WILL GERMANY SIGN THE PEACE TREATY?

BOLESHIVISM AND SPARTACAN ATTEMPTS HAVE MADE THEM IMMUNE TO ALL HORRORS.

Berlin, May 9.—The people, though fairly stricken dumb by the war terms, are now recovering sufficiently to declare that Germany cannot and will not sign the coming peace treaty.

Strikes are increasing and bolshevism and the spartacan uprising of the past two months have, if anything, made Germans immune to the horrors which are to be anticipated if they are again plunged into war, according to the best opinion.

There exists a small group of Germans, chiefly conservatives, who wish to see the entente occupy the country, but they are in the dwindling minority.

Reports from the Versailles correspondents emphasize the feeling of excitement and expectation which prevailed on the reading of the terms of the peace treaty. All the correspondents agree that no hasty decision will be reached. A fortnight is allowed the Germans for an answer, and this time will be used for careful consideration of the demands and the preparation of counter suggestions, the correspondents say.

Much Speculation.

There is much speculation in Berlin as to whether the terms represent maximum demands which may be reduced or whether they are minimum and irreducible.

According to the Berlin Zeitung am Mittag, the delegation to Versailles will carefully avoid any bargaining, but will present definite, clear-cut counter proposals, which in part have already been prepared. "These counter proposals," the newspaper declares editorially, "will be based on the 14 points so unreservedly abandoned by President Wilson. If the German people vote on these terms as a whole, there would not be in the whole empire a single 'yes.' Force without measure or limit—that used to be a Wilson phrase, and the Wilson peace offered us yesterday falls in this category, instead of on his 14 points."

WHEAT WHEN THE PEACE TREATY WAS PRESENTED.

Versailles, May 8.—The scene at the session of the peace congress when the terms of the treaty were presented to the German delegates, was an impressive one, and the function was not without its tense moments. Indeed the entire half hour which it took Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau to deliver his reply to Premier Clemenceau was a period of suspense for President Wilson, Premier Clemenceau and Premier Lloyd George, and in fact, for virtually every one present.

The speech was translated sentence by sentence by the German interpreters, who did not fail to bring with full emphasis every sharp remark in it and the three allied plenipotentiaries put their heads together in evident anxiety at more than one of the German spokesman's cutting remarks, as if they were deliberating upon the advisability of an immediate answer.

The program was unaltered, however, and when the German plenipotentiary had finished Premier Clemenceau arose and put the customary phrase:

"Has anyone further observations to make?" And when there was no response, continued:

"Then declare the session closed."

To Enforce Child Labor Law.

Washington, May 10.—Pending a decision by the Supreme court of the United States as to the constitutionality of the child labor law, the national revenue bureau will continue to enforce its provisions, according to a statement issued today by Commissioner Roper. The child labor section of the new revenue bill became effective April 25.

Foch Returned to Front.

London, May 11.—Marshal Foch returning to the front tomorrow, according to a Reuters dispatch from

GERMANS KICK ON THE SEVERITY OF PEACE TREATY.

Berlin, via Copenhagen, May 10.—Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, a member of the peace conference, has declared that the draft of the peace treaty contains demands which could be borne by no people. Many of the demands, moreover, in the view of the German experts, are incapable of accomplishment.

Will Admit of No Discussion.

Paris, May 10.—The allies can admit of no discussion of their right to insist upon the terms of the peace treaty substantially as drafted.

This is the reply to Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German peace delegation, who submitted a note to Premier Clemenceau declaring that the peace treaty contains demands which could be borne by no people, and many of them incapable of accomplishment.

Germans to Go Into Mourning.

Berlin, May 9.—A "week of mourning" has been decreed by the government to give expression to the "sorrow and depression" called forth by the announcement of the peace terms. The week will begin Sunday. The decree provides that public frivolity must be stopped for a period of eight days. Its provisions affect the first class theaters in the same manner as the popular cabarets. Dancing, horse racing and gambling will be suppressed for the week and the occasion probably will be used to put a definite end to the gambling frenzy which is holding greater Berlin in its tentacles. A season of soul searching would seem to be the most probable reaction to the frivolity and gambling which has been in progress.

On the day the peace terms were published here the Karlshorst race track took in more than 130,000 marks in gate receipts, while the betting sheds distributed 3,500,000 marks.

During the week of mourning the cabinet expects that the federated states will give loyal co-operation to its endeavor to have every city, town and hamlet observe the occasion.

GOV. BICKETT PARDONS SIX NEGRO PRISONERS.

Raleigh, May 9.—Six pardons for as many negro convicts who are doing road work on the Selma-Pender county highway camp near Goldsboro, were mailed to the camp yesterday in compliance with promise made to them yesterday by Governor Bickett when he stopped there a little while en route to Goldsboro for the tax assessment conference. There are a number of other cases that are to be investigated as to merit for pardon as promised by the governor. The pardons are for Junius Loftin, serving 25 years for murder; Will Jones, 10 years for highway robbery; Charles Fisker, Wilmington; Kid Shine, of Columbus county, who had served eight of a 10 year sentence; Ed Graham, Buncombe county, serving 20 years for burglary; Jack Graves, serving a term for larceny. Each of these men presented his own case for pardon in this novel camp call made by the governor and each pledged good behavior when they shall have been released and each has a perfect prison record.

The governor gave assurance to the convicts generally that good behavior in prison service will go a long way toward procurement of pardons and cutting down terms of service.

ITALY INCLINED TO CEASE PRESSING CLAIM TO FIUME.

Paris, May 11.—Italy, according to the Echo de Paris, seems inclined to cease pressing, for the time at least, her claim to Fiume and to demand fulfillment of the treaty of London, upon which her Dalmatian claims were originally based.

In several of the newspapers the view is taken that it is in order for France and Italy to conclude a formal pact of friendship and alliance, while in some quarters regret is expressed that Italy was not invited to join the defensive alliance proposed for France, the United States and Great Britain.

PREPARING DRAFT OF TREATY WITH AUSTRIA

GERMAN DELEGATES DIVIDED IN THEIR VIEWS ON TERMS HANDED THEM.

Paris, May 9.—The peace terms to be presented to Austria are rapidly taking concrete form. It is announced from Paris that the drafting committee has begun work on the document as a whole. The naval terms as completed contemplate wiping out the entire Austrian army, the surrender of every ship of the Austrian naval arm being demanded. The allied and associated governments will decide later what disposition shall be made of the vessels. No hint has yet been given as to the other conditions of the treaty.

Meanwhile the German peace delegation at Versailles continues its formidable task of digesting the peace terms handed to it Wednesday by Premier Clemenceau. According to reports originating from a high British source in Paris, the delegates are divided in their views on the drastic conditions laid down.

German Feeling Runs High.

Feeling apparently is running high in Germany over what is termed the severity of the peace terms and a review of the opinion in Berlin says that the people are discussing the consequences of a possible refusal to sign the treaty.

"Rather anarchy than slavery," is the remark heard on all sides, the review declares.

One newspaper credits Herr Giesbert, a member of the German delegation at Versailles, as asserting that the only immediate solution is a peace with Russia and the employment of Bolshevik troops by Germany.

Wilson Not Compromising.

Unofficial advisers from Paris declare that the controversy over Italy's claims to Fiume and the Dalmatian coast is far from being settled. President Wilson, according to these advisers, is not in agreement with the compromise plan by which Italy would be given a mandate to administer Fiume until 1923, and then take possession of the city.

Viscount Milner, British secretary for the colonies, has been called to Paris to discuss the question of Belgium's protest against Great Britain acting as mandatory for German East Africa.

The Hungarian communist government forces continue to suffer military reverses. Czech troops have obtained a foothold in Nagyszecseny, 40 miles north of Budapest. Rumanian forces, according to latest reports, are 80 miles east of the capital.

