STUDENTS ACCEPT COMMUNITY BUDGET FOR ENSUING YEAR

Y. W. C. A. Excluded From Budget
Since Membership in That Organization is Voluntary

At mass meeting last Friday night the student body adopted a community budget for the coming year. Resolutions were adopted by which the following plan for financing the various organizations was set forth:

All organizations affected must make out an estimated budget by May 1st for the succeeding year. A committee composed of all the treasurers of organizations, the chairman of which shall be a treasurer of student organizations elected by the student body, shall add these separate sums and determine how much each student shall be asked to pay. This amount has to be approved by the student body and each student is asked to pay it in September. The entire fee must be paid if the student wishes to belong to any organization, but if she does not desire to contribute to a certain organization, she may denote the way in which she wants her money to be used.

Those organizations included in the original budget were Y. W. C. A., Athletic Association, Student Government Association, the three societies, The Coraddi, and the Newspapers. But it was decided to exclude the Y. W. C. A. since it was felt that membership in this should be purely voluntary and not put on a money basis. The Annual was, after much discussion, included in the budget.

The students feel that this plan of financing will greatly reduce the worry and confusion in money matters which has been so noticeable under the present system; and also feel that a progressive step has been made. After sufficient trial and working over this plan, it is hoped that it will be entirely successful.

A. A. CABINET PICKS GIRLS FOR VARSITY BALL TEAMS

The members of the Varsity teams were chosen Wednesday. Those for basket ball are: L. Woody centre; Inez Bell, side centre; Mildred Hutoff and Mary Collins Powell, forwards; May Citizen and Levinia Powell, guards. Those for base ball are Ferbia Stough, pitcher; Alta Herring, catcher; Elizabeth Thigpen, first base; Lucy Hunter, second base; Sarah Harrison, third base; Evelyn Burt, right short-stop; Daisy Hunter, left short-stop; Pauline Lucas, left field; Levinia Powell, centre field; Ethel Royal, right field.

GOFORTH CHOSEN AS NEW EDITOR-IN-CHIEF OF COLLEGE MAGAZINE

With Able Staff of Editors, Coraddi is Expected to Achieve Success

The staff of the Coraddi for next year is complete. This year for the first time the student body is electing the Editor-in-chief. Heretofore she has been elected from one of the literary societies. At the last mass meeting Emiline Goforth was unanimously elected for the office of Editor-in-chief of the magazine. At meetings some time ago the Literary societies elected the assistant Editors and business managers. The Adelpian Society has as assistant editors Mary Weaver and Pauline Lucas. The Cornelian Society has as their assistant editors Jessie Baxley and Nell Craig and the Dikean Society has as theirs Mabel Stamper and Ruth Wilson. The business manager was elected from the Adelpian Society, Maie Saunders, the assistant business manager is Minnie Daughtery from the Cornelian Society. With these girls to direct the work the Coraddi promises to take a step forward and to be better next year than ever before.

DRAMA CLASS PRESENTS THREE PLAYS IN PARK

Thursday afternoon at five-thirty, Mr. Thornton and the class of Modern Drama and several other girls went to the park for supper.

The class presented three plays in the open air theatre. "Spreading the News", by Lady Gregory was an Irish play in which Blanche Platt, Jessie McNeil, Dixie Reid and Katherine Gaston had the leading parts. The other parts were well played by Mary Blackwell, Elva Rosser, Hazel Mizelle, Lila Bell, Aliene Saunders and Elizabeth Uzzele. After this play there were two shorter ones presented, "Lima Beans", by Kreymsborg—a Province Town play, first given by the Province Town Players. In this Carolyn Clark acted as the husband, Emily Cox, the wife and Aline Saunders played as "Huckster".

"The Maker of Dreams", by Oliphart Down proved quite successful. Branson Price acted "Pierrot" while Betty Jones played "Pierrette". Anne Cantrell was the Manufacturer of Dreams. This was a phantasy and quite enjoyable. At the request of Miss Bollinger "The Maker of Dreams" will be given again as a part of the Alumnae day program.

