more. In neither place was the still located.

Business Property Changes Hands.

A deal was closed Tuesday whereby Cutler Watkins purchased the vacant property on West Gaston street, immediately in the rear of the Taylor and Banner buildings, including right of way to two alleys. The property was purchased from M. H. Pinnix, the revenue stamps indicating the price at $8,000. The lot has a frontage of 26 feet on West Gaston street and is 93 feet deep. It is understood that Mr. Watkins purchased it as an investment.

Double Marriage in Greensboro.

Dr. J. Clyde Turner, pastor of the First Baptist church, performed a double marriage at his home Wednesday evening in the presence of several friends of the contracting couples, when Miss Bettie Fields, of Carthage, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Fields, of that city, became the bride of Charles H. Edmondson, of Greensboro, and Miss Esda Kanoy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kanoy, of High Point, was married to James F. Poole, recently of New York. Following the ceremony the couples left for the South, where they will spend their wedding trips. Mr. and Mrs. Edmondson will make their future home in Winston-Salem, while Mr. and Mrs. Poole will reside in New York.

C. E. Rally Tomorrow Evening.

The City Christian Endeavor Union will hold a rally at Westminster Presbyterian church tomorrow evening. This will be the first rally held by the union since last fall, when the influenza epidemic began, and a large and interesting meeting is expected. Endeavorers from Guilford College, Burlington and High Point are expected to be in attendance, besides representatives from the various country churches in the vicinity of Greensboro, and large delegations from the local churches will be present. All Endeavorers of the city and county are cordially invited to be on hand, each society being prepared with a one-minute report regarding its activities during the past year.

NEW ROAD LAW AND GUILFORD COUNTY.

Mr. W. C. Boren, chairman of the county commissioners, thinks the new road law will enable Guilford county to go forward in road building within the next two years.

So far as Guilford county is concerned, the law is most liberal and will enable the county to build roads at less cost to the county than had been hoped for, at least the main highways; provided federal aid for good roads can be secured under the recently enacted laws. There will be no trouble in Guilford putting up one-fourth of the cost of all the roads that can be built within the coming two years, and the state fourth will be easy to obtain. The only thing in the way is the possibility that Uncle Sam may step in and say that the law does not provide for a system of highways as intended in his act and therefore this state can get no federal aid. Mr. Boren believes the law is conformable to the federal law.

Mr. J. L. Coltrane called this week and took The Progressive Farmer and Patriot—both for $2.25.

HUFFINE HOTEL ANNEX SOLD WEDNESDAY.

On Wednesday A. V. Sapp and Dr. W. C. Ashworth became owners of the building known as Hotel Huffine annex. The purchase price was not given out, but it is understood that the consideration was about $35,000.

The building is a four-story brick structure, fronting 50 feet on Buchanan street and running back along the west side of South Greene street a distance of 120 feet. The purchasers bought the property as an investment and the building will be continued as the hotel annex, the purpose for which it was built a few years ago by John A. Hodgins, who later sold it to J. P. Sanders and W. C. Petty. The building was afterwards bought by J. R. Donnell, who sold it yesterday to Mr. Sapp and Dr. Ashworth.

TIRED WOUNDED SOLDIERS REFRESHED IN GREENSBORO.

Sick, wounded and tired by long hours of traveling, more than 200 convalescent soldiers found rest here at noon yesterday when a hospital train en route from Camp Upton, New York, to Southern camps was met by canteen workers of the Red Cross and each of the men was served soothing refreshments. There were 10 coaches, although only one car contained soldiers seriously injured, the majority having spent their weeks of convalescence in the North and were being sent South for demobilization at various points.

The men were from various contingents, some of whom wore the insignia of the famous 30th division. All expressed happiness over the approaching termination of their service, and their appreciation of the Red Cross was manifested by a rousing cheer lasting until the train was lost in the distance.

LEARY TO BE BROUGHT BACK TO GREENSBORO.

J. J. Leary, wanted in Greensboro and elsewhere on charges of false pretense, has again been captured and should be on his way here at this time, accompanied by J. Henry Phipps, commissioner of public safety, according to word received from the latter dated Saturday evening in Rochester, N. Y.

Mr. Phipps stated that Leary was arraigned on a habeas corpus Saturday noon and that the judge had ordered him back to jail, pending the arrival of papers from Albany, where the commissioner-policeman has had a great deal of trouble in having his wishes fulfilled.

It is understood that Leary seeks to have his wife accompany him and that he is willing to return so long as she can come along. Mr. Phipps stated that she was a "pretty little woman" and that he "didn't have any objections."

GUILFORD CANNING CLUBS GET BUSY.

Miss Olo Stephens is busy giving new life and impetus to the club work of the girls of the county. New clubs are being organized.

Recently the following clubs were organized with the names of the members:

McLeansville—Misses Irene Holt, Opal Montgomery, Adel Montgomery, Gilmer Phipps, Haywood Montgomery and Paul Rayle.

Welch—Miss Edith Davis, Ira Davis, Mabel Davis, Bessie Phillips, Ruth Byerly, Mildred Kinney, Virgel Elliott, Kenneth Finch, Melvin Hoover, Ethel Guyer and Mrs. Smith.

Whitsett—Mrs. R. C. Dick, Miss Louise May, Miss Macy Johnson, Mrs. W. T. Whitsett, W. T. Whitsett, Jr., Miss Ruth Moore, Miss Albion Shepherd, Miss Berman Taylor, Ted Hoffman, Mrs. W. J. Thompson, Mrs. J. Y. Joyner, Lee Ingle, Miss Eva Reece and Mrs. R. K. Davenport.

AMERICAN EXCHANGE SOUNDS A NOTE OF OPTIMISM.

In its monthly letter to business interests, the American Exchange National Bank sounds a note of optimism, in that it feels that the "progress of readjustment continues generally satisfactory and, while the problem of surplus labor has become distinctly more serious, there is every reason to anticipate that it will be no very great time before conditions are adjusted as a result of increasing activity in many lines and also by reason of the great amount of work necessary to aid in the reconstruction abroad."

Just as soon as actual peace is declared and the period of watchful waiting is over, many projects, calling for large labor supplies, will be undertaken which are being delayed until various matters incident to armistice conditions are out of the way, the letter continues.

German Navy Personnel Limited. London, March 11.—The personnel of the German fleet is to be restricted to 15,000, the supreme council has decided, according to press dispatches from Paris. The military conditions to be imposed on Germany include guarantees that no tanks will be built and no more poison gas manufactured and that all German war material must be handed over and destroyed. It is added that allied commissions will supervise the carrying out of these conditions.