Operations have been begun against the Afghan tribesmen who crossed the border and took up positions on the Indian side. Russian government advisers say an Afghan mission seeking the establishment of relations between Afghanistan and Russia has arrived at Moscow.

GATE CITY MOTOR COMPANY BUYS ITS HOME.

Another large deal in real estate in the Davis and East Market street section has been made. C. W. Edwards has purchased from Rev. S. M. Rankin and C. S. Watson the property which is now occupied by the Gate City Motor Company. The location is on East Market street, with a frontage of 65 feet and a depth of 191 feet. The consideration was said to have been $45,000. Mr. Edwards, who is president of the Gate City Motor Company, stated that several additions would be made immediately to the property, already one of the best arranged garages in the state. A second floor will be erected the entire length of the building to be utilized for storage and accessories. The second floor at present only runs back about 30 feet, the remainder of the building being one story.

This particular piece of property, like all that in this section, has jumped rapidly in value. Originally the Tatum home place, it was sold about five years ago to C. W. Edwards for around $10,000. Mr. Edwards erected the garage, and about a year ago sold the entire property to Messrs. Rankin and Watson for $31,000. He now buys it back at a considerable advance.

PARIS AWARDS US ALL GERMAN SHIPS WE SEIZED

AMERICA TO PAY ABOUT $100,000,000 OF THE MONEY GERMANY OWES US.

Washington, May 8.—All the kaisers and kaiserins and Der Grosses, the America, the Vaterland and other big ocean liners which belonged to Germany and were seized in American ports during the war are now the actual property of the United States, at cost of about $100,000,000 off the money the vanquished government owes us.

Announcement was made here today that a cable message had been received from American sources at Paris that the supreme peace council has awarded to the United States all the German passenger ships interned in American ports. This information caused an intense feeling of optimism to pervade at shipping board headquarters.

89 Ships Involved.

There are forty-one such ships for passengers and freight, and forty-eight cargo ships. Chairman Hurley declined to make any comment, in the absence of official confirmation of the cablegram, but it was evident that he hoped there was no mistake about it.

The acquisition of the large passenger ships involved in the decision, it was pointed out by an official versed in shipping affairs, will advance this country ten years toward shipping supremacy of the world, and it is not unlikely that one early result will be the placing of this country in the lead of any other country in trans-Atlantic passenger service.

In this connection it was pointed out that Great Britain has so much to replace in her other more vital services, like the Pacific and Oriental, that she must necessarily be unable to make replacements in her trans-Atlantic lines fast enough to hold her supremacy.

The present program of the shipping board will give the United States in a very few years one-third of the ship tonnage of the entire world, and the acquisition of the German vessels is looked upon as a wonderful help toward attaining the goal sought.

TRANS-ATLANTIC HYDRO-AIRPLANE FLIGHT BEGUN.

Halifax, May 9.—The United States naval hydro-airplanes N C-1 and N C-3 will start tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock for Trepassey, N. F., the jumping-off place for their trans-Atlantic flight, if the weather is favorable. The aviators said tonight that tests made after some of the propellers on both planes had been changed showed both to be in perfect readiness for a resumption of their journey.

The roaring of the engines as the two hydro-airplanes shot into the air for their tests after dark brought thousands of residents to the waterfront. As the airmen had all their lights in operation there was a brilliant spectacle as the planes left their moorings in the harbor and circled over the city. The moon was bright, there was a gentle breeze and the water was calm. When the test was ended the machines swooped down into the harbor again with ease. It was nearly 10 o'clock when the airmen left the planes and went to the mine layer Baltimore to spend the night.

Trouble on Mexican Border.

Laredo, Tex., May 9.—Charles Hopkins, an immigration inspector, and three unidentified Mexicans, were killed, and two men seriously wounded, one perhaps fatally, in an exchange of shots between American officers and Mexican smugglers, seven miles southeast of Laredo last night. Ira Hill, of the Texas health service, and Jose Valdez, an alleged smuggler, were wounded. Valdez is not expected to live.

Road Bonds Win.

Lenoir, May 9.—Unofficial returns show a majority of over 600 votes in favor of issuing $250,000 to build township roads in Caldwell county. The two precincts here in Lenoir gave a majority of 436 for the bonds. Only three precincts of the 16 in the county gave majorities against the bonds.

FORMULATING PEACE TERMS FOR AUSTRIA-HUNGARY.

Paris, May 8.—While the German peace plenipotentiaries are digesting the text of the lengthy peace treaty handed them Wednesday and communicating with the Weimar government as to the demands made upon Germany by the allied and associated powers, the council of four is engaging itself with the formulation of peace terms for Austria and Hungary.

The German-Austrian delegation is reported already to have started for St. Germain, France, there to await the summons to Versailles to learn what is to befall the one-time dual monarchy in the way of the payment of indemnities, the making of reparations and the relinquishment of territory.

Estimates have been made in Paris that 5,000,000,000 crowns will be demanded as indemnity from Austria-Hungary in addition to the delimitation of frontiers. The pre-war debt of the former empire and kingdom, it is said, is to be divided among the newly formed states which have arisen or are to arise in the new territories.

It is reported that when the terms of peace with Turkey are concluded the United States is to be requested to become the mandatory of Armenia, and that President Wilson will place the matter before Congress in order that a decision may be arrived at.

The communish government in Hungary is declared to have declined to accept the terms laid down by Rumania for an armistice and has decided to continue fighting. The terms of the Rumanians included disarmament and the surrender of war materials and also the return of war prisoners without reciprocity.

Trouble seems to be brewing for the Afghan tribesmen, who, aided by Afghan regular troops, have violated the British Indian border by crossing it and occupying certain positions on the Indian side. The British are taking military precautions and also have addressed a strob note of protest to the amir of Afghanistan.

THE BIGGEST WHEAT CROP EVER GROWN.

Washington, May 8.—The greatest crop of winter wheat ever produced in any country is in prospect for this year's harvest. To-day's forecast of production, estimated by the department of agriculture, placed its size at almost nine hundred million bushels—in exact figures, 899,915,000—which would make this year's harvest worth $2,034,000,000 at the government's price guarantee of $2.26 a bushel.

Kansas is producing an enormous crop, the forecast of production for that state being almost 22 per cent of the country's total indicated output. Illinois has a forecast of nearly 66,000,000 bushels, Indiana about 56,000,000, Ohio 55,000,000 and Oklahoma slightly more than 54,000,000.

The acreage is the largest on record and the area abandoned from winter killing, overflows and other causes is extremely low, 1.1 per cent. Growing crops have been splendid and the crop from April 1 to May 1 made an improvement, bringing it to 100.5 per cent of a normal, which is the highest condition on record for May 1. Continued good growing conditions from now to time of harvest might result in a crop larger than 900,000,000 bushels.

Winter wheat prospective production this year in Southern states east of the Mississippi river shows an increase of almost 13,000,000 bushels over last year's production. The condition of the crop May 1 and forecast of production by states follow: Virginia, condition 99; production 18,348,000 bushels. North Carolina, 95 and 11,378,000.

South Carolina, 88 and 2,351,000. Georgia, 90 and 40,493,000. Tennessee, 97 and 9,883,000. Alabama, 91 and 2,011,000. Mississippi, 90 and 641,000.

Over Half of Youths Killed.

Paris, May 9.—An investigation into the number of French soldiers killed between the age of twenty and thirty-one has revealed that 58 per cent had lost their lives. That is, that over half of France's youth has disappeared.

THOUSANDS FIGHTING MEN APPLY FOR HOMESTEADS

SECRETARY LANE WANTS THE GOVERNMENT TO "SEE THEM THROUGH" TO SUCCESS.