MUSIC SENIORS GIVE GRADUATING RECITALS AT N. C. C. THIS WEEK

Marion Daniels, Rebecca Marsh and Gladys Newman Presented by Mr. Brown.

The fifth piano recital was given Friday afternoon, May 20, 1921 by Marion Bruce Daniel. Her program was:

Sonata, Op. 2, No. 3—Beethoven,
Adagio Allegro con brio.

Scherzo in B flat minor—Chopin.
Barcarolle in A minor—Rubinstein.

The Erklung—Schubert-Liszt.
Concerto in G minor (Last Movement)—Moscheles.

Orchestral Parts on Second Piano
by Wade R. Brown.

Miss Daniel's rendition of her sonata, which is one of the best known and well-loved of Beethoven's sonatas, was very striking. She played her slow movement particularly well and employed a very pleasing interpretation. Her group of solos was very brilliant and rather taxing on the strength of a young player at one sitting. In her Rubinstein Barcarolle her tone color was beautiful, and her interpretation picturesque, while she played her Erklung with a dash and sparkle which displayed her technique and command of the keyboard to the best advantage. The brilliant last movement of Moscheles concerto in G minor, with orchestral

PARK NIGHT PROGRAM WILL BE PERMANENT CEREMONY

Plans for Park Night are progressing rapidly, not the Park Night which was born last year but another Park Night which has grown up from that, and which in a short time will become a college tradition.

A permanent ceremony is being arranged which promises to be a very beautiful one. The songs and speeches of service and her attendants are being written in poetic form, and will be handed down from year to year.

QUILL CLUB REVELS IN INITIATION OF FIVE NEW MEMBERS

Pauline Lucas, Hazel Mizelle, Virginia Wood, Betty Jones, Mary John read initiation thesis; Members Enjoy Delightful Refreshments

Last week five girls received the following invitation:
"The Geese who wield the goose quill

Invite you to ascend
To heights of light and glory
Reached only by the pen.
On Tuesday night they invite you
To come and be instilled
With spirit and light
That comes from the night
Of the brilliant gleam of the quill.
Come dressed as some character in some book and be prepared to deliver an oration."

It was with a slight feeling of nervousness that each girl came to the Cornelian Committee room on the appointed night for they knew not what was in store for them, but there they were greeted by many characters of fiction and began to feel more at ease.

Pauline Lucas delighted the members of the club with her very original initiation essay on "Which is

BANKERS OF STATE ENJOY LUNCHEON IN DINING ROOM

The bankers attending the convention in Greensboro were entertained at a one o'clock luncheon in the dining room of the North Carolina College. There were present, prominent bankers from all sections of the state, representing practically every county. The members of the faculty and the marshals presided over the tables. The students of the Home Economics Department served the luncheon. During the meal, the guests were entertained by musical selections played by the college orchestra. There was also, special music in the form of quartets and duets. The usual business meeting and speeches were omitted from the program, all of the time being given to lighter and less serious matters.

The dinner was beautifully served, and the guests enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

The student body was served a buffet luncheon at the Hut at 12:15, on account of the preparations which were being made at that time for the bankers. The students enjoyed their lunch as well as the guests, for "variety is the spice of life," and it is not often that they are served outside the dining room.

"Illusion is the first of all pleasures." Beware of exams!

"Friendship is love without its flowers or veil."

"Flatterers are the worst kind of enemies."

Exams could be worse if they were as long as they were deep.

Dear Adelpian Alumnae:

We just want to tell you how much we are looking forward to the meeting Monday morning with you. We'll miss you every single one, that doesn't come. There's a great big welcome for all our grown-up Adelpians.

"The Folks back home"

STAND TOGETHER!

Last Friday night at mass meeting 180 girls voted to keep the Y. W. C. A. in the community budget. 223 had a difference of opinion and voted to take it out. So with a plurality of less than fifty the motion was carried. The Y. W. C. A. will not be in the budget.

This creates a problem for the "Y" both for those who voted "yes" and those who voted "no". Those who favored the Y. W. C. A. remaining naturally felt that it will not be successful out and so it won't if they continue to think so. If because the voting went contrary to their wishes, 180 girls remain out of the Y. W. C. A. organization the "Y" will be vitally harmed and those girls even more so.

But we scarcely think there is any doubt of such a thing happening. We have always prided ourselves on our liberality and open mindedness and could hardly be so "little" as to harbor resentment because we are defeated. We must be good losers. Majority rule is what runs everything, we believe in it and so long as we do we must stand by the decision of the majority. It is the duty of the minority to not only acquire, but to actually support the majority's decision.

Altho the Y. W. has withdrawn from the community budget—or rather altho we have withdrawn the Y. W. from the budget—the Y. W. has a budget, a $2, 170 budget, and to carry this thru it needs the support of both "no's" and "yes's". The Y. W. is an organization for every body and it cannot be the greatest kind of a success unless supported by every body.

Some of us may feel that we have made a mistake but let us not make a still greater one. Perhaps the majority is right—it is often tho not always—and those who opposed must now support as greatly as they supported. It's up to us to do the right thing. The "Y" means that 180 as well as that 223 and we all need the "Y".

OUR OPPORTUNITY

We are now having a "Woman Citizen" drive on our campus. Miss Elliott thru her personal interest in us obtained the reduced rates of 50 cents for the summer months' subscription for college students. Because she thinks this magazine really worth while to young college women she made this effort for us. We thank her and we hope she will feel repaid.

The "Woman Citizen" is the only magazine in America that is edited and written for entirely by women. The most brilliant and influential American women have charge of this magazine and write for it. It is the magazine of women for women. There are so few ways that we can find out exactly what our women are doing and the "Women Citizen" is the best method.

Every single young woman on our campus needs this magazine and will find her self doubly repaid for the 50 cents she puts into it. During the summer we are wont to become intellectually lazy and if we have this really worth while magazine that we read we have gone a far way toward preventing this. It is necessary that college women be wide awake in the things that the great American women are doing. If they do not they cannot hope to fill the place that is awaiting them. The "Woman Citizen" is the best way to keep abreast.

Let us all and every one enter our names on the subscription list. Besides the value the magazine itself will certainly bring, let us show America that we, as college women are interested in what our great women are doing and thinking. This is an opportunity. Let us take advantage of it.

FRESHMEN INVITE JUNIORS TO VERY CLEVER MINSTREL

The freshmen entertained the Juniors, Saturday afternoon, in curry chapel, with a minstrel. Each "little sister" came strolling in with an expectant "Junior sister" on her arm. A few minutes brought a troop of black faces to the stage, which was decorated in the colors of the Juniors—green and white—combined with the colors of the Freshmen—lavendar and white.

The program was well prepared and delightfully rendered. The special features were interspersed by popular songs by the entire company and jokes by various individuals.

But the climax was not reached until the company rose to sing "Sweet Kisses". Every one had wondered just why the Freshmen chose baskets for decorations on the stage, even if they were attractively covered. But when, on the second round of the song, showers of paper wrapped "very real" kisses descended on their heads, they ceased to wonder and quickly started to grab.

Those taking part in the minstrel were: Edith Rountree, Ollie Mae Gold, Blanch Henley, Sarah V. Heileg, Kathleen Windley, Minnie Daughtery, Helen Anderson, Mary Collins Powell, Mary B. Jones, Frances Jones, Randolph Hill, Catherine Hollister, and Alice Harrold.

Clara Armstrong was here for the week-end visiting her sister Miss Mary Armstrong.

Lucy Wells is visiting Ruth Allison this week.

CERCLE FRANCOIS ENJOYS VERY DELIGHTFUL PROGRAM

Le Cercle Francois held a regular meeting Friday evening in the Adelpian Society Hall. Officers were elected for next year. The new officers are:

Frances Jones, president; Jinsie Underwood, vice-president; Olive Webb, secretary and treasurer.

A very interesting and entertaining program was then given. Miss Beach sang two French songs, after which Dr. Barney's class presented two short plays. The first one, "Le Medecin Mystifie", was successfully given by the following cast:

Mary Byrd Blackwell—Le Medecin
Eunice Mc Adams—La Femme Ricke
Vera Ward—La Femme Pauvre

The second one, a medaeval farce entitled "L'Advocab Patelin", proved to be very amusing. The characters were:

Patelin, L'Advocab—Jinsie Underwood.