Washington, May 8.—With applications already received from more than 40,000 soldiers and sailors who desire to take up homesteads when discharged from military service, Secretary Lane and his advisers are revising the program originally presented in Congress to take care of the increased demands.

It was said today that the first estimate of $100,000,000 for establishing discharged service men on "slacker" lands probably would have to be made several times that number, perhaps $400,000,000. Secretary Lane's plan would not merely start a man as a farmer or cattle producer, but would "see him through" to success by assistance until he could begin repayments. The large total required to finance the projects eventually would return to the government with interest at four per cent after having established thousands of men in community centers on lands now unused.

Officials of the interior department said today they were amazed at the great volume of requests for land by soldiers. More than 50 letters daily are being received asking information regarding the plan.

THE ASSISTANCE WILSON HAS PROMISED FRANCE.

Washington, May 9.—In response to an inquiry from Secretary Tumulty, President Wilson cabled today that he had promised France to propose to the senate in connection with the peace treaty "a supplement in which we shall agree, subject to the approval of the council of the league of nations, to come immediately to the assistance of France in case of unprovoked attack by Germany."

"Happily there is no mystery or privacy about what I have promised the government here," the President said. "I have promised to propose to the senate a supplement in which we shall agree, subject to the approval of the council of the league of nations, to come immediately to the assistance of France in case of unprovoked attack by Germany, thus merely hastening the action which we should be bound by the covenant of the league of nations."

THE VICTORY LIBERTY LOAN HAS BEEN OVERSUBSCRIBED.

Washington, May 10.—The fifth and last popular loan of the United States has been oversubscribed. Although the approximate total subscriptions will not be known for nearly two weeks, figures available tonight showed that the American people had responded generously to the appeal to "finish the job."

Like all of its predecessors, the victory liberty loan suddenly jumped on the last day of the campaign above the mark set as its limit. The day brought an avalanche of subscriptions which banks could not attempt to count until next week. None of to-day's harvest was included in the total of $3,849,638,000 subscriptions officially tabulated tonight by the treasury, and officials would not be surprised to see the final figure go to nearly six billions. Only $4,500,000,000 will be accepted.

Purported Message From Cyclops.

New York, May 9.—Navy officials said tonight they attached little importance to the finding in Long Island sound of a bottle containing what purported to be a message from the U. S. S. Cyclops, the collier which strangely vanished on a voyage from the Barbados in March, 1917. It was stated that the Cyclops was sinking and gave the latitude and longitude. It was undated.

The latitude and longitude given were such that the message carried little light with naval officers. A similar message was found in a bottle near Quantanine in the lower bay in August, 1918.

Daniels on His Way Home.

Brest, May 9.—Secretary Daniels arrived at Brest today, from England. He embarked shortly afterward on the transport Mount Vernon to sail for home.

NEGROES CELEBRATE RETURNED SOLDIERS.

The negroes had the time of their lives on Thursday evening when they celebrated the return of their soldier boys.

The neighboring towns sent in large numbers to join with the colored people of Greensboro.

At 2 o'clock the long procession formed at St. Matthew's church, corner of Lee and Ashe streets, and marched in a round about way to the Municipal theater, coming up South Elm street, with bands playing, horses prancing; cadets of the negro A. and T. College, forming immediately behind the band and a detachment of mounted officers, returned soldiers, followed by members of the American Red Cross, ministers, students and teachers of the various schools and members of various fraternal orders in gala costume.

Men, women and children formed two long walls on each side of South Elm street long before the procession was in sight, awaiting eagerly the approach of their heroes, and the streets echoed with applause, when they approached, colors flying and drums beating in cadence with the steady tread of the soldiers' feet.

In the Municipal theater a most interesting program was followed, planned by Rev. W. R. Winchester, master of ceremonies; Prof. W. A. Sykes, director of music, and Rev. G. H. E. Washington, who led in prayer. Welcoming addresses, of 10 minutes duration were made by the following persons:

Prof. W. B. Windsor, on behalf of the negro schools; Prof. J. B. Dudley and Prof. Frank Trigg, on behalf of the negro colleges in the city; Rev. E. B. Watson, on behalf of the negro ministerial union; Rev. E. B. Lee, on behalf of the local Red Cross; Attorney G. H. Mitchell, on behalf of the legal advisory board; John N. Wilson, on behalf of the Guilford county draft board; Principal Charlotte Hawkins Brown and Prof. J. A. Griffith, on behalf of the Normal schools; Principal M. C. Faulkner, on behalf of the rural schools. Response was made by Lieut. E. B. Wilder.

BABY DAY CELEBRATION MAY 16TH IN GREENSBORO.

The committee in charge of the baby day celebration on May 16 is rapidly whipping the plans into shape for a most impressive spectacle. The pageant will begin to move at 10 A. M. and traffic will be halted during the time the parade is wending its way through the street.

Announcement is made that many unique floats will be seen by the vast numbers who are expected to watch the procession go by. The children in the affair will be between two and six years of age, the smaller ones being in their carriages, and the larger ones transported in floats. As an instance of the uniqueness of the floats, it is stated that one will represent the "old woman who lived in a shoe," and who had so many babies she didn't—the dear old lady being surrounded by a brood of youngsters.

There will also be the daily bathtub idea and numerous others that will hold attention. All the floats will be gaily decorated, as will the automobiles. Anyone who will loan a car is asked to notify Mrs. T. L. Parson or Mrs. Arthur Watt.

A prize will be given for the first baby born on May 16. The hour and minute of time must be made by the attendant physician's certificate and sent to Mrs. R. L. Justice, Greensboro.

The All-Artist Phonograph

At a turn of the hand the Ultona plays any type of Record. A child can do it. It is practically automatic.

Now your library of Records can be bought according to your favorites. For instance, each Record maker has a famous tenor. On a one-Record instrument, you can hear him only. Others are barred. And who likes to be restricted?

The Ultona is the greatest feature offered any music lover. And it is obtainable solely on the new Brunswick.

Another vast improvement in tone projection is the Brunswick Tone Amplifier, built of moulded wood like a violin.

Let us explain the Brunswick Method of Reproduction. Hear your favorite Records. Then decide on merit alone.

GERMANY PAYS HEAVY PENALTY FOR HER FOLLY

FRANCE AND GREAT BRITAIN GET LION'S SHARE OF WAR SPOILS.

Washington, May 9.—Under the terms of the peace treaty Germany is ultimately to lose 40,000 square miles of territory in Europe, substantially 20 per cent of her pre-war area. This means a reduction of at least $12,100,000,000, or 10 per cent in Germany's national wealth.

Other German losses include: African colonies, 1,335,086 square miles; all her Pacific islands and holdings outside Europe.

A total of $25,000,000,000 by way of reparation.

All merchant ships of 1,600 tons and upward, one-half of the range between 1,000 and 1,000 tons and one-third of her fishing fleet. At current ship prices the merchant vessels taken from Germany would be worth about $400,000,000.

Germany must, in addition, build 10,000 tons gross for allied account annually for five years, and replace tonnage sunk by submarines.

Navy Now Like Holland's.

Her once proud navy is reduced to six small battleships, six light cruisers, twelve destroyers and twelve torpedo boats, with a personnel of 15,000—the strength of Holland.

Her imperial army is slashed to 100,000 officers and men and conscription is abolished.

For five years all German ports are thrown open to all allied and associated ships on the same terms.

German railroads, rivers and highways are to be placed freely at the disposal of allied and associated nations.

She must permit the Kiel Canal to be used by merchant and war vessels of all nations.

All her air fleets are wiped out. Her hangars, landing fields and other flying facilities are to be free for use by nationals of allied and associated powers on the same terms as by Germans.

She must raise the Baltic sea fortifications as well as at Heligoland.