Angelit, Le Berger—Annie Lamb
Guillaume, L'employee du Berger—
Connie Heafner

Bartholin, Le Judge—Viva Bordeaux
The program ended with a number of clever charades given by the second year students of Miss Koehler, Miss Henderson and Mr. Hankey.

ADELPHIAN FRESHMEN STAGE MOODY'S "THE GREAT DIVIDE"

The Adelpian new girl play, "The Great Divide", by Moody, staged before the society in the college auditorium, Saturday evening, was a success in every way. The play, a typical romance of the west, was well interpreted by the players. Both Nell Folger as the hero, Steve, and Sue Byrd Thompson as the heroine, Ruth, did splendid acting together. Loula Woody as the devoted brother of Ruth acted her part well. Those others taking part were: Inez Bell, Margaret John, Elizabeth Brooks, Elizabeth Crawford, Mabel Korne-gay, Josephine Robertson, Ollie May Gold, Grace Grantham, and Maie Saunders.

TRAINING SCHOOL GIVES FOLK SONGS AND DANCES

On Tuesday afternoon, the seventh grade boys and girls of the Training School gave some very interesting as well as instructive demonstration of English Folk Songs and Dances.

Each year the grades learn Folk Songs and Dances but this year the seventh grade concentrated on songs and ballads of the English speaking people. These songs are still sung in the mountains of Tennessee, Virginia and North Carolina as well as in the British Isles.

Misses Coleman and Bivins deserve much credit for their work in presenting the delightful program given below:

1. Two Sailor Chantings.
2. Sailors' Horn Pipe—Dance.
3. Old English Ballads.
Old English Morris Dance.
4. Folk Songs telling of every day life.
Old English Country Dance.
Pop Goes the Weasel—Dance.
5. Three Nursery Rhymes.
6. May Pole Dance.
7. Crowning of May Queen.

Next Thursday, June 2, the seventh grade pupils of the Training School will receive their diplomas.

more unfortunate—a chicken with a toothache or a fish with corns" in which she arrived at the conclusion that the latter was the most unfortunate.

In a most interesting and clever manner Hazel Mizelle brought the club to a recognition of the Literary Merits of the Classic Poem. "The Purple Cow." Virginia Wood gave a brief, but highly entertaining account of her life and Betty Jones told the members of the "Ignominy of Being Grown Up." Mary John brought the initiation program to a close with her unique discussion in verse of "The Possibilities of Being Happy Though Miserable." All of these girls showed their worthiness of becoming members of the Quill Club by the entertaining manner in which they presented their subjects.

After the new members had displayed their ability the club gathered around a banquet table where they served with fruit salad, several varieties of sandwiches, and iced punch. Members of the club were called upon for impromptu toasts.

At the close of the meeting, Mr. Thornton gave a short talk in which he stated the purpose of the club and outlined the plans for next year.

DR. FOUST HONORS SENIORS WITH AN ENJOYABLE PICNIC

The members of the Senior class were entertained by Dr. Foust at a picnic, Monday evening. The party drove out to Hamburg, in trucks filled with hay, where the picnic supper was served. The menu consisted of sandwiches, deviled eggs, potato chips, apples, pickles, lemonade and ice cream. After spending several hours at the picnic grounds singing around the camp fire, the party returned to the college.

Dr. Foust was assisted in the entertainment by Misses King, Coit, Lawrence, Bollinger, Brooks and Mary Faust.

FRESHMEN BREAK RECORD IN PHYSICAL EXAMINATIONS

The Physical Education Department reports the following interesting results from the Freshmen second term physical examinations.

Average weight on entrance to college, 109.2 lbs.; average weight in May, 1921, 118.7 lbs., showing an average gain of 9.5 lbs.

Average lung capacity on entrance, 158 cu. in.; May 1921, 178 cu. in.

Average chest expansion on entrance, 1.9 in.; May 1921, 2.36 in.