For five years allied and associated fishing boats may fish in waters heretofore allotted to Germany.

Control of Rivers Lost.

She loses the city of Danzig. She loses national control of the Elbe, Moselle, Rhine and other rivers which are internationalized, and control of the Vistula altogether, which goes to Poland.

Germany's territory losses in Europe and treaty disposes of 35,000 square miles outright and arranges for a plebiscite in northern Schleswig which will clip off another 10,000 square miles, and for three plebiscites in East Prussia covering 5,785 square miles, all of which may go to Poland.

Germany must not annex German territory and must end alliances with Austria and Turkey.

Holdings of Germans in public territories outside Germany must be placed at Germany's expense.

How Gain by France.

France by France include: Alsace-Lorraine, 5,600 square miles of territory.

Outright ownership of coal deposits in the Sarre Basin, 729 square miles.

The gold, woods, territory, ships, probably close to half the $25,000,000,000 reparation.

Free use of the Rhine, with exclusive rights on the left bank in Alsace-Lorraine.

A chance, by wise conduct, to retain the same region permanently by a plebiscite after fifteen years.

Restitution of all merchant tonnage destroyed by U boats.

Free trade for five years between Alsace-Lorraine and Germany.

England's Economic Gains.

England's gains by reason of victory include:

Utter elimination of Germany as a commercial rival and obliteration of the enemy as a naval power.

Restitution by Germany for all British merchant ships sunk during the war.

Mandatory control over German Pacific islands nearest Australia and New Zealand and a large part of German Africa.

Increased commercial hold in the Near East.

A large share of Germany's reparation.

The skull of the Sultan Okawa.

Belgium will receive, among other things:

Full reparation for damage done, running into millions.

Full sovereignty over the Eupen and Malmedy districts and over the contested territory of Moresnet and part of Prussian Morosenet.

Use of German economic resources in reconstruction.

A portion of German merchant marine and probable some German naval craft.

A far greater degree of independence than under the treaties of 1839.

The right for twenty-five years to construct a deep-water canal between the Rhine and the Meuse.

Polish Nationality Reborn.

Poland's gains are great, including a new democratic republic with an outlet to the Baltic through Danzig.

She also receives German territory aggregating 27,686 square miles, with a chance through plebiscites to gain an additional 5,585 square miles of East Prussia.

With other guarantees, Poland at once takes her place among the strong nations of the world.

Czecho-Slovakia's territorial gains are not specifically stated in the summary of the treaty. Like Poland, the new Czech republic rises on the ashes of world-conflagration, its future territorial limits to be accepted in advance by Germany.

America Gain is Less.

Denmark, a neutral, gets the right of a plebiscite to determine the national affiliation of the people of Northern Schleswig, and here Germany will lose 2,787 square miles of territory seized long ago from the Danes.

While reaping no direct benefit in the settlement except reimbursement for the destruction of American merchant ships and loss of life at sea, with the passing of the big German commercial fleet the United States is not altogether empty handed. With the passing of the German commercial fleet the new American merchant marine necessarily must carry a large portion of German imports and exports if Germany is to do business in the world's markets.

Soldiers Charged With Murder.

Newport News, May 9.—Charged with the murder of H. L. Harmer, a well known young man of this city, two soldiers of the 53rd artillery, with service overseas, Leonard Hansford, of Athens, Ga., and Edward Bohlan, of Newark, N. J., are under arrest here and the police say they have confessed to killing Harmer last night near Denbigh, Warwick county.

This is all valuable property, but will be sold to the highest bidder to close out. A number of the items are given by Mr. Bishop in an advertisement on the sixth page to-day.

MEMORIAL EXERCISES WERE LARGELY ATTENDED.

Memorial day exercises held Saturday, under the auspices of Guilford chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, were largely attended, 88 veterans responding to the roll call. The roll showed that 12 had answered the last call during the year, including Capt. W. H. Rankin and Col. James T. Morehead, both of whom had been regular attendants upon the reunion exercises for years past. The absence of these well known heroes of the 60's caused a tinge of sadness to pervade the meeting of the vets.

Owing to inclement weather the speeches were made in the court house. A. M. Scales presenting Dr. J. W. Long, who delivered a striking address.

The veterans at their meeting re-elected Capt. J. W. Whitted as captain, while Walter Greene was elected adjutant, the post held at the time of his death by Captain Rankin. Rev. R. M. Williams was re-elected chaplain, G. H. McKinney secretary and treasurer, and Dolph Elliott color bearer.

The veterans were carried to the cemetery in automobiles and after the committee of ladies had decorated the graves of the Confederate dead a volley was fired by a company of returned soldiers who acted as an escort of honor.

Following the exercises at Greene Hill the veterans were taken to the Clegg hotel where an elegant dinner was served, this feature being a departure from the usual custom of the Daughters of the Confederacy of serving a picnic dinner. Needless to say, the dinner was thoroughly enjoyed.

During the afternoon many of the old soldiers occupied the hours in discussing old times, it frequently happening that old comrades do not meet each other save at these annual reunions and the meeting is always a joyous one.

Tornado Kills Fifteen.

Corpus Christi, Texas, May 8.—Fifteen persons were killed early last night when one of the worst tornadoes ever experienced in southwest Texas swept the lower Rio Grande valley, demolishing farm houses and doing great damage to growing crops, according to telegrams received here tonight from the storm stricken area.

VICE PRESIDENT SPEAKS TO GOOD CROWD AT HAMLET.

Hamlet, May 8.—Vice President Marshall delivered an address at the Hamlet opera house Wednesday night, his subject being "Modern Tendencies."

The Vice President delivered an address at Fayetteville Tuesday night, and he together with Mrs. Marshall motored from Fayetteville to Pinehurst Wednesday morning. A large delegation motored from Hamlet to Pinehurst early Wednesday afternoon and escorted the vice president and his wife to Hamlet, where he was given an enthusiastic reception. On the way from Pinehurst the party stopped at Rockingham where an impromptu reception was held, many of the Rockingham citizens met the vice president.

Among the measures advocated by Mr. Marshall was the barring of immigrants from America. He stated that he had welcomed immigrants to America provided that they came with the honest intention of becoming Americans in every sense of the word, but on account of the development of a spirit of anarchy he favored the shutting the doors to them for some time to come. He also favored the refusal to grant the franchise to any man until that man habitually used the English language. He strongly advocated the league of nations, and appealed to all to do their utmost for the victory bonds.

"INTOLERABLE ARROGANCE" OF PEACE DELEGATES.

London, May 9.—William M. Hughes, premier of Australia, said to-day, according to a Reuter dispatch:

"The attitude of Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau was an intolerable insult to the conference, for, while Premier Clemenceau spoke standing, the German spokesman did not rise while making his address. In spite of their intolerable arrogance, this has been a day of humiliation for the Germans which we could see had entered into their souls."

William F. Massey, premier of New Zealand, said:

"The Germans were more impudent and aggressive than anything I have ever met."

After the conference, the dispatch states, the fact that the members of the council of four did not appear made the crowd anxious, but it transpired they were holding a meeting, and shortly after 4.30 o'clock President Wilson departed looking serious but smiling. He saluted the crowd as he went to his automobile. A little later the appearance of M. Clemenceau was a signal for the first great wave of cheering of the day. Premier Orlando also received an ovation, but Premier Lloyd George, the latest to leave, is said to have been given a more generous reception from the throng.

CALL DOWN THE NEGRO AGITATOR.

The writer has stood for any movement that looks to the uplift and betterment of the condition of the colored people.

We have stood for the education of the colored people at times when it took courage to take such a stand in North Carolina. Every one knows who knows anything that the negro race has been well treated by the government of North Carolina.

In Greensboro, is a writer in the daily paper who is striving to make the colored people think that they are not treated fairly by the white citizens.