69 per cent. of the Freshmen showed improved posture. The comparative posture gradings are as follows:

Sept. 1920	May 1921
A, 5 per cent.	A, 20 per cent.
B, 31 per cent.	B, 51 per cent.
C, 52 per cent.	C, 26 per cent.
D, 12 per cent.	D, 3 per cent.

In September, 1920, only 7 per cent. of the Freshmen came to the examination wearing good shoes; in May 1921, 51 per cent. were wearing sensible shoes, 12 per cent. wore poor shoes, and the remaining 37 per cent wore bedroom slippers or tennis shoes to their examination appointment. The instructors fear that the 37 per cent. could not have qualified for hygienic footwear.

Esther Kersey gave the highest chest expansion, 5.4 in., with Susie Roberts second, 4.8 in. Mary Powell, Pearl Williams and Ollie May Gold led in strength of grip, with 40 and 42 kgs.; Elizabeth Naylor, 230 cu. in., and Loula Woody are the champions in lung capacity.

PLANS ARE FORMULATED FOR NEXT YEAR'S WORK IN A. A.

The Athletic Association is planning great things for next year in the line of sports. There will be only one sport in sway at the time. The tennis tournament will be held in the fall and the basket ball tournament earlier in the spring than this year.

The point system will go in effect next year, that is, girls scoring the highest for making teams, since their entrance in college, will get some reward for last year. It is not definitely known yet what these rewards will be.

A. A. NOTICE

The Athletic Association is cataloguing the honors won by each girl who has "made" a team since entering the college, in order to find out how they rank in the point system for rewards next year. Each girl is requested to send a list of the teams she has made to class manager or president of A. A.

SENIORS ATTEND MEETING OF "LITTLE SISTER" CLASS

Saturday, the Sophomores had a regular class meeting which the Seniors were invited to attend. The Cornelian Society hall had been beautifully decorated for the occasion. Bowls of red roses added to the attractiveness of the hall. The banners of the five classes were prominent. Omah Williams, the president of the Sophomores, presided. After the singing of the class song, the Sophomores sang to their big sisters and to the "Red, White and Blue". The Seniors responded with a song to their "Dear Old Pals".

Short talks were made by Flossie Foster, Senior president, and Omah Williams, Sophomore president.

parts on the second piano by Mr. Brown brought the program to a close.

Miss Daniel employs a very splendid technique and her command of dynamics is considerable. Her whole program was rather brilliant and gave evidence of careful scholarship thruout.

The sixth senior recital was given by Rebecca Marsh, pianist on May 21, 1921. Her program was:

Sonata, Op. 27, No. 2—Beethoven, Adagio Sostenuto Allegretto Presto Agitato.

Impromptu in A flat—Chopin. Mazurka, Op. 33, No. 4—Chopin. La Nuit, Op. 31, No. 3—Glazounow. Etude de Concert, Op. 36—Mason-Dowell.

*Concerto in D minor (First Movement)—Mendelssohn.

*Orchestral Parts on Second Piano by Wade R. Brown.

She played Beethoven's famous and much-loved moonlight sonata with a delicacy of interpretation and sympathetic understanding which so delighted her audience very much. Her group of varied and well chosen solos gave Miss Marsh an opportunity to show her ability to execute and interpret many kinds of music. In her "La Nuit" by Glazounow, her colors were so beautifully blended that it was easy for her listeners to be enthralled by the beauty of a peaceful night, while in her McDowell Etude, she played with a sweeping Lash, which thrilled her hearers. She has a joyous manner of delivery, the kind that gives one the impression at times that she is trying to make the piano emulate an orchestra. The dashing first movement of Mendelssohn's concerto in D minor closed the interesting program.

Miss Marsh has very good technique and plays with evident joy in her music. Her program was well-chosen, well rendered and very delightful.

The 7th senior recital was given by Irma Gladys Newman, pianist, on Tuesday, May 24th, 1921. Her program was:

Sonata, Opus 26—Beethoven, I. Andante con variazioni.

II. Scherzo—Allegro molto.

III. Marcia funebre sulla morte d'un Eroe Andante Maestoso.

IV. Rondo—Allegro.

Impromptu, Op. 142, No. 3—Schubert.