If the sensible negroes are wise they will call down this disturber of peace and good will between the races. He is a disturber as any one is who tries to make any people think they are not treated right.

When we once make an individual believe he is not treated right by some one then we are starting trouble, and when a negro succeeds in making his people believe they are not being treated right by the white people of Greensboro then he is starting trouble.

EFFORTS TO HINDER GREAT MEN.

No matter how sincere and how great are the efforts of the best men in different periods of the world's history, there will be those who will hinder these efforts.

The South to-day appreciates the speech of Lincoln at Gettysburg as it did not when it was uttered. The following lines were in the Harrisburg Patriot in 1863, according to the New York World and were referring to Lincoln and his Gettysburg speech:

The President succeeded on this occasion because he acted without sense and without constraint in a panorama that was gotten up more for the benefit of his party than for the glory of the nation and the honor of the dead. * * * We pass over the silly remarks of the President; for the credit of the nation we are willing that the veil of oblivion shall be dropped over them and that they shall no more be repeated or thought of.

We have men in the United States now who have and who are hindering the efforts of Wilson to establish peace in the world.

These men are saying and writing of Wilson and his efforts about as the Harrisburg editor wrote of Lincoln in his day.

"IT'S OVER, OVER THERE."

Our soldier boys as they sailed away from home and their native land to help save the world from the savage Huns, sang the song with these words in it: "We won't come back, till it's over, over there."

It can now be said that it's over, over there and the rest of boys will soon be out on the ocean sailing homeward bound. Our army units have been separated from the forces of occupation and are now making ready for the trip home—in fact only waiting for ships to bring them back.

This is glad news to many parents, wives, sweethearts and friends of the boys here at home. Happy days ahead for many homes—and only one sad thought in connection with the whole war—some of the boys won't come back. They sleep "the sleep that knows no waking" in a land far away from kindred and friends—but a glorious heritage they have given to their friends and parents at home. They gave their lives for the safety of the world.

THE HOG HANGS HIGH.

You have heard of the old saying, "the goose hangs high?" We can now speak of the hog hanging high.

Hogs in Chicago are worth $21.35 per hundred. His majesty the hog is no longer a back number, is seated on high prices—the highest ever known in the history of this country.

The South is raising more meat than it has ever done, and it is fortunate that such is the case. For years our people have had their smoke house in Chicago. The time has come for every farmer to have his smoke house on his own farm.

There is no reason why every farmer in North Carolina should not only raise his own meat but raise some to sell at his home market.

Hogs, hay and hominy should be raised at home by the farmers.

THE FARMERS WOKE UP THE SPECULATORS.

When the farmers began their agitation for the reduction of the cotton acreage this year, October cotton was quoted at 18 cents. Now the October price is close to 25 cents, an increase of seven cents per pound.

This movement of the farmers had to borne by a few—and yet all the farmers will receive the benefit of the agitation and burden of the few.

It is a great pity that farmers are slow to join in any movement that will be for their mutual benefit. If they would reach the point where they would stand together for better conditions along any line, it would be so much easier to secure the needed improved conditions.

SENATOR BORAH NOT PLEASED.

If any one expected that Senator Borah would be pleased with the league of nations he certainly looked for the impossible.

He is not only not pleased but is actually mad about it and threatens that if the Republicans at the conference called by Senator Lodge shall endorse the league he will quit the party.

The testing time is coming for some senators to show just how small they are—some Democrats as well as some Republicans. Their attitude and the stand they take with reference to the league of nations will show what manner of men they are.

THE RAILROADS.

In discussing the railroads and the experience the government has had in this line of business since it took over the railroads the Charlotte Observer closes an editorial with the following paragraph:

Fairfax Harrison was managing the affairs of the Southern Railway a thousand per cent better than these affairs have been administered by the government, because the Southern was absorbed into the vast and intricate operative system of the entire country. There is scarcely another large trunk line whose well-maintained operative system has not suffered from the same cause. The government might make a success of railroad ownership if it could devote its concentrated attention to the railroads alone. This, individual railroad executives do, and therein is located the failure of government ownership in parallel to success of private ownership. The railroads cannot be profitably operated as an annex to the government. Perhaps that might be with the government as an annex to the railroads. As it has happened to us, private ownership and operation with government protection and under federal regulations, points the way to future successful railroading in this country.

LYNCHING, NORTH AND SOUTH.

In the course of his admirable address before the national conference on lynching, Mr. Hughes laid down some principles of justice and democracy which ought not to be applied to the South alone. Lynching is more than sectional.

There are regions in the black belt where negroes are lynched not so much for crime as for the fact that they are negroes. There are more populous and better favored sections of the North where lynch law is practiced on a larger scale. Whether we kill or only maltreat and terrorize men and women for their opinions, their speech or their desire to earn a living contrary to some organization's wishes, we are lynchers just the same.

Carefully kept records show that since 188 more than 3,000 persons have been put to death by mobs in the United States. If we were to include the victims of riotous violence in other forms the aggregate would be almost unbelievable, for here at the North, as at the South, the lynchings peculiar to the locality are in most cases lightly excused or explained and soon forgotten. Whatever its motives, lawlessness is contagious, and the psychology of the mob is soon communicated to the individual.

Nothing but public opinion can correct this great and growing evil. We have laws enough and policemen enough and courts enough, but without respect for them, and, particularly, without respect for ourselves, we can make little headway toward the maintenance of a government by law.—New York World.

THE WAR IS OVER.

It is a gratifying as well as surprising bit of information given out by Secretary Baker, yesterday, to the effect that the American army of occupation in France and Germany has already been divorced from the regularly organized forces of occupation. This means that the occasion for service by United States troops in Europe is at an end. This development had not been expected until after the signing of the peace treaty, and the fact that Secretary Baker has felt proper to make public statement at this time is additional assurance that the allies have a pretty fair idea of the course the treaty is to take. Not only is the American army now out of the contract, but by August 1 the last man will have been withdrawn from France and will be either at home or one the way there. Truly the people may now begin to realize that "the war is over."—Charlotte Observer.

It is said that our national prohibition will tend to restrict immigration. But is this an argument for or against prohibition?—Nashville Southern Lumberman.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.

SALE OF VALUABLE LAND.

By virtue of authority in the undersigned vested by an order of sale made in the Superior court of Guilford county, in the special proceedings entitled J. B. Minor, administrator of Alpheus Gilmer, against Charles Gilmer et al, they will re-sell at public auction to the highest bidder at the court house door in Greensboro, N. C., on Saturday, May 17, 1919, at 12 o'clock M., a valuable tract of land situated in Pentrest township, near Pleasant Garden, in said county, bounded as follows:

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.

State of North Carolina,
Department of State.

To All to Whom These Presents May Come—Greeting:

Whereas, it appears to my satisfaction, by duly authenticated record of the proceedings for the voluntary dissolution thereof, by the unanimous consent of all the stockholders, deposited in my office, that the I. E. Harlee Company, Inc., a corporation of this state, whose principal office is situated at No. 100 street, in the city of Greensboro, county of Guilford, State of North Carolina (D. E. Harlee being the agent thereof and in charge thereof, upon whom process may be served), has complied with the requirements of Chapter 21, Revisal of 1905, entitled "Corporations," preliminary to the issuing of this certificate of dissolution.

Now, therefore, I, J. Bryan Grimes, secretary of state of the State of North Carolina, do hereby certify that the said corporation did, on the 12th day of April, 1919, file in my office a deed executed and attested consent in writing to the dissolution of said corporation, executed by all the stockholders thereof, which said consent, and the record of the proceedings aforesaid are now on file in my said office as provided by law.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal at Raleigh, this 12th day of April, A. D. 1919.

J. BRYAN GRIMES,
Secretary of State.

Rheumatism Back on the Job With its Old-time Fury

No Let-Up In Its Torture.

Pretty soon you will be reaching for the liniment bottle again, for the millions of little pain demons that cause Rheumatism are on the war-path. Winter weather seems to awaken them to renewed fury.

But your Rheumatism cannot be rubbed away, because liniments and lotions cannot reach the disease. It is in the blood, and only a remedy that goes deep down into the circulation, and routs out the disease, can rid you of this distressing condition. S. S. S. has given you results in treating Rheumatism by using a purely vegetable treatment that will get results. Free advice about your case can be had by writing to Medical Director, 26 South Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

A Friend as Trustee?

Often it is the desire to keep an estate under the supervision of a friend or member of the family, and yet not burden him with its management. If you appoint a friend or relative as co-executor and co-trustee with the Greensboro Loan and Trust Company, your estate will have the desired personal attention and will be relieved of most of the burden of work and responsibility.

Caring for estates and trusts is one of the primary objects of this Trust Company and it has every faculty for managing them safely and advantageously.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

SUMMERFIELD.

Summerfield high school closed school. The music and expression class gave a very enjoyable entertainment Friday evening. Saturday evening the girls' recitation contest was given. The girls recited unusually well. Miss Margaret McCarroll recited "The Heart of Brierley" and won the medal. Miss Stephenson with members of the music department of North Carolina college for women gave us a very fine musical program. Our people are lovers of good music and Miss Stephenson and her class gave us a real treat. We were glad to have President Burdett of Guilford College preach the commencement sermon.

An entertainment was given by the grades Monday evening. Tuesday was commencement day. Five high school boys entered into a contest for declaimers medal which was won by Phil Winchester. Dewey Trotter received special mention.

Prof. N. W. Walker, inspector of state high schools, delivered the commencement address. His address was practical and thoroughly interesting. Mr. Brown, of Chapel Hill, Superintendent Foust and Miss Land were also present. We feel encouraged to go forward with new work and are planning to make improvements. Two new rooms will be added to the school building before school opens next fall. The usual school picnic dinner was served to all. Commencement closed Tuesday evening with a Japanese operetta. Misses Reynolds, Summerfield and the basketball game between the basketball teams of the school and the basketball team of the college. Our school under the leadership of Miss Reynolds, who is a very capable and energetic worker, of which we are all proud, has been interrupted by a fire which was caused by a short circuit in the wiring. The people are interested in the school and that commendation is evident by the large attendance each year.

Among our soldiers returned from France are Dwight Brittain, Robert Leake, George Winfree and Bryan Perdue.

George D. J. H. Wheeler, of Greensboro, addressed us on the Red Cross movement. His address was very helpful.

Mr. Nettie Johnson, of Oak Ridge, and Mrs. J. T. Osborn and Mrs. J. T. Osborn, of Kernersville; George John and Will Rhodes, Mrs. J. J. Rhodes and son, and Mr. Sam Thomas of Greensboro, and Mrs. Hester of Winston, were among our guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Davis and her daughter have been on a trip to the South.

A number of real estate deals have been made here and in the surrounding country this spring and a number of people have moved into the new homes.

Mr. Harris is preparing to build a new dwelling on Main street.

Money is being collected to paint the Methodist church and make other improvements.

We had with us a few evenings ago Prof. Hubbard, of Dayton, Va. He gave us a splendid talk, some good singing, and also gave us a few lessons in music. Mr. Ayers has kindly consented to continue the singing class. The class will meet every Sunday evening before prayer meeting hour.

More of our people should take our county paper which is willing and anxious to be of help to us. All those wishing to subscribe to The Patriot kindly leave their name with $1.50 in box 35, Summerfield.

GUILFORD COLLEGE.

At an election held last Monday to elect three members of the board of trustees of the Guilford graded school to fill vacancies of those whose term of office expire at this time, Ed. N. Hodgkin, N. A. Jones and Jesse A. Henley were elected. The full board of school trustees for the next year is John W. Woody, O. R. Stout, Ed. N. Hodgkin, N. A. Jones and Jesse A. Henley.

Mr. Lee S. Smith, who has been confined to his room with an attack of mumps for some days past, is again able to sit at the postoffice window and deliver mail.

Mrs. Doak has been quite sick for the past two days. Her son Charlie, who is in business at Raleigh, is now with her. Her many friends hope for her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Eleanor Windsor and her mother-in-law, of Windsor College, are visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Fox.

Mr. Marvin Henley, who has been at Wichita, Kansas, for the past two years, is spending a short time with his parents here. He is now on his way to France to join the Friends reconstruction force and is now awaiting orders to sail.

Mr. Henry Davis arrived at home last Tuesday morning. He has been in France for more than a year doing reconstruction work.

Mr. Lee Smith had the misfortune to lose one of his valuable farm horses last week, was sick only a few minutes.

Miss Edith Reynolds, of Jamestown high school, spent a few days of last week at home, and Miss Ruth Reynolds visited with her Saturday and Sunday.

A good delegation from the Bible school at this place attended the county Sunday school convention at Greensboro last Saturday.

The people of this community are all interested in the improvement of the road from the end of West Market street to Guilford College, but we think a large majority would much prefer a good sand-clay road to an asphalt road. It would be less expensive, and for general use would be much better.

GREENSBORO ROUTE 2.

We are having lots of rain now. Mrs. R. E. Johnson and children are spending a while here visiting relatives before going to Asheboro to make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Andrew and children spent last Sunday at their brother's, Mr. J. T. Andrew.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Reeves and children spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Reeves' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paschal, near the Battle Ground.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Levens and Joshua Levens and W. D. Levens spent last Sunday at P. W. Coble's. Miss Fay Andrew and Mr. Plavus Jones spent a while Sunday evening with Misses Clara and Mary Levens.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Riggins spent Thursday at Mr. Charles Welker's. Misses Fay and Susan Andrew and Mr. Gilmer Greeson recently visited at J. W. Levens'.

Mr. Burleson shows a disposition to be just a little mite less burly.—Boston Transcript.

GIBSONVILLE.

It rains a great deal here, though Gibsonville is not complaining about it. It could be a lot wetter than it is. That thought brings another; thought of Fords and automobiles not being able to cross a ford near here, when buggies and wagons did. The buggy man, and the wagoner, must drive aside to let the auto man and the truck man go by; but the thing is reversed, when there is a little high water. There ought to be a bridge where the branch crosses the road between here and Mr. Dolph Story's.

Mr. J. D. F. Cobb was called to Columbus, N. C., this morning to the bedside of his father, Mr. Jacob Cobb, who is very ill at the home of Prof. Cobb, of that place. Mr. Jacob Cobb lives near McLeansville, but has been and is on a visit to his son at Columbus. His many friends hope he will soon be well again.

The memorial services at Friedens Lutheran church were quite a success, with many people in attendance. The sermon was by the pastor. In addition three addresses were made, one in the forenoon by Prof. J. P. Wagner, two in the afternoon by Rev. H. W. Jeffcoat and Mr. Charlie Sockwell. The pastor of Friedens will be away attending the Lutheran Synod next week, and being on the Sunday synodical program cannot be at Friedens on the coming third Sunday.

One or two new dwellings are going up in this place, and Dr. Walker is having his house recovered.

Nearly all the men of Gibsonville, and some of the women, called upon the county commissioners last week in the interest of the proposed cement road from Gibsonville to Greensboro—and no one of the crowd, that we have heard of, got in jail up there either.

Mrs. Y. Von A. Riser went to Salisbury to-day to attend the meeting of a missionary committee.