Barcarolle, G minor, Op. 50—Rubinstein.

Berceuse, Op. 38, No. 1—Grieg.

Humoresque, Op. 6—Grieg.

*Finale from Concerto, G minor, Op. 25—Mendelssohn, Presto—molto allegro e vivace.

*Orchestral Parts on Second Piano by Wade R. Brown.

Her sonata, containing Beethoven's celebrated funeral march, was played with an intensity of truth and expression, which delighted her audience. Her group of interesting solos showed both sympathy and understanding. Her Grieg numbers, Berceuse Op. 38, No. 1 and Humoresque Op. 6, were particularly delightful and rather original in their coloring. The finale of Mendelssohn's concerto in G minor, which is very brilliant and sparkling, brought the recital to a close. Miss Newman employs a rather brilliant technique, which helped in bringing out some very striking effects in work. Her memory is particularly good.

ALUMNAE NEWS

Jessie Rankin writes that she will be here for the commencement.

Mr and Mrs. W. T. Shore have announced the arrival of a son. Mrs. Shore was before her marriage Willie Mae Stratford 1914.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McCulley have announced the arrival of Marvin McCulley, Jr. Mrs McCulley was Mary Eller.

Rouss Hayes will arrive Sunday night of commencement week.

Alliene Hicks 1920, who has been teaching at Middleburg hopes to be here for commencement.

STATE SENATORS FAVOR PHYSICAL EDUCATION BILL

The student Government Association held the last regular meeting of the year last Friday night. Several things of importance were discussed. The Point System underwent some small changes. The committee on the Fess-Capper Bill made a favorable report, stating that the Senators and Representatives from North Carolina are in favor of the bill. The students voted to pay half of the college cheer leader's expenses at Blue Ridge.

Mildred Scott was here Wednesday and Thursday visiting Ida Caldwell.

RENOWNED PHYSICS TRIO IS EXTENSIVELY ENTERTAINED

The renowned Physics Trio have been enjoying all sorts of gaieties lately, thanks to their equally renowned instructor, Prof. William Wright. The party that he and his wife gave to the Trio Wednesday evening at their home on Highland Avenue is the fourth entertainment that has been in their honor in the last week.

On Monday afternoon, Prof. and Mrs. Wright, Miss Blanche McConnell of Texas and Miss Mary Foust motored to the Guilford Battle Ground, where they had a picnic. Tuesday night they made a trip down to Dr. Longs Hospital and became initiated into the wonders of the X-ray. Dr. Ogburn showed them the X-ray machine at work and gave each the pleasure or at least the novelty of being X-rayed. He also demonstrated the flouroscope and let them look at the Long Hospital supply of radium. He even allowed each to hold the valuable metal in her hand. This was a novel experience, for the young ladies, that of holding 3,000 dollars condensed into a size of less than the length of an ordinary straight pen. They likewise inspected the operating room and laboratory.

After the tour of inspection they went into the hospital drawing room and were served ice-cream and cake. Miss McConnell, the Wright's guest from Texas accompanied the crowd on this occasion. For the benefit of those who do not know, the famous Physics Trio is composed of Aline Saunders, Alena Rhyne and Sallie Tucker.

STUDENTS ELECT MANAGERS FOR N. C. COLLEGE GLEE CLUB

At mass meeting Friday night the manager and assistant manager of the Glee Club for the year 1921-'22 were elected. Margaret Bedell, who during the past year accomplished so much for the Glee Club, was elected manager. From several nominees Mae McArn was elected as head of the vocal department. Sarah Harrison was unanimously elected manager of the instrumental department.

WADE C. SMITH MAKES APPEALING TALK AT CHAPEL

Mr. Wade C. Smith of the Church by the side of the Road made an appealing talk at the Vesper Service, Sunday night. The subject of his talk was the knocking of Christ at the doors of men's hearts and he spoke of how much Christ wanted to enter, how often endurance was denied to Him, and of the opening of the door. The subject which is an interesting one, was made still more so by Mr. Smith's treatment of it.

Elizabeth Collins, accompanied at the piano by Marie Davenport, gave a musical rendition of the Twenty-Third Psalm.