We are not exactly kicking, but it is hard for one to make a trip south from here by rail; unless one should lie over in Greensboro. It is get up and go before day, and return after midnight. It destroys about two whole nights sleep for the one going, and the one seeing her off, or meeting her on the return. The schedules were made, perhaps, to accommodate the University and Raleigh; but some of us don't go that way often.

Miss Maude Tickle is at home from her school work at Liberty, which school closed before time on account of the flu, it is said.

Miss Leila Pogleman has gone to Winston-Salem. More than one wish her return.

Too many went from here to the county Sunday school convention to give their names.

The Bob White bird later will say: "Wheat's ripe," but some other birds and some children are saying: "Strawberries are ripe." There is nothing better than strawberries and cream and sugar to finish off and settle a Sunday dinner.

May 10.

TWENTY-NINTH COMMENCEMENT OF ELON COLLEGE.

The following is the program for the commencement at Elon College May 18-20:

Sunday, May 18.—10.30 A. M.—Baccalaureate sermon by Rev. Peter Ainslie, D. D., Baltimore, Md.

6 P. M.—Band concert.

8.30 P. M.—Baccalaureate address by President W. A. Harper.

Monday, May 19.—10.30 A. M.—Class day exercises.

3 P. M.—Society representatives.

8.30 P. M.—The oratorio, "The Triumph of the Cross," by the college choral union.

Tuesday, May 20.—10 A. M.—Graduation exercises.

2 P. M.—Memorial address by Col. Albert L. Cox.

8.30 P. M.—Alumni address by Mrs. W. A. Harper, '99.

You are invited to attend.

NORTH CAROLINA BARACA- PHILATHEA CONVENTION.

The North Carolina Baraca-Philathea convention met in Greensboro on Friday evening at the West Market Street Methodist church.

Delegates attended from all parts of the state and the meeting was one of the best in the history of this movement of the young people of all denominations.

The organization represents more than 2,000 Bible classes scattered throughout the state from the mountains to the sea.

The sessions of the convention continued through Saturday and Sunday. On Sunday afternoon there was a patriotic mass meeting by the convention in the Municipal theater building. Lieut. Gov. Max Gardner was the speaker for the afternoon.

Perhaps Italy would be willing to give up Fiume in exchange for Burleson.—New York Evening Post.

McLEANSVILLE SCHOOL CLOSES—SURPRISE MARRIAGE

The closing exercises of the McLeansville school were held May 2 and 3. Friday evening the elementary grades gave a varied and exceedingly interesting program, consisting of a Maypole dance, drills, plays, etc., under the supervision of Mrs. G. L. Whiteley. Miss Vannie Fryar and Miss Frances Lineberry, the efficient teachers of that department. A little girl's recitation contest was also given, the medal being won by Miss Lucy Dick.

Saturday morning at 10.30 there were two contests held, one in recitation and one in declamation for the high school girls and boys. The recitation medal was won by Miss Mae Anderson and the declamation medal by Carl Montgomery.

At 2.30 P. M. Dr. Cook, of the North Carolina College for Women, delivered a very able address.

At 8.30 P. M. the high school students presented a very interesting play, entitled "Professor Pepp." The parts of "Aunt Minerva," enacted by Miss Irene Holt; "Petunia," by Miss Sadie Thomas; "Professor Pepp," by Carl Montgomery, and "Buttonbuster," by James Phipps, were especially well rendered.

Exceeding large crowds were in attendance throughout the entire commencement, it being impossible at any time for all to gain admittance.

Saturday afternoon, C. A. Bowman and Miss Frances Lineberry slipped quietly away and motored to High Point, where at 3 o'clock they were united in marriage by Rev. Mr. Cecil, former pastor of the bride. They were accompanied by Miss Estelle Lineberry, Egbert Lineberry and Guy Monett, of Greensboro, and Miss Lucy Dick, of McLeansville.

Mrs. Bowman has taught in the McLeansville graded school for the past four years and has hosts of friends here, who will wish her much happiness.

Mr. Bowman has recently returned from service overseas.

An Arizona Mayor Kidnapped.

Naco, Ariz., May 9.—American custom officials here received a report this afternoon that Mayor Rocha, of Cananea, was kidnapped by bandits when they raided the mining town last night and that he had been carried away by the bandits to be held for ransom.

Helps Sick Women

Cardui, the woman's tonic, helped Mrs. William Eversole, of Hazel Patch, Ky. Read what she writes: "I had a general breaking-down of my health. I was in bed for weeks, unable to get up. I had such a weakness and dizziness, . . . and the pains were very severe. A friend told me I had tried everything else, why not Cardui? . . . I did, and soon saw it was helping me . . . After 12 bottles, I am strong and well."

TAKE

The Woman's Tonic

Do you feel weak, dizzy, worn-out? Is your lack of good health caused from any of the complaints so common to women? Then why not give Cardui a trial? It should surely do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women who suffered—it should help you back to health. Ask some lady friend who has taken Cardui. She will tell you how it helped her. Try Cardui.

REMARKABLE SPEECH ON A REMARKABLE OCCASION

GERMANS RECEIVE THEIR DESTINY WHEN CLEMENCEAU DELIVERS DOCUMENT.

Premier Clemenceau said: "Gentlemen, plenipotentiaries of the German empire: It is neither the time nor the place for superfluous words. You are before you the accredited plenipotentiaries of all the small and great powers united to fight together in the war that has been so cruelly imposed upon them. The time has come when we must settle our account."

"You have asked for peace. We are ready to give you peace. We will present to you now a book which contains our conditions. You will be given every facility to examine these conditions, and the time necessary for it. Everything will be done with the courtesy that is the privilege of civilized nations."

"To give you my thought completely, you will find us ready to give you any explanation you want, but we must say at the same time that this second treaty of Versailles has cost us too much not to take on our side all the necessary precautions and guarantees that the peace shall be a lasting one."

No Oral Debate.

"I will give you notice of the procedure that has been adopted by the conference for discussion, and if any one has any observations to offer he will have the right to do so. No oral discussion is to take place and the observations of the German delegation will have to be submitted in writing."

"The German plenipotentiaries will know that they have the maximum period of fifteen days within which to present in English and French their written observations on the whole of the treaty. Before the expiration of the aforesaid period of fifteen days the German delegates will be entitled to send their reply on particular headings of the treaty under discussion in regard to them."

To Answer Promptly.

"After having examined the observations presented within the aforesaid period, the supreme council will send their answer in writing to the German delegation and determine the period within which the final global (world-wide) answer must be given by this delegation."

"The president wishes to add that when he receives, after two or three, or more, or five days, any observations from the German delegation on the part of the treaty, we shall not wait until the end of the fifteen days to give our answer. We shall at once begin the way indicated by the president."

Paul Pichon, secretary general of the conference, delivered the preamble of the treaty to Count von Bernstorff, German plenipotentiary. He made a statement in which he declared: "We know that we do not deny the extent of our defeat. We know the facts of the German armies is broken."

Mrs. Wilson Present.

The ceremonial of handing the treaty to the Germans took place in the hall of the Trianon Palace hotel, a spacious, well-lighted chamber with tables for the delegates arranged neatly in the form of a square. Premier Clemenceau sat at the center of the head table, with President Wilson and other American representatives on his right and David Lloyd George, the British premier, and his colleagues on the left. Mrs.

Wilson was an interested spectator of the function.

Elaborate preparations had been made for the historic occasion of handing the peace terms to the Germans in the Trianon hotel.

Outside there was a small army of Gendarmes who formed a barrier against the approach of such persons as were not entitled to enter the room where the momentous scene was to be enacted.

Inside everything was in readiness for the meeting between the allies and associated delegates with the German plenipotentiaries, although the early morning hours had witnessed a rearrangement of the great hall, for orders had been received to prepare seats for eighty delegates, instead of for fifty-eight who were expected to comprise the maximum delegation.

THE REPUBLICAN SENATORS BEGIN TALKING TREATY.

Washington, May 8.—As they completed their study of the official summary of the treaty of Versailles to-day, senators began to give expression to their views on the momentous document which is now in the hands of the German plenipotentiaries. A few senators, however, still withheld comment, preferring to examine the complete text before reaching a definite conclusion. These included: Senators Lodge, of Massachusetts; Smoot, of Utah, and other Republican leaders.

Sharp opposition to the proposal that the United States in consort with Great Britain commit itself to go to France's aid in the event that country were attacked was voiced by Senator Borah, of Idaho, and Curtis, of Kansas, while Senator Sherman, of Illinois, and Moses, of New Hampshire, criticized the league of nations covenant in the treaty.

Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, retiring chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, approved the treaty as a whole and said that in his judgment the "crowning glory of this great document is the fact that there is embedded in it the great constitution of the league of nations." The senator declared the treaty was a "monumental work" and measured up "to the highest moral standards of the world" with justice as the basis of re-organization.

General approval of the military and naval terms imposed on Germany was given not only by both Republican and Democratic senators, but by officials and diplomats generally. They concurred in the view of army and navy officers that with the carrying out of the terms Germany would be stripped of every vestige of power necessary for it to disturb again the peace of the world.

Senator Borah made no comment on the treaty itself, confining his statement solely to the proposal for a triple alliance between the three leading associated powers. He declared that whether the United States should take part in any future European war was "a matter which should be determined upon the facts when and as they arise and by the particular generation which must bear the brunt of the war and by the intelligence and the conscience and judgment of the American people as they see the situation when face to face with it."

Senator Sherman said the "manner in which the treaty has been presented is a resort to gag rule." He declared it was "a confession of weakness that the league of nations has to be dragged through as an annex to the treaty of peace," and said he would vote to separate the league covenant from the treaty and take a separate vote on each.

Senator Moses did not regard the separation of the league covenant from the treaty as impossible and said he preferred the triple alliance between the United States, Great Britain and France to the league plan as drawn.

HOLLAND IS ALARMED BY NEW RHINE RULE.

Washington, May 9.—Fear that the provisions of the peace treaty affecting the River Rhine may seriously contravene the rights of Holland is likely to result in a strong protest, by the Netherlands government in the immediate future.

The treaty would place the Rhine under a central commission composed of four representatives of France, four of Germany, and two each of England, Italy, Belgium, Holland and Switzerland. It would give France all rights to take water from the Rhine in Alsace-Lorraine to feed French canals, while denying to Germany the right to remove water for canals on the opposite side of the river.

It is alleged that the execution of this provision would result in the virtual destruction of Rotterdam, Holland's most important port, by diverting from that port the water which maintains it. Losing this water, it is contended, it would be impossible to accommodate large ocean liners in the harbor of Rotterdam.

Ninety per cent of Rotterdam's commerce is said to be Rhine commerce.

FOR SALE.

As executor of the estate of W. B. Allen, deceased, the undersigned will offer for sale at auction on the premises, situated on Buchanan street, in the city of Greensboro, Guilford county, N. C., on Wednesday, July 23, 1919, at 12 o'clock noon the following described real estate: Beginning at a point on the north side of Buchanan street, and the east side of South Greene street, being the intersection of said two streets, thence east along said Buchanan street 73 feet to a stake; thence north along the west side of lot No. 5, plat of Buchanan and McDonald real estate, 138 feet to a stake in the line of the premises of the estate of the late Hugh Peters; thence along said line west 73 feet to a stake; thence south along the line of the said South Greene street 138 feet to the beginning, being the lot of land conveyed December 20, 1882, by Silas C. The commissioners met Thursday and following the reading of the minutes, Commissioner of Public Safety Donovan was elected as city treasurer, and Commissioner of Public Works Boyles was elected as mayor pro tem. W. L. Murray was elected as city clerk, immediately filing his resignation to take effect not later than June 1. This action was taken that no legal points might arise in the office of the city clerk. Charles A. Hines was elected to serve another term as city attorney.

Dies of Paralysis.

Mrs. C. C. Causey died yesterday morning, at her home in the Tabernacle community, following a stroke of paralysis sustained late Saturday afternoon as she was walking in the yard. Prior to the attack, Mrs. Causey was in her usual health. The deceased was 76 years of age. Surviving are her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Donna Coble, of the Tabernacle community, and Mrs. Minnie Ivery, of Newberry, S. C., and five sons, Henry Causey, of the home place; Jesse Causey, of this city; Don Causey, of Durham; Irvin Causey, of Richmond, Va.; and Vernon Causey, U. S. A. Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed, pending the arrival of the children.

DEATH OF AN ESTIMABLE WOMAN CAUSED SORROW.

Mrs. John E. McKnight, one of the gentlest and most estimable women of the county, died early Saturday morning at the family home, three miles north of the city, on the Church street extension road.

The deceased was a member of one of Guilford's oldest families. She was a daughter of Albert Rankin and Mary McMurray, names that are respected throughout the county. In early womanhood she was married to John E. McKnight and this union was blessed with nine children, all of whom survive, together with the bereaved husband. The children are: Charles H. McKnight, W. A. McKnight, T. A. McKnight, Roy G. McKnight, all of this city, and John S. McKnight, of Shelby; Mrs. W. G. Wharton, Mrs. James Wilson, Mrs. Joe S. Phipps and Mrs. Holly McNairy, all of the city and county.

A native of the county and of the sturdy original Guilford stock of Presbyterians, Mrs. McKnight numbered her friends by the hundred. Her noble, Christian character and her fine sense of motherhood served to endear her to all who had enjoyed the pleasure of her acquaintance. And to these there was a sense of deep personal loss in her death. From early childhood Mrs. McKnight was a member of Buffalo Presbyterian church, a consecrated Christian as well as a cultured, gentle woman.

The love and esteem in which she was held by those favored with her friendship and acquaintance was attested by the beautiful floral tributes and many kind tributes paid to the noble life of this gentle woman during all of yesterday. There was genuine sorrow in her death, in the bereavement of Mr. McKnight and the large family connection.

The funeral services were held at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Buffalo Presbyterian church, a large concourse of friends joining for the last sad rites. The service was conducted by Rev. E. Frank Lee, pastor of the church, of which the deceased had been a member since girlhood. The burial was in the church graveyard. The pall-bearers were S. L. Gilmer, A. F. Brooks, Neil Ellington, Charles A. McNeely, Zeb Martin and L. W. McFarland.

Transporting Cotton in Plane.

Washington, May 8.—Lieutenant E. E. Harmon, who arrived here late yesterday from Macon, Ga., after a non-stop flight in a bombing plane with three passengers, and a bale of cotton as freight, expects to continue his journey to Lowell, Mass., tomorrow if weather conditions are favorable. The plane made the flight from Boston in six hours and 15 minutes.

GREENSBORO GOES "OVER THE TOP."

Greensboro went "over the top" in the victory liberty loan drive, with something like $81,000 more than her allotment subscribed. It is expected that belated subscriptions will run this excess of quota to more than $100,000.

The quota assigned to Greensboro was $1,001,550 and the amount subscribed is $1,082,800. Gibsonville, it is understood, went far above, and it is believed that the remainder of the county will make equally as good a showing.

The local committee Friday night expressed complete satisfaction with the response shown by the citizens of the city. It was announced on the beginning that no solicitation would be made during the campaign, as had been the case in former campaigns, the matter being presented by a vigorous campaign of publicity and leaving it to the individual to act as his judgment and conscience dictated in the matter. That the citizens of Greensboro rallied so splendidly to the final call of the government to stand by the colors which had been carried to victory and to continue to back up the men who broke the Hindenburg line is most gratifying to all connected with the campaign.
